

China's Viet Nam threat seen as prod at Russia

NEW YORK (AP) — China's renewed threat to send volunteers to Viet Nam appears to be a result of a contest between the two big Communist powers. The contest is bringing about the Communists' own form of escalation of the peril in Southeast Asia.

The Chinese have seemed to be trying to force Moscow to become more and more involved in a bellicose quarrel with the United States. Peking now indicates it believes it is on the way to achieving such a goal.

The standing committee of the National People's Congress (parliament) in Peking announces it has called on Chinese organizations to "make preparations" to send their own people to fight the Americans in Viet Nam.

The question is whether this is a real threat to intervene or a signal to the Communist world that China is more willing and more able than the Soviet Union to call the shots in Southeast Asia. The latter seems the case.

Peking — as before — still is "prepared" to send volunteers. It has not said it will send them. Several "ifs" are attached to the broadside — if "U.S. imperialism continues to escalate" the war, if the Vietnamese ask such help.

Peking will be the judge of the first "if." As for the second, there are strong doubts that Hanoi is anxious to have a flood of Chinese volunteers.

FIGHT FOR INFLUENCE

There is strong evidence that the Moscow-Peking struggle for influence in the Communist and underdeveloped world is involved in Peking's threats. As if accusing the Russians of failing in their duty to the world revolution, the Peking announcement said:

"The Chinese people have always been infinitely loyal in fulfilling their proletarian internationalist obligations. They have never spared any sacrifice whatever in this respect. They always mean what they say. Both past and present struggles testify to this."

For the present, the Chinese are likely to leave well enough alone. In the first place, they appear to be satisfied that from their point of view the war is producing cruel attrition against South Viet Nam and equally cruel attrition on U.S. nerves and staying power.

It is doubtful that Ho Chi Minh, North Viet Nam's leader, wants Chinese volunteers.

US Navy planes hit Red trucks in North Viet

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy planes struck through the night at Communist truck convoys in North Viet Nam. One plane was lost and the results of the strikes were not known.

Other U.S. and South Vietnamese planes flew a number of missions against suspected Viet Cong concentrations inside South Viet Nam.

Some of the heaviest strikes were in Quang Tin province where government forces were mauled Sunday and Monday by Viet Cong guerrillas.

Skyhawks from the 7th Fleet carrier Hancock prowled Highway 1 north from the border early today, firing at trucks.

Other Skyhawks from the carrier Midway were the first group of raiders out after dark Tuesday night. They struck at a truck convoy about 120 miles north of the 17th parallel.

One of the planes was downed and the pilot is missing. In a pre-dawn raid Tuesday, a U.S. plane was downed and its pilot killed in a strike which smashed another truck convoy on Highway 1 just north of the border.

U.S. and South Vietnamese Air Force planes hit at road and bridge targets through the day. One of the strikes loosened a large landslide across Highway 2 about 140 miles south of Hanoi.

'Must be destroyed' for unification

'No compromise,' says China

TOKYO (AP) — China said today South Viet Nam must be destroyed as a "product of U.S. imperialism" so that all Viet Nam can be reunified.

"There can be no compromise between the Vietnamese people and the U.S. aggressors on this question," said the Chinese Communist party newspaper, the Peking People's Daily.

Attacking President Johnson's April 17 statement that the United States insists the independence of South Viet Nam be guaranteed, Peking said:

"The very purpose for which the South Vietnamese people are fighting at great sacrifice to themselves is to destroy completely this so-called 'independent country,' a product of U.S. imperialism, and to realize the reunification and complete liberation of their fatherland."

The People's Daily charged that the United States "has gradually turned South Viet Nam into its colony and military base and clamped a most brutal fascist rule on the region."

Recalling the coups of recent years, it continued: "Finding Ngo Dinh Diem not to its liking, the United States murdered him; finding Nguyen Khanh not to its liking either, it removed him from office. Saigon has become the stage of ceaseless merry-go-round, with a reshuffle every day and a coup d'état every other day."

The People's Daily again rejected Johnson's call for unconditional talks on Viet Nam, saying the U.S. president had, along with State Secretary Rusk and Defence Secretary McNamara, "made clear the U.S. intention to resort to war blackmail, to use bombing to enforce a peace negotiation and make the Vietnamese people stop their just struggle against U.S. imperialism."

By another exchange of letters in February this year between the French embassy and Mr. Martin, the federal government assented to "an entente or understanding" signed by the Quebec and French ministers of education.

Mr. Martin told the Commons March 1: "Standing alone, these agreements between France and Quebec could not have been regarded as agreements subject to international law."

Mr. Martin said ministries of education and universities in the English-speaking provinces have preferred informal exchange agreements with corresponding institutions in English-speaking countries, particularly Britain and the United States.

However, France preferred to put cultural relations on a formal intergovernmental basis and "this is a fact of international life which the federal government cannot ignore in carrying out its international responsibilities in respect of cultural relations."

Five miles of dikes stand guard

Worn but ready in flood crisis

LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP)—La Crosse was worn but ready today in the crisis hours of its struggle against a record flood crest rampaging through the Mississippi River valley.

The river has swelled to 17.7 feet, only inches short of an expected 18-foot crest due to ram five miles of protective dikes before the day's end.

Water ringed the city's north side and had swept over two of three runways at the municipal airport on French Island.

A guard remained posted at a 15,000-gallon gasoline tank farm where one tank, holding 107,000 gallons, was tipped at a 10-degree angle when a dike crumbled Monday. Water swirled eight feet deep around the tanks and the potential fire danger added to the city's uneasiness.

At the downstream city of Clinton, Iowa, a 75-foot section of a cement retaining wall collapsed without warning Tuesday, injuring 15 young volunteer flood workers. The injured ranged in age from 12 to 18.

Mr. Cayer said that it is never possible for bandits to take more regular intervals, and several bank deposits are made during than "two, three, or four hundred the day."

At Marquette, Iowa, the river reached 23 feet Tuesday on the way to a crest of 24.5 feet expected Friday.

Illinois Governor Otto Kerner ordered 45 National Guardsmen to duty. They will patrol river levees in the East Dubuque area, where about 40 homes are surrounded by 15 feet of flood water.

More than 10,000 volunteers, National Guardsmen and Red Cross workers have been working around the clock in Illinois to bolster flood defences between Rock Island on the north and Quincy with 650,000 sandbags.

Forecasters call for two-thirds of the town of 930 residents to be inundated when the Red bulges to its crest Saturday. The same fate awaits Morris, a town of 1,130 residents about 35 miles downstream.

But flooding in Emerson and Morris will likely be less severe than predicted last week. In a revised forecast, Premier Duff Roblin announced Tuesday that the Red will peak lower than first anticipated and will crest a few days later.

The lower crest expectation resulted when water ponded in the Drayton area of North Dakota, 30 miles to the south of Emerson.

Mr. Roblin said a peak of 787 feet above sea level now was expected on the Red at Emerson. Previously a peak of 788 feet was forecast.

At Morris, a crest of 775 feet, down two, was forecast for Sunday. The next day a crest of 22.5 feet above average ice level was expected at Winnipeg.

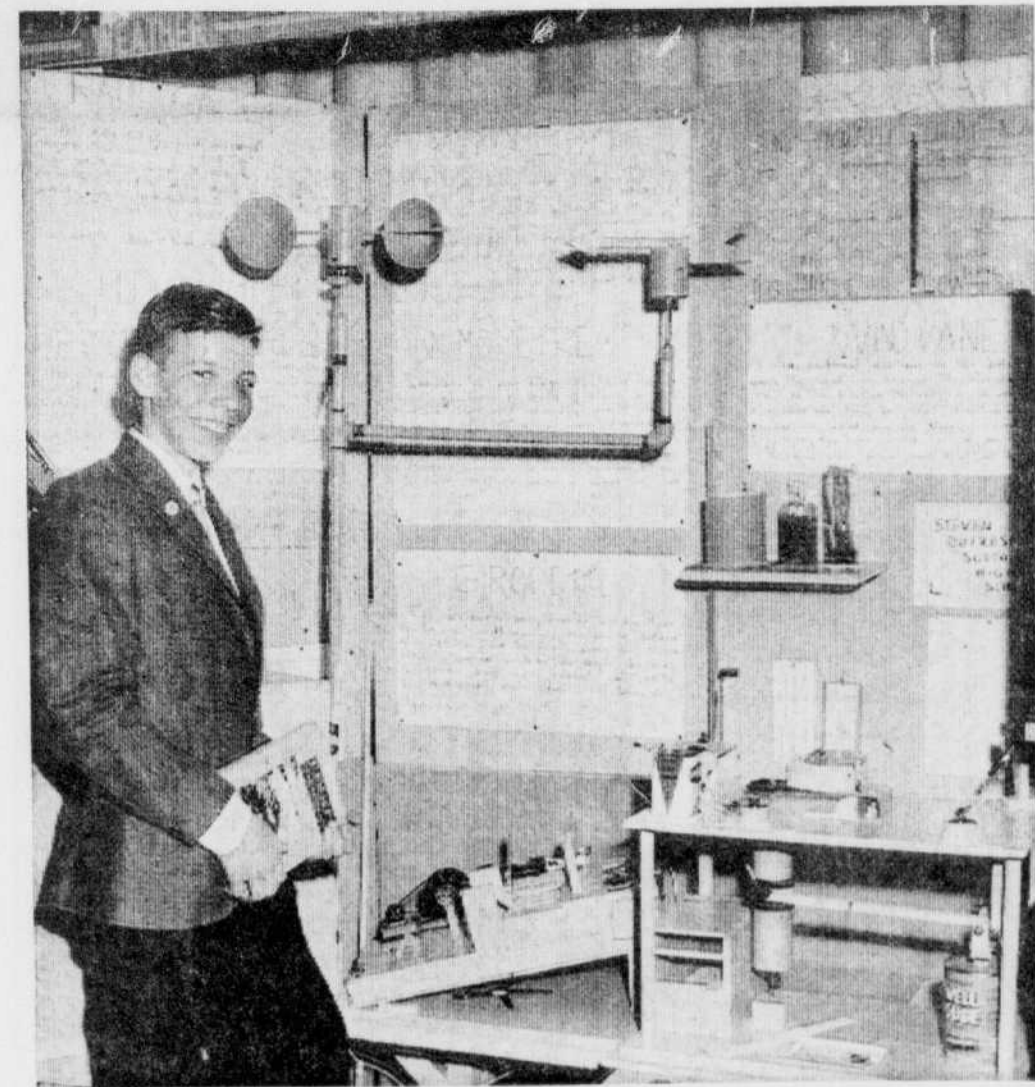

Manitoba authorities revised their forecasts after the United States Weather Bureau did the same. The bureau warned indications are the Red will crest some time Saturday at 49 feet at Pembina, near the Manitoba border.

