Campbellton Wiped Out by Flames; Four Thousand Homeless; Loss $2,000,000

Fire Broke Out in Richards' Mill and Swept Through Town.

FIRE PROTECTION WAS ABSOLUTELY WORTHLESS.

Five Valuable Saw-Mills Were Destroyed—Only Seven Residences Remain—One Life Was Lost.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. John, N.B., July 12.—Campbellton, the most flourishing town in Northern New Brunswick, is in ashes. The loss is estimated at over $2,000,000, and four or five thousand people are homeless. The wires are down and full particulars not yet available.

Many people sought refuge at Dalhousie, six miles away, and others crossed to the Quebec side of the river for shelter.

The fire started yesterday afternoon at Richards' mill above the town, and swept the pain clean through, taking all but a few buildings in the outskirts of the town, which had a fire department and gravitation water system, but nothing would stay the progress of the flames.

Persons working in factories rushed home to find the flames before them and to see their property destroyed. Members of families were separated and panic prevailed.

Fortunately only one death is reported, a child named Doyle being suffocated.

Five sawmills and a wood working factory, a foundry and other industries, six churches, six hotels, all the property of the Intercolonial and International railways, schools and residences were devoured in one common ruin. Only seven houses, standing in the outskirts, remain of the flourishing town.

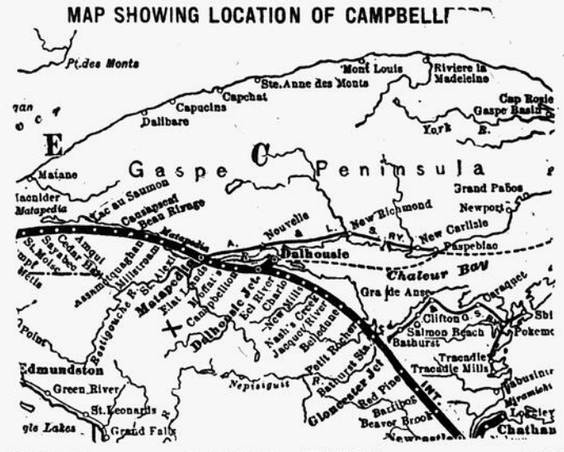

Lumber Mills Wiped Out.

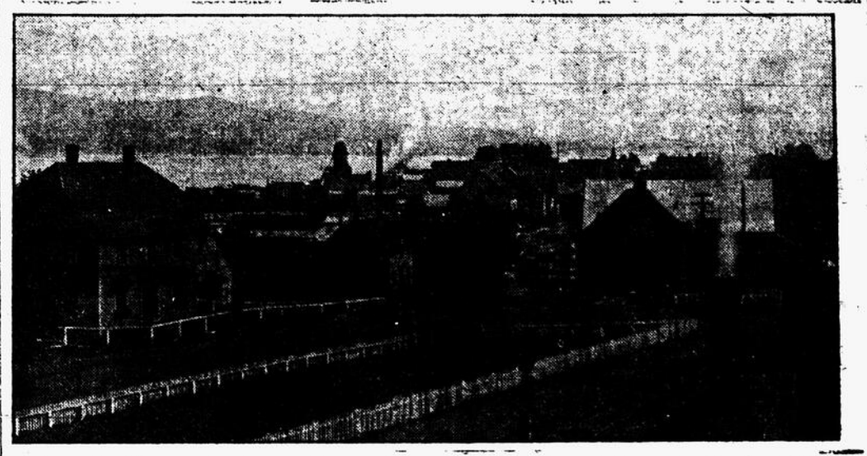

The three mills of the Richards Company, valued at $90,000, two by the Shives Lumber Company, at $100,000, and one by the Harquail Wood Working Company at $60,000.

The town was growing rapidly and quite a number of very substantial new buildings, including a fifteen thousand dollar hotel, were destroyed.

The town was an important railway centre, with extensive yards and buildings. The very ties on the railway were burned and the rails twisted.

Campbellton is an important distributing centre for the Bay Chaleur district and several wholesale houses in St. John and elsewhere had warehouses there. Trains cannot pass through today and telegraph wires are down. The Western Union hope to have the line open to-night.

St. John Votes Aid.

St. John City Council met this morning and voted two thousand dollars, and opened a fund for the sufferers. The Board of Trade also met and took similar action. The Militia Department are being asked to send tents and blankets from the depot here.

All over the province to-day relief is being organized. Mayor Frink last night received this message from the Mayor of Dalhousie: "Campbellton completely destroyed by fire. About four thousand people homeless. Send all available tents and supplies. Mr. Brady will be here on the Maritime Express to-night. He will wire you. Arrange special train to bring tents and supplies. No communication with Campbellton. All public buildings, churches, hospitals, banks, post office destroyed. Send all funds at once to Mayor Murray, Campbellton. We are housing and caring for all people we can in Dalhousie. Bread, biscuit, tea and sugar required quickly. (Signed) A. H. Hilwayrd."

A special train will take supplies from St. John to-day. A citizen of Campbellton who is here estimates the loss at two and a half millions. Richards settlement, two miles from the town, was also swept out of existence.

DESTROYED TOWN WAS AN IMPORTANT CENTRE

Campbellton is a seaport with a very extensive lumber trade and is a divisional point on the Intercolonial Railway. The new International Railway across New Brunswick has its terminus at Campbellton. It is also headquarters for salmon anglers and hunters of big game. The New Brunswick Gazeteer says it contained forty-five stores, half a dozen hotels, seven saw mills, a sash and door factory, and a planing mill, a foundry and machine shop, two branch banks, six churches, fine school buildings, a small hospital and much valuable railway property.

Grand Trunk in Rhode Island

Massachusetts Railway Board Grants Permit for Proposed Extension to Providence.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Boston, Mass., July 12.—The Massachusetts railroad commissioners today granted a certificate to the Southern and New England Railroad Corporation for building a connecting line between the town of Palmer and Rhode Island State line, to provide additional transportation facilities in that part of the State. The petition of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad for the right to build the same road was dismissed by the Board.

The Southern Railroad is a local branch of the Grand Trunk Railway, and its petition is approved by the Board because it secures to the people of Massachusetts as well as to those of Rhode Island additional transportation facilities by a through line to and from the North and the West.

It is held to be a better proposition than that offered by the New Haven, because the latter road presented plans only for connecting with the Grand Trunk System.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 12.—A Globe Winnipeg special says: "A long conference between the striking Canadian Northern men and the management, including Mr. D. D. Mann, was held to-day, but resulted in a disagreement, as neither side would make the concessions.

"It is reported that the Roblin Government made desperate efforts to force a settlement, on the understanding that if successful the men should vote for the Conservative candidates. This seems proven by the fact that few if any of the men voted until late this afternoon, after the result of the conference and the men's meeting was

TO START INDEPENDENT MILL

Striking Tin Plate Workers Will Locate in Canada.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cleveland, O., July 12.—Striking tinplate workers of Bridgeport and Martins Ferry, Ohio, intend to start an independent sheet iron mill in Canada, far from the influence of American capital. The mill is to be co-operative, the first of its kind in the history of the tin plate industry.

W. S. Morris, Martins Ferry, chairman of the relief committee of the strikers, left yesterday for Toronto, to look for a favorable location for a community to be established in connection with the proposed mill.

INTERNATIONAL COURT OF APPEAL

Sir Edward Grey Says United States is Anxious for Its Establishment.

London, July 12.—The idea abroad that the United States is not prepared to concur in the establishment of an international court of appeal to deal with prize court cases, as advocated by The Hague conference was the subject of direct questions to the Government by Leverton Harris in the House of Commons last evening.

Sir Edward Grey replied:—

"Mr. Harris appears to be under a great misapprehension. The American Government not only is prepared to concur in, but is most anxious to bring about, the establishment of an international Prize Court at The Hague. The technical difficulty which arose is in a fair way of settlement. There is every reason to expect that the United States will ratify the declaration in the form in which it has been signed.

British Ship Owners Upset

Recent Canadian Legislation Dealing With Water Carriage of Goods Worries Them.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Liverpool, July 12.—Shipowners' associations through this country are declared by the Liverpool Journal of Commerce to be perturbed over the recent shipping legislation enacted in Canada dealing with the water carriage of goods.

The new measure which to a large extent follows on the lines of what is known as the Harter Act, applies to ships carrying goods from every port in Canada to any other port in Canada, or from any port in Canada to any port outside of Canada.

The Shipping Gazette points out that if the owner of a ship exercise due negligence to make his ship in all respects seaworthy and properly equipped, neither ship nor owner, agent or charterer shall become responsible for loss or damage resulting from errors of navigation, or from any latent defect.

Theatre Employes in Convention.

Washington, July 12.—The International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes of Canada and the United States, in convention here, was addressed at the opening of to-day's session by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor.

Lady Douglas Tries Suicide

Throws Herself in Front of Express Train at Spokane. But is Saved.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Spokane, Wash., July 12.—Lady Loretta Sholto Douglas, wife of the son of the Marquis of Queensbury, attempted to kill herself for the second time within two days by throwing herself in front of a train here today, but was taken off the tracks just as the Northern Pacific Limited dashed by.

She has been placed in the care of the matron at the City Hall, where she had to be locked up to prevent her from drowning herself in the bath tub.

Lady Douglas has been separated from her youngest son, Robert, three weeks, he having been taken by his father to the Great Northern Railway in British Columbia.

Great Britain Augumenting Her Naval Forces in Far East With Additional Battleships.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 12.—There are signs the naval authorities intend to increase the strength of the British forces in the Far East before long. A number of armored cruisers of the pre-Dreadnought era can now be used for foreign service, and similarly certain battleships of older types are also available. These vessels will therefore be sent to the Pacific gradually to supplement the existing squadrons, which will be considerably strengthened by the change.

The first move in this direction will be the transfer to China station of the battleships Swiftsure and Triumph, from the Mediterranean, which are to be relieved by the Lord Nelson and the Agamemnon.

France to Adopt Standard Time.

Paris, July 12.—The Cabinet has decided to submit a bill for the adoption of Western European time in France. During the old days of enmity toward England, the French steadily refused to accept standard time, maintaining the solar time of Paris, which is nine minutes slower. The confusion resulting, especially in telephone communications with England, as well as the change in Franco-English relations, is responsible for the decision.

Special Excursions Arranged For All The Coming Lacrosse Matches

SPORTING VIEWS AND REVIEWS

"The national game must be kept clean," said Magistrate Kingsford, of Toronto, when rendering judgment imposing a fine of twenty-five dollars on a member of a minor lacrosse team for breaking the jaw of an opponent by means of a blow from his stick. If Mr. Justice Kingsford's opinions are all as sound as this one, he will never find his decisions reversed in appeal. Keep the national game clean. It is too good a sport to be soiled by foul play.

That Ed. White, the young amateur runner, of Brockville, was able to stick close to the heels of Fred. Cameron, the Marathon hero, of Amherst, throughout a ten-mile race, and finish strong, only one yard behind, indicates that Brockville has a promising runner. When he returns to his Eastern Ontario home he ought to have a try with Lalonde, the fleet-footed haymaker whom some Cornwall sportsmen induced to climb the fence and try a bit of "road work." There seems to be a fine crop of new runners coming on.

While others were talking about prohibiting the exhibition of moving pictures of the Reno combat, Sir James Whitney and his colleagues have acted, and an order-in-Council has slammed the door of Ontario in the face of the pugilistic picture man. About everything Sir James does is backed up by the people of Ontario, and they are not likely to "go back on him" in this matter.

What is the use of pugilistic pictures in Ontario, anyway, when from time to time the people can see the pugnacious and eloquent Sir James, the fighting Premier of Canadian politics, giving one knock-out blow after another to his misguided and untrained opponents? If Mr. Johnson could see Sir James trouncing the Opposition he would be forced to admit that there are others.

Next summer promises to be a great season for golf on this continent—possibly the greatest yet for international golf. The brightening element is to come from Australia, the fatherland of so many superior sportsmen of various classes. The plan thus far mapped out is for a team to visit Canada and the United States early next summer and tour from coast to coast, taking part in team matches and tournaments, but arranging the schedule so as to take in both the amateur and open championships. The Australian team, as made up at present, consists of eight golfers and two lawn tennis players, but it is possible that this number may be increased.

Talk about the conspiracy of Catiline! It was a school-boy's fancy in comparison with that which, according to Johnson, his ex-manager, Little, tried to perpetrate upon the people of the United States. Had not Johnson set his face as adamant against it the whole current of twentieth century history would have been turned into another channel for Jeffries would have been the victor at Reno.

Incorruptible and invincible Johnson would be no party to such a nefarious and, it must be added, rather risky project. And, besides, he felt confident of winning, and had a hankering after the championship. And so he refused to make a "frame-up" and "threw" the fight. He stuck to the "level" and the square," and won handily—another illustration of the truth of the old saying about honesty being the best policy.

No Admission.

As a model of probity and chivalrous adherence to truth, George Washington, with his little hatchet, will have to give place, so far as the colored citizens of the United States are concerned, to the spotless victor of Reno.

A remarkable game of ball was played in Texas the other day, at least remarkable for its length, for twenty-three full innings were played, and yet it ended in a draw, each team scoring one run. Perhaps games of that length would suit the Royals, for in each they would have twenty-three instead of only nine chances of "putting it all over" the other fellows. Of course twenty-three innings would be a bit of a physical strain, but what care the Royals about strain, physical or mental!

Evidently the Vancouver lacrosse club does not propose being humiliated by any Eastern team, provided it can get enough star players from the East to successfully fight its battles. Well, self-preservation is the first law of nature, and Vancouver cannot be blamed for observing the law, provided it can afford it. Still one would think that it is about time now for the great, last, best West, which, according to its claim, is able to produce anything, to grow its own lacrosse players. Of course there is a wide difference between the point of view of the West and that of the East in these matters. In the West things are so new that the inhabitants are ready to spend upon whatever is acquired by purchase or by building quite as much a part of their civic or their institutions as they would upon what grows up there. The West has a wonderful power of assimilation. In the meantime, one result of all this is that Vancouver is strengthening the league.

ONLOOKER.

STAR RACE OFFICIALS INTEREST IN SPORT

The Star has been exceedingly fortunate in securing the officers it has secured thus far for the new race run at the request of the Caledonian Society.

The three who have thus far expressed their willingness to act are not only prominent in business, professional and social ways, but are men who have all devoted considerable of their time and interests to the welfare of professional athletics.

His Worship Mayor Guerin, who expressed himself as greatly pleased to be able to assist in making the race of the 30th a success, when he was asked by The Star to act, has during his entire life been a strong supporter of amateur athletics of all sorts, and was particularly interested in lacrosse, when, as far as the Shamrocks were concerned, it was at the height of its glory. His counterfeit is to be seen in many of the old pictures of the Shamrocks when the green-shirted twelve played some of their wonderful matches.

Mr. E. H. Brown is known from one end of Canada to the other as one of the greatest authorities on Canadian amateur athletics and particularly running. The position which he held for so many years of secretary of the M.A.A.A. and which unconsciously brought with it posts of secretary of all the other prominent athletic bodies, including the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union, gave him an insight into the amateur athletic situation of Canada that cannot be beaten in the experience of any other Montreal man. This is the first time he has been connected with a Star race, because at the time of the previous big races the events took place during the great athletic war, and the events were run under the auspices of the Independent Harriers, which were the local representatives of the C. A. A. U., while Mr. Brown at that time was high in the councils of the Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada.

Fortunately, peace has wiped away all the differences of those time, and that is the reason Mr. Arthur Plow, who at that time was for his part high in the councils of the Independent Harriers, and one of the prime movers of their campaign, is able to work together with Mr. Brown to-day.

Mr. Plow assisted the Star in making the three great amateur races around the certified 15-mile course the tremendous success that they proved to be. What he does not know about the wiles and the tricks of runners is not worth knowing, and he has a sort of a mental register in his head of all the men who are eligible, and their respective capacities.

JOHNSON IN NEW YORK.

Big Crowd of His Own Race Welcomed the Pugilist.

New York July 12.—Jack Johnson was welcomed by a crowd of 10,000 negroes when he reached New York yesterday. There were no riots. The only serious disorder of the day bearing in any way on the fight occurred in a small Broadway theatre where a crowd gathered to see pictures "taken at the ringside," under the impression that they were moving pictures. Disappointed, the spectators demanded their money back, and when this was refused they wrenched the lobby and rolled the ticket booth, with a young woman inside, into the street.

WHEN SHAMROCKS AND CORNWALLS MEET

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, Ont., July 12. — On Saturday next the Cornwalls will go to Montreal to meet the Shamrocks in a championship match in the N. L. U. There will probably be a large number from east and west of Cornwall, as well as from the town proper, go down to see the match and spend a couple of days with friends in the city, as an excursion has been arranged over the Grand Trunk. The cheap rate will cover all stations from Cardinal to Lancaster, inclusive. Tickets will be good going on the Moccasin train, and returning on any train up to Monday night.

The fact that Cornwall has won the last two contests has given the team and people of the town reason to hope that the tide has turned, and that in future, instead of reverses coming Cornwall's way, victories will take their place. Cornwall has on many occasions upset the prospects of the league leaders, and things are beginning to look as though the same may happen this year. Already the Torontos have taken a lower rung of the ladder on account of encountering Cornwall, and more drops may be made before many weeks elapse. Cornwall will try her utmost to take a successful fall out of their old friends, the Shamrocks, on Saturday. The Irishmen have been experimenting with juniors to a large extent this season in an effort to build up a new team, and, while they scarcely expect to win the championship this year, they are training a set of players that will probably do what the Shamrocks have done before, viz., let one season go to the winds but come up strong the next. Many of the old faces are absent this year, but Cornwall will take no chances, as the Irishmen are usually tricky and liable to do desperate things when least expected. The Cornwalls are in fine form now, and are playing a good brand of lacrosse, and those who journey to the Shamrock grounds on Saturday will get their money's worth every minute of the time. The Cornwall team will be much the same as that which defeated the Torontos here last Saturday. There is a rumor that there may be one new face on the team, but nothing definite has been decided about the matter as yet.

A PRISON CELL ROMANCE.

An interesting story has come to light of the way in which a man undergoing a sentence in Pentonville Prison, tamed and made a companion of a pigeon. One bitterly cold morning just before Christmas, whilst the prisoners were at exercise, a pigeon, half-dead with the cold, fell into the yard. A convict picked it up, hid it in his breast, and took it back to his cell, where in the evening he shared his food with the bird. Wishing to keep the bird for company, he hid the bird in his breast every time the warder came round. Quickly the pigeon became tame, and a fast friendship arose, which helped to pass the weary hours of prison life. At last, however, his secret became known to his fellow-convicts, and one man threatened to inform the officials. The man told his story to a Salvation Army officer who visited the prison, and the latter advised him to appeal to the governor, who, interested in the man's kind action, gave him permission to keep the bird. The man has now been released, and was helped into work by some kindly-hearted people who got to know the little story of the pigeon.

SWANS' DEADLY DUEL.

An astounding duel to the death between two swans was fought on the river Weaver, at Northwich, England. A fortnight ago a magnificent male swan, who exercises seigniorial right on the river at that place, resented the intrusion in his waters of another male swan, with wife and cygnet. The lordly swan attacked and well-nigh killed the opponent, but the waterman interfered. Daily the irate bird went in search of his foe, and one night the intruding bird was again rescued, but during the small hours of the morning the jealous rival returned and finished the duel, leaving the dead body of his foe floating in the river.

New Star Race on July 30th Will Have Mayor For Starter

His Worship Expressed His Appreciation of the Honor Done Him by His Selection--No One Allowed to Enter who has not Passed His Seventeenth Birthday

TO BE STARTER FOR NEW STAR RACE ON SATURDAY, JULY 30.

HIS WORSHIP MAYOR GUERIN.

At the solicitation of Lieut.-Col. Lockerby, President, and the Executive of the Montreal Caledonian Society, The Montreal Star has decided to offer a cup for another Amateur Star Race, to be run in connection with the Annual Caledonian Games.

Officials for this race are being gradually appointed and The Star is delighted to be able to announce that it has secured the co-operation of President E. H. Brown, of the M.A.A.A., a gentleman of vast athletic experience and reputation, as referee, and Mr. Arthur Plow, at one time President of the Independent Harrier League, under whose auspices The Montreal Star's previous races were run, as clerk of the course, and His Worship Mayor Guerin as starter.

SOME NEW FEATURES.

The race will be run Saturday, July 30th. It will start from Dominion Square and will finish at Dominion Park. The distance is about seven miles.

The start will be made at 3 p.m. sharp.

It will be run under the rules of the Amateur Harrier Union of Montreal.

Although in most cases an entry fee is charged by the Caledonian Society for the various competitions on its programme, entries for this race will be absolutely free.

THE ROUTE OF THE RACE.

As far as has been arranged the route of the race will be from Dominion Square up to Sherbrooke, east along Sherbrooke to Papineau Avenue, down Papineau Avenue to Notre Dame and along Notre Dame to Dominion Park.

The race is open to any recognized amateur in the world.

One thing, however, is to be remembered, no one who has not passed his seventeenth birthday will be permitted to run. This race is for the purpose of encouraging and developing runners sufficiently matured, so that the distance will not hurt them.

Entries may be sent in now to the Sporting Editor of The Montreal Star and will be closed Tuesday before the race.

SEVERAL MEDALS.

In addition to the trophy presented by The Montreal Star, which will have to be won twice in succession to become the property of the winner, the Caledonian Society will offer a number of medals.

TO WATCH OUT FOR FAKE FIGHT PICTURES

New York, July 12. — Contending that the firm was deceived by the Empire Film Company, which promised to furnish it with pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, William Morris, Inc., will file a petition to recover damages from the Empire Film Company. This statement was given out by a representative of William Morris, Inc., who said that the amount of damages that the vaudeville agency will attempt to recover would be decided at a consultation with the firm's lawyers.

According to the statement emanating from the Morris offices, the Empire Company furnished moving pictures of two men who were not the contenders in the big fight, but who merely enacted the battle as it was reported by a certain news agency as having been fought.

CARDINAL MERRY DEL VAL FOND OF GOLF

Cardinal Merry Jel Val, whose name is again brought prominently to the fore in Europe as a result of his having tendered to the Pope his resignation of the position of Papal Secretary of State, as a protest against the new church policy of the Spanish Government, is an Englishman by birth and to some extent, too, by instinct. He was born about 46 years ago in Portman Square, London, where his father, a Spaniard by birth, but descended from the Irish family of Merry, was Secretary to the Spanish Embassy. He received his early education in England at a private school near Slough where his propensity for playing practical jokes procured for him the punning nickname of "Merry Devil." Later he took an extended course at Ushaw College, Durham. The Cardinal-Secretary of State is one of the few members of the Sacred College who can speak English with fluency, and is the only Cardinal who is inclined to athletics, not merely playing golf and bowls himself, but inducing his friends to do likewise. He ascribes England's pre-eminence in the world to the Englishman's love for manly sports.

A well-known Canadian official who last winter visited His Eminence at his villa at No. 11 in the Via della Val Tellina outside the Portese Gate of the Vatican, says that the first thing he asked his visitor, after the formal welcome, was if he played golf, adding that he was always glad to receive visits from English and Canadian friends, for that generally gave him an opportunity for a private match over his small course. He added that he found that by regular exercise he was best able to keep himself in necessary physical condition to discharge his official duties. He went on to explain that he was very fond of swimming and of automobiling, he having a fine motor car of his own. "You see," he remarked, "I seemed to have imbibed English tastes with the first air I breathed, and that is why I enjoyed my life in Canada; your people are so English in their habits."

Cardinal Merry del Val, then Papal Ablegate in Canada, was one of the guests of honor at the big public banquet given at the Windsor Hotel in Montreal by the Corporation and citizens of Montreal in 1897 in honor of Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee. A couple of local singers were engaged to sing between the choruses. "Rule Britannia" and "The Red, White and Blue" were among the songs allotted to one of the singers by the dinner committee, and shortly after he had rendered them, he received a message from the Mayor, who presided, to the effect, that he would like to speak to him. When he went to the Mayor's place, his Worship introduced him to the Ablegate who invited him to draw a chair beside him for a chat. The churchman explained that he had always loved "Rule Britannia" for its stirring music, and added that it was perhaps the oldest secular song he remembered hearing sung. A very dear departed personal friend, an English priest, who had a rich bass voice, used to sing it and he had often tried to get a score in the same setting, but had never succeeded. The version which had just been sung was he thought, the one he wanted. Would the singer mind letting him look at the score so that he might get a duplicate. After the dinner was over the Ablegate accepted the singer's copy, after the latter's name and the date, had been written upon it. Monsignour remarking, as he put the roll under his arm,—"That song alone is answer enough to the reproach that my native country has not produced anything worth while in music."

CANADIAN COLORED BOXER AFTER JOHNSON

Special to The Montreal Star.

San Francisco, Cal., July 12. — "Sam" Langford, the Canadian-born colored boxer, and his manager, "Joe" Woodman, are speeding on their way to New York to make a determined effort to compel Jack Johnson to fight. A match between Johnson and Langford, it is decided, would prove an attractive card, though it is admitted it would not begin to figure with any of the great championship matches of the past.

"I will post $10,000 as soon as I arrive in New York," declared Woodman in behalf of his fighter. "Johnson will fight anybody but Langford, and the public knows it by this time. Johnson is the man Langford is after. We will make Johnson fight or quit talking before many days are passed."

TORONTO GETS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 12.—The Canadian lawn tennis championships will be held on the courts of the St. Matthew's Club, commencing Monday, July 25th, with the finals on Monday, August 1st, Civic Holiday.

In addition to the local experts, a good entry from outside is already assured. The present holder of the single title, Captain Foulkes, of Ottawa, will be here, and other entries from Montreal, Ottawa, Halifax, Winnipeg, Renfrew and Buffalo are already assured.

