HUMOUR HELD ABLE TO END WAR THOUGHTS

F. C. Whitaker Addresses
Regular Meeting of West-
mount Rotary Club

"If a sense of humour could be made an obligatory part of every man's life, thoughts of war would disappear forever from our minds," F. C. Whitaker, west district manager of the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada, stated while addressing the weekly luncheon meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club in Victoria Hall yesterday. He chose as his subject, "A Serious Survey of Humour."

"My contention is that humour is a serious matter, because it is such an essential part of the successful life and career of any man and woman. He who has been endowed with a good sense of humour has been provided with a sort of shield that will ward off many a hard blow in life which might otherwise break a man's spirit," the speaker stated.

Continuing, he said: "The more we have to do with some of our contemporaries the more it becomes evident that humour is not a quality possessed by everyone." The humour to which he referred, the speaker pointed out, was that which came from the heart as against wit which is of the intellect. In contrast to humour, wit is sometimes sharp and often wounds those whom it strikes.

The predominant quality of humour is its kindly tolerance and this is particularly true of English humour. The true humour of the English people has as its main attribute an unflinching kindness, he told the gathering.

Mr. Whitaker referred to the works of Stephen Leacock, P. G. Wodehouse and Mark Twain—the man that has read nothing by these writers has indeed something to look forward to, he declared.

He stated that humour could not survive in an atmosphere of suppression. "If dictators in Europe today could be made to strike their well-known attitudes and ridiculous poses before a mirror they would abandon them altogether," he said.

Humour, when in capable hands, may be made to serve useful purposes. A speaker or writer may often gain emphasis to impress a point on the minds of listeners by resorting to humour, Mr. Whitaker declared. Emphasis may be achieved humorously, by understatement or exaggeration.

Mr. Whitaker was introduced by Wilf Buckley and thanked by W. Bole. The president, J. A. de Lallane, occupied the chair.

Present at the meeting were a number of English schoolboys who have been detained here awaiting the departure of a boat to return them to England.

Catholic Mothers To Assist Red Cross

Members of the Catholic Mothers' Club, of Westmount, held their opening meeting on Tuesday afternoon in St. Leo's School Hall, Mrs. A. A. Pare presided.

Plans were made to carry on with the Bazaar which will be held on November 3, 4 and 6, proceeds of which will be used to further the club's social service work.

It was announced that the annual bursary of $500 will be awarded this year and also that a donation has been made towards a camp for underprivileged children this summer.

Members of the club also volunteered to assist the Red Cross Society in its work. Regular Red Cross meetings are being arranged.

The club will entertain the Graduating Class of St. Leo's School on September 19.

City Will Distribute Milk To School Pupils

The City of Westmount is taking over the distribution of milk to scholars in all schools in the municipality, both those operating under the Catholic and Protestant boards, it was announced at the City Hall yesterday.

Milk will be supplied to all pupils upon recommendation of the City Health Department. Previously this work was carried out by the School Children's Health Fund, a private organization that still

Cars Are Slightly Damaged In Crash

Bath vehicles were slightly damaged when an automobile driven by A. A. Hanna, of 350 Lansdowne avenue, collided with one operated by R. Conspini, 29, of 2070 Clifton avenue, at the corner of Sherbrooke street and Victoria avenue at 10 o'clock Sunday night.

Both machines were proceeding east on Sherbrooke. Conspini told police his car was struck in the rear by Hanna's machine when he stopped for a red light.

MANY GROUPS BOOK SPACE IN VICTORIA HALL

Stage Productions, Lectures, Dances and Meetings Keep Centre Busy

With the advent of fall and winter social and theatrical activities, Victoria Hall is now entering its busiest season and has already been booked for a large number of stage presentations, lectures, club and lodge meetings, banquets, dances and wedding receptions.

The hall is generally conceded to be one of the finest municipal centres on the Island of Montreal. The main concert hall has seating accommodation for over 700 persons and is equipped with comfortably padded leather chairs, installed early this year. Its equipment includes a stage fitted with foot and head lights, an organ, piano and space for an orchestra. Above the balcony at the rear of the hall is a spotlight and two moving picture machines enclosed in a fireproof projecting room.

The hall can be converted into a ballroom capable of accommodating 600 people.

The building contains a men's lounge suitable for small meetings and a ladies' lounge reserved for use as a retiring room. There are two rest rooms.

On the lower floor are two rooms suitable for wedding receptions, small dances, meetings, parties or banquets. They can accommodate well over a hundred persons each. Kitchen facilities adjoin the rooms.

A large banquet hall on the same floor is used for dances, lectures, exhibitions, bazaars and banquets.

There is a large room on the upper floor equipped with furniture for masonic purposes. There is an anteroom adjoining it containing lockers.

On the same floor is "C" room designed for lodge and club meetings.

"SAFETY SCHOOL ON WHEELS" APPEARS

Considerable interest was shown in the "Safety School on Wheels" which appeared in this vicinity this week. It sought to show the hazards of careless driving and walking and the dangers of drunken driving.

The "School" is a 25 foot trailer owned and directed by Captain James A. W. Killip and Mrs. Killip of Philadelphia. It is on a 5,000 mile tour of Eastern Canada and the United States.

Exhibits of errors in driving judgment and other vital information was shown in the trailer. The tour is the second of its kind sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

RETURN

Mrs. Mackay Smith and family have returned from Lac Brule, where they occupied their cottage for the summer season.

MOBILE UNIT IN WESTMOUNT

Our photograph shows the mobile recruiting unit of the Fifth (Westmount) Field Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, stationed on the south side of Sherbrooke street, in front of the Westmount Library and directly opposite the Y.M.C.A. The unit is being stationed at vantage points throughout the city. It is in charge of Sgt.-Major A. G. Gough. The sign bears the wording: "Fifth (Westmount) Field Battery, R.C.A. — Recruits wanted; radio operators, mechanics, surveyors — apply this truck or the Craig street drill hall."

BOYS' BRIGADE TO HAVE MANY NEW FEATURES

Robert Beal Appointed
Warrant Officer in West-

The First Westmount Company will commence their fall activities by holding a brief route march on Friday night, assembling on the park in front of Melville Church at 7.30. The Company band are asked to do as much practising as they possibly can so as to be in readiness to lead the parade.

