PRICE—THREE CENTS

Business Assoc'n Executive Meets For Initial Parley

First meeting of this year's executive of the Business Association of Westmount was held on Wednesday evening for the purpose of drawing up plans for the coming year and to discuss internal affairs of the organization.

President J. P. Page addressed the gathering briefly. He promised the Association his wholehearted co-operation in furthering the activities of the Association as an influential body in the community, and briefly outlined his plans.

He was followed by vice-president Paul Viau, who likewise set forth suggestions, and the meeting was then thrown open to discussion.

Several constructive ideas were discussed, and committees drawn up. A policy-discussion meeting was planned for May 12, and an agenda was drawn up for interim study and discussion at that meeting.

Members present at the meeting included: J. P. Page, president; Paul Viau, 1st vice-president; Miss F. Jobin, 2nd vice-president; D. C. Kidd, secretary; and directors C. A. James, immediate past president; Albert duBois, W. J. Chatfield, Miss Verna Evans, Mrs. Juliette Harmon, Paul Kenwood, and Miss Alice Hebert. Member P. T. Golden also attended.

Annual Exhibition Of Stamp Club On Next Week

Thirteenth Annual Exhibition of the Westmount Stamp Club will be held in Victoria Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. Mayor R. P. Adams will formally open the show at 8.30 p.m. on Thursday evening.

Stamps on exhibit will be adjudged in the following groups: Junior section; Air Mails and Miscellaneous; United States; British North America; British Empire; and Foreign.

The judges will be Robson Lowe and Fred Jarret. Mr. Lowe is considered to be one of the principal dealers in the United Kingdom, and Mr. Jarret is one of the foremost Philatelists in Canada.

A welcome is extended to all stamp collectors, young and old, and members of the exhibition committee will be on hand at each session. A junior member will be present to welcome young visitors and conduct them around the exhibition.

Exhibitors are reminded that all exhibits should be in Victoria Hall by Thursday at 7.30 p.m.

Westmount Wins Honour Award

As a result of co-operative action on the part of the local Fire Department and City Authorities during Fire Prevention Week last October, Mayor Adams recently received a letter from the office of the Provincial Fire Commissioner congratulating Westmount for obtaining Honorable Mention, Class B, in the Province of Quebec, for educational activities, conducted during the 1947 Fire Prevention Week campaign.

The letter was accompanied by a certificate of award.

Local Songbirds Acquire Awards

Four feathered songsters, bred and raised in Westmount by A. K. St. James, 51 Hallowell Avenue, secretary of the Montreal Roller Canary Club, have recently been returned to their home bailiwick after having invaded England, where they walked off with many honours in competition with other birds, it was learned recently.

There was a time when roller canaries of championship calibre were almost always imported from England. But things have changed, as was shown by the awards won by Mr. St. James' tiny songsters in competition with the best Britain produces.

Mr. St. James stated that he has been breeding canaries as a hobby for several years. "It is one of the most fascinating hobbies that a man of average income can take up," he declared, adding that he has found it to be of great interest all the year 'round. There always is some interesting development to watch in the breeding season, moulting season, training season and showing season, he declared.

A member of the Montreal Roller Canary Club, which has been active for 22 years, and of which he is present secretary, and elected president of the Dominion Roller Canary Association last month, Mr. St. James said that a member of any such club in good standing is entitled to enter his birds in any roller canary competition, and that he has sent birds to many different clubs in Canada, the United States and Great Britain. This year, his birds in England won honours in West Bromwich, a big "roller centre", Walsall and Lye.

Westmount Hobby Show Proves Highly Successful

From the moment Mayor R. P. Adams officially opened the 12th Annual Westmount Boys' and Girls' Hobby Show, held in the gymnasium of the Westmount Y. M. C. A., on Wednesday evening of last week, until prizes for the outstanding entries in the show were awarded in an impressive presentation ceremony, preceding an enjoyable dance which wound up the event on Saturday night, the Show proved to be a resounding success.

Great interest in the Show was evident from the first, in the large number and high quality of the entries and in the wide interest taken in the proceedings by the many visitors who availed themselves of the opportunity to visit the Show and examine the exhibits.

Alpha Omega Annual Banquet

Saturday night at St. Andrew's United Church, the Alpha Omega Society will hold their Annual Banquet, and expects, as in the past, an excellent attendance to be on hand. The Annual Banquet since the Club's inception in 1938 has always marked the official close of its activities for the year.

This year's banquet slated to get under way at 6.15 p.m. Saturday sharp is expected to be one of the biggest and best banquets in the entire history of the Club. Many features are planned, not the least of which will be the excellent Floor Show which will feature among other things a chorus line and several excellent variety acts.

Arrangements for the banquet this year are in the charge of Miss Betty North, Rad Hall, Richard Huston, a past president of the club, and Thomas Earle.

HELP KEEP STREETS CLEAN!

Police authorities wish to draw attention to the fact that in annual spring cleaning up, rubbish cleared off lawns, etc., should not be swept into the gutter where it litters the street and becomes a generally messy nuisance.

It is also contrary to the law to dump rubbish on any vacant lot.

People who employ gardeners should see that these public offences are not committed.

STRUCK BY PIPE EXTENDING FROM TRUCK

Eleven-year-old Sydney Rollins of 35 Brooke Avenue was struck by a piece of pipe sticking out from a truck as he waited on the sidewalk for the vehicle to pass and turn onto Brooke Avenue. He walked to the Western General Hospital where he was found to have sustained bruises and scratches on his cheek.

The Pillar

By GEORGE COCHRANE

By Thorne M. Luttrell

We are not in the least averse to the March of Progress, as it is somewhat loosely termed. Much of it actually is change rather than progress. Still and all it represents man's basic struggle to make the optimum use and effectiveness of the lavish gifts of his Creator and as such should in no way be despised.

As a citizen of an up-and-coming-world, therefore, this observer has striven to keep up with the times. He has accepted the eight-hour working day with what equanimity he could, despite his natural unwillingness to quit when the whistle blew.

He likewise (albeit with regret) discarded some years ago his blue serge suit with-a-belt-in-the-back in favor of a drape shape number. The latter, incidentally, has worn exceedingly well — the vest, that is. The pants have been replaced twice and the jacket once in the interim (also on 5' 6" of glamorous masculinity).

But last week at the Sportsmen's Show came a heartening reminder that, despite the March of Progress, the 'old-timer' was no slouch when it came to doing a bang-up production job. Sans subsidy, sans mechanization — sans, in fact, everything but the hand and heart and brain to achieve — he built this Canada of ours. And, all her detractors notwithstanding, be built well — better than he knew and better than we generally realize.

The incident in question was a log-cutting demonstration. First came an exponent of the 'new look' in woodsmanship. He hitched himself into a harness attached to a power chain-saw and went through a log (about 10-12 inches diameter) in a matter of minutes. Nice going, fella!

But hold everything! Came a husky-muscled son of the bush with a hand-saw and did the same stunt in a few seconds.

We don't and can't logically decry and trend to greater efficiency inherent in mechanization. But if the spirit of personal initiative, as typified by the hand-saw, is ever totally superseded by the 'laissez-faire' attitude so often hand in hand with the machine — will be sunk, brother — sunk without a trace.

Wedded Bliss Dept.

We're glad to have this officially, but it's been pretty widely known for years — chances are that if your wife hurls the Frigidaire at your devoted head in a moment of pique — she loves you, no less.

This marital phenomenon came to light in a Cornish divorce court last week. Hubby charged spouse with throwing (2) a knife (b) a poker at him and (c) stabbing his leg with a fork. Hizzoner noted that "variability may be a female defect but it is also one of the great charms of womanhood. Forgiveness in marriage should extend even unto seventy times seven." And, he added in dismissing the case, most of the dames who

Rotary To Hold Annual Public Speaking Contest

Dates for the annual Boys Speaking Contest sponsored by the Rotary Club of Montreal have been settled, it is announced by Contest Chairman, Roland Gomery, with three contests in Montreal and ten schools to participate. Preliminaries will be held at the Montreal Westward and Verdun Rotary Clubs; semi-finals at the Westmount Club on April 28; and the finals at the Rotary Club of Montreal on May 4.

