BUSINESS GROUP NOT IN FIGHT

Presentation To Frank Kenwood

No Sides Taken In By-Law Dispute

Spokesman Says City Is Not Concerned

Ken Willock States Group To Stay Out Of Battle

A spokesman for the City of Westmount stated today that he was "not greatly concerned" about the fact that 154 of the City's boarding and rooming houses were to be closed down.

He said that he felt there was no doubt that the vacated homes would soon be put to use by reputable people who wanted to live in the City.

Westmount was, he declared, one of the Island's choice spots geographically and was run by a good government. The controversial by-law was designed to make the people of the area comfortable.

There was no further decision to be handed down in the matter beyond the action taken in regard to the by-law already enforced.

Enforcement Postponed

This City official reiterated that the law had been drafted some years ago and was not put into effect due to edict 200 of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. That edict had changed the situation and the City Fathers had awaited its abrogation.

He said that during the war the shoe was on the other foot. The wartime edict had laid the City open to the inroads of commercialization in the form of these rooming and boarding houses, he added.

The City was overridden and unable to do anything about it.

The City, he stated, was just pursuing its natural course. The edict, laid down by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board had been lifted in all Canadian cities. Westmount operators had been notified to this effect.

There would, the City official continued, be no distinction between operators, no matter if they kept quiet, respectful establishments or not; no matter whether they were owners or operators, careful or careless housekeepers.

The reason he gave for the City Council policy of sticking to its decision was that the council was bound by the by-law as much as the operators were.

He stated, "We would be a foolish council to disregard the law enacted by a previous council."

Alderman R. Panet-Raymond declared he was not very anxious to answer any questions on the matter, and he had nothing to say other than he backed up whatever the City Hall spokesman had to say.

Multiple Operator

It was learned that one operator controls some four or five houses and that alterations have been made to some of these without the city having issued building permits. It is this sort of commercialization which has focussed the City fathers' attention on the boarding and rooming house situation. It is unfortunate that some people may be hurt by by-law 526 which is being enforced to ensure that commercialization will not ruin certain areas.

The controversy now raging between operators of boarding and rooming houses in Westmount and the City Hall is gradually reaching a peak with the city authorities standing firm in their determination to curtail the activities of operators in specified zones.

Ken Willock, president of the Westmount Business Association, stated that his association cannot enter into the fight on either side as they can only view the matter in a business light. The edict will be discussed by the association at a meeting in the early future when an official statement will be issued.

Authorities stated that there is nothing they can do over the claim that many of the houses to be vacated will remain empty. They stick to their story that the operators were warned some time ago that the action now taken would be enforced.

No Comment

Mayor J. S. Cameron refused to comment on the matter while Alderman R. Panet-Raymond was equally uncommunicative other than stating that he backed up the City Hall action.

Mr. Willock told The Examiner that owing to many of the members of the association being out of town on vacation it had been impossible to hold the meeting called for Wednesday night to discuss the enforcement of the By-Law regarding the operation of boarding and rooming houses in Westmount.

Mr. Willock pointed out that insofar as the Business Association is concerned they can only deal with the matter in a business light. The association cannot fight the case of the property owners or take up the case of the operators. He said that he particularly wished to emphasize this point as some people have expected that the Business Association would lead in the fight going on between the boarding and rooming house operators and the City Council.

Merchants Might Suffer

Mr. Willock was of the opinion that probably some of the local merchants would suffer as a result of the edict as it was quite reasonable to assume that provision merchants would lose business from boarding houses catering to a large number of boarders.

It was quite possible that some business establishments might have to move or close shop which would have the effect of reducing taxes now collected by the City and which in turn would have the effect of increasing taxes to the general public. This, he thought, was one aspect of the case which had not been dwelt on by some of the persons who had been quoted in the press.

Mr. Willock also pointed out that a year ago membership in the Business Association had been

Westmount Wins Action; Water Rate Increase Out

An attempt of the City of Montreal to jump its water rates by one-half of one per cent to its customers in Westmount and Outremont was illegal. Consequently the rate will remain at 7 1/4 per cent of the annual rental values of the various water consumers' properties, Mr. Justice A. I. Smith ordered in the Superior Court today.

The City of Montreal has based its move to increase Westmount and Outremont water rates on a by-law adopted in 1940 which set out "every tax that the city is empowered to impose and levy under the law may be imposed and levied for a greater amount or at a higher rate than the maximum amount or rate fixed by law."

Beyond Council Powers

The by-law, insofar as it purported to give the City of Montreal the right to increase its water rates was illegal and beyond the powers of the City Council, His Lordship decided.

"It is to be noted," he continued, "that this section relates only to any tax which the city is authorized to impose and levy under the law. But the water rates the City of Montreal seeks to recover are not taxes and even if they were they would not be taxes, 'which the city is authorized to impose and levy.'"

Continued His Lordship: "It would require very clear and definite statutory authority to empower one municipality to so far depart from the general and fundamental principles of municipal law as to impose a tax upon the inhabitants of another municipality. The court is satisfied that there is no such statutory authority."

Therefore, His Lordship added, while the section of law relied upon might give the City of Montreal the right to impose any tax at a higher rate than the maximum fixed by law or contract that right could be exercised only within City of Montreal territory . . . not in Westmount or Outremont.

His Lordship accordingly directed that the earlier water rate fixed by contract must not be disturbed and the City of Montreal was ordered to cease 'charging, receiving, collecting or attempting to collect for water supplied any rate or price in excess of 7 1/4 per cent of the water consumer's annual value.'

Dr. Alan R. Doane Is Appointed City Health Officer

The City Hall announced today the appointment of Dr. Alan Rutledge Doane to the post of medical health officer for the City.

Dr. Doane has had a varied career which began in 1942 when he was appointed by the Ontario Department of Health as medical inspector of hospitals. At this same time he also inaugurated a plan for county health units.

Mr. Doane took his pre-medical training at Queen's University, studied medicine at Dalhousie University and received his diploma in public health at the University of Toronto.

He has just come from the Ottawa Civic Hospital where he held the post of director of communicable diseases. Prior to that he was a lecturer at Ottawa University.

Local Churches Unite For Sunday Morning Services

During the summer weeks the congregations of Stanley Presbyterian and Dominion-Douglas United Churches, Westmount, will unite for Sunday services which will be held in the morning only. For the month of July worship will be in Dominion-Douglas Church conducted by Rev. J. D. Wilkie, B.D., assisted by the choir of that church with John Robb as organist.

Beginning August 5 and until including September 2 both congregations will meet in Stanley Church and the preacher will be Rev. Blake M. Pritchard, B.A., B.D., of Edmonton. The organist and the choir of Stanley Church will lead in the musical part of the service.

Westmount Bell Official Honored

On the eve of his retirement after 40 years' service, C. S. Hudson, 724 Victoria Avenue, directory manager of The Bell Telephone Company of Canada since 1930, was honored Wednesday afternoon by more than 150 employees of the firm's directory department. C. K. Lally, who has been directory supervisor since February, succeeded Mr. Hudson on July 1.

On behalf of members of the department, Miss Stella McGuirk presented Mr. Hudson a picnic basket. A parchment scroll bearing the names of the employees of the department was presented him by Arthur Eccles. In charge of arrangements for the presentation ceremony and tea were Mrs. Ruth Schofield, Mrs. Hildur Calkin, Miss Violet McGuirk, Miss Mary Rutledge, and Miss Isabel Howman.

Mr. Hudson joined the company in 1911 at St. Catharines as a clerk.

Mr. Lally joined the company in August, 1926, at Toronto, as a traffic student, following graduation from the University of Toronto with a degree of B.A.Sc.

