DRAMATIS PERSONÆ.

FAUST (Faust)	Tenore.
MEFISTOFELK (Mephistopheles)	Basso.
VALENTINO (Valentine)	Baritono.
WAGNER (Wagner)	Basso.
MARGHERITA (Margaret)	Soprano.
SIEBEL (Siebel)	Mezzo Soprano.
MARTA (Martha)	Mezzo Soprano.

FAUST, a student in Germany, after a life of meditation and research, becomes disgusted with human knowledge, and with his own inability to unravel the mysteries of nature. He summons to his aid an Evil Spirit, who appears under the form of MEPHISTOPHELES. By the supernatural power of Mephistopheles, Faust is at once restored to youth, with most of its illusions and passions, and, at the same time, is endowed with both personal beauty and splendid attire. Mephistopheles, through a vision, reveals to him the lovely village maiden, MARGARET, with whom Faust falls immediately in love. He wishes to become acquainted with her, and his desire is soon afterwards gratified. Margaret, noted both for her loveliness and her virtue, has been left by her brother, a soldier, VALENTINE, under the care of Dame MARTHA, a good though not very vigilant personage. The maiden at first rejects the stranger's advances, but Faust, aided by the demoniacal influence of Mephistopheles (who is anxious to destroy another human soul), urges his suit with such ardour that Margaret's resistance is at length overcome. Margaret's brother, Valentine, when he returns with his comrades from the wars, soon learns what has occurred; he challenges the seducer of his sister, but, through the intervention of Mephistopheles, he is slain in the encounter. Margaret, who is horror-stricken at the calamity of which she is the cause, gives way to despair. Her reason becomes affected, and in a fit of frenzy she kills her child. She is thrown into prison for this crime. Faust, with the aid of Mephistopheles, obtains access to the cell where she is imprisoned. They both eagerly urge her to fly, but Margaret, in whom holier feelings have gained the ascendant, spurns their proffered assistance, and places her reliance in repentance and prayer. Overcome by sorrow and remorse, and with an earnest prayer for forgiveness on her lips, the unhappy girl expires. Mephistopheles then triumphs at the catastrophe he has been able to bring about, but a chorus of celestial voices is heard, proclaiming pardon for the repentant sinner, and the Evil Spirit, foiled and overcome, crouches suppliantly as the accents of divine love and forgiveness are heard, while the spirit of Margaret, borne by angels, is wafted upwards to its heavenly home.

FINE DELL' ATTO TERZO

INTERMEZZO E RECITATIVO.

Andante.

PIANO. f

The musical score consists of six systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system is marked 'Andante' and 'PIANO. f'. It features a melody in the treble clef with several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a group of notes) and a bass line with chords and some triplet markings. The second system continues the melody and bass line. The third system includes a 'dim.' (diminuendo) marking in the bass line. The fourth system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign, with a '12/8' time signature change indicated above the treble staff. The fifth and sixth systems continue the piece, with the bass line featuring a dense, rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes.

cre

This system shows the first two staves of a musical score. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower in bass clef, both with a key signature of two flats. The music consists of a melodic line in the upper staff and a supporting accompaniment in the lower staff. The word "cre" is written below the upper staff.

scen do molto

This system continues the musical score. The upper staff has the lyrics "scen do" and "molto" written below it. The accompaniment continues with similar rhythmic patterns.

f

This system features a handwritten 'X' above the upper staff. The music continues with a dynamic marking of f (forte) in the lower staff.

ff

This system shows a dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo) in the lower staff. The music continues with a similar accompaniment.

ff

This system continues the musical score with a dynamic marking of ff in the lower staff. The upper staff has a melodic line with some rests.

This system shows the final two staves of the page. The music concludes with a final chord in the upper staff and a melodic line in the lower staff.

FINE DELL' ATTO QUARTO.

INTERMEZZO E RECITATIVO.

Moderato maestoso.

PIANO.

The first system of the musical score is for piano. It consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower in bass clef. The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and the time signature is common time (C). The tempo is marked 'Moderato maestoso'. The first measure has a whole rest in the upper staff. The second measure has a fortissimo (ff) dynamic marking. The piece begins with a series of chords and rhythmic patterns in both hands.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment. It features dynamic markings of fortissimo (f), piano (p), and fortissimo (f). The music includes various chordal textures and melodic lines in both hands. A trill (tr.) is indicated in the upper staff towards the end of the system.

The third system of the piano accompaniment continues with complex chordal and melodic textures. A trill (tr.) is marked in the upper staff.

The fourth system of the piano accompaniment continues with intricate chordal and melodic patterns in both hands.

The fifth system of the piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings of trill (tr) and diminuendo (dim.). The music features a variety of textures and articulations.

The sixth system of the piano accompaniment begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. It features a series of chords and melodic lines in both hands.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with two staves. The music is in a key with three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a common time signature. The upper staff features a melodic line with slurs and ties. The lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. Dynamics include cresc. and dim.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. The upper staff has a melodic line with a p dynamic marking. The lower staff continues the accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation, showing further development of the melodic and accompanimental parts.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a ff dynamic marking in the upper staff and a dim. marking in the lower staff.

Fifth system of musical notation, including a p dynamic marking in the upper staff and a triplet in the lower staff.

Sixth system of musical notation, marked Allegro. in the upper staff. It features a f dynamic marking and triplet markings in both staves.

Seventh system of musical notation, continuing the Allegro section with melodic and accompanimental lines.
