"That Husband of Mine."

SERIO COMIC SONG.

Words by J. CHEEVER GOODWIN.

Music by EDWARD E. RICE.

- less life short - ly ceas - es, There'll be noth - ing left of me.
me he quite a - fraid is, And with jus - tice,— as he's found.

CHORUS:

And it's all on account of that hus - band of mine, That He's a ter - ri - ble scamp, Is that hus - band of mine, That wor - ry - ing, bot - her - ing hus - band of mine, You may say what you will, But I vow ev - ry ill of my life is the fault of that hus - band of mine.

3

Then he's always late to dinner,
Calls my precious child a "cub,"
Every night, I'm left— the sinner,
While he's staying at the club;
When he comes, his voice is thicker,
Caused by "smoke," he tries t' explain,
But I know the smell of liquor
And excuses are in vain.

CHORUS.

Oh he's terribly bad, is that husband of mine,
That worrying, bothering husband of mine,
You may say what you will,
But I vow every ill
Of my life is the fault of that husband of mine.

4

Things have gone beyond endurance,
I don't wish him any ill,
Though his handsome life-assurance,
Should he die—console me will.
But my feelings I shall smother,
And, avoiding further fuss,
I shall write and ask my mother
If she'll come and live with us.

CHORUS.

And I think she will settle that husband of mine,
That worrying, bothering husband of mine,
For I think that she can
Make a different man
Of that reckless, unprincipled husband of mine.