Many High Schools of Greater Montreal have already held their own competitions and have picked their candidates for the Contest. Quebec City held their preliminary on March 30; Hawkesbury, Ont., is to hold theirs April 6, with four or five schools taking part; Sherbrooke, with nine schools participating, holds theirs on April 13; and the St. Maurice Valley Contest, with five schools participating, is to be held at Quebec on April 20.

Chairmen of the various clubs are, Westmount, Frank Kenwood; Montreal Westward, Frank Shonkwiler; Verdun, Harold Grant; Quebec, Fabre Surveyor; Sherbrooke, Wright Gibson; Hawkesbury, Ont., Rev. Bernard Holden; and General Chairman of the Contest is Roland Gomery, chairman of the Public Speaking Committee, Rotary Club of Montreal.

Already many schools have requested use of the recordings of the 1947 finals and these have been sent as far away as Martinsburg, West Va., U.S.A., and Regina, Sask., which shows the great interest being manifested in this activity of Rotary.

A. Rutherford Funeral Service

Many former friends and associates gathered at a funeral service held yesterday to accord final tribute to Andrew Rutherford, of 49 Aberdeen avenue, who died in the Royal Victoria Hospital on Tuesday, following a short illness in his 83rd year.

Former vice-president of the Rutherford Lumber Company, Mr. Rutherford was born in 1865 in Montreal and was educated at the Cote St. Antoine School and High School. At the age of 16, he joined the firm his father founded, and rose to the position of vice-president, which he held for many years. He was a member of the firm for 60 years, until his death, but had given up active duties due to advancing age.

A keen sportsman, he was a member of the M.A.A.A., a member of the St. George Snowshoe Club, the Westmount Bowling club and the Kanaron Fishing Club. He was a past vice-president of the Mechanics' Institute and a member of St. Mathias' Church. His wife, the late Florence M. C. Paris, predeceased him in 1944. He is survived by four sons, James, Robert and Hugh of Montreal and Osborne, of Toronto; one daughter, Mrs. J. S. Wallace; a brother, Stewart; a sister, Mrs. Margaret McIntosh and four grandchildren.

CHINA

In a land of diverging totalitarian extremes and civil war, with inflation running wild, and graft, corruption, and violence at all-time high, people are growing more and more aware that China's salvation depends upon a basic and wholesale rededication to the principles of individual moral responsibility.

The Canton YMCA struck this hope in the hearts of many when it marched over the top in a recent financial campaign with the slogan, "Only character can save the country". Contributions came from more than 30,000 individuals. The fund was raised by teams led by 100 of the city's most prominent men. The mayor, the

Y Notes

Tonight at 8 p.m., the Young People's Association of the Westmount Churches, are gathering at the Westmount "Y" for their 3rd Annual Get-Together. A varied social program, including a sing-song, games, swimming, entertainment and dancing has been arranged. The official film of the second World Conference of Christian Youth held in Oslo, Norway, last summer will be shown by Gordon Clarke, who was a delegate to that conference.

The clubs of the "Y" have arranged another dance for April 23rd, and a summer program has been arranged which should interest everyone. Watch the "Y" notes for further details.

The Social Clubs are still operating. It isn't too late to make an acquaintance.

The regular serial will be shown tomorrow morning at 9 a.m. for members.

The movie to be shown tomorrow afternoon is "Spook Busters" with the Bowery Boys. This movie is open to all boys and girls.

governor, and the representatives of the National Government in South China all pitched in. Never before had a social agency in Canton had such instantaneous success.

Stories of increasing Y support have come from all over China. The Nanking Association just one year after restoration is entirely self-supporting. Shanghai, outstripping other welfare organizations, raised $800 million (Chinese inflated currency) on a $500 million goal. And the Kweiyang Association doubled the goal it went out for.

The over-all picture for China's Y.M.C.A.'s shows membership increased since the war's end to 150,000. The total number reached is about 2,750,000. Associations number 142, counting the 100 student Y.M.C.A.'s. Fourteen suspended or destroyed city Y's reopened in 1946 and eight more in 1947.

In Manchuria, the Mukden Y, outside the Communist area, has once again opened its doors. Shih Shang-tah, its General Secretary, who in 1939 fled to Free China from a Japanese jail and founded the Kweiyang Association, returned home in the winter of 1946 to find the top floor of the 3-storied Y building destroyed by fire. In temperatures of 30 degrees below zero he then set to work and levelled the third floor into a roof. The present two-storied Y now runs an adult school for 670 people, an outside orphanage for 500 children and a student shelter on the campus of North-Eastern University.

STOVE CAUSES FIRE

Fire, caused by an electric stove in a cupboard converted to a kitchenette at 354 Kensington avenue, resulted in a call to the Westmount Fire Department for assistance in putting out the blaze on Monday afternoon. The fire was extinguished with little difficulty, and water and fire damage were held to a minimum.

Linnell Tells Rotary About Experiences Inside Germany

Sufficient food to establish morale, and proper leadership are two of the chief answers to the present problems that face the democratic world in Germany, declared Vincent Linnell, Assistant Superintendent of Construction, Montreal Tramways Co., who served with the Royal Canadian Engineers for three and a half years "Inside Germany". Addressing the members of the Rotary Club of Westmount this week, he described many of the impressions he had gained through first-hand contact with the Germans and Germany.

The Germans in the north and southern part of the country fall into two distinct types, he stated. The northern Germans are tall, blond, "nordic" or "Pruis-sian" types, and the only thing they understand is force. It was in the northern section that the fanatical "Hitler Youth" training program achieved its greatest success.

In contrast, the natives in the Rhineland area are shorter, darker, happier people who took less kindly to the Hitler regime. Known as "Black Germany", this area has been one of the strongholds of religion for centuries. Charlemagne came from this area and churches and castles he built still stand.

The "saturation" bombings used by the allies against Germany proved so devastating that cities were completely obliterated within a few short minutes, he said, and the rubble became infested with sleek rats, which were eventually caught and eaten by those who remained alive, due to the appalling food shortage.

First problem of the occupation forces in Germany was to establish supply routes, water supplies and sewage systems which had been destroyed. Then followed the task of emergency housing and heating and feeding the populace. During the war, they had fed themselves with supplies from occupied countries, but now they were not even able to grow their own food — farmers could not plough the land, which was mined. The job of finding and eliminating these mines proved to be a task of tremendous difficulty. Many volunteer German field companies were

Boy's Brigade First Company Competes in Swim

A team from the 1st Company entered the Battalion swimming meet on Saturday and took third place in the overall score, competing against the other teams from the Battalion. Pte. Stephen Montague showed himself an able swimmer, capturing the 13-14 year old swimming race, and again in some of the novelty racing he came out on top. The relay team which took third place was composed of Ptes. John Fuller, Michael Fuller, Hadden Whitelaw and Stephen Montague.

A delegation from the 1st will be the guests of the 8th Company on Wednesday evening, this being their second anniversary gathering. The following week, the finals in a series of floor hockey games as well as basketball will be completed. There are three trophies up for challenge between the 1st, 6th and 8th Companies; the Jeffrey Basketball Trophy, the 1st Company Floor Hockey Trophy and the new Memorial swimming trophy.

formed to do the job and the task is still going on.

A problem encountered in the rehabilitation of the country was, and is, that of personnel, stated Mr. Linnell, so many former Nazis had to be screened out. In the screening process, allied officers often heard, "Why don't you attend to the Russian situation now while you have all your men and material over here. We know the danger of Russia and we will help you fight her!" He added that there is a definite underground Nazi organization which right now controls men in industrial and civil organizations. "It looks to me as if something is now building up," he said.

The German mentality needs leadership. We will have to supply leadership and food, if we are to compete with the Russians successfully, for that is what Russia is doing. Food is the keynote, concluded Mr. Linnell. Proper leadership and food will bring the Germans over to our side.

Stop, look—and live!

