

CAPT. SCOTT AND FOLLOWERS TO BE RECOGNIZED BY PARLIAMENT

Both House of Lords and House of Commons Have Taken Steps to Carry Out Last Wishes of Explorer. Likely That Families of Dead Will be Pensioned. Lord Mayor of London Has Decided to Open Mansion House Fund For Erection of Memorial to Captain Scott.

London, Feb. 12. — (Special) — Responding to demands from every quarter of the Empire that Parliament shall in fitting fashion recognize heroism of Captain Scott and his followers, and provide for their survivors, as a monument to their deeds, both the House of Lords and House of Commons have taken steps to carry out explorer's last wishes.

The families of the dead will likely be formally pensioned. The dependents of Captain Scott are his wife and child and mother. Dr. Wilson leaves a wife and mother. Lieut. Bowers leaves a mother and two sisters who were dependent upon him. Captain Oates leaves a mother, while petty officer Evans leaves a wife and three children.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS OF TRAGEDY.

New York, Feb. 12. — (Special) — A special cable to New York American from London says: "A despatch from Christchurch, New Zealand, to Newsagency here, gives additional information concerning the Scott Antarctic tragedy. It states that Surgeon E. L. Atkinson and party under his command, who found the bodies of Capt. Scott, Lieut. Bowers and Dr. Wilson, and searched without result for Captain Oates, learned when they reached winter quarters at the Hut Point that northern party was safe."

HAD TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE

This party was composed of Lieut. Campbell, Surgeon Levick, petty officers Abbott and Browning, and Messrs. Dickinson and Priestley. They had been forced by failure of Terra Nova to reach time to make their way alone back two hundred miles to Cape Evans. They had to wait until the ice in the sea was heavy enough for their transportation, building an ice house thirteen by nine feet in dimension. For more than six months they lived on seal in this locality with few biscuits and some cocoa and sugar. Acute enteritis attacked some members of the party and handicapped them greatly in their journey when they got started to Cape Evans.

During that trip they must have suffered great hardships, being forced to subsist during 200 mile journey through an Antarctic winter on provisions intended for only one month.

CARRIED AMUNDSEN'S LETTER.

Records brought back include Captain Amundsen's letter to King of Norway found in cairn made by the Norwegian explorer when he reached the Pole months before Scott and his party.

ICEBERG 21 MILES LONG.

An iceberg 21 miles in length was encountered by Terra Nova on the return voyage in latitude 64 degrees 15 minutes south, longitude 159 degrees 15 minutes east. Later the ship passed through a sea of icebergs, being compelled to stop for half dozen miles at low speed along edge of one of them.

TERRA NOVA IN PORT.

Christchurch, New Zealand, February 12. — (Special) — The Terra Nova, the vessel which took Captain Scott and his party to Antarctica, returned here today to fetch him back, but instead brought news of his and his companions' heroic death, arrived in this port this morning.

MANSION HOUSE FUND.

London, Feb. 12. — (Special) — The Lord Mayor of London has decided to open Mansion House fund for erection of a memorial to Captain Robert F. Scott and his companions who died in the Antarctic.

The duty of providing for the dependent relatives of the dead explorers, he considers should be undertaken by the state.

SURVIVORS IN GOOD HEALTH

London, Feb. 12. — In a despatch to the Central News Lieut. Evans of the Scott expedition says:

"All the surviving members of the expedition are in excellent health. After a month in New Zealand for refitting the Terra Nova will proceed to Cardiff, Lieutenant Pennell (commanding), Lieutenant Pennell, Surgeon Levick and the Biologists Nelson and Little returning in the ship."

"Commander Evans, Lieut. Campbell, Lieut. Bruce, Surgeon Atkinson, Secretary Drake and Messrs. Wright, Priestley, Debenham, Cherry, Gardner and Gran will return by mail steamer."

SHOCK TO NEW ZEALAND PEOPLE.

Wellington, N. Z., February 12. — The news of the death of Captain Scott and his comrades has come as a great shock to the people of New Zealand, who were eagerly awaiting the return of the explorer and his party.

If Mrs. Scott, now on her way from San Francisco to New Zealand, does not learn of Captain Scott's fate by wireless to the steamer Aorangi from San Francisco or Honolulu, a wireless message will be sent to her from New Zealand station. It is thought that on her arrival she will decide not to land but return immediately to England.

Mrs. Wilson wife of Dr. Edward A. Wilson, chief of the scientific staff of the Scott expedition, who met his death with Captain Scott, has been in New Zealand some time awaiting her husband's return.

Surgeon Atkinson, who was in charge of the expedition which found the bodies of Scott and his companions, feels the loss of his chief and comrade intensely.

NO SURRENDER OATES.

London, February 12. — "In all the pages of history which brighten the history of England none is finer than the tale of the death of Lawrence Edward Oates," are words of which one paper refers to that gallant officer's efforts to save his companions by not remaining to hamper their progress, March 17, on which date Oates lay dying in a tent while the blizzard raged outside, was his thirty-second birthday.

Joining the Inniskilling Dragoons in 1900 he was sent to South Africa the following year. He was in charge of a patrol in an attack on the Boers in a river bed. His patrol made a gallant fight and as each man finished his ammunition Lieut. Oates, as he was then, ordered him to crawl away, till at the end of four hours' fighting he was left alone.

Twice during the engagement the Boer commander sent a white flag demanding the surrender of the little force, but Oates each time sent back a reply he was there to fight, not to surrender.

Eventually the Boers retired, but with one of the last shots fired Oates was wounded in the thigh, the bone being broken. His bravery caused him to be mentioned in despatches. He was known in the army as "No Surrender Oates."

AMENDMENT TO NAVAL BILL

Attitude of Labour Towards Militarism Set Up by Mr. Verville

SUB-AMENDMENT WILL HAVE THE EFFECT OF PROLONGING THE DEBATE.

Ottawa, February 12. — The amendment of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the Naval Bill received an addition last night, when Mr. Alphonse Verville, member for Maisonneuve, moved a further amendment, the effect of which is that the consent of Parliament should not be given to the resolution until it shall have been submitted to and received the approval of the member for Maisonneuve. He took what is the labor attitude towards militarism. He recalled the fact that the great labor organizations in Europe have declared their intention, if they think fit, of refusing to participate in any war.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL NOT INTERFERE

United States is Free to Pursue Its Own Course in Mexico

STATEMENT MADE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BY SIR E. GREY.

London, Feb. 12. — The British Government was invited in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon by W. Mitchell-Thomson, member from North Down, to urge upon the Government of the United States the desirability of taking such action as would conduce to the early restoration of order in Mexico. Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said in reply that it would be entirely contrary to international practice to approach the United States Government in the manner suggested. He added that the action of the British Government had been confined to requesting the Mexican Government to protect British interests known to be endangered.

FIGHT IN MEXICO CITY

Lasted Seven Hours and Hundreds Were Slain on Streets

ARTILLERY PLAYED THE CHIEF PART IN THE DAY'S FIGHTING.

Mexico City, Feb. 12. — The Federals and rebels fought a seven-hour drawn battle in the heart of the city yesterday. When darkness put an end to the fighting neither side appeared to have gained any marked advantage.

Estimates of the casualties run as high as one thousand, although accurate information cannot be obtained at this time. The dead certainly will be counted by the hundreds.

Foreign residents for the most part kept under cover, but three Americans are known to have suffered injuries from stray bullets.

Artillery played the chief part in the day's fighting, but rifle fire was kept up continuously, though more or less ineffectively. President Madero and his ministers expressed satisfaction last night with the day's work and ventured the opinion that to-day would see the overpowering of the enemy.

General Felix Diaz, in his arsenal stronghold, appeared as defiant as at any time since he was released from prison by the mutinous soldiers, and promises a repetition to-day of the terrific bombardment, the fierceness of which is attested by the many partially destroyed structures within a radius of half a mile.

N. LASNIER GUILTY OF MANY CHARGES

Term of Court at Sweetsburg Devoted to Hearing Cases Against Accused

PRISONER SEEMED TO HAVE A MANIA FOR GETTING AWAY WITH FEED AND PRO-VENDER.

Sweetsburg, Feb. 12. — (Special) — A special term of the Magistrate's Court was held here by Judge Mulvena. Alfred Racicot, of Farnham, was brought before the court on the charge of stealing $15 from the safe of his employer. After hearing the evidence the court committed the accused to take his trial at the next term of the Court of King's Bench. The accused subsequently asked for a speedy trial and pleaded guilty. In view of the fact that the money stolen had been returned to the owner by the accused immediately after his arrest, the accused was let go with a sentence of thirty days at hard labor in the common jail.

