

Havelock Fair Again Enjoys Good Weather, Good Attendance, Large Number Of Exhibits

Happy is the Fair the sun shines on, might be a good saying as far as Havelock Fair goes, for last Saturday beautiful bright sunshine and warm weather prevailed for this great one-day Fair. Several days prior to the Fair rain had fallen each day, but for a day or so previous it cleared and Saturday was a beautiful day.

There was a large attendance and early in the morning the grounds were filling up with cars and people attending this one day event. A long line up of patrons waiting to have dinner in the dining hall, was in evidence well in the forenoon. Even at that there was a large number about the grounds taking part in the various part of the program.

Almost two thousand exhibits had been entered and in the early morning these began coming in to fill the various buildings which housed them. There was a large number of horse exhibits and as usual some very fine specimens were shown in the judging ring throughout the day. There were several exhibitors showing sheep and a few fine entries in the swine. Poultry was well represented as usual and of course this included all the various species. Frank Napier was looking after the cattle and he will have a special report on this in another column, but here again the exhibits were quite heavy.

The ladies section was filled in all departments. Cooking and baking was exceptionally heavy and some really fine specimens of the culinary art were on exhibition. In the matter of designs for cakes and pies etc., some exhibitors had gone to great pains to create artistic creations. Not all of them however, captured prizes. In the art department was a large number of paintings, needlepoint and other such works of art. Quilts of all kinds were on display as were mitts, gloves, hats, scarves, preserves, jams, jellies etc., were also in good evidence. The whole testified to the industrious efforts of the women folk of Havelock and surrounding area.

Over in the vegetable, plant and fruit building was one of the largest displays of these articles we believe we have ever seen at this Fair. All the tables were filled with exhibits of one kind and another. Vegetables of every kind were to be seen. Squash and pumpkins were in good display with size and quality. Special displays had been made and one was depicting the "Horn of Plenty". The displays of flowers were beautiful and of excellent quality. Some very beautiful roses were on view. This display took up one full table the length of the building. This being the apple country it is only to be expected that a wonderful display of this fruit would be on hand. There was no disappointment for the whole of one side of the building was given over to this fruit which made the mouth water just to look at the beautiful apples. At one end was a display of maple products, syrup and sugar, while at the opposite end was a display of fruits such as grapes, plums and such. This building attracted a lot of attention from the Fair Patrons and was probably one of the most attractive of all the Fair buildings.

There was a much larger exhibit of industrial concerns, this taking up the whole of one side of the grounds. On the other side was the usual midway attractions sponsored by the Lacolle Curling Club and this was doing a large office business during the afternoon. There were many booths sponsored by various local groups, offering different types of articles to the public. Here again they seemed to be well patronized and people were making purchases.

The Hinchinbrooke firemen and their wives were busy with the Fair Dinner and once again the people were crowding in to the dining hall to partake of the fine fare offered. During an early part of the line-up, Branch 29 of the Canadian Legion Flute Band of Montreal played selections and were well applauded. Later in the afternoon this same band played in the special ring in the centre of the grounds.

The cars overflowed from the fair grounds to a lot across the road and this filled fast with a little lull coming around 2 o'clock. Tickets takers were so busy that at 2 o'clock some had still had nothing to eat since early morning.

Friends were meeting friends all the time and many a get-together was held on the grounds. Some people have been going to this fair for a long list of years and every once in while one could hear someone saying how many it was they had been coming to this fair.

In the afternoon sports were held in the centre arena which included pony races, potato races, small sports for the children and a number of other such attractions. A large crowd gathered for these events.

Accident At St. Anicet

An accident occurred at St. Anicet on Sunday night about 11 o'clock when the driver lost control of his car, Regent Dancause driving a '65 Ford lost control and hit a power pole and a fence owned by Emile Caza. Two passengers were in the car and they were unhurt but the driver suffered slight injury and was taken to Huntingdon County Hospital for treatment. Damage to the car amounted to about $2,000. Provincial Police from Huntingdon investigated the accident.

'Book Of Kings' To Appear Late In 1969 Winter

Arnold McNaughton, Hemmingford, recently received four specimen sample copies from his publisher in London, England of what his book will look like. These were sent over for the purpose of his expressing likes or dislikes concerning the whole appearance of these copies. One copy was then returned with favorable comments on the details.

The next step is for the Publisher to proceed with the typesetting of some 1600 pages of the manuscript. Once this is done the proofs of all this work will be returned to McNaughton who will then have to proof read every word, letter, date and punctuation mark very closely before returning it to London.

As Mr. Michael Balfour, Publishing Director, wrote McNaughton "I imagine you realise what an extraordinarily complex production this is going to be" and cautioned him with "this is going to take more than the normal ten to twelve days for proofing".

Mr. Arthur Addington, Kimpton, Hertfordshire, England, noted British Genealogist and writer and long time correspondent with McNaughton recently stated in a letter, "The trouble of course with this sort of work, quite apart from technical difficulties, is the very careful Proof Reading it needs. Not like a novel or a biography which more or less just needs reading through".

The original possible publication date was tentatively set for November 1968. With so much still involved this date will certainly not be realized. As things now stand with proofing and a complete index system covering over 800 families and close to 7000 christian names which appear in the Book of Kings still to put in order the earliest possible date would probably be mid to late Winter 1969. The last quoted price for this book was mentioned as 9 Guineas or somewhere between $25 to $30, for the double volume production. This work on Royal Genealogy into every Major Royal House in Europe and its hundreds of Branches strewn around the Globe and on both sides of the iron curtain will be the first complete and totally English Reference source ever published. This fact was borne out for McNaughton a few years ago by the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. the third largest library in the World after Paris and London.

RED AND WHITE SHOW WELL REPRESENTED AT HAVELOCK

By Frank Napier

Apart from the Ayrshire Red and White Shows at Havelock in a considerable number of years. It is true that at least one of the former regular exhibits was absent, but that gap was filled by one from the recently reconstituted, old time Kello Ayrshire herd of A. W. MacFarlane & Sons, Glenelg. The other exhibitors were: Allan Kyle, Hemmingford, also a comparatively recent exhibitor.

R. W. McFarlane and Son; E. Ness and Sons and Archie Roy all of Howick; Oscar Vaillancourt, St. Chrysostome; Allan H. Wilson and Sons, Franklin Centre. The stalls in the Ayrshire Cattle Barn were therefore pretty well filled to capacity.

The Ayrshire show was efficiently managed by Alex McCaig, President of the Howick Huntingdon Ayrshire Breeders' Club with the assistance of Reg Taylor a former Club President. Malcolm MacGillivray, member of the firm of MacGillivray, Brock, Glencameron Farm, Bromo, Que., and a director of Ayrshire Breeders' Association of Canada, made an expeditious, pleasing job as judge of the Show.

Work Started on Highway No. 4 By-Pass at Ormstown

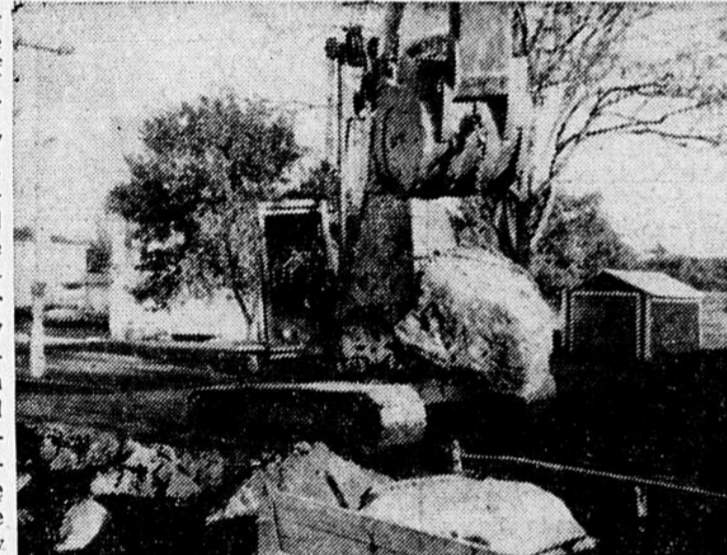

(by Bernice Cullen)

Excavation has begun on part of the River Outarde Road on the outskirts of Ormstown. The location is the rise in the road in front of the Howard Geddes property.

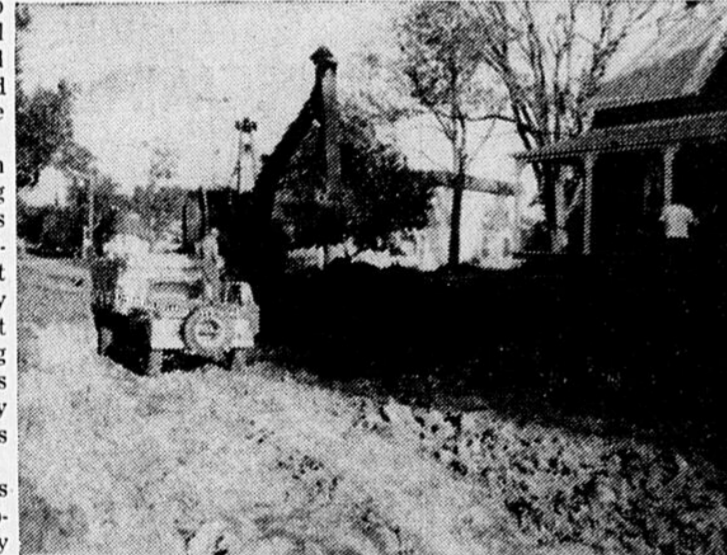

As the heavy machinery moved in to level the road, some difficulty was encountered as the diggers unearthed several large boulders. The largest was blasted on Tuesday of the past week in order that it could be moved by truck and it weighed an estimated ten tons. In our search for information, we asked that old sage, Mr. H. H. Chambers if he recalled any incidents in the building of the road, in bygone years. He informed us that the very reason for the rise was the presence of the huge rock, but he recalled that the size was much greater, prior to water lines being laid. Several large pieces were removed by the old fashioned method of brawn and brain in the early part of the century.

The history of roads in most towns is an interesting one. Mr. Chambers told us that in order to get the required roads, they were built a mile at a time as money was available. It was a most difficult job (the land being clay); the beds of most roads which were stones broken by hand, were hauled many miles by horse and wagon.

It is a far cry from today's modern methods, as we observe the huge machinery swinging into action with such apparent ease.

Chateauguay Valley To Have Teacher For Highland Dancing

An item of interest that many people of the Chateauguay Valley would like to know has been handed to the Gleaner by Mrs. Robt. Payne of Huntingdon. It appears that Mrs. Payne was approached by an interested group to select a teacher for the area to teach Highland Dancing. Mrs. Payne has acted as judge on numerous occasions for Highland dancing competitions and her approval was taken into consideration when she was approached. The teacher selected must be able to teach the official Board of Highland Dancing which is recognized throughout Canada and a broad.

March Of Dimes Campaign To Commence Soon With A Blitz

Above is seen an occupational therapy class in action at Riverview Terrace Convalescent Centre. Some are doing basket weaving, while others are doing leather work and others doing other types. In the centre back of the photograph Madame St. Laurent may be seen as she instructs one of the male members of the class in the particular therapy he is doing. Madame St. Laurent is wearing glasses. She is continually going from one to the other and helping them in what they are doing. All this is done under the auspices of the March of Dimes.

