Pauline Cote Wins Scholarship Certificate

In the auditorium of St. Mary's Teachers College, Chapeau, on Saturday, November 25, a scholarship certificate was presented to Miss Pauline Cote from the Maniwaki Indian Reserve. This Presentation was made by Mr Paul Martineau, MP and Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister in the name of Mrs Fairclough, the Federal Minister of Citizenship and Immigration.

Reverend D Donahue, Principal of the College, presided at the ceremony. After welcoming the guests, Father Donahue pointed out that the honour which had come to this student for her past achievements indirectly brought honour to the College she was now attending. Mr Martineau explained that this scholarship, which had been merited for civic spirit and academic success, would enable Miss Cote to complete the two-year tecaher training course at St. Mary's. Mr Lorenzo Leclair, Superintendent of the Indian Agency in Manwaki, expressed his personal pride in the achievement of this student whose progress he had followed with keen interest through the completion of Grade 13 in June 1961.

Miss Cote spoke briefly, expressing her sincere appreciation to all those in the Department of Indian Affairs who were in any way responsible for the granting of this scholarship The personal interest and thoughtfulness of Mr Leclair, as well as of Mr R A Ouellette, District School Superintendent for Indian Schools, and also present at the ceremony, had been, Miss Cote stated, her greatest sources of encouragement and inspiration in her studies.

Dr Welbourne as Dean of Studies at St. Mary's, added his congratulations to those already extended to Miss Cote, and thanked those present for their interest.

Under the capable direction of Sister Mary Immaculate, St Mary's Glee Club then favoured the assembled guests with three beautiful choral selections.

Present at the ceremony besides those participating were Reverend D J Harrington, Pastor of Chapeau, Mr Raymond T Johnston, MPP, and Mrs Johnston, Mrs Paul Martineau, the Sisters from St Joseph's Convent, and the High School resident students.

Santa's Parade Dec. 9

A Santa Claus parade will be held on Saturday, December 9 at 2 p.m. in Shawville, sponsored by Shawville Lions Club. Twenty floats are already known to be taking part in the parade. Others wishing to participate should contact Louis Welch at Shawville 634-40. This will be Shawville's first Santa Claus parade — so far as we know.

With The Curlers

Take note all curlers from Campbell's Bay, Fort Coulonge, Shawville and so forth — the news of all rock throwers will hereafter be published as received in this column. Just send it to The Equity, Shawville and it will find its way here.

To start off with — Shawville got off to a roaring start last Friday with a mixed bonspiel for the Leslie Dale prizes to be donated to the winners after the best 10 teams have played off. Skips for this event are Watt Taylor, Percy Belsher, Wallace Hodgins, Bill Hanna, Buzzy Hodgins, Borden Hodgins, Gordon Paul, Dave Still, Lloyd Stevens, Art Hodgins, Nellis Hodgins, Cliff Garrison, Art Kilgour, Art Hayes, Stan Green, Frank Cowley, Don Dods, Ludger Emard and Ron McCredie.

Fort Coulonge starts the season with a men's bonspiel December second and third. Being Saturday and Sunday they plan three 8 end games per draw with games at 10 am and noon. The ladies are supplying the meals.

This year Campbell's Bay, Fort Coulonge and Shawville are affiliated with the Canadian Branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling Clubs, and Fort Coulonge and Shawville are in the Ottawa Valley Curling Association. This should mean a lot of action around the valley for the keen ones.

Something new this year at Shawville — high school boys curling in the afternoons. Some of our best curlers started very young — seems to be a good idea.

Ladies chairman Berta Carswell and men's chairman Don Dods have plans for lots of fun in the new year — meanwhile — on with the mixed curling!

74 Taking Night Classes AT Shawville

The lighted schoolhouse has really come to be in Shawville this year in a big way Six courses are being offered in the evening extension classes this year, just four more than last year and with a greatly increased enrolment.

Twenty four people are taking advantage of the opportunity to learn conversational French under the tutelage of Mrs Gionet. Second most popular course is Mrs Ross's typing class which numbers 20 students.

Mr Beattie has nine ardent woodworkers and Mrs Ted Hodgins has a like number of ladies taking up dressmaking. Harry Kolter teaches a general art course to seven men and women and Mr John Burrill has a class of five studying applied psychology.

With this total of 74 participants, Mr Gordon Hagan, principal, feels that no more registrations can be accepted this season.

Financially solvent, the night school started the year with a surplus in the bank from last year's courses which means that all the class instructors will be paid even where registrations for their particular course is low.

The Clarendon School Board supplies such things as typewriters and other equipment, lighting, and all other normal school facilities The registration fees are used for the teachers' salaries.