I Remember

By G. P. SMITH

A series of articles by a retired coach and physical director recalling great athletes and great teams. Mr. Smith was 32 years of Westmount High as director of physical education (boys), and concurrently 28 years at McGill as wrestling coach.

With a school that has won so many championships as Westmount High has in the past, it is difficult to separate the different teams and to give each one its proper rating. Nevertheless, I am going to state incidents and players' names as they come to mind. I know some names unintentionally will be left out, but not being an encyclopedia this is possible.

Take the teams of 1929-30. That was the last year I had all the five schools in physical training as well as the three teams to coach in all sports, also draw up schedules and supervise all inter-class activities. The following year, K. H. Murray joined the staff and took over the P.T. in the High leaving me free to handle all sports as athletic director of the high and P.D. of the Junior Argyle and the three primary schools.

The senior football team started the season under Wally Markham as captain and F. W. With him on the half line were F. Scofield, Glen Brydson, and Johnny Riddell (son of Percy) at Q.t., Tommy Riddell (son of Tommy Riddell, the well-known sportsman) at snap, M. Christy, flanked by J. Lyons, Bill McDonald, Dennie Heward and Jack Nancekeville; at outside, Red Martin and Jack Harris; as subs we drew from the B team. It was usual for the starting team to play through with very little substitution.

At that time there was a rule stating a boy starting on the senior team without being covered by a doctor's certificate, for the boy he replaced was not allowed to play on the B team again. He could be used as a sub during the game without affecting his standing. This rule caused a lot of friction as a school with a strong B team would start the game with their declared seniors and, at the first whistle, send in what they thought were their strongest line-up. It was a perfectly legitimate move but it was resented by some.

Another cause for friction that year was due to us using Glen Brydson, who played on the senior M.A.A.A. Allan Cup team. To overcome the residence rule with imports, it was usual for the big teams to have the player attend a school or college in the district. This qualified him. In Glen's case, he picked W.H.S. and no one at the school knew he was a noted athlete until after the first junior city football game was played and the Montreal Standard gave him a great build-up. Following that game when I found he was eligible for all school sports. I gave him the option of playing football only for the school, to which he gladly agreed.

Glen was a model student and fitted in well with the boys and of 18 Forden avenue, Westmount, who has been appointed a director of The Bell Telephone Company of Canada, filling the vacancy caused by the retirement of J. H. Brace.

Mr. Eadie is vice-president (operations) of the company. Born in Ottawa and a graduate of McGill University, he began his telephone career in 1923 as an engineer at Montreal. Transferred to Toronto in 1927, he held various positions in that city before being appointed general plant manager, western area, in 1939. He returned to Montreal in 1946 as assistant vice-president (operations) and was appointed vice-president in 1948.

played a smart type of football. In hockey naturally he was a standout, and in the first four games I used him as a decoy expecting the other teams to have two men covering him, leaving one of my men uncovered. After four games had been played Glen asked me to turn him loose. I did and he scored four goals. In the game against Loyola for the city title, we played without Glen as he was away with the big team and in two games we won by a big score. The strategy of not using Glen in the regular system of play proved its value as the team work was not affected by his absence in the playoffs.

One Blow — Apology

A remember a rather amusing incident that happened in a game at the Forum. Glen had taken a terrific amount of punishment without retaliation all through the season. As Glen was coming in the right defenceman chopped him across the knee and called him a yellow —. Without breaking stride Glen skated in and scored then calmly skated over and lifted him over the boards with a punch, after which he skated over to me and apologized, then on into the penalty box. Glen was the least temperamental of all the players I have had pass through my hands. Others of the same type were Wally Markham, Russ. McConnell, Hughy Farquharson, Johnny Riddell, Dan Hatch, Alex. Hamilton, Murray Patrick, Jimmie Thomson, Donnie Smith, just to name a few. There were many others who would get quite upset if I changed the hat I wore at the start of the season and on a number of occasions, to keep them happy, I would go home and get the old one.

To those who have never been in close touch with high strung athletes this sounds like a lot of nonsense. Nevertheless, it is little things like these that throw a team or player off their game. I remember the great Maroon goalkeeper, Clint Benedict, in a game in Detroit allowing a big score while playing without the peaked cap he always wore. He was so upset at not having it and all the time it was in between his leg pads, where Bill O'Brien found it when they got back to Montreal. I could go on citing different superstitions of players big and small who had their pet ideas.

We had a good year in basketball, winning the senior western title but lost out to Catholic High for the city crown. S. Horowitz was captain, Wisenthal, Martin, Davidson, Friedman, Morgan and Brophy were on the team. The B team won their section, and then went on to win the city against Baron Byng. The juniors did not do so well. In skiing we won all titles.

In football, the season was marked by good hard football all through. With the exception of one school, the others were well matched and played close games. The B team, with a number of green players had a good developing year and won a fair share of their games. A number of them moved up to senior the next year and starred on the famous 30-31 team. The juniors were small and could not cope with the big Strathcona team that won the title.

In the city playoff, we met the strong Loyola team. At half time we were leading 7-0. In the second half, Loyola scored a touch and rouge and we were forced to open up and we scored a touch and convert to end the scoring. Red Martin and Wally Markham were standouts in the final drive.

All in all the school had a good year in winning senior football, the western Basketball, senior; and the City B title. In Hockey we won the City Senior. The B team won the City, while the juniors won their section but were beaten out for the city title in the playoff.

Inquest Set In Boy Scout Death

The inquest into the death of King's Scout John Moffitt, 15, of 508 Prince Albert Avenue, Westmount, victim of an accident near Morin Heights last week, was scheduled to resume last night after further police investigation.

The inquest was to be held at Camp Tamaracouta, the Boy Scout camp where the youth was spending his Summer holidays. He was killed two miles from the camp-site when a truck in which he was travelling hit a soft shoulder on the roadside and overturned. He was a member of St. Matthew's troop.

The six other injured persons were sent to the Hotel-Dieu in St. Jerome. One of them was released and two others have been transferred to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital.

Local Zionists To Attend Meet

The Zionist Information Office has announced that a number of local delegates will represent the Zionist Organization of Canada and the Hadassah Organization of Canada at the World Zionist Congress which opens in Jerusalem on August 14.

Co-presidents Samuel E. Schwisberg, K.C., of Montreal and Edward E. Gelber of Toronto, will head the delegates to the congress. Other delegates include Justice Harry Batshaw, Montreal, Mrs. H. Singer, Montreal, and Mrs. D. P. Gottlieb, Winnipeg, president of the Hadassah Organization of Canada. The alternate delegates are Joseph N. Frank, Levy M. Becker, Mrs. A. Raginsky, and Mrs. W. Riven, all of Montreal, and J. N. Goldenberg, K.C., Saskatoon.

offered to the operators of boarding and rooming houses in Westmount but that they had not availed themselves of the offer. Had the operators joined the association they would have been able to carry the fight against the edict with considerable more force he thought.

The matter however is exercising the attention of the executive of the Business Association and it is the intention to call a meeting at an early date when a full quorum will be available.

Westmount Men Head Accountants

Camp Westmount Members See Newest Jet Planes

At the father-and-son table tennis tournament, held at Westmount Y.M.C.A. last Friday night, Chuck White and his dad, Mr. C. A. E. White, defeated all comers. In the finals match John Pinel and his dad, Mr. P. J. K. Pinel, put up a stiff fight, but were excelled by the slams and slices of the White team.

One of the highlights of this week's program was the trip to Canadair, arranged through the courtesy of Mr. W. F. Dawson. The boys were shown around the plant and allowed to see at close up the newest jet planes.

