Hobbies for child subject of panel at King's H. and S.

A meeting of King's Home and School Association Parent-Education Discussion Group was held Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. Goddard was in the chair for a panel of speakers who led the discussion on 'How to encourage your child's interests and hobbies.'

Miss Fraser of Westmount Children's Library dealt with encouragement of reading habits. She said that it is the parents' attitude towards books which primarily determines the attitude of the children. Avid child readers nearly always come from reading families. Reading aloud provides a literary communication and a shared experience for the family which helps to enrich living. T.V. has not discouraged reading as all local libraries are overwhelmed with readers.

Mrs. L. Flanagan, who teaches group music lessons under the Protestant School Board, said that a liberal education aims at producing a total human being and music is part of this education. Group music lessons are an excellent introduction to music. They provide a child with companionship, healthy competition and eliminate self-consciousness. For the pre-school child love of music can be fostered by developing rhythm, singing and listening to records. Discipline to practise and learn theory is necessary when a child is learning to play an instrument. The parents' encouragement, interest, patience and understanding play important roles in this discipline.

A. Pinsky, artist and art teacher at St. George's School and Sir George William's College, stressed the importance of art as a hobby. Eighty per cent of an individual's stimulation and experiences are visual. One of the basic aims of art teaching is to develop discrimination in visual things. Art teachers today have made certain claims for art teaching. In art the child has

Waller succeeds Bowie

Lewis R. Waller, Physical Education Director of the Westmount 'Y', climaxes an interesting and brilliant career in the field of recreation when he takes over the post of executive director of the Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Association, April 16th.

Born in Regina, Saskatchewan, "Lew" first took an interest in YMCA activity as a schoolboy in that city. He was a member of the YMCA leaders corps, working his way up through Junior, Intermediate and Senior ranks. A Senior leader for four years at the Regina 'Y', he found his greatest interest in gymnastics, and in 1932 won the Western Senior Leaders gymnastic competition.

Lew later attended Normal school in Regina, and taught school in Saskatchewan in the Maple Creek district for four years. While connected with these schools, he took a great interest in promoting gymnastic activities.

CALGARY

He jumped at a chance to get into "Y" work, and took a job in Calgary as program director in Riverside Community branch YMCA. However, looking for greater things, Lew soon chose to go to College, and chose George Williams in Chicago, which is affiliated with Montreal's Sir George. There, he was trained in all phases of "Y" work, for Chicago's George Williams is specifically a training school for Youth secretaries, physical education and recreation leaders of all kinds.

Upon graduation, he went to the YMCA in St. John, N.B., and remained there for seven years. While there, Lew also directed a summer "Y" camp, "Pascobac," on the banks of the St. John river.

BACK TO REGINA

Then, on the request of YMCA officials, he returned to Regina to take a post as physical director. He was there five years, and during that time was also very active in summer camp programming.

Lew was anxious to move again and meet new challenges, so he put in application for transfer, Westmount "Y" was open, and he jumped at it. He has been here for six years as physical education director, and has spent some of those summers at "Y" camps, including Ile Perrot and Otoreke camps. An ardent worker, Lew has done much for the Westmount YMCA and for the community at large.

CHALLENGE

Capt. William Bowie, former executive director of Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Association, died Sunday, leaving the important post vacant. Lew admits he had to consider carefully before accepting the job, but it's a challenge and an entirely new pro-

Municipal Association will seek ski school

Executive members of the Westmount Municipal Association assembled Tuesday night at Victoria Hall to hear committee reports on progress to date.

The association will recommend to the Parks and Playgrounds department of the City of Westmount that a ski school be organized for the children of Westmount, on the same basis that it has organized other recreational activities. This arose out of a recommendation of the recreation committee of the association, after studying ski schools set up or attempted in other municipalities.

W. Allen Kennedy had previously sent a letter to the association asking it to recommend to city council that Tipper street between Atwater and Gladstone be re-zoned to permit professional offices to be located there.

The association has studied the proposal and found the area unsuitable for offices, as most of the houses are small single family dwellings and the street is too narrow to permit parking on both sides. A letter to Mr. Kennedy has advised him that a majority of the proprietors in the proposed sector would have to petition to city council, and the proposal would then be put to a referendum.

On the recommendation of the traffic and circulation committee, president of the Municipal Association Ogilvie Leslie, will write to city authorities congratulating them on the excellent traffic control work in Westmount. The association has not received a traffic complaint for the past three months.

The issue concerning city council procedure has not yet come to a head. It was first considered at the open December meeting, when Dr. Lauder Brunton complained of "closed-door" procedure at Westmount council meetings.

Recommendation of the Municipal Association is that a greater public knowledge of the activities of council would be in the best interests of the people of the city, but it does not recommend that association nominees for office on the city council be pledged to any particular course of action.

However, officers of the as-Westmount Police report four recent convictions arising from the arrest of a man and three juveniles, for thefts from Westmount homes and business establishments.

Alcide Denault, of no fixed abode, was sentenced in criminal court by Judge Willy Proulx to five years in St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary.

Denault was charged with numerous petty thefts from homes throughout the city in the past two years. He was arrested by Montreal police in February, and after investigation, was charged with several breaking and entering counts in Westmount. None of the loot has been recovered. Westmount police report.

A 16-year old was recently convicted on numerous breaking and entering offences in Westmount, and sentenced by Judge Proulx to a two year term.

The youth, considered an incorrigible, was referred from juvenile court to criminal court to receive his sentence.

Two youths were arrested by Verdun police last week, and were found guilty of thefts from several municipalities in Montreal, including Westmount.

They were charged with a theft from Budd and Dyer Motorcycle equipment dealer, 4290 St. Catherine St. W., of which the greatest part of the loot has been recovered, some $150 worth of goods.

One of the juveniles was sent to Shawbridge boys' farm and school for an indefinite period. The other was referred to criminal court, and sentenced by Judge Fontaine to two years in the Federal training centre at St. Vincent de Paul.

With the frame up, sub-contractors have been named for the additional work on the artificial ice rink at Lansdowne avenue and St. Catherine street.

The list of sub-contractors includes: Heffernan Tiles, The Zambon Company, E. T. Sampson and Company, Curwood and Sons Limited, Alain Cagnard and Fils. These firms will supply the tile, marble, asbestos spray and painting. Award for the cement finish is still pending.

General contractor is Douglas Bremner; architects are Wiggs, Lawton and Walker; consulting engineers are Wiggs, Walford, Frost and Lindsay.

Marler travels, Webster talks, but Jasmin just sits and rocks

Hon. George Marler, former Liberal Transport Minister and Ross Webster, Progressive-Conservative candidate in the St. Antoine-Westmount riding are not allowing any grass to grow under their feet in the back stretch.

With only 17 days to go to shaking hands at street-corners, balloting Mr. Marler is touring showing up at countless coffee-parties, and knocking on doors on behalf of Liberal candidates Quebec and Ontario — speaking with a will.

In his addresses he is featuring the fact that the Progressive-Conservatives, in seven months in office, have saved the tax-payers more than $150 millions through tax slashes, and made $300 millions available for housing.

Notary Amedee Jasmin, who is carrying the CCF banner in the local riding, is keeping his campaign under wraps — but is expected to come up with one dark-horse effort before the "that's all" signal is given to campaign efforts.

ACTIVE CLUB — SATURDAY

Activities at the Unity Boys' Club reached a new high last Saturday with a total participation of 1,456 for the day.

As early as eight o'clock in the morning, the youngsters started arriving—some were from Rosemount, Park Extension, Ville Saint Laurent, Town of Mount Royal, Maisonneuve, Verdun, Point St. Charles, Ville Emard, Cote St. Paul, Westmount and St. Henry. One four year old and his mother came all the way from Ottawa to take part in the Call Me Uncle Radio Show and a delegation of 12 boys and their leaders came from Kingston, Ontario to take part in the Dominion Biddy Basketball Championship Tournament which took place at the Club.

VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES

The participation for the day included the following activities: Call Me Uncle Radio Show, 375; Senior Games Room, 180; Junior Games Room, 40; Basketball Games (players), 56; Dominion Biddy Tournament, 385; Drawing, 5; T.V. Theatre, 11; Ballet, 7; Woodwork, 44; Choral Group Singing, 12; Musical Jam Session, 47; Biddy Basketball Banquet, 35; Spectators, 50; Total—1456.

Kingston All-Stars won the two-game total point series against the Montreal All-Stars 31-23 to win the Canadian Biddy Title. The visitors won the first game 14-11 and the second 17-12. In each game, the teams played four six-minute periods.

The Montreal team displayed a fine brand of basketball despite playing against taller opponents. Kingston had the edge in the shooting department — this is probably attributed to the fact that the Kingston boys are accustomed to the lower Biddy baskets which are one and a half feet lower than the regulation size. Kingston play on the lower biddy baskets all year while the Montrealers use the high baskets.

The Tournament was highly successful and both teams are to be congratulated on the fine sportsmanship shown throughout the series. As a matter of fact, there were many friendships made between the boys during the weekend.

UNITY TO OTTAWA

It is now definite that the Unity Boys' Club will travel to the Capital City on Saturday, March 29, for the first three games of a six-game inter-club, inter-city basketball series. The teams will be composed of boys in the following age categories: 14 years of age and under 16 years of age and under; 18 years of age and under. Three teams from the Ottawa Boys' Club will be at the Unity Boys' Club on Saturday, April 12.

BASKETBALL NOTES

Dick Schroder's Seniors continue to win along the play-off trail. In the quarter-finals, the U.B.C. quintet took a commanding lead in their two-game total point series with the Rosemount Boys' Club. At Rosemount Saturday, Unity won 46-41. The final game at Unity this week will determine the City of Montreal Bantam Basketball Championship.