Proudfoot and Kavanagh Declined Nomination

Six hundred cheering Liberals in Temiscamingue's jampacked theatre last Saturday acclaimed Paul O Goulet of Fabre as their next Federal candidate for the riding of Pontiac-Temiscamingue.

The crowd, consisting of over two hundred accredited delegates and about twice as many supporters and spectators also heard guest speaker, Hon Lionel Chevrier, former Minister of Transport and now MP for Montreal-Laurier outline the Liberal program. Mr Chevrier, was eloquent in both English and French as he urged all to support the Liberal party under the able leadership of Lester B Pearson. He described Mr Pearson as the man Canada needs in the present World Crisis, outlining in detail Mr Pearsons many great accomplishments in the International field. Turning to domestic affairs he reminded his audience that when the Liberals left office in 1957 over 900 million dollars was in the unemployment insurance fund. With the increase in unemployment less than a million dollars remaining at present.

He mentioned also the great increase in the national debt and the lack of agreement in the present cabinet regarding trade policies. He further stated there was an absence of cabinet solidarity with respect to National defence, in fact he was emphatic in stating there was no definite defense policy at all.

He urged all to support Mr Goulet whom he described as an excellent candidate and worthy of the support of all.

Also nominated were J Hugh Proudfoot Member for Pontiac-Temiscamingue from 1949 to 1957 and Mr Weldon Kavanagh, Personel Manager for the Canadian International Paper Co in Temiscamingue. Although both had a lot of supporters they declined the honour and asked their supporters to get behind Mr Goulet.

An enthusiastic parade of Goulet fans took over at this point led by a three piece band followed by a dozen white-clad Majorettes wearing scarlet Goulet sashes and bearing Goulet placards. This demonstration was followed by a score or more of card bearing male fans which was some indication of Mr Goulets popularity.

Other speakers included Mr O N Perron, president of the Temiscamingue Liberal Association, S Wyman MacKechnie, president of the Pontiac Liberal Association and Dr Lalond, Libenal organizer in the North Western counties. Also noticed on the platform were Mrs Eldon Keon, president of the Pontiac Liberal Womens Assoc., Mrs Fleury, president of the Temiscamingue Liberal Womens Assoc., Mr Wallace McDonald, Provincial Liberal candidate in Pontiac and Mr Thiberge, Temiscamingue Liberal candidate in the last Provincial election.

Following the convention a reception was held in the White Oaks Inn.

Almost the entire list of Pontiacs 124 delegates were present. About 50 going by chartered bus the rest in private cars.

Shawville United

Christian Education Wing A Real Community Achievement

Unlike so many organizations these days, the thousand United Church people in Shawville did not go to the government first when the need arose for a new annex Governments grants and loans never entered the picture as these 250 families set out to provide for themselves a Christian Education Wing. They did it on their own.

After years of struggling with the attendance explosion in their Sunday School and inadequate facilities for their Choir and other church organizations, the congragation got down to serious discussions a little over a year ago and held a regular plebiscite to determine the will of the majority.

An unanimous decision was made to proceed and a building committee was immediately named, also a finance committee.

While Don Dods and his finance committee toted up their balances, collected pledges, donations, loans from members of the congregation and friends and arranged for a future bank loan if necessary, Clarence Dean and his building committee was visiting church halls at Pembroke, Renfrew, Carlton Place and other places to get ideas.

These ideas were finally put on paper by Harold Morin of the architectural firm of Balharrie, Helmer and Morin in Pembroke Mr Morin submitted several plans and once more it was left to the congregation as a whole to make the final decision.

The plan chosen was specially favored by Mr Morin who always took a great personal interest in plans of this sort. He was a dedicated architect whose designs brighten many Valley towns. Unfortunately, architect Harold Morin passed away before the actual building of Shawville's United Church annex got under way so he never saw the fruition of his careful planning. However, his associates took over the steering of the job.

Tenders were called for construction and Russell Judd was given the contract Wiring is by O'Neil of Campbell's Bay, heating and plumbing by H & S Home Supplies of Shawville, plaster by MacGregor's of Renfrew, roofing and glazing from

Car Thieves Caught Otherwise All Is Quiet

Provincial Police Headquarters have been very quiet considering the bad roads. No serious accidents have been reported.

QPP picked up two men, Claude Perron and Florido Dumont for stealing a car belonging to Mr Wilbert Durocher of Waltham. The car was found in Fort Coulonge Monday, soon after it had been reported stolen, about 6 pm. The two men had just been released from Bordeaux Jail in Montreal. They are being held at Campbell's Bay pending judgment on Dec. 13. They both pleaded guilty in court yesterday.

