THE ALLOTMENT OF SEATS.

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—At a meeting of St. Andrew's Society held to-night, Mr. Stewart was re-elected President. Owing to some difficulty with the St. George's Society as to which Society should have precedence in presenting the address to the Marquis of Lorne, the Society have determined to present one on Saturday night. It is said he will leave by special train to-morrow night for Quebec, from which he will sail on Saturday. Mr. T. Tupper and Hon. J. H. Pope returned to the city this afternoon. Hon. James McDonald will arrive to-morrow afternoon. A meeting of a joint committee, composed of delegates from the different Temperance societies, will be held on Saturday for the purpose of completing arrangements for the presentation of an address to the Hon. Mr. Tilly, but under the circumstances it is probable nothing will be done until that gentleman's return from England. Hon. Mr. Huntington leaves for Montreal on Saturday night. The official returns of the elections in British Columbia have not yet been received. Steps have been taken to contest the election of Mr. Routhier in Prescott county. ANOTHER TURKISH NOTE TO RUSSIA.
THE RHODOPES INSURRECTION FADING THROUGH.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 7.—The Guardian's London correspondent says he has received a letter from a confidential source in the Balkans, stating that the Russian Government has signed a treaty providing, if Russia should endeavor to remain on Turkish territory after 1879, England and Austria will resist on her complete withdrawal. If Russia should urge that Turkey is unable to protect the Christians, owing to the disturbed state of affairs in Roumelia, England and Austria will furnish garrisons to relieve the Russian troops. The purpose of this treaty was communicated to the Russian Government by the Austrian representative. A Constantinople correspondent states that the Rhodope insurrection has received a fatal blow by the assassination of Omar Aga, one of its most important leaders, by Kara Yusuf, a former leader who had been disgraced for his part in the insurrection. The majority of the disorganized troops have been dispersed, and the remainder are being driven into the mountains.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 7.—Four thousand Bulgarians have burned four villages in Macedonia. The Porte has pointed out the fact that the Russians are powerless to repress the Bulgarian movement. The Porte also discusses the possibility of her being able to take advantage of the Turkish territory by the Russians.