It is hoped Mr. J. W. Allen, of Haileybury, will compete, and those who saw his match with Mr. Baird in the finals of the Ontario championships in 1908 will look forward to another meeting between these two.

This is the first time in a number of years that the Canadian championships have been held in Toronto, Montreal having had them for the past couple of seasons and Niagara-on-the-Lake previous to that.

The Province of Quebec championships will be held during the preceding week at the Mount Royal Club, Montreal, and it is expected a number of players will come on to the Canadian championships from there.

ONCE AGAIN OPEN GOLF CHAMPION OVER IN ENGLAND.

CAPITALS ANXIOUS TO BEAT NATIONALS

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 12. — While they are talking down in Maisonneuve of going through the season without a defeat, other teams in the N. L. U. are waiting to spring a surprise upon the over-confident habitants of the Montreal suburb. Saturday's game at Lansdowne Park will be the second appearance of the Nationals away from home this season, and while every paper outside of this burg is calling for a blue and white victory, the Capital officers have a little to say in that regard.

Nationals trebled the score in Montreal a few days ago, but it is dollars to doughnuts that the French-Canadian players will not be so frisky in Ottawa as they were before the thousands of their compatriots. The Senators are anxious to start the winning streak this way, and quite a little Ottawa money will be behind the garnet and grey team when they line up at the end of the week.

The Capitals sadly missed Johnny Powers and Shiner Eastwood on the attack Saturday. While both Bawlf and Currie made good, their lack of senior experience gave the Nationals an opportunity that they took every advantage of.

Although Capitals were never in the running after the first quarter in Montreal, Coach Donaldson states that his men put up a better article of lacrosse than they have done all year.

There was little or no difficulty regarding referees, Johnny Kervin, of Cornwall, and Desse Brown, of Montreal, will officiate, and this pair will endeavor to make the teams play straight lacrosse.

Zingari Cricketers Lead.

London, July 12. — The Zingari cricket team, in their first innings against the Gentlemen of Surrey, scored one hundred and seventy-nine runs. The high scorers were W. M. Marshall, 44; Wright, 45 not out, and Rathbun, 34. Surrey made one hundred and sixty-five runs in their half. Beamer, four wickets for 42, Gibson three for 48 runs, Zingari now lead at the end of the first inning by fourteen runs.

At St. Matthew's picnic, at Highgate, a very exciting game of ball was played between the St. Matthews and Strathconas. Strathconas being the winners by a score of 7—2. McQueen pitched fine ball for the winners, and Smart starring at the bat. Erratic fielding costing St. Matthews the game. Mr. Jim Mercer, assistant secretary of the R.R.Y.M.C.A., umpired to the satisfaction of everybody.

The players on the winning team were presented with cuff links by Mr. David Thomson, superintendent of the Sunday School."

The Strathconas would like to arrange games for any Saturday afternoons, address communications to F. Lowe, captain Strathcona Baseball Club, 276 Liverpool street, Point St. Charles.

BRITISH GOLF MATCH WON BY BRAID

James Braid, the dour, long-hitting Scot of Elie, stamping ground of the Mackies—Isaac of Fox Hills, Jack and Dan of Dunwoodie—has at last won his fifth victory in the British open championship, the crowning golf event of the year. Old Tom Morris, Young "Tommy," Old "Willie" Park, Harry Vardon and J. H. Taylor each won four times abroad, as did Willie Anderson on this side. Braid has the quintuple crown, and he won also the Jubilee medal commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the event.

The event was notable in many ways. To begin, a storm broke on the first day of play, so flooding the links that the day's scoring was called off, an unprecedented occurrence. Yet in that storm Braid had done a 78. He kept on later and with rounds of 76, 73, 74, 76—299, took first money.

Alexander Herd, with 303, was second, having done 78, 74, 75 and 76. George Duncan, the most brilliant of the younger school, did 73, 77, 71 and 83 for third place. His 73 was a new course record. His 71 tied the mark set in the second by "Willie" Smith, of Mexico, a former American champion, whose brother, Alexander Smith, won the open at Philadelphia the same day "Willie" stunned the St. Andrewsites with his 71 abroad. That made him the leader for the first day, and they spoke of him as "Willie Smith, of Carnoustie." On the second day, when he did two 80's and fell back, he was "Smith, the Yankee."

Golfing says Smith was quite the best dressed man on the links, and, with his striped white serge trousers and white shoes, silk pongee coat and white collar and tie, he was fit for a seaside parade.

Smith played with Mr. John Low, the old Oxford captain, who foretold despite the brilliant 71 that Smith's habit of playing all his wood shots with a pull would cost him the championship. And it did, for at the next hole the pull failed to come off, and he was badly bunkered or an 8. Braid's steadiness won. He had only three 6's.

It is interesting to note that Braid's previous win over St. Andrew's was with 318, and J. H. Taylor won with 309, which was up to this event the record of St. Andrew's for four rounds.

Harry Fulford, a golfing writer and professional player, writing of the championship, says: "With all respect to the memory of young 'Tom' Morris, I do not think he could be reckoned in the same class with a man like Braid. His 76 in the deluge and then a round of 73 on the second day's play places him in a class apart."

Braid indeed did five consecutive rounds in average of even 75. The course record of 74 was equalled or beaten by many players. J. H. Taylor remarked: "The play that wins this year is not quite good enough next. It's getting harder all the time."

It was a very curious circumstance, with a little pathos in it, that two one-time open champions were carrying clubs for two former champions. "Bob" Martin, who won the championship in 1885, acted as caddie for Mr. John Ball, and "Jack" Burns, the champion of 1888, served in a similar capacity for "Willie" Park.

Mr. Ball, who won his seventh amateur at Hoylake this year, led the amateurs in this event with 314, and did a 75 in his second round. He rode to St. Andrew's from Liverpool on a motorcycle, despite his forty-eight years.

Donald Ross, of the Oakley Country Club, near Boston, did 78, 79, 75, 77—309, beating "Tom" Ball at 311, Harry Vardon at 313, J. H. Taylor at 313, and Arnaud Massy at 315, and other famous players.

Six thousand people followed Braid in his last round, most of them having also seen Duncan collapse. Yet Duncan got almost as much fame from the event as Braid owing to his brilliancy.

Scotsmen took the first four places, getting even with England for loss in the international matches. Scotland has won the open thirty-eight times, with nineteen men, and England eleven times, with four men.

A hole was done in one stroke on the Thursday of the meeting, such a thing not having been done at a championship since the gathering at Muirfield four years ago, and never at St. Andrew's. The hero was Hugh Scott, of Carlisle, and the hole was the eleventh. This was the fourth "one" in the history of the event. "Jack" Hobens, of Englewood, has the sole "one" in the American event.

In the hurricane of the first day Braid used a solid guttapercha ball on several wet holes.

SWEETHEART TAKES LEAD.

Last Word From Yachts in Trans-Pacific Race.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—The last word which will be received from the three yachts in the trans-Pacific race prior to their arrival in Honolulu was brought yesterday by the schooner-yacht Skid Bladnir which followed the racers until dusk or about seven hours after the noon start from San Pedro.

The Sway, the favorite, was then becalmed under the lee of Catalina Island, with the Sweetheart fully five miles in the lead and the Mollilou, the Alameda entry, trailing.

George Duseault was out for a walk yesterday.

BEN LOYAL WON AT EMPIRE TRACK

NEWMAN, DESIGNER OF ST. LAWRENCE, STAYS

The Seawanhaka Challenger, St. Lawrence, will be shipped from Dorval by special C.P.R. train to Boston tomorrow.

It is expected to reach Boston on Thursday and be in the water on Friday.

That is the day that the gentlemen who will look after sailing the boat will leave for Boston also.

Apparently the builder-designer, Mr. Newman, will not attend the races, but it is understood that his son, Willie Newman may go to look after the boat.

The reason for Mr. Newman, senior's, absence is that there is too much work to be finished in the building sheds of the St. Lawrence Yacht Company.

If young Newman goes he will be provided with duplicates of everything that may break, so that repairs and substitutions can be made at a moment's notice.

There will, of course, be two suits of sails, and two sets of spars.

The boat when she is laid down at Manchester will have cost about thirty-five hundred dollars.

That is a good deal more than the first boat, the one which brought the Seawanhaka Cup to Montreal, cost. A thousand dollars would have easily covered the expense of that, and a good part of these sums is eaten up in transportatinn expenses.

The first boat, a Glencairn, was only about twenty one feet over all. Then another size came into existence, which was about twenty-seven feet overall, and now the boats have grown to be about forty feet overall.

Big Baseball Trade.

Cincinnati, O., July 12.—Perhaps the biggest trade of the year in baseball is to be announced here on Wednesday, when the Boston national team comes to play Cincinnati a series of four games. It will take from Cincinnati third baseman Lobert, who is considered by many one of the best infielders of the league, and will bring to Cincinnati Pitcher Curtiss and Shortstop Sweeney of Boston. This plan has received the official recommendation of President Hermann, who is now at Detroit.

PREPARATIONS FOR CANADIAN HENLEY

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 12.—There will be extra big doings at this year's Canadian Henley regatta, Friday and Saturday, August 5th and 6th, if present indications are true prophets, for the simple reason that the senior events at least will eclipse all preceding cards.

The main event will probably be the senior eights, upon which race Ottawa will make a deadset to win. They will have to deliver the goods, however, because Detroit and the Toronto crews intend to give them a hard run for their money. Detroit won the senior eights last year, and will come back this year with a determination to do the same thing. Ottawa will be here stronger than ever, and their prize four is expected to do things in the senior fours. It is expected that the Big Four—Harvey Pulford, Ed. Phillips, Ormie Haycock and Bill Harrison—will be the crew, and the squad and the intermediate four—McCualg, Kily, Sowden and Jolliffe—will make up the senior eight. If the Ottawas win the senior four this year, they will probably go to old Henley next year. Ottawa's other rowing club, Britannian, which is having a new lease of life, will also be here strong.

Of course the Toronto clubs, Argonauts, Dons and Torontos, whose representatives every year help so ably to make the Canadian National Regatta a success, will be on hand in full strength, and will be liberally entered in the senior, junior and intermediate events.

The Lachines and Grand Trunks of Montreal have promised to make another good try after the prizes. Last year the Lachines did not do as well as they expected, but they will probably retrieve themselves this time.

Brockville is also going to send up a good contingent and try and get back into the leading place it once held in the Canadian Henley events.

Another city which is to be largely represented this year is Hamilton, which will have a senior four, a junior four and a working boat crew. Hamilton is coming along well in the water game.

Buffalo will send over rowers from its Lighthouse, Celtics and Mutual Clubs, and no doubt this year will be able to give a good account of itself. The stick-to-itiveness of the Buffalo oarsmen is much admired, and this year it is hoped they will carry off several trophies.

It would not be surprising if the senior singles would see a contest between Jimmy Cosgrave, of Toronto, who was defeated in England, and Jack O'Neil, of Halifax. Cosgrave won the Canadian single championship last year, and he may be here to defend the title, while O'Neil, who won the international championship at Detroit last year, might drop off at St. Catharines to take a try at the single sculls on his way to the international regatta at Washington, just one week after the Canadian Henley.

Lou Scholes was training for the senior singles, but he is down with appendicitis, and that will put him out of further rowing this year.

Gordon, of Philadelphia, who last year at the Canadian Henley, won his heat in record time but was afterwards defeated, said he would come back this year and have another try at the senior single championship.

Feussel and Shepherd, the two New Yorkers, who were here last year and won the senior doubles, will be back again and will row in the senior singles also.

Winnipeg has not yet been heard from. They may send down another crew, as the one now in England could not be here in time. Vancouver may be represented, though Laing did not do very much last year.

The races will all be rowed with the turn again with the exception of the eights. Great preparations are being made by the local club to have everything in good shape at the club house and on the course.

Following are the officials for the regatta: Umpire, C. M. Bosworth, Montreal; starter, James Pearson, Toronto; judge, Captain John Wilson, Toronto; assistant judges, R. T. Steele, Hamilton, and A. H. Walker, Philadelphia; timekeepers, W. A. Cameron, Ottawa, R. K. Barker, Toronto; Don Cameron, Hamilton; clerk of course, W. Murphy, Port Dalhousie.

JACK RYAN CAPTURED THE FIRST EVENT

St. John, N.B., July 12.—Another fine card was run off at Moosepath Park yesterday. Favorites and second choices split the card, and the talent, though comparatively new to the game here, more than held their own with the layers of odds. Following is the summary:

First race, 4½ furlongs—Jack Ryan, 107, Geronimo, 3 to 1, won; Goodacre, 105, Dimondo, even, second; Father Lide, 103, Johnson, 6 to 1, third. Time, .58. Tender, Ortega and C. A. Morgan also ran.

Second race, five furlongs—Lillian Leigh, 103, White, even, won; The Clown III, Knight, 3 to 1, second; Jack Binns, 108, Johnson, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1.06. Johnny Wise, Kingston Belle and Coon also ran.

Third race, six furlongs—John Marrs, 115, Martin, 5 to 2, won; John Garner, 115, Irvine, 3 to 1, second; Pleasing, 109, Matthews, even, third. Virginia Maid, Marie Rue and Square Deal also ran.

Three Rivers, Que., July 12.—A cricket match was played between Three Rivers and McGill cricketers and resulted in a victory for the home club by a score of 101 to 54 on the first innings. The second was not finished.

ONE OF THE NEW RUNNERS BROUGHT OUT BY NEW STAR RACE

Mr. George Carroll, (unattached.)

BASEBALL NOTES

Bobby Keefe had the Leafs swinging their heads off.

Nattress was at second base, and Holly at short, and the shift has added considerable strength to the infield.

Nattress was a big factor in saving yesterday's game. He went behind first and gathered in Delehanty's grounder after Slattery had singled with one out in the ninth.

A little more pitching like yesterday's will pull the Leafs down out of second place.

Tim Hurst, of big league fame, made his first appearance here yesterday. That he was not handing the Royals anything was evident from the manner in which he disposed of Demmitt at the plate in the second inning.

Jimmy Jones produced the hit that scored Keefe from third in the third inning.

The Royals secured but one hit off Corey after the third inning.

Nattress at second base accepted nine chances without a slip. Natty looked better on second than anything that has been there this season.

The large bat used by George Cockill was consigned to the scrap heap by Umpire Hurst, who ruled that it was above regulation size.

If Mr. Hurst remains long enough in our midst he will doubtless teach us a lot of baseball.

The fans got a bad scare in the ninth, but Natty's brilliant stop, together with Kelley's inability to "pinch hit" saved the day.

Buffalo's winning streak ended with the departure of the Royals. They journeyed to Rochester yesterday and were beaten 5 to 0, making three hits and five errors.

Manager Barrow is in the General Hospital, where he is being treated for blood poisoning in one of his hands as a result of a scratch.

The Royals' hospital list is almost wiped out, Cleary being the only player not in uniform. East, Hunter and Winter were on the bench yesterday.

Newton will probably pitch for the Leafs to-day, and Winter or Hunter for the Royals.

FOR INTERNATIONAL TENNIS.

London, July 12.—The U. S. Lawn Tennis Association probably will accept the invitation of the Australian Association to play the preliminary games for the Davis Cup in Australia. The American committee has not yet decided whether to send a team to Australia to compete in the preliminaries for the Davis cup matches, but hopes to be able to do so. The cup is now held in Australia.

ROYALS CELEBRATED RETURN HOME BY HANDING A WHITEWASH TO TORONTO

Locals Won in Spite of the Efforts of Tim Hurst who Made His Debut Here as an Umpire—Keefe Pitched a Nice Game and Scored the Only Run—Cockill's Trusty Club Sent to the Scrap Heap.

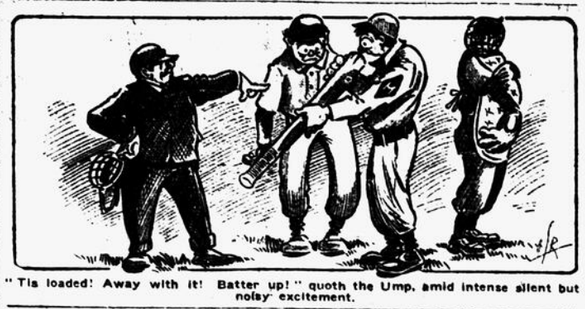

This will be a piece of joyful acclaim because the chronicler has the gladsome duty to announce that we administered a Johnsonian walloping to a band of travellers from Toronto during the late afternoon hours of yesterday and before six o'clock whistles screamed the liberty shriek a thousand electors, suffragettes and other freablanters were set loose in the twin cities to spread the merry tidings that the Royals had placed one gentle crimp in the forward progress of Joe Kelley's crew.

The score was scant; all there was of it being accumulated by the perspiring athletes on our payroll.

There was just one solitary tally in the game, and we seized it to ourselves, selfishly, perhaps, but there is no doubt but that Mr. Tunis F. Dean could find evidences of earlier historical selfishness recorded between the covers of his beloved classics.

O, You Tim Hurst.

We find ourselves compelled to digress for a little while to afford some space for commentary, this with particular relation to the doings of an individual named Hurst, who draws pay for umpiring in our midst. There was another umpire in the story with the poetical cognomen of Byron—no relation to the swimmer—but his doings were insignificant.

About this Hurst person. In section two of the fray up stepped Georgie Cockill with his trusty black club.

"Say! wot's that?" demanded His Lordship.

"That? That's me swat stick," responded Georgie.

"Gwan. That's a spar," said Hurst, fretful like.

"Nix, its a real bat," persisted Georgie.

"Lemme see," ordered the Czar.

He clutched it in his paw, felt it gingerly, declared that it was flat, that it concealed lead, that it had hidden springs and that it contravened nineteen articles of the Duma's constitution.

In brief, that it could not be used in the league without the express permission of the stout gentleman in New York who pinches gate receipts from lanky aborigines.

"To the discard," ordered the Hurst person, and to the lumber heap it went. We have to record that no other bat produced by our first baser possessed a little hit. Oh you Hurst!

Rain Checks Were Honored.

The occasion was the first on which the citizens of the adjacent and adjoining burgs of Montreal and Westmount had been permitted to witness the perspiring efforts of our demon athletes since that dreadful day when the fellows in the coops copped all the money and refused to surrender because seventeen—count 'em, seventeen—drops of rain fell.

Some of us got back yesterday with the precious rain checks and we're now squared away for any sort of a finish. But this being the first time since then a thousand of us broke away from the heated asphalt centres and made for the suburbs to bask in cool breezes and express hot opinions as to the eyesight and the personality of the robber barons.

Who the robber barons are we decline to say.

There were some new performers on our handbill. To begin with there is a large southpaw who looks after the agricultural interests in the northwest section of our farm, and who answers to the Latin name of Jube. His past performances are said to denote hitting ability, but he failed to unloose any samples yesterday, but then hits were shy game in this mill. Pass Mr. Jube.

Then there is our new infielder. Wild cheers. We have a really truly positive infielder. His name is Holly, and because of his festive name was sold for a million sterling. How we got the money in these hard times, no one knows. But back to Holly.

Who took the batter's place in ninth, to try and ward an awful rout, Who swatted air in vain attempt to change a scoreless score about? —'Twas Kelly!

New Infield Worked Finely.

Our new infield player was placed at short and our Nattress was shifted to the mid station. We are pleased to record fine business. Fourteen chances between the pair without a slip. It is worth remembering, too, that in the ninth chapter Natty grabbed a scorching grounder from Delahanty that seemed bound for the horse show barn and pegged it to Geordie to time to relieve the situation. Our slips consisted in a low heave by Joe Yeager and a wild throw past second by Mister Krichell.

We have a lot more players than were in evidence yesterday, but they are in the Red Cross district. One of the finely trained directors, to wit H. Cushing, was relieved from the hospital precincts only to be succeeded by the High Admiral, who is suffering from blood poisoning. East, Cleary, Hunter and Winter are in the arnica territory, while the balance of the f.t.d. move about as if they expected to receive a blow from a motor car. The convalescents gather in the sunlight each morning and compare fever charts instead of swapping batting averages.

Shaw Fanned Twice.

About batting averages. Toronto has a performer named Shaw, who is accredited with being the long hit artist of this season's coterie, breaking fence timbers is his daily pastime and he can poke them to high altitudes at will, a la Walter Brookins. Right field fences are his meat. To show his zeal yesterday he drove one out in our farm land labelled for three sacks and only swift and conscientious work on the part of our hurrying athletes prevented it from being worth a complete circuit.

In deference to Mister Keefe it is the author's duty to record that this ever-hitting Shaw slugger was twice fanned by our worthy pegger.

Bobbie was the boy wonder in this struggle and he served up swift wonders that had the Toronto chaps guessing. He divided four hits through nine innings and was never in trouble. Corey did some pitching, too, but not up to our finely established standard.

We are glad to be in a position to announce that notwithstanding the bearish tone in the market, peanuts remain firm indicating a hopeful sign in a soft spot. We resume our useful quotation:

THE INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE.

Ordered Clovers and Quebec to Play Match Over Again.

The National Intermediate Lacrosse League held a special meeting last night at the M.A.A.A. Club house to consider Quebec's protest against the Clovers for playing O'Reilly, who, they claim, has figured in senior company. The League decided that the match should be played over, and Clovers will not be allowed to play O'Reilly on their team. The match will probably be played on the 6th of August, although no definite date has been made.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a lacrosse match at the National grounds will be present on July 23rd, when the Toronto twelve come here to play their return match with the Nationals. Not only will all the followers of the game in Montreal be present, but the Quebec men have stated that they will run an excursion, and they expect about three hundred fans from Quebec will witness the match.

If McDougall, of the Tecumsehs, ever had any facial beauty, it is all gone now after the way Clingen and Fury used him Saturday. His face is covered with court plaster.

KILLED BABE WITH KNIFE, WIFE WITH AXE

Then Marino Crojie Shot Himself to Satisfy His Honor.

Pretty Young Niece Whom He Had Married Ran Away With Another and Owned Her Fault.

Terrible vengeance was taken early this morning by a madly jealous husband who locked himself with his wife and three-year-old child in a bedroom at 11 St. Monique street, and there cut his child's throat with a razor, killed his wife with an axe, shot both of them with a revolver to make doubly sure of their deaths; and finally tripled the tragedy by shooting himself.

Every move in the awful crime had been premeditated and solemnly vowed the afternoon before by Marino Crojie, who thus avenged his honor on the young wife whom he believed had been faithless to him.

"You will see your child bleeding to death before your eyes," he told his trembling wife, yesterday, "and I will see you dying, but not a soul will witness my death."

The tragic significance of it all was intensified by the avenging husband when he wrote a terse and solemn message and persuaded his wife to write her last words along with him, forming a weird farewell, written with a blue pencil on a piece of wrapping paper just before the double murder and suicide.

"I did this for my honor," the man wrote, with a bold hand that indicated no faltering in the vengeance he was about to commit.

Below this, in wavering, nervous handwriting, were the words which the wife wrote:

"I, Concettra Crojie, am the sole cause of this fatal tragedy," was her confession.

No mortal being knows exactly what passed in the room when this tragic epitaph was written at 2 o'clock in the morning. The jealous husband may have persuaded his wife to accept her fate and to acknowledge her fault calmly, or he may have forced her to do it at the point of the revolver. From the scene that was presented afterwards it was apparent that the child had been asleep in the bed all the time this was going on and until the little fellow was murdered by his father.

Wife a Recent Immigrant.

Only two months ago, the husband sent to Italy for his young wife, who is now lying dead at the morgue. He was 44 and she was only 22 years old he was, in fact, her uncle, and had dared the ban of the Church, when he married her—a girl of 19—three years ago.

He came alone to Canada shortly afterwards, but two months ago while talking with Italian friends he showed the eager pleasure of a young lover in telling them that his wife would join him in a few days.

"I am going to marry her again," he said, "just to be sure that there is nothing wrong."

Up to last Saturday not a cloud appeared in the household life of the couple after they began rooming together in St. Monique street.

The first signs of anything wrong appeared three evenings ago, when the young woman was leaning out of the window, looking down at a tall and good-looking young Italian—Guiseppe Canada—who lived next door at No. 13 St. Monique street.

All unconscious of the husband who was walking up the street at the time, the young man and woman were exchanging light words together, and the expression on her face first prompted the fierce jealousy of the husband as the latter walked up to the door.

Inmates of the same house say that the husband upbraided the wife when he walked into her room. The pilfering continued all day Sunday, but early yesterday it seemed to have died away, for when his wife asked him for money, he gave her $10, evidently without suspecting anything.

The Elopement.

In the afternoon the wife disappeared and neighbors bore tidings that she had escaped with young Canada. A small boy followed them to Bonaventure station and told the husband.

"She has been faithless to me in Italy and she is faithless here," wailed the frantic man. The Strati family who lived in a room across the corridor tried to persuade him to keep calm, but he persisted in following his wife.

Before going, however, he kissed his little boy who was in the room and told the woman in the next room to leave the boy there.

Then he joined his wife at Bonaventure station. He was calm by this time, and quietly persuaded his wife to return home with him.

It was after he returned home that he made the threats about killing his wife and child and then himself. The neighbors by this time became frightened, and in the Chaboillez station, nearby, they told the police that they were afraid something dreadful was going to happen.

In the evening, however, the husband was calmer and even sent Dominique Strati out to buy ice cream, which he afterwards ate with his wife and child at their last meal together.

The other inmates in the house went to sleep last night thinking that peace had been restored. They heard no screams and sounds of quarreling and it was the revolver shots at 2.15 o'clock in the morning that first aroused Dominique Strati, in the next room. He sprang out of bed and rushed to the room, but found the door fast locked. He heard a woman moaning inside, but could get no answer to his frantic beating on the door, so he ran all the way to the Chaboillez police station and returned with Constables Lacombe and Filiatrault.