The March of Dimes campaign will soon be with us and the people of this area will be asked to contribute to this worthwhile cause. No doubt most will remember that this project is under the auspices of the Canadian Legion.

Its first objective was in the cause of polio, but since research has declined somewhat in this other jobs have been found which will aid people in many ways. Therapy is one of these and for some time now an occupational therapist has been coming to Huntingdon and attending at the Riverview Terrace Convalescent Centre. The March of Dimes covers the cost of this and the work being done is of great help to a large number of people.

Occupational therapy started at the Riverview Terrace Convalescent Centre with the appointment of Madame St. Laurent as the occupational therapist by the March of Dimes. On learning of the appointment, Miss Rankin made arrangements for Madame St. Laurent to conduct her classes at the Riverview Terrace Convalescent Centre. With the help of Doctors and others this has grown and regular classes are held every third week on a Tuesday. Madame St. Laurent comes from Granby to present and conduct the classes. Accommodation for 12 persons was made and a full compliment has always been on hand.

More people want to take advantage of these classes and arrangements are now being made to make this available to the whole community. Soon the classes will be held in the Legion Hall, Huntingdon. (Continued on page 2)

105 YEARS OLD — Today, September 18, is the 105th anniversary of the founding of The Huntingdon Gleaner Inc. by the late Robert Sellar.

RAILROAD CROSSINGS — Some of the railroad crossings in the Huntingdon area leave much to be desired, for instance the Lake St. and White's Station crossings. What gives, is the N.Y.C. in the tire or wheel alignment business?

USE YOUR HEAD(lights) — Yesterday (Tuesday) a.m. the fog was still as thick as pea soup a half mile west of Paul's sideroad on Route 4 and most of the cars and trucks we met had their headlights on. The drivers were using their heads as well as their headlights. One driver though, barreling along in a dirty grey or black sedan of uncertain vintage, loomed up about 30 feet ahead. This character was over the white line and he didn't even have his parking lights on. Some drivers just don't want to use common sense. . . . if the hour of the day dictates the sun should be up, they'd drive without lights even in a total eclipse. What difference does it make what time it is? if it's dark, turn your lights on and if it's foggy even at noon, turn your lights on. If not for your own protection, then for the safety of others.

ROTARY AUCTION — At the regular Monday luncheon meeting, Rotarians Bud Bourgon, Jon Proudfoot and Fred Anderson reported an impressive lot of merchandise had already been collected for the September 28 auction sale: refrigerators, ranges, fans, automobile tires, chairs, tables, dishes, radios, television sets lamps etc. are already in the Romain Menard building where Builders' Supply & Feeds were formerly located. The public is responding admirably to this appeal from Rotarians and collections are being made without delay. On Sept. 28 buyers will have an opportunity to pick up bargains and at the same time help the Gai Valley School for Retarded Children and the County Civic Centre.

ONE LOUSY TOMATO — rotten at that, cost Gaetan Rousselle $$$$ and then some. Remember last week we mentioned some prank-loving kid placed one on the seat of his car and he sat on it? Now we have the sequel: new pants, new shorts and . . . would you believe . . . a brand new car! Now we're wondering if the car salesman aren't going to buy a bushel of tomatoes each and hand them out to kids. On second thought, what's to prevent Roch, Mac, Charlie and Jimmy from doing a little tomato tommymrot themselves?

LA GRIPPE, le 'flu', les 'runs' . . . call it what you will, there's quite a bit of it in Ormstown and Huntingdon right now.

TEACHER STRIKE — We'll bet a dollar to a doughnut that not more than 10% of the teachers in local schools are in favor of a walkout. Not only that, but the 90% who are dedicated to their profession are just as much worried about the proposed strike next month as any parent.

RUMOR — a sizeable business transaction of interest to the motoring citizens of Ourtown is expected to materialize next week.

ORMSTOWN — This community was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Bob (Robert E.) Greig which occurred in the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal early Thursday morning. Known and respected in many areas, he will be especially missed by older residents of Ormstown who patronized his taxi business and by youngsters who rode on his school bus. (Please see obituary).

GELNELM — Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Hersey in the sudden death of their four-year-old son Jimmy. (See elsewhere).

HUNTINGDON — One of the attractive flower urns made by Town Foreman Philibert Langevin and his men which was located alongside the benches, facing the Chateauguay River in the small park area between the bridge and the Taillefer Shell Servis Station was thrown into the river one day last week. (See editorial).

TROUT RIVER — Ronnie, 17-year-old son of Canada Manpower Manager John and Mrs. Cappiello is enrolled at Paul Smiths College, N.Y., where he is taking a two-year course in Forestry. Good luck, Ronnie.

CHATEAUGAY, N.Y. — Miner's News Shop here was robbed on Friday afternoon. (See elsewhere).

HE DOOD IT — Martin Beattie, local automobile license issuer, was a busy man on Saturday. He hadn't missed Havelock Fair in 35 years but he wasn't going to miss the wedding of his co-worker and young buddy, Sandy MacDonell, either. A little fast leg work and a heavy foot on the accelerator fixed everything though, eh Martin?

GOOD WEATHER — Why of course the weather was fine for Havelock Fair . . . it always is, isn't it? Late Friday evening that cool brisk wind moderated and Saturday was as good a day as any we had all summer. Trust Havelock Fair to bring out the best . . . and we hope it stays with us for a while. Those people who keep saying September is the best of our twelve months are proving themselves right again.

MOVING — John Cappiello and his Canada Manpower office will be moving to quarters above the Post Office in Ourtown on Sept. 23rd.

LUCIFER'S LORDS — at first we thought this was a dance combo, but we've learned Lucifer's Lords is a newly organized car club in Ourtown. Gerry Lennox is President, Ralph DuHeme, Vice-president and Guy Taillefer is Secretary. The roster lists 45 members, mostly young fellows, and another 55 young car owners in town are potential members. In addition, Gerry informs us that some one hundred fellows in Chateauguay have signified their intentions to becoming members in the near future. Membership fee is fifty cents per week. While some of the Lucifer's Lords have fast cars, they aren't organizing for speed. That is, safety. They plan to organize rallies and tours. Once their gasoline, tires accessories, etc. Emblems and crests have already been ordered and we predict Lucifer's Lords will be a common name one of these days. Naturally, all young fellows are interested in speed and performance and another of their objectives is to produce one or more cars that they

The Late Mrs. Bessie Saunders At the Civic General Hospital, Ottawa, on Thurs. Sept. 12, Bessie Emerson Saunders, beloved wife of Dr. Allister C. Blackwood, Sr., passed away. Bessie was in her 89th year. At one time she taught in the Huntingdon Academy, and later owned the brokerage business in Athelstan. She was married to Dr. Blackwood, Sept. 15, 1914, at St. Mary's Church in Regina. Later years they lived in Calgary where she was interested in church work and the Boy Scouts.

She leaves to mourn her loss Dr. Blackwood, Sr.; Dr. A. Clark Blackwood, Bordeaux, France; Mrs. Eleanor Hall, Ottawa, Ont.; and William Saunders Blackwood, Trenton, Ont. She is also survived by one brother, W. James Saunders of Calgary, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Hutchings of Athelstan; also by nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

When she came to visit her former home in Athelstan she was always so pleased to have old friends call. Interment was in Burnsland Cemetery at Calgary, Alta.

Mrs. Fred Hutchings of Athelstan, and Mr. W. Hutchings of Cornwall, attended the funeral Friday in Ottawa.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Barwick were Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of the Town of Mount Royal and Mrs. John Vincent of Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roy of Sarasota, Florida, were guests last week of Mrs. Fred Roy and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Bouthillier.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logan and daughter, Wendy and Miss Chris S. John of Ottawa, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutchings.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Reynett of Red Rock, Ont., and Mrs. Robert Cosgrove of Pointe Claire, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Green.

Word has just been received of the death of Archie W. Hampson in Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital. Archie had been there three months. The sympathy of the town goes out to his wife Jean.

TALKING ABOUT CARS — is this the 1969 model coming out or have the old 1939's been revived? The small vent windows are disappearing, floor shifts are back in style and now ignition switches are back on the steering column. Good grief, first thing we know the Big Three will be squipping their cars with cranks and running boards. And front bumpers today are about as useful as horns on a bull, don't you think? And those headrests, weren't they popular when Gramaw was courting Gramaw in a buggy? One of these years the manufacturers will remember Henry and offer us any color we want as long as it's black.

HORSE FANCIERS — There will be a western horse show at the Ormstown Arena on September 21 and 22. Some of the best western riders will be taking part in the event. Admission is only a dollar and children will be admitted free. (See advt.)

Maybe You Can Help

WHAT is happening in Huntingdon and why?

A few weeks ago we reported that a flower urn located near the Chateaugay St. entrance to the Henderson St. bridge had been overturned. Since then costly damage was caused to the new County Civic Centre swimming pool. Now we have to tell readers that last Wednesday morning residents noticed one of the flower urns located between the new bridge and the Taillefer Shell Service Station was missing. The urn was found in the river. It had been picked up and heaved over the iron rail. Needless to say, it was smashed.

The perpetrators of these and other acts of vandalism must be deriving pleasure from what they do, otherwise why would they do them? One's first reaction is of course anger; they must be caught and punished. The police must be ordered to track down the offenders and take them to court. The Mayor and Aldermen are too soft to do anything about it.

Nothing could be further from fact. The attractive urns filled with blooming plants were made in spare time by Town Foreman Philibert Langevin and his men and everyone in town is proud of them. The town council sanctioned the building, painting and maintenance of them and certainly the Mayor and Aldermen do care if they are wantonly destroyed. Finally, the police can't be everywhere and they're up against sick people who are cunning and cowardly.

We say 'sick' because those doing the vandalism must be in need of psychiatric help. Nobody in their right minds would destroy public property just for kicks and we can't for the life of us think of any other reason why flower urns that beautify the town would possibly be destroyed. Try as we might, we can't even visualize anybody we know in town or even anyone we have ever seen being stupid or mean enough to do these things. At the moment, police don't know if youngsters are responsible; it could well be adults. Jokers from out-of-town might be responsible, maybe from towns or villages not quite as well kept and beautiful as Huntingdon... maybe even tourists passing through are suddenly possessed with the desire to destroy something beautiful.

Yes, maybe. More likely than not, however, the vandalism is being done by kids we see every day right on Chateaugay Street. Our own home-town kids. The ones who hang around with apparently nothing to do. They don't play basketball, football, hockey or any other sport; don't belong to the Sea Cadets, Scouts, Boite à Chansons or any other organized group; don't, of course, have part-time jobs even during summer.

Is there an answer to this vandalism other than catching the kids red-handed and making them complete their education in a reform school? Right here at The Gleaner we're in the unfortunate position whereby some criticize us for saying too much, others criticize us for saying too little. One side tells us we should blast the town council and police and get more action out of them and the other side tells us we compliment them every time they lift a finger, or words to that effect but seldom so polite; we blame the kids but don't promote worthwhile activities for them; blame the parents and forget the older generation was as bad in their hey-day.

It's easy to pass the buck and to criticize and then sit back with a satisfied smirk and figure 'that's telling 'em'. Sure it is, but don't hold your breath while you wait for results. And we won't hold our breath either, but may we make a few suggestions?

