QUEBEC, JUNE 28, 1906.

CANADIAN ELECTRIC CO.

The report of the directors of the Canadian Electric Light Company, which we publish in another column, evinces a condition of affairs and a progress which must be held to be highly satisfactory. It shows an increase of about 24 per cent. on the gross receipts as compared with those of last year, while the slight increase of $900 in the operating expenses is simply what might be expected from a progressive business, and is, as the directors say, a normal one. There has, moreover, accrued during the year to the credit of Profit and Loss a balance of $11,520.90, which with the balance over the previous year amounted to $13,562.60.

Moreover, in consequence of the inability at the time to dispose of its bonds and stock to advantage, the company was carrying a floating debt of over $165,000. At the date of the report this large sum was reduced to some $12,000, and if the directors' calculations are correct, is entirely wiped out by this time. This considerably strengthens the position of the company, and brings a dividend on the common stock appreciably nearer; indeed we are informed that had it not been for certain unforeseen and unavoidable accidents the net surplus would have been about 5 per cent. on the common stock, and even, as it is, it amounts to 2 1/2 per cent. There is every reason to believe therefore that the directors are not unduly sanguine in looking for a dividend on the common stock in the near future. It would appear, therefore, that the affairs of the company have been administered with equal energy and discretion, and we congratulate the directors on the report they have been able to make to their shareholders.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR.

Among the honorary degrees recently conferred by the University of Ottawa, none was more fittingly and worthily bestowed than that of LL.D. upon Mr. John Rende, who as journalist, poet, essayist, has held a distinguished place in Canadian literary annals for half a century, for over thirty years of which he has charmed and instructed the readers of the Montreal Gazette as its literary and general assistant editor. As a writer, whether of prose or verse, he takes a very high rank, and his style is distinguished equally by the eminent scholarship evinced by it, and by freedom from all straining after effect; in fact, he possesses that highest of all literary merit of which, it is said, ars est celare artem, and this is more particularly noticeable in his poetical works, the principal fault to be found with which is that they are all too few and apparently written on Mr. Weller junior's idea of epitaphic composition that it should be just enough to make the reader wish there were more of it.

In acknowledging the compliment paid to him Mr. Rende accepted it impersonally, as it were, and as given not to himself alone, but in connection with his fellow workers of the pen, and in this he showed his customary modesty, and the kindly consideration for his brothers in the profession which have always distinguished him, and have endeared him to all those who have ever had the pleasure of knowing him. It is indeed true that every newspaper man receives a reflected measure of the honor with which John Rende has been honored, and feels in a modified degree that gratification which John Rende feels, but nevertheless it is not the profession but the individual, the scholar, essayist, poet, the man full of kindly thoughts and kindly deeds that has been honored, and on none has honor been more worthily bestowed.

A REASONABLE REQUEST.

It would appear that the proximity of the Cobalt mining district to the boundary line between the two provinces of Ontario and Quebec is likely to tempt some unprincipled persons to avail themselves of the opportunity of smuggling liquor into the mining camp in defiance of the wise provision of the Ontario liquor law which prohibits its introduction into these places. The boundary line runs through Lake Temiskaming, and an island on the Quebec side of it affords great facilities for running liquor with almost certain immunity as the Ontario Government is powerless to prevent it. Under these circumstances the Toronto Globe makes an appeal to the Government of this province which we feel confident will meet with proper attention. Our conferees say:—

A report has gone abroad that the liquor law of Ontario is to be evaded, so far as Cobalt is concerned, by the establishment of a liquor-selling house on an island on the Quebec side of the boundary line running through Lake Temiskaming. The distance between the Ontario shore and the island referred to is comparatively short, and the lake is usually placid enough to cross in a skiff or a canoe. Cobalt is near enough the shore to make the whole scheme quite feasible, and also to turn an unusually quiet and orderly mining camp into one full of diabolism.

