

ENTENTE ALLIES STILL PRESS ENEMY BACK ON CERNA RIVER IN MACEDONIAN WAR THEATRE

Bulgar-German Line Is Seriously Broken South-East Of Monastir—Berlin Admits Retirement To New Lines—British Capture Town—Teutons Are Still Retreating In Dobrudja—Italian And Austrian Reports Clash

In the Ancre region of France where since Monday the British have made notable gains over the Germans, the fighting apparently has lessened greatly in violence, the latest British communication reporting only bombardments by the Germans of their newly won front to the north of the stream. An additional six officers and 297 men have been made prisoner by the British in this region during the past twenty-four hours.

To the south-east of Saillisel, where the Germans had occupied a group of houses north-east of the village, the French have now driven them out in a counter-attack, according to the French official communication. On the remainder of the front in France, especially in the regions of Ablaincourt and between Le Sars and Gueudecourt there were violent bombardments of British and French positions by the Germans, while the French hammered the German front in the Souchez and Armentieres sectors with their guns.

In the Macedonian theatre the Entente troops continue to press the Teutonic allies in the Cerna river region, and according to the Serbian war communication have seriously broken their line both east and west of the Cerna south-east of Monastir, capturing four additional villages east of the river and on the western side driving them back from several additional points toward Monastir. Berlin admits that in the Cerna region the Bulgar-German forces have left old and occupied newly prepared positions. To the east the British have taken the town of Karakaska, on the east side of Lake Tahinos.

The Austro-German armies in the Transylvania theatre in the Alt and Jiul valleys have forced a further retirement of the Rumanians and also have made progress in the Rothenthurm and Szurdok Pass regions, taking 1,200 men prisoner. On the west Moldavia front Russian attacks east of the Putna valley were put down by the Teutonic allies, as also was an offensive in the vicinity of the Oituse Pass.

While Berlin asserts that there have been only minor engagements in Dobrudja, Petrograd reports that the Russians have made further progress southward and that the Teutonic allies continue to retreat, burning villages behind them. Denial is made by Berlin of the assertions that the Rumanians have captured the town of Bonasoio on the Danube.

Bombardments are taking place along the entire eastern front in Russia and Galicia, according to the Petrograd War Office. Berlin reports a repulse of a Russian attack southeast of Riga.

The situation east of Gorizia is made somewhat obscure by the variant claims of the Vienna and Rome War Offices, both of which record successes for their respective armies. Vienna asserts that the Austrians have captured another Italian trench in this district, together with sixty prisoners and two machine guns, while Rome records the re-occupation of trench evacuated by Italians Tuesday.

ACTIVITY ON RUSSIAN FRONT.

Petrograd, Nov. 16, via London—Intermittent activity still continues on the three main sectors of the Russian south-western front—the region of the Stokhod, the Halicz-Brzezany front and the thickly wooded country of the Carpathians, where the Austro-Germans have recently concentrated forces in an attempt to drive a wedge between the Russian and Rumanian armies.

Russian attention is now directed mainly toward the Rumanian theatre where most of the Russian military experts believe the crisis is past. The recent arrival of Russian forces on the Transylvanian front is thought to have eased the situation in that quarter and removed the danger of a further advance by Von Falkenhayn.

ENEMY BOMBARDS NEW FRONT.

London, Nov. 16—The British official statement from the front in France issued tonight reads: "This afternoon the enemy bombarded our new front north of the Ancre, especially in the vicinity of Beaucourt. Several explosions were caused by our artillery fire. During the past 24 hours we have taken six officers and 297 men of other ranks prisoner."

"South of the Ancre there was considerable hostile shelling of our front between Le Sars and Gueudecourt. Our artillery bombarded the enemy lines in the Souchez and Armentieres areas."

"Yesterday our airplanes carried out several successful bombing raids. One hostile machine was driven down damaged."

WANTS FAT FOR GERMAN WORKMEN

VON HINDENBURG SAYS THE FARMERS MUST GIVE THEM ENOUGH.

Berlin, Nov. 16th, via London—The Bundesrath discussed today the government bill for organizing a so-called "home army", that is, enlistment in the government service of such persons as are unemployed or are doing work which can easily be dispensed with during the war. The plan proposes the utilization of the entire available population for the purpose of fighting the war to a successful issue, without disturbing the work in any necessary industry.

It is understood that the Imperial chancellor today made representations to the Bundesrath in accordance with suggestions contained in a letter from Field Marshal Von Hindenburg to the Chancellor, appealing to him to take measures to guarantee that laborers employed in the war industries have sufficient rations of fat to maintain their health and strength. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg expressed the fear that the farmers did not yet realize how necessary it is to keep the workmen supplied with fat, but the agrarian organ, which is supporting the Field Marshal's appeal, doubts whether the farmers will be able to do more than they are already doing.

SERBIAN TROOPS BREAK ENEMY LINE SERIOUSLY

PURSUIT OF BULGARS CONTINUES ON LEFT BANK OF CERNA RIVER—FOE RETIRES IN DIRECTION OF MONASTIR.

Salonika, Nov. 16, via London—The Serbian official statement issued today says: "We continued to pursue the enemy yesterday on the left bank of the Cerna river. Supported by fresh troops the enemy made a strong stand on the line of Iven-Yarashok, which had long since been fortified. After determined fighting we succeeded in breaking seriously into this line at several points. The villages of Chelgel, Baldentsi, Negoehani and Yara-shok monastery have been wrested from the enemy. "On the right bank of the Cerna the enemy has been compelled to abandon his principal line of defense and retire in the direction of Monastir. The Bulgarians have been driven from the villages of Bukri, Gorn-Jegri, Sredno-Jegri and Don-Jegri, as well as from the town of Kernali. We have taken 500 Bulgarians and Germans prisoner and captured several machine guns and other war material."

BRITISH WILL NOT REST DURING WINTER MONTHS

CHIEF DIRECTOR OF MILITARY OPERATIONS SAYS GAINS ON THE ANCRE ARE THE FORERUNNERS OF OTHER IMPORTANT ADVANCES.

London, Nov. 16.—Major-Gen. F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at war office, in an interview with the Associated Press today predicted that the British gains in the Ancre Valley were only the forerunner of further equally important advances which will be made on the western front during the winter months.

"Our success on the Ancre," said Gen. Maurice, "means that we are not going to give the enemy much rest this winter. It means that when weather conditions permit we are going to attack and subject the enemy to unceasing pressure during the coming months, so as to prevent as far as possible the Germans from establishing themselves in new positions. All the attempts of enemy to minimize our success will not take away the fact that in three days the British troops by the capture of Beaumont and St. Pierre divisions and the semi-circular ridge they dominated have gained an important strategical advantage. This ridge formed a salient jutting into our lines from the northern bank of the Ancre. Thus the enemy was able to direct the fire of his artillery massed behind it. Our troops advanced from below through sticky white chalk and a net work of defenses. They gained the ridge and forced the enemy back across the valley to the next hill. As a result we dominate the situation in this territory and are concentrating the positions for further activities."

London, Nov. 16—The House of Commons without division today carried the resolution introduced yesterday by William A. S. Hewins, Unionist member for Hereford, prior to the statement on the question of food supply by Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade. The resolution follows: In the opinion of the house it is the duty of the government to adopt further methods of organization to increase and conserve the national food supply and to diminish the risk of shortage and serious increase of prices in the event of the war being prolonged."

2785, Gunner Wm. Denton, 45 King St. W., Kingston, Ont. 83679, Gunner Herbert Longhurst, Niagara On The Lake, Ont. SAW NAVAL RAID. Passengers on Curliard Liner Witnessed the Fighting. New York, Nov. 16—The sea battle between British and German destroyers that took place in the English Channel on the night of October 26th when German war craft made a raid on the channel transport service, was witnessed by passengers and officers on the Cunard line steamship Andania which arrived here today from London. Reports brought to the ships after the battle, the passengers said, were that eight British outpost vessels, two destroyers and one transport were sunk. Chief Officer T. A. Chester, of the Andania, said today that the liner left London, Oct. 24th, anchoring off Plymouth for coal, and to await Admiralty orders to proceed after the course was assured to be clear of enemy ships. On the evening of the 26th, Chester said, a line of British destroyers was seen moving to the east; at a rapid speed. Soon after they had passed out of sight flashes of light were seen and the thunder of guns was heard, coming from an estimated distance of about 12 miles. The flashes and detonations indicated that a brisk battle was in progress which lasted all night. The Andania before being permitted to go to sea had her ports painted black and all her lights were screened. She was accompanied by two British destroyers until well past the danger zone.