STOLE OATS FROM CAR.

A preliminary hearing was held in the case of P. C. Demers vs. Ulric Lasnier on the charge of breaking the seal of a car loaded with grain and stealing therefrom 12 bags of oats. After hearing the evidence, which was somewhat lengthy, the accused was committed for trial.

GUILTY OF STEALING CORN.

The case of the King vs. Ulric Lasnier, who had previously been committed for trial on a charge of breaking into the grist mill of D. Berthelme at Farnham and stealing therefrom a quantity of corn and provender, was proceeded with. The defendant asked for a speedy trial and pleaded not guilty. The evidence consisted principally of that of Stanislas Cadieux, who was with the accused at the time, and to whose place the stolen goods had been hauled, and of admissions made by the accused to the complainant after his arrest, and of admissions made to the high constable and to fellow prisoners in jail. A great number of objections were raised as to the admissibility of the evidence of an accomplice and the value of admissions. The defendant was finally found guilty and remanded to jail until the 24th of February for sentence at the request of his counsel.

GUILTY OF MANY CHARGES

The case of the King vs. Ulric Lasnier for stealing a pair of boots in December last from one Chouinard, a farmer living about five miles from the accused, and also the case of the King vs. Lasnier for having stolen a quantity of clothes from a clothes line belonging to a Mrs. Bachand and Lamarche, of Farnham, in January last, also the case of the King vs. Lasnier for having stolen about two years ago a violin belonging to Mme St. Pierre, of Farnham, which was found in his possession after his arrest, and absolutely identified by the complainant and his brother; also in the case of the King vs. Lasnier on a charge of having stolen an overcoat in December, 1910, belonging to Eugene Durivage, of Farnham, to all of which charges the defendant pleaded not guilty, were heard, and some what similar evidence as in the former case produced, and the same objections raised. The defendant was found guilty in each charge and was

TURKEY TO SUE FOR PEACE

Ambassador of Porte Has Interviews With British Foreign Secretary

FRENCH GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT OPEN MARKET FOR TURKISH LOAN.

London, Feb. 12. — It is becoming increasingly evident that Turkey is taking steps to resume the peace negotiations, although it is possible that no direct action will be taken until some decisive result in the fighting in the Gallipoli peninsula has been achieved.

It is understood that Tewfik Pasha the Turkish ambassador, has had several interviews with the British Foreign Secretary recently, and that Rehad Pasha, head of the first peace delegation, has been ordered to remain in London. Haki Pasha will consult with Salma Pasha and Count Von Berchthold, the Austrian foreign minister, at Vienna, before coming to London.

TURKS MASSACRE CHRISTIANS.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 12. — (Special) — It is reported here this morning, that Turkish troops inclosed whole male Christian population of Buyuk Chekmedje in a school house there, and then massacred them. Subsequently, they killed all the Christian women and children, with the exception of young girls whom they carried off on board ship.

TURKS MASSACRE CHRISTIANS.

There was no fighting yesterday either in Gallipoli Peninsula, or at Tchatalja lines. The bombardment of Adrianople, however, continues. BULGARIANS HAD TO RETIRE. London, Feb. 12. — (Special) — The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily News asserts that Enver Bey made a successful landing at Charkeui compelling the Bulgarians, who opposed him, to retire. He intends to cross the Rhodope Mountains and attack the Bulgarians in the rear at Kavak. Another body of Turks, according to the same correspondent, landed at Silivri under cover of fire of warships.

Bulgarians entrenched near the shore inflicted heavy losses on the Turks but were eventually driven to the interior by guns of the ships.

ANOTHER EFFORT ON THE PART OF THE PORTE TO RAISE A SMALL LOAN IN PARIS.

Has failed, owing to the refusal of the French Government to open the Paris market. Official accounts of the fighting issued at Sofia and Constantinople, are very conflicting, but it seems to be certain that the Turkish arms have again met serious reverses, although Adrianople and Scutari are still holding out.

ALMOST SUFFOCATED

Two Children Taken From A Burning House at Kingsey

WOULD HAVE LOST THEIR LIVES BUT FOR ACTION OF A NEIGHBOR.

Kingsey, Feb. 12. — (Special) — The dwelling house belonging to Mr. T. Rivard was completely destroyed by fire last evening, and two young children narrowly escaped being suffocated to death.

The parents were away at the time and the only occupants were the children. A nearby neighbor saw the fire and on rushing into the house found the children, who were then about being overcome by the smoke. The household furniture was burned, and in addition Mr. Rivard lost $50, which he had in the house. The origin of the fire is unknown.

STOVE WAS DEMOLISHED.

Granby, Feb. 12. — (Special) — The water pipes connected with the stove in the house occupied by Mr. Dorion were frozen yesterday morning. When the kitchen fire was started an explosion took place and the stove was completely demolished, besides other damage. Mr. Dorion's son had a narrow escape from serious injury.

BRITAIN GETS NEW GUN.

SCARED THE CITY EDITOR

Official Hangman Pays Early Morning Call at Record Office

NOT ON "OFFICIAL" BUSINESS, HOWEVER—DISCUSSES QUESTION OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

An early morning visitor at the Record office this morning was Mr. Arthur Ellis, Canada's official executioner. On entering he introduced himself as such and asked for the city editor, with his brain in a whirl, trying to recollect whether the Canadian libel law against newspapers provided capital punishment as a preventative, the city editor went to meet his caller, and placing the counter between himself and Mr. Ellis, tried to assume a "sang froid" air and stammeringly wished the executioner a good morning.

"I have come in to thank you for that article you wrote about me when I was here before," said Mr. Ellis. The scribe's knees trembled, for he had heard people refer to previous articles with the same irony. The situation was too tense and the city editor was on the verge of beating a hasty exit through the rear door when the hangman again spoke. "I am very glad to hear that Raffaello's sentence has been commuted, and I am sure he is glad, too," said he. "I was away out at New Westminster, where I hanged a man named Smith, who murdered a guard. It took me just forty seconds to do the job."

Taking courage at the changed tone of the conversation, the newspaper man made use of his privilege of asking questions. As a starter he said: "Don't you think it would be more human to electrocute a man than to hang him?" "I certainly do not," said Mr. Ellis, "and if you knew anything about the two forms of capital punishment you would not think so either. Why, the man dies as he is being strapped to the electric chair. It takes too long. Hanging is the most humane form of capital punishment. Why, it only took forty seconds for Smith, the New Westminster, to die, after he mounted the scaffold."

"Don't you think capital punishment should be abolished?" said the newspaper man. "Most assuredly not," was the quick reply. In Canada we should go further and adopt the laws of Australia. In that country robbery, by use of fire arms, is punishable by death, as are also one or two other crimes outside of murder. The result is that the criminal laws of Australia are far better observed than those of Canada."

LEAVES FOR THE WEST AT ONCE.

Mr. Ellis leaves immediately for the West, where he will hang a Po-lack named Damsky, a murderer. He has just returned from the West and did not know until his arrival here that Raffaello's life had been spared. Commenting on the commutation of the sentence he said: "I am sure the Cabinet knew what they were doing and it is not the place of us public men to criticize."

COATICOOK AFTER MONEY FOR ROADS

Would Like to Get Share of Grant Offered by Government

BOARD OF TRADE WILL MEET TO NIGHT WHEN ANNUAL REPORTS WILL BE SUBMITTED.

Coaticook, Feb. 12. — (Special) — Coaticook has not yet given up getting some of that two million dollars which the Provincial Government is going to borrow for good roads. The general policy of the Government is to spend the money in the rural parts, but there is a provision under which villages and towns may get help for roads passing through the place from one town to another. Coaticook has two such thoroughfares and negotiations were begun some time ago to secure aid for macadamizing them. The aid has not been forthcoming and now Ald. Baldwin has been appointed by the Council to further the prospect.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING TO-NIGHT.

The Coaticook Board of Trade meets this (Wednesday) evening. It will be an important meeting as reports of the year's work will be handed in by the various committees. The election of officers for the ensuing year will also take place. This Board has justified its existence for it has executed more than in form only. The officers are hoping to see a large attendance of members this evening.