Captain Richardson is pleased to announce the appointment of Robert Beal as Warrant Officer in the Company. He will take over these duties on Friday night and will instruct First Aid to advanced boys, commencing early in October. Staff Sergeant James Patterson will continue to instruct the beginners in Ambulance work as well as taking over the duties which were carried out by Staff Sgt. John Jeffrey last season.

New recruits will be interviewed by Captain Richardson in Melville Hall, between 7 and 7.30, on Friday evening. As there are quite a number of applicants this session, it is of extreme importance that they apply immediately as the membership this season is limited.

The Company have planned a most active program this session which will include many new features which have not heretofore been presented. Several additions to the staff will be announced next week as well as the detail of their classes. The Company Bible Class will meet for its first Fall session on Sunday September 30th at 2 p.m. Some new features will be introduced and boys will have an active part in each service.

ARRIVE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sise returned home last week-end aboard the Empress of Britain from England.

LODGE MEMBERS PLAN SERVICE HERE SUNDAY

Members of the Montreal District Daughters of the Nile to Assemble at Calvary

On Sunday night in Calvary Church, the members of the Montreal District Lodges of the Daughters of England, will share in their Annual Church Service. The Minister of Calvary Church, Bro. the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach on the theme "Inspiration for the High Task of Living."

At both the morning and evening services a noted Negro choir, "The Wooding Southland Singers," composed of young men and women, now singing at the World's Fair in New York, will sing Negro Spirituals and Sacred Plantation songs. At 8.45 p.m. immediately following the evening preaching service, the choir will give a sacred recital of Spirituals and Negro melodies. This is the first time this choir has visited Canada. A supplementary offering will be received at this recital.

The Sunday School will meet in open session at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

The Men's Own Brotherhood will also meet at 3 p.m. On Monday at 8.15 p.m. the Young People's Union will reopen its work with a Friendship Rally and Vacation Memory night.

On Wednesday at 8.15 p.m. a Welcome Home Social and Congregational Reunion will be held in the Church Parlors. All are heartily invited to attend. Rally Day—Special Services, Sunday, September 24th.

It is considered probable, although not official, that the regiment will be barracked for the winter in the Westmount Athletic Grounds' clubhouse, which is now being transformed for military training purposes. Six hundred bunks are now being installed there and a number of other changes are being made to the building by Military District No. 4.

The regiment is under the command of Col. Eric Slessor.

CHURCH SERVICES

On Sunday, Rev. J. A. Johnston will occupy Westmount Baptist Pulpit at both services. The theme of the morning service will be: "The Prayer that Jesus Would not Pray." At the evening service the address will be under the title: "The Bonnie Lass of Shushan." This is a great human drama, having in it the elements of villainy, near-tragedy and glorious fidelity. Visitors and especially young people are cordially invited.

District Military Units Recruiting Rapidly But Many More Men Required

R.M.R. RANKS SWELL AS MANY MEN "JOIN UP"

Regiment Needs Large Number to Bring Personnel To War Time
Strength

While there is still plenty of room for more men, recruits are signing up steadily at the armoury of the Royal Montreal Regiment and primary training is being carried out on Westmount Park daily.

The recruiting office was interviewed by an Examiner reporter who visited the armoury this week. Men and youths, ranging in ages from 18 to 45, come to the armoury from all over the Island to seek enlistment in the regiment which established such a noted record during the World War.

Many who lack the qualifications, either in regard to age or height, or are married, make every effort to be enlisted in order that they may serve their country in the New World War. A large percentage are but a month over the minimum age of 18 or a year under the maximum of 45—citizens who could easily either wait awhile before enlisting or who could ease out of it altogether.

"They don't, however, as they feel, too strongly, the urge to fight for the land that has given them liberty and the opportunity to succeed in their chosen fields. However, there is still plenty of room for many more men as the regiment mobilizes and all those who possess the necessary qualifications will be warmly welcomed by the unit.

The unit has a nominal peacetime strength of some 200 men, but this is now being stepped up to the wartime base of 750.

All those who join must be single; between the ages of 18 and 45; and over 5' 4" in height. Once a man enlists he agrees to serve anywhere for the duration of the conflict. The R.M.R. will probably be one of the early regiments to go overseas. None enlisting sign up for home duty.

Soldiers in the permanent units are completely outfitted, being supplied with uniforms, shirts, underwear, shoes, ties and even razors. They are paid at the rate of $1.20 per day, plus special allowances.

It is considered probable, although not official, that the regiment will be barracked for the winter in the Westmount Athletic Grounds' clubhouse, which is now being transformed for military training purposes. Six hundred bunks are now being installed there and a number of other changes are being made to the building by Military District No. 4.

MANY ENTRIES

A large number of entries are expected for the swimming meet at the Westmount "Y" on Saturday. The affair will be sponsored by the Montreal West Parks and Playgrounds Association. P. H. Henley, chairman and a capable committee have a full program of events prepared.

Flying Squadron Is Recruiting Ground Men

Although the Westmount No. 115 Fighter Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Force is now up to full strength, it is recruiting men for the permanent force and a re-recruiting station is in operation at the Squadron headquarters.

Those who join the No. 115 Unit sign up for home service only, while those who join the permanent force enlist for full service.

Foot drill and rifle practices for airmen are now being conducted for members of the local squadron and a series of lectures in rigging, wing construction, and airplane and engine maintenance form part of the training schedule. Officers of the unit are undergoing special training.

The full personnel of the squadron for peace time purposes is 131 airmen and 18 officers.

RADIO EDITOR INTERVIEWS KALTENBORN

Radio's most famous political reporter and commentator, H. V. Kaltenborn flew back to New York last week after covering pre-war developments in Europe for listening audiences on this side of the ocean. Throughout the present situation, as throughout the Czechoslovakian crisis of 1938, Kaltenborn's keen analysis of foreign affairs has won him what is probably the largest regular listening audience of any news commentator. On landing at Port Washington, New York, aboard the Dixie Clipper, he was met by Jack Hirschberg, the only Canadian writer on the scene, and the two are seen above in the news studio of the Columbia Broadcasting System in New York, as Kaltenborn talked with by radio with correspondents in principle European capitals.