LARGE CROWD SEES GREAT HORSE SHOW. New York, November 17—The largest crowd that has attended a horse show in this country in many years filled Madison Gardens tonight, and was rewarded by the grandest display of horse-flesh that the National Horse Show has ever brought together in the Garden. The event attracting the greatest attention was the contest for the Vanderbilt gold challenge cup, which went to Judge William H. Moores great quartette, Lady Gray, Lord Gray, General and Colonel. More than a score of the finest jumpers that ever competed in the Garden went over the triple bars in quest of the commodore cup, which was in magnificent style by Sir Adam Beck's big bay gelding, Melrose, and second place went to Mrs. Timmins' Silver Thread. The class for horses best suited to become hunters was won by Major Mitchell's Highland Chief, after a close contest with Sir Adam Beck's Gorkha, which was given the red ribbon. Donnybrook, a chestnut gelding, owned by the Sunnybrook Farm of Toronto, was awarded the Fought-a-Ballagh cup. He is a fine big robust Irish bred seven-year-old. He took the obstacles in faultless fashion and his manners and conformation were what competent judges declared perfect.

GERMAN METHODS. Uig, Scotland, November 16—The Dutch steamer Leda has landed 21 members of the crew of the Danish steamer Ragnar, previously reported to have been sunk by a submarine. The men say that after their ship was sunk they were kept aboard the submarine for a day. When the Leda was sighted the submarine stopped her, the men alleged, by firing a shell into her without warning and causing considerable damage. The crew of the Ragnar were then put aboard the Leda and she was permitted to proceed.

"ALL FRANCE MUST FIGHT" Paris, Nov. 16.—The minister of the interior, Louis Malvy, has instructed the prefects of every department in France to appeal, in co-operation with the mayors of the communes, to the people to reduce as far as possible the lighting of their homes and business establishments. Bills posted throughout Paris signed by the officials, invites every householder to restrict both heating and lighting. The poster concludes: "It is hoped that these demands will be manfully accepted in view of the need of seconding the efforts of our soldiers in the trenches. It is the duty of the people in the rear to add to the force of the arms. The whole of France must fight."

No Trouble to Remove Superfluous Hair (Toilet Tips.) It is an easy matter to rid the skin of objectionable hair or fuzz, if you proceed as follows: Make a paste with some water and a little powdered delatone, apply to hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method of banishing hairy growths is painless and does not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain to get real delatone.

GERMAN REPRISAL Berlin, Nov. 14, via Sayville, N.Y.—As a reprisal against the forced sale of German property in the British colony of Nigeria, Africa, says the Overseas News Agency, the German government has put up for sale the palace belonging to Sir Francis Oppenheimer, former British Consul-General at Frankfurt. The estate is valued at 2,000,000 marks.

OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE. Have Imparted Not Merely Knowledge, but Citizenship. The grass has been worn from the playing fields by battalions at drill. Men have come back to their universities from the ends of the earth to find a place in the service of their country. All this simply means that the universities have faithfully in a prosperous and, it was said, an idle past, served their purpose. They have aimed at creating in their men the idea of obligation. They have rested quietly at the heart of English life. Through an age which more and more insisted upon direct value in coin as the reward for its activity they have stood for a learning which has been repeatedly denounced as "barren." They have kept generations of young men in touch with literature and with the finest thought of all ages. They have asked them to learn many a thing for its own sake, and thus taught them a pride of doing well, as a good in itself, in things not immediately profitable. At a time when pride of work was fast ceasing to exist in England (witness the organized tainting and spoiling of labor practiced in all our factories), the mere bright "uselessness" of Greek has been an argument for retaining it. The best way to judge of an institution is by its fruits. Oxford and Cambridge clearly stand for education today as some of our later "democratic" institutions can do. They have imparted not merely knowledge, but citizenship. They have done this, without exhortation or preaching, by sheer force of their traditions and atmosphere. Education is breathed in as naturally and freely as the air. It is not a fragile thing of copybooks and good resolutions. It can stand tests which copybook morality would fail to meet. England, in this time of need, can count very few defaulters among the men who have come down from Oxford and Cambridge. The roll of honor in this war will honor these institutions above all others.

PARIS APPROVES WILSON'S WORDS ACTION REGARDING DEPORTATION OF BELGIANS IS SUBJECT OF COMMENT. Paris, Nov. 16.—Secretary of State Lansing's instructions to Joseph C. Grew, the American Charge D'Affaires at Berlin, sent on behalf of the Belgian government to discuss with Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial Chancellor, the question of the deportation by Germany of Belgians from their native land, is regarded here as an action of great importance. The newspapers discuss it appreciatively. The Temps alluding to the incident says President Wilson is resolutely determined to hold to his principles, undeterred by Mexican complications, adding that he "intervenes without fear of contingencies." The Paris Midi sees in the instructions of Secretary Lansing the beginning of a revolt of neutral nations against what it calls "The barbarous and illegal measures of the Central powers." "Mr. Wilson," says the Midi, "Conscious that he is the head of the largest neutral nation, which is renowned in the world for its wide humanitarian feelings, has taken an initiative which may possibly awaken all the sleeping consciences of other peoples still indifferent. La Liberte and other newspapers comment in a similar manner.

RUSSIAN ORCHESTRA SCORES A SUCCESS SYMPHONY CONCERT PLEASURED LARGE AUDIENCE AT AUDITORIUM LAST NIGHT. A large and sympathetic audience assembled in the Auditorium last night to hear the Russian Symphony Orchestra under its able conductor Mr. Moaest Altschuler, and in spite of the anticipations of the audience it is safe to say that their fondest hopes were fully realized. A select programme had been prepared for the occasion and although the numbers included some of the most difficult products of best Russian composers the most trying passages were rendered with artistic effect. Miss Dora Gibson, Soprano, the soloist of the evening, proved the possessor of a voice of quality and range and her best effort was "Adieu" an aria from Tschaiowsky's Joan of Arc. The concert opened with the British National Anthem and the Russian National Anthem and towards the end of the programme "La Marseillaise" was played. Individually and as a whole the orchestra is a wonderful collection of musical talent. The quality of the strings is exceptional, the cellos and basses being especially rich. The wood wind was charming and the brass well controlled. Hearty applause greeted the musicians and their leader after each number and they responded to several encores, the most popular of which proved Humoresque. The programme was as follows: A number of Russians from the 171st, Battalion were the guests of Major James Scott at the concert. Programme. Part I. 1—"Sunrise on the Moscow River." Moussorgsky. Introduction to Act I "Khovantchina". 2—Symphony No. 6 in B minor ("Pathetique") Tschaiowsky. 1—Adagio. Allegro non troppo. II—Allegro con grazia (5-4). III—Allegro molto vivace. IV—Finale. Adagio lamentoso. Part II. 3—Two Caucasian Sketches. Ippolitoff-Ivanoff. (a) In the Aul. (Mountain Village). (b) Marche Sardar. (Caucasian Tribe). 4—Aria, "Adieu" from Jeanne d'Arc. Tschaiowsky. Miss Gibson. 5—(a) March Miniature. Tschaiowsky. (b) Plaintive from "Prince Igor" Borodine. (c) Dance of the Fairy Dolls Tschaiowsky. From "Nutcracker Suite" Mme. PARIS APPROVES WILSON'S WORDS ACTION REGARDING DEPORTATION OF BELGIANS IS SUBJECT OF COMMENT. Paris, Nov. 16.—Secretary of State Lansing's instructions to Joseph C. Grew, the American Charge D'Affaires at Berlin, sent on behalf of the Belgian government to discuss with Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial Chancellor, the question of the deportation by Germany of Belgians from their native land, is regarded here as an action of great importance. The newspapers discuss it appreciatively. The Temps alluding to the incident says President Wilson is resolutely determined to hold to his principles, undeterred by Mexican complications, adding that he "intervenes without fear of contingencies." The Paris Midi sees in the instructions of Secretary Lansing the beginning of a revolt of neutral nations against what it calls "The barbarous and illegal measures of the Central powers." "Mr. Wilson," says the Midi, "Conscious that he is the head of the largest neutral nation, which is renowned in the world for its wide humanitarian feelings, has taken an initiative which may possibly awaken all the sleeping consciences of other peoples still indifferent. GERMANS ATTACKED FRENCH TWELVE SUCCESSIVE TIMES

SOME OF THE REGIMENTS ENGAGED LOST SIXTY PER CENT. OF THEIR EFFECTIVES—SELECT BATTALIONS WERE EMPLOYED.

Paris, November, 16th., — 1916
The German attack on Ablaincourt an Pressoire, on the Somme front, yesterday was an attempt to break through the French lines over an extent of 2 1/2 miles. The attacking forces consisted of a division and a half in the morning and a division and a half in the afternoon, the whole strength being directed against the two villages. The divisions were formed of select regiments, chiefly Prussians, of whom some were of the guard, and Hanoverians. Six successive waves swept down upon the villages between 7.30 o'clock and 10.15 in the morning, and before the afternoon had ended Pressoire had been attacked 12 times. It is said that in the course of these attempts now rendered vain by the French operations of last night, some of the regiments engaged lost sixty per cent of their effectives.

Paris, Nov. 16.—The bulletin issued by the war office tonight reads: "On the Somme front some enemy detachments which had succeeded in taking foot in a group of houses northeast of the village of Saillies were driven out by a spirited counter attack."
The artillery struggle continued violent in the region of Ablaincourt. Everywhere else the day was calm.
"On Nov. 15 one of our air pilots brought down an enemy machine near Chaulnes."

