Despite Rain, Ormstown Show Is Successful Event

Entries in All Departments Larger Than For Some Years — Attendance Spoiled by Weather

The 1953 Ormstown Exhibition closed its three day and four night run on Saturday amid much success despite the rain which marred attendance on every day. A fortunate thing is that most of the show can be held under cover. Outside events were cancelled, such as the horse races, on account of the rain and the midway was attended between showers. The attendance was down by over 5,000, the attendance this year being 13,799 as against 19,379 for 1952.

Apart from the weather, the exhibition was perhaps one of the best ever held. Entries in all sections were much heavier than for several years at least and in some, probably made a record. The industrial section which covers the exhibits of farm machinery, farm equipment, cars and trucks, household appliances, etc., was much larger than ever before. Most of those in charge of these exhibits were pleased with the results of their showing and felt that much business would accrue. The midway was a new one from previous years, although not new to the exhibition. It was well attended when the rain allowed, but somewhat deserted looking during the storms that came each day.

Opening night was one of the best for the exhibition, a little on the cold side, but nevertheless clear and dry. The parade sponsored by the Ormstown High School did much to get the show off to a good start. It was a colorful one with its floats depicting a coronation theme throughout and following as it did, one day after the actual coronation. Upon its arrival at the arena, Mr. Donald Black, M.P., President of the Exhibition, made a few remarks on the parade, then declared it officially open. He was assisted in this by Mr. Arthur Laberge, M.L.A. for Chateauguay County.

The students of Ormstown High School then put on a display of athletics and a Maypole Dance. The girls put on their athletic display on one side and the boys on the other, while the Maypole Dance went on in the centre. It was a picturesque sight with the girls dancing around the maypole in their various colored dresses and each one a colored ribbon of the maypole to match her dress. During the time the dance was going on, the athletes carried on with their display and finally ended with a pyramid on either side. Special music was played for this exhibition. Ormstown High School and the students are to be congratulated for their part on this opening night.

The horse show which is one of the premier attractions of the Ormstown Exhibition was carried on each evening and on Saturday afternoon. This show goes on in the arena and therefore the wet weather did not affect it. As usual some very good performances were seen and the kids and their ponies probably made a record. In the potting races and musical chairs Miss Viola Lallemand again carried off the Shawinigan Water & Power Co.'s trophy for best lady driver in the Beauharnois District.

Mr. Frank Napier has covered the cattle exhibits and the Calf Club events in a special article to be found elsewhere so there is no need to mention this part of the show here. In the other sections it was noticeable that the prize winners were predominantly local in character. The poultry section was particularly well patronized, this year, carrying probably the largest number of entries for many years. The art section carried a large number of paintings and this is no doubt due to the enthusiasm that has been brought about by the art classes at the exhibition. A number of these have been held in this district during the past winter. Some very fine paintings were to be seen. The school exhibitions of articles made by students were well filled with excellent specimens by both boys and girls. These articles were exhibited for prizes and did not qualify for prizes. The departments given over to ladies' arts were well filled and contained some very fine articles in sewing, baking and preserves, handicrafts, flowers, etc.

The dining hall did a good business supplying meals to the hungry patrons and exhibitors during the whole period of the exhibition. The "Canada Packers" Square Dance Contest held in the Ormstown Exhibition Industrial Building on the closing evening of the Exhibition was a marked success. Nine dancing teams participated before an audience of 900.

The winners of first prize were a team from Riverview—Wallace Craig, Mrs. Wallace Craig, Ed. Hooker, Dorothy Hooker, Eldon Orr, Mrs. Eldon Orr, Donald McKell, Mrs. Donald McKell.

The prize was $40.00 in cash. Second prize went to an Ormstown Team—Hugh Goodall, Mrs. Hugh Goodall, Bill Hooker, Sandra Barrington, Douglas Elliot, Mrs. Douglas Elliot, Merrill Tannahill, Mrs. Merrill Tannahill. The prize was $24.00 in cash. Third prize went to Robt. Barr, Allison Hooker, Stuart Duncan, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Arnold McIntyre, Mrs. Morris Winter, Norman Stacey, Ethel Stevenson. The prize was $16.00 in cash.

Each of the contestants of the other 6 teams received a soap hamper of "Canada Packers" toilet soap and soap flakes. There was a free drawing amongst the audience for three hampers of "Canada Packers" Products, value $5.00 or $6.00. These were won by Mrs. Wilfred Bryson, Ormstown, Que., Russell Smith, Riverview, Que., Mrs. A. E. Rice, 7811 Bloomfield Ave., Montreal, Que.

Mr. A. J. Teller and his men of the advertising department of Canada Packers Limited made a very attractive job of decorating the stage, and also donated the prizes. The music was supplied by Wilson and His Westerners and the Caller was Tom Duhamel. Miss Gilmore and Miss Bain of Montreal judged the contest.

Messrs. Austin Anderson and B. L. McGerrige of the Ormstown Exhibition Amusement Committee took charge of the proceedings. On other pages in this edition will be found the list of prize winners in the various departments, as well as several photographs of the various events.

Ormstown Exhibition officials can feel pleased that once again an excellent show has been operated even if the financial gain may not be what might have been expected.

Joseph Demers, a 42-year-old Valleyfield welders contractor, was nominated Progressive Conservative candidate on Sunday, for Valleyfield constituency in the forthcoming federal election. He won over two other candidates at a convention in the Valleyfield Town Hall which was attended by more than 300 delegates. On the first ballot, Mr. Demers received the most votes, with the number of votes of Albert Leduc, an insurance agent, and Roch Montpetit, a general director, and was declared the candidate by Georges Laurin, Montreal district P.C. president.

Speakers at the convention were Romeo MacDuff, party candidate in Montreal-Mercier, Pierre Desrosiers, of Montreal, and George Crompt of Montreal.

