AMENDMENTS TO HOME RULE BILL

Spirited Retort By Sir Hamar Greenwood To Joseph Devlin.

London, Oct. 28.—(By Canadian Associated Press).—The House of Commons today considered in committee the Government's financial amendments to the Home Rule bill. The House of Lords passed the emergency powers bill through all its stages.

The incident of last night's debate in the House of Commons was the spirited retort by Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, to Joseph Devlin, Nationalist, M.P., who had spoken of the Irish administration as that of a Canadian Chief Secretary. Sir Hamar said that the record of the Canadian history was one to be proud of and no part of the Empire was more favorable to the Home Rule. He regretted and hoped every newspaper in Canada would repeat his statement, that the first Canadian in the position of Chief Secretary for Ireland should be attacked because he was a Canadian.

FLAYS MAN FROM LUNENBURG, N.S.

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne Addresses Toronto Branch Of Navy League.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 28.—Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, addressed the Toronto Branch of the Navy League today at a luncheon held in connection with the League's campaign to raise $75,000. The Minister said he would not touch on political issues but he would make an exception in the matter of "a man from Lunenburg" (William Duff), who seemed to take a rare delight in making insinuations.

Hon. Ballantyne said that Mr. Duff "wanted us to close up the docks at Halifax and Esquimaux, and close the naval college. He desired small debt of $2,000,000,000 to the Mother Country and ask them, with the enormous burden of debt that they bear, and after all the British navy did during the war, to shoulder the burden of Canada's defense."

The Minister said that when Mr. Duff was asked who should undertake the burden of the defense of Canada his reply was that Canada should take shelter under the Monroe Doctrine.

"Shame," said several members of the Navy League.

"I knew that would not appeal to Canadians," the Minister said.

He claimed that the Government had been justified in its reorganization of the Canadian navy and had done the right thing in accepting ships from the Mother Country. He declared that it was "a pity that the 'live, large national problem of the Canadian navy should ever have become entangled with Canadian politics."

The cruiser Aurora and the two destroyers, Patriot and Patria, which the British Admiralty had given Canada, would leave England within a month for Halifax. Hon. Mr. Ballantyne said: from Halifax would go the West Indies and then to the Pacific Coast, after which they would alternate between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts.

"The Canadian Navy is not costing the people of Canada one cent more than it would have cost them before the war," said Hon. Mr. Ballantyne, "except for the increased cost of all materials and wages."

He stated that "when the Imperial Conference takes place in 1921 or 1922, should it be decided that Canada is to have a navy of her own, we will have a splendid nucleus upon which to build."

DEPORTING LEPER TO THE AZORES

Much Difficulty Encountered By Immigration Officials In Securing Transportation.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 28.—A man afflicted with leprosy was taken tonight in an ambulance furnished by the Red Cross, to New York, where he will be deported on a ship sailing to-morrow night for his native home in the Azores Islands. The immigration officials encountered much difficulty in securing transportation for the leper, who has been in an isolation ward at the City Hospital and finally appealed to the Red Cross. Upon delivering the patient at New York the ambulance will be driven into a large gas chamber and disinfected, making it perfectly safe, officials say, for further use.

The leprosy victim, who had lived in the United States for about four years, agreed to return to his home land instead of going to Penikese Island, the leper colony in Buzzards Bay.

The expense of his deportation will be borne by the Government and the State will furnish transportation for his wife and child to accompany him.

STRUGGLE OVER COFFIN OF LATE MAYOR OF CORK

Relatives Objected To Body Being Taken On Special Steamer.

Holy Head, Wales, Oct. 29.—Sisters and brothers of the late Lord-Mayor Terence MacSwiney of Cork were forcibly expelled with their mourners from the railway carriage by police here late last night as a result of a fight over the coffin of the dead hunger striker. Members of the family objected to the coffin being placed on board a special boat which would go direct from this port to Cork, and a violent scene ensued. The fight lasted for five minutes. The coffin was placed on board the boat at last, and the steamer left for Cork at 1:07 o'clock this morning.

London, Oct. 29.—Relatives of the late Lord-Mayor MacSwiney were officially notified on board their train before it reached Holy Head that the body of the dead Lord-Mayor would not be taken to Dublin, but that a special steamer to Cork had been placed at their disposal. They refused to accept the arrangement and did not accompany the body as it left Holy Head, says a dispatch received here. Instead, they are declared to have crossed to Dublin in an ordinary mail boat.

The Government had refused to permit the body of the late Lord-Mayor MacSwiney, of Cork, to be landed in Dublin and provided a special steamer to convey the remains to Cork.

The reason assigned by the Government for not permitting the body to be landed anywhere except in the Lord-Mayor's native city was the "risk of political demonstrations which might result in the loss of innocent lives."

Widow Collapsed

A bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League today says: "The strain and anxiety on her husband's martyrdom has told very considerably on the Lady-Mayores, especially during the last few days. The ordeal of the inquest and subsequent anxiety due to the preliminary refusal of the Home Office to hand over the body led to her collapse and confined her to bed, making it impossible for her to attend today's ceremony, or accompany the body to Ireland."

"Probably her indisposition will last some time, but it is hoped that no more serious complications will follow."

Arrangements Made

Dublin, Oct. 28.—For a time tonight there were fears that the detailed arrangements for the funeral ceremonies here to-morrow in honor of Lord-Mayor MacSwiney of Cork would be entirely upset by an official notification to the effect that a special steamer would be available at Holy Head to convey the body of MacSwiney direct to Queenstown.

The Sinn Fein chiefs, however, held a meeting to consider the situation and decided to proceed with the arrangements in part. These will include the mass at the Pro-Cathedral and the running of a special train to Cork.

Martin Will Preside.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 28.—It is probable that Mayor Mederic Martin will preside at the mass meeting tomorrow night at the Mount Royal Arena in connection with the death of Lord-Mayor MacSwiney of Cork.

Speakers at the meeting will be Lindsey Crawford, Lucien Cannon, M.P. for Dorchester, and possibly others.

Chicago Stirred.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 28.—Resolutions urging that sympathizers with Ireland range themselves "effectively" behind the suffering millions of men who are struggling for relief from the intolerable tyranny of Great Britain," were adopted at a meeting held tonight under the auspices of the Irish Fellowship Club in honor of the memory of the late Terence MacSwiney. It was announced that memorial services would be held to-morrow with Archbishop G. H. Mundelein preaching the sermon.

Worcester Friends.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 28.—Worcester Friends of Irish Freedom today arranged for a memorial service for Lord-Mayor MacSwiney on Pitten Field at Holy Cross College, Sunday afternoon. It is planned to have a monster parade from City Hall to the field, in command of Colonel Thomas F. Foley, and at the field a memorial service will be held with an eulogy on the dead Mayor.

New Demonstrations.

Barcelona, Oct. 28.—A large body of Catalanist and Basque students again attempted today to demonstrate before the British Consulate, where they cheered for Ireland and free Catalonia and shouted "Down with England." A delegation of students demanded an interview with the Consul which was refused. All the Consulate windows were broken before the crowd could be dispersed by the civil guard.

The British Consulate has made official protest over the incident. Catalan clubs and institutions have hoisted the Catalan flag at half-mast on account of the death of Lord-Mayor MacSwiney of Cork and printed a request for all women to wear mourning. Mass for the dead Mayor was celebrated in the provincial church today.

COAL STRIKE TO TERMINATE SOON

Prospect Of Final Settlement By The End Of Next Week.

London, Oct. 28.—The prospect tonight is that the coal strike will terminate by the end of next week through the miners' acceptance of the agreement arranged with the Government under which the miners will get two shillings advance conditionally until the end of the year and in the future their wages will be settled by the creation of a national wage board.

In the event of any delay in starting the wage board, wages will in the interval be settled on the basis of increase or decrease, according to surplus profits or otherwise from coal exports. This depends upon such complex calculations as to whether it is more profitable for any miner to understand; therefore, in the ballot to be taken next Tuesday, and made returnable Wednesday, the miners must necessarily be guarded by the recommendation of their leaders. The leaders favor a settlement on these terms. The agreement is skillfully arranged, so that all concerned, including the coal owners, will be interested in increasing the output as in case of a decreased output the owners will be penalized by a reduction in their ten per cent. share of the surplus profits.

WANTS OVERSEAS TRADE BUREAUX

J. H. Wilkie Says Trade And Commerce Dept. Must Be "Live."

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 28.—(By Canadian Press).—The organization in Canada of an efficient and business-like bureau of overseas trade is urged by J. H. Wilkie, who has recently resigned his position with the Government as a member of the Canadian Trade Commission, and who is leaving the Government on October 31. Speaking to the Canadian Press, Mr. Wilkie declared that in order for Canada to hold the foreign trade she had obtained during the war it will be necessary to have the Trade and Commerce Department made a living organization. During the war, Mr. Wilkie stated, Canadian products sold themselves, but now Canada must face competition from other nations. The amount allowed by the Government for the expansion of the commercial intelligence branch of the Department of Trade and Commerce has not allowed the branch to keep pace with the expansion of our export trade, Mr. Wilkie claimed.

During his work with the Government, Mr. Wilkie stated that he had discussed the situation with many exporters and importers and he found that businessmen desired a bureau of overseas trade, at the head of which there should be a man of outstanding ability, not necessarily a politician, under the necessity of resigning with every change of Government. The function of this bureau would be to promote the extension of Canadian commerce in every direction and to work in conjunction with the different departments.

The Government, Mr. Wilkie urges, should be prepared to pay its trade commissioners a salary sufficient to induce men with the necessary experience and qualifications to enter the work.

MONTREAL WILL DINE PREMIER

Liberal Members Of District To Hold Banquet For Hon. L. A. Taschereau.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 28.—The Liberal members of the Legislature and particularly those of the Montreal District, have decided to give a banquet to Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Prime Minister of the Province, at the Plaza Viger Hotel on November 22. Adrien Beaudry, M.L.A., for Vercheres, is chairman of the Reception Committee; Renee Vautrin, M.L.A., for St. James, is Chairman of the Organization Committee; Amodee Monet, M.L.A., for Napierville, is Chairman of the Publicity Committee; J. H. Bedard, M.L.A., for Hochelaga, is Chairman of the Committee charged with the task of selecting the speakers, and Omer Legendre, President of the Young Liberal Association, is in charge of the tickets.