Bob Neal's Juveniles extended their title hopes last Wednesday with a 48-40 over-time triumph against Point St. Charles. The teams are now tied one game apiece and the deciding tilt will be played on a neutral floor. John Westlake erupted in Wednesday's game with a 22 point effort—his best of the current campaign. Other scorers were: Kenneth Annable (9); Keith Gavin (7); Syd Cowan (4); Brian Sullivan (3); Rodney Wilson (3); Fred Simms (2).

Douglas Mariasine's "Cubs" are undefeated in league play this year and are riding atop the City Biddy League with eight straight victories. Last week, the defending city champions, took the Point Club to task to the tune of 23-17. Buddy McKaig was the high scorer with 9 points.

Doug Potvin's Senior Girls' team, local tournament winners will be at Three Rivers this weekend to participate in the Provincial Tournament.

Dorothy Mariasine's Juvenile Girls have already clinched the Inter-Club league title with three straight wins and no losses. In the MLEL Tournament, the team lost only to the Chambly County High School and are now tied for first place in the standings. A playoff between Chambly and

Unity Boys' Club at thousand mark first time in '57

Membership in the Unity Boys' Club hit the thousand mark during 1957 for the first time in the club's seven-year history, Maurice Mariasine, director, reported at the annual meeting Wednesday at the Club premises. Participation by boys and girls in Club activities totalled 75,255, an increase of 6,830 over the previous year. Average daily attendance at the club was 271.

★ Sport or physical education is no longer the chief reason for boys and girls joining the club, Mr. Mariasine stated. More and more children are joining because they have an interest in a specific hobby or activity and the club is able to give them guidance and leadership to develop their skills.

Volunteer workers contributed 2,132 hours of service during the year, and came in for high praise from the director. Organized in 1950 as a project of Westmount Rotary, Unity Boys' Club is financed primarily through Red Feather funds while continuing to receive financial help and board leadership from Westmount Rotary Club. Program supervision is handled by the Montreal Boys' Association.

Program extension to serve expanding membership is the greatest need in the Boys' Club today, Mr. Mariasine said. In the past few years there has been a tremendous growth in the number of younger children joining the Club. These children require more supervision and more program planning, it was pointed out. Influx of these younger boys and girls has often meant a curtailment of program for older members because facilities just aren't available to handle every activity, the boys' worker said. This has meant a falling-off in membership among the older age group who are anxious to take part but just cannot be accommodated.

A boys' club cannot be all things to all people, president J. G. Lawson warned the meeting. Sometimes the services provided by a club are not enough and boys and parents are in need of the specialized services offered by a family agency or psychiatry. The boys' worker, in such cases can use his friendship and authority to see that such people are referred to the community agency which can help most effectively with their problems. The boys' club is not a direct treatment centre for seriously disturbed boys and the club has a definite responsibility to see that boys needing special guidance obtain it.

Mr. Lawson said no one agency has a monopoly on concern for youth. The boys' club is one of the total of the community agencies which work to create better citizens. Broken homes are a major cause of delinquency, he stated, and often a child's only crime is in being neglected by his parents in the first place.

Officers for 1958 are: J. G. Lawson, president; W. W. Allison, vice-president; John M. Squier, honorary secretary; D. T. Youngson, honorary treasurer.

Directors are: W. W. Allison, W. E. Empey, E. A. Everson, Jas. E. Frosst, W. Frank Kenwood, J. G. Lawson, E. E. Mills, W. G. Moxley, J. P. Page, Donald B. Ross and W. J. Tawse.

SIR WILLIAM P. HILDRED, Director General of the International Air Transport Association, has honoured three local girls on their completion of ten years service with the world airlines association. Two of the girls are West End residents: MISS FLORENCE McANALLY, centre, of 2037 Marlowe Avenue, is secretary to the traffic director of IATA;

MISS JOY HENDERY, right, of 4670 Grosvenor Avenue, is registry clerk. Both Miss McAnally and Miss Hendery were born and educated in Montreal. Miss Marina Behr, left, who is secretary to the Technical Director, is from Winnipeg. All three have travelled extensively since joining IATA.

Local 'Y' gymnasts enter competition Saturday March 22

The competitions will be divided into three groups for both boys and girls: Tyro (under 15), Novice and Junior. There will also be a Senior women's competition.

Included in the events are: for women — free calisthenics, side horse vault, balance beam, and uneven parallel bars; for men — free calisthenics, long horse vault, horizontal bar, pommel horse, parallel bars, and still rings. One optional exercise shall be required on each piece of apparatus for all classes of competition.

The entry fee is 25 cents for each event, and a maximum of $1.00. Entry blanks can be obtained from the Westmount YMCA, and must be in by March 11th.

Westmount 'Y' gym review March 28, 29

Westmount YMCA will hold a gymnastic review, March 28 and 29. Lew Wallers, Westmount "Y" physical directors says the show will be of near-professional calibre.

The show will be on exhibition of physical activities from boys and girls classes in the "Y." The classes have chosen their routines, and have been practising for the past two months. Activities will range from mass games to precision gymnastics by some of the finest gymnasts in the city, both men and women.

The Junior Leaders, age 11 to 15, are working on partner acrobatics. Some of the older boys are working on a living statue number to illustrate the growth of activities in the "Y." The trampoline club will also do a rather entertaining number.

Charles Ankrum, member of the Westmount "Y" physical education committee, will handle the MC chores. The Y's Men's Club will assist in taking tickets, Phi at Club, a business girls sorority, will sell refreshments during intermission, and the Boys' Junior Hi-Y Club will be in charge of ushering.

Straight talk

by

GEORGE MARLER

What does this election mean to you?

During the election last year, Mr. Diefenbaker made so many promises that even the members of his own party do not know all that were made; so that those who are asserting that the Conservatives have fulfilled all their promises are doing so in complete ignorance of the facts.

Mr. Hees, the Minister of Transport, said in the House of Commons that he was unaware of Mr. Diefenbaker's promise to build a standard-gauge railroad for Newfoundland, which was reported in The Toronto Globe and Mail on 16th April 1957, but last week he was proclaiming that all the Conservative promises have been fulfilled, though nothing has been done about the Newfoundland railway.

This is one promise that has not been fulfilled. There are many more unfulfilled promises, such as: to increase pensions for retired civil servants and retired C.N.R. employees; to gear old age security to national productivity and the cost of living; to increase unemployment insurance benefits, eliminate the waiting period and extend the benefit period to 52 weeks; to give the provinces and the municipalities enough tax revenues to meet their needs; to set up a loan fund to make loans to small businesses; to abolish the special excise tax on automobiles; to reduce government expenditures and so on.

The Conservatives have not completely fulfilled any of their promises, except the promise of cash advances to Western farmers.

But the principal issue in this election is not the promises made by the Conservatives in 1957. The real issue is more important. It is this: What remedy is to be provided to counteract the slow down in business and the sharp up-turn in unemployment.

The Conservatives pin their hopes upon a public works programme, but it takes a long time before public works produce beneficial results. Besides, the programme announced by the Conservatives will not create additional jobs, because it does not provide for additional spending by the federal government and its agencies.

The Liberals believe that the good results which were brought about by the $200 million tax cut in 1955, when there was some slackening in demand and some unemployment, indicate how effective the remedy now proposed by Mr. Pearson is likely to be.

We think that a large tax cut now of $400 millions is a more rapid and more effective remedy than public works, particularly as it would be supplemented by government spending on public works and special encouragement to private enterprise and public corporations also to undertake useful capital projects.

WE SAY

Political front to Victoria Hall

SIGNS indicating the locale of the main committee rooms of the Conservative and Liberal candidates in Westmount adorn the front of Victoria Hall — similar in size and format, the one in predominant blue and the other in red, the parties' colors.

The use of the same building for both parties is in the Westmount tradition, where Federal politics is a closeknit, moderately friendly, home-town affair and there is very little, if any, of the knock-down and drag-out type of party bias and political prejudice which unfortunately creeps into the campaign in some ridings.

Nevertheless there is no indication that the candidates or their followers are at all complacent about the campaign — as witness the activity that is reflected in meetings, radio addresses, advertising and vote-canvassing.

Local residents are taking this campaign very seriously, and those who go door to door or resort to the telephone to plug the merits of their candidate are finding — they report — that the citizens are very ready to listen, sometimes ready to argue, and frequently say flatly at the outset that they are going to cast their ballot for the "rouge" or the "bleu".

These are good signs, and point to a situation where, after the final votes are counted, both sides will be able to feel that they have put forth their best efforts and the "best man" has been victorious.

Artificial ice rink enters second phase

WESTMOUNT'S artificial-ice rink at Lansdowne avenue and St. Catherine street is now complete as to frame and residents who first felt the structure might be a blight on the landscape have an opportunity to judge from the exterior how well it blends into the general landscape.

Awards have been made for sub-contracting work such as floor tile, marble, asbestos, painting, masonry, etc. As in most work undertaken by the City of Westmount we find the firms awarded the sub-contracts are of a reputable quality, and it is to be expected that the interior work will be well up to the high standard insisted upon by city inspectors.

With Douglas Bremner as the general contractor and consulting engineers and architects, who have many fine structures to their credit, it is to be expected that this building will be an asset to the community.

Romantic Irish celebrate Monday

MONDAY is the 17th of March — that day when the romantic Irish, and all the rest of the world as well, celebrates the fact of St. Patrick, a man whose birth record is lost in antiquity, whose acts have come down largely in legend and whose very sainthood is frequently debated.

