

GERMAN MASS ATTACKS ON BRITAIN CONTINUING

Coast Defences Prove Effective Against Raiders

Only Fifty-Five Planes of First Wave of Two Hundred Manage to Break Through to Reach Coast Objective—Thirteen, Possibly Sixteen, German Craft Shot Down Today in Addition to Sixty Yesterday.

London, Aug. 12.—Germany sent two hundred airplanes at a port in Southern England today but only fifty-five of them broke through the coastal defences to reach the undisclosed objective.

The others were met over the Channel by Royal Air Force fighters who sent four Messerschmitts spinning into the sea, broke up the Nazi formation and turned the others back to their bases.

By early afternoon at least thirteen—possibly sixteen—German planes had been shot down, with the raiders still roaring along the coast in apparently growing numbers.

The fifty-five planes which reached their objectives remained fifteen minutes, dropping incendiary bombs, which set fire to some buildings.

A number of shop windows were blown out and it was understood there were a few casualties.

An early afternoon attack on another Southeast town was the heaviest so far.

Two Nazi waves—one of twenty-one bombers and the other of fifteen, protected by fighters—wheeled out of the sun from the cover of clouds.

"I saw about twenty Junkers 88's roaring down," one eye-witness said.

"Five of them were destroyed. "Anti-aircraft guns put up a terrific fire and one bomber had its tail shot off. It dived straight behind some houses.

"About twelve Germans bailed out of their planes."

All twelve Nazi flyers who leaped from their burning planes were quickly captured by police and townspeople.

At first the raids were a repetition of the fierce German assaults yesterday on the Channel Coast, but they spread as far as Northeast England and the Air Ministry's greatest air reports show that large-scale activity is taking place over a wide area in the Channel and Thames estuary.

It said there had been a few casualties, only one of them fatal.

"Enemy aircraft crossed the Kent Coast this morning and bombs were dropped at several points near the coast.

"Reports so far indicate that casualties were few but one of these was fatal.

"Later reports show that large-scale activity is taking place over a wide area in the Channel and Thames estuary, but details are not yet available."

The new British bag was in addition to the Nazi planes shot down Sunday in one of the greatest air battles of the war. Official reports said sixty and unofficial reports said sixty-nine German planes were destroyed.

The centre of the German attack appeared to be directly across the English Channel from the nearest German bases.

An Associated Press correspondent at Dover—three minutes by bomber from France—reported two raids within two hours on a South-eastern town.

Ministers Plan Brief Rests As Parliament Suspends Discussion

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—Settling down into a post-session routine the cabinet starts meeting regularly twice a week Tuesday. Some Ministers left the capital for brief rests after Parliament adjourned Wednesday but this week all will be back at their desks attending to departmental duties.

Appointment of an advisory committee to assist the Canadian Wheat Board will be announced early this week by Trade Minister MacKinnon.

The committee will include representatives of farmers' organizations. Provision was made for it in the Wheat Board Act a year or so ago but until now no steps have been taken to set up the Board.

Labor Minister McLarty and War Services Minister Gardiner will be two of the busiest men in the cabinet in the next few months. Both have big tasks imposed on them as a result of the recent session.

Mr. Gardiner's big immediate task starts for the general public, a week from today. Arrangements for the coming of the able-bodied men and women in the country over the age of sixteen are already well advanced and the

Japanese Urge All Foreign Armed Forces Quit Shanghai

Spokesman for Foreign Office Hints that Other Non-Oriental Nations Should Follow Example of Great Britain—Claim Two Changes in International Situation Make Such Move Possible.

Tokyo, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Yasuchiro Suma, Foreign Office spokesman, hinted today that other nations should consider withdrawing their military forces from China.

(A British decision, announced last Friday, to withdraw troops from Shanghai and North China will leave United States marines the only important non-Oriental elements of the Shanghai defence forces. There is a French garrison in the French concession and a small Italian marine unit.)

(When the British decision was announced, the acting United States Secretary of State, Sumner Welles, in Washington said there would be no effect whatever on the position of the United States in China.

There are about 1,650 U.S. marines in China, the bulk of them in Shanghai and the remainder in Peiping and Tientsin.)

The British decision to remove troops from China, Suma said, underlined these points:

1.—Japan is assuming responsibility for peace and order in Peiping, Tientsin and Shanghai.

2.—"Because of changed conditions, it now is problematical whether it is necessary to maintain troops in these areas."

Commanders of foreign garrisons should consider the order in Peiping, Tientsin and Shanghai.

EMPIRE TROOPS STRENGTHENING AFRICAN ARMY

Reinforcements Arrive at Gulf of Aden Ports to Assist in Defence of Somaliland Points.

Cairo, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Reinforcements newly arrived from far-flung parts of the British Empire were reported today digging in around the important seaport of Berbera on the Gulf of Aden for a stand against Italian columns advancing across burning Somaliland wastes under harassing aerial attacks.

Arrival of the reinforcements was disclosed by British officials in denying Italian claims that Somaliland virtually had been cut off from overseas help.

Convoy laden with troops and munitions are steaming regularly through the Red Sea, the British said, unchallenged by Italian naval forces.

British Vessels Develop Dual Defence Against Dive Bombers

By ROBERT E. BRUNELLE (Associated Press Staff Writer)

On England's Southeast Coast, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The men who man the ships which guard and feed Britain believe Britain has found or is finding an answer to the dive-bomber.

These men see the British reply to the German Stukas as two-fold: The barrage balloons being tried out by the shipping convoys to keep the bombers high enough to prevent accurate aim;

A new multi-barrelled anti-aircraft gun which nails the bombers if they come in low.

This new gun is a pom-pom which fires shells an inch or more in calibre, constructed so delicately they explode at the slightest contact.

Britons who have seen the guns in action praise them highly.

The barrage balloons, among the targets of yesterday's heavy Nazi aerial attacks, are said to be a big help in warding off the bombers, but they have their drawbacks.

They are vulnerable to the cannon-fire of the German Messerschmitts, are a drag on the ships which tow them and thus slow down the convoys, require a certain amount of "babysitting" and expert handling, and are hard to manoeuvre in the stiff winds which frequently whip over the English Channel and the North Sea.

Talking of the speed and apparent calm with which replacement balloons were sent up under fire for those shot down yesterday, one barrage operator said:

"Yes, we get them from the thrupence and sixpence stores (British five and ten) just like that. Write out a requisition—balloon, Air Force, for use of, one—and there you are."

Yesterday's attacks began as a surprise assault on the balloons.

But soon it developed into wave after wave of bombers and fighters aiming at the town where I was, until the sky was thick with planes darting in and out of puffs of anti-aircraft shells in bitter dogfights that ranged all up and down the coast.

With other onlookers, I rushed into the street to gather shell fragments as souvenirs.

But we didn't stay long. An anti-aircraft battery 100 yards away burst into action and we ducked for shelter as an Air Raid Warden cried:

"Better take cover, they're machine-gunning the streets. Don't say you weren't warned."

Later we found machine-gun bullets imbedded in the concrete a few feet from our shelters.

NAVY PLANNING HUGE DISPLAY FOR ROOSEVELT

President to Visit Torpedo Station and Chemical Plant at Newport, R.I., Due for Expansion.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Newport, R.I., Aug. 12.—(AP)—The United States Navy arranged to show to President Roosevelt today its largest torpedo station, where metals and chemicals are converted into deadly weapons, and the site of a new $25,000,000 air base that will guard New England's industries.

Mr. Roosevelt was cruising toward this swank resort town, after spending a leisurely Sunday at sea on his yacht, Potomac, to round out an inspection of rapidly expanding defences in the Northeastern states.

The torpedo station, on Goat Island, is being expanded.

Italy Takes Threatening Attitude Against Greece In Slaying Of Albanian

Italian Government-Controlled News and Propaganda Agency Launches Attacks on Greece for Part in Alleged Murder and for Support to Great Britain Through Provisioning of Warships.

By GUY RHOADES, Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Italy's government-controlled news and propaganda agency, Stefani, today heaped abuse on Greece and led some observers to suggest the Italian Government was allowing Stefani to drum up a case for Italian aggression against the little Mediterranean country.

While Britain and Germany hammered at each other in the air, the Italians, taking considerable punishment in their campaign against British Somaliland, accused the Greeks of supplying oil to British-men-of-war, conniving with Britain at "plots" along the Albanian border and beheading an obscure Albanian minority leader.

The original outburst by Stefani concerned allegations that Greeks had decapitated one Daut Hoggia. The agency said his body was found yesterday, but Greek sources said Hoggia was slain almost three weeks ago and that he was a highway robber.

The Italian Government made no official pronouncement on the alleged incident, but an authoritative spokesman described it as evidence of Greek "blind despotism" and "intolerable persecution" of 50,000 Albanians living in the Ciamuria region annexed by Greece in 1913.

"Whoever touches Albania touches Italy," this man said, apparently alluding to the Italian "protectorate" established over Albania after Italians conquered the country to "save" it from King Zog's former rule.

If Popolo d'Italia improved the case by asserting Greece was plotting with Britain along the Albanian border, feeding oil to British ships and conducting herself in otherwise unneutral manner.

The Government of Premier John Metaxas gave notice at the outbreak of hostilities in the Mediterranean that Greece intended to remain neutral. Britain guaranteed that neutrality and Italy protested that she had no intention of encroaching on Greece.

One reason for the Italian threats might be this:

Authoritarianism thrives on success and loses weight on delay or failure. Mussolini's African forces have not been enjoying any particular success and strategically they are in a worse position than they were when they started.

It might be possible for the Duce's henchmen to drum up a bit of enthusiasm for the "lost" province of Ciamuria. Pan-Italianism aroused some enthusiasm when the people were shouting for the acquisition of Tunisia, Corsica and Jibuti, just as pan-Germany kept Hitler's people in line during his territorial rials.