The banquet will be the welcome of the Montreal District members to the new Prime Minister, Hon. A. Galipeau, Minister of Public Works, who was in Montreal yesterday, stated that the contract for the construction of a railway in Temiskaming has been signed by the C. P. R.

DRAG LUSITANIA INTO POLITICS

Candidate For Governor Claims She Carried Cartridges For British.

New York, Oct. 28.—The sinking of the Lusitania was dragged into the United States political campaign tonight when Dudley Field Malone, Farmer-Labor candidate for Governor of New York, and former Collector of the Port of New York, discussed Federal issues.

He declared that when the Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine she carried a consignment of 4,200 cases of cartridges for the British Government, containing a total of nearly eleven tons of black powder.

The assertion was made in connection with the case of Senator Lafolette, who was tried by a committee of the Senate because he said the Lusitania carried explosives for the British.

"President Wilson was perfectly right when he denied the German statement that the Lusitania was armed," said Mr. Malone. "She was not armed. But the administration had done wrong when it sought to keep from public knowledge all the facts about the Lusitania case."

As Collector of the New York Port at the time, the candidate said, he knew all about the cargo of the Lusitania and made a report on the subject to the United States State Department.

LIFEBELT FOUND NEAR YARMOUTH

Also Sailor's Jumper And A Hardwood Box From SS. Lake Yemasse.

New York, Oct. 28.—The Lake Yemasse arrived at Norfolk October 6 and is reported still at that port.

Yarmouth, N.S., Oct. 28.—(Canadian Press).—A lifebelt marked "S. S. Lake Yemasse" and a sailor's hardwood box, together with a sailor's jumper, has just been found on the shore at Pembroke, about seven miles from this town. The lifebelt showed signs of having been in the water for some time, as it was badly broken and the cork was lost from several of the sections. Just what it may indicate is a mystery, as no record of the Lake Yemasse can be learned here. She was a United States Shipping Board steamer built in 1918 on the Great Lakes.

The sailor's box apparently belonged to Frank Furnari, of Lawrence, Mass., as it contained a number of letters from his mother, who signed her name as Salvatore Furnari, 12-74 Common Street, Lawrence, Mass.

Furnari was addressed to him on the U. S. S. Florida, New York. There was also some correspondence from several friends and all dated during the latter part of last winter, or in the early spring. On the inside of the jumper was found the name of R. R. Eiken.

SCRAMBLE FOR MINING CLAIMS

Follows Announcement That Eleven Are To Be Thrown Open.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 28.—A wild scramble for mining claims in Northern Ontario took place at noon today, consequent upon an announcement by the Ontario Government that eleven mining claims upon which the taxes had not been paid were to be thrown open for re-staking at that hour.

Kirkland Lake Camp was all excitement as the noon hour approached, according to a telegram received by H. B. Wilkie, a prominent Toronto broker. However, the Government at the last minute withdrew the properties in question from re-staking and saved them for the former owners.

The owners of the mining claims in question had informed the Minister of Mines that their properties were actual mines and heavy expenditures had been made on them in development work. The taxes, five cents per acre per annum, had not been paid through neglect or through the Government notices not having reached the proper persons, they said.

The owners of the three French-Higher claims in the Kirkland Lake district, stated that they had spent over a million dollars in development. The tax arrears amounted to about $30.

FRENCH BLUE-BEARD GUILTY

Henri Landru Will Be Deported To Noumea Or Devil's Island.

Paris, Oct. 28.—Judgment was rendered today convicting Henri Landru, on the charge of swindling and of being a habitual criminal and he was sentenced to four years' imprisonment and subsequent deportation.

The prosecutor announced that Landru might not be tried on the murder charges growing out of the disappearance of eleven women whom he was said to have promised marriage. This will be decided shortly. Since his arrest two years ago, Landru has been alluded to as a "modern Blue Beard."

When Landru was arraigned a week ago on the swindling charges, which grew out of his venture in the automobile and garage business in 1915, the opinion was expressed by officials that the State would drop its charges of murder if it should secure a conviction on the lesser charge.

It was said his deportation probably would be to Noumea or Devil's Island.

REGISTRATION OF AGREEMENTS

Gt. Britain Submits Sixteen Concluded To League Of Nations.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 28.—Great Britain has submitted to the League of Nations for registration and publication sixteen international agreements entered into by her since the covenant of the League came into force last January 10, according to advices received here today from headquarters of the League Council.

"These agreements," said the advices, "include engagements of the Empire as a whole, and specific engagements of India, South Africa and Canada. They cover such widely different subjects as the Anglo-French oil agreement signed at San Remo, an agreement on commercial relations with Estonia, an agreement with Soviet Russia for the exchange of prisoners and various acccessions and denunciations regarding treaties which existed before January 10.

"The registration of these agreements is in compliance with Article 18 of the covenant, which provides that 'no treaty or international engagement shall be binding until registered.'"

GENERAL BOOTH SPOKE

OF ORGANIZATION'S WORK

Montreal, Que., Oct. 28.—General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, sketched the work of his organization throughout the world as a speech tendered him by the Canadian Club of Montreal today. To the large gathering of members, who were present to welcome him, the General conveyed his thanks to them and to the people of Montreal for their sympathy and trust. In describing the sufferings of mankind all over the world, he stated that in the many Dominions of the British Empire there were millions of people, who were not far removed from barbarism, and who could never come within reach of education, science and the miracles of surgery, and all the other blessings of our civilization, which render life easier. General Booth pointed out that it was the object of the Salvation Army to help these unfortunate as well as to relieve the sufferings of the poor at home.

LEGAL FIGHT OVER BIG LIQUOR SEIZURE

George Estate Refused Leave To Appeal Conviction By Attorney General.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 28.—The fight which has been waged by the George Estate to upset a decision of the local police magistrate, by which upwards of $30,000 worth of liquor was seized, and the George Estate fined $212 for having liquor in a public place, ended this morning with the intrusion from Attorney-General Ramey that leave to appeal had been refused.

After the conviction had been registered here, Mr. A. E. Frapp, K.C., acting for the George Estate, applied to the Attorney-General who had power to deal with the matter for leave to appeal but this has been denied.

The decision of the Crown maintains the stand taken by Inspector McLaughlin that no one has the right to conduct liquor agencies within the Province of Ontario without licenses from the License Commission, which cancelled all those in operation in April last.

GRAY ASTRAKHAN TRIMS THIS BRICK DUVETYN SUIT.

(By GERTRUDE BERESFORD)
One of the best-liked colors for Fall and Winter is brick. Very frequently it is combined with another color which seems to accentuate its lovely tones. In this model brick duvetyn is the chosen fabric, and it is trimmed with gray astrakhan. This fur is favored for the collar which is very high, and the picturesque vestee. Self-toned embroidery is also introduced on this charming suit, and it is used with good effect both on coat and skirt. The hat, of brick-cooled velvet, is trimmed with a band of ostrich plumes around the upturned brim. On each side are flare strands of paradise that match the gray of the fur.

Frocks For The Small Girl

(By RITA STUVESANT)

Now that the children are back to school, and the last of the Summer frocks are being discarded, it is time to plan a few simple dresses that will give good service and yet lack nothing of juvenile charm. The girl of six to twelve may appear well dressed at a moderate cost if one plans her clothes carefully, and considers practicality as well as style. No matter whether she is tall or round and dimply, or just plain slim, there is a type of dress that will bring out her best points.

Many schools insist on a sort of uniform for their students, and so becoming is it that many mothers have adopted it for their daughters. This consists of a navy pleated or slightly circular skirt, with a white middie worn with a big black silk tie. These middies may be purchased all ready-to-use and are very much like those worn by our navy boys, featuring a blue flannel collar or else one of plain white, braid-trimmed.

Three or four of these middies will enable one always to appear fresh and are really most youthful. But by no means must the little school girl affect a tight or narrow skirt. For this gives a very awkward appearance to the undeveloped figure.

Simplicity is the keynote in all smart children's apparel, and a bit of wool embroidery lends itself wonderfully well to achieving this purpose. For instance, a little chemise frock for "Twelve Years" would be distinguished by an outline of gray or French blue wool at the neck and sleeve ends, while another school frock could boast a few clusters of French knots arranged into decorations at the bottom of the skirt.

In planning school frocks it is well to avoid those that have many hooks to fasten, for they are continually coming off from hard-play and are a lot of bother when one is hustling to get dressed in the morning and mother is oh! so busy with other things. The long-waisted moyenage effect is making itself felt at this time even in children's attire, and there are some cunning little frocks in tricotine that are worthy of note. And let me say now that tricotine is admirable for hard wear and generally is outgrown before it is the least bit worn.

Fine white vests, collars and other bits of neckwear add a fresh note to a dark frock, and of course should be made removable so that they can easily be laundered. Sometimes a fine embroidered handkerchief will provide enough material for a tiny vest and cuffs, and those colored handkerchiefs the shops are offering for such a ridiculously small price will add untold attraction to a youngster's frock.

Many women prefer the wash frocks for school wear, and these are excellent under the heavy coat or in a very warm school room, but with the high price of laundry work it is better to depend on laundering only the neckwear of a frock rather than the whole garment.

SHORTAGE OF TEACHERS
Regina, Sask., Oct. 28.—Teachers in the rural districts of Saskatchewan are receiving salaries as high as $1400 and $1500 a year with free house and fuel. Despite these salaries there is an acute shortage and more teachers are needed. Officials report that they are short 500 teachers now and expect to need 1000 by the end of the year. A teachers' exchange, operated by the Department of Education free to the teachers, has placed over 750 in schools this year.