W. B. Tingle, of 400 Kensington Avenue, whose appointment as vice-president of Transit Advertising Company Limited was recently announced by R. H. Hough, president of the company. Mr. Tingle's headquarters will be in Montreal.

A resident of Westmount for many years, Mr. Tingle was advertising manager and a director of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada Limited until his retirement a short time ago. He is known throughout Canada not only for his tobacco advertising connection but also for his work during the war years with the National War Finance Committee as Joint Chairman, Public Relations Section for the Province of Quebec.

Taxi By-Law Amendment Receives Third Reading

An amendment to the local taxi by-law, to authorize that taxi drivers who have not obtained a Westmount taxi licence be prohibited from soliciting fares in the municipality, received third reading at this week's meeting of the Municipal Council.

Authorities at City Hall emphasize that in this measure there is no intention of preventing Westmount residents from ordering any taxi they desire to pick them up at any specified address.

Air Cadet League Seeks $25,000 In Campaign To Expand Its Work

"Better Citizens Through Air Cadet Training" is the keynote of the Air Cadet League of Canada which is observing National Air Cadet Week now — April 7-14. During this week, the Quebec Provincial Committee of the Air Cadet League of Canada will appeal to the public for $25,000 to carry on and expand its program of citizenship training for boys between the ages of 14 and 18 years.

Since its inception, the Air Cadet League has instituted a nationwide program of youth training which has brought practical lessons in good citizenship to more than 60,000 young Canadians. This is its primary purpose; Air Cadets are not required to choose a military career.

Official endorsement of this program of citizenship training is given by His Excellency Sir Eugene Fiset, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Quebec, it was announced on Friday by Lawrence Marsh, chairman of the Quebec Provincial Committee of the League. Mr. Marsh read a letter from His Excellency, who wrote that, "The maintenance of such a program for the youth of our Province merits the support of every thinking citizen. I have no hesitation in endorsing the aims and objectives of the Air Cadet League of Canada, and I extend my warmest wishes for the success of the undertakings it sponsors."

Highlight of a week of activities by Air Cadet Squadrons throughout the Greater Montreal area will be a church parade on Sunday. Following service at St. James' Cathedral and St. George's Church, all Cadet Squadrons will form up on Dominion Square at 3 p.m. and will march north of Metcalf and West on Sherbrooke to the dismissal area at Atwater. Air Vice Marshal Adelard Raymond, joint chairman of the League's Quebec Provincial Campaign Committee, will take the salute from the reviewing stand in front of the United Services Club. The parade will be led by Squadron Leader H. P. Illsley, former president of the Quebec Provincial Committee, who was in charge of the party of Royal Canadian Air Cadets which

"AN INSTITUTION OF THE COUNTRY"

"He had now become an institution of the country. In the eyes of Canadians and outsiders alike he was the embodiment, if indeed he was not the maker, of the new position Canada held in the world. He stood head and shoulders above other men in public life. The subtle note of distinction in all he said or did, in all he was, the blending of reserve and of friendly interest which fascinated the men who came into personal contact with him, the adroitness in handling a tangled situation, the prestige of long years in high place, made him an incomparable leader..."

The above wasn't written of Mackenzie King. It was written of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as the Liberal Leader was in 1908, by the late Dr. O. D. Skelton. However, it could well have been written of Mr. King today. Liberals are hoping that the new leader, when one is named, will justify as great a eulogy.

OUR SYSTEM IS BEST

Events of the last few months in the United States, where serious clashes have occurred between a democratic government and a Republican Congress, have stimulated much discussion and consideration here of our system of democracy. While no one contends that our system is yet perfect, many claim that it represents the highest and most flexible degree of "government by the people" that the human race has yet evolved.

Compared with that of the United States, which probably comes next in the struggle for a free democratic system, we have more direct government—Parliamentary relations arising from the fact that Ministers of the Crown are members of the House of Commons. This contributes to a better understanding between the legislative and executive branches of government than in the United States where Cabinet members are not members of Congress. It also has the advantage that Cabinet ministers may be and are questioned by members of Parliament on the floor of the House regarding proposed legislation and government policy. Ministers can and do propose, explain and defend government policy and measures in face-to-face debate with other members of the Commons, a privilege denied United States cabinet members.

CHILDREN WITHOUT CHILDHOOD

It is with pleasure we recall the fun we had in our childhood... of those things which were not important then but which are now treasures in our memory book. That is the way childhood should be... carefree and secure, no worries, no wants.

But how different it is for those boys and girls in Europe whose lives have been sliced by the ravages of war? Truly, they are old before they are young. They are half-fed and cold. Many, made orphans, will never know the love within their mother's heart. Thousands know no other home than a pile of rubble. Garbage dumps is where they eke out food to help stretch the skin over their dwarfed bodies. Their lives are miserable.

Childhood for these boys and girls has passed them by. Living and survival has been earnest business—a 24-hours-a-day job and it started at the cradle. It is to these poor unfortunates that we are asked to extend our help with donations to the Canadian Appeal for Children. Money collected in this appeal will be used to purchase food and clothing. Money will be spent for books and pencils. It's a fresh start for millions and it must succeed.

CANADA'S BRITAIN'S NO. 2 SUPPLIER

Canada was the second most important source of supply for Great Britain during the past year, contributing 12.9 per cent of her total imports, compared with 15.1 per cent in 1946. Canada's exports to the United Kingdom amounted to $921.2 millions, or $133.6 millions more than in 1946. This total is three times that of 1938, but much of the increase can be attributed to higher commodity prices. Britain's exports to Canada, on the other hand were valued at $173.2 millions, indicating that we sold to the United Kingdom more than five times as much as we bought from that country. But British sales to Canada were 32.8 per cent higher than in 1946.

The United States ranked first on the list of Britain's suppliers, and contributed 16.5 per cent of that country's total requirements last year. Britain imported 7.3 per cent of the total from Argentina, placing that country third among United Kingdom suppliers.

DON'T DELAY WITH WHOOPING COUGH

Whooping cough is one of the most serious respiratory diseases, particularly in young children. It kills more infants than diphtheria, scarlet fever and measles combined! Severe coughing spasms, with a "crowing" sound, should be regarded with extreme suspicion. The doctor, or local health authorities, should be asked about protective measures against this deadly complaint.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Letters are reproduced exactly as received as a public service. The paper does not accept any responsibility for them.

Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed a poem that I have written. This is not an ordinary poem, but one that I have written out of gratitude for the City of Westmount.

I have just recently returned from spending two years at the Boys Farm and Training School of Shawbridge, P. Q. and you know with what opposition a boy meets with when he has been there.

I chose the City of Westmount to live in, and to my surprise have been very happy ever since. I work at the Westmount greenhouses doing gardening work and no one ever mentions that I have been to the B.F.T.S.

And so I have written this poem and if by chance it is ever printed it would be nice for everyone to know why it was written.

Very truly yours,
G. Henderson

Amid a group of bustling cities,
Filled with people beyond count,
Stands out one above the others,
The charming City of Westmount.
Gone the rules of other countries,
Here's where friendship reigns supreme.

Just as though this happy city,
Had come out a passing dream,
Its streets are lined with stately maples,
Oaks and elms dot every one,
And in spring when winter grapes,

With the warmth and golden sun,
Tulips, daffs and wondrous flowers,

Fill its parks and building fronts,
Like an artist a portrait painting,
The earth, its gayest colours hunt.
But best of all I like this city,
Resting on a mountain side,
For the care, love and pity,
Gave to me when all was pride.
With open arms they took me to it,
Gave a home and job to me,
If only other people knew it,
Just what Westmount can really be.

