Terrorists Release Aged Briton After Appeal Of Convicts

World News In Brief

SEYMOUR, Conn. — (AP) — Ed Sullivan, television master of ceremonies and New York columnist, and three other persons were injured here early today in a head-on automobile collision.

Sullivan suffered contusions of the chest and, with the others, was admitted to hospital in nearby Derby.

The accident occurred as Sullivan, his son-in-law and a private detective employed by Sullivan were driving to the Sullivan home in Southbury, Conn.

MONTREAL. — (AP) — Police are attempting to trace the origin of three explosions which rocked Montreal's northeast district early Saturday, opening several small crevasses in the streets and cracking plaster in some buildings.

Police stations in suburban Rosemount, Ville St. Michel and St. Leonard de Port Maurice were deluged with telephone calls from north-end residents, many reporting slight damage to their homes.

One resident said a crack in the pavement in front of his home extended into his cement basement and into the walls and roof of the building.

SANTA ANA, Calif. — (AP) — Eleven prisoners soaped their bodies and slithered four storeys to freedom through a ventilator shaft at the Orange county jail Sunday. Six of them were recaptured.

The eleven men stripped and soaped themselves to ease through an opening only 10 inches by 16 inches, officers said. They used a rope fashioned from strips of mattress covers to climb through the widening shaft from a first floor cell to the roof, and then to drop from the roof to the ground.

Sheriff Capt. C. L. Gathright said a small saw was used to cut through two bars at either end of the shaft.

BUESUM, Germany. — (AP) — All 28 passengers, eight of them children, were rescued from the North Sea today after an excursion boat sank following a collision with a trawler.

Harbor police here said three of the passengers were injured.

Two boats picked up the survivors immediately after the collision, which occurred off the north German coast.

The excursion boat, Hubertus, sank in a matter of seconds.

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — The navy is adapting its 16-inch battleship guns to fire nuclear shells, the Washington Post and Times Herald says.

Naval sources declined comment on the report.

The newspaper says the defence department "quite some time ago" approved navy plans to build such shells and that the Atomic Energy Commission is producing them.

The move, the paper says, would rescue the big warships from what it calls "a generally accepted obsolescence."

MINEHEAD, Eng. — (AP) — Sir Michael Palaret, 73, former British ambassador to Greece, died here in his sleep Saturday night. He retired in 1943 after 38 years in the diplomatic service.

Comber, Northern Ireland. — (AP) — John Miller Andrews, prime minister of Northern Ireland in 1940-43, died Sunday. He was 85.

Comberton, Eng. — (AP) — John M. Gibb, deputy chief accountant of Reuters, was killed Sunday in an auto collision. Norris was thrown through the open sunshine roof of his car by the impact of the crash. Gibb's two children John A. Norris, a Reuters correspondent who was travelling with him, escaped injury.

KYRENIA, Cyprus. — (AP) — "This is EOKA. Hold up your hands. We are not going to kill you."

"Well it doesn't much matter if you do, at my age," replied John A. Cremer, the man who came back after he was held as a hostage and threatened with death while a pawn in the grim nationalist struggle on this Mediterranean island.

The exchange on a dark road near here was the start of the kidnapping of the 78-year-old Briton last Wednesday night by EOKA armed men. It ended late Saturday night with his release.

From a hospital bed he told authorities how he was held hostage in a terrorist hideout for three days and three nights, bound, gagged and blindfolded.

Police Superintendent G. E. Riley, who talked with him, gave his account to reporters. Doctors said he was in rather "good condition" but was suffering from shock and abrasions on the wrists and thigh, and blisters on the chest.

Cremer, a retired government official whose 100-year-old mother lives in England, was seized near this resort where he lives alone.

Friday night EOKA, the underground fighting organization of Cypriots who are seeking union of this British colony with Greece announced in leaflets that he was being held hostage and would be executed unless three condemned Greek Cypriots were spared from their death sentences for terrorism. The Saturday noon deadline EOKA had set passed without news that the threat had been carried out, however.

Then the three condemned Cypriots issued an appeal from their cells for EOKA to release Cremer unconditionally and immediately. Just before midnight a Greek Cypriot of Kyrenia in his garden heard a man, whom he could not see, call out:

"Will you inform police that Cremer is at Elea road?"

Police went there, but Cremer, who had been dumped on the side of the road, still gagged and bound, had already been picked up by two men who took him home.

2,500 Join In Gendron Observance

QUEBEC. — (AP) — A wedding that took place 300 years ago on the nearby Island of Orleans was commemorated Sunday by some 2,500 descendants of the union.

The marriage between Nicolas Gendron and Marthe Hubert, who lived in the village of Ste-Famille, was marked by the unveiling of a monument in the cemetery of the parish church. Their original home is still standing, but it no longer belongs to the Gendron family.

Descendants of the Gendrons travelled here from various parts of the United States and Canada for the celebrations.

Sunday morning at the Basilica of Ste. Anne de Beaupre they attended Mass, celebrated by Rev. Germain Gendron, a member of the Montforts Order of Montreal.

Two marriages of descendants of the Gendron family were performed by Rev. Rodolphe Gendron and Rev. Julien Gendron. Special permission was obtained from Roman Catholic Church authorities for the Sunday weddings.

Another of the descendants, Mrs. Joseph Bertrand, of Ste. Famille, unveiled the monument in her home village. Flags of the United States and of Quebec province were draped around the monument for the occasion, while some of the descendants wore costumes of the type used by early settlers here. Rev. Julien Gendron blessed the monument.

Sunday evening, at Quebec's municipally-owned theatre, the Palestine Montcalm, the Gendrons saw a historical pageant depicting events in the lives of their ancestors.

Youth Will Defend Egypt

CAIRO. — (Reuters) — Senior government conferred today on the readiness of Egypt's youth to defend the country in case of hostilities over nationalization of the Suez Canal Zone.