Simultaneously with the anti-Greek outburst in Rome the Exchange Telegraph Agency reported the Italians were having an unhappy time with the fierce Albanians. The Agency said Italian soldiers had attempted to enforce an order for the seizure of food stores and that the Albanians had resisted stoutly.

A fight developed, according to the Agency, and the Italians suffered around one hundred casualties.

It is possible that some of the 50,000 Albanians in Ciamuria are plotting with their friends across the Albanian border in moves to harness their conquerors.

Ideal Weather Favors First Day Of Waterloo Exhibition

Many Novel Features Introduced for Annual Exhibition of Shefford County Agricultural Society at Waterloo—Grand Parade of Prize Livestock to Mark Programme Before Grand Stand Tomorrow.

Waterloo, Aug. 12.—With ideal weather conditions indicating a banner day for the annual exhibition, the gates of the local fair grounds swung open at an early hour this morning as curtains were raised on Waterloo Fair, the annual exhibition held under the auspices of the Shefford Agricultural Society.

Exhibitors poured into the grounds throughout yesterday and early this morning, and cattle stalls were at a premium over the week-end as fine herds from farms surrounding Waterloo and throughout Shefford County were brought to the sheds which will be their homes until the fair is concluded Wednesday night.

Heretofore all court cases have been heard by two jurymen as well as a judge.

Another decree made petty larceny on the job a criminal offence, punishable with a minimum of one year in prison.

Officials and Directors of the Shefford Agricultural Society have been busy in their efforts to provide amusements for thousands of Fair-goers.

Meals and refreshments will be provided at the Social Service Club booth, under the direction of the club President, Miss Lucia Graves. This booth is operated annually by the English women of the town, and from its proceeds a great amount of money is raised.

MANY CANADIAN OFFICERS ARE GIVEN ADVANCE

Officers of First Division Named to Corps Posts for Army Corps Commanded by Lt.-Gen. McNaughton.

London, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton has appointed twenty-two Canadian officers to his headquarters staff as commander of an army corps.

Announcement of the appointments over the week-end show that the staff will be largely Canadian from the start and that many of the officers who went overseas with the new corps commander in the 1st Canadian Division will serve with him in his new command. Presumably other officers on the staff are from the British or other Dominion forces.

General McNaughton's corps consists of the 1st and part of the 2nd Canadian Divisions, with Canadian ancillary troops and another Empire division.

Eventually the Second Division under the command of Major-Gen. Victor Odlum will be completed as an integral part of the Canadian corps.

General Odlum is already in England with his divisional headquarters but some units of the division are still in Canada.

For the senior corps artillery and engineer officers General McNaughton chose the officers who commanded divisional artillery and engineers in the 1st Division and for his chief signals officer he picked the commander of 1st Divisional Signals.

Col. G. R. Turner, of Fredericton, is promoted to the rank of Brigadier and leaves his former post of General Staff Officer (1st grade) at Divisional Headquarters to take the corresponding post of Brigadier General Staff at Corps Headquarters.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL MAINTAIN WIDE BLOCKADE

British Official Spokesman Declares European Famine Depends on Food Distribution by Germany.

London, August 12.—(AP)—A British spokesman declared today the blockade against Germany and Nazi-occupied European states would be maintained vigorously. Food for the 18,000,000 non-German Europeans affected depended on "fair distribution by Germany, which has an abundance of supplies," the spokesman said.

This statement was made as the Government withheld official comment on former President Herbert Hoover's request yesterday to permit the United States to supply food to The Netherlands, Belgium, Poland and Norway, pending formal receipt of the appeal.

CONTRADICTORY REPORTS

New York, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The German wireless, quoting the French newspaper, Paris-Soir, said today that German authorities in occupied France had placed "whole contingents of French farmers" at the disposal of French farmers' and were predicting a record harvest.

The German broadcast was heard here by Columbia Broadcasting System.

(This was at considerable variance with German claims that the Reich itself has sufficient food for its own needs but that other parts of Europe may starve this winter unless Britain lowers the blockade to admit food from the United States for the affected areas.)

MEXICAN OIL LABOR FIGHTS NEW OFFICER

Tampico, Mexico, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Thousands of Mexican petroleum workers, resentful of President Lazaro Cardenas' economy reorganization plan for the industry, threw a picket line around the local Government refinery today to prevent a nephew of the industry's General Manager from taking a new post as Technical Director of the plant.

The Technical Director is J. Vier Cortes Obregon, assigned to the job by his uncle, Vicente Cortes Herrera.

Announcement of the appointments over the week-end show that the staff will be largely Canadian from the start and that many of the officers who went overseas with the new corps commander in the 1st Canadian Division will serve with him in his new command. Presumably other officers on the staff are from the British or other Dominion forces.

UNITED STATES HOLDS ENVOYS AT WASHINGTON

More Representatives at Home Than at Posts in Foreign Countries as Result of European Upheavals.

Washington, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The State Department is facing the strange likelihood of having more of its European ambassadors in the United States than at their posts.

With several diplomats already here and others on their way home, only four American ambassadors remain in the harried capitals across the Atlantic.

One of these—Joseph Kennedy in London—is at the seat of a government at war. Charges d'affaires—lesser diplomats without the full standing of an ambassador—are handling American interests in Germany and France.

Other ambassadors remaining at their "listening posts" in Europe are Alexander W. Weddell in Spain and John Van A. MacMurray in Turkey. Laurence A. Steinhardt is making his way back to Moscow.

The United States still has ministers in several of the smaller countries, mostly in Southeast Europe and the Near East.

It is assumed that William Phillips, now at home on leave, will return to Rome, but for many another diplomat there seemed to be no place left in the drastically re-ordered Europe of today.

Phillips landed in New York Saturday from the Excalibur, along with Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., who had dodged bombs to make his way out of beleaguered Poland, and George A. Gordon, who had been Minister to The Netherlands when the Lowlands were invaded.

John Cadiñay, Ambassador to Belgium, has left London for home under orders from President Roosevelt. He is to report on an interview on supplying food to the Belgians—an interview for which the State Department reprimanded him.

William C. Bullitt, Ambassador to France, is already here, and his return to France is uncertain. Ray Atherton, Minister to Denmark, returned home some time ago.

WAR BULLETINS

Vichy, France, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The French Government suspended today the wartime requisition order which placed the French National Railways under military control.

Henceforth railways in the part of France not under German occupation will operate under direct authority of the Ministry of Communications.

Moscow, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The Russian Government has circularized the embassies and legations in Moscow asking foreign nations to close their consulates in the three Baltic states absorbed last week into the Soviet Union, diplomatic circles reported.

Vichy, France, Aug. 12.—(AP)—French air force fliers shot down 982 German planes between May 10 and June 10, losing 306 planes themselves in spite of five to one Nazi odds, the Under-Secretary for Air announced today.

"The 306 French planes which were lost were manned by 589 aviators, but whether all this number was killed is yet unknown," the announcement said.

Two Million Frenchmen Prisoners In Germany, Government Announces

Vichy, France, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Demobilization of the French army will be completed Wednesday, it was announced today, with release of the best specialists, such as butchers and bakers.

Of the approximately 5,000,000 men mobilized during the war, it now is admitted that 2,000,000 were captured by the Germans. No considerable number of these have been released so far.

After demobilization only sufficient troops will be retained to maintain public order and guard certain vital points such as coastal and colonial centres. The exact number of these troops has not been made public.

The last class to join the colorado youth who were twenty years old in 1939—was held over and organized into youth brigades. Led by career army officers, these groups will work on public improvements, repair war damages and receive athletic training.

The notice of demobilization advised men whose homes are in Nazi-occupied France that their return there will depend on the facilities recorded by the Germans. None who live north of a line running along the Seine and Aisne rivers to St. Dizier, Chaumont and Dole will be permitted to return for the time being.

Men from the occupied zone forced to remain in the unoccupied area for the time being will be given work on farms, in forestry and in improving lines of communication.

SEEKS FLYING TITLE

Auckland, New Zealand, Aug. 12.—Miss Catella Holmes, of Auckland, hopes to be the first woman to fly the South Pacific from Auckland to San Francisco. The flight is to be her honeymoon.

Miss Holmes will be married this week to Franklin Hull, Pan-American Airways official at Auckland, who has been transferred to San Francisco. The new Pan-American trans-Pacific passenger service will open August 15th and the newlyweds will be among the first passengers.

Quebec, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Appointment of Andrew C. Hersey, of Montreal, as Provincial Trade Commissioner to the West Indies was announced during the week-end by Hon. Oscar Drouin, Minister of Trade and Commerce and Municipal Affairs.

MANY ONTARIO PLANTS TURN TO ARMS WORK

Guns, Ships, Aircraft and Munitions Being Turned Out from Extensive Ontario Industrial System.

This is the third of a Canadian Press series reviewing regional contributions to Canada's war effort. Others will follow. Toronto, Aug. 12.—(P)—Ontario, with the largest population and the greatest industrial development of the Canadian provinces, assumes a leading role in many phases of the national war effort from the start of hostilities.

Factories went into high speed production on uniforms, arms, motor transport, aircraft, volunteers flocked to recruiting stations, fair and exhibition buildings were transformed into barracks as the patriotic sentiments of the people of Ontario were translated into action.

Industrial activity was perhaps Ontario's greatest contribution to the national war effort. With other provinces Ontario shared the honor of sending men into the armed forces but no other province was as well fitted to provide a wide variety of the articles required in war.

These included guns, ships, aircraft, munitions, clothing, tents, motor transport, submarine nets, rubber tires, gas masks and ground sheets.

Possibly the most important industrial enterprises were the machine gun manufacturing plants, producing Bren light machine guns at Toronto, and the great Ford and General Motors automobile factories at Windsor and Oshawa, respectively.

