School Fees, Patronage Denounced By Marler

The growing influence of politics in the educational affairs of the province was condemned in a statement issued last night by George C. Marler, Liberal candidate in Westmount.

"Up to about eight or ten years ago, the educational affairs of the province were conducted by men whose political affiliations, if any, were unknown or at least were never a factor in the affairs of education," said Mr. Marler. "This was as it should be. Today, however, the influence of National Union politicians is always strong, sometimes decisive, and has even reached into the contracting for rural school buildings."

School Fees

Passing on to the contentious question of school fees, Mr. Marler noted that some of those who were party to their imposition now posed as experts with inside information on the subject which they were promising would be useful to them in trying to have the school fee order rescinded.

"Free and compulsory education, the right of every child to a fair start in life, has been a landmark of Liberal policy ever since the convention of 1939," he said. "The party which introduced free schools and free text books is the logical one to restore them."

Education Must Be Free

When Ex-Premier Adélard Godbout gave the convention of 1939 an undertaking to introduce free and compulsory education, the revenues of the province were only slightly more than sixty millions annually, yet he kept his word. Today, with provincial revenues reaching an all-time high of upwards of three hundred millions, five to six times the figure when Mr. Godbout took power, it has been necessary to re-introduce fees for several classes.

Patronage has become a province-wide scandal, reaching into spheres which until a few years ago were completely free of it and has kept taxes high. Millions are let without tender, even culverts under the roads costing four to five thousand dollars, more than reputable Montreal contractors would be willing to quote.

Decisive Win Forecast

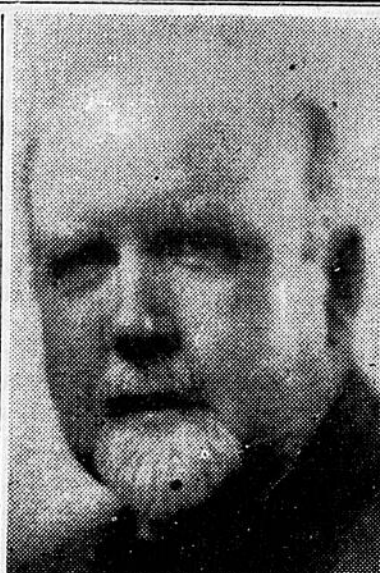

Mr. Marler forecasts a decisive win for the Grits. "A trend has been in evidence for the past two months and has been greatly accelerated during the past fortnight. The latest Gallup Poll gives the parties an even break, but the poll was taken four months ago. Within the past month an independent fact-finding organization, with a national reputation, reports a fifteen percent swing against Duplessis.

"The situation is reflected even in the conduct of Mr. Duplessis himself", Mr. Marler concludes. "He began the campaign with the announcement that he intends to make only twelve speeches, in key centres of the province. But today he is rushing all over the place, sometimes making two or three speeches a day, and using any careless or ill-informed promise that comes to hand in an effort to stop the tide."

Miss Bertha Leger To Leave For England

Miss Bertha Leger, of Victoria Pet Supplies will leave for England Friday, July 18, aboard the Empress of France.

Miss Leger, is a partner of C. A. James of the Pet Shop, who visited in England last year.

Howard Salter Ross, Q.C., D.C.L., distinguished Westmount citizen who celebrated his 80th birthday yesterday. Mr. Ross is a book reviewer for The Examiner and is a well known lecturer and columnist. Mr. Ross resides at 10 Rosemount Ave., Westmount Terrace Apartments.

CCF Candidate Gisele Bergeron Knows Problems

Miss Gisele Bergeron, youngest candidate in Quebec's July 16 general election and CCF standard-bearer in Westmount-St. George, is nevertheless well aware of what is going on in the political life of this province.

At 22, she is the national vice-president of the CCF youth movement and has been interested in politics ever since she left high school. She is now studying at Sir George Williams College for a degree in sociology and is particularly interested in political and social sciences with regard to labor.

Editor of the monthly newspaper of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America (CCL-CIO), Miss Bergeron formerly was editor of François, the 100,000-circulation publication of the Jeunesse Etudiante Catholique, read by Catholic students throughout Quebec.

The CCF candidate in Westmount-St. George is well acquainted with Quebec's youth problems, having been associated for some three years with the JEC, the Catholic students' organization in Quebec province.

If elected July 16, she says she intends to fight in the Quebec Legislature for a program of free education for children to the age of 16. She envisages for the future a system of free university training for all qualified Quebecers. "Everyone, regardless of family background, should have an equal chance to obtain a higher education," she says.

Miss Bergeron is an ardent feminist, who believes that women are entitled to equal pay for equal work. Moreover, she favors a strong Fair Employment Practices Act which would prevent employers from discrimination against any workers on the grounds of race, creed or sex.

"We must give labor in Quebec a new deal," she said in an interview. "The CCF stands for a fair labor code, which will give unions a chance to organize effectively not only skilled workers, but white-collar personnel as well." The latter, she said, are the

Duplessis Lauds Ken Wilson; Tosses Brickbats at Marler

Premier Maurice Duplessis — speaking in support of Kenneth A. Wilson, National Union candidate in Westmount-St. George riding Wednesday night at a rally at the new West Hill High School stressed the qualifications of his standard bearer and tossed brickbats at George C. Marler, the Liberal candidate.

Speaking before more than 2,500 people, many of whom participated in a motor cavalcade through Westmount and St. George districts prior to the meeting, and backed by two cabinet ministers, all the English-speaking candidates of the N.U. in the province and more than 100 prominent citizens, the Premier called Marler tactics "contemptible."

"When Mr. Marler speaks of finances," he said, "he reminds me of Mark Twain, who once said — truth is so fragile a commodity that one must not use it, lest one lose it."

No Interference

The chairman, W. E. Dunton, chairman of the Greater Montreal School Board, in introducing the premier, took occasion to say that never had the premier or any member of the government interfered in school affairs — that the school boards were completely autonomous.

The candidate, Kenneth A. Wilson, speaking before the premier said that he was supporting the National Union for several important reasons.

He listed them as: (a) The fine leadership of Premier Maurice Duplessis; (b) the excellent legislation that had been enjoyed during the past eight years of Union National rule (c) and the treatment given the English-speaking minorities.

In speaking first of the Westmount-St. George riding, Mr. Duplessis said that he could never mention the name of the riding without remembering his great and good friend the late Brig. Gen. Charles A. Smart who had represented the riding so long and so well.

"During his regime" the Premier said, "the people of Westmount-St. George proved that they could be smart — I hope they will be smart again on July 16th."

"Shameful Act"

He attacked George Marler for presiding at meetings where French-speaking candidates were named in traditional English-language ridings of the province — Brome, Compton and Argen-teuil.

"This was a shameful act", he said, "and one that I believe should be condemned by the electors of Westmount-St. George at the polls. You have only eight seats. There can be no democracy in the Legislature if the English-speaking people are not represented. It is shameful for Mr. Marler not to recognize his obligations."

Perhaps the best applause was received by the Premier when he stated his support of private enterprise. The so-called Liberal party, he said, was against private enterprise.

Georges Emile Lapalme, its leader, he added, had threatened to make Quebec the Iran of North America. "George Marler," he added, "has never repudiated this statement. He must be in favor of it."

Westmount Camp Places Second In Inter-Track Meet

The boys from the Westmount Y.M.C.A. City Camp placed second in the Annual Inter-Y Track meet held at N.D.G. Y.M.C.A. this week. N.D.G. Y.M.C.A. placed first with 109½ points while Westmount Y.M.C.A. placed second with 59½ points. Central Y.M.C.A. placed third with 35 points. Nine Y.M.C.A.s throughout the city competed for the Inter-Y track laurels.

Ronnie Taylor, 12, of Lansdowne avenue pulled the upset of the day, by defeating 2 dozen other runners in the open ¼ mile event. Ronnie also placed first in the 12 years and under broad-jump and second in the 75 yard dash and 50 yard dash. Frank Rooney was in good condition to win the open mile marathon and came second to Taylor in the ½ mile. He also won the 15 years old 100 yard dash and 75 dash while placing second in the running broad-jump and the shotput.

Dane Orton, recently from South Africa, placed third in the 12 years and under 50 yard dash, while Roy Smith placed second in the high-jump and first in the shotput. Dan Daley of the United States, placed third in the 15 years old 100 yard dash. Jamie Clark placed second in the ½ mile run and second in the broad-jump. David Gilmore placed third in the

Snow Removal Equipment For Westmount Soon

Westmount City Council discussed snow removal in Monday night's sweltering heat.

It was decided at the meeting that the roads department will receive a new line of equipment for snow removal and road smoothing.

One of the main machines will be a $17,000 snow blower to replace an existing machine which is fully depreciated.

Other machines bought by Westmount are:

1. A sidewalk tractor and plough valued at $4,300. The new machine will replace an old tractor which has been in use for years.

2. A front end tractor loader valued at $7,360. It was decided to buy this machine when Council learned that a similar tractor had been used in Westmount last year with great success.

3. A highway patrol grader used for snow ploughing, loading, smoothing streets and for breaking up ice in the spring. Cost of the grader is set at $21,600.

4. A mechanical road sweeper which has never been in operation in Westmount before will cost the City $12,700. This machine will sweep the streets and pick up the sweepings at the same time. It was pointed out that the sweeper is efficient and economical.

5. The City has purchased seven power-drive rotary brooms to sweep sand and roughing material off the streets in spring. Total cost for the brooms is $6,195.

A gravelly tractor and equipment including a power sprayer which will cost $1,100 will be bought for the Parks Department, City Hall announced this week.

Chief Byford New President Assoc.

Robert Byford, director of the Westmount Police Department, was elected today as president of the Quebec Association of Police and Fire Chiefs at the annual meeting in Granby. He succeeds Maurice Vincent, chief of the Drummondville police.

Others elected were:

First vice-president, Valmore Lapierre, police chief, Joliette; second vice-president, Frank Pitre, police chief, Lachine; third vice-president, Ulric St. Martin; treasurer, Esdras Lepine, of Ste. Anne de Bellevue; and secretary, Pierre Gatineau, police director, Verdun.

Mrs. A. Ferguson, 86, Passes In St. Laurent

Mrs. A. Ferguson, 86, who was a former Snowdon resident and the wife of the late Alfred Ferguson, one-time employee of the Westmount Statistical Department, died Tuesday morning at the St. Laurent home of her daughter, Mrs. L. S. Hickmore. Mrs. Ferguson was a member of the Melville Church in Westmount.

Besides Mrs. Hickmore, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. L. S. Manson of Lachine, Quebec, Mrs. A. Christy of Dorion, Quebec, and one son, Alfred Ferguson of Valois, Quebec.

Funeral was held today at the D. A. Collins Funeral Home, Sherbrooke Street West, with Rev. B. B. Brown of St. James United Church officiating.

Interment was in Montreal Memorial Park.

real victims of inflation "since they don't enjoy the gains won by other organized workers."

Miss Bergeron said there was little difference between Premier Maurice Duplessis and Liberal Leader Georges Lapalme whom she called "the Toni Twins of Quebec politics." The CCF candidate added: "The only difference between them is that Duplessis has been in power and Lapalme is on the outside looking in — and drooling over the millions."

The CCF candidate says she is irrevocably opposed to Communism which she calls "the greatest single threat in the world today." On the other hand, she adds, "it is people like Duplessis who lay the groundwork for the Communist conspiracy by falling to give the masses a square deal."