The conference took place as President Gamal Abdel Nasser delayed his reply to whether Egypt will attend a 24-power conference in London Aug. 16 to discuss an international authority for the vital waterway.

Volunteers today began reporting to national guard camps through Egypt. More than 1,000,000 young men between the ages of 25 and 35 were reported to have volunteered their readiness to "carry arms."

The new recruits will be formed into "security battalions" or "nationalization battalions," as they are already being popularly called.

Apart from these volunteers, Egypt has already 50,000 national guardsmen fully trained and equipped.

Maj. Kamal El Din Hussein, minister of education, conferred at his office today with Maj. Gen. Abdul Fattah Fuad, officer commanding the national guard, and Mohamed Aly Hafez, director-general of sports and social training at the education ministry.

The meeting discussed means of "mobilizing" youths for the purpose of "armed resistance if the aggressive powers persisted in their unjust attitude towards the nationalization of the Suez Canal Company," a spokesman said.

McKeon To Ask Cut Of Sentences

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. — (AP) — Staff Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon today pinned his hopes on the United States Navy Secretariat to remove his dishonorable discharge for leading a marine death march, and restore him to the corps.

If not reduced by the Secretary, an appeal is still possible of his sentence of nine months at hard labor, reduction to private, a fine of $30 a month during imprisonment, and then a bad conduct discharge.

The 31-year-old career marine, whose wife is expecting their third child was jolted and tear-stricken when a court martial board of six marine officers and a navy doctor decided his sentence Saturday, a day after it had found him guilty of drinking on duty and negligent homicide. Negligent homicide was defined by the court as "absence of due care by one responsible for the safety of others."

McKeon ordered and led a night march April 8 into marshlands at the Parris Island marine training depot. He said he ordered the march for 74 members of Platoon 71, the first training platoon under his command, to teach the recruits discipline. Six were drowned.

The court martial board cleared him of charges of manslaughter, oppression of recruits, and drinking in the presence of a recruit. These charges could have sent him to prison for six years — double the maximum he faced after the verdict.

The automatic review by the Navy Secretary, and the appeal, if any, may take months. Until then, McKeon will not be imprisoned or stripped of rank.

He has been assigned since before the trial as an aide to the Roman Catholic chaplain on the base.

To Investigate Women's Death In St. John

SAINT JOHN, N.B. — (AP) — Police said today they are investigating the death of a 27-year-old woman whose body was found in her home shortly after 8 a.m. ADT. She was identified as Mrs. John P. Mahoney.

Police said Mrs. Mahoney's 33-year-old husband is being held for questioning. The woman's throat was reported cut.

US Steel Firms Resuming Normal Operations Today

PITTSBURGH. — (AP) — The basic steel industry, backbone of American industrial might, roared back today toward full production under an unprecedented three-year no-strike contract.

The five-week walkout of 650,000 members of the United Steelworkers was declared officially ended Sunday night when the last major company signed a contract.

Last to sign was Armco Steel Corp. Three other big firms signed the pact earlier in New York Sunday. They were Allegheny-Ludlum, Inland Steel and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co.

An estimated 25 per cent of the 650,000 strikers were back on the job today. By the end of the week all of them are expected to be on the payroll for the first time since July 1. But it will be 10 days to three weeks, depending on the companies, until full production is achieved. It's a long, costly process to get a steel mill producing after a long shutdown.

Along with the steel workers, men laid off in other industries because of the strike are returning to work. An estimated 103,000 persons were affected, with the railroad and mining industries hardest hit.

Early today thousands of coal miners returned to work in mines near Uniontown, Pa. These pits are owned by United States Steel Corp. Railroads, too, summoned hundreds of crews to return to work.

The industry lost an estimated 10,000,000 tons of production. And, though some steel supplies were plentiful when the walkout started, there are shortages in many items now.

The major steel companies are reported working out new price lists and boosts are expected to be announced soon. Estimates of the increases range from $8 to $12 a ton. Steel sold at about $130 a ton in the U.S. before the walkout.

Manufacturers of almost everything from hairpins to autos are expected to pass along at least part of the price rise to the consuming public.

The USW men, who lost an estimated $225,000,000 in wages, averaged $2.46 hourly under their old contract. The new contract gives them an hourly package increase variously estimated at from 45 to 55 cents over the three-year contract.

There is a direct wage boost immediately of 10 1/2 cents an hour with an additional 9.1 cents July 1, 1957, and July 1, 1958. The minimum wage now becomes $1.82 an hour.

The three-year pact which was agreed upon by the 12 major companies July 27 but the union and companies ran into long discussions over reducing the contract to exact language. It was the first three-year contract in the country's history.

In Ismailia, in the canal zone, it was announced that more than 100 British wives and children of civilian contractors now operating the former British army bases in the zone will leave Egypt within the next few days, and several hundred other Britons are preparing to move out of the area if the canal crisis deepens.

Despite the evacuation plans, however, the situation throughout the canal zone remained calm today, and shipping was passing through normally.

Cairo newspapers meanwhile it was reported from Damascus that Eastern Syrian oil workers have threatened to bar the flow of oil across Syria in the event of any action against Egypt by imperialistic powers.

This is the second threat by Syrian workers to strike at Britain's flow of oil. Previously, workers in Central Asia threatened to destroy oil installations if Britain "attacked" Egypt.

A Syrian government spokesman was quoted, however, as saying that no official consideration is being given to barring the flow of oil.

Lebanon's President Camille Chamoun warned the West meanwhile in a speech that any antagonistic move toward Egypt might lead to "the West losing forever the confidence and co-operation of Middle-East peoples."

Pro-Western Iraq, a partner of Britain in the Baghdad Pact, announced that she "stands beside Egypt in the dispute over the Suez issue."