The two motor companies pooled their facilities to produce a com-

WOULD CHANGE REGISTER TO ANNUAL EVENT

Many Important Amendments Proposed to United States Compulsory Military Service-Registration Act.

Washington, Aug. 12.—(P)—Annual registration of all men who are available for noncombatant activities, as well as those who might be called for military service, the Democratic Floor Leader told reporters.

"We ought to have information on the number of men who are available for noncombatant activities, as well as those who might be called for military service," the Democratic Floor Leader told reporters.

Incorporation of Barkley's suggestion into the pending Burke-Warworth Bill would entail some changes in the contemplated conscription plan, it was pointed out by Senator Morris Sheppard (Democrat-Texas), floor manager of the measure.

The bill calls for a single registration to compile the list of men eligible for active training, although the programme would remain in effect five years. Any additional registration, Sheppard said, would require new action by Congress.

Under the bill as approved by the Military Committee, only men from twenty-one through thirty would have to register. Senator Edward Burke (Democrat-Nebraska), however, has offered an amendment to increase the bracket from twenty-one through forty-four.

Complete line of army transport, trucks, gun tractors and all the motive power required to move in the field. Each company specialized in certain parts for the vehicles and some parts were bought from other Ontario plants. These vehicles are now used by the Canadian forces overseas and are being supplied to the British forces as well.

A number of the large explosives and other war plants being erected under Government auspices are located in Ontario. Ontario's steel mills are a valuable link in the industrial front of the Empire. From them comes much of the metal used in war industries throughout Canada.

Formation of the 1st and 2nd Divisions on the outbreak of war set some eight Ontario infantry units, not to speak of numerous artillery and servicing units, to work. Recruiting was brisk and the units soon reached war strength. It was again brisk when the 3rd and 4th Divisions claimed more militia regiments and the big drive for militia volunteers was launched by Defence Minister Ralston a few weeks ago.

The huge grounds of the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto with their spacious buildings was only one of many exhibition properties turned into military encampments to provide winter quarters for soldiers and airmen throughout the province. Kingston, Ontario's old military city, saw a hut city spring into being at nearby Barrfield where signal troops from all over Canada were concentrated for training.

As much of the activity of the Royal Canadian Air Force centred in Ontario even before the war, at the two big air stations of Camp Borden and Trenton, it was not surprising that the first establishments of the British Commonwealth Air Training plan should open in Ontario.

The first trainees under the plan received their initial training at a school established in Toronto. Apart from this initial training school the plan calls for many other establishments in Ontario, a number of which are in operation. They include eight elementary flying training schools, three service flying training schools, three air observer schools, three bombing and gunnery schools and an air navigation school.

These are for the training of pilots, air observers and air gunners and are apart from many establishments for the training of personnel who will serve in the training of the flying personnel. Among the latter are the Technical Training School at St. Thomas where in a modern building designed as a mental hospital men learn the various trades required to make them useful in servicing and repairing aircraft.

The provision of guards for Ontario's vital power plants, the Welland Canal and industrial establishments was a problem which occupied the attention of military and civil authorities early in the war. Many war veterans were employed on this work. Several internment camps for dangerous aliens and others, including prisoners brought to Canada from Great Britain are located in Ontario.

The response of veterans of the First Great War to the call for volunteers for the Canadian Active Service Force and the Veterans' home guard and auxiliary companies was good. In addition hundreds of older men and men unfit for military service organized themselves into civil guards.

Ontario's several military camps, notably at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Camp Borden and Petawawa are busy places this summer.

Hatley, Aug. 12.—A miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Frank Smith, formerly Miss Nyla White, which was arranged by her aunt, Mrs. Arthur McClary, and cousin, Miss Ruth Hartwell, was held in the Guild Hall, where many friends gathered to wish the bride happiness and to bring their gifts.

The guest-of-honor was seated in an arm-chair, which had been decorated by Mrs. George Macdonald, and the gifts were brought in by a pretty little wagon, drawn by little George Hartwell and Shirley Haines.

The Misses Ruth Hartwell and Joyce Haines assisted Mrs. Smith in opening the packages, and the gifts were passed around for inspection. There was a fine array of linen, china and glassware, pyrex dishes, a tablecloth, blankets and a quilt of red and white from her grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Hartwell.

Mrs. Smith thanked her friends for their kindness. She was then taken for a ride on a cart, drawn by merry girl friends, after which refreshments were served.

One of the sharpest engagements in today's Southeast battle was fought at 12,000 feet—more than two miles up.

Two German planes were seen to break away from the east, and they dived, a British Spitfire sat on the tail of one of them.

The raider banked, then looped quickly, trying to shake off the Spitfire, but the Royal Air Force pilot looped with it and got home several bursts of machine-gun fire.

The German plane fell as if out of control and then vanished.

Besides one Heinkel 111 which crashed in a field near a Southwestern town, five of thirty Junkers bombers were reported shot down over a Southeastern town. Observers said at least twelve Nazi airmen bailed out.

In the second raid on the Southeastern town twice visited, the distant, heavy boom of naval guns and still deeper thud of bombs were reported.

Later in the morning, the raiders extended their range to include Northeast England. After circling over one town, a bombing squadron was turned out to sea by R.A.F. fighters, and was said to have jettisoned four bombs about a mile off shore.

One of the German bombers was shot down by R.A.F. fighters with one of its crew killed and three others taken prisoners.

Shortly before the Southeast battles began, a large aerial squadron was seen travelling at great height and speed along the coast, spending a smoke screen which drifted Southward for almost an hour.

Dozens of tracers of thick white smoke stretched for at least twelve miles across the sky, but in the sunlight it was impossible to distinguish the planes.

At least a hundred planes fought in the morning's first battle over the Channel and rolling hills and fields of the Southeastern coastal country.

Some of them battled and bursted snails so high they scarcely could be kept in sight by ground observers. A few minutes after the battle opened a lone Nazi raider dropped a bomb and sent a cannon shot through a bank and peppered the sky with bullets, but the raider turned back into the sun's glare and apparently got away.

Earlier, during the darkness, one German bomber was reported shot down, marking the first success to British fighters after Sunday's engaging took an official toll of sixty German fighters and bombers—a unit of a total of sixty-nine—during a mass assault which saw an estimated four hundred planes tilted against South and East coast objectives.

Today, after widespread raids over the coast during the night and early morning, a large force of Junkers 87s escorted by Messerschmitt fighters was intercepted by Royal Air Force fighters as they tried to slip over the coast at an altitude of nearly 20,000 feet.

Within a few moments the sky had become a great battleground and above the roar of engines and stream of diving planes came the sharp staccato of machine gun fire and then the deeper note of the cannon on the German fighters.

An eyewitness said: "British and German planes were circling and manoeuvring for position directly above my house.

The sun glinting under their wings showed them up like tiny specks. Looking toward the Channel I saw three planes go crashing down into the blue sea below.

Pilots of two bailed out and drifted down further off to sea with the sun reflected off their white parachutes.

In the overnight raiding the Government said there was little serious damage but some casualties, including one fatality in the Midlands. Gas and electric services were damaged in the East of England. Three bombs severely damaged a residential section and unofficial reports said one crashed through the roof of a convent but caused only slight casualties from flying glass.

Most of the bombs dropped in the renewal of the night attacks were reported to have fallen harmlessly on the side of cliffs lining the coast.

One made a huge crater in the beach.

A German plane which dropped from 10,000 feet trailed a thin wisp of smoke which turned to flame as it hurtled down.

It was a mass of flames long before it struck the ground with a loud explosion.

LOCAL CITIZEN KILLED ON BROMPTON ROAD

Inquest Opened This Morning In Death Of Game Inspector

J. Rosario Bilodeau, Thirty-Two, of St. Michael Street, Instantly Killed When Struck by Car While Changing Tire—Heavy Death Toll Claimed Across Dominion by Accidents During Week-End.

This summer's total of violent deaths in the Eastern Townships Townships mounted by one over the week-end when J. Rosario Bilodeau, thirty-two, of 54 St. Michael Street, was instantly killed after being hit by a car and projected almost a hundred feet. The mishap took place about one o'clock yesterday morning on the Brompton Road, two miles from the North Ward city limits.

Bilodeau was returning with a friend, Donat Jacques, thirty-two, of Sherbrooke, from Brompton Lake when one of his tires blew out. The two men got out to change the tire and it was while Bilodeau was working at the rear wheel that the accident took place.

Driver of the vehicle that struck the Sherbrooke man was Valmore Goulet, a local resident, whose car grazed Bilodeau's auto, careened across the road and overturned in the ditch. None of the occupants of Goulet's car was injured, although there were six persons with the driver.

It was some time before Bilodeau's body was discovered lying in the left-hand ditch about one hundred feet from the spot he was hit, it being believed at first he was crushed under Goulet's car. Provincial Traffic Officer Henri Cantin arrived on the scene and shortly afterwards Blake and Taylor's ambulance brought the victim in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital.

Inquest into the fatality was opened at the Marquette Street Police Station this morning with Donat Jacques being the principal witness called before the noon adjournment.

Jacques told the tribunal that he saw Goulet's car coming from a considerable distance and that he waved his flashlight to indicate his and Bilodeau's presence. In spite of this and the fact that three tail-lights were burning at the rear of the victim's machine, the oncoming car failed to turn and crashed into the parked car's rear bumper before heading for the ditch at the opposite side of the road, witness declared.

Jacques said he shouted a warning to Bilodeau and himself jumped out of the way just in time. Asked whether he thought Goulet's car was coming at a fast rate, the witness answered "It was going at least sixty miles an hour."

Bilodeau's car had been parked near the cut in the road opposite the Goodfellow farm.

Rosario Bilodeau was last full-time named Fish and Game Inspector for the district of Sherbrooke and always took a prominent part in activities of the Liberal party in this city, being President of the Eastern Townships Liberal Association. He is survived by his wife and three children.