On Thursday afternoon a group of 10 boys left for an overnight hike to Camp Perrot, where they set up a camp site for overnight trips. The group was under the direction of Doug Seller, Program Director of Camp Westmount. This trip was the first of a number of overnight trips to the Y.M.C.A. camps.

Highlights of this coming week at Camp Westmount include the Inter-Y.M.C.A. Swimming Meet at Southwestern Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday morning, and the Inter-Y.M.C.A. Baseball League Tournament on Tuesday afternoon. Coach Doug Seller is looking to such stars as Roy Smith, Lloyd Kishino, Hugh Barclay, Don Sellar and Ronnie Taylor to put up a fight for the Inter-Y cup.

Tramcar Damages Auto On Lansdowne Tuesday

George Brizolis, of 4995 Cote St. Catherine Road, was involved in an accident with a tramway car at The Boulevard and Lansdowne Avenue Tuesday. The right side of his car was smashed.

R.M.R. Will Defend Montreal Against Ottawa Camerons

Tomorrow, the Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa will leave their own area and proceed towards Montreal, by way of the Ottawa highway, but their journey will not be a straight run through, as the local Machine Gunners, the Royal Montreal Regiment, will be stationed in a defensive position this side of Rigaud Mountain, and will engage the oncoming Highlanders in battle (mock), hoping to repulse the supposed enemy advance.

This should be an interesting exercise for both regiments, as the present Commanding Officer of the R.M.R., Lt.-Col. J. P. C. Macpherson, M.C., was at this time last year a member of these same Camerons.

The local lads will be out to prove to their new C.O., that he can feel right at home in his new surroundings, and also show the Camerons that their loss was an R.M.R. gain.

At the end of hostilities, both units will return to the R.M.R. armoury, where the Camerons will be the guests of the local regiment, and will return to Ottawa on the Sunday.

Fare Topped on Driver Causing Two Car Collision

Andre Tessier, of 403 Cote St. Antoine Road, collided with a parked car last week when his brother, Lucien, fell asleep beside him and toppled over against his shoulder. Andre told the police the auto veered over into the car owned by Lloyd Arbuthnot, of 4440 Simpson street.

Rotary Needs Freedom Rev. Lattimore Claims

Rev. J. K. Lattimore, of Smith Falls, Rotary district governor, told Westmount Rotarians the club's international body did not concern itself with the ideology of any government but that it couldn't operate where there was no freedom.

While Rotary had no affiliation with any religion it was up to each member to be active in a church of his own choice.

Mr. Lattimore is minister of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Smith Falls, moderator of the synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada for Montreal and Ottawa, and director of religious instruction for the public schools of his city.

He told the Rotarians they couldn't remind themselves enough about their club's ideals, aims and philosophy of life. Rotary was out to foster better understanding between nations and good works in the community was the common ground on which all members could unite regardless of their background.

Unless ideals were matched with action, he said, they were futile words. Only on such a basis could there be established what man desired.

While no man could serve two masters, the District Governor declared, it was possible to serve God, country and Rotary at the same time. Nothing in Rotary could affect a member's loyalty to his country.

All Rotarians, Mr. Lattimore declared, should be examples to youth, for the youth of today would be the Rotarians of tomorrow. He paid special tribute to the work carried on by the Westmount Club.

He recommended that all youth should be taught the four-way Rotary test: "Is it truth, beneficial to all, fair for everyone and of good will?"

He suggested to the members that they should learn to disagree without being disagreeable, take their jobs seriously but not themselves; be themselves.

Mr. Lattimore was introduced by the President Jim Lawson and thanked by Cecil Medler. Visiting Rotarians were welcomed and introduced by Norman Millington.

Edward A. Rolph Succeeds J. H. Brace in Bell Post

Edward A. Rolph, of 176 Edgehill road, Westmount, has been appointed vice-president, personnel and public relations, of The Bell Telephone Company of Canada, it was announced Monday. He succeeds J. H. Brace, O.B.E., who is retiring after 43 years in the telephone industry.

Mr. Rolph, assistant to Mr. Brace since February 15, was born in Toronto and began his telephone career there in 1923. Educated at the University of Toronto Schools and the University of Toronto, he graduated from the latter university with the degrees of B.A.Sc. in 1921 and M.A.Sc. in 1922. Entering the Bell Company's service as a clerk at Toronto in 1923, he was appointed division commercial engineer there in 1925. In 1928 he was transferred to Montreal as general sales engineer, and in 1930 he became rate engineer. Four years later he moved to Ottawa where he was manager of the eastern Ontario division until his appointment as Toronto division manager in 1938. He became general commercial manager, western area, in 1942 and general plant manager of that area in 1946. Mr. Rolph returned to Montreal in 1948 as general manager of the eastern area, and was appointed general manager in 1949.

Active in welfare and community enterprises, Mr. Rolph is a director of the Montreal Board of Trade and, while in Toronto, served as a member of the executive of the Toronto branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society from 1945 to 1947, as a member of the executive of the United Welfare Fund from 1940 to 1942, and as a director of the Rotary Club of Toronto.

Long Service

Mr. Brace, vice-president in charge of the Bell Company's personnel and public relations department since 1939, has headed several Canadian business organizations and given leadership to other community endeavors during an active business career.

Accompanied by Mrs. Brace, Mr. Brace left Montreal the latter part of May for Geneva, Switzerland. He is attending the International Labor Office Conference there as representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, acting in an advisory capacity to the employers' delegate of the Canadian group.

Tribute To King's Scout John Moffit At St. Matthias

The D. A. Collins Funeral Chapel in Notre Dame de Grace was completely filled Friday afternoon as many friends, young and old, paid tribute to the late King's Scout John Moffit, of St. Matthew's Troop, accidentally killed in a truck mishap last week. The short, impressive service, was conducted by the Canon Gilbert Oliver, M.C., rector of St. Matthias Church.

Among those who attended the funeral, besides the parents of the former Scout, and his brothers and other relatives, was a large deputation of Scouts and Scout Leaders. Members of the St. Matthew's Troop came from Scout Camp Tamaracouta to serve as honorary pallbearers. These were joint Scoutmasters Allan Locke and Alan Stone and Scouts Ronald Cork, Thomas Stewart, David Melville, Douglas de Savoye, John Borlase, John Cunningham and David Moffit.

Other representatives of the Boy Scouts Association included B. W. Roberts, O.B.E., Provincial President; Provincial Commissioner G. Robley Mackay; Allan T. Corner, J. H. F. Turner, J. F. W. Smith, H. L. Etienne, L. C. Houldsworth, C. J. Dendy, W. J. C. Hewetson, Russel Knubley, James F. Cartier, Jack Westwater, J. Preston, Miss M. Shunk, R. J. Locke, J. Chapleau, Reg. K. Groome, Harold Mason, W. J. Shaw, T. A. Chubb, J. Poulson, Charles Downey, John Storr, H. Clarke, Phil Zukerman, R. A. Boright, Bruce Berridge, L. G. Leighton, King's Scouts Donald MacSween, John Jared, Gordon Robinson and Gerald Shalinsky, Mrs. E. Storr and members of ladies' auxiliaries and group committees and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferguson.

The 16-year-old Patrol Leader of the local Scout unit was in camp as a member of the staff and was on a routine trip to St. Adele, on the camp's truck for supplies. On the return trip, the vehicle slid off a soft shoulder into a deep ravine and the lad was instantly killed as the truck overturned. Six other staff members, none of them Scouts, were injured.

Scouting officials have announced that a post-humous honour will be conferred on the dead Scout, that of being made a Knight of Tamara, honor society at the camp. Prior to his death, Scout Moffit had been in line to be invested as a Knight and this honor will be accorded him, post-humously, for what is believed to be the first time in the camp's history.