First, we have an active Sea Cadet Corps in Huntingdon and those who join learn a lot more than seamanship. The main objective of this organization is to build character in its members. It's not a sissy organization and those who are members don't go around pulling off childish 'tricks' like destroying public property. Membership is still open and we suggest young fellows get interested and find out if they can be accepted.

Second, parents should talk to their boys about the Sea Cadet Corps; also about joining a sports team at school. By the same token, teachers should encourage all of their students to participate in sports. Teachers in elementary grades should explain to the whole class that damaging public property is wrong... not overlooking the fact that some children have never been taught this by their parents.

Finally, is God dead? The answer is no, but some of His churches are. They could be doing a lot more in encouraging youngsters to keep out of trouble. Some of our clergymen must feel they're facing an uphill battle because if we face facts some of us adults are to blame too. Many of us would be ashamed to admit just which was the last Sunday we went to church. The answer here isn't that the church has changed or that the clergyman isn't as good as Superman, it's simply that the people have changed. We have more money to spend and more places to spend it than people who were our ages one, two, three or four decades back. We're more interested in having a good time than we are in seeing that the youth of today is set a good example. For that reason it's probably asking a bit much to suggest that Sunday School teachers and clergymen prepare a lesson on right and wrong and deliver it to young people... moreover, it's doubtful if it would do a bit of good because those who would be hearing it certainly wouldn't be the ones in need of such a lecture.

There must be some way to reach the vandals and help them to get their kicks in a manner acceptable to society... why not some suggestions in a Letter to the Editor, properly signed?

Merci mille fois, Monsieur

WHILE it isn't the policy of The Gleaner to rewrite editorials from other newspapers (a common practice among many weekly newspapers) we do think readers will pardon us this time.

The following editorial appeared in the French weekly newspaper "Frontiere" of Rouyn/Noranda and is a literal translation which we believe would lose much of its sincerity if altered in any respect... It was handed to us by a Huntingdon business professional and we concur the natural beauty of our community. After you have read the editorial, we think you will want to say "Merci" to "J.-P. B." also and fervently wish that more of his ilk would "discover" this area:

"VALLEYFIELD-HUNTINGDON, A FORGOTTEN REGION"
"During the last seven weeks, without tiring or being saturated by asphalt we have made short trips in the Gaspé region, in Charlevoix, Ile d'Orléans, in the green

Laurentians, at Oka and L'Assomption near Montreal and everywhere we have admired the Quebec scenery in its green drapery and the blue sky above.

"These last two weekends, we have explored a region forgotten by Quebecers which could be called the Normandy of Quebec. We mean the fertile and green region of Huntingdon, surrounding Valleyfield which is at 30 miles from Montreal. There, we have admired the most beautiful pastures of the province, the milking herds with fabulous production and in the Franklin sector we have found orchards with branches heavy with succulent apples red as a shy woman's cheeks. These dream fruits are McIntosh.

"We travelled slowly through this region of Quebec where trees of all types make a canopy to the country roads which do not lack in picturesque and invite to relaxation and calm.

"This region was colonized by the

Hay - Hughes

The marriage of Carole Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hughes, of Ormstown. They were bridesmaids of Quebec, to William Ferrill Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hay, of Carleton Place, Ontario. Miss Julie Borland, as flower girl, wore a dress of white tulle with a high collar and a white tulle train. The bride wore a dress of white tulle with a high collar and a white tulle train. The groom wore a suit of grey flannel with a white shirt and a white tie.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in a gown of white tulle with a high collar and a white tulle train. The groom wore a suit of grey flannel with a white shirt and a white tie. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Russell M. Young. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and several friends.

Following the reception which was held at MacDougal Hall in Ormstown, Mr. and Mrs. Hay left for Freeport in the Bahamas, the bride traveling in a dress and coat ensemble of white wool, and wearing burgundy accessories and a corsage of orchids. They will take up residence in Kingston, Ontario.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

R.R. No. 2 Franklin Centre, Que. September 13th, 1968

The Editor: The Huntingdon Gleaner, Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Sir: Thank heaven one mother of daughter has taken the initiative and given voice publicly, through your news paper, to what I am certain is widespread disappointment amongst parents over the "no uniform" policy adopted by C.V.R.H.S. The guide line for school dress set down simply is not sufficient, in my opinion, to provide a solution to the problems confronting both the school administration and parents.

I am in complete agreement with both Mother No. 1 from St. Chrysostome and Mother No. 2 from Howick.

Let's stop lodging our complaints to the neighbour across the back fence... and he teacher we occasionally bump into on the street. Let's make our Christmas gift to our daughter and C.V.R. in the form of a nice smart uniform dress. Who says it can't be mod? As long as it is practical and consistent throughout the school.

One More "Off Her Hump at Last" Russ Faughnan's Perspective well taken by this reader: Time we stirred more than just the sugar in our coffee... who have we to blame but ourselves for situations such as he describes in St. Leonard... and notice it was not so much English Catholics who protested in Ottawa — but new Canadians. More shame for us.

Also an English Catholic

September 16, 1968. The Gleaner, The Editor, Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Sir, After reading the letter from "A Howick Parent", in the September 11th, issue, I too would like to air my views.

A regulation uniform for gymnastics is a very small expense and in no way interferes with anyone's right to choose their own clothes. However, compulsory dress for every day is not legal in a democratic country and is a real hardship on those of us who dress a large family. As it stands now any parent is within his rights to dress his own child in grey skirt, white blouse and blue blazer but why try to force this outmoded dress on all the members of the jet-set.

Yours, truly, Wilma Cullen.

Dear Sir:

Recent happenings in Czechoslovakia bring to mind the sequence of events in the communization of that country twenty years ago. The sequence included:

1. — REGISTRATION of firearms.
2. — CONFISCATION of firearms a few months later.
3. — COMMUNIZATION by legislation shortly thereafter.

This familiar pattern of events has occurred in many areas now under communist or neo-communist control.

It is more than obvious that the Czechoslovaks do not like their enforced communization with its attendant loss of liberty. Without firearms the

Memorial Gifts Dedicated At Howick United Church Service

The service at the Howick United Church on Sept. 15, was of a special nature in several ways. A presentation of Bibles and books to the Sunday School pupils was made by Supt. Donald Templeton, assisted by Willard Greig. Twenty-five Bibles were given to two Primary classes and one Junior class. Those who received perfect attendance prizes were Mildred McKell, Howard McKell, Lynn Knox, John Younie, Brian MacFarlane, Elaine Younie, Roy Templeton, Margaret Younie and Agnes McKell.

The dedication of hymn books was made in memory of Mr. John J. Peddie from the congregation, followed by the dedication of memorial gifts to the Organ Fund.

In loving memory of: A.W. Mitchell Ness, Russell Kerr, Florence Maxwell, Eric M. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. MacDonald, Bruce M. Templeton, Dr. and Mrs. James C. Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Younie, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lang, Russell Logan, Robert B. Tolhurst, Eileen Ness, Mrs. Annie Gruer, John J. Peddie, Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. Laura MacFarlane, Mrs. R.J. A half-hour of organ music preceded the service, played by the original organist of Howick United Church, Florence (Cameron) Crawford 1925-1934, who also played the first hymn. The present organist, Vera (Bennie) Stewart (who has played continuously since Sept. 1934 with the exception of a short leave of absence in 1957) completed the musical service, using the Estey organ for the last time. The outer doors of the church are being replaced also and were used for the last time on Sunday. The minister, Rev. John Anderson, preached a sermon in keeping with the nature of the service.

The choir sang the anthem, The Lord Is In His Holy Temple by Simper, which was sung at the dedication service 40 years before Three members of the original choir were present, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ness and Mrs. James Crawford. A few who have retired were in the congregation.

Both organ and doors were deconsecrated at the close of the service and following the benediction the organ was silent.

Work has started on the installation of the new doors, and the new organ will arrive within a short time.

By FRANK NAPIER

Among the interested long time visitors of Havelock Fair whom we met there were included Marshall Cheeseman, Ellenburg Centre and Ralph Lewis, Mooers, both of New York State; James and Mrs. Diamond of Fort Covington, Also Jack MacGeorge, Manager of the Cattle Exhibit of "Man and His World". When he was Manager of the former Alderwood Farms, Jack was thereby a frequent exhibitor at Havelock's "Red and White" Ayrshire Show. It may also be recalled that the present Ayrshire Cattle Barn was made possible through a donation by J. Gemmill Wilson, the then long time owner of Alderwood Farms, now of Norval, Ont. Another interested spectator was Clement Beauchemin of the old established St. Blain herd of Vercheres. A director of Ayrshire Breeders Association of Canada, Mr. Beauchemin is also a Fieldman of Quebec Ayrshire Society.

English Visitor
Another interested interested visitor at Havelock Fair was Peter Carmichael of Leicester, England, who was helping Allan Kyle of Hemmingford, with his Ayrshire exhibit. As we understand it, Peter Carmichael came across by boat to New York early this summer, and then came on by bus to Montreal, via Toronto, after which he originally intended to make such other Canadian trips as a limited budget would make possible. However instead, he decided to obtain some practical Canadian farming experience by working for Allan Kyle. He leaves for home next week to resume his studies at Liverpool University, as a third year student specializing in Biology, Bacteriology, etc.

The late Bob Greig
When at Havelock Fair, we regretted to learn, from another who also knew him, of the apparently sudden passing of Robert ("Bob") Greig of Ormstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sutherland returned home recently via Air Canada from an enjoyable ten-day holiday in Saskatchewan. Mrs. Sutherland's father, Mr. J. Stewart Houston, has now almost completely recovered from the serious heart attack he suffered last spring. A family reunion was held at the "home farm" at Tyvan, Sask., attended by Mrs. Sutherland's three brothers and sister and their families. At that time harvesting operations had barely started, due to wet weather and in Manitoba crops were lying in water.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sutherland spent the week-end in Montreal and attended the Gaudineault-Gauthier wedding which took place at St. Thomas More Church. Father Cameron officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Sutherland, is the daughter of Mrs. Ed. Sutherland Gauthier and the late Mr. Gauthier. Mr. and Mrs. Gaudineault will reside in Verdun where he is in the police force.

Mr. Hubert Leblanc of Leblanc's Point underwent surgery in a Montreal hospital this week. "Get-Well" wishes from many friends in this area, Hubert.

More About Goats:

From the Scottish Farmer: "If the average farmer regards goats with a certain scepticism, it seems that medical authorities take the opposite view.

"This at any rate is the case regarding the goats from the 21-strong herd of Mrs. E. G. dairy cattle breeds the bird!"

"The milk which doesn't go to hospitals from the Ravenstone herd is used by the Angus family and also in the feeding of 70 canaries, which might, presumably, be tantamount to giving some of our 21-strong herd of Mrs. E. G. dairy cattle breeds the bird!"

"Total production from her goats, said Mrs. Angus, amounts to almost 200 pints a week, the bulk of which goes to hospitals; in the North-East of England where it is regarded as invaluable in cutting down "cot deaths" in babies.

"So highly is the milk rated, says Mrs. Angus, that some hospitals have from time to time set up a "bank" of her goats' milk along the lines of a blood "bank."

"Total production from her goats, said Mrs. Angus, amounts to almost 200 pints a week, the bulk of which goes to hospitals; in the North-East of England where it is regarded as invaluable in cutting down "cot deaths" in babies.

To mention a few — Jet cold and Polybutadiene rubber, Rayon, Nylon and Polyester cord. Now, the crowning achievement, Glass Belted 2 Dip Polyester cord tires.