It is not too much to ask the Quebec Government to take joint action with the Ontario Government to prevent such a regrettable change. Our license law in this province is quite stringent regarding the sale of liquor in the vicinity of mines, and presumably the law of the Province of Quebec might be made to meet this exceptional case. As there is no settlement in that province anywhere near the spot indicated, the only object in obtaining a license to sell there would be to supply with liquor those who are at work in or about the Cobalt mines. To refuse a license would be the fair and neighborly course, and if the sale of the stuff were attempted without a license detection and prosecution would then be comparatively easy.

THE DREYFUS CASE.

Nearly twelve years ago a trial was held in France which attracted the attention of the whole civilized world, and was fraught with issues important to its peace, and to the stability of the national government. Never before was there so much involved in the fate of a comparatively obscure individual, a captain on the general staff of the French army accused of selling military secrets to a certain foreign power, never were such bitter animosities evoked, and seldom, if ever, before was the outside consensus so general that a failure of justice had occurred, and that an innocent individual had been sacrificed to exigencies of State. Every one remembers how grotesquely unjust was the first trial granted to Captain Dreyfus, and how infamous was the sentence pronounced on him. He was condemned to be degraded from his rank, and, in order to preclude all possibility of rehabilitation was further sentenced to imprisonment for life on Devil's Island off the coast of French Guiana, to which place he was conveyed in March, 1895, and where he was treated with the utmost severity. His case was apparently hopeless, but, confident in the justice of his cause, he never lost hope, and was sustained by it under circumstances which his oppressors had confidently reckoned on to bring about either insanity or an early death. In the meantime his friends were working, and public opinion in France, which had at first been led away by the charge of treason, began to change. A belief in his innocence grew strong, and in 1899 the highest French tribunal, the Court of Cassation, ordered a retrial by Court Martial. This second Court Martial was held at Rennes, and most of the testimony given before it was published; not indeed all, but enough to convince the world that the conclusion come to by the court that Dreyfus was guilty, but that there were extenuating circumstances, was wholly contrary to the evidence. Dreyfus was sentenced to ten years imprisonment, but the members of the court united in a recommendation to mercy which was acted on by the then President of the Republic, M. Loubet, and Dreyfus received a free pardon.

With this conclusion the general interest in the case died away, and the outside world, though still convinced that justice had not been done, was content to know that the victim no longer suffered the pains and penalties of the law. The verdict was looked upon, not as an act of justice, but as a compromise. The bitter animosities had been evoked in the discussion of the case, at least, one ministry had been wrecked, and at one time the agitation assumed such dimensions as to threaten a rallying point against the republic itself, and to render a foreign war more than probable. The Rennes Court Martial hoped by its decision to let Captain Dreyfus off as easily as possible, without exposing the real culprits, who were too influential to be lightly forgiven. But Captain Dreyfus has never been satisfied to lie under what he claims is an unmerited disgrace affecting not only himself but his family and has been steadily appealing for real justice, and the time seems to have arrived when the old proverb that "All things come to him who waits," will be verified for him too. Already three presidents, six ministers, and nine ministers of war have had to deal with the Dreyfus case, and now, according to the despatches recently received from Paris, it is to be reopened, the verdict of the Rennes Court Martial is to be annulled, and a third trial is to be held for the benefit of the unlucky soldier, which, now that the old animosities have died away, and the old adverse influences have been rendered powerless, will, it is hoped, result in giving Dreyfus justice at last.

The Influence Of What We Eat

Young People Are Especially Susceptible To This Influence.