Princess' Wedding Ring Made Of Welsh Gold

Many people were surprised to learn that Welsh gold was used in the manufacture of Princess Elizabeth's wedding ring, being still under the impression that gold is found only in Africa and other well-known gold-producing lands.

day," says Mr. Wyatt, "I put it to him that it would be a sad mistake on the part of the Congress to think that, if negotiations broke down, they would start an uprising and throw us out by force. 'Yes,' he replied, 'if we were to start a rising, I should hate to think that the British were no longer tough enough to deal with it. It would be your duty to suppress it, and I hope you would.' At another point, when he was asked if he would tell Congress to adopt a policy of non-violence towards the Moslim League if they attempted to become 'masters of India,' Gandhi replied: 'Yes, I should certainly urge Congress to pursue the course of non-violence—but I shouldn't expect them to.' 'That,' adds Mr. Wyatt, 'was typical of so many of his utterances which to the Westerner had a faintly dishonest flavor. But there was no dishonesty or real inconsistency in his make-up. The drawback was more that he so faithfully and accurately mirrored the tortuousness and simplicity of the Indian mind... never consciously did he do or advocate anything that was wrong or untrue.' Mr. Wyatt says that in some respects Gandhi's conscience was similar to that of the old Non-conformists in England. "That," no doubt, was the reason why Sankey and Moody hymns (and he was distressed that they had lost their former popularity in England) made so strong an appeal to him, together with the non-ceremonial aspects of Christianity. His Prayer Meetings are said to have been a "mixture of every creed, and through them he sought to release the best in Hinduism. In that he succeeded, as he succeeded triumphantly, against misunderstanding, in carrying his religious beliefs into the realm of practical affairs," says Mr. Wyatt.

These intimate sidelights on the character of the Indian leader reveal him as a very complex personality. Although he was a typical Hindu, he was in many respects a typical Englishman of the latter part of the nineteenth century, and the two were at cross-purposes. But even toward the end he harked back to the memories of his early associations in England, and when the question of a new national flag for India was being considered he favored the inclusion of the Union Jack in the emblem.

Portrait of Mahatma Gandhi

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

"I dinna ken what to think about him; it's hard to understand yon people," said Mrs. MacGowan when she was asked by one of her boarders what she thought of Mahatma Gandhi. That about sums up the average person's opinion—if it can be called an opinion. To the Western mind Gandhi was and still is an enigma, although he has been generally hailed as a saint. Some have even gone so far as to compare him with the Man of Nazareth.

Woodrow Wyatt, a member of a British Parliamentary Delegation which went to India in 1946, gives his impressions of Gandhi in an article appearing in the New Statesman and Nation of February 7. The article is entitled "Saint in Politics," and Mr. Wyatt's story reveals Gandhi more as a politician than a saint. Nevertheless he concludes: "He did not claim to be a saint, but he had better right to the title than many who have passed the test at Rome."

The first meeting with the Mahatma was on a hot and "sticky" evening at Madras when he addressed the delegation in a "rambling discourse delivered from the veranda floor of the house in the centre of the camp, as we sat uncomfortably shifting on our chairs in a semi-circle around him, and lasted for nearly two hours." While there were flashes of wit and penetration in the address, Mr. Wyatt says that it left the delegation baffled. "It seemed to be impossible to settle anything with such a man." When the members of the delegation pressed for "practical suggestions on the course our Government should follow, the only advice we got was, 'Get off our backs,' with no indication as to how it was to be done," says Mr. Wyatt.

"It is easy enough," continues Mr. Wyatt, "to describe his simplicity, his asceticism, his days of silence and his fasts as play-acting; as many British administrators did so, perhaps rightly from their standpoint. To travel third class in India is a nightmare experience against a background of wooden seats and crammed carriages of inferno heat. If that was the way India's millions had to make a journey, Gandhi would go third class, too. But his train was a special one. His coach contained only himself and his immediate entourage. Each trip cost the Government of India £100 or more; and he would solemnly tender the third class fare for it, so as not to be beholden to the British."

Gandhi's food was the same as that of the peasants, but he is said to have eaten "much more than they did, or he would not have retained his health and vigor. His days of silence seemed to Europeans to be conducted with an eye more to their political effect than on their religious value." He never undertook a fast "unto death" when he was in the hands of the British, as the risk that they might not release him was too great. "But that did not diminish their genuineness, and the Indians knew that they were says Mr. Wyatt. "His defects by Western standards were not defects at all in India. His position was understood perfectly... He represented their hopes and fears articulately when they could only feel them vaguely... Gandhi knew that the Indian character when it turns to violence can be as ugly as that of any nation in the world."

Mr. Wyatt says that Gandhi had the greatest respect for British institutions and culture, and for the British soldiers. "One

Rt. Rev. Dr. Jones Goes To Britain

Sunday evening's service at Calvary United Church will be the final one for the Right Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D., in Canada before leaving for the British Isles, where, as Moderator of The United Church of Canada, he will attend the Annual Conference of the Presbyterian Churches of England and Wales and the Church of Scotland Assembly in Edinburgh.

It is expected that Dr. Jones, in addition to preaching in the Chapel in his home village, will also preach in churches in London, including the Congregational Church at Poplar, which has been assisted in its rebuilding programme following the bombing during the war by substantial gifts of money from the 30 Year Thanksgiving Fund of Calvary Church.

Dr. Jones will carry the final contribution from this Fund and present it to the Congregation on the occasion of this visit.

The service in Calvary on Sunday night will be in the nature of a "send-off" and a "commissioning service" for the commissions in which Dr. Jones will be engaged as Moderator while overseas. A cordial invitation therefore is extended not only to the members of the church but to all friends to attend this special service.

Stanley Presbyterian

The Rev. J. D. Wilkie will conduct both services of worship in Stanley Church on Sunday next.

On Sunday at 3 o'clock, Rev. Jos. Muchan of Jhansi, India, will address the Bible class. Mr. Muchan has served in the Canadian Presbyterian Mission in Jhansi, India, since 1940, and brings a wonderful message of the work that is being done there.

The Board of Management meets on Monday at 8 p.m.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed at both morning and evening services of worship on Sunday, April 18th. On the Friday preceding, the Preparatory service for the reception of new communicants will be held in the church at 8.15 p.m.

Calvary Church

On Sunday morning the Guest Preacher at Calvary United Church will be Rev. Dr. A. Lloyd Smith, Minister of Dominion Douglas United Church. His sermon theme will be "What Does Religion Really Offer?" There is a very close association between the two congregations because of the fact that many members of the former Douglas Methodist who were living in this district joined Calvary when Douglas amalgamated with Dominion Church some years ago. This interchange of Pastors for this morning service carries with it, therefore, very happy associations extending across the years.

The evening service will be conducted by the Minister of Calvary, Right Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones, and will be attended by the officers and members of Maple Leaf Council No. 64 of the Universal Craftsmen's Council of Engineers. The members of this Order are requested to meet in the Church Hall at 7 p.m. and proceed in a body into the church.

Monday, Wolf Cubs meet at 7 p.m. and Y.P.U. at 8 p.m.

Wednesday, 2.30 p.m. monthly meeting of the W.M.S. Mrs. Blodwen Walker is the convener and will give a paper on "Behind the Scenes", based on the life and work of Jesus. Mrs. F.

"Discovery in The Desert"—the story of a man who herded asses and who found warm springs. Our usefulness in the world is often dependent upon the discoveries we make and the uses we put them to. For many, life's task is as commonplace as that of "herding asses", but this hum-drum duty may be transformed by the "discovery of springs."

"Modern Youth at the Crossroads"—Challenge! Choice! Consequences! Life itself with all its assets of personality, its gifts and its graces, is our ultimate capital. The sphere and method of investment of that life is a matter of supreme importance to any young man or to any young woman. Such lives as ours may be hoarded, squandered or invested in the most important enterprise the world has ever known. Baptism will take place at the close of this service. High School and University students are especially invited.

"Westmount's" annual business meeting will take place on Friday evening, April 23rd. The outstanding event of the occasion will be the burning of the Church Mortgage, which has now been completely liquidated. A Congregational Supper Meeting, beginning at 6.15, will precede the business session, which will commence at 7.30. It is expected that a large number will attend this very significant gathering.

Dominion-Douglas

On Sunday Dominion-Douglas will celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of the dedication of the present building and the sixtieth anniversary of the foundation of the Woman's Missionary Society. The special preacher at the morning service will be the Rt. Rev. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D., Moderator of the United Church of Canada, who will speak on the theme: "Vision and Duty". The Choir under the direction of Mr. Robb will sing the "Magnificat," Fes-

F. Jamieson will take the devotional period. Friday, April 16th, 8 p.m. The Young People's Union is sponsoring a Minstrel Show in the Church Hall.