Concerned about a rather large tire inventory in warehouse and under manufacturing contract, all Nylon and Polyester tires (non-glass belted), are offered here at low, low prices for quick disposal on a first come, first served basis.

Y.M.C.A. Studies Drug Problem Among Chateauguay's Youth

He is only twelve years old, but he has a rich, full life ahead of him. All the conveniences, pleasures and involvements of the richest period in human history were open to him. Now he's in the hospital. Doctors are still adding up the effects, and possible reactions which could cripple his future. No, he won't die. Not this time. They caught him in time, but now he's susceptible to other addictive drugs.

What happens when a young person sniffs glue? Here are the possibilities:
1. — He (or she) gets high. It is a feeling of intoxication, however, it is really an anesthetic or the central nervous system. A short circuit on awareness.

2. — The first time one tube does it. The next time, and the next time it may take five tubes to do the same job.
3. — There is a record of one man who has permanent brain damage from constant use.

4. — He probably will pass out unconscious at some point. If he is using a plastic bag to sniff glue, he runs a very good chance of suffocating to death while he is "blacked-out".

5. — Continued use of glue-sniffing affects the bone marrow, reduces white blood cells, leaves a person anaemic and susceptible to disease. Reduces growth rate in youngsters too!

6. — Liver disorders, kidney disease, swollen spleen are all offshoots of glue-sniffing.
7. — Paralysis caused by nerve damage can go hand in hand with breathing difficulties, headaches, dizziness and fever.

Not a pretty picture is it? Did you know what the effects really could be? This is only related to glue-sniffing. What of the other drugs that cost more, and are even more harmful?

Why do children pursue this dangerous course? On a dare? Or to be smart and follow the leader? Or just to get away from it all? The answers vary as widely as the questions. One thing we know for sure, glue-sniffing has an almost immediate depressant action on the central nervous system (which is why it is used).

The user didn't know before. He'll tell him. Or her. Pass this article around. We are not trying to be authoritarian or paternal. It's just that we don't see voluntary self-destruction as one way to get inexpensive "kicks" in life.

Once a young person starts, he usually becomes psychologically addicted. The road is downhill all the way. Nail polish remover, gasoline, paint hinner, etc... are all there for the asking. We use these items safely in our daily lives. But surely not to destroy or cripple ourselves on a voluntary basis.

The YMCA recognizes that there are stresses and strains applied to youth today. It also tries to provide healthy outlets for these problems in sports, or discussion groups, or hobbies, or social activities geared to the needs of youth.

Mr. Tony Cornford, Activities Co-ordinator for the Chateauguay YMCA, has given speeches on drug addiction to twelve groups in the Chateauguay area in the last five months. Interested groups who would like more information concerning the drug problem, are invited to contact the YMCA, (Lachine - Dorval Branch), telephone 637-2511.

Our twelve year old boy is hypothetical. Oh, problem is not. It is real! Dope addiction is too destructive to be swept under the table. Our social responsibility is to encourage an awareness of the results of taking dope of all kinds.

If you have a personal problem or have a suspicion when a youth smells of glue, and acts irrationally, please contact the Poison Control Centre, Montreal Children's Hospital, phone 937-8511. Many thanks to all concerned at the Hospital for their co-operation and information.

Thank you for reading this article and increasing your awareness of the problem.
Y.Y. ACTIVITIES
Are You an Authority On Stamps?

The Chateauguay YMCA is looking for someone to share his or her knowledge with youth about stamp collecting. If you are a philatelist, or philatelistically inclined, please call Mr. Joe Ellard, "Y.Y. Supervisor of Youth Programmes, at 691-9451. Mr. Ellard will be taking registrations from interested youngsters until September 21 and the course is planned to start September 28th. Boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 12 are invited to join.

Gun Handling
The course in the principles of gun handling for ages 8 to 12 will commence Saturday, September 21 at 9:30 a.m. in Room 75, Place Chateauguay. Daisy air guns will be used.

French and English Conversation
These two worthwhile courses still have openings available for those people who wish to take advantage of our bilingual heritage. Remember, conversation is the beginning and the end of communication. Please contact the Lachine-Dorval YMCA at 637-2511.

Rev. Norman Pilcher Preaches At St. Andrew's On Sunday

The new Assistant District Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society preached the sermon at the Sunday morning service at St. Andrew's United Church. The annual Bible Society canvass in Chateauguay will be taking place shortly.

Following last Sunday's appeal in United Churches across Canada to aid starving people in Biafra it is hoped that many congregations will be sending a special offering to help relieve the desperate suffering brought about by the internal strife in that part of Africa. St. Andrew's Treasurer will forward designated donations as a super gift to be added to the Nigeria/Biafra Relief Fund of Canada.

Next Sunday, September 22, the Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered at the close of the morning Worship Service.

The monthly meeting of the "Kirk" Session will be held in the Church Parlour tonight, Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

Persons wishing to transfer their church membership to St. Andrew's should present their certificates to the Minister, Rev. Howard C. Fraser, before next Sunday, September 22nd.

The United Church Women were scheduled to meet yesterday evening at the home of

Come To The Fair

(By Russ Faughnan)

Only one week to go in Fair Contest — three to go for Fair. By Russ Faughnan.

On our second to last week of the big Gleaner Fair Contest, two more accurate guesses win a pair of one-day visas each. Mrs. Pat Hollingsdale of Chateauguay and Mr. P. Scott of Montreal, were extremely close to the actual figure of 10,418,451 as of Saturday night.

It is sad to note that there is only about three weeks left of the Fair itself. Man and His

Ramblers Downed 102-0; More Support Urged For The Team

Chateauguay Ramblers had a most unpleasant "first" last Sunday in their Quebec Juvenile Football League encounter with the East End Optimist Larks. This was the first century loss for Ramblers as they emerged the losers by the record score of 102-0. This was the fifth straight loss for the Ramblers who are playing their first season in juvenile football with a largely under-age team.

Ramblers were handicapped by bad injuries to corner back Ralph Rice and defensive tackle Bobby Muir, but no such excuses could hide the unpalatable fact that the team is presently outclassed by its competitors.

Club management have appealed for greater public support. Joe Pistilli (691-1393) is asking for help said that what the club urgently needs is a miracle or two.

Next game is Sunday, September 22nd at Labege Park, when Lachine is the opposition. Things could hardly be worse from now on.

ARENA TENDERS OPENED

Last week's Town of Chateauguay Council meeting — the upper limit of $330,000 approved by the Arena By-Law. The recent cancellation of the Federal Government's Winter Works Programme was a severe blow to Town planning, costing the Town an estimated $25,000, which would have acted as a buffer against increased costs. However, an estimated $20,000 grant under the Provincial Government's Winter Works programme will provide a safety factor.

Indications are that the low bid submitted, will pose a substantial financing problem for the Town. Last time the Town went on the money market, the high money cost resulted in the Town receiving only $91.75 on $100. Assuming November 1st, in order to obtain the same discount rate would bring the new borrowing to grant under Winter Works.

In view of the closeness of the bid to the authorized borrowing, architect's plans will be closely studied this week in search for further economies. Additionally, no work on the project will be started until November 1st, in order to obtain the maximum possible grant under Winter Works.

On TV Thursday — VOTE FOR ANITA!

Chateauguay soloist Miss Anita Huntly-Peck was chosen recently to appear on Channel 12's first "Camera Call" program of the season and she is urging everyone in the area to watch and listen and vote FOR ANITA.

We have been privileged to hear Anita sing on a number of occasions and know she has an excellent chance of coming first of all those on the program. However, we do hope you will support this young singer by telling your friends neighbours, relatives, just everyone you speak to, to watch Channel 12, Thursday evening at 7:30.

Anita is the recipient of many awards in her native England and recently won the Senior Vocal Scholarship of the Chateauguay Valley Music Festival. Although not yet eighteen years of age, Anita has had a wide experience in music and her repertoire is quite extensive. Our very best to you Anita! Good Luck!

Highlights Of Minor Football Games Held In Chateauguay

Minor Football came upon the Chateauguay area in a big way during the past week with action in the district leagues and house leagues along with an exhibition game between the Pee Wee travelling team and the Tiacs squad from the House league.

The opening game of the 1968 season saw the hastily assembled Bantam squad drop a 1-3 decision to Town of Mount Royal in an extremely well played game. The Chateauguay team put up a fine show before falling behind their bigger and more experienced opponents.

The following evening, the Pee Wee travellers downed the Tiacs by a score of 26-0 in a game that was considerably closer than the score would indicate. The Tiacs stuck with their better trained opposition for a time, until they tired and Pee Wee class overtook them.

Friday evening, the Bantam squad were hosted by Verdun and wound up on the short end of a 46-7 count. The game was much closer than the score would indicate, and in fact the Chateauguay squad held a 7-0 lead at the first quarter. The play was extremely rough, with two of the Chateauguay boys being thrown out for committing the same offense that led to the referees warning the Verdun boys.

Saturday's game pitted the Chateauguay travelling Mosquitos and Pee Wees against the visitors from LaSalle and resulted in an event split of the two games. LaSalle edged John Dempster's Mosquitos 26-19 in the opener, while the Pee Wees evened things up by scoring a 13-7 win in the second game.

For now, run over for a last look. Take in the beauty of the Biosphere or India. Visit one of the 72 eating spots, many of them offering exotic foods at reasonable prices. If it's just a snack you want, there are also 54 snack bars. It's food aplenty.

Take a last look at the "Canada 67", the most thrilling movie ever made in Canada. It is said it will be replaced next year.

Take the ride to the highest spot at Terre des Hommes, La Spirale is 312 feet of thrills. Pop into the Police pavilion for a horrible film on highway safety, stay to be impressed by the obedience and ability of the police dog squad.

Bring the kids for a last fling at La Ronde where even the youngest can enjoy their own Children's World.

GIRLS GALORE AT FOOTBALL BANQUET

A new feature, for Chateauguay, was added to the fund-raising dinner at Rustik Restaurant last Friday in aid of the Chateauguay Minor Football League and the Juvenile Chateauguay Ramblers.

A bevy of beautiful leopard-skin girls appeared as part of the month long competition which will see "Madamoiselle Club Sportif des Journalistes" crowned. Each girl was sponsored by a weekly journal in the Greater Montreal area, including TV Hebdo, Voyages à L'Horizon and L'Voix Populaire. On hand to assess the girls were Channel 10 producers Guy Robillard and Pierre Ste. Lyain.

The winning girl, among her public appearances, will appear on CFTM — TV's Sunday noon-time show "Les Beaux Dimanches."

The girls' appearance was warmly applauded by the predominantly youthful guests. While the less youthful set, notably Mayor Joseph Labege, Mr. Robert Trudeau, Messrs Ray Leduc, Heward Reid, Jack Cushing, M. O. Bremner and other local football figures were in attendance, the evening was definitely for the younger swinging set.

Toastmasters Begin New Season

Monday, Sept. 9, the Chateauguay Toastmasters Club held its opening meeting of the 1968-69 season. President Bertie MacLauchlan, in his opening address, asked all members to make every effort to attend regularly and to take an active part in the affairs of the community. He went on to say that now, more than at any other time in the history of this great country, we need men who are willing to sacrifice their time and put their experience to work for the benefit of all Canadians.

