GERMANY REFUSES TO MODIFY DEMANDS, AND DEADLOCK IN MOROCCAN SITUATION RESULTS

British Fleet's Visit to Norway Has Been Cancelled by the Admiralty, German Action Will Not be Decided Upon Until Kaiser Returns.

PROPOSAL THAT FRANCE WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM MOROCCO.

Opinion General in London That Britain Will Not Permit Germany to Secure Naval Base in Africa—Marked Activity in Foreign Office To-day.

London, July 26. — One of the most tangible expressions with regard to the supposed seriousness of the Moroccan situation comes from the London 'Graphic's' Berlin correspondent. It is that there is a deadlock in the negotiations and that Germany stifles and refuses to modify her demand in the Congo region, on the ground that Mr. Lloyd George's speech constitutes a threat and Germany will never tolerate concessions apparently extorted by pressure. According to the correspondent, von Kiderlin-Wachter told this to the French ambassador, M. Jules Cambon. The correspondent adds: 'If negotiations are broken off, Germany will remain at Agadir and will not be dislodged except by a humiliating retreat on the part of France, or else war.'

That the difficulty has become acute is indicated in the sudden order issued by the Admiralty yesterday cancelling the projected visit of the Atlantic fleet to Norway.

The battleship squadron, under Rear-Admiral Sir John R. Jellicoe, would have left Cromarty last night for Norwegian waters. Instead, it has been ordered to remain at Cromarty until Friday, and then proceed to Portsmouth.

It is also reported that the crews of several ships of the Home Fleet have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness for emergency service.

Mr. Asquith has promised a statement in parliament on Thursday on the situation. According to advices received from Berlin, negotiations between France and Germany were proceeding smoothly until Chancellor Lloyd George's speech on July 21, which was interpreted as a warning to Germany in the present Moroccan controversy. The German newspapers now declare that it is impossible for Germany to modify her demands in the face of the threat implied in that speech, because of German public opinion.

There is a supposition in many quarters that the international situation has become more acute than ever and has taken the gravest possible turn. Such a view, however, is at least premature, and is possibly altogether erroneous. The supposition is apparently to be attributed to the official silence in London, Paris and Berlin, added to such rumors that the Kaiser is shortening his holiday cruise; that Germany is calling out four hundred thousand reserves; the fact that the King has given an audience to Sir Edward Grey, the Secretary for Foreign Affairs, and that Sir Francis Bertie, the British ambasador at Paris, has come to London; that M. Paul Cambon, the French ambassador, has had a long conference with Sir Edward Grey, and that Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, jointly visited the Foreign Office and conferred with Sir Edward Grey and Sir Francis Bertie.

DEADLOCK IN NEGOTIATIONS.

All of these incidents, however, may be comparativcely commonplace in their interpretation, and none is necessarily alarming. Sir Edward Grey's audience with the King seems to have been arranged days ago, as the customary visit of the Foreign Minister after the sovereign's absence from London. The conferences at the Foreign Office were undoubtedly with regard to the situation in Morocco, but as Morocco is known to be the chief foreign problem engaging the countries concerned, there seems no reason for supposing that discussion was necessarily abnormal.

There is considerable uneasiness on the Stock Exchange and the Continental bourses. In the case of Berlin, however, the depression was made somewhat less at the close by the report that a satisfactory statement would shortly be issued by Foreign Minister von Kiderlin-Wachter.

SAYS BRITAIN PLAYS 'DANGEROUS GAME.'

Berlin, July 26.—There are strong evidences in the German press of increasing nervousness with reference to the Moroccan situation. Columns of despatches from various points record pessimistic rumors, while reports from London regarding the British attitude call forth sharp comment.

The semi-official 'Cologne Gazette,' in the leading article this morning, utters the warning: 'The solution of the problem is very simple. France should withdraw her troops, leaving only the police, open the door to international trade and give guarantees that Morocco will not be regarded as a French colony. Germany will then withdraw her warships from Agadir, after securing her economic interests in Sus. For Germany there is no compensation, no recompense elsewhere. The critical point in the negotiations is the compensation we demand for France's extension of power in North Africa, which will be felt in Europe. We consider it necessary to warn both sides against stone-throwing between two such sensitive nations as France and Germany when such a question is in dispute.'

The Tageblatt' says: 'Great Britain's method of publicly dictating her will to both negotiating powers, instead of exchanging ideas diplomatically, is no longer considered by Germany as justifiable. The maintenance of British interests is but proof of regrettable ill-will.'

The 'Tagliche Rundschau' says: 'The situation has become grave. It is a question of Germany's independence and right of self-government, and we know that every growth and movement in Germany finds an irreconcilable opponent in Great Britain. King Edward's policy of holding down Germany continues since his death. Great Britain is playing a dangerous game for the world's peace, for no people not desirous of succumbing can permit limitations to be dictated from a jealous neighbor.'

DECISION WHEN KAISER RETURNS.

Berlin, July 26.—Considerable anxiety is manifested on account of von Kiderlen Waechter's supposed temperamental preference for a strong policy and aversion for anything that might be construed as a backing down. While the Pan-German press as was to be expected, is belligerent in temper, even the moderate toned papers like the 'Frankfurter Gazette' and the 'Tageblatt' resent extremely the English attitude and are willing to go far in support of the foreign office.

The officials of the government refuse to comment on the intimations that Great Britain will propose that the signatories to the Algeciras agreement open the port of Agadir, Morocco, and prevent Germany establishing a sphere of influence on the Atlantic coast. Germany's action will be determined upon when His Majesty returns.

WILL NOT PERMIT GERMAN NAVAL BASE.

London, July 26.—That Germany will get compensation in South Africa as a result of her descent upon Agadir, and in return for the freer hand which France is seeking in Morocco is conceded here, but it is also clear that Great Britain is not going to permit the establishment of a German naval base on the west coast of Africa if she can prevent it.

Great Britain's trade routes to South America, South Africa, India and the Far East all pass within striking distance of Agadir, Morocco, and generations of British statesmen have maintained that to allow a possible hostile power to establish a flank on these islands of communication would be a vital menace to this country.

There will be, however, no objection here to France giving compensation in the shape of a rectification of the Kamerun (German) and French Congo boundary, provided that it does not include a change of ownership of the coast line detrimental to this country. The activity of the Foreign Office to-day was again marked. The indications are pointing to the near approach of a stage where the crisis either will become acutely virulent or commence to dissolve. The composition of the group of ministers actively handling the situation, Mr. Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, and Mr. David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, the latter representing the Radical part of the cabinet, shows that the British Government is solid, while the fact that Sir Francis Bertie, the British Ambassador at Paris, and Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador at London, have been called into the conferences, proves the continued solidarity of the Anglo-French entente.

King Alfonso, too, appeared on the scene to-day, having arrived at Portsmouth on the Spanish royal yacht 'Giralda,' and immediately came into London, where he conferred with Sir Edward Grey.

King George is remaining in town, and messengers pass frequently between Buckingham Palace and the Foreign Office.

Unless an arrangement is reached in the meantime the Atlantic fleet, the projected visit of which to Norway was cancelled yesterday, will be sent back probably to its base at Gibraltar at the end of the week.

SITUATION VERY UNSATISFACTORY.

Paris, July 26.— The Foreign Office, adhering to its pact with the German Foreign Office, refrains from all communications to the press regarding the Franco-German negotiations, but it is understood here that the situation is very unsatisfactory. The status of the negotiations might be described as a deadlock.

BEAUMOUNT WINS RACE

French Aviator First in Aero Contest Over Great Britain.

WINS $50,000 PRIZE.

Flight From Stirling to Brooklands Was Close Contest Between Two French Airmen.

Brooklands, England, July 26.—A. Beaumont (Lieutenant de Conneau) won the $50,000 prize offered by the London 'Daily Mail' for the circuit of Great Britain aviation race of 1,010 miles. The Frenchman reached the finish here at 2.07 o'clock this afternoon, making a splendid 'volplane' from a height of 1,000 feet.

J. Vedrines reached the goal at 3.17 o'clock. Both Frenchmen received an enthusiastic reception from a huge crowd. Beaumont on alighting was seized by admirers and carried shoulder high to his tent.

Beaumont and Vedrines, who left Bristol at five o'clock this morning on the final stage of the race, arrived at Brighton at noon. Beaumont maintained the lead, his aggregate time being 22 hours and 27 seconds. Vedrines's average time is 22 hours 56 minutes and 55 seconds.

COCAINE EVIL CONTINUES

Chief of Police Appeals for More Precautionary Methods

150 ARRESTS MADE.

Annual Report of Police Department Shows Over 11,000 Arrests by Total Force of 672.

The feature of the annual report of the superintendent of police for the year 1910, which has just been made public by Chief of Police Campeau, is the letter dealing with the increasing use of cocaine in Montreal.

Chief Campeau's communication is as follows:

'By submitting the annual report of the operations of the Police Department for the year 1910, I think it my duty to bring to your notice the existence for six months past of a calamity, the effects of which are causing a havoc, to an unlimited extent if precautionary measures are not taken immediately. I want to speak of the use of cocaine which is spreading amongst the younger element of this city especially.

'Cocaine, according to the medical profession, produces upon the human organism far more disastrous results than other drugs. It attacks the mentality as well as the morality of those who make use of it, and what is more extraordinary, it is amongst the youth that this drug is most in evidence.

'Since July last, the police of Montreal has made over 150 arrests on charges of using or selling the deadly drug. This number is alarming, and the attention of the authorities is drawn to this fact particularly.

'Offences are repeated in more than normal proportions, and this is due undoubtedly to the facility with which one can procure the poison and practically the brazenness of those who sell this pernicious product.

'I am convinced that the fact of bringing this sad state of things to your notice will have for result that necessary means will be taken to stop the progress of this evil.'

Chief Campeau's report, which covers 42 pages, is a concise and complete account of the workings of his department for the year 1910. Among other things it shows that the entire strength of the Police Department on December 31, 1910, was 672, including men and women connected in every possible way with the force. It further shows that there were 9,292 males arrested by the department during 1910, and 1,713 females. Some curious figures are to be found in connection with the ages of those arrested, there being 26 under 10 years; 304 from 11 to 15; 1,170 from 15 to 20; 3,935 from 20 to 30; 2,614 from 30 to 40; 1,608 from 40 to 50; 847 from 50 to 60; 369 from 60 to 70; 115 from 70 to 80, and 17 from 80 to 90.

INSURGENT UNIONIST WOULD OUST MR. BALFOUR FROM LEADERSHIP

'No Surrender' Faction Seeks to Follow Mr. Austen Chamberlain

CONCILIATION ATTEMPTED.

Mr. Balfour Issues Statement in Which He Strongly Supports Lord Lansdowne.

London, July 26.—The present political crisis has been seized upon by malcontent Unionists to renew the attempt to displace Mr. Balfour from the leadership in favor of Austen Chamberlain. This time the attempt is more likely to succeed, because it has the assistance of a similar movement in the House of Lords to dethrone Lansdowne in favor of the Earl of Selborne. But Mr. Balfour has weathered similar storms before.

The 'no surrender' party is practically identical with the extreme protectionist party of recent times, which was equally dissatisfied with Mr. Balfour's leadership in the fiscal controversy, and the chief point of interest to-day is not the fate of the veto bill, which already is known, but whether Mr. Balfour will be able to reunite his party.

Another exciting day of political conferences, party caucuses and ministerial visits to the King, left the crisis no nearer solution yesterday. The only significant incident of yesterday's session of Commons was that F. E. Smith, one of the leaders in the turmoil, quit his accustomed seat among the adherents of Balfour and ranged himself with Lord Hugh Cecil and other insurgent Unionists.

The most important event of the day was the publication of a letter which Mr. Balfour wrote to Lord Newton, in reply to a request for his opinion on the situation. Although it had been assumed that Mr. Balfour would support Lord Lansdowne, he had hitherto made no public pronouncement. As was expected, however, he fully supports Lord Lansdowne in bowing to the inevitable and avoiding the creation of peers. Thus the rupture in the Unionist party is definite and open.

In part the leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons says:

'I never conceived it to be part of my duty actively to intervene in the affairs of a House to which I do not belong, nor have I on the present occasion taken any share in the propaganda, which I understand is being vigorously conducted by some of its members. This is not because I have any doubts as to the advice which I ought to give those who seek it. On the contrary, my views are clear.

'I think that the majority in the House of Lords should support its leader. I agree with the advice Lord Lansdowne has given his friends. With Lord Lansdowne I stand, with Lord Lansdowne I am ready, if need be, to fall.

'The present situation is grave, even alarming. The Government have tyrannically destroyed, so far as the Parliament Bill is concerned, every real power which the second chamber possesses. They have in their own fashion imitated Cromwell, without either his excuses or his genius.

TRAGEDY OF DIVIDED PARTY.

'Ought we, amid the clatter of divided counsels, to quarrel over a procedure within the House of Lords, which at best can be no more than ineffectual? Let us then, if we can, agree. Let the Unionists in the Upper House follow their trusted leaders. If differ we must, if there be peers who are resolved to abandon Lord Lansdowne, if there be politicians outside who feel constrained to applaud them, let us all, at least, remember that the campaign for the restoration of constitutional liberty is just begun, and that unless the forces conducting it possess unity and discipline ultimate victory is impossible.

'It would be a misfortune if the present crisis left the House of Lords weaker than the Parliament Bill by itself will make it. It would be an irreparable tragedy if it left us a divided party.'

INSURGENTS ARE WAVERING NOW.

London, July 26.—The resolution and united stand made by Mr. Balfour and Lord Lansdowne appears already to have caused wavering in the ranks of the insurgents. Mr. Balfour's letter was published too late to gauge its effect in the lobbies of Parliament yesterday, but the editorial columns of the morning papers devoted to the insurgent cause prove the authority Mr. Balfour still holds over the bulk of his party, and his declared determination to stand or fall with Lord Lansdowne is not without effect.

The 'Standard' has completely recanted. It now declares that it is better to follow Mr. Balfour in his possibly erroneous strategy than to risk the breaking up of the party.

The 'Morning Post,' while maintaining the insurgent view, does so in milder mood, and carefully repudiates the idea of any disloyalty to the leadership of Mr. Balfour and Lord Lansdowne. It warmly denies that there is any division in the party ranks.

Official intimation also comes from the organizers of the Halsbury banquet, that it is in no sense intended as a demonstration against the leaders of the party.

Lord Rosebery, in a long letter to the 'Times' in support of Lord Lansdowne's policy, describes the policy of the insurgent peers as a forlorn hope, which can only bring further humiliation and impotence upon the House of Lords. He says that they can achieve nothing but the creation of a number of peers, and adds: 'Let the leaders of the forlorn hope protest as strongly as they can. That is one of the few remaining privileges left to the peers. Let them resolve when the swing of the pendulum places them in power again to construct a strong and efficient second chamber, but let them not by a mistaken idea of courage bring down upon their country, their party, and themselves even greater calamities than they have already to endure.'

The 'Times' says that many peers are away from London, and it will probably be some days before Lord Lansdowne is able to ascertain the number of peers who will support him. There is, however, a strong though silent body of opinion in both Houses in favor of the Balfour-Lansdowne policy.

The 'Times' further takes occasion to assure the Unionists who imagine that the ministry's powers for the creation of peers are limited that this idea is fallacious, and that the Government is able to secure as many peers as are deemed necessary to ensure the passage of the Veto Bill.

The 'Times,' in an editorial, reminds Lord Halsbury, Lord Milner, Lord Selborne, Austen Chamberlain and other insurgent leaders that they have no power of any kind, except the power to damage, if not to break, the party to which they belong.

HON. J. P. PELLETIER FOR LONDON POST.

Sherbrooke, Que., July 26.—The Hon. J. P. Pelletier, Speaker of the Quebec Legislature, and member for Sherbrooke, it is learned on good authority, has been offered the position of commissioner for Quebec resident in London. He will probably accept, which would mean his immediate resignation as Speaker.

NO-LICENSE CAMPAIGN

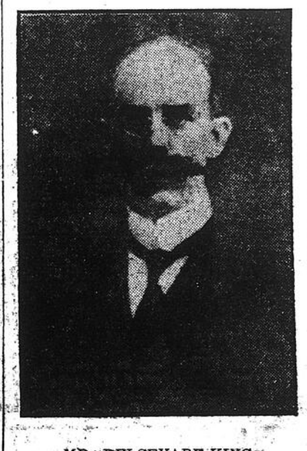

Conditions in Boston, Largest 'Dry' Area of its Kind in World, Described

AT KNOWLTON CONFERENCE.

Mr. Delcevare King Tells of Remarkable Results of League Movement.

Knowlton, Que., July 26.—With a wonderful story of progress in Massachusetts, Mr. Delcevare King, chairman of the Masachusetts No-License League last night inspired a large audience to attack the drink power in Quebec with better organization, more systematic methods, and stronger co-ordination of efforts. Mr. King said, in part:

'For twenty-five years after local option became the law of the state little or nothing was done in an organized way to make no-license the permanent policy of our cities and towns. A large number of places did adopt no-license,

MR. DELCEVARE KING.

but in many there were fluctuations year after year. In 1906 a state no-license league was organized and immediately gains began to be made. Now sixteen out of thirty-three cities are without saloons and morde than half our towns are 'dry.' In metropolitan Boston there are forty cities and towns, with 1,240,000 people living there without a saloon in their several municipalities, the largest 'dry' area of its kind in the world. We now have four cities of more than fifty thousand population under no-license. These cities, with their population, are: Cambridge, 104,000; Lynn, 89,000; Somerville, 77,000, and Brockton, 56,000—the only four instances in the world of cities of this size where the voters of the cities themselves have voted out the saloons. Where license obtains in our tsate there is a minimum license fee of one thousand dollars, though often it is fixed at nearer two thousand dollars. Two-thirds of the license fees go to the municipal treasury, which makes it harder to get the electors to vote no-license. Any liquor containing more than one percent of alcohol is considered an intoxicating liquor, and must not be sold without a license. No screens are allowed in barrom windows so that there is an uninterrupted view from the street right into the saloon. Last year we secured the Bar and Bottle Bill, which has separated the sale of bottled goods from the ordinary bar trade. Now no saloon can sell liquor in botties and the change is working what is nothing less than a beneficent revolution. We have many difficult problems to face but we are winning out.'

Miss Stoddard gave another stereopticon lecture on 'The citadel of the senses,' showing clearly the effects of alcohol on mental processes, especially as affecting skilled labor; the experiments she cited all going to show that men under the influence of small quantities of liquor produced less and worse work than when free from alcohol.

REVOLUTIONARY KILLED

British Protest to Persian Authorities Disregarded—New Cabinet Formed

Teheran, July 26. —The demand of the National Council for the resignation of Premier Sipahdar has been followed by the organization of a new cabinet, with Samsam Es Saltaneh as Premier and Minister of War, and Vosoogh Ed Dowleh as Foreign Minister.

The Government appears to be united in the face of difficulties. It is reported that Mojd Ed Dowleh, the reactionary head of the Kadjar family, was arrested Sunday, and has been executed in spite of the intervention of the British legation. A large body of volunteers is being organized for the defence of the capital against the former Shah, who is said to be actively engaged in securing adherents in Kurdistan and other districts.

UNABLE TO EXPLAIN.

Unable to explain where she was going or what she was doing loitering on Latour street late last evening, Mary Leonard, about thirty years of age, appeared before Mr. Recorder Dupis this morning, and being unable to give a satisfactory explanation of her actions, was fined ten dollars or two months in jail.

FIRE IN A SHED.

A small fire occurred in a shed belonging to Mr. M. Melayer, of 381 Garnier street. District-Chief Hooper answered the alarm, and had the fire quickly under control.