The revised U.S. estimates shattered optimism in Emerson. Last week Mayor Leonard Careless and a number of people in the town doubted Manitoba forecasts of serious flooding.

WEATHER STATION — Rotary-Richelieu science fair first place winner Steven Dufresne, a 15 year old grade eight student from Sutton High School, is shown as he explained the operation of his weather station to onlookers at the science fair last night. The fair was held in the University of Sherbrooke science building, yesterday.

Sutton student is science fair winner

The winner of this year's regional science fair, 15-year-old Steven Dufresne, of Sutton High School, took over seven months to prepare his project, a weather station.

For the work on his project, Steven was last night awarded first prize in the fair, a cheque for $50, and a berth in the Canada wide science fair to be held in Winnipeg, May 6, 7 and 8.

The third annual regional science fair was sponsored by the Sherbrooke Rotary and Richelieu clubs.

Second and third place winners were Michelle Laprise, 16-year-old grade eleven student from Ecole Leber, Sherbrooke, whose project studied chicken embryology, and Andre Dorais, 16, of College de Victoriaville, whose project studied the transmission of words by light.

Awarded honorable mention was James Arthur Dyer, of Sutton High School, for his study of water waves; Michel Lapointe, of Ecole Alb. L. Heurux, Coaticook, for his study of color-blind white mice; and William Sutton, of Bishop's College School, for his project, effects of stimulants and depressants on the heart beat of the daphnia.

The second prize winner received $40, the third prize winner, $20 and the honorable mentions $15 each.

The second and third place winners are also being sent to Winnipeg.

First place winner Steven Dufresne constructed a recording anemometer, a barograph, wind vane, and all other equipment necessary for the study of the weather, for a total cost of $5,250.

Quebec poses problem in foreign affairs for Paul Martin

OTTAWA (CP) — External Affairs Minister Martin has a new foreign policy problem in—of all places—Canada.

It concerns the assertion by Quebec Education Minister Paul Gerin-Lajoie that the provinces have the right to negotiate international agreements with other countries in fields where the provinces have jurisdiction.

His statement, made before a group of foreign consuls in Montreal, has the external affairs department in a tizzy.

Mr. Martin was asked in the Commons, just before it rose for its Easter recess, whether the federal government recognizes Quebec's right to sign international agreements in the education field.

He replied that he would give an opinion at a later date.

The problem has arisen in the last 18 months. This is the background:

By an exchange of letters in December, 1963, between the French ambassador here and Mr. Martin, the Canadian government assented to a program of exchanges in the industrial and technical field arranged between an association in France and the Quebec youth department and the University of Toronto.

By another exchange of letters in February this year between the French embassy and Mr. Martin, the federal government assented to "an entente or understanding" signed by the Quebec and French ministers of education.

Mr. Martin told the Commons March 1: "Standing alone, these agreements between France and Quebec could not have been regarded as agreements subject to international law."

Mr. Martin said ministries of education and universities in the English-speaking provinces have preferred informal exchange agreements with corresponding institutions in English-speaking countries, particularly Britain and the United States.

However, France preferred to put cultural relations on a formal intergovernmental basis and "this is a fact of international life which the federal government cannot ignore in carrying out its international responsibilities in respect of cultural relations."

The city's business

Ozone or chlorination decision for city water supply put off

For good water use chlorine; for bad water use ozone.

That's the opinion Sherbrooke city council received from Montreal Ecole Polytechnique professor Roger Labonte in a recent letter.

However, the city administration last night postponed decision on whether to chlorinate or "ozone" the drinking water that will be brought in by the Lake Memphremagog pipeline.

Presently city water, drawn from the Magog River, is heavily chlorinated.

When the pipeline is finished, however, the drinking water will be drawn from the much purer Lake Memphremagog.

"It would be superfluous to adopt ozone purification if chlorination does not leave color, taste or odor in the drinking water," said Mr. Labonte.

"However if the water does not take well to the chlorine treatment it would be wise to consider ozonation as a possible solution to a difficult problem."

Equipment for ozone purification would cost the city about $200,000. Chlorination equipment would only cost about $25,000.

Upkeep costs are comparable for both processes — about $6,000 per year.

City council accorded a one-week delay (until April 27) in demolition of the Echenberg Building on Wellington Street North, gutted by fire this year.

The burned-out brick building had been condemned by the city building inspector. On March 8 city council ordered demolition within 30 days.

The building's owner's and insurance agents requested the further one-week delay. Demolition of the structure has not started.

Before the fire the building housed shops and offices, including Le Bottier shoe store.

Thetford youth killed

THETFORD MINES (Staff) — An 18-year-old Thetford Mines youth was struck and killed here last night as he was walking home, Thetford Mines municipal police reported this morning.

Donald A. Vachon, son of Antoine Vachon, 324 Calvet Street, Thetford Mines, was struck by the car of Benoit Paquet, 249 Ninth Street, Thetford Mines, said Thetford Mines Police Chief Gerard Gagne.

The young man was rushed to St. Joseph hospital, here, and died shortly after arrival, said the Chief.

An inquest into the death was to have been conducted this afternoon, or will be held tomorrow, he noted.

Megantic district coroner Jean-Marie Cote was to conduct the inquest, he said.

The accident happened on Smith boulevard, near the youth's home, said Chief Gagne. This was the first fatal accident in Thetford Mines during 1965, the chief noted.

City council decided to call tenders for some 100 wood and metal litter baskets on the recommendation of Ald. Marcel Savard.

Several of the attractive baskets, enclosed in wooden slats, were set up several weeks ago on a trial basis.

The baskets will be installed along Centre and South Ward sidewalks. Thus citizens may deposit rubbish in them and keep the city cleaner.

The city last night passed a $200,000 loan bylaw for hydro and lighting improvements.

The biggest item in the bylaw was a $45,510.01 sum for the purchase of transformers.

The sum of $30,582.14 was designated for purchase and testing of electric meters.

$28,385.48 was set aside for new service lines.

Another $22,748.19 was specified for the setting up of the 13.8 kilovolt St. Hubert hydro sub-station.

The money is to be raised by the sale of two bond issues: a $145,000 ten-year issue and a $55,000 20-year bond issue.

Floating the two bond issues and legal costs are set at $8,975.38.

The city received identical bids for asbestos water pipe from Codere Limited and J. S. Mitchell and so the $6,000 order was divided between them.

The price was $427.64 per hundred feet. There was one other bidder.

A $2,746 order for five types of insulators went to Northern Electric (three types) and Ross-Biron Ltd. (two types).

Eight bids were placed for the contract.

The city also approved purchase of a truck and a station wagon. The truck (a "windo-wan") will be supplied by Brouillard Auto for $2,072.

The station wagon will be bought from DeLuxe Auto for $4,000.

There were five tenders submitted for both truck and station wagon.

City officials also opened bids for a bulldozer and power shovel, and referred them to services director Charles Langlois to check over.

WITH EXTERNAL AFFAIRS — John A. McCordick, left, spoke to the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Branch of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs last night on Trends in Eastern Europe. Since 1943 Mr. McCordick has served in various European posts under the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa. He became Minister to Czechoslovakia in 1960 and Ambassador in 1962. At present he is Head of the Information Division of the

The individual personalities of East European nations emerging

The individual personalities of Eastern European countries are emerging more clearly. In the past they were thought of as a monolithic block — today they are considered more as individual countries having distinctive traditions and personalities.

This development, however, is a slowly evolving thing, John A. McCordick said in an interview at the St. George's Club before speaking to the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Branch of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs last night.

Mr. McCordick is head of the Information Division of the Department of External Affairs in Ottawa. Since joining the department in 1943, he has served in many European posts.

Eastern European countries including Poland, Hungary, Russia, Czechoslovakia have formed an economic organization of their own, COMACON, within which they trade amongst themselves. The countries also trade with the European Common Market, Mr. McCordick said.

Russia's size and economic strength gives it a role of prominence in this organization.

Each country, however, has an equal role in COMACON he explained.

After serving in the Canadian Army during World War II Mr. McCordick was third Secretary at Kuibyshev, Russia, then second Secretary in Berlin, Prague and Belgrade.

He has since been posted in Madrid, Rhodesia and Nyasaland until becoming Minister to Czechoslovakia in 1960 and Ambassador in 1962.

Every diplomat constantly projects the face of his country to the nation which he is in, Mr. McCordick said. This is also the function of the Information Division of the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa.