But while there may be some data lacking about the Saint himself, there is no doubt about the fact that the Irish, and the would-be Irish, celebrate his day each year with increasing fervor.

There are many in this country today who seized the opportunity during the Second World War to get a glimpse of Ireland and who recall it as one of the most beautiful isles in the world. They recall the exquisite greenness, the misty distances and the rocky coastline. Large cities are not characteristic of Ireland and it is in the small towns and villages, in the hills and valleys that one feels the true spirit of the country.

Examiner profile:

Cousins carries on at 92

By CYNTHIA JONES

A man who goes to work every day at the age of 92, drives a big car, and travels on his own to countries which have a habit of blowing up in revolutions every month, is Ernest Cousins who founded Montreal's oldest dairy and also heads a chain of local movie theatres.

The dairy's captain since 1889 is a short, wiry man, with gleaming brown eyes and a taste for bow ties, double-breasted suits, and limericks. His hand is so steady that he shaves with a straight razor and clips his well-groomed white mustache. His witty, candid manner makes Mr. Cousins livelier and more refreshing company than men half his age.

Mr. Cousins has just returned from Venezuela and Haiti, which countries, as everyone knows, can hardly be described as stable at the moment. He went unaccompanied, returned unscathed, and had a grand time.

Looking 20 years younger than his age, Mr. Cousins, interviewed in his comfortable home at 720 Victoria avenue, said: "People always say they are amazed when I tell them my age. Can't a man get to be 92 if he wants? I was born on the seventh day of December, 1865 — the year Lincoln was shot and the year the U.S. Civil War came to an end."

Works every day

Asked if he still goes to work every day, Mr. Cousins quipped: "Why not? A man must work, a woman must weep, but it's no use to cry, it's better to sleep and your man will come home in the morning."

What was the secret of his longevity? Mr. Cousins replied smartly: "I never had any life insurance but I have attended the funerals of the men who refused me as a risk."

Mr. Cousins has survived four major operations during his lifetime, never has been on a diet, never refuses a drink, gave up pipe-smoking some years ago.

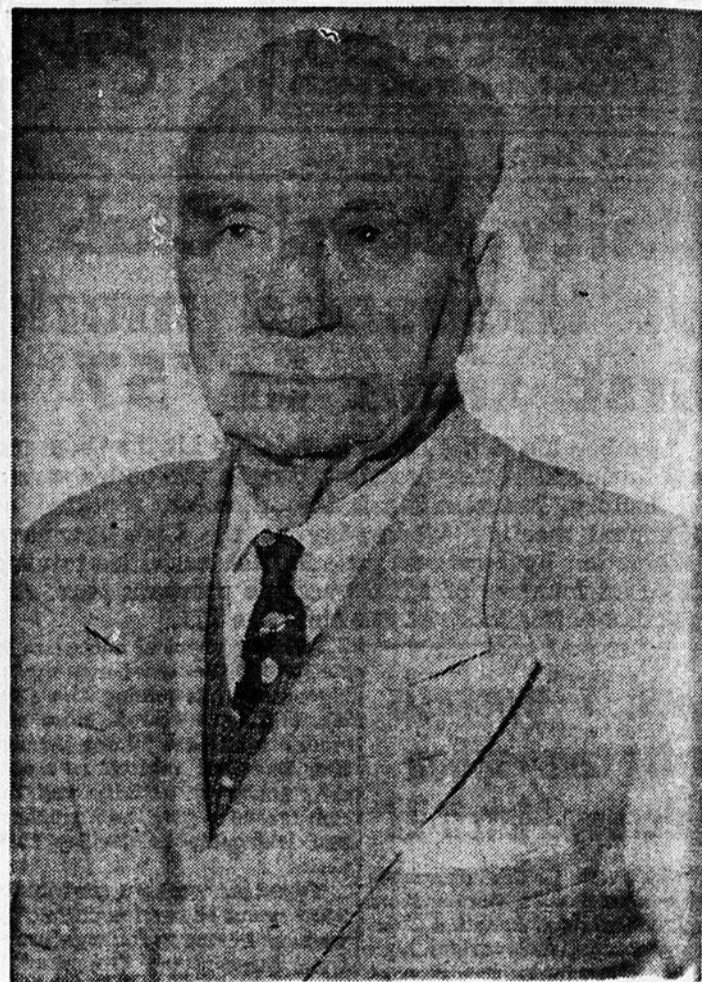

A native of Northampton, England, Mr. Cousins said his mother died in 1871 when he was six years old. At 14 he quit school, went to London where he got a job as a printer, walking five miles to work and back.

Without a cent

Lured by the green hills of Canada, Mr. Cousins arrived in Montreal as an immigrant without a red cent 75 years ago when he was nearly 19. "What does a stranger do in a strange place when he is hungry?" Mr. Cousins asked. "Why, he hunts for work." Mr. Cousins found a job on a farm at Longue Point. For the first nine months he received $5 a month, after that $9 a month.

"I worked from 3 a.m. until sundown for seven days a week," he said. "I milked 10 cows, fed horses, drove a milk wagon to the city. Believe me, it was hard work. Farmers today lead a life of luxury although they might not think so."

It was five years before

ERNEST COUSINS

Mr. Cousins accumulated enough capital to start his own milk-delivery business which today still bears his name. "I bought a wheeled cart and horse, bought milk and sold it from cans," he said. Those cans were always a serious proposition. You had to have enough to ship to the farms, enough to have the milk where you happened to be, and enough for emergencies. I drove that road from Longue Point to Montreal for five long years."

Mr. Cousins said that up until three years ago his company used mostly horse-drawn vehicles and at one time his stable held more than 100 horses. They have now been replaced by a fleet of trucks operating from a garage on William street.

"I am the oldest dairy man in the city of Montreal, said Mr. Cousins. "All the men I did business with when young — the Trenholmes, the Hoggs — are dead."

Signs pay-checks

Mr. Cousins said that two sons — Cecil and Frank — and a grandson, Ernest, 21, help him run the business. "But I most decidedly sign the pay checks," he chuckled.

In 1891 Mr. Cousins married a farmer's daughter, Maude Douglas, who had a "wonderful disposition". His wife died in 1948. They had three sons and three daughters, nine grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren.

His youngest daughter, Gladys, a polio victim when she was 21, and a housekeeper, Miss Florence MacDonald, who acts as his chauffeur on stormy days, share his home. Mr. Cousins spoke of his grandson, Bill Chauvin, who is a commander in the Canadian navy, and his granddaughter, Babs, who was in the navy show during the war and danced before King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

Mr. Cousins, with a few other associates, founded in 1909 the United Amusement Corporation, now a $50,000,000 organization. He brought the first moving picture to Montreal. His first moving picture palace was Moulin Rouge at the corner of St. Catherine and Amherst. For 30 years Mr. Cousins was president of this chain of 46 theatres. Now he is chairman of the board.

In the old days Mr. Cousins entertained the film stars who made personal appearances at his theatres. His favorite movie actress is Mary Pickford and he was a great admirer of Pearl White. "That girl certainly could dance," he said.

He remembers the day he hired pianist Billy Eckstein to play at the Strand theatre. "That boy could play anything from 'Knocked Them in the Old Kent Road' to a recession," said Mr. Cousins.

Dislikes T-V

No lover of TV which gets on his nerves, it seems ironical that Mr. Cousins and Dr. Lee De Forest, of talking picture fame, travelled to Berlin just before the war in the interests of television. They were furnishing capital to an early inventor of TV. "But the war intervened," said Mr. Cousins. "In fact, I just got out of Berlin in time and I don't know what happened to the man who was working for us."

A traveller with a great sense of history, Mr. Cousins, who is self-educated and widely-read, has visited the four places he had always desired to see — Pompeii, Jerusalem, Gibraltar and Carthage — and loves talking about them.

"I guess I have seen a lot," said Mr. Cousins. "I was a young man before I saw my first electric light. I can remember when people regarded the telephone as a toy."

The philosophy of a man who at 92 has to be admonished not to run up stairs? "Perseverance pays off . . . and it's a great old world to live in or to give in, but to beg or to borrow or get a man's own, it's the damndest old world that ever was known."

City boasts two Presbyterian Churches

"A minister is sometimes referred to as the poor man's psychiatrist" Rev. Chas. C. Cochrane, told The Examiner yesterday.

"Some aspects of the minister's work are comparable to the psychiatrist's, and the aims are the same, that is, to help a person who is confused, to understand himself and his problems better, and to cope with them. To achieve this end, sometimes the work of a social worker, a counsellor, and a minister are combined," he said.

Mr. Cochrane is the minister of the Melville Presbyterian Church in Westmount, and will have completed ten years on May 4th.

He is a graduate of Queen's University, Kingston, and Knox College, Toronto; with post graduate degree from Victoria University. Before coming to this parish, he was in Georgetown, Ontario, for seven years; and in a mining district of Northern Ontario for two years prior to that.

MELVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Melville Presbyterian Church, 349 Melville avenue, is a copy of a Reformed church in Belgium. The type of architecture is Norman, and the church and the manse are both constructed of red brick. The church was erected in 1900 and the Manse completed in 1913. There are no parish boundaries. About half of the congregation is made up of residents of Westmount, and the balance from outside the city proper.

In 1946 a fire occurred in the church, and damage was extensive, estimated at about $35,000. The pipe organ was destroyed at the time and since, an electronic organ has been used. The following year another fire occurred, estimated to have caused about $3,500 damage. Present organist and choirmaster is Lester Woodin.

An outstanding member of the choir is W. T. Stephenson, who began his career as a bass soloist with Melville in 1910. Mr. Stephenson was one of the two basses chosen from Canada to sing at the Coronation of George VI, in London, England.

