Roads main topic at Quyon banquet

Mayors, Councillors and Members agree improvements are needed

Mr Bonin of the National Capital Commission speaking last week in Quyon, stated that for him the most important needed development in this area was the road system. He said he was particularly able to realize this on his way to the banquet.

He said that the road network had been for a period of several months subject of disagreement between the Province and the NCC. He said that, regardless of rumours to the contrary, the Federal Government, through the NCC, intends to pay 50 percent of the total cost of 135 million dollars which will be spent in this region in six years.

Mr Bonin expanded slightly on how some of this would be spent and it seemed from his remarks that his main interest, and that of the NCC, was centered in Hull.

He did say they intended to continue improvements of Highway 8 for 5.1 miles to the present County border.

"The condition of the road now makes difficult the contacts with the east" he said.

The occasion of these remarks was a banquet at Fairbanks Hotel for all the Mayors, secretaries, and Councillors of Quyon, Onslow South, Onslow North and Eardley, and all their wives to which were also invited the Provincial and Federal Members of Parliament for Pontiac and their wives, the Quyon clergy, THE EQUITY, and the official in charge of this part of Quebec for the NCC.

Host Bill Burke, Mayor of Quyon, spoke briefly as did Tom Lefebvre MP, and Jean-Guy Lariviere MNA, and Mayors Henderson, Bronson and Lavigne, after which a question period elicited many concerns of the people of that area.

Discussions towards amalgamation of the four municipalities have been in progress over the recent months and this friendly get together was another step towards their eventual union.

The replacement of the E.B. Eddy Plant when it leaves Hull was an interesting topic as was the NCC plan for development of Camp Pontiac as an historic site as well as a recreation area. Mrs James Horner spoke of her concern for the preservation and rebuilding of the original nature of this particular area.

But foremost on the minds of everyone was the prospect of improvement of Highway 8 to and beyond the County line.

The main concern of the NCC in this area has been the Gatineau Park area whose development has been cause for discussion among conservationists, recreationists and local residents.

Another plan in the minds of NCC officials is the placing of a zoo somewhere within a twenty minute drive of Ottawa, probably in Quebec Province.

Mr Lariviere said that nothing pleased him more than to see a group of people working together for the betterment of their fellowmen. He congratulated the mayors and councillors for all the work they have done towards amalgamation.

According to the new electoral boundaries, Eardley will fall into the Pontiac riding as of the next election. He reiterated that the most important thing for the future economy of the county was to "open the front door- and that is the road from here to Hull". He said the four municipalities represented at the banquet were fortunate to be within the boundaries of the NCC.

He said plans for five miles of Highway 8 are in the offices of NCC for approval and that plans for a further extension to Breckenridge are being worked on in the offices in Montreal at full speed. "I keep punching and punching them" he said, "and as soon as they get down to the NCC I'm sure they'll start soon on this".

Tom Lefebvre said "we are fortunate in this area that we have financing from both senior levels of government, and in the fact that we are so close to Ottawa."

He said that the increase of government buildings in

Bonhomme ready for big Bryson weekend

Cathy Mathers the Bryson Recreation Association 1972 Queen is now in the last days of her reign. She and Bonhomme will be present to crown the new Queen at the Lions Field on Friday evening at 8:30 pm.

New centennial coin struck in Bryson

As part of the decorations ten gold coloured coins have been made measuring about two feet in diameter. The raised surface of the coins bear the centennial dates along with the name BRYSON and 100th ANNIVERSARY. After the carnival these coins will be offered to the Centennial Committee by the R.A. to be used as decorations during this year. Towards the end of the year they will be auctioned and the profits will go towards R.A. funds for their expenses on behalf of centennial.

Bonhomme arrived on Tuesday and has already been seen by a few people. Since he has arrived a bit earlier than usual there is no doubt that he will be around to thank more people for their help to the Bryson R.A.

The program souvenir which contains some historical tid-bits, the week-end's program and messages from various people is now on sale at 50 cents a copy.

The Judo demonstration and figure skating exhibition has been finalized and will be taking place on Sunday afternoon starting at 1:30 pm.

Participation has always increased from year to year and this year the school children have made some tree decorations for a special tree to be erected in the Lions Hall as well as some drawings based on the theme "What does Carnival mean to me? These drawings will be exhibited in the Lions Hall throughout the weekend.

The rain has played havoc with many of the plans but since Sunday, committee chairmen have been scurrying around remedying the situation. The snow sculpturing in the town got off to a good start and this committee will delay the judging to the Friday to permit a little more time. The rink surface should be good but the outdoor curling is dubious. Part of the decorations in the town hall is completed for the adult dance after the ski-doo parade at which the Brysonaires will provide the music. The remaining decorations for the Lions Hall will go up on Wednesday night for the Bingo on Thursday evening.