LIBERAL DELEGATES IN CONFERENCE AT OTTAWA

MR. FIELDING TELLS THEM TO ORGANIZE FOR AN ELECTION — RESOLUTION OF LOYALTY IS PASSED—CONSERVATIVE CHARGES RESENTED.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 16.—Four hundred Liberal delegates from the counties surrounding the city of Ottawa gathered at Ottawa today and in conference assembled voiced their views on problems of today and the future and discussed the question of organization.

The gathering comprised representatives of the various political organizations in the counties of Leeds, Grenville, Stormont, Glengarry, Carleton, Lanark, Renfrew, Dundas, Russell, Prescott and the city of Ottawa. The conference was opened by Mr. D. B. Rochester and Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Mr. M. Racine, M.P.P. for Russell, acted as joint chairman. There were present, also, on the platform Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Sydney Fisher and Hon. Senator Cloran.

The keynote of the conference was struck by Mr. Fielding. Liberals, he declared, were asked to observe silence. It was contended that patriotism at the present moment forbade criticism of the government. And all the time declared the ex-minister of finance, the country was hanging under threat of a general election which might come at any moment. With the expression on the part of the government that the Liberals should maintain silence should have come the clear-cut assertion that within a specified time there should be no general election precipitated.

"There must be an election some day," he declared. "Perhaps not this year; perhaps not next; but Liberals must be organized. The work you are doing today is necessary work so long as the government keeps the shadow hanging over you."

As the afternoon closed the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"That this convention of Liberals of Eastern Ontario, in session assembled at Ottawa this sixteenth day of November, takes this earliest opportunity of placing upon record its unswerving loyalty to the King and Empire; pledging ourselves to assist in the untiring and vigorous prosecution of the present war to ultimate success; and, at the same time to record our resentment at the reported remarks of certain Conservative politicians impugning the loyalty of the great Liberal party; which remarks we consider as entirely unjustified and an insult to the thousands of true Liberals who today mourn their sons and brothers who have given their lives at the front as proof of their loyalty and love of the British Empire."

"And that this convention expresses its condolence and heartfelt sympathy with all Canadians who have lost sons and relatives at the front."

LAURIER WANTS ELECTION.

Liberal Leader Throws Mask Off at Last.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 16.—Vigorous criticisms of the government's war policy, searching inquiries as to the source of the nickel supply now on the German submarine Deutschland, and clear hints that the Liberals would not acquiesce in an extension of terms of office for the Conservatives now in power, were contained in a remarkable address made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier to between four and five hundred Liberals gathered at the banquet tonight in the Chateau Laurier given to the provincial and federal riding associations of eastern Ontario by the auspices of the Ottawa Reform Association.

"When war broke out," said Sir Wilfrid, "we Liberals came to the conclusion that it was our duty to facilitate the work of the government in our participation of the war."
"After two years we are sorry to admit that our confidence was misplaced."

Speaking of nickel the Liberal leader said that if the nickel on the Deutschland came from any source but Canada they would be relieved if the government would tell them so. "It is a question which weighs heavily on the mind of every Canadian."

As to an extension of parliament Sir Wilfrid said that Hon. A. E. Kemp and Hon. Arthur Meighen both claimed that responsibility rested on the Liberal leaders and Liberal party. "Responsibility has no terrors for me," he said; "We will await the proposals of the government and then we shall be equal to the task."

"In the early months of the war, during the summer of 1915," Sir Wilfrid said, "Information began to leak out that contracts were being given to favored individuals at inordinate prices. We thought they should be investigated. We mentioned that rigid inquiry, rigid honesty and rigid principle should be enforced in such circumstances. We were met at once with the cry 'it could not be.' When Mr. Kyte showed upon the fuse contracts that our information was in a great measure true, public conscience was so outraged that an inquiry was granted, but into this matter alone. Mr. Kyte's

SIR MAX AIKEN IS HEARD FROM

SAYS HE REFUSED TO ACT AS OVERSEAS MINISTER OF MILITIA.

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—Sir Max Aiken has been heard from on the subject of the Borden-Hughes difference. The following cable from Sir Max arrived today: "I see that in the correspondence between the Prime Minister and Sir Sam Hughes it is stated that one of the grounds of disagreement is that the appointment of the Overseas Minister of Militia here was not given to me. It is only necessary for me to say that on October 27th last General Hughes telegraphed asking me if I would accept such appointment, to which I replied on Oct. 28th: 'I cannot accept as I am not qualified to fill post.' (Signed) W. M. Aiken."

When seen General Hughes confirmed the statement in the cable. He said his desire was not that Sir Max should be named as the intermediary between the Canadian forces and the War Offices and head of the military council there. General Hughes said that while in England he had asked Sir Max to take the position mentioned but he respectfully declined. General Hughes said the action he had again taken and which was referred to in the correspondence was only a final attempt to induce a gentleman of Sir Max Aiken's ability and judgment to take up this work. However, Sir Max declined because he could not take time from his work as head of Canadian war records.

charges were only too true. By the facts it was shown that abnormal profits had been made at the expense of the treasury.

"One gentleman known to fame as Col. J. W. Allison was able to give large tips in a way that scarcely a King or Emperor ever dreamt of. It does not often happen that a simple typewriter can get a tip of $100,000. Of the administration, complaints were coming out from the front by almost every mail. Our boys were deficient in equipment. Many met death on the battlefields for want of adequate weapons to meet the foe."

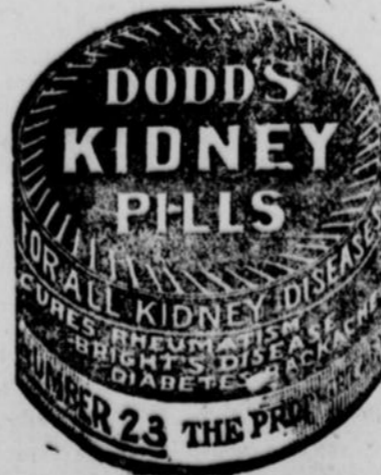

"Correspondence has come out between the Prime Minister and the gentleman who was once Minister of Militia. That correspondence shows that from the start in the administration of the most sacred trust ever placed in hands of a government of Canada, there have been barrings, disputations and quarrels. The reason is that there was no firm hand to guide them."

ROWANMORE'S CARGO.

Berlin, Nov. 16, via Sayville.—The Overseas News Agency in its summary of the details published by the German press regarding the sinking of the British steamer Rowanmore points out that the cargo included 1,000 tons of copper, 10,000 tons of cotton, 1,000 tons of oil, together with acids, explosives and steel, and in addition 3,000 tons of wheat, the whole valued at approximately 12,000,000 marks. The ship was sunk by the submarine after an examination of her cargo had disclosed that she carried contraband, the summary states.

POLISH RELIEF.

Berlin, Nov. 16, via Sayville.—The President of the Polish relief committee at Vevey, Switzerland, according to the Overseas News Agency, publishes interesting records of the amounts raised by church collections for Poland since the appeal of Pope Benedict in Nov., 1915. The total amount is placed at 3,791,000 francs. Of this amount Germany contributed 1,601,000; The United States 708,000; Austria Hungary, 309,000; Ireland, 288,000; England, 146,000; Canada, 129,000; France 112,000; Italy, 112,000; Belgium, 94,000; Russia, 88,000.

Our Price Challenges Attention

Our Values Defy Competition

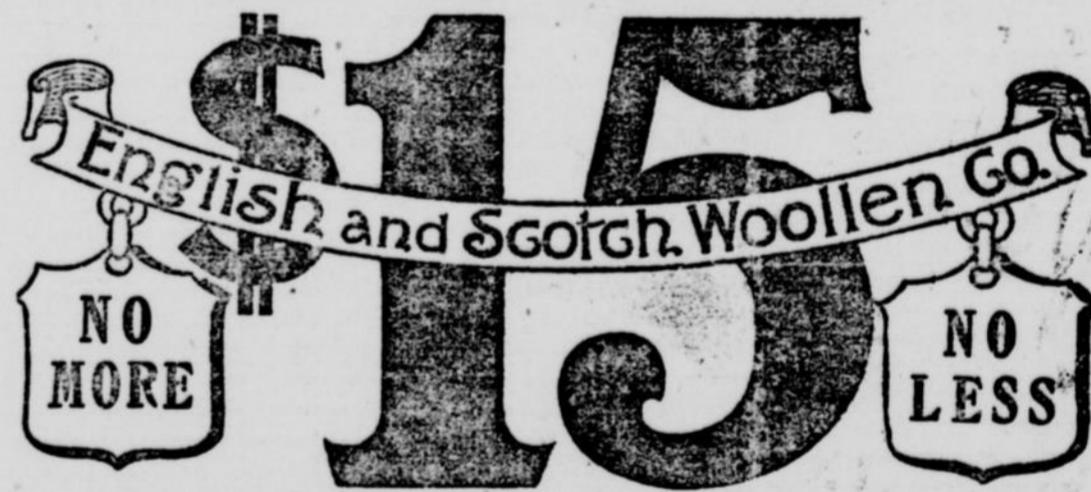

A LOW price without Quality is no inducement. But when you have a Low Price combined with a value that cannot possibly be matched anywhere else in Canada, our appeal to a reasoning man becomes irresistible.

