CITY TO GO "ALL-OUT" IN SALVAGE DRIVE

WAR WITH JAPAN IS SURE NOTED LABOR EXPERT TELLS MEMBERS OF ROTARY CLUB

Dr. Penrose of International Labor Office Sees Far Eastern Conflict As Inevitable — Reviews Event In Sunrise Empire Leading to Advent of Militaristic Government — Foreign Ideas Not Politically Welcome

Dr. E. F. Penrose, Ph.D., head of the International Labor Office, spoke to members of the Westmount Rotary Club at Victoria Hall yesterday afternoon, and cited the pros and cons on the "Far Eastern Situation."

Speaking in a personal capacity, Dr. Penrose outlined events that led to the present tension existing between Japan and the Western Powers, the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States.

"War with Japan is almost inevitable," said the speaker, "but we must go back a decade to get to the root of the evil."

"It was only in the early part of the 20th century that Japan really shook off the age old feudal system," he continued, "when one had only to voice an opinion contrary to popular belief to court disaster and in many instances death."

"In later years a civilian government swept into office, and ruled in a true Democratic fashion."

"But the financial and economic status of Japan was in desperate circumstances, and this proved a real wedge for those with militaristic tendencies."

Throw Back To Old Days

"It was a throw back to the days when every man's life could be had for a price," and at this stage Dr. Penrose mentioned the early '20's, when a wave of crime swept the country which took the life of many leading figures in the nation's political set-up.

Alluding to the time he was residing in Japan, Dr. Penrose stated that cordial relations existed between that country and the Western powers, but there was no solid outlet for Japan's commercial life, and the country was to small in comparison to the population to fulfill the people's requirements.

"This national calamity gave the opportunists the opening they desired," he said, "and they preached expansion through military might, irrespective of the results."

"With subtle ways and impassioned talk they hoodwinked the people into believing that their way was the only redemption for Japan, and that way was the conquest of Asia by Japan."

"A sharp difference of opinion ensued between the different schools of thought, but the military clique came out on top and the conquest of China was the direct aftermath."

"Things did not go according to plan, but minor conquests were made, and the complete indifference shown by Britain and the States strengthened the position of the fanatics."

"The Japanese people were in part satisfied, but many of the intellects thought bigger and better gains could be had through the medium of economic conferences, but theirs was a voice crying in the wilderness."

"The introduction of German ideas caused a semi-Fascist state in Japan," continued the speaker, "but a Totalitarian state in the sense practiced in Italy and Nazi Germany is an impossibility owing to the presence of the Emperor."

"Not only that, the introduction of foreign ideas are not wholly welcome in Japan, that is from a political standpoint."

"They may embrace an alien ideology," continued Dr. Penrose, "but never completely adopt it to the Japanese mode of national standards."

Dr. Penrose was introduced by Archie Callard, and thanked by Rotarian D. R. W. McKean for an address of exceptional interest.

President Ewart Everson was in the chair.

Verdun Mayor Lends Frontiersmen

Captain M. McGuire, O.C., The Legion of Frontiersmen, B-11 Squadron, 5217 Sherbrooke St. West, Montreal, P.Q.

Dear Captain McGuire, Allow me to express to you, and through you to the members of The Corps of Imperial Frontiersmen, my warmest thanks for your valuable co-operation on the occasion of the military demonstration held in Verdun last Thursday evening.

The spectators attended in such vast numbers that our Police Dept. should have been very much handicapped without the able assistance of your men to maintain control, and I wish you to know that the services of your organization on this occasion were profoundly appreciated.

With kindest regards, believe me to be,

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) Edward Wilson Mayor of Verdun.

SWEEPING A PATH FOR BRITISH SHIPS

In all weathers the minesweepers of Britain's Navy continue their hazardous task of keeping the harbours, channels and approaches free of enemy mines.

Ever liable to air attack, they have shown they can hit back to some purpose, and many German raiders are shot down by their capable gunnery.

British minesweepers are seen on patrol.

Westmount Man Given High Post

It has been unofficially reported that Alfred J. Pick, B. A., M.A., B.C.L., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. T. Pick, of Clarke avenue, Westmount, has been appointed Secretary to Charles J. Burchell, K.C., Canada's New High Commissioner to Newfoundland.

Mr. Pick is well known here, having attended Westmount High School and McGill University.

For the past year he has held the position of third Secretary in the Department of External Affairs in Ottawa.

REFUSE CARTS TO COLLECT SMALL AMOUNTS OF SCRAP; SPECIAL CALLS FOR LOADS

Westmount Civic Authorities Signify Intention of Aiding Government Campaign to Fullest Extent — "Service" Calls to Take Care of Large Amounts — Every Convenience at Disposal of Citizens — Effort to Be Greatest on the Island — No Lagging Behind — Maximum Endeavor Expected

Residents of Westmount who intend to aid the Canadian Government in the collection of salvage — held to be a vital part of our war effort — will find the City Officials more than willing to co-operate.

Those who have small quantities of scrap metal, waste paper, bottles, rubber, etc., are requested to place them near their garage and the collectors will have special containers in which to place it.

Citizens who accumulate large amounts of this much desired scrap, have only to call the City Hall and request a truck which will be on its way within a few minutes.

Executives of the City Hall, in an interview with The Examiner today, stated they were fully aware of the importance of this recently launched salvage campaign, and asserted that they would go to considerable lengths to ensure that Westmount accomplished its share of the war work.

The main thought and endeavor of City officials is to see that the residents of Westmount do their utmost in this National drive.

Salvaged material is to replace that which is expended in the war effort, and to get this reinforcement the maximum effort is essential, and the placing of this scrap in the right channels, so that it lies at the nation's disposal, is of paramount importance.

It seems strange that so much stress should be attached to scrap, but today that material is invaluable stock, which may be lurking in some old attic and long since forgotten.

Look around and leave nothing to chance, it is possible that many old things will come to light, and those very articles may be just the thing that Canada is looking for, something which can be turned to a national use.

The drive has started, and it is gaining momentum, but it will not stop at any time, this campaign is one that will last for the duration of the war and many years after.