Community at McDowell school

The first move can be the most important, in chess or anything else. At the Elementary School in Shawville Friday afternoons have been changed into the most delightful time of the week with the co-operation of about a dozen parents and friends and every teacher on the staff. Each student has chosen the activity which he or she prefers and teachers and volunteers are the instructors. Among the skills being taught are woodwork, knitting, crocheting, sewing, art, music, dancing, yoga, crafts, drama, badminton, puppetry and, above, chess, with Mr Bill Raynett explaining the game to Terry Manwell, Mosh Cohen, Andrew McCredie and Jeff Trnka.
All photos by Eva Andai.

Mrs S.E. McDowell, for whose husband the Dr S.E. McDowell was named, is one of those Shawville citizens who gives time and talent to the Friday afternoon activities program. Here Mrs McDowell is helping an art group assess the work of one of the students. The children are John Rennick, Phyllis Smart, Vaughn Fulford, Allana MacIntosh and Debbie Fulford. Principal Wilf Tipping has extended an open invitation to parents and friends who are not in the program to contact him if they wish to help. His phone number at the school is 647-3800.

Pontiac Protestant High School committee meets

Dress, dances, report cards student exchange, driving, bikes come under discussion

The first meeting of the newly elected committee was held on 15th January. Unfortunately due to the wave of 'flu sweeping the Pontiac, only three of the five elected parents were able to attend. Two representatives of the High School staff attended.

Discussions were held on the role of the committee; these were determined to be:

1) To express the parents views on general matters to the teaching staff.
2) To review policies and activities at the school.
3) To improve the parent-teacher-student relationships.

It was decided that meetings would not be held in public, but that when major issues required more feed-back from parents then a general meeting of the parents would be called. Much time was spent on discussing means of arousing public interest in the work of the High School. Although 700 notices had been sent out to parents for the first election of the committee, only 2 showed up. At a second attempt, after another 700 notices, 17 showed up. A two-bit student prank aroused the ire of the community; sensible issues got no response. It was decided that a public meeting would be called following the next school committee session, promotion to be by telephone contacts coupled with newspaper advertising.

Current issues requiring immediate solutions are briefly commented on. No decisions were reached on these.

a) School uniforms. A request of the student council to relax the dress regulations was discussed.

b) Conduct at school dances. The poor experience of the Christmas dance makes it necessary that this type of activity should be reviewed--should the dances continue; if so, who attends, when should the dance finish, how are parents to be obtained for control of the dances?

c) Are the present report forms satisfactory? Do the parents obtain sufficient information from them Are they issued at the right time? Should a student's standing in class be presented on the report?

Other items were discussed and decisions reached.

a) Proposal to exchange students at a grade 7 level with students in a Quebec French-speaking area to promote better language and understanding. Approved and to be followed up.

b) The possible financial difficulties of the company running the drivers' education course and the loss of fees already paid by students. Now in the hands of the Regional School Board.

c) Installation of bicycle racks at the school. Approved. To be built at the school.

Your views on the unresolved issues are sought. Please contact members of the school committee listed below, before 29th January.

97th birthday was January 11

George Robitaille celebrated his 97th birthday on January 11th, in the year in which Shawville has her 100th anniversary.

His Grandfather was Bazil Robitaille, a lumberman who settled in the Murrells section of Clarendon in early times.

Mr Robitaille lives with a daughter and son-in-law the L.P. Hodgins family on Birch Street.

He is in very good health considering his advanced age.

Friends, relatives and neighbours called to offer best wishes and to chat over a cup of tea.

We wish Shawville's senior resident many happy returns and may he also reach that magic figure of 100.

Ask plebiscite on Sunday fair

All Shawville Clergy have expressed disappointment concerning the decision taken by the Fair Board at their recent meeting to include Sunday as a Fair Day with the whole program in full swing.

For many years, they claim, Shawville residents have enjoyed a relatively quiet Sunday as the "Lord's Day". A number of citizens are deeply concerned about this violation with respect to the sanctity of the Lord's Day and have relayed this concern to their ministers.

The ministers have written a letter to the Village of Shawville Council asking them to hold a plebiscite to determine the opinion of the public concerning the Fair being open on Sunday in Shawville.

The ministers also call upon citizens to express their opinions in letters to the editor of THE EQUITY.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

January 19, 1973
LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

A Public Apology:

Why I spread Manure on the West End of Main Street in Shawville:

First I wish to extend my sincere apology to anyone offended by the odor (I myself find it offensive, second only to that created by the Consolidated Bathurst Pulp Mill) or to anyone who got their car splattered by driving through it during this last mild spell we have enjoyed.