Three Bleeding Corpses.

Together the policemen forced open the door and then stood appalled at the ghastly tragedy that confronted them. On the bed the wife lay, wound in the head, and blood streaming from her breast where the revolver bullet had entered. The child was bleeding on another bed, and the dead man lay on the floor with the last message which he and his wife had written on a valise near his head.

Lieutenant Menard arrived later from the station and made a report of the whole affair.

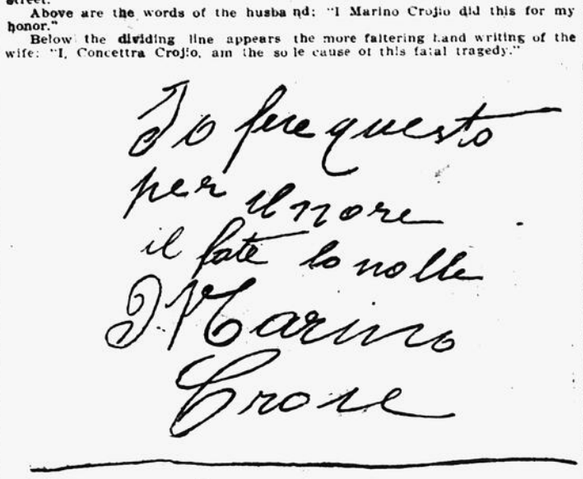

At the inquest this morning, the theory was for a while considered that it might have been a triple murder committed by someone who escaped by the window. But it was established that the window was locked from the inside and the jury simply rendered a verdict summing up the tragic facts of the case.

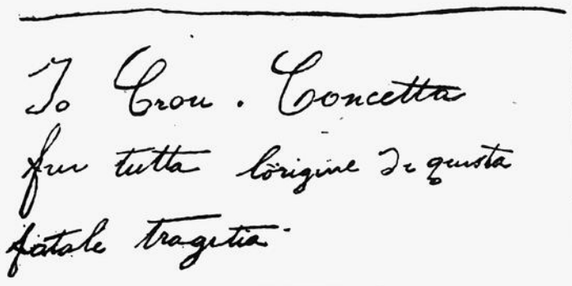

LAST MESSAGE OF ST. MONIQUE ST. VICTIMS.

Photograph of last message of Marino Crojio and his wife, written on a piece of wrapping paper before the terrible triple tragedy on St. Monique street.

Above are the words of the husband: "I Marino Crojio did this for my honor."

Below the dividing line appears the more faltering hand writing of the wife: "I, Concettra Crojio, am the sole cause of this fatal tragedy."

SEE WEAK POINTS IN UNION STATEMENT

Grand Trunk Officials Assert Risk to Life Has Been Considered.

(See also page nine.)

The Grand Trunk management is not issuing any official reply to the statement drawn up by the trainmen's officials, which appeared in yesterday's papers. They trust, they say, to the good sense of the men to see the facts in their true light.

Attention is drawn, however, to several particulars in which the union statement is one-sided.

For instance, the claim that occupational risk is not considered in the present wages, is not true, for this had always been one of the main arguments of the men in every increase that has been asked for, and it has been duly taken into account—so much so, that the men are receiving higher wages than they could possibly get for their class of labor in trades where the risk is not so great. Further, if they are hurt, the Company grants them a pension, and they also get insurance from a fund to which the company contributes, which fund is administered by themselves. Again, both in Ontario and Quebec, the interests of the men and their families are safeguarded by the Workmen's Compensation Act. Still further are they protected by the common law, under which additional recompense can be had, supposing that allowed upder the Workmen's Compensation Act is not sufficient.

The hope is strongly expressed that the men will not blindly follow agitators in this matter, and rashly enter upon a strike. It is considered that in case a majority still think they should stand out for higher rates than the Company feels itself in a position to pay, then the suggestion made by Mr. Hays in all good faith that the whole question of pay should be submitted to a board of railway experts for arbitration is one that should not be lightly thrown aside. The argument of the union leaders that the matter has already been fully arbitrated is not correct, it is contended. It has only been considered in this country by a board of conciliation, which is essentially different from a board of arbitration, while the arbitration which the union leaders refer to on the Baltimore and Ohio, under the Erdman Act, was made in another country, and under entirely different physical, climatic and financial conditions.

WILL FIGHT STRIKE SAY THE CONTRACTORS

Members of the Builders' Exchange met to-day and decided to fight the striking bricklayers and stonemasons to a finish. It was said at the conclusion of the meeting that only smaller contractors had acceded to the demands of the men, and that the figures given out by the Unions had been grossly exaggerated.

A permanent committee composed of Messrs. E. C. Cape, B. Hussey, J. Young, J. P. Anglin and H. R. Hutchison, has been appointed to consider any overtures from the men, to procure hands and distribute them to the builders according to their needs.

At the Labor Temple, the strike leaders asserted that their claims are being quietly settled and that all comes their way.

ARBITRATORS SWORN IN LIGHTING DISPUTE.

The arbitrators appointed to consider the lighting dispute between the Montreal Light Heat and Power Co., and the City, open proceedings with a preliminary meeting this afternoon. The members of the arbitration board were present at the Court House this morning, and were sworn in. They are: R. G. Black, Toronto, for the Company; J. A. Herdt, Montreal, for the City, and A. A. Dion, Ottawa, the third member of the board.

WINNIPEG GAVE LAURIER GREETING

Crowds at Station and Civic Luncheon Tendered Premier—Travel Over Transcontinental.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, July 12.—The platform of the Canadian Northern Railway station was crowded here this morning to welcome Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The last quarter of the run from Fort William was made in eight hours, in spite of the decided roughness on parts of the track. A motor trip about the city, followed by a civic luncheon, formed the programme for the morning.

Nineteen hours after leaving Fort William the Laurier party reached Redditt, three-quarters of the distance to Winnipeg, at five last evening. The run to Superior Junction was made in eight hours, the regular schedule being twelve. The run over the National Transcontinental for 124 miles averaged sixteen miles and a half per hour. At times the rate was forty miles. The road-bed appears in fair shape, though rough in sections.

Along the route the Premier's train was saluted by vigorous whistling. Mr. McArthur, who now operates the road, expects to handle all the grain offered in the fall.

DEADLY AMMONIA BROUGHT DEATH TO JAMES KENYON

Pipe in Brewery Refrigeration System Burst and Caused Asphyxiation of Engineer.

One man was asphyxiated and the lives of three others were placed in jeopardy at an early hour to-day because of a break in one of the many pipes used in the refrigeration process at Dow's brewery plant on Chaboillez Square.

The dead man is James Kenyon, engineer of the plant, who was overcome by ammonia fumes. His body was taken from the room in which the accident occurred by Captain Perrier, of No. 4 Fire Station, who protected by a safety helmet, entered and dragged Kenyon out.

Dr. Cartier used all the known means of resuscitation, but they proved fruitless in this instance, it being evident that the man was dead when the fire captain found him.

The accident happened a few minutes before seven o'clock in the refrigerating engine room. A large part of the refrigeration in Dow's brewery is done chemically by the circulation of Ammonia and salt water in tubes circling the refrigerating rooms, a pipe heavily charged with compressed ammonia gas exploded, in the immediate vicinity of the engine that was keeping the gas and the salted liquid in circulation. Three other men who were in the plant at that time had a narrow escape owing to the deadly fumes spreading.

As soon as it was realized that there was something wrong with the refrigerator firemen of station No. 6 were called. Captain Perrier took the risk of venturing into the engine room with the safety helmet and a few minutes later he came back, half suffocated himself, and carrying the body of Kenyon. Dr. Cartier, a near by physician, who had been summoned failed in his effort to revive the man.

Three other men who had been nearly overcome by the fumes recovered quickly after having inhaled full breaths of fresh air.

When seen, Mr. Duncan Robinson, manager of the brewery declined to discuss its causes, saying that experts only could figure what were the causes and explain them, and such experts could not yet visit the room where the accident took place because the fumes have not yet dissipated.

The material loss will be insignificant.

The child is to be brought to Court this afternoon, when the case will be heard by Mr. Justice Guerin.

ROUTE LOCATED FOR HUDSON BAY ROAD

With Four-tenths Grade Bridge Over Nelson River Not Necessary.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 12.—The later surveys of the engineers on the Hudson's Bay Railway, according to papers sent here, have resulted in the location of a line where the maximum grade will be four-tenths. This is considerably better than what was at first proposed.

The new line is to the south of the Nelson River and will obviate the crossing of it. This, it is stated, will result in a saving of three-quarters of a million dollars.

While certain interests are booming Fort Chruchill as the terminus of the line, there is little doubt here that Nelson will be the outlet chosen. It is understood that it is strongly favored in the reports of the engineers.

CANADA'S HOPES FOR CONTROL OF GREAT LAKES TRADE

Protection to Home Industry Malign and Blear-Eyed Spirit, Says Neew York Paper.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 12.—The "Journal of Commerce" says:—The trip of Canadian officials to the "Great West" of the Dominion, and their speeches at the chief port on the north shore of Lake Superior are evidence of the ambition and high hopes of Canada for the control of the trade above the lakes stretching not only across the continent but over two oceans, independent of all connection with the great republic, its close neighbor on the south.

No trade could be more advantageous to Canada and the United States than the most untrammelled intercourse at and through each other, but the trade policy of the two kindred peoples had been made most unneighborly by that malign and blear-eyed spirit known as "protection to home industry," and the greater neighbor has been the shorter-sighted and less liberal.

THIS MURDERER WILL GO FREE

Washington Will Not Permit Extradition of Charlton, it Is Reported.

New York, July 12. —Only a word from the State Department at Washington is necessary to set Porter Charlton free. This was made apparent today when Prosecutor Garven was told that unofficial advices from Washington indicate that the United States Government would not grant the request of the Italian Government for the extradition to Italy of the confessed wife-murderer.

"If the United States Government sends word to me to the effect that it will not honor the extradition papers from the Italian Government, I will not hold the prisoner any longer," said Mr. Garven.

"An application will be made to the court for Charlton's release as soon as sends word to me tot he effect that arrives. I am simply holding him now to await the action af the Government in the case. If the Government fails to act within the sixty days that we have a legal right to hold him, and which expires on August 22, he will be liberated, anyway."

Mr. Garven is the prosecutor for Hudson county, N.J., in which jurisdiction Charlton has been confined since ...a arrest on arriving here from Italy.

Montezuma Here.

The Montezuma, of the C.P.R. steamship line, reached port at 11 o'clock today from Antwerp. Her captain reported a fine passage, but some little inconvenience was suffered in the gulf and up the river by haze. He did not think, however, it was dense enough to prove to be smoke from forest fires.

Communication Re-established.

Telegraphic communication was re-established to-day with all signal stations down the gulf. The several interruptions yesterday were on account of thunder storms.

DETECTIVE GUILTY OF DETAINING GIRL AGAINST HER WILL

Scored by Judge and Remanded to Jail to Await His Sentence.

Charles Gorman, private detective, was this morning found guilty in the Court of Special Sessions of enticing a young woman from her room and detaining her against her will. The means taken to secure compliance was a warrant which he had for the arrest of another woman for whom he had been searching for some time.

With the warrant in his possession, Gorman went to the house where the young woman lived. He persuaded her to go out with him on a search for the woman he wanted. The start was made after midnight during a rainstorm. The young woman stated she had gone out with Gorman only because of the warrant which he had presented. After going ou tthey walked about, had a meal, and some time later registered in Stillwell's Hotel, Gorman signing his name as Johnston.

In giving his judgment on the case, Judge Choquet commented severely upon the fact that Gorman, being a detective and empowered to serve warrants, had gone to the hotel with a woman, under an assumed name, that he had used the warrant for the purpose of searching several disorderly houses, which he had no right to do, and that there seemed no doubt he had used the warrant as a threat to the young woman.

His Lordship also said great care should be exercised in giving of these warrants. In this case the man in possession had proven entirely untrustworthy and had used the warrant for purposes wholly unauthorized.

Gorman was remanded to jail awaiting sentence.

PORT CONGESTED EXPORTS ARE LOW TRADE SUFFERS

Grain Boats Lie in Montreal Harbor for Week Waiting Opportunity to Unload Wheat.

The grain situation in the port in view of the congestion of the elevators has this week become worse than was outlined in The Star a fortnight ago. The Harbor Commissioners have received complaints by telegraph from the Mathews Steamship Company, of Toronto, that two of their ships had been lying in Montreal harbor since Thursday last awaiting opportunity to discharge their cargoes of grain at the Commissioners elevator, but this was so full that not another bushel of grain could be admitted. The delay is costing the company three hundred dollars per day.

"I never saw a season like this before," remarked Mr. James Carruthers, to The Star, when interviewed on the subject to-day. "The chances are, of course, that much wheat is being held against sales made months ago, and they are waiting until steamers come along to ship it off.

"At the same time, there is no doubt that business is out of line for export of wheat. The fact is that European countries seem to be quite independent of Canada or the United States as far as these supplies are concerned. They can get them from other countries at a cheaper rate than they can from this side of the Atlantic. We are anything from six to ten cents a bushel out of line, prices in Winnipeg at the present time being just as much as the commodity will fetch on the other side.

"Then as to oats. There is a large quantity of oats in the elevators which is left there on account of the fact that prices have gone away up on this side without a corresponding advance in England."

A prominent shipping man who was seen, suggested that the present difficulty would be recurrent until there was free trade in shipping.

"At the present time," he said, "there are many tramp steamers that would be glad of the opportunity to ship grain, but instead of this privilege being given them, they are debarred from the trade by the insurance conditions, and meanwhile people are losing money because they cannot get their grain moved until such times as the schedule steamers can accommodate them."

Mr. G. W. Stephens, chairman of the Harbor Commissioners, stated that the completion of the new elevator would, of course, appreciably relieve the situation, but it was manifest that there ought to be greater ship accommodation for the carriage of the grain.

Others interested in the business warmly urged the necessity for the provision of greater elevator accommodation. In reply to the suggestion that further shipping of grain to Montreal should be stopped, they said to do this would do much harm to the port and divert trade which would not be recovered in years.

The commissioners allow twenty days free storage in the elevators, and apart from this the elevators of Montreal are preferred because of greater advantages in insurance conditions than are allowed elsewhere.

The new elevator will have an intake capacity from the water of 300,000 bushels per day, and intake capacity from cars of 672,000 bushels per day, while the delivery capacity will be 60,000 bushels per hour, or 1,200,000 per day.

By a striking piece of irony, while great expense and inconvenience are being incurred because the incoming grain cannot be shipped off fast enough, the steamship companies are complaining that they have not sufficient export business to keep them sufficiently engaged.

"While the export trade shows a marked decline this year," remarked Mr. Corbett, of the C.P.R. to a Star representative to-day, "we still have a fair share of business, and I should say that Montreal is less affected by the general decrease in exports than any other port.

"There is a restriction in the shipping of cattle, and this is owing to the diminished number of animals in the Northwest and the consequent higher prices. Farmers seem to have paid attention to other matters to the negligence of cattle raising, but the matter will regulate itself in due time. These provision exports have been abnormally low, owing to the high price of hogs in the West. However, a little better feeling is showing itself at the present time in the provision line. We have received a fair average share of flour, but taken altogether the export situation is not as good as it has been in former years."

CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN CANADA WILL MARK BICENTENARY

Consecration of All Saints Cathedral Will Open Week's Celebration.

Special to The Montreal Star.

H[illegible] N.S., July 12.—The Church of England in Canada will, on Saturday, September 3rd, begin a celebration of its two hundredth anniversary. The celebration, which extends over a period of seven days, will begin with the opening of the new All Saints Cathedral, the Cathedral church of the diocese of Nova Scotia. The edifice will cost $175,000, of which $135,000 has already been raised.

In view of the fact that the opening of All Saints Cathedral is intended to commemorate the beginning of regular services of the Church of England two hundred years ago in the old town of Port Royal, now Annapolis Royal, N.S., it may not be inopportune to outline the history of that ancient fortress and its relations to the church in the Dominion.

Three hundred years ago Demont, Champlain and their associates set sail from Havre de Grace in search of the Western Land of Promise. After three weary months of voyaging and exploration the intrepid Frenchmen discovered the Annapolis Basin, but passed on. After spending a winter in New Brunswick they returned to the Annapolis Basin forming a permanent settlement there.

Members of the expedition bore names distinguished in early Canadian history, such as Poutrincourt, Champlain, Biencourt, L'Escarbot, Louis Hebert, Robert Grave, and Daniel Haye.

In 1610 Father La Fleche, a Jesuit priest, was brought out from France, and baptised a number of the Micmacs, among them their chief, Membertou. This tribe has just held a tercentenary celebration in which this event was marked.

From this time onward the country was in a more or less troubled state, owing to the rivalry between the French and the British, and also the American Colonists.

First Service Thanksgiving One.

In October, 1710, the final cession to Britain took place and on Tuesday, October 10th, the event was solemnized as a day of thanksgiving. The Church of England services in Canada thus dat from that time.

Although no Canadian Diocese was founded for three-quarters of a century after 1710, the Diocese of Nova Scotia, comprising not only the Provinces of Nova Scotia (including Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island, its present area; but also the Provinces of New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario, the ancient colony of Newfoundland and the Bermudas, enjoys the dignity of being the oldest Colonial Diocese in the British Empire.

Excepting the Dioceses of Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania, established within three years of the date of the consecration of Nova Scotia's first bishop, this Diocese is the oldest of that great sisterhood of Anglican dioceses that from four continents now claim the Church of England as their mother.

On this account, if on no other, the history of the Church in Nova Scotia is full of interest to churchmen the world over.

On March 25th, 1783, a number of Connecticut clergymen renewed their efforts to secure an Episcopate, this time with success. The Rev. Dr. Samuel Seabury was consecrated more than a year later, November 14, 1784, by bishops of the Scottish Episcopal Church and preached his first sermon in America after his consecration, in Trinity Church, St. John, N.B.

First Bishop of Nova Scotia.

The year 1783, however, was one of still greater importance to Nova Scotia. Just four days before the meeting of the Connecticut clergymen which resulted in the appointment of Bishop Seabury, eighteen clergymen of New York and vicinity met for a similar purpose in New York. Among those present were the Rev. Dr. Samuel Seabury, himself then missionary at Staten Island; the Rev. Charles Inglis, D.D., the Rector of Trinity Church, besides eight others who afterwards proceeded to Nova Scotia.

This convention in a letter dated New York, March 26, 1783, to Sir Guy Carleton, signed by seventeen of the clergymen, recommending the consecration as first Bishop of Nova Scotia, Dr. Thomas Bradbury Chandler, then in England, a New Jersey clergyman, nearly fifty-seven years old, one of the strong men of the Church in North America. Dr. Chandler was in ill health, suffering from trouble from which he died in 1790, and consequently declined the offer. The Archbishop of Canterbury, however, asked him to propose some other suitable clergyman, and Dr. Chandler immediately named his friend, the Rector of Trinity Church, the Reverend Charles Inglis, D.D.

In 1839, during the episcopate of Bishop John Inglis, the Diocese of Newfoundland, comprising Labrador, Newfoundland and the Bermudas was erected, and again in 1845, the Diocese of Fredericton, comprising the Province of New Brunswick, was formed.

THREE BROTHERS HAVE MARRIED THREE SISTERS

Novelty of Affairs to Be Marked by Neighbors by Big Reception.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Portland, Me., July 12.—The people of the Deering district are planning receptions to Thomas, Benjamin, and Fred. Bustin, and Catherine, Ayres, and Melvina Hamilton, three brothers and three sisters, news of whose triple marr[illegible] has just leaked out.

All six came here recently from the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario. The idea of three sisters and three brothers being husbands and wives, is so novel and so dramatic that their friends are never done talking about the surprise that two of the couples sprang here, when they announced that they had been wedded in Portsmouth, N.H.

Six years ago Fred. Bustin married Melvina Hamilton. They had been brought up on adjoining farms in Nova Scotia, so when they brought their two brothers and sisters to the big Deering farm house to live with them little was thought of it.

The other day Thomas and Benjamin Bustin disappeared. So did the sisters. They were married at Saco.

Now the three married couples are living in the same house. The three boys and the three girls years ago were sweethearts in Nova Scotia, and the triple wedding is the climax.

BRIDGING THE RED RIVER AT WINNIPEG

Big Structure for Grand Trunk Pacific to Be Completed by End of the Year.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, July 12.—Eighty men are at work this week on the Red River bridge contract of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. No actual work on the bridge is being done, the piers having been completed some months ago and the Dominion Bridge Company not having made a beginning of the steel structure. There is said to be no hurry in this matter, as there is considerable amount of work to be done further east, and the bridge will in any case be ready before the line can be finished through St. Boniface. The bridge will likely be completed by the end of the year.

The eighty men who are on the contract this week are engaged in the construction of the line from the river to the freight shed of the Canadian Northern on Water street, where the line of the National Transcontinental ends and the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific begins.

About two hundred feet remains to be covered, and the contractors expect to get through in September. The method of the erection of the roadbed for the track, is to go down ten feet and drive forty-five foot piles. The wide excavation is then filled with concrete, and high retaining walls are built to an elevation of approximately twenty feet. These walls are reinforced with steel, and are filled with gravel and concrete. The finished roadway has the appearance of a line of solid concrete twenty feet high and thirty feet wide. On this the trains of the Grand Trunk Pacific will be carried from the river to the union depot, which they will enter at the second floor. Over the city streets the trains will be carried on steel trusses, which will be supported by steel arches in the centre of the streets. For some distance from the river there will also be steel trestles to carry the trains.

The six big piers in the river and the abuttments on the St. Boniface side naturally look much as they did early in the [illegible] when the ice was in the stream and when the work on them was completed. These masses of concrete are 72 feet by 22 feet where they rest on the rock, and they rise to a total height of 65 feet. At the top they are 40 feet by 12, giving ample room for a double track.

The negotiations for a traffic bridge in connection with the railway structure did not go through, and there will be no provision for vehicles or for foot passengers on this bridge. The anchor pier, on which the Strauss lift span will be installed, is complete, but none of the mechanism has yet been provided. The deepest water in the river at this point is that close to the Winnipeg shore, and all boats will pass up and down between the first and second piers. The bridge will not swing, as the other local bridges do, but a section will be raised up into the air by a counter weight as provided in the Strauss patent.

Turner fell with a bullet through the abdomen, and died shortly afterwards. Hobbs is under arrest. An inquest will be held.

FINEST LIGHT ON THE PACIFIC COAST

One to Be Erected on Triangle Island Will Be Visible One Hundred Miles Distant.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Victoria, B. C., July 12.—"The new lighthouse which will be erected on the top of Triangle Island will be the largest on the coast," said Colonel Anderson, chief engineer of the Marine and Fisheries Deparement of the Dominion Government. "The site is not in every way ideal, as it is at times obscured, but the top of the island is the only place from which it may be seen in every direction. During clear weather it is expected that the light will be seen one hundred miles from the island, which will be a great convenience to mariners. It will be a higher-power light than Pachena or any of the others at present on the coast."

Colonel Anderson came here on one of his periodical tours of inspecton, especially in connection with the installation of the sub-station of the department at Prince Rupert. He will go up the west coast and inspect all the new work which has been done, or which is being planned. While in the north he will visit Queen Charlotte Islands and other points. Speaking of the work the colonel said:

"The department is simply following up the consistent policy which has always been adopted by it in commencing at the south and working steadily northward. This policy has made the southern part of this coast almost as well protected as any in the world, and now, going forward with the development of the country—and often a little ahead of it—they are banding their energies towards making the northern part of the coast equally safe. The site for the station at Digby Island has already been chosen and the work will proceed immediately.

"The developments at Rose Harbor have made it necessary to do something to protect the shipping interests on that part of the coast. The Queen Charlotte Islands are fast growing in importance and the Dominion Government is recognising this fact. The department will probably arrange for the erection of a lighthouse and the placing of a buoy outside the spit. The place is rather dangerous as it is at present. Other work will be done as the needs are ascertained."

3RD GRAND DIVISION CANADIAN NORTHERN

New Territory Will Include All of the Company's Lines in British Columbia.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B. C., July 12.—A new grand division of the Canadian Northern railway is shortly to be established covering the whole of British Columbia. The great expansion of the C. N. R. of late makes such a movement imperative and by the establishment of division offices at Vancouver, it is believed that the best interests of the company and the people will be served.

At present the C. N. R. line is divided into two sections, one being known as the western which stretches to and beyond Winnipeg, and the other the eastern division which extends from Lake Superior towards the Atlantic.

Construction work on the C. N. R. is forging ahead at a rapid rate in British Columbia and it will be but a very short time befo the company is recognized as a great transportation power in the province. The work contracted for by the Northern Construction company on the construction of a sixty mile section from Fort Mann up the Fraser River is now under way, and rapid work will take place.

Before long another transcontinental railway will run into Vancouver under the name of the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway, for that is the name by which the company is acknowledged in British Columbia by the provincial government, which has guaranteed the bonds.

INDIAN CHIEFS TO WELCOME PREMIER

Red Men of British Columbia Will Gather in Paint and Feathers to Greet Sir Wilfrid.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B.C., July 12.—Clad in all their aboriginal finery, the Indian chiefs from the mountains and valleys of British Columbia will gather in Vancouver to greet Sir Wilfrid Laurier when he visits the coast in the middle of August. Chief Matthias, successor to the late Chief Joes Capilano, crossed from the Indian village near North Vancouver a day or two ago, and had an interview with Mayor Taylor in which he informed his Worship that he was sending out messages to every chieftain in the province urging them to attend a great potlach here on the occasion of the western trip of the Dominion Premier.