PROPOSED SCHOOL MUNICIPALITY OF GORE.

Kirkdale, Feb. 12. — (Special) — The proposed school municipality of Gore which is expected by the promoters will be formed by the authority of the Lieutenant-Governor shortly, will consist of the Dustin Hill and Stone school house districts and a portion of the Fontenoy district, with a taxable property estimated at $32,000. The committee in charge of the circulation of the petition are Messrs. B. Husk, chairman, Bertland Stimpson, Wesley Lyster, D. M. Gee, Richard Woodburn and Jas. Newell. The petition calls for a Consolidated Model School at Gore, this place being considered more centrally located. This is the second petition circulated in favor of this scheme, the first one being dismissed owing to an error in the wording. The petition also calls for the setting over of certain property in the adjoining municipality of Ulverton to the one at Gore, owing to the geographical conditions. Gore, although situated at one end and one side of the proposed municipality, is owing to the roads converging together at that point, the only convenient place at which to build a consolidated school. The promoters are very optimistic in their view of the outcome, for an efficient school of some sort they are determined to have.

To show their appreciation of the Library and Reading Room, and give it a helping hand, some of the old fellows who used to skate so long ago that they can hardly remember it, are going to borrow some skates and try the ice again. The ice is hard, however, and will stand the bumps.

CANTERBURY

A very pleasant surprise party was given to the Postmaster, James Groom, on Saturday evening, when a number of his neighbors, who have for the past 29 years received the mail at his office, gathered together for the purpose of showing their appreciation of the many kind services rendered them during his mail service (which is now to be supplied by Rural Delivery) by tendering him a surprise party at his residence and presenting him with a purse of money. Mr. Cecil Lefebvre on behalf of the people of whom about thirty were present, made the presentation and read several verses composed by one not able to be present.

Mr. Groom replied in a few well-chosen words and thanked them for the kind thought and the cordial feeling existing between himself and the people of Canterbury.

The evening was spent in card-playing and a social time. A dainty lunch was served, and a vote of thanks rendered Mrs. Groom, the most worthy Postmistress, all leaving at 12 o'clock after spending a most enjoyable evening.

SCOTSTOWN BOARD OF TRADE

Several More Business Men Have Been Added to Membership List

GUELPH PATENT CASK COMPANY MAY BUILD NEW RAILWAY TO END OF LIMITS.

Scotstown, Feb. 12. — (Special) — The regular monthly meeting of the Scotstown Board of Trade was held in the Scotstown Hotel. At this meeting several new members were taken in, showing that the interest in this association is still on the gain. The advertising committee was not able to report much progress yet as the Sherbrooke printers were very slow in getting out the printed matter. The committee was able to report, however, that nearly all the business men of the town had ordered some of the stationery that the board is getting out.

COMPANY WILL BUILD RAILWAY.

The Guelph Patent Cask Company still have in prospect the building of a railway which will run as far as the extremity of its lumber limits, passing through the townships of Hampden, Ditton and Emberton. Whether this road will be built next summer or not will not be decided upon until Manager Gifford gets back from England, where he has gone to attend a meeting of his company.

WILL DRAW UP WATER BY-LAW.

The water committee expects to meet in the near future for the purpose of forming a water by-law. CANNOT GET WATER REGULARLY.

Some of the people living in the higher sections of the town are complaining that they do not get the water regularly.

SHOULD PURCHASE ROAD MACHINERY.

At the last meeting of the town council there was brought up the matter of buying the machinery necessary for the work of macadamizing roads. It was thought quite important that this machinery be ordered early so that it could be delivered in season to begin working on the roads next summer. No decision was taken in the matter, however.

NOT SATISFIED WITH SPECIFICATIONS.

The specifications sent by the Government, which have been under consideration by the town council, do not suit the conditions, and therefore are not approved by the councilors. The matter has been put into the hands of Mr. N. G. Beott, M.L.A., for adjustment.

NOTES.

Arrivals and departures include: Mr. G. W. Ross from Montreal; Mr. J. H. Roberge from Chesham; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laborne from Labonville; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gifford to England for two months.

The Ladies' Improvement Society are to have another entertainment in the beginning of next month, the proceeds of which are for the improvement of the town park.

A carnival at the Scotstown Skating Rink is an event to be looked for in the near future.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Starr will be glad to know that she is gradually improving in health.

Any items of news for the Record will be thankfully received by Mr. Samuel Boy, also subscriptions and advertisements.

HOLY LAND BACKWARD UNDER TURKISH RULE

A British newspaper writer once wished to get some postcards at Jerusalem, and applied to the "post office." "Please give me ten postcards," he asked.

The Turkish official looked for a moment in surprise, and then replied: "But, honored sir, why should you carry on your correspondence with cards? You can write at greater length in a letter; and, besides, every one can read what you say on a postcard."

"I have very little to say, and they suit me better. Kindly give me ten."

"But, dear worthy sir, you are not of those poor people who have to use postcards; rather write a fine long letter."

As the correspondent still insisted on having them, the post office murmured, "Honored sir, I would willingly give you them, but I cannot."

"But why cannot you sell postcards?"

"Because I have none. I have had none since the week before last. If you really must have some, you will be obliged to go to Joppa for them."

This being a journey of some seventy miles, the visitor naturally had no wish to go and fetch them.

On another occasion, the same visitor, being in Damascus, went to the post-office to ask for his letters, and the postmaster remonstrated: "But, respected sir, you got some letters only last week, and now you are already asking for more!"

THE BUILDING OF ROME.

It's a safe ten to one bet that the young man who uses PARISIAN Sage as an occasional hair dressing will never grow bald.

There's a reason, of course, and it's a very good and sufficient one. Dandruff germs cause falling hair and falling hair means thinner hair and in due time baldness.

PARISIAN Sage prevents baldness by destroying the cause of baldness—the little persistent, voracious dandruff germ.

If you have dandruff or itching scalp it means that dandruff germs are sapping the vitality from the roots of your hair. Get rid of all hair troubles by using PARISIAN Sage.

It is not a dye, mind you, neither does it contain poisonous sugar of lead or even sulphur. It is a scientific preparation that abolishes dandruff, stops falling hair and scalp itch, and makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant.

Many young women as well as men are growing bald and for the same reason.

Use delightful, refreshing PARISIAN Sage; it nourishes the hair roots, if the roots are not dead, and brings to every user a head of glorious hair—radiant and fascinating. Large bottle for 50 cents at drug stores and toilet counters. See that you get PARISIAN Sage.

F. T. Ansell guarantees it.

When your order comes from the grocer's see that he has sent you WINDSOR TABLE SALT. Why should you bother with salt that "cakes" or is a rock, when you can get WINDSOR SALT?

Windsor Salt is all salt—absolutely pure clean crystal—and every grain a perfect crystal. It costs no more.

Hiar Fading, Turning Gray, Falling?

Apply a Little Sage Tea and Sulphur

It's Grandmother's Recipe for Dandruff and Restoring Color to Hair.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents.

Some druggists make their own, but it's usually too sticky, so insist upon getting "Wyeth's," which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is the best remedy for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and to stop falling hair.

Folks like "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because no one can positively tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly, says a well-known downtown druggist. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with a little of the mixture, by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two is restored to its natural color and looks even more beautiful and glossy than ever. Dr. Arnold Lorand

Physician to the Baths, Carlsbad, Austria.

In his recently published book, "Health Through Rational Diet," from the press of the F. A. Davis Co., Philadelphia, says:

As a breakfast food, another variety of the healthful cereals which is much used in America would be advantageous. Grape-Nuts, in which the flury substance has been dextrinized by long baking and thus rendered digestible and easy of assimilation, is eaten with cream and would be a useful addition to our usual breakfast.

The recommendation of this eminent European authority to the wealthiest health-seekers in the world (those who frequent the famous baths of Carlsbad) is especially interesting to Americans.

Grape-Nuts

FOOD

is sold by grocers almost everywhere in America for 15c the pkg.

While Grape-Nuts may be a "health luxury" in Europe, this sturdy health-giving food is within the reach of practically every American at trifling cost.

In thousands of families Grape-Nuts and cream is the regular breakfast dish of wide-awake, go-ahead people.

Rich in the brain-making, body-building elements of prime wheat and malted barley, this food has won for itself at home and abroad the title of "The King of Breakfast Foods."

Cocoa beans come from nearly every tropical country.