MASS MEETING PASSED RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY WITH MRS. MACSWINEY

Large Gathering in Knights Of Columbus Hall Last Evening Addressed By Messrs. Monaghan, Lucien Cannon, Coulon, Crawford And Major Power On Irish Question.

Amidst the utmost silence, with reverence and by a standing vote the meeting, held in the Knights of Columbus Hall last evening, of Irish citizens, assembled together with a number of the French-Canadian community of the Ancient Capital, which had been called by the Quebec Branch of the Self-Determination League, passed resolution of sympathy to Mrs. MacSwiney, widow of the late Mrs. Terence MacSwiney, Lord-Mayor of the City of Cork, on the irreparable loss she had sustained through the death of her husband.

The spacious hall was crowded when the meeting was opened by the Chairman, Alderman J. Collier, who presided in the unavoidable absence of the Mayor and Pro-Mayor. Among those who occupied seats on the platform were Mr. Lindsay Crawford, National President of the Irish Self-Determination League; Mr. M. Monaghan, President of the Quebec Branch; Mr. Lucien Cannon, M.P.; Major Charles Power, M.P.; Mr. Thomas Coulon, of County Roscommon, Ireland, and others.

Each of the several speakers dwelt in eloquent terms on the fight made by Lord-Mayor MacSwiney, on behalf of his native land, and their remarks in reference to Mr. MacSwiney touched a sympathetic chord in the hearts of those present; while any reference to the fight the Irish people were waging for independence visibly stirred the audience.

In opening the meeting Alderman Collier expressed the regrets of both Mayor and Pro-Mayor at not being able to be present and preside over the assemblage, owing to their having to leave town on municipal business. The Chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to pass a resolution of condolence on the death of another Irish martyr in the person of the Lord-Mayor of Cork. Mr. Collier then called upon Mr. Monaghan to propose the resolution.

Mr. Monaghan read the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, and he called attention to the death of another Irish martyr in the person of the Lord-Mayor of Cork. "French and Irish in mass meeting in Quebec City sorrow with you in the irreparable loss of your noble husband, whose devotion to Ireland has touched the heart of humanity. May God sustain you and Ireland in the fight for the freedom of your country. The speaker then referred to Terence MacSwiney's career in the Irish Volunteer Army. For his activities in his country's cause he was sent to jail three times. He was married when a prisoner, and died when a prisoner. Mr. Monaghan concluded by giving a resume of the work accomplished at the Convention held in Ottawa recently of the Irish Self-Determination League, and denied that the delegates were attacked when entering and leaving the Hall where the Convention was held, as stated by the Canadian papers.

Major C. Power, who followed, commented on his remarks by paying a tribute to the French-Canadian of Quebec, and continuing said that they were gathered at that meeting to pay a tribute to Terence MacSwiney, member of Parliament and Lord-Mayor of Cork, and last but not least, a volunteer officer in the Irish Republic Army. They were there also to render their humble condolence and sincere sympathy to a devoted wife of a national hero, and to renew their pledge to Ireland's cause. Of Terence MacSwiney we knew very little until 1916, when we find him a member of that band of devoted men, who for a whole week, knowing as they did, they were making sacrifices of their lives, resisting night and the men of the Empire armed with machine guns, artillery and battleships. He was sent to jail after the revolution, and following his release he was again sent to prison. Later he was again arrested on a trumped-up charge and sentenced to two years in prison. At the time of his trial he refused to recognize the jurisdiction of the court. He declared, after being sentenced that he would be out of jail in a month. Either the British would set him free or Providence would. The manner in which he had borne his sufferings became the wonder of the world. His courage and Christian fortitude were remarkable. He was no ordinary man. He was a man in the prime of life, who had everything to induce him to live, but the cause which he undertook to serve claimed an allegiance and in this he did not falter even unto death. It was the duty of every Irishman present at the meeting and elsewhere to attach themselves to the cause with a firm resolve and remain in the fight until Ireland had attained that right which was now denied her—the right of governing herself.

Mr. Lucien Cannon, who was the next speaker, said that the stand he was taking on this occasion—to promote the cause of liberty for Ireland as large and Canadianism as it should be understood by every citizen in this country—was the stand he had taken on the floor of the House of Commons at Ottawa. They felt sorry for the man who had died, and also sympathy for the widow, who stood behind him. The resolution passed will show the widow of Terence MacSwiney that sympathy for her exists among nearly the whole population of Quebec. From now on they must be practical in their loyalty for the cause for which they stood. Canada had taken part in the last war, because it was the country's duty to fight for freedom and democracy. Canada had performed a noble duty in this respect, and doing this she had the right to ask "Why deny Ireland her freedom?" She was entitled to freedom as much as any other small nation in the world. In concluding Mr. Cannon said that some people asked "Why give freedom to Ireland?" Well, Ireland was entitled to it for the best of all reasons, that wherever there was a fight for freedom, Ireland was in the thick of it.

Mr. Thomas Coulon, who was the next speaker and he gave a graphic description of conditions in Ireland as he knew them as a resident during the present trouble. He spoke of the death of Terence MacSwiney, and military and the steps taken to break the power of Sinn Fein. England has been trying, he said, to rule Ireland for the past one hundred years, and had failed, but Ireland had succeeded in doing this in twelve months.

A FIRST MURDER COURT MARTIAL LABOR CONFERS WITH FARMERS

In Dublin Ends In Condemnation To Death Of Medical Student. To Devise Credits For Orderly Marketing Of Farm Products.

Dublin, Oct. 28.—The first murder trial by court martial in Dublin, in connection with the recent killings of soldiers has ended in the condemnation to death of Kevin Barry, a medical student, 18 years of age. Barry was charged with complicity in an attack on soldiers in Dublin in September, when one soldier was killed. The Commander-in-Chief has confirmed the sentence of death and the execution of Barry has been set for next Monday.

In prison today Barry made an affidavit before a magistrate to the effect that he had been tortured by soldiers and jailors in an attempt to induce him to reveal the names of his comrades.

Military Active. Cork, Oct. 28.—Since curfew this morning the military has been active raiding the business district. Papers were seized in the Sinn Fein Club and windows in a nearby curiosity shop were broken and the contents thrown into the street. Banks in the neighborhood were visited.

Three prisoners Michael Burke, John Power and Sean Hennessy, are suffering acute pain, but have refused medical treatment. Two Soldiers Shot. Tipperary, Ireland, Oct. 28.—Two soldiers were shot dead and three wounded when a military lorry was attacked by civilians near Thomastown, about ten miles southeast of Kilkenny, this morning.

FIRST STEP TAKEN TOWARD FINAL UNION Of All Baptists In Canada At Closing Session Of Convention.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 28.—At the closing session of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec, here this afternoon the first step toward the union of all Baptists in Canada was taken. A memorial from the National General Executive of the three Baptist Conventions of Canada, endorsing the principle of union, was unanimously adopted. The conventions are requested to have full and free discussions at their annual meetings on the union question. The chief aim of the proposed union is to furnish a medium through which the Baptists of this country may speak with one voice on matters of national moment.

A resolution was passed dealing with the amendment of marriages in the Province of Quebec. It "protested against interference with the sacred institution of marriage and operation of the laws of the land and urged the Dominion Government to have one marriage law for Canada, and see that there be few merchants' arbitrary interferences with its operation."

JOHN L. FISHER TO FACE GRAND JURY Springfield, Mass., Oct. 28.—John L. Fisher, alleged to have caused the death of his wife October 14, by pushing her through a fourth story window of the block in which they lived, after slashing her with a razor, was bound over to the Grand Jury today on a charge of murder. Mrs. Fisher was instantly killed by the fall. She was leaning from the window calling for help, the witnesses said, when her husband, in an alleged, came behind her and pushed her through it. Fisher said at the time of his arrest that he was seeking to prevent the woman from throwing herself from the window.

YOKOHAMA SILK EXCHANGE CLOSED Tokio, Oct. 28.—(Associated Press)—The Yokohama silk exchange was closed yesterday, when prices dropped below the minimum fixed by the buying syndicate. The officials of the exchange are in consultation with the Government regarding the situation. The general depression in the silk industry is continuing.

WON'T HALF-MAST CITY HALL MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 28.—A rumor was in circulation in the city today to the effect that the flag at the City Hall would be at half-mast tomorrow to honor the memory of Terence MacSwiney, the late Lord-Mayor of Cork. Mayor Maritz, when questioned about the matter, said "The flag will not be at half-mast. The Union Jack is the proper flag, and it would establish a precedent if we lowered it in this case, which we would have to extend, if asked, to the memory of citizens of other countries and nations. If we did it this time the Scotch, the English, the Italians or their citizens might ask the same thing and we could not very well refuse them. I may have my own personal views on the matter, but as the Chief Magistrate of Montreal I cannot in this case give orders for the Union Jack to be flown at half-mast."

KING GEORGE IS PLAINTIFF ON SECURITIES

In Suit Filed At New York For Alleged Overcharges On Munitions. Meeting Of Montreal Financial Interests Approves The Finance Minister's Action.

New York, N.Y., Oct. 28.—King George V. of Great Britain, is the plaintiff in a suit filed here today against Manning, Maxwell and Moore, Inc., for an accounting in connection with alleged overcharges, resulting from munition contracts given the Remington Arms Company by the British Government in 1916. The plaintiff charges that the defendants were engaged by the Remington Company to purchase machinery for use in the manufacture of 2,000,000 rifles, contracted for by the British Government. Under the agreement, the complaint alleges, Manning, Maxwell and Moore were to receive five percent of the value of the machinery as compensation. It is alleged by the plaintiff that the supplies were billed at higher prices than the actual value, the exact extent of which has not been determined and the accounting is asked to decide this.

The meeting culminated in the adoption of a resolution, moved by C. Ernest Gault, approving of the action of the Minister in his decision to continue the restrictions for the present, and pledging him the hearty support of all branches of business through which the importation and sale of securities, would, in the ordinary nature of trade, be effected.

ROOSEVELT TAKES DAMAGE ACTION Asks Half Million For Circulation Of False And Defamatory Libel.