The nourishment taken by body and mind, the extent to which this nourishment is assimilated, the form and proportions in which it is taken into the system, the amount of food and drink consumed, and the care given to the body and its various functions—all profoundly affect the health. Some individuals think they can abuse the laws of nature with impunity, but even generous endowments of physical vigor eventually succumb, while the great mass of people, especially the young, are peculiarly susceptible to the food they consume. As "Good Housekeeping" in an editorial suggests, health depends not so much on the nourishment taken into the stomach as on the extent to which this nourishment is taken up by the system. Malta-Vita, the perfect malted whole-wheat food, so rich in nourishment, containing every food element necessary to the sustenance of the human body and mind, is readily assimilated, even by the weakest stomach, because of the large percentage of maltose, or malt sugar, which it contains. A malted wheat extract, sweetening agent and forms rich, healthy blood. Malta-Vita is especially beneficial for children, and it is so good to eat now for sale by all grocers, 10 cents.

THE CANADIAN ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY

Report of the Directors for the Fiscal Year Ending April 30th, 1906.

Gentlemen,—We are pleased to be able to state that the operations of your Company for the fiscal year ending April 30th, 1906, show satisfactory results.

Our gross receipts for the year amounted to $72,712.56, whilst for the previous year they were only $58,161.52, that is, an increase of approximately 24 per cent.

Our operating expenses, which, during the previous year, reached the sum of $22,294.33, have for this year reached the sum of $23,192.60, that is a normal increase of approximately $900.00. During the previous year, after having provided for the expenses of operation, for the payment of the interest of the first mortgage bonds and on the preferred stock (which replaced the second mortgage bonds) there remained to the credit of the accounts Profit and Loss an amount of $2,641.61. This has been increased to an amount of $13,562.60 for this year, that is, an increase of $11,520.90. This surplus has been allotted in the following manner:—

An amount of $3,367.34 has been utilized to pay for expenses of betterment and repairs.

In the second place we have paid the expenses caused by serious accidents due to fire and lightning, the sum of $4,345.65. The balance remaining is $5,249.61, which amount at the present time has not all been collected, remains to the credit of the account of profit and loss.

In other respects the general position of this company also is now very satisfactory.

In January, 1905, we had a floating debt of $165,004.89 whereas on the 30th of April last this debt had been reduced to the sum of $23,700.00, that is to say, we had reduced our floating debt by $141,304.89. Since the 30th of April we have paid off approximately one half of the remaining $23,700.00, and we have good reason to believe that within a fortnight the balance remaining will be paid.

We were carrying this large debt because our bonds and stock, which were guaranteeing this liability had not sufficient market value to allow us to dispose of them advantageously. The figures above given demonstrate clearly that this is now changed. This satisfactory result is due to a large majority of our shareholders and bondholders who have had the courage to face the situation at that time and to support the Board of Directors in the stand which they have taken in this matter. To-day our expectations, thanks to that, have become accomplished facts, and unless unforeseen events happen, the holders of common stock will soon have their turn and should begin to receive the dividend so long waited for. Had it not been for the serious accidents mentioned above, which have cost us $4,345.65 we would have had $9,605.26 of net surplus, that is, approximately 5 per cent. on the common stock. Whilst deducting this $4,345.65 there still remains to us a net surplus of 2 1/2 per cent. profit on the common stock. These figures prove that our expectations for the payment of a dividend on the common stock in the very near future are based on reliable data.

We have been released during the past year from the large claim the Engineering Contract Company pretended to have against us, and this matter has been written off our books in consequence of the settlement of the law suit pending in connection with same.

For the Board,
LOUIS P. PELLETIER,
Quebec, 26th June, 1906.
President.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT ON RAILWAY SUBSIDIES