Syria announced that Premier Sabri Assali will lead his country's delegation to an emergency Arab League meeting in Cairo Tuesday or Wednesday. A spokesman in Damascus said the meeting would decide on "inter-Arab measures in support of Egypt's nationalization of the Suez canal."

Akram Hourani, Syrian politician, said the League would declare an "Arab war against the West in the event of aggression on Egypt." He urged nationalization of the Western-developed oil of the Middle East should the West fight.

Jordan also announced that she will attend the Cairo talks. Yemen congratulated Egypt on her stand.

An Indonesian foreign ministry spokesman said in Jakarta today that his government had not yet decided whether to accept Britain's invitation to the London talks. A British embassy official in Jakarta said he had "no knowledge" of reports that Indonesia had decided to reject the bid following talks with Egyptian officials.

The men of the British paratroop brigade were in high spirits as they boarded the aircraft carrier Theseus Sunday night. Hastily scrawled signs on their vehicles read "Look out Nasser, here we come."

Egypt's announcement of a reserve call was the first reply in kind to Britain's threat to use military force over Egypt's seizure of the canal. However, an army spokesman in Cairo flatly denied that Egypt had begun general mobilization.

Aircraft Carriers Sent To Near East Reservists Called

LONDON. — (AP) — The 22,000-ton aircraft carrier Bulwark sailed for the Mediterranean today to bolster British forces in any showdown with Egypt over the nationalization of the Suez Canal.

Families and sweethearts waved and shouted farewells as the $29,000,000 carrier, completed there two years ago, left the giant naval base at Portsmouth.

The Bulwark's departure was another of the military measures being taken by Prime Minister Eden's government to counter Egyptian President Nasser's seizure of the canal.

Eden has already called up a limited number of reservists and halted the return of some soldiers from overseas bases.

Sunday a brigade of some 1,200 paratroopers sailed with full battle equipment for the Mediterranean.

Even as the British reinforcements set sail, Nasser's government announced it was putting a "limited number" of Egyptian reservists back in uniform.

The latest round in the Suez battle of nerves came as Britain waited for Nasser to answer her invitation to a 24-power conference here Aug. 16 to discuss placing the great waterway under international control.

Six countries now are reported to have accepted Britain's invitation — Australia, Portugal, Pakistan, Ceylon, Italy and Turkey.

Nasser was understood today to be having second thoughts about his reported initial intention to reject the invitation outright. He conferred for an hour Sunday with Soviet Ambassador E. D. Kisselov, whose government also has been invited.

Russia's attitude toward the conference is expected to have a strong bearing on Egypt's decision. The Russians have upheld Egypt's right to nationalize the Suez company, but have voiced hope for a negotiated settlement of the dispute.

Hiroshima Remembers First Bomb

HIROSHIMA, Japan. — (AP) — Twenty thousand persons bowed their heads in prayer.

For one minute there was silence in Peace Memorial Park. Then a whirl of wings as 500 doves arched across the sky.

Sirens wailed. Bells tolled.

It was 8:15 a.m., the exact hour when an American B-29 appeared over Hiroshima 11 years ago today and released the first atom bomb ever dropped on a city.

"The tragedies of Hiroshima shall not be repeated," Mayor Tadao Watanabe told the gathering.

"The tragedies of Hiroshima shall not be repeated," the crowd chorused in return.

Police say 78,150 died in the great fiery blast that ushered in the atomic age. The city says 240,000 to 260,000 died, more than 59,000 have been confirmed.

Today's Chuckle
Soon after her fifth child was born, the young mother received a play pen as a gift. "Thank you so much for the pen," she wrote. "It is a godsend. I sit in it every afternoon and read, and the children can't get near me."

Britain Disappointed At Iraqi Support Of Egypt

LONDON. — (Reuters) — British newspapers are expressing disappointment over the decision by Iraq—considered one of Britain's staunchest Middle Eastern friends to back Egypt in the Suez Canal dispute.

Iraq announced Sunday night that she will stand by Egypt "for ensuring her dignity, sovereignty and independence, and hopes the present dispute over the Suez Canal nationalization will be solved through wisdom."

The declaration, issued after a meeting of the Iraqi Council of Ministers, said Iraq had watched with increasing anxiety Israel's "exploiting of the dispute for its own interests" and it warned Arabs against letting their interest in the Suez dispute distract them from Israel's "hostile and ambitious plans."

Today the foreign office spokesman, commenting on the Iraqi statement, said: "We endorse the hope expressed... that wisdom may prevail to solve this dispute. We too support Egypt's aspirations in achieving its dignity and sovereign independence."

Officials here said they considered it normal that an Arab country should show sympathy with Egypt. They added that Britain is not concerned about the principle of nationalization, but about the threat to the international character of the waterway.

British newspapers, however, expressed disappointment over the Iraqi statement.

The Liberal newspaper News Chronicle says in an editorial that the Iraq decision could wreck the Baghdad Middle East defence pact to which both Iraq and Britain belong.

The Daily Telegraph, Conservative, says "there can be nothing but disappointment at the unequivocal attitude adopted by (Iraq premier) General Nuri el Said, more especially in the Baghdad Pact."

"He has probably found it expedient to risk the disruption of the pact for the sake of Arab unity over the Suez Canal."

Decision Made By Theftford Mines Congregation To Build New Church

THEFTFORD MINES — At a well attended, combined congregational and annual meeting of the Theftford Mines United Church what was probably the most momentous decision in the 30-odd years of the church's history was made, when it was unanimously decided to build a church.

Ever since spring committees, with E. W. Reid as chairman of the financial set-up and D. Scott heading the building plan group, have been working out the details of the proposed undertaking. As a result of their painstaking efforts, Mr. Reid and Mr. Scott were able to set before the congregation such conclusive and all-embracing reports on the project that there seems little doubt that Theftford Mines will have a United Church in the near future.