The Indians have no demands to lay before Sir Wilfrid, it is understood, but they desire simply to show their esteem of the Premier by gathering to present him with an address some time during his stay in Vancouver.

It is the purpose of Chief Matthias to have all the Indians come to Vancouver with their regalia and for the benefit of the distinguished eastern visitor the chiefs will appear in public with their paint, feathers and robes of honor.

A parade through the streets is probable, and there will also likely be a general celebration either in Vancouver or over in the Capilano village across the inlet. The visiting chiefs will remain on the coast for a couple of weeks, holding private ceremonies and celebrations, as well as those conducted in honor of the Premier.

Many Land Grants Cancelled.

Toronto, July 12.—About 200 veterans' land grants have been cancelled by the Department of Lands and Mines, out of 12,000 located. The majority of these claims are those which were sold to speculators, and many more are awaiting the blue pencil of the department.

Those who purchased veterans' claims, did not purchase the rights of the veterans, and wherever the settlement duties have been evaded in the purchases the Government proposes to cancel the claim.

Ottawa Swindlers Identified.

Ottawa, July 12—Steps will be taken by the police to bring back from Montreal two men held there for working a confidence game on newly arrived foreigners at that port.

Photographs of the men have been identified by two East Templeton farmers, who were swindled out of $500 by the old locked box scheme, in which the sum of $10,000 had been placed.

TO STOP "RUNNING" OF FISH OVER LINE

Dominion Government Will Maintain Patrol Steamer at the Mouth of the Fraser River.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B. C., July 12. — The Dominion Government will this year patrol the waters of the Gulf of Georgia and the mouth of the Fraser River during the sockeye fishing season in order to prevent the "running" of fresh sockeye salmon to the American side of the line. A suitable steamer will be placed in commission and maintained in service till August 25, the date on which the sockeye season ends.

In past years whenever fishing has been poor on Puget Sound agents of American canneries have been dispatched to the mouth of the Fraser River with tugs and scows with instructions to buy all the Canadian fish possible to secure. So anxious in such instances have the Americans been to buy the salmon that they have offered the fishermen advances on the prices paid by the Canadian canneries. The result was considerable loss of fish to the Fraser River packing plants.

Mrs. Helen Kelly Gould and Ralph Hill Thomas, nephew of Washington Thomas, president of the American Sugar Refining Company, were quietly married in New York yesterday.

VANCOUVER TO HAVE A PEOPLE'S PALACE

Ambitious Enterprise Undertaken by Salvation Army—Sum of $150,000 to Be Raised.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B.C., July 12.—With the continued developments of the city the Salvation Army has found it necessary to extend its scope of operations. To properly cope with the demands that are constantly being made upon it the officials have decided upon a great forward movement. This propaganda will include projects that will figure up to something like $150,000 and will include a people's palace, which will be up to date in every respect.

In addition to this, it is purposed to start a salvage department on the same lines as now conducted by the Army in Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, Hamilton, and other cities. Provision will also be made to erect several buildings in the interest of the citizens of Vancouver, and those who may come under the Army's care from time to time.

Lieut.-Colonel Turner, of Toronto, who is the officer responsible to Commissioner Coombs for the direction of the campaign in Vancouver, is now in the city. He is being assisted by Adjutant Bloss, Ensign Coy, Captain Martin and others.

The new People's Palace will cost $75,000. The front portion will be devoted to a hall for gospel meetings. The rest will be set apart as a hotel for working men, and will have all the facilities to be found in a modern building of that character.

In connection with the new building there will also be a dispensary, poor man's legal bureau, reading-rooms, smoking-rooms, etc.

Kingston, N.Y., July 12.—A double drowning occurred yesterday in the Saw Kill at Mount Marion, when Lydia Heidman, 14 years old tried to save Miss Yeager, a Brooklyn school teacher, who had been boarding at her home. Miss Yeager wandered beyond her depth while bathing.

The younger girl went to her assistance. Miss Yeager could not swim and it is thought that she dragged the other girl to death.

GLENN H. CURTISS SUES HAMILTON FOR ROYALTIES

Hamilton Alleges Breach of Contract —Fine Flight by Graham White In England.

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, July 12.—When Charles K. Hamilton returned last night from Garden City Aviation Field he was served a copy of the complaint in a suit brought by Glenn H. Curtiss to recover $6,000 royalties for the use of the Curtiss bi-plane in which he has been giving exhibitions around the country, and in which, on June 13, he flew from New York to Philadelphia and back again.

The complaint sets forth that Curtiss leased the bi-plane with which Curtiss won the international speed contest at Rheims last summer, on a basis of 60 per cent. royalty of all moneys which Hamilton received for flying with his machine, and that $6,000 of this is owing.

Hamilton alleges that Curtiss failed to keep certain agreements he had made with him, and charges him with bad faith. He says Curtiss refused to let him race down the Hudson with him, and he simply refrained from paying him his royalties until he allowed him $4,000 of the Albany-New York prize money to which, under his contract, he was entitled.

Accident to Hermon.

New York, July 12.—Clifford B. Harmon, the American aviator, made an attempt last evening to fly in an aeroplane from Garden City, Long Island, across Long Island Sound to the residence of his father-in-law, Commmodore E. C. Benedict, at Greenwich, Conn.

Not only did he fail, but his machine fell a distance of 150 feet and was wrecked. Harmon was badly shaken up, but not seriously injured, the branches of a tree having broken the force of the fall.

A Fifty Mile Record.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 12.—Glenn Curtiss set an American record for a 50-mile flight in an aeroplane yesterday by covering the distance in five-mile laps along the beach in the elapsed time of one hour and 14 minutes and 59 seconds. Curtiss was in the air one hour and 50 minutes and spent one hour 21 minutes and 5 seconds on the course, six minutes and six seconds being deducted for the turns at the two ends of the two and one-half miles course.

Graham White's Fine Flight.

London, July 12.—Graham White, the English aviator, who was beaten by Paulhan in the London-to-Manchester flight, made an unbroken flight yesterday of 90½ miles to Bournemouth, in two hours and 35 minutes.

On July 7 White started in an attempt to make this flight, but an accident to his propeller compelled him to descend.

De Lesseps Astonishes Toronto

Toronto, July 12.—Visitors to Aviation Grounds yesterday afternoon and evening were delighted with the work of the aviators, Ralph Johnstone and Duval Lachappelle, who in Wright Biplane No. 2, sailed gracefully all round the grounds over a wide area outside, and did all sorts of manoeuvers.

Count De Lesseps shot up like a flash of lightning to a height of nearly 2,000 fet, and was down again all in less than 11½ minutes. He was cool and quick, and gave a splendid exhibition of how brilliantly he can handle the new model Bleriot. The Carruthers machine did not fly.

NEWARK OFFICIALS OUT.

Vice-Mayor Suspends Two in His First Hour.

Newark, Ohio, July 12.—Before he had been in office an hour yesterday J. N. Ankels, the vice-mayor, elevated to the office of chief executive of Newark, following the suspension of Mayor Atherton by Governor Harmon, had summarily removed Chief of Police Zergibiel, and Police Captain Robert Bell.

He gave as his grounds for removals the non-enforcement of the County Option Law, which resulted in the lynching of Detective Carl Etherington on Friday.

He appointed Charles Hindel as Chief, and Policeman Chas. Swank as Captain, and ordered them to commence the immediate enforcement of all laws. As soon as the new police officials had assumed office they caused the arrest of a second negro, who is held in connection with the Friday riots. He is Vance Moore, of Zanesville, and is alleged to have struck Etherington, who was lynched, just prior to the fatal shooting of Wm. Howard. Levi Valentine, a colored mute, was arrested in the afternoon.

President Taft Delays Appointments.

Beverly, Mass., July 12.—President Taft announced yesterday that he would not give serious consideration to filling vacancies in the United States Supreme Court until the fall. As to calling an extra session of the Senate in October, to confirm appointments, and thus to facilitate the rehearing of the important oil, tobacco, and corporation tax cases, the President has not definitely made up his mind.

THE "DON DE DIEU" FOR MR. LASCELLES

Quebec Tercentenary Souvenir Presented to Organizer of the Quebec Pageants.

The silver model of the "Don de Dieu" presented to Mr. Lascelles.

Mr. Frank Lascelles, the organizer and master of the pageants held in commemoration of the foundation of Quebec, was in London presented with a silver model of Champlain's ship, the Don de Dieu, in recognition of his services, which were rendered gratuitously. The model was made for the National Battlefields Commission for presentation to Mr. Lascelles in their name, and the designs were prepared by Mrs. Langdon Brook and Mrs. G. F. Watts. The presentation was made at a reception held at 28 Grosvenor square, by Lord and Lady Strathcona, who were assisted by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and the Hon. Mrs. Howard. The guests included the following:—

Earl and Lady Grey, Lord Howick, Lady Sibyl Grey, Lord Brassey, Sir Charles Lucas, Admiral the Hon. Sir E. R. Freemantle, the Hon. Sir Charles and Lady Freemantle, Hon. Clifford Sifton, K.C., Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. W. Paterson, Lady Kirkpatrick, Mr. Mrs. and the Misses Tupper, Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Marfee, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Nicholson, Major E. F. Coates, A.P., Mrs. Frank Oliver, Mr. J. G. Colmer, C.M.G., and Miss Colmer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams Taylor, Judge W. Norman Bole, Mr. Donald Macmaster, K.C., M.P., and Mrs. Macmaster, Lieutenant Winfield Sifton, Mr. George W. Beardmore, Mrs. Peterson, Dr. A. G. Doughty, Mr. and Mrs. G. McL. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, and Mr. W. L. Griffith.

Referring to the Quebec celebrations, Lord Strathcona said the occasion would certainly never be forgotten by those who were there. The tercentenary pageants brought to their minds in a vivid way the courage and adventurous spirit which animated their ancestors, whether they were French or English. They illustrated also the simple faith in themselves, the desire to discover and explore unknown lands, to open up new routes, which induced them to brave the dangers of the Atlantic—of the unknown—in vessels in which many people would hesitate to cross the Channel except during fine weather. Referring to the fact that the celebration of the tercentenary and the practical suggestion made for the organization of a permanent memorial of that historic occasion originated largely, if not entirely, with Earl Grey, Lord Strathcona said that was only one of the many things for which Canadians had to thank him, and which had been the outcome of his great interest and enthusiasm in everything connected with Canada and Canadians.

The "nef" was presented to Mr. Lascelles by Lady Grey, and Earl Grey added his testimony to the high value of Mr. Lascelles's services, and paid a tribute to those rendered by Dr. Doughty, the Government Archivist at Ottawa. Speaking of the formation of a national park on the site of the historic battlefields of Quebec, his Excellency said King George had shown his personal interest in the project, and his words of sympathy and hope were, he knew, a guarantee that the battlefields would be preserved in such a manner as would commend itself to the people of the Empire and of Canada. He believed, he added, that Mr. Lascelles was now going to organize some pageants in South Africa, and he could only hope that under a sky as blue and clear as the sky above the battlefields of Quebec he would have the same success as that which attended his efforts in Canada, and that unifying results similar to those which followed on the Quebec celebrations might crown the pageants in South Africa.

A CHURCH UNION JUDGMENT.

Arkansas Court Decides Property Ownership Point.

Little Rock, Ark., July 12.—In a decision handed down by the State Supreme Court here yesterday, it was held that the union between the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., succeeds to the right and title of all the property held by the Cumberland Presbyterian body.

The court declares that when the General Assembly of the Cumberland Church voted to unite with the Northern Presbyterian as to faith, their action also transferred the rights of property as well.

This decision differs from that of the courts of Tennessee and Missouri, which held that the Church united on a common faith, but retained their identity as to property right.

DECIDE ON MORE MAINS.

Westmount Council Held Meeting Last Night.

It was decided at a meeting of the Westmount council last night to have gas mains installed on Lansdowne avenue, Roslyn avenue, Victoria avenue, Carleton, Sydenham and Belmont avenues. The question of protecting young trees was discussed, and a special appropriation of $300 was voted. It was also decided to spend $150 for pipe and hose.

A horse attached to a butcher's cart ran away on Sherbrooke street last evening, and a crowd of people, who were waiting for a car at the corner of Victoria avenue, had to run for their lives. Several people narrowly escaped being killed. The cart collided with a telephone pole and was smashed, but the horse was not injured.

At a meeting of the town commissioners last night, Messrs. A. Latour was elected chairman, and D. Ste. Marie secretary-treasurer, in the place of N. Boyer. It was decided to hold another meeting on Wednesday next.

TO REBUILD NEW BRIDGE.

Work Begun on Structure Between Lachine and Caughnawaga.

The Club regatta of the Riverside Boating and Social Association attracted a large attendance at Stanley point on Saturday. The events were well contested, especially the skiff and seven paddle boat events. The Dixie Fire Flies, covered themselves with glory once more, and Mr. Chas. Robinson, and sons carried off a large number of the prizes.

Work has been begun on the false work for rebuilding the big C. P. R. bridge between Caughnawaga and this place. The structure is to provide for a double track only, though the Indians would like to have a foot passenger way added, and may through Ottawa influence, have their way. Nearly 20,000 tons of metal will be used, some of the individual members running over 60 tons. The stone piers will require to be enlarged, and probably the wooden trestle now being erected, is to facilitate that work.

The Dominion Bridge Co., which has the contract, has a large number of other bridges on hand, and there promises to be plenty of work for Lachine workmen for many months to come.

NOTRE DAME DE GRACE.

Ald. Marcil Will Inquire Into Views of His Constituents.

A public meeting of the citizens of Notre Dame de Grace has been called for Thursday evening, the 24th instant, by Ald. George Marcil, at the corner of Cote St. Antoine road and Prudhomme avenue. Ald. Marcil's intention is to find out the local needs of the various parts of the ward so as to see that the amount to be expended by Montreal this year, according to annexation contract, is equally distributed over the whole ward.

The question of having Sherbrooke street, from Victoria avenue to the toll-gate watered, is being keenly discussed by the citizens. Now that the ward is part of the city, they claim there is no reason why they should not have a sprinkling cart.

OILED ROADS AT DIXIE

Dust-Covered Residents Pleased with New Move.

Automobile traffic has been heavier than ever this season, partly owing to the aviation meet. The dust has been simply intolerable and summer residents, of whom Dixie has a larger share than usual, are simply delighted to have the roads well oiled. The work is being done, it is understood, at the joint expense of the Automobile Club, the Turnpike Trust, and the Municipal Council.

Sudden Death at Cornwall.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, Ont., July 12.—John Lashambe, a respected resident of the east end of Cornwall, died suddenly while sitting in his chair in the house. A few minutes previously he had been out on the verandah. He had been ailing for about a year, but no serious results were anticipated. He leaves a widow, four sons and four daughters, all grown up. He was in his 77th year.

NEWS FROM ALMONTE.

Crops Were Greatly Aided by the Recent Rain.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Almonte, Ont., July 12.—Mr. Silas Shane, who was employed with Messrs. Nicholson & Co., at Chapleau, and who was a resident of this town until a short time ago, got his left leg caught in some machinery, and had it so badly mangled that the limb had to be amputated at the knee. Mr. Shane is in the Sudbury hospital, and it will be some weeks before he is able to be around again. His family reside on Malcolm street.

At the last regular meeting of the Board of Education, it was decided to purchase the Rosamond property to the west of the High School, to be used as an athletic field by the boys. Miss Ina Stewart was engaged as teacher to fill the vacancy on the public school staff.

After four weeks without rain, a copious shower fell a few days ago, and, although it was not all that was needed, it will greatly help the crops. Hay will not be benefited, as the farmers are already cutting same, but, on the whole, hay yield will be above the average this year. Grain was looking very poor, but the day's shower revived it again, and the outlook is now better. Pastures are badly burned, however, and 48 hours' rain will be necessary to revive the grass. The haying season is now at its best in the surrounding country.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED.

Dundas Reform Association Held Annual Meeting.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, Ont., July 12.—At the recent annual meeting of the Dundas Reform Association, held at Chesterville, the old officers were re-elected as follows: President, George Smyth, Rowena; first vice-president, A. Marcellus, Williamsburg; second vice-president, F. Dwyer, Chesterville; secretary-treasurer, A. Flynn, Morrisburg. Iroquois was chosen as the next place of meeting. The executive was empowered to call a meeting for the choosing of candidates for both Houses, when they considered the time opportune. Resolutions of confidence in the Liberal leaders in both Houses were passed; also a resolution of regret at the loss sustained by the death of our late sovereign King Edward VII.

Frank Earle, of Cornwall, who is engaged with his uncle, D. W. Murray, of the Nipigon Construction Co., at Nipigon, Ont., in a letter to a friend in town gives a description of the big fires that have been raging in that country of late. Mr. Earle says that two camps have been burned out, and that Mr. Murray's loss is estimated at $11,000. Mr. Earle and 15 Italian laborers were compelled to lay in a small creek and let the fire pass over them, as this was the only means of saving themselves. The area covered by the fire was about five miles wide, and the flames extended to about 30 feet in the air. The men lay in the creek for four hours, and then walked five miles through what had been a thick forest, and they did not see one green leaf anywhere, but simply ashes and stumps. The smoke almost blinded them. Rain has since fallen, and the fires are pretty well out.

A move is being made among the people of Moose Creek to form a company to build a rural telephone line linking up the farmers of the district with Moose Creek and surrounding towns. Such an innovation would be of great advantage to both merchants and farmers.

NEWS FROM ARNPRIOR.

Sixty Orange Lodges Will Take Part in To-day's Celebration.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Arnprior, Ont., July 12.—The 220th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne will be celebrated in Arnprior by a county meeting, and about sixty lodges will be present. A lengthy programme has been provided, including speeches by prominent speakers, two baseball matches and Caledonian games.

The intense heat has somewhat hindered the work of cleaning Gillies' Bros. lumber yard, which was destroyed by fire on Monday last. However, one track has been constructed, and a second one is well under way. The big mill has been closed since the fire, but will reopen on Thursday next and the 450 men will once more start the saws humming.

SLATER SHOE INJUNCTION.

Company Will Carry Case to a Higher Court.

An article appeared in a recent issue of the Star reciting the result of the litigation pending between the Slater Shoe Co., Limited, and the Eagle Shoe Company, with regard to suit pending before the courts between these parties.

The contention of the Slater Shoe Company, Limited, was that the name of "Frank W. Slater Strider Shoe," was being used by the respondent and defendants, the Eagle Shoe Company, with a view to getting an unfair trade advantage by reason of the reputation and standing of The Slater Shoe Company, Limited's shoes.

The judgment rendered by Mr. Justice Davidson, it is claimed, in no way disposes of this litigation, except upon one preliminary point, viz.: that he refused, in view of the large amount of goods manufactured and in process of manufacture, to restrain the Eagle Shoe Company from selling their goods, but he expressed no opinion on the merits of the case, as to whether the Slater Shoe Company would or would not succeed in the suit for twenty-five thousand dollars in the action for damages, of which this preliminary application was only an incident.

The Slater Shoe Company have instructed their attorneys to apply for leave to appeal from the judgment rendered on this preliminary point, and which they assert does not refer to the action on its merits and upon which the Court alone will decide as to the use of the name, and the amount of damages the Slater Shoe Company, Limited, may have suffered, and this action has been inscribed for hearing and will be heard at the first possible moment that it can be reached by the Courts.

In the meantime, the Slater Shoe Company, Limited, who are successors to the old Slater Company, (who had been in business for so many years), and whose goods are protected by the sign of "the slate" on every pair of boots, are determined to protect their customers and the public against thinking that they are getting these Slater shoes, simply because another company attempts to take advantage of their reputation by employing a son (who never made a pair of boots in his life), and thereby deprive The Slater Shoe Company, Limited, of the advantage they claim by reason of the superior goods so long manufactured by them.

GREAT BRITAIN AND NICARAGUA

Washington Regards Note to State Department as Hint England is Dissatisfied.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Washington, D. C., July 12.—Great Britain is not in sympathy with the attitude of the United States Government towards Nicaragua. Several weeks ago the British Foreign Office informed the State Department that it had received many complaints from the British merchants in Central America, against continued interruptions to business on account of the pending revolution in Nicaragua.

In diplomatic circles this information from the British Government is taken as a symptom of dissatisfaction with the present policy of the United States and as a diplomatic hint that some action should speedily be taken to remedy the conditions there.

Within the last few weeks, since the rainy season began, conditions in Nicaragua have become worse than ever. Neither the Estrada nor the Madriz faction has sufficient military strength to bring the campaign to a definite conclusion.

The United States Government apparently dislikes to interfere actively in the affairs of Nicaragua, and it is impossible to predict what the future will bring forth in that country.

WIFE OBEYED HER HUSBAND.

Now He Carries Bullet Meant for Burglar.

Pittsburg, July 12.—"I shot my husband because I thought he was a burglar, and I would do it again under similar circumstances.

"Men who stay out late at night should answer promptly when their wives call 'Who's there?'"

"I am sorry I shot my husband, but I carried out his instructions. I did as he told me, and he is glad that I did."

This is what Mrs. J. T. Burns said about shooting her husband in the arm at their home on McPherson Boulevard when she mistook him for a burglar. He is not badly hurt and unless blood poisoning sets in will be out in three or four days.

"Illiterate" Returns Objected to.

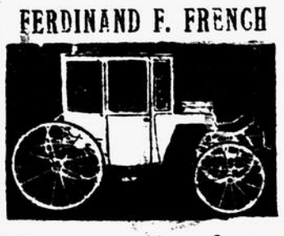

A resolution regarding the 1911 census in Ireland has been adopted by the Dublin Corporation, as follows:—"The Corporation of Dublin requests the Registrar-General not to require a return for the census of 1911, as to whether children of five years of age are "illiterate," as this tends to unfairly impute a large percentage of illiteracy to Ireland."

AMERICANS CLAIM FISHERIES DISPUTE OF RECENT ORIGIN

Canadian Associated Press.

The Hague, July 12.—Mr. Charles Warren, continuing his argument for the United States before the fisheries arbitrators, declared that if in the treaty of 1818 it was intended that the word "bays" should apply to all bays, including those the entrances whereto exceeded six miles in width, it would be impossible to fix a line from which the three mile limit should be measured, inasmuch as the limits of these large bays were not specified in the negotiations regarding the treaty.

In 1818 maps were not used, he continued, so that nothing was settled concerning the limits of the bays, and after its conclusion Great Britain had never seized American vessels fishing in the large bays at a distance of more than three miles from shore.

The American counsel maintained that Great Britain was wrong in asserting that before 1826 American fishermen had not fished in certain bays because there was no mackerel in them before that date. These bays, he claimed, abounded with fish of all sorts.

Up to 1905 the right of the Americans to fish in the large bays at a distance of three miles from shore, he asserted, had always been recognized and respected by Great Britain and her Colonies.

STATEMENT ON THE KAISER'S LETTER TO PRESIDENT MADRIZ

German Foreign Office Declares Missive Was Merely Expression of Courtesy.

Berlin, July 12.—The Foreign Office has given out an authorized statement respecting the letter of Emperor William to President Madriz, of Nicaragua. Reports have reached Berlin that attempts were being made in America to construe this letter as an endorsement by the Emperor of the Madriz party. The statement says:

"Madriz gave notice of his election, upon undertaking the presidency, to the Emperor in the usual written form. The customary formal reply was prepared by the Foreign Office. It was not an autograph letter but was simply signed by the Emperor. The address, 'Great and Good Friend', was in accordance with official courtesy. Any intervention by Germany in Nicaraguan affairs neither followed, nor is intended. Germany neither sought nor designs to seek, a coaling station. Rumors of Germany's intentions towards the Galpagos Islands are equally without foundation, as are all suggestions that Germany has in any way modified the cultivation of friendly relations towards the United States."

Details of Emperor's Letter.

The Emperor's letter was dated April 26, and said: "I am informed by your letter of the 27th of December of last year, that Your Excellency was elected president of the Republic by the merited confidence of your fellow-citizens, and that Your Excellency entered upon your most honorable duties on the 21st of that month."

An expression of the usual diplomatic good wishes and desire for the cultivation of good relations between the two countries followed.

THE FETTER SKIRT.

New Fashion Denounced as Monstrous, Vulgar, and Grotesque.

The new "fetter" skirt has at least this to be said for it: it has attracted the attention of the male element, not usually very curious in regard to what women wear, unless personal inconvenience results to itself, as in the case of big hats at the theatre, says the Paris corespondent of the London Morning Leader.

A number of our artists have been expressing their views on the new fashion. "I find the toilettes of to-day simply abominable," says M. Francois Flameng. "One would say that our pretty companions do their best to make themselves ugly. Everything is odd, monstrous, out of proportion, inelegant and vulgar. From the moment the lines of the body are diminished, harmony and beauty at once vanish. . . . . and yet, in spite of it all, women are charming."

M. Rochegrosse modestly thinks that feminine instinct is a better guide than artistic theories.

M. Luc-Olivier Merson has this reflection: "The young woman of Smyrna, fan in hand, alert and lively, goes out for a walk with a light step. Alas! martyr to stupid fashion, the poor little Parisienne, her legs bound, presents the spectacle of a vulgar and inaesthetic sack-race."

Cartoonist's Sarcasm.

M. Abel Faivre, the well known cartoonist is sarcastic. "Of course, he says, "it is grotesque to see a fine lady tumble down in trying to enter a vehicle, but if she retains her equilibrium it is perfect. The amusing part of the present fashion is that it turns against its wearer."

"It is ridiculous," says M. Cheret, "—t it won't last."

Curiously enough, after reading those views I take up the Figaro, and find a long article from the pen of M. Miguel Zamacois, one of our best known satirical writers. He condemns the "fetter" without reserve. "An age has the skirt it deserves," he says, "and perhaps we deserve this one," and goes on to express the view that the "fetter" is really not more astonishing than the supposed works of art seen at our exhibitions. He calls it the tortoise skirt, the slow-train skirt, and other things, an dconcludes thus

"Bound and Lassoed."