Our price of $15 for a Suit or Overcoat of high-grade British Woollens has challenged the attention of men throughout the Dominion.

Our values defy competition. By this we mean not only the splendid quality of fabrics that goes into each garment, but we mean, also, the tailor-art that gives identically the same service that would be necessitated in making much higher priced clothing.

If you are seeking a Quality Suit or Overcoat at the lowest possible cost—a Suit or Overcoat of sturdy British weave made to your own measure and faultlessly finished—then this is the place to come.

QUEBEC, NOVEMBER 17, 1916

LIBERAL HYPOCRISY.

In all the history of Canadian politics there is nothing more nauseous and hypocritical than the volte face of the Liberal press as regards Sir Sam Hughes.

These whitened sepulchres who from the very outset of the war have never ceased to vilify, calumniate and misrepresent him, to belittle and ridicule his achievements, to make it appear by a campaign of insinuation—for they would never dare to say it openly—that he was a grafter, these Liberal organs which have followed his trail like a pack of yelping jackals for months, what do they do now? They suddenly discover that he is endowed with all the cardinal virtues even unto seventy times seven "and then some", so to speak, in vulgar parlance.

These yellow journalists who for months past have been clamoring for the scalp of the Minister of Militia and endeavoring to make the public believe it was almost a crime for Sir Robert to retain him in his Cabinet, now begin to weep, crocodile tears and to declare that it's nothing but a ding-busted shame—vulgar parlance again—for the cruel and stony-hearted Premier to have "kicked him out" as they put it.

Could hypocrisy go farther?

CHEERFUL IDIOTS!

Grit machine newspapers of the cheerful idiot and sunshine-from-cucumbers variety, as was to be expected, are professing to see in the resignation of Sir Sam Hughes an incident foreshadowing the speedy downfall of the Borden government.

Sir Robert Borden is not the first Canadian Premier to part with one of his ministers.

It may be recalled that during the early years of the Laurier regime Sir Wilfrid and Hon. J. Israel Tarte differed in opinion on matters of importance. Mr. Tarte refused to recognize the wishes of the Prime Minister and accordingly retired from public life.

Later Hon. A. G. Blair and Hon. Clifford Sifton left the cabinet under similar circumstances, but Sir Wilfrid still ruled and the defection of the ministers referred to had little or no appreciable effect upon the life or success of his administration.

Those newspapers which contend that the departure of Sir Sam Hughes will wreck the Borden Government have evidently forgotten the numerous and interesting precedents for the present situation.

RECRUITS FOR NAVY.

One is glad to see that Lieutenant Murray is meeting with some success in his appeal for recruits to join the Royal Navy. At the same time, however, the response is hardly as it should be, though, no doubt, when the situation is better appreciated, there will probably be a good deal more enthusiasm.

Two thousand men for the North Sea fleet are wanted from Canada before New Year's Day. The government of Canada has offered to guarantee 5,000 in a while, but owing to the increase in the fleet since the war these 2,000 are wanted literally at once.

Captain Guinness recently told a crowded audience at Vancouver that if a modern battleship might not inaptly be compared to a city, it was a city where everything was at the necessities of the case kept always at a level of hygienic and sanitary perfection unparalleled and unattainable on shore.

Again as to the strangeness and intricacy of the seaman's task, he pointed out that these difficulties were much exaggerated. The two years' state of actual war had brought the members of the actual navy personnel to such a state of efficiency, that every man was a trained teacher, ready to help his new comrades: So that in the actual experience of the last 18 months it had been demonstrated that one raw hand in four was a ratio which could easily be borne, without the handling and disciplining of the great machine suffering any deterioration.

An efficient seaman, in other words, could be turned out in a much shorter period than was commonly supposed. In the navy a new recruit may be ready for "the front" even in a very few weeks. Because the men are learning all the time, it comes about that the 300,000 efficient are able to absorb one-fourth that number of recruits, without any hardship upon teachers or taught on the one hand, and on the other hand without any fear of disorganization of the service or deterioration of the high standard of efficiency which the history of their long and patient warfare abundantly attests.

DESERTERS.

A new commission has recently been formed to deal with the question of National Service or recruiting. One of the most important problems which it could—and should—take up at once is the matter of desertions. We believe that the number of deserters is appalling, desertion having become almost a profession with some men who slip away from one regiment to another and desert as soon as the time approaches for their battalion to go overseas.

That the task of attempting to follow up and arrest these deserters should fall upon the shoulders of their battalion officers is as unfair as it is discouraging and expensive. In any case the training, organization and administration of a battalion constitute a strenuous enough task without the continual worry and expenditure of energy connected with the chase and apprehension of these fugitives.

The question should be treated on a national footing and the battalion commanders relieved of this irksome responsibility.

Writing on this subject in the latest issue of The Military Gazette "A. T. T." says—

"Deserting is getting more and more common, and while a few are arrested and punished, the example does not seem to cure the disease; undoubtedly it is to some extent a deterrent, but, we repeat, it is not a cure."

"What we urge is that the new organization put in motion the arm of the law in every country in Canada, to the end that a.w.'s. may be speedily arrested and dealt with. In each of these countries there should be some resident of resolution, preferably the chief constable, charged with the duty of acting promptly on receiving word from a C.O. that some man who had enlisted in his district had run off."

"Once it became known that a runaway would find short shrift, that any man in uniform would be asked to produce his pass when away from his battalion, the ranks of the deserters would dwindle, and only a few determined men would longer attempt to violate their oath of service to the Crown."

"What we want is a firm hand. This work would undoubtedly be unpopular, whereas recruiting is rather the other way."

"But stern necessities require stern methods, and this matter has grown into an abuse so great that there is no use further closing our eyes to it, or leaving it to the necessarily feeble efforts of battalion officers."

"The present method is wasteful, too, in time and money. Now, if a man is to be brought back, a non-com. at least, and often a man or two to help, is despatched for the purpose. He has a long and expensive journey to make by rail, and then the matter only begins. Once in the neighborhood in which the man is suspected to be lurking, he must hire livery, usually a motor, and start a systematic search. If successful, a part at least of the expense comes out of the deserter, but many a time he fails to land his man, and then the battalion fund, usually a slim affair at best, has to foot the whole bill."

"So maddening have these cases become, that many-a-time a man is simply allowed to disappear because it is too expensive to hunt him up."

"Then what follows. Encouraged by his immunity, others follow his example, and the corps bleeds white from day to day."

"There is still another point. This constant worry discourages the officers who have a pride in their corps. Some of the fainter hearted begin to assume the attitude, "Well, why bother any more? None but ourselves seem to care? Why should we spend our time and our money in assuming yet another unpleasant duty, when there are many sitting at home who could well do this thing for us, and will not." This is a bad state of mind for officers to get into, but it is on the increase, and, unless they get some support where at present they get none, it is apt to grow into alarming proportions."

PRESS COMMENT.

Looking back after these few days of lapse on the U. S. elections one is inclined to believe that the result presents Theodore Roosevelt with a great opportunity to procure the next Republican nomination. There is no disguising the fact that Hughes proved a disappointment to a great many Americans by declining to place himself on record on the issue of the great war. His campaign was remarkable, not for the promises or pledges given, but for those not

BE CAREFUL

In your choice of an ointment. An inferior ointment is worse than none at all, because it irritates and inflames, and sometimes even poisons the place it is intended to soothe and heal. In using Zam-Buk you take no risk, as its soothing, healing properties have been proved by thousands of users, and its purity is proved for by the famous English Chemist, Mr. W. Lascelles Scott, who says: "I have made an exhaustive analytical examination of Zam-Buk, and find it exclusively of vegetable origin, with none of the impure and irritating mineral drugs and animal fats found in ordinary ointments. The germ-destroying powers of Zam-Buk exceed those of carbolic acid, yet it does not irritate even the most sensitive skin. I have no hesitation in certifying the purity of Zam-Buk, and its value for skin diseases and injuries."

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, ulcers, running sores, old wounds, abscesses, blood-poisoning, boils, pimples, piles, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25, all druggists or Zam-Buk Co. 1-eme, Send 1c. stamp for postage on free trial box.

given. He had plenty of criticism, but the question of the hecklers, "What would you do?" found no answer. Hughes was almost a nonentity. If the Republican party had it to do over again today it would probably give the nomination to Roosevelt with the knowledge that he at least would have declared himself emphatically on the issues of the day. Roosevelt, too, has won friends in the party by his support of Hughes after failing to procure the nomination for himself—Port Arthur Chronicle.