Clauses of Resolutions Considered in Committee
BILL TO AMEND R.R. ACT
Railway Commission Given Power to Make Regulations as to Qualifications of Firemen and Engineers.
Ottawa, June 26.—The railway subsidy resolutions were considered in committee of the whole in the House of Commons today. They provided for a renewal of expired or expiring subsidies to forty-six railway sections. The total length of road covered by the subsidies is 3,172 miles. The minimum rate of payment is $15,000 a mile for roads costing up to $15,000 a mile, but on those of greater cost the amount may be proportionately increased, not to exceed $6,000 a mile. There is also a deferred payment of $85,000 to the Brockville, Westport and Sault Ste. Marie road. A minimum liability of $10,240,400 is to be recouped. There is provision also that the subsidized roads shall furnish the Government Transportation for men, supplies, material and mails, and that towards the payment for such services the Government shall be credited by the companies with a sum equal to 3 per cent. per annum on the amount of the subsidy received. There was some enquiry from the opposition as how much had been received on account of such repayments; but the minister did not seem to be informed on the point. There was some criticism of such subsidies, but it did not meet with apparent general sympathy, and with the wisdom of certain of the proposed grants was questioned. Conservative members interested in the locality would usually come to their defence. In the course of the discussion Mr. W. F. Macdon made an appeal for a shorter line between Ottawa and Toronto so that the trip could be made in four or five hours instead of eight. On the clause for a subsidy for a railway from St. Andrews, N. B., to a point in the parish of St. Lawrence (Jacques Cartier) passing through the parishes of St. Placide, St. Eustache and St. Martin, Mr. Monk moved to add the parishes of Ste. Dorothee, Ste. Genevieve and Isle of Bizard. This was opposed by Mr. Ethier (Two Mountains), and by Mr. Emerson. The latter said a contract had been entered into on the basis of the original subsidy, of which the one before the House was a revote, and the amount was lost. On the subsidy for nine miles of the Ottawa-North and Western Railway, from Aylmer to Hull, Mr. Haggart got the information that the money is to be paid to a company which sold out to the Canadian Pacific some years ago. The clauses of the resolution were all adopted.

TEACHER'S REPORT.
To the Chairman and Board of Trustees of St. George's School, Gentlemen:

I beg to lay before you the annual report of St. George's School. The present session opened on September 5th with an attendance of 66, this number has since increased and 77 pupils are now enrolled. The average attendance has been 59. The irregularity of the attendance of the pupils, which was largely due to illness, being a great drawback to regular class work. During the year nine of our pupils have left the city. This year a new system has been adopted, previous to this all lessons were prepared at home and recited in school; this year, however, the lessons have been both prepared and recited during school hours and thus all home work has been done away with. This change has proved to be very satisfactory. The Inspector visited the school on May 15th and 16th, spending from 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. on the 16th, giving the school the following Friday afternoon as a holiday. The pupils were examined in their respective grades and the Inspector expressed himself as much pleased with the results, the school having taken 88 per cent of the possible marks for progress and 91 per cent of the possible marks for bonus work.

The following is his report given in the "Visitors Register"—Visited and inspected this school on the 15th instant and the day following. The pupils were examined in most of the subjects of their respective grades. Generally speaking the results were satisfactory, the reading was excellent throughout the school, the writing very good. The arithmetic would require a little more attention in some of the grades as well as geography. It is to be regretted that the average attendance is so small, being only 59 out of a total number of 76 pupils. We would urge that the parents endeavor as far as possible to secure the regular attendance of the children at school and in this way aid in the advancement of the pupils and greatly facilitate the work of the teachers. The school building, furniture and provisions were found to be in very good condition.

O. F. M'UTCHEON, School Inspector.
We take this opportunity of thanking Miss Beatrice Jacques for her kind assistance with the musical part of our programme. We are indebted to the following kind friends for prizes—Mr. F. H. Andrews, two silver medals, and books from Mrs. Chas. E. Tenney, Mrs. A. Burns, Mrs. Alex. MacKay, Mrs. Thor's Norris, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. R. Watters, Mrs. Wm. Jacques, s.r., Miss Plaine, Mrs. Jas. Ellis, Mrs. Alf. Jacques, Mrs. W. H. Raymond, Mrs. Chas. H. Thorn, Mrs. W. G. L. Paxman, Mrs. R. H. O'Regan, Mrs. P. Dale, Mrs. W. H. Wiggs, Mr. Alf. Jacques, Mr. T. Norris, Mr. Geo. P. Mathis, Mr. Jas. Woods, Mr. Wm. Jacques, Mr. A. C. Morrison, Mr. T. J. Moore, Mr. Jas. Ellis, Mr. Jas. Pounds, a City Friend and Mrs. Geo. J. Stator.