CAMP VISITED BY ROTARIANS

Lots of Fun As They Join In Games — Voted Best Spot for Boys

A group of Westmount Rotarians visited Werdale Boys' Camp at Lake L'Assommoir recently, and were the guests of the Committee of Werdale House Protestant Orphans Home.

The occasion for the trip was the annual field day during which the Rotarians take part, and it is always an event of great fun and sport.

The races provided many thrills, and were keenly contested, the winner having to go "all out" to gain the prizes.

At the close of the day's festivities, the visitors were taken on a tour of inspection and were astounded at the neatness and cleanliness that was in evidence everywhere.

The new library, gymnasium, and sleeping accommodation gave the guests an idea how a modern camp is operated, and the swimming facilities and boating arrangements were really something to marvel over.

An excellent dinner served from a well equipped kitchen climaxed a most enjoyable day, and speech making was conspicuous by its absence.

Before the party took leave of their hosts, M. E. Ivan, thanked the camp superintendant for their hospitality and promised a speedy return.

BOLIVIAN LIFE THEME OF TALK BY MISSIONARY

Rev. S. Hillyer to Tell of Experiences in South America

Rev. Sydney Hillyer, B.A., B.Th., will speak at Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday and his evening topic promises to be of unusual interest. His address is entitled "Life in Bolivia under Nine Presidents" and it will be based on his personal experiences in Bolivia and his knowledge of the changing conditions in that country during the past two decades. With this address Mr. Hillyer will conclude his present visit to Montreal. He plans to leave shortly to resume his work as minister of the Spanish speaking Baptist Church in La Paz, Bolivia.

On Sunday morning he will speak on a subject which is also of special interest. It is entitled "Christianity and the New Order" and the questions with which he will deal are "Shall we have a New Order after the war?" and "Has Christianity any contribution to make to this New Order?"

Calvary, Baptist Union Services To End Sunday

The Union Services of Calvary United and First Baptist Churches will conclude with the services on Sunday next, when the two congregations will worship in Calvary Church, Greene avenue at Dorchester St., Westmount. Capt. the Rev. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D., will preach at both services.

Labor Day will be observed in many of the Christian Churches with special messages. At such a time it is fitting to think of man in his co-operation with God. St. Paul summarizes this high relationship when he says "We are workers together with Him."

Only as we are workers with God can we ever build the proper structure which is the realization of our best dreams and highest ideals. Dr. Jones will deal with this theme at the morning service on Sunday. At the evening service the theme of the sermon will be "Looking at Life Through the Microscope and the Telescope." We greatly need both the near and the far off vision of life; both the contemporary and the eternal. Only thus can we see things in their true perspective and place upon them the proper value.

The Red Cross Unit wishes to announce that the Red Cross rooms will be open on Tuesday from 10.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m., and the workers will be glad to receive the work that has been completed during the summer.

SCHOOLS MAY SUBSTITUTE WOMEN FOR MEN TEACHERS LOCAL OFFICIAL STATES

Military Duty Drains Male Personnel of Local Schools — Greater Demands Expected in Future — Local Parent-Teachers Group Held Exceptional — Many Refugee School Children

Substitution of women for men in teaching positions formerly held by the latter, was seen as a possibility in Westmount schools as a result of the many having recently joined the colors.

This was the view held by S. F. Kneeland, Secretary-Superintendent for the Westmount School Commission in an interview with the Examiner this morning.

Since closing date early this summer four have left for active service, and this figure swells the total to 12 who have enlisted from Westmount Intermediate school alone, since the outbreak of hostilities.

With September 3 the date set for the reopening of Protestant schools in Westmount, four vacancies have to be filled to complete the teaching staff and bring it to full strength. Even in ordinary times, this would be quite an obstacle to overcome.

Parent-Teachers

The people of Westmount take a keen interest in the educational upbringing of their children, and there is a real Parent-Teachers association in the city.

This close collaboration between the parties has had most beneficial results, and emphasizes the progress made in pupil-teacher psychology which has elevated existing relationships to a higher level, and increased the desire to learn and study.

Westmount Intermediate has 55 refugee school children in attendance for the opening term, and there is more than a possibility that their ranks will be doubled in the very near future.

What it means to these exiles from other lands to be able to attend school without fear of bombing attacks and artillery shelling is something those in Westmount can only vaguely comprehend, but glowing faces and cheery dispositions speak for themselves.

A moot question which has cropped up recently, is the fact that young men who are specialists in the art of teaching should or should not be allowed to join any of the armed services, either voluntarily or by military call.

There is a strong demand for teachers in military life, and the call is so urgent that one stops and ponders before making any decision.

The present situation is held serious and it is one that will have to be decided by the Federal Government, such an act would be face-saving to all concerned and lay the onus of responsibility squarely upon the shoulders of the authorities.

BOYS' COMPANY NOTES SUCCESS OF EXPERIMENT

Terminates Camp Period—To Resume Regular Friday Activities

The First Westmount Company terminated their camp over the week-end, after a most successful period, at St. Andrews East. Every moment of the time was thoroughly enjoyed by the boys and although two rainy days were experienced, these were utilized to the fullest in the organizing of trips of interest to the Carleton Place Museum and St. Eugene Air-drome. Captain J. Howard Richardson was in charge of the camp, assisted by Staff Sergeant Robert Morrow. The Company were happy to welcome as campers, Peter Phillips, Eddie Butcher and Billy Butcher, the two latter boys being guests of Canada from England.

The company will resume its regular Friday night activity very shortly and looks forward to a very active season. The staff has been greatly augmented and a wide variety of Brigade craft will be undertaken. Lieut. Alex Upham will specialize in model-railway building and first aid, while Staff-Sgt. Robert Morrow will instruct Signalling as well as the recruit classes. Lieut. James Patterson and Lieut. Wm. Mulligan will carry on special instruction work.

The company has been responsible for sending 48 albums to their brothers in Brighton and Hove, England, who have been through the "Blitz," and have received many letters from these lads, expressing their gratitude. A great many of the boys have joined the "pen pal club" of the B.B.

Wedding Tribute To Former Mayor

The golden wedding anniversary of former Mayor and Mrs. George Hogg was not forgotten by old friends and colleagues at the Westmount city hall.