Mr. Scott, resident engineer with the Lake Asbestos Company and a man who has had much experience in building, showed pictures and drew attention to a complete set of plans he has for a church he helped to plan in Virginiatown, Ont. After his detailed description of the building, plus the fact that the United Church Board has already approved this particular set of plans, it was unanimously decided to build a similar type of church in Theftford Mines.

Following the decision to build, and the choice of a type of building, Mr. Reid proceeded to give the financial picture. In cash and in pledges (over a three-year period) he was able to report a credit of $28,000. With a reasonably definite assurance of United Church aid to the sum of $15,000, this brings a total of $43,000 which roughly is what is expected to be the initial cost of the church building.

Needless to say, at this figure the building will not be furnished.

Bury Summer Sunday School Course Completed

BURY — Miss G. Droscher, of the Canadian Sunday School Mission, has completed a most enjoyable and instructive course in Sunday School work, where the average attendance was 30.

The children who had attended seven classes and memorized verses were given prizes. The over all prize was won by Donald Parsons, for attendance, bringing others, memory verses and attention.

When asked if they wanted another class next year, the children were most enthusiastic. Miss Droscher thanked the Women's Association for having made the event possible and for her comfort while here.

On Japanese Democracy

Praise is due the Canadian textile industry for a recently-published report "The Textile Industry In Japan."

Compiled following a visit to Japan last year of three representatives of The Primary Textiles Institute of Canada the report is that the Japanese economy is based, and will continue to be based as far as can be seen into the future, on a steadily expanding export trade. And textiles will continue to be a major item in the list of Japanese exports.

These may be unpalatable facts for Canadian manufacturers of goods competing with Japanese goods in the Canadian domestic market. But they are facts which must be faced when considering the future of Canadian industries such as the textile industry.

The policies of the industry, and the Government of Canada, must be based on the assumption that most Canadian manufacturing industries will continue to face strong competition from very low-cost Japanese imports.

Soviet "Democracy"

It would be a good thing if all those wishful thinkers who are busy hailing the "democratization" of the Soviet Union under the regime of Messrs. Bulganin and Khrushchev could be reminded of a little incident reported recently in the government-controlled Russian press.

The incident involves four "academicians" who rashly suggested to the communist party central committee that it might be time to allow a legally-constituted opposition in the Soviet Union. The individuals who expressed this view have since been expelled from the communist party and deprived of their jobs.

Comrade Khrushchev's comment on the proposal is a masterpiece of clarity. "The existence of a second party," he is reported as saying in the Russian press, "would weaken the regime."

This And That...

Enlisted men and non-coms sometimes take a dim view of his brass. But Staff Sgt. Matthew McKeon is probably one non-com who will always have a soft spot in his heart for a couple of generals. Support of his actions by a general and lt-general seems destined to play an important role in the punishment to be given the leader of the now famous marine death march.

Some newspapers are deploring the marathon swims which sap the strength of the swimmers to the point of collapse. There is some merit in their protests, but to be consistent it seems to us that they should include track events, hockey, football and many other sports. In most sport, the sheer desire of an athlete who will force himself to the point of exhaustion is recorded to his credit. No athlete, including the marathon swimmer, is FORCED to do anything. To be urged and advised to stay in the water is one piece of advice that nobody is compelled to take.

The CCF of 1956 apparently doesn't think much of the CCF of 1933. In '33 it was "eradication of capitalism." In '56 it's "equality and freedom for every Canadian."

In Defense Of Gen. Burns

(Toronto Telegram)

Jordan is leading an Arab movement to oust Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns as chief of the Palestine truce supervisory organization. The general's term is due to end next month, and Jordan's intention seems to be to discredit decisions in the Israel-Jordan mixed armistice commission.

Since Secretary General Hammarskjold's April visit to the Middle East, Jordan has been accused of 101 violations of the cease-fire agreement. During this period six Israelis were killed and seven wounded. In emergency meetings the mixed armistice commission condemned Israel's neighbor to the east four times. Four unfavorable decisions out of 101 accusations do not seem to indicate bias on the part of the chief supervisor.

In an interview with General

Burns by The Telegram's correspondent just prior to the Hammarskjold visit to the Middle East, the truce chief was described "as well endowed by nature for his job. He has the reserve which looks before it leaps. Impartiality is his stock in trade." Burns has been criticized and praised by both sides in the dispute. In the very nature of a task that requires "steering a course between two immovable objects," to use his own phrase, he is bound to make decisions that will satisfy one or the other of the parties.

The general has made conscientious efforts to get at the facts. He has an apartment in UN headquarters south of Jerusalem, where he is on call night and day. An aircraft at his disposal speeds him to the various capitals in minutes. He has nothing to do with initiatives for making peace. His task is to try, when the parties are violating the agreement, to get them to stop. In this, on the testimony of Hammarskjold himself, his record has been admirable.

QUESTION PERIOD

(From Ottawa Letter in The Globe and Mail)
Question Period customarily is the liveliest time of the Commons' day. Then the Ministers stand relatively exposed to the best of the Opposition can throw at them — not infrequently what are thrown are curve balls — and attempts to knock back effective answers, or, at least, to avoid being struck out.

Questions are taken before the House begins the business scheduled for the day. Usually, as a courtesy, Ministers are warned of questions to be asked, but it isn't required and isn't always done. In any event, there can always be supplementaries — new questions arising out of answers given — of which there will be no warning.

A Minister can always reply to a question of which he has had no notice, or insufficient notice, that he will bring in an answer at a later date. But, unless the answer requires material which no one reasonably could be expected to have at his fingertips, he's a strikeout if he can't produce on the spot. Some Ministers bat about .080, which for the benefit of non-fans of baseball, is about what your Aunt Fanny would do against the New York Yankees.

MAN WITH A FUTURE

(Ottawa Journal)
Some British critics are discovering that George Bernard Shaw wasn't as great a writer as most people had thought. Many famous writers pass through a period of neglect after their death—Kipling was a conspicuous example—only to be re-discovered by a later generation and restored to fame. Probably that will be true of Shaw.