Pockets For Sailors

New Uniforms — No longer will the Canadian sailor have to struggle to pull a snug-fitting jumper over his head when dressing or undressing. The new uniforms will also have pockets in the trousers. The new uniforms will make their appearance next month. Leading Seaman Butler is shown trying the zipper on his jacket.

Women Wanted In Canadian Navy

Westmount young women will be interested in an announcement the Hon. Brooke Claxton, Minister of Defence, made in Ottawa on Thursday that recruiting for women for the Naval Reserves will start "at a very early date."

The regular R.C.A.F. and the Reserve Army already are recruiting women.

Mr. Claxton told Lt.-Col. Douglas Harkness (PC—Calgary East) the Naval Reserve units definitely will start recruiting women this summer.

A number of female reserve officers would be called up for full-time duty to handle the job. It was not, however, the present intention to take more than those few into the Regular Navy.

Mr. Claxton said the Regular Navy now has 11,708 officers and men and predicted the total will reach beyond 13,400 this fiscal year.

L.O.B.A. Convenes In Fredericton, N. B.

The fifty-fourth session of the Grand Lodge of British America of the Ladies Orange Benevolent Association was held in Fredericton, N.B., where the Sisters there did everything possible to make a happy and comfortable visit for others who were visiting them from Newfoundland to British Columbia.

Six hundred members paraded to the cenotaph and there placed a wreath to the memory of the men and women who fought and died in two World Wars for freedom of our country and the Empire. From there they paraded to Willmott church for Divine Service.

During the session it was announced that there had been an increase of 3,000 members, with 55 new lodges in Canada in the past year. The "Sentinel" has been the mouthpiece of the organization in the newspaper world for the past 76 years. Orange insurance is now in a very firm ground and gives full protection to members who invest in it.

Montrealers attending included M.W. Sis. Ethel Erskine, Grand Deputy Mistress of B.A., R. W. Sis. Winnifred Roberts, Past Grand Mistress of Quebec, R. W. Sis. Sadie Price, Grand Mistress of Que., R. W. Sis. Frances Burness, Grand Treas. of Que., R. W. Sis. Katie Ryder, Dep. Rec. Sec. of Que., Sis. Eleanor Duval and Alma McLeod of Queen Victoria Lodge No. 823, Sis. Annie Carlisle of Boyne Jubilee Lodge No. 26 and Sis. Murdock of Excelsior Lodge No. 906.

Alexandra Hosp. May Be Closed; Finances Needed

Dr. Jonathan C. Meakins, president of Alexandra Hospital for communicable diseases, has called on the city to take over the hospital and operate it under its present management or as an adjunct to Pasteur Hospital.

The only other alternative facing hospital officials is to cease receiving patients at an early date and close as soon as possible, he said in his annual report.

"Unless a decision is arrived at in the near future, the closing alternative will be forced upon us," he said.

Explaining that the hospital was badly in need of financial aid, he said "your committee is adverse to the suggestion that a public appeal for funds should be made."

Dr. Meakins explained that a steady reduction of cases of communicable diseases had brought the average daily bed occupancy at the hospital down to 40 per cent. He pointed out, however, that the beds should be kept available for peak loads during epidemics. The only result, he said, was that the hospital suffered a sharp loss of revenue.

"It is almost universally accepted in Scandinavia, Great Britain, North America, Australasia and other areas that the care of patients with communicable diseases

Bicyclist Collided With Car At St. Antoine Corner

Westmount Police reported a collision between a bicycle and an auto at Atwater Avenue and St. Antoine Street last week. John Trudeau, 16, of 1233 City Hall Avenue, told police he was attempting to pass the auto driven by Andre Latour, of Chateaugay, and slipped on the pavement.

is a public financial responsibility. The Alexandra Hospital is almost unique in that this principle is not entirely acknowledged and made operative," he maintained.

Dr. Meakins revealed that the decrease in communicable disease incidence had increased the hospital's net deficit from $19,591 in 1949 to $63,073 in 1950.

FIGHT AGAINST INFLATION

Banker Urges Canadians to Practice Systematic Savings

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Canadian Bankers' Association last week, retiring president J. U. Boyer urged all Canadians to help take the pressure off prices by systematic savings.

"Putting and leaving money in savings accounts is anti-inflationary in the absolute," he said, "it is indeed patriotic in the current situation. I appeal sincerely for a new and stronger program of savings by all Canadians."

He added a warning note that to preserve the buying power of the dollar in the hands of the Canadian consumer, "all of us will have to be prepared to do and to accept some things that may be difficult, unpleasant or disagreeable. The national interest demands that we face up to them."

Canada's problem, said Mr. Boyer, "is to fit a large defence program — involving a shift of materials and labor from normal purposes — into an economy already close to full employment; and to do it, if possible, without serious inflation. To gain success in this is to ensure for the foreseeable future a high degree of development, employment and prosperity to this country. The first home-front battle in the defence of free democracy is the fight against inflation.

On the subject of the government's restrictions on credit, Mr. Boyer said:

"Despatches from Ottawa have described representations made by some merchants, manufacturers and others who are affected by restricted credit. We can understand and we can earnestly sympathize because to some extent we are all in the same boat. The businessman cannot make profits out of sales he does not make, and the banker cannot make profits out of loans he does not make. Loans produce a bank's best returns, and a bank must put up with lower profits when it restricts its lending. For all of us the pains will be worth the bearing if the policy yields measurable headway in conserving the buying power of the consumer's dollar.

"But nobody should run away with the idea that restriction of bank credit is either the sole or the greatest factor in an anti-inflationary program. Inflation is a worldwide phenomenon. Higher prices in the United States and in other countries from which our chief imports come, are an important influence on prices here. Contagious spending and buying sprees by people across the nation, in fear of shortages, or for sheer hoarding, can be another factor. Lack of systematic savings by the people can be another. Too free non-defence spending by governments — federal, provincial and municipal — can be a most potent factor. And Canada's specific defence spending program of $1.5 billion a year, can be a factor of major importance if fiscal and other counter measures to curtail credit and to restrict spending should be inadequate."

CIVIL DEFENCE WARDENS

The Editor,
The Examiner
Dear Sir,

It is becoming increasingly apparent that it will soon be necessary for all Municipalities to proceed with the formation of a full strength Warden force without further delay. Some considerable training time will be required for them to reach that state of efficiency that must be demanded from such an important public body.

The following suggestions, based on previous civil defence experience, are offered as helpful hints to those entrusted with the duty of organization.

1. The work will fall into many different categories, with different Wardens detailed to specialized duties, therefore it is of the utmost importance that all Wardens be carefully screened and then given necessary training in the branch best suited to their qualifications and ability. Thus weak links in the warden chain will be avoided.

2. In each Municipality a special effort should be made to enlist the co-operation of all the skilled tradesmen, especially those experienced in building construction, this would include carpenters, plumbers, electricians, cement workers, etc. In the rescue of persons trapped in collapsed buildings the expert advice and help of these men would often prevent avoidable accidents from escaping gas, exposed electric wires, etc. The assistance of every one of these men will be urgently required.

3. When selecting volunteers for First Aid training only those who know or think they could withstand the sight of badly injured persons should be considered. In a bombing raid the work of a first-aid may be such as to test the stoutest heart. First Aid Instructors would be well advised to demonstrate and teach a little more speed in applying the necessary treatment, dressings, etc., because in actual work a bleeding artery will not wait. There are also many frills and competition tricks that could very well be dispensed with in training and all tendency to play to the gallery should be discontinued. When a hundred or more wounded are awaiting treatment the workers will have no time to tuck in the ends of all bandages or have a reverse spiral exactly in line, in other words try and speed up first-aid work and cut out the slow "one patient per hour" routine so prevalent in classes today.