The reason which prompted me to do what I did was of course the treacherous icy road condition which has existed almost continuously on that part of Main Street from the Portage Road westward since the beginning of December, except for one sanding done by Harvey Smith on approximately the 3rd of January.

I know of at least two incidents this winter when someone has run off this piece of road enough to require a wrecker to pull them back onto the road for no other reason than the icy condition of the road.

I also know of at least one accident on this road this winter in which considerable damage was done. This also could have been prevented by application of some abrasive material to the road beforehand.

On New Year's Eve the Condition of the road was such that most cars took three or more tries to get over the grade in front of my barn.

The same evening two people were seen skating down the road.

By January 6th the condition of the road was becoming increasingly icy again. I was away that weekend and covered over four hundred miles of highway and country road to return home Monday evening January 8th to the worst piece of road I had travelled on since I left home. (This was commented by the driver of the car, not by me).

When I got home my wife informed me that my father's dog had been killed on the road Sunday because the driver of the car could not stop on the ice. I placed no blame on the driver of the car and still don't; I couldn't have done any better myself under those conditions.

That evening after I went to bed I got thinking that if it had been a person crossing the road instead of the dog would the same thing not have happened?

The next day I thought surely the sand truck would come but alas only as far as the Portage Road.

By five o'clock knowing the milk truck came the next morning at 8 o'clock my Irish Temper could stand no more.

I fired up the tractor and spreader and used the best I had to remedy the condition of our road.

That night the hill was so icy it took me two trys with our 100 hp. tractor to get up the hill.

The sub-zero weather that night froze the manure to the road almost instantly and within minutes the road although a bit off colour and a tiny bit rough was at least safe to drive on.

As I look back on it now it does look rather fool hearty, maybe even stupid, but I do get considerable satisfaction out of knowing that I have saved many people considerable distress and maybe even personal injury. The ironic part of the whole thing is that according to our council my own neck seems in considerable jeopardy.

However with a lot of help from the Man Above the most of the manure has been removed from the road.

Yours very Respectfully,
Chris Judd.

P.S. Manure is roughly 90% water, 10% organic matter and is considerably less corrosive to metal than salt is.

PUBLIC OPINION SOUGHT

The ministers of Shawville's five churches have unanimously endorsed a move to deter the Shawville Fair Board in their stated intention to run the Fair over onto Sunday this year.

Their initial approach is to the Shawville Municipal Council which they have asked to hold a plebiscite to determine the opinion of the citizens of Shawville concerning a Sunday Fair.

Their hope is that if the majority of Shawville people don't want a Sunday Fair the Council could pass a by-law which would prevent this from happening.

The ministers have taken this united stand against a Sunday Fair following a meeting last Friday which was called as a response to public opinion expressed to the various ministers after reading about the Fair Board decision in last week's EQUITY.

The feeling, as expressed to the ministers, has been that there is only one real family day left and that if encroachments are made on Sunday it could be the start of a trend towards the destruction of family life.

They fear that one step would lead to another and result in a wide open Sunday with all sorts of commercialization, such as is seen in some large cities now.

The ministers feel that the public should be allowed to speak their opinion in a town-wide plebiscite.

Ministers of the five Shawville churches who have endorsed this request to Council are Rev. Milligan of the Standard Church, Rev Ellis of the Pentecostal, Canon Roberts of the Anglican, Rev. Worden of the Wesleyan and Rev. Macintosh of the United Church. Rev Hatch, who also lives in Shawville, has also added his weight to the request.

Their statement appears in this issue of THE EQUITY, along with a request that anyone with an opinion on the matter should write a letter to the editor. All letters should be signed, and all letters will be published, both for and against the change.

SNOWMOBILERS DOING IT THEMSELVES

Some groups don't wait for help from governments and other remote bodies, but take the attitude that they can look after their own interests with a little ingenuity and a lot of energy.

One of these groups is the Shawville and District Snowmobile Club which has purchased two snow machines for maintaining trails and has embarked upon a gigantic project of improvement of conditions for people who like snowmobiling.

They are putting up signs and markers, brushing out the trails, making bridges where needed to provide the Shawville district with good snowmobiling which will connect up with trails of the Ladysmith, Bryson and Quyon snowmobile clubs which surround the Shawville district.

All this, of course, is costing the Shawville and District Snowmobile Club a lot of money and it is very important now that every snowmobiling family in town should jjoin the club and help out.

The president is Neil McMunn and the treasurer is Maurice Lemay. Anyone from outside the area who uses or intends to use the trails, or has any other reasons for wishing success to this endeavour, may send contributions to the treasurer and they will be greatly appreciated and put to good use.