JACOBY On Bridge

EAGER BEAVER TIPS DECLARER

No matter how well you play bridge, you must guess in certain situations. You will be a good guesser if you know something about human nature or if your opponents are obliging enough to give themselves away.

In today's hand, South should have been forced to guess for his game contract. Instead, however, a naive opponent made things easy for declarer.

West opened the three of hearts, East put up the queen, and South won with the ace. This false card shouldn't have deceived anybody. A player who holds both the ace and king of a suit often wins the first trick with the ace in the hope of making each opponent believe that his partner must hold the king. This shouldn't work much of the time because a player whose only high card is the ace will usually refuse the first trick or two. If he fails to refuse the first trick, you should suspect that he has the king as well as the ace.

South could expect to win two hearts, two diamonds, and four clubs. He needed a spade trick for his game contract, and he would eventually have to guess whether to play the king or the jack of spades from the dummy.

Postponing the moment of decision, South ran his four clubs after winning the first trick. West eagerly discarded the eight of spades and then the deuce of spades, thus giving away the location of the ace of spades.

These discards might have meant nothing if made by a crafty player, but South correctly sized West up as an eager beaver rather than a fox. He led a spade from his hand and played the king from dummy, easily winning his ninth trick.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Club Pass 1 Heart Pass
1 Spade Pass ?
You, South, hold:
Spades 6 2, Hearts K-Q-J-6-3-2, Diamonds 9-5, Clubs 7-4-3.
What do you do?
A—Bid two hearts. You don't enjoy bidding twice with only six points in high cards, but the six-card heart suit should provide safety.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold:
Spades 6, Hearts Q-J-6-3-2, Diamonds A-K-9-7-3, Clubs 4-2.
What do you do?

PREDICTION

From the Calgary Herald
We predict that the Liberals, not content with merely debasing Parliament and the Speakership in the House, will use that very debasement to their own political ends when the general election comes.

Mr. Beaudoin, who cannot be else but a most unhappy man these days, will be a white-hot issue in Quebec. And it may be taken for granted that the rightness or the wrongness of his recent actions as Speaker will not be the issue. Nor will the issue be the proper functioning of Parliament. The issue will be that Mr. Beaudoin is a French-speaking Canadian. And who are his opponents who are scheming rogues once more determined to grind Quebec and one of its distinguished citizens into the dust? The cruel French-hating Tories, of course, and those Communist CCFers, also of course.

Whatever else the Liberals may be, nobody can argue that they are not cunning, supremely-skilled politicians. And they have not been slow to see that a propped-up French-speaking Canadian Speaker is more useful to them politically than a Speaker who has been allowed to resign in dignity.

We are, frankly astounded that Mr. St. Laurent connived at this sort of thing. We thought better of him than that.

MAN WITH A GENIUS FOR FAILURE.

(Ottawa Journal)

Harold Stassen, stapped down in his attempt to have Massachusetts Governor Herter displace Richard Nixon as Republican vice-presidential candidate, seems to be one of those politicians with a genius for failure, always outliving his future.

The sort of bungling which explains why some men, gifted with great talents and with seemingly everything in their favor, lack that measure of sense of proportion which, revealed at some psychological moment, dooms them to failure.

Archbishop Will Delay Intergration

NEW ORLEANS, La.—(P)—Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel has cited "certain difficulties" as the cause of delaying the end of racial segregation in Roman Catholic schools in the New Orleans archdiocese, at last for another year.

The Archbishop, who earlier this year condemned segregation as "normally wrong and sinful," said in a pastoral letter issued Sunday that integration will be postponed at least until September, 1957.

The letter was read at all masses in all churches in predominantly Catholic southeast Louisiana.

The "certain difficulties" were not amplified. The pastoral letter said merely "we are not now prepared to introduce integration generally."

The "generally" revealed for the first time publicly that some integration has been accomplished in the schools of the archdiocese which embraces some 60,000 white and 12,000 Negro students.

Msgr. Henry C. Bezou, superintendent of archdiocesan schools, later said a few schools have been integrated in recent years. He did not disclose the schools affected, or the number of students involved, saying "it was accomplished without fanfare of publicity."

The letter from the archbishop said the introduction of general integration will be moderate and gradual.

CLAPHAM—Mr. R. McKinnon, of Dundas, Ont., was a guest of Mrs. Johnson. Mr. McKinnon came to interview to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. D. Appleton.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Christie were Mrs. W. A. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. R. Cooling and family, Mrs. G. McCammon and Mr. Arthur Johnson of Thetford Mines.

Mr. B. Bennett visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bennett before going to La Tuque.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamontagne and family spent the week-end in Toronto.

Miss D. Walker, Miss L. Walker, Mr. E. Walker and Mr. R. Jamieson motored to Quebec City and spent the day there.

What should I do about BANK ACCOUNTS FOR MY CHILDREN?

If you have a small child it's a nice thing to start a savings account and add to it regularly. Even very small amounts, deposited regularly over a long period, add up surprisingly! Older children can learn to do their own banking. Bank accounts can be in children's names, and you can specify whether or not their signatures are enough or whether yours is needed too. The sensible handling of money cannot be taught too early in life . . . and any Toronto-Dominion branch will welcome an account for your children.

Mrs. Canning still lives on the homestead at Lower Ireland, to which she came as a bride some 61 years ago.

Has Lived On Homestead 61 Years

Irish descent and immigrated to Providence, Rhode Island, with her parents when she was a child, met her husband in Pawtucket, where he had a fruit and vegetable business. When they were married, Mr. Canning sold his gardening interests and came back to take up a homestead in the area where his own parents had pioneered years before.