"Ministers generally are trained to preach, and most ministers enjoy that aspect of the work more than any other. But the work of a minister is varied, and the problems to be solved, are usually done with the help of the members of the congregation, and social welfare societies, etc." the minister said.

When Mr. Cochrane's desk is full of work, he just wades in and clears it as soon as possible, to be prepared for the next problem.

"The biggest difficulty is to find enough hours to look after all the things that must be done," he said, as he turned again to the telephone, which had been ringing all through the interview.

There are several associations within the congregation, including a Young People's Society, with members aged 16-21. They meet Sunday evenings and activities include devotional, recreational and educational.

Other groups are for adults. The Melville Auxiliary, which meets in the afternoon; and the Ellen Douglas Auxiliary, which meets in the evening. Their aims are similar; mainly as study groups, banded together for the purpose of supporting the missionary work of the church.

When the Hungarian refugees came to Canada, after the holocaust in Hungary in October 1956, the members of the Melville Presbyterian Church combined their efforts with Stanley Presbyterian Church to provide lessons in English, clothing, food, shelter, free homes, etc., and some even took children into their own homes temporarily until suitable accommodation could be found for them with their parents. Through the Protestant Hungarian Service Association, and the members of the Congregation, homes were found for teenagers also.

The Stanley Presbyterian Church, at the corner of Westmount and Victoria avenues, had its beginnings in the heart of Montreal, on Stanley street, from whence came the name that it bears. In 1914, following the trend of the population, the congregation moved to Westmount, and erected the present imposing Byzantine edifice.

Byzantine architecture, which features the great dome supported by four pillars, represents the Great Dome of Heaven come down to meet man in all his needs, an interpretation of the Christian Gospel which no other style of architecture has been able to achieve or duplicate.

The present minister is the Rev. J. D. Wilkie, B.A. who began his ministry here in 1945. Besides being minister of this church, Mr. Wilkie also serves as lecturer in Christian Missions at the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

At the conclusion of the interview, Mr. Cochrane took me to see the stained glass windows, in the south apse of the church. These are arranged in four panels, and were donated in memory of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fraser, former members of the congregation. Mr. Kelsey of Montreal, installed the windows, dedicated in April 1937.

On a scroll, in script, across the panels is the following biblical quotation:

"The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

Bernard Rose writes tribute to Westmount

By BERNARD ROSE

The beautiful city of Westmount is not only a model but a modern city. It is ably administered by public spirited citizens who render their services without compensation. Its mayor is dignified, courteous and regards it as a distinction to serve it in the quality of Chief Magistrate. He comes of a family well known for its devotion to all good causes. The several members of the Council are as conscientious and devoted in the carrying out of their duties as their chairman.

Westmount in two world wars demonstrated a patriotism that earned for it the place of honor it occupies in the group of municipalities whose citizens quickly and bravely volunteered to serve King and country.

The residents of Westmount speak with pride of their city, as one that is efficiently administered by officials who have won an enviable reputation as highly competent municipal executives and employees. Within its borders dwell in harmony, not only the rich, but the substantial middle class and others who are classed as wage earners. It contains churches and synagogues that architecturally are splendid buildings. Its City Hall is a striking edifice because of its style and location.

The Westmount Conservatories are the mecca for lovers of plants and flowers. Adjacent to it, is the library, staffed by experts who gladly give advice to all who have occasion to visit it. Victoria Hall as a meeting place is the headquarters for numerous associations.

It has been most fortunate in its choice of administrative personnel. Its affable, kindhearted and highly competent general manager, T. J. Hughes is regarded as one of the foremost authorities not only within Canada, but other countries, in all that relates to municipal government. The unique place the city occupies is largely due to his efforts and that of his principal assistants: N. T. Dawe, A. W. D. Swan, R. B. Seamon, J. R. Daye; J. G. Nurse, and the several officials mentioned in the Annual Report.

For its size, Westmount has one of the most highly trained and efficient police and fire departments in Canada. The first keeps crime to a minimum because of its unceasing surveillance of those not living in the city who enter its borders. The second is prompt to answer any call where there is a danger of fire or other damage to property. The taxes paid by those who own property within its limits are expended to the best purpose. Being municipally independent and autonomous it can formulate policies that make, not only for the beautification of the city, but its general attractiveness. The list of those who served it in the past

Marler says Conservatives are deceiving electorate

George Marler, former Transport Minister and Liberal candidate in St. Antoine-Westmount, charged the Conservative Government with deceiving the Canadian public with a fraudulent public works program, which, he said, will not bring any worthwhile relief to the 600,000 Canadians now without work in an address Monday night at Victoria Hall.

a unique opportunity to compose and perform at the same time and he gets joy in acting, in this very personal way. In the psychological area, the child works out his frustrations by his creativity and reveals himself in his work. Unlike music, he has few technical problems to master and this fact gives him self confidence which is important to his growth.

Parents can help their children by their own attitude to art. Children who come from homes where parents love art are usually better artists. They are encouraged to read about lives of artists, to look at their works in art books and visit the art galleries from time to time with their parents. Children's paintings should be praised and hung around the house as something of value. Mr. Pinsky concluded by saying that parents can be too demanding of their children as they often tend to crowd them with activities such as ballet, art, music, elocution, etc., until they become blasé. An intense experience in one field may be better than a little experience in many.

The speakers and the subject evoked lively questions and discussion.

LIBERAL RALLY: Hon. Paul Martin speaking at a Marler rally in Victoria Hall Monday evening. Ken MacKay, N.D.G. Liberal candidate is in the rear.

★ Mr. Marler laid the charge during a political rally which hosted former Health Minister Paul Martin and Liberal candidates from many parts of the island.

He claimed the "so-called unemployment relief public works program" announced by Mr. Diefenbaker was nothing but "the normal spending which the government carries out in normal times in various public works programs."

The Conservative Government has included in the program the $300,000,000 which it claims it will make available to the Canadian public to build homes, in order to deceive the public, he stated.

"I don't think that public works which may be undertaken some six or eight months from now will bring any immediate relief to families without jobs," the former minister declared.

He claimed to have a list of 145 promises that the conservatives had made during the June election campaign, and had not fulfilled.

Mr. Martin said he repeatedly asked the Conservative leaders to give an indication of the number of jobs that would be created by their public works program, but could not get a direct answer from them.

He said that the Canadian economy has been greatly harmed by Mr. Diefenbaker's statement that Canada will divert 15 per cent of its trade from the United States to the U.K.

"Mr. Diefenbaker made this statement without consulting the government or government trade experts," the former minister stated. "I don't think he knew just what he was proposing when he did make such a statement."

The Parks and Playgrounds Association is one of over 30 Red Feather agencies in the city. It operates independently of city jurisdiction, and sets up demonstration playgrounds, which it turns over to the city when they

It is truly a tough road ahead for Lewis Waller, but with his drive and enthusiasm he is bound to succeed and make a glowing contribution to the city.

Webster denies slight that he's not 'capable'

Ross Webster, Conservative candidate in St. Antoine-Westmount, this week brushed aside the suggestion by his opponents that men of experience in Government are needed now.

"Can it be thought that I am not a man of experience when I have lived for almost a half century, headed a successful business, brought up a family of four children, lived through a depression and served for six years in the services during the last war?" he asked.

"What utter slosh to suggest that I am not capable of ably representing this constituency in the Parliament of Canada."

Mr. Webster outlined briefly his half century living in this constituency, his business, his home life, his interest in the community and the young people of the country. The easy tone of his talk was reminiscent of the fire side type of conversation on the business of government.

Mr. Webster said he planned to continue to be a resident of St. Antoine-Westmount after his election. He said although attending the sessions of parliament or meetings or whatever would be required of him as the active representative he would, in his own words "Continue to have his home in its present location right here in this riding and would be available in his home or his office to see his constituents and discuss their problems whenever his attendance was not required outside of Montreal on Government business."

Organizational committee members of the Ross Webster election group have made it known today that several activities will be taking place between now and election day under their direction. The times and places of these meetings will be made known at the earliest possible date.

They have also reported that Mr. Webster will be appearing on television and will speak two or three times over local radio stations in both French and English between now and the close of activities prior to the March 31st election.

"There just aren't enough days in the week for the candidate to fulfill all his obligations that he has been requested to attend" reported one of the committee members. "We are amazed at the invitations Mr. Webster has been receiving and over fifty per cent of them from organizations that we had never dreamt of giving us support." "It's easy to see the trend has turned to Diefenbaker in this election", he added.

Mechanics' Institute re-elects A. C. Thorne

E. A. Thorne, vice-president of Continental Diamond Fibre of Canada, Limited, was re-elected for the fourth term as president of the Mechanics' institute of Montreal at the 118th Annual Meeting held Monday.

In his report Mr. Thorne mentioned the weekly series of lectures, film showings, and music appreciation evenings held during the fall and winter season. These were attended by capacity audiences and were considered a cultural contribution by the Institute to the community. In collaboration with the Québec Division of the Canadian Medical Association two important medical symposia were held, one on cancer and one on mental health. In each case the panel had been composed of physicians who were authorities on their subject.

The librarian, Miss Sybil Grimson, reported that the library had a very busy year. A total of 1,475 new books had been added, of which 735 were fiction. In circulation statistics, fiction was in the lead but there was a decided increase in the circulation of non-fiction. This she said was due to the wide variety of subjects covered and the interesting style in which they were written. The greatest demand was for biography, travel, music, painting, history and home decoration. The library also has excellent books dealing with business, science and technology. Membership to the circulating library may be had for a small annual fee. The reference and reading rooms are open free to all and nearly 14,000 people had taken advantage of this privilege.