Of all the nauseating cant talked since the beginning of the war, commend us to the interview of the Crown Prince with an American journalist.

"What a pity it is, all this terrible extinction of human life! Is there one German general, one German soldier, who does not bewail the dreadful necessities pressed upon them by this combat?"

Thus the Crown Prince. And this war was engineered by these very German generals, anxious to test the machine they had made. And little Willie himself has, through his vanity and incapacity, been responsible for more actual slaughter of Germans than any other figure of the war.

To which he adds a plaint about his wife and children. He is a family man, and says, "It is no happiness to look forward to spending another Christmas away from wife and children," and with that sentiment we will all agree. But the domestic touch would have come better from someone with a better reputation in family matters. The Crown Prince's record is so well known, even in America, that it must all seem artificial and hypocritical.—From Reynolds.

This year's shuffling of portfolios in the British war cabinet brought into that body two Jews, who are cousins as well as co-religionists. The Right Hon. Herbert Louis Samuel, who was Postmaster-General of Great Britain for several years before he took up the post of Secretary of State for the Home Department early this year, is a cousin of Edwin Samuel Montagu, who is also a recent addition to the cabinet. Herbert Samuel was born in Liverpool forty-six years ago today, November 6, 1870, and, after graduating from Oxford, began to take an active interest in politics. He entered parliament from a Yorkshire district in 1902, and three years later was made parliamentary under-secretary of the Home Department. In 1909 he became Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, with a seat in the cabinet, and the following year he became Postmaster-General. While holding that position he paid a prolonged visit to Canada and the United States. He is the first professing Jew in British history to become a principal secretary of state to the crown, for, although Benjamin Disraeli was a Jew, he was a lifelong member of the Church of England. Both the Jewish ministers are descended from Louis Samuel, their grandfather, who kept a watchmaking shop in Liverpool. He had two sons, Moses and Edwin. The former married Ellen Cohen, daughter of a London stock broker, and with his brother established a banking house in the metropolis. Moses Samuel was created a baronet and changed his name to Montagu, and in 1907 was created a baron as Lord Swaythling. Edwin Montagu, the statesman, is his second son, while Herbert Samuel is the son of the late Edwin Samuel, who did not change his patronymic.—Calgary News Telegram.

WINTER FERRY TO MEET I.C.R. LOCAL

MR. L'ESPERANCE AND MR. GUTELIUS GET BETTER SERVICE FOR THE PUBLIC.

Through the efforts of Mr. D. O. L'Esperance, president of the Quebec Harbor Commissioners, the ferry company has decided to place a boat at the disposal of the public for the convenience of passengers arriving on the local express over the I. C. R., due from Riviere du Loup at 7:00 p.m.

Last season when this train arrived after a scheduled time, passengers for Quebec were forced to remain in Levis until the 9:30 p.m. ferry.
On the request of Mr. L'Esperance, Mr. Gutelius, general manager of the railway, made an arrangement with the ferry company whereby a boat will be at the disposal of passengers for Quebec arriving in this train during the winter season. There is little doubt that the public will appreciate this improved ferry service.

MR. STUART RITCHIE.

Mr. J. Stuart Ritchie, who has been severely wounded in France, was in Brazil at the outbreak of the war and from there he went direct to England to enlist. The letter which his wife received from his chaplain was dated October 30 last and states that he was in No. 16 base hospital at L'Etretot, France. His left leg is fractured and his right is wounded in several places by shrapnel. He is aged thirty-three and has one little daughter, Miss Edith Ritchie.

RECRUITING OBJECTIONS.

"This is not Canada's war, and in sending half a million men, Canada has done more than her duty." This is one of the commonest objections which the recruiting officers meets in their daily work. Let us examine it. "This is not Canada's war." Isn't it? Suppose England is beaten, and the British fleet, through mismanagement or ill-luck is defeated at sea, what will happen? Germany herself has admitted the fact that one of her principal aims in this war is to secure colonies, where their surplus population may settle under the German flag. With characteristic thoroughness she has even issued maps showing Canada as a part of the German Empire,—and still our blind "patriots" say that this is not Canada's war. No, if England should be beaten, she would be humiliated, taxed, oppressed, but she would still remain English, for Germany does not want the islands, but Canada would not remain Canada. Neither English nor French would exist in the country, her male population would be deported as is that of Belgium today, and those who did remain would suffer as have all those who have ever come under the German flag as conquered nations.

Some say would save us from any such fate. How? Their boasted navy has been proved by their own critics to be vastly overrated, and even its keenest admirers admit that it is decidedly inferior to the present German navy, apart from the Austrian and Turkish ships. Their army,—save the mark—unable to cope with a small rising in Mexico, would take at least six months to organize. They have no big guns apart from a few used for harbor defence work, and their population includes eleven million Germans.

No, the fact is that Canada has more to gain or lose in this war than has almost any other nation. If the war be lost, Canada will cease to exist; if it should be won by our side, Canada will see an era of prosperity such as she has never yet seen. Surely reasons enough for helping the cause may be found here by any thinking man—or woman.—(Communicated).

A BLACKLIST CASE

New York, Nov. 16—Geo. Philip Nieder, a New York export merchant, was today named defendant in a suit for $50,000 brought by Leon P. Mainetty, who alleges that Nieder caused his name to be placed on the British blacklist by inducing him to ship contraband rubber in 250 bags of coffee.

Mainetty, who is a dealer in dried fruits, says that he did not have the slightest idea that the bags contained anything but coffee. He shipped them on the steamer Lyngenfjord March 16th last.

During the voyage British officers boarded the ship, examined the coffee bags and discovered the hidden rubber. Mainetty alleges. He claims that since he was put on the blacklist he has been forbidden the use of cables to France and Italy and has been unable to collect money due him from foreign firms.

EXAMPLE FOR QUEBEC.

Toronto, Nov. 16—If the City Council approves the recommendation passed by the Board of Control today the city of Toronto will take the fullest advantage of the recent order-in-council passed at Ottawa giving municipalities power to investigate the conditions of the food market and the prices charged for the necessities of life. Toronto is also to ask the Dominion Government for power to regulate the local cold storage plants.

QUEBEC CITY BILL IN FIRST READING

MEASURE MAY COME UP FOR STUDY IN COMMITTEE NEXT WEEK.

Among the private bills which were presented and given first reading in the Legislative Assembly yesterday was the bill to amend the charter of the City of Quebec. The measure will most likely come up for study by the Private Bills Committee of the Assembly next week.

The incorporation of the St. Maurice Lumber Company in the Province of Quebec is sought in a petition for a bill presented by Mr. J. N. Francoeur. Among the powers sought in the petition is to construct dams and bridges over the St. Maurice, Batiscan and Pentecost rivers.

Mr. C. E. Gault presented a petition on behalf of the Molson's Bank in which it is requested to amend the Revised Statutes, 6 George V., chapter 65, to make exception for bonds to the amount of $125,000 in the Maisonneuve School Commission, which are held by the Bank. The act which it is sought to amend cancelled the entire bond issue of the Maisonneuve School Commission.

The other petitions were:
Mr. Therrien: To reduce the capital stock and amend the charter of the Eastern Township Telephone Company;
Mr. Berceovitch: To incorporate the Guarantee Title and Contract Company;
Mr. Bullock: To admit William Montgomery to the Bar after examination;

Mr. Therrien: To authorize the Protestant School Commission of the City of Sherbrooke to contract additional loans to a sum not exceeding $75,000;

Mr. Therrien: To incorporate the Plymouth Congregational Church of Sherbrooke;
Mr. Mayrand: Concerning the School Municipality of Notre Dame de Grace West;

Mr. Gault: On behalf of the Anglo-American Trust Company requesting a delay for the commencement of their operations;

Mr. Gault: To amend the charter of the Montreal General Hospital;
Mr. Gosselin: To admit F. W. Saunders among the members of the College of Surgeon-Dentists.

GENERAL BASEBALL STRIKE MAY RESULT IF MAGNATES DO NOT ALTER CONDITIONS

Officers of Players Fraternity Are Reticent, But It Is Known That Conferences of a Serious Nature Have Taken Place—Hermann's Reported Removal Not Pleasing to Players—Crisis Is at Hand.

New York, Nov. 16.—The possibility of trouble between players and club owners again looms large on the baseball horizon. The action of the National Association of professional leagues in tabling, without comment, the request of the players' fraternity at New Orleans yesterday threatens to bring about a clash between the two organizations which will have far-reaching effects. Although officers of the fraternity refuse to talk for publication it is known that there have been several recent conferences among players prominent upon the board of directors and that a lot of retaliation has been mapped out which may evolve a situation akin to a strike the leading players of the major and minor leagues. It is apparent that the disposal of the fraternity's requests by the National Association was surmised in advance and provisions made to force a reconsideration of the requests both by the big and little league magnates. The players contend that the request for the elimination in certain contracts of the "injury clause" suspension; the right to sign new contracts upon receipt of unconditional release; allowance of traveling expenses to minor league players at the beginning of the training season and a revision of the National Board's procedure in handling cases brought up for discussion by the fraternity are just and equitable. They claim that they are similar in a general way to the agreements between employers and employees in other lines of business and must be observed in the future if players and magnates are to work in harmony for the advancement of the best interests of baseball. It is known that every member of the players' fraternity has signed a written agreement not to enter into contracts for 1917 until such time as the consent of the fraternity officers is obtained. It is understood that less than 25 players in the two big leagues have contracts that hold over another season, and that not more than one quarter of these are members of the players' organization. The report that Chairman Gary Hermann of the National Commission, may be among the members of the fraternity as he is considered by that organization to take greater interest in the welfare of the players than the other members of the commission.