Waterville water vote is extended

WATERVILLE — (Staff) — Voting was extended for a second day today, as the property owners of this town went to vote yesterday to decide whether to approve a by-law authorizing a $150,000 bond issue to finance the construction of a water supply pipeline from Lake Massawippi to the Town, a town official said today.

Only 148 out of 208 property owners voted yesterday, but there was not a majority in favor, Waterville secretary-treasurer Jules Gervais told the Record.

He said voting was to continue all day, and possibly tomorrow until enough citizens have voted to reach a 51 per cent majority of votes for the bond issue.

ETAA, sport centre plans progressing

The project to sell the Sherbrooke ETAA fairgrounds to the city seems to be going ahead — and with it Mayor Armand Nadeau's project for a new sports centre.

The information was revealed by Mayor Nadeau yesterday following a meeting between city officials and Eastern Townships Agricultural Association directors.

"There was agreement on all points," he said.

The directors will call a meeting of ETAA shareholders in the next few weeks, he said. If in favour of selling their shares to the city at $50 each they will give association secretary Eugene Lamontagne their names, he added.

Once a majority of the shares are signed over to the city the ETAA will be city property.

Mayor Nadeau said he was confident that the majority of shareholders would approve the sale. Association directors have put the question to the shareholders. Holders of 1,000 shares favoured the sale while holders of only 300 shares were against it, he explained.

In all there are about 1,700 shares in the ETAA, he estimated.

Mayor Nadeau told reporters that he would present the sports centre project to city council next Monday. "The project should please all Sherbrooke sports fans," he said.

"At present further details cannot be revealed," he intimated. "The financing formula for the project is still being worked out."

Mayor Nadeau did add that there would be no raising of the sales tax to finance the sports arena project. "This is out of the question," he declared.

Last year the mayor had suggested a temporary hike in the city sales tax as a possible means to finance the sports centre. Raising the tax from six to seven per cent would, in a year or two, provide ample funds for its construction, he had noted.

After the city buys the ETAA fairgrounds it will take charge of the arena and other fairground activities with the exception of the fairs.

The ETAA will be given a new charter by which it will be allowed to continue holding the spring fair and cattle show, officials.

Present at the meeting were, besides Mayor Nadeau, aldermen Marcel Savard, Everett, Nicol, Robert Gauthier and Felix Thibault. The ETAA was represented by president Len O'Donnell and several other officials.

News flashes from around the world

TORONTO (CP) — Trinidad's new high commissioner in Canada said Tuesday Canadian who drink rum may think they are getting exotic Caribbean liquor but they may really be sipping a watered-down Canadian version.

Donald G. Granado told a press conference that shrinking Trinidad rum exports lead his government to believe Canadian distillers are using domestic alcohol in products advertised as West Indian rum.

In Ontario liquor stores, rums blended in Canada are so identified and are listed separately, but some of their names contain references to the West Indies.

Mr. Granado said Trinidad rum exports had dropped to 65,000 proof gallons in 1963 from 102,000 in 1950.

Distillery spokesmen said all liquor labels have to be approved by federal officials so there is little chance a domestic rum could be passed off as West Indian.

MONTREAL (CP) — Quebec Court of Appeals has ordered a new trial for Andre Lavoie, sentenced to 14 years in prison on a conviction of taking part in a robbery in Mont Laurier, Que., in December, 1961.

Three of the five judges of the court found Tuesday that the Crown introduced illegal evidence at Lavoie's trial.

Mr. Justice Roger Brossard, in his summation, noted that a provincial policeman had testified at the trial that at least one of two other persons arrested had been convicted and sentenced to 15 years.

"This was in itself radically illegal evidence without being completed by legal proof establishing that the accused was a friend of the other two men," Mr. Justice Brossard said.

The robbery occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henriot Grenier in Mont Laurier. Lavoie maintained that he was elsewhere at the time.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican daily L'Osservatore Romano, in an article entitled The Eclipse of the Oscar, criticizes the annual Hollywood awards as increasingly based on the commercial success of a winning film.

Singled out particularly is the choice of the Italian movie Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow for this year's award as best foreign-American film. It stars Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni.

"We are ever at the level of the spectacular quality, or at least of an industrial evaluation of the cinematographic product," L'Osservatore says.

"Esthetic values do not enter into the game, in the Oscar, except occasionally in an entirely secondary way."

"An Oscar for Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow is a prize that by itself could disqualify an entire organization (the Motion Picture Academy). If we did not already know that it (an Oscar) carries no weight."

CARBONAR, Nfld. (CP) — The sealer Kyle arrived here late Tuesday with 11,000 seal pelts and her hull showing the wear of more than a month in the icefields off the coast of Labrador.

The Kyle, owned by Earle Freighting Services here, is the last of the coal-burning ships taking part in the annual hunt. She was forced to return to her home port before the other sealers because she was running short on coal.

The Kyle received heavy damage to one side of her hull in a bout with a huge iceberg.

MONTREAL (CP) — Gerard Laganiere, special officer of the Quebec attorney-general's department, asked for and received permission Tuesday to lead a private meeting of specialists for an exchange of opinions on the cause of an apartment block explosion in suburban Lasalle March 1 which cost 28 lives.

"We are striving to have all facts bare," said Mr. Laganiere. "It is the attorney-general's intention, and that of Municipal Affairs Minister Pierre Laporte, that this inquiry be the most thorough on record."

The specialists meeting is to take place Friday afternoon. The inquiry on the explosion was adjourned Tuesday night until Thursday.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Jordanian and Israeli patrols exchanged fire Tuesday on Mount Scopus, while thousands of Easter pilgrims watched the half-hour fight. No casualties were reported.

A United Nations order to cease fire ended the skirmish. Mount Scopus is a demilitarized Israeli enclave in the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem.

A Jordan army spokesman said a seven-man Israeli patrol opened fire when it was challenged by an observation post as the Israelis entered a prohibited area.

An Israeli spokesman said Jordan troops fired first on an Israeli police group on a routine inspection.

QUEBEC (CP) — Marcel Casavan, Quebec deputy minister of finance, said Tuesday Quebec citizens will not receive as great a tax cut as other Canadians if Finance Minister Gordon announces personal income tax reductions for 1965.

He said the reason stems from Quebec's opting out formula. The federal government now collects 58 per cent of Quebec personal income and 79 per cent in other provinces.

A top politician quits politics to don the white of a holy man

BOMBAY (CP)—The impossible has happened. A top politician has given up politics, power, ambition, position, wealth. In short, he has renounced the world.

He is Bachittar Singh, the 68-year-old mayor of New Delhi and one of India's most respected politicians.

"I have had enough of the rough and tumble of politics," said the bearded, handsome Sikh who looks every inch a patriarch. "The time has come to serve God and suffering humanity."

Hindu, Christian, Moslem and Sikh priests attended a brief ceremony at Singh's bungalow as he formally donned the white robes of a "sadhu" (holy man) to begin his new life.

For nearly four decades Singh was an active member of the ruling Congress Party. He was a close confidant of Gandhi and former Prime Minister Nehru. His high standards of political behaviour won for him the popular title of "bawa" or "man of saintly principles."

As president of the New Delhi Chamber of Commerce for 25 years and member of the executive committee of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry, the country's highest business or ganization, Singh crusaded for healthy trade practices.

During the recent Indian food crisis, he threw his weight on the side of the Shastri government in curbing blackmarketing and profiteering in essential commodities.

As councillor of the New Delhi Municipal Corporation and later as mayor of the national capital, Singh turned over his salary and allowances to the ruling party's fund.

His home has now been converted into an "ashram," or monastery. All are welcome to the early morning and evening prayers but politics is strictly taboo.

Singh said he hopes other Indian politicians will follow his example. "The country," he said, "can do well with fewer politicians. It is suffering from a surfeit of arid political controversies."

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

New and appetizing, too. The undefined status of a toddler presents some problems to the mother. Neither all baby nor fully developed child, he needs more attention than the stay-puby baby. Since he tries more things, there are bound to be more frustrations. Then too, the pressure to learn good behaviour, plus the need to assert himself, make the toddler a bit unruly. Ways to ease these normal "growing pains":

• Extra tenderness to offset frustrations... extra patience at seeming perversity... extra guidance in all phases of development.

Appetite delights for busy sprites. Year-olds' appetites may lag a bit, primarily because the growth rate slows down. Easy way to continued meal-appeal... serve Gerber Junior Foods and serve 'em in goodly variety. Their extra-special goodness stems from the fact that they're "custom-cooked" to help preserve nourishing food values and natural colours and flavours. Seasoning is added with a knowing hand to suit a toddler's taste.

Nursery cue for you-know-who. A gallon plastic ice cream container, covered with gay wallpaper or contact paper, makes a nice wastebasket for the nursery. Good way to help teach your toddler to pick up scraps after a round of paper-playing.

Winning combinations for active toddlers: Gerber Junior Dinners. These special "casserole" dishes are especially delicious because they combine vegetables, cereal and meat for flavour to spare. There are such extra-special delectables as Chicken Noodle with Vegetables and Spaghetti with Tomato Sauce and Beef. And these are just two of twelve good-tasting Gerber choices. Gerber Baby Foods, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Crack down on drinking drivers

SWEETSBURG WARD — Court officials here, cracked down hard Tuesday on men who appeared before the Court of Sessions on charges of driving while their faculties were impaired by alcohol. Driving permits were suspended for three months to three years, with fines ranging up to $100 and court costs.

Edward Miller, of Bedford, had his permit suspended for three years and was sentenced to a fine of $100; in default of payment, one month in prison. Miller pleaded guilty to the charge and it was brought out in court that he was well known in local crime circles. He had been sentenced to three months on a charge of armed robbery in an Ontario court not long ago.

Crown Prosecutor Claude Noiseux requested that he be sentenced to a fine of $200.