The force in Pontiac now consists of eight men, two of Shawville and six at Campbell's Bay. They are Fred Laxton, Linden Young, Raymond Bowie, Gille Lepine, Tancrede Paquette, Jerry Verville, Earl Bennett and Norman Horner.

We hate to say we told you so but we did suggest months ago that the next federal electoral contest would be Paul vs Paul. Well, the Liberals have named their Paul. Haven't heard from the PC's yet but chances are it'll be Paul.

That train is still slinking across the highway at Wyman unguarded. With ice on the road and windows tight shut the spot becomes more and more dangerous. There are men available. Couldn't two of them just hop off the engine, one on each side of the track and stand guard with a red flag or lantern and then hop back on the last car? (Or are they waiting for a coroner's jury to so rule?)

Procrastination paid off for the Rabbs of Fort Coulonge. Fishing in spring and hunting in fall interfered with their gardening operations with the result that they brought in broccoli, swiss chard, parsley, chives, celery, carrots, potatoes, cabbage, cauliflower, brussel sprouts, parsnips, two marigolds and a pansy last Friday. Readers who have already "escaped' 'to Florida or B.C. for the winter should please note. Dr. Rabb does not think enough has been made of our autumn weather to date.

Leo Sammon of Vinton has grown some very interesting potatoes. One in the shape of an animal and one in the shape of a man plus several other giants in the shape of potatoes. He showed them to us at The Equity office, to Neil Drummond, agronomist, and plans to donate them to the Shawville High School.

Resources Reach New High Level

Montreal — Bank of Montreal resources, deposits and loans all reached new high levels in 1961, according to the bank's 144th annual statement for the year ended October 31, published today.

The statement, covering the most active year's business in the B of M's history, shows resources increasing 13 per cent over 1960 — or nearly half-a-billion dollars — to $3,950 million.

Deposits reached $3,647 million, up 14 per cent from the $3,200 million figure of a year ago, and total loans rose nine per cent to a record $1,934 million.

The year's operations of some 890 offices at home and abroad produced record net earnings of $14,578,817, an increase of 2.5 per cent over 1960. Taxes, also at a new high amounted to $18,043,791, compared with $17,352,044 a year ago.

Dividend $2.05

The bank's 22,000 shareholders are receiving $12,453,750 of this amount, in dividends totalling $2.05 per share — five cents more than in 1960. The balance of $2,125,067, plus undivided profits of $1,150,859 from 1960, totals $3,275,926 and to this amount, the bank has added $2,000,000 from inner reserves, after income taxes.

From the total of $5,275,926 in undivided profits, an amount of $4,000,000 has been transferred to the rest account, bringing it to $145,850,000, and leaving $1,275,926 to be carried forward.

"Quick" assets are shown at $2,042 million, an increase of $270 million compared with 1960, and representing 55 per cent of B of M liabilities to the public of $3,742 million, versus 54 per cent last year.

An increase of almost 30 per cent in the "acceptances, guarantees and letters of credit" entry, from $59,721,096 last year to $75,792,918 in the current statement, indicates extensive growth in business being conducted abroad for B of M customers.

The value of premises is shown at $63,063,000, an increase of 13 per cent over the 1960 figure of $55,661,000, an indication of the extent of the banks' building and modernization program.

"You mean...my fifty dollars means that much...?"

Yes, Miss Jennifer Johnson, we do.

Your deposit of $50 . . . and the deposits of three million other Canadians add up to well over three billion dollars at the Bank of Montreal.

And here's why it's important:

This "three-billion-odd" doesn't stay locked up in a bank vault.

This money, including your fifty dollars, works steadily — day in, day out — in the form of loans, which help Canadians get what they want in the way of material things.

This money fills a thousand-and-one business and personal purposes. It goes to farmers, fishermen, oilmen, miners, lumbermen . . . it goes to businesses large and small . . . it goes to everyday citizens.

This money builds houses . . . buys cars, trucks, tractors . . . finances school and university educations, and all sorts of family needs . . . it goes to community organizations of many kinds, and to provincial and municipal governments . . . it works for Canadians in every walk of life.

When you save money at the B of M, you not only keep it safe and earning interest for you, but you make a sound investment for yourself in Canada's growth now and in the years ahead.

Whether you want to save money or borrow it for some useful purpose, you'll like doing business at the B of M. So, if it's about money, see Canada's first bank first!

39) HOWARD JOHN and MARY ANN HODGINS — they had eight children of which one is 232 GEORGE ALFRED of Shawville.