Officers elected for the year 1958 were: E. A. Thorne, president; Norman English, vice-president; P. H. Nowers, treasurer; J. M. Gardiner, secretary. Elected to the General Committee of Management for a two-year term were, E. S. Booth, J. H. McCulloch, H. S. McGee, R. S. Robson, and W. J. Sheridan. Also serving on this Committee are W. G. Attridge, W. A. Eversfield, M. Geddes, N. Gregory, R. T. James and the past president Dr. Bramley-Moore.

Capt. W. Bowie

In addition to his recreation posts here, he was director of the Community League of Greater Montreal. The Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Association, under Capt. Bowie's direction, served as a demonstration agency, operating three or four playgrounds each year in areas lacking such facilities.

He is survived by his wife, the former Helen Stevenson; a son, William, and a daughter, Nancy (Mrs. Peter Kalkman), now living in Holland.

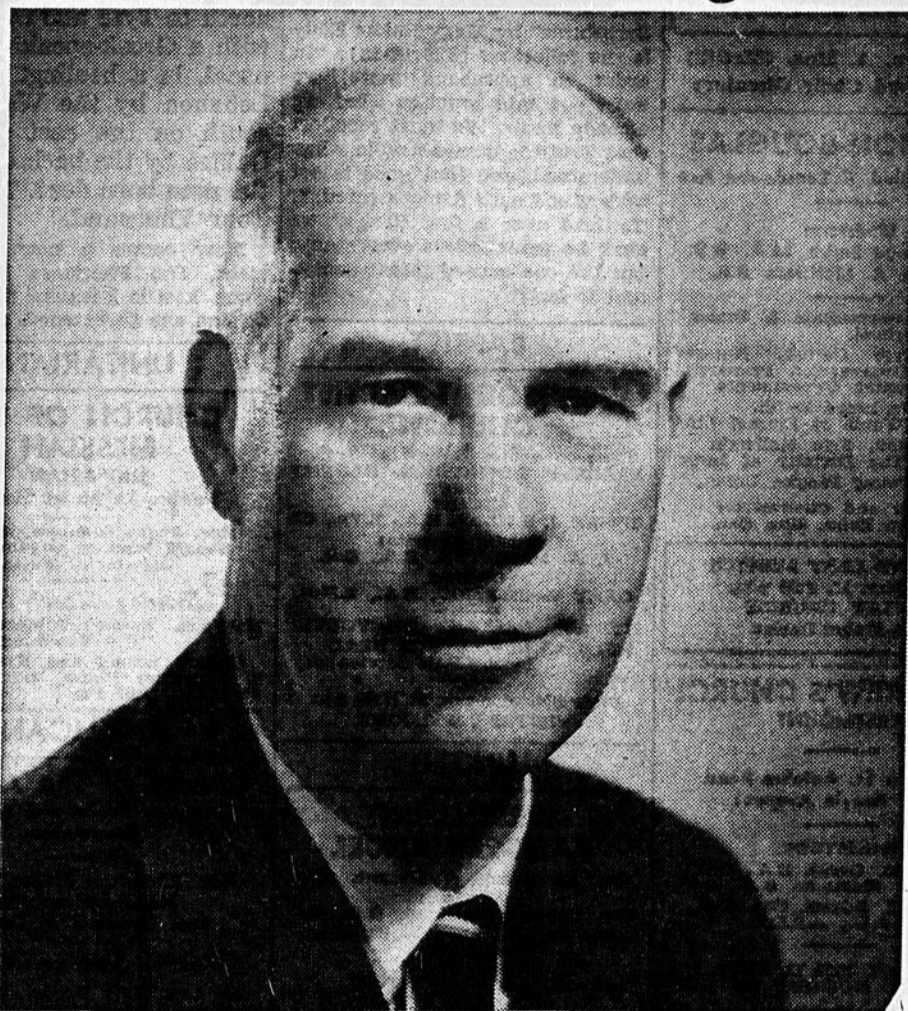

Burial was in Mount Royal Cemetery.

Mendelssohn Caniata at St. George's Church

Mendelssohn's cantata, Come Unto Him, will be performed at St. George's Church, Dominion Square on Sunday with the following well-known hymns included on the program: Jesus, Lover of My Soul, O, For a Closer Walk With God, and Unto the Hills Around.

Tenor soloist will be Arthur Mallinson; baritone soloist, Herbert Hardy; bass soloist, Emery Pal; treble soloists, Timothy Gilbert, Ralph Walker and Michael Gwinnett.

"HIDDEN MEANING OF SPUTNIK"

Christian Science

The healing and saving power of faith, when it is advanced to spiritual understanding, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" will include the following from James (2:14): "What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works?"

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (323:13-18): "In order to apprehend more, we must put into practice what we already know. We must recollect that Truth is demonstrable when understood, and that good is not understood until demonstrated. If 'faithful over a few things,' we shall be made rulers over many; but the one unused talent decays and is lost."

By
The Venerable
R. Kenneth Naylor, D.D.,
Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

The tensions brought about by the various clashes between Jesus and the authorities and even between Jesus and the public have made it unsafe to continue His Ministry in Galilee, and for a moment He leaves His own land and goes down to the Mediterranean coast and turns north to Tyre and Sidon. There He has His one encounter with a Greek-speaking native. The encounter resulted, as usual, in a healing. Then He seems to have crossed the Lebanon by the Wall of the Litany and to have gone south on the east side of the Jordan and approached Galilee by the back door of the Decapolis. There He heals the man born deaf. This is followed by the Feeding of the continue their hostility, demanding a sign to show that He is justified in His claim to be a teacher. He refuses to satisfy them. His whole Ministry is a sign. But the hostility warns Jesus to withdraw once more from Galilee and He turns north to Caesarea Philippi, and there comes the climax of the Galilean Ministry when He draws from Peter the confession: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Again the picture changes: we are in a new scene: a scene of shadows. The Twelve have been with Him. They have learned the one essential fact: now they must learn another, that Messiahship is accomplished in suffering. Peter's reaction is refusal: Jesus' response is rebuke: "Get thee behind me Satan."

But while He rebukes Peter He does not reject him. He takes Peter and James and John up into the mountain and is transfigured before them. Before the suffering there is a foretaste of the Glory; but more than that, there is a drawing together of the old revelation and the new. The revelation of God is one continuing process centring on Jesus.

Then follows the incident of the demoniac boy who could not be healed by the Nine who had remained at the foot of the mountain. Their commission had run out. Jesus healed the lad, and commended prayer as the means of healing. Then comes the secret departure from Galilee and the foretelling of death and resurrection. However, the departure is not altogether secret. He risks another visit to Capernaum and takes occasion to rebuke them for their self-seeking, by sitting down with the Twelve plus one child and teaching them humility through the child. Stirred by this John admits that they have rebuffed someone who has used the Name of Christ although he has not been one of the Twelve, and again Jesus commends humility.

Now Jesus leaves Galilee and crosses the Jordan into Peraea, going towards Jerusalem, but this time avoiding Samaria. There are various encounters on the way He has the controversy with the Pharisees about divorce, in which Mark reports the absolute forbidding of divorce. Then there comes the blessing of the children and the meeting of the Rich Young Ruler and that discouraging or inspiring discourse on the effect of wealth.

Once more on that journey Jesus foretells His suffering, but in spite of it two of the inner group, James and John, try to forestall the other ten by asking for first and second places in the Kingdom. They are warned that their attitude is entirely wrong, for the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto but to minister. On His way Jesus heals the blind man near Jericho in spite of the protests of the disciples, and then arrives at Bethany among friends. There He is anointed, and he says, for His burying. But even this lovely incident produces a division. One of the twelve cannot bear the waste of the ointment. It is the final straw which brings about treachery in the band of Apostles. Small things can produce great results.

Near Piedmont by Hesill Boulthbee.

Mrs. Hesill Boulthbee exhibits art today

An exhibition of a group of paintings by Mrs. Hesill Boulthbee, 605 Roslyn, opens today at the Walter Klinkhoff Gallery, 2083 Union.

Including scenes from eastern Quebec and the Maritimes, Mrs. Boulthbee's fifteen pictures will be on view until March 24. Several of them depict changing seasons in the Laurentians.

A Westmount resident for a year and a half, Mrs. Boulthbee came to Canada from a small town in Sussex, England with her husband and two children. Her nine-year-old daughter, Shelia, and seven-year-old son, David attend Roslyn school.

Mrs. Boulthbee has exhibited in Canada before at the Royal Academy, the Toronto Art Gallery and the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts spring exhibition. Last fall she was invited to show three paintings in the Toronto Art Gallery exhibit of 52 Canadian painters.

Although she has taken art lessons from Arthur Lismer at the Montreal Museum of Fine Art and is now studying with Eric Goldberg, Mrs. Boulthbee is largely a self-taught artist. She usually works with oils and started using water color only last year.

She began painting seriously in 1944. Before that time she maintained an interest in others' work and often helped children develop an interest in art. During the war Red Cross and school teaching activities occupied much of her time. Now that her two children are in school, Mrs. Boulthbee hopes to devote more of her time to painting.

The Young Peoples Fellowship follows at 9 p.m.

Baha'i New Year to be observed Friday, March 21

Friday, March 21st, will be observed as the Baha'i New Year, an annual holy day, marking the time of the vernal equinox and symbolizing the renewal of spiritual forces at this critical stage in the evolution of human society.

Ordinarily, this occasion would call for a religious festival with great rejoicing for Baha'is all over the world. This year it will be a simple observance in keeping with the bereavement felt by Baha'is since the passing last November of Shoghi Effendi, the late Guardian of the Baha'i World Faith.