When arrested, said Mr. Noiseux, there were a lot of empty beer bottles along with full ones on both the back and front seats of the car.

Charles Hurdle of Granby was sentenced to a fine of $100 and court costs and his driving permit was suspended for a period of one year when he pleaded guilty to a charge of impaired driving.

Hurdle admitted to the court that he had been driving while his permit was under suspension and that he had been sentenced on two other occasions on the same charge. The present incident occurred on April 17, at Granby.

Clement Charest of Granby was sentenced to a fine of $50 and court costs and his permit was suspended for three months. He pleaded guilty to the charge of impaired driving which resulted in an accident. He had no previous record.

Arthur Premont of Brome was sentenced to a fine of $50 and his permit was suspended for one year.

Premont, who had a previous offence, pleaded guilty to driving in Cowansville while his faculties were impaired.

Lloyd Crandall, who was brought before the court on a hit and run charge as well, was sentenced to $50 and costs on each of the two charges and his permit was suspended for one year. The incident occurred in Cowansville on April 9 of this year. He had one previous offence of impaired driving, he admitted, when questioned in court.

Gerard Guy Riendeau, a United States citizen, who was to have appeared Tuesday on a charge of impaired driving, failed to appear and was charged with default.

Germain Breaud, of St. Jean was sentenced to a fine of $50 and costs. His permit was suspended for a period of three months.

Antonio Denarzo of St. Jean pleaded not guilty to the charge against him and his hearing was set for May 3.

He is accused of driving while his faculties were impaired at St. Ignace de Stanbridge.

Denis Lauzier, an American citizen, pleaded guilty to the charge against him, which also involved his smashing into two parked cars. One car was a total loss and the second was damaged to the extent of $400.

He was sentenced to a fine of $50 and court costs and had his permit suspended for six months.

Herve Lacharite of 319 Brooks Street, Sherbrooke, was sentenced to $50 and costs and his driving permit was cancelled for three months. He pleaded guilty to committing the offence at Granby.

A Cowansville man was sentenced to two months in prison yesterday morning on a charge of theft with violence and to another two months, on a charge of false representation involving the passing of a false cheque. The second sentence is to be served concurrent with the first.

The accused, Andre Delisle, 25, of Cowansville had originally pleaded not guilty and was to have appeared this morning for his preliminary hearing. Prior to appearing Tuesday morning, however, he changed his plea. The trial was held in Court of Sessions.

He had been detained in prison a total of 16 days prior to appearing for sentencing Tuesday, it was learned in court.

Claude Noiseux, Crown Prosecutor, asked for a severe sentence for Delisle, saying, "We can't have these kind of goings on, young men attacking people on the street, such as in this case, and such as that which happened here in Cowansville over the past weekend."

Mr. Noiseux was referring to the robbery at the Claude Pagerie home on Good Friday. Mr. Pagerie and his wife were robbed of well over $15,000 in cash, rolls of collector's coins, old bank notes, and family jewelry.

The false cheque was made out for the amount of $25. Delisle who through his lawyer promised to refund this amount, was sentenced to two months for the offence. The two months are to be served concurrently with the first.

Rivard Simard and Real Auger, both of Granby, pleaded not guilty in Court of Sessions Tuesday to charges of theft of a bulldozer, battery and property damage.

Real Auger, 2 St. Charles Street, North, Granby, pleaded not guilty on both counts and is to appear for his hearing May 3 at 2 p.m. He was released on $200 bail.

Simard, who had just been released from prison that morning, chose to plead not guilty and his preliminary hearing was tentatively set for next week and to proceed May 3. His bail was set at $500 cash or $950 on property.

The two men are accused of stealing a battery from a bulldozer at St. Cecile De Milton and of causing an estimated $100 damage to the vehicle.

A Farnham man pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying offensive weapons on his person in public. He was sentenced to a fine of $25 and court costs. His weapons were confiscated.

Daniel Guerin, of Farnham, who was arrested by police for carrying a revolver and a switch-knife with a six inch blade, proved to the satisfaction of the crown that he had no ill-intent in mind.

Guerin had no previous record before the courts.

A Granby man, father of 14 children, pleaded guilty in Sweetsburg Ward Court of Sessions Tuesday to a charge of simple assault. He was sentenced to a fine of $200. In default of payment he will be liable to a two month term in prison.

Armand Jalbert, of R.R. 4, Granby committed assault upon Pierre Prive, of Granby. Mr. Prive received an eye injury and a quantity of furniture was damaged, police said.

The incident occurred on April 17 at Granby.

Paul Rocheleau, of no given address, was sentenced to a fine of $200 and court costs on a charge of Federal Income tax evasion.

Rocheleau was accused of collecting income tax from his employees and for failing to report it to the government. In default of payment the penalty is three months in prison.

Clement Gauthier, of Montreal, was sentenced to a fine of $25 and was required to post a $500 bond to keep the peace for one year, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assault.

Gauthier was accused of committing assault to the person of Gilles Lussier, on April 10, at Farnham. Lussier sustained serious lacerations in the attack, police testified.

Jean Marc Gariepy, of Frost Village, was sentenced to a fine of $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty Tuesday morning to a minor traffic infraction. The incident took place on a road near Foster, police said.

Cowansville police suspect

Bandit's headpiece found

COWANSVILLE — (Staff) — A black knitted skier's head piece and a silk stocking, suspected by police to be those used in the robbery of the Claude Pagerie Coin Shop and home on Good Friday, were found by a neighbor of Mr. Pagerie's Sunday afternoon on his front lawn.

A third man had worn a white bandana across his face, said Mr. Pagerie.

The articles were found by T. Boucher of 113 Church Street.

Mr. Boucher said on Monday morning, "When I saw them on the lawn from my window I thought they were just pieces of rags which had blown on my lawn and I went out to pick them up."

"On closer examination though, I saw that the black piece was a knitted headpiece with eye holes," he said.

Mr. Boucher then turned them over to the police, he said.

Mr. Boucher said he did not see them on his lawn Sunday morning and thinks they must have been tossed into his hedge in front of the house. Later the wind blew them onto his lawn, he said.

Late Friday night, following the robbery of Mr. Pagerie, the three bandits put all their loot in Mr. Pagerie's car, which they had parked in the back of his house near the rear entrance. When they were ready to leave the trio found that the car was mired up to the fenders in mud, police said.

The bandits then passed the container of money and jewelry over the back fence, carried it through the neighbor's yard and out onto Church Street where police suspect they had a car waiting. Mr. Boucher's house is near the outlet to Church Street.

In another section of town around the time of the robbery a man stopped at the B.A. Service Station at 202 South Street and asked George Larocque, the proprietor, if there was a store nearby that was in the market for buying old money.

"I told him that Claude Pagerie up the street did and told him to look for the sign, Studio Eclair," said Mr. Larocque.

"The man was tall, fairly husky and wore a blue raincoat. I did not see the color of his hair as he was wearing a soft hat. He was driving a 1963 Mercury which was a golden brown color. The time was somewhere between 9 p.m. and 9:30.

Constable Phelps of the RCMP, who is stationed in Montreal, was with me. He could see the car better than I and he took down the licence number," said Mr. Larocque.

The Municipal police in their investigation found foot prints beneath a living room window of the Pagerie house, indicating that the bandits had been there for some time observing those inside and looking the room over, police said.

The investigation is being carried out under the direction of Constable Arthur Jacques of the Municipal Police.

U.C.W. holds busy meeting at Way's Mills

WAY'S MILLS — The United Church Women met at the home of Mrs. W. N. Horn, on April 13 with Miss Gertrude MacDonald as hostess.

Mrs. G. H. Cass read from the Bible and the president, Mrs. H. C. Mayhew, read from The Syrian Christ.

This was followed by another Easter reading and a poem, each reading a portion of the poem and all joining in the chorus.

The treasurer's report showed a good balance on hand. The report from the Work Shop indicated that there had been a good attendance and much interest had been manifested in the work.

Mrs. Leslie Call, convener of work, reported that a parcel of material had been received and had already been prepared for the workers.

As usual a bale of good used clothing will be sent to the Toronto Depot in June for use overseas, wherever needed. House cleaning is a good time to sort out articles that may be contributed. These should be sent to Mrs. G. H. Cass, who has charge of this part of the work. A call for used nylon stockings has been made and these too will be sent at the same time.

A letter expressing appreciation will be sent to the secretary of the Eastern Township Ministerial Association for the series of articles I Was There, which have appeared in the Sherbrooke Record during the Lenten Season.

A contribution of $15 was made toward the expense of The Bulletin that is sent out each month. This is in addition to contributions made by individual members.

Flowers were placed in the Church for the Good Friday and Sunday services.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leslie Call on May 12.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Belgian business good minus Congo but some interests still remain

BRUSSELS (AP)—Most Belgians, according to their own officials, have written The Congo right out of their lives—but a small number still fight for interests there.

The Congo is not all that important to Belgium in terms of money. The rising wealth of the European Common Market has begun to take such a huge share of Belgian business that trade with The Congo is only a pocketful by comparison.

It is with Belgium and The Congo much as it is with Holland and its former colony, Indonesia. Without it, the Dutch are doing nicely and largely for the same reason, the Common Market.

What is important to Belgium is that The Congo has given it a sort of world outlook. That chunk of Africa is so rich in resources that 50 years of active development have hardly touched it.

Today's investments in The Congo don't yield the same sort of income that new investments bring in Belgium itself. Belgium's own factories are paying dividends, producing things for the rest of Europe, including Communist states, and other parts of the world.

Exports climbed from $270,000,000 a month in 1959, the year before The Congo's liberation, to $400,000,000 a month in 1963. Exports to the Common Market absorbed about half of this.