A bouquet of 50 tallisman roses arrived at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hogg, conveying heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of the celebration of their Golden Wedding, and many more years of happiness.

Liberal Donation

The Merchants' Seaman's Club at 750 Notre Dame West, and the Merchant Navy Officers Club at 442 Sherbrooke street west gave a joint contribution of $250, to be forwarded to the special committee appointed by the Navy League of Canada.

FINISHING TOUCHES

These three youngsters enthusiastically groom their "car" prior to entry in the "Soap Box" annual Derby. This year the race will take place on September 20 and there is still ample time for any boy between the ages of nine and 15 to build a chariot for the event. Information may be had from A. E. Sinclair of Capital Trust Company, St. James St. This is the fourth year that the Kinsmen Club have staged the derby which is designed to promote craftsmanship and sportsmanship amongst the boys.

Horticulturists Show Is Unqualified Success

Annual Show at St. Luke's Hall Held Unqualified Success — Blooms Ruffled by 'Chris' Ellis Following Awarding of Prizes — Competition Keen

The Annual Flower Show staged by the West End Horticultural Society at St. Luke's Church Hall last Wednesday and Thursday was an unqualified success from every standpoint. While the quantity of bloom was slightly less than last year, the vegetable exhibit was larger, many persons having planted part of their flower plot with vegetables. The quality of both flowers and vegetables was higher than usual and was highly commended by the judges. Judges for the flowers were C. D. Schnebly and H. C. Meeks while the vegetable judges were C. D. Schnebly and W. J. Smith.

The attendance both evenings was very gratifying, visitors expressing great admiration at the beautiful display. A telegram was received on Thursday evening from J. Arthur Mathewson, provincial treasurer, expressing regret that he had failed to appear the previous evening to open the show, due to a clerical error in his office. The trophies won at the show and the garden competition (Continued on page 2)

D. S. PENTON, B.A. IS NAMED HEAD OF L.C. COLLEGE

Succeeds V. C. Wansbrough — Tribute Paid Latter for Past Services To School

On September 10 when Lower Canada College opens, a new headmaster, D. S. Penton, B.A., will be in charge of the school, it has been announced by Allan M. Mitchell, chairman of the board of governors.

V. C. Wansbrough, who has held the post since 1935, is leaving the school to take up duties in another field, the statement adds, adding "that under his direction the school achieved many academic and athletic successes while enrolment increased from 135 to 275 pupils. The school is greatly indebted to Mr. Wansbrough for the fine example of high character which he set for the boys and the board of governors wishes him every success in his new field."

Educated in England

The incoming incumbent, Mr. Penton, who was educated at Repton School and at Oxford University, joined the staff in 1935 teaching French and geography. He was headmaster of Guy Drummond House at L.C.C.

Mr. Mitchell's announcement declares "the new headmaster brings a wealth of organizing talent to his new task. He is a strict disciplinarian but he is also a firm believer in developing initiative. The success achieved in organizing games for the younger boys at L.C.C. was largely due to his efforts."

SOLDIERS' DEPENDENTS

A mathematical problem that might be given some attention by the Ottawa authorities on a road employee earning $200 a month has increased to the extent that he needs a bonus of $1.93 a week, how much should be now paid to a soldier's wife, who, with an assigned pay, separation allowance and allowance for two children, receives less than $100 monthly?

The scale of allowances for soldiers' dependents is better than it was in 1914-18, but is still far from an amount that will permit most of them to continue to enjoy the same standard of living as when their breadwinners were at home. Some soldiers' wives are in a position to accept employment to supplement their incomes, but the woman with one or two small children is tied to her home.

The problem is intimately connected with the success of recruiting campaigns. The single man, without dependents, can easily decide to sacrifice his civilian way of life in his country's service. The married man may be equally willing to make the same personal sacrifice, but he can conscientiously doubt his right to sacrifice others. Up to date the Government has given him little aid in solving his problem.

CITY MAN'S THOUGHTS

The editor of a weekly newspaper in a town of 3,000 population has stopped driving his car to his office. But four days after the plea from Ottawa that we all conserve the gasoline supply, the butcher, baker and candlestick maker were still driving to and from their places of business. The average distance between places of work and homes makes one-third of a mile, which would mean one and a third miles of walking per diem and one and a third miles of gasoline consumption saved per car per diem.

Another editor said that he stopped driving his car to business because he thought that if he kept it parked in front of his office all day it might prevent an advertiser from bringing in an ad or a subscriber from paying up arrears. The live towns of Canada seldom have spare parking space in the business section. One may have had the impression that they were cars of customers. But if every business man pre-empted his own parking space, the only real customers might have to park in front of the order offices of the mail-order houses.

So, if the town businessman leaves his car at home he may gain in health and business. And, as Mr. Cottrell emphasizes, there is the matter of placing the tankers in the transatlantic traffic that victory may be achieved.

The foregoing is, of course, thoughts on town life by a person who lives in a large city. The city man who lives 6.6 miles from his office and half a mile from the nearest bus may consider himself justified in driving to business — if, as he hopes — he can make a deal with a neighbor to relieve the pressure on the street-car system which would be utterly inadequate if all cars were left at home.

For our part, we think that the solution of the problem is to leave all Canadian cars in their garages on Sundays. One man who, a few summers ago, was impelled for domestic reasons to spend an inactive summer says it was a most delightful change. He avoided all traffic problems, east, west or north. Most people spend much time working in the garden and the only time in which they might relax therein to enjoy its beauties is spent on the highway.

EQUIPPING SERVICE MEN

Some conception of the gigantic purchasing task of the Canadian Government may be gained from the fact that no less than 337 separate contracts have been awarded to companies scattered across Canada from coast to coast for the manufacture of components of the personal equipment of the Canadian soldier. While no accurate figures are available, possibly 75,000 to 100,000 workers in some 70 Canadian communities, large and small, are employed at least part time in the making of what the soldier wears or the equipment he carries.

The equipment of a single soldier for service in the field—his battle dress, steel helmet, gas mask, rifle and bayonet, haversack and contents, web equipment, eating utensils, water bottle, ground sheet, greatcoat, cap, boots, socks, shirts, clasp knife, cartridge pouch, pay book, identity disc, and a number of minor items costs in the neighbourhood of $120. Almost every item is made in the Dominion.