Local Assemblies and Groups in Canada are being requested by their National Spiritual Assembly to turn their attention at this New Year to a re-dedication to their Ten-Year World Crusade. The objectives of this Crusade, which are to be achieved by 1963 and which were planned by the Guardian, are designed to establish a spiritual foundation for world Brotherhood and the consequent blessings of Permanent world peace.

Forman-Sargent wedding held Saturday in St. Andrew's Church

The marriage of Margaret Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Treney Sargent, of Hampstead, to Mr. Arthur Kenneth Forman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grove Forman, of Cartierville, took place on Saturday afternoon at half past three o'clock, in St. Andrew's Church, Westmount, the Rev. D. M. Grant, DD, officiating. Mr. Eric J. Adams played the wedding music, and Mr. Harry L. Brown sang during the signing of the register. Pink and white gladioli, stocks, snapdragons, arranged with greenery and candles in candelabra were used to decorate.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of delustered satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, having a portrait neckline appliqued with Guipure lace, and long sleeves, and a very full skirt, ending in a chapel train. Her short veil of tulle illusion was held by a coronet of the same lace and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of pink roses and freesia.

Mrs. Thomas DeWolf, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Paul Brook and Miss Roslyn Forman, the bridegroom's sister, as attendants, wore bouffant frocks of sapphire blue organza over tafeta, with feather bandeaux of the same shade, and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Mr. David Brown acted as best man for Mr. Forman and the ushers were Mr. Angus Birse, Mr. James Fitzpatrick, and Mr. Roland Steppacher.

Mrs. Sargent, the bride's mother, was in a gown of beige lace. She wore a beige straw hat trimmed with chiffon, and a corsage bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Forman, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of navy blue antelope crepe, with a coral straw hat, and a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses.

The reception was held at the Mount Stephen Club.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Forman left for North Conway, N.H., the bride travelling in an ensemble of navy blue wool, under a fur coat, and wearing a white straw hat, navy blue accessories, and a corsage bouquet of pink Sweet-heart roses.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Marjorie Murray, of Vancouver, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. T. W. DeWolf, of Sherbrooke, Que., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Marshall, of Ottawa, and Mrs. C. Trecarten, of London, Ont.

MRS. JEFFERSON CHAPLEAU will act as chairman of the Women's Special Names Division of the 1958 Combined Appeal for the Blind whose campaign dates are April 14 to 28. Mrs. Chapleau reported excellent progress in the enlistment of workers and expressed the hope that the public would be as generous with their gifts as the canvassers are with their time.

MRS. STUART R. TOWNSEND

have to be picked by April 30 and the campaign time schedule calls for all workers to be named by July 15. Mrs. Townsend said she was aiming for these dates but sickness and moves by families to other cities often meant that last minute replacements in volunteers had to be made.

In addition to workers signed up by her district chairmen Mrs. Townsend said nearly every Red Feather agency would have a team of canvassers responsible for a certain district.

"Each week the work of the Women's Division gets harder and the territory it covers gets bigger," she said, "but each year the women workers respond readily to the Red Feather call for help. I know this year will be no exception."

Rummage Sales

The Women's Auxiliary of the Catherine Booth Hospital are holding a rummage sale March 18, 1.30 p.m., in St. Stephen's Church at the corner of Atwater and Dorchester streets.

A rummage sale will be held by the Chundra Lela Evening Auxiliary of Wesley United Church, 5964 Notre Dame de Grace avenue, corner of Royal, on Saturday, March 16, at 1.30 p.m.

The Friendship Circle of Westminster Central United Church, will hold a rummage sale Saturday, March 15 at 1 p.m. at 926 Atwater avenue.

A rummage sale will be held in Franklin Hall, Stanley Presbyterian Church, Victoria and Westmount avenue, Wednesday March 19, at 7.30 p.m. Take No. 114 bus.

Chairman of Women's Division Red Feather Campaign to organize 4,000 canvassers

Mrs. Stuart R. Townsend, has been handed one of the biggest jobs on the Montreal welfare scene. As chairman of the Women's Division for the 1958 Red Feather campaign Mrs. Townsend is responsible for organizing 4,000 women canvassers in a territory covering nearly every community in Greater Montreal. From Ste. Anne de Bellevue at one end of the island to Montreal East and adjacent municipalities at the other Red Feather's women volunteers will be busy this fall from September 22 to October 6.

An experienced campaigner, Mrs. Townsend's special interests in welfare work have been in the health field, a natural reflection of her professional training as a nurse. A graduate of the Montreal General Hospital and of the McGill School for Graduate Nurses, she joined the Teaching Department of the General and remained at her job throughout the war while her doctor husband served overseas with the RCAF.

In recent years her community activities have included the vice-presidency of the Montreal Council of Women and of the Young Women's Christian Association. She also did extensive field work in the survey of local nursing homes carried out by the Montreal Council of Social Agencies two years ago.

Mrs. Townsend's first task is to appoint the various members of the Women's Division Cabinet, the central body which functions as a control centre for the drive. Within the next few weeks she must find over 65 district chairmen for the fortnight's canvassing effort. They in turn will sign up team captains and canvassers in their districts.

Last year's campaign, of which Mrs. Townsend was deputy chairman, saw the Women's Division reach a figure of $362,000 in returns. This was the most they had ever raised and it means that the Red Feather residential canvass raises more than do most community chest drives across the country.

Contributions collected by the women, many of whom walk several miles each canvassing day, range from less than a dollar to well up in the hundreds. Hardest job of all for the workers is to get people to realize that they are giving to 31 organizations and not one and that they should govern the size of their contributions accordingly, says Mrs. Townsend.

The new Chairman pointed out that a dollar to Red Feather meant just over three cents to each of the 31 agencies. If people were to increase their minimum gift to five dollars then each agency would get the money necessary for it to provide efficient service to the needs of Montreal.

Mrs. Townsend paid tribute to the fine work done by last year's volunteer workers. In spite of flu and poor weather the Women's Division raised $18,000 more than in 1956.

The need for constant and steady work by the divisional organization was emphasized by its chairman. All team captains

Mrs. J. C. Manson is elected Municipal Chapter IODE regent

Mrs. J. C. Manson was elected regent of the Montreal Municipal Chapter of the IODE at the annual meeting held recently at the YWCA. Mrs. J. E. Dodds of the Lady Scott Chapter was presented with a life membership in the Municipal Chapter by a group of her friends — members of the Lady Scott Chapter and members of the building committee.

Mrs. Norman Read, educational secretary announced that $1,400 more than the previous year had been spent on education. A total of $7,875.00 had been spent by the 37 Chapters under municipal jurisdiction during the year on education.

Mrs. R. Roberts, secretary of the services at home and aboard committee, stated that $908.21 had been spent on equipment presented to hospitals and institutions, which included record players, equipment for soft ball team, kits for enamelling on copper, invalid chairs, TV sets, etc. A total of $4,937.21 was spent on relief work overseas and at home.

A total of $2,031.91 was spent on Hungarian relief work. A total of $13,657.76 was spent by this committee on all branches of its work.

IODE HOUSE

One of the highlights of the year was the move last April to the new IODE House on Western avenue. Having previously had headquarters in a rented apartment, the chapter reported the new house "is proving a boon to the chapters for holding meetings and social functions."

The Municipal Chapter shares the house with the Provincial Chapter. It has been adequately furnished by members, with almost every chapter presenting some item. The kitchen was completely remodelled by W. Clark "as a gesture of goodwill."

DARBY AND JOAN CLUB

The Darby and Joan Club, a club for elderly men and women sponsored by the Municipal Chapter, met once a week during the year. The club members were entertained at tea by 27 chapters, and the Municipal Chapter arranged three outings — one to Ottawa, one to Cornwall to see the St. Lawrence Seaway and one trip was made to Malone, USA.

A new club, The Friendly Club, was founded last year by the Baroness de Longueuil Chapter. One new chapter — the Jacques Cartier Chapter — was formed during the year.

The IODE's interest in immigration and citizenship continued last year and members attended nine citizenship ceremonies at the Court House. They acted as coffee hostesses after each ceremony.

In an attempt to learn more of the various ethnic groups in Montreal, a special tea was held at IODE House, with representatives from Danish, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian and Polish clubs present.

Reports indicated that receipts of the primary chapters amounted to $31,615.67 for the year and disbursements amounted to $29,343.81.

Associated with Mrs. Manson on the new executive will be: Mrs. E. M. Gibaut, first vice-regent; Mrs. Norman Read, second vice-regent; Mrs. C. C. Corneille, secretary; Mrs. C. T. Cresswell, treasurer; Mrs. A. B. Bell, organizing secretary; Mrs. P. W. Wright, educational secretary; Mrs. E. J. Reid, assistant educational secretary; Mrs. J. L. Bruce, "Echoes" secretary; Mrs. J. Intelligence needed to save mankind from destruction Professor tells Club

Dr. Marcus Long, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Toronto addressed the members and guests at the Notre Dame de Grace Women's Club Charter Day luncheon held in the Windsor Hotel on Friday. His subject was "Sense and Nonsense." Speaking on school programs, he said they were subject to much social pressure, sewing was substituted for Latin; cooking for physics, and how to live with a second rate husband for Shakespeare.

"Never has the world so needed intelligent thinking than at the present time, but never has there been such a surge of anti-intellectualism. The intelligent student is despised and ridiculed. The intelligent man is called, 'Egghead' and thought not worthy of social trust or public responsibility," said Prof. Long.

"Yet intelligence is the only thing that can save mankind from complete destruction. The hydrogen bomb is both the pinnacle of human accomplishment and the possible end of the human adventure."

"By intelligence, man gained control over his ancient enemies. Now only man can destroy man and that same intelligence must go to work again."