The prices for these beans, as cocoa manufacturers buy them, range from 7c to 30c a pound.

Some of these beans are bitter. Some have a mild flavor. Others have a stronger richness. And there are endless variations.

No one kind of cocoa beans can give the best cocoa flavor. They should be blended.

The choicest, finest-flavored cocoa beans from several countries are used in the Lowney blend.

And m-m-m! How good it tastes!

The rich, full flavor of Lowney's is simply delicious. And coming newly tinned from our Montreal factory it is always fresh.

Sold by grocers. In tins—10c to 50c sizes.

Order a tin to-day.

One may move nearer the light, or bring the light nearer to them, they may twist and turn the book or paper, yet, if the eyes need Glasses they must have them, otherwise, there is the inevitable eye strain, followed by headaches.

Why not avoid all this discomfort by coming to us?

The first social function given in the new Wesley Hall of the Methodist Church was the very largely attended tea of yesterday, which was an unqualified success. The hostesses were the officers of the Ladies Aid Society, Mrs. George Armitage, Mrs. J. Wesley McKee, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Geo. I. Hume, Mrs. J. A. Tate and Mrs. Robert Bradley. The tea tables were arranged in the large main hall, and were filled during the entire afternoon. Many guests from the other congregations of the city being present. The tea table was decorated with yellow daffodils, and tea was poured by Mrs. Farmer, assisted by Misses Alice Armitage, Pauline Bradley, Marion Webster (Montreal) Florence Hyndman, Mabel Tate, and Florence Purdy. Many expressions of admiration were heard for the new hall, which indeed merits all that can be said of it, for it is one of the best equipped, and most up-to-date buildings of the kind in the Province, if not in Canada, and is perfectly adapted for a graded Sunday School.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

To be Held in Sherbrooke Thursday and Friday of This Week

NOTED SPEAKERS WILL TAKE PART.

For some weeks past the pastors and Sunday School workers of the city have been planning for the S. S. Convention, which is to be held in the new Sunday School hall of the Methodist Church, Court street, on Thursday and Friday of this week, February 13th and 14th. It is expected that this convention will be one of the best ever held in the city.

The speakers are men of considerable experience in Sunday School work and, therefore, quite competent to deal with their subjects. The Rev. W. A. Brown, of Chicago, is an International S. S. worker, and the Rev. E. M. Fuller, of Montreal, was, until quite recently, the general secretary of the Sunday School Union of the State of Vermont. For many years Judge Lett, of Montreal, has taken an active interest in S. S. work, and his presence at the convention will be much appreciated.

The following is the programme for Thursday:

2.30—Service of prayer and praise, conducted by Rev. W. T. G. Brown, B.A., B.D.

3.00—Organization, appointment of secretary, committees, etc.

3.30—Address, Rev. E. M. Fuller—The home department in relation to the school and the church.

4.15—Paper, Miss Agnes R. Edwards—The cradle roll as a help to the Sunday School and church.

4.45—Question box, conducted by Rev. E. M. Fuller.

8.00 p.m.—Address, Rev. E. M. Fuller.

Address, Rev. W. T. Halpenny—The relation of the Sunday School to the church.

The general public, as well as all S. S. workers, will be made welcome at these sessions.

of the Church by Mgr. H. O. Chailoux, Vicar-General, and the requiem mass was sung by the Rev. Abbe Turcotte, vicar of St. Michael's.

The mournful music furnished by the choir, the sombre drapery, and the faint light of many candles on the altar, and about the catafalque, made the obsequies most solemn and impressive.

The funeral director was Mr. L. H. Olivier, and the pall bearers were Messrs L. H. Guay, G. B. Robitaille, F. R. Darche, G. A. Darche, Alfred Gadois and A. Chevalier. The bearers were: Messrs Jos. Masse, C. O. Morrisette, J. Langis, T. Pelanger, A. C. Morrisette, and C. Prunier.

The remains were taken to St. Michael's Cemetery, and deposited in the receiving vault. Many offerings of masses, and spiritual bouquets testified to the regard of friends, and relatives.

The late Michel Leblanc was born in St. Jude, St. Hyacinthe, 79 years ago, and there spent the greater part of his life. Since retiring from active business he had made his home with his son, Mr. J. A. Leblanc, K. C., King Street, the death of his wife occurring some time ago. Deceased had been ill since the first of January, and passed away after a trying illness, borne with Christian patience and resignation.

He is survived by his son, mentioned above, a son in Paris, France, Mr. Charles Leblanc, and one daughter, Mrs. Francois Lessard of Woonsocket, R. I.

Shortly after he received the following answer from Barrie:

"Many thanks for timely warning."

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

COUNTRY PRODUCE

EGG MARKET FIRM.
Montreal, Feb. 12.—Receipts of eggs were 235 cases, as compared with 79 for the corresponding date last year. The tone of the market remains firm under a good demand for small lots, and a fairly active business is doing. We quote prices as follows: New laid eggs, 35c. to 37c.; selected stock in single cases, 23c. to 25c.; No. 1 cold storage stock, single cases, 21c. to 22c.; second grade, single cases, 15c. to 16c.

DRESSED POULTRY UNCHANGED.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—The condition of the market for dressed poultry was unchanged, prices being fully maintained under a steady demand for small lots, and the limited supplies coming forward. We quote prices in wholesale lots as follows: Turkeys, per lb., 21c. to 22c.; ducks, per lb., 14c. to 17c.; chickens, per lb., 14c. to 17c.; fowls, per lb., 11c. to 13c.; geese, per lb., 13c. to 14c.

HONEY MARKET STEADY.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—There was no change in honey prices being steady, but the demand is rather quiet, and the volume of business doing is small. Clover, white honey, 16c. to 17c.; dark grades, 14c. to 15c.; white extracted, 11c. to 12c.; buckwheat honey, 8c. to 9c.

POTATO MARKET QUIET.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—The market for potatoes is rather quiet, the demand being principally for small lots, as buyers in most cases have still ample stocks on hand and until such are worked off little activity is anticipated. We quote: Green Mountains, in car lots, at 70c. to 75c., and Quebec grades at 65c. to 70c. per bag, and in a jobbing way at 90c. to $1 per bag.

DAIRY PRODUCE

BUTTER MARKET IS QUIET.
Montreal, Feb. 12.—Receipts of butter yesterday were 95 packages, as compared with 43 for the corresponding date last year. A steady feeling prevails in the market, but the demand from all sources for round lots is limited, and the market in this respect is quiet, but a fair trade is passing in a jobbing way. We quote as follows: Finest creamery, 28c. to 29c.; fine creamery, 27c. to 28c.; fresh made creamery, 24c. to 26c.; dairy butter, 23c. to 24c.

is limited, and the market in this respect is quiet, but a fair trade is passing in a jobbing way. We quote as follows: Finest creamery, 28c. to 29c.; fine creamery, 27c. to 28c.; fresh made creamery, 24c. to 26c.; dairy butter, 23c. to 24c.

CHEESE MARKET STEADY.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—Receipts of cheese were 16 boxes as against 82 for the same date a year ago. There was no improvement in the demand from over the cable, but all mail and cable advices coming to hand report a much firmer feeling in the English markets with more business doing. We quote first September colored at 13c., white at 12c., and October at 12c. to 12 1/2c.

PROVISION MARKET

PRICE OF HOGS ADVANCE.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—A feature of the provision trade continues to be the strong undertone to the market for live hogs and prices have scored a further advance of 15c. per 100 lbs. owing to the keen demand from packers for supplies, and sales of selected lots were made at $9.40 to $9.85 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars. Receipts are smaller and as the consumption is steadily increasing on account of the much colder weather the prospects are that prices will go still higher in the near future. In sympathy with the above a stronger feeling also developed in the market for dressed stock and packers marked up prices 25c. per 100 lbs. The demand was good and sales of abattoir fresh-killed were made at $13.25 to $13.50, country-dressed light weights at $12.75 to $13, and heavy at $12 to $12.50 per 100 pounds.

TRAINING GERMANS

In keeping with the German Government's idea of making the empire one vast training school for the development of the best there is in the youth of the country for national commercial success, regular business school courses are being organized in the German army, so that the recruit during his term of military service will be fitting himself for the business life he will have to enter on quitting the colors.

The hundreds of thousands of children are not permitted to pass through the public schools and to drift through life as unskilled laborers. Each one, as far as the Government can order it so, is turned out skilled in some occupation.