4. Experience is acknowledged a great teacher and no country in the world today has as much experience in civil defence as Great Britain, so for information and guidance on this subject let us look to them and study the books dealing with their accomplishments. We should not expect to learn very much about air-raids or bombing from our neighbours to the south, who, after all, have never had a bombing raid on their country. I feel sure we have many qualified instructors today who could assist them in their training, if requested.

Christian Science

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text is from John 4:23: "The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth." Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:

"And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them and said: 'Take, eat: this is my body.' And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them; and they all drank of it. And he said unto them: 'This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until the day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'" (Mark 14.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Passover which Jesus ate with disciples in the month Nisan on the night before his crucifixion, was a mournful occasion, a sad supper taken at the close of day, in the twilight of a glorious career with shadows fast falling around; and this supper closed forever Jesus ritualism or concessions to matter. The true sense is spiritually lost, if the sacrament is confined to the use of bread and wine. Our Eucharist is spiritual communion with the one God. Our bread, 'which cometh down from heaven,' is Truth. Our cup is the cross. Our wine the inspiration of love, the draught our Master drank and commended to his followers."

The Examiner.
Dear Sir:

The recent announcement by Westmount City Authorities that By-Law No. 526 amended by a further By-Law 532 which according to Mr. Hughes, City Manager was passed in 1945 prohibiting boarding and rooming houses being operated in certain areas appears to have been slipped through council much in the same way as the Plumbing B-Law, with citizens not knowing or at least failing to realize the consequences of the By-Law.

This is just one more indication that the Civic Authorities are determined to safeguard Westmount as a place for the wealthy to reside. Those unfortunates many of them from fine old families living in reduced circumstances in a pleasant environment or young couples trying to make their way in a world many of them helped to save appear to be not wanted by the great and near great who occupy the magnificent homes above Sherbrooke Street.

Dollars count for much more than gentle breeding in this day and age especially in this fair city of Westmount.

The Plumbing By-Law effectively prevented the conversion of big houses into smaller units which would have accommodated young vets and their families.

It is little wonder that there is a growing number of reasonable minded citizens who ask "what have we got to lose?"

WILLIAMSON - ALLEN
The marriage of Margaret Lillian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. Stewart Allen, of Chungking, West China, and Westmount, to Mr. Donald Bradford Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sutherland Williamson, of Montreal, took place Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock, in Dominion-Douglas Church, Westmount, the Rev. A. Lloyd Smith, D.D., officiating, assisted by the Rev. Harold T. Allen, of Haney, B.C., uncle of the bride. Mr. John Robb played the wedding music and Mr. Gordon Russell sang during the signing of the register. White and blue delphinium were used to decorate. The bride, given away by her uncle, Mr. E. L. Pugsley, was in a ballerina length frock of white nylon net over taffeta, with a bodice of embroidered nylon net, fastened over the front with tiny buttons, having a Peter Pan collar, and a bouffant skirt. She wore a bandeau of pleated net and carried a semi-cascade bouquet of yellow Pernet roses and Goldilock roses.

Miss Gwyneth Allen, as maid of honor for her sister, was in a frock of white and yellow nylon net over yellow taffeta, fashioned on similar lines to that worn by the bride. She wore a bandeau of pleated yellow net and carried a Colonial bouquet of Shasta daisies and cornflowers.

Miss Marion Allen, also a sister, as junior bridesmaid, wore a frock of white embroidered organdy with a blue satin sash and a blue net bandeau in her hair. She carried a Colonial bouquet of Shasta daisies and cornflowers.

Mr. Robert Cox acted as best man for Mr. Williams and the ushers were Mr. Lindsay Bickford, and Mr. Derek Pugsley, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Allen, the bride's mother, was gowned in navy blue sheer and wore a white hat and accessories and a corsage bouquet of Joanna Hill roses.

Mrs. Williamson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of Swiss eyelet pique with a white hat and accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink Delight roses.

The reception was held at the residence of Miss Lillian Griffin, aunt of the bride, where pink and white flowers were used as decorations, the bride's table, centred with the wedding cake, being arranged with pink sweetpeas and forget-me-nots.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left for Muskoka, Ont., the bride travelling in a suit of natural linen with a hat of navy blue mohair and wearing natural and navy blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of red carnations. They will reside in Hamilton, Ont.

Among the out-of-town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Harold T. Allen, and Miss Joan Allen, of Haney, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pugsley, of Toronto; Miss Constance Griffin, of Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wight, of Ottawa.

VAN PATTER - PORTER

The marriage of Miss Helen Elaine Porter, daughter of the late Lockhart C. Porter, and of Mrs. Porter, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., to Dr. Hugh Terry Van Patter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stanley Van Patter, of Westmount, took place Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in St. James Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown. Miss Porter is a graduate of the Royal Victoria Hospital School of Nursing, and the bridegroom is a graduate in Medicine of McGill University.

Rev. T. H. Russell Somers, M.A., S.T.M., conducted the ceremony, at which the choir sang "O, Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer," while Miss E. Lillian MacKenzie, Mus. Bac., was organ soloist.

White gladioli and peonies were used to decorate the church.

Miss Jean Van Patter was maid of honor, and Miss Frances S. Rogers, the bridesmaid. Dr. Douglas M. Van Patter was best man, and Dr. T. C. Todd, Dr. M. N. Beck, and Mr. R. R. Smith ushers.

Given in marriage by Mr. W. R. Cruikshank, the bride wore a fine net gown with bouffant skirt, over which a jacket of imported French lace buttoned up the front to form a rolled V-collar, its long sleeves coming to points over her hands. Her fingertip veil of fine silk net fell from a Juliet cap of matching French lace. She carried a small shower bouquet of white snapdragons and carnations.

The maid of honor wore pale blue organdie over periwinkle blue taffeta, cut on princess lines, with the bolero buttoned up the front with silk-covered buttons, French rolled collar, and three-quarter length sleeves with cuffs.

Her headdress was a wreath of tulle illusion, with a nose veil in matching blue, and her bouquet of ox-eye daisies. Miss Rogers, as bridesmaid, wore a similar costume.

Mrs. Porter, the bride's mother, was frocked in pale blue sheer, with lace applique, a white Milan straw hat and navy blue accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Van Patter, the bridegroom's mother, wore an afternoon dress of navy blue and white printed sheer, with fine pleated shawl collar, a white straw hat and white accessories, her corsage of American Beauty roses.

Flowers for the reception at the Charlottetown Hotel were white gladioli and peonies, with ferns. On the wedding trip to Nova Scotia, the New England States, and the Laurentians, the bride travelled in a light green Tootal linen dress, with jacket, a tan straw hat and tan accessories, her corsage of Talisman roses. The couple will reside in Montreal.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Van Patter, parents of the bridegroom; Miss Jean Van Patter, Miss Frances Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edgar, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Todd, Mrs. A. Knowles, Miss Judith Knowles, all of Montreal, Que.; and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rowley, of Fredericton, N.B., and Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Van Patter, of Boston, Mass.

Mr. George Cochrane, sports columnist, has left to spend two weeks at Macdonald College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davies are attending the Shriners' convention in New York City from July 9 to 12. While in New York they will stay at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Elcombe.

Among the weekend guests at the Speirs-Miller Lodge at Aubrey, Que., who also attended the weekly Saturday Night Barn Dance, were Miss Kay Kearns, President of the Business Women's Unit of the C.W.L.; Miss Loretta Macdonald, Miss Sophie Stockwell, Miss Ilene Powers, Miss Betty Bushfield, the Misses Betty and Anne Saunders and Mrs. Winnifred Murray. These barn dances are a regular feature on Saturday evening at the Speirs-Miller Lodge at Aubrey.