Miss Bergeron believes in comprehensive health services for the people of Quebec so that "medical treatment won't be reserved for the wealthy alone." She strongly favors enactment of a health insurance plan which will give every citizen a chance to be treated "according to their needs and not according to the contents of their wallets."

Housing is another subject on which she has very definite opinions. Being in close contact with Montreal's clothing workers, she has had an opportunity to examine at first hand the plight of hard-pressed wage-earners. "I am firmly convinced," she says, "that the first task of any government elected in Quebec should be to establish a program of low-cost subsidized housing."

More than anything else, Miss Bergeron feels that, whatever happens in the July 16 election, popular support of the CCF is the only way the electors of Quebec "can protest against the inaction of the old parties."

In conclusion, the CCF candidate says: "I believe that it is the duty of the younger generation in Quebec to fight for its rights if we want to see people in power who have our interests at heart."

City Hall News

A by-law concerning "Good Morals and Decency," was discussed at Westmount City Council Monday evening.

By-law 196, adopted March 24, 1909 was amended by adding the following section after section 5, namely:-

Section 5A: Every person who appears in any street, road park or public place while clad in a bathing suit or in immodest wearing apparel shall be subject to the penalties hereinafter provided.

With the acute shortage of garages Westmount motorists will be able to park on their own property providing that a suitable driveway is available.

Section 2. The second paragraph of said Article 55, as enacted by By-law 552 adopted May 5, 1948, is hereby repealed and replaced by the following paragraphs:

"It is forbidden to park a vehicle on any vacant lot or on the premises of any gasoline station except in accordance with a permit issued by the Chief of Police to the owner, tenant or occupant of such property limiting the number of vehicles which may be parked thereon and indicating the places therefor.

No vehicle may be parked between the street line and the building line of any lot unless (a) a permanent ramp has been constructed for crossing the sidewalk; (b) and every part of the vehicle is more than three feet distant from the sidewalk; and (c) the parking place or the wheel tracks thereof be paved with concrete, flagstones or other permanent material in accordance with a permit, to be issued by the Building Inspector without charge, and are maintained to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and the Chief of Police."

Western Avenue

Western avenue is presently being prepared for the laying down of an inch thick armor coat. The surfacing will begin July 21 and will take about a month to complete.

In order that traffic won't suffer from the surfacing, City Hall has decided that two blocks at a time will be laid down.

VARIETY and POT-POURRI

In last week's column... "Our New Committee", the name of Jean Papineau-Couture was inadvertently omitted. Mr. Couture was elected a member of the Executive Committee and is a composer, pianist and teacher; Secretary of the Academie de Musique de Quebec, a professor at the Conservatoire de la Province de Quebec and is on the staff of the Faculty of Music at the University of Montreal.

We read with great interest of the "Little Mermaid Ballet" in the film, "Hans Christian Andersen". Five famous works by Franz List one of the most dramatic composers of all time, will be used as background music, "Gnomensreigen" which will be ideally suitable, "Les preludes", "Tasso Lamento Trongo", "Valse Oubliee" and "Pas d'Amour". Film biographies of composers Handel, Beethoven, Chopin, Schumann, Gershwin have proved great successes and it was always a wonder to us that Liszt's life was not portrayed. At long last it is being filmed by two companies, Columbia, calling it the "Franz Liszt Story" and Paramount has not released a name as yet but has been working on a picture based on the life of Liszt for some time. Some of his exciting life could not be conveyed to the screen as it would definitely be censored.

Speaking of films, isn't it strange that people claim they want authenticity yet are satisfied with much fiction? Time and again you hear people speak of the stupidity of such titles as "Moonlight Sonata" which Beethoven did not give to the composition himself, "Raindrop" Prelude by Chopin and countless others named through various unknown sources. Yet so little is known about the lives of some that many of the biographies are mostly fiction from the mind of some gifted writer.

One evening last week we were listening to a radio play brought through locally from the American Broadcasting Corporation. It was a good drama and naturally we listened to the names of the cast. One of the leading parts was acted by Hurd Hatfield—a handsome Metropolitan Opera singer who evidently has turned to acting. Many men singers have excellent stage voices but women vocalists do not seem to be so fortunate. Jeanette MacDonald is one of the few with a delightful speaking voice.

A man who was a musician, novelist and Canadian historian, besides holding a regular position with the Canadian Pacific Railway for thirty-eight years, passed away on July 3 at the age of seventy-seven. John Murray Gibbon will go down in Canadian history as a great Canadian even though Canada was not his native land.

He founded the Canadian Authors' Association and became its first president, was a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada and had many honours during his colourful life. John Murray Gibbon publicized the folk lore of French Canada in music through his delightful arrangements. His novels, five of them, have been widely read and his fine education in Oxford, followed by study in Germany and France served him in good stead. The loss of John Murray Gibbon is a loss to Canada.

Census Report Of Religions

The census report of the religions of the people of Canada has been issued by the Bureau of Statistics. Roman Catholics constitute forty-three decimal three per cent of the total population. The United Church of Canada is the largest of the other churches, with twenty decimal five per cent of the total population. Anglicans comprise fifteen per cent, Presbyterians five decimal six per cent, Baptists three decimal seven, and Lutherans three decimal two. United Church people, Anglicans, Presbyterians, Baptists and Lutherans together make up forty-eight per cent of the total population. Jews constitute one and a half per cent.

Doug Walker, Alouettes' Coach, Addresses Rotary

Doug Walker, Alouettes' jovial coach, made his first official start in the Knife-and-Fork League yesterday speaking to members of the Westmount Rotary Club.

While the slow-drawling Alabamian didn't divulge any of the club's top-drawer secrets, he blossomed forth as an entertaining after-dinner speaker.

Just how long it will take Walker to produce a winning team was probably best exemplified by a yarn he spun.

"It seems," said Walker, "that there was once a football coach who got an appointment to a leading Texas university. In his maiden speech to the alumni he was careful and exacting. 'I may not win any games the first year and if we're lucky we might win one or two the second year. However, the third year' . . . Just then, a big Texan boomed from the back of the hall, 'Never mind about the third year, coach, you won't be here that long.'"

Not That Long

Using that story as a parallel, Walker admitted that he didn't think it would take him three years to produce a contender.

Walker said that this year's edition of the Alouettes would probably feature an All-American line with the backfield all-Canadian with the exception of the quarterback and possibly the fullback.

The Canadian rules didn't puzzle him. In fact, he likes some of the features of the Canadian game such as the rouge and the added suspense of a back running out kicks from behind his goal area.

His only difference of opinion, and it's a common complaint among American-bred coaches, is the limited blocking. Walker would like to see unlimited blocking, especially on pass interception. "When a player intercepts a pass in the Canadian game, it's against the opposition while his team-mates just stand around and hope he makes it," he said.

"If unlimited blocking was allowed, every man on the field would immediately get into the act," he concluded.

Walker has been conducting a try-out school for local hopefuls and while some 30 high school junior and intermediate players have turned out, he doesn't believe too many of them are ready for the big jump. "They have the natural ability but their size is against them," he said. However, Walker might single out three or four of them and put them to work with the Varsity squad when the club rallies for its first light drill next Tuesday.

Frank Carlin, hockey coach of the senior Royals, held the chair yesterday and Walker was introduced by Fred Roast, a keen football fan and a member of the Westmount Rotary executive panel.

The speaker was thanked by Jack Burrows.

Statisticians, reporting that Canada, estimate it is worth an annual $80,000.00.

VOTE NATIONAL UNION

Elections

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor,

The aspect of life to which we pay least attention at ordinary times is the political. We are pressed upon day by day by the economic side of life; wages, salaries, the cost of meat and the high rents do not leave us much option: we must think and talk in terms of economics. Our own inclinations keep us aware of sports and the pleasure side of life. Our homes make us interested in domestic things generally. And the newspapers keep supplying us with material to satisfy those sides of life. The Church tries to keep us concerned with religion — or, rather, tries to keep us from turning economics and sports and things domestic into a false religion.

But the other essential side of life is one we tend to ignore. That is the political side. Yet politics — the science of citizenship — is one of the very first concerns of every responsible member of the community. A community is a collection of people who stand on a common basis of rights and responsibilities. They belong to the community and the community belongs to them. They owe duties to the community and the community to them. They have privileges. Equality of opportunity and privilege is of the very essence of life within the community. Of course the kind of community I have sketched is the one we call democratic. There have been many others — tyrannies, feudal states, absolute monarchies; and anyone of them is a more natural form of state than a democracy. For democracy implies a higher degree of self control than any of the others.

We consider democracy the highest expression of political life that men have yet devised. There every citizen exercised his vote have been small states where directly in the public assembly. In Athens 2,400 years ago every citizen was at liberty to debate any subject of political import in the assembly. But in our huge modern states we have devised the method of representative government in which from 5,000 to 50,000 voters will choose one man to represent them. We have further devised a system of party government in which the largest party becomes the Government and the next largest party becomes Her Majesty's Loyal opposition.

No system of government is perfect, for no group of men is perfect. And the system of representative government is not by any means an easy system to manage. It is subject to many drawbacks. For example, each voter seems of little importance, and tends to say that it does not matter whether he votes or not. So half the voters do not exercise their rights. Again, when we have placed a party in power and it abuses its power, as it may do, we shrug our shoulders and say that it always happens. And we do not give our minds to the political issues involved, so that we may vote intelligently when an election comes.

Those things are all true, but in spite of them, it is still our duty to inform ourselves to the best of our ability, and to choose the best men available to represent us, and then to follow them up and see that they serve our community faithfully.

Girl With Career Problems Can Try Life In Nursing

The girl who leaves school this summer with no plans for her future career, might well consider a new field in nursing. Nursing assistants are now being trained to aid nurses so that the highly specialized skills of the nurse may be utilized to better advantage by the hospital. The training of the nursing assistant is shorter — nine months only — and she is assured of full-time employment. Provincial health departments, and the federal Department of Veterans' Affairs, Ottawa, will supply information on these training courses.

Lions Golf Tournament August 23-24, Progressing

Arrangements for the Lions' pro golf tournament have progressed well beyond the planning stage, according to executives of the tournament committee.

The event is scheduled for the Lachute Golf and Country Club with 36 holes to be played on Saturday, August 23, and 18 on Sunday, August 24.

Prize money will be $3,000, more than any other Quebec tournament is offering this season, Bill Kerr will be the defending champion.

STEERAGE HOE

A Govenry firm announce that among their exhibits at the Royal Highland and Royal Shows this year will be an entirely new type of steerage hoe. This implement, the Independent Gang Steerage Hoe, is entered for the Silver Medal award of both of the Show Societies. It marks a new approach to the problem of ensuring that each hoe, or gang of hoes, penetrates the ground to a uniform depth. The implement uses a hydraulic mechanism which makes each hoe gang follow the ground contour independently.

Poliomyelitis Foundation Aid Program Lauded

A message stressing the importance of aiding the Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis in its six point program for helping polio sufferers and combatting the disease has been received by the Canadian Legion March of Dimes from Hon. Paul Martin, Minister of National Health and Welfare. "It should be our endeavor to see that every victim of polio in Canada is given a chance to get the expert care that will provide the best hope of cure, or at least, of keeping disability at a minimum," the message stated.

The purpose of the foundation was to mobilize public interest in programs to help polio sufferers and to co-ordinate voluntary services in this field.

"It is important for us to do what we can through the foundation and otherwise to prevent polio and to assist those whose health has been impaired by it.