Since the success of snowmobiling in the area depends so largely on good and well marked trails, the Shawville Snowmobile Club is doing its level best to provide these necessities. They did hope for a LIP grant to help out but since this didn't materialize they intend to go right ahead and do it themselves, with as much help from their friends as they can possibly get.

KIDNEY MACHINE

We are reliably informed that nowhere in Western Quebec is there a kidney machine.

This serious lack is a matter of life and death to people from this area who suffer from kidney disease. They must be treated in Ottawa hospitals and since the need surpasses the supply it is not very likely that a person from this area would be given priority.

There is at present one Pontiac lady in the Ottawa General Hospital suffering from kidney disease who is not able to get the use of a kidney machine there. According to Fred Metcalfe, one of the two machines there was placed there with the help of the Shawville Rotary.

Of course everyone cannot be accommodated by these two machines. They are obviously being used fully and whatever benefits are being derived from their use are undoubtedly tremendous for the beneficiaries.

But what seems most unfortunate is that there is no such machine in the Pontiac Community Hospital. A portable unit would, we are told, cost in the neighborhood of four thousand dollars. What seems even more astounding is that there is not even one of these units in Hull.

Mr. Metcalfe has proposed that a private fund be raised immediately to get a kidney machine into the Pontiac Community Hospital.

NEW HORIZONS

Wyman MacKechnie has been greatly encouraged that a project to reconstruct the old railway station in Shawville into a museum will be accepted for support by the New Horizons people in Ottawa. But he needs ten or twenty people behind the project. So far he has had a great deal of difficulty getting members out to meetings of the local New Horizons organization in Shawville.

Now he is willing to go ahead with the application to Ottawa if ten or twenty retired people will agree to attend a meeting to finalize the application. A call to Mr. MacKechnie (647-5587) is all that is needed to get the ball rolling again. Mr. MacKechnie has done a lot of perliminary work on this but is wise enough to know that it will not succeed as a one man project. In fact the application will only be considered if it can be signed by a larger group.

Give Wyman a call and let him know his work has not all been in vain!

Dear Editor
The Equity

The writer is rooting for Aero-nautical reform. This may not be the brain wave of an individual crackpot; but when we see and hear of so many crashes, so much destruction of Life and property it makes a guy think, if he never did any thinking before.

What is wrong with pushing, and pressing hard for a new invention-- to perfect this wonderful machine the air-plane, which after all, is insignificant an accomplishment as compared with the mechanism that landed men on the moon, yes, and brought them back to earth safely?

Why not have parachutes on our jet planes that could land a plane slowly and safely to earth? I put this matter up to some intelligent or pseudo-intelligent men, but these persons passed the idea by as not at all feasible.

Their argument was (1) inconvenience (the "inconvenience" would be nil as compared with the losses sustained so recently) 2) Too much weight to carry. (3) Fast speeding planes would render parachutes useless. My opponents in arguments admitted : The fastest jet planes have to slow up to make a landing. So also they could do a slower stunt high in altitude , for instance we travelled from Vancouver at an altitude of about 7 miles, and the ship came to a graceful landing although the captain said she was capable of a speed from the west coast to Toronto at 3 hours- a distance of about 2800 miles! We made the same trip in little more than this said time, slowly landing.

If they could land by means of parachutes (as the Russians did) and as they did in splash downs in America, why cannot a safe manner of landing airplanes be achieved by men of so great mechanical genius such as we have today? Let us Boost for better and safer Planes.

In a recent issue of your paper, some comments were made re "Municipal Budgets."

Bill 50, Article 479 of the Cities and Towns Act states "that the municipalities must prepare a balanced budget between November 15th and December 31st of each year and forward it to the Department of Municipal Affairs for acceptance during January. The municipalities governed by the Municipal Code are also compelled to prepare a balanced budget each year."

I cannot speak for all municipalities but for the Village of Campbell's Bay and the Township of Litchfield this ordinance is followed.

It might also be interesting to the ratepayers in the county to know that according to the Real Estate Act assented to December 23, 1971 (Chapter 25), before the first of March each year, the clerk or secretary-treasurer must send a notice to every ratepayer advising him or her of their assessment, the denomination for school purposes, the manner in which a complaint may be made and the delay during which it must be filed. To this notice must be attached the tax bill for the current year.

In the past some municipalities set their tax rate in January, some in May and some as late in the year as December.

From now on, in all municipalities the tax rate must be set and bills sent before March 1st of each year. This may not be the most convenient time of the year to pay taxes but Councils have no choice.