The Toastmaster for the evening, Tom Kavanagh, introduced the team who were to assist him in the proceedings of the evening. Paul Chartrand acted as Timer and Al Hill held the post of Grammarian. The general evaluation portion of the meeting was conducted by Colin Jones. Bill LaBelle acted as Topic Master. The Topic Award went to Clarence O'Connell.

Two six-minute speeches were then given. Tony Croft spoke on the problems we face in the Province of Quebec and the second speaker, Bill Gills, complained that the worker is not getting a fair deal.

Toastmasters meet every Monday evening at the Rustik Restaurant. Starting time is 8:00 o'clock sharp. For more information Telephone Tom Kavanagh at 692-0477 or Bertie MacLauchlan at 692-6894.

GERALD LANIEL ELECTED AS LIBERAL CAUCUS CHAIRMAN

Mr. Gerald Lanier, 44, M.P. for Beauharnois, and a familiar figure in the Chateauguay's last week was appointed Chairman of the Liberal Parliamentary caucus. Mr. Lanier's election was announced by Prime Minister Trudeau.

Former holder of the chairmanship was Russell Honey, Rural Development Minister Marchand.

As Chairman, Mr. Lanier will preside over the weekly closed sessions of Liberal caucus M.P.s and Senators, in which to solve problems and prevent the Parliamentary rank and crises.

Mr. Trudeau expressed deep satisfaction with the election of Mr. Lanier. "Mr. Lanier has always been a fighter for the rights of caucus," said World War II.

SEPARATIST ACTION INCREDIBLY STUPID

The stupidity of French nationalist action in the past few months, staggers the imagination. A short time ago, there was considerable sympathy for the "honest" separatists as there always is for those who struggle for self-determination. Most agreed that the struggle was misguided and indeed, could not succeed. Nevertheless, the lofty aim was worthy of respect. Now, all that is changed.

Hocaeloski led the way with 5 touchdowns between them and McCulloch and Crawford each added single points. Roughriders' majors went to Burrell and Sangallo with each scoring two.

The weekend weather was ideal for the opening games and good turnouts were on hand at all of the games, which speaks well for the season's prospects. The minor football system provides entertainment not only for the boys who play the game, but in addition the parents who come out to enjoy the show. Support your children and support the sports system. Don't send your boy to play, take him. You'll enjoy it.

The Argo-Roughrider game ended in victory for the Argos by a 32-24 count. Robertson and You'll enjoy it.

Town Of Chateauguay Hockey Registration Plans Now Set

Hockey registration for boys residing in the Town of Chateauguay or boys who played in the Town section during the past season will open on Sept. 28 from 1:30 till 5 p.m. at Labege Park on Craik St. between St. Francis and Theberge and at St. George's Anglican Church on St. Francis Blvd. near Maple Registration will continue throughout the following two weeks, with the same locations being utilized on Oct. 5 and 12 which will be the deadline for registration.

The Juvenile section of the league will be required to register on the first day in order that the league may make the necessary arrangements to provide indoor facilities for them until the completion of the Town's calling Mac Davies at 692-Sports Center. Boys born in 1950 or 1951 are eligible to play in the Juvenile section.

Age limits in the various sections of the Minor Hockey League have been altered for the coming season with the Midget section now consisting of boys born in 1952-53, Bantams 1954-55, Pee-Wee 1956-57, Mosquito 1958-59 and Atom 1960 or after.

The league's intention is to commence play on outdoor rinks until the completion of the Sports Center, at which time all teams in the "A" and "B" sections will continue their schedules on indoor ice and in order to provide a maximum amount of boys with the chance to participate, it is necessary to complete registration at the earliest possible date.

Information regarding registration may be obtained by calling Mac Davies at 692-Sports Center.

Mr. Lanier, and he may be expected to keep Cabinet Ministers up to the mark.

Mr. Lanier, in the past a Vice-Chairman of the Parliamentary Party's Quebec caucus, is a native of Valleyfield and has been a Member of Parliament since 1962.

Mr. Lanier stated that he believes parliamentary caucuses can be improved. He would try to make the meetings something more than a pressure valve for the pent-up feelings of the M.P.'s. He felt closed sessions of Liberal caucus could be better used.

Mr. Lanier, an insurance broker outside the House of Commons is the father of five children and was a Flying Officer in the R.C.A.F. during World War II.

Over 300 entries in the Men's Doubles and 15 in Ladies Doubles came from Valleyfield, Beauharnois, Mercier and Chateauguay. Tennis has shown a resounding surge in the Chateauguay this year, both in the quantity and quality of players. Particular strength has been evident in the Men's section, and the brothers J. and C. Castonguay demonstrated their superiority by reaching the final where they defeated the favored pair from Valleyfield, Joe Dandurand and Lucien Miron in a cliffhanger encounter.

The Chateauguay players emerged the winners by 4-6, 6-3, 7-5 in what was described by onlookers as the best tennis seen in Chateauguay for many years.

In the Ladies Section Alison Gilbert and L. Harwood kept all the honours in Chateauguay by defeating the sisters G. and S. Richer from Valleyfield in the final in a close-fought victory 9-7, 6-4.

Some 130 players and other guests attended the dance-supper at the Recreation Club Hall, following the day-long tournament.

Perfect weather throughout the day provided the extra touch in a notable tennis landmark for the Chateauguays.

A notable feature of the tournament was a novel arrangement whereby first rounds were of one long set and second rounds of one "pro-set" of a minimum eight game winners. This arrangement has been made popular on the professional tennis circuit. Quarter finals and on-wards featured the normal best of three long sets.

Think back. When the Quiet Revolution began, it was in protest to English injustice. Its aim was equality for Quebec and French Canadians across Canada. Its major goal was the preservation of the French language and culture.

How was this to be obtained? By making that language and that culture available across the country. The ultimate was a bilingual Canada. Fine. A little far-fetched, but fine. And then the trouble started. English Canadians were accepting the premise that French would be accepted in the Civil Service. Schools would be available. A bilingual Canada was a possibility. It was a catastrophe!

Exaggeration? No! Look at what happened as soon as the danger of bilingualism became real, unilingualism reared its ugly head. You'll enjoy it.

Amalgamation Official CHATEAUGUAY HEIGHTS AND TOWN OF CHATEAUGUAY OFFICIALLY DECLARED ONE

The long-awaited amalgamation of the Towns of Chateauguay and Chateauguay Heights finally became effective on September 7th, as Letters Patent for the new Town were published in the Quebec Official Gazette. The event went almost unnoticed by officials and public alike, reflecting widespread acceptance of the proposed amalgamation by all concerned. For several months now, all were aware that only official publication in the Gazette stood in the way of amalgamation.

The first general election for the Mayor and Aldermen will take place on the first Sunday in November 1968, or on such other date fixed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs. The second general election will take place on the first Sunday in November 1971. Subsequent general elections will take place every three years on the first Sunday in November. This represents a departure from the former two-year terms of office in both municipalities.

The first meeting of the provisional Council of the new Town was held on Monday, September 16th, in accordance with the terms of the Letters Patent.

Thus passes from the scene the municipality of the Town of Chateauguay Heights, which has remained relatively constant throughout the life of the Heights as a municipality. Formed in the immediate post-war years before the modernization of the Chateauguays, the original objective of the separation of the Heights from the old Basin was to seek improvement in the public services then available. The march of progress in the Chateauguay soon caught up on events, and the Heights was eventually left far behind in the creation of a modern fully-served community. Over the years it became increasingly obvious that a municipality of but 1200 souls was not and never could be a viable community.

Legal niceties aside, the Heights will remain in the foreseeable future, identifiable as "The Heights", but according to the Letters Patent, it is a geographical area only, just a small but select area of the new Town of Chateauguay.

Possibly the most successful invitational tournament ever held in Chateauguay took place last Saturday at the courts of the Chateauguay Tennis Club in Chateauguay Heights.

Over 300 entries in the Men's Doubles and 15 in Ladies Doubles came from Valleyfield, Beauharnois, Mercier and Chateauguay. THE PRO SHOP

So the Alouettes finally lost one. After all, how could they continue pulling them out of the fire. Even with a 23-8 score it seemed right up to the end that they could do it again. But this time, the defence had a let-down. They just could not contain those Argo drives, or the excellent play-calling of Wally Gabler. Carol Williams had a fairly good day at 14 completions out of 25 attempts, but he did miss on a few and rather low on those shots over centre.

Still, let's not worry over one bad game. The return of Roger Murphy and the end of army problems for Dave Lewis should help the cause. Look to next Sunday's game as the big one. After all, if B.C. can tie Ottawa, anything is possible. That has got to be the game of the year, so far. Not inq'aross oqi fo asneaaq' q'uo

The National Hockey League training camps are open and there are, as usual, scores of rookies out there fighting for their big chance. Some are not so young, like 33-year-old Howie Glover of Cleveland, trying out with Canadians.

The big Montreal club will not have many open spots in the roster, but they do have an impressive number of kids who will have to be given a chance or be lost in the draft

THE LEADING ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE DISTRICT OF BEAUMARNOIS

Chateaugay News Notes

✓ Municipal election date for the new Town of Chateaugay will be Sunday, Nov. 3. The old Town of Chateaugay and Chateaugay Heights ceased to exist as of Sat., Sept. 7, when Volume 100, Number 36 of the Quebec Official Gazette published the letters patent. See elsewhere for details.

✓ Tenders for the town's Arena were opened Wednesday, Sept. 11 and there were ten bids received. All the bids were higher than anticipated. Eight were in the three hundred thousand bracket, one was for $408,000 and the lowest by a local contractor Ovide Asselin was in the amount of $298,500. No contract has, as yet, been awarded. The architect and engineers are now studying the tenders. There is a possibility that with this study, some items in the building plans could be eliminated or modified to bring down the cost. Watch this column for further news in future issues.

✓ Town Council opened tenders for winter maintenance on 42 miles of roads. Four bids were submitted on a one-year or three-year basis. Lowest bidder was Seaway Nursery and Landscape at a cost of $23,814 per year. Subject to the approval of the Quebec Municipal Affairs Dept., the contract was awarded to Seaway. However there is a small snag — when tenders were asked, the town of Chateaugay Heights was not officially part of the Town. It is presumed that the company involved will quote a percentage per mile to include the Heights streets. More on this later.

✓ Officials at the Town Hall are wondering if the Provincial Government will continue the Winter Works Program which the Federal Government has just cancelled. Let us all hope, for the sake of the Arena, and to provide jobs for construction workers during the coming winter that the province will carry on this program.

✓ Again this year, there was only one bid for the contract to keep the Chateaugay River open in the spring. The same Mr. Zephirin Bouchard quoted $5,000 on a one-year basis or for a three-year contract a sum of $4,700 per year. The contract was awarded to Mr. Bouchard always subject of course to approval from Quebec.

✓ More news on tenders: lowest bidder for heating oil for the Town Hall and Police/Fire/Public Works building was Mongeau and Robert at 14.3 cents per gallon. This is a slight increase over last year's price, but we believe all the oil companies raised the price of heating oil in recent months.

✓ The Town Council homologated revision of the valuation roll amount: $640,700.

✓ 91½-year-old Miss Winifred Fullerton of St. Francis Blvd. has just completed a cross Canada tour from here to Victoria, B.C. Miss Fullerton was featured in these Gleaner pages on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday Jan. 25th, 1967, when she was feted by relatives, friends and civic and government leaders.