"And the poor petites femmes are the almost completely unconscious victims of the need for sickly and impotent ecentricity. They walk as best they can, with tiny steps, compelled to adopt the jog-trot of the little Japanese mousmes, whom they used to make fun of. Fettered, bound, lassoed, they walk along with the awkward and embarrassed air of mechanical dolls. They deliberately renounce what was one of their most seductive charms, that supple and smooth walk that was the characteristic of the Parisian gait. . . . . Strange and mysterious power of Fashion, to which women allow everything, even—and that is the unbelievable, the incredible part—not to beautify them. But this mode will pass, like others, and women will be the first to be surprised that they put up with, even for a few months, a fettered walk that they would not have allowed as a cotillion figure or a distraction at some abracadabran Luna-park."

RAN DOWN A BARGE AND MUST PAY $13,566

By a judgment of Mr. Justice Dunlop rendered this morning, and confirming the award of Mr. W. S. Walker, the owners of the ship Norwalk, are condemned to pay $13,566. Action was taken in the case by the Montreal Transportation Company as owners of the barge Jet, which was run down by the Norwalk on Lake St. Louis about twelve months ago. Proceedings were taken to recover for damages to the barge and her cargo.

Mr. Justice Dunlop found for the plaintiffs, leaving the amount of the award to Mr. Walker, the Deputy Registrar of the Admiralty Court. Several of the items in Mr. Walker's award, however, were contested and the matter was again referred to Mr. Justice Dunlop. The award is $6,-066.16 for damages to the Jet, and $7,500 for cargo.

FIRM IN BELIEF NEW CHARTER WILL BE GRANTED

Although no official intimation has yet been received at the Grand Trunk offices that the Massachusetts Railway Commission has granted the necessary certificate for the extension of the Central Vermont branch to Providence, Rhode Island, it is stated at the company's headquarters that not the slightest doubt is entertained that the certificate will be granted. South of the border it has been stated that the certificate will be refused, but this is emphatically denied, as is another rumor that the Central Vermont may be sold by the Grand Trunk. Work is to be started on the building of the extension immediately, the formalities have been completed, which will be within a few days, it is expected.

MARINE NEWS.

The Yacht Magedoma in Trouble.

Brockville, Ont., July 12. — Coming down the river, the steam yacht Magedoma, belonging to Mrs. G. T. Fulford, struck the south side of the shoal marked by a black buoy, opposite the five-mile light. The craft went on with considerable force and glided over, but it was found that the shaft had been bent and the wheel damaged. Anchor was cast near American Island, and from there the party on board were brought to town in a launch. The Magedoma was being steered by compass at the time of the accident. She was towed to Ogdensburg.

The deceased leaves a widowed mother, who is resident at Gourock, Scotland.

The Art of Smartness

We cannot all be beautiful, but mercifully, for a great many of us, the making or marring of our personal appearance lies in our own hands.

Who does not know the pretty woman who is so careless of her appearance, so slovenly about her hairdressing, that she looks a drab on all occasions?

On the other hand, who has not met with hopelessly plain women who have the dress instinct developed in the highes degree, and who have studied their defects so minutely that they have discovered how to minimise them to a great extent?

For the art of the smart lies to a very great extent in being careful and troubled over those little details of the toilet that can so easily make or mar a woman's looks.

First and foremost in the matter of a smart appearance is the all-important study of deportment, an art that is, alas, sadly neglected nowadays.

For a woman who holds herself erect and w knows how to walk and to move gracefully, has without doubt advanced a great way along the path that leads to feminine perfection.

No matter how well dressed, no matter ho much money she may spend on her frocks, the woman who stoops, and wh walks with a waddle, will never look smart. The price of one new frock spent on a course of physical culture will do more for such a one than the products of all the dressmakers and milliners of Paris, London, Vienna, or New York put together.

The second secret of smartness is a good coiffure. By this I mean hair that is neatly and becomingly dressed, hair that is glossy and well kept, and which is dressed according to the latest mode, but not exaggerated in any way, shape, or form.

One of the great beauties of the day confessed in an interview a little time ago, that more than half her good looks were due to the fact that she patronized a first-rate hairdresser, and that she never appears without having her hair waved and dressed, but she added: "I am never afraid of pulling it about and altering his stiff formal dressing to suit my face. To employ him, I know, costs money, but I cheerfully forego one new frock each ye... so as to be able to afford his services whenever I want them. The result is that every hat I put on is pretty sure to suit me, and even an old dress passes muster if my head is all right, especially in the evening."

The art of knowing how to put on one's clothes is yet another secret of smartness. Where one woman will throw on her clothes anyhow, caring little if all the hooks and eyes are properly done up, if her wa -band is straight or crooked, and her collar-band wrinkled or carefully pulled into place, another will emerge in a toilette, possibly a year or two older, put on with the greatest care over corsets the fit and suit her figure, and which have been carefully adjusted to suit that particular frock. Every fastening is carefully fixed, everything is as trim and as dainty as possible by the time she emerges from her room.

The result is, one looks well-dressed and suitably gowned, the other looks as if everything she has on is ready-made and a hopeless misfit at that.

If women would but realise the fact that there is all the difference between smartness and dowdy dressing in the way a hat is adjusted, and a veil tied, there would be far fewer hurried toilettes and far more well-dressed women in our midst.

Needless to say, neatness is part and parcel of smartness.

Nobody can ever look smart in a frock with a frayed hem, a veil with a hole in it, a coat with a loose button, or a dirty collar-band, dirty gloves, or soiled frilling, all faults that you will see day in, day out, as you walk down any crowded thoroughfare.

Practical Fashions

The Linen Frock.

The multitude of weaves in linen is really amazing this summer, and you may have a linen frock for almost any purpose, so widely do the quality, weight and weave vary. Some of the soft heavy ribbed weaves resembling diagonal wool are excellent for tailoring, and the hopsacking and basket weaves are good, but the smartest and best of the linens, after all is said about the novelties, is the soft, firm, close weave resembling the plain hand-woven linen. The hand-woven linen itself is, of course, the last word of linen elegance, but the supply is limited and the price high.

Linen of this class is what salesfolk usually call natural tone, but what is really a clear light shade between buff and cafe au lait, instead of the brownish natural tone, is very popular for the simple tub frock or tailored coat and skirt, and with touches of white is as cool and pretty as anything you could wish for midsummer days. The same subdued buff and white figure attractively in the thinner wash stuffs, and plain buff in chambray or gingham is charming.

A delightful little frock seen recently was in fine cotton etamine of this shade made in one piece, cut and trimmed very simply, with narrow baby Irish lace insertion and Irish crochet buttons. A black velvet belt and a black velvet ribbon slipped through eyelets and tied on the chest, added smartness to the model without much added expense.

Irish crochet buttons are considerably used for trimming, and Irish crochet cuff and collar pins, belt pins, cuff but ons, etc., are to be found in the shops.

Original Hats.

Milliners are not waiting for the acceptance of new coiffures, but are going gayly, on their way, producing hats of interesting variety. Some of them are charming, quaint; others are extraordinary in size and line, and the rest are wonderfully beautiful in line and color.

There are some hats that reach down to the eyebrows, with trimming sloping abruptly toward the back, giving an unbecoming, top-heavy appearance that few women can successfully stand. On the very tall and slim they are grotesque, which is putting it mildly.

So many becoming shapes are at hand that it is a pity to encourage the freakish. There are soft straw toques for travelling, including the draped rajah turbans, the folded capotes and the closely fitted shapes with high rolling brims at the side. Many of these are of plaid straw, or of a fortunate combination of two tones that every woman loves.

Leghorns with velvet ribbon, and masses of flowers for trimming are well adapted for afternoon wear. If a simpler type is preferred the large, fine straws, with a beauty of line and a few large hatpins, are extremely chic.

The huge black hat, with its bow of tulle or lace, will look well with any gown; though there bids fair to be a wholesale adoption of the pretty things that usually results in discarding the mode.

A FASHION HINT

A WHITE LINEN COAT WITH BUTTONHOLE WATCH IN SLEEVE.

This coat has a skirt portion set in rounded panels on a semi-fitted upper part, the fastening being at the left side of the front. The tab cuffs are a new notion, and also the tab collar, which may be fastened snugly around the throat or buttoned back in the manner indicated. The only trimming of this coat is the heavy stitching and the flat gilt buttons on which are engraved the owner's initial.

World of Women

Royalty at Ottawa.

When the Duke of Connaught becomes Governor-General of Canada says the Gentlewoman, members of society will be drawn to Ottawa from London as never before. The winter there with skating, sledging, and tobogganing is delightful, an dthe Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, both of whom are known to be so partial to Americans, would doubtless become as popular with the already large American contingent at Ottawa as the English. No man than the Duke would be more highly appreciated as Governor in Canada. The best type of English gentleman, he is likewise a marinet, and the Canadians hate slackness above all things, whilst his keen interest in sport and outdoor life generally speaking, is just what would please them best. There is a hope in Ottawa, did the Duke settle down there for a time, that his family party would be joined by several Royal cousins, the adventurous Princess Marie Louise of Schleswig, Princess Victoria, her sister, and possibly the daughters of the Princess Royal—but this is looking too far ahead.

Queen Alexandra.

It is Queen Alexandra's earnest wish that she should be known among her son's subjects as Queen Alexandra. This we shall all rejoice at as having as much less formal sound than a "Queen-Mother" or as the last widow of a King, Queen Adelaide, was usually styled—the "Queen-Dowager." Another item of goodness on the same subject comes to me from a very reliable source, indeed Queen Alexandra has no intention of paying long visits to her native land, as it was at first thought would be the case. In fact, it is quite likely that Her Majesty's absences from England may be less rather than more frequent in the days that are to come.

Hot Fruit in Glass Dishes.

Pouring hot fruit into glass dishes is very likely to result in breaking the latter. To prevent this, stand the glass dish on a cloth wet with hot water and then pour the fruit into it.

Home Hints

The following simple entree was discovered by one housemother whose little flock demands variety constantly renewed. She sliced stale bread, cut it into one inch cubes and dried out well in the oven. Over this was poured a rich white sauce, with a little finely chopped parsley mixed through, which added a subtle flavor. She then stirred toast and sauce together, and served piping hot on a hot platter arranged in the shape of a mound. It made a decided hit.

A novelty that progressive New York restaurants are introducing with great appreciation from their patrons is one that can be reproduced at home without difficulty—French friend onions. In flavor and appearance they bear little relation to the usual dish, and which, moreover, are possible to many to whom "for the stomach's sake" the others are impossible. The sweet Bermuda onion is used for this new dainty. It is cut thin to resemble French fried potatoes. Before cooking dredge with flour. Fry quickly in a wire basket in hot deep fat until crisp, brown, and free of grease. Very delicious as an accompaniment for beef steak, or, in fact, good with almost any kind of red meat.

Now that tomato season is approaching, the fact that green tomatoes are more delicately flavored and more delicious fried than the red ones usually cooked that way is worth a world of reminder. Jot it down in the household new idea book to be tried for breakfast some morning or at luncheon, with or without a meat dish.

Cut into thin slices some large, perfectly green specimens, (they must not have begun to show any sign of ripening, and those freshly pulled are really the best for the dish), sprinkle with salt and dip in corn meal until covered. Saute in a little butter until a nice brown. Cover the frying pan throughout the cooking process to keep the tomatoes tender. They may be brought to table with the accompaniment of a brown sauce or plain.

Cream Pie.

Line a pie plate with puff paste and bake. Take from the oven and set aside to cool. Heat in a double boiler a pint of milk. Beat two eggs light with a cup of granulated sugar. Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch in a little cold milk. When the milk is scalding hot stir into it the dissolved cornstarch and when the mixture is smooth pour gradually upon the beaten eggs and sugar. Return to the fire and cook, stirring steadily until thick. Flavor with vahilla and take from the stove. When cool fill the baked crust with this, put several spoonfuls of whipped cream on top and serve.

Bachelor's Delight.

Wash Dutch herrings thoroughly and soak in milk for two or three hours. Separate into fillets, add a dash of lemon, cover with a buttered paper and cook in a pan in the oven for eight minutes. Meanwhile melt and blend a teaspoonful each of butter and flour, stir in one-half cup of milk, a teaspoonful of made mustard, two tablespoonfuls of fresh grated cheese and the same quantity of beer. Boil all together. Have ready strips of dried bread, dusted with paprika and minced chives and place a herring fillet on each strip. Pour the sauce over all and serve hot.

Strawberry Jelly.

Put the capped fruit into a pail or saucepan and set this in an outer vessel of boiling water. Cook until the fruit is broken and soft, put into jelly bag and squeeze out the juice. Measure this and to each pint of it allow a pound of granulated sugar. Return the juice to the fire and bring to a fast boil. Heat the sugar in broad, shallow pans in the oven, and when the juice has boiled for twenty minutes skim it and pour in the heated sugar. Bring to the boil and boil for one minute before skimming and pouring into glasses.

Fudge Cake.

Cream a cup of sugar and a half cup of butter, and, when light and smooth, add a gill of milk and three eggs, well beaten, then stir in enough prepared flour to make a good batter. Add two squares of melted chocolate and bake in layer tins.

A Fashionable Gown of Voile

6704 Tucked Over-Blouse, 32 to 40 bust.
6695 Straight Pleated Skirts, 22 to 30 waist

The cotton voiles are very beautiful this season, and are being much worn. This gown is made of the material in pale blue and is banded with white lace. It is eminently fashionable, and it is smart in all its lines, yet it is absolutely simple. The blouse is cut in one with the sleeves. It is very easily made, and the skirt is straight, tucked over the hips and laid in a wide tuck at about knee depth to give a tunic suggestion. Altogether the gown is one of the best possible, for it gives admirable results with very little labor. All the pretty soft materials are appropriate, muslins and the thin silks and batistes with lace or embroidery or banding of any sort that may be preferred. Handkerchief lawn is always a serviceable as well as handsome material, and banded with Cluny or Irish lace would make an exceedingly handsome gown. Flowered nets so made would be dainty and handsome in the extreme. Marquisette is just as appropriate as voile, and lawn or organdie would make an attractive afternoon gown. The blouse is gathered at the lower edge and in this case joined to the skirt to make a semi-princesse gown; but, if liked, it can be finished separately with a smoothly fitting peplum seamed to it that can be slipped under the skirt.

For the medium size will be required for the blouse, 2⅝ yards of material 24, 2⅜ yards 32 or 2¼ yards 44 inches wide, with 2½ yards of banding; for the skirt, 5½ yards 24, 5 yards 32 or 5⅝ yards 44 inches wide, with 8⅝ yards of banding.

A May Manton pattern of the blouse, No. 6704, sizes 32 to 40 inches bust, or of the skirt, No. 6695, sizes 22 to 30 inches waist, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents for each. (If in haste send an additional two-cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

Poet's Corner

How to Talk.

Talk Happiness. The world is sad enough
Without your woe. No path is wholly rough.
Look for the places that are smooth and clear,
And speak of them to rest the weary ear
Of earth; so hurt by one continuous strain
Of mortal discontent and grief and pain.

Talk Faith. The world is better off without
Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt.
If you have faith in God, or man, or self,
Say so; if not, push back upon the shelf
Of silence all your thoughts till faith shall come.
No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.

Talk Health. The dreary never-ending tale
Of mortal maladies is worn and stale;
You cannot charm or interest or please
By harping on that minor chord, disease.
Say you are well, or all is well with you,
And God shall hear your words and make them true.

KILMENY of the ORCHARD

By L. M. MONTGOMERY

Copyright, 1910, by L. C. Page & Company (Inc.)

CHAPTER XIII.—(Continued.)

She wore a trailing, clinging dress of some creamy tinted fabric that had been her mother's. It had not been altered in any respect, for fashion held no sway at the Gordon homestead, and Kilmeny thought that the dress left nothing to be desired. Its quaint style suited her admirably; the neck was slightly cut away to show the round white throat, and the sleeves were long, full "bishops," out of which her beautiful, slender hands slipped like flowers from their sheaths. She had crossed her long braids at the back and pinned them about her head like a coronet; a late white rose was fastened low down on the left side.

"A man had given all other bliss
And all his worldly wealth for this—
To waste his whole heart in one kiss
Upon her perfect lips," quoted Eric in a whisper as he watched her descend. Aloud he said,

"Take these lilies on your arm, letting their bloom fall against your shoulder—so. Now, give me your hand and shut your eyes. Don't open them until I say you may."

He led her into the parlor and up to the mirror.

"Look," he cried, gayly.

Kilmeny opened her eyes and looked straight into the mirror where, like a lovely picture in a golden frame, she saw herself reflected. For a moment she was bewildered. Then she realized what it meant. The lilies fell from her arm to the floor and she turned pale. With a little low, involuntary cry she put her hands over her face.

Eric pulled them boyishly away.

"Kilmeny, do you think you are ugly now? This is a truer mirror than Aunt Janet's silver sugar bowl! Look—look—look! Did you even imagine anything fairer than yourself, dainty Kilmeny?"

She was blushing now, and stealing shy radiant glances at the mirror. With a smile she took her slate and wrote naively,

"I think I am pleasant to look upon. I cannot tell you how glad I am. It is so dreadful to believe one is ugly. You can get used to everything else, but you never get used to that. It hurts just the same every time you remember it. But why did mother tell me I was ugly? Could she really have thought so? Perhaps I have become better looking since I grew up."

"I think perhaps your mother had found that beauty is not always a blessing, Kilmeny, and thought it wiser not to let you know you possessed it. Come, let us go back to the orchard now. We mustn't waste this rare evening in the house. There is going to be a sunset that we shall remember all our lives. The mirror will hang here. It is yours. Don't look into it too often, though, or Aunt Janet will disapprove. She is afraid it will make you vain."

Kilmeny gave one of her rare, musical laughs, which Eric never heard without a recurrence of the old wonder that she could laugh so when she could not speak. She blew an airy little kiss at her mirrored face and turned from it, smiling happily.

On their way to the orchard they met Neil. He went by them with an averted face, but Kilmeny shivered and involuntarily drew nearer to Eric.

"I don't understand Neil at all now," she wrote nervously. "He is not nice, as he used to be, and sometimes he will not answer when I speak to him. And he looks so strangely at me, too. Besides, he is surly and impertinent to Uncle and Aunt."

"Don't mind Neil," said Eric lightly. "He is probably sulky because of some things I said to him when I found he had spied on us."

That night before she went up stairs Kilmeny stole into the parlor for another glimpse of herself in that wonderful mirror by the light of a dim candle she carried. She was still lingering there dreamily when Aunt Janet's grim face appeared in the shadows of the doorway.

"Are you thinking about your own good looks, lassie? Ay, but remember that handsome is as handsome does," she said, with grudging admiration—for the girl with her flushed cheeks and smiling eyes was something that even dour Janet Gordon could not look upon unmoved.

Kilmeny smiled softly.

"I'll try to remember," she wrote, "but oh, Aunt Janet, I am so glad I am not ugly. It is not wrong to be glad of that, is it?"

The older woman's face softened.

"No, I don't suppose it is, lassie," she conceded. "A comely face is something to be thankful for—as none know better than those who have never possessed it. I remember well when I was a girl—but that is neither here nor there. The Master thinks you are wonderful bonny, Kilmeny," she added, looking keenly at the girl.

Kilmeny started and a scarlet blush scorched her face. That, and the expression that flashed into her eyes, told Janet Gordon all she wished to know. With a stifled sigh she bade her niece good night and want away.

Kilmeny ran fleetly up the stairs to her dim little room, that looked out into the spruces, and flung herself on her bed, burying her burning face in the pillow. Her aunts words had revealed to her the hidden secret of her heart. She knew that she loved Eric Marshall—and the knowledge brought with it a strange anguish. For was she not dumb? All night she lay staring wide-eyed through the darkness till the dawn.

CHAPTER XIV.

IN HER SELFLESS MOOD.

Eric noticed a change in Kilmeny at their next meeting—a change that troubled him. She seemed aloof, abstracted, almost ill at ease. When he proposed an excursion to the orchard he thought she was reluctant to go. The days that followed convinced him of the change. Something had come between them. Kilmeny seemed as far away from him as if she had in truth, like her namesame of the letter, sojourned for seven years in the land "where the rain never fell and the wind never blew," and had come back washed clean from all the affections of earth.

Eric had a bad week of it; but he determined to put an end to it by plain speaking. One evening in the orchard he told her of his love.

It was an evening in August, with wheat fields ripening to their harvestry—a soft violet night made for love, with the distant murmur of an unquiet sea on a rocky shore sounding through it. Kilmeny was sitting on the old bench where he had first seen her. She had been playing for him, but her music did not please her and she laid aside the violin with a little frown.

It might be that she was afraid to play—afraid that her new emotion might escape her and reveal itself in music. It was difficult to prevent this, so long had she been accustomed to pour out all her feelings in harmony. The necessity for restraint irked her and made of her bow a clumsy thing which no longer obeyed her wishes. More than ever at that instant did she long for speech—speech that would conceal and protect where dangerous silence might betray.

In a low voice that trembled with earnestness Eric told her that he loved her—that he had loved her from the first time he had seen her in that old orchard. He spoke humbly but not fearfully, for he believed that she loved him, and he had little expectation of any rebuff.

"Kilmeny, will you be my wife?" he asked finally, taking her hands in his.

Kilmeny had listened with averted face. At first she had blushed painfully but now she had grown very pale. When he had finished speaking and was waiting for her answer, she suddenly pulled her hands away, and, putting them over her face, burst into tears and noiseless sobs.

"Kilmeny, dearest, have I alarmed you? Surely you knew before that I loved you. Don't you care for me?" Eric said, putting his arm about her and trying to draw her to him. But she shook her head sorrowfully, and wrote with compressed lips:

"Yes, I do love you, but I will never marry you, because I cannot speak."

"Oh, Kilmeny," said Eric, smiling, for he believed his victory won, "that doesn't make any difference to me—you know it doesn't, sweetest. If you love me that is enough."

But Kilmeny only shook her head again. There was a very determined look on her pale face. She wrote:

"No, it is not enough. It would be doing you a great wrong to marry you when I cannot speak, and I will not do it because I love you too much to do anything that would harm you. Your world would think you had done a very foolish thing and it would be right. I have thought it all over many times since something Aunt Janet said made me understand, and I know I am doing right. I am sorry I did not understand sooner, before you had learned to care so much."

"Kilmeny, darling, you have taken a very absurd fancy into that dear black head of yours. Don't you know that you will make me miserably unhappy all my life if you will not be my wife?"

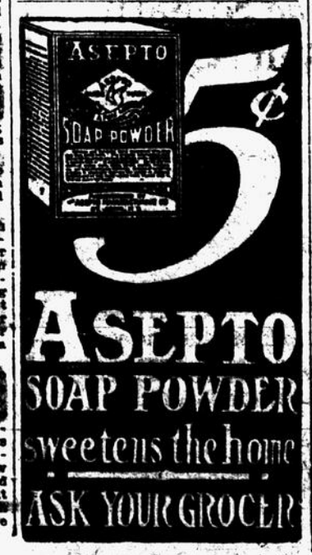

"No, you think so now; and I know you will feel very badly for a time. Then you will go away and after awhile you will forget me; and then you will see that I was right. I shall be very unhappy, too, but that is better than spoiling your life. Do not plead or coax because I shall not change my mind."

Eric did plead and coax, however—at first patiently and smilingly, as one might argue with a dear foolish child; then with vehement and distracted earnestness, as he began to realize that Kilmeny meant what she said. It was all in vain. Kilmeny grew paler and paler, and her eyes revealed how keenly she was suffering. She did not even try to argue with him, but only listened patiently and sadly, and shook her head. Say what he would, entreat and implore as he might, he could not move her resolution a hairsbreadth.

Yet he did not despair; he could not believe that she would adhere to such a resolution; he felt sure that her love for him would eventually conquer, and he went home not unhapily after all. He did not understand that it was the very intensity of her love which gave her the strength to resist his pleading, where a mere shallow affection might have yielded. It held her back unflinchingly from doing him what she believed to be a wrong.

DOCTOR STEDMAN'S Worm Powders

for Children and Adults

Worms in the intestines are not only an inconvenience and a nuisance, but in very many cases lead to serious danger. In children, convulsive fits may be induced by their presence, and in adults, distressing indisposition. All the different kinds of worms are acted on by this Preparation, the tape-worm, the round worm, and the thread-worm. A few doses will never fail to dislodge the enemy, and in most cases prevent its reappearance.

MEN AVERSE TO GOING ON STRIK.

Such is Evident Feeling All Along the Line of Conductors and Trainmen.

Result of Grand Trunk Strike Vote Will Not Be Known Till End of Week.

Whatever may be the outcome of the vote now being taken among the trainmen of the Grand Trunk upon the proposition of Mr. Hays for the settlement of the differences between the company and the men regarding the new wage schedules which the latter have proposed, there certainly is no enthusiasm among the men over the prospects of a strike. Indeed, many of the men frankly admit that in offering unreservedly to accept the findings of the Arbitration Board as to the rates of pay the company has been unexpectedly generous, and considering the extremely amicable spirit in which the men have been met by the management, they are reluctant to do anything to disturb the present friendly relations.

The fact that a large proportion of the men have been in the service of the company practically all their lives, and will therefore be entitled to substantial pensions if they continue in service, is another factor making for peace, for the few dollars a month for which the union leaders are agitating, beyond the increases the company is willing to grant, are infinitesimal compared with the pensions which would be forfeited.

The wage increase demanded by the men would cause an increased expenditure of about a million dollars a year by the Grand Trunk, with a further addition growing out of the proposed new rules which would carry the amount to a still higher figure. The men affected are those on all lines of the G. T. R. east of Chicago, including the Central Vermont. They number between 4,000 and 5,000, of which about 1,500 are conductors, and the remainder brakemen and yardmen.