Players also are concerned in the reports of a possible third major league; the rumors of clubs being shifted from one city to another, and the suit of the former Baltimore Federal League club against organized baseball. Several mysterious embezzlements, thought to be connected with the latter club whose suit for $500,000 will come to trial next February, are said to have approached prominent players, whose contracts have expired and asked intimate questions regarding their treatment in the past and their plans for the future.

These taken together with other interesting developments in baseball have led the players to believe, it is understood that a crisis is at hand.

MORRIS BEATS LEVINSKY.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 16.—Carl Morris of Sapulpa, Okla., won over Battling Levinsky of New York at the end of their 15 round match here tonight. The men are heavyweights.

TINKER TO MANAGE CHICAGO NATIONALS
Chicago, Nov. 16.—Joseph B. Tinker virtually has been agreed upon as manager of the Chicago National league club next season, it was announced tonight after a conference between Tinker and Charles H. Weeghman, president of the club. No contract has been signed, however, but Tinker, before departing on a hunting trip said he expected to sign next week. Negotiations for release of Fred Mitchell of the Boston Braves, who was slated to succeed Tinker are said to be off.

MORE BETTING THAN EVER IN THE SOUTH.
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 15.—The fall season at old Pimlico track, which closed this afternoon, promises to be a rich one for the local charities. According to expert accountants who have watched the Parimutual machines at the Hilltop track, nearly two and three-quarter million of dollars have passed through the getting machines during the eleven days of this meeting. On last Saturday alone the public played on the seven races $365,000.

Last spring the Maryland Jockey Club utilized the bulk of its profits for local charities. According to the betting rules 6 per cent of the gross total bet each race is deducted for the racing club. From this amount, last spring the current expenses of the meeting were paid, and after a substantial sum was laid aside for the depreciation and improvements the remainder was turned over to local charities. Based on the 6 per cent deduction more than $150,000 will be available for the Jockey Club to work on this year.

IRISH-CANADIANS FUTURE BOXING THE CLUB EXPECTS TO SECURE FITTING QUARTERS BOUTS PROMISED.

While it has been found necessary because of the cold weather to close the Grande Allee Rink to boxing, the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club which had its club-rooms, etc., there, has been looking about for new premises and Secretary Chambers is almost certain that a splendid hall will be secured very shortly.

Though the club was hit pretty hard by the slim attendance at the last bout, they intend continuing to serve up the good brand of boxing which they have always handed out and some first class bouts will be seen here as soon as everything is in readiness.

It is quite possible that Frankie Fleming the famous Montreal featherweight will be seen here very soon despite the fact that Fleming is supposed to have renounced the ring. Fleming should prove a big attraction here and with a suitable opponent a fine contest should be the outcome. Fleming's ability is well-known—in fact his cleverness has been compared with Freddie Welsh.

It is also likely that "Spike" Sullivan the local heavyweight champion, whose recent victory over Jones gained him a notable reputation, will meet Willie Adams the husky boy who gave "Red" Allen such a tussle here some time ago. Adams may be somewhat lighter than Sullivan but he would not object to the match, being a sort of a Jack Dillon who likes to hook up with Giants. Should Spike win over Adams he will gain a big name for himself as Adams is an experienced boy who has fought all sorts of lightweights, welterweights, middleweights and heavies and never has been keeled over.

It is the intention of the Club to run all their remaining bouts with the exception of one which will be under the auspices of the 171st Rifles, for Red Cross benefits, a certain percentage going to this worthy cause. A splendid sum was realized on the occasion of the Welsh-Allen bout and quite a considerable amount will be added to the fund during the winter by staging the bouts in this manner.

ROBINSON GIVES KEATS TO TORONTO

228TH SHOWED POOR SPORTSMANSHIP IF FACTS ARE TRUE.

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Major Robinson, president of the National Hockey Association, today gave a definite statement of the Keats situation, in which he says that if the facts as reported are right, "it shows poor sportsmanship to use certain military power to try and break an agreement about the transfer of players made between the managers of clubs."

President Robinson explains the situation as follows: "When the 228th Hockey Club came into the association it was agreed that they would be awarded a reserve list of all military players. This included Keats. Afterwards, in my presence, Capt. Reid, manager of the 228th, and Manager Livingstone, of Toronto, agreed on the trade of Keats for Lesueur, the former going to Toronto, and the latter to Reid. Now, from Toronto reports, it looks as if the colonel of the 228th is trying to compel Keats to get back to the 228th the best way he can, thereby naturally breaking his arrangement with Livingstone."

According to hockey rules and usage, President Robinson rules that Keats belongs to Toronto.

Sporting Notes

George McNaughton, the clever center-player and captain of the Sons of Ireland hockey team, yesterday turned down a good offer from Manager M. J. Quinn of the Quebec hockey club to turn professional. McNaughton is one of the headiest centers in the amateur game, cool in front of the net and utilizes an effective poke-check. The amateur game will be the gainer by his refusal to turn pro, while the professionals still live in hopes of securing his services as he is only a young fellow.

As LaRoche and Carey appear to have turned down offers also, it is pretty sure that the Sons of Ireland forward line will be intact for another season.

It is stated that the Arena management expect to have ice by Sunday next. If this is so, all records will be broken in this connection so far as we know.

Despatches from England indicate that Melbourne Isman, the great English billiardist has enlisted. Isman may now try "cannon" shots at the Germans.

Jimmy Johnson who manages a few boxers in the U. S. A. has the following bouquet for Freddie Welsh: "Vernon Castle, a dancer, has gone to the front to fight for his country, while Freddie Welsh, a fighter, won't do anything but dance in this country." Rough on the champ Manager Louis Rooney of St. Patrick's has some promising players in view. It is practically certain that Frank Brophy, who was second-string goal-tend with the champion Sons of Ireland last season, will be allowed to go to St. Patrick's by the Sons of Ireland management. Brophy is a clever goal-keeper and if played regularly should give a good account of himself.

Any local baseball scout or for that matter—any Montreal manager—Stars preferred—who is looking for a good catcher ought to give one of those Kullerva brothers at the Auditorium the once over. One of these boys does the big mitt and pad and catches the fast ones shot over by his brother, though he (the catcher) is standing on his head. He would probably be a good spare-man for the Stars.

Manager Mike Quinn of Quebec has still a few names on his list of City League players whom he will approach, but it looks like the cold shoulder for him in most cases. "The fans are clamoring for local talent," said Mr. Quinn. "We're trying to get it and if we don't it won't be our fault. We want the public to realize that we are endeavoring to give Quebec boys a chance and we cannot force anyone to become a professional."

The local city league would do well to adopt the stick-throwing clause recently inserted in the N.H.A. rules. This sort of business happens in City League hockey quite frequently and, as in the case of the professional rule should make this practice disappear entirely. When a player realizes that a goal will be charged against his club, he'll hang on to his stick and offer up a prayer instead.

A strike in professional baseball is the next issue which must be faced. Come to think of it baseball couldn't be played without "strikers."

Emmet McDonald is not yet satisfied about the City Hockey League's reserve clause. He intends fighting this to the death. And when Emmet gets aroused, "He's a dog-gone dangerous guy!"

KING DRINKS AFTER HORSE.

The son of a leading manufacturer of Brussels, whose two brothers have been killed at the front, tells the following anecdote, which dates from the first summer of the war: "It had been a hot day and King Albert who had not left the trenches for hours, was suffering from thirst. He asked for something to drink, not a soldier had anything left. Back of the trenches a man saw a horse drinking and went over and started to pull the bucket away. "Don't do that," said the King. "Let the poor animal drink; perhaps it needs it more than I do." "It was not until the horse had finished drinking that the King took off the bucket and drank the few drops that remained."

IN "THE COMBAT"
 Vivid Glimpses of Northwoods in Feature.

While "The Combat", the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature starring Anita Stewart, which is the attraction at the Empire Theatre on Friday and Saturday would come under the class of a society drama it contains a number of flashes of the North woods where dog-teams, snow squalls and rough log cabins form the centre of interest.

These scenes which are intercepted by flashes of milady's dainty boudoir and various well appointed drawing rooms come as a direct contrast in the life of the city man and the man of nature.

Nothing to have these scenes all that perfection means. Director Ince took his entire company up into the woods during the winter months and besides using the log cabins which they erected for the picture they used them for shelter during their two weeks stay.