I remain,
Yours respectfully,
FLORENCE M. C. RAYMOND, Principal

FACTORY WORKED BY SPIDERS.
The spider web may soon be a reality for the threads of thousands of spiders are being carefully gathered, unwound, and woven into shimmering silk fabrics. On the island of Madagascar this odd industry is carried on under the direct management of the Governor, who has been appointed by the French authorities manager of what is perhaps the strongest factory in the world. Here spiders toil day and night and die from overwork and from ignorance on the part of the attendants. Therein lies the chief difficulty. The spider seems perfectly willing to spin out in the maze grooves of its native lair, but it grows sulky when transplanted to the specially-prepared cells at the silk spinning factory of Madagascar.

STUDENTS' SUPPORT DEAKER
The representatives of the different colleges affiliated with Laval University have just concluded their meetings. The question of an increase in the price of the board charged students was discussed. As the cost of living has greatly increased since the time when $100 a year was considered sufficient, the difficulty of making both ends meet in the budget of the colleges is becoming more and more difficult. The superior of one college declared that each student cost $15 per month, while the college only received $10.

A BOY KILLED MILITARY VISITORS

Struck in Head by Piece of Flying Rock from Blast.

Struck by a piece of flying rock from a blast, little Damase Mercier, standing on the gallery of the residence of his father at the village of Montmorency, at the Falls, was so badly injured last evening that he died three hours later. The work of excavation for a system of water-works is now in progress in the village, and the blast which caused the boy's death was in connection with this work. The accident occurred near the church. The boy was struck in the head by the piece of rock, and when Dr. J. F. Bowdoin and Dr. J. G. LaRue were hurriedly summoned to attend to him, it was found that his injuries were of the most serious nature, his skull having been opened to the extent of six inches and a piece of bone driven into the brain two inches. The little fellow died about half-past nine o'clock. He was only six years of age and was a son of Pierre Mercier, of Montmorency Village.

FINGERS CRUSHED.
 Mrs. M. Albert, of Fort Kent, Maine, was the victim of a very painful accident yesterday afternoon. She had been to see Dr. Beupre, oculist, on St. Louis street, for consultation, and upon leaving the doctor's office entered a cab which was in waiting for her. Before she had time to get properly seated the cutter shut the door of the vehicle, which caught two of the lady's fingers of the right hand, crushing them badly and necessitating medical attention.

ARE FOND OF GUM.
 Several of Rodé's gum boxes have been robbed of gum and money in different parts of the city during the past few days and the local police authorities have the matter in hand. In some cases the front plates of the boxes have been removed and carried away as well as the money and gum found in the boxes. It would appear as if the thieves possessed keys of the boxes, and the police will endeavor to locate the guilty parties.

VISITING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER MEN.
 The National Editorial Association, comprising nearly three hundred newspaper men and their ladies arrived in the city yesterday on a visit. Some 200 of the party continued on to the Saguenay by the R. & O. N. Co. steamer Tadoussac, and will return to the city for a short stay on Friday. In the meantime the balance which remained over in the city, made a tour of all the points of interest during the day, and while some of them returned to their homes in the United States last night, quite a few will remain until Friday to rejoin their friends, and depart en masse for the West on Friday night. The National Editors' Association is principally composed of newspaper writers connected with suburban publications in the United States, and a great many of these papers have large circulations and well conducted editorial columns. The local newspaper men held a meeting at the Chateau Frontenac yesterday afternoon to organize and devise a means of extending the visitors a reception. Mr. Frank Carrel, of the Telegraph, was elected President, Major Lovasseur, Vice-President, Messrs. J. Bernard, Le Soleil and J. J. O'Flaherty, Chronicle, Joint Secretaries of the committee, with Messrs. C. Deguire, D. Watson, René Leclerc, Libra Parole, and J. Dussault, L'Evenement.