Extra $20 a Month Offered.

Owing to the radical alteration proposed in the rules, it is dificult to compare the new rates which the company is willing to pay with the old ones. The only class in which they can be compared is in through freight service. The increase here is 15 3-4 per cent. to conductors and 17 per cent. to brakemen east of Detroit and St. Clair rivers. West of these rivers the increase will be 11 per cent. to both conductors and brakemen. On these figures, however, the overtime provision will add something, and taking the other classes of the service into account, the estimate of Mr. Hays that the amount offered by the company is equal to the average of 18 per cent. increase is taken as approximately correct.

An example of how the rates offered would work out may be given. A conductor running between Hamilton and Toronto has been receiving $95 a month. Under the new terms proposed by Mr. Hays he would receive $115 a month, or an increase of $20 a month —practically $5 a week.

What the men demand for a conductor on that run is an increase of $27 a month. The brakemen on that run would, however, receive an increase of only $8 a month, due to the fact that in the standard rates there is a greater difference between the pay of the brakemen and conductors, and the same relation as to pay between conductor and brakeman which has been established in the standard proposition has been inserted throughout the new Grand Trunk schedule.

The rates offered by the Grand Trunk and those asked by the men are:

	New rates per 100 miles.	Rate asked by men.
Passenger Service.
Conductor	$2.45	$2.65
Baggagemen	1.40	1.55
Brakemen	1.36	1.50
Through Freight.
Conductor	3.35	3.62
Brakemen	2.22	2.42
Local Freight Service.
Conductor	3.68	3.97½
Brakemen	2.48	2.70

	New rate per hour.	Rate asked by men.	Old rate per hour.
Yard Service.
Conductors	34c	37c	29c
Brakemen	30c	34c	24
Second Class.
Conductors	33c	36c	26c
Brakemen	29c	33c	22c
All Others.
Conductors	31c	35c	24c
Brakemen	27c	32c	20c

Night work, 3c higher than day rates.

THE ATTITUDE IN TORONTO.

As showing the attitude of the men in Toronto, a despatch from that city to-day says:

A general strike of G. T. R. trainmen may be imminent, but the men do not appear to be in that heated state of mind, which is supposed to herald the outbreak of hostilities. A number of them were interviewed to-day, but few would discuss the situation at all. Some said they would have to hear from their representatives before they could decide on the best line of action. It is evident that the more radically inclined are the younger men, the older men not being willing to risk losing their pensions.

One man said "I have been 42 years on the road. Another four years, if I retire, I will be entitled to a pension of about $920 per year. Do you think I would be foolish enough to risk losing that amount."

This view was shared by many. It would seem therefore, that if an order goes forth to strike, the response will no be as unanimous as it would have been a month ago. Another man said, "It seems to me that there must be some good in President Hays' proposition, in view of the fact that the committee, who have been in Montreal so long, had authority to call a strike, but instead of doing that, make an appeal to the men on the proposition submitted to them by Mr. Hays. If therefore, the men are not unanimous, and the engineers are not with us, the outlook is not very favorable."

The view of the younger men was appropriately expressed by a freight conductor: "Our pay is going to go up," he said grimly, "and if it won't go up for anything but a strike, why we will go out—that's all."

Mr. Brownlee on Peace Prospects.

General Manager W. C. Brownlee was asked to-day, "Do you think the men will go out on strike?"

"I don't think they will," was the reply. "I think," continued Mr. Brownlee, "that Mr. Hays' proposition to the men was not only a fair one, but all the company could do. The facts are that the Grand Trunk, cannot pay the demand made upon them. The Grand Trunk Railway management must fight and fight hard for their very existence. It is without doubt up to the men, and I think that if they realize their position they will, when marking their ballots, do so to accept the proposition of Mr. Hays."

Returns End of Week.

It is expected that the returns of the strike vote will be in by the end of the present week.

Mainville are the candidates. Both claim to be reformers, and at the nomination yesterday both declared themselves in favor of a clean, and honest administration of municipal affairs. Fell Down Niagara Gorge.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 12. — An unknown man fell over the river bank on the United States sides yesterday afternoon, midway between the upper and lower bridges, and landing on the tracks of the Gorge Railway, was instantly killed.

Several boys in swimming at the Old Maid of Mist landing saw the body strike the tracks, but no one saw the man fall from the upper bank.

NEW YORK'S FIRE CHIEF.

Following the reports of the three deputy fire chiefs, blaming Fire Chief Croker for the death of two firemen at a recent fire, it has become known that Croker will send a report of his own, declaring that all the charges against him are simply a plot to get his job. Croker is charged with being a bungler, incompetent, and unfit to remain at the head of the New York Fire Department. It is generally believed that Commissioner Waldo is anxious to get rid of Croker at any cost. Mr. Croker is a nephew of Richard Croker, formerly leader of Tammany Hall.

New Party in United States.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 12—In a speech delivered before the newly formed Progressive Republican organization here last night, Mr. James B. Garfield, formerly Secretary of the Interior, made an attack upon those whom he characterized as "representatives of special interests," declaring that in both Republican and Democratic parties the people's interests were subordinated to these special interests.

BUSH FIRES ROUND VANCOUVER CITY

Immense Damage to Lumber and Property Already Done, and Flames Spreading.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B. C., July 12.—The weather here yesterday was the hottest in years. Bush fires keep the fire-fighters busy in the suburban districts. A disastrous fire occurred yesterday afternoon in Nicholson's Lumber camp near the boundary. The fire, sped by a strong breeze, spread rapidly.

Several cordwood camps in the neighborhood suffered considerably, and one was completely destroyed. Fire broke out Saturday night in a section of the Canadian Pacific Railway reserve bounded by Twenty-Third and Twenty-Seventh Avenues and Fifth Avenue and Ontario Street. The Hill Crest fire brigade worked at the fire all day Monday.

North Vancouver fires were still more serious, and immense damage was done to property. The Provincial firewardens are hurrying to and fro this morning trying to secure fire-fighters. Little short of a miracle can save Fromes mill in Lynn Valley. If the fire makes its way to the water intake the supply will be cut off.

AN EXPLANATION WHICH DID NOT EXPLAIN.

If Immigration Commissioner Scott's official repudiation of the responsibility for the questioning to which Canadians are subjected who have wandered, for business or pleasure, outside the boundaries of their own country, has cleared the Department's motives, it has also thrown into a little deeper gloom the methods which the Department has permitted its subordinates to employ. Following immediately on the publication of the interview with the Chief Commissioner in which he categorically denied that any Inspector has been authorized to ask travellers who were obviously not immigrants whether they had spent much time in jails or insane asylums, there has come a storm of very indignant protests from Canadians who have this year had to submit to exactly these outrageous questionings. Up to the posting of Mr. Scott's statement they had regarded them as one of our not uncommon manifestations of official imbecility instead of as private impertinence. Yesterday one gentleman who has been a resident of . . . and prominent in this city business life for something like thirty years, telephoned. The Star that he and the other passengers on board the Corsican, early this summer, were put through the very course of questions which Mr. Scott is so sure have never been asked of casual tourists and, especially, of Canadian citizens. Another Montrealer who returned from England on the Megantic has written that he and his companions were made to undergo the same ignominious examination before they were allowed to land on Canadian territory.

As he ventured to point out, if the fault is not one of intention on the part of the Immigration Department, it is necessarily one of administration, which is quite as offensive from the standpoint of the individual. It certainly has not soothed the irate citizens who resented being asked whether they were lunatics or jail-birds to know that these questions were a bit of playful impertinence on the part of some young inspector, nor has it enhanced their opinion of the efficiency of the Immigration Department as a whole to know that it makes its appointments to positions which require tact and delicacy from raw material of this nature. Even when one of the Inspectors is caught brow-beating a nervous but absolutely unoffending woman and insulting a well-known Canadian who refused to be a spectator of the procedure—the recent episode at Windsor is an excellent case in point—we do not hear of the offender being dismissed the service. Mr. Scott's protestations of the determination of the Government to secure courteous and intelligent immigration officials would have much more weight if he could point to the summary dismissal of one found guilty of gross misconduct as a practical demonstration of departmental threatenings "Pull" it is to be feared, is still stronger than policy and promises combined, even in the Immigration Department.

BOXING AS MILITARY TRAINING.

Boxing is in a fair way to be eliminated from the Royal Military College. In the opinion of the Deputy Minister of Militia it is brutal and provocative of wrong ideas in the young soldier, frequently resulting in the shedding of innocent blood and in the temporary closing of bright eyes which should always be keenly alert for a chance to grasp an extra rooster feather for the chapeau or acquire an extra row of gold braid on the dress-uniform. This view of the case, we are told, appeals strongly to Sir Frederick Borden, whose gentle and eminently respectable soul shudders at the thought of the vulgar and vicious things of life being brought into proximity of the young men who, while learning the honorable profession of arms, are his wards—and Canada's. If there is one thing which we may feel absolutely certain about it is that, as lo as Sir Frederick is Minister, our Militia shall never bear the slightest stigma. Boxing has been supposed to develop certain manly traits and to be, for many reasons, an excellent part of the training of the ordinary youth who expects to develop into a normal man and an average good citizen. We do not know whether Sir Frederick would go even this far in admitting its possible benefits.

If boxing is going to corrupt our future staff officers, by all means away with it. Unless we can keep our Headquarters Staff pure and not only undefiled but also unbrutalized, where will Canada be when this country is plunged annually in the worry and anxiety of organizing reviews and march-pasts? Take away purity and innocence from the Militia Department and what is left? We may not not be a warlike people; we are not even at all sure that our present method of making militia appointments is not the best preventive of our participation in any war that could be devised, but we must, at all hazards, be consistent. If boxing, football and hockey have a tendency to brutalize our budding soldiers and to turn their thoughts away from the gentle and polite arts which are the surest steps to promotion, we have every confidence that the Minister of Militia will do his duty.

PERSISTENT AND INVETERATE LAW-BREAKERS.

When the condition of the "Moving Picture Theatres" reached a point this year which passed even the limits of Montreal toleration, a modus operandi was arrived at between Building Inspector Chausse and Chief Campeau, representing the city, and the proprietors of certain "Moving Picture Shows," acting for those who had persistently endangered the lives of the women and children who flock to these resorts, by which it was hoped a better and safer state of affairs would be secured.

The compromise itself was nothing more involved than an agreement to obey the law but it was considered at the City Hall quite an evidence of diplomatic genius to have negotiated an understanding along such liberal lines. The laws which Mr. Chausse and Chief Campeau were supposed to enforce had existed for years—but they had not been enforced. Something had stood in the way. It had blinded the eyes of the Building Inspector to the all too obvious fact that a large number of the alleged theatres were fire-traps, pure and simple, without safety appliances and with exits so small and encumbered as to guarantee death in case of a fire or a panic. It had stayed the hands of the police who, being an intelligent as well as conscientious body of men, would never have allowed the fundamental regulations forbidding the crowding of aisles and lobbies to be broken had not there been some strong influence at work neutralizing the force's normal activity.

Consequently when some of the worst and most notorious offenders finally consented to obey the law it was regarded, not unnaturally, as a notable triumph of law, order and good-government. Exits and aisles were widened under the efficient direction of Mr. Chausse, and large pieces of tin were tacked around the little booth which contains the lantern and its supply of highly inflammable films. Proprietors were politely but firmly notified by Chief Campeau that they would be expected to obey the by-laws forbidding the overcrowding of places of amusement in accordance with their public-spirited promises. All had been done that human ingenuity could suggest for safeguarding the public. That is to say law-breakers had been persuaded not to contiue breaking the laws.

Moral triumphs of this kind are proverbially short-lived and the "moving-picture" reform has had even a shorter existence than most of its predecessors. A casual inspection Sunday night of the resorts whose gaudy signs make St. Lawrence Main street a tawdry caricature of Broadway showed that the good resolutions implanted in the bosoms of the proprietors by the moving eloquence of Chief Campeau had all withered and dried up. Perhaps the Chief should have watered them more assiduously; perhaps it is a bad season for good resolutions. In any event there had been a reversion to type and the worst offenders of two years ago were doing their best to live up to the old measure of their offending. In one place, each of the side aisles was packed with people from the last row of chairs up to the little pen in which sat three dismal musicians. In another, the aisles were kept clear but the space between the door and the seats was crowded ten deep with an embryo mob which as effectively blocked the way to the exits as it was possible to do. In still a third, both the aisles and the entrance were filled to repletion.

Mayor Guerin has given the public to understand that the laws governing these places will be enforced, but there is evidently a wide distinction between Mayor Guerin's ideal and Chief Campeau's accomplishment. An ordinary law-breaker who misconducts himself in public is apt, other things being equal, to be punished more or less according to the extent of his offending. These "moving-picture" proprietors who brazenly ignore the law and flaunt their offending in the face of every passer-by, appear to be immune or exempt from criminal prosecution. The discovery of the why and wherefore of this might lead to the unearthing of other interesting facts having to do with the misgovernment of Montreal.

FAKED FIGHT FILMS.

The battle of Reno is to be followed by a battle in the courts. Already faked films have been exhibited in New York. True, the performance was cut short by the theatre-manager, who discovered the imposition, but the films have been seized and will be used as evidence in an action for $50,000 damages to be entered by the American Vitagraph Company which, through a subsidiary corporation, bought the Reno rights.

Unless the defendants represented the films as the work of the plaintiffs, we fail to see how the latter have a leg to stand upon. All great historic events and some that are not great are faked in art. The great majority of moving-picture films are severally supposed to be faked from end to end. The man who photographs a scene or an event has no copyright on the scene or on the event; he only has a copyright on his own photograph thereof. The people who posed a "good enough Johnson" and a "good enough Jeffries," photographed them and exhibited the films, may have committed a fraud upon the public or upon the theatre proprietor, but that has nothing to do with the American Vitagraph Company unless the fake was represented as their genuine work.

PROMOTION STOCK.

The Supreme Court of Nevada has upheld a wild-cat mining law passed by the Legislature of that State last year, which enacts that all stock must be marked "Treasury" or "Promotion" when issued. The principle of making a distinction between treasury stock and promotion stock cannot be too highly approved, and it may not be a bad plan to mark each kind in the manner enacted. If both carry equal rights, it does not make any difference to the purchaser which he gets, but in some cases the word "promotion" may act as a suggestive danger signal. It might be more effective if the scrip had to bear a statement showing how much of the capital was issued for promotion purposes and how much for hard cash. Even this, however, might be misleading. In mergers especially, much of the stock issued in payment for rights and patents represents nothing much more tangible than promotion stock. There is nothing essentially wrong with promotion stock. The promoter is worthy of his hire but, as a rule, places an exaggerated value upon his services. All that the law can do in the matter is to prevent misrepresentation and that is a big undertaking.

MOTES AND BEAMS.

All nations have a tendency to:
"Compound for sins they are inclined to
By damning those they have no mind to."

Some incline to prize-fighting, some to bull-fighting, some to cock-fighting, some to pigeon-shooting, some to lynching by fire, some to dog-fighting. They are all shocking to all the nations that do not indulge in them and to many of the people of the nations that do. As to the varying degrees of refinement in these sports respectively, there is manifestly no hope of agreement. Just now the German press is vigorously belaboring "the land of Roosevelt, which wants to show Europe the way to real culture" on the subject of prize-fighting. To all of which, a patriotic American newspaper correspondent replies:

"In the meantime an American can only recommend Germans to do a little heartsearching at home. I have seen American prizefights, American football, and American slaughter houses, but in none of them were such scenes of wanton and revolting bloodshed to be witnessed as can any day be watched in the dueling rooms of German university students. Until the historic "mensur" is made a penal offence in the Fatherland Germans will cut a ridiculous figure in belaboring prize-fighting."

If each nation would first cast out the beam out of its own eye, it might see clearly to cast out the mote out of its brother's eye.

There were 94,339,008 more Canadian-made cigarettes entered for consumption last year than the year before. It would not be right to give the Bickerdike Anti-Cigarette Act the whole credit for the increased consumption of cigarettes because, in the same period, there was an increase of 13,715,480 in the number of domestic cigars smoked, and cigars were not directly affected by the Act. Besides there was a falling-off in imported cigarettes of 833 pounds. The immigration into the North-West has nothing to do with it, because the English immigrants smoke briar-roots and the Americans corn-cobs.

Allen Bagnell, of Plymouth, was accidentally shot in the stomach the other day by one of his young friends who happened to be provided with one of those awfully handy revolvers, as a toy. It is announced that Allen "is as comfortable as could be expected." The shot was accidental, but the possession of the revolver was no accident.

PEACEFUL AT SPRINGHILL.

Situation Strained, However, and Trouble Feared.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Springhill, N. S., July 12.—The troops sent here from Halifax carry arms and ammunition, but brought no machine guns. They will camp on the race track, which is the company's property.

Everything is quiet, but while the existing tension prevails it would take but a trifling occurrence to start a riot.

Union Official's Statement.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Halifax, N. S. July 12.—Mr. Wm. Watkins, secretary of the United Mine Workers Union, Springhill, wires that nothing has ensued to justify the importation of the soldiers. He says that some young persons threw a stone or two.

The company's men, he alleges, have been fined for shooting on the street, and threatening to shoot citizens.

None of the men on strike, he says, have been charged with such offences. The conduct of the miners has been admirable.

The union men claim that the company's aim in asking military protection is to cause the strikers to go back to work, but say they will be disappointed.

Everything is orderly, and the soldiers' coming does not trouble the miners.

FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The late Dr. Theodore Robitaille.

"Lieutenant-Governor Robitaille left Quebec for the Saguenay yesterday."—From The Montreal Star, July 12th, 1880.

THE late Dr. Theodore Robitaille succeeded in gaining the esteem and affection of a very large number of the people of Bonaventure and adjoining counties. He had received an excellent education at Laval University, Quebec, and McGill, Montreal, where he graduated M.D. in 1858, at the age of twenty-four. He was of old and loyal stock. Several of his uncles took part in the defence of Canada in 1812-13-14, and one was chaplain to the forces during these troubled times. The young doctor offered himself in New Carlisle as a candidate for the House of Assembly in 1861, in the Conservative cause, and not only won the seat, but retained it until Confederation. He was then elected to the Commons, and re-elected in 1872, when he was offered the portfolio of Receiver-General. He held this office until the fall of the Macdonald Administration in the following November. At the elections of 1874 and 1878 Bonaventure electors showed their continued confidence by re-electing him. When the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, Mr. Letellier, was dismissed from office, the appointment of the late Theodore Robitaille met with general approval.

"A curious monster of the sea, measuring about forty feet in length and shaped like a serpent was captured at Margaree, C.B., last week. About thirty fishermen armed with axes and harpoons succeeded in killing it after a desperate struggle."—From The Montreal Star, July 12th, 1880.

"Ottawa — A special train leaves tonight with the surveyors who have been awarded contracts for laying out new townships in the North-West."—From The Montreal Star, July 12th, 1880.

THE system of letting out the surveying of the townships by contract was a new departure, and proved less expensive than that of giving the work out by Government appointment.

CONSUMPTION OF SALT.

Causes Adiposity, the Curse of the Aged, Says Noted Medical Authority.

"Pass the salt, please." This commonplace request promises in future table-talks to be relegated to the background, says Mr. C. Hyatt-Woolf, in the London Express. Dr. Ackerley may have doomed it to extinction, ancient, almost universal and important though it may be. Adiposity is the curse of the age, and Dr. Ackerley has recently told the Balneological and Pharmacological Section of the Royal Society of Medicine that much of our too solid flesh is due to the salt we ingest.

This authority informed his audience that one of the bad features of salt-eating is that when the salt is retained in the system water must be retained with it, and this gives rise to oedema—that is, a collection of fluid in the body tissues—with consequent increase of weight and bulk. The lecturer said he could make his own weight vary from four to six pounds by altering his consumption of salt. Dr. Ackerley does not appear to have mentioned the period in which this consummation could be brought about, but personal experiment endorses his contention and shows that in some cases the result is rapidly achieved.

A few days ago a correspondent also led Daily Express readers to imply that salt is an undesirable addition to food, and told us that it is not found in the system at all. Of course, in the last respect he was wrong. Upwards of half the saline matter of the blood consists of common salt (chloride of sodium), and as this is partly discharged every day through the skin and the kidneys, the necessity of continued supplies of it to the healthy body becomes sufficiently obvious.

Aid to Digestion.

The bile also contains soda as a special and indispensable constituent, and so do all the cartilages of the body. If the intake of salt be insufficient, therefore, the bile will fail to assist the digestion, and the waste of cartilage will exceed the rate of construction; and as the chlorine of salt furnishes hydrochloric acid to the gastric (digestive) juice, the digestion must also directly suffer.

Despite his corpulency-encouraging verdict, Dr. Ackerley does not deny that a moderate craving for salt may be physiological. But he says most people consume about twenty grams a day, and this is ten times too much. Two grams is ample, he contends, and this is found normally in our food. This is precisely what is said by all the anti-salt crusaders—and their name is legion.

If, as Dr. Ackerley believes, there is overwhelming evidence that salt is "essentially a poison," then it is strange that the elect of the human race survives at all—but still there is something to be said for the contention, that "this too, too solid flesh would melt" were salt treated more discreetly.

Of course, the common table salt must not be confused with the salts of sodium, potassium, and magnesium, which are just as essential to the bodily weal, and which are contained in our daily foods, or with the lime salt which is so vital in the foods of youth since it is the material for bone building. In later life it is often contra-indicated. An excess of lime in drinking water may then originate kidney and bladder troubles. The lime in water can, however, be precipitated by boiling.

Then there are the salt in fruits and vegetables—lactates, tartrates, citrates, malates, and acetates. They are also of prime importance to the health of the body. They keep the fluids alkaline. If this condition be not maintained, mal-nutrition sets in, and finally the dreaded scurvy appears.

For this reason we eat green vegetables which have digestive drawbacks, but they contain these valuable salts. This source of supply is cheap, and even in those frequent cases where green vegetables are found indigestible an excellent cabbage soup can be made containing the desirable principles. Indeed, it is a puzzle to many foreigners why we in this country place so little store on the water in which vegetables are cooked.

Filthiness of Lucre.

Increasing numbers of soiled bills are being returned to Washington for redemption. Mr. A. Cressy Morrison, of Chicago, still carries on with enthusiasm a campaign against "filthy lucre"; filthy in the literal sense of the word; when represented by the bills commonly used in present-day transaction of business.

The results of a thorough analysis of twenty-four of the worst bills turned in are startling. There were germs of grippe, tuberculosis, diphtheria and other contagious diseases. Mr. Morrison claims that the examinations made for typhoid and cholera germs in drinking water should be applied to bills. When Mr. Hilditch, of Yale, examined twenty-four bills he discovered an average of 142,000 bacteria, of various dangerous maladies, which is a matter of grave concern when it is considered that this money had passed through the hands of thousands of men, women and children all over the country. It has been proved scientifically that paper money is a means of transmission of disease. Germs of tuberculosis and other contagious disorders may live for several days in bills. From a sanitary standpoint, the federal government ought to remedy this disgraceful condition. In fact, the bills become so contaminated that no self-respecting person would accept such an accumulation of filth in any other form than money, in a public or private transaction.—Joe Mitchell Chapple, in the National Magazine for August.

As Steady as Clockwork

Day after day the busy store continues to excel its former selling records.

For that matter every day and month in the past years it has made satisfactory gains.

In Every Year of This Store's Life it Has Exceeded Every Previous Year in Sales.

We put this last statement in black type because we wish to emphasize the fact THAT IT IS TRUE.

The public man points to his record and to the endorsement of the people as a vindication of his policies. The busy store, semi-public in its position in the business world may without resting under the charge of boasting point to the above record as a result of its correct business policies.—Policies that nothing under the sun has been able to discourage or cause to waver. What are the policies ? UNDERBUY, UNDERSELL FOR CASH, SATISFACTION OR YOUR MONEY BACK.

We say that quality is quality wherever found, we say with increasing emphasis that because of our cash methods of buying and selling, you can come any day to this ALL NATION SALE and buy good, fresh and new merchandise for a small percentage of the regular market value.

NO EXPLOSION SAYS MANAGER

Victims of Sand Point Disaster Burned to Death.

Ottawa, July 12.—Manager Nicoll, of the Dominion Explosives Company, in a statement to-day says there was not an explosion at Sandpoint yesterday. He explains the disaster by saying that a fire occurred in the drying-room, causing gases used in manufacture to ignite, and that the three victims were really burned to death. Others, however, say a distinct explosion was heard.

ORANGEMEN HELD CELEBRATIONS IN HONOR OF TWELFTH

Big Crowds Gathered in Toronto and Brockville—Heavy Rain Marred Festivities.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 12.—A drenching downpour of rain spoiled the Orange parade at noon to-day. It was expected that over five thousand men would be in line, but a great many of the paraders were frightened off by steady rain which lasted from ten to eleven o'clock.

At the latter hour the skies cleared and the parade was formed, but just after it got well under way the rain began again, and rapidly thinned the ranks, driving all but the most hardened to shelter. The morning's lowering skies and occasional spatters of rain did not dampen the ardor of the thousands in this city.

At the different lodge headquarters the units of the big procession began to get in line early in the morning, to be in readiness for the start off at half past ten, but there was the usual amount of delay, and some little confusion before they marched to the rallying place. The route of the procession was along Grosvenor street, down Yonge, along Louisa, down James along Queen and Dufferin to the exhibition grounds.

There was the customary array of beribboned horses dragging open carriages, of waving banners and silk hats of old, middle aged, and young, all united in honor of King William of glorious memory.