It was raw land and he and his wife cleared it, raised their sons and eventually built a commodious 11-room farmhouse, which after 45 years of living and memories was unfortunately destroyed by fire about 10 years ago. Since then Mrs. Canning has lived with her son, Joe, and family in a new house near the original

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

NEVER accept an invitation half-heartedly. If you are going to accept, do so with some enthusiasm. The person who accepts an invitation with, "Why, yes, I GUESS I can make it," makes his hostess wish she hadn't invited him. And she probably won't again.

Fashion

How's the powder puff in your compact? Clean? If it isn't, now's the time to discard it. Good idea is to keep replacements always on hand so that your face is NEVER touched by anything but a clean puff.

Best travel rule is the one which says: travel light. But this doesn't mean that you should not allow for emergencies. Wherever possible, have an alternate (sweater, blouse, slip, skirt) in case of loss, theft or damage.

Sleeveless dresses call for pretty upper arms. If yours aren't, exercise will get them into shape. Meanwhile, choose dresses with sleeves.

The handbag that "goes with everything" simply does not exist. Multicolor doesn't mean coordination.

New way of giving motion to the sheath this fall is via the panel. So you'll see both side and back panels in both skirts and dresses.

For the first time in some seasons, blouses take on a totally new air through low blousing and drawstrings. This is a flattering fashion.

Every now and then, your closets (and the clothes in them) need an airing. Most efficient way to do this is to open the closet door, place an electric fan in the open door and let it blow out the stale air.

BLUEBERRY PUDDING

Make a delicious blueberry pudding using either canned or fresh blueberries. Put 1 cup uncooked white rice, 2 cups water and 1 teaspoon salt into a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover with a lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove saucepan from heat but leave lid on 10 minutes. Stir in 1/2 cup beet or cane sugar, 1/4 teaspoon allspice, 2 teaspoons vanilla, 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine, 3/4 cup milk and 2 cups fresh or canned blueberries. Pour into a greased baking dish. Bake in a 350° F. oven until firm.

Selfish, Indifferent Mates Create Demanding Wives

By RUTH MILLETT

We hear a lot these days about dissatisfied wives whose husbands work themselves into an early grave trying to give their wives more and more of the things money can buy.

Always it's the women who get the blame for this sad state of affairs.

But are they? Why are there so many dissatisfied wives killing off these husbands in an endless struggle to keep up with the neighbors and get ahead of their friends?

Could it be that wives are dissatisfied because their husbands are giving them so little of what it takes to make a woman feel happy, needed, loved, and protected?

How many husbands today bother to listen to a woman's small talk about her day and its problems?

How many husbands express their appreciation for a well-run home, a wife who is doing her best to bring up their children right, attempting to play a part in community affairs and be companionable to her husband?

Don't a great many husbands take all this for granted and even talk big about how little women have to do these days?

How many husbands today have a protective manner toward their wives or ever give their wives a chance to lean on their strength?

How many husbands bother to make their wives feel secure in their love?

How many are there among today's husbands who aren't ashamed to let their wives and the world know how important

Seafood Dishes At Your Finger Tips

A tasty seafood meal lies only as far away as your cupboard shelf — that is, if you've remembered to buy a can of shrimp, lobster or crab meat. Many are the seafood recipes that bring real gourmet flavour to your table and take only a few minutes to fix when you have one of these on hand.

A seafood charmer you'll want to try is this one combining canned shrimp with cheese and tomato soup. An artful touch of dairy sour cream makes Shrimp Rarebit a dish worthy of anyone's repertoire, the sort of thing family and friends like to see in a repeat performance.

SHRIMP RAREBIT: Heat 1 can condensed tomato soup. Stir in 1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese and 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, cooking over low heat until cheese is melted. Add 2 cans (4-6 oz. each) drained shrimp and heat. Just before serving stir in 1 cup dairy sour cream. Serve immediately over toast points. Six servings.

Mock Wedding At Massawippi Bridal Shower

MASSAWIPPI — The community hall was the scene of a pre-nuptial shower for Miss Doris Sarrasin, whose marriage took place on Saturday.

Upon her arrival, the guest of honor was greeted by some 40 friends and relatives and was escorted to a decorated chair to the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

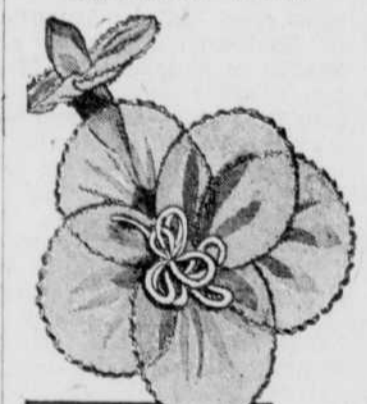

A mock-wedding was staged causing considerable merriment. The characters were, bride, Mrs. Wallis; groom, Mrs. W. Raymond; minister, Mrs. G. Shipway; best man, Mrs. W. Pierce; bridesmaid, Mrs. W. Pawley; flower girl, Mrs. W. Morrison.

On behalf of the community, Mrs. G. Shipway presented Miss Sarrasin with a pair of woollen blankets, for which she thanked everyone most graciously. Mrs. Myrtle Aulis gave a humorous reading, adding enjoyment to the evening.

The guests were served refreshments from a table centered with a bride's cake made by Mrs. W. Pawley and decorated by Mrs. R. Cloutier. Roses from Mrs. Robinson's garden and white tapers in silver holders completed the table arrangements. Mrs. G. Sarrasin, mother of the bride assisted by Mrs. M. Aulis, poured tea and Mrs. H. C. Denton poured coffee.

Before departing for their respective homes, each extended their best wishes to the bride-to-be in her new home.

Boston Could Make Pennant Race Of American League; Dodgers, Braves Win Weekend Doubleheaders; Yanks Lose

The New York Yankee nose dive has reached the stage where the Boston Red Sox can turn the American League "walk-over" into a pennant race in a series opening tonight at Fenway Park.