After some discussion on plans proposed to entertain the visitors, it was decided to interview Mayor Garneau this morning before coming to a decision.

THE DOCTOR'S WIFE
 Agrees With Him About Food.
 A trained nurse says: "In the practice of my profession I have found so many points in favor of Grape-Nuts food that I unhesitatingly recommend it to all my patients."
 "It is delicate and pleasing to the palate (an essential in food for the sick) and can be adapted to all ages, being softened with milk or cream for babies or the aged when deficiency of teeth renders mastication impossible. For fever patients or those on liquid diet I find Grape-Nuts and albumen water very nourishing and refreshing. This recipe is my own idea and is made as follows: Soak a teaspoonful of Grape-Nuts in a glass of water for an hour, strain and serve with the beaten white of an egg and a spoonful of fruit juice or flavoring. This affords a great deal of nourishment that even the weakest stomach can assimilate without any distress."
 "My husband is a physician and he uses Grape-Nuts himself and orders it many times for his patients."
 "Personally I regard a dish of Grape Nuts with fresh or stewed fruit as the ideal breakfast for anyone—well or sick." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
 In any case of stomach trouble, nervous prostration or brain-fag, a 10 days trial of Grape-Nuts will work wonders toward nourishing and rebuilding, and in this way ending the trouble. "There's a reason" and trial proves.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN JONES.
 Another old Quebec land mark in the person of Mr. John Jones passed away yesterday at the ripe and honorable old age of 82 years. Deceased who was born in the city of Quebec, and the scion of an old family of the earlier generations, was a man of leisure and prominent in society, of a genial disposition and esteemed by all who knew him.

TOOK THE HABIT.
 There was an imposing religious ceremony at the Church of the Bon Pasteur yesterday morning, when 21 postulants assumed the habit of the congregation of the Serving Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The ceremony was presided over by Mgr. C. A. Marcis, Vicar-General of the Diocese, who was assisted by the Rev. Father Jameson, curé of Van Buren, Me., and Rev. Father A. Bellevue, curé of St. Vital de Lambton. Five of the new sisters are from Quebec, Mlles. Carmen Delisle, Marie Ernestine Barry, Rosanna Letarte, Laura Meheux, and Blanche Lortie. Five were from United States points—Mlles. Marguerite Cyr, Lucie Keegan and Lucie Gagnon, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., and Mlle. Beatrice Pfeiffer, of Philadelphia. The remainder come from different parts of the Province.

HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE.
 Yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, an alarm from box 91, summoned the firemen to the house No. 11 Demers street, St. Sauveur, where a fire had broken out. The house, which belonged to F. X. Drouin, advocate, was occupied downstairs by Joseph Tremblay, blacksmith, and upstairs by Widow George Drolet. The fire broke out in the apartments of the latter, its origin being unknown, and spread so rapidly that nothing was saved. Mme. Drolet and Tremblay losing all that they possessed in the way of furniture, clothing, etc., in fact they had just time to escape themselves from the burning building. The firemen promptly got to work, and succeeded in confining the flames to the building, which was badly gutted. The loss will amount to $1,500, and it is understood that there is no insurance.

CHATEAU ADJUNCT

C.P.R. will Start Work Immediately if Property-Owners' Terms are Accepted.