CANADIAN DEATH TOLL HIGH
At least forty-five persons met sudden death in Canada during the week-end. Of that number, 20 drowned in a series of water fatalities from coast to coast, 11 were killed in highway accidents, three died in railway crossings and one was killed in a plane crash.

The drownings were notable for the number of multiple fatalities. In five such accidents, 23 persons lost their lives.

Quebec headed the list of provinces with nine drownings, nine killed on highways and one death in a plane crash.

The death toll in the other provinces included: Nova Scotia, one highway death; Prince Edward Island, two drownings; Ontario, seven drownings and two killed by trains; Manitoba, one drowning and one highway fatality; Alberta, three drownings; British Columbia, eight drownings.

E.T. MAN HURT IN SHOOTING AFFRAY
Lacolle, Que., Aug. 12.—Alcide Tremblay, 25, was in critical condition in hospital at St. Johns, today while three other residents of nearby Boucher Corner's were reported improving after a shooting affray Saturday.

Police said Tremblay turned a shotgun on 18-year-old Angelina Boucher, her 10-year-old brother Georges, and her mother, Mrs. Georges Boucher, 40, before shooting himself with a revolver.

Miss Boucher was still in hospital at St. Johns, but authorities said her wounds were not serious. Her mother was discharged from the hospital today, while young Georges received medical treatment at home.

Tremblay had a bullet wound in the chest, and physicians gave him little chance of recovery.

Tremblay was out on bail pending judgment in a court case in which he was charged with attempting to kidnap Miss Boucher. Judgment was to be handed down Thursday.

According to police, Tremblay fired through the open kitchen window of his house, across the road from that of the Bouchers. The shotgun sent a hail of pellets around the three members of the Boucher family, who crawled through the grass until they were out of the line of fire.

After shooting at the Bouchers, police said, Tremblay went into the bedroom of his house and shot himself twice in the chest with an old revolver, the barrel of which dropped off after the shots had been fired.

Neighbors summoned an ambulance and sent the Bouchers to hospital but it was not until police entered Tremblay's home that he was found lying on the bed unconscious.

JOHN GALVIN'S DEATH MOURNED IN SHERBROOKE

Widely-Known Eastern Townships Native Was in His Eighty-First Year.

An Eastern Townships resident for his entire life and widely-known during the years he sold produce on the local market, John Galvin, 115 Council Street, died early yesterday morning after an illness of only nine days. He was in his eighty-first year. Born on a farm near North Hatley, February 6, 1860, Mr. Galvin was the son of Maurice Galvin and his wife, Ann McFarlane. He devoted himself to farming for the greater part of his life and purchased a property on Moulton Hill, near Lennoxville, retiring and moving to Sherbrooke about twelve years ago. The deceased was well-known as an apiculturist and the quality of his produce came to be a by-word among honey fanciers in this city.

Surviving are two brothers, Edward, of Sherbrooke, and James, of Montreal; two sisters, Kate, Mrs. M. D. McNeerney, and Mary Galvin, of Waterloo; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Edward Galvin and Mrs. James Galvin, and many nephews and nieces residing in Sherbrooke, Montreal and Waterloo.

For the past five years Mr. Galvin stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Theriault on Council Street. The funeral will be held tomorrow from Jabber's Undertaking Parlors, Windsor Street, to St. Patrick's Church, where services will be held at 9 a.m.

Quebec Agriculture Faces Very Bright Future Premier Claims

Resolutions advocating the establishment in the Eastern Townships of an agricultural school and asking more aid for the farming classes of the Province were adopted yesterday by delegates to the First General Congress of the Jeunesse Agricole Catholique at which Premier Adolphe Godbout was one of the speakers.

The head of the Provincial Government addressed some 6,000 persons gathered at the grandstand on the Exhibition grounds last night and told the young farmers to be proud of their profession and strive for proficiency in agriculture. "You will have a definite role to play in the future development of our nation and it is for you yourselves to prepare for the time when you will have to assume your responsibilities," the Premier said. He added that agriculture is the most complicated of the sciences and only by diligence and hard work could one expect to become proficient in it.

As Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Godbout predicted a glorious future for farmers in this Province and promised the full support of his Government to the J. A. C. and similar organizations. Leaders of the farming classes, he said, would spring from groups like the J. A. C. and the Government officials are fully aware of their value.

Others to speak last night were Mgr. Philippe Desranleau, Coadjutor Bishop of Sherbrooke, and Maurice Gingues, M.P., both of whom stressed the part the farmer has to take in national life and urged the young people to remain in the country instead of trying to make their way in the crowded urban centres.

The J. A. C. delegates numbered about 1,400 and came from all sections of the Province of Quebec with some representatives from Ontario and Manitoba. They were formally welcomed to the City by Mayor Joseph Labrecque.

An open air Mass on Portland Square yesterday morning, with Mgr. Desranleau officiating, opened the Congress and was followed by a parade of the delegates to St. Charles Seminary where a visit to the Arts and Handicrafts Exhibit was paid and dinner was served.

The afternoon business session was held in the Seminary and the day's programme was closed in the evening by a pageant at the Exhibition Grounds in which the Harmony Band, directed by Professor Charles Delvenne, and a mixed choir of some three hundred voices took part.

Among those who welcomed Premier Godbout to Sherbrooke were Mayor Labrecque, the Hon. Jacob Nicol, M.L.C., Senator Charles B. Howard, Maurice Gingues, M.P., J. A. Blanchette, M.P. for Compton, Aldermen Maurice Delorme, J. W. Genest, J. E. Lacroix, Alfred Cinq-Mars and J. O. Chartier, City Treasurer Maurice Cormier and City Clerk Antonin Deslauriers.

On Thursday afternoon a driving competition was held at the Lennoxville Club by the ladies, in which eighteen participated. Miss Caroline Taylor was the winner of this event, with Miss Margaret Kirby as runner-up and Miss C. Thompson in third place.

Dr. T. E. Burton, of the Canadian Dental Corps, Montreal, spent the week-end in town with his family.

COMEDY-HIT TO BE STAGED BY AMATEUR GROUP

Leslie Howard's "Murray Hill" Chosen as Sixth Presentation of Brae Manor Players at Knowlton.

A sparkling comedy, "Murray Hill," which was played with great success in the original New York production by Leslie Howard and Genevieve Tobin, has been chosen as the season's sixth presentation of the Brae Manor Players at their Knowlton Theatre. Mr. Howard's farcical comedy is the story of the old device of mistaken identity, which is used with hilarious results.

Mixing gravely aristocratic mid-Victorianity and the newer generation, the play's theme is woven about two middle-aged spinsters and their twenty-six year old niece, who is being trained for the spinsterhood under their direction. Into this sombre atmosphere intrude two young men, and the play ends with harum-scarum midnight escapades in the smug household of the spinster family.

The role of "Wrigley," which Mr. Howard wrote for himself, will be played by David Dick. Norma Hobbs will play the romantic heroine, and others in the cast will include Kay Berliner, Janet Morrissey, Pam Holt, Rene Almond and Filmore Sadler, producing director of the Brae Manor School of the Theatre.

Provincial Officials Study Annexation Of Collinsville

Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs in Sherbrooke to Discuss Matter with City Council—Annexation May Be Ordered by Province as Measure to Safeguard Public Health with City Obligated to Install Modern Sewage System in Collinsville.

To study at first hand the feasibility of annexing the municipality of Collinsville to the City of Sherbrooke, Louis Codere, Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, Quebec, Mayor Joseph Labrecque and members of the City Council paid a visit to the colony located at the West Ward city limits on Saturday afternoon.

Some months ago the Collinsville ratepayers asked the Council to take over their community and their request was passed on to the Provincial authorities under whose jurisdiction such matters fall. Reason for the proposed change was that Collinsville has a sewage system that is medieval and wholly unsanitary and that its residents hope that if they become citizens of Sherbrooke the city will be forced to lay sewers and waterpipes to remedy this condition.

Actually the problem is not the responsibility of the city but comes under the jurisdiction of Ascot Township to which Collinsville belongs. However, it is doubtful whether the Township can afford to construct a new sewage system so that the Province, for reasons of health, will be well within its rights in forcing the city to take action.

Annexation of Collinsville to Sherbrooke was advocated last October by Georges Bourbonnais, Provincial Health Inspector, who stated it was "necessary" that a modern sewage system be installed and suggested the City build an extension to its waterworks network.

After Saturday's tour of inspection Mr. Codere and the Council members discussed the various aspects of the annexation plan but no decision was taken. W. R. Baker, Secretary-Treasurer of the Township of Ascot, also took part in the deliberations. Mr. Codere will report to the Department of Municipal Affairs at Quebec and it is expected his recommendations will be made public within a short time.

THE PROPOSED CIVIC LOAN

This week the City Fathers are appealing to the citizens for approval of a loan by-law totalling $225,000 for a wide list of public works, but they fail to give any concise details as to just how the money is to be expended. Judging from the actions of the aldermen in recent months, the ratepayers would be unwise to approve the expenditure of this sum without receiving further details as to what the City proposes to do.

For too long, those in charge of administering the affairs of the city have been inclined to act first and seek approval afterwards, although in one or two instances, they have acted and then evaded the required approval through the diversion of reserve funds, the purchase of a greenhouse and a fire truck being cases in point.

Perhaps some of these works are needed, perhaps others may be profitable, but blank cheque legislation is unwarranted except in the case of grave emergency, and certainly the proposals do not come under this classification.

If the City Council feels justified in spending the sum of $225,000, as apparently they do from the arguments submitted in support of the loan by-law they would be well advised to study the important question of improving the local water supply. In the past, demands for improvement have met with the response that funds were not available, but this is belied for the present by the statement that during the past year, the debt of the City, including the proposed loan, has been reduced by $112,000.

