His little mate with Pleasure heard
 The Passion of her favorite Bird
 While thus he sung with you I'll share
 The sweetly scented morning Air
 And chaunt away each anxious care .

3

My little Love she then reply'd
 I soon will be your willing Bride
 And to your Breast my cares confide
 Forgetting every Bird beside
 When nothing then shall us divide .

4

Ah Henry thought if Rosa prove
 So kind so gentle to my Love .
 As you sweet Birds on yonder tree
 We'll careless sing from Sorrow free
 In strains of Love and Harmony .

LETTER SETS OF THE DEER

Handwritten musical notation on aged paper, consisting of several staves with notes and clefs. The notation is faint and appears to be a transcription or a set of letters for a musical piece. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some staining.