Excellent Cattle Showing At Ormstown Exhibition

Several New Breeds Entered This Year Make Fine Showing With Familiar Types

(By Frank Napier)

Ormstown Exhibition is fortunate in that, be the weather fair or rainy, as it was this year, it has up-to-date livestock barns, plus the arena. It therefore was that this year, despite the many heavy showers, the cattle exhibitors suffered only minimum inconvenience. That is only during the short walk from the cattle barns to the arena. By and large Ormstown Exhibition had an excellent show of cattle of all breeds for which there are classifications.

The Holsteins
While there were three sizable exhibits from outside the regular Huntingdon-Ormstown Holstein Club area, a considerable number of the area cattle stood well-up in competition with those from the other outside herds. Altogether there were 135 entries in the individual classes, most of whom were forward on show day.

Therefore, considering the number and the evenly good quality of the animals presented to him, the Judge, J. Durno Innes of Woodstock, Ont., had a sizable job on his hands. Junior heifer calf—W. K. McRae & Son on Raeburn Connie Rockette by Rockwood Canary Rocket and from the grand champion cow Garrymede Connie Pabst. Junior yearling heifer—Glen Ayerst Farm on Glen Ayerst R. A. Martha by Raymondale Abbey R. Two year old heifer, dry—Raymondale Farm on Raymondale Lena by Raymondale R. A. Striling. Two year old heifer, in milk—A. Pinsoneault on Nancy De Kol R. A. Yalco.

Heifer, 3 to 4, dry—Donald Hamilton, Athelstan on Perfection Nettle De Kol by Pleasant Valley Oakley. A maternal sister, Perfection Clover Posch, was also second in this class for Mr. Hamilton. Heifer, 3 to 4 years, in milk—J. Murphy, Huntingdon, on Southview Korndyke Jane by S. V. Allan Francy. Cow, 5 years and over, dry—Glen Ayerst Farm on Glen Ayerst R. A. Peggy by Eglantiers R. A. Peggy. As already recorded, W. K. McRae & Son won first on junior get of sire and progeny of dam. That firm also won first on Dairy Herd Mrs. Hallward won first on graded herd, while Donald Hamilton won first for his senior get of sire group by Brown's Master Charles.

The Ayrshires
Thirteen Ayrshire breeders had entered 92 head, all of these exhibitors with but one exception being members of the Howick-Huntingdon Ayrshire Club. While the Ayrshire exhibit was the smallest that has been out at Ormstown in a considerable number of years, it (Continued on page 7)

On Sunday, a celebration of the Corpus Christi feast for the Roman Catholic people was held in Huntingdon. The church was especially well decorated with a profusion of white flowers.

After the 10 o'clock mass was celebrated, the procession left the church led by the candle and cross bearers. Following were the children who were first-year communicants. The girls, all dressed in white, strewed the streets with flowers. The Browns, directed by Mrs. A. Laberge, were followed by the girls of Notre Dame School wearing white capes trimmed with blue. Other groups were the Children of Mary, the Joan of Arc Club, and the Ladies of St. Anne, each group carrying their banners. A large number of men completed the procession, together with the (Continued on page 6)

Marcel Quenneville Tells of His Trip to Ottawa

Addresses Huntingdon Rotarians at Meeting on Monday

Marcel Quenneville, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Quenneville, R.R. 2, Huntingdon, was the one chosen to go to Ottawa for the Rotary Club's "Adventure in Citizenship". On Monday, Marcel gave his views of his trip to the gathering of Huntingdon Rotarians at their regular luncheon meeting. The following is the address:

"It is a great pleasure for me and also a great privilege to address this Rotarian gathering today. I am to tell you about my trip to Ottawa. This trip, as you know, was called an "Adventure in Citizenship". It was under the auspices of the Ottawa Rotary Club in coordination with the National Capital planning committee, the Ottawa Collegiate Institute and other Rotary Clubs such as the one we have in Huntingdon.

"Students were from all over Canada, from the Maritimes to the West coast of Vancouver. Over a hundred and sixty of them were gathered. On May the third, in Chateau Laurier's Convention Hall, we received a message of welcome by President M. M. MacOdrum and by Dr. Charlotte Whitton, Mayor of Ottawa. We also had our first group discussion on Canadian Citizenship. This consisted of studying our Government and the different ways it operates. Our first Rotary luncheon was held in the Ball Room of Chateau Laurier, where the Honorable James Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, gave an address entitled "The Place of Canada in the British Empire".

"On Monday afternoon we made our first visit to the Parliament where a picture of our group was taken. We also attended on this same afternoon the proceedings and debates in the House of Commons. This proved to be very interesting as well as educational. Then we went to the Railway Committee Room where all the students received from the Honorable Louis St-Laurent, Prime Minister of Canada, assisted by the Honorable W. Harris, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration, a certificate of Canadian Citizenship.

"In the evening the students had dinner and became acquainted, at the Fisher Park High School. The opportunity of making friends and of meeting so many fellow-students from everywhere was the closing of a perfect day. "On Tuesday morning after a visit to the National Art Gallery, we had our second group discussion in Carlton College. At noon, luncheon in the Ballroom of Chateau Laurier. The address was given by the Honorable George Drew, M.P. In the afternoon the students visited Government House, the Residence of His Excellency the Right Honorable Vincent Massey. His Excellency received us after we had had the pleasure of visiting the house and grounds. Thursday evening dinner was served in the Rideau Hall of Murphy Gamble Limited where brief remarks were made by Mr. M. J. Caldwell and by Mr. Solon Low, M.P.s. After this the students attended the Historical play of "Victoria Regina", at the Canadian Repertory Theatre in the La Salle Academy. This was the end of our second day.