One of the most powerfully educative forces in the empire is the continuation school originally intended to maintain some kind of discipline over youths from 14 to 18 years of age prior to their enlistment in the army. Of late years these continuation schools have been changed into vocational schools.

Twice every year great flaming posters call the youth of the land to obligatory attendance at the trade and commercial schools. These posters enumerate more than 100 trade or vocations and each youth is summoned to appear at the school devoted to his particular calling.

Deserted Township

An unusual memorial was unveiled in the desolate district on the borders of Cathnes and Sutherland to the former residents of Badbea, on the Duke of Portland's Langwell estate. Badbea was at one time a township of some dozen houses, with a population of 100 people, but lately the last of these left the district, which is now totally uninhabited. The memorial is a substantial cairn of masonry, built up from the stones of the former crofters' houses. It was presented by Mr. David Sutherland, Warappa, New Zealand, the son of a former resident.

Savings of a Lifetime Stolen

A cruel robbery of $2,375 was perpetrated at Carmarthen, Wales. The victims were Mr. James Hooper and his invalid sister, who have lived for many years in Davies Yard. Mr. Hooper, who is the local market toll collector, kept his lifelong savings in an upper room. They were taken, but when or by whom is not known.

CALLED TO ARMS IN DEAD OF NIGHT

Wide Awake French Policeman in Little Village Almost Started a European War

If Brigadier Blion had won back Alsace and Lorraine he could not have placed himself more squarely in the public eye than he did on account of his hurried mobilization of the French troops. This act nearly precipitated a full-fledged European war and sent the Bourses down ten points.

And yet the much-talked-of Brigadier is but an ordinary country policeman who is sergeant of the police of Arricourt, in the district of Luneville, which is situated in that part of the lost Province of Lorraine still belonging to France. Arricourt is only a small town of a few hundred inhabitants. Active, athletic, alert, Blion owes his temporary fame to the error of a telegraph operator. The War Department sent out telegrams to different centres ordering the troops to go through the exercises of mobilization. These are, of course, as different from actual mobilization as military manoeuvres are from real war. But as the air was filled with war and rumors of war, M. Dehaut, the operator who received the telegraph at Arricourt, easily concluded that the telegram was an order for actual mobilization. He lost no time in communicating a very formal order to Brigadier Blion, with the result that the latter became the most famous man in France.

He Moved Quickly

Brigadier Blion did not stop to reason whether or not some one had blundered. Although it was half-past twelve at night when the order to mobilize reached him he immediately sent notice to the ten little communes under his jurisdiction. Drums began to beat and bands began to play. Women and children got out of bed to help their husbands, fathers, brothers, and sweethearts to get ready to go to the front. The order of Brigadier Blion was being executed to the very letter and within a few hours the men were all on their way to join their respective garrisons.

The garrisons at Luneville, Saint Nicholas, Nancy, and Toul could scarcely believe their eyes when they saw men arriving on bicycles, in wagons, and on foot during the small hours of the morning. Brigadier Blion was questioned by the officers but there was the order clear and unmistakable and he was bound to obey it.

But a counter-order came. Then Brigadier Blion was similarly prompt. He hastened to stop all he could. The original order had been so promptly obeyed, to the great delight of the police officer, that there were not many to be turned back. Of course, there was much emotion caused by the mistake. But it soon disappeared in view of the rapid response of the Lorraine population to the call of the country.

What Error Showed

French military men say that the error was a happy one, for it proved that the spirit of the people is strong and that patriotism is on the quiver in France. It is claimed that the promptness shown by the people of this remote corner of Lorraine would likewise be visible all over France, should occasion require.

Another curious effect of Brigadier Blion's promptness was that in the neighboring German villages there was a run on the local banks. The peasants rushed to get their money to hide it away. It is stated that in the industrial locality of Warmsdorf in Germany the brigadier's order caused a loss of two million marks.

SO GENEROUS OF HIM.

"So poor old Jobson has failed. Too bad! He promised me something yesterday but now in his trouble I won't hold him to it."

"That's very generous of you. What was it?"

"His daughter's hand in marriage."

TORPEDOES ADD TO WAR'S HORRORS

Latest Pattern Bore Their Way Into Ship's Vitals Before Letting Loose Destruction

There was a time in the history of naval warfare when under water attack was frowned upon as not being quite in accordance with the ethics of the day. The contrary is true now. The torpedo and the submarine mine are very much in evidence in every scheme of marine attack and defence today.

It was only a few years ago that the automobile torpedo had an effective range of a trifle more than a thousand yards, and even at that distance its accuracy of travel was an uncertain quantity. Sometimes it went straight to its target, at other times it swept far off to either side, and once in a while it described a wide loop and came rushing back upon the vessel that launched it.

Admittedly destructive as its war-head charge of gun cotton was, still these erratic performances caused grave misgivings. But the torpedo enthusiast was full of faith in his chosen weapon. The principal weakness was the steering apparatus which guided the torpedo after it had left the launching tube. In the last two or three years a good deal has been heard about gyroscopes—technical developments of the tops of our childhood. A type of gyroscope is now available which is strong enough in its corrective powers to control the travel of a torpedo for several miles.

After Longer Range.

But the capacity of the gyroscope outlasted or exceeded the running endurance of the torpedo's reserve of propulsive air. Here was an obstacle that dashed cold water upon the hopes of the torpedo man, but the chilling reaction in the shape of a brilliant inspiration.

Up to a point the metallurgists made it possible to fashion air tanks capable of holding air at a higher pressure; in other words, more air to supply the engines. But this did not add more than five or eight hundred yards to the effective range of the torpedo. This was no answer to the reach and accuracy of the rapid-fire gun.

Air when heated expands, but compressed air when heated is pretty nearly a dangerous double of powder and a lighted match. Just the same, a torpedo engineer devised a way to apply flame to the compressed air in the torpedo's tank, and he did this so cunningly that the rise of pressure above a certain point automatically checked the fuel of the flame and effectually prevented the explosion resulting from the bursting point. By expanding the air in this manner motive energy for far greater distances was generated, and this was done without increasing the size of the tank or the maximum practicable pressure of the confined air. It amounted substantially to giving the torpedo its second wind.

Turbine Power.

Compact and wonderful as the little reciprocating engine was that so long drove the automobile torpedo, it was only natural that the turbine should supplant it; and this is the motor now used in the latest of these weapons. The torpedo has grown from the 18-inch type of shorter length to the long 18-inch and 21-inch patterns of the present.

Likewise the charge of gun cotton carried in the wicked head of torpedoes has increased, reaching today in the biggest torpedoes a weight of more than 200 pounds. Battle ranges have gone from 4,000 to 6,000 yards and an effective range of quite 8,000 yards has been promised.

All of these improvements have come to pass within the last few years and the torpedo has not only obliged the installing of bigger guns on battleships to stand off attack, but it has forced upon the naval constructor hull changes of a vital character below the waterline.

Fighting Same Battle.

The torpedo and the defence against it are fighting the same battle for years. The naval constructor has found ways of strengthening the underbody of big ships, so that the explosive gases of the torpedo's gun-cotton shall be sapped of their first violence by having guarded spaces of sufficient volume in which to expand. In this way the probable area of damage is restricted, the likelihood of a single torpedo's sinking a ship through flooding much reduced and the chance of reaching the very vitals of a craft made well-nigh impossible. And now the latest and most deadly torpedo carries a "gun" which is fired when the torpedo's nose hits an obstruction. The shell is discharged with tremendous velocity and can cut its way through a protecting net and burrow through several inches of armor plate before the explosion proper takes place. The ordinary torpedo explodes upon the instant of hitting the outer plating of a ship but the gun torpedo goes at its deadly work with almost sinister single-mindedness. When it has penetrated far enough the projectile bursts with all of its stored up violence.

NAVAL ENTHUSIASM

More Than Enough Australians Offering to Serve on Ships

No difficulty, except that brought about by the number of applicants in excess of the accommodation, was experienced by the Australian Naval authorities in their recruiting operations. It was found necessary to call a halt, as the cruiser Encounter and the training depot were provided with their full complement of recruits. The naval officers were pleased that their predictions that Australians would take to the sea as readily as the young men of Great Britain were fulfilled. For an examination of Naval College applicants there were 24 vacancies. Victoria alone, which was allotted 7 of them, produced 70 candidates, and it was stated by the naval authorities that they could obtain in that State sufficient boys of excellent type to fill a college roll.