Trusting that the information contained herein may, first, clear up the impression that municipal councils do not prepare a budget, and secondly, that taxpayers will not be surprised to receive their 1973 tax bills not later than March 1, 1973.

Yours truly
C Robillard.

Within a few weeks a free vote is to be conducted in Parliament to decide whether the temporary ban on the death penalty is to be extended or made permanent or if we are to revert to the barbarism of the middle ages.

Ever since the early years of this century, when Robert Bickerdike, a member of parliament from a Quebec constituency, introduced, year after year, a bill to abolish the death penalty, all to no avail of course, I have been convinced that the death penalty is barbaric under any circumstances.

Over fifty years ago I engaged in several debates on the subject much to the consternation of my friends and associates. And when I won those debates, they would come to me and say, "But you don't really believe what you say, do you ?" When I replied that I most certainly did, they shook their heads in disbelief and walked away. Things have changed in the past fifty years but in our attitude to capital punishment, not enough. We still hear rabid retentionists calling for a return to hanging. We still read articles in which the writers clamour for "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth". God forgive them for they know not what they do!

In case you think I am a sob sister, or brother, if you like, I am not. I am as much opposed to violence as anyone. I want to see our streets safe, society protected. But I am convinced capital punishment is not the answer. I am sure that in many cases the likelyhood of the death penalty defeats justice. A jury may have doubts, however slim, as to the guilt of an accused, but with the only alternatives, the rope or freedom they may be inclined to bring in a verdict of "Not Guilty." Death is permanent. If life imprisonment was the most severe penalty, it could be imposed knowing that if innocence were ever proved, release could be obtained. Again, let us remember, death is permanent. And when I say, life imprisonment, I mean just that. No parole in ten or fifteen years unless under exceptional circumstances.

Some retentionists say it is too expensive to keep a prisoner behind bars for such a length of time, "Hang 'em". This, to my mind is the most callous attitude I have ever encountered.

If you think the death penalty is an effective deterrant, let me refer to a true case. As recent as 1837 public hanging was the penalty for several crimes, including petty thievery, right here in Canada. In that year in a community in Western Ontario a seventeen year old boy was sentenced to hang for pickpocketing. It was to be a public spectacle in the village square. As the luckless youth was led up the thirteen steps to the improvised gallows where the black hooded amateur hangman waited with rope in hand all ready to put around the boy's neck, impatient to spring the trap that would so soon cut his life and future short, the several hundred people assembled craned their necks so as not to miss any detail, five persons had their pockets picked. Deterrant indeed!

I ask you to write at once to your Member of Parliament, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Justice, the Leader of the Opposition, or to anyone who has a vote or influence in this coming momentous decision soon to come before Parliament, demanding permanent abolition.

S Wyman

grist...

What Pontiac County needs now is a city. No, this isn't to suggest that city life is better than country life, far from it, but in every rural area there must be one special centre for services. In the case of Pontiac nobody really has any one focal place. For some services one goes to Campbell's Bay, for some others one goes to Fort Coulonge, and others are attainable only in Shawville. Then there are plenty of needs that can only be filled in Pembroke or Ottawa, Renfrew or Hull. If all essential services could be centralized in one city in Pontiac County, the entire county would benefit. The hardest part would be deciding where the city would be. Any suggestions?

There are hundreds of miles of cross country ski trails in the Province of Quebec. They are also used by snowshoers. Cross country skiing is the fastest growing winter sport at the moment. It doesn't depend on expensive equipment or even athletic ability. Anyone of any age can do it and it is ideal for families to do together. An estimated two thousand cross-country skiers in 1969 have grown to about twenty thousand in the Province today. You don't even need any special trails, but they might be a welcome addition to the winter wonderland which Pontiac County wishes to become. Help in establishing trails might be sought from the Quebec Tourism Department.

Interesting facts arrive from time to time as a result of the recent census of Canada (1971) . This week we learn that in Pontiac County there are 5,015 homes, 4,380 are single detached, 330 are single attached, 245 are apartments and 55 are mobile. Average number of rooms per dwelling is 5.6. There are 895 crowded dwellings, that is to say the number of inhabitants exceeds the number of rooms. 3,485 have hot and cold running water, 3,470 have bath or shower, 3,900 have flush toilets. 4,010 are owned by those who live there and 1,000 are rented.