Twenty Thousand at Brockville.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Brockville, Ont., July 12.—The 220th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne, and the 80th anniversary of the institution of the Loyal Orange Lodge No. 1 at Brockville, which introduced Orangeism into British North America, was right royally celebrated here today, the demonstration being possibly the largest and most enthusiastic ever seen in Canada.

Practically all the lodges of Ontario from Belleville to the Quebec boundary line and north to Pembroke and Ottawa, joined with the Brockville brethren in making a gala day.

Lodges from Montreal were also in line, and several points in New York State were represented. All these, with their friends and supporters made a throng of fully twenty thousand visitors which besieged the Island City.

The morning was given over to the reception of lodges, and after dinner a monster parade, participated in by 12,000 Orangemen, Prentice Boys, Orange Young Britons, and Loyal True Blues, was held through the principal streets of the town, to St. Lawrence Park, on the river front, where the addresses were delivered and a programme of aquatic sports carried out.

Mr. James Berney, Kingston, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario East, presided, and with him on the platform were many prominent men of the order.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 12.—The Orangemen of the Niagara District are celebrating the glorious Twelfth in Niagara Falls. A large number went there from here this afternoon. At Queen Victoria, Niagara Falls, Park, there are to be speeches.

MOTORMAN NOT TO BLAME SAYS JURY

Find That Death of Man on Tracks Near Lachine Was Victim's Own Fault.

That the deceased, as yet unidentified, met death by being run over by a Lachine car on Saturday evening, and that the motorman of the car, Arthur Sauve, be exonerated, was the purport of the Coroner's jury this morning in connection with the man killed near the Canada Car Company's works.

There were several witnesses including motormen of other cars and passengers. The deceased was seen about three o'clock walking along the car tracks in the neighborhood of the accident. Ernest Houle, one of the motormen who saw the man at 3.20 o'clock, stopped his car, and going over to the man told him that it was not a safe place for him to walk, and led him off the track, he being under the influence of liquor.

The car that killed him was driven by Motorman Arthur Sauve, who stated at the inquest, that his car passed the fatal spot at about 9.05 o'clock in the evening, and that he did not see the man or know that anyone was walking along the track until he was within a distance too short for him to stop his car.

This portion of the roadway of the Montreal Street Railway is private property. Accordingly the cars here travel at a high rate of speed, especially at the juncture where the man was killed, there being no crossing.

The jury then returned their verdict as above.

COUNT DE LESSEPS ON LATE HON. C. S. ROLLS

(See also page fifteen.)

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 12.—Count de Lesseps, the French aviator, who is one of the star attractions at the Toronto meet, was sincerely affected on hearing this morning of the tragic death of Hon. S. C. Rolls at Bournemouth. To the Montreal Star he said: "The death of Rolls will be a distinct loss to aviation circles in Great Britain, as he was a pioneer of the sport and one of the few really notable aviators in that country. His feat in flying across the Channel won prestige for his countrymen and gave a decided impetus to the new science in England. Personally he was a most charming and unaffected man to meet, and speaking for myself I can say that with all my heart I sorrow to hear of his death. I know that I voice the sentiments of all French devotees of aviation, as we all held Mr. Rolls in high admiration."

POWDER MAGAZINE BLEW UP.

One Killed and Twenty Injured in Explosion at Cabot,

Pittsburg, July 12.—A powder magazine at Cabot, Pa., exploded early today, killing at least one person and injuring about twenty others.

The magazine was the property of the Standard Plate Glass Company and contained 1,000 pounds of dynamite and 5,000 pounds of blasting powder.

The score of persons injured were nearly all some distance from the magazine. The one man killed was Samuel Rossie, who had gone to the magazine to get powder for use at the quarries.

Ontario Railwayman Died Suddenly.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 12.— George W. Babbitt, chief train despatcher on the Michigan Central Railroad for thirty years, and one of the best known railway men in Canada, died suddenly at his summer cottage, Port Stanley, early this morning. He was sixty-three years of age. His wife is at present on a holiday trip in Nova Scotia. Two daughters and one son survive.

"LET ME FINISH IT" PLEADED WOULD-BE SUICIDE TO POLICE

John Peekas Found in Park With Throat Gashed With An Old Razor.

Half dead, with a gash in his throat, John Peekas, of middle age, who boarded at 227 Cadieux street was discovered on a bench in Place Viger park at 5.15 this morning by Constable Noonan, of the Central Police station.

"Oh, let me finish it," were the pleading words of the dying man, as he was approached by the constable. He would not give any reason for his act. He inflicted the wound with a razor, which was found at his feet covered with blood, but was not deep enough to cause death, although he would have bled to death had he not been discovered by the constable.

In relating the discovery the constable said he was a fearful sight. He writhed on the bench in the park in great pain, which first attracted the constable's attention. On asking what was the matter the man replied:

"Oh, I'm sick. Leave me alone, I want to finish it." He was very weak from the loss of blood, and would not give his name or address, but on a paper found in a pocket was the name "John Peskas, 227 Cadieux street." On enquiring at the places the name on the paper was found to be that of a man who had boarded at the house a short time.

There is hope for his recovery.

Sketch of His Carber.

Hon. Charles Stewart Rolls, was on of the first Baron Llangattock, was born in London on August 27. A pioneer in all new forms of motion, motorist and balloonist, Rolls took to aviation as a matter course, and quickly proved a highly ising student of this difficult and erous science. His previous vements as a balloonist and rist had early marked him out distinction, and his accomplish- of flying across the Channel to rench shore and back again has justified all the high expectations entertained of him.

In a recent account of his experiences Mr. Rolls wrote, with characteristic naivete: "I set about trying to break my neck about as soon as I could walk."

"Anything that could be made to go fast had a boundless fascination for me," he wrote, "as had machinery of every description, my liking for the latter being no doubt due to the Scottish blood I inherit from my mother."

From boyhood, indeed, Mr. Rolls showed an amazing energy with regard to anything connected with engineering, and he was amongst the first to recognize the possibilities of the motor-car. Mr. Rolls's boyhood effort in the direction of automobolism was the adaptation of a superannuated bath chair to his purpose, but a more ambitious enterprise was made with a steam roller at the Hendre, Lord Llangattock's estate in Monmouthshire.

While he was a student at Cambridge Mr. Rolls became the owner of his first motor, a 3 3/4 h.p. Peugeot. He was an innovator then, for when he became the proud owner of this car he was about the third private person in England to rejoice in one of the new vehicles.

Early Motor Successes.

This was in 1896, when the automobile was in its infancy, but Mr. Rolls soon developed into a great motorist. In 1899 he won the Bordeaux-Biarritz race with an eight-h.p. Panhard, the Gold Cup given the same year with a twelve h.p. car, and in 1900 he gained the gold medal for the thousand mile trial organized by the Automobile Club.

In 1901 he arrived eighteenth in the great Paris-Berlin race, although his water tank collapsed and he only managed to continue by plugging the leaks with grease rags.

Mr. Rolls had some sensational experiences, and once he had the strange mishap of being run over by his own car, which started off unexpectedly while he was engaged in repairing the forepart of it.

Besides ballooning, Mr. Rolls had done a great deal of motor-cycling, had driven a motor-boat at Monte Carlo, and had been a football player at Cambridge, and a clever amateur actor. As a balloonist he took part in the great balloon race from Paris last summer, and was for a time "missing," although he turned up smiling in the end.

Rolls was intended for the diplomatic service but he showed such enthusiasm for science and mechanics that his parents decided it was better to let him become a good scientist than a poor diplomat. He was educated at Eton and Cambridge, where he specialized in engineering and electricity. He was captain of the Cambridge University Cicycle Team and gained his military title with the Eton Volunteer battery. Rolls had written and lectured much on his hobby, particularly on the future of motoring and was also an expert at music. He was the technical managing director of the Rolls-Royce Motor Company and also captain of the London section of the Army Motor Service corps.

THE LATE HON. C. S. ROLLS.

MARKET RELAPSED INTO BLISSFUL REPOSE TO-DAY

The most striking thing about the stock market was the sudden cessation of trading. Yesterday there was a marked falling off in the volumee of trading, but to-day there were long stops to the tape, and very few transactions were mingled with the quotations being sent out.

There was no character to the trading, and bulls and bears were not to be seen or heard. They were apparently all under cover or seeking relief from the heat wave.

A few shares of Steel sold at 58½. Cement was unchanged at 19⅞ and 81¾ for the preferred.

Shawinigan was easier, selling at 95.

Detroit sold at 45, and Rio at 91½.

Quebec Railway was the only notable strong spot, at 39⅛.

Crown Reserve continued to sell at 2.60, 1,800 shares figuring in the forenoon dealings.

BUYERS AND SELLERS.

Steel buyers: Beaubien & Co., Strathy & Co., Nash & Co., Pitblado & Co., Oswald Bros.

In Wall Street

Wall Street opened quiet and firm. Southern Pacific advanced 1½, but the advances otherwise did not exceed a moderate fraction. The metal stocks, aside from Anaconda, were supported, and made a slight gain.

When the decline in Amal. Copper was arrested, the market lapsed into extreme dulness.

A favorable weather map for the crops was a sustaining influence. Wisconsin Central and Tennessee Copper declined 1, and Westinghouse 1½. The tone was fairly steady at noon.

PROBABLE EFFECTS OF CROP SHRINKAGE

Speaking about the crop damage reports which are coming to hand and the probable effect, a well-known financier said to-day:

"Even supposing that the spring wheat crop is 100,000,000 bushels less than last year, and let us suppose that the farmer received 75c a bushel, it would mean a loss to a section of the community of $75,000,000, a good portion of which would be offset by theincreased price.

"The decline in the stocks of the railroads, which would be based largely upon this, must run into seven or eight hundred millions of dollars.

"Our Canadian North-West has not had a real crop failure since 1888, and farmers and merchants were perhaps never in better shape to stand a shrinkage than they are now. There is also in the Canadian North-West considerable mixed farming, which did not exist twenty years ago."

RAILWAYS SAID TO BE RETRENCHING

Owing to reduced traffic, the Pennsylvania Railway will lay off 26 freight crews on the middle division. Orders were given to store 12 engines in the same division, 20 having already been stored in the Philadelphia division.

Owing to poor crop conditions along its lines, Northern Pacific has begun to retrench in all departments, and within a short time will have dropped between 3,000 and 4,000 men.

Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern, says his road is not retrenching, nor does it contemplate doing so.

PRICES OF COBALT STOCKS DOWNWARD

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 12. — The general inclination of the Cobalt market yesterday was downward, especially in the case of some of the generally active stocks. Beaver sold off 1½ points, the shares declining to 21½ under realizing sales. The security was practically lacking of support, and at times it was hard to place offerings.

Temiskaming was another weak issue, dropping back a point to 61. Rochester sagged to 30¾, and was offering round that price at the close of the session. The other cheaper stocks were about steady at last week's close, though some weakness developed in Little Nipissing, quotations being fractionally lower.

MADE RICH BY TARIFF ON RUBBER

Senator Bristow, of Kansas, has charged Nelson W. Aldrich with manipulating the United States tariff on rubber in the Payne tariff bill for the enrichment of his son and a number of his friends. The duty on manufactured rubber articles was increased in the Payne bill from 25 per cent. to 30 per cent., and crude rubber was left on the free list.

E. B. Aldrich, son of the Senator, is president of the Intercontinental Rubber Company, formed in 1909 by the consolidation of the Continental Rubber Co. of America, organized in 1906 with a capital of $30,000,000; the Intercontinental Rubber Co., formed in 1906 with a capital of $40,000,000, and the Continental Rubber Co., organized in 1903 with a capital of $1,000,000.

NO MEETING THIS TRIP, SAYS FORGET

The Forget and Harris interests in Nova Scotia Steel appear to be as wide apart as ever. Mr. Rodolphe Forget returned to the city this morning from Quebec, where he attended a meeting of the directors of the Quebec Railway and Power Co.

He had heard about the arrival in the city of President Harris and Mr. Cantley, the general manager, but stated that he had no expectation of meeting the gentlemen.

"Then no steps are being taken on either side looking to a settlement of the difficulty about representation on the board?" he was asked.

"I don't know of any," Mr. Forget replied.

"I will meet them some day," he added.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS IN ENGLAND

Washington, July 12. — Congress having enacted a bill for a postal savings bank system in the United States, Consul-General Griffiths, of London, has submitted to this Government reports of the postal savings operations in Great Britain, where the deposits amount to nearly a billion dollars.

Deposits in postal savings in the United Kingdom in 1908 agregated $217,877,011, and the withdrawals in the same year agregated $220,916,714. In 1907 when financial conditions were less favorable the amount withdrawn exceeded the amount deposited by $10,785,838. The largest number of withdrawals on any one day was $55,485, and, of the entire number of withdrawals in 1908, $5,910,485 were made on demand. The total sums to the credit of the $11,018,251 depositors in the postal savings bank of the United Kingdom on December 31, 1908, was $781,794,533, an increase in the year of $15,320,139.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

E. & C. Randolph.—A good feeling prevailed in conservative quarters, and there was a disposition to advise purchases of stocks in a conservative way.

Oswald Bros. — While sentiment is rather more bullish because of better crop advices from the West, where good rains have improved the situation as regards spring wheat, the market continues a trading one for quick turns.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Bears are concentrating their efforts on Amal. Copper, with the hope of breaking prices all around.

FAKE ORDER CABLED TO N.Y. BROKER

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 12. — The defrauding of Stock Exchange houses through bogus cable orders from Amsterdam to buy International Mercantile Marine preferred stock is being probed to-day.

The first of a series of efforts to get New York houses to buy this stock on bogus cabled buying orders was made two months ago. A banking house here received a cable from Amsterdam instructing it to buy 800 shares of International Mercantile Marine preferred.

The stock was purchased on the Stock Exchange between 20 and 21, and the house cabled back to Amsterdam that the order had been executed. The order had come ostensibly from the Disconto and Effecten Bank of Amsterdam, which repudiated it.

Mr. H. W. Fisher, of Fisher & Desrosiers, stock brokers, has been proposed for membership of the Montreal Stock Exchange.

PACIFIC STARTS FISCAL YEAR WELL

The Canadian Pacific Ry. made a good start on its new fiscal year by turning out a gain of $411,000 on the first week's earnings over the same week last year. The figures are:

Return of traffic earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company from July 1 to July 7:

1910	$2,022,000
1909	1,611,000
Increase	$411,000

TOPICS OF THE STREET

One of the most striking features of the stock market is the suddenness with which the trading dropped back into the old dull rut again after several severe spasms of liquidation. The market exhibited almost nothing in the way of recuperative power after the break. Prices had a very small rally, and have not been able to hold all of that.

One inference to be taken from this state of affairs is that the public that would like to buy at what looks like attractive figures cannot get the money to do so, while those who were able to do some trading have got all they want for the present.

Another break might find the market even more vulnerable than on the last occasion.

An offer to wager $2,000 to $1,000 was made on the floor of the Stock Exchange yesterday that Canada Cement will pay the regular dividend on the preferred next month. Needless to say there were no takers even on such odds.

Well Satisfied With Outlook

Mr. E. H. Gary.

Ex-Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, who is now in London, takes a very chereful view of the outlook in America, when he stated in an interview:

"The basic conditions in the United States, commercially and financially, are that business and financial outlook of the country. Year by year our productive capacity is increasing. The amount of money in circulation is growing larger, and the facilities for the transaction of business are improving. While the crop yield for this year probably will not be as large as originally estimated, still from information at hand its value doubtless will be at least $8,000,000,000, an. this should be considered quite satisfactory."

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

G. E. M.—A good deal depends on the nature of the contract you signed in buying this stock. Most of the contracts are made in such a way that the buyer makes himself responsible for the full number of payments. Possibly you might be able to make some arrangement with the agent so as not to lose what you paid in.

J. A. T.—We understand that the Strathcona Cobalt have stopped work on account of a lack of funds. Their plant is to be sold by sheriff's sale. Considerable development work has been done on their property without striking pay ore.

Making the Way to The Gold Diggings

Cobalt, July 12. — The final link in the Porcupine chain is being forged at last. The Government crew, having completed the road from Kelso to Frederick House Lake, has transported its camp to Hills, and will begin to cut a similar roadway into Golden City from that point.

The last nine miles of trail should be completed before the freeze-up if the work goes on as fast as the last part of the Kelso road was pushed ahead.

WINONA ASSESSMENT.

Winona Copper Co. has levied an assessment of $1 a share, payable August 9th. With this assessment, $22 will have been paid in on the stock.

NEW SLOGAN IS INVEST IMPERIALLY

Mr. R. M. Horne Payne, a director of the Canadian Northern Railway, residing in London, has invented a new slogan of empire. He wants the British public not only to obey the famous dictum to "Think Imperially," but also to "Invest Imperially."

Mr. Payne knows Canada well, having visited the country several times, and his speech on London, as reported by the Canadian Associated Press, will be of much interest to Canadians.

The burden of Mr. Horne Payne's speech at the meeting of the British Empire Trust yesterday was that the British people should not only think imperially but invest imperially. He described the Empire as a great joint stock company, in which the constituent nations were associated for mutual advantage.

During last year Great Britain had invested £23,000,000 in the United States under 5 per cent. interest, which probably could be reinvested in Canada at from 6 to 10 per cent.

Mr. Horne Payne deprecated the warnings about the enormous amount of money being invested in Canada and remarked that the United States gave no better security than the oversea states of the Empire.

Mr. R. J. Barrett, F.R.G.S., editor of the London Financier and Bullionist, pays this tribute to Mr. Horne Payne in his book, "Canada's Century," following his visit to this country years ago. When referring to the Canadian Northern enterprise, he said:

"Mr. R. M. Horne Payne, though now residing in England, knows his Canada from end to end. To his financial genius, high reputation and wide experience, the successful financing of the Canadian Northern Railway, up to its present stage (1907) is largely due. He is the English director of the railway, and I am quite certain that the interests of the English bond-holders could not be in more capable hands. While in Canada I heard many testimonies to the esteem in which his judgment is held, to the admiration of his financial abilities, and to the earnestness and enthusiasm with which he practically devotes his life to the interests of the company."

CHATS ON CHANCE.

"While the U. S. Government crop report is somewhat disappointing regarding spring wheat; and certain sections of our own North-west are none too good, farmers in this section, Chateauguay Valley, are complaining that their barns are too small to take care of the crop. The hay crop this year is heaviest that we have had in years, many fields running from three to four tons per acre," said Mr. E. G. Mahon, of Lefebvre and Mahon, Howick, Que., to The Star to-day.

"The early grain is unusually heavy, and the later grain, aided by the recent rains, is coming along nicely. Barley, which is heavy, will be ready to harvest by the end of the week."

The total wheat in store at Fort William and Port Arthur on July 8, was 2,985,564 bushels, against 2,903,788 bushels last week, and 1,570,688 bushels last year. Shipments for the week were 486,422.

Mr. J. H. Grisdale, of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, has just returned from a trip through Eastern Canada, during which he inspected the work under his direction at the three Eastern farms, which are situated respectively at Nappan, Truro, and Charlottetown, the one at Charlottetown being not yet two years old.

"Prospects," said Mr. Grisdale, "are for bumper crops in all the Maritime Provinces, and everything is looking well. They are very few indications which are not favorable for a bountiful harvest at all Eastern points."

The exports of cheese from the port of Montreal for last week totalled 89,000 boxes, compared with 91,870 a year ago, and 84,000 for the corresponding week in 1908. Shipments since May 1st, numbered 510,000 boxes, compared with 536,000 a year ago, and 533,600 in 1908.

Exports of butter from the port of Montreal for last week totalled about 2,000 packages, compared with 33 a year ago, and 10,900 for the corresponding period in 1908. Shipments since May 1st totalled 2,400, compared with 1,800 a year ago, and 37,495 in 1908.

WHEAT HIGHER BUT RAINS HAVE DONE MUCH GOOD

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, July 12.—July wheat sold at from $1.03⅞ to 01.04⅝ to $1.04¼; September at $1.01⅛ to $1.02⅝ to $1.02, and December at $1.02⅝ to $1.03⅝ to $1.03⅝. Closings yesterday were at $1.05¼, July at Closings yesterday were at $1.0? for July, $1.02 for September and $1.03⅛ for December.

The North-West was the leading buyer of wheat here to-day on the early declines, and this demand sent prices upward. Crop news was along about the same lines as for some time, the north-western advices, however, saying that the recent rains are likely to benefit the late wheat no little.

North-western wheat receipts to-day 160 cars, compared with 70 a year ago. Minneapolis wheat stocks decreased 200,000 bushels for three days compared with a decrease of 275,000 bushels a year ago.

FARNHAM DAIRY SALES.

WHEAT PRICES AT WINNIPEG UP 2¼ CENTS

Winnipeg wheat was strong again today and scored an advance of 1⅝ to 2¼c per bushel. The higher prices were due to the reports of a light crop. The unexpected heavy decrease in the European visible supply, and the less favorable crop advices from Russia and Argentina steadied the Liverpool market. Cables were few to-day, and owing to the advance were from 2½ to 3½c out of line. To-day's prices:

Mr. Bache Takes Cheerful View

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 12.—In a special cable from Carlsbad, Jules S. Bache, broker, expresses the belief that the recent stock market depression was caused by "disappointed railroad veterans," as a protest against the new railroad law. Henry G. Iskelheimer agrees with Mr. Bache that the intrinsic values have been enhanced rather than depressed. Mr. Bache says:

"I believe the Interstate Commerce Court, composed of five judges, which will be created under the new law, certainly will deal fairly with the railroads. It will see that rates prevail and will take into consideration higher wages and advancing cost of equipment which the railroads are meeting. It will afford one central court, where justice can be dealt out to the shipper and railroad alike. It will end interference by the authorities of various States, thus greatly simplifying matters."

Rush to a New Gold District

Toronto, July 12.—The latest thing in prospecting is the country around Great Pike Lake, about 40 miles southwest of Porcupine, and a small sized rush for that place is now being made.

The track leads down the Matagami from Porcupine. Most of the prospectors in the bush around this camp have picked up their tents and hit the trail for a hook at the new district. The formation is granite and schist, and the gold seems to be in quartz veins and stringers at the contact. Some excellent samples have been brought back to Porcupine showing free gold.

He pleaded guilty and was remanded to jail.

KING'S PRIZE MATCH HOLDS THE RANGES TO-DAY AT BISLEY

First Two Ranges Completed With Fair Scores by Canadians—Ten in London Match.

Canadian Associated Press.

Bisley Camp, July 12.—Shooting for the King's prize began to-day.

This prize is £250 the gift of His Majesty and is shot in three stages, as follows, the scoring at each range being also given:

First Stage, seven shots, at 200, 500 and 600 yards; 35 points at each range 105

Second Stage, 10 shots at 200 and 600 yards; 50 points at each.... 100

Third Stage, ten shots at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards; 50 points at each range 150

Total score for the three ranges.. 355

To-day the 200 and 500 yard ranges of the first stage were fired, the third range of the first stage being fired to-morrow.

The second stage is fired Friday, and the final stage on Saturday, the closing day of the Bisley meet.

The three hundred best scores of those who compete in the first stage are eligible for the second stage.

At the end of the second stage the hundred best scores go into the final stage, and these are known as the King's Hundred.

The prize was first won by a Canadian in 1895, when Sergt. Hayhurst, of the Thirteenth Regiment of Hamilton, carried off the trophy.

It was won a second time by a Canadian in 1904, Pte. S. J. Perry, of Vancouver, winning out at the thousand yard range in a gale.

Last year sixteen Canadians made the second stage, and seven got into the hundred. When it is considered that there are four thousand competitors in the King's and only twenty-five Canadians, to get sixteen into the three hundred and seven into the hundred is no small honor.

KING'S, 500 YARDS.

The scores of the Canadians at 500 yards in the King's were:

SHUTE APPEARS IN COURT.

Later Remanded for a Week for Voluntary Statement.

Stephen Shute, the nineteen-year-old Newfoundland boy, who is held on the charge of killing a workman named William Miller, appeared before Judge Leet this morning for enquete. Several witnesses who had witnessed the quarrel between the two men were heard, and Shute was remanded to jail to come up in a week for voluntary statement. Since his term in prison the boy has been the recipient of many sympathetic messages. He looks somewhat worn from the worry and the enforced idleness of the cell.

PRINTING INQUIRY PROCEEDS SLOWLY

Investigation Will Not Conclude Before September—Many Applicants for Vacancies.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 12.—It was said to-day at the Departmen of State that the investigation which is now being conducted at the Government Printing Bureau is not likely to be concluded before September. It is being conducted by Hon. Mr. Murphy and his deputy, Mr. Mulvey.

Some suspicions that have been made are understood to have facilitated getting at the information desired.

For the vacant positions of Superintendent of Stationery, and Superintendent of Printing there are already several applicants, a number of them from Ottawa and others from Montreal and Toronto.

The Minister, not the Civil Service Commission, will make the appointments, but nothing will be done till September. By that time it is hoped to have a new system of purchasing and other reforms established.

ANOTHER BOXER KILLED.

Result of An Amateur Bout in New York State.

New York, July 12.—In an amateur bout held in Mineola, L. I., last night, Hugh Brant, known also as "Kid Burns," a bell boy employed in a Garden City hotel, collapsed in the fourth round and died before medical assistance could reach him. The bout, a somewhat private affair, was held in a room in the rear of the hotel bar. Brant's opponent was Tommy Walsh, a youth of 21 years from Tuckahoe, N. Y.

A physician said Brant had died from exhaustion and not from the effects of a blow.

TELL MAYOR THAT FIGHT PICTURES ARE DEGRADING

Ministers Visit City Hall to Condemn Proposed Johnson-Jeffries Views.

A large delegation of ministers and church workers, waited on the Mayor to-day and asked him to prevent the Johnson-Jeffries fight pictures being shown here. The main argument of the delegation was that the pictures would prove demoralizing to the youth of the city; in consequence, their exhibition should not be allowed.

