ma...ny dear friends of my childhood, Have slumber'd for years in their graves! Oh, the bloom of the flow'rs I remember, And the smiles I shall nev er more see; For the cold chilly mists of De_cember Stole my flow'rs and companions from me.

Other romances may bloom on the morrow, And many a friend have I won, Yet my heart it can part but with sorrow, When I think of the ones that have gone; 'Tis no wonder that I broken hearted, And stricken with sorrow should be! We have met, we have lov'd, we have parted, My flow'rs, my companions, and me!

Oh! how dark looks this world and how dreary,
 When we part from the ones that we love;
 But there's rest for the faint and the weary,
 And friends meet with lost ones above!
 And in Heaven I can but remember,
 When from Earth my proud soul shall be free,
 That no cold chilly winds of December,
 Can part my companions from me!