BOOK REVIEW

BY HOWARD S. ROSS

THE HANDBOOK OF POLITICAL "ISMS"

by Louis Wasserman

Association Press, 347 Madison Avenue, New York City.

Our lives are being upset by conflicting faiths and the struggle to uphold them. What are these philosophies which are at grips in the world of today?

It is important that we be as well-informed as possible if we are to make intelligent decisions. Political science is no longer an academic exercise for Ph.D.'s; it is the battleground for all of us. This handbook is a useful guide to the roads we should explore and choose.

We are given brief but adequate descriptions of the social doctrines, "isms," and ideologies about which there is so much misunderstanding. The author makes clear, objectively and simply, their purposes, the pattern of the society they propose, the reasons for their quarrel with the status quo, and the methods by which they seek to bring about changes in society. All of this is condensed into lucid statements, with simplified charts to high-light the key issues.

Beginning with a comprehensive chapter on democracy, which, he shows, is affirmed by most of the diverse doctrines, there follows a definition of Liberalism. Those who wish to better understand what is happening today will get a new insight from this picture of Liberalism as the historical movement underlying the modern era of social change. Next is a description of the distinguishing elements of Capitalism, the prevailing form of economic activity in most countries today. This is followed by State Capitalism, representing the mod-

Three series of sail-boat races were held in King George Park on Saturday afternoon with a different winner popping up in each series. The first set of races was won by Ronald George, with Robert Hull taking second place. In reality these two boys came tied for first place in the regular series, but in the sail-off Ronald George won the honours. In this series the other Hull brother, Ronald, captured third place after a sail-off with Robert Matthews. The second series was won by Robert Hull, with brother Ronald in the runner-up spot. Ronald George was third in this event. The third and final series was won by Ronald Hull, who forced his brother Robert to take second place. Ronald George again took over the third position.

The author has achieved the difficult feat of remaining objective and non-partisan. This handbook is a splendid primer for those wish facts not mere propaganda and this reviewer hopes it will find its way to the shelves of many libraries and be used by discussion groups, public speakers and high school groups.

A motor-boat race was also held last week which resulted in a win for Bobby Phelan. More races will be held this Saturday afternoon in the pond at King George Park.

Ronnie Shaw won the tennis tournament for boys in Westmount Park which was held last Wednesday afternoon. Shaw was undefeated in the afternoon's play. John Gutelius took the runners-up honours and George McGlanders was in third place.

Rain forced the cancellation of the badminton tourney scheduled for last Monday afternoon, and the golf tournament set for last Friday afternoon.

A large group of boys from both Staynor Park and Westmount Park visited the Elmhurst Dairy on an inspection tour last Thursday morning. They were given an interesting talk and conducted through the plant by an Elmhurst supervisor. The trip ended up with each boy receiving an ice cream cone.

PAID ACTIVITY

"What line of business do you expect your boy to go into?" "Well, we've decided to make a lawyer out of him. He enjoyed mixing into other people's business so much that we figured he might as well get paid for it."

Saving Of Waste Paper Held Need In War Effort

An interesting broadcast was delivered from station CFCP on Tuesday evening on the subject of the saving of wastepaper by Mackay Smith, well-known Montreal business executive. The address was in support of the extensive conservation program now being launched by the Department of National War Services.

Mr. Smith's talk was as follows: "Thousands realize the far reaching power of the press . . . your newspaper, the terrific part it plays in this present war . . . a war which we are pledged to win. A war which you and I and every single one of us has to play an active part before it can be won . . . and won it must be if we and our children are to continue to live the lives of free men . . . and so will full realization of these facts I know we are all filled with that surging feeling to do our bit in whatever way possible. The government realizes this feeling in all of us, that is why it is continually in search of means and ways whereby everyone on the home front can play an active part in doing their share to make it an all out war effort . . . and so that is why I made mention in the beginning of the terrific power of the press."

"Everyday that power becomes yours to use as a potential war weapon, but in a much more tangible form. For amazing to say, every newspaper that enters your home can actually be used as a weapon against the Nazi menace to our civilization . . . Yes! Your newspaper is one of the many items that are so essential in the department of National War Services Conservation program.

"Good hard Canadian dollars are needed to win this fight and the government's conservation program offers an opportunity to every one of us to play a tremendous part in the building up of these fighting dollars. Without any sacrifice whatever but with only a little concentrated effort in the simple direction of saving items such as waste paper. To give you an idea of the importance of waste paper, in 1939 Canadian industry used more than $3,707,000 worth of waste paper, and $3,707,000 is a lot of money. Sad to relate nearly one third of this vast amount was imported. That is, waste paper had to be brought from outside sources. In other words, over a million in valuable foreign exchange had to be spent to meet industries essential demands for waste paper. You and I and every one of us can make a change in this state of affairs for although since the beginning of the present salvage campaign the response has been most encouraging, it would seem that only half of us are doing our share in the great majority unfortunately are not familiar enough with these facts:

1. Waste paper is an absolute necessity to industry, if not connected it must be imported which requires foreign exchange.
2. Saving waste paper helps conserve our Canadian forests.
3. It helps turn Canadian Forest labor from the cutting of pulp wood to the cutting of pit props and other woods very essential to the war effort.
4. Saving waste paper reduces the drain on transportation facilities because transportation of the partially manufactured waste paper is easier and cheaper than the transportation of bulky pulp wood.

"All these factors, as you will see, are vital parts of Canada's war economy. To give you a striking example of how effective it would be if every single one of us were to play a part in the saving of waste paper . . . The other day I made a point of calling the twelve different newspapers that are published in Montreal alone. I asked each one of the publishers just how many tons of newspaper they used in the course of a week and would you believe it, the figure reached the colossal sum of 1,400,000 pounds in one week. In twelve months it represents the stupendous figure of 72,800,000 pounds. Therefore with a little figuring it proves that if Montrealers were to save every newspaper received in their homes during the course of twelve months, they would have the satisfaction of knowing they had contributed approximately $200,000 fighting dollars to Canada's all out war effort.