Christian Science

"Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 45:17 "Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:—"And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine; For He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them." (Matthew 7: 28, 29 and Luke 4:40).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science & Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

ACKERSON—GILBURN

A wedding of local interest took place on April 3rd in New York when Miss Catherine Gilburn, daughter of Mr. Thomas Gilburn, Sr., and the late Mrs. Gilburn, became the bride of Mr. Thomas F. Ackerson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Ackerson Sr., of the Bronx, N.Y., at a nuptial mass celebrated at eleven o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. Father Knidel.

The bride was attended by a maid of honor, Miss Vivian Fay Ackerson, sister of the groom. Mr. Thomas Gilburn, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as groomsman.

Ushers were Mr. Joseph McGlynn and Mr. John Cahill.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was wearing a white satin gown trimmed with seed pearls and having a long train. She carried a bouquet of white flowers, with corsage centre. Her maid of honor was gowned in lavender taffeta, with tulle and bustle, and carried a bouquet of crimson flowers with corsage centre. Both the bride and her attendant wore fingertip length veils.

Mrs. Ackerson, mother of the bridegroom, was wearing grey and pink, with pink hat and accessories, and corsage of pink gardenias. The groom's grandmother wore a hand-embroidered gown, black hat trimmed with white roses, and she also wore a corsage of white roses. The bride's sisters, Miss Eileen Gilburn and Mrs. J. McGlynn also were present.

Following the ceremony, a reception attended by over one hundred relatives and friends, was held at Bordnick, Fordham Road. The bride and groom left later to spend a two week's honeymoon in the Laurentian Mountains, at the Laurentide Inn.

On their return they are making their home in Bronx, N.Y. The groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. F. Tierney who resided at 5653 Sherbrooke Street west for 15 years and are now living in New York.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Miss Lil Charade and Miss Hazel Charade, of Notre Dame de Grace, also Mr. and Mrs. J. Harlin, Mrs. E. Cermak, Mrs. Urson and Miss Alice Necke, all of Montreal.

BURTON—KIDD

The marriage of Mary Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kidd, of N.D.G., to Mr. Joseph Franklin Burton, son of the late Mr. Joseph Burton and of Mrs. Burton, of Verdun, was solemnized at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon in Calvary United Church, the Rt. Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones officiating. Mrs. Edythe Warmington sang "O Perfect Love". Mr. Gifford Mitchell played the wedding music. Spring flowers and ferns were used to decorate the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by a bridesmaid, Miss Jessie Scott. Mr. G. Howard Smith was best man for the groom and Messrs. Richard Burton and Marcel Turnau ushered.

The bride was wearing a gown of white sheer fashioned with off-the-shoulder yoke and sleeves tapering to a point over her fin-

At your disposal will be found every available facility, ensuring you of complete protection and care of the most valuable garment in your wardrobe. YOUR FUR COAT Yes, if you should stop to add up the cost of any ten garments you possess, you would soon discover that your fur coat represents an investment, many times greater than any other garment you may own. Between the time LAZARE'S bonded driver calls for your coat, and when it is returned in the late Fall, you will know that your favorite "KIT" has been first looked over for any repairs, then meticulously cleaned and all danger of moth larvae removed, and then it is placed in a sealed paper bag and hung in a scientific cold vault. After your coat has been examined you will be notified by mail if there are any repairs needed, and if so, what the estimate will be. The storage charges are 2% for Summer season, 2½% for Year-Round, based on your fair evaluation of your coat. We have now approached the dangerous time for un-guarded furs, as at this time of year one MOTH can overnight eat a hole as large as a nickel in your precious coat, which will mean an expensive repair job. Then, DO NOT DELAY, call L. P. Lazare's & CO. LTD. 1454 Peel St. Ma 1255, and have your coat placed in storage today.

Shopping At Mount Royal Hotel

Now this heading may be a bit of a surprise to you, as one is apt to think of the Mount Royal Hotel strictly as a hotel, but there are many attractive shops on the mezzanine and ground floor, and the next time you are dining here, walk upstairs and browse around. The last time I dined in the Cafeteria, there was a little group of four children and an adult having the time of their lives. I thought what an excellent idea it was having the children do their own choosing, so that by the time they arrived at the table their appetites had reached such a crescendo that no coaxing was needed by "MOTHER". The youngsters carried their trays as this was part of the fun, while Mother allowed hers to be carried for her. More and more folks are finding this cafeteria to be the ideal eating spot for lunch, and whether it be a plain sandwich or a full course dinner, you are bound to find the appetizing dish you like, and besides being cooked to perfection, it will be served in the minimum of time. Certainly I have yet to find any eating spot where so much of good food can be had for so little. You will also find the quiet atmosphere soothing on the nerves, particularly when the strains of the organ played by Dorothy Perron are heard from 12.30 to 1.30 and 6.30 to 8.30. If you have not already discovered "MY" eating spot, do so tomorrow and enjoy one of their delicious salads, with "Lettuce".

An Old Cobbler's Bench, In Pine

Gift Shop

Not until one has taken the Saguenay trip can the luxury of a cruise on the Canada Steamship lines really be understood. On my return from this trip last year I found it impossible to pick any flaw with the service on board ship, or the wonderful comforts at the hotels, and the very attractive gift shops on the ships and hotels. Those of you who have experienced this pleasure may be interested in knowing that the same service awaits you on the Northern Cruise through the Great Lakes, and by stopping at the C.S.L. Gift Shop, 1480 Sherbrooke St. W. near Guy, you may secure all the information required, or 'Phone WI. 7403. While visiting "THE SHOP" you will find the following interesting items. Odd cups and saucers of fine English china, for $2.00 I hope some day to get started on a set of these exquisite Shelly coffee cups; they are dusty pink covered with gold colored stars, having gold trim rims and handles . . . they are $7.25 each, and the demitasse are $10.00, or course there are cheaper ones also. I thought this cigarette set was a bit unusual of Crown Devon China. The cigarette cup is of maroon having a gold colored lining, and two ash trays of maroon and gold trim. For those who admire the unusual, do not miss seeing the reproduction of an old cobbler's bench, in pine, having a drawer at the bottom, and a removable back, making a very attractive chesterfield or coffee table . . . $49.50. If you have a fisherman in the house he will want one of the heavy brass ash-trays in the shape of a fish, for $1.00.

TO CLEAN THE OVEN OF A STOVE, wring a cloth out of cold water, then saturate it with common household ammonia. Place the cloth in the oven. Close the door and let it remain there overnight. Next morning, rust and other stains can be removed more easily.

THAT DARK OVEN can be painted with aluminum paint.

A Major Problem Done For You

This is the kind of weather that makes one want to open the windows and get the curtains down and the housecleaning started in earnest, which means we will be able to get out and play golf a bit earlier this year than last. However the efficient housewife likes to have her home in order first, Frank Round & Son, 5336 Sherbrooke St. W., are just the folks to tackle a major problem for you, such as cleaning your chesterfield set. Now unlike other cleaners this does not mean that you will be deprived of your furniture for any length of time, instead the complete cleaning job is done right in your own home, to your satisfaction. The cost of this cleaning depends on the condition of the set. Judging by the many satisfied customers that had this work done last year, I know you will be agreeably surprised by the new appearance your chesterfield will have after being cleaned by Frank Round & Son. How are your carpets, do they need a "new look"? If they are wall to wall, these too can be cleaned on your floors, or if they are removable carpets, they will be picked up and returned to you in the least possible time, looking like new. However, don't do like so many ladies did last year and call at the last minute to have their cleaning done, 'Phone DE. 4529-DE. 0751 today, let Mr. Round know when you wish them to call.