One of the features of these scenes is the dog-teams which contain twenty valuable Malamute dogs who are really the species used for transportation in the Northwest.

The players were forced to learn how to use snow shoes for without this knowledge, living in the snow covered woods could never have been accomplished.

Nevertheless the scenes in the completed film more than repay the players for any inconvenience they might have suffered.

WANTED A WIFE!

How the Germans Advise for Their Life Partners.

Marriage advertisements are no novelty in Britain. While however, they are, generally speaking, confined there to a few obscure papers, in Germany they form a special feature of most of the daily newspapers. The frankness of these advertisements shows a curious lack of that "kultur," dignity, and modesty of which the Germans so proudly boast. Here are a few culled by M. Henry de Halsalle from the leading German newspapers and reprinted in his book, "Degenerate Germany" (Warner Laurie):

 "Listen, men, listen!
 "I am young and very pretty, a well-made blond, with very dark eyes, and I must get married as soon as possible. I have seventy pounds, a loving, affectionate disposition and I could make any man happy. I belong to the servant class, but to any gentleman who does not object to this fact, I say write me with an offer marked on the envelope "Blond 19, Office of this Paper. I should like a Guardsman. Communications can be received till the 14th instant."
 A very frequent appeal comes from the student, generally in this wise:
 "Hand and heart are at the disposal of a wealthy lady of any age, willing to provide for a handsome student of twenty-three, and enable him to complete his studies at the university."
 Matrimonial agencies advertise daily and give the most minute descriptions of their clients after the fashion of furniture described in an auctioneer's catalogue. The following, according to M. Halsalle, is a "broker's" advertisement from The Tagelblatt:
 "Marriageable Young Women.
 "At _____ a large number of marriageable young women of all ages and classes, with "dots" ranging from 2,000 marks to 500,000 marks. Several wealthy young ladies desirous of making purely love marriage. All letters treated in the strictest confidence.—Freudrichstrasse."

SUBMARINE FOR NAPOLEON.
 When Napoleon was banished to St. Helena various schemes were set on foot for his rescue. One of the most remarkable originated in the inventive brain of a smuggler named Johnstone, says London Answers.
 "A submarine," says Sir Walter Scott in his "Life of Napoleon," "was to be the means of effecting this enterprise. It was thought that by sinking the vessel during the day-time it might escape the notice of the British cruisers, and being raised at night might approach the guarded rock without discovery.
 "The vessel was actually begun in one of the building yards of the Thames, but the peculiarity of its construction having occasioned suspicion, it was seized by the Government."

PASSENGER SHIPS DUE OVER WEEK-END

Of the seven Canadian Pacific Ocean Services vessels on their last voyage of the season up the St. Lawrence the Carthaginian is the first reported. She passed Father Point at 11.15 a.m. yesterday and is due to pass this port early this morning. Contrary to expectations she is not carrying passengers.

The Pretorian also from London is due Saturday morning. She is carrying 77 cabin and 158 third class passengers and general cargo. On Sunday the R.M.S. Grampian from Liverpool with 258 cabin and 449 third class passengers is due. She is bringing 3,500 packages of mail and 200 tons of Quebec cargo.

Among the vessels which passed this port inward yesterday were the S.S. Sheba, S.S. Caba and steam barge Follette the latter with pulp.

The steam barge Stanstead after discharging a cargo of coal in the inner basin left yesterday on her return to the Lakes.

FREIGHTS AND CHARTERS. New York, Nov. 16.—The light offerings of tonnage restricted chartering greatly, as a good general demand prevailed for steamers and rates were firm and advancing. Cotton to Liverpool, per 100 lbs. was quoted at $1.50.

NEW PORT FOR BAYONNE URGED. Scheme Contemplates Expenditure of $7,234,000.

Plans providing for new and extensive port facilities at Bayonne, N. J., have been placed before the people of that city by the New Jersey State Board of Commerce and Navigation, of which J. Spencer Smith, is president.

"The importance of this project to the much congested port of New York is seen when it is considered that it will create 20,300 lineal feet of deep water frontage where vessels can tie up," the announcement said.

The plans are embodied in a detailed report which has been prepared under the direction of B. F. Cresson, Jr., chief engineer of the New Jersey State Board of Commerce and Navigation, and F. Van Z. Lane, engineer of the Bayonne Chamber of Commerce. These engineers recommended port facilities on upper New York Bay for thirty modern freight vessels, in addition to lighters, barges, &c., a railroad yard with facilities for classifying and assembling freight with a capacity of 1,000 cars, a ferry terminal for a Bayonne-Manhattan vehicular and passenger ferry, four miles of bulkhead platform, 1,350,000 square feet of one story bulkhead sheds, 7,770,000 cubic feet of second and third story bulkhead shed and 200 acres of land for industrial buildings, together with trolley and highway connections, railroad sidings, float bridges for railroad cars, &c.

"The total estimated cost of this installation is $7,234,545.98, of which $2,121,673.44 is for dredging, bulkheading and reclamation and $5,112,872.54 for the other facilities," the report said. "These estimates provide for interest on the cost during construction and provide for a thirty-five foot depth of water."

"The site selected for consideration is on the upper New York Bay frontage of Bayonne and extends

FRUIT LINE BUYS TWO STEAMSHIPS.

Announcement was made November 1st, by officials of the Bluefields Fruit and Steamship Company of the purchase from the Argentine Navigation Company of the steamships Lisboa and Madrid, each of 2,000 tons. The vessels' registry will be changed to Nicaragua and their names to the Rama and Managua. They will be added to the fleet of the fruit and passenger carrying trade of the company and will trade between New Orleans and Bluefields, Nicaragua.

COAL DEARER IN CANAL ZONE.

Convinced that the present coal stringency is likely to continue indefinitely, the Panama Canal authorities have given formal notice to steamship lines of an advance of fifty cents a ton on coal sold to merchant ships passing through the canal.

The new rates of $8 per ton at Cristobal, Colon, and $9.50 at Balboa however, will not go into effect until December 1 next, the date on which it is assumed that the coal purchased by the Government at the old price will have been disposed of.

STEEL RINGS IN SEAMEN'S CAPS.

The Mercantile Marine Service Association are in receipt of the following notice from the Board of Trade: "It has come to the notice of the Board of Trade that steel rings are sometimes used inside officers' caps and become magnetized. Owing to their close proximity to the compass needle, when worn by an observer taking compass bearings, such rings are liable to cause considerable deviation and render the observation unreliable. The Board of Trade are of opinion that the use of steel rings for this purpose should be discontinued, and that rings made of a non-magnetic substance should be substituted. Care should also be taken that no articles of steel that are likely to become magnetized, do not come in contact with the compass needle or carried by ships' officers when taking compass bearings."

Your Child's Cough

Is it nothing? Is it to be neglected until it leads to that terrible scourge consumption? Peps stands between winter coughs and colds, and serious consequences. Peps are tablets made up of Pine extracts and medicinal essences, which when put into the mouth turn into healing vapors. These are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes—not swallowed down to the stomach, which is not ailing.

Why Suffer From Migraine or Sick Headache?

Dr. J. J. Caldwell says that this exceedingly distressing disease does not shorten life, but does not appear to be curable. Sufferers from this affliction are condemned to undergo the periodical attacks every few weeks until they are forty years of age, after which the attacks are less frequent, and finally disappear entirely. Palliative measures during the attack are all that it is possible to suggest, while care in the diet is the best preventive measure. An attack may often be prevented by taking two anti-kamnia tablets when the first symptoms appear, and one anti-kamnia tablet every two hours during the attack shortens it, eases the pain and brings rest and quiet. Anti-kamnia tablets may be obtained at all drug stores. Ask for A-K Tablets. They quickly relieve all pain.

BUDGET SPEECH DELIVERED IN ASSEMBLY YESTERDAY

HON. WALTER MITCHELL, PROVINCIAL TREAS-URER, ANNOUNCED SURPLUS OF $211,294.69 FOR FISCAL YEAR—MR. C. E. GAULT WILL REPLY
ON TUESDAY.

The annual Budget Speech, which precedes the voting of the estimates
at each session of the Legislature, was delivered in the Legislative Assembly yesterday afternoon by the Hon. Walter Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer, who announced that the surplus of ordinary revenue over both ordinary and extraordinary expenditure was $211,294.69.

When moving the House into Committee of Supply, the Provincial Treasurer, Hon. Walter Mitchell, prefaced his statement of the financial condition of the Province with a few introductory remarks. He recalled that on two former occasions, when making his budget speech he had counselled, economy, care and prudence in the administration of affairs, both public and private, so that all would be in a position to meet the great demands that might be made upon them, and in order that they might be prepared for all situations and emergencies caused by the world wide war in which all civilization was, and is still, so deeply interested.

This, the third year of the war, he was happy to say, found the Province of Quebec in an excellent financial position, but he still thought that one and all should continue to practice thrift, and economy, and proceed with the same prudence and care, in order that they might be prepared for the great industrial development which will take place when the victory has been won, and peace has been declared.