ENGAGEMENTS

Canadian Fall Shoe Show Theme Stresses Comfort, Super Styling

Women are dressing to look prettier. Shoes to go with softer, more feminine clothes, modelled at the recent Canadian shoe information bureau's presentation of fall styles, demonstrated that Canada need not take a back seat to any country in the world as to shoe styling, quality and intrinsic value. And carrying out the presentation theme, "Happy Feet," they also proved that comfort and smart styling can go hand in hand.

In her commentary, Miss Frances Robinson revealed no drastic changes in silhouette, but rather new interpretations or accepted shoe styles. Of particular interest to Canadian women is the story in heel heights. While the 2 1/8 or three-inch heel, down to the 2 1/8 and 1 7/8 remain fashion factors in dressy shoes, there is a definite trend toward a

NOTICES FOR THE WOMAN'S AND SOCIAL PAGES MUST BE WRITTEN CLEARLY IN INK, OR TYPED, ON ONE SIDE OF THE PAPER ONLY.

17/8 and 1 1/2, the latter one and three-quarter inches, showing that heel heights have moved fashionably down, both high style quality and medium price manufacturers recognizing the need to have smart styles on medium or middling heels.

Also of special interest is that many of the new fall shoes have matching bags.

It's definitely a pump season, with sandals in second place, and these more often in the evening or after-five category. There are more closed toes and closed heels, the shell vamp continuing in popularity, although the silhouette is not so predominately naked at last season.

Interest in high fronts has led designers to work out ways of making them look light and graceful, and comfortable to the foot. Thus, open vamp treatments, lattice stripping at front and sides, or a series of narrow stripping on a tie pattern give the illusion of a high vamp and the open look.

Platforms for the most part are lower, although these climb higher in dressy categories. Gore steps, closed or open, are elasticized to give snug and comfortable fit and are seen either in calf or suede, or in combinations of leather and color, and in dressy and casual types. While there is considerable talk of the tapered toe, in Canada it will probably not be seen in volume, and may be a modified pattern. There will be fewer anklets, but straps are a style factor, sabot straps in particular.

In materials, calf, suede, kid, reptiles, patent leather, nylon lace and nylon mesh, flannel, satin, velvet and metallics will be seen. There has been greater styling than ever before in reptiles, from dressy to tailored types, and reptiles are expected to be even more important this fall than they were last season. In fabrics, nylon lace was outstanding in an elegant dress pump, combined with black suede trim and delicate nylon lace and mesh formed the vamps of suede pumps. Gunmetal and jewel-tone patent leather are used to trim black and colored suedes. A Balenciaga closed pump on shell lines showed the high front through use of, gunmetal patent leather in a fan-shaped effect.

RCAF Silver Cross

R.C.A.F. Silver Cross Mothers Remembrance Association will meet at various times throughout the summer to prepare articles for a sale of work to be held in the Fall.

Following are the dates of meetings, which will be held at the Y.W.C.A. at 10:30 a.m.: July 9, July 23, August 13, August 27 and September 10.

Fashion Hints

Illustrated is a useful coat, a brief affair that can be worn nicely with either day or evening things. It is fashioned of black faille in a wool and rayon blend, has braided edges and is crisply taffeta lined. It would go nicely with a daytime dress when the occasion calls for something more impressive than the usual topper, and it is perfect with either straight or full skirted evening dresses, which makes a coat of this kind a good choice for the traveller.

N.D.G. Lawn Bowlers Win Ladies' Doubles In Westmount Match

An N.D.G. team took the first prize in the Westmount Ladies Lawn Bowling doubles competition, the ladies being Mrs. H. Rowe and her partner, Mrs. I. Andison. The team was one of three N.D.G. teams in the semi-finals.

In the game played Tuesday, June 26, between N.D.G. and Riverside teams, the final score was a two-point tie.

Mtl. Council Of Women To Act As Hostesses Of Convention In Fall

The National Council of Women of Canada will hold its annual meeting in Montreal during the last week of September, at the Windsor Hotel. The Montreal Council, who will be hostess council for the week, has plans under way.

Mrs. R. J. Marshall, National President, will preside and delegates from Vancouver to Halifax will represent thousands of Canadian women.

Highlights of the program will include the reports of the Triennial Conference of the International Council of Women which took place in April last in Athens, Greece. Reporting on different aspects of the conference will be the four Canadian delegates: Mrs. Marshall, Miss Elizabeth Long, Mrs. Edward B. Savage and Mrs. George Klinck.

WILL THE GOOD SURVIVE?

"Which concept will ultimately prevail in our world of conflicting ideologies — (Stalin's) disdain for life — or (Dr. Albert Schweitzer's) reverence for life?" asks Harold E. Stassen, President of the University of Pennsylvania, in a July Journal article entitled Schweitzer vs. Stalin.

"I believe man was meant to be free. I believe man was intended to respect other men. I believe there is a God," Mr. Stassen affirms. "I believe that in a half century ahead the philosophy of Albert Schweitzer will be victorious and that of Joseph Stalin will fade."

Stork Pays 96 Visits to Homoeopathic Ward During Month Of May

A merit award and a good long holiday is due the energetic stork who, in the month of May, brought 97 babies to the Homoeopathic Hospital. The record number, which includes one set of twins, is about 25 more than the average monthly birth rate. This is even more unusual considering that March is generally the busiest time in maternity ward.

What's more, 53 girls first saw the light of day in May, although there are supposed to be more male than female births!

Green Dolphin Street At Monkland

Romance, spectacle and adventure combine to give you one of the year's biggest entertainment treats in "Green Dolphin Street," filmization of M-G-M's $200,000 prize-winning novel, with Lana Turner and Richard Hart as the romantic principals. Others in the distinguished cast of this spectacle-drama are Van Heflin, Donna Reed and Frank Morgan, directed by Victor Saville. Added hilariously different picture of happy-go-lucky love... "The Bride Goes Wild" starring your favorite sweetheart of the screen June Allyson and Van Johnson.

"Green Dolphin Street" Tops Fine Bill at the Monkland

"Green Dolphin Street," which brings Lana Turner, Van Heflin, Donna Reed and Richard Hart to the Monkland Theatre screen in a spectacular picturization of M-G-M's prize-winning novel, has enough emotional intensity, dramatic impact and adventurous scope to provide the material for two or more motion picture hits.

Here is a powerful dramatic tale laid against such colorful and picturesque haunts of the world as a Channel Island seaport of the 1840's, swashbuckling adventure in China, action aboard a magnificent old-time Clipper ship which ultimately is dashed against the rocks in a storm, and a terrific climax of an earthquake and an uprising of Maori natives in an early New Zealand lumber settlement.

Against this arresting background is told the story of the ruthless and bewitching Mariannes Pastourel, who snatches the young and handsome William Kane from under the very nose of her devoted sister and who, through a series of compelling circumstances, persuades him to marry her against both his wishes and that of a mysterious adventurer, Timothy Haslam, forced to exile in New Zealand because of the blood on his hands. How this curiously assorted foursome work out their lives against a crescendo of suspenseful adventures makes for one of the most exciting romantic narratives ever brought to the screen.

Added Feature

What happens when a playboy writer is forced to assume the obligations of a father in order to prove his respectability makes for the hilarious happenings of "The Bride Goes Wild," the M-G-M comedy-romance in which Van Johnson, June Allyson and Butch Jenkins are put through their paces.