By contrast, exports to The Congo fell from $7,500,000 a month in 1959 to about $4,000,000 a month in 1963. That is barely one per cent of Belgium's exports.

Nevertheless separation from The Congo hit many people in Belgium. Many Congo stock values have fallen to about one-tenth of what they were in 1960 when the Belgian government announced it was liberating the African colony.

Despite the civil war and rebel raiding, the great industrial centre around Elisabethville has continued operating effectively, with Belgians running the factories and mines.

Clearly the Belgians are staking their hopes on Moise Tshombe, who was an official in The Congo before the liberation and now is the premier.

Two Montreal power play goals and solid checks ground Hawks

There'll be a hot time in Woodstock tonight

WOODSTOCK, Ont. (CP) — It'll be a heads-up hockey game here tonight between Woodstock Athletics and Sherbrooke Beavers.

Sherbrooke, leading 1-0 in their best-of-seven Eastern Canada senior final, have complained about the Athletics' rough play and Woodstock will be playing up to Sherbrooke's expectations.

Sherbrooke forward Jean Levesque said following his team's 5-2 opening game victory:

"They use their sticks too much. We are not yellow, but any player can only take so much."

Little League's Red Sox practice called for Sat.; all are welcome

Red Sox of Little League will hold its first 1965 practice at Ecole Racine park, on Galt St. West, next Saturday, April 24.

Manager Harry Kouri extends an invitation to all boys 11 years of age and 12 years of age, to come out and try to win a berth on his team. The Red Sox has already its full quota of 10 year olds, but any boy of that age is welcome to the practice, as he could qualify for next year.

Red Sox won the pennant last year and also were the playoff winners. Little League provides excellent recreation for a boy during the summer months. The Optimist Club who sponsor the team are anxious to carry on the tradition of being helpful to any youth movement, and their Little League Ball Team is given full scope to make the season as entertaining as possible for all members of team.

Manager Harry Kouri says the boys will play in 21 league games, and that he has every hope of fielding a team that will make the playoffs, which will mean another three or four games. The team has a regular practice each week.

All these activities enable the young boys to get a good season of instruction in the fundamentals of baseball and sportsmanship.

Mr. Kouri will be assisted by Amedee Roy as coach again this season.

REMEMBER WHEN...

Pep Leadley, Queen's University football star, signed with the Big Four's Hamilton Tigers 40 years ago today—in 1925. Canada's outstanding drop-kicker, Leadley became as important to Tigers as he had been to the Tricolor team which won the college championship in 1922, 1923, and 1924.

Other Sherbrooke players accused Woodstock of carrying their sticks like headhunters closing in on their prey.

Woodstock player-coach Ted Power denied the charges, but added:

"If they think that we used the sticks in an incorrect manner, just wait until tonight's game."

'PLAY ROUGH'

Levesque said Gus Morton uses his stick a lot along the boards.

"He gave us trouble and is a good player, but I don't like a player who plays rough all the time. We can play rough too."

Morton, who led the National Hockey League in penalties four times during a 13-year big-league career, said his team's style is still hockey.

"Maybe they think it's a joke but it isn't," said Morton, an NHL All-Star 15 years ago with Toronto Maple Leafs. "I can watch out for these guys. I've done all right so far. I don't think they are out for trouble."

The series shifts to Sherbrooke for games Friday, Sunday and, if necessary, Monday.

Atlanta defeated Syracuse Chiefs 8-5 Monday, while Columbus Jets defeated Toronto 8-7 to leave the Leafs with two losses after five starts.

Elsewhere, Jacksonville Suns defeated Rochester Red Wings 6-3, and Toledo Mud Hens shut out Buffalo Bisons 5-0.

Atlanta touched five Syracuse pitchers for 14 hits. Woody Woodward collected three hits, while Bill Robinson, Don Dillard and Gene Stephens had two each.

The Crackers got off to a fast start, scoring five runs on six hits.

Pancho Herrera spotted a near-perfect comeback for the Leafs, scoring the winning run with a double to left centre in the bottom of the ninth.

The Leafs, trailing 7-0 after six innings, had tied the count over the next three, collecting five hits including homers by Tony Horton and Bill Milinis.

Tom Dukes scattered five hits to lead Toledo to victory, while the Mud Hens scored all five runs in the fifth inning. Four of the runs were unearned.

Dodgers' Spahn pitches the proof that he has a major league future

Warren Spahn, who celebrates his 44th birthday Friday, gave further evidence Tuesday night that he still has a future in major league baseball.

In making his second start of the season, the winningest southpaw in major league history allowed only one earned run in a 3-2 victory over Los Angeles Dodgers that brought him his first triumph as a New York Met and the 357th of his career.

That left Spahn with a sparkling 2.12 earned-run average and two steps closer toward his prime 1965 goal—"erasing the memory of last year when everything went bad for me."

Spahn, who won 23 games for Milwaukee Braves in 1963, plummeted to a 6-13 mark last season with a 5.28 e.r.a. But he never once assumed he was over the hill.

"I am sound physically," he said during spring training. "I just wasn't pitching enough last year. I have to work regularly to be effective."

"You can't convince me you go from middle age to old age in one year."

HAD SHUTOUT GOING

He proved his point against the Dodgers, working into the ninth with a four-hit shutout.

Then a single by Wes Parker and an error by Ed Kranepool opened the door and the Dodgers stuck their foot in it with run - producing singles by Tommy Davis and John Roseboro.

But with the tying and winning runs on first and third, Spahn struck out Jim Lefebvre for strikeout No. 2,500 of his career, got Ron Fairly on a grounder and struck out John Kennedy.

Elsewhere, Roberto Clemente, still underweight from a battle with malaria this spring, drove in two runs with a pair of singles in Pittsburgh Pirates' 3-1 victory over San Francisco Giants and Philadelphia Phillies edged Houston Astros 2-1 in 13 innings on Ruben Amaro's key single. The other clubs were not scheduled.

Atlanta defeated Syracuse Chiefs 8-5 Monday, while Columbus Jets defeated Toronto 8-7 to leave the Leafs with two losses after five starts.

Elsewhere, Jacksonville Suns defeated Rochester Red Wings 6-3, and Toledo Mud Hens shut out Buffalo Bisons 5-0.

Atlanta touched five Syracuse pitchers for 14 hits. Woody Woodward collected three hits, while Bill Robinson, Don Dillard and Gene Stephens had two each.

The Crackers got off to a fast start, scoring five runs on six hits.

Pancho Herrera spotted a near-perfect comeback for the Leafs, scoring the winning run with a double to left centre in the bottom of the ninth.

The Leafs, trailing 7-0 after six innings, had tied the count over the next three, collecting five hits including homers by Tony Horton and Bill Milinis.

Tom Dukes scattered five hits to lead Toledo to victory, while the Mud Hens scored all five runs in the fifth inning. Four of the runs were unearned.

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal Canadiens used two power play goals and a solid checking effort to blank Chicago Black Hawks 2-0 Tuesday night and move two games in front in their Stanley Cup hockey final.

A forum crowd of 14,438 saw Canadiens completely outplay the disorganized and injury-weakened Hawks to head toward the third game of the best-of-seven final Thursday night in Chicago with a well-deserved 2-0 lead.

Goals by Jean Beliveau in the second period and Dickie Duff in the third, both while Chicago was playing a man short, provided the margin of victory.

They raised to 14 the number of power play goals Canadiens have scored since the playoffs began. They got 11 in a six-game semi-final against Toronto Maple Leafs and one in Saturday night's 3-2 win in the opening game of this series.

At the other end of the rink Lorne (Gump) Worsley recorded his first playoff shutout by handling 18 shots.

It was one of the easiest whitewashes the ex-New York Ranger ever had as Canadiens, dogging their checks every step, gave the Hawks few real scoring opportunities.

TIED AND LISTLESS

Chicago, which went seven tough games to eliminate Detroit Red Wings in their semi-final, appeared tired and listless. They were without defenceman-captain Pierre Pilote and right-winger Kenny Wharram for the second straight game and obviously missed the fire and dash they provided.

Bobby Hull, the Hawks' blond bomber who scored eight goals against Detroit, was blanked again by "shadow" Claude Provost. Hull managed four shots on goals in this one—compared with only one Saturday night—but he had little of the room to roam he usually is able to find.

After a scoreless first period, during which Montreal outshot the visitors 11-5, Beliveau gave Canadiens the only goal they needed at 2:55 of the second.

It came only 45 seconds after Chicago defenceman Doug Jarvis went off for holding. Provost dropped the puck back to rookie Noel Beard who let fly a screened shot from the blue line. It never reached the net, but the puck rolled loose to Beliveau who whirled and fired a 15-foot backhand past Glenn Hall into the net.

The performance increased Mantilla's 1965 output to a .368 batting average, two homers and 10 runs batted in. No one else in the AL has more than seven RBI while only Tony Conigliaro, hitting .556, has a better average with Boston.

LEAD THE LEAGUE

Mantilla's slugging has helped the Red Sox to four victories in their first five games and the AL lead.

Acquired from New York Mets for the 1963 season, Mantilla burst forth last year as a power hitter, reaching career highs of 30 home runs and 64 runs batted in. His .289 average was second best in his nine-year career.

While he was compiling his lustrous record, Mantilla was moving all over the Boston defence. He played at all three outfield posts, second base, shortstop and third base.

This year, however, manager Billy Herman decided Mantilla would remain at second base.

The Red Sox went out today to try and continue their winning ways, a mannerism they weren't expected to possess this season. They were scheduled to play Chicago White Sox in one of four afternoon games.