MORMONS TRAVELLING BY ST. LAWRENCE ROUTE

Making Canada a Channel for Easy Entry into United States and Settling in Large Numbers Also in the Canadian West.

Is Canada being used by the Mormon Church as a channel through which its new converts from the other side of the Atlantic may be safely piloted into the United States or settled on our own side of the line in the west?

The issuance of a statement by the Rev. Robert Hamilton, from Scotland, but recently arrived in this country, to the effect that there travelled with him on the same ship over a hundred and twenty emigrants, new converts to the Mormon faith, in charge of twenty-four elders, has brought to the surface no small amount of feeling in this matter, and several very strong opinions were expressed regarding it during the day.

The Rev. Dr. E. Scott, editor of the 'Presbyterian Record,' told a 'Witness' reporter this morning that the Mormon Church was working very hard in western Canada at the present time. 'One of the dangers from this source,' said Dr. Scott, 'which is not generally appreciated, is political as well as religious, and lies in the fact that individual citizenship is lost sight of and the Mormons, as a body, vote as instructed by their elders and leaders.

'An idea of the manner in which they are at present working in the west,' continued Dr. Scott, 'may be gained from the fact that they recently appropriated twenty thousand dollars for the building of a college in Alberta to train teachers to take over schools in that province, and to these who know the difficulty of obtaining competent Protestant teachers in that section the gravity of such a proceeding at once becomes apparent.'

The Rev. W. R. Cruickshank, convenor of the Presbyterian Home Mission Committee, also gave it as his opinion that the matter of the easy entry of Mormon converts into this country had now reached such a stage that it was in danger of becoming a menace to public morality. 'It is only a matter of time when this matter will have to be brought to the attention of our legislatures,' said Mr. Cruikshank, 'and I am convinced that it is as important a subject in Canada today as in the United States. We should profit by the mistakes of our neighbor to the south and unless something is done in the near future to inquire into the method and objects of bringing such large quantities of young girls into the country in such a manner, we shall realize, when it is too late that we have been altogether too slack in our treatment of the situation.' This matter was discussed pretty fully at the recent General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in Ottawa, and several very strong personal opinions were expressed at that time regarding the matter.'

The matter of the various steamship lines transporting the Mormon immigrants has been commented on frequently of late, and the facts of the case are these: Several years ago, this traffic had assumed such large proportions that one line, which has terminals both in this country and in the United States, made overtures to the agents of the Latter Day Saints (as they prefer to be known) in Europe and succeeded, by quoting a lower rate than the other lines, in securing all this trade. This agreement was only broken at the beginning of the present year and at this time practically every line reaching this country, it may be unconsciously, is handling a part of this traffic.

The minister in question, whose recent statement has aroused the present feeling in regard to the matter, is the Rev. Robert Hamilton, of Stirlingshire, Scotland. That part of his statement dealing with the endeavors of several of the Mormon elders to interest young girls travelling alone on board ship, would appear to be of special interest as a course of this nature on the high seas, against the wishes of the young ladies themselves would lay these gentlemen open to more than mere criticism on the part of Government officials. And that the young ladies were approached against their wishes would seem to be evident from the following extract from Mr. Hamilton's statement:

'On the second day at sea, finding themselves a goodly number, the Mormons began to declare themselves, and to show their hand. On the Tuesday evening I was approached, as a clergyman, by a lady to rescue from their blandishments a girl who was travelling alone from London to friends in Montreal. Another clergyman—the Rev. T. Walton Fay, F.A.S., travelling to Des Moines, had like work on hand with another girl, and both of us had be continually on the alert until Thursday afternoon, when matters came to a head. The Rev. Mr. Fay and myself, and a few more gentlemen had arranged a con- ...rsday evening in behalf of the seamen's charities. The pro- ...amme was printed and displayed on the notice board, when it was discovered that a double quartette party was composed of Mormons, and their intention was to bring their Mormon hymn books into the concert room and sing some of their hymns. This we refused to allow, on the ground that it was contrary to the rules of the ship to introduce anything sectarian into such gatherings. They regarded our action as persecution, and refused to take any part whatever in the concert. However, we had plenty of talent on board, and we had a splendid concert, and a full house.

'The last straw which sent the balance down was an incident which took place on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, when the first sitting for dinner took place, and all the stewards were busily engaged at the tables. The chief in command of the sect seized the opportunity and went down among the third class passengers (which is strictly prohibited), hid himself under the bridge, got out his yellow paper with the list of the names of his flock, and they, evidently having been forewarned, gathered round and answered to their names as he checked them off on his list.'

LIBERAL CAUCUS DISCUSSES ELECTION DATE AND TACTICS

If Opposition Refuses Supplies Next Week the Dissolution Will be Announced at Once—Sir Allen Aylesworth Hints at Retirement Soon.

The most remarkable incident at the Liberal caucus in Ottawa yesterday, according to local politicians who returned this morning, was Sir Allen Aylesworth's utterances to the effect that it was likely the last political caucus he would ever attend, and when the Minister of Justice told his friends and colleagues that as he already told the electors of North York, he would end his political career with the present parliament, all the Liberal deputation got on their feet and enthusiastically clamored: 'You must stay.' Sir Allen demurred, but said he would never be a candidate again.' Sir Allen Aylesworth, as all know, suffers from deafness, and that is what causes him to abandon public life. He is recognized by all as one of the ablest judicial authorities in the Dominion.

At the caucus yesterday it was decided to give a free hand to the members of the cabinet as to when the general elections shall be held. Those who spoke, besides Sir Wilfrid, were Col. O. Talbot, M.P. for Bellechasse; E. M. MacDonald, M.P. for Pictou, N. S.; D. H. McAllister, M.P for .Kings and Albert, N.B.; C. A. Wilson, M.P. for Laval, and others.

Col. Talbot was the chief speaker, his speech being on the lines that since he had been found true that the majority cannot govern, elections should be held as early as possible, and at the next session a rule of closure should be adopted.

At the conclusion of the meeting, it was decided to let the Opposition continue its systematic obstruction all this week, but that next week the question of supplies would be taken up, and if the Opposition then persists in its present way of acting the dissolution of the House will be announced at once.

A story which was not taken seriously was current last night in the corridors of the House, and it was to the effect that Sir Lomer Gouin would dissolve the Legislature within forty-eight hours, and would appeal to the electorate of the province within the next three weeks, and that the Dominion elections would be held immediately after. Members of the cabinet asked about what truth there was in the story, said it was merely a yarn.

ST. LAWRENCE BOULEVARD BE OPENED TO BACK RIVER

Whilst there is some talk of opening the city end of St. Lawrence boulevard through to the river, a deal which will be registered this week, insures the complete opening of the road through to Back River. Mr. W. T. Heney has purchased from Mr. Leslie Gault 2,600,000 feet, comprising lots 762,261, part of 343, and 344, St. Laurent, which with St. Lawrence boulevard for a centre runs from near the new Street Railway shops through to Back River. The property is subdivided and is to be placed on the market in lots immediately. The price paid was $210,000.

Up to recently St. Lawrence boulevard practically ended at 29th avenue, near the Shamrock Athletic grounds, after which the Stanley Bagg estate own a strip of about 2,000 feet to the Varvais road, and the property purchased by Mr. Heney runs north of this. The Stanley Bagg estate has, however, decided to open up a portion of its property and has put a strip on the market through the Marcil house, in a direct line and connecting St. Lawrence boulevard. This will be developed as quickly as possible, so that as soon as connection is made there will be a straight road right across the centre of the Island.

Manslaughter Charge Against Proprietors of Hall.

Nathan Singlair, Frank Singlair and Nathan Millan, charged on a coroner's warrant with illegally causing the death of Bell Sabrovitch, tthe man who fell down the elevator shaft at Coronation Hall on St. Lawrence boulevard, pleaded not guilty before Judge Bazin this morning, and will appear for enquete on Aug. 2.

The three men implicated in the warrant are joint owners of the building, and the warrant charges insufficient protection against risk to life in having the door leading to the elevator easy of access.

KING GEORGE COINS.

Royal Proclamation Announces Designs.

Ottawa, July 26.—A special of the 'Canada Gazette' issued to-day, contains a royal proclamation covering the designs for the new King George issue of Canadian ten and fifty cent pieces. The obverse impression of the new coins will be the effigy of His Majesty, head and bust, wearing the imperial crown and robe of state, with the collar of the garter and looking to the left with the inscription 'Georgius V. Rex. et ind im.' The reverse gives the denomination and the word 'Canada,' with the imperial crown and wreath of maple leaves.

ANOTHER STORMY SCENE IN BRITISH COMMONS TO-DAY

Mr. Asquith Declares Question Regarding Home Rule Insolent and Unionists Proceed to Create Hubbub.

London, July 25.—There was still evidence of considerable feverishness when the House of Commons reassembled this afternoon, and the Speaker took an early opportunity to administer a cooling draft by reminding the members of the standing order under which he certainly would suspend the session in the event of a renewal of the disorders that forced an adjournment yesterday.

The entry of Mr. Asquith to the Chamber was the signal for a storm of cheers from the Radicals and Nationalists, who sprang to their feet hurrahing and waving handkerchiefs.

Lord Hugh Cecil, one of the leaders in yesterday's hostile demonstration toward the Premier, pushed himself again into the limelight early in the proceedings and forthwith was bombarded with objurgations. 'Hottentot' was a favorite appellation directed against the young Conservative from the Irish benches. He demanded of Mr. Asquith whether when he had made up his mind on the subject of Home Rule for Ireland, he would communicate the result to the House of Commons before sending it to the press.

The Premier tartly rejoined: 'That is an insolent question.'

Lord Hugh Cecil rose, amid disorder, to a point of order, but Mr. Lewis Harcourt, the Colonial Secretary, demanded whether the expression 'insolent' was worse than 'traitor,' which was levelled at Mr. Asquith by the Unionists yesterday. The hubbub continued for a considerable time, but eventually the speaker declared that neither expression was in order.

MOROCCAN AFFAIR RECEIVES CONSIDERATION.

London, July 25.—Foreign as well as domestic politics are exercising the minds of the British Government. Developments in the Moroccan imbroglio, which called forth Mr. Lloyd-George's warning at the recent bankers banquet are still in a condition of flux.

The Foreign Office is being kept closely informed of the varying phases of the Franco-German 'conversations' and the attention of the ministers at to-day's cabinet meeting likely was equally divided between the constitutional crisis and the Moroccan affair. Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, was among to-day's callers at Buckingham Palace, presumably to lay before the King the latest news of the foreign situation.

Sir Francis Bertie, British Ambassador to France, attended a meeting at the Foreign Office this morning and conferred for some time with Sir Edward, Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd-George, whom the Ambassador was able to put in full possession of his views.

NO BERTHS ON 'OLYMPIC'

Many Innovations on World's Largest Passenger Vessel

PLUNGE BATH AND RACKETS.

Montreal Agents Speak Enthusiastically of Their Visit to the Great White Star Liner.

The mammoth White Star liner 'Olympic,' which sails for Europe this morning, was visited a few days ago at her moorings in New York harbor, by some six hundred passenger agents of steamship lines throughout the United States and Canada, who were much impressed with the whole proportions and magnificent equipment of the great ship.

Mr. R. E. MacFarlane and Mr. P. V. G. Mitchell, of the Montreal office, were amongst the guests who went over the leviathan and afterwards partook of the banquet provided by the White Star line for the visitors.

Mr. Mitchell in an interview on his return stated that the few hours spent on board the 'Olympic' were entirely inadequate to make a thorough inspection of the vessel, and he could only give, he said, a few of the features which had particularly impressed him. One of these was the size of the staterooms, which were as large as rooms in most well-appointed houses. So great is the ship's bulk that rolling is practically unknown, and none of the chairs on board require to be permanently fixed to the deck. Three large elevators give a continuous service to each deck. Berths are not found on the ship, which has double and single beds instead, while wardrobes have been fitted into many of the ladies' rooms.

A thirty-foot swimming pond, into which a constant stream of sea water is kept running, a squash racquet court, a well-equipped gymnasium, and a real Turkish bath are amongst the conveniences for health and exercise provided. The promenade deck has an unbroken sweep of 171 yards.

The health of the captain and his ship was proposed by Mr. Hone, one of the Canadian agents at the banquet, which was held on board in the evening. Mr. Mitchell, of Montreal, was amongst the speakers.

BLAME THIRD MAN

Judge Choquet Gives Suspected Jewel Thieves Chance to Find Him.

Thomas Furlong, colored, and Edward Reid, the two men who are charged with breaking and entering the store of Mr. R. Watson, 144 Peel street, on July 2, and stealing $150 worth of jewellery, and of later going in to the same store and taking $300 worth more, while the man in charge was being summoned to the police station, came up before Judge Choquet yesterday for trial.

Both men said it was the 'other fellow' who took the goods. Furlong had on him at the time of the arrest eighteen rings in separate boxes, and to Judge Choquet's question as to how he happened to have these in his possession, he said a man whom he did not know gave the goods to him. Furlong said: 'I do not know why I ran at the time, but I saw the policeman coming and this other fellow running, so I ran too. This fellow put something in my hand and I shoved the package in my pocket. After I was arrested I found out it was jewellery. I did not steal them.'

Judge Choquet was disposed to send them to jail, but the men both maintained that the third man was the one who stole the goods. He found the men guilty and suspended sentence till Tuesday, admonishing the prisoners that the delay would give them the opportunity of producing the missing man. 'It is up to you, now,' said the judge.

NOT SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE.

Accused in Diamond Case Discharged This Morning.

J. H. G. Steurman, jr., and N. H. Berth, both of New York, who were arrested at the instance of Mire Brothers, diamond merchants, of Mansfield st., charged with deceit and falsehood in connection with bonds presented in payment for $8.000 worth of diamonds, and whose case has been before Judge Bazin during the greater part of three days, were discharged yesterday; there being not enough evidence to convict on the charges specified in the warrant for their arrest.

Steurman has been out on bail during the proceedings, while McBeth has been in charge of the Pinkerton detectives, bail for him having being refused by Judge Lanctot.

Mr. Frank Groch arrived in the city yesterday from the Cobalt district, and is registered at the Queen's Hotel.

GIRLS HELD IN QUARANTINE

Nine Negro Domestics Detained in New York by Immigration Officers

APPEAL FOR HELP.

Many Montreal Ladies Inconvenienced by Girls' Non-arrival.

The sequel to the scene at the Windsor street station last week in connection with the arrival of the negro domestics from Guadeloupe is somewhat tragic.

It will be remembered that some sixty French-Canadian ladies had met at the station to receive these servants, for whom they had paid $80 each to cover their expenses from the land of their birth. Instead of the requisite number arriving, only ten come in on the train from New York.

It now transpires that nineteen servants left Guadeloupe, but the immigration authorities at New York detained nine of these women for some reason or other, and they are lying in the immigration quarantine.

Marie Doumcau has written to the city appealing for assistance to secure relief. The girl writes that no explanation of detention is made to them, nor do any of them suffer from any disease, consequently they cannot understand why they should be detained.

The servants of Mesdames Mignault, Vallieres, Morin, Mergen and Caille are among those detained.

An inquiry is on foot to secure their release.

SO POLITE!

Engaging Census Men Who Would Not Ask Questions

'Is there anything wrong with the census?' asked one man of another on Monday.

'I don't know. I hear lots of tales. Say we each call up a friend on the 'phone just now, and see what the result will be?'

The first man called up a friend, and asked his questions. The lady who answered lives in St. Hubert street. She said, 'Oh, yes, he did everything all right here. He took down our ages, our religion and everything about us. Of course, he did not ask about the boarders.'

'What! didn't he even find out how many there were?'

'No.'

The second gentleman also called up a lady living near Dorchester street, in the neighborhood of University street. She said, 'The census man called all right, and he was very nice and obliging. He said there were a lot of questions on the form that he wouldn't bother her with as they were not important, anyway. He took my name, but asked nothing about my husband or the gentlemen who are rooming here.'

GALE IN BROCKVILLE.

Brockville, July 25.—A terrific gale which has prevailed on the river since yesterday morning, shows little sign of abatement. Boats running between Brockville and the Thousand Islands cancelled all trips to-day, and the ferry service between here and Morristown is also out of commission. The only boat to make a landing up to noon was the R. & O. N. Company's steamer from Toronto. The passengers on this steamer report an exceedingly rough trip down the lake. Wharves and boathouses along the front have been terribly shaken up.

Mr. R. Wickham, of Porcupine, and Mr. A. DuBois, of Cobalt, reached the city yesterday, and are staying at the Windsor Hotel.

RECIPROCITY GOOD FOR LUMBERMEN

Secretary-Treasurer of Argenteuil Lumber Company Would Welcome it.

WOULD RAISE VALUES.

Greatest Benefit Could be Looked For on the Pacific Coast.

That the passage of the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States will not seriously affect conditions in local lumber circles was the opinion expressed yesterday by Mr. Geo. A. Scott, secretary-treasurer of the Argenteuil Lumber Co., the mills of which are located at Morin Flats, Que.

'It may be,' said Mr. Scott to a 'Witness' reporter yesterday, that the local market for spruce lumber will be stimulated to some extent, at least for some time, and that an increased export in this branch of the trade may be looked for, and I, for one, hope that this may be so, but so far as other woods in this and adjoining territory are concerned, I do not look for any change immediately to raise the values. Any tendency, however, should be in the nature of an increase in price and a consequent advantage to the Canadian manufacturer.'

'Where the greatest benefit may be looked for in the new agreement in connection with the lumber industry is on the Pacific coast where general conditions are different from those in this part of the country, and where I anticipate the opening up of new territory for the placing of the product of the manufacturers in that section of the country.'

CRITICISED FARMERS

Immigration Officer Deplores Their System of Engaging Harvesters.

Mr. R. Ebb, one of the Canadian Government Immigration Department officials, was in the city Monday, and interviewed by a 'Witness' reporter on the question of immigration, he said that it was very gratifying to find such a high type of Britishers coming into the country, bringing capital with them, too. Most of those who went west made for Vancouver, except the farming element, who took up land in the rich wheat districts of Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Asked how it was that despite so many harvesters were imported every year, into the country, they were still required year after year, Mr. Ebb replied that it was because the farmers would not engage a good man for the whole of the year. To his mind it was a sad mistake, and the time would shortly come when the farmers would find themselves compelled to engage certain hands for the whole year, and thus relieve the annual difficulty in relation to the importation of harvesters. If the farmers would only do this it would be the means of inducing thousands to eventually become farmers in their own right, and the land of the golden wheat would become ever far more popular than it is at the present moment.

Under the existing circumstances the harvesters are distributed to all parts of the country, and after the wheat is all in they are discharged, and the majority of the men return home principally to the United States, whence they came.

Mr. Ebb was strongly of the opinion that something should be done to induce the farmers to hire for the year.

'But probably the farmers are not in a position,' said the reporter. 'Are they rich?'

Mr. Ebb said the farmers of Manitoba, Alberta, and Saskatchewan were very well off, and it was not a case of not being able to pay the salary. To his way of thinking the farmers have to pay a very high rate for labor during the harvest for a few extra dollars they would be able to retain the laborers all the year round.

The harvest, said the man from Ottawa, would be a record one this year, and many extra hands were being required to get in the wheat.

HABEAS WRIT OBTAINED.

Mr. R. Johnson's Appeal Against Judge Leet Sustained.

Mr. Justice Greenshields has rendered judgment maintaining the habeas corpus taken by Mr. Robt. Johnson, insurange against, against a judgment rendered by Judge Leet, and condemning Mr. Johnson to a fine of fifty dollars and one month in jail.

The ground taken by the Superior Court in quashing the judgment rendered in the Police Court, was that the article of the code under which the judgment was rendered did not coincide with that mentioned in the warrant.