Prof. Long called upon women to exert their influence to encourage positive, constructive thinking on the part of their men-folk and an appreciation of a sound education on the part of their young people.

"It isn't too much of a pun to say that a nation without women is a stagnation," he said.

"It's ironic to consider that in this world which men have produced for us, rockets to the moon are almost necessary as an escape from reality. The two satellites that are now circling the globe are sources of fear and distress rather than pride. They're proof not of the ingenuity of mankind but of the existence of the intercontinental missile."

No one underestimates the power of a woman to influence the world for the better, Dr. Long assured his 300 all-women audience.

"One of the reasons man is so imperfect is that no woman was around to boss the job of his creation," he laughed. "Think what a world it would be if God had created Charlotte Whitton first."

The speaker was introduced by the president, Mrs. I. K. Lowry and thanked by Mrs. Norman E. Muir. Mr. George Morgan was the soloist and the accompanist was Mary Blaikie.

MR. P. E. Chemise, blouson and spindle

The importance of properly fitted foundation garments for the new chemise, blouson and spindle fashions is stressed by four nationally-known Canadian couturiers.

Raoul Jean Fouré, Montreal, dean of Canadian designers and president of the Association of Canadian Couturiers, Frances Stewart, Ottawa, Lora Marie Wiener, Vancouver, and Olivia Andegro, Hamilton, all Association members, have endorsed Sarong girdles and brassieres in Dominion Corset advertisements appearing currently in daily newspapers across the country.

Mr. Fouré says that Sarong garments which control the figure properly and at the same time give it freedom, are perfect for the new softened fashions.

Miss Stewart says Sarong garments are ideal for the simple line of the casual clothes which she prefers designing.

Olivia, of Hamilton, likes Sarong garments because they guarantee a lovely firm line for the evening gowns and short cocktail dresses she likes designing.

Miss Wiener says Sarong garments are slimming and particularly so the convertible panty girdle which is very comfortable to wear under sports clothes.

Dominion Corset stylists Eve Ramsay and May Budd stress the importance to a woman of having a varied wardrobe of foundation garments.

Up to date the average woman has been content to have two or three brassieres and a girdle in her wardrobe. A more practical and economical wardrobe consists, of two of three bandeaux, a longline bra for the smooth sheath look, a strapless bra for evening wear.

A very recent addition to the Daisy Fresh line, with its Sanitized treatment, is a strapless brassiere called "Klingtite." In embroidered nylon, this brassiere has an all-elastic band and hooks at front. (It retails at $6 with the long line at $7.50).

In the way of girdles, a panty girdle is advised for sportswear and is specially comfortable to wear with slacks. A high waisted girdle is suggested for a slimming effect; a corselette for that exceptionally sleek look.

In the past year, since its introduction in 1956, the Daisy Fresh line has been extended from nine to thirty-six garments—bras of all descriptions, including Basque and strapless, panty girdles and corselettes. These garments are all Sanitized for lasting freshness.

Other well-established lines manufactured by Dominion Corset are Gothic, Lily of France, Nuback and Teenform.

Miss Doris West feted prior to her marriage

Mrs. Richard W. Dietsche and her daughter Marlaene were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Doris Marie West whose marriage to Lieut. Raymond G. Dandurand, RCASC, took place at St. Malachy's Church recently.

Flowers decorated the rooms and were carried through into the diningroom where a floral centre-piece and candelabra adorned the table beneath a huge white bell. The ice'es, a combination of pink sherbet and vanilla ice cream were molded especially to suit the occasion and took the form of cupids, wishbones, bells and hearts.

Translation of plays for T-V said difficult

"There are many problems to be contended with when a play is translated from any other language into English, before it can be used for television purposes". Frank Lalor, story editor of CBC Folio, told a meeting of the Canadian Authors Association Monday evening.

"The translation should not just be a literal translation of the phrase, but must be written in fluent grammatical English, while still preserving the original meaning intended by the author", he said.

Mr. Lalor said types of plays that are in demand for CBC Folio, are of several kinds: modern dance, opera, classical plays, well known classical books which are suitable for television, dramatic, murder stories with unusual psychological angles, and contemporary stories or novels which are acceptable for TV. He said that he would like to see a good play showing the conflicts between the Anglo Saxon and French in Canada.

"Changing radio plays to television is difficult because what can be expressed verbally in a radio play, must be presented visually to the television audience. Sometimes considerable changes are made in the play, as well as in its presentation" he was held about a month ago. Miss Rae Resnick read one of her television plays called "The Dowry". This play was presented on Dorchester Theatre, at the CBC Studios in Montreal, during 1957.

The next meeting will be held March 31, when Mrs. Valentine Rahr will read one of her plays for television.

is the best indication of the pride they took in their city. Those who dwell within it are conscious of the fact that it is the aristocrat of municipal democracies, yet sufficiently modest to welcome any opportunity in the interest of good government to cooperate with adjacent neighbors, large or small. No matter what changes may take place in the governing and legislation affecting municipalities, there is little likelihood of Westmount losing its municipal uniqueness and identity. If certain populated sections of Montreal enjoyed a like autonomy and independence its inhabitants would regard themselves as fortunate as those who live in the little city that is admired by visitors and one of the finest examples of municipal efficiency and progress on this continent.

FISHING WEATHER

There's been so much hocus pocus written about the effect of weather on fishing that the average fisherman is inclined to throw his hands in the air and forget the whole subject. The best time to go fishing is still when you have a free minute, but certain weather factors do play a part in fishing results.

To aid those who have a hankering to fish by the barometer, here are a few useful weather facts.

1. During the summer, pay close attention to the passing of cold fronts. Excellent results are obtained by fishing in the rain when such a front is passing overhead.

2. Fishing is best on a high or rising, barometer, and at it's poorest when the barometric pressure is low or falling.

3. A barometer reading of 29.90 inches (equivalent sea level pressure) is average. Fishing is generally good above this figure and poor below it.

4. Disregard slight fluctuations of the barometer unless they can be incorporated into a trend. Fish these trends rather than one single reading. A trend indicates fishing conditions for a period of several hours or a day.

5. When the day is windy and the water rough, fish for musky, pike and black bass in deeper water. Cast while drifting with the wind or troll for best results.

6. When the water is calm but the sky is cloudy, fish the surface with top water lures. Early morning or late evening are also ideal times to use surface lures.

7. On clear, hot summer days, especially when the weather is sultry, fish on the bottom with bait or deep running artificial lures.

8. Statistics indicate that most game fish strike best between the new moon and first quarter, or between the last quarter and the change.

Experienced fishermen know and abide by these weather rules. But they also realize that both weather and fish are unpredictable.

HOME-MADE SINKERS

Here is an easy way to make an emergency supply of sinkers of the wrap-around variety. All you need is a discarded tooth paste or shaving cream tube. Squeeze as clean as possible and cut into 1/8" strips with heavy scissors.

DRY MATCHES

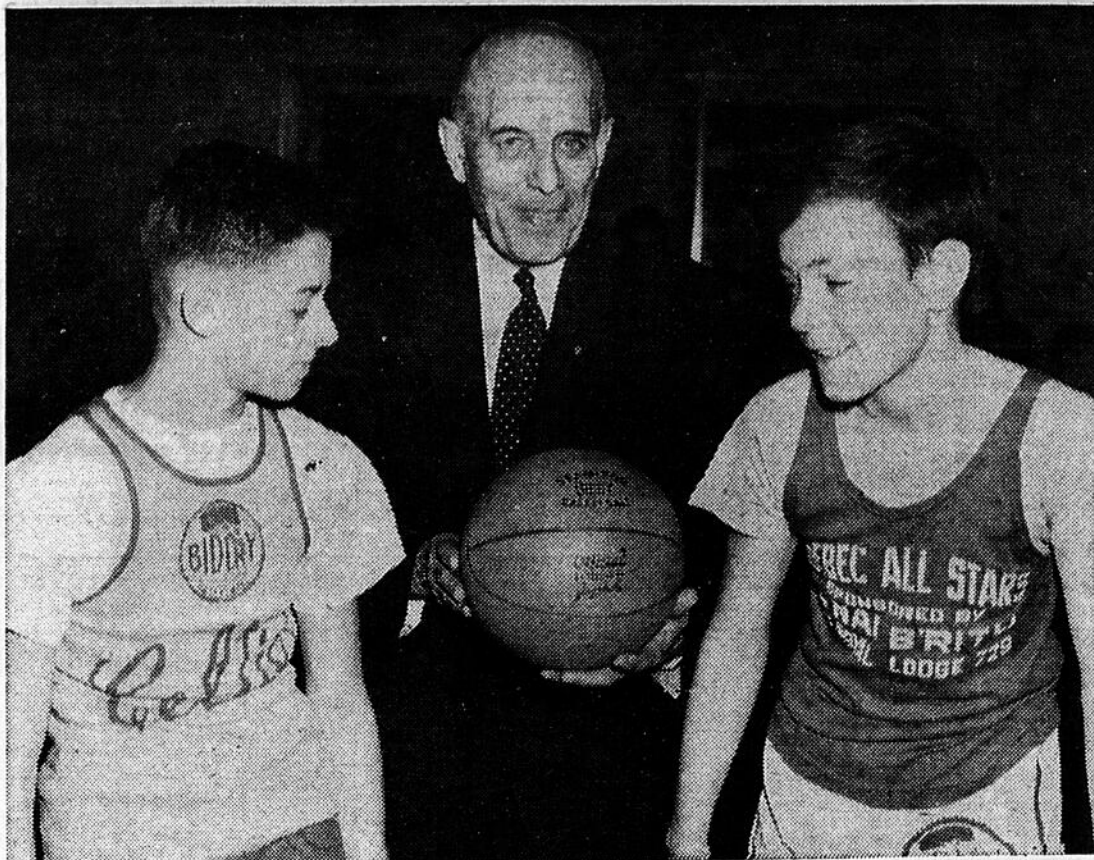

What to do when your matches get wet. Don't forget the old trick or rubbing them through your hair to dry them. It will usually work, too, if the matches aren't hopelessly water soaked.