Despite six straight defeats in Cleveland and Detroit, the Yanks lead still measured seven games over Cleveland but Boston has closed ground with leaps and bounds over the weekend. Only 1 1/2 back of the Indians and 8 1/2 behind the Yanks, the Red Sox are riding a modest five-game winning streak.

Cleveland "blew" its chance to tighten the race after taking three of four from New York. Three straight defeats by Boston cost the Tribe an opportunity to get the Yanks within striking distance.

The Milwaukee-Brooklyn struggle in the National continues with the Braves and Dodgers each winning doubleheaders Sunday. The Braves remain two full games in front of the Brooks with each team gaining a game on Cincinnati, idled by rain at Philadelphia.

Despite Mickey Mantle's 37th home run, the Yanks bowed to Detroit 8-5 in a game that was delayed 87 minutes by rain with just one out to go in the ninth inning.

Ted Williams' 12th homer off Bob Lemon gave Boston its 2-1 edge over Cleveland after Jackie Jensen's homer tied the score. The game was cut short by a torrential rain storm in the eighth that forced postponement of the second game.

Baltimore lugged Chicago twice, 5-4 in 10 innings on a neat relief job by Billy Loes and 7-2 behind Ray Moore on the strength of a five-run rally in the seventh. Roy Sievers, Clint Courtney and Pete Runnels did the heavy hitting in Washington's 10-4 romp over Kansas City for a series sweep.

Ed Mathews ran his consecutive hitting streak to 22 games.

Dutch Harrison Wins All-American; Stewart 2nd; Leonard Ties For Fifth

CHICAGO (AP) — E.J. "Dutch" Harrison, who won his first pro tourney almost 20 years ago, today aimed at golf's richest plum and a rejuvenated putting game and the $3,420 All-American top swag stuffed in his pocket.

As the oldest champion ever to win Tam O'Shante's All-American meet—a trick he turned Sunday with a 10-under-par total of 278—the 46-year-old Harrison may be geared to make a successful stab at the whopping $50,000 first money in Tam's "world" meeting starting Thursday.

"You're never too old to learn," said Dutch, whose opening initials "E.J." stand for Ernie Jo. "I knew my putting needed to be sharpened after a 72 and a 71. So George Lowe, an old pro from Sarasota spent two hours with me on the practice greens and gave me an aluminum mallet putter.

Brown Beats Fontana Who Lost In Doubles With Sherbrooke's Bedard

VANCOUVER — Only one of the 11 divisions at stake remained completely in Canadian hands when the 57th annual Canadian lawn tennis championships wound up here during the week end.

American players took eight of the divisions and split the other two. Most of the winners came from Southern California.

Susan Butt of Victoria, a tall 17-year-old, won the Western Canada junior ladies singles title, the only one to remain exclusive in this country. Miss Butt defeated top-seeded junior Pattie Miller of Portland, Ore., 6-4, 8-6.

The next closest Canadian win was in the mixed doubles. Paul Willey of Vancouver, a member of this year's Davis Cup team, joined Jean Laird of Modesto, Calif., to defeat Henri Rochon of Montreal and Lois-Reid of Vancouver 6-3, 2-6, 6-1.

The United States sweep was capped Saturday, last day of the week-long tournament, with vic-

This race was marred by an accident involving three horses, Brady Signal, Janie B., and Connelly, which played a big role in the final outcome.

The feature race of the weekend program a handicap pace, two heats, for a $500 purse was held Sunday evening during the third and seventh races. The first heat was won by Clever Golo in 2:12 and Lucky G., captured the second heat with an identical mark.

Bears Down Wings In PONY League

Coach George MacFarlane's Bears came through with a 9-4 win over the Wings in Series (B) playoffs in the P.O.N.Y. league on Saturday afternoon at Sangster Park. Second game of the series will be played Tuesday evening on the High School diamond in Lennoxville. The winner of this series will meet the Royals in the finals.

Bears had a two run lead going into the fifth inning and then in their part of the fifth they added three more runs to take a 6 run lead. Wings got four of these back in their half of the same inning to make the score read 6-4 in the Bear's favour. Four more runs by George MacFarlane's boys in the sixth clinched the game for the Bears as the Wings went scoreless in the final two innings.

Young Nugent the Bears hurler had 14 strike-outs in his victory while his opponent Lefebvre had 8 strike-outs to his credit. Nugent was the big star for the Bears. Gagne stood out for the losers.

14 SAVE STROKES

By GENE LITTLER
 There is only one way to look at a long putt—a 30 or 40-foot job.

That is to get the ball within a three-foot circle around the cup. On too many occasions, you will find a golfer going directly for the hole.

This is the longest priced shot in the book. More often than not it guarantees a three-putt green. Aiming for a three-foot circle gives you three good ways to hole a putt. The ball can die in front of the hole or on either side and you still can get down in 2. A bold shot for the hole leaves you off to the back too often. A bad roll leaves you out of action.

Don't use the same flowing stroke associated with a driver or iron when you putt. Use what we call a "tap shot." This is a putting style accomplished with the wrists.

Hit the ball as if you were tapping a nail with a hammer. Use a short backswing. It goes a trifle longer on a long putt, of course, but it still is the same method. I use a more flowing motion. So does Cary Middlecoff, for example.

But for the duffer, it is best to use the wrists—and aim for that imaginary circle. (NEA)

German Net Title To Hoad

HAMBURG, Germany — (P) — Lew Hoad of Australia beat unseeded Orlando Sirola of Italy, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, 8-6 Sunday to win the German international tennis championship.

Thelma Long of Australia captured the ladies title with a 7-5, 6-2 victory over Italy's Silvana Lazzarino.

Hoad and Don Candy won the men's doubles title to make the championships a virtually clean sweep for Australia. They eliminated Luis Ayala of Chile and Sven Davidson of Sweden 6-4, 7-5, 6-2.