FINANCE

TORONTO RY. UP BETROIT DOWN TRADING LARGE

Toronto Railway, Richelieu, Rio, Detroit Railway and Power were the dominating factors on the stock market yesterday. The first named stock advanced a point and a half on the news of the big merger now under formation, while Detroit United declined to an equal extent with the fluctuating fortunes of that railway. Richelieu was quite strong on its splendid earnings, while Power, Shawinigan and Rio were active at steady prices. There were a few small sales of Illinois preferred at 91½, while ten shares of Steel Common were accepted at 56. Montreal Street Railway dropped two points to 228, while Lake of the Woods declined a point and a quarter.

There were a number of small sales of other securities, while bonds were also fairly active.

New York, July 25.—Temporary unsettlement of the stock market to-day was caused by the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission for a readjustment of transcontinental freight rates. The weakness was most pronounced among western railway stocks, although the abrupt decline in these issues affected the general list.

Reports of tension abroad on account the Moroccan situation, and some selling for London account added to the heaviness of the opening. The market displayed unusual resiliency, however, and by noon the list had completely recovered with the exception of the Hill stocks.

Reading and Lehigh Valley lead the upward movement, rising a point above yesterday's close. Bonds were steady.

CONSOLS DROP TO LOW PRICE

New York, July 25.—British consols sold as low as 75 for cash rallying a little before the close. This constitutes a new low point for the issue as a 2½ percent security, and passes previous low point of 78 3-16 percent for cash recorded on July 12 last.

Present weakness is due to the threatening situation on the Continent created by gratuitous German interference in Morocco. The situation is also complicated by a deadlock in parliament over the passage of the House of Lords veto bill.

MR. SMITHERS & PROSPERITY

Mr. George Smithers, of the firm of Burnett and Company, stock brokers, has returned to St. Francois Xavier street after an absence of nearly a week which was spent in a pleasurable automobile tour through the New England States.

Mr. Smithers was particularly impressed with the appearance and condition of the growing crops throughout that district, which were splendid.

On being questioned as to his opinion on the financial situation, the general broker replied that he had managed to banish from his mind all thoughts of business during this lucid interval of recreation and sightseeing. He, however, had no cause to alter his former opinion regarding stocks in general.

'Adverse factors,' he said, 'are fully outweighed, or at least they are generally understood, by favorable ones, and there is nothing in prospect at present but prosperity for the country. It is not always wise to be over-optimistic, but conditions are such as to give confidence in the future.'

LAKE OF WOODS STRONG THIS P.M

Lake of the Woods was stronger at an advance yesterday, while Toronto Railway and Richelieu exhibited steadiness. The market was generally quiet. Cement Common and Detroit were on the weak side.

Wall St. Closed Steady

The New York market closed steady this afternoon, with Canadian Pacific Railway 244 3-4, 'Soo' 141, Steel, 79 3-8, Union Pacific, 190 1-8, and Atchison 113 5-8.

Reading was strong, advancing two and a half points and closing at 158 1-4.

G.T.R. EARNINGS SHOW $300,000 GAIN FOR WEEK

The financial community is agreeably surprised at the splendid showing of earnings made by the Grand Trunk Railway for the week ended July 21, which shows an increase of nearly $300,000 over the corresponding week of last year. Following are the comparisons:—

1911	$960,016
1910	660,452
Increase	$299,564

One of the bright features of Canada's recent industrial growth is the improving position of this railway and its rapid progress of extension, under expert management.

In conjunction with the Grand Trunk Pacific, the construction of which will probably be completed before the end of next year, there should be a splendid prospect before this big transcontinental.

But the company will not wait until the completion of the new line to utilize its service for carrying freight. Those portions of it which are already constructed and fit for use, will be turned to account in the conveyance of grain this season. It is very probable that there will be considerable quantities of wheat pass over Grand Trunk Pacific lines from Edmonton to Winnipeg this year.

At any rate, this great project, with all its numerous ramifications, is being splendidly conducted, to completion, and Canadians are awaiting with keen interest its final consummation.

MR. DRUMMOND IS RETURNING FROM ABROAD

Mr. Thomas J. Drummond has sailed from Liverpool for Canada, on the steamer 'Megantic.' A cable received in the city from Mr. Drummond this morning brings the pleasing news that he is well, and that he looks forward with pleasure at his return to Montreal.

During his visit abroad the president of the big Lake Superior Steel Corporation has been a very busy man. He has been actively engaged, with leading financiers and business men, not only in England, but on the Continent, and he returns home after an absence of several months, during which time he has played a prominent part in dealing with matters relative to Canadian financial and industrial growth and progress.

Mr. Drummond intimates that the recent congress of Steel magnates held in Brussels was a decided success, and that it will no doubt prove beneficial to the general advancement of this particular industry throughout the world.

M.S.R. FOR 9 MOS. SHOWS PROGRESS ALL ALONG LINE

The earnings of the Montreal Street Railway continue to grow. The financial statement for June, and for the nine months of the fiscal year is evidence of increasing prosperity, and the M. S. R. management by economy in details is certainly placing the company in an enviable position.

In a growing city like Montreal it is no easy problem to manage and control a traction system, in order to meet ever increasing demands in every direction, and to build up a service perfect in all its departments. Those who have followed the vicissitudes of Montreal Street during the past nine months or so will appreciate the efforts of President Robert and the directors as well as the officials in building up and maintaining a high standard of excellence, not only fro mthe financial end of Montreal Street, but all over the whole system.

Total earnings for June are $432,026, as compared with $384,564, while the operation expenses were $227,217, leaving a net balance for the month of $204,809, or an increase of $19,093 over June, 1910.

Total charges for the month were $63,995, while the surplus is placed at $140,118.

Total earnings for the nine months total $3,438,40, as against $3,091,799, while the operating expenses were $2,015,139, leaving a net balance of $1,423,800, as compared with $1,285,507 for the corresponding period last year.

Total charges were reported $403,885, while the surplus for the nine months was $1,019,915.

Noted Financier Thrown into Prison on Failure to Obey Orders of Court

London, July 25.—Ernest Terah Hooley, one of the financial meteors that astonished the city a few years ago, was to-day lodged in Brixton jail because of his failure to obey the orders of the court in connection with bankruptcy proceedings.

Hooley prior to his failure in 1898 was regarded as one of the richest men in England. He reached the pinnacle of his financial success in 1896 when he promoted a tire company as a result of which he was supposed to have cleared $12,500,000.

Just before his bankruptcy he had purchased the racing cutter 'Britannia,' formerly and afterwards the property of King Edward. In 1904 he was tried on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences and was acquitted.

Assoiation Formed to Ward off Competition

Washington, July 25.—Formation of the Steel Plate Association of the United States, in New York, in the autumn of 1900 to overcome 'destructive competition' was admitted to-day before the House Steel Trust Investigation Committee by A. F. Huston, president of the Lukens Iron and Steel Company, one of the organizers, who identified a copy of the agreement.

VICKERS-MAXIM REPORTED DEAL WITH LOCAL CO.

The announcement in the 'Witness' yesterday that an important deal was pending between the Vickers-Maxim Works of England, and the Montreal Works, or, more accurately, the Canadian Car and Foundry Company, caused much interest and speculation in the city, and there were many surmises as to the actual facts.

In discussing the matter with the 'Witness' this morning a gentleman who is in touch with both concerns, stated that while he was not prepared to deny the report, he could make no definite statement at present.

The Vickers-Maxim people are to erect large floating docks at Montreal, and it is only natural that they should look around for working affiliation with one or more concerns which manufacture material used by them.

ANGRY WORDS REPURCHASE OF WINNIPEG ST. RY.

Winnipeg, July 25.—A proposition submitted to the city to spend $24,000,000 to purchase the street railway plant has aroused intense interest in Winnipeg. It means the immediate raising of $16,000,000 cash and payment of balance by assuming the liabilities of the company. This move is on basis of $250 a share.

Promoters claim the railway, electric power and light and gas plants of the company are earning sufficient to pay 7 percent interest on this amount. However, nothing is said about what this stock will be worth when the city's $7,000,000 power and light plant begins competition with the private company in September next.

The proposition to buy out the Street Railway Company for $24,000,000 is received in a rather hostile manner by Winnipeg papers. All express suspicion that rates on transportation, power, light and heat cannot be reduced if such a large sum is paid for plants. Each wants to see the books audited by a civic expert as a preliminary to any negotiation.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL NEWS AND STOCKS

BUSINESS MEN VICTIMS OF A CUNNING TRICK

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has received a number of complaints during the past few weeks about unscrupulous merchants in the British West Indies and South America who have worked several Canadian firms for goods running from $200 up to $1,000.

The method adopted is to send to Canadian houses for a bill of goods, giving the name of some reputable house in Europe as a reference. In a number of cases where the amount has not been too large, the dealers have written to Europe and then shipped the goods before the replies came. In every case reported the European houses know nothing of the people who named them as reference. It also appears that the Southern merchants have been working the game the other way about, as the Canadian Manufacturers' Association received two letters during the past week stating that they had been given to British firms as references. The matter will probably be taken up with the Dominion Police. The companies in both Montreal and Toronto have been gulled by the game.

Clover Prospects in Ontario Not Promising

Mr. T. G. Raynor, Ontario Government representative of the Seed Department, writes the 'Witness' as follows:

'Reports from the Ontario red clover districts show that the prospects for seed are extremely poor. Even in the Lake Erie counties, the dry weather during May and June shortened the hay and pasture to such an extent that much of the second growth will be used for fodder.

'I believe the farmers of the Ottawa Valley and St. Lawrence counties would find it profitable to use their second growth clover for the production of seed. If it blooms well, the harvest should be good; if not, it can be turned into hay or pasture. It is easy to harvest clover seed if it is mowed when the straw is tough from dew or rain.'

OPINIONS on the MARKET

Laidlaw & Co—The news that the governor of New York had signed the bill extending for five years the period during which life insurance companies in this state must dispose of their securities is very important as $90,000,000 worth of securities will be held back and not thrown upon the market.

J. S. Bache & Co.—The situation here has been greatly strengthened by the plentiful supply of rain in the agricultural regions.

Miller & Co.—The bulls are claiming that the market shows remarkable resistance to bad news. Those who are bearish, however, maintain that their arguments have received a strong reinforcement.

CROWN RESERVE WORK AT COBALT AND PORCUPINE

Cobalt, Ont., July 26. — A special report has just been issued on Crown Reserve mining operations, and it shows that the properties under the control and development of the Crown Reserve management in Cobalt and at Porcupine are producing ore of the highest value, while indications point to greater results, and higher values at all the properties as the work of development proceeds.

Mention is made respecting work being carried on at the McEneney properties, in Porcupine, now owned by the Crown Reserve, and the work being done in the Silver Leaf property, where the shaft is being continued down to encounter the Keewatin formation, which underlies the diabase. At Porcupine, excellent values have been encountered, and the machinery is being rushed in at the present time.

At the Crown Reserve Mine the company is working nine drills underground. The winze on the main Carson vein is down 200 feet below the 300 foot level, where drifting is under way at the present time. The vein is between one and two inches in width and carries good values in silver.

These values are exceptionally encouraging, as it is a well-known fact that, for a certain distance, the vein gave but small values in silver below the 300-foot level of the shaft. The drift will be pushed along the vein on both sides of the winze, after which the working will be continued to a greater depth, it being the intention to drive another drift at 600 feet from the surface.

Most of the work on the property is being accomplished on the first and second levels of the shaft. Several new ore bodies have been opened up in the past few months, and some of these are being worked. One in particular, over near the Ross vein, has developed into a large body of high grade ore, which is being developed by means of drifting and stoping. This vein is producing a great deal of silver that is being shipped from the mine at the present time.

On the 200-foot level of the shaft a cross-cut is being driven east from the workings under the lake. It is the intention of the management to continue this working to the other end of the lake in an endeavor to tap some of the Kerr Lake veins, which it is known are heading for the Crown Reserve property.

This year the tonnage from the Crown Reserve has fallen off considerably over last year's figures, the first six months of the year seeing them shipping but 550.23 tons, as compared to nearly triple that amount during the corresponding months of 1910. What has been lost in tonnage has been amply made up in values. This year, scarcely a car of low grade ore has left the mine.

Arrangements have been made with the Nova Scotia Company, to treat 100 tons per day for five years in their increased capacity mill, and this will include all the low grade ore the company are storing in at the mine.

Morocoan Trouble is Having its Effect

London, July 26. —The Moroccan dispute and the political situation at home depressed the stock market again to-day. During the forenoon Consols declined three-eights to 77 13-166, a new low record, and all British and foreign securities were heavy in sympathy.

Stock Exchange Talks

Broad minded and experienced financiers are following, with a good deal of interest, daily developments in the Morocco situation. They are not, as a rule, hastening to put too serious a construction on the problem, but only an ignoramus and an amateur will make light of it.

Consols in London dropped to a new low record as a result of the latest turn in the situation.

The rapid and complete way in which the latest big merger was brought into shape—the Toronto Street Railway, Power, etc.—has evoked genuine enthusiasm and admiration from the 'streets,' credit for which has been generously lavished upon Sir William Mackenzie and Mr. R. J. Fleming, whom, it was generally assumed, were the brainy authors of the project.

There are certain local onlookers who are generally well informed in financial matters, who appear to be doubtful whether the credit for this has not really been misplaced. If it is rightly due to another gentleman he is sufficiently large minded to forego the applause of the crowd.

Timely warm weather in the west has not only proved a blessing to wheat-growers and farmers, but a relief to local stock market enthusiasts.

Even up to Monday there was considerable suspense due to the continuance of cold weather; but once more Dame Nature seems to have guarded us from harm, although through a trial of our patience and optimism.

The expansion in the telephone service of a country is not frequently cited as an illustration of that country's growth of wealth, although it probably constitutes as good a barometer of conditions as do the more popular indices.

But when this indication accords with all others, as clearings, railway earnings, building permits, etc., as is the case in this country at present, there is really no logical need for expecting adversity.

NEW BANK BRANCH.

A branch of the bank of British North America has been opened at Wakaw, Sask., under the temporary management of Mr. W. M. Garland.

STEADY DEMAND FOR HAY.

The market for baled hay evinces no change. Export and local demand continues steady.

No. 1 hay, $13 to $14; No. 2 extra quality, $12 to $12.50; No. 3 ordinary, $10 to $10.50; No. 3 hay, $9 to $9.50; clover, mixed, $8 to $8.50.

CHEESE AND BUTTER.

The cheese market exhibits farmers, with westerns at 11 3-4 to 12 1-4, and easterns, 11 1-2 to 11 3-4.

The butter market is not easing. Finest creamery is quoted at 22 3-4 to 23 cents.

EGGS IN GOOD DEMAND.

There continues to be a good steady demand for eggs. Straight gathered 17 1-2 to 18 cents: No. 1 stock, 18 1-2 to 19 and 20 cents in job lots. Selected stock, 22 to 23 cents.

OAT MARKET FIRM.

There continues a good all round demand for oats, prices of which, in car lots, ex store, are unchanged. No. 2 Canadian western, extra No. 1, 42 1-2 to .43c.; extra No. 1 feed, .42 to .42 1-2c.; No. 3 Canadian western, 41 1-2 to .42c.

SHAWINIGAN MAY SOON PAY SIX PERCENT

For the six months ended June 30 last Shawinigan Water and Power Company gross increased over $80,000, and of this total about $60,000 has been retained in net revenue, and on the basis of the returns so far issued for the year the net revenue balance for the whole of 1911 should amount to about $700,000, say 3½ percent on the common.

At present the company is paying 5 percent, this level having been established as from the commencement of the current year, prior to when the distribution was at the rate of 4 percent.

It seems seasonable to anticipate that before very long a further advance to 6 percent in the rate of distribution will be announced, and it is on some such anticipation that the price of the common shares has been raised the present level of 117, and even higher.

FINE WEATHER HELPING GRAIN ---BIG HAY CROP

Saskatoon, Sask., July 26.— Farmers and citizens generally are jubilant over the turn of the weather, which during the past few days has been bright and warm, just exactly what is needed for growing crops. From every district come glowing reports of condition of grain, your correspondent having seen, during a hundred mile automobile ride on every side of the city perhaps the finest looking crop ever standing in Saskatoon neighborhood.

If it is got off under favorable conditions, wheat should go in many cases at least 35 bushels to the acre, while numerous predictions are heard of oats, at 150.

Morden, Man., July 26. —The farmers of this district are at present busy taking off one of the largest hay crops ever reaped here. The weather of the past week has been ideal, and the grain is filling splendidly. A few farmers to the south are already cutting barley, and general harvest should set in within the next ten days.

WHAT GRAIN MEN HAVE TO SAY

Unless the Russian crop proves to be much worse than appears likely at the present time, says the 'Statist,' there is every probability of this year's total wheat yield being five to ten million quarters larger than that of 1910, so that there is again every prospetc of ample supplies being available for all requirements during the coming season.

Although it is not likely that the 1910 or 1909 crop will be equalled this season, it must not be forgotten that the area sown has increased about ten million acres compared with only a few years ago, and that there is, therefore, every probability of Russia being an important exporter in the coming season, especially as, in view of the large quantities of wheat Russia has continued to export week by week, right up to the present time, it is fairly certain that there must still be a considerable quantity of old wheat left.

In France the crop is expected to give a yield of about three hundred and twenty million bushels, against two hundred and forty-nine million bushels last year. As regards other countries, an official estimate gives the yield of the Italian crop at one hundred and eighty-eight million bushels, against one hundred and fifty-three million six hundred thousand bushels last year, and the preliminary Hungarian estimate is for a yield a hundred and sixty-four million bushels, against a hundred and seventy-six million bushels last year.

In Roumania harvest is proceeding under generally very favorable condition, and the results of threshings, both as regards quantity and quality, are reported to be very satisfactory.

LAKE SHIPPERS HOPEFUL.

Start of the Busy Season Expected Soon.

Windsor, Ont., July 26.—With the month of July almost gone lake vessel men and shippers now face the critical period of the entire season. The dullness which marked the opening of the season has not abated, and the period to which all have looked forward in the hope of better things is at hand. Predictions have been made that the last of this month and the first of August will see an improvement. Vesselmen have kept their vessels going as best they could with one idea of waiting for the predicted improvement. With the coal business furnishing few loads and the ore business being done by shippers boats, and grain obtainable only at doubtful rates, ships have had hard work to keep going. The period of promise is at hand, and if no improvement develops in the next few weeks, a number of ships will take their places alongside those which have not yet turned a wheel.

HAYTIAN REVOLUTION.

President's Son Leads Troops Against Rebels.

Port au Prince, Hayti, July 26. — The Haytien gunboat '17 Decembre,' left here to-day for Aux Cayos, a town on the south coast, carrying government troops under command of Antonio Simon, son of the President. The troops will march on Joromie, where revolutionists are in control. The gunboat 'Vertieros' also sailed to-day, but her destination was kept secret.

President Simon witnessed the departure of the vessels, and later, addressing the members of the diplomatic corps, said that the situation was not grave. He had decided to resist the movement against him, which he considers as brigandage, and without importance, he said. The foreign diplomats have decided to await further developments before taking action.

STRIKE NEARLY OVER

Labor Men Determined to Push Shooting Episode.

There would now seem to be good grounds for believing that the strike of the carpenters will soon be a thing of the past. From the headquarters of the men it was this morning announced that in the neighborhood of 400 have now returned to work at the terms first demanded by them, 35 cents an hour. The firms who have now made satisfactory arrangements with employees are: C. E. Deakin, Eyers and Auglin, and E. G. M. Cape. There were, of course, quite a number of firms in the city who have experienced no trouble at all with their men, as they have been paying the minimum rate all along, and the men employed by them, together with those who have now returned to work reach a very respectable total.