"Wednesday morning, May 6, the students visited the National Museum, followed by our last group discussion in Carlton College. At noon we were guests of the Federal District Commission at a luncheon at the Coliseum. In the afternoon we made a tour by bus of the Federal District and the National Capital. Wednesday evening the students were guests of the Ottawa District Commission. We had dinner in the Chateau Laurier Ballroom. The students for a greater part were accompanied by their M.P.s. However, I did not have the pleasure, because Mr. Black, having had a previous appointment, was unable to attend this dinner. During dinner we were shown a model of the National Capital plan and told about the many improvements that are to be made.

"On Thursday morning, May 7, the students continued their tour of the National Capital and the District. We visited Rockcliffe Park and the Ottawa Experimental Farm, where the Manager explained to us the wonderful work that is being done there to improve Agriculture. At noon the farewell luncheon held in the Quebec Suite of the Chateau was the closing of our four wonderful days.

"Now, I would like to say a big thank you in the name of St. Joseph's School, the teaching staff and myself. I greatly appreciated this trip and certainly learned a great deal about Ottawa, the Government and my dear Canada. I do hope, dear Rotarians, that I have interested you with this description. I will always remember that the Rotarians are great men and very generous to those of my age. Many thanks".

At the same meeting another address was also heard on "Sales training, a necessity for to-day's salesman". "Sales career has contributed to building our country and has fostered freedom of enterprise". Norman St-Jean, divisional sales supervisor with the Shawinigan Water and Power Co., who addressed the Huntingdon Rotary Club, stressed the importance of sales training within a sales organization. "To-day the prestige of the sales-

Further investigation brought out that the boys had stolen the money from a house in Montreal. Provincial Police from Montreal came on Monday and took the boys back to the city where they are being held. Traffic Officer Ernest Leduc and Chief L'Heureux conducted the investigation here.

ORMSTOWN EXHIBITION — OPENING NIGHT PARADE

Ormstown Exhibition had one of its finest opening nights for several years. Ormstown High School did excellently with its parade of floats on the coronation theme and the exhibition at the arena following the opening announcement by President Donald E. Black, M.P. Above are scenes from the opening on Wednesday night. Top left is a close-up view of some of the Majorettes who led the band and the parade. Next is the Maypole in full uniform with their leaders.

Boys and Girls of Calf Clubs Do Well at Ormstown

Excellent Showing in the Various Classes, Showmanship and Judging

The 4H or Boys' and Girls' Calf Clubs were out in full force at Ormstown Exhibition and they made quite a show of their own on the Friday afternoon. The various classes in that division were judged by Gilbert MacMillan.

Irrespective of whether they were veterans of that Club project, as some of them now are, or had been helping their elders as some of them had been doing in connection with the open classes of their chosen breed, or whether they were more or less new recruits, they comported themselves in a most creditable way. That is their calves were well prepared and handled in a veteran-like way, so to speak.

First of all they showed their calves in their regular classes in which their calves only were rated, then they came together in the two showmanship contests, one for seniors and the other for juniors. The owners of the winning calves are as follows:

Ayrshires
Junior Heifer Calves — 1. Donald Morrison, Howick; 2. Raymond Smith, Howick; 3. Muriel Cairncross, Howick; 4. Stanley Reid, Huntingdon; 5. Donald Nolan, Huntingdon; 6. Beverley Smith, Howick.
Senior Heifer Calves — (16 shown) 1. John McArthur, Howick; 2. Rollie Ness, Howick; 3. Billy Welburn, Howick; 4. John Logan, Howick; 5. Kenneth Roy, Howick; 6. Bernice Ness, Howick; 7. Gordon McKell, Howick.

Champion Ayrshire Calf — John McArthur, Reserve — Rollie Ness, Howick.

Junior Heifer Calves (12 shown) 1. Gordon Cavers, Ormstown; 2. Ronald Anderson, Huntingdon; 3. Milton Hooker, Ormstown; 4. Claire Legault, Huntingdon; 5. Florence Lalonde, Huntingdon; 6. Brian Hooker, Ormstown; 7. Jackie Mason, Ormstown; 8. Jean-Paul Pinsoneault, Ormstown; 9. Grace Elliott, Ormstown; 10. George Anderson, Huntingdon; 11. Edmund Thurston, Ormstown; 12. Dundee

Mr. Hermon Farley and his mother, Mrs. Hattie Farley, who spent the winter months in Malone, N.Y., returned a few weeks ago to Dundee and will spend the summer at the Farley homestead, Dundee Centre. Since coming back to Dundee, Mrs. Farley had quite a sick spell which necessitated her going to the Alice Hyde Memorial Hospital in Malone, for 10 days. After spending a few days at Chasm Falls with her daughter Anne, she was able to return to her home on Thursday. Mr. Farley was saying that the caterpillar invasion is so serious south of Malone that the trees in the woods are being absolutely stripped of foliage and that due to hordes of them on the railroad tracks, trains are being delayed due to the slippery mass causing the engineer to lose traction. Authorities are resorting to spraying untouched portions of woods with D.D.T. preparations applied from low flying biplanes. It is said to be nearly 40 years since an invasion by the caterpillar worm has been so serious in the East. Just when the apple tree caterpillar that builds tents had about finished, the forest type moved in to finish off the larger trees. Around Dundee the plague is not so serious as yet but it is noted that some oaks and ash trees are getting pretty bare looking.

GRADUATE TEACHER

ELIZABETH (BETTY) ANN BOYCE daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boyce, Huntingdon, who received an Elementary Certificate in the School for Teachers, Macdonald College, at graduation on June 4. Miss Boyce was granted the Janet Morrison Robb Bursary. She plans to teach at Lawrence School, Sherbrooke, next year.