Here is a picture that will have you laughing at the fade of the first sub-title. Johnson is the indolent and mischievous writer of children's animal stories. Miss Allyson is the prim, puritanical New England drawing teacher who has been assigned to illustrate his latest book. When she discovers the author to be more addicted to alcohol than to art she precipitates a crisis which involves the introduction into his bachelor quarters of an "enfant terrible" in the person of young Jenkins:

It is up to Van to pose as the unfortunate father of this problem child, an imposture which brings about some of the most jocular proceedings you have witnessed on the screen, before Miss Allyson is finally able to win and reform her man.

Governor-General Proposed As Head Of Canadian Army

Members applauded in the House of Commons last week when Jean Francois Pouliot (L.—Temiscouata), proposed that His Excellency Viscount Alexander, Canada's popular Governor-General, should be made chief of the Canadian Army General Staff.

The Liberal member termed His Excellency, whose term of office will be up next spring, "one of the most distinguished officers of the British Army or in the whole world."

He thought that "as General Eisenhower is in charge of the United Nations troops in Europe, it would be a fine gesture to have General Alexander appointed as the chief of staff."

Hon. Brooke Claxton, Minister of National Defence, said he join-

Joan Fontaine and Joseph Cotton Star in Westmount Presentation

What happens when a strange twist of fate suddenly gives a lovely girl and a lonely man their chance to break all ties with the past and embark on a new life together?

This is the challenging situation confronting Joan Fontaine and Joseph Cotton in Paramount's Hal Wallis production, "September Affair," which starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre, and the ensuing love affair makes for one of the most arresting and haunting stories ever filmed.

Françoise Rosay, continental film favorite, co-stars in this unusual tale of an exciting and poignant love, and Jessica Tandy heads the fine cast of featured players.

Miss Fontaine and Cotton meet casually on a plane bound from Rome to New York. She is a concert pianist who had been studying in Italy. He is an engineer who has been professionally successful, but finds that his marriage is going on the rocks. When their plane lands at Naples, they tour the town and return after it has left. It soon crashes at sea and they are listed among the passengers lost.

Now in love, they can either return to their former lives or continue the deception. Their decision is to remain together, and they have an idyllic romance in Capri and Florence. But the inexorable past soon claims them and they are forced to come to terms with reality. The solution of their problem is reached in a taut and stirring climax that will do strange things to your heart.

As the concert pianist, Miss Fontaine gives an eloquent and effecting performance that ranks with this Academy Award winner's greatest triumphs. Joseph Cotton is superb as the husband who breaks all ties with his family to start life anew, and Madame Rosay, in her American film debut, leaves no doubt as to the reason for her long-standing popularity in Europe. Jessica Tandy is dignified and convincing as the abandoned wife who remains loyal to her husband after his deception.

With the authority of shot-in-the-streets realism, Columbia Pictures' "Between Midnight and Dawn," saga of the police radio patrol, is the companion feature at the Westmount Theatre. Literally taking the onlooker behind the wheel and guns of a police prowler, as it speeds head-on into danger and violence, the new drama emerges as a stirring documentation of the operations of a radio squad car. Mark Stevens, Edmond O'Brien and Gale Storm are starred, with Donald Buka, Gale Robbins, Anthony Ross and Roland Winters in the important supporting roles.

Although it is based on the police files of a great city, "Between Midnight and Dawn" has its romantic aspects, too. Stevens and O'Brien, portraying brother officers of the radio patrol, are in love with the same girl, Miss Storm, who wants no part of an emotional involvement with any policeman because she has the painful memory of her police lieutenant fathers death at the hands of a criminal. Gradually, however, she falls in love with Stevens. On the eve of their wedding, Buka, a killer who has been placed behind bars by the two officers, escapes and kills Stevens.

People who suffer from high blood pressure should avoid emotional upsets and a too strenuous way of life. Overeating, which can cause overweight, is one of the don'ts. The doctor's instructions as to diet, exercise and rest should be followed carefully.

George C. Marler To Attend Rally Of Prov. Liberals

George C. Marler, member for Westmount-St. George and leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Provincial Legislature, has accepted an invitation to attend a rally under Party Leader Georges Lapalme at St. Damien, July 8.

The meeting will include delegates from nine counties: Kamouraska, L'Islet, Montmagny, Levis, Beauce, Dorchester, Portneuf, Quebec and Montmorency.

The Provincial Liberal party has recently intensified its campaign in preparation for the next election which in certain quarters has been rumoured as being in the immediate offing.

Premier Duplessis Friday denied rumors current here recently that there may be a provincial election this year. "There will be no provincial election in 1951," he said.

"I think Mr. Lapalme (Georges Lapalme, Quebec Liberal leader) would die of fright if an election was called this year."

The Ale of Good Taste

Dead Line Flashes

By BOB LUNNY

Bob Feller has become the only modern league pitcher to hurl three no-hitters. Some people are wondering why the Cleveland fireball artist did not make the American League All-Star team. Could it be that the fans have a grudge against him for refusing to pitch when he was picked on the All-Star team two years ago. Rapid Robert has one ambition he would like filled before hanging up his spikes and that is to pitch a World Series victory. He had his chance against Boston in the 1948 World Series but failed in his two starting assignments.

Cowardice is usually associated with acts of self-destruction, but when Hugh Casey, the one-time hero of Flatbush did the Dutch Act in an Atlanta Hotel Tuesday morning, he was playing his role out to the end. The Brooklyn relief ace appeared in six of the seven games in the 1947 World Series against the Yanks.

Montreal's pride and joy Laurent Dauthille meets Tony Janiro in a ten round bout at the Ball Park Monday night. Dauthille will have an easy time with Janiro and will then try to challenge Sugar Ray Robinson. We saw Dauthille fight Jake La Motta in Detroit last September and Jake came through with a last minute knockout after a dull fight. Sugar Ray pulverized LaMotta in their last fight. Can you imagine what would happen to Dauthille if he ever goes in the same ring with Robinson. It will be "moider." Is promoter Godbout giving the fans a decent break?

Montreal Alouettes pulled an ace out of the pack when they signed George Ratterman, former Notre Dame great. He intends to take up permanent residence in Montreal and he will have a year-round job as a salesman. Ratterman turned pro with Buffalo Bills of the defunct All-American Conference in 1947. He is one of America's greatest field-generals. He is still supposed to be under option to the New York Yankees.

Andy O'Brien pulled a big boner in his column in the Standard last week. He said Irish Bob Murphy beat Harry Matthews in New York last winter. He also stated that in winning Murphy gave Matthews a good beating. It was the opposite way around; Matthews gave Murphy a licking and won the fight.

Mr. Soccer

Gosta Nilsson, right winger of the AIK soccer team of Stockholm, Sweden, who dazzled local fans at the Westmount Athletic Grounds last Friday in the Sweden-Montreal soccer match. Nilsson is rated the most colorful player in Sweden. His marvellous ball control and all round excellence had much to do with AIK's 5-0 win over the Montreal squad. The Swedes' performance was an education in soccer for local followers of the sport.

Putters, Tennis Players Engage In Tournaments

Another successful Stroke tournament was held at the Westmount green on Thursday, June 28. The results of the tournament were as follows: Mrs. R. Drain won in the ladies section with a score of 79 net. In the men's division M. P. Warner won with a low score of 75 net.

During the month of June Tennis Tournaments were held at the Western Avenue courts. Matches were keenly fought right up to the finals. The following were crowned champions:

Student girls' singles, C. Dibble; student boys singles, K. Thompson; scholar girls' singles, J. Palmer; scholar boys' singles, D. Hackett.

Tennis Coaching Hours Changes Announced

Tennis Instructor Hugh Stratton, of the Westmount Recreation Department, announced today the tennis courses would be switched.