✓ Education in the Valley this week features an editorial by Vincent Prince printed originally in Le Devoir. See this item elsewhere.

✓ A few public notices of bylaws from Chateaugay Centre this week in these pages. Three of these are concerned with amendments to by-laws 644 — re-zoning changes.

✓ Bylaw 734 was adopted at a Council meeting held on September 10 authorizing a loan of $3,000, for construction of a sidewalk on the east side of Parent St.

✓ Also adopted at the same meeting was By-law 735 authorizing a loan of $76,700 for piping of part of Grande

Signs of winter were evident at the Town's Council meeting last Tuesday when tenders were received from three firms for snow removal during the coming cold months. Seaway Nursery was awarded the contract for the next three years

Prairies ditch which is on the northern section of Randill and the same on Dubois. See the public notices for dates and times of electors' meetings for all these bylaws.

✓ Lt. Roger Giroux of the Town Police force is back again on duty after a lengthy session with a knee injury.

✓ Town Police report only two minor traffic accidents during the past week.

✓ Break-ins in the schools have once more started; the first to be reported by Town Police this year is Laberge School in Signiory Park. Presumably youngsters broke a window, entered the school, stole and hid boxes of cupcakes. However the police found the cakes. No doubt to the dismay of the thieves. At time of writing no clues to the identity of the culprits.

✓ A minor fire at the rear of Spot Supermarket occurred last weekend, the second of the sort in recent weeks. Refuse is stacked at the rear away from the building itself, so there was no damage. Perhaps this accounts for the terrific stench of burning garbage last Sunday evening. We heard a few residents complain about the unpleasant odor.

✓ Stolen bicycles are still in the news, at least in the Town of Chateaugay. Most of the ten stolen last week were just taken to go "joy-riding" and left wherever the riders tired of the sport. Eight of the ten were recovered by Town police. Incidentally all those stolen were not locked.

✓ So gratifying to see the blackout being applied to the sides of d'Anjou Blvd. last Monday a.m. This road was to have been ready for Expo 67.

✓ Centre Police report a few minor traffic accidents in the past week. In one of these mishaps the new lights were damaged at the corner of Bell and d'Anjou. However there was no evidence of damage when we passed there last Monday morning. The lights are still in operation.

at a total cost of $71,442. The bid by Seaway was close to $14,000 below that of their nearest competitor.

The opening of a channel in the ice along the Town section of the Chateaugay River next spring will be in the hands of Mr. Zephirin Bouchard whose bid of $4,700 a year for the next three years resulted in him obtaining the Town's blessing.

The third sign of the bad weather ahead of us was the awarding of a contract to Mongeau Robert to supply the town's heating oil at a cost of 14.3 cents per gallon, well ahead of Claude Roy's 15 cent offer.

Bert Oliver has been named pro-mayor for the next three months, replacing Ernest Dupont whose three-month tenure ended last week. Ovide Asselin Construction Co. of the Town of Chateaugay was the low bidder on the Town's Sports Center. Asselin's tender for a total of $298,500 was the only one of the bids to be retained and studies are underway by the Town and the architect in order to build the arena at the earliest possible date.

The necessary arrangements for the zoning of the area adjacent to the proposed shopping center at St. Francis and Maple have been taken care of and in the near future we will be able to buy gasoline from a service station which will locate at that point.

The Notice of Motion calling for the closing of the section of Maple Street which will become part of the shopping center was made at last week's meeting by Alderman Phil Bonneau. A project of the type planned for the St. Francis Maple area is essential to the Town in many ways. Primarily, the taxable evaluation of a shopping center will aid in keeping the reins on our taxes and in addition, for every dollar spent within our own Town, we receive 2 cents from the Provincial Government as the Municipality's share of the 8 per cent sales tax.

For these reasons, we are benefitting ourselves by purchasing within our own Town rather than spending in neighbouring towns to their advantage.

The ice cream truck which frequents our area provides a great service in the eyes of the youngsters, but its appearance at the front door at the time when most families are eating supper upsets the plans of many mothers and the appetites of many children, and with the obvious fact of a lower overhead than the neighbourhood Dairy Queens and other like establishments it should at least be possible to match their quantity for the kids' ten cents.

The Duquette area skunk is still with us, but with the cooler evenings, he is a little more tolerable, but even his aroma is far more pleasant than that which we find when arriving on the Island of Montreal every morning. With the cries of anguish about polluted water in the air, everyone seems to forget the horrible air that we are forced to breathe. It is about time that the various levels of government took a positive stand on the problem of air pollution. At least we don't have to drink the polluted water.

A funny incident at the huge Billings High School occurred when our teenage son informed us that he had missed a class due to being unable to find the room to which he was headed. We naturally took the parent's stand in telling him to pay closer attention to his assignments, and in spite of this, the following day he once more informed us of a missed assignment. When we questioned him on this one, he informed us that it was the teacher who could not find the room this time.

Perhaps a road map or a compass will be necessary to everyone in the school in order to find their way about the massive complex. In any event we parents will get our chance to see the school sometime in early November following the official opening now slated for October.

A good indication of the size of the regional school

One language in the Civil Service. Could they then talk to the world? Does the average Quebecer really want to deviate himself from other cultures, T.V., books, movies, music, etc.? Does the average Quebecer want to give up the tourist industry, plus his own ability to travel? The heck, he does.

Obituary

The Late William George Hanna

His many friends in Chateauguy were shocked at the accidental death of William George (Bill) Hanna of 184 Gardemia St., Chateauguy Terrace.

Mr. Hanna was killed instantaneously when his car apparently had a blow-out on the LaSalle approach to Mercier Bridge. There were no witnesses to the accident, which occurred close to midnight last Wednesday, September 11. The accident was one of four on the bridge within a few hours of each other. A severe rainstorm made driving conditions appalling throughout the period.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Mr. Hanna was 39 years of age, and spent several years in the British Royal Navy after World War II. Employed latterly by Diamond Metal Industries in Montreal, Mr. Hanna came to Canada eleven years ago, and has resided in Chateauguy Terrace for the past eight years.

He leaves a wife, the former Miss Jean Gilbert of England and four children, Ross (9), twins Jayne and Susan (7) and Angela (5). All the children were born in Canada.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Gavin Barnett, was held at St. George's Anglican Church last Saturday morning.

Mr. Hanna had only recently joined the amateur dramatic group, the Stagemasters of Chateauguy.

to a one-language state are stupid... or deliberate. I choose to believe the latter. Firstly, because the French Canadians I have known all my life are not that stupid. Secondly, because all the facts point to a deliberate program of unrest. A... and revolution against the establishment at any price, for any cause. Its aim, destruction of Canada and creation of a captive state. Such a result can benefit no one, English or French. So we can only assume the campaign is being run by diseased minds and their misguided followers. The kind of poor saps who would follow any cause, join any protest. Make no mistake, such people are extremely dangerous. Since they operate without reason, they are not bound by logic or decency. They are Godless.

It is then up to the people to fight. As always, the biggest weapon is a political one. The fact that some of our politicians so misread the signs that they make themselves part of the phony 'struggle', is only natural. Politicians always try to ride the wind. It is up to us to show them which way the wind is truly blowing. And we can do this the modern way. We write, we protest, we ask questions. And most important, we vote only for Canadians, true Canadians. Do you know such men?

Mercier Bridge Repaired Many Chateauguy commuters are finding that the long and more expensive way via Champlain Bridge is a good buy these days as a major repairs and resurfacing job is done to the south span of Mercier Bridge. Unlike the chaos of four years ago when the second span was being brought into operation, the Provincial Police have done a well-planned job this time, and special peak-hour arrangements have curtailed the waiting time. At the evening peak hour the northern span is converted to two-way traffic, with two lanes in all for home-bound traffic. Exhortations from CJAD jet-ranger hovering above the scene diverts a substantial percentage of traffic to the Champlain Bridge, and it is fair to say that the job is being done without the serious dislocation of traffic which had been feared. Once the work is completed on the first lane under repairs, the second lane on the southern span will receive the same treatment. The whole job is expected to take about two weeks all told. The Fashion Cycle Although it does not receive the same publicity as its female counterpart, men's fashions also tend to go in cycles. BELL LINES by R. E. LEGARE your telephone manager May I point out a change in your telephone service? You have no doubt noticed since last Monday a slight difference in your dial tone when you pick up the handset. Don't be alarmed. This change in dial tone is caused by the installation of newer equipment. There is no need to call the repair service, your telephone is not out of order. If talk is becoming more of a convenience and a bargain all the time blame it on the telephone companies. Once again long distance rates have been reduced. This time Bell Canada Telephone System, along with the other members of the Trans-Canada Telephone System, has lowered rates on nationwide calling. Now, after midnight until 6 a.m., a coast-to-coast, three-minute call that you dial yourself costs $1 or less. Where Direct Distance Dialing is not yet available the Operator will take your call for you at the same low rates. Midnight calls are also available at the same low rates. Over the years as improvements in equipment, increased Direct Distance facilities and the growing use of long distance services have made it possible, we have continued to voluntarily reduce long distance rates. In fact, long distance telephone service is one of the very few costs that have been decreasing rather than increasing over the years. Stable funds services, luxuries and even housing have all shown fairly broad increases in the past 20 years. In 1951, it cost $6.95 for a three-minute coast-to-coast call. By 1968 we were able to bring that cost down to $5.25 and in 1967 to $3.95. Our last reduction in 1966 brought the cost of a coast-to-coast three-minute call to $1.95. The new reduction makes long distance calling a bigger bargain than ever, especially for any of you who have family or friends living in Western Canada. A story we heard recently concerned a couple from Ohio on vacation in Canada. They were trying to locate some relatives who had recently moved to a small town in Quebec. He noticed a telephone truck just around the corner and stopped, but before he could say a word, one of the men came over to the car and asked if he was looking for the Robinsons. "How did you know?" the traveller asked. "I didn't realize the telephone company knew I was coming!" But two telephone men did. Seems the young Robinson boy had spent some time on the corner waiting for them and watching the men at work. When he left, he asked the men to look out for a car with Ohio license plates. The travellers were quickly directed to a happy family reunion. This is the year, girls 1968. One of the years which comes under an Act of Scottish Parliament passed in 1288. For 700 years law and tradition are on your side in Lean Year. Just remember there are only a few months left. Here's the ancient law: It is statit and ordanit that during the rein of hir maid blisssit Marieste, for ilke year known as lean year, ilk myster lartye of bothe hithe and lowe eastit shall hae liberte to bespeke ve man she like, albeit he refuses to talk hir to be his lawful wfe, he shall be mulcted in ye sum of ane pundis or less, as his estait may be". Le menu culturel d'une école secondaire polyvalente par Raymond Beauchemin, p.a.p. Directeur du Service pédagogique de la F.C.S.C.Q.

Dans cet article, nous utiliserons fréquemment les expressions suivantes: école polyvalente, options graduées, options académiques, options éducatives, cours obligatoires, indices, crédits.

Je crois qu'il serait bien de définir brièvement chacun de ces termes avant de nous engager dans des échanges de points de vue concernant le menu culturel d'un élève fréquentant les écoles secondaires.

DEFINITION DES TERMES

Ecole polyvalente: Ecole qui offre une multitude de possibilités d'utilisation en étant très souple de transformation matérielle. Une école qui peut répondre aux exigences nombreuses et variées d'une clientèle étudiante libre de choisir son menu culturel.