KILLING CATTLE WITH AIR

Experiments With Pneumatic Poleaxe for Slaughtering Purposes

A poleaxe two and a half inches long, more efficient in cattle slaughtering than its primitive antecedent, is occupying the attention of London butchers, since a demonstration of humane methods of killing conducted at the Islington abattoirs under the auspices of the Council of Justice to Animals.

The weapon employed was the council's "air-killer." In appearance it looks like a large sky rocket; the rocket end is a chamber charged with compressed air, the stick an elongated valve terminating in a poleaxe only some two and a half inches long. On the pressure of a trigger the poleaxe is liberated against the head of the animal, the skull of which it penetrates without difficulty. The animal falls instantly, showing hardly a trace of the hole thus pierced.

The "air-killer" was used upon sheep, calves, and bullocks, all of which were, with one exception, killed expeditiously. It was clear that the efficacy of the instrument depended upon the operator's knowledge of the vital spot in an animal's skull. In the hand of an expert there should be no failures and the instrument costs but a trifle.

UNIQUE HONORS

King Nicolas of Montenegro shares with an illustrious Englishman—the Iron Duke—a distinction that has never fallen to the lot of any other foreigner—that of being made a field-marshal in the Russian army. The Czar conferred this honor on the occasion of his jubilee and the assumption of the kingly dignity a few years ago.

The daughters of King Nicholas are famous for their beauty and marriages. His two eldest daughters, Princess Melita and Princess Stana, married Russian grand dukes, while his third daughter, Princess Helena, is queen of Italy. It is said that a visitor once commiserated with his majesty on the fact that his beautiful country seemed to have no exports. "Sir," replied the king, "you forget my daughters."

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN ENDS INDIGESTION

Time It! No sour, gassy stomach or dyspepsia in five minutes.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you must not injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy, stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

To Grow Hair On A Bald Head

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 6 ounces; Lavender de Composee, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of To-Kalon Perfume, which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. The preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.

WHERE DOES THE DOCTOR LIVE?

The contract for the building has been awarded to The Geo. A. Fuller Co., Limited, of New York. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE MOFFATT BRIDGE CASE

Editor Record,
Sir:—I notice you reported some days ago what you call an important judgment being rendered in the Superior Court, which has been reproduced in some of the Montreal papers.
I think when reporting important judgments it would be well to report some of the important facts.
The plaintiffs, the Municipality of Lingwick, renewed in the summer of 1908, what was once a wooden bridge with concrete piers and a steel top. The said pier in question which went out was built on the bank of the river on gravel and boulders for a foundation, consequently exposed to the action of the frost and the washing of the current. This pier was 18 feet in length up and down the river and was some 30 inches in thickness on its base.

The expert evidence was unanimous in saying that it was only a question of time when this pier would undermine and fall.
A part of the Brompton Pulp & Paper Co.'s dam at Magill Lake gave away on April 8th, 1910 and let out an unusually large quantity of water but it was not higher than it had been shown to be in freshets of years gone by and not more than is liable to occur again, either by freshets or cloud burst, and the water did not come up within some 5½ feet of touching the bridge, the whole strain or wash being on the piers alone.

The total cost of the old bridge including the two piers one of which was undermined and tipped into the river, the other left standing and is now used for the new bridge is $460. The plaintiff in rebuilding the bridge built the new piers some five feet farther back into the bank and went down some five or six feet deeper for the foundation, built a pier 18 feet long and 6 feet wide or over, in width at its base, with a proper wing up river to protect it from flood and freshet, the total cost of the new bridge being about $978. The defendants pleaded that they were not responsible for the destruction of the bridge inasmuch as it was improperly constructed too far into the channel and on an insufficient foundation and in any case were not liable for the whole cost of the new bridge which had cost twice the amount of the one destroyed, but the learned Judge ruled otherwise and condemned the defendants to pay the cost of a new bridge less some few items of extras.
Yours truly,
F. N. McCREA.

Sherbrooke, Feb. 10, 1913.

THE OLD MAN'S HINT

Mother (at 11.30 p.m.)—What's the matter, John? You look disturbed.
Father—I thought I'd give that young man calling on our daughter a vigorous hint it was time to go, so I walked right into the parlor and deliberately turned out the gas.
Mother—Oh, my! And did he get angry?
Father—Angry? The young jackanapes said "Thank you."

Doctors Condemn Oily Liniments

Public Are Warned Against Strong-Smelling, Oily Liniments Containing Harmful Acids and Ammonia.

Many people have clung to the old-fashioned idea that a thick, greasy liniment is the best kind. Doctors say not—and they know.
Recently a number of these white, oily liniments were analyzed, and they were found to contain an enormously high percentage of harmful acids, and such irritating chemicals as ammonia, etc. For the moment they may cause a warm sensation when first applied but their continued use never cures rheumatism, and only deteriorates the skin, sets up inflammation and causes endless trouble.
When a doctor warns you to quit using a white, oily liniment—do so. He knows that a thick liniment can't penetrate, can't sink through the pores and reach the seat of the pain.
When asked his opinion a few days ago an important physician stated that he considered a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment, such as "Nerviline," to be superior to any of the white ammonia liniments. In his twenty-five years of practice he had witnessed cases of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago that simply would not respond to ordinary treatment—but Nerviline cured them. The same physician also spoke of the great advantages of keeping a preparation like Nerviline in the house, because of cramps, diarrhoea, stomach disorders, earache, toothache, headache and such minor ailments. Nerviline is a first-class cure. There is scarcely an ache or a pain, internal or external, that Nerviline won't cure. In thousands of homes no other pain-relieving medicine is used. Fifty years' continued success and the endorsement of the profession are proof that Nerviline is the liniment for the home.

WILL ERECT STATUE OF CAPT. SCOTT.

London, February 12.—Of the five explorers who perished, Captain Scott, Dr. Edward A. Wilson, and Petty Officer E. Evans were married.

Captain L. E. G. Oates and Lieutenant H. R. Bowers were single.

The merchants and ship owners of Cardiff, from which port the Polar ship Terra Nova sailed for the Antarctic, are arranging to erect a statue of Captain Scott.

GOING TO CHURCH IN FINLAND. Church-going in certain parts of Finland has to be done by boat, and has come to be regarded as quite a social function. The boats are of such a size that in many of them a hundred persons can be accommodated. Twenty or thirty sit at the oars together, and as it is considered the proper thing for everyone to serve his turn, this mutual self-help tends to make the worshippers better acquainted with each other and to strengthen the bonds of friendship. Some of the boats have a long distance to go to church, and in that event it is not unusual for the party to start on Saturday night. The peasants go down to the waterside in the evening to meet the boat, each carrying a little bundle containing his or her "Sunday best." Service lasts some hours and after it is ended the "Sunday best" is doffed, made up in little bundles again, and the church boat starts for home.

RIOTING IN TOKIO, JAPAN

People Incensed When Police Broke Up Two Political Meetings

MANY PEOPLE WERE INJURED WHEN POLICE CHARGED THE MOB WITH SABRES.

Tokio, Japan, Feb. 12.—(Special)—Count Gombei Yamamoto definitely accepted Japanese premiership, this morning, and immediately undertook duties of his office.

Rioting of an extremely violent nature occurred last night at Osaka resulting in several charges by the police with drawn sabres.

Many people were injured. The cause of the outbreak was the breaking up of two meetings by the police.

The gathering was attended by large holiday crowds who were celebrating the anniversary of Japanese constitution. They were greatly incensed at the action of the authorities and many of them proceeded to demolish or to attempt to set fire to offices of Bureaucratic papers.

Others paraded the streets of the city, attacking and destroying residences of Bureaucratic members of the Diet.

A large force of police reserves was called out and attacked the crowds, which offered fierce resistance.

Rioting continued until early hours of morning.

COUNCIL TRANSACTED LITTLE BUSINESS

Met Delegation From E.T.A.A.

QUESTION OF GRANT DISCUSSED—PROPOSED BUILDING BY-LAW.

LAW. Little business was publicly transacted at last night's session of the City Council. A delegation from the Eastern Townships Agricultural Association met the members of the Council, at an informal caucus, held before the regular meeting. The question of an increase in the annual grant was discussed at considerable length. Just what steps the Council will take in the matter are not known but the members of the delegation were well pleased at the reception accorded them, and feel that the Council will deal generously with them.