"So folks let's pitch in and get this thing really rolling. I am sure many of you who are listening in have often rolled up a newspaper to swat a pesky fly. Well! I would like to see you take tonight's paper, roll it up . . . grasp it firmly in your hands and make this pledge . . . say to yourself "I am going to do my part to swat the NAZI PEST from off the face of the earth."

Titles were presented by Mayor Raymond who made a special journey from the country for this occasion.

Praises Display

His Worship congratulated the society on the lovely display of flowers and also for their patriotic spirit which prompted them to award all cash prizes in War Saving Stamps. The creation of beautiful gardens and attractive home surroundings are one of the city's greatest assets," asserted his worship, urging all listeners to greater efforts in this direction.

A basket of gladiolus was raffled for the Queen's Fund for bombed victims, the mayor drawing the winning ticket which awarded the prize to Mrs. Lindsay Robertson. After the presentation of prizes, the flowers and vegetables were auctioned by Christopher Ellis who kept the audience in a state of mirth with his humorous sallies. Each successful bidder received the full amount of their purchase in War Saving Stamps in addition to the flowers. A total of $130 worth of stamps were disposed of in this manner. The prize awards and auctions during the past twelve months have resulted in over $800 worth of War Saving Stamps being sold by the society. In addition to the $14 raised in the raffle for the Queen's Fund, a window box donated by F. H. Dentith and two fertilizer were sold at $5 for the same lot, making a grand total of $19, which has been turned over to the fund. The patriotic spirit of the society is greatly to be commended for these splendid efforts.

Competition in the flower show was exceedingly keen. C. G. Palin and S. Whitaker divided honors for the Founders Trophy, awarded for the most first prizes in the show, with 14 firsts each. The Cooper Cup, awarded for the most points won in the amateur section, was won by C. G. Palin, with 42 points. S. Whitaker running close with 41 points.

"Caught In The Draft" Showing At Westmount

Last night, Bob Hope landed right in the middle of Uncle Sam's armament program in "Caught in the Draft," Paramount's all-out comedy now playing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday night.

One minute after Bob fired the opening gun, the whole theatre was thrown into an uproar. For Bob, taking the part of a movie actor engaged in making a war picture, had given the "Over the top!" signal to his men and then screamed frantically when he discovered that his pistol was really loaded.

The gun-shy actor next creates a laugh-riot when he finds himself in the army as the result of a practical joke which backfired on himself. "Caught in the Draft" may not be a true version of everything the army has to offer its rookies, but Bob Hope and his comedy corps certainly manage to give army life a new twist — the kind even the draftees will enjoy.

There are parachute drops that will make your stomach power dive with hilarity; crazy tank chases; pretty nurses; and "selective service" duties including peeling potatoes and softening a hard-boiled "sarge."

Dorothy Lamour, who co-stars with the popular screen and radio gangster, is in love with Buck Private Hope, but she can't marry him until her father, the colonel, is convinced that something is afoot.

The hero's veins. The rook is caught between the crossfire of Doty's screams and the colonel's fury as he slides out of one tight spot into another.

A. J. CRONIN FILM AT THE SNOWDON

James Stephenson and Geraldine Fitzgerald are the principals in the latest A. J. Cronin story, "Shining Victory," which is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre.

"POT O' GOLD"

Paulette Goddard and James Stewart in a scene from the film "Pot O' Gold," which opens at the Monkland United Theatre on Sunday playing until Tuesday night.

Successful Season Closed By Belmont Park Monday

Belmont Park will write 'Fins' to one of its most successful seasons on Monday, Labor Day, at Midnight, it was announced by managing-director Rex D. Billings yesterday.

Furthermore, stated Mr. Billings, plans are already underway for extensive alterations, improvements and additions to the park for next season. Neither money nor effort will be spared and it is hoped that several new attractions will make their bow to the public next year.

Saturday will be the last of the "Back to School Days" at the Park... the youngsters' final opportunity to enjoy life in the open, in absolute safety, before returning to classrooms. Special concessions are granted them both in admission price and on several of the attractions along the Midway.

The Peaches Sky Revue, the most elaborate aerial ballet ever to play the Park, will terminate its engagement on Sunday evening. Featuring six attractive and daring girl aerialists, this act had the distinction of being the opening and closing feature at the San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition last year. The girls are seen in tap routines, contortionistic and acrobatic stunts atop a rigging towering more than 100 feet above ground without any safety device whatsoever, should one or more lose balance during the course of the performance.

As a grand finale two of the girls make a perfect dive into a net adjoining the rigging... a feat that must be executed just right to avoid serious if not fatal injury.

On Monday, Labor Day, the last day of the park's features for the season the official Labor Day Celebration will be conducted by the Montreal Trades and Labor Board.

THRILLING FILM NOW AT YORK

'Blood and Sand' Hailed as Sensational Success

Brilliantly conceived, masterfully executed, and beautifully paced, "Blood and Sand" opened last night at the York United Theatre to a packed house, and if one is to judge by its reception, it is an assured hit.

Starring Tyrone Power who contributes an insured performance, the film was produced by Darryl F. Zanuck in blazing Technicolor. Based on the famous novel by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, "Blood and Sand" features Linda Darnell and Rita Hayworth at the head of a star-studded cast.

Depicting the story of a matador who is torn between the love of beautiful wife (Linda Darnell) and the allure of a fiery temptress (Rita Hayworth), "Blood and Sand" is a drama of contrasts. Contrast between the grinding poverty of young Juan Gallardo, the reckless bullfighter before he became the most famous matador of Spain, and the overflowing wealth he achieved afterwards. The contrast between the devotion and the fidelity of Juan's wife, and the callous fickleness of the beautiful siren. All of which makes it one of the most moving and exciting films to come out of Hollywood.

French Picture Is Secured By Snowdon Theatre

The management of the Snowdon take great pleasure in announcing that they have been fortunate enough to secure the most celebrated of all French films, "The Baker's Wife," direct from its record breaking run in New York where it set a new high attendance record for the French film in America. The Baker's Wife, which has been titled in English, will be presented at the Snowdon commencing on Sunday, September 7th. Rainu, France's greatest comedian, is starred in Jean Gino's story, which Marcel Pagnol has directed. The dialogue titles in English are by the celebrated American novelist and wit, John Erskine.