Capt. Grace Farley, R.N., who has served in the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Jackson, Mississippi, since the end of World War II, has been transferred to the new Veterans' Hospital which has just been completed in Syracuse, N.Y. This location suits Miss Farley much better as her brother and family live in that city and also she is not so far from her mother, who is beginning to feel the weight of advancing years.

the son of the late Allan McNicol and his wife, Agnes Stewart. He followed the life of a farmer during his entire adult manhood and in 1931 he was united in marriage to Janet Cameron. Of a retiring nature he did not seek after nor hold public office, but was well liked by his neighbours and friends. Being an accomplished old-time fiddler, he was in great demand during his early years at all the old fashioned kitchen dances and was always willing to do his share or a little more.

He leaves to mourn his loss besides his widow, two daughters, Jeannine, who is employed in the Bank of Commerce, Ormstown, and Elizabeth at home and still attending the Consolidated School; also two brothers, Stewart of St. Anicet and Hugh of Dundee.

Final tributes from his brothers' families, the teachers and pupils of the Consolidated School and also the staff of the Bank at Ormstown were very beautiful. The pallbearers were Messrs. Stewart McGibbon, Marc Trepanier, Earl McNicol, George Irwin, Jas. Stewart, Harold McNicol.

Friends and relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chaffee of Summerstown, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne, Bainsville, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rankin, of Cornwall and Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin of Williamstown, Ont.; and Mrs. Carl Stark, Westville, N.Y.

Valleyfield

VALLEYFIELD — On Tuesday, June 2nd, all the families of Park St., Valleyfield, joined together to have a Coronation Celebration, permission being granted by His Worship the Mayor, Dr. O. E. Caza, to have the street roped off.

The festival started with a buffet lunch, then there was street dancing for everyone. It was very hard to distinguish between the young and the old, for everyone during the celebration had moved back the hands of time to when they were in their teens.

Fireworks were displayed later in the evening to commemorate the Crowning of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Then everyone started street dancing again to music by Evan Cooper on the accordion and Raymond Legault on the violin.

East Park Street is a row of houses owned by the Montreal Cottons Ltd. and which are rented to their employees.

M. D. McMeekin Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. D. McMeekin, Mrs. Ovila Dumouchel were in Georgetown, Ont., on Saturday, June 6th, for the Dobbie-Beaumont wedding.

Miss Shirley Dobbie is a granddaughter of Mr. McMeekin Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parry went by plane to New York for a week's holiday.

Those who were fortunate enough to have television in their homes on Tuesday saw the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II. The Gault Institute had one installed for the pupils and teachers. The Moco Club has a very fine one of their own and many had the pleasure of seeing it and Valleyfield Lodge No. 11, I.O.O.F., through the courtesy of Marchand Freres, had one installed in the United Church Hall where many friends were invited to attend.

On Monday evening, June 1st, a Coronation Dance and Celebration was held in the Montreal Cottons Club and was attended by about 150 persons. The dance was under the auspices of the Directors of the Montreal Cottons Institute. There were favours for the guests and continuous dancing to the very fine music provided by the Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Lawrence O'Neil.

A few minutes after midnight a toast to the Queen was proposed by Mr. C. W. Gurnham, President of the Club, after which all joined in singing the National Anthem.

Refreshments were then served; after intermission dancing continued until 2:30 a.m. During the evening there were spotlight dances and the recipients of prizes were Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Brien, Mrs. Percy Sugden and Mr. S. H. Chambers. The door prize was won by Mr. Dalton Howarth.

Tony L'Heureux Beats Julius Boros

Only one, Tony L'Heureux, of the many who tried to "Beat Julius Boros" on Saturday, May 23rd, at Valleyfield Golf and Country Club, succeeded. Tony fired a 94 less a 25 handicap, gave him a net 69 which was good enough to "Beat Julius" who shot a hot 70 over the long and difficult par 72 championship Oakmount Country Club Course at Pittsburgh. The very high winds here at Valleyfield sent many of the scores soaring higher than usual. The ball's flight was hard to control, and continually had the golfers in trouble.

Congratulations, Tony L'Heureux! A cloudy sky and a cool breeze greeted some twenty-four ladies and men who teed-off at 1 p.m. in the first mixed event of the 1953 season, on May 29th. Before the day was over however, the sun was shining brightly and it had warmed up considerably.

A total of some 763 turf digging shots were played by the contestants. The winners of the low gross score were Mrs. Rose Felszegi and Lucien Faubert, who combined to shoot a 49. The winners of the low net were Mrs. Helen Clark and Ray Plante who shot a 52 less an 18½ handicap for a 33½ net score.

Roxham

ROXHAM—On Tuesday evening, June 2nd, friends and relatives paid a surprise visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Speck of Henrysburg, Que., to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Although completely taken by surprise, they were cordially invited into their home, where they spent an enjoyable evening of fun and fellowship together. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Archie Speck, assisted by several friends. Following this, Mr. Warren Fewster, nephew of the guest of honour, presented them with a well filled purse and several pieces of silver. Mr. Speck graciously replied on behalf of his wife and himself and thanked their many friends and relatives for their gifts and all the work they had gone to, for the enjoyable evening, after which all left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Speck

Editorial Notes...

Good Fire Protection Means Something

IT pays any settlement of people to have good fire protective services available and properly manned and equipped. The recent announcement of a reduction in rates of fire insurance premium shows one advantage of good equipment. While it is not specifically stated that the rates were reduced on this account, such is quite a deciding factor as premiums are based upon the risk involved. For several years now, the loss by fire in Huntingdon has been very low. Our equipment is such and our volunteer firemen so trained, that fires are reached quickly and very seldom develop into serious outbreaks. Some bad looking ones have been nipped in the bud and soon brought under control with a minimum of damage or loss.