The Milky Way

Have you ever been baking, with your hands all covered with shortening and flour, and then suddenly realize that you have forgotten to take the milk bottle out of the refrigerator, and therefore must stop to rinse your hands, and grab the neck of the bottle to pry off the cap well ladies at last a hygienic self-capping top that will fit any size milk bottle has come on the market. This consists of heavy rubber composition that grips the bottle top, and a hinged aluminum cap that automatically swings up or down according to the degree of slope on the bottle. In other words while baking and stirring with the right hand, you may gently pour the milk into the ingredients with the left hand, without fear of overpouring. This is an ideal covering for a Maple sirup bottle, when pouring over pancakes. They come in green, red, and cream colors, and may be bought at any well known hardware store for .29 . . . The ideal way to use the Milky Way Self-Capping attachment is to place it on the bottle before storing in the refrigerator. This attachment may be sterilized without hurting the composition. Call your nearest hardware store today and ask him for the Milky Way Cap.

NDG Members' Day Programme Success At Victoria Hall

By JOAN FARLEY

The ladies of the Notre Dame de Grace Women's Club held their last meeting in Victoria Hall, on Friday, in the form of a concert consisting of various displays of the different groups connected with the Notre Dame de Grace Women's Club.

The president, Mrs. Norman B. Muir, very charmingly welcomed the members and representatives of several clubs, followed by the Members' Day Chairman, and second vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Maude, who discussed the phases of the Notre Dame de Grace Women's club life and who gave a preview of the Members' Day Programme.

The first group on the programme was the "Civics Group" who gave a panel discussion on the "Curtis Report on Housing" discussing the scarcity of dwellings and the over-crowdedness of living quarters, by stating and answering questions. The decision was that the need of a housing programme is required to re-create certain Canadian communities. The civics chairman was Mrs. W.M. Hick, while the members of the civics group were Mrs. J. W. Parks, Mrs. R. W. Valey, Mrs. J. B. Miller, Mrs. H. S. Marion, Mrs. R. S. Grant, Mrs. C. T. Groome, and Mrs. T. D. Handrahan.

All had the pleasure of hearing the newly formed choir, under the direction of Mrs. R. Uden, L.R.S.M., who also chose the selections which were very beautifully rendered indeed. The first number was a stirring rendition of "Bless This House", followed by "Thanks be to God", a spirited "Hey Ho, Come to the Fair", and "I Passed by Your Window", and "You'll Get There in the Morning", as an encore. Congratulations to the choir and of course to Mrs. Uden, who did a splendid job. Also, of course goes congratulations to the accompanist, Mrs. S. S. Beamish.

The choir consisted of Mrs. C. E. Bowers, Mrs. F. D. Crowley, Mrs. H. Giles, Mrs. G. J. Mallinson, Mrs. J. H. Maude, Mrs. J. S. Miller, Mrs. J. Rice, Mrs. B. Sutcliffe, Mrs. S. Turner, Mrs. C. Scurrah, Mrs. E. R. Cass, Mrs. T. Dawson, Mrs. J. P. Zeran, Mrs. J. H. Thomson, Mrs. E. F. Mount, Mrs. A. Watson, Mrs. W. V. Toole, Mrs. C. Jackson, Mrs. T. Patterson, and Mrs. W. A. Falconer.

Next on the programme was Fashions and Flights of Fancy, made possible by the Sewing Group, who chose, made, and modelled the garments themselves, and who were instructed by Madame O. W. Miess, who also acted as commentator. An interesting fact was that for some of the ladies, it was the first time that they had ever attempted or completed a garment. The results were certainly amazing. An amusing anecdote was told by Mrs. J. Rice, on how she completed her ensemble.

The Drama Group then presented their interpretation of "Charade", by Philip Johnson, and directed by Janet Campbell, which was both refreshing and amusing, and, referring to the climax, was surprising. Janet Campbell certainly created a sensation by playing a self-satisfied, self-sure, and devilish Scottish cook, to perfection. Leonora Thompson, as Ivy, portrayed a young and rather simple maid, whom everyone in the audience, I am sure, thought would be the heroine. Then came the heroine herself, Dorothy Turner, as Mrs. Lockett, who played a pathetic, god-hearted and sweet, middle-aged charwoman. Thelma Japp, as Iris, acted as the usual pretty, movie-struck teen-aged girl, who was in this case, another maid, and Rosario, played by Peg Seller, was a career woman and director of movies, who had only one thought on her mind, which was who should play the very intricate role in

HINTS ON Fashions

A gem for the bridal lingerie chest is this lovely ensemble of gown and negligee, a rare boudoir beauty. It is of oyster white double sheer. The negligee has a lace-edged capelet, below the dropped shoulder line, that dips to a point in back. Lace outlines the hip yoke and forms a border from neck to hem. The gown has a simple lace-edged round neck and is fitted with a flared skirt.

her next play, and rounding off the drama was Stella Macintyre, as Janet Colynham, who very aptly portrayed the mistress of the house as a wealthy hostess to Rosario.

Mrs. S. H. Shade then expressed the appreciation to the various participants of the show, followed by Mrs. Norman B. Muir, who thanked the members for their attention and who also closed the programme.

The educational chairman was Mrs. H. L. Taylor, while the director of the drama class was Evelyn Smith.

Later, a delightful tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. R. H. Grant.

The programme was opened by the singing of "O Canada", and was closed with "God Save the King".

Scripture Foundation Expresses Appreciation

The Scripture Foundation who held a concert and party last night, at the Queen Mary Veterans Hospital auditorium, wish to express thanks to the following artists who participated in the show; Grace Forrest, pianist; Margaret Scripture, soprano; Winifred Bambrick, harpist; Evelyn Mills, contralto; and Dr. Alfred E. Cliffe, author and lecturer.

Also thanks are given to those participating in the distribution of door prizes and gifts, presented by the Scripture Foundation's many friends, under the co-operation of Mrs. George Duncan, the president of the Silver Cross Women of Canada, Mrs. Robert S. Smith, president of the Win-Velt Club, and Mrs. Harold Mills, past-president of the Westmount Women's Club, also to the many friends who willingly helped in making the programme a success.

BISCUIT VARIATION

Try biscuit variations frequently to fill out meals which go easy on meat. To a basic biscuit dough, add grated cheese, poultry seasoning.

"Help a Friend in Need" Slogan For Red Cross Drive

Seeking to overcome a 1947 deficit of $75,000 brought about by constantly increasing operating costs, St. Mary's Hospital will this month launch a three-week campaign for funds, under the slogan "Help a Friend in Need." The campaign, headed by Norman A. Smith, will extend from April 19 to May 3, and will seek the support of the people of this community.

Mr. Smith stated yesterday that in 1947 expenses in connection with supplies and salaries were up 14% over 1946, and that operating costs were 78% higher than they were in 1941. "For these reasons", he said, "our deficit was $75,000 last year, and it is essential that we raise sufficient funds to cover the loss. I am sure, however, that we will receive the wholehearted support that will enable the campaign to reach its objective and overcome the deficit."

More than 5,000 patients of all denominations are provided with over 60,000 days' care at St. Mary's each year, and costs to maintain the hospital exceed $500,000 annually. While costs are constantly increasing, St. Mary's has maintained its high standard of care, and requires only the support of the public to assure that the deficit for last year will be overcome.

In addition to Mr. Smith, chairmen of the various committees of the drive include, Edward F. King, Men's special names; Frank H. Carlin, industrial division; L. F. T. Bellew, parish chairman; Mrs. J. E. L. Hollyer, ladies' special names.

Bathing Beauty Contest To Find "Miss Montreal"

A bathing beauty contest to find Montreal's most lovely woman will take place at the Theatre Francais on the 16th of April at 11.15 p.m. The winner will be recognized as Miss Montreal of 1948 and will be presented with a lovely trophy and a free trip to New York City. There will be four runner-ups, and each of them will receive a silver cup. Beautiful gold medals will be given to every girl who participates in this event.

All young ladies desiring to enter this contest should contact Mr. Jim Darno at TA. 4357, where they will be given entry blanks to complete. It is interesting to note that only one piece of suits will be permitted. Numerous entries have already been received and many more are expected. Close date for applications is the 12th of April.