IN MEMORIAM

DUGAN — In loving memory of a dear husband and father Ken who passed away Jan. 28, 1969.
We who loved you sadly miss you
As it dawns another year.
In our lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of you are ever near.
Ever remembered
Florence, Danny and Mary 80311b

PECK — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather Hiram Peck who passed away January 18, 1972.
From hospital bed to heavenly rest
God took you home to be his guest
In tears we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost broken
You fought so hard to stay
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully free from pain
We could not wish you back
To suffer that again
Oh you who have a Father
Cherish him with care
For you will never know the heartache
Till you see his vacant chair.
Always remembered
by Wife Lizzie and family 5253x

RIEBERTZ — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather William Riebertz who passed away January 24, 1971.
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair,
Recals the love, the voice, the smile,
Of the one who once sat there.
Wilfred, Irma and family 5212x

SMITH — In loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, dad who passed away Jan. 31st, 1953 and mother who passed away Jan. 24, 1968.
Upright and just in all their ways
Loyal and true throughout all their days
Silently suffered, patiently bore,
God took them home to suffer no more.

Roads main topic

Hull has brought more residents to this district with public servants and others who are attracted to the new developments there living in Eardley, Quyon and even beyond.

With this increase there is an increased need for good roads and Mr Lefebvre said he expects to see an extensive road network coming " in our own time".

Tom spoke in favor of having the zoo located in this area, probably in the Breckenridge vicinity. He mentioned that he had done considerable correspondence on the subject already.

During the question period most of the talk concerned roads and the officials present gave a very optimistic impression. Despite numerous good natured jokes at the expense of all levels of government, the general tone of the evening left most of the participants with the feeling that they might live to see a straight road from Quyon to Hull.

During the evening Mr Burke announced that Jean-Guy Lariviere had been instrumental in obtaining a fifty five thousand dollar grant to help with extension of sewers in Quyon, and also that Mr Lariviere had been making some progress with E. B. Eddy on the location of their plant, possibly in Pontiac.

He also said that the four councils present would have a big say in deciding whether they wanted to remain in the Outaouais Regional government or return to Pontiac County Council's jurisdiction.

Mr Bonin mentioned that the NCC might enlarge its area for ecological reasons as it was concerned with protecting water sources.

Replying to a question about a bridge across the Ottawa River at or near Quyon, Mr Lefebvre said this project depended upon agreement between Quebec, Ontario and the Federal Government.

An Eardley councillor remarked upon the confusion of telephone lines within his municipality. He said it was a long distance call from his home to his fellow-councillors. Tom said he would contact Bell about that. He also said he was hoping to see Quyon numbers listed with the rest of Pontiac in the next "Pembroke" phone book, and said that anyone who needed the Quyon listings could write to the Bell company and they would send along an Ottawa Book. At present Quyon is listed on the cover of the local book but no Quyon numbers appear inside.

A round of applause was accorded Brenda Smith of Shawville who catered the turkey dinner which was indeed delicious.

Mrs Alison Manson of White Lake has written to correct some spellings and make some additions in the obituary for Mr Alex George Wilson who passed away on December 27th, leaving behind his wife Ruby Mohr, formerly of Bryson, daughter Mrs Bert Smith of Ottawa, and two grandchildren. Mr Wilson was known throughout the district as a great horseman and hunter. He knew the ways of the wild animals in the hill country that stretched for miles behind his home. He entertained his friends with informative, often humrourous stories about the wildlife and the men who hunted and fished in that country during the last fifty years. His pallbearers were all hunters: Gary Wilson, Desmond Coolican, Eddie Ramsay, Daniel McSweeney, Edey Campbell and Jim Daly. The funeral service was conducted by Rev Max Preisler with Rev Archie Manson preaching the sermon. Mr Wilson's favorite hymns were sung: What a Friend we have in Jesus, Abide in Me, and The Old Rugged Cross, the last as a duet by Miss Annie Gamble and Mrs Irene Emard of Shawville.

Local TV fans may find the program "Anything You Can do" this Wednesday January 24th at 4 pm on Channel 13 of special interest.

Early Clarendon land record

Contributed by C.G. Crouse.

To follow up last weeks article based on the Prendergast Return for Clarendon, let us examine this report for land locations. The first "tickets" for land were granted 25 the September 1826. Deeds were not issued until settlement duties were performed to the satisfaction of the Provincial authorities. These consisted of payment of survey, road duties performed, and so many acres per year cut and cleared.

A summary of the work on the land to-date (Sept. 24, 1827) showed only 10 of the 39 settlers had their road work done.

Only 95 acres of the 4100 granted had been cleared.

10 acres had been chopped but not cleared.

21 settlers were just commencing to clear the 2300 acres they held.

Where were these half lots (100 acres) located? Five were along the " Front" on Ranges 1 and 2. Six were on Ranges four and five. The bulk of the settlers were located in the centre on Ranges 5, 6 and 7, where 25 men were located. This was the beginning of Shawville.