Y. M. C. A. To Inaugurate Business Girls' Classes

A business girls' class will be one of the many new features in the Y.M.C.A. program this coming year.

The 'Y' feels the need for community recreational activities in the family life, and one of the ways this need is being met is through a 'family swim,' which will be held every Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. And on Saturday evenings there will be a mixed swim for young people.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1939

CANADA AT WAR Once again, Canada is at war. Of our own free will, and after weighing all the factors involved, we have formally declared war on Nazi Germany. It is the first time Canada has ever made such a declaration, for previous to 1926 our status in international affairs was, as expressed by Laurier: "When Britain is at war, Canada is at war."

Many people in Canada today still believe that our position is just as stated by Laurier; but a formal declaration became necessary because: 1. The other Dominions made such declarations, and it was thought that failure of Canada to do so would be misinterpreted by both our enemies and allies. The moral and psychological effect of all the Dominions taking the action of their own free will, outweighs the argument that we are automatically at war when our King is at war. 2. It became widely believed that, following President Roosevelt's omission of Canada from the list of belligerents affected by the U.S. neutrality law, Canada would refrain from a formal declaration in order to facilitate the passage of arms and munitions from the United States, through Canada, to France and Britain. This position, which no doubt would have been of great advantage both to us and to the British and French, had to be discarded because it was morally and ethically untenable.

So we have declared ourselves in a manner that leaves no doubt of our position. And we have declared ourselves with a unanimity that is really astounding. Because of our diversity, our racial, religious, political and economic differences,—it is difficult to govern even when the issues are of comparative unimportance. Who, a month ago, would have forecast that the greatest and most contentious issue ever to be placed before Parliament, could have been solved, with the support of all but three of the members of the Commons and the entire support of the Senate? How was it done? Because the test was met in a spirit of moderation, toleration, and conciliation; because the promise given the electorate that Parliament would decide was honoured to the letter; and because of an obvious determination to honour other promises given the electorate respecting the measures to be adopted in case of war. The mistakes and betrayals of the last war, which nearly wrecked our national unity, are not to be repeated.

FRENCH-CANADA'S SPOKESMAN

It is doubtful if the Canadian House of Commons have ever heard a more eloquent, more sincere, or more effective address on a question of national importance than that delivered Saturday by the Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice. Mr. Lapointe was, of course, speaking on Canada's participation in the war, and he took the occasion to severely castigate those who say that it is not only possible but desirable that Canada remain neutral in any conflict in which Britain is engaged. Some of his remarks are worth re-stating:

"England has worked for peace. I know it; I have attended many of the conferences since the end of the Great War, both in Geneva and in London. I say therefore that it is a crying calumny to say that England is responsible for anything that has led to the present conflict.

"I deeply regret being compelled to follow this course, but in my soul and conscience I cannot take any other course. It is unthinkable that we should refuse to meet the challenge.

"Sympathy, like faith, without works is a dead sympathy. And I will go further: neutrality on the part of Canada at this time could not be other than a move favourable to the enemies of England and France.

"God give Canadians the light which will indicate to them where their duty lies in this hour of trial so that our children and our children's children may inherit a land where freedom and peace shall prevail and where our social, political, and religious institutions may be secure, and from which the tyrannical doctrines of Nazism and Communism are forever banished. Yes, God bless Canada, God bless our Queen. God bless our King."

It was indeed a speech worthy of the best of that Province of which Mr. Lapointe is the eloquent spokesman.

STOP ME. IF YOU'VE HEARD THIS ONE

LEARNING ENGLISH A Frenchman was relating his experience in studying the English language. He said:

"When I first discovered that if I was quick, I was fast; that if I was tired, I was fast; if I spent too freely, I was fast; and that not to eat was to fast. I was discouraged. But when I came across the sentence, 'The first one won one-dollar prize,' I gave up trying."

GOVERNMENT "After living under every government since Confederation I am convinced that the weather has a darn sight more to do with our comfort than the government has," an oldtimer observed recently.

ITS DRAWBACKS The son of a proprietor of a wholesale drapery establishment entered the business, and, as he took a violent dislike to the duties of the counting house, his father decided to give him a trial on the road.

On returning from his first trip, his father asked him how he liked it. "Oh," replied the young man, "it's quite a jolly life; you meet some decent fellows at the hotels, and have plenty of fun in the evenings, but what I don't like about it is calling on those drapers."

HANDICAPPED "Poor ole Bill! E's so short-sighted 'is working 'imself to death." "Wot's 'is short sight got to do with it?" "Well, 'e can't see when the boss ain't looking, so 'e 'as to keep on shovelling all the time!"

THE FORUM In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C.

Figures made public at hearings of the Federal Power Commission at Washington show that power from Niagara Falls costs consumers in New York state more than twice as much as it costs consumers in Ontario who are supplied by the publicly-owned "Hydro while across the line consumers are supplied by the privately-owned Niagara Falls Power Company. For residential consumers, the average bills range from 49 to 58 per cent lower in Ontario. Commercial users in Ontario are 65 per cent lower than similar bills in New York state towns. Even industrial power bills average far lower in Ontario despite the fact that Niagara Falls Power Company favors industrial users at the expense of household consumers. That favoritism is one of the main points which the F. P. C. is probing. It expects to prove that the company is controlled by the Mellon estate and the Morgan interests and sells 77 per cent of its Niagara power to the Mellon-controlled Aluminum Trust and a few other huge manufacturing concerns, at ridiculously low rates which the company refuses to reveal.

Many years ago, the U.S.A. and Canada divided the water of the Falls by treaty. The U.S.A. gave its share (except 275 cubic feet per second which the company wishes to add to its 19,725 cubic feet per second) to Niagara Falls Power Company. The commission intends to investigate the company's history back to 1880. When the company ordered hearings, the company tried to withdraw its application for the remaining water (275 cubic feet per second) and thus block the probe. The commission refused to allow the withdrawal and is going ahead.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics calculates that the world carryover will be 1,100 million bushels and it places the normal figure at 600 million. Much of the wheat will be held as security stocks and particularly by England, Germany and Italy. Canada will have a carryover of about 100 million bushels and Argentina about the same amount. Apparently the 1939 crop of Russia will not be large for none of the new crop has been offered on world markets.