The feature of the situation at present is the decision of the labor officials to call out the men engaged in the construction of the new Harbor Commissioners' elevator. There are about 180 carpenters at present employed there, and the scale of wages now in force runs from 25 to 33 cents per hour. It is understood that an agreement was made prior to the beginning of the work whereby the men were to be paid according to their ability, and the fact that three or four men have left work there within the past few days has caused no uneasiness on the part of the contractors up to this time.

Developments are now being awaited in connection with the shooting which took place last week at the new factory of the United Shoe Machinery Company in Maisonneuve. In union circles the claim is made that the man who discharged the revolver is at least liable to prosecution for carrying a concealed and dangerous weapon, and they make the assertion that if he had been lined up in the ranks of the strikers instead of the other side he would have had to stand this charge. The labor officials are endeavoring to have this matter pushed to the limit in order that a test case may be made.

Speaking to a 'Witness' reporter this morning, Mr. Richard Lynch, who has been acting as leader of the men since the start of the trouble, spoke with much pride of the attitude of the men since the strike was declared, emphasing their loyalty to their leaders and the cause they had in mind, as well as their general conduct, which he said was exemplary. 'Not a man broke away from the ranks,' said Mr. Lynch, 'they have stuck together like men, and have kept themselves respectable and sober, behaving like good citizens.'

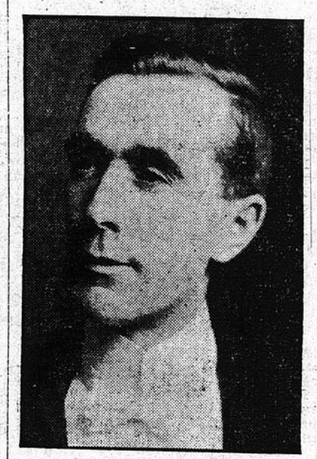

The other officers at the Labor Temple also eulogized the men's demeanor, which they said reflected much honor on the trade and made this one of the best conducted strikes which had ever taken place in Montreal.

The rank and file are equally optimistic and believe the whole trouble will terminate in their favor in a few days.

CALLS ACCEPTED

The Rev. Peter Walker to Go to Calgary and the Rev. John Pate Coming Here

At the meeting of the Montreal Presbytery held last night in Knox Presbyterian Church, the principal business dealt with was the call to the Rev. Peter Walker, of Maisonneuve, from Hillhurst Church, Calgary, and a call from Livingstone Church, Montreal, to the Rev. John Pate, of Lancaster, Ont.

The Rev. W. R. Cruikshank, M.A., ex-Moderator, was called to preside owing to the absence of the Moderator, the Rev. Prof. Fraser.

After devotional exercises the call from Hillhurst Church was read, and a committee of commissioners from Maisonneuve heard in regard to the same. On the call being placed in Mr. Walker's hands he announced his intention of accepting it, and will leave next week for the west. Many members of the court expressed regret at the departure of Mr. Walker, and paid a tribute to the valuable work he had done during his seven years ministry in Maisonneuve. The Rev. Dr. Scrimger was appointed Moderator of Maisonneuve church, and given power to moderate in a call to a minister, and the pulpit will be declared vacant next Sunday by the Rev. W. R. Cruikshank, who will preach on that occasion.

The call from Livingstone church in favor of the Rev. John Pate, of Lancaster, Ontario, was then considered. The call was largely signed, and the congregation were stated to be very enthusiastic in their desire to secure Mr. Pate's services. The presbytery sustained the call, and ordered it to be transmitted to Mr. Pate. In view of his acceptance the following arrangements were made for the induction which would be held on Aug. 17th—The Rev. W. R. Cruikshank to preside, the Rev. S. G. Brown, of Hemmingford, to preach; the Rev. A. G. MacKinnon, of Lachine, to address the minister, and Mr. Walter Paul, of Montreal, to address the people.

PERSONALS.

The Rev. John Lochhead, of Melville Presbyterian Church, will spend most of his time at Cap a l'Aigle.

Mrs. C. F. Sise, jr., and Miss Sise were among the passengers arriving home from France by the 'Corinthian' yesterday morning.

Miss May Wilson-Smith has come down from the family summer home at Ste. Agathe to spend a few days in the city with her father.

Professor Walter and Professor Morin, of McGill University, leave tomorrow morning to spend their holidays at Elgin Road, Quebec. They will not return until the end of September.

Dr. Howard M. Church is making satisfactory progress after the severe operation which he recently underwent at the Montreal General Hospital. It will be some weeks, however, before he will be able to be about again.

The marriage took place recently, in Calgary, of Mr. Leslie Henry, third son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Montague White, of Otawa, to Miss Marie Corinne Gauvreau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Gauvreau, of Edmonton, Alta. and niece of Mr. Justice Tessier, of Quebec.

RAILWAY AT LOGGERHEADS.

C. T. R.'s Big Fight With New Haven.

Burlington, Vt., July 25.—Developments here to-day would seem to indicate that the seat of war between the Grand Trunk and the New Haven railways, which was recently transferred from Brattleboro' to Woonsocket, R.I., has now centred on Burlington. A hearing was held here to-day before the Public Service Commission with reference to the building of the proposed union station for uBrlington. The New Haven interests were represented by General Manager Jarvis of the Rutland and his attorney, the GrandT runk by Messrs. E. H. Fitzhugh and Cy. Warman and General Manager G. C. Jones, of the Central Vermont, with their chief counsel, Mr. Witters. Plans for the proposed works were submitted by both roads, when the hearing was postponed until Aug. 16.

The Grand Trunk interests were then surprised to learn that the Rutland Railway was actually filling track location on Lake street, to reach which they would have to cross the Central Vermont lines in their yards here. This move, it was stated, would be actively opposed, first, because Lake street is the property of the Central Vermont, the city having been granted easement rights only. It was further stated that the Central Vermont own some three hundred thousand dollars worth of property on the street on which they propose to build the union station, and which they would be unable to close out its plans.

The situation here is every similar to that at Brattleboro', where a bitter fight betwen the contesting railways was caried on last winter, and the request of the New Haven controlled Rutland road involves the same principle as that opposed and defeated there by the Grand Trunk.

Mr. Fitzhugh, for the Grand Trunk, conceded the necessity for a union station here, and offered to build, own and operate with the Rutland road, but the latter railway, following the policy of President Mellen, of the New Haven, insisted that they should not only dictate the situation of the station but should own and operate it, making the Central Vermont a tenant, just as they proposed at Brttleboro'. It was stated that the Grand Trunk would not surrender any of their property to a competitive line, and the indications are that the fight between the Canadian system and the New Haven wil be actively carried on here.

CUT IN FREIGHT RATES.

Detroit, July 26.—A fifty percent cut in freight rates between Detroit and Duluth, Dollar Bay, Hancock and Houghton will prevail from August 14 until the close of navigation.

The rate will be for a rail and water route, and has been arranged through a combination with the Grand Trunk and the Port Huron and Duluth Steamship Company.

It is, of course, impossible to know much about mining advertising, which offers probably the most speculative, and, therefore, the most risky of all investments. The great chances of gain are balanced by the great chances of loss, and no one should invest in a very speculative property more than he can afford to lose.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1911.

There are fewer beggars in Montreal than aforetime. Mr. Chevalier says, notwithstanding the great increase of the city. There would be fewer still, he thinks, if the 'won't-works' were speedily sent back whence they came. We certainly should not have this class unloaded upon us from anywhere; but there ought not to be any beggars. Who has not been accosted on his way home by some one wanting the price of a meal or a bed? And how few are considerate enough to refuse such transparent appeals, though they know no one need lack for these. The mere fact of begging should immediately bring the beggar into the hands of the police. If he turns out to be a derelict from abroad he can be sent back. If he can claim Canada as his domicile, we should certainly have wholesome work to give him to do, and require him to do it for his food and clothes, and for the support of his family, till he prefers to work elsewhere, and be his own master. If he is a victim of drink, as is generally the case, we should have an inebriate colony, where, delivered from his tyrant, he would be free to make a man of himself. It is a crime on the part of a country which authorizes the sale of intoxicating drink not to have such a refuge for drink's victims. If he is really unable to work, he is a fit object for charity, and there is charity and brotherly and sisterly help in Montreal for most real needs.

'Bobby' Leach went over Niagara Falls in a tub and escaped with slight injuries, and is thereby qualified to become a full-fledged 'vaudeville artist.' What used to be called 'dare-devil' tricks have always been popularly attractive. Anybody who will do anything out of the ordinary, especially if there is danger or an appearance of danger, is always sure of a large audience to see the actual feat, and, nowadays, of larger audiences to hear tell about it afterwards. So that we may be pretty sure that 'Bobby' will soon be among us as an 'attraction,' with the original tub inside of which he 'shot the falls,' and that the crowd will flock to see and hear the hero, and get a new 'thrill' thereby. To see a first-class fool will be a change to their jaded senses from horse race betting, stock exchange gambling, the ball game, Jack Johnson, and the yellow newspaper. Fifty years ago, or less, whole villages used to amuse themselves by competitions which consisted in trying to climb a pole which had been greased, catching a greasy pig, grinning through a horse collar, or the eating of enormous pies, in the public sight, while wearing the label 'All for Me!' Civilization does not seem to have advanced much in half a century, so far as the popular taste in 'sport' is concerned; and there is this to be said for the older time, that the people then engaged in all sorts of clean games among themselves, and were athletic; whereas, now, sport is overwhelmingly professional, and a spectacle to the populace, which through the ubiquitous street car has nearly lost even the art of walking.

HOOLEY IN THE HOLE.

So Ernest Terah Hooley, once on the verge of knighthood—so near it, indeed, that he sent out cards of invitation in the name of Sir Ernest and Lady Hooley, has been sent to jail at last. He made millions out of nothing, and, believing that he had the Midas-touch, and was infallible in his powers of holding up other people within the limits of the law, he committed the inevitable mistake, the exposure of which gave him a shady name, and was the beginning of the series of disgraces which has finally landed him in prison. His notorious contemporary in financial piracy, the great exploiter, Whittaker Wright, after a spectacular career, which involved the innocent Lord Dufferin in ruin, along with many others, committed suicide by poisoning, just after he had received a penitentiary sentence. In the United States, a similar prison fate has befallen many of the Hooley-Wright type, such as Heinze and Morse, as in Canada it has befallen McGill and Travers, the bankers, who sailed too close to the wind in search of quick riches and were upset. For a time, these men were envied. Look how they are getting on! the world said. See how expensively their wives are dressing and how luxuriously they are living altogether, with their carriages and motor cars, liveried servants, and what not! Now there are none so poor as to do them reverence. In old days, privateers roamed the seas in time of war and many envied them the rich prizes they often brought to port. But when, as sometimes happened, they caught a tartar, and were taken prisoners, no one envied them their fate, which was, either to be hanged in rows, or made to 'walk the plank.' The modern financial pirate, who robs the people, not only of his own generation, but posterity, also sometimes makes a miscalculation and is made to 'walk the plank'—from liberty to jail, and to be even afterwards contemned and mistrusted. Time, as Shakespeare remarks in an oft-quoted passage, not infrequently has 'its revenges.' Jabez Balfour robbed the poor for years and years, but he had to pay a very heavy penalty in the end. It would seem that honesty is still the best policy for ordinary folk, in spite of some brilliant instances which, for the time being, seem to prove the contrary.

HOPES OF THE OPPOSITION.

It is beginning to be obvious that the present session of parliament can result in nothing further but a protraction of a campaign of taunt and slander, suggestive, as was the ungentlemanly behavior of certain Unionists in Great Britain, of desperation. The Opposition leader says the government wants a vote of the House upon Reciprocity, while the Opposition wants a vote of the people upon it. In so saying he implies, what has been explicitly stated on platforms, that the purpose of the Opposition is not to allow the question to come to a vote. Yet the oratorical and vituperative powers of the partisans of privilege exhaust themselves in parliament in asseverating that they are not obstructing. The Liberals declare that the last thing the Opposition wants is an appeal to the country. That is bluff. The Opposition may have small hope in such an appeal now, but they see plainly that their chances are better now than later. So what they are sparring for is to get the election before redistribution and yet be able in some way to blame the government and not themselves for that unfairness to the West. This will fail, as the West wants reciprocity, and knows the government wants to give it. No one can doubt that the government would prefer to go to the country after the added population of the West comes into the arena, and would not do so sooner unless forced to by obstruction. Those who believe in reciprocity, as the electors of the West do, will also hold, with the government, that the vote in favor of the government — especially the eastern vote—would be larger after the measure had shown its beneficent operation and belied the absurd objections raised against it. If, then, an election is precipitated now, the Opposition will have to take the responsibility of it and make the best of it.

It appears from a little spat that took place in the House of Commons yesterday that the Opposition is basing some vague hopes on Mr. Bourassa's anti-imperial and anti-national movement in the province of Quebec. It was this province that gave Sir Wilfrid Laurier his splendid majority in 1896. Without it he would hardly have won that election. With the French that election turned, not on the tariff question, but on the Manitoba school question. So now, it would turn not on the tariff question but on what the French call the marine question. Mr. Monk and Mr. Bourassa have stirred up the people to denounce the creation of a navy that might be at the command of the Imperial authorities; such servitude is not to be tolerated. We are aware that it is impossible to state the position of these people without being called liars by those singular papers the 'Devoir' and the 'Nationaliste.' We must, therefore, leave it at this, that they have got the province largely into a ferment, because the Government has committed itself to a navy that may co-operate too closely with that of the Empire, and that columns in their papers are occupied daily with galling insults heaped upon ministers for their cringing attitude towards the British Government. It is on this movement, led in Parliament by Mr. Monk, that the loyal Conservative party bases its hopes of downing Sir Wilfrid Laurier in his own stronghold.

No one knows yet what the strength of the movement is. It is this movement which, by reason of its bitter and slanderous methods, touches ministers from this province to the quick. It is evident that they attach importance to the sentiment appealed to, hidden under the thin veil of the phrase 'Autonomy,' or they would not expend themselves in proclaiming to their countrymen how Sir Wilfrid has demanded and secured the utmost measure of autonomy compatible with the continuance of Imperial relations. What the issue will be in this province is, as we have said, impossible to say. One important effect has been that the anti-British propaganda has sent the Liberal leaders into the province proclaiming loyalty to the King and the glorious Union Jack, sentiments which seem to be met everywhere with the warmest acclaim. At all events, if Sir Wilfrid Laurier is ousted in any measure by the vote of the province of Quebec, it will be this anti-British propaganda that will have accomplished it, and the victory will be to Mr. Bourassa and to Mr. Monk, with whom Mr. Berden couples himself in attacks upon the Government. Should there be such a victory, these men would have to be the ministers from the province of Quebec, and would dictate our Imperial policy. Surely the position is a frantic one!

IN HONOR OF WOLFE.

House in Halifax, Where He Once Lived Marked With Tablet.

Halifax, N.S., July 26.— When General Wolfe was preparing plans for the capture of Louisburg and Quebec, he lived in a house on Hollis street, in Halifax, now occupied as a tailoring establishment by Stanford & Co. The Nova Scotia Historical Society marked the site of Wolfe's residence yesterday by placing a tablet with a suitable inscription on the front of the building that now stands there.

The principal speakers were Brigadier-General Drury, commanding in the Maritime Provinces, and Lieut.-Col. Denison, of the Royal Canadian Regiment. Archdeacon Armitage, president of the Historical Society, was in charge of the proceedings, and made an address. General Drury gave an interesting sketch of Wolfe, who received a commission in the army at the age of fifteen; at twenty-three was in command of the 44th Regiment, and at thirty-three was the conquerer at Quebec. General Drury said he often wondered what we in Canada to-day would be like had it not been for the work of Wolfe and the success he accomplished.

Lieut. Denison spoke of Wolfe as one of the greatest soldiers the Empire had produced. He had often tried to picture to himself the glorious but pathetic death of the young soldier on the Plains of Abraham, for he was but a young man of 33 when he fell.

The marking of these historic spots, he said, was a work that must have a fine effect, impressing on the youth the great deeds of their patriotic ancestors. 'God knows,' the colonel added, 'that a country without patriots is no better than a body without life.'

WHERE HUMAN LIFE IS CHEAP

Negro Shoots Four White Men and is Lynched at Church Door.

Shreveport, La., July 26. — Miles Taylor, a negro farmer, was hanged yesterday in front of the negro church here. A mob of 100 white citizens swung him from a tree.

Taylor shot four well-known white planters, one of whom is dying. The shooting occurred near the Arkansas line. Taylor Thompson, a young married man, has two bullets through the abdomen, and cannot live. Robert Thurman, B. D. Harold and Newton Tanner are the other wounded. They are badly hurt, but will recover.

Miles Taylor had been to a grist mill with a sack of grain, which he exchanged for meal. Coming out, he passed a group of eight well-known residents of the community. Calmly and deliberately Taylor laid down his sack, drew a revolver, and opened fire. He did not say a word before the shooting. Only one man in the party was armed, and his revolver missed fire.

Hurrying from the scene, the negro went to the home of his father and armed himself with a Winchester rifle. Then he went to the church and hid. When the posse came upon him he fired upon them, but missed. When the negro's last bullet was expended he stopped in his tracks and waited his pursuers.

When captured he merely said he had a grouch against the whites and wanted to kill as many as possible. There was no doubt of his guilt or his identity.

FOUND UPTURNED BOAT.

Two Young Men Drowned in Burington Bay.

Hamilton, Ont., July 26. — There was a drowing fatality on Burlington Bay on Monday night. Two young men, George Warwick and William Woods, who lived at the corner of Barton street and Kinrade avenue, started out from the foot of Wentworth street Monday afternoon in a skiff to look for a rowboat that had been cast loose from its moorings by heavy wind storms. They left soon after six o'clock, and that is the last their friends saw of them alive. Warwick's brother became greatly alarmed at their absence and yesterday morning went out in a motor boat to make a search of the bay. About 3 o'clock, while opposite Station No. 36 at the beach, they found an upturned boat, and close by, in about two feet of water, were the bodies of the two young men. From the condition of their clothing it looked as if they had made a frantic effort to get rid of it, so that they could swim ashore.

COMMONS CONTINUES TO MARK TIME

Opposition Requests Information on Imperial Conference.

NO REPORT RECEIVED.

Story of Quebec Liberal Revolt' Branded as Contemptible and False—Reciprocity Debate Listless.

Ottawa, July 26.—Proceedings in the House of Commons yesterday were tame as compared with the debate on Monday, when the leaders declared their intentions as to reciprocity, and both expressed a willingness to go to the country to settle the existing deadlock.

There was what might be described as a 'lack of information' debate on the Imperial Conference, Mr. F. D. Monk introducing a motion calling upon the Government to lay upon the table of the House forthwith a full report of the proceedings.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that the Government could not possibly comply with the request, for the reason that the report had not been received and, so far as he knew, had not been tabled in the Imperial House. He said he would be very glad to discuss the conference when the full report of the proceedings is in hand.

Mr. R. L. Borden said the country was entitled to know whether summary reports of what the conference had accomplished, which had appeared in the Liberal press, were based on authoritative information, and if so, where the information came from.

Mr. Monk did not press the motion to a division.

Mr. Arthur Meighen, of Portage la Prairie, urged recognition for the early settlers of Rupert's Land, but the Hon. Frank Oliver said that with so many important questions, such as reciprocity and the Grain Act still pressing for attention, that Parliament could not be expected to deal with such an old claim.

At nine o'clock the debate on the reciprocity resolutions was resumed in committee, and continued till 11.30, when Major Sharp (North Ontario) moved the adjournment of the debate, after speaking for two hours.

The only other speaker was W. R. Smithe, of East Algoma.

EVERYTHING DEPENDS ON RCIPROCITY.