New York, Oct. 28.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic Vice-President candidate, today filed papers in a suit for $500,000 against John R. Rathon, editor and publisher of the Providence Journal, and Scott C. Bone and Edw. B. Clark, manager and assistant-manager of publicity, charging the defendants with circulating false and defamatory libel. An editorial in the Providence Journal charged that Mr. Roosevelt, while Secretary of the Navy, had requisitioned or destroyed Navy Department records and that he had sought personally to return to the support of the Navy men convicted of various crimes.

Mr. Roosevelt made public denial of the charges and then Mr. Rathon sent him a letter outlining specific cases referred to in the editorial. The letter also was published in the Providence Journal. Mr. Bone and Mr. Clark are made defendants because it is charged by the complainant that they circulated the letter widely as Republic propaganda.

DOM. STEEL COMMON HIT NEW LOW LEVEL Heavy Fall Said To Be Connected With Threat Of Strike.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 28.—Common stock of Dominion Steel Corporation, which touched a new low at 49 1/4 yesterday, closed at 49 1/4 today. Reason for the heavy fall in the stock are given generally as connected with the threat of a strike which will tie up the plant, if the Nova Scotia miners ballot to come out. The general weakness of all stocks connected with the British Empire Steel Corporation merger is another reason. Further it is pointed out that the decline is not peculiar to the iron stock but is shared alike and with even greater force, by all stocks that were at one time even recently—prime favorites. Thus the paper group is shot to pieces these days for no other reason than general money tightness and the stiffness of the buying public. Short selling is unlikely to be a large factor in the decline of iron on the market, though it may be a factor in a small degree.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF WESTERN CANADA FLOUR Toronto, Ont., Oct. 28.—The annual statement of the Western Canada Flour Mills Company, Limited, to be submitted to the meeting of the shareholders in Toronto tomorrow, shows net profits of $414,723 for the year ending August 31, last, as compared with $427,986 in 1919 and $438,844 in 1918. The history of the company. The decrease, President Andrew Kelly points out, in his report to the shareholders, was due to the lack of export business, the mills of the company having been shut down at various intervals in the period, with the result that production was reduced substantially.

RENUNCIATION IS CONFIRMED. London, Oct. 28.—(By Canadian Associated Press)—In the House of Commons today Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, confirmed the announcement of the intention of the British Government not to exercise rights under the Versailles treaty to seize the property of German nationals in the United Kingdom in the event of the voluntary default of Germany of her reparations obligations.

LESSONS FROM MACKENZIE-KING FATHER'S LIFE WOODS FARM VOTE

General Booth Addressed Record Gathering In Montreal Methodist Church. Contrasts Number Of Drill Halls And Government Experimental Farms.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 28.—Before a record gathering at the St. James' Methodist Church here tonight, presided over by Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, General Manager of Bank of Montreal, General Branch Booth, Chief of Staff of the Salvation Army, delivered a lecture on "Lessons from my father's life." In a brief sketch of his father's career he said that the origin of the social work which the founder of the Salvation Army conceived and put into operation had not its inception in a quarrel with the pastoral office, but grew from the conviction that side by side with the pastoral organization, there must be an aggressive fighting body that would attack vice, sensuality and greed. Senator Casgrain, who seconded the vote of thanks at the conclusion of the address, said that although a French-Canadian and a Roman Catholic, he was an ardent admirer of the Salvation Army. General Branch Booth will leave tomorrow morning for Toronto.

TUMULTY TELLS INSIDE HISTORY Of White House And Personal Characteristics Of President Wilson.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 28.—Joseph P. Tumulty, Secretary to President Wilson, revealed to-night some inside history of the White House and personal characteristics of the President, never heretofore given for publication by any member of the White House staff. The occasion was a Democratic mass meeting at Bethesda, Md., a suburb of Washington. A striking passage of Mr. Tumulty's speech was that describing the physical condition of Mr. Wilson resulting from the paralytic stroke which he suffered while stumbling for the League of Nations last fall. After describing the "upright, vigorous and alert man," sixty years old, but not looking more than 45, so little of limb, so alert of hearing, so virile," who delivered the message to Congress in 1917, Mr. Tumulty continued: "The other picture is only three and a half years later. In a chair sits a man, the President, broken in health, but still alert in mind. His hair is white, his shoulders bowed, his gait bent. He is 63 years old, but he looks older. It is Woodrow Wilson."

Mr. Tumulty declared that Mr. Wilson's one great fault was that he did not know how to play to the gallery. "I do not know how to capitalize his virtues for the front pages of the newspapers. He is dreadfully poor publicity material. He is the despair of the newspaper boys, who want human interest stories. Human from his heart to his finger tips, he does not know how to put humanity on exhibition. There was something too fine in his nature for the dramatics and posturings of the political game as it is usually played."

COUDOURIOTIS NAMED REGENT Greek Admiral Was Minister Of Marine In Venizelos Cabinet.

London, Oct. 28.—The Greek Chamber of Deputies has elected Admiral H. Coudouriotis as Regent of Greece by a vote of 137 to 3, says a despatch to the London Times from Athens. Admiral Coudouriotis is Minister of Marine in the Venizelos Cabinet. In September 1916, Admiral Coudouriotis then Commander-in-Chief of the Greek Navy, accompanied Premier Venizelos and his followers when they departed from Greece, from the island of Crete, and set up a provisional government for the purpose of forcing Greece into the war on the side of Serbia and the Entente Allies. The Admiral was a co-signer with M. Venizelos of the proclamation establishing the provisional government, the power of which later brought Greece into the war and forced the abdication of King Constantine. Since the end of the war, Coudouriotis has been Minister of Marine. Notify Paul. Athens, Oct. 28.—Since the death of King Alexander, the dynastic question has been frequently discussed by the Council of Ministers and the Greek Minister at Bern has been instructed to meet Prince Paul, third son of former King Constantine and announce to him that in accordance with the Constitution of the Government he is invited to succeed his elder brother Alexander. The Minister, at the same time is to inform Prince Paul that his succession to the throne depends upon the formal renunciation by ex-King Constantine and his eldest son Prince George, of all claims to the Hellenic Throne. Constantinople, Oct. 28.—Profound regret is expressed here over the death of the Greek King Alexander. Greek flags were displayed at half mast on vessels, Greek shops, official buildings, schools and churches and bells were tolled after the news became current.

MAHARG ANSWERS MEIGHEN Saskatoon, Sask., Oct. 28.—"A deliberate misrepresentation," declared J. A. Maharg, M.P., commenting on a statement by Premier Meighen that the Government had never been asked inside or outside of the House of Commons for the reinstatement of the Canadian Wheat Board. Mr. Maharg was speaking at the Verdwood convention of the Grain Growers' Association.

WESTERN ASPIRATIONS

The great provincial universities at Edmonton and Saskatoon afford striking proof, if proof is needed, that agricultural occupations are by no means the sole vocations or aspirations of the young men and women from the farm homes of the Prairie Provinces.

The combined registrations this year in the universities of Alberta and Saskatchewan will be between 3,000 and 2,500 students, of whom only a comparatively small number are enrolled in agricultural courses.

Both institutions have plant and equipment provided at heavy cost and staffs which compare favorably with those of universities anywhere in the world. At Saskatoon, a new Arts building in connection with the University of Saskatchewan is projected at a cost of approximately one million dollars.

History has no precedent for communities agricultural in their outlook and aspirations providing the higher educational facilities on such a scale. But Alberta and Saskatchewan, despite their aggressive Farmers' party, realize that more than cultivation of the soil is necessary to provincial prosperity and that diversity of occupations and opportunities must be provided if immigration and population are not to suffer in comparison with other parts of the Dominion.

It is true that the attention of the City Council was formally drawn to uneconomic conditions and remedial action on its part invited but, as happens only too frequently, the latter body has done absolutely nothing. Were there a properly constituted Fair Price Board its offices could be invoked and it would say to the milkmen, "Your prices are unfair, because they are needlessly high. By an agreement among yourselves to re-organize the industry it can earn the same or greater profits at lower rates. We will give you a reasonable time in which to put it on a proper business footing and, if you fail to do so, you will then be liable for conspiracy to unlawfully increase the cost of living."

Particularly in the case of essential commodities, such as food and clothing, the public has a right to demand that they shall be obtainable at fair prices, based on natural trade conditions locally and throughout the world, as upon a reasonably efficient system of production and distribution. The public has no right to ask that such prices be arbitrarily cut down for its convenience even although such regulation may not involve an absolute loss to the producer.

In the long run, it will be found wisest to leave supply and demand to adjust themselves and the surest method of reducing the cost of living is to produce as much as possible, to waste nothing and to refrain from extravagance. At the present time Canadians may have little to reproach themselves with on the score of production but there is too much waste and far too much extravagance; above all in the purchase of imported luxuries.

Sylvia Pankhurst wrote to her chum Lenine that she expected to get six months' imprisonment: this is one of the occasions where Sylvia has proved to be entirely right.

William Duff, himself engaged on a barn-storming trip of Western Canada, attacks Premier Meighen for not remaining seated at his desk in Ottawa. We presume that this humorous gentleman's idea of a fair fight is for the Liberals to wander all over the Dominion throwing bricks and mud at an Administration gagged and tied at the Capital. Mr. Duff might even be willing to undertake to trim Carpenter or Dempsey if these gentlemen would consent to enter the ring with both wrists hand-cuffed behind their backs.

In the same speech, Mr. Tupper stated that the United States consul at Toronto, in a report to his Government, had said: "We have nearly all the trade of Canada and we can get it all." This is what inadequate protection was doing for Canada. In this connection, Mr. Tupper recalled the statement by Richard Cobden in the British House of Commons on March 12, 1844: "The farmer's interest is that of the whole community and is not a partial interest, and you cannot touch him more sensitively than when you injure the manufacturers, his customers."