Branches 7 and 8 were given before.

We have now completed the list of the 192 children of the first HODGINS to settle in Clarendon Township, with the names of their wives or husbands and place of residence whenever known. This brings us down to the present generation and includes many who are still living. Of course this list, although it is quite long, is not complete, as some have moved to distant or unknown centers, and children have been born since their departure that have not been recorded.

Starting from the year 1700 and the family of Robert Hodgins and Mary Glass, we have now completed the sixth generation, with the following number of families recorded in each: 1—1, 2—3; 3rd—5; 4th—8; 5th—31 and 6th—192, a total of 238 families in all, not including the early settlers in Ontario, and their descendants. The seventh generation should reach a total of 1428 families, that is, in the multiple of six. We should like very much to be able to record in full the seventh and the following generations, but we have only 184 family slips on hand to do this, and these are not complete. Is there not a young historian in the Hodgins family who would come to our rescue, tabulate those who are now living, so that the Pontiac Historical Society might have the complete history of the Hodgins family. And we would ask the same from each of the other families living in Clarendon and the other sections of Pontiac, young family historians, who in later years would carry on the work, started by the Historical Society this year.

FORD FAIRLANE

Features of the new Ford car...

NEW SIZE—RIGHT BETWEEN A BIG CAR AND A COMPACT . . .

The new Ford Fairlane offers the room, the ride, the performance and the finish of a fine car. It brings you automotive advances you could not buy two years ago in any car at any price . . . yet it is priced right down among the compacts!

SO WELL BUILT YOU CAN FEEL IT!

Solid single-unit construction brings you a new level of quiet and quality in the new Fairlane. A new dedication to the highest standards of body craftsmanship results in extraordinary freedom from noise, vibration and harshness.

NEW V-8 ENGINE . . .

Ford has developed a completely new V-8 engine that combines the strength of iron with the lightness of aluminum. As a result, the Challenger V-8 brings you responsive power with smoother, quieter, more economical performance. A new Fairlane Six will deliver substantially better mileage than any other in its class and it is actually more economical than many of the compacts!

ROOMY AND COMFORTABLE FULL-SIZE INTERIORS . . .

Inside, Fairlane is not a compact. It boasts full-size big car roominess for six passengers, with a wide selection of luxurious interiors to choose from. Posture-perfect front seats are generously foam padded. In fact, there's a remarkable standard of built-for-people comfort everywhere.

TWICE-A-YEAR MAINTENANCE!

Spring and fall—that's all for the average driver! Ford's famous built-to-take-care-of-itself features make it possible—features that eliminate many normal service routines. You go up to 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications . . . up to 6,000 miles between oil changes. There's a new 30,000 mile or two-year radiator coolant. Brakes adjust themselves—automatically, for the life of the linings. Mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers. All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion—even the body panels beneath the doors are galvanized. Its Diamond-lustre finish never needs waxing. Ford Dealers give a 12 months or 12,000 mile warranty, whichever comes first.

SO WELL BUILT YOU CAN FEEL IT!

Certain features illustrated are optional at extra cost.