The other three involved the league's final home openers—Kansas City Athletics at Detroit Tigers, Los Angeles Angels at Cleveland Indians and Minnesota Twins at New York Yankees. Baltimore Orioles were scheduled to play Washington in a night game.

THE WINNER — Jean Beliveau (right), captain of the Montreal Canadiens, holds his stick high in a victory gesture after scoring his second-period goal against Chicago Black Hawks. The goal turned out to be the winner in the second period.

Rival coaches agree on opinion that other guys commit mayhem

SCORERS — Jean Beliveau (right), team captain of the Montreal Canadiens, has his arm on the shoulder of Dick Duff following Montreal's 2-0 victory over Chicago Black Hawks Tuesday in Montreal, giving Canadiens a 2-0 lead in the Stanley Cup finals. Beliveau scored in the second period and Duff in the third.

MONTREAL (CP) — In the opposite assessments of rival coaches, some Montreal and Chicago players hook and slash constantly—and both get away with it.

The criticism came out in the dressing rooms following Tuesday night's second game of the Stanley Cup final series.

The Canadiens won 2-0 to take a two-game lead into the third game of the best-of-seven final Thursday night against the Black Hawks at Chicago.

Hab coach Toe Blake claimed his Canadiens are "getting" to Bobby Hull, the Hawks' golden boy.

"Someone is getting to him, the way he's hooking and slashing and getting away with it," Blake said.

Within earshot was Claude Provost, assigned to shadow Hull. Provost has done the job so well that Hull has been able to muster only five shots on goal—one in the first game and four in the second.

HAS LONE ASSIST

Hull, an eight-goal scorer in the team's semi-final win over Detroit, has only one assist against Montreal.

Asked about Montreal's close checking in the two games, Chicago coach Billy Reay replied: "It would be all right if they were checking legally."

He raised bent arms to demonstrate to reporters.

"When it's checking like this, it's hooking. Nothing else."

Someone asked if he meant Provost. "I didn't say him," he replied.

Hull admitted Provost has meant the difference so far in his play. "He sticks pretty close to me, eh? He's a hell of a good skater, strong and dedicated."

Provost's two games against Hull have to be the best," said Blake. "I just hope he can keep it up, but I think he can."

Reay was still optimistic despite the loss. His Hawks were also behind 2-0 after the first two games of their Detroit series. He predicted the series will go the full seven games.

Official opening of renovated Border store marks progress

DERBY LINE — Caswell and O'Rourke's, one of the oldest businesses in the Village, held the official opening of its new and expanded facilities April 8 through 10, to mark a new step in its progress. Members of the families concerned in the business were hosts and hostesses and served coffee and doughnuts to the customers and visitors.

The past year has seen many changes in the business with the sale of the White Store to the Derby Line National Bank, and the purchase of Bailey Feed mill, located on the Quebec Central Railroad, from the E. W. Bailey Co. Recent renovations in the general store, included moving the office to the back of the long building, to allow additional floor space for merchandise, as well as an enlarged meat department.

In 1890 Fred T. Caswell purchased the present building from George and Sarah Carpenter. In 1907 T. F. O'Rourke purchased an interest in the business from Mr. Caswell and in 1911 the corporation was formed to be known as The Caswell and O'Rourke Store Company, for the purpose of doing a general mercantile business. This also included the Daylight Store and White Store. The principal officers were Mr. Caswell and Mr. O'Rourke, Harry N. Rickard, and Reading W. Darby, grandfather of Robert Darby, now president of the corporation.

In 1920 the corporation was converted to a partnership. Upon the death of R. W. Darby in 1924, a new partnership with John L. Converse, R. Walter Cairns, and Cyril R. Darby, father of Robert Darby, as new partners, with Mr. Rickard and Mr. O'Rourke, was formed.

In 1929, B. E. Lewis, now of Barton, became a partner in the firm, until he retired in 1947. Mr. Darby, known as Cy, served the business and communities until his death in 1956.

The partnership was converted back to a corporation in 1957. The officers of this corporation are: Robert Darby, president, who returned to Derby Line after three years in the U.S. Army and joined the business in 1946.

C. Fayne Hovey, vice-president of the corporation, came to work for the business in 1929; Dalton Downing, treasurer, served three years in the U.S. navy and came to work for the firm in 1948.

The president, Robert Darby, remarks that Caswell and O'Rourke's have been very fortunate to have so many faithful employees, who have served loyally over the years. To mention all would be impossible, but among them are Miss Alice Gilmore, bookkeeper for many years, Miss Arline Richard, Mrs. Caroline Therrien, Mrs. Effie Gray, and the late Mrs. Mamie Aldrich, Mrs. Edna Stevens, Mrs. Francis Gagnon and Ben Hazen.

The store now features a complete line of groceries, meats, hardware, building materials, coal, housewares, gifts, ladies' apparel, shoes, a complete line of baby items, electrical appliances, televisions and radios.

Miss Gabrielle Labelle and Miss Juliette Pincosneault were in Montreal recently to attend an exhibition of books which was held at the Palais de Commerce.

Decadent twist preferred

MOSCOW (CP)—The twist, in the opinion of the Soviet government, is the invention of a decadent capitalist society.

Much fretful attention is being devoted to the problem of developing attractive, distinctively Russian dances for young folk.

It doesn't seem to be working. Teen-agers still prefer the twist and dance it anyway, especially in centres away from Moscow where the influence of cultural and morality commissars is not so pervasive.

"Young people want improvisation and novelty," wrote a correspondent in the newspaper Vechernyaya Moskva (Evening Moscow). "That is why the twist is knocking at the doors of dance halls."

The writer, E. Ivanova, made a startling admission, however, considering the disrepute in which the Western dance craze has long been held in official circles here. "We are not against the twist, especially if it is nicely danced."

At the same time she bemoaned the fact that the native dance, the terkon, had failed to find much response among Russians.

The terkon is danced to 3-2 music and has this basic format: one step left, one step right, pause, quick steps left-right. The dancers are supposed to throw in their own variations.

The terkon received a prize in an all-Russian competition for new dances and has attracted a certain amount of attention abroad.

NEEDS PROMOTION

Explaining the fact that the terkon hasn't really caught on here, Miss Ivanova said there had been a failure to "bring the dance to the people."

"Did you ever see a Soviet dance in a movie? No. Have you seen a bright book on a Soviet dance? Published by military, trade union and metallurgical publishing houses, (dance books) are so dull as to remind one of instructions on how to use insecticides."

A letter to the newspaper Soviet Culture from a drama student complained that Russian dances have "no rhythm and no original movements." This, it said, is why young people prefer the twist or just marking time — a way many Soviet youths have of languidly swaying but scarcely moving on the dance floor.

Ironically, one of the bastions of Soviet culture may have been responsible for the popularity of the twist.

A few years ago the famed Moiseyev dance company added to its repertoire a number called "Dance of the Monkeys." It was supposed to satirize the twist.

NOT ENOUGH — Creamy root beer and juicy hamburgers are not enough for some A & W Restaurant customers. They'd like to take home with them one of the transparent thick-glassed mugs. And some try too. But this restaurant has some unique ways of discouraging would-be pilferers. Head car hostess Greta Dorne is shown serving a customer root beer and orange in the popular A & W mugs.

Stealing mugs at drive-in can be risky business

By BARBARA STEVENSON
(Record staff reporter)

For some customers at the A & W Drive-In Restaurant in Sherbrooke creamy root beer isn't enough.

They're interested in the tall attractive mugs containing the root beer.

But this restaurant located on King Street West has a crafty system to prevent petty pilfering of mugs.

These transparent thick-glassed mugs stamped with the A & W crest are so popular that the restaurant sells them to the public to help deter stealing of them, manager Belanger told the Record.

"In fact we sell so many of the mugs often our stock runs low," he added.

Munching on a juicy Mama-burger, crispy French fried potatoes and sipping tasty root beer it's so tempting for the customer to slip that mug into his glove compartment.

No one will see, he tells himself. How is he to know his car hostess has already noted the number of mugs in his car and has written the car licence down?

"People in general are pretty honest," Mr. Belanger said. But just in case... the car hostesses are taught to follow a simple routine to ensure survival of the mugs.

When the hostess serves a customer she first records the car licence number and then while taking the order she notes the number of mugs she will bring to the car.

Then when the food arrives the tray is hooked on the outside of the car window which is partly rolled down. At the same time the car hostess collects what is owed.

If any mugs are missing when she picks up the tray she asks the customer for them. They usually return them on her inquiry, Mr. Belanger said.

Often the customer is just trying to see if he can get away with taking a mug. "He thinks because he bought a root beer he deserves the mug too!" Mr. Belanger said.

But once in a while a customer will drive off without signaling to the car hostess to pick the tray up.

This may be accidental. Nevertheless, the restaurant identifies the driver through his licence number and in a "friendly way" asks him to return the mug, the manager explained.

They usually do return them, he noted. If a customer is obnoxious, however, the restaurant simply notifies the police.

But as Mr. Belanger pointed out, not many people would pay a $10 fine for taking a 50 cent mug.

2 million Africans in school

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—For the first time the number of African children attending school in South Africa has touched the 2,000,000 mark.

The Africans have their own (mixed blood) and Asiatics—are also educated separately.

Eleven years ago the government collected the various mission schools and local authorities in charge of African education under one government department. All schools and universities for the 12,000,000 African population have come under the direct control of the state, though mission schools conforming to the government's master plan continue.

Through central control of financing, more African children could be educated "in accordance with their own intellectual, spiritual, social, cultural and economic development," the government said.

This meant tribal divisions would be recognized. Zulus, Xhosas, Tswanas and other tribes go to different schools.