Sir John Macdonald, speaking in the Dominion Parliament on March 7, 1878, showed clearly the results of inadequate protection. He showed how this country had lost by emigration to the United States thousands of its most promising young people and stated that the Provincial Government of Quebec had established agencies to try to induce these people to come back and re-settle in their own province but had failed in its endeavors. He then announced the following policy: "We must, by every reasonable means, employ our people not merely as farmers, as tillers of the soil, but we must bring out every kind of industry, we must develop the minds of the people and their energies. Every man is not fitted to be a farmer, to till the soil. One man has a constructive genius, another is an artist, another has an aptitude for trade, another is a skilful mechanic—all these men are to be found in a nation; and, if Canada has only one branch of industry to offer them, if these men cannot find an opportunity to develop the skill and genius with which God has gifted them, they will go to a country where their abilities can be employed, as they have gone from Canada to the United States."

GOOD FAITH INDICATED

The letter of resignation handed in by Capt. White, Chairman of the defunct Board of Commerce, clearly indicates the good faith of that body in issuing its famous sugar order. The undertaking given by their predecessors, Messrs. W. F. O'Connor, K.C., and James Murdoch, in the case of Dufour and Gosselin, June 11 of this year, was most specific and could only be disregarded by the new Commissioners on the ground of lack of jurisdiction. As no exception was taken by any person at that time to the assurance that the Board would "protect the trader on a falling market by permitting him to average his costs down, as it was then carefully protecting the consumer by compelling the trader to average his costs up," Capt. White and his associates were justified in assuming that this principal was recognized and agreed to.

The Chronicle is pleased that they have been able to vindicate their conduct in this way but there can be no question that the old Commissioners exceeded both the letter and the spirit of their jurisdiction in practice, however, just or logical their position may have been in the abstract. The Board of Commerce was created purely to protect the consumer against profiteering, not to guarantee the producer against loss; this notwithstanding the fact that strict equity undoubtedly demands that arbitrary restriction of profits should be accompanied by a corresponding restriction of losses. In other words, if there is to be price-fixing, it must be on a basis that will give fair-play to all concerned.

It is possible, though by no means certain, that a Fair Price Board might serve some useful purpose but, if so, it must have different powers from those of the deceased Board of Commerce. There will always be a few unscrupulous persons to take advantage from time to time of special conditions in order to exploit the public and the mere existence of a regulating body would have a deterrent effect.

Local experience revealed the essential weakness of the old Board. It will be remembered that an appeal was made to it by this city against a proposed increase of two cents a quart for milk and that when the hearing took place, the increase was allowed for the winter season. Although the Commissioners stated that they would entertain a further appeal if the price of milk was not reduced in the Spring, the one experience was sufficient; no further steps were taken and the winter rate remained in effect all through last Spring and Summer up till the present time.

The ruling of the Board admitted that the authorized price was excessive and calculated to work a hardship but went on to say that on account of unnecessary competition and inefficient methods of distribution the milk dealers could not operate without loss on any lower rate. Put in other words, this means that the Quebec consumer must be penalized because the milk industry is not properly organized and, from this, it follows that there is unlikely to be any attempt at improvement so long as a premium is put on inefficiency.

It is true that the attention of the City Council was formally drawn to uneconomic conditions and remedial action on its part invited but, as happens only too frequently, the latter body has done absolutely nothing. Were there a properly constituted Fair Price Board its offices could be invoked and it would say to the milkmen, "Your prices are unfair, because they are needlessly high. By an agreement among yourselves to re-organize the industry it can earn the same or greater profits at lower rates. We will give you a reasonable time in which to put it on a proper business footing and, if you fail to do so, you will then be liable for conspiracy to unlawfully increase the cost of living."

Particularly in the case of essential commodities, such as food and clothing, the public has a right to demand that they shall be obtainable at fair prices, based on natural trade conditions locally and throughout the world, as upon a reasonably efficient system of production and distribution. The public has no right to ask that such prices be arbitrarily cut down for its convenience even although such regulation may not involve an absolute loss to the producer.

In the long run, it will be found wisest to leave supply and demand to adjust themselves and the surest method of reducing the cost of living is to produce as much as possible, to waste nothing and to refrain from extravagance. At the present time Canadians may have little to reproach themselves with on the score of production but there is too much waste and far too much extravagance; above all in the purchase of imported luxuries.

It's Our Biggest Year!

CONSTRUCTION work, the world over, has been greatly hampered by scarcity of material. Especially is this true of material for telephone construction.

And yet in spite of this world-wide shortage of supplies and, until a few months ago, of skilled labor, we have accomplished more so far this year than in any equal period of our history.

Installers have handled more than 120,000 telephones—77,000 put in and 43,000 taken out.

Two thousand miles of new long distance circuit have been put up.

Nearly 500 miles of circuit to serve farming communities have been built, requiring 160 miles of pole line.

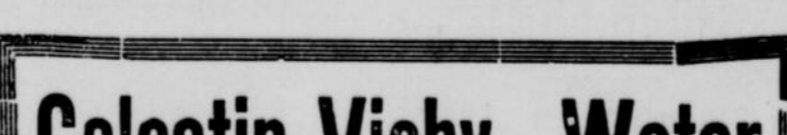

New buildings have been erected, new conduits laid, repairs, replacements and general upkeep of a vast system attended to.

We are behind our orders in some places, we know. But with the facilities available we have never worked harder to meet the full demand.

And with this never-ending process of extending, making over, replacing, repairing, we are doing our utmost to raise your service to the highest point of efficiency and usefulness.

The more you know about the Telephone the better it will serve you

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

George Marcus Accused Of Attempting To Bribe An Immigration Official.

George Marcus, an Austrian Jew, well-known in this city as a garage hand, a court interpreter and a dealer, was arrested at the Immigration Buildings on Wednesday night on the charge of attempting to bribe a guard to secure the release of two Aliens who were booked for deportation.

It is alleged that on Wednesday morning Marcus appeared at the Immigration Buildings and approached one of the guards in charge of those who were slated for deportation, he told the officer that two of the men were his cousins and he would like to have them released, saying that he was prepared to pay fifty dollars each to secure the freedom of the men in question.

The guard heard his tale and told him to return to the building at eight o'clock that evening and he would see what could be done. The guard then got in touch with his superior officers and reported to them what had transpired between Marcus and himself. It was then decided to set a trap for Marcus and accordingly that evening Sergeant Verret, of Central Station, and an officer of the Immigration Department, stationed themselves in the building.

At eight o'clock that night Marcus, it is alleged, appeared as agreed with the Guard and the latter took good care that he should stop him under a light close to where the officers were hiding so that they might hear all that transpired.

It is alleged that Marcus handed the Guard forty dollars, but the latter demurred, saying that he had promised him one hundred dollars in the morning. Marcus said that all he had at the time was forty dollars, but he would pay him an additional twenty-five dollars the following day and the remainder in a short while. After some further conversation the Guard brought down the two men whose release Marcus desired. There ensued greetings and salutations of the most affectionate nature, which were all lost on the Guard and the two officers in hiding, but at a given signal from the Guard, the officers appeared on the scene. Both Marcus and the Guard, the latter still playing the part of accomplice, when asked what they were doing said they were not doing anything out of the way, but when the Guard was searched for the benefit of Marcus, the forty dollars were found in his pocket and it is alleged, that Marcus when confronted by the officers who repeated what they had heard, admitted his connection with the attempted collusion.

Marcus was arrested and taken to the Quebec Jail, but as there was no commitment it was found that he could not be kept there and he was returned to the custody of the Immigration authorities.

It seems likely that the case may come up in Court today.

SECOND ARREST MADE A young man named Charbonneau was arrested by the police yesterday, charged with being an accomplice of young Paquet, previously arrested on the charge of cutting the wire that operates the C.P.R. Semaphore at the St. Male railway crossing. He was remanded for investigation.

COL. DAVIDSON DIED YESTERDAY

Well-Known Officer And Barrister Passed Away A Victim To Pneumonia.

The death occurred yesterday at the age of 59 years of Lt. Col. W. H. Davidson, K.C., a well known officer and barrister of this city.

In his youth Col. Davidson was a prominent athlete and figured conspicuously in lacrosse and hockey. He also manifested a keen interest in military matters and rose from the ranks to become commandant of the 8th Royal Rifles. A noted marksman, he qualified for the Canadian Bisley team and was always considered one of Quebec's best rifle shots.

As a lawyer Col. Davidson became one of the leading members of the Quebec Bar and was for a number of years Crown Prosecutor.

He had been in indifferent health for a considerable time and an attack of pneumonia with which he was stricken some days ago proved fatal yesterday.

A widow and one brother, Mr. R. J. Davidson survive him, and will have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement.

DOCTORS TO VIEW HYPNOTIC DEMONSTRATION

Prof. Vardec, Who Is At Present Performing At The Auditorium, Will Give A Special Seance Tonight At Laval University.

The marvellous hypnotic experiments that have been conducted on the stage at the Auditorium, all this week, have awakened no mere attention on the performer, Professor Vardec, so much so that tonight, after his performance at the Auditorium, he is to give a special seance before a large number of medical doctors who will assemble at Laval University to view a demonstration of his particular method of bringing about hypnotic phenomena.

Professor Vardec has been giving demonstrations of his hypnotic power at every performance of vaudeville at the Auditorium and will be at this theatre all this week. Yesterday evening, he brought back to life a young woman he had previously put to sleep in the show window of Larocque's drug store on St. John street, and his experiment with the sleeping girl deeply interested a crowd too large to find room in the theatre, so keen is the interest manifested by all in Professor Vardec's particular methods.

Tonight, at the Auditorium, Doctor Vardec will be accompanied on the stage by a local physician and a medical student. He challenges anyone claiming that he cannot produce a sleeping condition even if the would-be subject would oppose his will to that of the hypnotist. He says he can produce sleep upon any one submitting to his experiment.

THREE NEARLY ASPHYXIATED

Gas Fumes From Kitchen Range Overcame Sleeping Servants.