The delegation, which was headed by Mr. Jas. Mackinnon, President of the Association, was composed as follows: Wm. Morris, G. A. LeBaron, Dr. Ball, E. W. Farwell, Alex. Ames, H. E. Channell and others.

BUILDING BY-LAW. The Building By-Law was the only matter handled by the Council publicly last night. This By-Law has been prepared under the direction of Ald. Jencks and is an extensive document covering every imaginable feature.

Its most important provision is the appointment of a Building Inspector, whose duty it will be to inspect all buildings throughout the city, report on building permits, etc. The Council retains the power of granting or refusing all permits, according to the nature of the buildings proposed.

The By-Law was read for the second time and then referred to Mr. A. Sangster and the City Engineer, who will consult with local architects with a view to making all improvements possible.

PULP AND PAPER INDUSTRY IN QUEBEC

Policy of Quebec Government Will Not Be Changed Through Action of U.S.

HON. JULES ALLARD, ACTING PREMIER, MAKES A STATEMENT ON THE QUESTION.

Quebec, Feb. 12.—Hon. Jules Allard, Minister of Crown Lands, Province of Quebec, and acting Premier during the absence from Canada of Sir Lomer Gouin, spoken to regarding the decision of the United States to raise the U. S. customs barriers against Quebec province pulp and paper, said of course the U. S. Government could do as it saw fit, but the policy of the Quebec Government to encourage the pulp and paper industry in the province would be carried out despite the latest move of the American authorities.

Weary Tiredness Changed to Vigor

THAT PLAYED-OUT FEELING WAS QUICKLY REMEDIED AND HEALTH RESTORED.

Story of a Merchant Who Almost
Lost His Business and His Health
Through Neglecting Early Symptoms of Disease.

"My life for years has been of sedentary character," writes T. B. Titchfield, head of a well-known firm in Buckingham. "Nine hours every day I spent at office work and took exercise only on Sunday. I disregarded the symptoms of ill health, which were all too apparent to my family. I grew thin, then pale, and before long I was jaundiced—eyes and skin were yellow, my strength and nerve energy were lowered, and I was quite unfit for business. In the morning a lightness in the head, particularly when I bent over, made me very worried about my health. Most of the laxative medicines I found weakening, and knowing that I had to be at business every day I neglected myself rather than risk further weakness. Of course I grew worse, but by a happy chance I began to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I was forcibly struck by the fact that they neither caused griping nor nausea, and it seemed incredible that pills could tone, cleanse and regulate the system without causing any unpleasant after effects. Dr. Hamilton's Pills acted with me just as gentle as nature—they gave new life to my liver, strengthened my stomach, and won me back to perfect good health. My skin is clear, dizziness has disappeared, and my appetite, strength and spirits are perfect. Refuse anything offered you instead of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are sure to cure. Sold in 25c. boxes, five for $1.00, at all druggists and storekeepers, or postpaid from the Catarthozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

FARNHAM

REPORT BY PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF TRADE

Tells What Has Been Accomplished During
First Year's Work

MANUFACTURERS HAVE BEEN VERY BUSY DURING YEAR AND THERE HAS BEEN AN INCREASE ALL ROUND.

Farnham, Feb. 12. —(Special)—Mr. Robert C. Wilkins, President of the Farnham Board of Trade, has submitted the first annual report to the members of the Board. He gives a resume of the work done during the year as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to report that the town of Farnham has progressed in a very satisfactory manner during 1912 and that the first year's work of the Board of Trade justifies its organization.

Fire Engine: Our recommendation to the Town Council to purchase a fire engine was acted upon at once and since its installation no serious fires have occurred.

Postal Matters: A deputation waited upon the Honorable Postmaster General petitioning for a drop letter box service. These are now placed in town and proving a great convenience. The mail service has been greatly improved at the request, and letters going in all directions have much more expeditious delivery than formerly. The business of the Post Office has steadily increased from year to year.

Railways: The Central Vermont Revenue for 1910..... $3882.66
Revenue for 1911..... 4991.43
Revenue for 1912..... 4437.35
Increase over 1911..... 345.92

When we consider that this amount is made up of one cent and two cent items and that the revenue only represents the outgoing mail, the showing is quite satisfactory.

Sidewalks: Considerable cement sidewalks have been made much to the improvement of the town, and I would strongly urge the Town Council to take measures whereby all new sidewalks may be made uniform.

Building: Many new buildings have been erected all vastly superior to those destroyed by the big fire of 1911, and the new Town Hall and Fire Station fast nearing completion is a credit to the place. There is undoubtedly a shortage of dwellings evidenced by the fact that there is hardly a house to let in any part of the town. I am strongly of the opinion that money invested in new dwellings would bring profitable returns.

I would point out to the Town Council the desirability of an up-to-date building by-law.

Manufacturing: Our manufacturers have all been busy with large orders doing much overtime work, and all reporting an increase of wages paid varying from 10 p.c. to over 100 p.c. and all requiring more skilled help both male and female.

The recent sale of the large wood working plant by the Corporation to a well known Montreal Company, as well as many inquiries from other manufacturers argues well for the development of Farnham as a manufacturing centre.

Electric Light & Power: Eighty-four new subscribers use the electric light. New installations amount to over $5,000 and with our excellent street lighting, which is surpassed by no town of its size in the Province, the revenue is about $23,000 per annum. A little less than 250 horse power is sold to the manufacturers, leaving a good amount of power available to any new industry.

The power is continuous and well balanced and the manufacturers have never been without power for an hour during the year from any cause whatever.

Agriculture: The Dominion Government has established a tobacco demonstration farm here, which should prove of great advantage to the farmers in this vicinity. Macdonald College has opened here offices and reading rooms in charge of a lecturer and demonstrator who has done excellent work among the farmers.

Butter receipts on the Farnham Board show no marked increase, but prices have ruled from 1 cent to one and a half cent higher than 1911. All kinds of farm produce bring high prices and every industrious farmer should be making marked financial profit. I hope they will seriously consider the question of good roads in the near future.

Banking: Satisfactory increase is reported in the business of the bank and the generally healthy condition of affairs is shown by satisfactory collections and payments.

Telephone Service: The Bell Telephone Company have during 1912 extended their lines to Versailles and St. Brigid to Megantic and to Haseville and Stanbury and have taken over the line to St. Sabine. All these new lines radiate from Farnham. Subscribers have increased in 1912 by one hundred.

Express Service: The increased business, as well as representation from this Board, induced the Dominion Express Co. to put in Commission one of their latest express wagons, greatly facilitating delivery. The increased express business over 1910 is more than 100 p.c. and over 1911 nearly 50 p.c.

Railways: The Central Vermont Railway has made great improvements in the line, and through representations of this Board have moved their freight shed from its former undesirable position. They report the following:

Passenger Traffic Increase..... 5 p.c.
Freight Tonnage Outward In. 40 p.c.
Freight Tonnage Inward In. 20 p.c.

Canadian Pacific Railway: I consider one of the greatest assets of the British Empire, and to Farnham it is undoubtedly the greatest. The increased business done at this station is most encouraging and reflects moving the freight shed as proposed, the importance of Farnham as a railway centre.

They report the following:
Passenger Traffic Increase..... 5 p.c.
Outward Freight Increase..... 90 p.c.
Inward Freight Increase..... 50 p.c.
Telegraph Business Increase..... 25 p.c.
Local Freight in Cars 1912..... 446
Local Freight in Cars 1911..... 303

Increase in Cars..... 143
The number of cars handled in Farnham Yard:
1912..... 507,519
1911..... 469,176

Increase..... 38,343
The construction of the double track to Montreal has increased the number of men employed by 20 p.c. and the wages paid out by this station fall very little short of $500,000 per year.

The work of double tracking is expected to continue all next summer.

Eastern Townships Associated Boards of Trade: Our Board is affiliated with the Associated Boards and has attended nearly every meeting and much valuable work for the Eastern Townships has been accomplished.

Deputations have waited on both the Dominion and Provincial Governments and through our efforts special booklets have been printed and are now being distributed in the Old Country, and special lecturers have been provided to lecture during the winter to intending immigrants throughout the British Isles on the advantages of the Eastern Townships. Any farmers or manufacturers requiring help should apply to this Board. Through the efforts of the Farnham Board of Trade the E. T. Associated Boards, the Manufacturers Association and others, the Provincial Government has reduced the tax on incorporated Companies, giving a measure of relief to the majority of manufacturers in this Province.