That 8,000,000 families of the U.S.A. are "continually facing starvation," that 11,000,000 others are in the income class that means "fighting poverty; with 8,000,000 in the comfortable middle class, and 2,385,000 in the luxury class, with incomes of $3000 a year or more, is graphically shown in a chart prepared under the auspices of Stanford University.

Much of the light and soundness of our creed, What'er it be, depends on what we read. —Jane Taylor.

A famous and aged lawyer said: "When I was young I lost many cases I ought to have won. When I was old, I won many cases I ought to have lost. And so on the whole, justice was done."

Learning is hard, but unlearning is harder. The sermons, pamphlets, papers, books, reviews, That plead our own opinions, we people's shelves, Go where you will, are label'd like themselves. No, sir, we do not see that work—I know Its general views—we take in so and so.—Jane Taylor in her poem "Prejudice." Jane and her sister Ann wrote their most famous rhyme which begins: Twinkle twinkle, little star How I wonder what you are.

Reactionary senators had the name of Rev. A. Eddy removed from the list of those who offer prayers in the Wisconsin Senate, because in recent opening ceremonies he invoked Divine wrath upon "little men in large places, who stoop to carry shrewdness to thwart the people's will."

A minimum wage of 44 cents a day has been decreed for Spanish workers by "General Franco; this sum, he considers, is "sufficient to provide the worker and his family with a worthy moral living."

In their last financial year, Dominion Textiles, Montreal, manufactured almost $17,000,000 worth of goods. They stated that the cost of making and selling was 11.7 millions, leaving 5.2 millions out of which mill employees received 4.7 millions in wages.

Helen Stam and her missionary parents were kidnapped by Chinese bandits and after they had been prisoners for some time, her mother and father, were beheaded. She was to have been beheaded but one of the bandits took pity on her and offered to act as a substitute. The offer was accepted and she was released.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, Sept. 17. The Golden Text is from Psalms 73: 26 "My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-day." (Psalms 91: 5,6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "The material so-called gases and forces are counterfeits of the spiritual forces of divine Mind, whose potency is Truth, whose attraction is Love, whose adhesion and cohesion are Life, perpetuating the eternal facts of being. . . The manifestations of evil, which counterfeit divine Justice, are called in the Scriptures, 'The anger of the Lord.' In reality, they show the self-destruction of error or matter and point to matter's opposite, the strength and permanency of Spirit." (Page 293).

thing we need is cooperative industry. The third thing we need is cooperative buying. I think he is perfectly right, exclaimed Evelyn, especially about monetary reform. It seems to me that some new method of finance is urgently needed. She continued to talk about the merits and weaknesses of various proposals being put forward. This conversation showed that she was familiar with most of them, including Social Credit, Equitism, Sodalism, and the Free Money Theory.

Argentina Moves End Limitation Upon Immigrants

Resumption of unrestricted immigration in this country is proposed in a bill submitted to the Chamber of Deputies by Senor Juan A. Solari. Modifications are sought in the existing 60-year-old law and the removal of the more recent restrictions imposed by Government decree. All foreigners would be welcome under the new law—professionals and craftsmen as well as agricultural settlers.

The Solari bill requires from immigrants an undertaking to reside in Argentina and work at their trade or profession for a minimum of two years. Only criminals or physically unfit persons would be barred between the ages of 18 and 60. Those who elected to settle and become naturalized would be allowed to send for all immediate family relations.

Memorable Debate The bill was announced the day following a memorable debate on immigration policy, the result of a long-heralded but frequently postponed interpellation of the foreign and agricultural ministers. National interest had been aroused by the formal resolution of the Deputies on June 1 last that the two ministers should give an explanation of the Government attitude.

Senor Bernardino Horne of the Radical Party reviewed the restrictive decrees since 1930 and was especially hostile to that of July, 1938, which virtually stopped all immigration from Europe. Half a century ago the number of annual immigrant arrivals had attained 100,000. National requirements had not decreased in any way, and increased population would mean increased production and consumption, he said, adding domestic economy would benefit in every way.

Objection Lodged An objection was lodged against the emphasis given to agricultural workers. Argentina, it was explained, could accommodate manual workers of every description, in fact, was short of them. A continual inflow of fresh cultural talent was also necessary, speakers urged. It appeared to be the general opinion that the emergency measures should be eliminated as soon as possible. It was estimated that there were at least half a million legitimate workers ready to emigrate from Europe to Argentina if restrictions were withdrawn.

The regions of Entre Rios, the Argentine Chaco, Rio Negro, and Mendoza were cited as the most desirable areas for settlement.

THE MENU, FOLKS

Though strife in Europe is still the greatest story of the century, and as such continues to exert a distinct influence on schedules of networks and independent stations alike, it is indeed amazing how swiftly and calmly the kilocycles have been put upon a wartime basis. Those hectic last-minute bulletins, the almost ceaseless stream of foreign commentaries and the unnecessary but very understandable excitement with which radio garnished its laudable crisis coverage before and immediately following declaration of war, have given way to regular newscasts and properly-scheduled discussions by individuals best suited to the task.

What is more, listeners across the continent who once feared that war might mean the loss of their favourite American and Canadian shows are now relieved to discover that strife in Europe has spelt no such major tragedy. Indeed, on both sides of the Atlantic, wartime radio schedules closely parallel peacetime schedules—and the next few weeks will see the return to regional airwaves of a majority of radio's topnotch winter shows.