"Apart from defects at birth, this disease is the principal cause of crippling in children. It is estimated that more than 17,000 Canadian children have had polio. Many of these, however, have escaped permanent disability. It is important to remember that well over half of those afflicted by polio will recover if properly treated."

The Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis' six point program included treatment, rehabilitation, research, education, provision of technical equipment, and financial assistance in paying for medical and hospital care. This program has been designed to serve the needs both of adult and child victims of polio.

With the support of interested and public-spirited citizens, the foundation was making contributions of increasing significance in combatting polio, the message continued.

"The motto of the foundation is 'Help them work and play again.' By helping to restore victims of

A MAN IS JUDGED BY HIS RECORD

In all sincerity I ask the electors of Westmount-St. George to judge Premier Maurice Duplessis and his government on their record over the past eight years. It has been above reproach. It deserves a renewal of its mandate so that private enterprise will continue to receive the same encouragement and protection it has had since 1944.

There are many issues in the present election, but the most important is that of industrial progress. With it, Quebec will prosper and the people of Westmount-St. George; without it, the very foundations of our economy will be undermined. As a candidate of the National Union I can assure you of a continuation of the fine N.U. policy in this regard.

Scouting Around

with REG. GROOME

At their recent consultation meeting at Scout Headquarters the leading officials of Rovering in the ten Districts of Montreal declared themselves fully behind a repetition of the Rover Mates Training Course and also the servicing of the Metropolitan District Swimming Championship Meet. It was mentioned that South Shore District — Cubs, Scouts and Rovers — has issued this year's swim challenge to all other Districts.

Besides putting a hearty week-end of experimental camping and cooking under their Rover Commissioner, Charles Yerby, Bill Brown of Croydon and A.S.M. Lloyd Fear of Storer, the South Shore Rovers and Squires cut, trimmed and erected a forty-foot flagpole on the Rover Campsite on Lake Tamaracouta. For their own personal use they each cut and prepared a thumbstick so they might be ready for their next expedition along the highways and byways of the Eastern Townships. Before leaving, each member of the party did a service job for Camp Tamaracouta at the rate of at least one hour for each day or part day on the camp property, which is now a regular requirement for all Rovers.

On Trail Hike

Rover Squire Lionel Musgrove, who is preparing himself for acceptance into the Pawnee Rover Crew of Tetraultville, in Eastern District, last week-end fulfilled one major requirement to the entire satisfaction of the Crew. He and his sponsor, Rover Ralph Ellis, went to Lennoxville and hiked the 22 miles by road to East Clifton, with only a light-weight bedroll and tinfoil cooking. The weather was ideal and the highway traffic light according to his "log."

Provincial Rover Moot

It is expected that, after their meeting on Wednesday July 16, the leaders of Rovering in Metropolitan Montreal will be in a position to start preparing all Rovers of the ten Districts of Montreal for full participation in the big Provincial Rover Moot, to be held over the 1952 Labor Day holiday (from noon Saturday until about noon Monday). The order of the day calls for self-contained units, light equipment, and probably charcoal cooking, at a site in the Eastern Townships, within easy range of Montreal. More details should be available for publication next week, so start planning now to go.

Canadian Jamboree 1953

The plans, and details for this All Canadian event are fast coming to light, and Scouts are advised to start looking over their First Class tests, for this must be completed and awarded by May 1, 1953, as a requirement for attendance. Another feature is the making of your own light-weight tent and we do not mean a mere pup tent. Better start looking into the ways and means of cooking with charcoal, for wood will not be used at the next Jamboree. How about ways and means, also, of earning about a dollar a week for the next 52 weeks just to be prepared financially.

Many Rovers Are Scouters

The Red Moose Crew of Verdun — Southern District — were the first to get started in Montreal after the last war and they have now just about completed their full term of training for one set of Rovers — in other words four years. The following Rovers, now age 21 or over, are to graduate into the Senior Stage or Service Division of Rovering and they have all selected Scouting as their Service — J. Lindsay, Assistant Leader, Red Moose Crew; P. Barolet, acting A.S.M. St. Thomas More Troop; H. Lamb, acting A.S.M. Bannantyne Troop; D. McKnight, assistant S.M. St. Clement's Troop; K. Rourke, A.C.M. Crawford Park Cub Pack; D. Bryant, Cubmaster of St. Eustache Cub Pack; Bill Lawton, Scoutmaster of Beaufort Scout Troop; Gerry Lawton, Assistant C.M. of Beaufort Cub Pack; George Clifford, acting A.S.M. Rushbrooke Scout Troop; Colin Harrowing, now at the University of New Brunswick, is acting Scoutmaster and district first aid instructor in Fredericton, N.B. Besides the ten named above, the Crew has several Rovers and Squires who are planning to continue their Rovering training.

McGill Troop Plans

Scoutmaster Lanthier is laying plans to promote a Rover Crew in connection with the 11th Montreal McGill Scout Troop, with headquarters at the University Settlement on St. Urbain Street. He spent the week-end at Tamaracouta with a number of Scouts and he and his seniors have a schedule of visits this summer to the various Rover Crews in action throughout Montreal District. This will be the first Rover Crew to get going in Central District and, if a glance at the prospective membership is any indication, it will be the first really International Crew in Metropolitan Montreal.

Scout Awards

For his distinguished services to Scouting over many years Mr. Roy Wilson of St. Johns, Que., District Commissioner there, was awarded the Silver Acorn. This is the second highest award of the Boy Scouts Association. For their good services to Scouting, Norman B. Fergus, district commissioner for the Southern District; J. W. Phillips (of Sillery, Que.) Assistant district commissioner for the Quebec district; and Miss M. Jean Howe, Cubmaster of the Knox-Crescent and Kensington Cub Pack, were awarded the Scout Medal of Merit. The list was published on the occasion of Dominion Day, July 1, the first list of the year being issued on February 22, the Founder's birthday.

Knights' Ceremony

A week ago last Thursday, fourteen campers at Tamaracouta were chosen as candidates for membership in the Knights of Tamara; and after participation in the jousts that evening, in which all proved their worthiness, they went forward to the second final ceremony on Tuesday week, when they were accepted into the honor society of the Camp, and each was given his bead to be worn on his right wrist tied with a leather thong, in the traditional manner. The successful Scouts were Albert Jared of Woodlands, James Templeman, Montreal West, Charles Pick, Willingdon, J. Douglas Turner and Donald Ferrier, 2nd Westmount, Fred Sumner, St. Mark's and Gardenville, Chris. Carr, St. Matthias, John Ross St. Augustine's Michael Birse, Fairmount St. Giles, Richard White and Charles Casey, St. Leo's Robt. Bushfield, St. Malachy's, Walter Borlase and Gordon Smith, St. Matthew's. Candidates from camping troops in the second, third and fourth periods at Tamaracouta will also be presented for membership.

Visiting Campers

During the first period, there have been several visitors in Camp Tamaracouta, among them Stanley A. Richardson, a former Factor (camp director), and George McLaughlin, District Commissioner for Oshawa, Ont.; "Larry" Dean and Cecil Safford, Scout officials of Burlington, Vt.; Edwin Flanagan, Scoutmaster of Troop 92, Fairfield, Conn., with three of his Scouts; Lionel Leighton, former Port Warden at the Montreal Sea Scout Base, S.S.S. Venture; Cpl. Jim Archer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and Cons. Cecil Emblem of the R.C.M.P. Reserve.

Wolf Cub Camp

The following Cub Packs are represented this week at Cub Camp: Bronx Park, Crawford Park, Lakeside, Strathmore, Pine Beach, Pointe Claire, Town of Mount Royal, St. Laurent and Ste. Saviour's. Returned last Saturday were Cubs from Chambly-Richelieu district, Otterburn Park, Bannantyne, St. Thomas', Kenogami, Lord Alexander, Rosemount United, Calvary, St. Mark's and Gardenville, Longueuil, St. Paul's Lachine, Ephraim Scott and Vickers.

Fine Production Set For Festivals

What is described as among the most fascinating biographical plays about a great composer to come out of Europe during the past half century is The Life of Beethoven, by René Fauchois, which is to be one of the spectacular productions of the 1952 Montreal Festival opening on July 26 and continuing until the end of August.

The Life of Beethoven will be staged at the Chalet on Mount Royal on Tuesday evening, August 12, under the musical direction of the distinguished Belgian conductor, Charles Houdret, former musical director of the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium Symphony Orchestra, and stage direction of François Rozet, noted actor-director.

Before 1830 Fort Frances, Ont., was a trading post known as Rainy Lake. It was named after pioneer Lady Frances Simpson.

The Choice in Westmount

Voters Have Good Slate From Which to Choose

The provincial general election is now less than one week away, and Westmount can indeed consider itself fortunate in having three candidates of high calibre to contest the seat. The three are Hon. George Marler, the present member, Kenneth A. Wilson, and Miss Gisele Bergeron.

Mr. Marler needs no introduction to local voters. His work in rehabilitating the finances of the City of Montreal, and subsequently as Liberal House Leader has stamped him as perhaps the most capable man we have in public life in this province. He did a herculean job in almost single-handedly carrying the burden of opposition against the top-heavy Union National representation in the last Assembly.

Mr. Wilson, a prominent member of Montreal's legal fraternity, is carrying the Duplessis banner here. He is campaigning on a "win with Wilson" slogan, believes Duplessis will be returned again, and thinks Westmount is entitled to some of the good things in the way of more schools and hospitals that can only come by a dual National Union-Wilson win.

Not much is known of Miss Bergeron, but what is known of her personally is to her credit. She is the National Vice-President of the CCF youth movement, will preach the cause of socialism in the present campaign.

All candidates will be making an appeal this week-end and early next week to voters to GET OUT AND CAST YOUR BALLOT. That is a privilege only citizens of free countries enjoy. Be sure to use it.

Chatting with William Feather

Although universally condemned, gossip is universally practiced.

No plan is worth a damn unless somebody makes it work.

The man may merely want your approval and friendship, so don't be so suspicious and vain.

What every woman wants from a man is the feeling that he is dependent on her, and this dependence may be financial.

An entertaining passenger on the Caronia said that at home he employed a man and his wife who got $150 a month, with keep. He said that this man was better off than the vice-president of a bank at $25,000. After maintaining his required standard of living and paying his taxes, the banker had nothing left. The servants were always solvent.

Unless a woman gets on her knees, nobody in England thinks she's doing a proper cleaning job. To see elderly women outside restaurants in prominent streets scrubbing sidewalks distressed me 40 years ago and still does. That's their idea, so why should I weep?

Bonusing Parentage

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

Mussolini was one of the first to institute family allowances, and his avowed purpose in doing so was to encourage parents to have big families and thus provide more men for his army of "eighty million bayonets" with which he proposed to establish his New Roman Empire. That Empire, however, never materialized. Even the nucleus at the hands of his own people. The allowances were very popular and were doubtless responsible for the increase in population which is now a serious problem in Italy.

Family allowances were introduced in Canada as an economic measure to assist parents with inadequate incomes in providing the necessities and little extras for their children, and perhaps, incidentally, to encourage them to have more children and thus to add to the native-born population. All this seemed to be reasonable and generous, and it was so popular that the government, which tentatively passed the measure before a general election, was returned to power. The allowances are still popular, except with parents who have few or no children and those who, having raised their families without government help, have now to pay extra taxes to help raise their grandchildren. I happen to be one of the latter, and I don't think it is fair. But nothing can be done about it, for no political leader dare say a word against it.