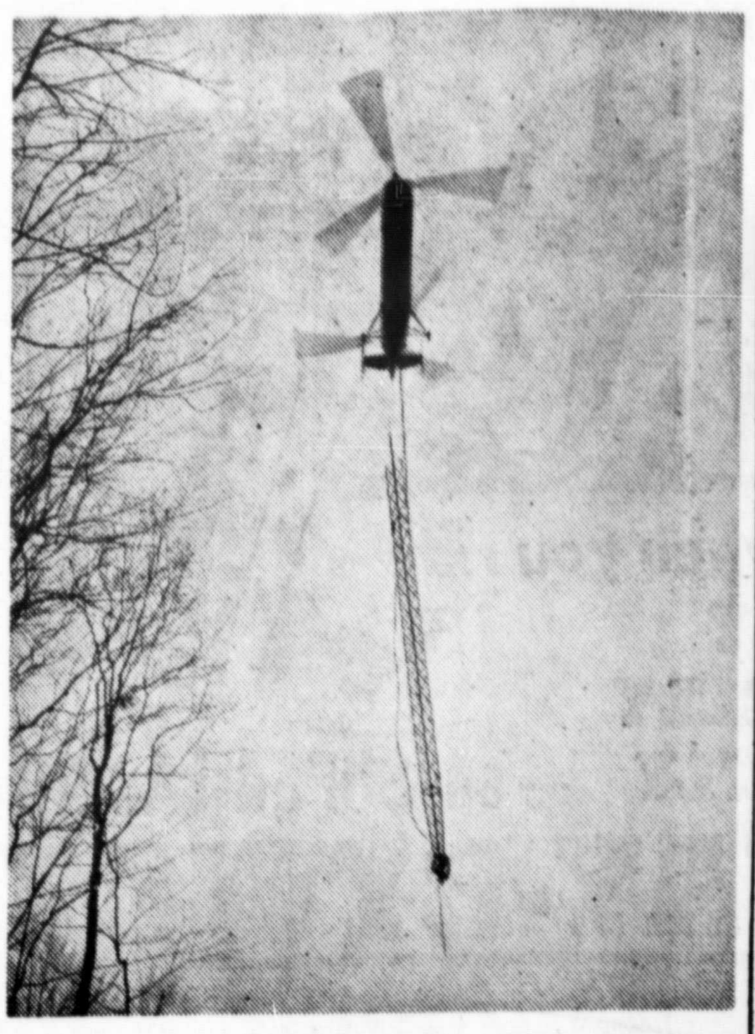
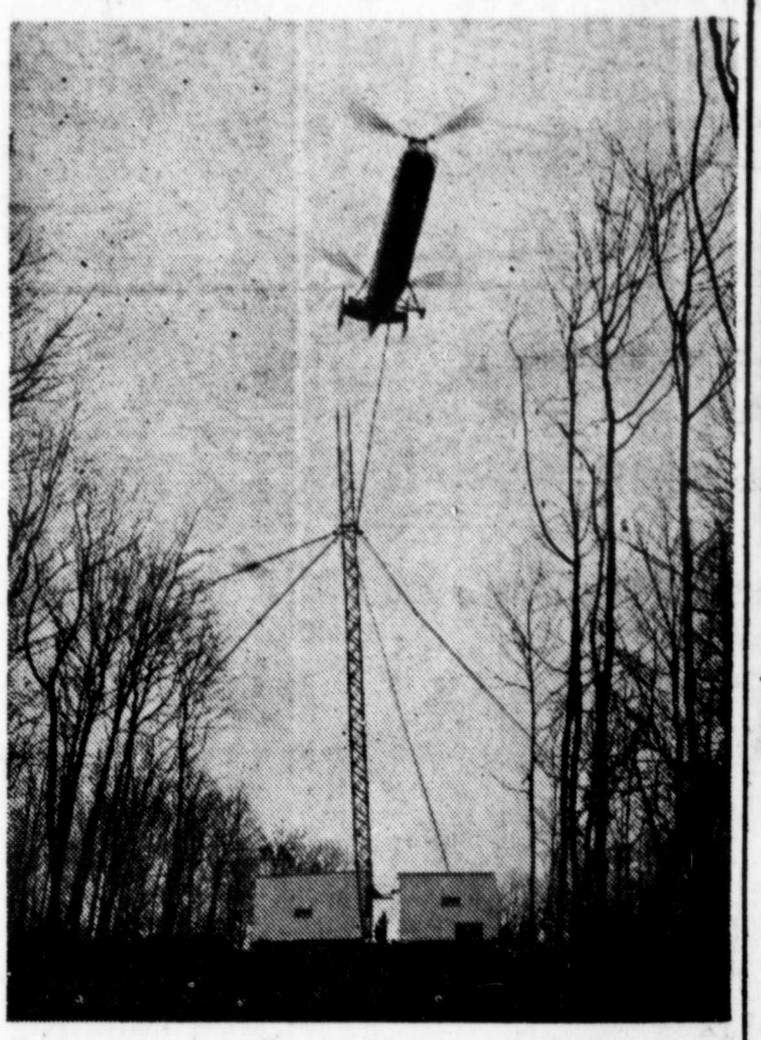
Precarious Moments At Camp Fortune FM Tower



It was touch and go for all to watch, probably the most exciting show many of us will ever see, when the great Vertol helicopter placed the hundred and seven foot broadcasting tower section neatly onto its base. The tower weighed a ton and swung precariously above while engineers and workmen worked frantically below.



One great problem was that those below had to work in a veritable gale caused by the downdraft of the wings of the helicopter. It is possible that they hadn't counted on this when the original plan was made but nevertheless, they persisted and the pilot was able to maneuver the giant structure to within a fraction of an inch of its proper place. The cotter pin was pushed into place with the help of guy wires to stabilize the tower. The guys were made fast and the job was done.

Meanwhile, up in the air in more ways than one, Frank Ryan was truly in his element. His on the spot broadcast of the entire operation came from the accompanying whirlybird where he watched with obvious and contagious glee.