On motion of the Premier for morning sessions, Dr. Sproule made inquiry as to the time to be devoted to the consideration of private bills in committee and the House.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said it was the intention of the Government to proceed with reciprocity. If it was passed at an early date other matters could then be taken up. Everything depended on the headway made with reciprocity legislation.

The Hon. Sydney Fisher, in reply to a question by Mr. Borden, said that the resignation of Dr. J. G. Rutherford, chief Dominion veterinarian, was in his hands.

Mr. F. D. Monk was informed by the Minister of Marine that he expected, in the course of a few days, to have a report on the result of the inquiry into the Sorel shipyard, being conducted by officials of the marine branch at Montreal.

Mr. R. L. Borden asked the Secretary of State for a detailed report showing what progress has been made with the preparation of the voters' lists.

The Hon. Charles Murphy promised to have a report prepared.

QUEBEC 'REVOLT' STORY CONTEMPTIBLE.

Col. Talbot, of Bellechase, took exception to an article in the Montreal 'Gazette,' in which it was stated that the French-Canadians Liberal members are in a state of revolt and object to having to remain at Ottawa now that their sessional indemnity has expired. He said the story was both contemptible and malicious, and that a sense of duty would keep the French-Canadian members at Ottawa just as long without pay as it would other members.

Mr. Lapointe, of Kamouraska, said about the same thing in French, and was loudly cheered.

Mr. Arthurs, of Parry Sound, read a report in the press saying that the elections in Northern Ontario would be deferred, because it would not be possible to prepare the lists in time.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that the elections would be held according to law.

Major Currie was not satisfied with this reply, and Sir Wilfrid explained that under the statutes the polling could be postponed in certain constituencies, but that these did not include any constituencies in Northern Ontario.

Claude Macdonnell, South Toronto, asked if an order-in-council had been passed, removing restrictions on American laborers so as to facilitate their entry into Canada during the harvest period.

Mr. Oliver explained that there are no restrictions imposed on farm laborers except such as are imposed by statute, and these could not be removed by order-in-council. He said that farm laborers are not required to possess a certain sum of money.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

When the House was moved into ways and means on the reciprocity resolutions, Mr. F. D. Monk introduced an amendment calling upon the Government to lay upon the table at once a complete report of the proceedings before the Imperial Conference.

Mr. Monk spoke at some length in support of his motion. It was, he said, the duty of the Government to keep Parliament fully informed as to the proceedings of the conference, because the deliberations of that body have much to do with colonial affairs. He noted that the premo which was issued at the time the conference was held contained the information that the findings of the Imperial Conference had been approved, but there was little in the document to throw any light on the decisions of the conference in respect to naval and military matters. If any changes had been decided upon in regard to these matters, the Canadian people should know about it without delay, and the government should not withhold the information for a single day. Mr. Monk read from a summary of the proceedings of the conference, which appeared in 'Le Canada,' Montreal, in which it was stated among other things that a policy of consultation had been agreed to, that free maritime zones had been established and that a flag for the Canadian navy had been decided upon. In the course of a short time Parliament would be asked to vote large sums for the navy, and it was only fair that the decision of the conference should be made known at an early date.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he would take no exception to many of the statements made by the member for Jacques Cartier. He agreed that a report of the conference should be given to Parliament, and he hoped to be in a position to table it in the course of a few days. He did not think, however, that in view of the fact that the report of the Imperial Conference was being prepared by officials of the Colonial Office, and that, so far as he knew, had not been tabled in the Imperial House, there was much sense in Mr. Monk's motion. There was no charge in it that he and his colleagues had been derelict in their duty.

Mr. Monk interrupted to ask if the Canadian Parliament was dependent on the Colonial Office for the report.

Sir Wilfrid replied that the Canadian and all the other governments concerned are dependent on the body chosen by the conference to get out the report. He promised to send a cable making inquiries about it without delay.

MUST AWAIT THE REPORT.

Dealing more particularly with Mr. Monk's references as to what had been done at the Conference, Sir Wilfrid said that he had nothing to conceal, and would be only too glad to discuss the report when it is received. The sooner it was received the better would it suit him. As for Mr. Monk he had known him and his ways for some time. Mr. Monk had made some speeches on the naval question, and he would be only too glad to discuss the issue with him, but in the meantime he would have to appeal to the common sense of members on both sides of the House, to whom it must be apparent that the Government could not table a report not yet received or placed on the table of the Imperial House.

Mr. R. L. Borden was inclined to think that the full report of the conference might not differ materially from the precis, and it would be of advantage to have the latter tabled at once. The people of Canada, he said, were concerned to know whether the reports of the Conference, which have appeared in papers friendly to the Government, are based on facts or not. If correct, then either Sir Wilfrid Laurier or some one of his colleagues must have revealed the secrets of the conference for the purpose of helping a campaign on behalf of the Government, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Any minister who would do such a thing, he said, would not be worthy of the position he occupies. Mr. Borden then amused his followers by indulging in some ralliery at the expense of the Premier. Sir Wilfrid, he said, never crossed the Atlantic without saving the autonomy of Canada from designing British premiers, such as Balfour and Asquith. The autonomy of the Dominion had been saved so often by Sir Wilfrid that it ought to be pretty well preserved by this time and about ready for cold storage. To the Opposition, however, must belong the credit this time, because Sir Wilfrid would not have gone to the Conference had the Conservatives not insisted on him doing so.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, (S. York), read the London 'Times' of July 15 a review of the proceedings of the Imperial Conference which had been published verbatim, and asked why the Canadian Parliament could not get a full report as soon as a newspaper. Perhaps, said he, the officials of Downing street still looked on Canada as in the old Colonial days. If so, the Premier should cable to London for an explanation as to why Canada was not remembered when copies of the full proceedings were handed around.

Mr. Monk's motion was then declared lost on division.

PLEA FOR EARLY MANITOBA SETTLERS.

Arthur Meighan (Portage la Prairie), made a plea on behalf of the early settlers in Manitoba, who had come into the north west before it was a part of the Dominion, especially between the years 1836 and 1870. The only answer the Government could make to their claims was that the forty years' lapse of time outlawed them. Others had been recognised who were not nearly so strongly entitled to recognition. These old time settlers had come into the prairielands, borne the privations of those early days, made possible the present great development both of Manitoba and of the lands beyond, and yet hitherto the Government had failed to do anything to remedy the hardships entailed when they ceded their lands to the Dominion.

Hon. Frank Oliver, in reply, called attention to the many more urgent matters being blocked by introducing such a question now. First of all was the reciprocity agreement, for which all the west was anxious. Then there was the Manitoba Train Act which the farmers at least claimed was a very important bill, and the Government would be glad to proceed with it if the Opposition allowed any headway to be made. Yet in the face of all this Mr. Meighan asked him to give consideration to a 35 year old question. Mr. Oliver added that it was now the settled policy of the Government not to issue any more land scrip in the west.

A. C. Boyce at the evening sitting again referred to the voters' lists for the unorganized districts of Ontario. The minister of justice in a statement made to the house the other day asserted that the justice department had nothing to do with issuing the proclamation, yet it was signed by the deputy minister of justice. Sir Allen had also assured the house in that there would be no election for two years when he knew that the proclamation had been issued, and that the government was preparing to appeal to the people.

Sir Allen Aylesworth contented himself with remarking that he did not suppose that anyone was so obtuse as to take the remarks he had made in regard to an election seriously.

RAISED TO A PROVINCE

Important Change in Redemptorist Order in Canada

A change in the Redemptorist Order came into effect this morning, whereby the order in Canada ,which was until to-day a vice-province of Belgium, has been raised to the dignity of a province of Canada. The provincial is Father Lemieux, of Beaupre.

The change means the taking over of three houses formerly under American jurisdiction—those at Toronto, Quebec and St. John, N.B., and their union in one province with six Canadian houses, Montreal, Beaupre, Ottawa, Brandon, Hochelaga and Yorkton.

The change was made to-day on account of this being St. Ann's Day, the fete of the patron saint of Canada, after whom St. Ann's parish, and the Parish oof Ste. Anne de Beaupre are named.

BRAVE BOY SCOUTS.

Two to be Rewarded for Plucky Actions.

Toronto, July 26.—Two Ontario scouts have been nominated to receive the silver medal for heroism in life-saving. Scout George Scott, of Niagara Falls, and Scout Victor Graham, of Tilsonburg. George Scott plunged into the well and river, just below the M. C. R. bridge at Chippewa, and rescued a five-year-old lad who had been fishing from the bank, last Victoria Day, when the coldness of the water added to the difficulty of the rescue.

At the Tilsonburg accident, Victor Graham, who is slightly built, and sixteen years of age, was swimming in the river, when he went down in a dangerous hole. He found that W. Melvin, aged 22, had also gone down in a dangerous hole. He dived and located the body, but was so exhausted that he could not raise it. After a short rest he made another unsuccessful attempt, and some men who came up went in. They had no better fortune, so Graham entered the water for the third time and managed to bring the body out of twenty feet of water. Life, however, was extinct.

SEASIDE RESORTS IN NEW BRUNWICK, NOVA SCOTIA AND MAINE.

No Railway Company has such a number of seaside resorts tributary to its line, as the C.P.R.

The Company has arranged special rates to St. Andrews, St. Stephens and St. John, N.B. It is the only line making special rates to Digby, Yarmouth and other points in the Land of Evangeline, in Nova Scotia, while it has low rates and the direct route to Halifax, N.S.

The Maine resorts of Portland, Old Orchard and Kennebunkport are reached by its direct through car service running through the White Mountain Notch. There are no transfers or street cars necessary by the C.P.R.

FARM LABORERS TO THE WEST.

The arrangements which have been made by the C.P.R. to secure Farm laborers for the West embrace all stations on every line in the Maritime Provinces, Quebec and Ontario.

The facilities which the Company is able to provide on the ocean will also direct men from the Old Country, while arrangements have also been made with the Dominion Government, so that the agents of the Company will be able to direct men to points where work is plentiful without any fear that the Immigration restrictions at the Boundary will keep them back.

MEN AND RELIGION

Delegates at First Annual Lake George Convention Number 450

Lake George, N.Y., July 25.—Delegates to the number of 450, representing seventy-five cities in thirty-six States and Canada, are in attendance at the first annual conference of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, now in session at Silver Bay. The chief address yesterday was delivered by Raymond Robbins, of Chicago, who told of his work in the Klondike and outlined the great reforms embraced in the Movement's programme. Mr. William J. Bryan is to be one of the speakers of the week.

Other speakers were Dr. Lansing, of the Reform Bureau at Washington, D.C.; Dr. H. F. Laflamme, leader in the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and the Rev. Dr. Charles Stetzle, of Brooklyn.

INSPECT L. C. R. AND TOWNS.

Government Officials Satisfied With Their Trip.

The members of the Government Railway Managing Board (the Intercolonial), accompanied by Mr. Campbell, the Chairman and Deputy Minister of Railways, and other officials, have returned to Moncton, N.B., after touring the eastern sections. Everyone expressed themselves pleased with the conditions and prospects all along the line, and Mr. Tiffin reports that the traffic has reached the highest point in the history of the railroad. Proceeding from Moncton the party went to Truro, where they were met by the Board of Trade representatives respecting the proposed new passenger station and freight sheds to be built there.

At New Glasgow the Board discussed local matters; and from thence took train to Sydney. Here they found a boom in every thing, and the city making rapid extensions. The Steel Company here is making great improvements, involving a large expenditure for the manufacturing of nails and bar steel. From Sydney they proceeded to Halifax, and conferred with the Board of Trade re regarding terminals, and it is understood that a satisfactory solution to the problems that have been engaging their attention at the Nova Scotia port has been arrived at.

BROCKVILLE LIBERALS.

The Hon. Geo. P. Graham to be Standard Bearer Again.

Brockville, Ont., July 26.—Announcement was made yesterday afternoon from Liberal headquarters of the decision to hold a convention on Tuesday, August 8, for the riding of Brockville, at present represented by the Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals. The business presumably is the selection of a candidate to contest the constituency at the pending Dominion elections. There have been vague rumors that Mr. Graham will not carry the Liberal standard again in his home town, that he will seek another riding to give room for aspirants for parliamentary honors to contest the convention for the nomination, but it is pretty generally conceded that the Cabinet minister will be the unanimous choice when the time comes. He has been twice elected, once by acclamation, when he was called to the Cabinet, and again in 1908, when he defeated John Webster by a majority under 150.

FIRE IN LUMBER PILE

A small fire broke out yesterday shortly before three p.m., in a pile of lumber adjoining the yards of Messrs. Shearer, Brown and Willis, Point St. Charles. The firemen soon had it under control.

FLOATED OVER NIAGARA FALLS

Bobby Leach, First Man to Successfully Perform Hazardous Feat

WAS SLIGHTLY INJURED.

Spectators Expected to Find Him Dead When Steel Barrel Was Removed From Water.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 26.—Bobby Leach went over the Falls yesterday in a barrel and survived with nothing worse than a number of painful cuts. The exploit was witnessed by hundreds of people, and when the reckless navigator was at last rescued from his iron, cigar-shaped barrel there was a cheer and a feeling of relief that showed how impossible it had been felt that the feat could be done. It was one o'clock when it was reported that Leach would really attempt the perilous feat of going over the Horseshoe Falls in his barrel. At 2.55 p.m. the launch which had Leach in tow cut the barrel adrift a short distance below Hog Island, Chippewa. The course had ben well chosen, for the barrel kept in the channel, and gradually drew towards the power house.

All this time the watchers and the people on the top of the Gorge were anxiously awaiting news of how it had fared with the intrepid navigator. Many believed he must be dead. As soon as the barrel touched the shore a man tapped on it with a hammer, and a great shout went up as an answering tap came from the man inside. The iron manhole was quickly removed, and Leach was found to be in fairly good shape.

He was assisted from the barrel. It was thought he had broken his left leg. A stretcher was quickly procured and the injured man carried into one of the shanties near at hand, where oxygen was administered. In a few minutes Dr. Wilson, after an examination, declared no fractures had been sustained, but both knees were badly cut. In explaining the injuries, Leach said he had proper protection for his head, and was using his feet as a wedge, but in going over the falls he went feet first, and the jar he got when the barrel struck threw his knees against the side.

One of the first things he said after being laid on the floor of the shanty was: 'Somebody send to my wife and tell her I'm all right.'

BARREL STRUCK ROCK FORCIBLY.

Opposite the fore bay of the Ontario Power Company, the rocks draw away suddenly, and Bobby got a nasty shaking as the barrel was rolled over rapidly, but his worse experience next to the actual drop over the falls was after leaving the Toronto power house, and when in a direct line for the Horseshoe, the barrel struck a rock with such force that the cigar-shaped wooden end broke off, and Leach's head was knocked against the side of the barrel and badly bruised, and his right ear cut.

At exactly 3.12 p.m., the crowd saw the barrel reach the brink of the mighty cataract and disappear in the depths, to reappear minus the other wooden end, in the seething cauldron below the falls. Contrary to expectations, the barrel did not enter the eddy which carried the others in near the Falls, but swept passed the Ontario power house, and then washed around too far out for those waiting to reach it, until one of the power company's employees, named Frank Bender, took a rope, sprang into the water fully dressed, and, quickly reaching the barrel, pulled it in with the assistance of those on shore.

The barrel, built recently according to Leach's specifications, was 12 feet long and four feet six inches in diameter at the largest part. The ends were capped with steel sheathing for a distance of three feet.

Mrs. Anna Edson Taylor successfully navigated the Horseshoe Falls in a wooden barrel ten years ago. No one else succeeded until Leach's present attempt.

Knowlton, Que., July 26.—The second day of the Knowlton Temperance Convention has proved the most successful Monday of any of the three assemblies held by the temperance workers of the province. The speakers were Miss Cora F. Stoddard, the Rev. T. E. Burke, B.D., and Mr. John H. Roberts. One of the most illuminating addresses ever given in Canada was Miss Stoddart's on 'The battle of the nations.' This was really a review of temperance progress the world over and it was claimed by Miss Stoddard that 'the demon rum' is on his last legs everywhere. 'Great Britain,' saidl the speaker, 'is building herself into a nation of total abstainers rapidly. This year a movement has been inaugurated under the patronage of their Majesties the King and uQeen for the purpose of securing another million members of bands of hope—the juvenile temperance organization of the old land. Fifteen thousand doctors had petitioned the British Government asking that scientific temperance teaching be given in all public schools. The consumption of drink is getting less every year, and the temperance principle is permeating every grade of society. The King has given permission for his health to be toasted in water while the Liberal Government was composed of nearly all total abstainers. In Ireland the 'Catch-my-Pal' movement is winning thousands from the drink habit. Iceland has prohibited the importation of liquor and in three years time will abolish the sale of alcohol. The Faroe Islands have adopted prohibtion and Denmark to whom they belong had five hundred thousand of her people ask for local prohibition and since being granted the power to close saloons eighty municipalities have driven them out In Scandinavia the Gothenburg system has proved a 'gold brick,' but local prohibition had worked a revolution.

MISS CORA FRANCES STODDARD.

CZAR DISALLOWS FINNISH MEASURE.

In a plebiscite recently taken in Sweden one million eight hundred thousand votes had been cast for national prohibition and only sixteen thousand against. The King of Sweden is a total abstainer and encourages temperance work by purse and voice. In France the problem of alcoholism is more intense than in any country of Europe, but there the government has prohibited the use of spirits in the army and placarded the hoardings with posters warning the people that alcohol in small quantities is harmful. Finland has prohibited the liquor traffic, but the Czar of Rusia has disallowed the measure. Germany has a hundred and sixty thousand total abstainers in temperance organizations. The Empress of Germany is responsible for the introduction of temperance teaching in the public schools and the Kaiser has urged his soldiers to abstain from the beer that has made Germany famous. Even Austria, Bulgaria, Italy and Syria have their temperance movements and the whole Continent of Europe is in a ferment over the drink evil. The British dominions are all heading for prohibition. Canada is one of the most temperate countries in the world, while the United States have nine of their number 'dry' and half the whole population living in prohibition territory.

LESSONS FROM IRELAND.

Increasing attendance marks the convention, and fresh delegates are arriving, the furthermost ends of the province being represented. Somewhat inclement weather interfered with the attendance of the people of the countryside, but Knowlton seldom has rainy weather for long at a time.

The addresses by the speakers continue at highwater mark, and the growing interest is indicated by the earnest discussions at the morning conferences. A splendid address yesterday from the Rev. T. E. Burke, B.D., of Montreal, on 'Temperance in Ireland' had many lessons for Canadians, and, incidentally, had a bearing on the early closing question in Montreal. Mr. Burke pointed out that in Dublin the arrests for drunkenness on Saturdays and Sundays in 1905 averaged 1,274, but in 1909, with the hours of sale of drink reduced by three, there were only 763—511 less. In Belfast there were 1,200 arrests for drunkenness on Saturdays and Sundays in 1906, but only 803 on the same days in 1909, with three hours less of open barroom. 'The same condition,' said Mr. Burke, 'has been witnessed in Toronto, where a comparison between Christmas Day, with bars open, and New Year's Day, with bars closed, shows Christmas Day drunk and New Year's Day sober. My observation of conditions in Montreal since coming to live there has shown me that the Montreal police are not very anxious to arrest drunken men while the bars are open, but they appear to be overzealous to do so after 7 p.m. on Saturdays. In Ireland it is the Protestant breweries and distillers who are maintaining the anti-Home Rule conflict and fanning the flames of religious bigotry for their own selfish purposes. The churches there are fifty years behind those of Canada as regards the temperance movement, and one Protestant church in Dublin even has a stained glass window in it as a memorial to a brewer, with the text, "I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink!"

THE REV. T. E. BURKE, B.D., One of the Leading Speakers at the Conference.