A much improved mail service has been established by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. Many other matters have had our attention, all of which will be to the ultimate advantage of the Eastern Townships.

I would like to see every man in Farnham who takes an interest in the town join the Board of Trade and help us in our work. I would admonish every man to have faith in Farnham if you expect strangers to come here and put their capital in the town you must show them the example by investing your own money here. By so doing the future prosperity of Farnham will be assured. I desire to express my thanks to the members of the Board generally and to the officers and Council of the Board for the very loyal support given me during my term of office.

I feel my whole duty would not be done if I did not in a special manner thank our worthy Secretary, Mr. P. W. Jutras for his devotion to the work of the Board and also for providing us with comfortable quarters for our meetings.

DWELLING HOUSE SCORCHED

An alarm of fire was given about 11 a.m. for the house of Alderman A. Glasson. The brigade was soon on the spot and not much damage was done.

INJURED BY FALL OF TWELVE FEET

A foreman of bridges on the C.V.R. had a severe fall and injured his sides and chest. Dr. Slack, the company's surgeon, was called in, and the patient is doing as well as can be expected. A fall of about twelve feet naturally gives a severe shock.

BROMPTONVILLE VILLAGE COUNCIL

Question of Extending Street Railway to Come Up at Public Meeting

CONTRACT FOR LIGHTING VIL-LAGE DOES NOT EXPIRE UN-TIL JANUARY, 1916.

Bromptonville, Feb. 12. —(Special)—A special meeting of the Municipal Council was held yesterday. Mayor Allard presided, and all the Councilors were present. There was also a large number of ratepayers in attendance, as it was thought the street railway proposition would be discussed. It was intimated that Mr. Pilcher, Manager of the Sherbrooke Railway & Power Co., was ill, and that negotiations in connection with the proposal to extend the line from Sherbrooke to this place would have to be postponed.

It was decided to call a public meeting of the ratepayers to fully discuss the question.

Mayor Allard intimated that he had found on examining the records that the contract for lighting with the Brompton Pulp & Paper Co. did not expire until the 2nd of January 1916, instead of next July, as he had been informed.

A committee was appointed to examine and report as to whether the Pearl Shirt Waist Mfg. Company was living up to the agreement entered into with the Council, when the Company received a bonus of $8,000.

price of coal has been maintained in Farnham to an unbearable degree. Many citizens are looking for the return of Mr. Carrleson from Sweden in order that they may replenish their stock of peat, of which he has a very large supply.

PRICE OF EGGS REDUCED

The price of eggs, poultry, potatoes, are decreasing very rapidly to the great delight of the careful housekeeper.

NOTES

Mr. J. Starke who has been very ill is on the gain.

Mr. Way, C.P.R. local Superintendent, left Tuesday morning in his private car for St. Guilgum.

Major Hawley, one of the Fenian Raid veterans paid a visit to Farnham and called on Capt. Higgins and Dr. Slack and other old military officers. The Major was accompanied by Mr. Pierce of "The Record" and other friends and met with a very flattering reception.

The friends of Mayor D'Artois will be sorry to hear of the very prolonged illness of his eldest son, an employee of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, who has been very ill. A specialist was called from Montreal on Saturday evening and it is understood that he gave small hopes of recovery. Mr. D'Artois had many young personal friends, who live in hopes of his being able to rally. The Mayor has the sincere sympathy of all the citizens of Farnham.

NATURE STUDY IN RURAL SCHOOLS

More of it Would Tend to Keep the Boy on the Farm

MR. DOUGLAS WEIR DEALT WITH SUBJECT AT SCHOOL CON-VENTION AT GRANITE-
VILLE.

Smith's Mills, Feb. 12. —(Special)—The annual convention of the school teachers of Stanstead was held in the school house, Smith's Mills, Que., the meetings of both morning and afternoon sessions being largely attended. The morning session was devoted chiefly to business and routine, and the afternoon session to addresses by Principal Trueman of Stanstead College; Mr. Douglas Weir, B.S.A., M. Granville; Mr. Noble, of Smith's Mills. Inspector Hunter, of Coaticook, presided and opened the meeting by calling on all to rise and sing "O Canada." Mr. Noble was then introduced and gave an interesting account of his method of teaching Physical Geography, which commended itself to all.

Mr. Douglas Weir followed with an address of "Nature Study." Mr. Weir regretted that there were still so many parents and teachers who imagined the real consolation of education to be the familiar trio of R's, namely: Reading, 'Riting and 'Rithmetic. "They forget," said the speaker, "or never knew the pleasures that nature study gives to the child; they forget the value of its study as part of our general culture; and they forget or cannot appreciate its specific utility in the fuller understanding of all the natural sciences underlying the Industrial Arts, and in the understanding of that important modern science, Agriculture." Continuing Mr. Weir pointed out that the problem of improving the conditions of Agriculture in this province and of keeping the boys on the farm depending largely upon the solving of the nature studying idea in our rural schools.

Reference was made to the fact that the greatest writers and thinkers of the past as well as the present, were its keenest students and staunchest supporters; that even the civil engineer of to-day was adopting the arrangements of the supporting tissues of the grasses and allied plant forms in the framing of the modern skyscraper and bridge; that the whole range of study from kindergarten to college admitted of the introduction of nature study in one form or another, and that its adoption invariably invigorated and refreshed the heavier studies into which many of its problems may be introduced.

"It is neither necessary nor advisable," said Mr. Weir, "to burden the pupil's mind with botanic terms, or other scientific formulae, but simply to encourage him to observe, not merely to look or pass on, but to appreciate the truth and beauty of Mother Earth, and to express his observations in his own simple way."

Mr. Weir suggested that every pupil should be encouraged to keep a diary, or Nature Study Calendar, in which a daily record of the dates of interesting events occur, and that a larger calendar be kept in the school for composite record. Among the many events suggested for record

J. Rosenbloom AND CO.

The Store that Sets the Pace

were: The snow and rainfall; the beginning and ending of sleighing; the snow tracks of animals; the appearance of hibernating animals, e.g., woodchucks, chipmunk; the making of maple sugar; the leafing and flowering of trees and flowers; the return of our common birds; the dates of ploughing, sowing, haying, etc. The uses or harm of birds and insects; the study of our trees in winter, with a key to their identification by means of the buds; the fruits and seeds of trees and plants and how disseminated.

A discussion on Weeds and Weed-seeds then followed, during which Mr. Weir said: "It should be remembered that weeds are of foreign origin (not native plants), and have secured an uninvited entrance into our fields militating against useful plants, robbing the soil of nutriment and in other ways too well known, occasioning enormous waste and loss; that for every pound of increase in dry matter over three hundred pounds of water is transpired which, when we consider the astonishing prolificacy of weeds constitutes a serious waste in a dry summer."

Mr. Weir then briefly touched upon the question of School Grounds, and asked if it was thought possible that the girls and boys from the average school house with its ugly, treeless, vineless yards, and its unspeakable outbuildings could be expected to set a higher standard about the homes they will soon be making.

The remedy for this, said the speaker, is to stimulate the emulative spirit in the pupil; the application of practical menstration to the school yard in drawing up a planting place, and finally the judicious planting (as part of their Nature Study Work) of our hardy native home plants, such as the Virginia Creeper, wild grape, spiraea, asters, dogwoods, briars, etc. By stimulating the pupil in this way to appreciate and do outdoor things, his destructive impulses are soon checked and conditions vastly improved not only for himself but for posterity.

Principal Trueman followed Mr. Weir, the subject of his address being "Some Suggestions on the Teaching of Arithmetic." A hearty vote of thanks was then given the speakers.

You can't make clean bread unless you have clean flour

"ISN'T all flour clean?"
you ask. No, not all,
because not all wheat
is clean, nor all flour mills.

Wheat is dusty when the flour mills receive it. There are particles of sand in it, and also foreign seed matter. Not until all these impurities are completely removed is the wheat ready for milling.

Even then the most delicate task of the miller still remains—to remove the crease dirt. Embedded in each grain of wheat is a tiny deposit of dark mineral matter. It is called "crease dirt" and must be removed before the miller can make clean flour.

You can always depend on Rainbow Flour for extreme cleanliness. The care taken in its manufacture is almost mysterious. This carefulness begins with the farmer who raises the wheat and ends with the chemist who analyzes every lot of flour as it comes through to be sure of its purity.