It is no doubt a consideration with the other points mentioned as being included in the rate reductions. They have good equipment and trained men with which to fight a fire and thus prevent great losses from occurring. It is not always the number of fires which occur that is the deciding factor in rate structure it is the protective measures and the ability to cope with fires when they do occur which is a consideration. Any town could have one fire and because its equipment of its firemen are unable to cope successfully with it that town may be considered a bad risk.

Fire equipment must be ready to go at any moment, there must be no delays, every moment counts. The firemen should know their job and should have practices in order that they do. Any defect or shortage in fire equipment should be remedied at once, such things cannot wait until tomorrow, they must be looked after at once. Immediately after a fire all equipment should be checked and cleaned, hoses dried and replaced on the truck, so that everything is in readiness for another call. We cannot tell when a fire will occur, if everything is kept in readiness, then at least delay is down to a minimum. So many small fire brigades after one fire leave the equipment as it is brought from the fire and figure it can be checked later, maybe the next day or a few days after. If a fire occurs, the equipment is not ready, or there are shortages on account of hoses not being coiled and dried and nozzles being attached to a hose that is drying.

All these things are taken into consideration when risks are being considered. Good equipment may cost money in the beginning but it will mean a saving to the taxpayers in the end. This reduction in fire insurance rates will mean savings to the taxpayers and it can be partially attributed to having good protective fire services.

An Argument For One-Way Street

AT the last meeting of the Huntingdon Town Council, Chateauguay Street was once more made a two-way street. This chopping and changing around, first one thing, then another, is most confusing to everyone and naturally there were some who still continued to use the street on the one-way basis. The reason given for changing the street back to two-way is the old one of loss of business when it is one-way. As remarked at the meeting in an off-the-record way: "There is one thing it will take the traffic off Prince Street and the garages will do more business in fender straightening." But this was not the loss of business which was referred to. It has often argued that very little loss of business results from the street being one-way and now we have a survey that substantiates the claim.

The following taken from the Royal Automobile Club newsletter for June, 1953, points out as follows:

ONE-WAY STREETS HELP BUSINESS

A two-year study made by the California Division of Highways to determine how retail business is affected when traffic on city streets is changed from two-way to one-way, has revealed that the percentage of increase in business is considerable. A street in Sacramento, through the heart of the city, was used for the survey. This showed that traffic volume increased 14.0 per cent; traffic speed increased 24.4 per cent in peak hours and 41.4 per cent in other hours; vehicle accident rate was reduced an average of 15.5 per cent and pedestrian accidents reduced by 61.9 per cent on streets converted from two-way to one-way. Retail business on the street increased 26.57 per cent over the previous year of two-way traffic, and was a 4.87 per cent greater increase than all the retail business throughout Sacramento county. Many new businesses were started after the street became one-way.

As to helping business, there is at least one man in Huntingdon who told his storekeepers that he would not deal with them while two-way traffic existed on Chateauguay Street. He was as good as his word for when two-way traffic did come into force he did his business at other stores. He said he would not risk parking his car on the street and after doing his business come out to find scratches or dents in the fenders. In fact he said he would not use the street at all.

Such a statement seems to back up the above survey, for several people have said they would not use Chateauguay Street when it is two-way. It is therefore a conjecture as to whether two-way traffic does mean more business to the storekeepers on Chateauguay Street. Car owners are not necessarily in favour of two-way, most of them prefer it to be one-way on account of the hazards to their cars. It would therefore seem that more research should be made into the matter and the feelings of all concerned be included in the decision finally reached.

One Trial Open Period Begins As Another Ends

THE trial period for stores in Huntingdon to remain open on Friday and Saturday nights instead of Wednesday and Saturday nights, is fast drawing to a close. It was to run until the end of June.

So far the change-over seems to have met with little opposition in so far as the buying public is concerned, in fact it is generally favored. Among the storekeepers there are still a few who are opposed, but the majority appear to favor the present open nights. Some have voiced an opinion that the trial period should be for six months instead of three. Those in favor of Friday night opening say that they have noticed an increase in the amount of business done on a Friday to that of Wednesday. For this reason they favor the change and they feel that people are shopping at home more instead of going elsewhere to do it.

The people in Malone, N.Y., have been considering what to do about open nights and several meetings have been held in the past few weeks. On Thursday, the matter was put to a vote and decision reached by a majority to open on Friday evenings and close on Saturday evenings. The reason for this is that storekeepers and their assistants will now have an opportunity of having a week-end more in line with other workers. A three-month trial period is to be given starting on June 19th. If this period proves successful, the arrangement will become permanent. The Malone Grange opposed the plan on the grounds that farm help is paid Friday nights and there is a possibility that many farm workers will be absent during the week-ends.

More and more towns are considering Friday night as the open night and a large number have already adopted it. In most cases those who have adopted it are staying with it in the belief that it is a much better system. Some towns like Malone have decided to close Saturday evenings and some even are closed for either a part or all of Saturday. In such cases the stores are open every other day of the week to the regular hours, Saturday being considered the early closing day instead of say Thursday or Wednesday. The idea behind this is that manufacturing places close on Friday for the week-end and it allows friends working in stores to spend a week-end together. It is felt that with modern conveniences such as deep freezers and refrigerators, there is no longer the need to do week-end shopping at a late hour. As the trend is toward Saturday closing and even the banks have adopted it in some measure, that stores could just as well make Saturday the closing day. Malone is apparently making a move in this direction by closing at the regular time on Saturday and remaining open on Friday evenings. A move is also on foot to have the banks there remain open later on Friday.

Random Glimpses of The Past Taken from Gleaner Files

January 16 — 1913 —

What it is possible to do with a Kodak in the way of pictures was seen at C. H. Lamb's where he had three snapshots on exhibition. One showed a view of the Walker Bridge, the second the Bank, and the third, St. Andrew's Church. The view of the church was especially good, it being possible to even count the stones in the building.