A mill, school, and church had to be built to accomodate these pioneer families. The original grantees of the area of the Village appear to be John Dale, Sr., George Dagg, James Wilson, George McDowell, Thomas Hodgins, and William Hobbs. All familiar surnames in town 146 years later! There were no settlements on Ranges nine to thirteen in those days.

The two largest landowners were Col James Prendergast, the official land settlement Agent, who held 600 acres, and Col Walter Radford who had 200 acres. Both were military claimants. Prendergast acquired more land later on for his services to the official surveyor. He had 30 acres cleared and three houses occupied by him and "his servants". A sawmill was in operation and a grist mill had been started on his property located near where Mrs John Wickens now lives on the front.

Radford had 23 acres cleared "by his men". In last weeks article we stated that over half the landowners of Clarendon were single men. It would appear that many of them were employed by Radford and Prendergast to clear their lands.

The Renfrew North Stars defeated the Pontiacs twice this past weekend on home and home games.

Friday night in Renfrew the Pontiacs came out at the short end by being defeated by the score of 3-2.

Don Knox and John Russell did the scoring for Shawville. All the goals for the Pontiacs came in the third period.

On Sunday night at home the Pontiacs just could not do anything right. They were defeated by the score of 7-3.

Both Reid Mick and Larry Greene scored two goals to help the Panthers with a victory.

Doug Harding, Carson Ryan and Bill Kuehl did the scoring for the Pontiacs.

The Pontiacs next home game will be on Friday, February 2, at 8:30 pm against the league leaders the Embrum Panthers.

Chiropractic Explained

by DR. GERALD C. BARKER, D.C.

Chiropractic may be new to you. You and chiropractic are strangers. In this article we cannot give a complete picture of chiropractic, but I will introduce you to chiropractic and tell you why we do what we do. We will tell why and how chiropractic restored health to millions of patients.

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC ?

Chiropractic is a science by which the doctor locates and removes the cause of disease. For every disease, ache or pain there is a cause. As long as you have a cause, you will have disease. Removal of cause results in removal of disease. That sounds reasonable, doesn't it? You use the same principle every day in your home, at work, or at play and it works. For example: You are in the yard watering your lawn with a watering hose and a rock falls across the hose. It may interfere with the flow of water to where there is only half of the original amount of water coming out at the nozzle. Do you work on the nozzle? No, you go back down the hose and remove the cause, the rock. That seems to be the simple, ordinary thing to do in this case and it will also work in your health problem. That is what chiropatric is about, locating and removing the cause. What follows? — Health.

DOES CHIROPRACTIC ALWAYS WORK ?

No, chiropractic doesn't always work. The same as the water hose situation. If the rock caused too much damage to the hose then the removal of the rock is not going to make the water flow freely. Or, if you keep triwsting or pulling on the hose it may interfere with the flow. The same holds true in your own body. The chiropractor may remove cause, but there can still be too much damage done to restore that body to perfect health. Also, the same as twisting or pulling the water hose, if you don't cooperate with the chiropractor and allow correction to take place, then you shouldn't expect complete health.

Chiropractic will work, does work, and has worked. It will restore health if there hasn't been too much damage and you cooperate.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE OF MY DISORDER ?

Suddenly you find yourself ill. Why? Some part of your mechanism has failed to function normally. Let us see what is causing this function to fail.

Function fails because current fails. That is the reason the light bulb doesn't burn if the wall switch is off. The normal flow of current is interfered with. The current fails because something has interfered with its transmission. Release interference so current does not fail, and function will not fail when current is normal.

DO I GET ADJUSTED EACH VISIT ?

IT IS impossible to predict in advance the number of adjustments any given case requires. No two people in this world are alike. Not one individual can be compared with another. The speed with which people recover depends on several factors.

1. How much damage has been done?
2. Age of patient?
3. How long patient had disorder?
4. If interference is kept removed?
5. Patient's cooperation with the chiropractor?

No two spines are alike and the chiropractor must know whether nerve pressure or interference exists. If it does, you receive an adjustment. If the findings indicate no pressure, nothing will be done because that is exactly what the previous adjustment accomplished. If you have to be adjusted again, that means that pressure returned. Pressure has to stay out if health is to be the result.

Beavers eat Comets in Pontiac League

In Int. "B" Pontiac Hockey League action more than 500 fans saw something they have been wanting to see for the last three years.

On Sunday afternoon at the Fort Coulonge Arena, the Davidson Beavers embarrassed the mighty Fort Coulonge Comets by handing them a stiff 5 to 0 trouncing.

Pat Marion led the way with three goals. Also the recent acquisition of a new goal keeper in the name of Marc Lacroix from Algonquin College in Ottawa caused the Comets to suffer much frustration after being literally robbed of many good scoring opportunities. However, Fort Coulonge's Manager, Mr Lucien Ladouceur promises interested hockey fans that on their next meeting with the Davidson Beavers the same embarrassment will not be experienced.