Children stayed home from school on that day to watch the tower fly from Kilreen to Camp Fortune. It was taken on a circuitous course to avoid the populated areas of the city but could easily be seen. Pictures were taken and two appear here.

The result of the operation, which was conceived by Frank in his usual confident and grandiose manner, will be the spreading out of the FM territory for CFRA. As Frank Ryan has been telling everyone to "promise her anything for Christmas but get her an FM radio" he plans to see that everyone who has such a receiver will receive CFRA through all of Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec.

Ottawa, painting by McManus of Renfrew, flooring by Dean and Merritts of Shawville, cabinet work by Campbell's of Arnprior.

The front windows are stained glass and the interior is plaster and plywood with linoleum and vinyl tile floor. Exterior is brick with a cement roof and a full basement. Heating is by a new oil furance with hot water radiators. Total cost will be about $75,000.

The building extends beside and behind the present church and will be furnished to contain a minister's study, modern kitchen, choir room, two large washrooms, a church parlor and a hall designed to seat up to 400 people.

Stacking chairs will likely be used and the stage is adequate for any contemplated productions, concerts or meetings.

The Christmas party will undoubtedly be held in the new hall which wil probably be very near completion by that time. A formal dedication service will be held some time in January at which time the community will join with the United Church congregation to celebrate the fulfilment of their many years of wishful dreaming, and their one year of purposeful activity towards the realization of the hall.

Not to be overlooked in recording the works which have contributed towards the new Christian Education Wing are the ladies who through their circles and societies have helped in many ways, and the United Church Choir which produced a creditable concert, all in aid of the general fund.

And also on record must go the name of Rev Ervine Johnston who, in his short few years in Shawville, has rallied a spirit of cooperation and togetherness in his flock which made possible the project.

Having achieved the engineering feat of putting the transmitter tower on the highest point of the Gatineau hills it is quite possible that he will also achieve the feat of getting FM radios into every home.

One of his sly methods in this connection is the establishing of what some consider the best radio offerings available anywhere on his FM programs. So he and the fellows who work with him feel the expense and the risks will have been well worth while.

ELMER THE SAFETY ELEPHANT IS TEACHING YOUR CHILDREN TRAFFIC SAFETY RULES

Are you helping him?

Elmer The Safety Elephant is capturing the imagination of your children in order to impress traffic safety rules upon them. He's doing a great job, but he needs all the help he can get. Teach your children traffic safety rules at home as well. Traffic safety is everybody's business, and no child can be too safe. Make it a habit to repeat Elmer's safety rules with your children periodically:

1 Look BOTH WAYS before you cross the street.
2 Keep out from BETWEEN parked cars.
3 Ride your bike SAFELY. Obey signs and signals.
4 Play games in a SAFE PLACE away from traffic.
5 WALK when you leave the curb.
6 Walk FACING traffic where there are no sidewalks.

Remember, traffic safety is everybody's responsibility

At Hull

Shawville Cagers Meet Defeat

On the night of November 24 Shawville High School basketball teams, male and female, received two decisive defeats from Hull High School teams in Hull. The scoring was:
girls, Hull 44 — Shawville 12
boys, Hull 62 — Shawville 17

The Hull girls team included several experienced players, with Judy Radmore and Robin Muir accounting for 30 points of the 44 scored. Shawville girls team, being one of almost completely new players, put up a good struggle but could not control the Hull team. Shawville's Joyce McCleary scored all 12 points for the team.

The boys game followed the same pattern in which an experienced Hull team stepped into an early lead and held it. Shawville played with a skeleton team of six as a result of certain of its better players being disqualified due to lack of academic qualifications. Top scorers for Hull boys team: R Relaney 21 and S Lebrun 20 points, accounting for 41 of Hull's 62 points. For Shawville Glen Elliott scored 7 points, Don Stevens 4, Ted Hayes, Terry Davies and Doug Yemen receiving two each. If Shawville High School basketball teams hope to improve, academic standings must rise to release the disqualified players for active duty at the nets.

Beechgrove W I Hold Bazaar

The Nov. meeting of the Beech Grove WI was held at the home of the president Mrs Lloyd Hobbs on Tuesday, November 14.

The meeting opened with everyone reciting the collect followed by 2 minutes silence.

Fourteen members and one visitor were present. The roll call was answered by each member donating a pair of mitts for the bazaar.

A report on the county convention which was held in Quyon, was given by the delegate, Mrs Andrew Bennett.

A memorial spray was purchased and was placed at the monument in Quyon during the Remembrance Day Service, on Nov. 12, by Mrs Allen Poole.

The remainder of the evening was taken up with business partaining to the forth coming bazaar.