Far more important than streets, sidewalks and utilities extension is the question of pure water and the citizens should force the Council to take action by refusing approval for further capital expenditures that do not include this matter.

THE CENSORSHIP MESS

With confidence in the administration one of the most essential factors in the successful prosecution of the war, it is doubtful if anything could have done more to negate the war effort of the Canadian people than the almost unexplainable action of the press censors in the handling of the incidents leading up to the arrest and internment of Mayor Camille Houde of Montreal for his declaration opposing the National Registration which takes place next week.

Canadian public opinion is virtually unanimous in upholding the action of the Government in ordering internment, as the remarks of the Montreal Mayor were definitely designed to impede the struggle, but the secrecy with which the Government, through the censors, sought to surround the action resemble too much the tactics of the Gestapo, one of the prize German institutions against which the people of Canada are bending every effort.

Here, had the officials at Ottawa had their way, was a man holding one of the leading positions in Canada spirited away to internment camp, with few people knowing of the action and even fewer knowing why. However, the fact of his arrest would have been heard of by thousands of Canadians through the uncontrolled radio and press south of the border, while the background details would have been so greatly distorted as to give the fifth columnists a glorious field for their propaganda activities. All manner of stories would have been circulated as to why Mayor Houde was suddenly absent from his duties, and many far from accurate "facts" read into the arrest.

Fortunately for the Canadian people, one paper, The Montreal Gazette, was willing to make an issue of the matter and with the support of the Opposition Leader of the House of Commons, brought the matter into the open. Otherwise the public might have been kept unaware of the details of the situation and unwarranted emphasis would have been placed on the attitude of the Montreal troublemaker.

Canadian newspapers and newspaper readers are willing to admit that a certain amount of restraint is needed in the publication of military news, especially in relation to troop movements and similar affairs, but so long as this country stands for freedom of speech and expression, no reasonable objection can be taken to the reporting of the remarks of public men.

Unthinking censorship, or that designed for political reasons, does more harm than good to the civilian morale, in that it tends to undermine the spirit and determination of the people.

Canadians are prepared for a long and bitter struggle and their determination will be increased by a perfectly frank statement on current affairs by those in responsible positions.

TO MEET COMPETITION

By Grenville Kleiser.

In meeting competition you will frequently have personal problems to solve. Take one problem at a time and clearly define in your mind what it is and what you wish to accomplish.

Next, weigh the best means of solving it. Can you do it by yourself, or must you have assistance? Is there a dependable friend or adviser to whom you can go for counsel? Canvass all the ways and means available for successfully solving your problems.

Make up your mind that you are equal to it and that you can find a way out. Calmly and fearlessly look it in the face and refuse to acknowledge even the possibility of defeat. And, remember, that however hard your problem, thousands of people have been victorious over greater problems.

Do not charge to fate what has resulted from bad judgment, neglect of opportunities, indifference about economy, misguided egotism. Self-pity and self-deception only make matters worse.

Don't talk about luck, fortune or fate. You are fashioning your life. The way you habitually think and act makes or mars your own life.

Patience and sacrifice are sometimes needed to solve a vexatious problem. It is right to plan for a life of harmony and happiness, but if trials and difficulties arise, as they often do, be prepared to meet them courageously.

It will help you in any competitive field to know how to appraise men. This is not as difficult as it may seem. It requires careful observation and practice.

The face has been called the mirror of the mind. We are in the habit of judging a man by his facial characteristics. We are often attracted or repelled before a single word is spoken. Our silent judgment is likely to be correct if we have trained ourselves to read what the eyes, nose, mouth, and other features convey.

Thus we interpret large eyes to mean sincerity, candor, audacity, and small eyes to suggest cunning, watchfulness, narrow-mindedness. Bright eyes usually indicate alertness, cheerfulness, sociability; dull eyes give the impression of doubt, anxiety, pessimism. A large nose suggests strength of character, energy, leadership; a small nose is indicative of a weak will. A long nose points to diligence and thriftiness; a hawk-like nose means aggressiveness and cruelty.

A wide mouth denotes tolerance, sympathy, benevolence; a small one suggests weakness and a dogmatic disposition. Thin lips indicate coldness and unsociability; thick lips may mean worldliness and sensuality. Tightly closed lips suggest that one is authoritative, precise, selfish, censorious.

BRITISH AND NAZI AIR STRENGTH

To the Editor of the Record. Sir:—It would seem only reasonable that, when perusing even the best edited dispatches, the reader should take care to read between the lines. The war correspondent is, after all, only human and we should take what he writes—I won't say with a grain of salt, that would be hardly fair, but with all the careful consideration of which we are capable.

We are all wondering I suppose, why the Germans do this and why they do not do that. Considering their methods in the Battle of Flanders, and again in the Battle of France, one might, I think, have expected they would ere now have sent across the Channel, not 400 or 500 planes, but at least 1,000 at a time. Their chances of success after not taking this course lies in a shortage of trained men. On the other hand there is reason to hope that the British difficulty is of exactly the opposite nature—more trained men available than machines to use them. There, indeed, lies our greatest hope. And there would appear to be reason for thinking this. Dispatches continually report that, in the large proportion of instances, our planes are greatly outnumbered by the enemy, yet our side wins.

The obvious conclusion to draw is that our men and their equipment are better than theirs. And, here is another thought with which we may comfort our souls, even if they have many thousands of planes, for which they have neither the gas nor the men, they are no more use than mere scrap-iron to Mr. Hitler.

After all, by the time you get this and are able to use it, the 1,000 planes may have come over and we shall have learned once more that the British can hold up the heaviest end of the stick.

Yours truly, GABRIEL BREEZE. Sherbrooke, Aug. 12.

A WORD TO QUEBEC

To the Editor of the Record. Dear Sir:—Pray why should the citizens of the Province of Quebec get their "wind up" over the war situation while the remaining eight Canadian Provinces "carry on" in their usual manner?

The reason for this question, which the writer hopes to see answered in your editorial columns, is due mainly to two articles which have appeared in the press. First, the announcement that the customary "siren" used by the Fire Department in the City of Quebec has been banned for the "duration of the war" in order to confine its use to Air Raid warnings. (There was a hearty laugh right there for anyone not born in Quebec, which excludes myself.) Secondly, there is your article appearing in your issue of August 6th entitled "Types of Air Raid Shelters Are Discussed." The article informs us, former residents of that grand old Province of Quebec, that the metropolitan of the Eastern Townships has, apparently, found it essential to organize a Civilian Protection Committee similarly, to some extent at least, to plans originating in Great Britain now within some twenty-one miles of Hitlerism.

We take it for granted that the U.S.A., particularly the politicians, whose knowledge of Great Britain is about equal to their knowledge of the planet "Mars," might expect the collapse of Britain similarly to that of France and other European countries. That any collective body of Canadians should adopt the same view is beyond the writer's comprehension. Any person of ordinary intelligence will agree that the one and only place to defeat Hitlerism is in Europe. In the remote possibility that Great Britain should be conquered by Hitler et al. the Western Hemisphere will be easy picking for the totalitarianism composed of Greater Germany, Italy, Russia and Japan. We would last, due to foes within and foes without, about as long as a snowball in Hades. If the citizens of Quebec treasure their lives to the extent of preferring to be "slaves" rather than join the colony of the Housewives of Hempstead, N.Y., who complained of the noise from army bombing planes got this comment from Col. Douglas B. We can't train pilots without having them pilot something."

peaceful dead, here's wishing them luck. Why not step up our share of Empire effort on a par with Australia and New Zealand and "lick" Hitler near his own kennel rather than fighting a losing battle in our own front yards? If we Canadians will do this there will be absolutely no need of "air raid shelters."

Very truly yours, "EX-QUEBECER"

LET US REMEMBER ENGLAND

There'll always be an England
While there's a busy street;
Where'er there's a turning wheel
A million marching feet.
Red, white and blue,
What does it mean to you?
Surely you're proud,
Shout it aloud,
Britons awake, The Empire too
We can depend on you,
Freedom remains
These are the chains,
Nothing can break.
There'll Always Be An England

HAVE A SMILE

A Sunday School teacher who appeared before the North Wales Conscientious Objectors' Tribunal said he believed in the Sermon on the Mount.

"Where in the Bible is the Sermon on the Mount?" asked a member of the tribunal.

"The Book of Exodus," said the applicant. "He was placed on the military list."

He'll learn all about "Exodus" now.

Football Fan: "Throughout the match I was watching one of the finest backs in England."

His Friend: "Ah, there was a big man in front of me, too."

Placing the gramophone on the dining room table, Mrs. Ravenyelp said to her husband: "I have an odd record here, Henry, and I want to see if you can guess what it is."

"When a weird succession of sounds began to come from the instrument, Ravenyelp knitted his brows and tried to identify the sounds.

"It's a saw ploughing through a knot," he ventured.

"Guess again," said Mrs. Ravenyelp.

"A trombone in pain."

"An owl with its toes in a trap," smiling grimly, Mrs. Ravenyelp shook her head.

"Give it up," said Ravenyelp, "but as a last guess I'll say it sounds very much like a siren whistle with a jip."

"I'll agree that it's as bad as all you have named," Mrs. Ravenyelp remarked, "and hope it will save a lot of argument in the future."

"But what is it?" insisted Ravenyelp.

"It's a record I made in the bedroom the other night," replied Mrs. Ravenyelp. "To prove that you really do snore in your sleep and to let you know just how awful it sounds."

Seated on the grass in front of a log cabin was a man cleaning a double-barrelled shotgun. A stranger approached and asked how far it was to the next farm.

"About two miles," was the reply. "As far as that? You must find it very lonely here."

"Can't say I do," replied the man with the gun.

"Perhaps you are not one of the lonely kind?"

"No, I'm not. But you see, I mortgaged this place for five hundred dollars, and as I couldn't pay they foreclosed on me."