No one who has raised children (and I have raised four of them) could object to assisting parents who are in real need. There were many such parents during the great depression when so many were out of employment. But when and since family allowances were instituted there has been comparatively little unemployment. Wages have been greatly increased and people generally have more money in their pockets than ever before. Yet these allowances for "needy" parents are still being paid to thousands who are in no need and are more able to provide for their children than some of us where when we were raising ours. It is not jealousy, on my part at least, for I am now thankful for the spur of hard times in the Old Country that forced me to migrate with my family to Canada. When we arrived there was no one to greet us, and I accepted the first job that was offered — at ten dollars a week. When I read about some of these new immigrants from Britain complaining, I am ashamed of them.

But my objection to family allowance is not only that they are a form of pauperism, but that they are unfairly distributed to parents who do not need them, and are a wasteful expenditure of public funds, which call for higher taxation to maintain a host of civil servants, and which takes back a large proportion of the money distributed. An example of this was revealed recently by the mother of a family in the middle-income group with one child, who received an allowance of $60 yearly, but had benefited only to the amount of 38 cents a week after income tax had been deducted from the total income. Commenting on this in a letter to the Toronto Globe and Mail. Al CCheseman, of London, Ont., wrote:

"Ottawa maintains a large staff of file clerks, stenographers, secretaries, bookkeepers, right up to the executive heads of staff, to make out cheques, which have to be handled first by the Post Office Department and then by the banks. You and I and Mrs. Ellis have all paid taxes so that Mrs. Ellis may receive 38 cents, and many people have been taken out of the production effort in order to perpetuate this farce of 'family allowances'."

There may be instances where parents in the low income group with large families benefit substantially from the allowances, but in many of these cases the assurance of a monthly bonus income has had the effect of lessening the sense of parental responsibility and rendering the "bread-winner" less inclined to work. I know of one case where a married couple decided to have one child every year in order to build up a bonus income, while the father was content to do odd jobs and run around with an old car rather than bind himself to regular work. The children were neglected. This was a case of bonusing bad parentage.

Precaution Pays In Care Of Piano

Old or new, large or small, your piano is worthy of the best possible care.

Piano experts say that a piano should not be placed near an open window or radiator. Swelling of the sounding board and rusting of nickel parts may occur.

From time to time it is advisable to clean the sounding board by inserting a soft dry cloth under the strings.

Moths have no love for music for, without a thought, they will damage the felts on the hammers. If the house is moth infested, or the instrument is to undergo a period of storage, small bags of camphor suspended inside the piano will offer protection against the pests.

Keys can be cleaned with a cloth dampened very slightly with water, and wiped with a dry cloth. Some "piano lovers" prefer to use a little milk instead of water on the principle that it prevents the ivory from yellowing. If they are very dirty or already yellow, a mild solution of vinegar is effective.

Christian Science

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 13.

This Lesson-Sermon bring out that public worship, ritual, ceremony and symbolism are inadequate substitutes for striving to dual purity and healing service to follow Jesus' example of individuality.

The Golden Text is from Psalm (116:12, 13): "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits towards me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord."

Citations from the Bible include the following: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread." (I Cor. 10: 16, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Are all who eat bread and drink wine in memory of Jesus willing truly to drink his cup, take his cross, and leave all for the Christ-principle? If all who seek his commemoration through material symbols will take up the cross, heal the sick, cast out evils, and preach Christ, or Truth, to the poor, — the receptive thought, — they will bring in the millennium."

Swim in Safety

If you cannot swim don't go into the water alone. Everybody should learn at least one stroke and how to float with reasonable skill. If you like diving, be sure there are no rocks, logs or weeds down there. Learn to use a good method of artificial respiration — it might save a life. Those who swim can go boating in greater safety, but remember that handling a canoe or sailboat requires specialized skill. A little know-how may prevent a tragedy.

Brown Sugar Meringue

Next time you make a chocolate butterscotch pie — or a custard or cream pie — try topping it with meringue made of brown sugar instead of regular white sugar. It gives your pie a more positive taste. Use five table-spoons of brown sugar, ½ tea-spoon salt, and 2 egg whites, and make the meringue in the usual way. Always start at the edges of your pie to work in when you're spreading meringue; have the meringue touch the crust all around.

A good roasting chicken should have well-fleshed breast and legs, and fat well-distributed under skin and down the back, over thighs and along sides, indicated by light yellow or white streaks. Flesh may show through the skin if poultry is not well-fattened. Too much fat is wasteful, although it may be used in cooking.

Problems Involving The Distribution Of National Income — "Liberalism And Industry" By Ramsey Muir — The Maldistribution Of Wealth — The Ever-Increasing Weight Of Taxes And The Effect On The Average Man

I have often thought of the problems involved in the distribution of our national income. They came back to me with a bang this morning. I was looking for a certain book. I missed it anyway, it was at home. I pulled out another book and glanced at it. The title was "Liberalism and Industry." The author was Ramsay Muir. I looked at the "blurb" on the front pages. I opened the book at random and noticed a paragraph I had marked. I read that in June, 1942. This paragraph was as follows:

"The more the capital required for the nation's activities is provided for the nation's activities is provided by the giants of finance, the better it will be for the nation. Indeed, unless the hard-working learn to create capital by saving on a large scale, the reduction of large fortunes may actually hinder the development of industry by depriving it of the source from which it now draws much of the necessary capital. But in actual practice very widespread investment will only become possible when the mass of the people have incomes sufficient to make saving possible; and that will only be when the nation is producing far more wealth."

Now that was quite all right in the days of Ramsay Muir. It's quite all right today. This, however, is the machine age. The amount of capital required for the development of this country is tremendous. Then what about the demands of other countries. We have a capital hungry world and if we were to wait for this to be done by the accumulation of capital by ordinary earnings and savings — then I fear it might be ages before the development we demand could be attained.

This, however, is no argument against the desire to see a vast increase in savings. There are, however, lions in the way. Fifty or a hundred years ago savings were rather slowly accumulated. It took a man a life-time to pay the mortgage on the farm, now savings have greatly increased so too have expenditures. In the old days the city or town resident might drive out a few miles into the country and spend a day or two on a farm. Now the whole family wants to spend several weeks or a month at a summer resort. It costs real money. The pace is set by the tempo of the times in which we live.

There will be further checks to savings, we have old age pensions. The cry has already been raised that if we can have pensions at 70 why not have them at 60 or 50? Taxes too are taking an enormous toll. We are increasing our earning power by the increase in our capacity to produce. It is said that the government of the day, no matter which party is in power, is quite dangerous and hopeless but new parties develop from time to time. They are always certain that under their direction a new organization would be quite capable of creating a new heaven and a new earth.

The maldistribution of wealth is supposed to be the problem of every capitalist nation. Great accumulations of wealth are no longer in bank vaults nor found in some secret corner behind the clock. They are invested in business or industry. They are loaned to governments and are rarely idle. The man with a million is employing labor. It is invested in industry. If these great fortunes were no more the tempo of business would decline, the nation would be less prosperous than it was. There would be more unemployment.

These proposals are usually put forward by those who would put the life of the nation entirely in the hands of the government. They are very critical of existing governments but believe firmly that a government built in their own image could work marvels on the plastic nature of the everyday mind. The modern man may be able but all too often he fails to chart the course of the future. Science jumps ahead of him, industry finds new ways of doing things. In a democracy the minds of the voters change. Few feel that we are so successful in the government of our own day that we should have an overwhelming desire to stamp our imprint on the governments of future years.

The barriers to free progress — I mean progress which comes from improvements in education and training is the erection of a wall of taxes. The average man is unable to overcome the dead weight of the ever increasing load of taxes. They will be increased, yet we have no doubt — but eventually this mood will pass. The curse of this modern age is that it seeks to divide the existing wealth of the nation when the only basis of a happy future lies in the increase of production, the expansion of trade and the spread of international peace and good will.

WOW COOKIES

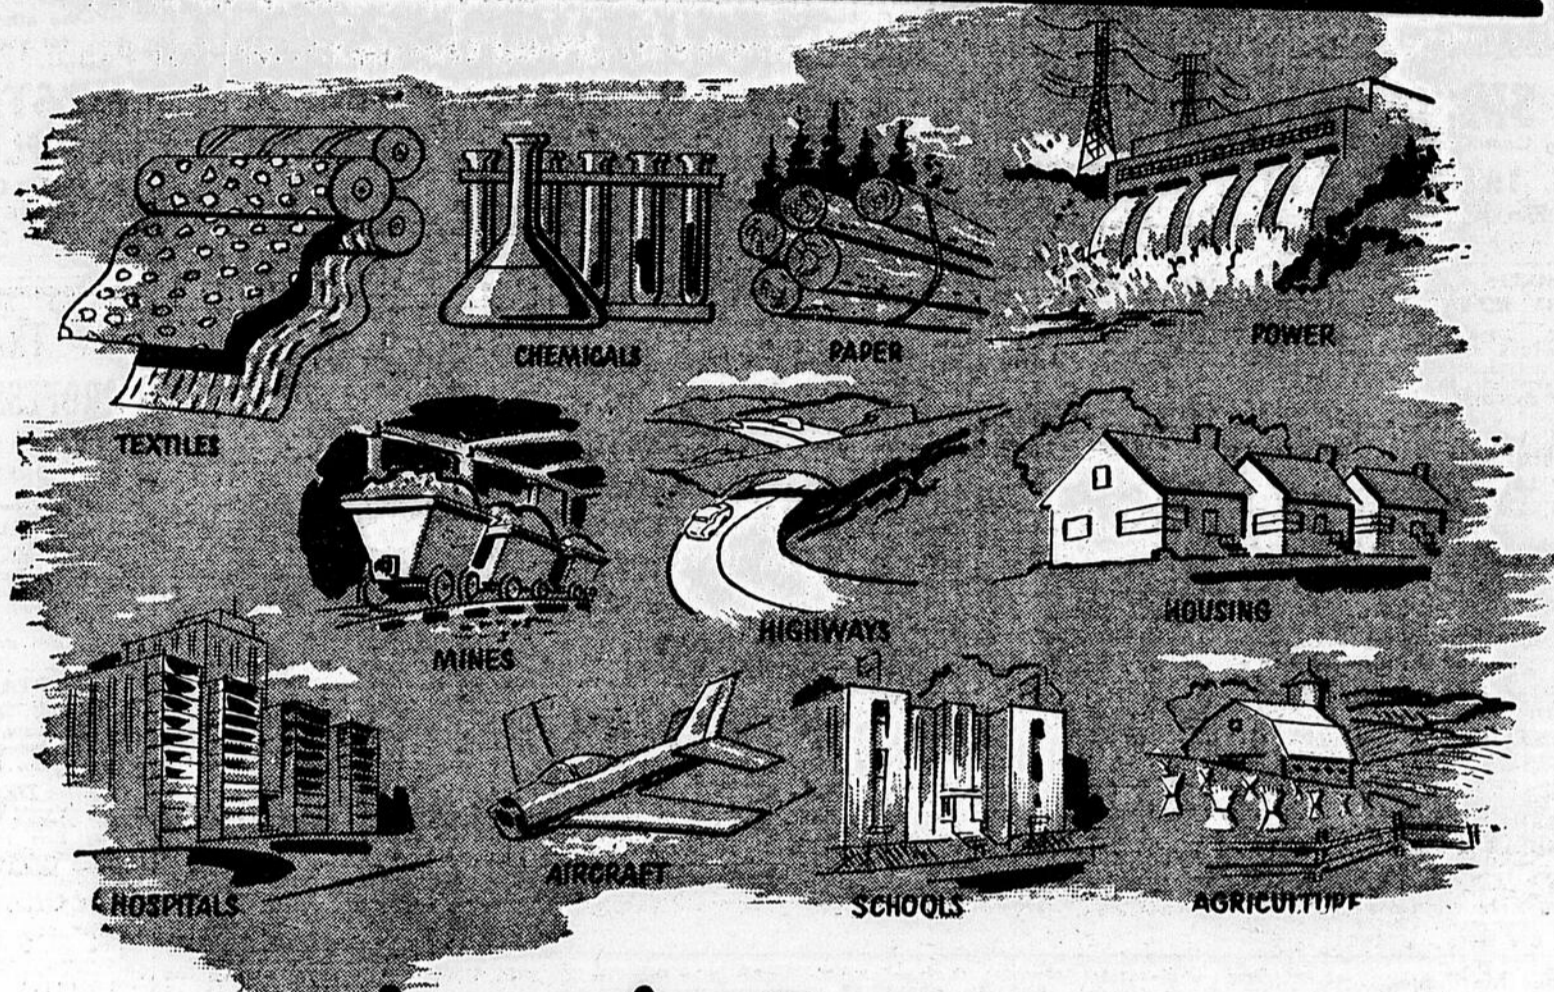

1 cup butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup brown sugar
½ cup white sugar
1 egg
2½ cups sifted flour
¾ teaspoon cream of tartar
¾ teaspoon salt