The cook and two servant maids in the employ of Mr. Vermette, who conducts a boarding house at No. 34 St. Ann Street, had a narrow escape from asphyxiation early yesterday morning, through escaping gas from the furnace, located in the kitchen of the premises. The cook and two other servants employed in the house, occupied together a sleeping apartment adjoining the basement of the house. Yesterday morning at 2, Mrs. Vermette, who is a light sleeper, and occupies a bedroom on the floor above heard moanings issue from the room where the girls were asleep. One of the boarders, who was awake at the time, also heard the moaning and proceeded down stairs where he met Mr. Vermette. The two, on entering the kitchen, were nearly overcome with gas fumes, but lost no time in entering the servants room, where they found the occupants unconscious and struggling for breath. The boarder immediately opened the window and dragged the women out into the open air. In the meantime Dr. Thibadeau who had been summoned by telephone, arrived on the scene, and with the mistress of the house and two boarders, worked on the three women for three hours before they rescued them from danger.

Dr. Thibadeau admitted that the three women had a narrow escape from death and that if they had not been discovered in time, would have assuredly succumbed to the effects of the gas fumes. The escaping gas from the furnace was due to the close banking of the fire.

SCHOOL MASTER DIES

AT VENERABLE AGE Mr. Prosper Provencal of Beaufort, a former school-master, passed away yesterday at the venerable age of 83 years. Mr. Provencal was a familiar figure in Beaufort and was held in the highest esteem. Many prominent professional men and clergymen in this Province received their early education at his school. He is survived by his widow, Dame Sara Galarneau. His funeral will take place on Saturday at Beaufort.

BIG SPREE HAS SERIOUS ENDING

Four Sailors Are Accused Of Breaking Glass Of Mountain Hill Store.

Yesterday morning at 12:45 o'clock, Constable Gagnon of the municipal police, while coming up the steps leading from Champlain street to Mountain Hill, heard a crash of breaking glass which caused him to quicken his pace. When he reached Mountain Hill, he saw several men standing by the Cote Cigar Store and, surmised that they were endeavoring to gain a forced entrance into the store. On approaching the place all escaped by running away, but one man whom he arrested. Later three others were apprehended by the police from Station No. 10 and placed under lock and key. Yesterday afternoon the four men who proved to be members of a steamer crew, and all of respectable appearance. They were arraigned before Judge Choquette in the Court of Sessions on the charge of breaking the glass of the shop door. When proceedings were commenced, Judge Choquette asked the accused, who were not defended by Counsel, if they understood French. They answered in the negative, when his Lordship insisted that the proceedings should be conducted in the English language, in order that the four Englishmen might be able to understand the evidence against them.

The principal witness for the prosecution, Constable Gagnon told his story as above. He stated that the arrested man was in a state of intoxication but could not identify two of the accused, who had been arrested in an intoxicated condition later on St. Peter street, as they said, while making their way to the slip. These two Judge Choquette immediately discharged, and the case continued against the other two who pleaded intoxication and no intention whatsoever of doing wrong, the first prisoner arrested said he remembered what occurred, and that while unsteady on his legs, he knew he was assisted down Mountain Hill by his mates, but knew nothing of any breakage of glass.

Mr. Marchand, Crown Prosecutor, conducted the case against the accused, and when he arose to address the Court, Judge Choquette requested him to speak English out of fairness to the accused who did not understand French, which Mr. Marchand did, and held that their presumptive evidence to show that one of the accused broke the glass with intent to enter, and held that the property of merchants should be protected.

Judge Choquette put several questions to the accused, and inquired the amount of the damage. He then remanded the prisoners until this morning to confer with the ship's officers as to the character of the accused.

There will be a special car leaving Kent House at 12.30 a.m. after the big Hallow'een Dance on Sunday night. Take in the event. Choice music and a beautiful floor. Admission 50 cents.

MAN INJURED ON ST. JOSEPH STREET

LONG DELAYS AT CHAUDIERE JCT.

Breeding Assn. Complains Of Handling Of Livestock By Railways.

The Quebec Board of Trade has received a communication from the General Stock and Binding Association of Quebec, of which Hon. N. Garneau, M.L.C., is president and Dr. J. A. Couture, secretary, complaining of the delay in transportation of livestock that arrives by rail at the Chaudiere Junction to Quebec city and asks the Board of Trade to take up the question with a view to ameliorate this condition.

The letter addressed to the Board cites a case where seven head of prize cattle that had arrived by rail at the Chaudiere Junction en route to Quebec, on the 16th instant at 6.30 a.m., were retained there until the following day, and only reached Quebec at 4.30 a.m. on the 17th, after a delay of 22 hours.

JACK DEMPSEY IS COMING TO QUEBEC—WILL BE SEEN AT ARENA HERE ON WEDNESDAY

George Belanger And Harry Fontaine Promoting Affair— Definitely Stated Last Evening That He Would Be Here On Wednesday Next—Biggest Sporting Event In The Annals Of Quebec.

Jack Dempsey, the world's heavy-weight champion—the man who is matched to meet Georges Carpentier for the world's heavyweight championship, in Havana, Cuba, some time next year, will be seen in Quebec in person next week.

LOOK OUT FOR THE SMALL MEN

Carpentier Has Best Right Of Any Pugilist In The Ring Today.

By Robert L. Ripley "Has he a chance with Dempsey?" That is the leading question of the day when Carpentier is mentioned.

Don't fool yourself. If Carpentier is defeated by Dempsey it will not be because of superior size. Carpentier is big enough to whip anybody—particularly with that remarkable right-hand punch of his.

Everything points to an overflow crowd, and surely there is no reason why the world's title-holder should not attract enough people to fill the arena to capacity.

BARROW THROUGH WITH BOSTON SOX

Will Act As Business Manager For New York Yankees— Action Is Surprise.

New York, Oct. 28—Colonel Jacob Ruppert, part owner of the New York American League Club, today announced Edward G. Barrow, who resigned as manager of the Boston Americans two days ago, had signed as business manager of the Yankees.

Miller Huggins will sign a contract to manage the New York team another year upon his arrival here tomorrow, Colonel Ruppert added Barrow had been with the Red Sox three years and had previously been President of the International League for seven years.

Boston Surprised Boston, Mass., Oct. 28—The announcement that Edward G. Barrow, had resigned as field manager of the Red Sox to become business manager of the New York American League club, came as a surprise to the supporters of the team.

The club still carries on its roll "Bill" Carrigan, manager of the world champions of 1916 and 1918, now a banker and promoter of Lewiston, Maine, whom Frazee had previously endeavored to bring back to the game.

"Jack" Barry, who succeeded Carrigan as manager of the Red Sox, relinquishing the position to join the navy, is in the garage business at Worcester and is considered available. Harry Hooper, crack outfielder and captain of the present Red Sox team, has had the confidence of the club-owner and is believed to be among those under consideration.

Stranger to say, it seems that the extremely big men are the ones who find the small fellows the hardest to handle. Big men never had much success with old Fitz, who held the middleweight and the heavyweight championships at the same time.

Big Jess Willard suffered his most humiliating defeat at the hands of Dempsey, "Gumbo" Smith, and "Beard" McMahon—and Jess out-weighted each one of them by over fifty pounds.

Robinson Exposes Clothing Secrets!

I Need $500,000 To Fight The Combination Who Are Keeping Clothing Prices From Coming Down

I MUST HAVE $500,000 within 30 days to carry on the fight for the people against high clothing prices and I AM Sacrificing Every Garment in My Chain of Shops from Halifax to Vancouver to get it and bring clothing down NOW and finally to a standard price where we all feel it ought to be.

But This Is Not Enough! I Am Not Satisfied and Neither Should You Be. ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30th

I Will Place On Sale Every Suit and Overcoat in my entire chain of Shops at prices that must force you to buy and by such a preponderance of business in Robinson's Shops must force other retailers to let loose and in turn force the factories to open to supply the needs of the people at the people's own prices.

Every Suit And Overcoat On Sale

- At Prices Far Below Factory Cost
$38 Values. My Former Price $28. SALE PRICE $19.50
$65 Values. My Former Price $50. SALE PRICE $38.85
$45 Values. My Former Price $38. SALE PRICE $26.85
$75 Values. My Former Price $60. SALE PRICE $44.90
$55 Values. My Former Price $45. SALE PRICE $33.75
$80 Values. My Former Price $65. SALE PRICE $49.95

My factories will be kept going at full capacity. My Shops Will Be Crowded with new merchandise made out of new woolsens at new prices. Every vestige of force—every particle of buying and selling power within the Robinson Organization will be thrown in the balance to bring the dictators to time.

Odd Pants Values from $5.00 to $15.00. On Sale at $3.50, $8.75

ROBINSON'S CLOTHES. SUITS OVERCOATS TOP-COATS. Blue Serges Are Included In Sale Prices. AUDITORIUM BUILDING. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Is There a Conspiracy To Keep the Price of Clothing Up?

Read the following statement of conditions in the Clothing Trade and judge for yourself.

MOST retailers have big stocks at the high prices—and consequently have practically stopped buying from the manufacturers. Most of the factories in Canada have closed down and in this way are in effect protecting the retailer until he unloads his present stock and makes the public pay.

THAT IS MY JOB! I want to turn half a million dollars' worth of Suits and Overcoats into cash in order to use that money to fight the manufacturers who are standing pat and closing down and holding their woolsens until the retailer unloads on the public and the market rebounds to somewhere near old levels.

I Will Not Allow That To Happen If It Takes Every Dollar That I Have Made To Fight Such A Combination. I Am Going To Use Every Resource I Have At My Command To Prevent Such A Conspiracy From Going Through.

To insure this movement being a success, I am putting on Sale Every Suit and Overcoat I possess in all my shops, my warehouse and my factories at prices far below what they actually cost me.

Again with your help I can do it. With your help I cannot fail.

M.B. Robinson

Sporting Notes.

The all-important question in local sports has at last been settled. Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will appear in person in the Ancient Capital. He will be seen at the Arena on Wednesday next.

The first of the International schooner races for the sailing supremacy of the North Atlantic will take place tomorrow. The contestants are the schooners Delaware, representing Canada, and the Esperanto, representing the United States.

Mike McTigue and Bloomfield have been matched for a return bout at the Mount Royal Arena on November 12.