"I see."

"That was two years ago," continued the man, "and the sheriff has been trying to get possession ever since. He comes twice a week, and we have a shot at each other. And at least twice a week some fool comes along and wants to know if I ain't lonely. When you add claim-jumpers, rattlesnakes and skunk, this life is about the most exciting thing I've struck. There comes the sheriff now. You'd better get behind that log and keep clear of backshot."

He (after proposal): "Me, a multimillionaire? Sorry, dear, I have scarcely one million."

She (sweetly): "Well, dear, I'll try to be economical."

PRESS COMMENTS

NO BOOM IN COPPER YET

(Financial Post) Export copper at 10 cents a pound in New York is now selling below the price at outbreak of war last September. The largest buyer for export at the moment is not Great Britain but Japan, although Britain has been in the market recently. Even the Japanese buying—reported at around 5,000 tons last week—is not of important proportions.

Two reasons for the present slow market may be given. First, Britain has tremendous copper-producing resources in both Africa and Canada which were not available in the last war; there has been no dependence on U.S. supplies. Secondly, elimination of France as a purchaser of copper has been a bearish factor in the New York market situation.

Although the New York market is relatively inactive there are reasons for believing this situation will not extend over any period of time. The United States is embarking on a great armament programme; British copper buying may soon take up the slack caused by France's capitulation, and Canada and other Empire countries are stepping up their own war industries.

HITLER AND THE ORIENT

(Hong Kong Press)

The rest of the world stands shocked and bewildered by the savagery with which the iron will of German imperialism is being imposed on the victims of this craze for conquest. And if this is an example of what can happen in the western countries which have had to accept the Nazi rule of brute force, what would be the character of the rule which Herr Hitler and his dominions would use over the peoples of the Orient if his world domination plans are allowed to bear fruition? This picture is too ghastly even to contemplate, for Herr Hitler's contempt for all things Oriental is too well known to the peoples of the East. There is no knowing to what extent Nazi excesses will go should it be the unhappy lot of the East to fall under the domination of Herr Hitler's will. He aims at bringing the greatest form of degradation on the inhabitants of his ruthless attacks with the idea of completely breaking their spirit.

GIBRALTAR

(Christian Science Monitor)

Gibraltar has not been vital to Spanish existence. Britain once offered to return it in exchange for Florida or Minorca. But Gibraltar is important in Italy's scheme to become master of the Mediterranean. While the British hold Gibraltar, Italy is not master but prisoner in the Mediterranean. To spring the lock now might release Italian ships to aid Germany in the battle of Britain. To make Franco doorman at the western end of the Mediterranean would be to make the eastern end less comfortable for the British, to make defence of the Suez Canal a difficult problem. Moreover, General Franco's co-operation is necessary to Germany and Italy to enable them to take Gibraltar.

SAUTE TO A SUBMARINE

(London Times)

Deep regret is felt at the news that the Polish submarine Orzel is so long overdue that she must be presumed lost. The story of her escape from Poland was overwhelming, captured the public imagination. Officers and men determined to make a dash for freedom. They overpowered the guard, sawed through the mooring ropes, and forced their way out to sea. For a fortnight they cruised in the Baltic seeking to do what damage they could with their five remaining torpedoes, and ceaselessly hunted by the enemy. They decided to try to reach England; made their way without check through the narrow, shallow, and dangerous exit from the Baltic into the North Sea; and in October entered a British harbor. Since that time the Orzel played a valuable part in the operations of the Navy. Her officers and men will not be forgotten in the annals of the sea.

THE NEW SLANG OF THE NEW WAR

(New York Sun)

The European war has contributed a considerable addition to the stock of the world's slang. "Some newer terms," says a Royal Air Force authority, "are 'fan' for aircrew, 'station master' for the commanding officer, and 'spun-in' for a bad mistake. To 'pancake' an airplane is now to 'crack down on the deck.' This calls for 'tearing of a strip,' otherwise to reprimand. No longer does an enterprising airman 'win a wanted article'; he 'organizes.'"

"When supplies have been arranged, those supplies have been 'laid on.' If an airman is 'fed up,' he is 'browned off.' If something displeases, a 'poor view' is taken of it. Something badly done is a 'black.' The correct method of doing anything is 'the right drill.' Bomb dropping to the R.A.F. pilot is 'egg-laying.' And a 'blonde job,' we are told, is a young woman with fair hair."

The German airman, says the same British authority also, have their slang, "some of it quite incomprehensible even to the most orthodox Nazi layman." The famous Messerschmitt plane is commonly called the "flying brick." Other terms to describe Nazi aircraft are "bathtub" and "trunks." All metal aircraft is "brass donkey"; a heavy bomber is a "bantechicon."

CANADIANS TAKE FIRST AND SECOND IN CHAMPIONSHIPS

This is the first of a series of six articles presenting hands played by some of Canada's outstanding stars.

At the Canadian-American championships this year, first and second place in the open pair event went to Canadians. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Anderson of Toronto were the winners, and M. M. Miller and M. M. Herman of Toronto finished second. The Americans were quick to congratulate the Canadians on their clean sweep.

I believe it was Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's first major victory playing together, as I heard Mrs. Anderson remark, "I am so proud that we will have our names on a trophy together." That Mrs. Anderson is a capable champion is demonstrated in today's hand which she played in the Canadian-American open pair championship.

First note the careful bidding—the rebid of hearts, though heart support had been denied by South; then the rebid of spades, allowing North with only three spades to carry the contract to game. The opening lead of the king of clubs was ducked by Mrs. Anderson, and West made a beautiful shift to the diamond four, which Mrs. Anderson won with the ace. She led the small heart and took the

LORD HAW HAW'S BAG OF TRICKS WEARING THIN

Varied Methods Being Reported to by German Propagandists to Retain British Interest in Broadcasts.

By D. E. BURRITT (Canadian Press Staff Writer) London, August 12. — German propagandists formulated a new plan to "compel" Britons to listen to Nazi "news" broadcasts. It was to intersperse propaganda with names of British prisoners of war and thus "force" the folks at home to listen nightly to Lord Haw Haw, the mysterious German voice believed to come from at least four different announcers.

For months all Britain had heard with amusement the radio voice of Lord Haw Haw who used to profess "so entertaining" with his subtle tit bits of news which always contained suggestion that Germany knew exactly what was transpiring in Britain at all times.

Each night the repeated plaintive bars of Haw Haw's "signature" advised British listeners that he was about to start unpacking what later became described as his "bag of lies." Still, prior to and even in the earlier days of the war his nightly broadcast proved entertaining. "Of course we know," people would say, "it's a pack of lies but he is funny. And some times there may be something in what he says."

That belief was just what Haw Haw had been endeavoring to establish. It began to appear that listeners were not laughing so much at Haw Haw's jokes. In fact his jokes were weakening if not disappearing. Strict propaganda was fast becoming his theme. And that is what started to turn people against him. Today, Haw Haw's audience is reduced to those curious enough to hear "what lies they have on hand tonight."

Newspapers began to admonish the public to ignore Haw Haw. Under the sponsorship of the London Daily Mirror, anti-Haw Haw groups were formed. In many parts of England the campaign spread with rapidity. All kinds of dodgers were suggested to avoid Haw Haw. In Cardiff, Wales, a girl walked the streets days on end, carrying a signboard "don't listen to Lord Haw Haw. Give him the air. He's full of wind anyway."

In other parts of the United Kingdom, school children went from door to door, getting neighbors to sign pledges that they would ignore the broadcast. Many other means were formulated to make the German "news" broadcast unpopular. Haw Haw was losing ground rapidly.

But the German propaganda officials quickly thought up other plans to demand attention. The German radio began broadcasting names of prisoners of war. In each nightly "news" broadcast they would announce a few names of British prisoners.

British propaganda authorities became aware of the fact that people were spreading the word that names of their relatives might be heard if one listened nightly to the German broadcast.

So inquiries were made and the British propaganda department discovered that instructions had been given German radio announcers to "compel" listeners abroad to tune in in the hope of hearing prisoners' names and learning the fate of their relatives.

To make sure people did listen, German authorities ordered that the letters written by prisoners were not to be posted until after the writers name had been announced on the radio; that foreign correspondents must not be allowed to interview prisoners until the radio had announced the names and that prisoners' names were not to be forwarded to the Red Cross until the radio had fulfilled its work.

But to counter this stroke, the British advised listeners the propaganda department would have "official" listeners to the New England States, have returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jackson and two sons, Harold, Jr., and Daniel, who have spent the past two weeks with relatives here, have returned to their home in Grosse Ile, Mich.

ITALIAN FORCE BOASTS THIRTY PLANE CLASSES

Several New Names Appear in Despatches as Result of Italian Participation in Struggle.

London, August 12. — After learning names of such German aircraft types as Heinkel and Messerschmitt for these names are receiving prominence following Italy's entry into the war: Fiat, Macchi, Breda, Savoia, Marchetti, Caproni and Cant.

Altogether the Royal Italian Air Force employs about 40 different types, including a half-dozen seaplanes and a flying boat. Many, however, are obsolete, and it seems probable that as the war progresses, insofar as they use Italian and not German aircraft, Italy will concentrate on one or two of the most advanced types in each category.

The Fiat G. 50 and the Macchi C. 200 can be reckoned foremost among Italian fighters. Both are modern, single-seat monoplane types with a single radial engine. Each carries two heavy machine guns, firing forward. Their wing span of about 33 feet is two feet less than Britain's smallest fighter, the eight-gun Spitfire. Their speed—105 miles per hour for the Fiat and 313 m.p.h. for the Macchi—is definitely low as modern fighters go.

Italy's best known bombers are of the three-engine type. The Savoia-Marchetti 79 and 81 are examples. The S.M. 79, powered with engines of the Bristol-Pegasus type, are the more successful. This aircraft, with a wing span of about 66 feet and a top speed of 270 miles per hour is roughly comparable in size and speed with the British two-motor Hampden.