Cream butter and vanilla and beat in sugar and well-beaten egg. Sift in and blend well dry ingredients. Drop by spoonsful on an ungreased baking sheet. Bake at 325 degrees for 15 minutes. Makes about seven dozen cookies.

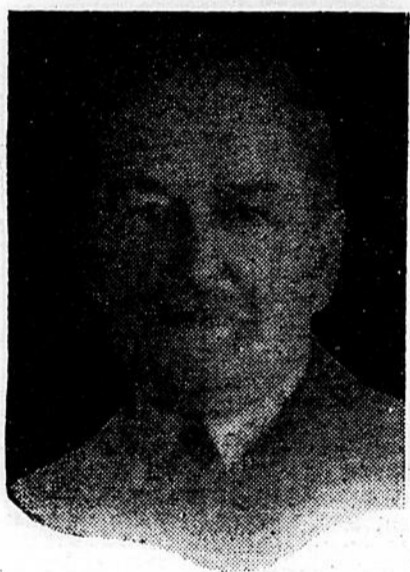

Jewel trim looms as a dominant coming trend. It appears everywhere — elegantly on a bouffant ball gown; surprisingly on a black poodle coat. Braid trim is seen, too, and the velvet touch is a recurring fashion.

Here's what DUPLESSIS has done for Quebec and here's what it means to you!

You've heard and read many facts about the tremendous growth and progress of this Province under the National Union Government. But what does it all mean to you — what has it done for your income, for your family, for your health, for your happiness?

IN INCOME:

Surely, a goodly slice of the three quarters of a billion annual increase in salaries and wages must have gone into your pocket-book if you are a worker. If you own your business you must have profited mightily by the developments which have enabled Quebec to supply nearly one-half the nation's power, half the world's pulp and paper, one fifth of Canada's mining output; and which have brought over 5,000 new industries into the Province.

FARM PROFITS:

If you are a farmer, you have profited greatly by the Provincial farm loans which rescued Quebec farming from wholesale bankruptcy — the hundred millions of dollars which rehabilitated the land. And the fifteen thousand miles of new rural electric lines. And the six hundred thousand acres of land reclaimed by drainage.

IN EDUCATION:

Your children have benefited beyond any mere dollar-value, by the erection of 1846 new schools and the remodelling of 8,000 others. And by the hundreds of trade, technical and agricultural courses never available to them before the Duplessis Government made them possible.

IN YOUR HOME:

You and your family live in greater home comfort, and at less cost because the terrible housing crisis was greatly relieved by the Quebec housing loans of over twenty-five million dollars. Even if you are a tenant, this stimulation of new building (and the recent Provincial Rental Control) have kept your rent from sky-rocketing.

IN HEALTH:

All of you enjoy much better health because of the 61 new hospitals, and 37 hospital modernizations, built with the aid of this administration. And you have been helped by the millions of dollars granted to health and hospital institutions, the twenty millions to fight tuberculosis, the establishment of 66 health centers—all reducing sickness and mortality. The infant mortality rate has been cut in half!

IN OPPORTUNITY:

You live and work and play in a Province that jealously insures that equal opportunity shall be given to all races, classes, creeds, languages and nations. It's the Province which most mightily upholds the doctrine of private enterprise. It is the Province where the facilities for travel have been tremendously increased and improved through more and better highways, airways, and many other transportation developments.

Yes, you live in a grown-up Province now—one that does not have to bow in any way to its neighbours. This Quebec of yours has come of age in industry, farming, education, health and social welfare. It grew up to manhood under DUPLESSIS. And that's why everybody will vote National Union on July 16.

Quebec Now Fastest Growing Industrial Province

QUEBEC RICH IN ORES, HYDRO COULD BE INDUSTRIAL HEART OF CANADA AS FIRMS EXPAND

By BELAND HONDERICH
Financial Editor

Quebec City, May 5 — Don't believe all you hear about "backward" Quebec. This province is turning from agriculture to industry with such speed and such success that it could become the industrial heart of future Canada.

If this surprises you, it's only because you still think of John Baptist as a man who wouldn't trade his quiet, simple life on the farm for all the conveniences of modern day life in industrial towns and cities.

This may have been the case one day. But John Baptist has changed. The Quebec of 1952 is a wide awake, up-and-coming, industrial province. New industries are springing up faster than in any other part of Canada.

And Canada, you know, is expanding faster than ever before.

New Industrial Atmosphere

All the way from the Gaspé coast to crowded Montreal, towns and cities are taking on an industrial atmosphere. In many instances the industries are little more than farm-by-enterprises. But there are no significant exceptions.

One of these is the $300,000,000 Halliwell North Shore Exploration Co. Ltd. line of development in the northern Saguenay, that promises to make Quebec one of the major world sources of iron ore.

Soon new Quebec will be spreading by train and boat in the iron and steel mills along the Great Lakes. Eventually, millions of tons of steel may be melted in electric furnaces along the St. Lawrence. There is evidence of this today at

...ent of its 80,000 square miles is put to agricultural use. The rest is a rich mineral belt richly covered by iron, zinc and nickel-bearing rocks. This provides Quebec with an abundance of the cheapest hydro power in the world.

Local Challenge

By the time Quebec begins to reap the benefits of these resources, Ontario will be well on its way to becoming an industrial province through Ontario's own resources.

Quebec has a long way to go to catch up with Ontario. But the people here are determined to make the most of their resources. They are determined to make the most of their resources. They are determined to make the most of their resources.

Population Growth

Today all this is being done. The population of Quebec is growing rapidly. The population of Quebec is growing rapidly. The population of Quebec is growing rapidly.

Vote National Union

Quebec's rapid industrial expansion today under Premier Maurice Duplessis' Union National government.

WEDDINGS

COADY-BEATTIE

St. Augustine of Canterbury Church was the scene of a double ring ceremony recently when the marriage of Pauline Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beattie, of Notre Dame de Grace, to Mr. Raymond Phillip Coady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Coady, of Sheet Harbor, N.S., took place. Rev. Father Bernard C. MacDonald officiated, while Mr. R. O'Reilly played the wedding music and Mr. Howard Lobar sang. White spring flowers arranged with palms formed the church decorations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Baronet satin and Chantilly lace fashioned on Princess lines with lace scalloped applied on the front and cascading over the satin in the back into a sweeping train. Her headdress of tulle illusion was gathered into a band of orange

Hostesses Entertain Miss Dorothy Jessop

Social events held recently in honor of bride-to-be Miss Dorothy Frances Jessop included a miscellaneous shower held by Mrs. F. Jotkus, of Harvard Avenue, N.D.G.; a bridge shower held by Mrs. T. Thompson, Osborne Avenue, Verdun; a linen shower given by Mrs. P. Williams, Sixth Avenue, Verdun; a kitchen shower at which the co-hostesses were Miss Beverley Reid, Mrs. K. Cockerell and Mrs. D. Reid, the party being held at the home of Miss Beverley Reid in Westmount; and a bathroom shower given by the bride-elect's co-workers in the Bell Telephone Company Directory-Department.

blossoms and pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white sweet peas and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss June Beattie, cousin of the bride, wore a frock of layers of orchid nylon net over taffeta falling from a short yoke of lace, worn with a tiny bolero, mittens and cap of the matching lace. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white and mauve flowers. Miss Pauline Daley, another cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid wore a similarly styled frock in pale yellow and carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white, blue and pink flowers. Little Miss Sharon Banner, niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl, in a pale green waffle pique frock with matching mittens, and wearing a bandeau of mums and lilies-of-the-valley, carried a nosegay of variegated sweet peas.

Mr. Boyne Banner acted as best man for his brother-in-law, while Mr. Gerald Beattie, the bride's brother, and Mr. Harry O'Brien, brother-in-law of the bride, ushered.

The Music Room of the Montreal West Town Hall was decorated with white snapdragons and bouvardia with tapers for the reception. Leaving later on the wedding trip by motor through Ontario and the Eastern United States, the bride wore a Minuet blue English gabardine suit with a pale pink Milan straw hat accented with pale blue imported French flowers and navy accessories, her corsage being pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Coady will reside on Walkley Avenue upon their return.

Guests from out-of-town were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Coady, and the bridegroom's sisters, the Misses Veronica and Joan Coady, all of Sheet Harbor, N.S.; Mrs. Henry Peo and daughter, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Cockerton, of Quebec City; and Mr. and Mrs. William Fairley, of Albany.

Lonely Hearts Get Chance For Reel Love

Munich, Germany. — An enterprising Munich bachelor has devised a system for introducing men to women, and vice versa, that has the Lonely Hearts clubs beat a mile. It's done by movies.

Werner Hampe, a 42-year-old inventor, sits a marriage candidate before his camera. A short sound film is made. Then these films are shown to people seeking mates.

There is now an extensive library of men and women suitors in Hampe's "Marriage-Soundfilm-Studio". A customer comes in, says he'd like to meet a nice lady and he is ushered to a seat.

It's all done in complete privacy. He is shown films of ladies until he finds one he likes. He can window-shop this way without embarrassment. He sees what the merchandise looks like, what it sounds like and then, if he wants, he can say, "OK, wrap it up."

Occasionally, a client can't find anything that he likes. When he reaches the point that he says, "This is where I came in," Hampe just turns the camera on him and adds him to the library.

The unique system is patented, and Hampe plans to extend it all over Germany. Eventually, he hopes to exchange films with similar institutions all over the world.

He feels, of course, that his method is the only way for people to find reel love.

Chapter Entertains Out-Of-Town Members

Mrs. Melda Sutherland of Halifax, N.S., newly elected Grand Senior Preceptress of Crystal Chapters of British America, visited Montreal Crystal Chapter No. 35 at their meeting in Victoria Hall. She congratulated this new Chapter for their ceremonial at the recent Grand Chapter sessions.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sinclair of Trail, B.C., Mrs. Elizabeth Dunsheath of Winnipeg, Man., and Mrs. Engram of Halifax, N.S., also conveyed greetings from their Chapters.