The afternoon session was marked by the presence of the Rev. J. L. Gordon, D.D., of Winnipeg, who delighted an enthusiastic audience with his popular lecture, 'Grace, Grit and Greenbacks,' and proved himself a giant of the platform and a master of assemblies. His lecture teemed with wit and humor, illustrations and homely wisdom. He captivated all his hearers, and his oratory swept the assembly like a cyclone.

CRASHED INTO AUTO.

One Machine Killed Owner of Stranded Car and Injured Chauffeur.

New York, July 26.—Charles Hirsh, a manufacturer of Brooklyn, was instantly killed, and John Wotka, a chauffeur, was fatally injured in an unusual automobile accident early today, on Pelham Parkway. Hirsh had crawled beneath his car to make repairs, when a second automobile crashed into it, wrecking both machines and crushing Hirsh to death.

The chauffeur of the second automobile, John Wotka, had been blinded by the glare of a third automobile, and in swerving out struck Hirsh's machine. The physicians say Wotka is not expected to live. Three other occupants of Wotka's car were slightly hurt, while three friends of Mr. Hirsh, who were standing in the road, were uninjured.

POWER COMPANY DEFEATED.

Hamilton Citizens Carry By-law for Municipal Ownership.

Hamilton, July 26.—Great interest was taken yesterday in the voting on the municipal power by-law. The Cataract Power Co. and its supporters put up a great fight to defeat the by-law for the proposed municipal plant When the hydro question was before the people two years ago it had a majority of 610 and there was but a small vote cast, a total of about 4,000. There were some 3,000 more votes cast yesterday, with the result that the by-law to raise $504,000 for a municipal light and power plant to destribute electric energy for the Hydro-Electric system, was carried by a majority of 418. The biggest majority for the by-law was given in Ward No. 8, the ward recently annexed to the city. The majority there was 271. South of King street throughout the city there was a majority against the by-law, of 210. It looked to be a repetition of a fight of the North against the South. Wards Nos. 1, 2 and 3 gave a majority against the by-law; Ward No. 4 practically broke even, and the other thre wards were strongly hydro.

FINDS ORE WORTH $25,000.

North Bay, July 25.—Charles McCarthy, constable at Elk Lake, claims to have discovered ore stolen from a shipment made last winter from Lucky Godfrey mine, and estimated to contain silver valued at over twenty-five thousand dollars. McCarthy has in his possession a cheque for one thousand dollars from the company, payment conditional upon him producing the ore.

It is said that the ore is cached in Montreal river, and that several men were interested in its theft.

AN EGG-LAYING CONTEST.

The contest is being organized and financed by the Philadelphia 'North American' with the help of an advisory board, and wil be held at the Storrs Agricultural Experimental Station at Storrs, Conn.

ENDORSES TAFT.

Lincoln, Neb., July 26.— Nebraska Republicans, in convention here yesterday, gave President Taft and his administration a strong endorsement and effectively blocked all efforts of a small band of insurgent delegates to arouse sentiment for Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Winconsin, as a presidential candidate.

A SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN.

Smallpox Had to Yield to Board of Health's Effort.

A reduction of fifty percent in the number of smallpox cases is, according to the announcement made by the local authorities of the Provincial Board of Health, the result of the campaign which has been carried on throughout the province during the past few months.

As a result the cases that really existed were isolated, and as these followed the usual course to recovery, there was no new crop to demand the attention of the provincial and municipal authorities.

Dr. Beaudry states that the health authorities now have the situation in hand, and that in a short time there is every likelihood of a comparatively complete disappearance of the disease as far as the province of Quebec is concerned.

The local office received news of an unofficial nature yesterday to the effect that eight new cases had been discovered in one section of Quebec city. The authorities, in the absence of official confirmation of the discovery, are at a loss to account for this new condition of affairs, but if it proves to be true, every precaution will be taken to prevent any further spread of the disease.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND RELIGION.

The Rev. Mr. Whiteside at the Evangelical Mission.

'Church membership is a curse to some people,' said the Rev. Mr. Whiteside, yesterday evening in his remarks during the service of the Evangelical mission, being held in the tent on the grounds of St. James' Methodist Church. He spoke of the evil influences which kept young men and women from thinking of religion, and said that church membership was responsible for certain kinds of sins.

The choir of Huntley street Methodist church led the singing which is quite a feature of the meetings.

Services will be continued every afternoon this week from 3 to 4, and every evening, except Saturday, at 8 p.m., and Sunday at 8.30 p.m. Next week will see the ordinary meetings on Friday and Sunday nights only.

GEN. GARCIA IN TORONTO.

Toronto, July 26.—Carlos Garvia will arrive in the city early to-day, and will address the Board of Trade this afternoon.

MONOPOLISTS FINED

Thirty-Seven Accused in Wire Trust Pay Heavy Fines—Eighty-three Indictments

New York, July 26.—The Federal Government yesterday scored heavily in its effort to break up the alleged 'wire trust,' when 37 of the 83 men indicted on June 29 withdrew the plea of 'not guilty' and accepted sentence, without trial, on pleas of 'nolo contendere.' Upon this passive admission of guilt, Judge Archbald, in the United States District Court, imposed fines of from $1,000 to $1,700 and costs in each case.

The action came in the face of vigorous argument against the acceptance of the plea by United States District Attorney Henry A. Wise. It had never been accepted in this court, he declared, and he protested against a precedent.

'The best authorities,' he said, 'characterize it as a plea indicating a compromise betwen the defendants and prosecuting attorneys,' and he denied that any such compromise existed.

The Court, however, accepted the pleas and remarked:

'This is what you might call a trade offence. It is an offence which by the Act of Congress is against the interests of the business world. Congress has declared that combinations in restraint of trade shall not exist. It seems to me I am not going out of the way when I say that just what was meant by this law has remained in considerable uncertainty up to this time. We now know exactly, or very nearly, what it means, and from this time on there will be no excuse, but I feel justified in loking upon what has occurred in the past in this light and therefore I certainly regard this as calling for nothing except a proper vindication of the law by a fine. The extent of that fine is somewhat difficult for me to fix, but it should be a substantial fine, and I will impose a thousand dollars in this case on each defendant. Let him pay the costs and a fine of a thousand dollars in each case.'

Judge Archbald shortly afterwards corrected himself with the decision that in instances where the defendant had pleaded and had been fined in one case, in the record case he would modify the fine to a hundred dollars for each of the additional cases.

William P. Palmer, president of the American Steel & Wire Company; Herbert L. Satterlee, son-in-law of J. P. Morgan; Frank J. Gould and C. F. Brooker, Republican National committeeman, Connecticut, were among the forty-six other alleged members of the associations who have pleaded not guilty to the indictments.

AMATEUR AIRMEN.

Likely to be Barred From Aviation Meet in Toronto.

Toronto, July 26.—In view of the fact that Mr. J. E. Rogers, superintendent of the Provincial Police, gave orders which prevented Bobby Leach from entering on his trip over Niagara Falls from the Canadian side, on the ground that he would be arrested for attempting to commit suicide if he tried to make the trip from Canadian soil, the question has arisen as to whether the same orders will be issued in connection with the Toronto aviation meet next week. Several amateur aviators have signified their intention of flying, or trying to fly, during the meet, and as none of them have yet made any flights in their machines, the Attorney-General's Department is considering the advisability of issuing orders that none but six professional aviators will be allowed to participate in the meet.

CHOLERA CASES IN FRANCE.

Deaths From Dread Disease Reported From Several Centres.

Paris, July 26.—Cholera is reported from several points in France. There have been fresh cases at Montpellier, and two deaths.

Another death from the disease is reported at Paulhan. The fourth death is also reported at Florenzac.

HINDOO RAN AMUCK.

Man With Rifle Shot Eight Men in Chicago Streets.

Chicago, July 26.—Armed with a rifle and carrying a letter addressed to President Taft, and the local British consul, N. Lusane, 25 years old, believed to be a Hindoo, ran amuck in the crowded streets of Chicago, in the down town district, late last evening. Eight men were wounded. He was arrested.

GRAND FORKS BLOCK BURNS.

Grand Forks, B.C., July 26.—A disastrous fire swept over the main business portion of Grand Forks yesterday. At 4.10 o'clock when the fire was discovered, it was burning so rapidlythat at 6 o'clock entire block was a mass of burning cinders. The owners of the various stores saved nothing, owing to the intense heat. The total loss cannot be accurately estimated at present, but is figured roughly at one hundred thousand dollars.

EVENING GOWNS THAT COST FORTUNES.

These gowns are from dressmakers in the Rue de la Paix, Paris. One is a lovely affair of cendre—ashes of roses—satin with a tunic of deep rose chiffon. Pearl beads are embroidered on the chiffon and form the sole trimming. The other is of gold embroidered black net draped over a slip of black satin meteor. Flesh-colored chiffon used on the bodice gives the appearance of extreme decolletage.

INDIAN RESERVE SALE.

Former Chief Testifies as to Surrender of Land.

Selkirk, Man., July 26.—The second session of the St. Peter's Reserve inquiry took place yesterday afternoon, the major portion of the time being spent in the interrogation of William Prince, who was, until three weeks ago, chief of the tribe. Before starting the inquiry, the chairman of the commission stated the inquiry had two primary objects in view: First, to look into the bringing about of the meeting at which the surrender of the St. Peter's Reserve was made, and, secondly, to look into the sales of land made by the Indians and ascertain if these sales were made by the Indians with a conscious mind. The old chief was then interrogated, and he narrated the events that had occurred in connection with the surrender sice the day in 1907, when Mr. Pedley, of the Indian Department at Ottawa, had visited the reserve and told the Indians the government wished them to surrender the reserve. This had been strongly opposed by Prince and the tribe, but later, when the agreement on which they were to evacuate was explained to them, he changed his mind, as did many of the others, and the surrender was made. It was not in the actual surrender that the complaint of the Indians lay, but in the fact that the government had failed to live up to the agreement. The government had promised to assist them and would also help them to build new homes. He asserted, however, that no money was ever offered him to favor the surrender or to use his influence to bring about the surrender.

Judge Myers, at the conclusion, stated that Prince's evidence was not very reliable, owing to his confusion and memory.

DUCHESS AT DONKEY SHOW.

Presents Prizes to Delighted Owners.

London, July 26.—The Countess of Bective, as president of the Camberwell Costers Benevolent Association, received the Duchess of Teck for the presentation of prizes to the winners of the second annual donkey show.

There were over 50 competitors, and about 20 prizes were distributed by the duchess in the grounds of Camberwell house. Her highness shook hands with every prize winner as he passed, and took particular notice of a donkey who had been going some 28 years, and had in the past received a prize from the Princess Royal.

The animals look clean and thoroughly well cared for, and few owners went away unrewarded. Mr. Slater and Mr. Harris, who won the two first prizes for 'hard working' donkeys, received sets of harness. Others got watches, clocks, nose bags, harness, brushes, combs and sacks of fodder.

At the close a coster in seconding a vote of thanks to the duchess, said: 'Thanks to your ladyship for your kindness to our animals and all of us.'

RHODESIA TO AMALGAMATE.

Johannesburg, July 26.—It is reported that the necessary arrangements for the amalgamation of northeast and northwest Rhodesia will soon be completed. It is understood that L. A. Wallace administrator of Northwest Rhodesia, will administer the territory.

ANGLO-GERMAN ENTENTE

Berlin Professor Speaks of Friendship Between the Two Nations.

Professor Koebner, of the Berlin University, is at the Windsor Hotel, passing through the city on his way to China on an official mision, and he sums up the Anglo-German situation in the following sentence: 'I may say that no reasonable man in Germany has other than the most friendly feelings towards Great Britain.' He said that while he was not visiting Canada in an official capacity he would keep his eyes open to its great resources.

Professor Koebner preferred the centralizing system of government in Canada to the excessive power given in the United States. The Canadian system was more like that of Germany and her different states. The university man will inquire into the relations of the central power at Ottawa with that centred in the provincial executives at Halifax, Quebec, Toronto and other political centres.

Touching on financial matters, he stated there was a close affinity between the banks of Germany, Great Britain and France, and Germany was loaning a great deal of money abroad just now. On his return he promised to give all possible information concerning Canada's magnificent country as a splendid field for investment.

FAKIRS SENTENCED.

Officers of Swindling 'Medical Institute' Sent to Jail.

New York, July 26.—Three guiding spirits of the recently raided Collins Medical Institute, which advertised and recruited patients in Canada as well as in the United States, received sentences of one and two years imprisonment and fines in the United States Circuit Court yesterday afternoon for fraudulent use of the mails. William H. Rudolph, the manager, and Samuel F. Hyndman, the medical head, will serve two years sentences in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., and pay fines of $500 each.

Julius Jelisk, a salaried employee, was sentenced to a year's imprisonment in the New York penitentiary, and to pay $100 fine and one-third of the costs.

YOUNGEST BISHOP CREATED

St. John's, Nfld., July 26. — The youngest bishop in the British Empire was formally inducted into office yesterday, when Archbishop Stagni, papal delegate for Canada, consecrated in the St. John's Cathedral Father Michael Power, the parish priest of Harbor Breton, as Bishop of St. George West, Nfld. Bishop Power is a native of this city and is only 34 years old. Archbishop Stagni arrived here last Friday. He has received a unique series of demonstrations of welcome since he landed.

THREE STRUCK BY TRAIN.

New York, July 26.—A subway express train, running at top speed, caught three electricians in its path near the Seventy-second street station at the rush hour yesterday afternoon, fatally injured one and sent the other two spinning through the air for fifty feet. They were unconscious when they landed again in the track of the train, but the emergency brake fetched the train up short, stopping it within a few inches of their bodies. Several hundred passengers, wrenched loose from their hold on straps and hurled from the seats, were thrown into a panic and traffic was tied up for twenty minutes.

ROYALIST RISING NOT EXPECTED.

Lisbon, July 26.—The Portuguese government now considers that an invasion of royalists in Galicia need no longer be feared, for the present at any rate. It has therefore been decided to disband the reserves recently called out, although a certain force will still be kept in the north, occupying such stragetic points as may be considered advisable.

MANY PRIZES AT P.Q.R.A. MEET

Local rifle shots who are disengaged from their work and business cares from August 8 to August 11, are looking forward with enthusiasm to the approaching meet of the Province of Quebec Rifle Association, which opens at the Pointe aux Trembles ranges a week from Tuesday next, and will continue for four days. Practice in preparation for the meet is now being carried on, and, as the prize list is larger than last year's, particularly in the green and tyro lists, and the number of prospective entries is likely to be small, the men are anticipating a comparatively easy time when the meet opens, as there will be a prize for almost every man.

Entries from the city militia corps must be made at the respective armories by Monday, July 31, when the secretaries of the rifle associations will be present to receive entries. Each regiment will pay the affiliation fees of those who enter on its regimental order sheets.

G. T. P. PROGRESS.

Labor Scarcity in East, States Mr. E. J. Chamberlin.

Ottawa, July 26.—'The Grand Trunk Pacific line ought to be through Ottawa in two years,' said Mr. E. J. Chamberlin, general manager of the line in the West. He stated that the plans for the entrance of the G. T. P. into the Capital had as yet not been considered in detail, and would not become a pressing matter for over a year to come. He reiterated the assurance made on his last visit here, however, that the line would strike the Depot Harbor line of the G. T. R. somewhere near Kinburn, about 25 miles west of Ottawa.

'The work west is getting along splendidly,' he said. 'I was out to the Rockies on a visit of inspection, and I found that marked progress was being made at every part of the line.

'We are somewhat troubled on this side by a scarcity of labor; we could do with 3,000 more men, but in the West we have all the laborers we want.'

'Is the coal shortage in the West going to affect the construction of your road?' was asked.

'No. We are getting coal right on our own line. At Jasper Park, at the foot of the Rockies, there are large deposits, which we are using for our construction work. It is going to be a very serious matter for the public there, though I am told they need some 225,000 tons of coal in Calgary.'

'When do you expect to have the road completed along its whole length?'

'Well, I should hardly care to give an estimate. The west end will be linked up in 1913, however, we expect, and the East end should also be ready about that time.'

FIRE FROM CIGARETTE ENDS

Commissioner Ritchie held an inquiry into two small fires yesterday. The first case heard was that of Albert Jacques, at 162 St. Royal street. It was a barber's business, and it appeared from the evidence that the fire was probably caused by cigarette ends being thrown among some waste-paper. The next case was that of Jas. Bithell, saddler, at 52 Plessis street, which was thought to have originated from an overheated stove.

Harvesters Wanted for Western Canada's Largest Crop

Again this year, the East is called upon to furnish the great Canadian West with sufficient additional hands to handle what is reported to be the largest crop in Canada's history, and the demand for help is so strong that the previous year's records will be smashed in all probability, it being estimated that around 50,000 laborers will be required, and on account of the large number of people required, efforts are being made to obtain hands from the British Isles.

Reports from wheat fields along the Canadian Northern Railway are most encouraging as far as the crop is concerned, but a particularly large number of help is desired and, with that end in view, the excursions organized from various districts on August 2nd, 3rd, 12th, 16th, 23rd and 25th are expected to draw scores of men, who will have a golden opportunity to see the Western country at its best. A $10.00 fare to all points east of Saskatoon, with proportionate reductions beyond to Edmonton, Calgary and intermediate stations, has been arranged. Further particulars are available at any Canadian Northern Agent's Office, or at their City Ticket Office in Montreal, 226-230 St. James Street.

Three Girls on a Yacht

By E. E. COWPER

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

Author of 'The Invaders of Fairford.'

SUMMARY OF THE PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

The fortunes of the three girls, Alix, Anne and Angela Temple, are at their lowest ebb apparently when they face a third summer without holiday in their tiny flat at Battersea Park. The death of Captain Temple, the easy-going father, and of the invalid mother, had left them stranded in Brittany and London had seemed to offer unlimited chances to enlarge their too slender income. Alix, at twenty-two, has the usual struggles of a slightly successful author, while Anne, twenty, works for a pittance in a millinery establishment, and seventeen-year-old Angela keeps house. Returned MSS. and four weeks of hot dry weather have done their work when Anne returns one day with a delightful surprise. Miss Alicia Grane, a wealthy customer, has asked if the sisters would be willing, during Anne's holidays, to 'air' the 'Flying Fish,' as the yawl will otherwise lie idle all summer. Unknown to the girls her brother William personally superintends the preparation of the 'Flying Fish,' giving the man, Tobin, strict orders to do his best, then joins his friend, Reggie Lassetter, on the 'Rose Marie,' before the girls reach Cumber. They spend the first few days in lazy enjoyment and short sails, but soon go out to sea, to the dismay of the coastguards. Among the many vessels they notice a racing cutter in particular, from its odd manoeuvres and the curiosity of its crew as to the doings of the yawl. All goes well until running into Birley, they stick on the mud and are released ignominiously by the local coastguards. They learn that the cutter which saw it all is the 'Rose Marie,' and leaving the next day discover the cutter again in evidence. Steering closer in to avoid it, they again run aground and have to be taken off the 'Fish' by the crew of the 'Rose Marie.' Mr. Lassetter and his friend, introduced as 'Mr. Otway,' give them a good time before they return to the yawl, and next day the girls slip off unseen to further adventures, anchoring for the night at a little island with an apparently deserted castle on it. Rambling about the island they see three rough men in a dirty boat, and, later, the one inhabitant, an odd little Frenchman. Their next stopping place is the Peace Pool, and here the coast guard, young Captain Arcagh, proves to have known their father.

CHAPTER XII.—Continued.

In a minute or two they found themselves outside, looking back into the extraordinary mystery of the Peace Pool. The giant barrier stretched east and west. There were the headlands they had passed, hidden in the haze, and they knew well enough that a few strokes one way, or the other would leave them apparently facing an unbroken wall of granite, with surf beating on its rocky base and gulls wailing round the dreary summit.