Orson Welles and Helen Hayes have already returned to CBS-CKAC, remaining "obediently yours" Sunday nights at 8. The Radio Theatre raised the curtain on another season through the same facilities Monday last at 9, with Cecil B. de Mille again at the helm, and Loretta Young will star in the first Silver Theatre program via CKAC October 8 at 8 p.m. Also from Columbia and CKAC come the popular "Big Town" and Tuesday Night Party" programs, starring Edward G. Robinson and Walter O'Keefe, respectively. These latter shows hit the air Tuesday next at 8 and 8.30, and will continue throughout the winter months. The New York Philharmonic-Symphony begins its tenth season on CKAC Sunday afternoon, October 15, at 3 o'clock, with John Barbirolli as conductor and Deems Taylor commenting on the program at intermission.

"Y" STATISTICS ON ACTIVITIES ARE RELEASED

Report Compiled by Department of Health and Physical Education

The report for the months of May, June, July and August, was compiled this week by the Department of Health and Physical Education.

October 8 at 7, with Phil Harris, Rochester, Mary Livingstone and a soloist as yet unchosen.

September 25 will usher in the initial program in a new Monday night series by Alec Templeton, but it is improbable that the witty keyboard wizard's parodies will be released locally. Marconi's local post is already carrying the Band "Wagon" at 7.30 Sunday evenings, and Charlie McCarthy is scheduled to return to the Big Show in the near future on the same wavelength. Toscanini, of course will conduct the NBC Symphony in its weekly airings, but no date has as yet been announced for the orchestra's return to the air. Wistful Vista has already come to life, with Fibber McGee, Molly, Donald Novis and Billy Mills' hand cutting up on Tuesday nights at 9.30 through CBM.

On the local front news is scarce. French Canada's idol, Fridolin, returns to CKAC later this month with Bill Harwood producing for the Canadian Broadcast Company and other programs are hanging in the balance. War has resulted in postponement of many shows and one major agency reported yesterday that its staff was working overtime filling cancellations alphabetically.

DIAL DELIRIUM

Ona Munson replaces Claire Trevor as Lorelei opposite Edward G. Robinson in "Big Town" when the show hits the air again Tuesday night through CKAC at 8. Miss Munson is soon to be seen on the screen as Belle Natling in "Gone With the Wind" . . . New York's Philharmonic Symphony has been booked for concerts in Ottawa, Toronto and Hamilton during the winter months, but Barbirolli's band will skip Montreal, traditional dark spot of the road . . . Ted Archer, one-time staff announcer at CFCF, is now doing special events for a regional post in western Canada . . . Sam Taub and Bill Stern will describe the Joe Louis-Bob Pastor massacre Wednesday evening next from Briggs Stadium, Detroit, through CFCF at 10.30—one half-hour later than was previously announced. The delay represents a compromise for the hour time difference between the Michigan metropolis and the East . . .

COIL COMMENT

The Magic Key folds following its broadcast through CFCF Monday next at 9, after four full years on the air. Although NBC yesterday hinted that new program plans are currently under consideration by RCA, a general silence has been maintained concerning the Key's successor . . . Paramount Pictures Corporation is readying "Gulliver's Travels," a full-length Max Fleischer cartoon in technical, for December release . . . NBC, CBS, MBS and CBC this week banned all skits and songs referring to foreign statesmen, and major American networks last night issued an order banning sales of time to sponsors wishing to feature news commentators . . . Kate Smith yesterday signed the New York Group Theatre, one of Broadway's most distinguished theatrical units, to an exclusive contract calling for the Group to be heard on the Kate Smith Hour through CBS for at least six weeks of every 13 . . .

ANY DAY A FISH DAY

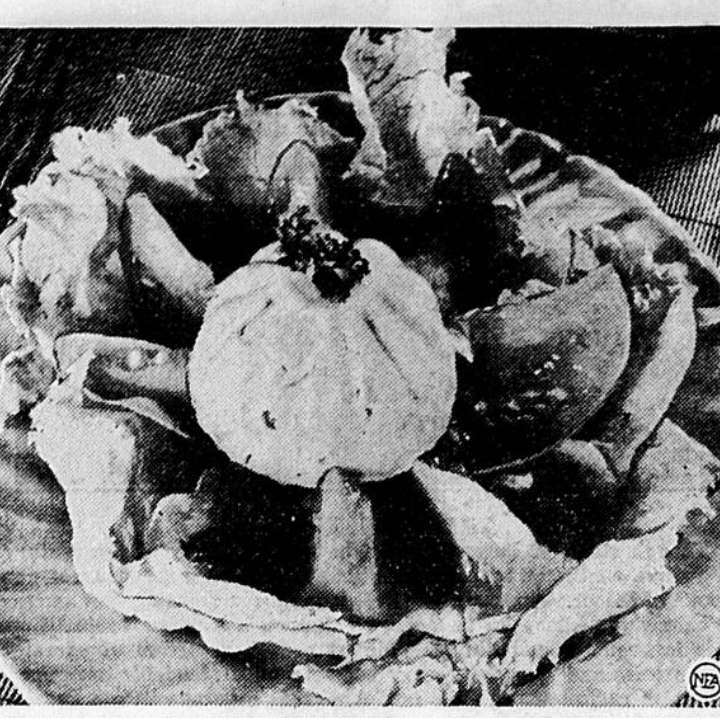

Paris Dressmakers Featuring Curves

Even before the first stitch had been taken in the new winter models it was common knowledge that Paris was determined to put over a radical change in silhouette. Leading couturiers wished to head off the stamped by youth-at-any-cost. To this end they launched an incredibly large number of different outlines, to be weeded out, first by the buyers, then by women themselves, before the 1940 period could be born.

Hips are highlights of the winter silhouette. They seem here to stay a while, whether we like it or not. Beauty specialists have changed their whole technique and objective. They are working overtime to round out hips and "round in" waists and midriffs, to achieve the smart globular torso of the moment.

Many couturiers are retreating from the bouffant line. This is not to say that plenty of full romantic skirts will not sweep the ballroom floors this winter. Interest in Louis XIV fashions was revived by Racine's tercentenary, which gave rise during the recent Paris season to all sorts of fetes and ballets featuring the noble costume of the epoch. Francevramont brings Racine up to date in the evening ensemble. She makes it of rustling black Lyons velvet. The jacket has collar and cuffs in Colbert embroidery. Though the frock flares from the hipline, it fits the torso like the skin. It shows bare arms and shoulders. Its decollete starts as a square but finishes in a deep curved V, outlining the high bosom. It, too, is decorated with Colbert embroidery.