The show should prove to be one of the most interesting of the year as special acts are being prepared to round out an evening of entertainment.

A special added attraction will be in the person of Frank Galdi, Mr. Montreal of 1948, who will display his manly muscles. A variety of Montreal's better built men will also be present and amongst them is Leo Robert, recognized as the Most Muscular Man in Montreal.

This show is being sponsored by the International Federation of Bodybuilders, which is headed by Ben Weider of this city.

Oral Club Holds Annual Meeting

The third annual meeting of The Oral Club was held Monday evening, April 5th, at the Mechanics Institute, under the Chairmanship of the President, Mrs. Wm. Routledge.

During the past year Mr. Charles Rittenhouse, the club's instructor, has given a series of stimulating lectures on the different phases of public speaking and promoted forum discussions and debates.

Reports of the year's activities were given by various members of the Executive.

Mrs. B. E. Newey received first prize in the club's annual public speaking contest. The prize was presented by Mrs. S. P. Elkins.

Mrs. Wm. Routledge, second in the club contest, will represent The Oral Club in the annual competition of the Montreal Oratorical Contest.

A presentation was made to the retiring President by Mrs. S. M. Chatham.

Officers for 1948-49 were elected as follows: President: Miss S. Henderson, Secretary: Mrs. T. Handrahan, Treasurer: Mrs. E. Johnson, Director: Mrs. S. Smythe and, Miss E. Turnbull.

"Whole World Over" To Be Presented

The sponsoring group is a small unit of fifteen women, with Mrs. J. Rae Carson as president, who have been most successful and active during the past year raising funds which they devote to the comfort and welfare of patients at Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital. The Montreal Drama Guild, under Mr. Charles Lewis, have been active in local theatrical circles for the past two and a half years. Their presentation "The Lower Depths" in the recent Western Quebec Drama Festival received favorable comment and won an award for best supporting actress in English for Mrs. Frances Lindsay, a member of the cast in the forthcoming play.

"The Whole World Over" originally written by Konstantine Simonov was adapted in English by Thelma Schnee and ran successfully for a season on Broadway last year. Tom McBride, Douglas Peterson, Lenore Osborne are some of the others in the cast of "The Whole World Over". "ROSE WEEK" AT MORGAN'S IN MONTREAL

This week is known as "Rose Week" At Morgan's. Throughout the store there have been displays of all the merchandise which has a rose as part of the decoration of the article. As a main feature, Henry Morgan & Co. Limited, through arrangements with the Dale Estate Autographed Roses, limited, brings to Montreal one of the most beautiful exhibitions of live roses. Each rose has been individually cared for over the past weeks, in order that it will be at its best for the exhibition. Each rose is a masterpiece of the grower's art—perfectly coloured and formed, they appear in many shades. As a beautiful background for these blooms, Morgan's has cleared the centre of its big Fashion Floor and will have the rose exhibition take up the greater part of it. There will be thousands of these world famous Dale Roses. The centre of the exhibition will be a rotating platform with a series of large bowls reaching up approximately twenty feet, which will be filled with roses, and from which will hang scores of smaller vases also filled with roses, the whole making a sight which will be long remembered.

STAMP CLUB

At the regular weekly meeting of the Westmount Stamp Club was held in Victoria Hall on Thursday evening April 1st, 86 members were present, and the evening was given over to general trading and exchange. Final plans for the forthcoming exhibition were also completed during the meeting.

There will be no regular meeting of the club next week because of the exhibition, so the next meeting will be held in Victoria Hall on Thursday, April 22nd.

A special programme for junior members is being planned and all young Philatelists are invited to come along to the club where every assistance will be afforded to give them the utmost pleasure and satisfaction from their hobby.

Check Up On Your Cleaning Equipment

To keep a house really nice and clean, one has to start with the closet that holds all the house-cleaning equipment. All too often this space becomes a catch-all for dust cloths that are dirty, ditto brushes and brooms, as well as other miscellany, much of it soiled.

So it is a good idea, once in a while to go over the cleaning equipment closet, and to weed out and dispose of useless items, then to clean and rearrange the necessary equipment in an orderly manner. This sort of cleanup does more than bring order out of chaos, it reveals what replacements are necessary in order to do a proper housecleaning job.

Hung from Hooks

For efficiency and to prolong the life and wear of cleaning tools, brushes, brooms, mops, etc. should be neatly hung from hooks placed high enough in the closet so the bottoms escape the floor.

Shallow shelves, arranged in step formation, are better than wide shelves for holding bottles and other containers of cleaning products, as well as soap bars and packages. Keep clean dust clothes in their own special container.

Staple Supplies

It is helpful, especially if one has to take care of a house, to make up a small cleaning basket for toting. Use a basket with a handle, and equip it with staple supplies, so that only special items have to be added for specific tasks.

Soaps and soap powders of all kinds, dust cloths and wiping cloths, a sponge or scrub rag, polish wax and a spot remover comprise the usual standard cleaning supplies.

Some homemakers also include a pencil and a small memo pad on which to note small repairs and replacements that require attention.

COLLECTED

A Scotchman, arrested for being drunk, put forward an unusual excuse.

"I wasn't drunk," he said to the magistrate, "It was just I found myself out a kirk, and, knowin' my unworthiness to gang inside, I knelt down on the steps."

"I see," said the magistrate, "you were holding a little service on your own. Well, we will now take up the collection. Pay seven-and-sixpence."

Special air cover will be provided during the parade by R.C. A.F. Regular and Auxiliary Squadrons flying jet aircraft, Harvards and heavy transports.

"The History of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets is well-known to all Canadians as a result of World War II. Less known, yet equally important to the welfare of our nation, is the program of citizenship training for the young men of our country which the Air Cadet League of Canada has initiated and developed," declared Air Vice-Marshal Adelard Raymond.

"The Quebec Provincial Committee of the League is asking for $25,000 during National Air Cadet Week to carry on this splendid work among our young boys.

"I appeal to all citizens of our Province to support the Air Cadet League. Every contribution will represent an investment in the future of the nation," he concluded.

Tuesday, His Worship Mayor Camillien Houde received two Royal Canadian Air Cadets in his office at City Hall in order to give them his endorsement of Air Cadet Week and campaign.

To: Dr. Martin Rondeau,
Westmount
Quebec.

Dear Doctor:

I received your bottle of Medicine for which I want to thank you. I take it regularly four times a day. I received, as well, your letter with all the testimonials concerning the marvellous results of Rondeau's Medicine. I, myself, am happy to say that my recovery, by taking this famous tonic, was miraculous. The "write-ups" in the press of February 8th were all quite true.

Around the beginning of last September which was about the time my illness started, I noticed that my legs were swelling. I felt tired and I lost all my "pep". Then, my body started to swell. The doctor told me that I had a yellow cirrhose of the liver, in other words, my liver was not eliminating at all. My body was yellow all over. There was no cure except to give me puncture for relief. Each puncture I was relieved of five to six quarts of liquid. A few days after each puncture I would swell again. I was given ten of these punctures. I was given only a matter of weeks to live.

At your request, I tried the famous Rondeau's Medicine and after the third bottle the punctures were stopped. The swelling in my legs and feet went down and my body returned to normal. Today I am feeling fine. Many thanks to the medicine and to you, Dr. Rondeau.

Yours truly,
Captain Adelard Duchesne

James Stewart and Jane Wyman at The Monkland

The effort of an ingenious young man from the big city to forestall a pretty young newspaperwoman's plans to promote her home town out of character as a cross-section of American thought, brings about their unexpected romance in Robert Riskin's comedy-drama, "Magic Town" co-starring James Stewart and Jane Wyman at the Monkland Theatre on Saturday to Tuesday.

Rip Smith, national opinion poll expert, searching for a small community that will serve as a barometer on national issues, discovers Grandview. Rip quashes a plan to change the mood of the town by Mary Peterman, young newspaper editor, because a change would ruin the polling set-up he so desperately needs. Later, Rip wins Mary's confidence by coaching the school basketball team, and both gradually realize they are in love. By accident, Mary discovers Rip's true identity and, despite his protests, exposes his mission in her newspaper. The effect on the town, which is made self-conscious, is disastrous. Realizing that nothing is more important than Mary's love, Rip proposes a fantastic scheme to restore the community to normalcy and at the same time win Mary.