Options: Disciplines offertes aux élèves; ces derniers étant libres de s'y inscrire.

a) Options académiques: Cours portant sur les disciplines de formation académique, telles que: français, anglais, mathématiques, etc...

b) Options éducatives: Cours portant sur des disciplines de formation de la personnalité, telles que: arts rythmiques, éducation physique, bibliothéconomie, langues étrangères, enseignement technique professionnel masculin et féminin, etc...

c) Options graduées: C'est le cours qui se donne sur différents régimes (accélééré - moyen - lent), de façon à assurer à l'élève une portion de matière qu'il sera apte à assimiler.

Cours obligatoires: Disciplines obligatoires pour tous les élèves en vue d'assurer à chacun une formation générale valable.

Exemple: français, mathématiques, etc...

Indices: Procédé de standardisation du résultat scolaire en relation avec le nombre d'heures accordées pour chacune des disciplines.

Je me servais précisément de la comparaison du menu alimentaire.

Je crois que notre système à sections, entre lesquelles il existe très peu de relations et où l'élève doit s'inscrire à des blocs de matières, correspond bien au menu uniforme et à la carte.

L'expérience nous démontre que c'est avec grande difficulté que l'étudiant peut passer d'une section à l'autre; plusieurs d'entre eux doivent reprendre des années d'étude.

Ce manque de souplesse nous permet de conclure au manque de relations et de programmation, en un mot, au manque de sérieux qui existe dans notre structure.

QUE VEUT OFFRIR DE PLUS LE SYSTEME OPTIONNEL?

Trois grands principes sont mis en cause et servent de base à son élaboration.

- 1-Certaines disciplines sont obligatoires, mais à l'intérieur de ces disciplines, l'élève pourra s'inscrire à un rythme qui convient à ses possibilités d'absorption.
- 2-Le système optionnel signifie que l'élève est libre de choisir des sujets conformes à ses intérêts et à ses aspirations.
- 3-La promotion est accordée pour chacune des disciplines et non pour des groupes de disciplines.

Ce choix que l'élève fera l'orientera lentement mais efficacement vers une profession ou une occupation éventuelle.

Au cours de sa première année d'étude secondaire (7e année) et de sa deuxième année d'étude secondaire (8e année), nous offrons à l'étudiant une plus forte portion de cours portant sur des disciplines obligatoires de préférence à des disciplines optionnelles, de façon à ne pas le spécialiser trop rapidement, lui permettre d'étudier lentement ses possibilités et former sa personnalité dans le but d'implanter progressivement, au cours de sa 4e et 5e années d'étude secondaire, une spécialisation qu'il poursuivra davantage au niveau de ses études collégiales; lui ouvrant ainsi les portes des différentes facultés universitaires, ou encore lui permettant de gagner sa vie d'une façon valable tout en rendant service à la société.

Pour concrétiser ce principe: un élève à sa 1ère année d'étude secondaire peut très bien choisir quelques heures de cours en physique tout simplement pour lui permettre d'étudier les principes généraux de cette discipline et de pouvoir développer son goût dans cette matière, et non pas en faire une spécialité.

Voici des exemples de cours obligatoires et optionnels que peuvent offrir certaines écoles à leur clientèle scolaire qui en est à sa deuxième année de fréquentation au niveau secondaire.

Il est bien évident qu'une école ne pourra pas offrir toutes les options éducatives, mais elle présentera à l'élève un menu qui correspondra aux possibilités qu'offre l'école aux points de vue: clientèle scolaire - corps professoral et outils de travail.

Donc, à la suite de cette constatation, nous remarquons que l'étudiant fera de la compatibilité parce que ça lui convient, parce que ça répond à ses aptitudes, et non parce que nous l'avons placé dans une section sans trop de critère.

Les valises de la fin.

Avec cette façon de procéder, il n'existe plus de sections scientifiques, générales, commerciales, classiques, etc. Les disciplines sont offertes à différents rythmes et l'élève s'y inscrit suivant son développement, ses possibilités d'absorption et ses aptitudes. Nous faisons sombrer de nombreuses occasions, à toute fin pratique, avaient pour effet de développer chez les étudiants, une infinité de complexes. L'élève n'appartient plus à un groupe déterminé, mais à des groupes qui pourront varier quant à l'identification des individus et qui seront toujours le plus possible à sa taille.

La promotion est accordée pour chacune des disciplines et non pour des groupes de disciplines.

Convenons pour les besoins de cet article que l'année académique est divisée en trois (3) trimestres et qu'à chaque trimestre, 50% du bulletin de l'examen du trimestre est composé de notes que l'élève aura méritées en classe par ses travaux, et l'autre 50% du résultat sera composé de l'examen d'évaluation qui lui sera présenté à la fin du trimestre, permettant aux professeurs de vérifier jusqu'à quel point l'élève a assimilé le programme de ce trimestre, et ses dispositions pour affronter les difficultés du 2ième trimestre.

Nous accordons un examen de reprise à l'élève qui, au résultat trimestriel, n'aurait pas conservé 50% sur une discipline donnée. Si, par malheur, il échouait l'examen de reprise concernant cette discipline, il pourrait reprendre les cours du premier trimestre tout en poursuivant, dans les autres matières, le programme du second trimestre; ou encore, il pourrait continuer les cours du second trimestre dans la discipline échouée, tout en ayant l'occasion de suivre des heures supplémentaires de cours, en vue de reprendre cette discipline échouée au premier trimestre.

De cette façon, à la fin du second trimestre, l'élève aura normalisé sa situation académique.

Les notes de promotion

accordées à la fin de l'année scolaire. Par cette façon d'offrir à l'élève son alimentation culturelle, nous croyons le motiver d'apartage et également, utiliser à 100% toutes les possibilités de la clientèle étudiante, les ressources du corps professoral et de l'équipement scolaire.

Bien sûr que les parents qui demeurent toujours les premiers responsables de la formation, en collaboration avec les conseillers en orientation, les pédagogues (superviseurs), auront leur droit de regard et devront former équipe non plus autour de l'enfant, mais avec l'enfant, car il est le pivot central de toute cette restructuration scolaire et c'est pour lui que toute la population québécoise, de quelque cité et de quelque rang social auxquels elle appartient, se met en mouvement et intensifie ses recherches de façon à relever avec succès le défi imposé par une civilisation qui se développe dans un milieu qui se veut démocratique.

Par cette façon d'offrir à l'élève son alimentation culturelle, nous croyons le motiver d'apartage et également, utiliser à 100% toutes les possibilités de la clientèle étudiante, les ressources du corps professoral et de l'équipement scolaire.

Bien sûr que les parents qui demeurent toujours les premiers responsables de la formation, en collaboration avec les conseillers en orientation, les pédagogues (superviseurs), auront leur droit de regard et devront former équipe non plus autour de l'enfant, mais avec l'enfant, car il est le pivot central de toute cette restructuration scolaire et c'est pour lui que toute la population québécoise, de quelque cité et de quelque rang social auxquels elle appartient, se met en mouvement et intensifie ses recherches de façon à relever avec succès le défi imposé par une civilisation qui se développe dans un milieu qui se veut démocratique.

LE BULLETIN CUMULATIF DE L'ÉLÈVE

Les résultats qu'un élève aura obtenus dans l'année sur les différentes disciplines qu'il aura choisies seront, à la fin de l'année, évalués sous forme de crédits et ce dernier recevra, après chacune de ses années de fréquentation au cours secondaire, une photocopie concrétisant l'acquis dans ses études, lui faisant voir ainsi un portrait précis de sa situation culturelle.

Tout au cours de ses cinq années d'études au niveau secondaire, l'élève pourra lentement modeler son profil académique de façon à tendre le plus possible vers un profil idéal qui deviendra pour lui son but à atteindre. Ainsi, l'étudiant qui veut devenir ingénieur pourra s'inscrire de plus en plus à des cours qui répondront aux exigences de cette profession. Tous les cours suivis, sanctionnés d'examen, apparaîtront sur le dossier cumulatif de l'élève et témoignent officiellement du succès obtenu. Ainsi, l'étudiant ne sera plus obligé de reprendre au début certaines disciplines pour lesquelles il aura déjà un nombre de crédits accumulés.

Assemblée mensuelle

L'assemblée mensuelle du Cercle de Fermières eut lieu le mercredi soir, 11 septembre sous la présidence de Mme Pierrette McDermott avec une quarantaine de fermières présentes.

Il y eut lecture des minutes de la dernière assemblée et un résumé des activités de l'été. Le Cercle ne s'est pas enrichi lors du jour des Jeux Châteauguains, avec son restaurant, les Fermières qui se sont dévouées pour en faire un succès sont heureuses du succès remporté et de la publicité faite à leur Cercle.

Le Congrès régional du 8 août à Ste-Martine a permis à nos Fermières de se classer deuxième pour les travaux exposés avec une moyenne de 97%. Félicitations à Mmes Gérard Daoust, Jean-Paul Forget et Aurélien Duchesne, elles ont reçu $5. des $8.50 gagnés par le Cercle. Pour ce qui est du kiosque à l'exposition d'Ormstown en 1969, les Fermières devront exposer leurs travaux avec les autres et elles auront une exposition locale à l'école durant l'été, vers la fin du mois d'août.

La cotisation annuelle et l'assurance (prime) seront dues en octobre.

Deux voyages seront organisés par le Cercle le 22 septembre, nos fermières pourront aller assister à un spectacle (Revue Viennoise) à l'Aréna Maurice Richard à Montréal. Vers la fin d'octobre, elles pourront aller voir les "Ice Capades".

Le Conseil a décidé d'organiser un bingo au lieu d'une partie de cartes à l'automne.

Prochain cours de préparation au mariage

Le mariage n'est pas une farce, on ne s'y prépare pas comme pour aller aux courses du Mont Tremblant. Il ne s'agit pas non plus d'acheter son billet pour s'assurer une vie harmonieuse et une place légitime face à la société. Le mariage n'est pas un laissez-aller selon la température et la bonne humeur de l'un et de l'autre. C'est beaucoup plus que cela...

C'est d'une part, une abnégation de soi-même pour le bonheur de l'autre et d'autre part c'est une vie à deux où l'engagement est préparé surtout selon l'esprit et le cœur, d'où provient le don de soi pour l'autre. C'est aussi faire face à l'avenir avec toutes ses surprises. Comment y parvenir? Comment acquiescer le don de soi, sinon comment tendre vers cet idéal du couple?

Ces moyens-là, le service de préparation au mariage vous les offre. Il essaiera selon votre collaboration, de vous guider avec des exemples. Il répondra à vos questions et il vous mettra face à vos responsabilités d'Hommes et de Femmes.

La date d'inscription pour le seul cours cet automne est le DIMANCHE 22 SEPTEMBRE à 7 1/2 hrs.

Du nouveau dans "Prions en l'église"

DANS SON ÉDITION du dimanche 22 septembre, le populaire missel "PRIONS EN ÉGLISE", édition complète, publiera pour la première fois, à l'intention de ses nombreux abonnés et usagers, les quatre nouvelles traductions françaises du canon de la messe.

A la grande satisfaction des fidèles, les prêtres canadiens commencent l'an dernier à réciter le canon de la messe en langue populaire. Cette prière eucharistique avait traversé 15 siècles d'histoire sans subir aucun changement notable.