Since the Walker Boxing Bill became effective in New York, 168 rounds of boxing have been staged in Madison Square Gardens without a knockout. It is a singular record. "Reason? Expert matchmaking," says the wise one.

The final football game of the season will take place tomorrow afternoon at the Exhibition Grounds at 2:00 o'clock, when the Empress of France and R.C.G.A. eleven meet. The referee will be selected today, and a great match is expected.

HOPE DELAWANA IS VICTORIOUS

Canadian Entrant Will Leave For Halifax This Morning—Conditions Of Races.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 28—"We hope the Delawana will win the international race with the Gloucester schooner Esperanto on Saturday," said W. C. Smith, of Lunenburg, managing owner of the Nova Scotia boat, to the Canadian Press, over the long distance telephone tonight.

The Delawana will leave Lunenburg at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and with a fair wind she is expected to arrive here at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Previous rulings announced as subject to confirmation, went by the Board at the meeting of the General Committee this afternoon. The limitation of those on board each ship to twenty-five bona fide fishermen and one official observer, was discarded, and the ruling as definitely and finally agreed to calls for "a crew of twenty-five men, including the master, with the official observer and two guests, making a total of twenty-eight on board each of the contesting craft."

the race, issued to newspapermen when the meeting was over. Other revision of the conditions include announcement as to the courses of the races, which will be on the basis of the "best two out of three." If possible, one of the first two races will be "to windward or a leeward." The others will be over one or more of the four courses already laid down.

ATEL IS GOING BACK Montreal, Oct. 28—Abe Attel told a local newspaper last night that no extradition proceedings would be needed to make him go back to the United States. "When I am ready," he said, "I will go back of my own free will and tell all I know."

McGraw INDICTED FOR CARRYING BOOZE New York, Oct. 28—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, today was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on a charge of violating the Volstead Act. The indictment was procured on evidence presented by Assistant Federal District Attorney Edward H. Reynolds, who investigated the fracas at the Lamb's Club last August between McGraw and John C. Glavin, a musical comedy actor. The indictment charges that on that date McGraw had illegal possession of a bottle of whiskey.

TESTIMONY IS SENSATIONAL

Joint Legislative Committee Probing "Building Trust" Adjourns For Week.

New York, Oct. 28—After a day of sensational testimony, the joint legislative committee investigating the "building trust" late today took an adjournment until next Thursday, morning, November 4. Developments at today's hearing were:

Testimony by Wm. Watzel, house wrecking contractor, that he paid $1,000 to William P. Brindell, President of the Building Trades' Council, for the privilege of a working agreement with the Council. He said he also paid another $1,000 to Brindell for a house wrecking job. Because he had refused "to produce $25,000" for Brindell, Jacob Fradus, a general contractor, testified that he had been "bankrupted and put out of business" by the labor leader to whom he declared he had paid $1,000 for a job. Charles H. Whitas, house wrecking contractor, testified that his $400,000 annual business had " dwindled down to $100 jobs" because he had refused to hire "Brindell's men."

Testimony by Arthur Greenfield, President of the Employing Metallic, Furring and Lathing Association, that the members of the association at a meeting last Monday destroyed papers that "might incriminate" them in this investigation, including the minutes of a meeting in which price-fixing is alleged to have been discussed.

TESTIMONY MADE FOR NORTH-EAST TORONTO Toronto, Ont., Oct. 28—Harold Kippen (Liberal), Alexander Lewis (Conservative) James Higgins (Social-Liberal) and John Galbraith (Independent) were today nominated as candidates for the constituency of North-East Toronto to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Hon. J. H. Cody, Minister of Education in the Ontario Legislature.

Testimony that a group of metal lathing contractors bidding on school contracts, city of New York, had formed a combine to get a better price, and stifle competitive bidding. James E. Traimer, metal lath contractor, testified that the Employing Metallic, Furring and Lathing Association had hired and paid Mr. Murphy, President of the Lathers' Union, a salary of $65 a week, but did not know what "he was expected to do."

HAS HOPE FOR PORT OF BOSTON

Great And Immediate Progress For Massachusetts City Is Predicted.

In view of certain important indications that the question of putting the United States merchant marine on a sound and permanent basis is coming to the front, the Boston Post has asked Colonel William A. Gaston, who has probably given this matter as much attention as anybody in New England, to give our readers his impressions as to the situation as regards the future of the port of Boston.

"Inertia of New England." Mr. Gaston said: "Up to within a short time the situation has not been favorable or encouraging. Many of the banks have made elaborate and costly preparations for foreign trade, and an ever-increasing number of large industrial concerns have gone into the question thoroughly; for example, the Gillette Razor Company has twice sent its representatives around the world on a trade-producing campaign, and other concerns are doing the same thing in lesser degree.

"Importing and exporting have been hampered by the rate of exchange, while the paralyzing effects on industry of the over-burden of taxation has discouraged effort in the direction of trade extension generally. The delay in the negotiation of treaties which would enable manufacturers of the United States to do business with the rest of the world, has also been a factor, but the main reason has been and is the inertia of New England to this most vital element in its future life. This cannot be, because information as to the need has been lacking because over a period of 20 years commission after commission has substantially agreed as to the facts, and at least as to the essentials, of the way to bring relief. In 1910, and again in 1919, the Shawmut Bank published pamphlets epitomizing the situation, which remains today as fitting as when they were printed.

"Can't Escape Decided Progress. In spite of everything, however, immediate and decided progress appears to be inevitable. This is not due to any united action by the governments of either the State or the municipalities, or to the concerted push of the commercial organizations, but is due to the fact that the physical inability of the port of New York to carry on the maritime business offered at that port, forces maritime business to be done at other Atlantic ports, and the disadvantages of Philadelphia and Baltimore, as compared to the advantage of Boston, are very likely to produce something tangible in opening up New England to foreign trade; and thereby to stimulate reaching out for a market for our surplus manufactured product absolutely necessary to keep our factories busy and our workers employed. New York simply cannot do the business, and is being pushed on it, and I believe that within the next few months, or certainly within the year, at least a half dozen vessels of large size will make Boston their home port, plying between here and various ports of Europe.

Improvements in Sight. "At the same time, I am advised that substantial progress has been made in the plans for the utilization of existing rail facilities, with the establishment of water transfer, either as a temporary or as a permanent measure, and the connecting up of certain lines which will make possible long needed transfer facilities from one side of Boston to the other, and will tie the entire port together as a commercial entity, thus making all the harbors for 15 miles on either side of the State House a part of the Greater Port of Boston.

"Our docking facilities, with the great army base on the reservation channel, ensures Boston all the docking space it will need for many years.

"In common with the other ports on the Atlantic seaboard, there is still a great deal to be done in the way of drydocking and ship-repair facilities, but once the people get around to the importance of the general subject, private enterprise and capital may be depended on to provide the means.

Rich in Possibilities. "As I have said, the banking arrangements will undoubtedly be provided, and can be enlarged to any extent. The larger companies which have gone after foreign trade are getting a mass of valuable experience, which is available to all, and the discussion over the recently enacted merchant marine law and the knowledge that far-reaching and comprehensive plans have been made by other nations to meet the competition of the United States should stimulate our people to definite and effective answer in their own interests.

THE manner in which Zam-Buk draws disease and poison out of the skin has been aptly described as "magnetic." Sores and wounds are cleansed and soothed, new healthy skin grows, in a way which is a positive revelation in the art of skin-healing.

Even obstinate and long-standing sores yield in an astonishing way, for Zam-Buk has antiseptic and germicidal properties that cannot be found in any other preparation. Zam-Buk

Draws Disease out of the Skin.

The marvellous success of Zam-Buk is due to its rare herbal origin and the scientific methods employed in its blending, refinement and concentration. Then Zam-Buk is entirely free from the animal fats and mineral impurities which make common ointments and salves harmful and even dangerous to some skins.

Dr. Patterson Shibley, of 1800 Wyoming Avenue, Washington, D.C. writes:—"For sixteen years I have used Zam-Buk in my practice and know nothing to compare with it in skin trouble, from roughness and irritation to chronic skin disease. Zam-Buk without doubt, has wonderful curative properties, and I always recommend it in preference to other remedies."

CLUB PLANS TO ENCIRCLE WORLD

Better International Trade Relations an Aim of Old Colony Club

Boston, Oct. 28.—The Old Colony Club, the purpose of which is to facilitate international trade relations as well as to provide every form of personal, business and travel service for its members and provide them with all the facilities of the best clubs both at home and abroad, has simultaneously announced the opening of its newest branch, in San Francisco, California, and its first continental unit, in Paris, France. This extends its sphere of activities to cover a geographical range of 8000 miles from East to West, from Paris to the Pacific.

More than 10,000 American, Canadian and British business executives make up the membership of the Old Colony Club, which is referred to by its officers as the largest club in the world. The plan of the club, to provide in every important commercial center in the world a club home for the use of its members, with special facilities for rendering service to the business executive on his travels, is working out more efficiently and more rapidly than was even dreamed of, says one of the members of the national advisory board.

"The San Francisco Club", he says "is the seventeenth to be opened in the United States. Two more, in Birmingham, Alabama, and Rochester, New York, will be opened before the end of this year, and we are assured of the early establishment of branches in Portland, Los Angeles, Denver, Kansas City and in several southern and middle western cities. We now have club quarters in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Washington, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Atlantic City, Norfolk, Buffalo, Wilmington and Richmond, in the United States; in Montreal and Toronto in Canada, and in London and Paris. In London we recently bought the famous Old Morley's Hotel, on Trafalgar Square, in order to be assured of permanent quarters in the British capital, although we opened our London Club a year ago, in rented quarters in Pall Mall, in the heart of London's clubland. In Paris we have been for some time operating a service bureau and headquarters for members and have now taken over the Hotel du Rhin, which is to be adapted for club purposes as speedily as possible."