Newer are the two-motor Savoia-Marchetti 85 and 86 of the Fiat BR 20. This plane has a speed of about 290 miles per hour and besides carrying a useful load mounts four guns. Most of Italy's bombers are more lightly armed.

Of the 2,100 Italian first-line aircraft, there are 340 seaplanes and flying boats. Many are out of date but this high proportion of sea-going craft indicates Italy intends to take advantage of her many island bases. The fastest seaplanes are the little Caproni Ca 312 and the big three-motored Cant Z 506B. None compares favorably with the British Sunderland and Lerwick flying boats.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brock, of Manchester, N.H., and Mrs. J. McCallum, of Danville, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. H. Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pease, Private and Mrs. Douglas Gibbs and little son, Ronald, and Mr. Walter Wright, of Richmond, Mrs. Sutherland, of Denison's Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Armstrong and Miss Healy were dinner guests of Miss A. J. Pease at the home of Mr. Edgar Wintle.

Mr. Roy Patch and son, of Montreal, were calling on friends in this vicinity. Mr. Wilfrid Taylor, who has enlisted in the Forestry Corps, has left for Quebec.

Mrs. Harold Stevens spent a week-end with her daughter, Mrs. F. Mills, and Mr. Mills, in Richmond. Rev. and Mrs. Wolfrey have been calling on their parishioners in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mastine spent a day with Mrs. George and Mrs. H. Andrews, of Denison's Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Howden, of Montreal, spent a week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Mastine and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mastine.

Mrs. Wellesley Stevens, of Montreal, spent a day with Mrs. Fred Wintle. Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Patrick and Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carson and Mr. Garth Carson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Huckins and family, of Fitch Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong, of Denison's Mills, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carson.

After the routine business was done, and plans made for an ice cream social and sale of work later in the month. At the close of the afternoon, tea was served by Mrs. Griffith, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Hughes and Miss Doris Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fleming motored to Sherbrooke recently. Miss Arlene, who has been a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital, returned home with them. She is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Nevell, Mr. Cecil Nevell and Miss Elaine, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coote and son, Elmer, motored to Lennoxville and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rodell and infant daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nixon spent a day in Sutton, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith. Mr. Harry Carr, of Sherbrooke, spent a week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. Fleming and family.

A'S INCREASE P.B.L. LEAD IN WEEK-END PLAY

Quebec Splits Double Bill with Three Rivers After Downing St. Hyacinthe Saturday Afternoon.

Only team to advance in week-end play, Quebec Athletics widened their margin at the head of the Provincial League with two victories against one defeat while all other squads but St. Hyacinthe were breaking even.

All four teams shared double-header victories yesterday. Quebec lost an afternoon game to Three Rivers, 7-6, but won at home, 3-2, at night. Meanwhile Granby and St. Hyacinthe split a twin bill, the Saints winning, 4-3, in the afternoon game but losing the next, 5-3.

Quebec turned in their advance in an afternoon game Saturday when they defeated St. Hyacinthe, 7-2. Behind the steady pitching of Art Lepine, the Athletics banged two St. Hyacinthe hurlers for 10 hits to tumble the Saints into third place behind Granby Red Sox.

In the Quebec-Three Rivers home-and-home series, the Trifurians took the victory in the initial contest at home when Roy and Gaffney combined on the mound to hold Quebec to seven hits. Meanwhile, Three Rivers batsmen combined a pair of Quebec hurlers for 13 base-blows.

Quebec evened up in the night contest by a one-run margin. Bill Yocke hurled eight-hit ball to shut out the Trifurians over the distance after allowing them a pair of runs in the first frame. Quebec touched Art O'Donnell, of Three Rivers, for two runs in the fourth to tie the count and scored with winning counter in the sixth.

Playing at home, St. Hyacinthe won over Granby when pitcher Corrigan spaced 12 base-blows well enough to allow the Sox only single runs in each of the second, third and fifth frames. The Saints meanwhile scored a pair in the third and another two in the sixth off Leonard and Hammond.

Granby evened up at night behind Jack Kimble's seven-hit pitching. A three-run rally in the seventh with the score tied at 2-2 was the deciding factor.

Magog Golfer Scores "Ace" On Mount Orford Course

Magog, Aug. 12.—Edgar Whalley, of Magog, made the first hole-in-one to be recorded at the new Mount Orford Golf and Country Club and the second of his golfing career when he sank his tee shot on the sixth hole yesterday afternoon.

Playing with James Trew, of Montreal, Whalley used a No. 5 iron on the 148-yard sixth hole and the ball sailed straight from tee to cup. The shot was witnessed by several other members of the club who were standing on the adjacent 7th tee.

Several years ago Whalley posted an ace on the Kanawak course, Montreal.

COUNTRY CLUB TEAM LOSES ON GRANBY COURSE

Members of Granby Golf Club Hand Sherbrooke Linksmen 17-7 Setback at Home Saturday Afternoon.

Sixteen players representing the Sherbrooke Country Club paid a return visit to the Granby golfers on Saturday. Ideal weather, a course in perfect condition and hospitable hosts made the day a memorable one, even if the visiting team were on the short end of a 17 to 7 score.

Dinner followed the match, and in this part of the entertainment the Sherbrooke players scored par. Two of the Granby players, Dan Doe and L. Dukelow, turned in scores below 70, giving advance notice that they will be serious contenders for the Eastern Townships championship to be played over the Sherbrooke Country Club course on August 17 and 18.

TAKES POLICE BEAT AWAITING ARMY CALL

London, Aug. 12.—Carrying a thermometer in one pocket and a pair of handcuffs in the other, Gordon Ayre, of California, paces his beat as a war reserve policeman while waiting to join the Canadian Active Service Force. The "cuffs" are a reminder of his days as a motorcycle cop in California, and the thermometer of the way he got here—by working as assistant to a ship's surgeon.

Ayre came here with the Canadians in the last war but authorities found he was only fifteen years old and sent him home. He joined the military police a year later and then served in an expedition to Russia.

CANADA BUSILY SHOPPING FOR ARMED FORCES

Three Hundred Tons of Butter in Single Order Sample of Large Scale Purchases from Ottawa.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—(C)—Responsibility for the feeding of all the armed forces in Canada, which each month consume tons of butter, meats, cereals and jam, belongs to the foodstuffs section of the Munitions and Supply Department, referred to at times as Canada's greatest housekeeper.

Like any group of healthy, hard-working youth, Canada's growing family of soldiers, sailors and flyers works up a big appetite during each day's operations, and comes back clamoring for its three husky meals.

Some idea of the gargantuan appetite of the army, navy and air force can be grasped from a Supply Department statement that 305 tons of butter were purchased to feed Canada's armed forces during the three months ended June 30th.

Like any conscientious housekeeper, the Supply Department has its hands full in buying the best quality products and seeing that its boys get well-balanced meals and plenty of pure, wholesome food. Every product must come up to specifications based on Government standards, and supplies are reckoned in tons and gallons instead of pounds and quarts.

Supplies for a larger property stocked to last one camp for a single month, according to the Supply Department, include ten tons of corn beef, forty-nine tons of vegetables, 125 tons of potatoes, three tons of honey, four and a half tons of cracked and rolled wheat, nine and a half tons of jam and two tons each of tea and coffee.

The Supply Department has nine buying centres across the Dominion to facilitate its food purchases. Tenders are issued specifying quantities and qualities, delivery dates and points of delivery.

For example, the tender forms for fish list a dozen varieties of fresh fish, including halibut, haddock, shad, sole, and pickerel as well as fresh fillets and smoked fish.

It states the exact form of each type—with or without head and fins, and other culinary details, and concludes by specifying that the quality must meet with the approval of the officer to whom it is delivered.

Milk specifications include exact standards for everything from butter-fat content to pasteurization temperatures.

All standard kinds of meat except veal are purchased, as well as canned foods ranging from butter and fruits to soups, boiled dinners and beef stews. Canned foods are largely destined for naval use, and are particularly useful on the smaller

PROSPECTS FOR ENGLISH UNION CLAIMED SMALL

Noted United States Writer Believes Prospects of Anglo-Saxon Tie-Up Better Than for Canada - U. S. Union.

New York, Aug. 12.—(C)—In the view of an Associated Press reporter after a stay in Ottawa, "some informed Canadians" see an Anglo-Saxon union, linking the British Empire with the United States as a much stronger possibility than a two-way political union between Canada and the States.

The reporter, John Lear, in an article written for his organization, makes clear that either possibility is considered extremely remote.

"Any thought of union between the two great North American countries is premised on the supposition that Hitler either would succeed in breaking up the British Empire or that Canada would break away from the Empire in case the British Isles were overrun," he wrote.

"There is nothing in Canada today to suggest that either of these two things is expected. Canada has considered the possibility—incredible to her—that England would be occupied by the Nazis. She has proclaimed her intention of carrying on the fight from here (Canada) if that should happen. She is content with her independence under Dominion status. She is tied firmly to England and Empire by sentiment and blood."

Should the British Government move this side of the Atlantic: "The Dominion would become the tail wagging the Empire dog. A reorientation of the Empire would almost certainly follow. It is at this point that some informed Canadians foresee a probability of union much stronger than the probability of Canada going into partnership with Uncle Sam alone."

"The union they envision is an Anglo-Saxon one, linking the United States and Canada and other surviving parts of the British Commonwealth of Nations. In such a set-up, Canada would have less fear of domination (by the United States) because she would not stand as the lone and weaker partner of her powerful neighbor."

"It is universally recognized that invasion of Canada would immediately call for some sort of action from the United States, and an invasion at least of Canada's territorial waters, would not surprise the well-informed because Canada is the war supply-house of Britain and it would only be good strategy for the Germans to try to cut the supply life-line," in Lear's view.