Tout récemment, le évêque du Canada on permis la recitation de trois nouveaux canons, également très anciens. Ces nouveaux textes s'inspirent les prières que récitait les premiers chrétiens pendant les persécutions de l'Empire romain et des pays d'Orient.

Selon l'importance de la célébration et le temps de l'année liturgique, on pourra choisir l'un ou l'autre de ces canons. Le canon actuel, maintenant appelé canon no 1, et le canon no 3 serviront surtout aux dimanches et fêtes. Le canon no 2 est court et facile; on le dira principalement aux messes de semaine; il est admirablement bien à une application du sens de la messe. Quant au canon no 4, c'est le plus long et le plus complet, il apporte une vision de foi sur le mystère du Salut.

Les abonnés de "PRIONS EN ÉGLISE" trouveront donc dans l'édition complète du 22 septembre ces quatre nouvelles prières eucharistiques.

Chez les Filles d'Isabelle

L'assemblée régulière du cercle a lieu le premier mercredi de chaque mois, à moins l'avis contraire. Comme le mois prochain, veuillez prendre note qu'à cause des élections l'assemblée régulière aura lieu le jeudi, 10 octobre.

Un voyage est organisé pour le 10 et 11 octobre à l'Île-aux-Érables. Les membres intéressés doivent entrer en contact avec Sr Claire Roberge.

Il est question d'une initiation. Si vous êtes intéressés au mouvement, il vous fera plaisir de donner les renseignements nécessaires. Vous n'avez qu'à vous adresser à un membre.

Thérèse Saumier, rédactrice.

The families enjoy these gatherings and plan one each summer, one year at Massena and the next at Ormstown.

Mr. G. Allard spoke of personal services to students. Msgr. Lucien Beauchamp said

Family Reunion At Bill Hooker's

A happy gathering took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hooker when The Archie Camerons from Massena, N.Y. (nee Florence Hooker sister of Ed Hooker), met with their families. Sylvia who is married to Bob Rickard, Grace who is married and lives in California and was unable to be present, Lindsay who is married and lives in Massena to meet all the Ed. Hooker families, the Doug Templetons, Merrill Tannahills, Bob Barrs.

What a happy time every one had! Bill's is an ideal place for entertainment for the children, who were able to have bicycle rides, play with kittens, pony rides, and take a dip in the new swimming pool.

At supper time Sylvia and Bob were pleasantly surprised with a belated anniversary cake for their 25th wedding anniversary and a small token of remembrance. Bob Rickard showed slides, taken on various other occasions, which were much enjoyed.

The families enjoy these gatherings and plan one each summer, one year at Massena and the next at Ormstown.

A few words about the scolastic pastorate. Mr. Robert Dionne, secretary-treasurer of the Regional School Board gave a resume of the financial problems.

Miss Marie-Paule Goyette, responsible for the permanent education sector, explained what it is all about. Mr. Andre Ricard spoke of the equipment at the school.

This was followed by a clinic on study services. Mr. Alphonse Caron, general director of studies; Mr. Pierre Andre Lapointe, councillor of handicapped children, Miss Jeanne Chené, librarian and Mr. Claude Himbault, in charge of the audio-visual program, all addressed the gathering.

At 3:45 the guests were served a cocktail, offered by the Commission Regionale Salaberry School Board, after which they made a tour of the school.

At 8:30 p.m. the regular monthly meeting of the board was held in the auditorium of l'Ecole Polyvalente Arthur Pigeon.

As for the elementary sector we have heard that Mr. Maurice Pilon, principal, will be assisted by Mrs. Clarisse Brisson at Notre-Dame School which has been reserved for French-speaking students this year.

Mrs. Ola Leduc is the directress at St. Joseph School which is reserved for the English-speaking scholars.

The taxpayers are invited to the next meeting of the Board which will be held on September 11 in a permanent locale which has been reserved for that purpose at Notre-Dame School.

Howick W.I. Members Hear An Interesting Talk On Finland

Howick W.I. met Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 3 at Mrs. F. Jones' home, an ideal time of year as her backyard garden is one of the most beautiful sights in the village. The ladies enjoyed the unexpected bonus of a walk around the grounds following the meeting.

The theme of the meeting was Welfare and Health and Mrs. Elli-Maria Wright, R.N., recently returned from Finland, was the guest speaker.

Public health records have been kept in Finland since 1400 and changes since that time were outlined.

The speaker's description of the school system as she knew it 60 years ago, was most interesting. The school day started at 7:45 a.m. and closed at 4:00 p.m. six days a week, with 3 months off during the summer when the farmers needed help.

Gymnastic classes were held daily and examinations were held weekly for signs of spine curvature, measurements for chest expansion, etc. Skiing, sports and dancing were part of the curriculum. Self government, following the parliamentary system of the country was taught at sessions held every two weeks, when they learned to discipline themselves.

Turnips were the main vegetable used during the winter and the store rooms were filled with them. Students nibbled turnip slices as we do apples. Sometimes she wondered why the children did not have rickets but later discovered that turnips are rich in vitamin C.

During the 1918 revolution in Russia when part of Finland was taken over, Mrs. Wright was giving first aid in the front lines. She mentioned two heroic people, Baron Mannerheim and Matilda Grady who had given money, land and time to help homeless people and prisoners. She visited Miss Grady's grave on her recent trip.

Her description of the plane trip to Finland and seeing the thousands of lakes, pine forests and midnight sun before they landed at Helsinki was told as only a native Finlander returning to the home of her childhood could tell it. Coloured pictures were passed around showing the beauties of the country.

An amusing description of sauna baths she had known, and of two that had been built at her farm home in Canada, closed the question period.

Mrs. Bruce Ness thanked Mrs. Wright for her delightful and enlightening talk which had been enjoyed so much by the ladies. A hearty round of applause followed.

A short business meeting was held, chaired by the president, Mrs. Huntley Greig. Eighteen members and several visitors answered the roll call with — the most useful first aid article found in your home. The president's family had, to her surprise, suggested "Mother" which was an excellent answer.

Thank you letters were read from Janice Barr and Mrs. Andrew Turner. Mrs. Huntley Greig reported on the meeting at Lachute when about 175 women had an opportunity to meet that charming and wonderful lady, Mrs. Dutt of India, Pres. of Associated Country Women of the World. Canadians were reminded of their many blessings and were asked to continue the good work of collecting Pennies for Friendship, so necessary to help women of the less affluent countries keep in touch with A.C.W.V.

Mrs. J. D. Lang read an amusing article on how to make coffee. She displayed also a knitted afghan made by Mrs.

guay members. Fruit salad platters, like the ones you see in the magazines had been arranged for buffet service, with bowls of fruit salad dressing. A variety of light muffins, cheese tea biscuits, cookies and coffee were served.

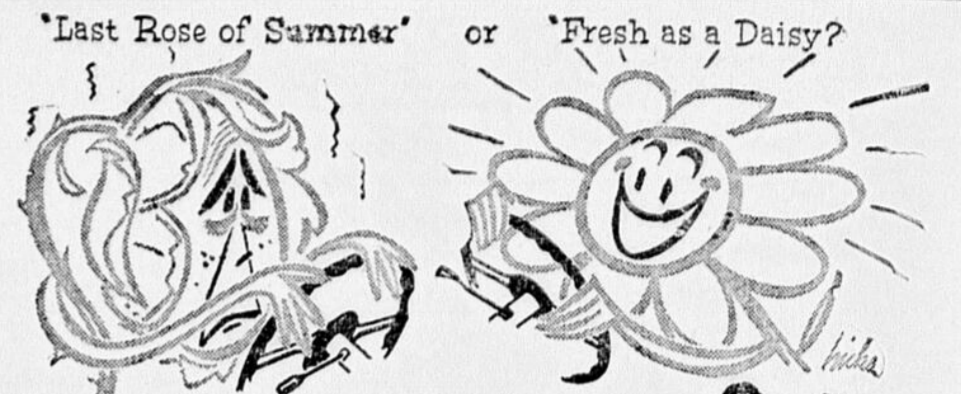

1st prize; 2nd went to Mrs. Huntley Greig and 3rd to Mrs. J. D. Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Simpson attended the Chateaugay Valley Historical Calvacade on Saturday. This was a guided bus tour of historic sites and homes in the Ormstown Huntingdon, Athelstan and Rockburn areas. The bus left the Battle of Chateaugay Park at 12:30 and returned approximately 5:30. It was a most successful tour and much enjoyed by all.

Mr. Harold Neilson of N.D.G. was a Sunday visitor of Mr. bus tour of historic sites and Mrs. Versil Taylor.

Ormsdown and Dewittville W.I. Notes

A short business meeting of the W.I. was held in the Senior Citizens' Club on Aug. 6, at 7:30 p.m., with the vice-president, Mrs. J. Arthur presiding and 14 ladies present.

After the reading and approving of the minutes of the July meeting, plans were made and committees formed for the holding of a tea and food sale in the Senior Citizens' Club rooms on Aug. 30, from 2-4 p.m., also names given of those members who planned to go on a visit to Upper Canada Village in a chartered bus along with Dewittville W.I.

The regular meeting of the W.I. was held on Sept. 3 at 2 p.m. in the Club rooms with Mrs. McKell presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode followed by the Collect. The roll call was responded to by 16 members with name of a Canadian flower.

Some of the highlights of their trip to Upper Canada Village were given by Mrs. Greer, Mrs. Kilgour and Mrs. Martin, all agreeing on how interesting and enjoyable it was. The Secretary reported on the successful Food Sale and Tea, proceeds of which were $67.60 Convener reports followed.

Agriculture — Fall planting of tulips-time September and October — a well-drained Sandy loam soil — partially shaded location, plant where you'll get the most pleasure from looking at them and don't plant closer than 4 in. apart. She also told the cause of fall leaf coloration — viz chlorophyll which is present in green leaves, as the days shorten and cool, food production slows down and amount of Chlorophyll diminishes and leaves yellow, another pigment, anthocyanin imparts reds and scarlets — Weather also plays an important part, warm, sunny days and cool nights add to the brilliance of these colors.

Education spoke of "A new look in Education" is aimed at bringing education up to date and more interesting allowing students to choose much of their own curriculum, so that now the pupils will choose their subjects and teachers will draw up the time table accordingly — Try out in teaching space" where pupils will have moveable walls — which can be made bigger or smaller — closed circuit T.V. is introduced for a number of subjects; Sex education along the lines of sanitation and human development, drug education, and Ethics instead of religion in Catholic schools.

A great need is felt for schools of a non academic type where pupils who do not reach university standards, can be taught. There is a building in Montreal area which could provide this type of training — it belongs to the Provincial government — originally suggested by the Parent Report, which is equipped and largely unused. Any type of pressure by an interested group should make it possible to obtain this space — so let us use the pressure.

Home Economics says "Why get ill from food, a consumer may not realize the importance of food package labels which state "perishable — keep refrigerated". These are there by government regulations, but it is up to the consumer to carry out these instructions.

Vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin, is necessary for bones and teeth to develop properly. It is especially necessary for growing children to prevent "rickets" which occur mostly Publicity read a short article on Mrs. Aroti Dutt, president of the A.C.W.W. who was present at Provincial Convention, was given a reception by W.I. members at Lachute and Bishop's College, Lennoxville. Some of our members were present at Lachute reception. Mrs. Kerr who had been there gave us an interesting account of it.