PETER MILLER SAYS NEW TREND EVIDENT

Styles of dancing, like the styles of many other things move in cycles. Peter Miller, who has just returned from the two major Dance Conventions in New York City, states that this season the dances of yesteryear, such as the Polka and the Castle Walk, will be just as popular as the more modern type of dancing. Mr. Miller will feature these two styles and also Exhibition Ballroom dancing in the coming season's activities.

Miss Speirs announces that the School Register is now open and that the classes in Ballet, Tap, Adagio and Acrobatic dancing will commence next week. Opening day is set for Wednesday, September 20th.

The boys' class, which made such a hit last season will again be featured.

Up-to-the-minute tap dancing has always been a strong point of the School's programme this season. Mr. Miller has an abundance of splendid routines from the two Broadway celebrities, Johnnie Mattison, teacher of Dixie Dunbar, Eleanor Powell and many other well-known artists and Bill Pillich, featured in "Hooray for What."

As usual, the tiny baby classes will be to the fore. It has long been recognized that Betty Speirs has that charming quality which is so necessary in the teaching of very young children.

Put alternate layers of sliced peaches and dry bread crumbs into a well greased pudding dish. Sprinkle each layer of fruit with sugar. Dot pieces of butter over the crumbs. Have a layer of crumbs on top. Add a very little hot water and cover closely. Bake in a moderate oven until fruit is tender. Remove cover towards the last of the cooking to brown the crumbs. Serve with cream or hard sauce.

BRILLIANT DANCER

Children's Theatre To Commence Season Oct. 2

The Children's Theatre of Montreal, this city's unique children's theatrical group re-opens its seventh season on October 2nd when the north and west end studios, directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters will begin work for the autumn and winter months, and a highly ambitious and interesting program has been outlined for the coming season.

Miss Dorothy Davis and her assistant inaugurated the Children's Theatre seven years ago, with the object of establishing a dramatic school of training for young folk, where diction, poise and deportment would be developed to a high degree. Through the medium of the drama, children become conversant with the art of self-expression, instilling in them the spirit of self confidence, calculated to be of utmost importance to them as time goes on, and to encourage and promote interest in the theatre in young people.

The Children's Theatre has already given conclusive proof of the excellent direction and training afforded, and for three years in succession, pupils of this school have taken first honors in the Dominion Drama Festival, for dramatic recitals, diction and characterizations. Among their performances which have won recognition from the press and public, may be mentioned "The Little Princess," "Little Women," "Daddy Long Legs," "Anne of Green Gables," "The Missing Prince" and "Pollyanna."

Miss Davis has recently returned from a visit to New York where she has been accumulating new material, and studying the Children's Theatre situation in that city, and has brought back several scripts which it is proposed to present later in the season. Miss Davis has also been successful in securing the rights to present "The Youth of Queen Victoria" a delightful play which deals with the life of the beloved "Vicky" from the age of six. This will be the first production of the season and will no doubt create great interest in this city with both juniors and seniors. Judging by the enquiries coming in from all parts of Montreal and its suburbs, it looks as though the

THE 'MOUNTIES'

This bold band of Mounties, who shone in last season's Betty Speirs Recital with singing, dancing and reciting, are all ready to begin the new season. MUSICAL SHARPS, FLATS and NATURALS

by FRANCES GOLTMAN

EDUCATION THROUGH MELODY

Last Sunday morning that beloved philosopher of the "airwaves," Nellie Revelle, spoke of "Teachers." She defined their great necessity, how they moulded the character of the child and formed lasting impressions through the years. Many prominent people began their careers through teaching and others ended them in this noble work and Miss Revelle cited a few outstanding persons such as Calvin Coolidge, Mrs. Coolidge, Albert Einstein, Sir Isaac Newton, Noah Webster and several others who were members of this profession.

Now that September has arrived all our young friends have returned to schools and colleges.

how often do we overhear this remark, "How do you like your new teacher?" If the answer is in the affirmative you may be sure the pupil will do better work and enjoy his scholastic session but it is rather a pity if the child is not pleased with his new teacher. The same theory applies to music.

Music plays a great part in school life and children who are brought up in a musical home atmosphere unconsciously do better in this subject than those who do not hear music at home. However the radio has done much for many unmusical folks—but we should not call them unmusical because perhaps it was just because they did not have the benefits of a musical education in their youth.

Nowadays most children are given the opportunity of studying music teacher plays a most important part at an early age and again the phase in moulding the child's musical tastes.

It is indeed surprising how many youngsters appreciate and love the works of the great masters immediately if given to them in an interesting manner such as the story-form that Dr. Walter Damrosch imparts to his great army of radio listeners in that wonderful "Musical Appreciation Hour" over NBC every Friday.

This fascinating as well as instructive series of concerts is of great educational value to adults and parents as well.

After reading "My Musical Life" recently by Dr. Damrosch one feels almost as if one were an intimate friend of this great personality and this writer strongly advises all those who enjoy biography to read this entertaining and stimulating account of the life of one of the most outstanding people of our day in which you meet not only musical folk but many many other great personages.

"It should be remembered," said Mr. Mack in answer to interrogation by interviewers, "that Pepsi-Cola refines its own sugar and that, when war clouds first gathered over Europe, we took steps to have delivered sufficient sugar to cover a long-range planning program."

"Only Angels Have Wings" Thrilling And Spectacular

A drama whose picturesque setting in the tropical Andes Mountains of South America lends increased credence and vividness to an exciting tale of adventure and romance, Columbia's "Only Angels Have Wings" yesterday opened at the Monkland United Theatre for a three day engagement.

Grant and Miss Arthur, two of Hollywood's greatest stars, appear for the first time together in a motion picture. Richard Barthelmess returns to the screen after an overlong absence.

But Columbia merits praise as well for the lavish sets and for the scenes of breath-taking grandeur which are the settings for dramatic sequences of heart-stopping impact.