It was, therefore, necessary to continue with all the caution possible, and be ready for any, and all eventualities, and be in a position to maintain the Province in the enviable position she has attained among all the provinces of Confederation, because it would take all the capital,
all the energy, and all the resourcefulness of our people, in order to cope with the difficulties and problems that will surely present themselves.

Revenue and Expenditure Surplus.

Turning then to the question of the finances, the Treasurer showed that, while the estimates of revenue and expenditure for the year ended 30th June, 1916, had anticipated an ordinary revenue of $8,445,033.79
and an ordinary and extraordinary expenditure of $8,304,957.31, which would have left an estimated surplus of $140,076.48, the actual results of the year's operations were considerably in excess of these estimates, the ordinary revenue for the twelve months ended on 30th June last amounting to $9,647,984.77, and the ordinary expenditure to $9,278,688.08, which left a surplus of ordinary revenue over ordinary expenditure of $369,296.69. But from this surplus should be deducted
the extraordinary expenditure paid out of ordinary revenue and amounting to $158,000.00, making the actual surplus therefore of ordinary revenue over both ordinary and extraordinary expenditure $211,294.69. The actual ordinary revenue was more than the estimate by $1,202,948.98 and the estimate of the ordinary and extraordinary expenditure was exceeded by $1,131,730.77.

Cash Operations.

With respect to these, the honorable gentleman explained that on the 1st July, 1915, the province had in various banks, the sum of $2,612,- 159.80, but from this should be deducted the outstanding warrants at the same date amounting to $800,276.05, leaving a balance of $1,811,883.75. On the other hand, the total receipts from all sources
from 1st July, 1915, to 30th June, 1916, were $13,847,561.47, and the total payments $13,708,077.52 showing an excess of $139,483.95 of receipts and leaving a balance of $1,951,367.70.

Consequently on 30th June last (1916)
the province had on hand $2,565,341.41,
from which had to be paid outstanding warrants at same date, amounting to $614,573.71, leaving a balance on hand of $1,951,367.70.

Liabilities and Assets.

The Treasurer then gave a statement of the direct liabilities and the available assets of the province at 30th June, 1916. He showed that the liabilities formed a total of $41,090,736.44, while the assets aggregated $9,882,848.77, leaving the excess of liabilities over assets on that date at the sum of $31,207,- 887.67.

Funded Debt.

On this head he stated that the net balance of the funded debt of the province on the 30th June, 1916, showed an increase of $3,735,499.76
over the net balance of the same debt on 30th June, 1915. He accounted for this increase by explaining that it had been caused by the issue of $4,000,000.00 debentures
under authority of the Act 5
George V., cap. 2, less $142,788.00
of bonds redeemed of the loan of 1880 and $121,722.24 invested on account of sinking funds.

Unfunded Debt.

On 30th June, 1916, the unfunded
debt, consisting of trust deposits, outstanding warrants, etc., amounted in all to $2,625,408.22, but against this the Government had at the same day in the form of cash in banks, claims against individuals and corporations for loans and advances, Quebec's share ($1,167,334.97)
of the Common Schools Fund, etc., a total of $8,276,301.31, leaving a surplus of $5,650,893.09 of assets
over the unfunded debt.

The Current Year.

Dealing with the question of the current year, the hon. gentleman stated that the receipts from ordinary revenue from the four months ended 31st October, showed a net increase over those for a similar period of the previous year of $125,107.10.
There had been increases in most of the principal sources of revenue which was very satisfactory and indicated the probability of an increase over the estimated receipts
at the end of the fiscal year.

The expenditure would also be increased by the amount of the special warrants issued since 1st July, 1916, namely, $52,968.00 and also by the supplementary estimates to be submitted during the session to provide for the necessary expenditure for the different services, important among which were those for improvement and maintenance of rural roads, lunatic asylums and reformatory and industrial schools.
It was expected, however, that they would be fully provided for by an increase in the revenue.

Estimates for 1917-1918.

For the next fiscal year (1917-18) he estimated the total ordinary revenue at $9,560,164.00 and the total ordinary and extraordinary expenditure at $9,497,212.60, which would leave an estimated surplus of $62,951.40 of ordinary revenue over both ordinary and extraordinary expenditure. He also stated that in the estimate of the Public Debt one item of $200,000.00 had been included to provide for the interest on any loans or advances that might be required to meet any increased expenditure under the Good Roads Act.

Special Loan of $4,000,000.00.

With respect to this, the Treasurer
gave some important information.
He said that the ten year gold bonds of the loan, dated 1st June, 1916, bearing interest, payable half

Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co., at the rate of 99.20 per cent. and accrued interest from 1st June, 1916. This issue completes the $10,000,000.00
special short term loans authorized by the Act 5, George V., chapter 2.
The total expenses incurred in connection with the issue of the loan amounted to $3,711.34, being for engraving, etc., of the bonds and delivery of the same in New York. The hon. gentleman mentioned that the price obtained for this loan received most favorable commendation from the financial journals of the Dominion.

The loan was sold on the most advantageous terms considering the present financial conditions and netted the province 99.20 plus accrued interest, while Ontario for a similar loan issued about the same time, received 99.00. Alberta for $5,000,000.00 10
year, 5 per cent. bonds, received 95.63
and British Columbia for $2,000,000.00
10 year, 4 1/2 per cent. bonds, received
91.50, equal to 95.27 for a five per cent.
bond. War bonds guaranteed jointly by the Governments of Great Britain and France, realized in the neighborhood of 97, and the Dominion Government realized 97 1/2 last year for its war loan. Such comparisons, he added, showed that this province still holds its enviable position in the money markets of the world and can command as high if not higher prices for its securities than any other of the provinces.

Good Roads.

On this head, the Treasurer gave a statement showing the expenditure
under the Good Roads Act, 1912,
as amended by 5 George V., chapter 2, for work done by municipalities and in construction of Government roads, the amount received from proceeds of loans under that Act, and the advances made from the Consolidated Revenue Fund at same date, viz:

Payments to Municipalities to date... $ 9,103,148.75
Payments on Government roads to date... 4,846,736.53
Net proceeds of Loans... 5,850,805.32

Excess of payments
over proceeds of Loans... $ 9,099,079.96

Amount allocated to Municipalities to date... $ 2,573,600.87
Amount paid on same... 9,103,148.75

Balance to be paid
as work progresses $ 470,452.12

The above statement shows that payments to municipalities and on Government roads amount to $13,- 949,885.28, leaving a balance of $750,414.78 on the proceeds of the permanent loans of $15,000,000.00
authorized by the Legislature.

Conclusion.

The Treasurer then brought his expose of the financial situation of the Province to a close with the following remarks:

"The foregoing is an account of the stewardship of this Government for the fiscal year ending the 30th June last, and which, as you will have noticed, is only a repetition of the very successful financial statements that have been presented to the House and to the country by the Government, and the two Governments which preceded it, in the administration of the affairs of this Province since 1897.

"The credit for this we do not claim wholly for ourselves but we give a great part of it to the people of this Province, who have themselves conducted their affairs in a prudent, careful and businesslike way, and insisted that their administrators do likewise.
We have been able to understand the desires and wishes of the people of the Province, and have, year after year, seen that the expenditure did not exceed the receipts, and during the years that we have been in power,
have been able to total up surpluses to the amount of $6,040,478.89, and this, notwithstanding that the grants to the great public services have been increased, so that today they are two,
three and four times as large as they were a few years ago.

"The credit of the Province is of the best in the money markets of the world, as I have just shown.
The Bank clearings and Bank deposits are increasing in an astounding manner. The agricultural classes are getting high prices for their produce, our industries are thriving, but let us not forget that some part of this prosperity may be of an artificial nature, brought about by the large amounts being expended for munitions, although the volume of the munition business has been greater in some of the other Provinces than in our own.

"When the war is over, new conditions will arise. What they will be it is difficult to foresee at the present time, but whatever they may be, let us be prepared for the re-adjustment that will take place when the great fight for liberty and democracy has been won, and, in order to do this, we must husband
our resources, in which our Province is so abundantly rich. You only have to remember our vast timber limits, our inexhaustible mineral wealth, our fisheries, our agricultural possibilities,

not forgetting that only ten per cent of all the arable land in the Dominion is under cultivation.

"Let us encourage the back to the land movement. Let us see that we get our fair share of the immigration that is bound to come to this country after the war. In a word, let us make sure that this Province will take its proper place in the great struggle for commercial supremacy, that is so sure to take place. We have the country, we have the resources, we have the people, so let us put every effort, all our energy and strength into the fight, so that generations to come will say that we are alive to our opportunities, that we realised our possibilities, and were able to cope and deal with all of the great problems that presented themselves.

"There is no reason why we should not make our Province, richer and more prosperous and greater, and if we do so, and if our fellow Canadians
in the other Provinces do likewise,
then all the different Provinces that go to make up this great Dominion, will be stronger, and in their strength they will make a greater and better Canada."