After the meeting the out-of-towners were guests of the Montreal members at Macy's, Westmount.

Frothy Formals Flaunt Black On White Touches

White is, almost without exception, first choice for summer evening dresses in Paris. Young and old are wearing white, with pale pink, gray, and black as next favorites.

The closely-fitting bodice, nipping in a waist to the last centimeter, provides a perfect foil for these full skirts with width developing rapidly from the waistline and making their wearers look like veritable flowers.

Organdy and Velvet

At a recent charity gala affair, many dresses in white organdy were trimmed with black velvet. Some had black velvet ribbons laced into the corsages and round the skirts; others had black velvet bodices ending in large bows at the back of the waist with long falling ends, breaking the otherwise straight lines of the skirt.

Black trimmings on white are very prominent. Jean Dessès treats his in the form of narrow black lace edgings on the flat curved flounces of a white tulle dress, while Paquin uses pipings of black velvet tied in little bows at intervals around the full skirt of a dress in white pleated organdy.

Disjoint leftover cooked birds that are too large for the refrigerator, wrap loosely and refrigerate.

During Lemon-and-Lime Season Try Old-Fashioned Chiffon Pie

Let's make the most of our opportunities. Now that fresh lemons and limes are rolling into market and while eggs are plentiful, how about a few old-fashioned homemade lemon pies? Cooking experts have wrestled with lemon and lime pie problems and come up with this time-tested recipe:

Lemon or Lime Chiffon Pie

One tablespoon gelatin for a firm filling, or 2 teaspoons of gelatin or a fluffier filling or for use with small eggs; ¼ cup cold water; ½ cup unstrained; ¼ cup sugar; ½ cup unstrained lemon or lime juice; ½ teaspoon grated lemon or lime rind; ¼ teaspoon salt; a few drops of green coloring for lime pie, a 9-inch baked pastry shell or a graham cracker shell.

Sprinkle gelatin on water and soak a few minutes. Beat egg yolks slightly, and add half the sugar and the lemon or lime juice and rind. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until thick. Add softened gelatin to the hot egg mixture; stir until dissolved.

Mix in the coloring for lime pie. Cool until thick but not set. Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff. Add rest of sugar slowly beating constantly. Then blend with the cooled gelatin mixture. Pour into the pie shell and chill. Keep cold until served.

Note: Graham cracker shell, which requires no baking and is easy to make, is a good choice for this summer pie. Use 15 graham crackers; ½ cup melted table fat; ½ cup sugar. Roll crackers fine. Mix with other ingredients. Turn into pie pan and pat into a solid smooth shell.

Orange Meringue Icing

Next time you make an orange cake — or almost any kind of cake, frost it with orange meringue and stick it under the broiler until it is lightly browned. You'll need 2 egg whites to which you add a pinch of salt and beat until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in ½ cup sugar and pile it lightly all over the cake. Sprinkle it with 1 tablespoon of shredded orange rind — or more if you like — before browning.

Rosemere Picnic

A picnic with races and entertainment for all, will be held tomorrow at the Orange and Protestant Home for Children, 56 Phillippe St., Rosemere. This is under the auspices of the Orange Social Club but the public is invited.

There will be sandwiches, cake, hot dogs, drinks, etc. for sale on the grounds and all proceeds from the sale of these will go to the Home.

Benevolent Association Elects Mrs. Ethel Erskine As President

For the first time in the history of the Ladies Orange Benevolent Association' Grand Lodge of British America, a Quebec member has reached the top. At the 55th Annual Convention, held in Queen's Hotel, Mrs. Ethel Erskine, of Verdun, was elected Grand Mistress. Other officers elected were — Deputy Mistress, Melda Sutherland, N.S.; Secretary, Anna Grier, Ont.;

Deputy Secretary, Amy Johnson, Ont.; Treasurer, Mary Stewart, Ont.; Deputy Treasurer, Elizabeth Dunsheath, Man.; Junior Deputy, Ruth Day, Ont.; Chaplain, Ethel Williams, N.B.; Dir. of Ceremonies, Ann Newell, Sask.; Lecturer, Jessie Larter, P.E.I.; Deputy Lecturer, Edith Puddester, Nfld.; Dir. of Juveniles, Lillian Morgan, Ont.; Immed. Past Mistress, Alma McIntyre, Sask.; Rep. from L.O.L. P. MacCaul, P.E.I. and R. E. Jones, Alta.

Montreal members entertained at a dinner-dance at which Councillor Bullock represented the City of Montreal and conveyed greetings of Mayor Camilien Houde and a welcome to the City to the 500 members attending the sessions. Entertainment included the Three Kasper Sisters of local radio fame, Mrs. Madge Gill of the Verdun Players' Guild, "Uncle Jock" Molineux in a number of Scotch renditions, and Miss Margaret Erskine as pianist and accompanist.

A delegation was received from Juvenile Orange Lodge of Montreal, when the President Miss Gosse gave an address of welcome, and Barbara McLeod and Roslyn Ryder presented gifts.

A resolution of loyalty was sent to Queen Elizabeth II and the Royal Family. A resolution was also sent to Minister of Immigration Harris that the Canadian Government be requested to increase the percentage of immigrants from the British Isles.

Following a noon hour church service, 500 members marched to the Cenotaph, where a short service was held "In remembrance" and wreaths were placed by Grand Mistress Alma McIntyre for L.O. B.A. and Grand Master J. E. Clancy for L.O.L.

Corn Chowder Ideal Dish For Mid-Day Meal

This unusual corn chowder makes a main luncheon dish for the summer luncheon. If you have leftover cooked corn on the cob, cut off the kernels to use in place of the canned corn in this recipe. You will need about 1 1/2 cupsful.

Rosy Corn Chowder
(Yield: 4 generous servings)
Two tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup finely diced onion, 1/2 cup finely diced green pepper, 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, No. 2 can cream style corn or 1 1/2 cups cooked corn, 1 cup tomato sauce, 8-ounce can, 1 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Melt butter in saucepan over moderate heat. Add onion and green pepper. Cook until tender, about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add remaining ingredients. Mix well and heat thoroughly. Let simmer 5 minutes over low heat. Serve in hot soup dishes.

For something hot to serve at a summer meal, try this novel browned rice. Serve with cold sliced turkey, chicken or duckling and a mixed green salad. That's a welcome hot weather meal.

Browned Rice Gourmet
(Yield: 4 servings)
Two tablespoons fat, 1/3 cup minced onion, 1/3 cup minced celery, 1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet, 1 cup water, 1/2 cup red wine or grape juice, 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, 1 cup long grain or converted rice, 1 chicken bouillon cube, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 small bay leaf.

Melt fat in 2-quart saucepan. Add onion and celery and let cook 5 minutes. Stir in kitchen bouquet. Add remaining ingredients. Bring to boil. Stir well. Lower heat and

This Tempting Summer Grill Is Made Quickly

Looking for a quick dinner to broil on a hot summer's day? Well, here it is. If you have one of the handy little table model broilers you'll probably want to use it for all your summer broiling since they do not heat up the room and are quick and easy to clean.

Summer Grill
(4 servings)
One 12-ounce can luncheon meat, 1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon horseradish, 4 halves canned peaches, mint or apple jelly.

Cut luncheon meat in eight slices. Arrange meat in center of broiling rack. Combine kitchen bouquet, mustard and horseradish. Spread mixture over slices of luncheon meat. Drain peaches and arrange, hollow side up, on rack with meat.

Insert broiling pan in top grooves of table broiler, or place 4 inches from source of heat in preheated broiling compartment of stove. Broil until peaches are thoroughly hot and meat is lightly browned, about 8 minutes in table broiler or 6 minutes in regular broiler.

Arrange meat and peaches on ends of hot serving platter. Fill peach cavities with jelly. Place a fresh-cooked vegetable, such as sweet and sour zucchini, in center of platter and serve immediately.

Sweet and Sour Zucchini
(4 servings)
Two tablespoons fat, 1 small clove garlic, minced; 1 pound zucchini squash, 3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 teaspoon cornstarch.

Melt fat in saucepan. Add garlic and let cook 1 minute over moderate heat. Meanwhile wash zucchini and cut in 1/4-inch slices. Place sliced zucchini in saucepan with garlic. Add contents of can cook, tightly covered, until rice is tender and all liquid is absorbed, about 20 minutes.

If necessary, tilt cover slightly to allow rice to dry off after it is done. Serve immediately with sliced cold meat.

Summer Grill of highly seasoned luncheon meat served with sweet and sour zucchini is easily prepared on a table-model broiler.

of mushrooms. Sprinkle in salt and sugar.

Cover and cook until squash is barely tender, about 15 minutes. Blend together and stir in the vinegar and cornstarch. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Serve immediately.

Initiation Held By Victoria Lodge

At Monday night's meeting in Ross Hall, Queen Victoria Lodge No. 823 L.O.B.A. initiated Miss Joan Stevens, now of Westmount, but recently from Edinburgh, Scotland. Sister E. Allen, Financial Secretary of Dawson's Bluebell Lodge, Pollispark, Glasgow, now a steady visitor with Queen Victoria Lodge, acted as Deputy Mistress, at the initiation of her friend. Sis. Stevens expressed deep appreciation of the warm welcome given her by Canadians since coming to Canada in March.

During the closing ceremony a two-minute silence was observed in memory of Sis. Marjorie Violet Shalders, of Third Avenue, who passed away on Monday morning after a lengthy illness. A member of Maple Leaf Lodge No. 71 for many years, Mrs. Shalders, prior to her illness, was a constant visitor at sister lodges.

With so many members on vacation for the August 4 meeting, it was decided to hold a social evening of cards instead, to which all friends are cordially invited.

Volunteers Needed At Montreal General

Miss Flora Baptist, Director of Volunteers for The Montreal General Hospital, has just been granted a year's leave of absence to serve with the Red Cross in Japan.

The work of this active department is being carried on by two volunteers who have given many hours service to a number of hospital departments. Mrs. G. T. the volunteer department during Miss Baptist's absence and Mrs. R. Wylie is to assist her.

Mrs. Graham reports that the Hospital has found the volunteers so valuable and reliable that requests for help are on the increase. Recently a number of teachers and students from high schools and universities have volunteered time each week during the summer. While this is helping with the vacation period, the Volunteer Department is already working on the fall program and would like more volunteers who can come in regularly over the fall and winter. There are posts to be filled in the clinics, the offices, the library and the Gift Shop-Snack Bar operated by The Women's Auxiliary at the Western Division.

"A volunteer who gives time to the Montreal General," says Mrs. Graham, speaking from experience, "has both the satisfaction of contributing to the good of the community, and the opportunity of adding to his own skills and understanding."

Anyone interested in contributing their services to the M.G.H. should phone the Volunteer Department at the Central Division and talk the matter over with Mrs. Graham or Mrs. Wylie.

AROUND THE HOME

that offers both convenience and protection against sharp edges may be quite easily fashioned from a block of white pine — with strips along the sides — and end and bottom of the same material.

First make cuts in the main block with a saw; then add sides, base and front end. Just as a guide to dimensions: a box to hold three paring knives and one kitchen or table knife should be about 4 ins. wide; 2 ins. deep, and 10 ins. long.