January 16

Secretary Feeny has received a copy of the proposed new Municipal Code which will come into effect within the next year. It makes sweeping changes in many cases and gives the council more authority than formerly. By it, the election of councillors is completely revised. The mayor is elected by the people for two years, and he is the presiding officer only. Three councillors are elected a year. The nomination will be on the second Wednesday in January, and the elections on the third Monday. When the code becomes law there will be a by-election, and the councillors resigning.

February 6

The Academy has secured the Majestic Theatre for the 24th of May when they intend staging a local talent theatrical. Among the speakers at the Clydesdale Breeders' Association held in Toronto lately was Mr. R. Ness of Howick. At the banquet the question of having a National horse exhibition was dealt with. If such materializes, the district will have a notable representation in the heavy classes.

March 6

One of the best farms in the district has been sold to Samuel Crutchfield by James Blaik. Mr. Blaik sold part of his farm some time ago, and on Saturday sold the balance to Mr. Crutchfield for the consideration of $8000. Andrew Mack has sold his farm in Godmanchester to Mr. A. Caldwell and has bought the farm of Anderson Bros. near Atholstan.

March 13

Signs of spring are becoming marked and a thaw is daily looked for. The crows have been in the bush all winter but they were especially numerous about the village on Monday. In Fort Covington the first robin of the season is reported. P. M. Elder was in town yesterday and reported a good flow of sap on Tuesday. He had tapped the trees in January during the mild spell, and had left his spouts in for two years, and he is the presiding officer only. Three councillors are elected a year. The nomination will be on the second Wednesday in January, and the elections on the third Monday. When the code becomes law there will be a by-election, and the councillors resigning.

March 20

Saturday afternoon, a gust of hurricane force passed over the district doing considerable damage. The most serious in Huntingdon was the blowing over of the power smoke stack, which narrowly missed going through the building. The town was in darkness Saturday night, but the following evening the lights were on again. Roofs were blown off several freight cars, a chimney at the convent knocked over, metal roofing stripped and other damage done around the village. On the Trout River road, the wind carried away part of the barn roof of Rennie Bros. The wind lasted only a few minutes, but while it lasted everybody knew it.

Malenkov's Dilemma

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

A Chinese philosopher, I forget which one, said that once you set out to reform mankind you are entering upon a task that will have no end. The Chinese have had a much longer experience of human life than we of the Western world, and in their earlier centuries they no doubt tried out all kinds of methods of reforming one another. Judging by their later method of dealing with delinquents, social and political, they evidently have given up trying to reform them. They line them up in a public place on their knees, with their hands tied behind their backs, and cut off their heads with a sword. The idea being, I suppose, that the quickly disposed of the delinquents and also of the endless task of trying to reform them.

Our forefathers used similar methods of disposing of political delinquents. They chopped off their heads with an axe, but they did not do it on so wholesale a scale, and they confined it chiefly to delinquent kings and high-placed politicians. King Charles the First lost his head that way, but he had lost it in another way some time before by assuming that he had the "divine right of kings" to dispose of parliament. Parliament refused to be disposed of, and after trying in vain to reform the wayward king, disposed of his head. The operation was successful in reforming his successors to the throne.

The Week At Ottawa...

OTTAWA — (CP) — The heart of Canadian dedication to the Queen flowed from Ottawa last week where 100,000 persons paid homage to the young sovereign in her hour of glory.

They lined the city's downtown streets to cheer the procession of 7,000 of the Queen's troops. They cheered the horse-drawn landau which bore Governor-General Massey to Parliament Hill in his white-plumed, black cocked hat and gold-braided ceremonial dress.

They thrilled as some 100 war-planes swept the skies overhead in a flypast which was climaxed by the flight of Sabre jets and the 10,000-foot climb of three more Sabres which simulated by their vapor trails the three plumes borne by Princes of Wales for 300 years.

They listened quietly and soberly when the Queen's voice came over loudspeakers as she spoke by radio from London to her subjects overseas.

Festivities went on far into the night. Ottawa's Chinese population — less than 1,000 in numbers — celebrated the Coronation in their own way. In a period of less than an hour and in an area a block long and 1/2 block wide, they exploded 200,000 firecrackers.

Strange Armada

In Ottawa also, the world's strangest armada marked the Coronation — also in its own way. Ottawa's city councillors donned their ceremonial robes and piled into a 44-ton cabin cruiser which led a flotilla of 30 craft 38 miles down the Rideau Canal from Dow's Lake to downtown Ottawa. The idea was Mayor Charlotte Whitton's. She herself was in London attending the Coronation. But the council sang jaunty sea-songs, danced jigs and waved to the crowds which lined the banks of the canal.

In another part of Ottawa, the Governor-General received 7,000 guests at Canada's first state ball in 40 years. It was a gay and sophisticated affair. There were diamond tiaras a-plenty with ball gowns from London and Paris and Rome, and exotic saris and kimonos.

Comet Jet Transport

The RCAF kept the press and radio a round-trip to New York in its latest acquisition — a $1,200,000 British Comet jet transport. The 900-mile flight took less than three hours and the Comet banked over Manhattan 57 minutes after it took off from Ottawa's Uplands airport.

Average speed on the first leg of the trip was 473 miles an hour. It was about 50 miles better than the 57-ton giant's delivery flight to Uplands May 29. On that occasion the Comet made the trans-Atlantic crossing at about 420 m.p.h., in 10 hours, 20 minutes. The Giant can fly 600 miles an hour.

The 40 press and radio men on the trip sat in comfortable relaxing chairs in a forward cabin or walked about in a blue-and-grey-recorated cabin aft. The plane was remarkably steady. One man balanced a pencil on end on a table. Another balanced two five-cent pieces on Lindsay, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McLeod and daughter, Lorna of DeRoy Beach, Florida, are enjoying a holiday visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector Trembley, Miss Jacqueline Hebert spent Sunday afternoon, May 31, in Beauharnois visiting relatives.