The tendency once was to teach African children in English or Afrikaans, the two official white languages in South Africa. The new system uses "mother-tongue education," but African children study both English and Afrikaans as foreign languages.

Last year government expenditure on the 1,900,000 African children then in their educational care amounted to $16.80 a child. The figure for government spending on white education came to $168 a child. Since many parents send their children to private schools, this figure is below the actual amount spent on each white child.

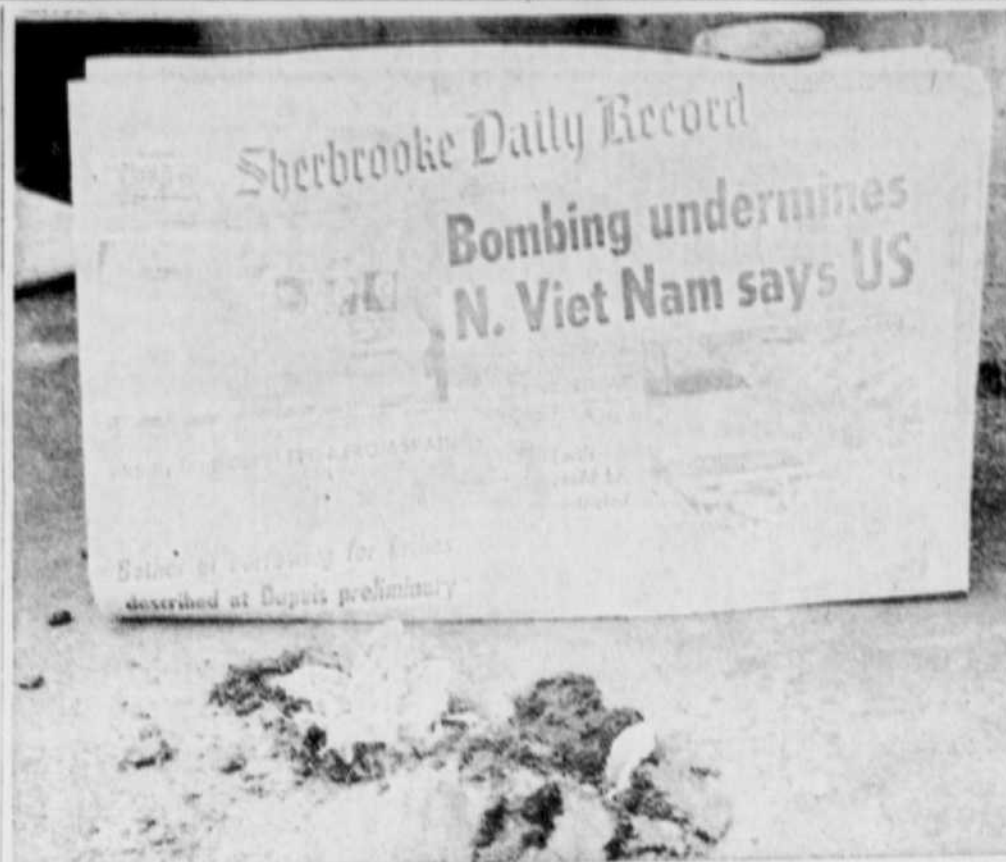

The government operates on the principle that "the Africans do not appreciate what is given to them free of charge." It therefore votes a fixed annual sum of $18,200,000 from white taxes to African education, leaving about the same amount to be paid out of taxes from the Africans themselves.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC CITY OF SHERBROOKE

ELM TREE TREATMENTS

Please note that the City of Sherbrooke, for the 7th consecutive year, endeavours to keep its elm trees in good shape by spraying them to prevent the Dutch elm disease.

To render this operation more efficient, it is necessary that all property owners having elm trees on their land have them sprayed to prevent the disease.

All those who wish to preserve their elm trees must communicate with Mr. Armand Desbiens, 569-1044 for further information.

Moreover, in order to protect the trees that are intact, it is necessary to cut down the elm trees whose conservation is impossible and concerning which a notice has been sent during the fall of 1964.

CITY OF SHERBROOKE.

Times change for time change in Canada; rugged individualism gives way to pressure

The rugged individualism so long displayed by Canadian towns and cities in their approach to daylight time is gradually succumbing to the pressures of conformity.

Some provinces still let municipal governments decide whether they will go on daylight time each spring or stick with standard, but more and more the decisions are being dictated in the provincial capitals.

A Cross-Canada Survey by the Canadian Press shows that New Brunswick and Manitoba have moved to set orderly patterns and, in common with most of the rest of Canada, they will move their clocks ahead one hour next Sunday, April 25.

Most Canadian communities will also remain on daylight time until Sunday, Oct. 31, but in Manitoba all but greater Winnipeg will go back to standard time just after Labor Day.

Alberta still resists the temptation to switch to daylight time, a practice that pleases the golfers but bothers the farmers.

A law on the books since 1948 simply prohibits daylight time and Mountain Standard applies the year round. There's a fine of up to $25 for anyone who breaks the law but no one has ever been charged under it.

Saskatchewan, divided between Central and Mountain time, hasn't fully resolved a situation that has resulted in some confusion over the years.

FEW SWITCH

Most eastern Saskatchewan communities stay on Central Standard throughout the year and most western municipalities stick with Mountain Standard. But in the middle belt of the province, communities tend to switch to Mountain Daylight from MST April 25 to Oct. 31.

New legislation passed in New Brunswick gives the government authority to establish uniform daylight time dates and it decided on April 25-Oct. 31.

Before the law was adopted, Saint John and some other large centres had been planning on these dates while Dalhousie had chosen May 23-Oct. 10 and Hartland May 29-Sept. 4.

The Manitoba legislature this year passed a new Time Act placing Metropolitan Winnipeg on daylight time from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October.

The remainder of the province must also go daylight from the last Sunday in April until the first Sunday after Labor Day in September. However, any municipality may, after holding a referendum, extend daylight time to the last Sunday in October.

WAIT TILL 1966

There have been no referendums so far and this means such cities as Brandon and Portage la Prairie will return to standard time Sept. 12 even though they might prefer to remain on daylight longer. Few municipalities like to hold referendums apart from regular elections because of the cost and as a result extended daylight time probably won't be adopted until 1966.

Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island will all follow the April 25-Oct. 31 daylight-time pattern. In Newfoundland the decision is made by the province but in Nova Scotia it's a local matter although there have been no exceptions the last two years.

This is the second daylight time year for P.E.I., which made it law in 1964. Previously many municipalities went on "advanced working hours," meaning that offices and stores opened and closed an hour earlier than usual. It had the same effect as daylight time because most people advanced their clocks when the system went into effect and turned them back when it ceased.

TWO TIME ZONES

In Quebec, Eastern Daylight Time is provided for almost all of the province except the area east of the 68th degree of longitude where most towns stay on Eastern Standard Time. The exception is Temiscouata which goes on Atlantic Daylight because it wants the same time as New Brunswick with which it has many dealings.

It's possible for cities in other parts of the province to stay on standard time—by applying for permission from the municipal affairs department — and five agricultural communities do this.

In Ontario, the April 25-Oct. 31 daylight time change is widely adopted but there are exceptions, notably Windsor, which stays on Eastern Standard to conform with neighboring Detroit, and Port Arthur and Fort William which are on the western fringe of the eastern time zone and get plenty of evening daylight without having to switch.

While Pacific Daylight is the summertime rule for British Columbia, several communities in the Peace River district of the northeast keep Mountain Standard Time all through the year to remain in step with neighboring Alberta.

Britain may be ruled by socialists but the old lion roars on occasion

LONDON (CP)—Britain may be ruled by Socialists, but occasionally the old lion still growls in tones reminiscent of imperial times.

In just such accents Prime Minister Wilson's Labor government has told Spain, in effect, to keep hands off Gibraltar, and the warning was greeted with satisfaction by most Britons, to whom the Rock remains a symbol of greatness.

This does not mean that Labor and the Tory opposition see ye to eye on Spain—far from it—but no one on the British side, least of all the Gibraltarans, want "Gib" to go to Spain. All are united against the new "siege" of Gibraltar.

But the 25,000 townsfolk, who are not Spanish but of Genoese extraction, along with British, Maltese, Moroccan and Portuguese stock, live a cramped life on the Rock, which is only three miles long and three-quarters of a mile wide.

They like to get away for Spanish excursions but for more than five months Gen. Francisco Franco, who has long coveted Gibraltar, has virtually stopped the flow by imposing border delays of as much as 10 hours.

HALTED COMMUTING

Even more serious, Franco has stopped the traditional custom of Gibraltarians living in Spain and working on the Rock with the result that the livelihood of hundreds has been disrupted.

The Spanish say that all this is simply to halt smuggling. However there is no doubt that the real prize in the long campaign is Gibraltar itself, the rock which has been a British bastion at the mouth of the Mediterranean for more than 250 years.

"The policy of Her Majesty's government is clear," says a government white paper issued by Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart. "Great Britain has at no time renounced her title to Gibraltar or failed to defend her position there and will not do so now."

"She has no desire to quarrel with Spain but she will stand by the people of Gibraltar in their present difficulties and take whatever measures may be necessary to defend and sustain them."

Reviewing formally for the first time the various steps in the Gibraltar situation, the white paper says the government will be ready to consider proposals by Spain for talks, as suggested by the United Nations committee on colonies.

TALKS CONDITIONAL

It makes clear that before any such talks are held, the creeping blockade must be lifted and, in any case, that Spain must accept that Gibraltar's sovereignty cannot be an issue for negotiation.

Actually, a sort of little cold war has been waged over Gibraltar for about 10 years, dramatizing a rare situation—a British colony loudly demanding that Britain not get out.