Notables Endorse Film "The Baker's Wife," which has drawn endorsement from celebrities in every walk of life, including such well known figures as Albert Einstein, Dorothy Thompson, Charles Laughton, Alexander Korda, Marlene Dietrich, William Lyon Phelps, Gram Swing and many others, is a satirical comedy of infidelity related in terms of economics. It tells the story of what happened to a village in the south of France when a baker's wife ran away with a shepherd and the baker went on a drunk and refused to bake any more bread until his wife came back. The villagers didn't mind the erring wife's sin but they couldn't subsist without the baker's bread so they form a posse to bring her back. That's the story but the film's humor and satire digs deep into life and the foibles of people and the result has been described by the critics everywhere as one of the gayest films ever made. John Erskine's sparkling titles translate all of the French dialogue at its wittiest.

Added Attraction Half this excellent double program is occupied by Robert Sterling and Marsha Hunt, who dawned on the screen as a romantic team in "The Penalty." are reunited in tense human drama in "I'll Wait For You," Metro-Goldwyn-Meyers' story of loyalty and regeneration.

A good conscience is paradise. —Arminius.

"LOVE CRAZY"

The screen's daffiest "Mr. and Mrs." team, William Powell and Myrna Loy, romp through the merriest matrimonial adventures of their hilarious career in "Love Crazy," which comes to the York United Theatre on Saturday playing until Tuesday night.

Roaring Thriller of Last Frontier!

Filmed in Technicolor in Arizona's picturesque Monument Valley, "Bully the Kid," brings Robert Taylor and Brian Donlevy with Mary Howard in the feminine lead to the Westmount United Theatre on Sunday playing until Tuesday night.

MUSICAL ATTRACTION AT KENT

Don Ameche decides between Alice Faye and Carmen Miranda in a scene from "That Night in Rio" (the year's top musical) playing at the Kent Theatre with "Flight From Destiny," next Saturday to Tuesday.

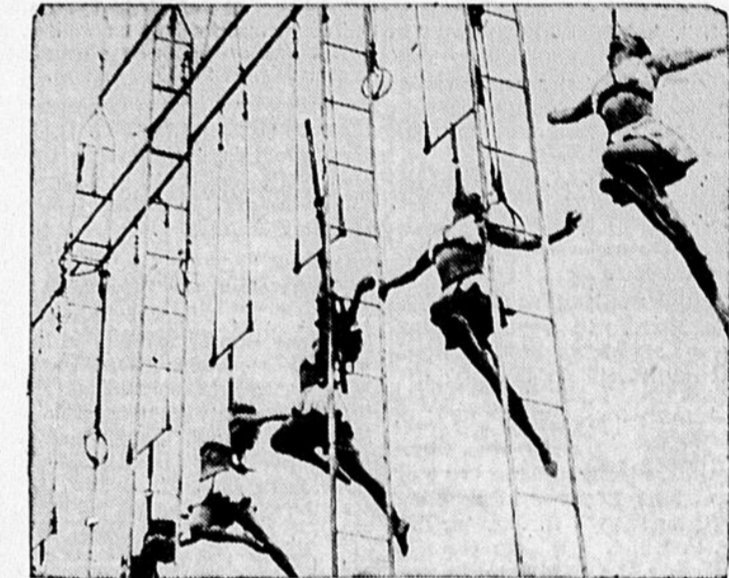

OHIOANS IN REUNION Paramount's production of "Nothing but the Truth" is rapidly becoming a reunion of Ohioans. Bob Hope and assistant director Oscar Rudolph hail from Cleveland. Director Elliott Nugent is a native of Columbus and Bill Hoover, stand-in for Edward Arnold, is from Paulding.

Claudette Colbert's bangs have practically become a trade-mark. "Skylark" is the twenty-fifth consecutive film in which she wears them.

June Preisler, winsome leading lady for Jackie Cooper in "Glamour Boy," danced before royalty when she and her sister, Cherry, toured Europe. The present King and Queen of England

'Flight From Destiny' Is Entertaining, Novel Film

Saturday to Tuesday the Kent Theatre will show one of the year's most unusual films. It is called "Flight From Destiny" and it is a picture as important as its title. The film stars Thomas Mitchell, Academy Award Winner, Geraldine Fitzgerald of "Dark Victory," Jeffrey Lynn, star of "All This And Heaven Too" and James Stephenson.

Professor Henry Todhunter, played by Thomas Mitchell, learns from his doctor, played by James Stephenson, that he is suffering from a heart ailment which allows him only six more months to live. After much deliberation he decides that he can make his life worthwhile by doing away with someone who menaces others yet whose crimes are not punishable by law. He hasn't the slightest idea who that victim will be but it isn't long before he finds a deserving candidate.

The wife of one of his favorite students, portrayed by Geraldine Fitzgerald, tells the professor that her artist husband, Michael (Jeff-

Lavish in its production, eye-lining in its beauty, abounding with melody and the world's most beautiful girls, "Ziegfeld Girl" opened last night at the Monkland United Theatre to an audience that continued to enthrall long after the final fade-out. Replete with everything that makes for motion picture entertainment, "Ziegfeld Girl" recalled the days of Hollywood's most opulent musical productions.

There are the screen's three most glamorous beauties: Judy Garland, Hedy Lamarr, and Lana Turner, the girls whose lives the film unfolds. Teamed with them are James Stewart and Tony Martin. Never before have Judy Garland and Tony Martin sung to better advantage. Their number, "We Must Have Music," is one of the finest and most exciting to reach the screen. Then Miss Lamarr, never more beautiful, turns in a haunting performance as the girl who prefers obscurity with the man she loves to glorification as a Ziegfeld beauty. Lana Turner takes full advantage of her finest dramatic role as the tragic Follies beauty and plays a death scene with such poignancy that it is sure to win a place among the screen's never-to-be forgotten scenes. Last, but not least, James Stewart, Miss Turner's down-to-earth truck-driver sweetheart moves still another step forward in his long string of successes.

frey Lynn's role) seems to be in some sort of trouble but he won't reveal it. After some investigation the professor learns that a woman called Ketti, owns an art gallery and employs Michael to make copies of masterpieces which she sells as originals. When he wants to quit she threatens to expose him. The professor tells her very coldly that unless she frees Michael he will kill her and she ridicules the thought of this weak looking creature threatening her life.