Bridal Event At Home Of Mrs. J. McConnell

The Marguerite Bourgeois Chapter of I.O.D.E., entertained at the residence of the Regent Mrs. J. B. McConnell in honor of the secretary, Miss Gisele St. Hilaire, whose marriage to Mr. Laurent

Guimont takes place July 12. A presentation of a cut glass bowl was made to the bride-elect and the music was supplied by Miss Rollande Binette and Mrs. Thompson Darrance.

The table decorations were white and yellow. Mrs. Dinner, vice-regent assisted by the bride's mother Mrs. A. St. Hilaire, presided, assisted by Misses B. Martineau, M. Walsh, D. Lesser, M. Larsen, and I. Kenaghan.

That stitch in time won't save only nine: it may be the salvation of the whole garment and prolong its use and attractiveness far beyond the normal span.

"Belles on Their Toes" at the Westmount Sunday 'Pandora and The Flying Dutchman' At The Monkland Saturday

The lovable Gilbreth family of "Cheaper By The Dozen" fame returns to the screen in "Belles On Their Toes," a comedy in color by Technicolor, which comes to the Westmount Theatre on Sunday. Jeanne Crain, Myrna Loy, Debra Paget, Jeffrey Hunter and Edward Arnold have the stellar roles and the supporting cast is headed by Hoagy Carmichael, Barbara Bates, Robert Arthur and Verna Felton.

"Belles On Their Toes" is based on the novel by the same authors, Frank and Ernestine Gilbreth, of "Cheaper By The Dozen." The story reveals the further adventures of the uproarious clan and tells what happens when the Gilbreth boys get growing pains and the girls discover romance.

Producer Samuel G. Engel and Director Henry Levin used eight musical numbers, some new and some old, to heighten the human interest qualities of the story and to give the entire family a chance to show-off vocally as well as sentimentally. Among the songs are "Beans," a new song by Mack Gordon, which Carmichael and Debra Paget sing with the family chorus chiming in; "Whistle and Walk Away," by Gordon and Sammy Fain; "Lazy," an old song by Irving Berlin and such nostalgic numbers as "Any Rags," "Papanese Sand Man" and "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Added Attraction

Stewart Granger, who fought the heat and dangers of the African veldt in the memorable "King Solomon's Mines," fights another thrilling battle against man, beast and Nature in the sub-zero temperatures and frozen wastes of "The Wild North".

The picture, first to be photographed in the new Ansco Color, was filmed on location in three separate sessions, with the remarkable blizzard scenes taken in the Idaho wastelands during winter, another session devoted to capturing spectacular canoe sequences on the Clearwater River rapids, and the final scenes shot against breathtaking panoramas of the Grand Tetons in Wyoming.

Frank Fenton's exciting screen play is motivated by the files of the Royal North West Mounted Police and the personal memoirs of Constable Albert Pedley, whose exploits during one of Canada's foulest winters made mountie history. In "The Wild North" his hero is Jules Vincent (Stewart Granger), a fearless trapper who has been captured in his cabin in the far North by Constable Pedley (Wendell Corey) and is being brought back to civilization to face a charge of murder. Intrepid adventure after adventure befall the two men as they make their way across the frozen wastes, fighting off wolves, narrowly escaping death in an avalanche, enduring through cold and hunger. The heroic exploits of this ill-assorted couple, one captor, the other manacled prisoner; and the manner in which Jules Vincent is vindicated of the charge of murder in a surging climax in which his canoe is dashed against the rocks of a perilous rapids, makes for a drama which is replete with action, suspense and tense excitement throughout every moment.

Barbara Bates, Jeanne Crain, and Debra Paget make an attractive trio of turn-of-the-century beach beauties in Twentieth Century-Fox's nostalgic Technicolor comedy, "Belles On Their Toes" opening Sunday at the Westmount Theatre.

The Swiss government has bought £10,000 worth of British television studio equipment.

There is absorbing entertainment on the Monkland screen Saturday till Tuesday in M-G-M's "Pandora and the Flying Dutchman," co-starring James Mason and Ava Gardner in the fascinating story of a beautiful American girl who, while living in Spain, falls in love with a mysterious Dutch painter and finds her fate inexorably held in his hands.

Filmed on location in magnificent Technicolor, against the picturesque, mountain-fringed Costa Brava of northeastern Spain, the story's action engenders excitement in a series of cumulative episodes, among them a thrilling race-car trial speed run at 250 miles per hour, ending with the car enveloped in flames; and breath-taking sequences in the bullring, climaxed when a matador involved in the heroine's life is gored to death.

But while there is action, excitement and suspense in almost every reel of "Pandora and the Flying Dutchman," the story is primarily a modern juxtaposition of the famous legend of the 16th Century Dutch sea captain who murdered the wife he thought unfaithful and was condemned to roam the seas eternally, or until he could find a woman willing to give her life for him. The counterpart of these figures in the yacht-owning Dutch painter and the American girl, Pandora, who loved him enough to give up her life for him makes for a fascinating romantic drama laid against the color, pageantry and gypsy music of the Spanish scene.

James Mason offers a powerful and gripping performance in the dual role of the modern Dutchman aware of his fateful destiny and, in the flashback scenes, of the historic sea captain of the legend. Ava Gardner, in the most demanding and dramatic role of her fast-rising career, is brilliantly effective as the American girl who exerts a fatal fascination upon almost every man who enters her life, and is compellingly beautiful in the superb Technicolor photography.

While the co-stars hold first attention throughout the narrative, there are admirable supporting performances upon the part of a hand-picked cast. Nigel Patrick is excellent as the daring racing-car driver, willing to give up even his precious car to prove his love for Pandora. Sheila Sim gives spark and fire to her role as a girl jealous of her more fascinating rival. Harold Warrender lends a convincing authority to his portrayal of the archaeologist who unwittingly sends Pandora into the arms of the Dutchman, while

Direct From Hollywood By JACK HIRSHBERG Local Cleric's "The Robe" Subject of $4,000,000 Film

HOLLYWOOD, July 9 — Cuff Notes . . . Margaret Truman gets $5,000 each for nine television appearances. Her price will drop when her pappy no longer rooms in the White House . . . Looks like Suzanne Cloutier, Ottawa's candidate for film fame, won't do much more than get herself suntanned during her current Hollywood stay. Her movie with Alan Ladd and Humphrey Bogart is postponed indefinitely and Paramount has no assignment on tap for her. Meanwhile she draws $500 a week just for loafing . . . Orson Welles impersonating Noah in his next film . . . Judy Garland tells me she won't take her vaudeville act to Canada since taxes don't leave her enough net income to warrant working more than a few weeks this year. She's still a sick girl and I would not ignore the possibility of a relapse.

George Tabori, who wrote the recent Broadway flop, "Flight Into Egypt," is authoring the screenplay "I Confess," which Alfred Hitchcock plans making in Quebec City. Hitch arrives in Montreal tomorrow en route to the location site with Montgomery Clift . . . Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is re-releasing his father's old hit, "The Iron Mask", but will record a new background commentary for the ancient adventure film . . . Mary Pickford summers abroad before making her movie comeback in "The Library" . . . Rudy Vallee draws $850 every week so long as he lives from paid-up insurance annuities . . . Alan Young returns to the video airlines in September — on film. He may also do some live programs but hopes not . . . Young is aware of the fate which has befallen Red Skelton. After doing his weekly television show only one season, Skelton has used up all his material and all his welcome. As a result of Skelton-super-saturation the comic is now a boxoffice dud.

Wallace Reyburn, former Montreal Standard war correspondent, is ghost-writing a series of Bebe Daniels titled "The Men In My Life". Miss Daniels' hombraes include Rudy Valentino, Doug Fairbanks, William Powell and Ramon Novarro . . . My, that certainly dates Bebe . . . Talent doesn't seem to mean much these days. Paul Douglas picked up $10,000 just for endorsing a stein of Milwaukee beer on television and Elizabeth Scott got $4,500 for saying she wore a Gruen watch . . . "The Robe", by former Montreal Preacher Dr. Lloyd C. Douglas, will be filmed at a cost of over $4,000,000 by 20th Century-Fox. The story has been in various stages of production for six years without ever reaching the sound sets, but work will now be hurried . . . Too bad Dr. Douglas isn't still living to see his great book come to life.

Lana Turner wants a $75,000 divorce settlement from Robert Topping but it is unlikely she'll get it. Topping is a tin plate heir and he has transferred his holding outside of California to escape jurisdiction of the state courts . . . Employment is at its all-time peak in Hollywood, with 54 companies currently making 3,442 separate 15- or 30-minute films exclusively for television . . . It takes big money to make big money. Studios have raised the bidding to $500,000 on film rights to "Guys and Dolls," and Producers Cy Feuer and Ernie Martin are now demanding this plus a share of the profits . . . Hugh Kemp, former Westmount High lad who's a script editor with the National Broadcasting Company in New York, is collaborating with Novelist Bud Schulberg on a stage dramatization of The Disenchanted.

With 2,000 new television stations expected to go into operation within the next three years, theatres are girding themselves for the battle to survive. One top film executive tells me he expects 5,000 of the 17,000 movie-houses currently in operation to close shop in the near future — and he feels it will benefit the industry rather than hinder it. Too many "marginal" theatres, outmoded and ill-equipped, are still doing business . . . Warner Brothers failed to pick up Mari Aldon's option and the Torontonian will free-lance. She co-starred recently with Gary Cooper in "Distant Drums" . . . The Hopalong Cassidy craze is dead and merchants are stuck with millions of dollars of Hoppy novelties they cannot move off their counters, even at bargain prices.

On the St. John stretch of eight miles operated by the government the charge is $60 per day per rod including lodging, board, salmon canoe with two guides, fishing rights, transportation from Gaspé Town to camp.

PLATTER MATTER

By 'SPINNER'

By Decca — A welcome to an old friend who has turned out many a well-worn disc over the past quarter century. It's none other than Jesse Crawford who takes a fling at the current pop market with a relaxed organ styling of Kiss Of Fire and I'm Yours. Jessie Leeds adds interest with her piano accompaniment and the soft, bell-like tones of the celeste.

Roberta Lee vibrantly extolls the merits of the Saturday Rag the potential honky-tonk hit, aided by the Lawson-Haggart Jazz Band in a suitable razz-matazz backing. A perfect couplet is Roberta's top piping about her bustling, best beau billed as a Busydy.

Tutti Camarata, Decca's popular music director, offers an unusual guaracha accented throughout by haunting flute notes and dedicated to The Cuban Nightingale. Flipside is Camarata's own brisk samba appropriately labelled The Fluter's Samba, also spotlighting a vigorous choral ensemble.

By Victor—Summertime is band concert time and a unique pop label features Paul Lavalle and the famous Cities Service Band Of America in two tuneful brass band novelties. Top side is Mr. Lavalle's own Pitter Pat Parade describing the merry marchpast of the raindrops. The Green and White Quartette do the vocal honours and the flipside features a slick triple-trumpeting to The Trumpet Polka.

Also accenting an oompah beat are the Six Fat Dutchmen in a jumpy instrumental couplet with a beer and pretzels atmosphere. You'll hear clarinet, flute, accordion, saxophone and tuba highlighting The Saxophone Schottisch and The Spoonmakers Leandler.

With soft organ accompaniment the Sons Of The Pioneers brand of voice-blending clicks to a lilting, romantic Western ballad Waltz Of The Roses, while on the flip the sextet jogs along to the pleasant strumming of a guitar and vocally describes the beauties of the Land Beyond The Sun. Top listening for the boots and saddle fans.