'One feels inclined to say "curiouser and curiouser," like Alice did,' said Angela. 'I don't believe there is another place in all the world like it. I suppose the sea broke one little place, and then went on just scooping out the soft part by inches. Oh, the ages and ages! Doesn't it make you feel sickeningly young, Alix?'

'Sickeningly small, perhaps,' said Anne.

Alix was staring at the wonderful scene with an absorbed expression; she didn't speak for a minute, and then she said:

'Why either? When you come to think of it, we are divine, too. It seems like belittling God not to see our place in it. Ages and ages for this—but I suppose not immortality. It will "pass away," but we shall only develop.' Then, as the other two said nothing, she added, in a lighter tone: 'I shall remember this all my life; but the water is coming into the boat, so we'll better be practical if we want to return to the pool with honors.'

The tide was carrying them fast down to the west, and the chopping sea that met the wind dashed spray and light slaps of water into the little boat, which rocked and danced in a manner that would have been disconcerting to less practical sailors.

The girls forgot the interest of the races in the discovery that the cliff foot was worn into the most fascinating and mysterious caves. In at one arch out at another, the water lapped and rushed.

Angela was for exploring; but Alix would not, because the dinghy was, but a frail craft, and it was impossible to say what the strength of the tide might be in those hidden places, or what rocks might exist in the waterway.

'Besides,' she said, 'it will be a really stiff pull back if we go on to the westward. We must not let the tide carry us too far, or we shall miss all the fun.'

This was common sense; and the other two gave up, with a sigh, and put their energies into the pull back eastward.

As she rowed, Angela looked at the sky down west.

'Wind with a vengeance, I believe,' she said.

The others looked, and said nothing. 'We are safe enough as long as it stays where it is. We shan't feel it in the pool.'

'Oh, I hate wind,' said Anne, with a little shiver of dread. 'Sailing is perfect as long as it is summer weather, but the noise and the fierceness of the wind is horrible. I think all of the wrecks, and the poor men in danger.'

'And the sailors think of all the poor men on land, with chimney-pots falling on them,' said Angela cheerfully. 'You are all right on a good boat. But do look; here they come—all the big ones! No, not all; there is one right away up by the headland, with her topmast down.'

It was plain that one of the big fishing boats was out of the race, and in difficulties with her upper gear. Two were close to the entrance, running each other hard for first place, and the other two were on a short tack to the south, coming on well, though behind. There was a crowd of other boats, tacking back against the wind, the smaller ones having accomplished the shorter distance, and so being on the way back with the others.

The girls rowed up to the west side of the entrance to watch the fleet run in, but they took care not to get in the way.

It appeared as though the bailing contingent was very necessary in the smallest boats, for the boys were actively employed, and the little boats jumping at the short waves in a fashion that often covered both themselves and their occupants with a shower of spray.

Of smaller fishing boats, the girls soon made out that the most promising competitor was the shabby boat, with the two fisher lads, that Alix had 'backed.' Nothing to look at, she was a good boat all the same, and her crew knew their work.

One of the centre-boards was in difficulties some way behind; her crew were evidently in fear of swamping, with their big sail, and the strong squalls that descended on it every little while; they kept huffing up, and so losing way. The other one was well ahead, second only to the shabby boat.

The girls were full of excitement. The large fishing boats swept in almost unnoticed by them, for their whole attention was fastened on the second bevy. There were, of necessity, much farther behind, but near enough to follow with keen interest.

Then suddenly something happened that altered the whole state of affairs, and gave it an interest of another kind.

One of the little boats, returning from its comparatively short round, got caught by a sudden gust of the rising wind, and capsized. It seemed that the steerer had made fast the sheet instead of holding it, and when the squall struck him was not quick enough in letting go, with disastrous results.

In a minute the little boat seemed to struggle like a live creature against the efforts of the wind, and then heeled over completely, the sail, drenched with water, holding her down till she turned over.

Her crew were both good swimmers, luckily, and made at once for the almost submerged keel.

Anne gave a little shriek of horror, and then, without remark or further demonstration, the dinghy and her crew started to the rescue. But they were forestalled.

The two sailing boats nearest to the catastrophe were the centre-board and the shabby fishing boat, which was winning. The former shouted some words which the girls could not catch, and ran on her course; but the latter, without a minute's hesitation, luffed up into the wind and swept round.

The half-circle that she made in so doing brought her across near enough to the dinghy for speech.

'Go on—go on!' shouted Angela at the top of her strong young voice. 'We'll pick them up.'

The steersman leaned over towards the little boat as his own swept up, a friendly grin on his brown face.

'Let 'em be, Miss; they'll capsize you.'

Alix shook her head energetically.

'We know how,' she called, her clear voice carrying well over the noise of the rushing boat; but the lad took no notice, except to look back at her with another broad smile.

It was done in the cleverest fashion, while the dinghy spurted all she knew to come up to the scene. The rescuers ran down to the upturned boat, luffed again, and, while their sails and tugged at the sheets with loud, resonant thuds, and the blocks kept up a deafening clatter, the two boys in the water were hauled on board in marvellously quick time. How it was done the girls could not exactly make out, but they saw the fishing-boat pay off, and drift to leeward, heeling over, while the wet boys shook themselves like two retrievers, and without more ado proceeded to lend vigorous hands in the service of their rescuers.

A cheer rang over the water from all the other boats in sight. It was carried down wind, and heard on the shore, for it was a hearty one.

'Oh, they can't win—they can't,' wailed Angela. 'Look at that beast of a centre-board; I wish she'd swamp.'

'Never mind; everybody will know about it,' Alix said reassuringly. 'There's a good way to go, besides; the other was a long way behind. Let's go back and see what happens.'

"BED-TIME STORIES"

A BIRTHDAY IN BED.

'If I cry on my birthday, Uncle Orrin says I will cry every day in the year,' sighed Dorris, as she turned over and thumped the pillow. 'Who wouldn't feel like crying, though? No party, no cake, no candles; nothing but lie here in bed, and wait to get strong and well again.'

'Hello, Dorrie' cried Uncle Orrin, thrusting his head in the door. 'Crying or cheerful—and why?'

'Cheerful,' called Dorris, swallowing hard, 'cause it might be worse. I'm to have a slice of chicken with my toast to-day.'

'Glad it's cheerful,' answered Uncle Orrin, 'because I couldn't possible give this to a crying niece'; and, tossing a little white box upon the bed, he was gone.

'Oh, the pretty, pretty turquoise ring!' whispered Dorris, softly, as she opened the box. 'I wanted one so much and Uncle Orrin bought it for me.'

Slipping it on her fingfer, she lay looking at it until mamma appeared with hker breakfast. Mamma's face had a regular birthday smile, and Dorris could not help feeling that something nice was going to happen.

'Now,' said mamma, 'a new kind of party. The doctor said we might read to you now, so I asked four of your little friends to choose their favorite story for me to read. Here are the names in the envelope. You may draw one each hour.'

Dorris carefully drew out a slip of paper, and looked at it. 'Elsie, mamma' she said; 'and the story is "Beauty and the Beast." I would know Elsie would choose that, for you have told it to us ever since we were babies together;' and she cuddled contentedly into the pillow, waiting for mamma to begin.

After it was finished she lay thinking of the good times she and Elsie had had together, and before she knew it the clock struck eleven.

'Dorothy this time,' said mamma, as she drew out the slip, and the story is "The Princess Daylight." By the time I finish this the doctor will be here.'

At twelve Uncle Orrin appeared, holding the white envelope.

'My turn this time,' he said, looking into it.

'No peeking, Uncle Orrin,' cried Dorris; 'that isn't fair.'

'Indeed!' answered Uncle Orrin. 'If I am going to read I make my own selection. Here we are! Alice, who wants the "Three Bears"?'

Then he began to read—and such reading! How the Big Bear did growl, and the Little Bear squeal; while Goldenhair's little piping voice made Dorris laugh until she cried.

'Enough,' said mamma, coming in with lunch. 'I am afraid Uncle Orrin is not a good nurse. Too much excitement is bad for my patient. I think we will take a rest until four o'clock.'

It was a very quiet afternoon, mostly naps; but just as the little clock on the mantel chimed four, the doorbell rang.

'Oh, mamma, cried Dorris. 'I wanted my other story. I 'most know it's Helen, 'cause she and I are friends as well as cousins, aren't we?'

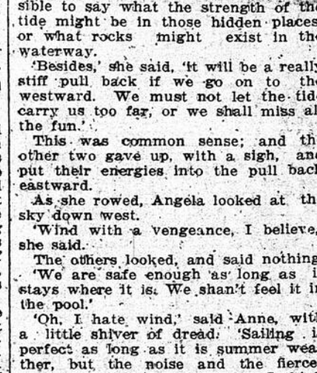

'Cousin friends,' answered mamma, laughing, and just then came a gentle tap at the door.

Mamma opened it, and there stood Helen herself, looking eagerly toward Dorris.

'See,' said mamma, leading her to the bed. 'I promised if she would be very quiet she could come in while her stor yis read. She can sit here in the rocker beside you while I read, and day after to-morrow she shall come again.'

The reading over, Helen quietly slipped a little package into Dorris's hand, as she kissed her good-by and went away.

'Such a better birthday than I thought,' said Dorris, happily, as she opened it, and found a string of coral beads. 'My dear little ring my stories, Helen, and the pretty beads, and all! After all, mamma, it's a different birthday from my others, but a lovely time for one which I knew must be spent in bed.'—Emma F. Bush, in 'Zion's Herald.'

CHARGES WERE FILED.

Former Attorney-General Had Report of Steel Corporation Refunds.

Washington, July 26.—That charges were made to former Attorney-General Bonaparte during his term of office that the United States Steel Corporation gave refunds of $3 per ton to the harvester combine companies was revealed to-day to the House Steel Trust investigating committee. Representative Stanley of Kentucky, chairman of the committee, introduced in the proceedings a voluminous copy of a report on the harvester trust made to Mr. Bonaparte in 1908 by Burdette C. Townsend, a special investigator of the Department, now assistant district attorney of Oregon.

Mr. Stanley announced that a subpoena had been issued for Mr. Bonaparte, who is now in Canada, and that an effort would be made to ascertain from him and from other government officials why there never was any prosecution of the International Harvester Company upon Townsend's charges. Mr. Stanley also announced his intention of endeavoring to show a close connection between the United States Steel Corporation and the International Harvester Company, and as a basis for future inquiry he had read into the record the names of the directors of both corporations, the same being identical in many instances.

NOVEL MUSICAL EVENT.

Flute and Drum Band Coming From England to the Arena.

The Enville Hall Flute and Drum Band, which hails from Ashton-under-Lyne, a British parliamentary constituency which has become rather familiar to Canadians, now that it is represented in the House of Commons by a Canadian, Sir William Aitken, will shortly make its appearance in this city for a week's engagement at the Arena, eight concerts in all being given, two of which will be matinees on Wednesday and Friday. The engagement will commence on Monday evening, August 7th. This band is the oldest organization of its kind in England, having been organized in 1850 by the Earl of Stamford, and has a record that any musical organization might well feel proud of. It has won many contests in England; Ireland, Scotland and Wales, and is now touring the United States and Canada.

REPUDIATES ANNEXATION.

Ex-State Senator Archibald McNicoll Stevenson, who is a native of Scotland, and now a leading advocate in Denver and a Republican leader in Colorado, passed through Montreal yesterday en route for New York. Mr. Stevenson said he was very pleased to find the Dominion so prosperous. As to the rumored annexation, he absolutely repudiated such a thing. It was farthest from the public minds of the republic. Speaking of his own state, the Republican leader said that Colorado was now very prosperous, and had become, through a successful irrigation system, the largest beet-root sugar producer in the Union, there being about twenty-five factories in the state. The market for this produce is found as far east as the Missouri River, and the state has now a population of 800,000.

General Indignation Over Attacks Upon Peruvians in Chili.

Lima, Peru, July 26.—There is general and deep-seated indignation over the recent attacks upon Peruvians at Tacna and Arica, Chili, which grew out of popular ill-feeling resulting from the boundary dispute. The papers publish the Chilian consul's explanation of the incidents and the Peruvian authorities have taken active measures to prevent retaliation here.

STORM RUINS FRUIT CROP.

Heavy Damage Caused by Gale.

Woodstock, Ont., July 26.—Fairly good prospects for the apple crop in Oxford were ruined to a great extent by the storm. From all over the county come reports of apples being shaken off the trees to about half a crop. Pears, plums, peaches and small fruits suffered greatly, the latter being the worst hit of all. Blackberries, raspberries and currants will be very dear now.

Goderich, July 26.—When the westerly gales subsided a streak of ruin was left in its wake. Great havoc was wrought in the orchards where fully half of the unripened fruit was strewn on the ground. The heavier grains, wheat and corn were levelled in many places, while the oats and grain of shorter straw survived. At times the wind attained the velocity of sixty miles an hour.

Buffalo, July 26.—A careful survey of the Niagara and Orleans county fruit belt indicates that the high winds of the past twenty-four hours have destroyed between thirty and forty percent of the growing apple and pear crops. Experts place the loss at five hundred thousand dollars. Many corn fields were swept clear by the wind, and will be practically a total loss.

OBITUARY.

MR. J. W. LONDON.

Belleville, July 26.—Mr. J. W. London, chairman of the Board of License Commissioners for West Hastings, died yesterday afternoon, after a month's illness. Mr. London, who was one of the most respected merchants of the city, was for many years in the employ of the 'Intelligencer' Printing Company, but lately had carried on a stationery business here. He was past grand president of the Sons of England, and was connected with other societies. He was 70 years of age and is survived by his widow.

McCurdy, the Canadian aviator, who achieved fame by his flight from Key West to Havana, arrived here to-day and began making preparations for his performances at the opening of Hamilton's first aviation meeting to-morrow. Lewkowciz, the Russian birdman; Doherty, of Buffalo, and other flyers are expected here this afternoon. The meeting will last five days, during which time McCurdy will make some interesting experiments with wireless telegraphy when flying.

BYZANTINE PORTRAITS.

Rome, July 26.—An interesting lecture was given by Professor Lambros, rector of the University of Athens, at the opening of that part of the Greek section of the Rome exhibition which contains a collection of portraits of the Byzantine emperors.

These portraits are copied from miniatures, statues and ivories and form a practically complete synopsis of Byzantine history from the days of the first to the days of the last Constantine.

AGAINST UNION OWNERSHIP.

Butte, Mont., July 26.—The convention of the Western Federation of Miners has adopted a report which characterizes as impracticable the suggestion of President Meyer for the ownership of mines and smelters by labor organizations.

Mr. B. Lindman, Montreal:—

Dear Sir,—Previous to procuring your Truss I had tried others; they gave me no satisfaction. My first sight of your Truss convinced me of its efficacy. Since wearing it I have had no trouble or despondency. My health and spirits increased greatly from the first hour I put it on. This is but a mite to what I could say regarding the Lindman Truss.

UNREST IN NEW HEBRIDES.

British and French Primitive Expeditions Cause Uneasiness.

Victoria, B.C., July 26.—A disturbed state exists throughout the New Hebrides, according to news received by the steamer 'Zealandi' to-day. Punitive parties of British and French were seeking to capture two insurrectos who were causing trouble when the last mail left, and the lives of Europeans were endangered. Ale ander Jensen, a trader, was killed at South Santo, and at Northeast Santo the mission station was under martial law, a plot to attack it having been frustrated by the presence of the police.

Farm Laborers to the West.

Each year the C.P.R. has been able, by arrangements made in the East, to get a sufficient number of farm laborers to get the crop of the West harvested. The crop is so large this year that double the number of men that have gone in past seasons are required, the estimate being between 45,000 and 50,000.

The company has just completed arrangements whereby excursions will be run from various districts on August 2nd, 3rd, 12th, 16th, 23rd and 25th, and will run more if required. They have also made arrangements for men to come from the British Islands, and their numerous agents throughout the Old Country are energetically working towards getting the help that is so much needed in the Canadian West.

'ROMANIA' IS STRANDED.

Halifax, N.S., July 26.—The motorboat 'Romania,' which sailed from Bridgeport, Conn., on Saturday evening, to cross the ocean to Queenstown, is ashore at Chebogue Point, on the Yarmouth coast. She struck shortly before midnight on Monday, and yesterday afternoon was lying in an exposed position with every prospect of becoming a total loss. The crew saved their lives and got some of their effects ashore. Captain N. H. Small, the navigator, says the stranding of the craft was due to strong southerly winds, causing an excessive indraught to the Bay of Fundy. Thick fog made it impossible to take an observation for thirty-six hours before the accident. At the next high tide they will try to save the engine, which is new.

Chebogue Point is eight miles from Yarmouth and the motorboat was a long way out of her course up there in the ba

APPEALS TO PUBLIC

Lord Curzon Urges Assistance in Securing New Geographical Quarters.

London, July 26. — Lord Curzon of Kedlestone has issued an appeal to the public through the press for assistance in building new quarters for the Royal Geographical Society's work. The present home of the society, which was purchased in 1870, stands at the corner of Sackville street and Vigo street, and is totally inadequate for the work being done there. When the society took the house the garden had to be roofed over to make it a map room. The size of this room is 50 x 30 feet and it is open to 5,000 fellows and a large number of students who are free to make use of it for research work. A gallery has been built round this room for books, and shelves have also been inserted at right angles to the gallery restricting the space still more.

The instruction room at the top of the building, where seven students work among tables of globes, theodolites, sextants, etc., is only 20 x 17 feet, and in the map mounting room the space is so restricted that one set of maps has to be dried before another is taken in hand, and so valuable time is wasted. In the room adjacent to this three cartographers are employed and produce three or four maps every month, this being part of the society's most valuable work. The storing space for tools and instruments is also far too small.

It is not possible to add to the existing building, since this would entail infringing certain rights of the surrounding houses, yet the society cannot move far from its present quarters, as it serves chiefly government offices and clubs. The only alternative seems to be to build new premises suited to the importance and usefulness of the society, and it is hoped that the generosity of the public will make it possible for this to be done.

HOW TRUST RULES GROCERS.

Sugar Combination Held Merchants From Buying at Cheap Rate.

New York, July 26.—Claus A. Spreckels, president of the Federal Sugar Refining Company, resuming his testimony before the Congress Sugar Committee, said that about a year ago he sent a ship load of sugar to San Francisco, about 6,000 tons, to take advantage of the California price, but not a wholesale grocer would buy from him for more than one-fourth of a cent a pound below the San Francisco price. They told him that they might be punished later. Mr. Spreckels then opened a store in San Francisco and sold his sugar to retailers. In doing so he broke the California price, 90 cents a 100 pounds, but lost about $77,000 on the venture.

SWINDLED OUT OF $1,100.

Halifax Man Was Showing Money to Two New Yorkers.

New York, July 26.—A man who said he was Charles Hellman, lately in business at Halifax, N.S., appealed to the police yesterday to find two strangers who had swindled him out of $1,100. Hellman told the detectives that he met an affable stranger at a hotel, to whom he imparted the knowledge that he possessed the sum named and wanted to go into business here. He allowed the newly found friend and the friend's chum to examine the money, which was in Canadian currency, to determine, if it were genuine. The chum was called away to a telephone, took the money with him and the newly found friend disappeared at an opportune moment, he said. Neither has been seen since.

'GO-AHEAD PEOPLE.'

'An Education to Come to Canada,' Declares Lord Colville.

Toronto, July 26.—Lord Colville of Culross and his son, the Hon. J. Colville, left this city to-day for Vancouver, after paying a short visit. They are on a sightseeing trip. Said Lord Colville: 'It is an education to come to Canada, and that is why I have brought my son over to see and meet you go-ahead people.' On the present situation in the British Parliament Lord Colville said: 'The British people don't understand the significance of Mr. Asquith's proposed move. It will mean that Great Britain will be governed by a single chamber, and you know what that means.'