The Misses Dorothy Curran and Heather Jodion of Havelock School began school here in Hemmingford, on Monday, June 1, where they will write their entrance examinations. Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hadley and sons, Ronnie and Glen, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fewster spent Sunday, May 31st with Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Akester and family in Ville LaSalle.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Derriek motored to Oxford Mills recently and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hawkins.

Hog Cholera. Agriculture department officials announced that they may shortly reduce the 50,000-square-mile hog cholera quarantine area in Southwestern Ontario. Dr. Thomas Childs, veterinary director-general, said the virus disease is being contained in a well-defined area.

He didn't make clear just how the reduction would be made but other officials said there have been no outbreaks reported recently in such eastern Ontario counties as Durham, Ontario, Northumberland, Peterborough and the district of Muskoka.

A total of 2,227 hogs have been destroyed on 37 farms since the disease was first reported May 15.

Canada's Economy

Government officials had happy news for Canadians. The statistics bureau announced that the country's economy took new strides in the first quarter of 1953, expanding in terms of production, retail sales and labor income.

And Laval Fortier, deputy immigration minister, said he thinks the country's population which stood at 14,692,000 on March 1 may reach 15,000,000 by the end of the year, due to immigration.

The statistics bureau said the index for industrial production based on 1953-39 equals 100, climbed to 247.0 in March from 222.2 last year. For the first quarter it averaged 240.3, compared to 217.7 a year ago. The index covers output of key products.

The bureau gave these other figures: average weekly earnings, $56, up from $52.50 a year ago; monthly retail business, $834,300,000, up from $771,500,000 last year.

Living Costs. The official chart of living costs declined during April for the sixth month in a row. The Consumer Price Index figure announced last Friday was down 1/5 of one point. The index, based on 1949 prices equalling 100, had reached its peak of 118.2 in December, 1951. At the end of April, 1953, the latest figures, it stood at 114.4. There were indications however of a rising trend in the future. The wholesale industrial commodities index was edging upward, and prices of farm products also showed gains.

VALLEYFIELD — The pupils of Nancy Heath gave a Dance Recital on Friday evening, May 29th in the Gault Institute Auditorium sponsored by the Young Women of the Valleyfield United Church.

The tiny girls were so cute in two numbers Rhythm Tots and Sun Bonnet Sue, the costumes for the latter were so pretty and the audience certainly had a laugh with the antics they went through.

Earlana Fraser of Montreal just last night gave two solos and her two dancing acrobatic stunts, etc., just stole the show. Her costumes were really lovely.

Renee Bourgeois and Louise Lalonde, the latter skating champion of the Valleyfield Figure Skating Club, did two numbers and Louise is certainly very athletic and a good all-round performer. Their costumes in Dancing flowers were so pretty.

The Trio Dale Gervais, Gail Rankin and Margaret Theriault were exceptionally good in the Irish Jig and Pastel Trio and costumes lovely for both numbers.

Isabel Schurman's rendition of Valse Lentu was beautifully done and her mauve ballerina dress was worthy of comment. It was charming in colour and design.

The older girls gave two numbers Tapettes and Beautiful Ladies in Blue and the younger girls should be mentioned in Happy Tappers and La Buse.

Nancy Heath ended the programme with Hungarian Fantasy and she was thanked for her recital by Mrs. Stewart Aird President of the Young Women of the United Church.

Dundee

DUNDEE — The old fashioned Hymn Sing held in the United Church, on Sunday evening, May 31, more than met Mr. McLeod's expectations, who on behalf of the Young People's Society sponsored the service. He said he was very gratified to know that the church members turned out so well to sing together the old fashioned hymns of the church. The hymns chosen were taken from the Alexander Hymn Book No. 3. He said a like event would in all probability be held each month during the summer.

Mrs. McLeod arrived on Wednesday, June 3rd, from St. John, New Brunswick, and she and her husband will occupy the Manse for the summer months.

Mr. W. C. Ferguson recently underwent a major operation in Barrie Memorial Hospital. His condition is improving but he will still be in hospital for about two weeks yet.

Refreshments were served which brought a very enjoyable event to a close.

Congratulations to the Altar Guild.

Mrs. Alice Thatcher of the Calendar Room has earned the honour, chosen because she has the longest service record of all women, having worked for the Company for 47 years.

Alice was born in Valleyfield on the 13th August, 1891. She was the first student to register in the kindergarten of the Gault Institute. In April 1909 she came to work in the Curtain Room of the Converting Department under her father who was the Foreman. About 1935 she transferred to the Calendar Room where she is still working.

Her two brothers Harry and Robert (Bobby) living in the United States, her sister Edna (Mrs. Colin Earle) has been living in Ottawa for several years.

Alice lives with her father Harry Thatcher who is one of the Company's pensioners and still enjoys good health in spite of his 68 years.

In her youth Alice was very fond of skating, she tells of the good times when everyone used to go on hay cart rides and for picnics and she has very happy memories of those days. She has been a member of the church choir for many years.

Best wishes were extended to her and sincere congratulations for her long years of service.

The Altar Guild of St. Mark's Anglican Church held a Coronation Tea and Sale on Friday evening, May 22nd, in the Church Hall.

The Hall was gaily decorated with flags and the tables with crowns, scepters and sceptres. The tea table had a centre piece which was greatly admired by everyone, a large replica of the crown.

This event was held to augment the funds of the Guild depleted by the purchasing and making of two dossols — These were dedicated by the Right Rev. John Dixon, Bishop of Montreal, at his visit on May 3rd.