Localites drop biddy cage crown to Kingston 31-23

Kingston all-stars captured the Canadian Biddy Basketball championship Saturday for the second consecutive year, defeating Montreal's all-star squad, 31-23, in a low scoring two-game total points final played at Westmount's Unity Boys' Club.

The visiting Kingston youngsters held a slim but commanding 14-11 advantage at the conclusion of the first game and continued to outscore coach Bob Neill's Montreal stars in the opening half of the second stanza 11-1.

Montreal started to show some signs of life in the final 12 minutes of action outpointing Kingston 11-6, but could not overcome their poor first-half showing and dropped the second fixture 17-12 and the round 31-23.

Team captain Gerald McCarey and Doug James were Kingston's leading point-getters scoring 12 and eight throughout the two game affair.

Bill Hampton, from Montreal's East End Boys' Club led the scoring parade for the losers with 11 points. Another East Ender, Donald Henderson and Michael Bervaldi of Unity Boys' Club, each tallied four points for Montreal.

Both squads were weak at the free throw line. Kingston swished home none out of 27 attempts while the hometowners sank seven in 33 tries.

Personal fouls were at a minimum with referees Frank Ulley and Norm McLeod calling 42 infractions during the two games. Montreal collected 24.

COURT CAPERS William Tawes, president of the Rotary Club of Westmount tossed up the first ball . . . Two members of the Kingston contingent, Bobby Gleason and Jacques Emond, were interviewed by CKVL's Hal Wardell on the station's Saturday morning 'Call Me Uncle' talent show which originates from Unity Boys' Club. The Kingston stars were selected from the ranks of an eight-team circuit operating in that city and sponsored for the past five seasons by the YMCA Men's club . . . Dale Hartley, coach of the visiting squad, was supported on the trip down by Howard Reynolds and Edward Hill, director and assistant director of Kingston's Biddy basketball setup.

Wings capture mosquito title

The mosquito wings, under the guidance of Jack McJannet, won the "A" division championship with a convincing 5-2 win over the Raiders, Wings also won the first game of the two-game-total-goals series by a 2-1 count, taking the round 7-3.

John Veitch turned in a sparkling effort in the big win. Veitch opened the scoring in the first period and picked up one assist. Ricky Pattee scored twice, Billy McJannet and Johnny Shayer one each.

Tim Rothwell and Darrell Munro scored the Raiders goals. Raiders goaler, Ronnie Hand sustained an injury late in the second period and was replaced by Walter Maughan, who blanked the Wings throughout the remainder of the contest.

Mr. McJannet deserves a great deal of credit for his untiring contribution to minor hockey in Westmount.

Maurice Mariasine, director of Unity Boys' Club, presented captain McCarey of Kingston with the championship trophy on behalf of Joey Richman, commissioner of Biddy basketball in Canada . . . Unity's Buddy McKaig, who during one league game recently hit the target for 25 points, was held scoreless by the invaders . . . According to a Montreal league official, this year's International Biddy Basketball Tournament will take place at Scranton, Pennsylvania with teams from Puerto Rico, Canada (Kingston), South America and all sections of the U. S. qualifying . . . A spokesman for Kingston's championship squad said that lack of sufficient funds may keep the team from representing Canada at the world tourney.

Mt. Royal wins Senior 'B' title

Mount Royal High School took the Senior B high school hockey crown away from the defending champs, Westmount, in an 8-3 encounter.

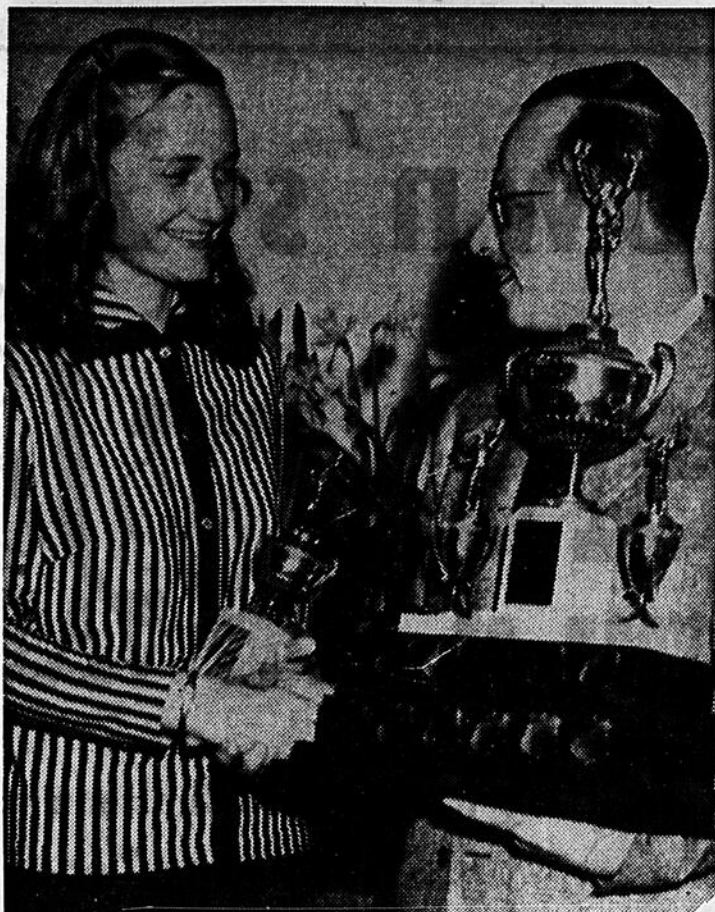

It was the Townies' ninth win of the campaign, and although they have one remaining game with Loyola they cannot be dislodged from the victory shelf.

Vic Doleman's MRHS crew held a 2-0 lead at the end of the first half on goals by Vic Virball and Tom Bell.

Mike Walsh boosted the count to 4-0 firing two goals early in the second frame. However, Walsh is a greedy sort of fellow and wharfed home two more goals before he called it quits. Virball and Bell closed out the scoring for the Mount Royal crew.

John Reid, Seybold and Palmer counted for the losing Westmounters.

Bob Armitage and Virball drew three assists each for the champs.

MOST IMPROVED player in the Province of Quebec Lawn Tennis Association was Sieglinde Boeck, of Mount Royal Tennis club who received the award from Lucien Laverdure.

Quebec lawn tennis has successful year

J. J. Desjardins was re-elected president of the Province of Quebec Lawn Tennis Association at the annual meeting Saturday afternoon.

Other executives for 1958 season are J. W. Davies, first vice-president; Guy Dorval, second vice-president; and Brendan Madigan, treasurer.

Councillors are M. Brenhouse, G. Ledoux, U. Lafrance, F. A. Carpenter, M. Dussault, Louis de Passille, Laurentian Zone; J. A. Paquette, Quebec Zone; Roland Choiniere, Yamaska-Richelieu Zone; Majella Charest, Eastern Townships and Ray Carignan, St. Maurice Valley.

In what was described as a "record year in tennis" by Ulderice Lafrance, chairman of the PQLTA tournament committee, there were 20 separate tournaments run under sponsorship of the PQLTA. In these tournaments 833 games were played. Mr. Lafrance said that the association would have to look back 20 years to find such a healthy tournament situation in the province.

The financial report showed the association finished the year with a surplus of $367.

The 1957 rankings were approved. Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke and Sieglinde Boeck of Montreal were top ranked. Miss Boeck was voted the most improved player of the year and received the Lucien Laverdure Trophy.

She is planning a trip to Europe, to participate in three tournaments at Monte Carlo, Nice and Cannes.

Miss Boeck won the Montreal Cup, Mount Royal Club Championship and reached the final of the Canadian Championships.

Prizes were also awarded to the inter club winners, Monkland, Class A; Monkland, Class B; Valois, Class C; Mount Royal Tennis Club in Junior Series; Mount Royal Country Club in

Royal Pharmacy, Westmount Stars enter hockey finals

Action in the Saint Laurent Intermediate Hockey League saw Westmount Stars and Royal Pharmacy earn the right to continue on in the hunt for the Dr. Rondeau trophy.

Both teams won their best of three semi-final round in two straight games. Westmount swamped Le Prevost 12-2 while the Pharmacy was administering an 8-4 beating to Saint Laurent TP's.

Saturday, Westmount Stars and Royal Pharmacy meet in the first game of a best of three finals.

The Westmount-Le Prevost game, with the exception of 10 minutes in the second period, was strictly no contest. The Stars struck early with MacDonald scoring before the game was two minutes old, and Jim Beasant added another before the period closed.

Pete Mitchell scored his first goal of the game early in the second period to give Westmount a 3-0 edge. Prevost's Claude Vezina and Bourdon then combined for two quick goals only to have Mitchell score again. Bob Brown added another counter and the period ended with Westmount ahead 5-2.

In third, Mitchell scored three goals and two assists to bring his game production up to five goals and two assists. Turner, McGowan, and Painchaud added singles while Brown registered his second goal for a final score of 12-2.

Pharmacy-TP game was another high scoring affair that saw the teams battle on even terms most of the game. Pharmacy took a two goal lead on goals by Goodwin and Ron Kenwood. The TP's got back in the game when Lehman beat Jodoin with a high shot to the far corner just before the end of the first period.