THE POPULAR ROCKIES.

C. P. R. Again Forced to Increase Hotel Accommodation.

The Canadian Rockies increase every year in popularity, and the C. P. R. have found it necessary to make extensive additions to their hotel at Lake Louise. The accommodation became so taxed by the great influx of visitors that this is the fifth occasion upon which extensions have been made.

At the time the line was constructed the company hit upon the idea of opening hotels at various interesting points in the Rockies, and this resulted in their line becoming known, by extensive advertising, as the finest mountain tour in the world. Hardly a year passes but some addition is made to these mountain hotels, and no sooner is the work completed than the architect is again required to prepare further plans and specifications due to the tremendous number of tourists who go into this delightful country every summer.

This is particularly true concerning the Chateau Lake House and although numerous improvements have already been made to the Chateau, the C. P. R. architects now state that greater edditions must be made for the future.

COMPANY NOT READY YET.

M. S. R. Statement of Street Railway Needs of City Unfinished.

The Montreal Street Railway Company have written the Board of Control that they have not yet been unable to get together all the information desired by them, and that it will be at least another week or two before it will be possible to hold a second conference on the subject of a new contract between the city and the company. The information which the company is preparing is a statement of the requirements of street car traffic in Montreal, and the steps which the company intend taking in order to fill these requirements.

THE RAILWAY COMMISSION.

The Board of Railway Commissioners next month hold sittings at all the principal western points on their way to the Pacific Coast. The Commissioners sit at Vancouver on Aug. 31, when several interesting points will come up regarding the mountain sections of the C. P. R. It is expected that the short line applications will be discussed, and an effort is to be made to secure a reduction of freight charges.

CRIMINALLY RESPONSIBLE.

Verdict Against Railway in Bridgeport Wreck.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 26.—Coroner Wilson, in his finding on the wreck of the Federal Express here on July 11, in which fourteen were killed, finds that the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railway was criminally responsible, and that Engineer Curtis was criminally negligent.

RURAL FREE MAIL.

Aylmer, Ont., July 26.—A fourth rural free mail route was started out of Aylmer yesterday. The route goes to Glencolin, and will serve 140 people, many of whom are from three to seven miles from a post office.

Omemee, Ont., July 26.—A rural free mail delivery route is being established by the Dominion Government in the Oakwood district. There are to be eighty-six boxes on this route to start with. Mr. David Tait, proprietor of the Temperance House at Oakwood, has been appointed carrier.

Brockville, July 26.—Free mail delivery will be inaugurated in Brockville to-day, six routes having been laid out by Inspector Durstan, of Toronto. Two deliveries will be made daily.

AIRSHIP FLIES 16 HOURS.

Paris, July 26.—The Clement Bayard IV. accomplished a highly successful flight recently with eight persons on board. The total distance covered was about 400 miles. The airship remained in the air over sixteen hours, the longest flight previously made by an air vessel being fourteen hours' duration.

POPE HAD RESTLESS NIGHT.

Rome, July 26.—The Pope had a restless night, due to the fever experienced, but this morning his throat was not so sore and the hoarseness had lessened. Addressing Monsignor Bisleti, major domo of the Vatican, the Pontiff said he hoped to be able soon to resume his audiences.

SKEETER STINGERS STUNG DEFEATED TWICE YESTERDAY

Games Played Under Arctic Weather Conditions—First Bright and Snappy—Second Dull and Uninteresting.

DUBUC HIT HOMER.

And Pitched Splendid Ball, Winning His Tenth Successive Game—Billie Burke a Little Erratic—Baseball Notes and News From All Centres.

It's all right in the summer time,
In the summer time it's lovely,
Playing baseball in the old ball yard,
Hitting homers and pitching hard,
But, oh my, in the winter time
It's a different game, you know,
In baseball clothes and a very red nose,
When the stormy winds do blow.

(Words and music, $10—with the usual apologies to Miss Vesta Victoria.)

The above adaptation from an effusion recently given at His Majesty's about fits the pact, in reference to the perpetration put in yesterday, by President Sam Lichtenhein ably assisted by Messrs. Pluvius and Boreas.

In the current vernacular it was some weather, well adapted for any other kind of atrocity excepting baseball. The first game was, notwithstanding the adverse conditions, one of the brightest and most entertaining seen in Montreal this season. Dubuc held the buzzing Skeeters down to a couple of runs, and cheered the frozen few present by a sparkling homer, that never moved a twig in skimming the fence.

This being his tenth successive win and due consideration of the fact set forth in the preceding clause of the agreement, is some justification for the statement that Jean Baptiste Dubuc is a diamond star of more than passing brilliance.

This statement receives corroboration at the hands of a subtle Scout, who whilst admitting the brilliancy of the fair city's exponents of ball, added the somewhat uncomplimentary rider to the verdict, that from a weather consideration, he would not be found drowned in the place from choice.

The scathing comment on the atmospheric and climatic conditions are severe, when only a few days ago a friend and brother engaged in the Scouting business, shook the dust of the city from his feet, to avoid being sizzled to death.

Scouts are queer cattle to please.

The first game was a convincing victory for the Royals, Dubuc, Hanford and Yeager being the hitting instruments of the Skeeters' torture, the final result being:—

Royals, 9; Jersey City, 2.

Three more fans arrived for the second game, the infusion of new blood into the rooting department of the pneumonia candidates, causing a little excitement, among the marrow chilled disciples of Sam Lichtenhein, at the prospect of three more innocent sufferers arriving to share the agony of slow and chilly petrification.

Billie Burke was on the mound and steered a somewhat erratic course in the early part of the search for the pole.

The Skeeters got one in the first and that was all the heroic work they did in the arctic expedition.

Hanford hit a two-bagger at the psychological moment, the aforesaid p.m. being when there were three shivering Royals vainly seeking warmth and comfort on the cold and cheerless bags.

The captain of industry lost the chance of a lifetime in not sending his minions round with coon coats, instead of the ice cold drinks (ugh) and squirrel food. He would have been made for life.

Fortune knocks but once at the door of man in his lifetime.

The game ended with the Royals six and the shivering starving Skeeters one, but they aver that this afternoon, provided the thermometer registers anywhere near 40 with an occasional dash of sunshine so necessary to a southern ball player, their stings will be dug deep and long into their conquerors of yesterday, and suck the sweet gore of victory. Mount Royal summit in a blizzard was a fool to Atwater Park in the double-header played on July 25th nineteen hundred and eleven.

TENTH STRAIGHT WIN.

Toronto, July 26.—Toronto again walloped Baltimore yesterday, the score being 12 to 3. The Orioles played like amateurs in the field, and Rudolph had them tied up in knots at the bat. Homers by Corcoran and Seymour scored the Birds' three runs. Dygert was hit hard and so was Gantt, who relieved the former. Yesterday's game gives Toronto ten straight wins.

BISONS WON.

Buffalo, July 26.—Merritt's pitching and McDonald's hitting won for Buffalo, four to two from the Greys yesterday, the big features of the contest being the home runs, one by McDonald inside the wall, while Elson put the ball over the left field fence. Sline was not hit very hard, but Tarleton's error and bases stolen on Peterson helped to swell the score.

TWO FOR ROCHESTER.

Rochester, July 26.—Rochester won a double header from Newark yesterday in the quick time of 2 hours and 32 minutes. Errors by Fisher and Lee gave the locals the first game in the ninth inning. In the second McGinnity was hammered, while Wilhelm would have shut the visitors out but for his own error at the plate in the first inning. Rochester to-day sold Outfielder Dan Moeller, Shortstop Eddie Foster and First Baseman Spencer to the Washington Club. The price was not given out, but the cash involved is said to be over $10,000, as well as a pitcher to be turned over within a few days.

WESTERN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

WESTERN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

Detroit, July 26.—The sixteen golfers surviving yesterday's first round of match play, compete to-day in the second match round play, 36 holes, for the western amateur golf championship on the Detroit Golf Club's links.

The weather thus far has been bad, and the course is still slow and soggy with the pits extremely dangerous. Golfers look for better conditions to-day. The elimination yesterday of 'Chick' Evans has apparently boosted the stock of Albert Seckel, the intercollegiate champion, whose play has been strong and consistent all week. Seckel's opponent to-day is W. I. Howland, jr., of Chicago, who made the course in 72 yesterday, the lowest score recorded in the tournament. This match is regarded as one of the best on to-day's card.

There seems to be a general feeling among the prominent experts that if Seckel survives to-day's round his chances of reaching the finals are bright.

The first match play rounds of a number of consolation events start to-day.

FIRST ROUND JUNIOR CUP

Important Soccer Ties for Saturday Will be Played Next

The first round of the Junior League Cup is due to take place on Saturday, and some very exciting games are anticipated. Point St. Charles will see two of these games, viz., Grand Trunk vs. Maples, and Rose and Thistle vs. Crusaders. Other games are Rosemount vs. St. James, and C. P. R. vs. St. Paul.

Perhaps the most interesting game of the series will be between Rose and Thistle and Crusaders, as they are the two most evenly matched teams in the junior league. They have met once on the 'Thistles' ground, when the Rose and Thistle won by a close score of four to three. They have still to meet on the ground of the Crusaders. The 'Thistles' will be represented by the following team:— Burgess, Munro, Martin, Wibley, Brown, Hatrick, Atkins, Milne, Nicholson, Caley, Webber (captain).

The Grand Trunk-Maples match should provide plenty of excitement, and it is quite on the books that the Trunk will enter the semi-final, as they have still to lose their first match on Alexandra Park.

C. P. R. should manage to get the better of St. Paul, although they will have to hustle some to do it. St. James', on recent form, should have no trouble in getting in the semi-final at the expense of Rosemount. On the whole, the first round of the junior cup is pretty evenly matched.

This evening the second trial game for the Montreal-Corinthian match, takes place on the C. P. R.'s grounds, Augus Shops, kick-off 6.15. Every player selected for this trial, together with reserves, has been notified by the secretary to be on hand. Any player failing to show up, will seriously jeopardize his chances for the big game. This warning is felt necessary, owing to the ill-founded rumors that the final eleven has already been selected, thus making trial games farcical. It is scarcely necessary to say that such is not the case, the matter resting entirely with the showing of the players selected for the trials. At the conclusion of this evening's game, the committee will meet to pick the men for the third test, which will be composed of the best available material taken from the two east and west trials. It is expected that the third and final test will take place on Grand Trunk's ground, Pt. St. Charles, Wednesday, August 2nd.

From these twenty-two men, the final eleven will be selected to meet the Corinthians, August 12th, on the M. A. A. A. grounds.

The weekly meeting of the Junior League of the P. Q. F. A., will be held in the Central Y. M. C. A. to-night at 8.30 p.m. All delegates are requested to be on hand.

The following are the referees for Saturday's Junior League Cup ties:—

Rose and Thistle vs. Crusaders—Mr. Moore.

Grand Trunk vs. Maples—Mr. McIntyre.

C. P. R. vs. St. Paul—Mr. Topp.

Rosemount vs. St. James—Mr. Cernow.

CANADIAN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP.

Wretched Weather Again Prevailed For Tournament.'

Ottawa, July 26.—Unfavorable weather again prevailed for the Canadian national lawn tennis championships, which were continued yesterdy at the courts of the Ottawa Club. Rain fell for the greater part of the afternoon, and in addition there was a strong wind, which again played havoc with the driving. Schwenger, the British Columbia star, played his first game in the open singles, defeating Bonnell, of Ottawa, in two sets, the scores being 7—5 and 6—1. McRae, the other British Columbia man, was not so fortunate, losing to Hedley. Suckling, of Montreal, by 6—2 and 6—2. Schwenger played in beautiful form, and is fancied by many for the Canadian title. Robert Baird, the Ontario champion, was also successful, vanquishing Cliff Dineen, another Toronto man, by 6—2 and 6—0. Baird's work was also splendid, and he, too, is likely to be heard from later in the week. Duminy, Ottawa, beat Entwhistle, Ottawa, by 3—6, 6—3 and 6—0, this being the closest game of the day.

In the open handicaps the results follow:

Suckling won from Brown by default; Fenton beat Pense, 7—5 and 6—3; Smith beat G. Dineen, 6—2 and 6—3; Fenton beat Pense by 7—5 and 6—3; C. Dineen beat Carroll, 6—2 and 6—4.

Play will start to-day in the ladies' championships and in the doubles. It is expected that the final in open singles will be reached on Thursday.

INTERESTING GOLF STRUGGLE.

Mason Phelps and Chick Evans Have Grim Fight For Supremacy.

Detroit, July 26.—An intensely interesting struggle between Mason Phelps, Western Champion, and 'Chick' Evans, ex-western open champion, which Phelps won by halving the last 14 holes; one contest decided on the 21st and another on the 19th hole, and a match play card of 72-one stroke slower than the course record—turned in by W. I. Howland, of Chicago, proved the startling features of the second day's play for the western amateur golf championship on the links of the Detroit golf club.

The Phelps-Evans play attended a large gallery, and the spectators were not disappointed. But after it was decided, R. C. Harrison, of Des Moines, and M. D. Ritchie, of Pittsburg, fought nip and tuck until the latter won the 19th holt in 4-5. Later still, James D. Standish, jr., cheered the Detriot contingent, when, with a ten-foot putt, he claimed the 21st hole and match, from Ralph Rider, of Des Moines, with a four to the Iowans five. Most of the matches were extremely one-sided, favorites winning easily. The defeat of Guy A. Miller by Henry Heyburn, of Louisville, was a severe blow to the Detroit contingent who figured Miller had a chance for the championship.

Goodwin's Semi-Annual --- The Sale That Gives Your Greatest Gain

A Surprising July

Up to the present, July has proved a surprise at this store. With so many people out of town, one would imagine that the store would be pretty quiet. Not so. When we came along with Goodwin's Semi-Annual, the July Sale, we were bound that we would make the prices so very interesting that the store would be as much a Mecca for shoppers as it is in the busier months. Our predictions were right, so were the prices, and so they still are.

Consequence: — A very busy store even at summer's height. A SURPRISING JULY.

Recipe to Get Good Candy

To get the best candy in this part of Canada two things should be observed. First, be sure of the street car you take,—and, second, be careful as to where you have the said street car stop. Any car which goes along St. Catherine street, past University or Victoria Sts., will do to finish your Candy expedition on, provided you have it stop at Goodwin's, Limited. Then main entrance, centre aisle, and Sixth turning on the right. REALLY, PURE CANDY.

The regrettable incident which occurred in the S. A. A. A. club house on Saturday afternoon during the progress of the Capital—Shamrocks match is causing a deal of speculation as to what really happened. Outside emphasizing the question of affording all referees proper protection in the discharge of their gratuitious and unenviable tasks, this particular incident hardly merits 'the tempest in a teapot' raised about it. It was merely the result of an argument in which an over-excited official forgot himself and his position for the moment, and who regretted the incident immediately afterwards, and made proper amends. With regard to the facts of the case as to how the affair really happened and what actually took place, the report in Monday's 'Witness' correctly furnished that information, and which we now repeat:—

'It was during the third resting period that a fracas occurred in the club house which, fortunately, did not have a very serious ending. The referees, especially Mr. Desse Brown, had been receiving a deal of abuse from some of the players on the Capital team, who volunteered gratuitous information as to how very little the referee knew about lacrosse in general, and refereeing in particular. Mr. Brown listened quietly till some of the Shamrock officials joined in the debate, vociferously claiming that it was the Shamrocks who were getting the raw end of the deal, and not the Capitals. The discussion between the loquacious officials was growing decidedly hot, and reached the culmination when Mr. Brown, in defending his decisions, questioned the right of Ald. O'Connell being allowed on the field when play was in progress. This was more than Mr. M. Hughes' Irish nature could stand, and he made a pass at Mr. Brown, which the latter was quick to resent, and it looked as if a general melee would ensue. However, wiser counsel prevailed, the pugnacious element was quelled, and once again good fellowship reigned supreme.'

At a meeting of the National Lacrosse Club last evening, a request was received from Mr. McPhee, president of the Cornwall Club, for the signature of the president of the French organization to a letter to President Murphy demanding a special meeting of the union. President Cousineau's signature will be attached to the document, and it is expected that the third name constitutionally necessary to be signed will be that of another local president. One of the matters to be brought up at this special meeting will probably be the question of the reserve list ruling, over which there has been so much disatisfaction lately.

BOWLERS FOR TORONTO.

Westmount Have Entered One Rink to be Skipped by Willie Brown.

For the Dominion bowling tournament, which is held annually on the several greens in Toronto, the Westmount Bowling Club have entered one rink, to be skipped by Wm. Brown, and it is possible that H. Mason will gather together another rink for the same tourney. Mr. Brown's rink consists of W. J. Dunn, Alfred Wood and F. H. Gardner, being only one change in the rink which last year won the Toronto trophy.

Messrs. Brown and Frank Gardner and Messrs. Dunn and Wood are entering the double competition for the Willison trophy. This shield now adorns the Westmount club rooms, and has been twice won by Westmount. A third win will make it the permanent property of the Westmount Club.

While the Toronto papers reported that W. Brown's rink had defaulted at the recent Niagara tournament, it now develops that Mr. Brown early despatched a message withdrawing the entry of his rink. The messenger of the Toronto office of the telegraph company was badly injured in a street accident, and the message failed to reach Secretary Mackie. 'I did not learn of this failure,' said Mr. Brown, 'until after the tourney, when I read the reports that Westmount had defaulted certain matches in the tourney.'

Messrs. Mason and Arthur Gardner won their match in the second round of the club doubles against Messrs. McLaren and Munn.

WINGED WHEEL WHISPERS

Mr. J. M. Miller was elected vice-president of the Province of Quebec Lawn Tennis Association, in the place of Mr. W. L. Dart, resigned, at Monday's meeting of the association, at the M. A. A. A. and not secretary as previously announced.

Trials will be held in the M. A. A. A. bath to-night to select a team to represent the association in the championship events of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, to be held at Halifax on August 5th. There are six events on the championship programme: 50 yards, 220 yards, 100 yards, on back; 220 yards, breast stroke, and fancy and high diving. For all these vents M. A. A. A. has some first-class candidates, and the association should be represented by a strong team. The trials to-night, starting at 8 o'clock, will give the officials of the association an idea as to the form and condition of the swimmers since the spring handicaps closed.

WON RECIPROCITY RACE.

Motor Boat 'Carolina' Came in First at Halifax.

Halifax, N.S., July 26.—The motor boat 'Carolina,' owned by M. F. Dennis, New York, arrived here in 57 hours 50 minutes 30 seconds elapsed time, and won the Reciprocity race. Samuel Cochrane's 'Enonel' was second in 64 hours 57 minutes 50 seconds elapsed time. On corrected time she finished 6:47.33 behind the 'Carolina.' At 10 o'clock last night 'Snapshot III.,' the third boat, owned by J. B. Linderman, had not come in, and there was some anxiety as to her whereabouts. The 'Enonel,' which got in at 8.30 this morning, had to give 'Snapshot III.' only 13 minutes.

END OF TOUR.

Toronto Cricketers Drew With Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 25.—The cricket match between the Toronto Cricket Club and the Philadelphia Cricket Club was declared a draw today, when darkness put an end to the match with the Canadians batting for their second innings. When stumps were drawn the score stood: Philadelphia, 374; Toronto, 331. The match was begun yesterday at St. Martin's Green. The Philadelphians in their first innings scored 220 runs, and in the second 154 for the loss of nine wickets, the innings being declared closed. The visitors scored 163 runs in the first innings and in the second 168 runs for nine wickets.