Artie Shaw Gets Fans' Autographs

Artie Shaw, the nation's swing king, has discovered that his Californian fans are inventive geniuses at getting those autographed portraits.

Attending the theater with June Priesser, appearing with him in "Dancing Co-Ed," he was approached by a crowd of fans all wanting autographed pictures.

Emerging from the theater later, Shaw found that the fans had scribbled their names and addresses on the canvas top of the car.

Great Stars In Cast Of Irving Berlin Musical

One of the greatest combinations of talent ever gathered for one show makes Irving Berlin's "Second Fiddle" a production to which all Montreal has been looking forward.

Just imagine, screen fans, Sonja Henie romancing with Tyrone Power to the melodies of Irving Berlin's six new songs with singing Rudy Vallee cutting in and Edna May Oliver cutting up and new-star Mary Healy and Lyle Talbot and Alan Dinehart all in it too, and Sonja skating her sensational tango for the first time on the screen—no, never mind your imagination, for that's the "what's-what" of "Second Fiddle," 20th Century-Fox production which opens Saturday at the York United Theatre.

Abounding with the entertainment surprises typical of Darryl F. Zanuck's musicals, "Second Fiddle" shows Sonja with her first screen skating partner and introduces a new ballroom dance craze, the "Back to Back." This step was evolved by Harry Losee, who staged Sonja's skating ensembles, from the tune hit by Irving Berlin. Other Berlin hits in the film are: "I'm Sorry for Myself," "An Old Fashioned Tune Always is New," "When Winter Comes," "Song of the Metronome" and "I Poured My Heart Into a Song."

VARIETY MARKS DANCING CARDS AT WOOD HALL

Walter Woodall Urges Associations to Make Early Bookings

Preparations are complete for the launching of the current dancing season at Wood Hall, 211 Gordon avenue, Saturday evening. The building has been renovated from top to bottom and dancers may look forward to an excellent floor which coupled with a first rate orchestra will contribute to the evening's enjoyment.

There will be a variety program of old time and modern dancing. These programs which have proved popular the last five seasons are welcomed by both young and old. Starting September 20, Al McGowan and his orchestra will play the latest dancing hits every Wednesday night.

Wood Hall, first introduced to the public 30 years ago, has enjoyed the reputation of being one of the finest dance halls on the Island of Montreal.

PLAY LONGEST SCENE Mickey Rooney and Charles Winninger are claiming the longest scene since the balcony episode in "Romeo and Juliet." They play it in "Babes in Arms" and it runs nearly four minutes.

The annual "Forget-Me-Not" campaign will open Sept. 30. Last year the Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children provided a holiday for 175 crippled children when it opened a summer camp at St. Alphonse de Joliette. It is hoped to increase the number to 300 this year.

WESTMOUNT CLUB IS NOT DOWNED BY HARDSHIP

PROMISES TO HAVE STRONG TEAM IN O.R.F.U.; TAKES OVER STORE FOR CLUBHOUSE

Fans Will Not be Disappointed Coach Clary Foran Assures — Squad Changed Plans to Disband When It Lost Use of Municipal Clubhouse — Has Been Practicing Steadily

The Westmount Club in the Ontario Rugby Football Union has finally got things in hand and has rented a vacant shop at 4471 St. Catherine street as its headquarters. The store is being converted into a dressing room and will be used as such throughout the season.

Despite the fact that the club faced major hardships at the outset of the season when it was evicted from the Westmount Athletic Grounds clubhouse when the building was taken over for military purposes, the players are none the less confident that the squad will be able to meet stiff opposition successfully. Coach Clary Foran, speaking for the team, stated that fans will not be disappointed in the quality of the squad this fall.

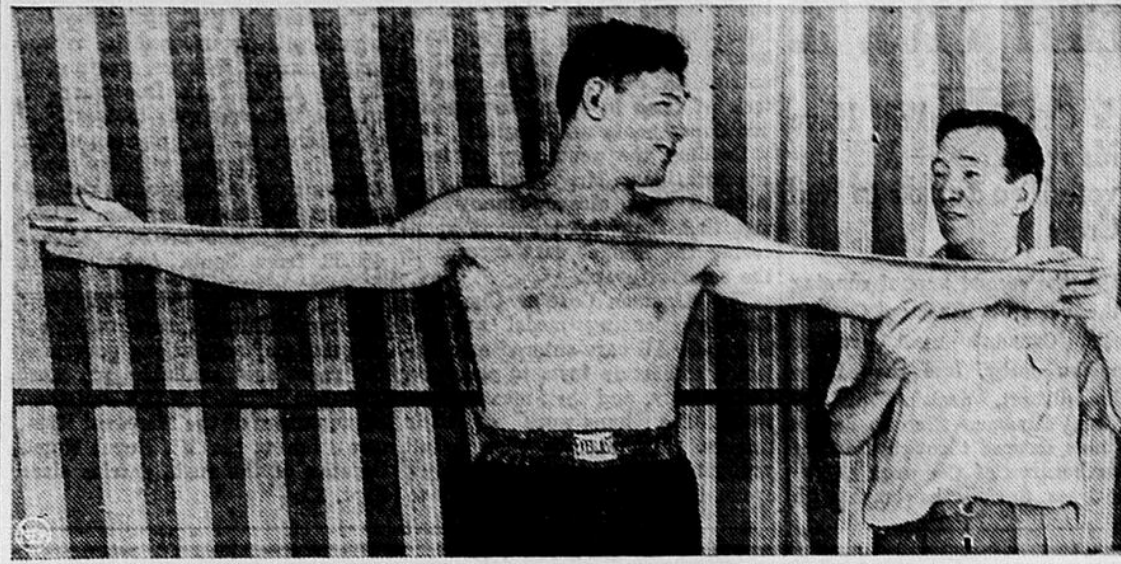

Last Friday the team changed its mind to disband and re-entered the league after dropping out when the army took over its playing field. More than 20 candidates for the squad answered the call to practice under Foran at the athletic field on Saturday.

Broken up over the Labor Day week-end, the majority of players who were originally out with the team, were on hand for Saturday's drill. Jim Tedlie, who started with Westmount juniors two seasons back and also known as one of the city's leading track and field men made his first appearance with the squad.