Still to be held at the Western Avenue courts instruction on Tuesday will be in the evening from 7-8 p.m. On Thursdays it will remain from 10-12 a.m.

R.M.R. Defeat Chateauguay Regt. in Service Softball

Due to wet grounds the long awaited game between City of Westmount Police and R.M.R. was called off last Friday, but on Tuesday night, the R.M.R. once again played their usual airtight ball, holding the heavy hitting Regiment de Chateauguay to four runs while scoring eight runs themselves.

The game was interesting and exciting all the way, with Van Ryswyk, the R.M.R. workhorse, pitching, five-hit ball while his mates racked up ten hits and played heads-up ball. Balls were hit hard by the losers, but there always seemed to be an R.M.R. player wherever the ball was hit. Shortstop Eddie Lafontaine and centerfielder Jim O'Shaughnessy sparkled in the field, while Dave Binmore's long home run was the highlight in the hitting department.

On the other diamond the Navy nine were once again victorious, this time over the last place Engineers by the score of 12 to 1. Pitcher - Manager Jack Bates pitched superb ball throughout the game, and had a shutout until the last inning, when the Engineers scored their lone run.

There was no game Wednesday, as the game scheduled between R.C.M.P. vs R.M.R. was advanced to July 5.

Two games are on tap for next Tuesday night, the highlight being the game between R.M.R. and Navy, this being the first meeting between these two teams, and as both are at present running neck and neck near the top of the league a real battle is expected.

Westmounters Interested In Biggest London Party

The biggest coming-out party of a brilliant London season took place Monday in flood-lit Syon House, 150-room palace of the Duke of Northumberland.

The party was given by the Westmount-born Countess of Haddington for her only daughter, 17-year-old Lady Mary Baillie-Hamilton.

Members of the Royal Family were among 700 distinguished guests who wined, dined and danced in Syon House's white and gold dining room, decorated in 18th-century chiaroscuro frieze panels.

Lady Mary, who has spent many holidays at the Westmount home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cook, 532 Clarke Avenue, and in the Laurentian Mountains, missed the chance of being presented at court because of the King's illness.

But the Royal Family was represented at her debut by the Queen, Princess Elizabeth, Princess Margaret and the Duchess of Kent. Princess Josephine Charlotte, daughter of King Leopold of Belgium and a personal friend of Lady Mary, originally planned to attend but was unable to leave Belgium.

Syon House, loaned to the Earl and Countess of Haddington by the Duke of Northumberland, stands on the Thames-side in Brentford, a London suburb. Formerly a monastery, it was rebuilt in 1552 and is approached by an entrance gateway built by Robert Adam, famous British architect of the 18th century.

The Red Drawing Room which adjoins the dining room is hung with plum-colored Spitalfields silk, the first damask silk used in this way in England.

Gypsy violinists serenaded the guests in a beet garden set under a colonnade of stone.

There was no cabaret and no early morning breakfast. Dancing and a sit down supper with buffet was provided for the entertainment of the guests.

The Chinese language and its dialects are used by nearly 500 million people. The English language by a little more than 270 million.

MRT Seeks Local Support For Theatre Movement

Geoffrey Merrill, chairman of the Board of Management of the Montreal Repertory Theatre in a statement to The Examiner asked for the support of all theatre loving residents of Westmount to rally round the little theatre movement in supporting the group which has done so much with so little over the years to develop the theatre in the metropolis.

Especially interesting is the offer of the M.R.T. to go out into the various districts to help out smaller organizations by coaching and staging plays as an educational move.

Mr. Merrill pointed to the fact that The M.R.T. was the first organization to organize troop shows at the commencement of World War II. Later the cast of the Navy show was largely drawn from the M.R.T. Troop Show.

The Montreal Repertory Theatre's financial crisis earlier this year has resulted in a general reorganization and reorientation, with expansion of activities rather than retrenchment adopted as a policy for solving the theatre's problems according to a recent announcement.

Principally, MRT will seek the support of larger audiences by taking its plays from the Guy Street Playhouse to other parts of Montreal. The first attempt will likely be in the Town of Mount Royal. A play will be given its usual run on Guy street, then moved for extra performances to a suitable auditorium in Mount Royal.

If the experiment is a success, according to the announcement, it might lead to a regular policy of suburban touring, with performances in several districts. This again might be a preliminary step to the formation of a full-time professional company.

"MRT is fully aware," said the statement, "that only stalemate and further financial difficulties can result if the theatre remains boxed in its present quarters, however intimate and charming they may be."

Board of Management

The reorganization has provided MRT with a new Board of Management, headed by Geoffrey Merrill. The members, all directors who assumed direct responsibility for efficient running of the theatre, are Richard Gilbert, Louis Mulligan, Frank Lindsay and Ranulph Hudston.

Among the board's first acts was to retain Doreen Lewis as producing director and manager of MRT. The announcement praised Miss Lewis and said that "there is no one more capable of holding this difficult key position."

A Ladies Auxiliary also has been established. Pro-tem chairman is Mrs. Robert Whitmore, who will be assisted in the formative stages by Mrs. Louis de Savoye, Mrs. Gordon Pfeiffer, Mrs. E. A. Dennis, Mrs. H. Shalinsky, Mrs. G. C. Christie, Mrs. I. Blackman and Mrs. J. T. Rogers.

Production standards in the coming season will be fully maintained according to the Board of Management. "Future productions will be mounted and acted as carefully and as artistically as the talents and finances of the theatre permit. Every attempt will be made by the Play Reading Committee to select plays which combine popular appeal with dramatic merit, and the theatre will continue to give occasional audience to classics and experimental modern drama.

"MRT's first aim, as always, will be to provide theatrical entertainment, but the theatre has no intention of lapsing into being merely a purveyor of easy successes."

No curtailment of other MRT services to Montreal theatre is contemplated. Plans for suburban branches of the MRT School of The Theatre are being considered. The Theatre Club may expand its program of guest speakers, and MRT hopes to increase the assistance given generally to other local drama groups.

New House Partially Destroyed By Fire

Fire struck a nearly completed dwelling at 46 Aberdeen Road Wednesday morning and partially destroyed the roof and ceiling.

The house belonged to Maxwell M. Culiman, an architect, who was to have occupied it August 1. Two streams of water were played on the building. The smoke and fire damage will delay Mr. Culiman's occupancy.

My lawn roller never seems to be home. Possibly I should make another one—just to lend to people! Fooling aside, this borrowing tools and then forgetting to bring them back can be most annoying—and I'm not guiltless. I was all set to roll the area just spaded for late vegetables when I discovered it was missing. The predicament was finally settled by borrowing Herb's sleek "store" job. It gave me the idea of looking for a short, fat hot water tank and fixing up a handle attachment from inch water pipe. Its weight can be regulated by the amount of water used in the tank—quite an improvement on my present one filled with heavy concrete. Possibly that will be my first job when holidays are over.

Chintz Canopy

Here is a simple way to perk up your kitchen window, noticed while in the Ste. Annes area. A light canopy was constructed from building board and fastened on the inside to the edge of the window frame. Bright chintz was sewn in the form of an awning to fit the frame and thumb tacked in place, with the tacks out of sight. It was most attractive. After repeated attempts to describe its construction to my usually bright "better half", I finally took the hint and built one. Now she will have to get busy and cover it.

While she is sewing the canopy, maybe I can talk her into covering the guest book I made out of a cigar box last spring. It's quite attractive in its natural finish but it will be even better covered with some of the drapery material that was left over.

Knick-Knack Shelf

If you want a small shelf for light keepsakes try your hand at making one from coat hangers. It will take a bit of patience to form the wire into the desired pattern but it can be done.