Crosby To Hold Pirates, Tiger Stock Till Spring

HAYDEN LAKE, Idaho (P) — Bing Crosby says he probably will continue to hold both his Pittsburgh Pirate baseball stock and his newly acquired Detroit Tiger shares until next spring.

Commenting on reports that baseball commissioner Ford Frick would require him to dispose of stock in one of the clubs "within a reasonable time," Crosby said Wednesday night: "A decision by Mr. Frick, I understand, is forthcoming, but I understand that decision won't be made until next spring."

Crosby spoke from his summer home here where he is beginning a month-long vacation.

Earlier, Crosby's brother, Larry, said in the event the crooner was forced to sell shares in one of the clubs he would keep the Pirate stock.

Seixas, Richardson Assure Victory By Whipping Mexicans In Davis Cup

RYE, N. Y. — (P) — Uncle Sam is about ready to shelve his "youth movement" in tennis and turn over full Davis Cup chores to a pair of experienced hands. Viv Seixas and Ham Richardson, winner over Mexico 4-1 in the American zone final, captain Billy Talbert's coppers now await the inter-zone test with Italy's European champions at Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 28-30.

"We'll pick our team on the basis of performances in the coming grass court tournaments Orange, Newport, Brookline and the Nationals," said Talbert today, "but right now you have the upper hand."

The 32-year-old Seixas, making his sixth Davis Cup campaign, and the 22-year-old Richardson, in the midst of his fifth, turned in singles victories which clinched the decision over Mexico at the Westchester Country Club over the week-end.

Richardson won two matches, as he did against Canada at Victoria, beating Mario Llamas.

Suspend Santiago For Refusal To Play At Columbus

KANSAS CITY — (P) — Kansas City Athletics has suspended pitcher Jose Santiago indefinitely and without pay for refusing to report to Columbus of the International League.

He was optioned Saturday to the Columbus Club.

Business manager Parke Carroll of the Athletics said Santiago told him he couldn't play with the Columbus team. It was not learned immediately what his objections were.

Santiago appeared in nine games with the A's, pitched 21½ innings and had a 1.2 record. His earned-run average is 8.18.

Mexico's No. 1 player, Sunday in the decisive match of the zone finals 6-3, 6-3, 6-1. Sam Giammalva of Houston won the fourth point, beating Estaban Reyes, 19-year-old Mexican, in a match of reserves 6-4, 6-1, 6-3.

Richardson beat Francisco Contreras in straight sets on Friday when Seixas also scored over Llamas to send the Yanks off to a 2-0 lead. American complacency showed Saturday when Llamas and Contreras teamed to win a five-set doubles marathon from the Yankee "kids," Sam Giammalva 22, and Bary MacKay 20.

The Italians will be much tougher than the Mexicans. They likely will play a two-man team, Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola, a couple of Latins who have proved they can beat the best on occasions.

In doubles they are particularly tough. At Wimbledon this year they whipped Seixas and Richardson.

Kucs Falls Short In Record Try

MOSCOW — (P) — Vladimir Kucs fell far short of his announced goal, a world record for the 10,000-metre run, as Russia's largest sports show in history opened Sunday before 103,000 at Lenin Stadium.

With Communist party bosses Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev and other high-ranking Soviet officials looking on, Kucs won the event in 18 minutes, 57.8 seconds, well below the world mark of 28:42.8 set by Hungary's Sandhor Iharos.

Kucs, the leading Olympic favorite until Iharos set his record earlier this summer, was crestfallen after the race and told reporters: "At this point, I'm not good enough for Melbourne."

American Soldier Breaks 100-Meter Dash Record Twice At Berlin Meet

BERLIN — (P) — Pte. Willie Williams, 24-year-old soldier from Gary, Ind., Sunday shattered the official world record for the 100-metre dash for the second time within 72 hours with a brilliant sprint of 10.1 seconds on a rain-soaked track.

Williams nosed out his buddy, Pte. Ira J. Murchison of Chicago, a member of the U.S. Olympic team who equalled the 20-year-old official mark of 10.2.

Williams and Murchison, before the race, had expressed hope that they would win in a photo finish in 10 seconds flat.

Williams first ran the 100 metres in the record smashing time of 10.1 on Friday in the preliminary trial heat of an international military meet in Berlin's Olympic Stadium. Murchison followed up Saturday with a similar 10.1 performance and the two men squared off Sunday for a showdown final.

Williams ran with a back wind of 0.55 metres a second. For record purposes, a back wind of up to two metres a second is allowable.

German track officials, accredited by the International Amateur Athletic Federation held five watches on Williams as he broke the tape. All registered 10.1.

All three 10-1 marks are subject to review and approval by the international federation, but officials anticipated no difficulty in obtaining the confirmation.

The official record of 10.2 was first set by Jesse Owens at Chicago in 1936.

Murchison himself equalled this record in June at the Olympic tryouts. Williams failed at the same tryouts to win a place on the team when he was forced to drop out during a trial heat at 60 yards with a bad leg cramp.

"I feel fine," Williams, a former track star at Illinois, panted to reporters after the race. "This track is still the best I have ever run on."

A heavy rain drenched the crushed red brick track surface of the massive stadium just an hour before the race. But the track's good drainage put it back in good enough shape to allow Williams to pull his second record breaking performance.

La Tuque Crew Takes 100-Mile Race From U.S.

SHAWINIGAN FALLS, Que. — (P) — A veteran team from La Tuque, Que., overtook the defending-champion Americans Sunday to win the 100-mile international St. Maurice River canoe race for the fourth time in five years.

Henri Goyette and Ovide Denomme stroked past Tom Estes and Irwin Peterson of Minneapolis to complete the long grind over portage and rapids in 11 hours, four minutes and 47 seconds. The Americans, who led after Saturday's first 50 miles, were one minute and 14 seconds slower.