In reply, the Mayor said that while he had not powers possessed by a Czar, he would do what he could to see that the pictures were not exhibited. He explained that the law in regard to the matter was not at all clear. He urged that if more concise laws were needed to deal with moving picture halls, they would be drafted at once.

He also said that he did not consider the prize fighting pictures nearly so bad as many other pictures that were exhibited with impunity in moving picture places. He finally promised to see if a censor could not be appointed whose sole duty it would be to attend moving picture shows and forbid doubtful pictures from being shown.

Rev. Dr. Young, of the Ministerial Association, condemned the exhibition of the pictures in strong terms. He said there was nothing elevating about them, and that they ought to be suppressed. The main thing to be considered was the welfare of the boys. It was certain they would flock in great numbers to see the pictures, and the results would be demoralizing.

Pugilists Called "Monsters."

Rev. Dr. J. Edgar Hill spoke plainly about the pictures. He said the idea was to show a collection of blackguards to the youth of the city. The men who had taken part in this fight were nothing less than monsters. The press was severely to be blamed for the way it had given out the news of the fight. The truth was that the whole fight was got up for money making purposes. The manly art of self-defence could not even be pleaded as to why the pictures should be shown.

Mr. Clark, of the Children's Aid Society, spoke of how imitative boys were. If they were permitted to see this brutal fight it would certainly incite them to similar deeds.

Rev. Dr. Gordon also condemned the exhibition of the pictures. He said there was not a single thing to recommend in them. It was not impossible that their exhibition would raise the strongest racial feelings in the city.

Mrs. T. J. Dawson pleaded with the mayor for the suppression of the pictures. She said her experience of boys was that they would be incited to fight and would be given ignoble ideals.

Mr. Knox and several other gentlemen spoke in the same strain, and then the mayor stated that he would suppress the pictures if possible.

SERIOUS FIRE AT KAMLOOPS.

Several Warehouses and Residences Destroyed.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Kamloops, B.C., July 12.—About ten o'clock last night fire broke out in Stevenson's and Allan's grocery warehouse, presumably from a spark from an engine in the railway yard. The blaze soon spread to the adjoining warehouse and both were gutted. Another warehouse caught fire, but the firemen kept it under control. Six cars loaded with merchandise in front of the burned warehouse were destroyed.

The flames were carried by wind across the street to the residences there, of which four were destroyed.

The loss is estimated at $75,000.

One fireman fell from a waggon and sustained a broken leg.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR MAILLOUX'S ARREST

Did Not Appear When Charged With Gambling at Aviation Park.

Avila Mailloux, one of the four men arrested for conducting a gambling device at the recent Aviation meeting at Lakeside, did not appear for enquete when the case was called this morning, and a bench warrant for his arrest was issued. The other three defendants, Zephir Larocque, Owen Dufresne and Oscar Dufresne, appeared and pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Several witnesses for the prosecution were heard and the case was set for further hearing on Tuesday next. Mr. E. R. Carrington, of the Thiel Detective Agency, who had ordered the arrest, stated that other games were allowed on the grounds. He said the games were not the same as those carried on by the prisoners.

Judge Leet remarked that it appeared other arrests might have been made for the some offence with which the prisoners were charged.

CUBAN CONSPIRACY FOR INTERVENTION

This Was Purpose of Those Arrested, Declares Secretary of State.

Havana, July 12.—The purpose of the conspiracy for which the mulatto, Col. George Valera, and his associates were arrested yesterday, was to compel American intervention, according to the Government's information.

The Secretary of the Interior has issued an official statement to the effect that it was learned some days ago that the conspiracy existed, with the design of blowing up bridges and railways, and the destruction of the property of foreigners, with the hope of compelling this result.

The suspects being poor and ignorant persons, most of them negroes, the secretary had suspicion that they were acting under the instigation and orders of persons of superior intelligence. Further investigation resulted in the discovery that the suspects were in constant communication with a stock broker whose name is unknown. The police are making an active search for him.

Fight Pictures for Australia.

Melbourne, July 12.—The Government has decided that it has no power to prevent the introduction of films of the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

MODERN METHODS REQUIRED HERE IN SNOW REMOVAL

Controllers Will Suggest New System —City Surveyor Censured by the Mayor.

Controller Lachapelle stated at a meeting of the Board of Control today, that steps must be taken before winter sets in, to get the snow removed by more modern methods. The old way of the city carting off the snow, with little carts, could be tolerated no longer.

"In fact," said Controller Lachapelle, "this work of removing the snow is too great for the city. The boundaries of Montreal have now grown so that we shall need some outside help with this work."

Continuing he said that what the city shoul ddo was to clear away the snow in some of the important wards; but to give such work out to contractors in the outlying wards. By such a method there would be a prompt system of snow removal; it would not take long then for the city's streets to be cleared after a heavy snow storm.

Members of the Board agreed with Mr. Lachapelle, and the subject brought up will be discussed more fully at a later meeting.

Ald. O'Connell headed a deputation from St. Ann's ward, which complained that the controllers were putting down scoria blocks on Notre Dame street west. It was claimed that these blocks should not be laid, as they were excessively noisy under heavy traffic.

It was pointed out, however, that scoria would certainly have to be used, owing to the fact that asphalt would not last on this thoroughfare.

Mr. Barlow came in for sharp censure from the Mayor. It appears that he had given orders to a clerk to examine an applicant for a civic position, and this without consulting the Controllers in any way. Finally, Mr. Barlow had recommended that this man be given employment.

"I think," said the Mayor, "that it might have been possible to give promotion instead of employing outside men. I do not think, Mr. Barlow, you have acted with good judgment in this matter. I am surprised. While officials of departments are given great powers by the Controllers, they should not get the idea that the Controllers are not to be consulted."

In reply Mr. Barlow said he had acted in good faith.

The Board decided that $5,000 should be voted to the entertainment committee to look after the Eucharistic Congress.

EVANGELISTS CURE BY LAYING OF HANDS

Members of Sect, Camped at Verdun, Claim to Be the Only Real Followers of the Apostles.

Professing that they the members of the Apostolic Faith, following the old teachings of those Apostles who accompanied Jesus and did works of wonder, such as casting out demons and curing the sick by the laying on the hands, can and have accomplished the same things, Evangelist Milton Grotz, the organizer of the new sect is camping with a few followers in Verdun prior to resuming their tour of health-dispensing by faith.

Evangelist Grotz, who paid a visit to Chief Campeau this morning, is a middle-aged man with a full black beard, dressed in semi-clerical garb. Mr. Grotz wanted the Chief's advice as to location and permission to put up a tent where he and his small party might rest for a month preparatory to their journey through the world.

The Chief advised Verdun.

Mr. Grotz has been seven years in the preaching of God's New Testament, as he says, making converts to the new Apostolic Faith by his marvellous cures, such as the curing of cancer, consumption, dyspepsia, blindness and deafness. He has travelled through twelve states in the United States and Ontario and Quebec during seven years. All the converts to the new religion are to meet some time in the future, when they are to embark for darkest Africa to convert the natives.

The evangelist told a representative of the Star to-day that he had been a druggist seven years ago, and a confirm

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Centre Aisles for Open Cars.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—In view of the fatal accidents to conductors of open cars, instead of withdrawing open cars, would it not be as convenient for the Street Railway Company to so arrange the open cars with a passage down the centre like the ordinary car, both sides closed, and entrance at the rear, thus not giving the conductor the arduous task of collecting fares and endangering his life, and doing away with people standing on the steps? In this summer climate we need all the air we can get. The observation car arrangement is what I mean, and it is perfectly safe.

How To Help Poor Children.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—In view of the appalling death rate of young children, could not the women of Montreal urge the civic authorities to give a portion—a corner in the west part of St. Helen's Island, or even Heron's Island, up near the Rapids, as a summer hospital for the poor babies? We all boast of our magnificent St. Lawrence, but what practical use is made of the islands except to people who have health and means to go there? What about the poor mothers with small means, several children, and doing all their own work? How can they drag out to Island or Mountain after a wakeful night? And, supposing they do, they take the babies back to oven-like houses. A wooden pavilion with sliding doors, windows with transoms, all to close in wind or rainstorm, but the babies breathing pure fresh air night and day, would be a blessing, and would not cost so very much. A cook house, dining room, and cubicles for two or three nurses would not cost so much, and I would urge that a steam launch be asked for either from the public or the civic authorities, for the free use of any women with young children. A car fare to and from the St. Helen's Island ferry and five cents to cross means a good deal to many people who have only a day's wage and perhaps a large family to feed. We have in Montreal in summer tropical conditions, and simply no effort is made by the city to help those people who cannot go away, and are too poor to help themselves. Cheaper water, free ice, free transport (at least for women and children to St. Helen's Island should be arranged for without delay. A bridge has been so long talked of, the next best thing is free passage for all women and children, and an outdoor hospital.

WESTMOUNT.

The Bishop and the Pugilist.

When Bishop Goe, whose death took place at Wimbledon, England, last week, was a curate, a famous pugilist in his parish, who went by the name of Jim the Slogger, and who had never darkened a church door, called at the parsonage, asking him to baptize the baby. Accordingly the bishop repaired to Jim's house, but was surprised, on being admitted, to see Jim lock the door and pocket the key. "Be you the parson come to sprinkle my kid?" he asked. On the bishop assenting, he continued: "Yer can't sprinkle that kid till you and me has had a fight, parson." The unfortunate parson protested, but, finding protest useless, "stood up" to Jim. The battle went for the bishop, and Jim, pulling himself from the floor, muttered, "He's the parson for me." The baptism was proceeded with, and, as the story goes, Jim took to church, going from that day.

EXPERTS' OPINIONS ON PAVING BLOCKS

Question as to Whether Scoria or Metropolitan are Best Occupies Much Time.

City Engineer F. Y. Fellowes, of Westmount, continued expert evidence in the injunction proceedings before Mr. Justice Guerin yesterday afternoon as to the quality of scoria and metropolitan paving blocks. He was satisfied that the metropolitan would hardly stand heavy traffic conditions. He had found in his experience also, that scoria were tougher than metropolitan. It was five or six years since any metropolitan had been laid in Westmount.

Under continued examination by Mr. Laflamme, the witness said that he had noticed holes in scoria caused by air-bubbles in casting. In theory, scoria was not so homogeneous as metropolitan. Lack of homogeneity must be considered a weak point theoretically in the construction of a brick.

In reply to a question by City Attorney Lavallee, Mr. Fellowes said that the air-bubbles in scoria were only surface ones. That was why he had stated that for commercial purposes scoria blocks were superior to metropolitan.

Controller Lachapelle said that the Board of Control accepted scoria because it was recommended by the best opinion in the city.

Mr. A. J. Dillon, clerk in the Roads Department, said he had filled in the tender forms. His instructions were to fill in 3,000,000 blocks as the amount required by the city. He thought that in the form handed to young Mr. Hyde, he gave the figure as 180,000. He must have made the mistake through making out some forms for tenders for other work, previously.

The case is continued this afternoon.

M. JAURES' QUESTION.

Wants Explanation of Clemenceau's Action re Rochette.

Paris, July 12.—In an interpellation in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, M. Jaures, the Socialist leader, asked the Government to explain what part ex-Premier Clemenceau took in the arrest of Henri Rochette, the banker, whose financial institutions, the Franco-Spanish Bank and the Credit Menier, were closed in March, 1909.

The Chamber passed a vote of confidence in the Government and voted for the appointment of a commission of inquiry into the affair.

Great Seizure of Ice Cream Cones.

New York, July 12—More than 4,500,000 ice cream cones have been seized by United States Marshal Henkel as a part of the campaign being waged by the government under the Pure Food Act. It is alleged that the cones contain boric acid and are injurious to health.

The seizure is the second within a few days, and was made on the Southern Pacific Railway. The cones were being shipped to Galveston, Texas, by the Consolidated Wafer Company of this city.

CANADIAN MADE A POSSIBLE BUT LOSES TOP PRIZE

Capt. McHarg's Shots Not So Close to Centre as Another's Though All Were Bulls.

Canadian Associated Press.

Bisley Camp, July 12. — To have made the best possible score and not to win the top prize was the ill luck of Capt. McHarg, in the Prince of Wales prize match yesterday. Sergt. Wallingford, of England, also scored a possible, and he was awarded first place as his shots were better placed than those of Capt. McHarg.

The rules of the Association are the usual ones for a two range competition, best scores at longest ranges, fewest outer, fewest magpies, etc., but as both made a possibleit was an absolute tie. The rules provide that in a one range competition the tied men shoot off. But in a two range competition the final word is the fiat of the Bisley committee.

This means that Capt. McHarg takes second place.

A Canadian victory would have been pleasing as a Canadian won the prize last year—Sergt. Blackburn with a score of 84 out of 85.

In addition to Capt. McHarg's possible there are in the scores of the Canadians two 84s, three 83s, three 82s.

	300 yds.	600 yds.	Tl.
Capt. McHarg, Vancouver	35	50	85
Capt. Crowe, Guelph	35	49	84
Pte. Steele, Guelph	35	49	84
Sergt. McInnes, Edmonton	34	49	83
Sergt. Russell, Ottawa	34	49	83
Sergt. Richardson, Victoria	35	48	83
Sergt. Eastwood, Winnipeg	34	48	82
Sergt. Bayles, Toronto	34	48	82
Lieut. Mortimer, Ottawa	34	48	82
Lieut. Rowe, Bowmanville	34	47	81
Major Stuart, Vancouver	34	47	81

The All Comers' Aggregate.

Following are the totals of the Canadians in the All Comers' aggregate, which is made up of the Daily Graphic, seven shots at 200 yards; the Graphic seven shots at 500 yards; the Daily Telegraph, seven shots at 600 yards; the Alexandra, seven shots at 200 and 600 yards. The possible is 175, the Canadian scores are: Crowe, 171; Steele, 171; Richardson, 171; Mortimer 169; Freeborn, 169; Mitchell, 168; Bayles, 168; Whitehorn, 167; Latimer, 165; Morris, 165; McHarg, 165; Eastwood, 165; Forrest, 164; Rowe, 163; Bibby, 161; King, 161; McKie, 161; Drysdale, 161; Steck, 161; Sharpe, 160; Greet, 160; McInnes, 160; Russell, 159; Stuart, 156; Clifford, 156; Bowen, 153.

The All Comers was a Canadian win last year, Sergt. Richardson taking it with 167. The highest score ever made in this aggregate was 169, so with three Canadians with 171; two with 169; two with 176s, and fifteen others with 160 or better, the outlook is bright. It should be remembered, however, that the scoring has been higher this year than before, and 160 which generally comes in will not likely reach the money stage this week.

Canadian Prize Winners.

Among the prize winners are the following Canadians:

Pte. Bibby, 385th in Alexandra, £2.
Capt. Crowe, 22nd in Alexandra, £5; 27th in Stock Exchange, £2.
Pte. Clifford, 262nd in Alexandra, £2.

LATIN-AMERICAN REPUBLIC.

Fourth International Conference Opened at Buenos Ayres To-day.

Buenos Ayres, July 12.—The fourth international conference of American republics was formally opened in this city to-day and will remain in session for five or six weeks.

The last conference was held in Rio Janeiro in 1906, and was generally regarded as a success. The present conference plans to adopt a series of conventions and resolutions framed for the actual good of the various states on the American continent, subject to ratification by the governments concerned, and in some quarters the importance of this gathering is regarded as second only to the great peace conference at The Hague.

ROBLIN WINS ONCE AGAIN IN MANITOBA

Standing of Parties Not Much Changed by Elections.

Conservatives Gained Six Seats, and Liberals Five—Government Majority Thirteen.

Standing of Parties.

Government (Conservatives)	27
Opposition (Liberals)	14
Majority	13
Conservative gains	6
Liberal gains	5

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, July 12.—Yesterday's Provincial elections resulted in a victory for the Roblin Government. According to the latest returns, the Conservatives have secured twenty-seven out of a total of forty-one seats, and the Liberal Opposition fourteen, giving Premier Roblin a majority in the House of thirteen. As the standing of the parties was twenty-six to twelve in the last House, it will be seen that the political situation remains practically unchanged.

The Conservatives scored gains in six constituencies,—Arthur, Dauphin, Deloraine, Emerson, Gilbert Plains and Gimli, while the Opposition turned out Government candidates in five constituencies,—Lakeside, La Verandrye, Minnedosa, Russell and North Winnipeg.

The most prominent Liberal to go down in defeat was Mr. Edward Brown, ex-leader of the Opposition, who was defeated in South Winnipeg by Mr. L. McMeans, who had a majority of thirty-six. Mr. T. C. Norris, leader of the Opposition, defeated Mr. A. W. Fenwick, in Lansdowne by a majority of 300.

Hon. J. H. Howden, Provincial Secretary, was elected by acclamation in Beautiful Plains, and all the other Ministers won by increased majorities, though some Government supporters in other constituencies had their majorities reduced.

The Liberals, while disappointed at the result throughout the province generally, express great pleasure at their victory in West and North Winnipeg, attributing this to sound organization and careful canvassing.

Premier Roblin Speaks.

Speaking from the Telegram office at half-past eight, Premier Roblin congratulated the crowd on the magnificent victory. He referred to the personal charges made during the campaign against himself in refrence to the Ell Sand Company. He expressed his satisfaction that the people of the province had refused to heed them. He said he was particularly pleased that the people of his own constituency had given him so large a majority. He believed he had taught Professor Osborne a lesson that would take him five years to comprehend. He also rejoiced in the defeat of Edward Brown in South Winnipeg, where he had met the same fate he had received in his own section of Portage la Prairie.

The results in Deloraine, Gilbert Plains, Rockwood and South Brandon, are reported as doubtful at Liberal headquarters and are claimed by the Opposition, but latest returns do not indicate any change from the results as given above.

GIRL HEROINE SAVES COMPANION FROM DEATH

Twelve Year Old Violet Watt Rescues Companion From Drowning Near St. Anne's.

One of the most daring rescues from drowning was made yesterday afternoon, when a 12-year-old girl succeeded in saving the life of her companion, of the same age, as she was sinking in the water for the third and last time.

The brave little girl is little Violet Watt, who lives with her parents at Ste. Anne de Bellevue. The rescued girl is Emily McLaren, who also lives at Ste. Anne's.

The two girls went in bathing near their home. Violet Watt was an expert swimmer, but her companion, Emily, was not, so she took it upon herself to teach her. The method the young swimming mistress instructed her equally young pupil by was to go out into the water about waist high, and then swim inwards to shore. This performance they had repeated several times, and the pupil was getting on nicely in her lessons. The next time she thought she would go out a little deeper. In so doing she stepped into a hole. As she was about to go down for the third time, Violet rushed to her rescue. The drowning girl had swallowed much water, and was struggling frantically. The rescuer on getting near enough to her companion, grabbed her by her hair and one arm, and thus proceeded shorewards. Madame Hurtbeau, a nearby resident, was a witness to the brave act, and aided by calling two boys in a boat who were some distance away. They succeeded in getting to the two struggling girls, and pulling them into the boat brought them ashore.

When the brave little girl was spoken to later about her act, she replied: "I did not do anything. I just tried to pull her in."

PAY IN THE CANADIAN NAVY.

Before the prorogation of the Dominion Parliament, says Canada, the London illustrated weekly, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in answer to various questions from both sides of the House in regard to the Canadian Navy, emphasized the intention of the Government to provide facilities for the training of Canadian youths for the service of the fleet in both the engineering and executive branches. Pending the establishment of a Naval College upon similar lines to that very successful institution, the Royal Military College, at Kingston, Ontario, which has provided the Imperial Service with many fine leaders, and at least one brilliant administrator, it is intended to use the recently purchased first-class cruiser Niobe, of 11,000 tons, as a seagoing training ship. The fact that candidates for the new naval service are not numerous is only another indication of the number of opportunities which are awaiting the Canadian youth in the paths of commerce and industry. The pay offered compares very favorably with that given by the British Admiralty to similar grades. It is noticeable that the shortage of candidates is especially marked in the engineering branch of the Service, though the prospective pay of the engineer branch is to be somewhat higher than that of the executive or "deck" officer—viz., for an engineer sub-lieutenant (approximately) £219, as compared with £137 per annum in the British Navy; engineer-lieutenant £292 to £492 15s., as against £182 to £365; and engineer-commander £541 10s. to £657, as compared with £438 to £602. The lad who enters the Canadian Navy as a cadet after a five-years' educational course is to be eligible for examination for the appointment of an engineer sub-lieutenant. The many retired military and naval officers who are turning their thoughts to Canada as a home will find in the coming development of the defensive forces of the Dominion an inducement for settling where, even in the Services," the opportunities for their sons will be greater than in the overstocked Motherland.

A party adrift on a disabled launch on Lake Michigan attracted the attention of rescuers by waving blazing skirts.

CROWD SPENT GOOD MONEY TO SEE POOR SHOW

Great London Circus Proved a Feeble Exhibition With Only Three Acts Unskilfully Performed.

Hardly ever before has a circus won so much disfavour in Montreal, as "Howe's Great London Circus," which was here yesterday. People who spent their good dollars to gain admittance to the "big show," were informed, after three feeble acts had been unskilfully pulled off, that the programme was over. This was at 9.10 o'clock last night, after the programme had been in progress less than three quarters of an hour. Only three acts were given, a bare-back riding stunt, hackneyed and out of date, a contortionist and acrobatic act, and a tight wire performance, each lasting lesst han ten minutes, with plenty of intermission.

It was a circus of the old time type, at least nearly like this, the only difference being that former circuses had a single ring in the centre of the large tent, but there was no ring or anything of any kind in the centre of last night's show. There was nothing but one solid body of humanity, the sides as well as the body of the tent being packed closely with everyone that could possibly be crammed into the enclosure of canvas. The city constabulary were the main figures in the big show. About six of these mighty men of the law were requisitioned by the circus people to keep a space of about six feet in diameter open in the middle of the crowd, near the centre of the tent. This was the only room that could possibly be made for the performers, and even this was closed up by the seething mass of people as soon as the constables, with pearls of perspiration on their foreheads, for a moment ceased to use their batons and strength.

It might have been on account of the exceedingly large crowds, which the circus was unable to accomodate, that last night's programme was curtailed to such an unprecedented extent. Hardly the trapeze work, performed over the heads of a sea of upturned faces, could be successfully carried out, the guide wires holding the trapeze up being interfered with by the crowds which filled every available space.

The brass band was the only thing that was kept continually going during the short evening's performance. They kept playing at the usual rapid rate, changing quickly from one tune to another.

In the tight wire act, a Japanese-like gowned ballet girl, missed her footing while dancing on the wire, and was caught, as she fell, by the crowd underneath. Her companion in the act, while jumping through hoops on the wire, lost his equilibrium and in trying to save himself from falling went through numerous contortions, which seemed to please the spectators better than the real act.

Soon after this act, the management evidently thought that the Montreal circus goers had had enough for their money, and it being now a few minutes past nine o'clock, pronounced the show over.

WATER SHOCK WAS FATAL TO BEACONSFIELD GIRL

The case of Marie Viau, aged 16, drowned while bathing at Beaconsfield, Sunday, was disposed of this morning without a jury by Coroner McMahon, as the parents were satisfied that death was accidental drowning. The girl in company with her younger sister went bathing. When Dr. R. A. Landry was summoned, after the girl had been taken from the water, which was only two feet deep, all efforts of resuscitation failed, and he is of the opinion that death was due to shock caused by contact with the cold water which brought on heart failure.

Railway Man Died Alone.

Not well enough to go to work yesterday morning, Philip Acton, an employe of the Grand Trunk Railway, remained in his room 2685 Notre Dame street west, all day. In the evening, George Touax, the landlord, went to the man's room, and on entering found him dead on his bed. Deceased was 60 years of age, and at an inquest this morning it was found that heart failure was the cause of death.

FOUND GOOD FISHING SAID MR. JAMES J. HILL.

Mr. J. J. Hill, the railway magnate, arrived in Montreal on his private yacht, the Wacouta, last evening, returning from his annual fishing trip in the St. John River. The club car "Columbia," was waiting for him, and he left at 7.10 on the Rutland line for New York.

He had among his baggage several hundred pounds of salmon. He had had excellent sport, he said, though his catch this year did not quite equal that of last year. He had had a very restful time, he said. He usually rose at 8 a.m., but did not begin fishing until after breakfast. He retired every night at 9.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA.

New Edition Has Just Been Issued in Chicago.

A new edition of "Who's Who in America" has just been published by A. N. Marquis & Company, of Chicago. This work, which is brought up-to-date and reissued biennially, is an indispensable book of reference, for it aims to give a brief personal sketch of every living man and woman in the United States whose position or achievements makes his or her personality of general interest. A valuable feature of the book is found in the address appended to each name. Thus it possesses not only the best attributes of a biographical dictionary, but is also a handy directory. The geographical index, which first appeared in the 1908-9 edition, adds greatly to the usefulness of the volume. It groups by states, cities, and post office addresses all the names in the book, making it easy to find quickly the names for any particular place or locality. The volume contains 2,468 pages, and 17,544 names and sketches.

THE CENTRAL CO. MAY PLACE POLES IN STREET

A request from the Central Light, Heat and Power Company to erect five poles in two streets was granted by the Board of Control yesterday afternoon. One of the city attorneys said that this company, with certain other companies, had powers from the Legislature so they could use the streets. All the city could do was to locate places for the poles. Should location be refused, the company could select them. Only five poles are wanted, three to be placed in St. Peter street south of Notre Dame street, and two more in St. Alexis street, also south of Notre Dame. The Board decided to send a report to Council favoring the placing of the poles.

A supplement to the Canada Gazette announces that the next Federal census will take place on June 1st, 1911, under the supervision of the Minister of Agriculture.