The Spanish claim rests on the Treaty of Utrecht, signed in 1713, under which Spain ceded Gibraltar to Britain in perpetuity, while Britain promised that it would never dispose of the Rock without first offering it to Spain.

In the Spanish view Britain broke this treaty in 1964 when it gave the Gibraltarians a new constitution involving self-government except in foreign and defence affairs.

The Spanish maintain this was tantamount to offering Gibraltar to a third party, namely the Gibraltarians, instead of to Spain. Britain replies that Gibraltar is still under sovereignty of the Crown and there is no intention of giving it complete independence, which in any case the inhabitants do not want.

SAYS CHANGES MADE

"Spain cannot accept a policy of unilateral modification of the status laid down for Gibraltar in the Treaty of Utrecht," says a Spanish document. "Every treaty is, by definition, the result of a common accord among the parties and cannot be changed unilaterally."

The London Sunday Telegraph, analysing the situation, says that to an extent it can be understood that, for the Spaniards, repossession of the Rock has become a matter of national pride.

"Sticking up like a derisory gesture, it can be seen all along the Spanish southern coast from La Linea to Malaga. The Spaniards also have cause to grumble about smuggling from Gibraltar."

"The Rock is a free port and regularly fast launches, loaded to the gunwales with contraband, speed out into the Mediterranean to land many of their uncustomed goods on Spanish soil."

At least one government minister has suggested to Britons that they give Spain, a booming mecca for tourists, a miss this year as retaliation. But Madrid is apparently confident that travellers from the dour British climate will be unable to resist the Spanish sun and low prices.

Last year 1,150,000 British tourists went to Spain, whose tourist business totalled some $900,000,000 worth of foreign exchange, only a little less than the total revenue from all the country's exports.

Busy meeting of UCW unit held at Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND — Stansfield South church Circle Unit met in the church hall on April 13, where Mrs. Thomas McCune and Mrs. W. H. Davis, were the hostesses and served dessert prior to the meeting.

The table was attractive with an Easter center arrangement. The meeting was opened with a devotional period led by Mrs. Raymond Grow who read Peter Marshall's First Easter, followed by prayer.

It was noted that the new dishes have arrived, a group of women washed them and arranged them in the church cupboards.

Final plans were made for the rummage sale taking place on May 8 at 9 a.m. in the church hall. Mrs. Lloyd Selby and Mrs. Lee Wood volunteered to pick up rummage the preceding Friday afternoon.

Mrs. C. R. MacLean, president of the U.C.W. announced that the annual Presbyterian meeting will be held on May 3 in Lennoxville. Anyone intending to go should contact Mrs. MacLean, also that on May 4 and 5 the U.C.W. Conference will be held at Plymouth Church, Sherbrooke. Mrs. MacLean also invited the U.C.W. members to take Easter offering envelopes.

Plans were made to serve the Senior Citizens a supper in the church hall on April 22. Mrs. MacLean offered to be convener of this.

The date of the May Circle Unit will be announced.

ST. BRIDGET'S PARISH COUNCIL C.W.L.

The St. Bridget's Parish Council of the Catholic Women's League held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, April 14, in the Canon Fiset Memorial Library at St. Patrick's Church. Mrs. Don Pankovitch, president, opened the meeting.

In the absence of Mrs. K. Hovey, Mrs. Claire Owen read the minutes of the previous meeting. After the roll call a new member, Mrs. Madeleine Bouthier, was introduced to the Council. Mrs. Rita Greenall read the correspondence, in the absence of Mrs. Louise Fletcher.

er, and brought to the attention of the members that the purchase of a refrigerator for the Church Hall has been decided upon by the Parish. It was decided to contribute to this project.

Mrs. Jean St. Onge gave a progress report on the Diocesan Convention, which will take place on May 1, at the New Sherbrooke Hotel.

Mrs. Doreen White introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Miss Owenie McKeon, Diocesan Convent for TV and Radio for the C.W.L. Her interesting talk was complemented by samples of correspondence received from well-known radio, TV and film celebrities. Miss McKeon stressed that if the group wishes to improve on sources of entertainment, it must not only criticize the bad but encourage the good. Miss McKeon gave numerous examples of people making individual efforts and their results being fruitful. She said parents in particular should feel a responsibility in this regard.

At the close of her address, Miss McKeon was thanked by Mrs. Shirley Hall and tea and coffee were served.

ALDRSHOT CHAPTER I.O.D.E.

The April meeting of the Aldershot Chapter, I.O.D.E. was held at I.O.D.E. House on Thursday, April 15, with the regent, Mrs. S. K. Barnes, in the chair. Many letters were read from former members congratulating the Chapter on the approach of its 25th anniversary, and expressing best wishes for the continued life of the Chapter.

Mrs. George Smith, the chapter's delegate to the annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter, held in Montreal last week, gave a short talk on the sessions she had attended and stated that she had purchased, in the name of the Chapter, a set of Children's Encyclopedia for the use of Lawrence School in memory of Miss Verna Hatch, a former principal. She had also purchased a dozen books suitable for school children. Mrs. Smith showed a docket which contained all the reports of the Provincial Executive and suggested that each report be given to the appropriate Primary Chapter convenor to be read at the next meeting.

This not only gives the convenor an insight into the work done all across the province in her department, but also encourages enthusiasm in the convenor. Mrs. Smith was congratulated on having been chosen as educational secretary of the Provincial Chapter, the regent remarking on the honor bestowed on her Chapter by having one of her members chosen for this work.

Bills presented for fuel oil for a needy family and other service work were ordered paid. It was announced that a rummage sale would be held by the Chapter in Trinity Church Hall on May 21. Members were asked to bring their rummage to the meeting on the previous night. A social evening will be held by the Chapter on June 17, in place of the regular meeting.

Further details regarding the Silver Anniversary Tea, planned for April 24 to celebrate the Chapter's birthday were completed and the members asked to help make this an outstanding event. It was decided to hold a drawing at the tea as several lovely cups had been donated by friends of the Chapter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. M. P. Lafreniere and Mrs. C. Abdallah, following adjournment.

ROCK ISLAND — The marriage of Esme (Trigg) Collett, of Toronto, Ont., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Trigg, of Bristol, England, and Sidney Chamberlain, Toronto, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chamberlain, Sr., Stanstead, took place on Saturday, April 17, in Stanstead South Church at 2 p.m. Rev. Carl Gustafson officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Alan Greer. Spring flowers were used in decorating the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Edgar Butchers, wore a dress of white lace over satin, with a matching jacket featuring elbow length sleeves, a white flower hat with blue trim and a blue carnation corsage. She carried a silver horseshoe adorned with flowers and a white leather bound Bible having satin streamers with floral tips.

Mrs. Butchers, as matron of honor for her sister, was in an A-line dress of hyacinth blue lace over taffeta, the long sleeves being edged with a flare cuff, a white hat with blue trim and a white miniature coronation and lily of the valley corsage. She carried a leather bound matching blue Bible with satin ribbons tipped with flowers.

Keith Bachelder, acted as best man and Robert Chamberlain, brother of the groom, was the usher. Mrs. Chamberlain, mother of the groom, chose a two piece lilac knitted suit, a matching hat, fur stole and corsage of white and mauve mums. Mrs. Melissa Chamberlain, paternal grandmother of the groom, was in a dress of royal blue crepe, with which she wore a matching hat and fur stole.

The reception took place in the church hall, where buffet refreshments were served by the members of Golden Star Chapter O.E.S., Stanstead. The bride's table was arranged with the wedding cake, decorated in white and silver and topped with love birds holding two wedding rings, white candles in silver candleabra. ACCENT ON LAMB

On our trip through Colorado we had lunch at Vail, which is rapidly becoming one of the most popular ski resorts in the country, we rode over Mid-Vail pass in an enclosed aerial cable gondola. Even though born in California, we freely admit that the view over the Colorado Rockies is one of the most inspiring in the United States.

Then it was on to Trail West Lodge in the old buffalo country. John Hickman, executive secretary of the American Lamb Council, and Brett Gray of the Colorado Wool Growers Association helped the chef there prepare some of the finest lamb dishes we ever tasted. When not talking about lamb as food, John Hickman likes to sing Italian opera; when not sleeping, the rangy Brett Gray tells vivid tales of his outdoor life, boy and man, in the lamb country.

After dinner we sat before

Drab utility rainwear becomes gay, glamorous

Raincoats, mere infants of the fashion world, are making a splash this spring.

Gay, modish and even avant garde, including pastel, flower-colored designs, rainwear has come far from the time, in 1823, when a Glasgow chemist patented a method of rubberizing cloth.

The chemist was Charles Macintosh and the drab utility coat that resulted from his work bore his name. A raincoat is still called a "Mac" in England. He wasn't alone in experiments with waterproofing materials. One patent was taken out for the treatment of cotton fabrics with boiled linseed oil, giving birth to the slicker.

These early raincoats certainly kept the water out but at the expense of personal comfort. By clogging the fabric pores they prevent air circulation. Wearers stifled inside their coats.

Further experiments produced the answer—a preparation to waterproof the individual fibres and leave the pores open. But its spring collection was an evening coat in washable black moire with the new wrap effect and a wide tie belt. This house is also fond of both staccato color and pale pastels. One corduroy coat is in hot Spanish pink, another in silk linen with inverted domino checks in honey beige.

In the "storming weather" group of the recent National Collection of the Union Label fashions in Montreal, there was a "scooter" suit designed by Rainmaster of Montreal in cotton poplin with the new short slacks and prominent zipper. Posluns of Toronto went military in white poplin stitched in black. Fairlane of Vancouver chose turquoise in a slim coat, and Juillard's of Winnipeg preferred a bulky look in dull gold.