Lunch was served by the hostess Mrs I Hobbs and the assistant hostess Mrs August Olm who also donated the tea prize which was won by Mrs R E Campbell.

The Bazaar and Tea held by the Beech Grove Women's Institute Nov 25 was highly successful. The ladies wish to take this opportunity to thank all who helped in any way to make it a success.

The winning ticket on the hand applique quilt, worked by Mrs Hattie Steele, was drawn by Mrs Harry McRea, the winner was Mrs Lorne (Buster) Draper. Congratulations Anita!

Even though the Bazaar was a success there are several nice items left over; hand worked pillow cases, fancy aprons, an assortment of mitts and a baby's dress and slip set. Anyone wishing any of these items as a Christmas gift may obtain them at Kay Carswell's.

A Suggested Solution For the Poultry Business

By W A Brown

Two years experience with the Shawville Rotary Club in the operation of Chicken Barbecues, at the four day Pontiac Regional Agricultural Fair and the close observation of a professional barbecuer over a wide area would appear to indicate that the point of improvement most needed, is in the adequate cooking and cuisine perfection of the product. Persistently guarded, in this respect it was surprising, at Shawville, how many people came back and came back for more. Supreme consumer satisfaction is the basic consideration in a mainained worthwhile price and to date there has never been any surplus of that kind of product.

There are many methods in use today in the so-called barbecuing of chickens, from roasting in an oven to the most elaborate mechanical equipment but none of them seem to provide the facility for basting and testing the proper degree of cooking and cuisine perfection as does the old fashioned, open pit, charcoal, open fired method with its condiment added and smoky tang flavour to make up for some of the deficiencies in natural flavor occasioned by today's highly artificial rearing.

Cured and smoked meats have always commanded a substantial premium and in these days of greater and greater mass production, in the poultry industry, a premium for a superior article could be the saving grace for the industry This suggests that the ultimate in barbecuing might well be centralized barbecuing, where the chickens could be pre-condiment treated and cooked or pre-cooked by the open pit method and delivered to destination in that fashion. This would obviate the necessity of the current flavour destroying practices of water soaking and icepacking and effectibely counter the critically spoilage factor percipitated by the new super-scald method of pin feather, epidermis skin removal.

Shawville Rotary Club specifications, this year, called for a super quality Grade 'A', of a weight average of 2½ to 2¾ lbs. This meant severe culling of current receipts and this was faithfully complied with by the supplier. A willing to learn, young chef was employed and coached, in advance on the principlas enunciated above.

Broiler chickens, as grown, including cockerals, vary greatly in the weight factor Pullets require two weeks or longer to attain desired weights than do cockerals. Consumers want what they want but current production practice, too often, disregards this. When the time comes everything goes and the market is continually loaded and over-loaded with a lot of undesirable and practically unsaleable product. Something more practical than present methods, in the way of production selection for market is urgently needed.

In many respects the broiler problem of today is not unlike the problem in eggs of fifty years ago. The trouble lies, not alone in the production of a lot of unwanted and undesirable product but in what percipitates this, the failure to recognize in the purchase or contract price, the factor which the consumer wants and for which he is prepared to pay a substantial premium.

In eggs of an earlier day the wholesale grocer was the principal receiver. He was interested in eggs solely as a means to collect his accounts and everything good, bad and indifferent, in the way of quality was accepted on a one price basis. Approached early in the campaign to change his ways, the reply, invariably, was 'Why bother with us? We did not make the eggs bad. When you want to purify a stream you start at the source not at the mouth' The reply was, 'We are starting at the source, the source of the money, the one price basis that encourages producers to send in everything on which they can lay their hands'. It required one large receiver to be inveigled into shipping two cars of eggs to the Chicago market where they were condemned and confiscated by the Pure Food authorities before he saw the light.

That was the start of the Egg Trade Improvement Campaign. A favourable home and world reputation was built on that foundation and premiums for quality established that averaged 25% for Grade 'A' over Grade 'B' and 100% for Grade 'A' over Grade 'C'. Something similar, or even more distinctive, for broilers is needed.

Present methods of merchandizing have overshot their mark. 'Cheep! Cheep! Cheep! may be a good sign when chickens are small but 'Cheep, Cheap, Cheap! is not the remedy when chickens are ready for market. Out of the melee a better product must emerge and the further it can be perfected to meet current and prospective consumer demand and requirements, the better will the outlook be. The old adage still stands, Let a man make a better mouse trap and the public will beat a path to his door!

There must, however, be a premium for those that deserve it and to establish and maintain that premium, the product must be tasteful, exciting, persistently good and the more novel and the more near ready for immediate use the better.