Messrs. Jones and Dunbar, owners of the properties on Des Carrières street, opposite the Chateau Frontenac, adjucted by the C.P.R. to build an adjunct to the Chateau, have fixed a price for their respective properties. The amount they have requested is not given out, and an answer is awaited from the company whether it will accept or not. It is thought by well informed persons that the C.P.R. will come to terms with the two proprietors, and the work of demolition to erect the adjunct to the Chateau commenced as soon as practical. It is the intention of the C.P.R. in the event of their acquiring the properties composing the whole block in which the Messrs. Jones and Dunbar properties are located, to erect a large additional building that will contain between six and seven hundred rooms, including a large dining room that will run the full length of the proposed structure parallel with St. Louis street, and will accommodate one thousand diners. According to the plans suggested, it is also proposed to connect the Chateau with the new projected building by an underground tunnel, through which the servants will find means of communication, and one if not two arched passages across the street. The arches will lead to the second story of the buildings, and be erected not to interfere with street traffic, and at the same time be a work of splendid architecture. In order to construct the arches in question it will be necessary to obtain permission of the city, but owing to the isolation of the hotel from the business part of the city, it is thought that the necessary permission will be granted, and when the new addition to the Chateau is completed, it will be the largest hotel in Canada, and one of the largest in the world.

 But one prisoner accused of drunkenness was before the Court yesterday. He was discharged.

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL. The closing exercises of the Girls' High School, which took place in Tara Hall last evening, was a very pleasing function. Lt. Col. Walter J. Ray, in the absence of the President of the Board of Protestant School Commissioners, ably presided, and after the formality of a few opening remarks, announced the first item of the programme of entertainment, a chorus participated in by some twenty young lady pupils. A scene from "The King of the Commons" followed. Misses King, Hazel Smith, Pearl Hall, Kathleen Colley and Lucy Clark taking part, all reading their lines and otherwise acquitted themselves throughout the scene admirably. The next item was a "Flag Drill," which was performed by about two dozen pupils, who went through the movements with precision and good effect. The distribution of prizes came next, after which a chorus was rendered by the pupils, "Hurrah For England," which was prettily sung and enthusiastically received by the large audience that filled the hall. MISS MACDONALD'S VALEDC-TORY REPORT. The Rev. Mr. Wylie C. Clarke read the thirtieth and valedictory report of the lady principal of the school, Miss Macdonald, which was listened to with rapt attention, owing to the high respect entertained for Miss Macdonald, and the fact that it was her alumnus to the school and pupils. The report read as follows:— This year completes the third decade in the history of the Girls' High School. When we look back to the time of its organization and follow its growth from its infancy to its present years of maturity, we rejoice, on the one hand, at the difficulties it has surmounted. We regret, on the other hand, that the opportunities which have crossed its path have not all been crowned with the best results. This institution was established in this conservative old city, at a time when strong prejudices prevailed against public schools, except for the workman's child; when parents never dreamed of giving their daughters an education as their sons; when classics and mathematics considered subjects unsuited to the feminine mind, and unnecessary for the fair sex. We have lived down these prejudices. We have learned that boys do not monopolize the sole ability to study the higher branches, nor do they even in the most difficult subjects, put to shame their sisters in competitive examinations. We are rapidly becoming convinced that there is not, in its essential elements at least, an education for man and another for woman. In souls, in minds, in consciences, in hearts, there is no sex. Should you ask what is the best education for woman? We would answer—That which will best help her to become a perfect human being, wise, loving, and strong. What has she a right to do? Any good without injury to her dignity and worth as a human being. What is forbidden her? Nothing but what degrades or narrows or warps her. Between her and man the real question is not of inferiority but of unlikeness. Gentleness and amiableness are woman's subtle charms; wisdom and valor, man's; yet women should be wise and brave, and men should be gentle and amiable. Man reaches his conclusion through analysis and argument; women, through feeling and intuition. He has greater power of self-control; she, of self-sacrifice. He is guided by law and principle; she, by insight and tact. He asks for power; she, for affection. Men would shun the full measure of her endowments, a pure flame will glow upon the hearth. If she gain a wider and more varied interest in life she will become happier, more willing and more able to help the progress of the race. If we hold that every human being has the right to do whatever is fair or noble or useful, we must also hold that it is wrong to throw hindrance in the way of the complete education of any human being. What is developed is not really changed, but made more fully itself, and by giving to woman a truer education, the beauty and charm of her nature will be brought more effectively into play. None of us admire a bold, masculine woman; but knowledge and culture are strength of mind and heart and body have no tendency to produce such a creature. In educating girls, we understand that it is our duty to strengthen them and to stimulate them to self-activity. We strive to give them self-control, breadth of view, wide sympathies, and an abiding sense of justice. To train a girl chiefly with a view to success in society, is to hinder her from attaining to the power of free, rich and full life. It is to neglect education. It is to prefer to conduct a girl to a candidate for matrimony. We strive to do what we can to encourage our pupils to continue the pursuit of knowledge after leaving us.