The international president of the club, Albert J. Norton of New York after spending six weeks in Europe, tells of negotiations being under way, with an excellent prospect of successful conclusion, for obtaining club quarters in the best hotels of Liverpool and Manchester, and of urgent demands for the location of Old Colony clubs in Antwerp, Brussels, Berlin, Hamburg and Cologne. "As a further means of aiding in the development of international commerce through service to Old Colony Club members", says Mr. Norton, "one of the plans in connection with the permanent quarters of the London Club will be the establishment at the same place of a branch of one of the strong English banks, especially for the provision of banking service for American members visiting London."

HELP YOURSELF.

The Australian sense of humor is well developed in private life, but in official circles it is often shut out by tape barriers. For instance, it was most unfortunate that the federal government, which has caused a storm by raising legislators' salaries without reference to taxpayers, should have indorsed the following huge poster on behalf of the Second Peace Loan: Help the Digger—Help Your Country—Help Yourself. When the humor of this announcement was recognized by press and public, it lost its popularity with the government, which had no wish to be reminded that it had already set a good example in the art of helping oneself.

A Pair for Every Pair

It is sound economy to have each pair of your fall and winter shoes fitted with its proper pair of rubbers.

If you do this, the rubbers will be easy and comfortable; and both rubbers and shoes will wear longer and hold their shape better.

Rubbers prevent slipping.

Rubbers save shoes.

Rubbers enable you to wear old shoes in bad weather.

Rubbers are economical.

Rubbers ensure dry feet.

Rubbers make shoes waterproof.

Rubbers protect the children from catching cold.

The Dominion Rubber System have made this convenience a certainty by making rubbers in styles, shapes and sizes to fit every shoe for men, women, boys and girls.

More than this, they are good rubbers—staunch, sturdy materials, fashioned by experts, to give you long and satisfactory service.

THE dealer who carries Dominion Rubber System rubbers is serving you well. He wants to give you your money's worth in quality, style, comfort and wear—so he sells these reliable rubbers. With the complete line of Dominion Rubber System styles and shapes available, he is able to make sales instead of excuses. "What Happened To Jones" Provoked Gales of Laughter at Empire Theatre Yesterday

"What Happened To Jones," the famous farce comedy from the pen of George Broadhurst proved highly entertaining and provoked gales of laughter from yesterday's audience at the Empire. Bryant Washburn and Margaret Loomis have the leading roles in this riotous mixup of bootleggers and prohibitionists. The 12th episode of the Eddie Polo serial "The Vanishing Dagger" and a fast moving two part comedy complete the program, which will be shown again today and tomorrow.

Crowded Houses Saw the New and Excellent Show at the Classic Last Night

THE SHOW WAS GOOD—THE ORCHESTRA PLAYED BEAUTIFULLY AND EVERYBODY ENJOYED THEMSELVES IN THE "COMFY" AND ATTRACTIVELY APPOINTED CLASSIC THEATRE LAST NIGHT.

The special feature play was "The Wall Street Mystery" and it was a mystery—and a very interesting one—to the very end. Thrilling too, but the scenes were never "far-fetched"; they were very realistic and portrayed splendidly. A good story runs through the piece, and it is capably and comprehensively interpreted by Glen White, in the leading role, assisted by Jane McAlpin and a real good accompanying cast. The play was highly enjoyable to all.

"Hindo Hale" the 7th episode of "Hidden Dangers" gave a spell of superior "Serial" pleasure to its great number of followers.

Bill Parsons in a two reel comedy and the Pathe Color Review were other numbers the audience were pleased with.

The same programme will be repeated today and finally tomorrow.

The Classic patrons will be glad to hear that Eessie Barriereale opens Monday next, in "Life's Twist" a big Robertson-Cole production.

"Soldiers Of Fortune" a Big Hit at the Victoria Theatre—A Splendid Picture

A tremendous crowd saw "Soldiers of Fortune" at the Victoria Theatre yesterday and all are unanimous in saying that the production is a remarkable one. It is a Richard Harding Davis story, and is considered one of his best. Norman Kerry, Anna Q. Nilsson, Pauline Starke, William Berry, and Ward Crane are featured. A fine Al St. John comedy and the Third Eye Serial on same bill.

European Notes.
The enslaved state of the press of the Continent and the rigour of the police, renders it very difficult for the London Journalists to obtain correct information, and consequently much is left to conjecture. The established governments on the Continent, always excepting Russia, are however, evidently in a very critical situation. It certainly offers them but a melancholy prospect, that after twenty-five years of war, to defend themselves against revolutionary power or to extirpate it; they should still have the work to recommend; that the very instrument they employed to effect their purpose, have themselves become revolutionary.

DISPARITY IN EXCHANGE RATES HURTS UNITED STATES.

New York, Oct. 28.—(By Canadian Press)—Disparity of exchange rates is tending to reduce greatly the first post-bellum rush of trade between Great Britain and the United States, according to Paul E. Derrick, general manager of the American Chamber of Commerce in London.
Huge purchases by British firms in the United States were coincided, Mr. Derrick said, when the depreciation of silver came about. The high cost of goods, through the operation of adverse exchange rates, he explained, made it impossible to market to the British consuming public.
"If the United States wants to bring about a resumption of importing by Great Britain and restore exchange rates to normal, 'it is up to her to open her markets to British goods," Mr. Derrick said.

The Experience of This Man Will Interest You.
Mr. McDougall, of Cape Breton, N.S., says: "I am a farmer and was over-worked, run-down and weak. My druggist recommended VINOL. It built me up and made me strong. I also gained in flesh. Other members of my family have also used it with splendid results."
There is nothing that acts so quickly in such cases as Vinol. It enriches the blood, quickens the circulation, sharpens the appetite and imparts strength and energy to every part of the body.
Your druggist sells Vinol, therefore men who are over-worked, run-down and blood poor should accept no substitutes.

WHY SUGAR IS HIGH IN CANADA

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 28.—"You can blame the American Government for the present situation," said Herbert Hoover, former Food Controller of the United States, in an interview given in Toronto. "If it had not been for the American Government giving up its control of sugar so soon you would not be in the plight that you now find yourselves in Canada. There has been a giant's speculation in sugar all over the world and it has done infinitely harm to everybody." Hoover said the harvests of the United States at Canada, Mr. Hoover said that they were ample to supply the demand of Europe.

STEEL PRICES BEGIN TO FALL.

The movement toward lower prices says the Iron Age, for pig iron and the products of independent steel mill is in more rapid and there are more shutdowns and curtailments of production. Signs now point to a decline in both pig iron and steel output in October, though an increase was indicated as the month came in.
The most significant development of the week is a break in coke which apparently marks the end of the extreme prices that have ruled for months. With a decline of $2 a ton in the week and both blast furnace and foundry operations on a diminishing scale, considerable contract coke being released meanwhile buy, it is not hard to see something to say in that market.
The efforts of the Ford Motor Company for a revision of its contracts on cold finished steel bars have met with fair success, and it is expected concessions from the strip steel makers, but independent sheet makers have not been willing to revise their prices to the Steel Corporation level.
The hope that activity will succeed the present hesitation early in the new year is prompting in policy in some cases of adjusting operations for the time being to the limited demand, without pressing for new business. Meanwhile concessions are largely confined to the smaller mills.
American sheet bars have been offered in England at $15 a ton ($51 at today's exchange) and $6 under the new and reduced Welsh price. Belgian billets have sold at an equivalent of $55 against a British price of $70.
Reselling of pig iron has been an even more important feature of the market than during the preceding week. While for the most part the iron sold by foundries has not been in large tonnages, one lot of 3000 tons and another of 2000 tons were sold in Michigan for October delivery at $2 below the furnace price.

MRS. ELLA LEFTWICK, another Kansas City woman whose remarkable restoration by Tanlac has astonished her neighbors, many of whom have begun taking the Master Medicine. "They all agree with me that it is the grandest medicine on earth," says Mrs. Leftwick.

"A number of my friends, after seeing the wonderful good Tanlac did me, began taking the medicine, and now they all agree with me that it is the grandest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Ella Leftwick, 722 Pile St., Kansas City, Kans.

"Tanlac completely restored my health," she said, "and just seemed to give me a new lease on life. If I could talk personally with every woman suffering as I did, I would urge them to take this medicine."
"For the first time in three years I am able to eat and enjoy three hearty meals every day and not suffer in the least with indigestion afterwards. I am never troubled now with the awful smothering spells that used to frighten me so much, and the dreadful headaches that came upon me every day have been entirely broken up."
"I was extremely nervous and couldn't sleep well, but now my nerves are in splendid shape, and I sleep like a child every night. My strength has been so wonderfully increased that I can now do all the housework in my eightroom house and attend to the children besides. I feel just splendidly all the time now. Tanlac is certainly worth its weight in gold."
Tanlac is sold in Quebec by Martel & Dion and by Jolicour pharmacie; and in Levis by Maurice Dion, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.

TIMBER RESOURCES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Victor, B.C. Oct. 28.—A. D. Webster, former Superintendent of Royal Parks, and a well-known British forestry expert, who has been visiting British Columbia, has some interesting things to say on the timber resources of the Province. It is not his opinion that these are by any means inexhaustible, for he says that unless there is better government supervision of logging operations the timber, as a merchantable asset, may have ceased to exist in a few decades. Three things Mr. Webster says, attracted his attention about the timber of British Columbia, namely, the immense size of the trees, the great waste of timber and the silence of the forests. In passing through the Rocky Mountains he was impressed with the wastage, not only in the felling of timber, but in the manner in which it was hauled away.

MUST HAVE NO PART OR HAND IN MURDERS

Belfast, Ireland, Oct. 28.—Bishop Foley declared the other day in Kildare and Leighlin Roman Catholic Cathedral that it was not improbable that before long parts of Ireland would be plunged into a sea of bloodshed and slaughter unless something in the line of a moral miracle were performed. He could not see by what means the Irish people were to be preserved from the dreadful evils which threatened them; the destruction of life and property on such a scale as would fall little short of that which befell Northern France at the hands of the Germans. Their duty as Christians and Catholics was clear, he said. They must have no hand in act or part in murders and they must not give the slightest encouragement to them.