THE PROPOSAL

To justify that premium that product could be,

Super quality raw product of prescribed, eviscerated weights; pre-treated for flavor deficiencies, not water soaked nor ice packed; centrally prepared and cooked by the open pit barbacue method, persistently basted with prescribed flavor ingredients during cooking; perfectly cooked to a pleasing appearance; frozen cooked or not frozen as conditions may warrant; attractively packaged and invitingly advertised.

First on the home market, work out in a demonstration way, any kinks that may develop and then proceed to the export market In doing so work out a way in which any goods the other fellow has to sell may be taken in return. To do this local Boards of Trade, in which both potemtial exporters and importers are members, could be a very useful medium to arrange the interchange. In egg trade improvement Boards of Trade functioned for thirty years and issued Grading Certificates before any grading legislation was in effect. Boards of Trade have a way of negotating business arrangements between their members, which while it may be encouraged, really lies beyond the scope of Government activity.

In sentiments as above could lie the hope of the future for the Poultry Industry.

Fort Coulonge, Quebec
November 24, 1961.

The Equity,
Shawville, Quebec,
Dear Sirs,

Our thanks to your editorial write up and your "Buy and Use TB Seals" on front page of November 23rd Equity. Mrs Lloyd Neville deserves all kinds of credit for her work as secretary-treasurer. This entails sending out 4000 letters and seals. These have to be folded addressed, checked off and sent out. In many cases follow up notices are sent. When returns come in, perhaps about 800 with money, these have to be recorded and receipts sent out.

Have we a mild depression? This year Mrs Neville reports more single dollars for which we are thankful, but always expect two or more from our wealthy friends.. Businesses we feel can do better, logging companies excepted, and you other who do please disregard.

At present in Pontiac we have an enviable position in number of active cases of Tuberculosis and must keep it that way.

If each one of us does his part we can keep on reducing the incidence of a disease we all know only too well. Christmas seal money is an important and necessary factor in prevention and cure.

Editor, The Equity,

Dear Sir:

In a recent issue of your paper there was a reference to the difference in spelling of th name of the Village of Quyon and the name of the Quio river.

The story goes that when Samuel de Champlain and his brave men were exploring the Upper Ottawa, they kept near the north for two reasons: the midstream was too swift for paddling and because of the heavy bush along the shore, there was more sunshine on the north. When they came to the rushing water of the Quio river they asked the Indians what that was and were told in a word which sounded like Que-aw.

To give the word the pronunciation it needed in French it was spelled on Champlain's map as Quyon, (Que-aw), as such it is.

At one time the river was a rushing stream of water, when the area of Onslow, Bristol, Clarendon, Thorne and further northwest was a solid bush, which held much snow and when melted in the spring, gave it terrific volume and force.

In the memory of many of us the spring drive was a big item and there were many logging camps at work in the winter. In every district where heavy timbers were cut down the creeks became much smaller with less spring runoff.

Yours as ever,
Elwyn Hodgins

The Equity,
Shawville, Que.
Dear David:

As I sit here with dozens of cards and letters conveying assurance of prayers, messages of encouragement and get well wishes, from my many friends from Campbell's Bay to Eardley, I realize it is beyond the ability of a convalescent to reply to them indirectly, except for a long time. . .(I would like) through The Equity to advise all these great people; individuals, church groups, lodges and service clubs, who wrote, sent flowers, or other gifts that I am now at home recovering slowly. Thanks to their prayers and encouragement, the Great Physician and doctors and nurses of that wonderful institution, the Montreal General Hospital. Also please convey my heartfelt gratitude for their thoughtfullness and concern for me. It is indeed gratifying that people among whom I spent almost ten happy years, and many of them not of my own flock, were so kindly interested.

It is a coincidence that I was not without the immediate attention of a representative of Pontiac in my most crucial moments. The anaesthetist who attended during surgery was Dr. Robillard who hails from Campbell's Bay. He dropped in to see me a few times afterwards and we talked Pontiac.

While thanking all those other, I thank you in anticipation.

Yours sincerely,
(Rev) R. G. Elliott.

BELL — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather Stephen Bell who passed away December 5th, 1960.
One sad and lonely year has passed
Since our great sorrow fell
The shock that we received that day
No one can never tell.
God gave us strength to meet it
And courage to bear the blow
But what it means to lose you
No one will ever know.
It's lonely here without you Dad,
We miss you more each day
For life is not the same to us
Since you were called away.
You bade no one a last farewell
Nor even said goodbye
You were gone before we realized
And only God knows why.