"Probably no statement has been more quoted in Canada in recent years than President Roosevelt's guarantee that the nation he heads would 'not sit idly by' if Canada were threatened."

"The implications of that statement from the standpoint of Canadian independence of action are beginning to raise questions in Canadian minds as the Hitler shadow grows on the horizon."

"Canada is building her own navy, for the first time in her history, and is mobilizing her resources for war on an unprecedented scale. Speeches in Commons leave no doubt that at least one reason for this is to convince the United States that Canada can handle her share of the defences herself and it will not be necessary for the United States military to 'take over' in an emergency."

"Canada's lack of enthusiasm for political union with the United States does not mean the traditional friendship between the two lands is lessening. It means only that Canada wants to decide her own political destiny."

BRITISH CRAFT JUSTIFY FAITH OF OPERATORS

Comparisons with Nazi Equipment Show Number and Calibre of Guns Carried by Various Types of Planes.

London, August 12.—(C)—Experience in full-scale air war since opening of the "blitzkrieg" has justified confidence of the Royal Air Force in the technical superiority of British bomber and fighter aircraft. This superiority is due to their armament, design and the manner in which they are flown.

In current British fighters the emphasis is on multiple rifle-calibre machine guns. Britain's bombers have heavy defensive armament. Variations of the standard armament, including use of cannon, have been employed on some types, British and German. The word "cannon" is a general term for large bore, shell-firing machine guns.

Here is how the famous British (B) types compare in armament with their German (G) opposites:

Fighters
(B) Hawker Hurricane; eight machine guns. (G) Heinkel 112; two machine guns, two cannon in wings.

(B) Vickers Spitfire; eight machine guns. (G) Messerschmitt 109; four machine guns, one cannon.

(B) Boulton-Paul Defiant; multiple guns in turret; also Bristol Blenheim; nest of guns under fuselage, one gun in rear turret. (G) Messerschmitt 110; four forward guns, two rear guns, two cannon.

Bombers
(B) Handley-Page Hampden; two forward guns, four rear guns. (G) Dornier 17; two fixed guns, two moveable guns.

(B) Armstrong-Whitworth Whitley; one forward gun, four rear guns. (G) Heinkel 111; three moveable guns.

(B) Vickers Wellington; one forward gun, four rear guns. (G) Junkers 88; three gun positions.

MANY TO VIEW HAMBLETONIAN AT GOSHEN, N.Y.

America's Finest Harness Horses to Compete in 15th Running of Annual Classic—Eight Sure Starters.

Goshen, N.Y., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Until a dozen or so owners of speedy, three-year-old trotters decide to risk $500 more on the chance of winning something over $20,000, there's no telling what will happen in the 15th Hambletonian Stakes Wednesday.

The final payment is due tomorrow. Then the owners and trainers will have to decide whether their colts have enough chance to add that $500 to the $400 they already have in the pot. The way things look now, there are at least eight pretty sure starters and a half dozen others may go.

It is considered the widest-open Hambletonian since Lord Jim won back in 1934. And that might be a good hunch for the bettors, for one of the possible starters is Lord Jim's son, Gentleman Jim, owned by John F. Davis of Toledo, and driven by H. M. (Doc) Parrish, who not only piloted Lord Jim to victory, but won again last year with Peter Astra.

The uncertainty of the race and the opportunity of seeing America's finest harness horses battling for a $45,000 pot are two big attractions which will bring 45,000 or more people to this village of 2,300 Wednesday.

Today's feature for the opening day of the week of Grand Circuit racing is the appearance of Greyhound world champion trotter, in the $2,500 Trotting Horse Club Stakes. The eight-year-old veteran, making a "farewell" tour, already has won four races in this series.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCullough, of Buckingham, were guests of Mrs. McCullough's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller, at the Court House.

Dream Of Increasing Conn's Poundage Exploded By Boils

Pittsburgh Pretty Boy Will Be Lucky to Get Past 175-Pound Limit for Light-Heavyweights—Betting Odds Favoring Conn for Victory Over Bob Pastor Tomorrow Night Continue to Drop.

New York, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The championship hopes of many other aspirant besides Conn before now—fellows like Maurice Grickland, Al McCoy, Ray Impellierre, and Al Ettore. The winner has been promised a shot at Louis in September, and Pastor won't give up the "take" that means without a struggle.

Such being the case, Billy the Kid is going to find himself in for no circus tomorrow night. A classy boxer, himself, he is tangling with one of the best ring generals among the bizzar fellows, a determined battler who has gone 21 rounds with Joe Louis and has dented the

Harry Fowlis Equals Course Record At Country Club

Paced by Harry G. W. Fowlis, a group of golfers cut loose on the Sherbrooke Country Club course for phenomenal scores and demonstrated that they will be heard from plenty in the Eastern Townships amateur tournament here next week-end.

Fowlis blazed through thirty-six holes in a total of 141 strokes, going in the morning in 71 strokes and coming home in 70, one under par. The 70 equaled the amateur course record established last year by Bob Costella.

Willis Kirby fired a thirty-six-hole total of 143, going out in 71 and coming home with a 72. Sherman Peabody, present Eastern Townships champion, and Fred "Tony" Paré, developing player, also posted par's while B. N. Holtham scored the course in 72.

In an afternoon foursome Stan Wilson had 75, Harry Fowlis 74, Willis Kirby 72 and Ray Brooks 74. The group had nine birdies, and on the par-five tenth each player had a bird.

RIGGS-MARBLE GAIN EASTERN TENNIS TITLES

Bobby Riggs Downs Don McNeill 6-2, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4 in Men's Singles Final of Eastern Grass Courts Tourney at Rye—Helen Jacobs Routed.

Rye, N.Y., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Don't let Bobby Riggs' ridiculous duck waddle, his crooked-toothed smile and his boyish manners disarm you. They hide one of the shrewdest brains in tennis.

For Don was the gallery idol, the man who was to deliver tennis from a champion who has not exactly been overwhelmed with popularity. But Don was victimized by "Rudy Roberts" 6-2, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4 simply because the little guy is able to visualize every opponent's weakness, and is fully able to rise to whatever occasion presents itself.

For a slinger like McNeill, the Riggs' brain was figured out the answer—steadiness. He covered worlds of court, returning shot after shot until Don's durability wore out. Bobby gambles recklessly on occasion—and he never cracks up when a match point is staring him in the face.

Spectacular as Bobby was in the finals he wasn't in it with the other national champion, hand Alice Marble. With the loss of only one set the Queen marched through the field, and crushed what may be the last serious bid of Helen Jacobs, four-time national champion, in the finals.

The 6-1, 6-0 rout of Miss Jacobs impressed the swanky gallery with two things—there isn't anyone on the horizon even able to extend Miss Marble, and Helen, whether she knows it or not, has reached the points where she better call it quits before everyone starts feeling sorry for her.

Lots of talk around town about another famous tennis family ready to crack up. (That's tantamount, we know, but you'll get the names the minute one of them buys a ticket for Reno.)

The village of Mackay is now located at the New York World's Fair. The blanchers, built to give the school children a better view of the baseball school days, have been named after the veteran leader of the Athletics. Old Connie personally christened 'em by smashing a bottle of soda pop.

Cleveland And Detroit Neck And Neck In American Loop

Indians Draw Even with Detroit by Splitting Twin Bill with Browns While Tigers Suffer Twin Loss to White Sox—Lead at Stake as Indians and Tigers Open Two-Game Series—Reds' National League Lead Whittled by Double Setback at Hands of Cards.

Oscar Vitt today will be in the happy position of being able to send Bob Feller, the best pitcher in the business, to the mound as his Cleveland Indians open an important two-game series against Detroit Tigers at Cleveland.

The two clubs yesterday fought their way into a tie for the American League lead, each with sixty-four victories and forty-four losses, and the outcome of their battles today and tomorrow may have a vital bearing on the race. After all, it's getting along late in the summer, when pace-setters begin to crack.

The Tigers suffered two painful losses to Chicago White Sox yesterday, each by scores of 4-3 to lose the lead in the Sox knocked out of the lead by the Yankees. Then Gumbert gave up five hits and scored the winning run in the eighth, despite homers by Hank Greenberg and Rudy York.

Cleveland gained a full game by splitting with St. Louis Browns. Al Milnar scored his fifteenth triumph as the Indians took the first game 12-4 but the Browns came back to knock Johnny Allen and Al Smith from the hill and capture the second 7-6. Walt Judnich hit his twenty-second homer of the year for the Browns.

A brilliant youngster and a game veteran waged a thrilling mound duel at Washington, and in the end young Sid Hudson of the Senators beat "Lefty" Grove of the Red Sox 2-1. Hudson gave five hits and drove across a run to score his tenth victory.

The Yankees made it three straight over Philadelphia Athletics when Joe Gordon slapped a home run into the left field stands in the eleventh inning. The score was 7-6. Cincinnati's National League lead was whittled to five games as the champions bowed to St. Louis Cardinals twice, 3-2 and 3-1. Mort Cooper set the Reds down with two hits to beat Paul Derringer in the first, and Lon Warneke cut them down in the second. Enos Slaughter's two-run homer decided the opener.

Brooklyn gained a game by splitting with Boston Bees. Bill Posedel, a former team-mate, licked the Dodgers 3-2 in the first, but "Lefty" Vito Tamulis blanked the Bees 3-0 to make it a draw for the day.

Frankie Frisch's amazing Pittsburghers scored twice over Chicago Cubs 7-3 and 5-1, vaulting into fourth place only two games back of New York Giants. The Pirates have won ten of their last eleven starts and are red hot. But they probably have too much ground to make up—some 13½ games.

International League President Frank Shaughnessy, a retired major in the Canadian army, offered his services in the current goings-on, but was turned now—too old, they said.