The plot continues to pile up surprise after surprise in a film crammed with suspense.

Acc director Vincent Sherman, handled "Flight From Destiny" and from advance reports he has kept his brilliant record intact. Barry Trivers wrote the screenplay from a story by Anthony Berkeley.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Arthur Grant Campbell, and by Miss Janet Hamilton, sister of the groom. Both attendants wore frocks of pale apricot colored chifon, with picture hats of the same material. They carried cascade bouquets of gladioli blossoms.

Pilot Officer Alexander Hamilton, R.C.A.F., was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Lieutenant Robert Harvey, C.D.C., Mr. David Murphy, Flying Officer Ian Gillean, R.C.A.F., and Dr. Victor Berry, of Ottawa.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 4293 Montrose avenue, where pale peach and white gladioli were used to decorate, the table being arranged with low bowls of bouvardia and baby's breath.

EVERYTHING CONSIDERED

BY
GERALDINE BRIETZCKE

You only have to flip through the pages of an English magazine—and in particular a woman's magazine—to gain a quick and comprehensive glimpse of the courage and dogged determination of the English civilians. Not only do they run articles on how to make the best of rationing; they anticipate without hesitation a happier future when there will be no rationing.

In the gentlemanly style of the better type of English advertisements, a well known soap manufacturing company states, "We take a very optimistic view of the future. Already we are beginning to relish the new opportunities for travel after the war." The advertisement is complete with a picture of a man and a woman sitting on a sandy beach with a tropical moon dipping behind black palm trees. Ostensibly it means that once the "job" has been finished, a greater freedom will release British people and send them farther afield on vacations. But the inner meaning of the smart little sketch goes deeper. It expresses unquenchable bravery and a hopefulness that nothing can dim.

"Quality is in," says the editor of a woman's magazine. No longer can an English girl buy something adorable but impractical—unless she wants to sacrifice an overcoat or a pair of shoes or some other necessity. On 66 coupons for clothing, she must buy a year's supply of good garments that won't let her down. Purchase of a housecoat requires 7 coupons, leaving her 59. Three pairs of stockings— at 2 coupons per pair— bring her supply down to 53. Suppose she needs two pairs of shoes; that will further reduce her legal allowance to 43 coupons. It doesn't take long.

English women are cutting up their evening dresses, making them into shorter frocks for afternoon occasions; there is a magazine article on the lost art of neat darning; there are suggestions that one might mend the runs in stockings with amusing embroidery. "How do you like the idea of vintage clothes?" one article asks. "The woman who has a few good vintage modes maturing in her wardrobe is very lucky."

Not only is she lucky. If she's anything like the rest of her sisters, she's Plucky, with a capital P.

The young horseman who won the open jumping title at the Gynkhana, held at Ste. Agathe last week-end, must have been worth seeing. Aged 14, Master Roger Laviolette had only been riding for two years, and won repeated applause at the show for his horsemanship. As riding a horse properly is as exacting as driving a car, the boy must have been a quick learner and a natural genius with horses. And now he has a nice shining cup to take home with him.

Hobart Cavanaugh, again a meek fellow in "Skylark," adopts a gruff attitude in real life to prove he isn't really a Mr. Milquetoast.

came back, the gentleman proudly exhibited his ears—full of chewed gum—and asked, "Is this right?" She was tactful, and explained to him that if he just chewed it in the regulation manner, it would relieve that "altitude" feeling in the ear drums.

At the foot of Mt. Bruno mountain, more than 350 officers and men of the 6th Casualty Clearing Station (R.C.A.M.C.) and No. 1 Bridge Co. (R.C.A.S.C.) were entertained recently by the Evans Sisters' Troop Show. The unit arrived at the camp and set up loud speaking system, spotlight, etc., which are properties of the unit, on the open air pavilion, and then put on a two hour show for the men. Throughout the evening, with sky and stars as a back drop, waves of laughter and applause could be heard drifting through the night air, as the Evans Sisters and members of the unit presented their show. At the conclusion, the officer commandant thanked the artists for their efforts.

MUSICAL PETS

One always associates musicians, actors and artists with odd notions and temperaments. Perhaps in the past, up until the turn of the last century this might have been correct but ever since nineteen hundred or thereabout, the colony of artists which includes painters, writers, actors and musicians found that they did not have to be "different" in order to be acclaimed in their particular field. Most likely it was their best way of securing the most publicity. And the public liked it. Had Liszt been alive today he probably would have cut his hair and painters would wear ordinary clothes. But in feeling and temperament we find that most of the foremost musical personalities of our day have a great affection for animals and even though they are very busy, find time to devote to their pets.

Just as President Roosevelt loves "Falla" his constant Scottish pal and Prime Minister MacKenzie King was accompanied by his faithful Boston bulldog for eighteen years (the canine pet died last year) so many musicians have their four-footed friends. We will tell you of some—Lauritz Melchior, the great Danish tenor of world-wide fame is the proud owner of two great Danes. Peal beauties. Alexander Brailowsky, famous pianist has a prize-winning Pomeranian and Dusolina Giannini, dramatic soprano, boasts about her wonderful terrier. Many have cats as pets. Anna Kaskas, the Metropolitan contralto, having a Persian prize-winner; Lansing Hatfield the well-known baritone also prides himself on his feline pal. An intelligent terrier is the constant companion of Abram Chasins, pianist and Desire Defrere, the stage director of the Metropolitan Opera and his wife, Hilda Burke, the singer are very fond of their Boston terrier, "Joy." The Menuhin's own—a Belgian police dog, and so does John Carter, who won the Metropolitan auditions of the air two years ago and has had continued success in the concert field as well. Irving Kolodin, the eminent New York music critic owns two fine dogs and Frank La Forge, famous singing teacher of Lawrence Tibbett and renowned accompanist has a white West Highland terrier called "Peggy."