Light Orchestral

Ballet Memories: Ronnie Munro and His Orchestra. (London LP.) Ronnie Munro's orchestra is a medium-sized concert group previously heard in excellent recordings of music by Strauss, Waldteufel and Chopin. Mr. Munro is also well-known in the British Isles for his many concerts of Scottish medleys and variety broadcasts. His well-balanced ensemble plays with a precision and sonority attributable to much larger orchestras and his baton adheres strictly to the book in the matter of tempo. This is evidenced in this enjoyable waxing of the cream of ballet music. Leo Delibes is well represented by selections from 'La Source', 'Coppelia' and 'Sylvia', while the delightful and rarely heard Passeo A Sei from Rossini's 'William Tell' is a highlight. Other choice excerpts are heard from: Ponchielli's 'La Gioconda', Luigini's 'Ballet Egyptien', Gounod's 'Faust' and 'Les Sylphides' by Chopin.

Two Pianos

Two Grand: Arthur Whittmore and Jack Lowe, Duo-pianists with The RCA Victor Orchestra conducted by Victor Allesandro. (Victor LP.)

The team of Whittmore and Lowe started its professional career on a self-imposed gag. Accepting an invitation to visit his aunt in Puerto Rico, Arthur Whittmore announced that his inseparable friend Jack Lowe would accompany him as they were winning recognition in the U.S. as duo-pianists. This was a dubious statement, as the boys were till attending The Eastman School Of Music in Rochester. On their arrival in Puerto Rico they discovered they had been booked for a recital in San Juan. Following up on the joke, Whittmore and Lowe went to work and arranged nineteen pieces for two pianos in a matter of eighteen days, and delighted the San Juan audience with their brilliant duo-keyboarding. Since that memorable concert the team has established itself solidly with innumerable performances in the States in both classical and popular fields. The present disc displays their combined talent in a sparkling array of light tunes from musical comedy. Their 'clean, rippling arrangements add new lustre to such favourites as: Falling in Love With Love, Brazil, They Didn't Believe Me, In The Still Of The Night, The Continental and a wonderful treatment of the due-for-a-revival Lover. The excellent orchestral backing gives a rich finesse to the program an never detracts from the soloists. Two Grand is grand entertainment!

another stand-out role is played by Mario Cabre as the matador whose passionate love for Pandora brings about his own death.

The man behind "Pandora and the Flying Dutchman" is Albert Lewin, who has done a remarkably successful job in writing, directing and (with Joseph Kaufman) co-producing this unusual picture. He has infused his story with spectacle, unflagging action and novel background, and the result is a drama that cannot fail to absorb and entertain anyone who sees it.

One of the year's gayest and most original comedies, M-G-M's "Callaway Went Thataway," has Fred MacMurray, Dorothy McGuire and Howard Keel as its stars, and they'll all have you THATAWAY ABOUT CALLAWAY.

"Callaway Went Thataway" was written, produced and directed by Norman Panama and Melvin Frank, Hollywoods brilliant triple-threat team who were responsible for two previous M-G-M comedy hits, "The Reformer and the Red-head" and "Strictly Dishonorable."

Junior Should Be Well Prepared As He Enters School

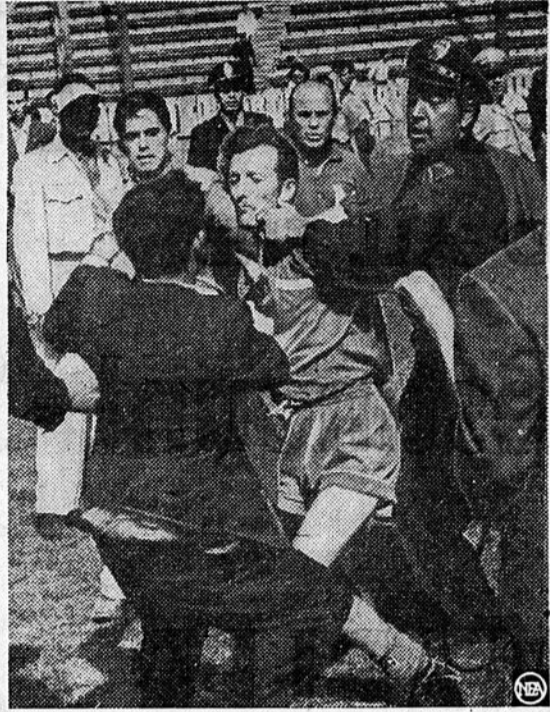

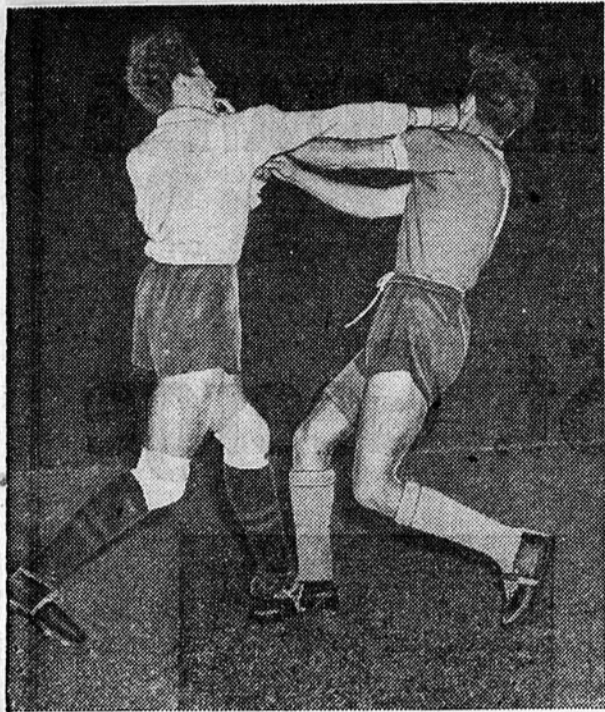

If Junior is to make his school debut this fall, he should be well prepared in advance, mentally and physically. If he has not been accustomed to playing with other children, school life with dozens of young strangers may take a little adjustment. This usually works itself out in time. But to be sure that he is physically in good shape, he should have a very thorough medical examination, with particular attention to his eyes, ears and teeth. If he needs glasses and is not provided with them, it may cause him to appear dull and slow to learn, when the only trouble is that he is not able to see well. Any impairment of his hearing should be treated, so that the child may have every chance for progress in his education.

In 1951, locomotives of the Canadian National Railways operating in freight and passenger service, as well as those performing switching and work service, travelled a total distance of 102,367,570 miles. This is 9,487,570 miles more than the distance between the earth and the sun.

Westmount Recreation Dept. News

The playground program has been going along as planned, with the exception of the inauguration of the Playtown mayors, police and fire chiefs, which was to take place last evening, but due to parade arrangements was postponed to July 17.

On Wednesday, July 9, all playground personnel were conducted on a tour of the Westmount City Hall, Fire Department, Police Department and Conservatory. Due to heavy rain, the representation from each playground was low.

The week of July 14-18 will be "Health and Safety Week." The following is a summary of the program for that week: —

Monday — Fire Prevention, Costume and Poster Making, Volleyball, Square Dancing, Vehicle Organization for Parade, Softball.

Tuesday — Crafts, Traffic Control, Assorted Games, Health Lecture, Putting, Bidy Basketball.

Wednesday — Track & Field, First Aid, Costume and Poster Making, Accident Lecture, Volleyball, Softball, Tennis.

Thursday — Interplayground Softball and Volleyball Games, Preparation for Inauguration and Sing-Song, Inauguration and Sing-Song.

Friday — Track & Field, Crafts, Games, Staff Meeting, Tennis. It is hoped that during this week each playground will have the opportunity of a swim at a pool within the City of Montreal.

Putting

A Putting Tournament will be held this evening at 7.30 p.m.

The winners of the Sealed Hole Competition held July 8th were as follows: — Ladies — Mrs. H. Smith; Men — Mr. M. Starke. Each was presented with a silver spoon. The winners of the Tournament held July 3 were: Ladies — Mrs. Aldford; Men — Mr. W. Stott.

All Westmount residents are invited and encouraged to make use of the putting green and to take part in the tournaments. The entrance fee for all tournaments is $10 per person.

Playground Olympics

On July 24, weather permitting, the Westmount Recreation Department will be host to 17 playgrounds throughout the Island of Montreal at a Playground Olympics. These Olympics are being held during the same week as the World Olympics taking place at Helsinki.

An Olympics ceremony similar to the original will take place and

Y.M.C.A. Notes

The past week has been an outstanding one for the boys of Camp Westmount. Among the highlights of the program was the trip to Dominion Glass where the boys were shown how glass was processed, a swimming meet, trip to St. Helen's Island, movies on the World Series and other shorts, as well as the Inter-Y Track meet.

Coming Events

Next week at Camp Westmount will be even more exciting than the last. The program will include an all-day picnic, swimming, swimming instruction, baseball and other sports as well as a trip to Belmont Park on Friday.

Overnight Hike

This afternoon eight boys from Camp Westmount are leaving for an overnight hike to Camp Perrot. The group will be returning by Provincial Transport Saturday afternoon around 4:00 o'clock.

A shipment of possibly the rarest cattle in Canada passed through here recently over Canadian National Railways lines, bound for Langley, B.C.

The animals, two heifers, a bull and two calves, are members of the hardy West Highland breed from Scotland. Only one other herd of this type is known to exist in Canada—that at Lloydminster, Sask. The new arrivals are shaggy-coated and smaller than more common Canadian breeds.

the Olympic Oath will be taken by all competitors.

This promises to be one of the highlights of the summer program and should do much to encourage boys and girls throughout the city to take a more active part in track and field.

Coming Events at Westmount Athletic Grounds

Saturday, July 12 — Arrival of Troops on leave from Korea — 1.45 p.m.

Saturday, July 12 — Soccer — Italia vs. Tricolour — 4.00 p.m.

Thursday, July 17 — Inauguration of Playtown Mayors, Police and Fire Chiefs, Sing-Song — 8.00 p.m. at W.A.G. Parade will form up at 7.15 p.m. on Academy Road opposite High School.

Number of Charity Appeals Must Be Reduced, Dr. Bates

"Everyone is fed up with the constant demands for subscriptions by a multitude of organizations—and everyone says that something must be done about it because it is a nuisance," declares Dr. Gordon Bates in an editorial in the current issue of HEALTH.

"There are many phases to this complicated problem," he writes. "It would seem that a well organized group with an emotional appeal can jump in anything and collect a lot of money whether the appeal, viewed in perspective, is justified or not. Other appeals just as important or more important are pushed aside, partly because the pool of subscription money has already been drained dry.

"It seems to some thoughtful people that it is not only necessary to diminish the number of appeals, which is simply a step to make giving more convenient to the subscriber. There should also be some clearing house to decide as to the general relative value and direction of all voluntary movements for which appeals are necessary."

The general director of the Health League of Canada winds up his editorial by suggesting the formation of a voluntary health council which might study and modify the character of appeals and ensure a sane, co-ordinated program in the whole field of health—"suggesting responsibilities and duties both to governments and responsible voluntary groups—a program aimed at the prevention of unnecessary illness and health."

The Davis Cup matches between Canada and Mexico will be held in Montreal Aug. 13, said Paul Haynes, chairman of Canada's Davis cup committee.

Names of those on the same teams are not yet known. Canada's selections will not be made until after the Eastern Canada Tennis Championships. The Mexico-Canada matches will be held at the Mount Royal Tennis Club.