Piles Make Life Wretched. BUT THERE IS QUICK RELIEF FROM ITCHING AND THOROUGH CURE IN DR. CHASE'S Ointment.

It may be thoughtfully stated that piles produce more excruciating pain, misery and wretchedness of being than any known disease. Life becomes a perfect burning during the attacks of itching, burning, stinging pains. It is a great mistake to imagine that the effects of piles are local, for, as a matter of fact, they sap the vitality of mind and body, and slowly but surely lead to the ruination of health. This is true of itching and protruding as well as of bleeding piles, which, because of the loss of blood, are more rapid in their disastrous effects. Dr. Chase's Ointment brings almost instant relief from the itching, burning, stinging sensations of piles and is a positive and thorough cure for every form of this wretched, torturing and often-tiresome arduous disease. This has been proven in so many thousands of cases that there is no longer any room for doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment is the most satisfactory treatment for piles that was ever discovered. Mr. F. X. Chartier, Cofton, Wolfe Co., Que., writes: "For four years I suffered from that terrible disease, internal, itching piles. I tried many remedies and consulted several doctors in vain. The nights passed without sleep and I was not able to work during the days. One doctor burned them out. Another advised me to go to the hospital for an operation. Some day I heard of a case like mine being cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment and decided to try it. The result has been highly satisfactory as it had cured promptly and the disease is being gradually but overcome. I feel it my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment for the benefit of other sufferers." Frequently when doctors have failed to cure piles and the surgeon's knife has proven futile, Dr. Chase's Ointment has effected through cure. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

BUSINESS GIRLS.

Need Rich, Red blood to Stand Worry and Strain of Business Hours. Business overtaxes a woman's strength. Weak, languishing girls find under the strain. They risk health rather than less employment and the loss of health means the loss of beauty. Thousands of earnest, intelligent young women who earn a livelihood away from home in public offices, and business establishments are silent, suffering victims of overtaxed nerves and deficiency of strength because their blood supply is not equal to the strain placed upon them. Fragile, breathless and nervous, they, work against time with never a rest when headaches and hives make every hour like a day. Little wonder their cheeks lose the tint of health and grow pale and thin. Their eyes are dull, strained and weary; their beauty slowly but surely fades. Business girls are not women look older than their years because they need the frequent help of a true blood-making, strengthening medicine to carry them through the day. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are actually used to the starved nerves and true pains of business women. They actually ease the rich, red blood that imparts the bloom of youth and glow of health to women's cheeks. They bring bright eyes, high spirits and make the day's duties lighter. Twelve months ago Miss Mary Caldwell, who lives at 43 Maynard street, Halifax, N.S., was run down. The least exertion would tire her out. Her appetite was poor and sickle, and frequent headaches would be her distress. This she described as being a nervous condition. She can now eat her meals with zest, the color has returned to her cheeks and she feels better and stronger in every way. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure bloodlessness, just as food cures hunger. That is how they cured Miss Caldwell and it is just by making rich, red blood that they cure such common ailments as indigestion, rheumatism, headaches, and backaches, kidney trouble, neuralgia and the special ailments which make miserable the lives of so many women and young girls.