Lotte Lehmann has two spitz dogs named "Mohrchen" and "Jimmy," and two cocker spaniels are the special pride of Herbert Janssen of the Metropolitan. black and white dog and Jean Tennyson owns an Irish Terrier named "Carl" which does all sorts of tricks. Gladys Swarthout of opera and movie fame and her husband, Frank Chapman, enjoy their white wire-haired terrier, a little beauty. Jean Dickinson, soprano of concert and radio fame has much fun with her Scottie and so on down the list. Most of these pets are with their masters and mistresses constantly—even when they practice, so their musical education is of the best. They are certainly "musical" pets.

CHEAP ANSWER

It was a very dissatisfied tenant who approached the landlord of the new house.

"Look here," he said, "that house I've just taken from you is horribly draughty. I've spent pounds on heating arrangements, but wherever I sit my hair is blown all over my head. Can't you do something about it?"

The landlord shook his head. "I'm afraid not," he replied. "I think it would be easier and cheaper for you to get your hair cut."

MEANT BUSINESS

A little boy had been very rude to his mother, and had been sent to his bedroom for punishment. After a time his father went to see what he was doing and found him writing a letter.
"Is that a letter to Mummy saying you're sorry?" said the culprit's father.
"If you must know," was the reply. "I'm writing to the Archbishop of Canterbury to get a divorce from both of you."

Teams Fight Gamely For Westmount Softball Crown

ROYALS AFTER SENIOR TITLE BATTER DODGERS' PITCHING WIN IN 'WALK' OVER RIVALS

Make It Two Straight in Championship Series — Go 'Hit' Crazy As They Pile Up 18 Runs — Tudin in Superb Form — Almost a 'No-Hit' Game — Great Support From Mates

The Royals look well on the road to capturing their fourth straight Westmount Senior Municipal Softball League title. Winners of the title the last three years, this year's edition lead the Dodgers two games to none in the final series for the 1941 championship. The Royals took the second game of the series last Wednesday night, swamping the Dodgers 18-0 behind the one-hit pitching of Connie Tudin. The third and possibly concluding game of the series was played last night.

Wednesday night's game was a walkaway for the winners, the only interest in the game was the possibility that Tudin might be in for a "no-hitter." The Royals were giving Tudin the best of support and probably played their best game of the season in the field. Tudin had his no-hitter going into the seventh and last inning, he got the first man up, Art Mann on a grounder to the infield, but Emmett Miller spoiled the works by banging a hard hit single off Tudin's own legs. This was a really hard hit ball and would have gone for a clean hit over second base into the outfield if it hadn't connected with Tudin's knees first.

Leonard proved no mystery to the Royals and they got to him for seventeen hits. Bert Dalzell banged out three of them including a home run. Tom Brennan, Donnie Maher, Johnnie Mahaffey, Tudin, Kevin Tolan and Eric Fleet got two hits apiece. Tudin fanned eight men during the seven innings and walked but one. The RCAF team in the local league played the Mount Royal Ladies softball team of the Major League in an exhibition game Tuesday night. Always gentlemen, the Air Force dropped an 11-0 decision. The batteries were reversed, an Air Force pitcher and catcher hurling for the girls with a feminine pitcher and catcher doing duty for the Airmen.

The Royals of the local loop have entered their team in the provincial tournament which gets under way this Sunday. At the present time it is not known who their opponents will be or where the game will be played. The Royals will be using a grounds on Charlevoix Street as their home diamond.

'Chi' Club Popular, Attendance Grows

As a pennant contender the Cubs were not in the running. Novikoff was a flop and Billy Myers never became a regular, but the club's popularity is something to marvel at.

And yet the fans of Chicago's North Side are following the club more avidly than they did a year back when the vets were belted, spurred on in a futile pennant bid.

Seems rather strange, but figures don't lie, and today the Cubs' attendance is far ahead of what it was exactly a year ago.

The fans seem to favor paying to see a preview of "The Team of Tomorrow." That is what the Club officials believe they are showing.

LETTAN LEADS IN FLY CASTING

Weekly Competition Held In Westmount Park — Full Card of Events Staged

The Fly Casters held their weekly competitions on Tuesday evening in Westmount Park. Owing to the rain they were forced to cancel the events of the week previous but held a full card of events this week. Mr. Lettan took top honors in the Class A group scoring a 10 to win the event by one point from Mr. B. Travers. Mr. H. Haley scored a 12 to come third but showed an unusual card getting six perfect scores out of the ten but making 5's on two of the casts to put himself out of the running.

Mr. B. Murdoch captured the Class B honors with a 24 for the ten casts, while Mrs. Morell won the ladies event with a 35. The Casters are preparing for the provincial championships which are being held in Westmount Park on Saturday, September 6th. Forty prizes have been put up for competition and in addition to this five cups are to be won. There is a lot of interest being shown in this tournament and it is expected that there will be a large number of entrants.

CRICKET MATCH VS. WANDERERS ENDS IN DRAW

Westmount Eleven Loses Three Men to His Majesty's Forces

A full afternoon's cricket was played last Saturday on the Park with Westmount entertaining Wanderers "A". The visiting team won the toss but decided to field. The home team opened with their usual pair Chappell and Sweeting but the latter failed to score and Edge filled the vacancy and these batsmen proceeded to take the score to 105 before Edge lost his wicket.

The next four wickets did not provide much but the partnership of Morrow and Sigrope added 29 before the latter was clean bowled by Hodge. Pike joined Morrow and 15 more runs were added before the latter ran himself out. Norrish joined Pike and after the former had made a boundary hit the innings was declared closed leaving Wanderers two hours to get the runs. 83 runs were scored for five wickets when stumps were drawn, the partnership of Broadbelt and Hodge saving the day for Wanderers.

On August 30 Westmount play the Air Force on the Park. Play will commence at 2.30. Unfortunately the home team will be without the services of W. Edge who has now gone on Active Service with the Navy. Westmount's loss is the Navy's gain but every good wish will go to him. He has played consistently good cricket this season and it is interesting to note his analysis:

Table with 4 columns: Innings, Not out, Runs, Aver. (10, 1, 317, 35.22)

Westmount has now lost three men to the Senior Service, Churchill-Smith joining three weeks ago and Bert Ward last summer.