Congratulations to the Altar Guild.

love among the penguins Romance is a rocky enough road for human beings. But if you happen to be a penguin, it's a super-obstacle course. You have seen pictures of penguins. Can you tell a male from a female? No. Well, strangely enough the romantically-inclined penguin is in precisely the same predicament. However, he has a solution. He presents a pebble or a feather to the penguin of his choice. If the gift is ignored, he knows he has found a maiden as yet unskooled in the art of flirtation. If it is accepted, he has found his one true love. The system has its hazards, though. He may be rewarded with a vigorous peck, indicating that he has made the mistake of selecting a staid old bachelor! Life for penguins and people is often confusing. However, when on the lookout for a refreshing ale the situation is uncomplicated. For the connoisseur, the right ale will be plainly identified with the word "Molson's" on the label. The love affair between Molson's and ale-quaffing Canadians has been going on now since 1786, and the bonds of affection grow stronger with every passing year. You don't need pebbles or feathers. Just plight your troth with those three little words: "Make Mine Molson's".

for the occasion. Mrs. Henry Cassidy and her committee, in charge of the Tea Room, plan to serve afternoon tea and salad plate supper.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess. St. Andrew's Notes

The June meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary was held on Wednesday afternoon, June 3rd, at the home of Mrs. George Lobban, with Miss Rhoda McFarlane presiding.

The minutes of the April meeting were read by the recording secretary, Mrs. H. Davies, the May meeting having been cancelled.

A letter announcing that the School for leaders would be held again this year at Camp Macaulay, on the 17-21, 1953, was read.

The Temperance secretary read excerpts from an address given by the late Rev. Peter Marshall, Washington, D.C., in which he stated that doctors, sociologists and employers are worried over the increased consumption of liquor and the evil effects of drunkenness, not only in industry but in the social and family life of the community.

Parcels for Korea may once more be sent direct (11 lbs. max.) to Miss Ada Sutherland or to Dr. Florence Murray and Miss Beulah Bouons, Severance Hospital, Seoul, Korea. Members were urged to do as much knitting and sewing as possible during the summer so that some of these parcels could be met in the fall.

It was decided to hold an afternoon tea in August, the date and place to be arranged also Sept. 12, a tentative date for the Baby Band Party.

In token of appreciation and esteem Mrs. Norman McGlashan, who has been an active and interested member for many years, having served as Missionary Monthly secretary, was escorted to the front of the room by Mrs. T. Leslie Cameron, where she was presented with a life membership certificate from members of the church.

The final chapters of the Study Book emphasizing the need for more women missionaries within the African Church and the decision of the Joint Policy Committee of the W.M.S. and the Board of Overseas Missions to co-operate with the British Churches in the United Missions in the Copperbelt of Northern Rhodesia was dealt with by Mrs. Lang.

The meeting closed with the singing of one of John Wesley's hymns (he was born June 17, 1703) the National Anthem and Benediction. Refreshments were served and a social half-hour enjoyed.

The Chat-Away Sewing and Knitting Club having formally closed in May for the summer, were entertained on a recent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Norman R. Ashley.

The bi-monthly meetings held throughout the fall and winter had been enjoyed and proved successful. Two afghans made of knitted squares had been completed, the larger one had been sent to St. Anne's Military Hospital. A total of $73.50 had been raised and donations made to various charitable organizations.

Mrs. Ashley thanked the members who had contributed to the funds of the Club and moved a special vote of thanks to Mrs. Jos. Varley, the secretary-treasurer, who had per-

Obituary THE LATE JULIA EDNA MYERS On the evening of May 22, 1953, there passed peacefully from our midst Miss Julia Edna Myers. She was a long, lingering and painful illness but, like the devout Christian young lady she was and endowed with God's Sacraments, she suffered patiently and was resigned.

Miss Myers was the daughter of Mr. Edmund Myers and the late Mrs. Myers. She was born in Huntingdon on December 22, 1902. She was educated at the Huntingdon Convent. In 1918 she obtained a position with the Bell Telephone Company and remained in their employ thirty-two years and eleven months. On September 12, 1927, she was promoted to Chief Operator. On December 2, 1941 she again received a promotion as Commercial Representative, which position she retained until November 18, 1952 when, owing to poor health, she resigned. On this occasion she was presented with the President's Wallet. When contacting Miss Myers in the Bell Telephone Office one always found her courteous, obliging and considerate, performing her duty with ease in a very efficient and capable manner. She always worked for the interest of her Company and subscribers. Some very remarkable traits of her character were her desire to help the underprivileged. She will always be remembered by those who knew her best for her great charity to the poor, her kindness to animals, and a great love for flowers. She was a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America.

Owing to her father's falling health, the remains were taken to the home of her brother, Mr. John Myers. The numerous mass cards, spiritual bouquets and beautiful floral tributes showed the esteem and respect in which the deceased was held. The funeral was held on Monday morning, May 25th, at 10 A.M. at St. Joseph's Church. His Reverence, Canon Arthur Pigeon received the body. Rev. Father Leduc officiated at the Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass with Gregorian Chant with Rev. Father Collins of Bombay, N.Y. as deacon and Rev. Father Marcell of Hinchinbrooke as sub-deacon. human element in sales, for the salesman is responsible for opening new frontiers in our country, has helped raise our standard of living and has sold us all wider acceptance of the basic necessities for our modern way of living.

It is to be hoped that our educational institutions at some level will tutor all students in the art of salesmanship which is so necessary to all whether one is engaged in actual saleswork or not. Salesmanship is essential in any career, trade or profession.

A comprehensive sales training programme is essential to any sales organization and it should include the following points:

- 1 Salesmen must adopt a positive approach; he must learn to dominate a sale through self-respect. 2 When it is to the customer's benefit, he must learn to up-grade a purchase, suggest companion articles, etc. 3 The salesman must learn to play on the customer's desires and avoid overemphasizing the price of the article. 4 Finally a salesman must learn to close a sale by the time tested formula of asking the customer to sign on the dotted line.