Brimming with enthusiasm and pep, the players went through the practice at top speed concentrating on running under downfield kicks. Ray Mullins and Johnny Ferraro handled the punting duties, while on the halfline were Ed. Burton, Britt Bowden, Buddy Atchison, Jim Tedlie and Cliff McChis.

R. Fred Porter expressed hopes for an exhibition game against the Royals for September 30. He stated that he would like to have arranged a home-and-home series as was originally planned, but his team wouldn't be in shape before the end of the month. Besides the above mentioned players at practice Friday were

Sports Club Is Formed By J. Pascal Hardware Store

Pascal's Sports Club, with a membership open to all scholars of Westmount and N.D.G. schools and offering many advantages to those who join, was inaugurated this week by the sports department of the J. Pascal Hardware Co., 4827 Sherbrooke street, near Victoria avenue.

One of the main features of the club will be a series of drawings for free tickets to various sports events. During the football season four tickets for "Big Four" league games will be awarded to lucky winners at drawings to take place on the morning of the day of the matches. The drawings will probably be held in the store, but if any other site is decided upon announcement will be made in this newspaper. The first tickets will be for the forthcoming game between McGill and Royals.

Numbers of membership cards will be kept in duplicate and from them will be drawn the weekly winners. Members whose card numbers are drawn must be present in order to win the free tickets. Free tickets for senior league hockey games at the Forum will be drawn for when the season gets under way.

Those desiring to join the club should register their name at the sporting goods department at Pascal's, when they will receive a free membership card and will be entitled to all membership privileges.

The club, which is being operated by Joe Richman, manager of the sporting goods department, will also offer members a number of advantages, one of the most important being a marked discount on all sporting goods purchases.

As organization of the club proceeds further plans will be formulated and there is a strong possibility that a hockey team will be formed carrying the Pascal banner. Joe Richman, a noted athlete, is sparing no effort to make the venture a success. An outside wings player for Cubs last year, he is keenly interested in practically all phases of sporting activity.

QUEEN MARY, CALVARY START SEMI FINAL SERIES IN THE INTER CHURCH LEAGUE PLAY

Rosemount Gets Bye Into Final Series — Teams Share Honors in Double Header — Calvary Win Opener 11-3, and Queen Mary Take Second Tilt 11-7 — Final Game Slated for Saturday

Having completed the schedule in the Inter Church Softball League, the teams of Queen Mary, Calvary, and Rosemount have qualified for play-off positions. Rosemount, by virtue of finishing first in the league standing, received a bye into the finals, meeting the winner of the Calvary-Queen Mary-best-of-three series, for the league championship.

Last Saturday at Westmount Park, Queen Mary and Calvary clashed in a doubleheader, with the teams sharing the honours for the afternoon. Behind the four hit pitching of "Mag" Flynn, Calvary took the opener to the tune of 11-3. Queen Mary, however, kept their play-off chances alive, by downing the Westmounters, 11-7 in the nightcap. Flynn had the situation well in hand in the opener and had the Queen Mary boys eating out of his hand throughout the game.

It was a different story in the second game, however, as the N.D.G. team touched Flynn for an even dozen blows, including four home runs.

"Andy" Simpson and Bob Milne shared the mound duties for Queen Mary, with both appearing

TAKE THIRD GAME MOUNT ROYAL SERIES

Fortiers Play Good Ball to Take Lead — Kroehlers Off Form — Play for Wyatt Trophy

Fortiers took their third game from Kroehlers Monday in the best of four series for the Mount Royal Senior Softball title. The score was 9-2.

Kroehlers were off their usual game, and had four errors chalked up against them. They managed to get but four hits off the winners. This was in contrast to last Wednesday's game when Kroehlers trounced Fortiers 19-4. The winners were in great form with the willow and smashed out many nice hits.

Friday Kroehlers had Fortiers 7-2 at the end of the fifth but in the first of the sixth Fortiers rallied and scored five runs on four hits and an error and a walk. Kroehlers tried to go ahead in the last of the sixth but their efforts were futile and the game ended in a seven all tie.

PLANNING FOR BIG SOAP BOX DERBY SEPT. 30

Kids Car Race Will Have Many Entries — Will Devote Proceeds to Red Cross

With the second annual running of the colorful Kinsmen Coaster Classic, Canada's most exciting soap box derby, less than three weeks distant, decision of the Montreal Kinsmen Club to devote all funds secured through the race to furtherance of the work of the Red Cross Society has met with enthusiastic approval. "Cooperation of the public, and especially of leading commercial houses, has been even more widespread than we dared expect," declared Sam Jamieson, president of the service club, this morning. "In fact, so much interest is being shown in the race, which will be held September 30, that we have been forced to limit the number of entries to about 150 because of lack of time in which to run off additional heats and finals."

Lauding the generosity of local organizations, Mr. Jamieson announced that already many had signified their intention of sponsoring the midget cars entered in the colorful event.

The Kinsmen Coaster Classic is Canada's leading model automobile race. All cars entered are subjected to certain tests to ascertain their safety, and they must be entirely the handiwork of their drivers. The race is open to all youngsters, but is strictly a boy's event. No car may cost over $10 to in both games. Milne was relieved by Simpson in the third inning of the opener, as Calvary made nine hits, coupled with four errors by their opponents, good for 11 runs. Simpson started the second game for Queen Mary and seemed well on his way to victory with an 8-1 lead going into the fourth inning. Unfortunately, Simpson was injured in a close play at the plate in the fourth and was forced to the sidelines, after limping the Calvary team to two "scratch" hits in the four innings he pitched. Bob Milne returned to the mound, after being routed in the first game, and checked the Calvary attack in the pinches for the remaining innings.

Fred Land, Queen Mary first baseman, was the "big gun" in the 12-hit attack on pitcher Flynn in the nightcap, banging out a triple and two singles in four trips to the plate. Austin McConnell hit the ball hard for the Westmount team all afternoon, including a home run in his attack on the Queen Mary hurlers. The teams will play the deciding game this Saturday, weather permitting. The winner then will meet Rosemount for the championship.