These two clubs face each other on Sunday, February 11th at 1:30 pm at the Fort Coulonge Arena.

The outspoken coach of the Davidson Beavers, Henry Groulx who by the way is a graduate from the "Lally Lalonde School of Coaching" promised Monday that his aim now is to hand the Bryson Braves the same embarrassment at their next meeting which is no sooner than this Friday, January 26th at the Fort Coulonge Arena.

In the first game this Friday evening the Calumet Island Voyageurs are once again facing the fiery Fort Coulonge Comets.

On their last meeting of two weeks ago the Voyageurs were victorious by defeating the Comets 5-2.

On Sunday, January 28th at 1:30 pm the Campbell's Bay Royals play the Otter Lake R.A. followed by a game at approximately 3 pm between the Davidson Beavers and the Calumet Island Voyageurs.

LEADING POINT GETTERS in the League are as follows:

Player, team, goals, assists, points:

Ken Soucie, Fort Coulonge, 10, 15, 25.
Mike Lemay, Calumet Island, 15, 6, 21.

Scotty Gravelle, Bryson, 10, 9, 19.

WYMAN W I

The November meeting of the Wyman W.I. took place at the home of Mrs Wyman MacKechnie in the form of a pot luck luncheon with each member having brought a guest.

A committee was appointed to make plans for our 60th anniversary, which comes in March of this year. The plans for the Anniversary Cook Book are nearly completed.

The Citizenship Convenor, Mrs Pearl McNeill, was in charge of the program.

In December the members met at the home of Mrs Pearl McNeill for a Christmas party. There was an exchange of gifts. Each member contributed an item to the program. Mrs Marks recited a poem, "Hang up the Baby's Stocking", which she had learned as a child.

The Life-membership certificate and pin, donated by the County, was presented to Mrs Muriel Kelley a former county president.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs Roland Graham.

The program was in charge of the Welfare and Health Convenor, Mrs Donald Duff, who gave us a taped article on "What is Poverty?" which brought home to us just how little some of our citizens have. The voice on the tape, telling how she and her family lived, was a most impressive way of presenting the facts.

Convenors' items included-- if your knees shake, try kneeling on them; What to look for in buying an electric blanket; Brown Swiss cattle exceed all others in rapid growth. Education answered questions by the ladies about Adult Education. This topic is creating a good deal of interest in the area.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs Wm Marks.

Shawville centennial

Snow Queen

Shawville girls between the ages of 15 and 21 have been invited to enter the Centennial Snow Queen contest which ends on Saturday February 3rd. Judging will take place during an entertaining evening at the McDowell Elementary School and prizes will be presented to the Queen chosen as well as to all the other contestants.

A special crown and gown is being made for the winner who will then preside at all the winter activities being organized for Shawville Centennial.

Application forms for the contest are available at Frasers, Horners, Kay's, and the town hall, as announced last week, and also at Newtons and the Golden Shasta restaurants. Entries close this Saturday, January 27th. This contest is only for girls living in the municipality of Shawville.

Wednesday following the choosing of a Snow Queen, on February 7th, the activity chairmen of the Centennial committee will meet at the Town Hall.

Beard growing

A beard growing contest has also been announced. This will be judged during the Old Home Week and is open to everyone who intends to be here at that time, no matter where they reside. Word has it that certain old Shawvillites from the west have been preparing for this contest by throwing away their razors at Christmas time. With such a head start, can they outgrow our local champions.

Winners of the 1967 beard growing contest, Bob Gordon, Ed Connoly and Brent Horner, have not yet proclaimed their intentions for 1973.

Quilt contest

A Centennial quilt contest is to be held in Shawville to be judged during Old Home Week July 1 to 7, 1973.

The judging will be done on the basis of design, workmanship, usefulness and appearance. The design should have a centennial theme; could be the centennial crest or any other design to commemorate Shawville's Centennial.

Individuals or groups wishing to submit a quilt, or quilts might consider getting started right away to be ready on time.

Mrs Secil Sly is in charge of this activity and quilts for the contest should be left with her on or before June 15th to allow time to set up the display.

Anyone may enter the contest and the quilts will be prominently displayed during the entire week.

Snow sculpture

An Ice and Snow Sculpture contest will be held in Shawville at a time to be announced. This is advance notice so people might begin making their preliminary supports for eventual projects. The best snow sculpture is built up over a wood or metal frame of some sort. This keeps narrow parts from collapsing when the weather changes. The sculpture must be within the municipal limits and the prize will go to the person upon whose property it is placed.

Committees