Stewart and Miss Wyman team their dramatic, comedy and emotional talents with conspicuous effect in this production. Kent Smith, Regis Toomey, Ned Sparks and Wallace Ford head the supporting cast.

AT THE MONKLAND THEATRE SATURDAY

James Stewart, who co-stars with Jane Wyman in Robert Riskin's hilarious romance, "Magic Town," puts the basketball team of Grandview on the map, and thereby wins her admiration.

Your added treat brings Fred MacMurray and Ava Gardner in the romantic and exciting melodrama "Singapore." These two entertaining features start Saturday at the Monkland Theatre.

inal story and screenplay, William A. Wellman directed.

Added Attraction

Definitely blending action and romance into one of the year's most exciting melodramas, Universal-International's "Singapore" is also at the Monkland.

Co-starring Fred MacMurray and Ava Gardner, the film contains a powerful and unusual love story impressed on intrigue and lusty action in the modern colorful background of the original metropolis from which it takes its title. It is certain to please all moviegoers.

Always outstanding in his characterizations, MacMurray delivers one of his finest performances portraying a romantic and reckless pearl smuggler.

R. W. Stoeckel
Festival Judge

Rudolph Stoeckel, noted Montreal dramatist and actor, will adjudicate at the Montreal Inter-Student Sodality Association's latest edition of its Drama Festival to take place at D'Arcy McGee Auditorium on April 16 and 17, Friday and Saturday. Performances start at 8.15 and 2.15 p.m. respectively.

Mr. Stoeckel judged the Festival entrants last year and is quite familiar with the procedure usually adopted. Last year's competition took place at Loyola Auditorium.

Convener for this annual event of MISSA's is Ronald Wareham of Catholic High. It will be noted that this is the first boy to take on this job as all his eight predecessors have been girls.

Interest in an opportunity like this given to the exposition of teen-age talent is increasing every year judging by the growing number of dramatic efforts by high schools. A capacity crowd is expected since the four schools entering the Festival are well-known for their theatrical presentations. Among them is Villa Maria Convent.

Prize is the MISSA Shield for the top single entry by an individual school. Other awards are for the best leading man and woman, the best supporting actor and actress. Organization and preparation for these two shows has been going on for over a month and it is expected that the vast number of arrangements that are necessary to be made, will be completed by the week-end.

Paul Berry, of Catholic High, is Stage Manager with McGee's James McDonald as his assistant. Catherine Haggart, also of McGee, is Chief Usher and will be helped by numerous members of the delegates.

REASON FOR HATS

Mike met his friend Joe, who was sporting three hats, one on top of another.

"What's the idea?" demanded Mike.

"I've decided to become a politician."

"What are you wearing three hats for?"

"A politician has one hat to cover his head, another he tosses into the ring, and one that he talks through."

Such a picture is "FRIEDA".

It tells the story of how a young airman marries the German girl who makes possible his escape from a P.O.W. camp, and who brings her home to live with his family in a small British town. It tells of the effects on her in-laws and local life in general.

Little did the nine mutineers of H.M.S. Bounty who landed in 1789 on Pitcairn Island and married Polynesian women suspect that they would become human guinea pigs for anthropologists and students of heredity. The motion picture, "Mutiny on the Bounty" starring Clark Gable, Charles Laughton and Franchot Tone and which starts Saturday until Tuesday at the Avenue Theatre, tells the true story of these mutineers and how they found the Paradise Isle.

Cut off from the world, that little colony, which now numbers 200, has made it possible to substitute solid facts for the fancies that underlie race prejudice. No wonder that Dr. H. L. Shapiro of the American Museum of Natural History should have spent a fortnight on Pitcairn Island to supplement the information gathered by past anthropological expeditions on the family histories of those who sprang from the Bounty's mutineers, and thus to supply us with an Almanac de Gotha far more valuable and trustworthy than that in which the marriage and offspring of royalty and nobility are recorded.

The tales of few places hold the glamour of that which is told of Pitcairn Island. The account of the British mutineers and a few native Tahitian women who settled this bit of land in the Polynesian group is of the sort that makes the man at his desk or bench complain that life has not fairly distributed its romance.

Although they are descended from two distinct racial groups, the present generation of Pitcairn Islanders are "strong, husky, above the average in stature, intelligent, charming people, hospitable and very friendly. Dr. Shapiro explains, "the islanders show no ill effects of several generations of intermarriage. They are taller, and at least in some respects appear to be better developed physically than either the English or the Polynesian races. The men and women of the island speak English, and a sort of patois of their own."

A chief magistrate and a council constitute the present form of government. It has little to do. There is equal suffrage and men and women are eligible for public office. Dr. Shapiro found that government on the island was conducted "very well." The Pitcairn islander has no use for money. He does crave, however, all the magazines telling of the outside world and exchanges his most valued possessions for them.

Second Attraction

Also on the same program is the delightful Technicolor musical "The Harvey Girls" starring Judy Garland, John Hodiak, Ray Bolger, Angela Lansbury, Preston Foster, Virginia O'Brien, Kenny Baker and Chill Wills.

Trinity Players Name Play Cast

Others in the cast are, Marion Keith, Judith Chambers, Joan Wilson, James Trenholme, John Martyn-Baxter, Judith Brown, Leslie Roscoe and Muriel McMaster.

The action of the play takes place in England and tells the story of a middle class English family during the period from 1919 to 1939 up to the days of Munich and "Peace in Our Time". Basil Donn, C.D.A., is directing the production.

Miss Garland is cast as Susan Bradley, on her way to Sandrock, tough New Mexico pioneer town, to marry H. H. Discovering his letters were a hoax perpetrated by Ned Trent (John Hodiak), proprietor of the Alhambra gambling hall, Susan joins forces with a group of waitresses who are helping to open a new Harvey restaurant.

The battle between law and order in Sandrock, as represented by the Harveys and the Santa Fe Railroad, and gambling and crooked rule as represented by the dance hall crowd, resolves itself into a personal feud between Susan and Em (Angela Lansbury), queen of the Alhambra, over the love of Trent, with Susan coming out triumphant in the end, even though she has to resort to a brace of six-shooters to win her man.

"Escape Me Never" Proves Enchanting Film

HELD OVER AT THE SNOWDON

Glynis Johns and Flora Robson listen attentively to the complaints of their contractor in this dramatic scene from the British film "Frieda" which will be held over for a third big week at the Snowdon Theatre. This is first Montreal showing of the excellent picture.

MRT Producing "All My Sons"

"All my Sons," Arthur Miller's prize-winning play will be given as MRT's 111th major production, under the direction of Roeberta Beatty, opening at Moyse Hall, next Tuesday, and will run until Saturday night.

"All My Sons" is an exciting drama, supported by a strong cast under the able direction of Miss Beatty. The production will be housed in a fine theatre where all who have been disappointed at not obtaining seats for previous plays at MRT Playhouse will have a greater opportunity to secure them.

Gerald Rowan will be seen as the ego-centric Nat Keller, whose evil deeds give the plot. His wife, the superstitious, yet dominating Kate Keller will be played by Mary Douglas. John Drexler and Madeleine Sherwood supply the love interest. Other players, whose names are well-known are Alfred Gallagher, Jackie Cornett, Vernis Christie, Ena Gillespie, Thomas Walker, and Malcolm Smith.

This play ran for almost a year on Broadway, gaining for the author the New York Drama Critics Circle's annual award for 1947. Its action gains momentum as the story unfolds and it concludes with a terrific impact. Late comers will not be seated until the end of Act 1, almost half the play. The curtain goes up at 8.45 p.m.

COULDN'T BELIEVE IT

A man's excited voice came over the telephone in the police station. "My wife has disappeared," he cried. "Describe her sir," he was asked. "Tall and broad, 6 feet high, weight 180, steel blue eyes—" "Just a minute, sir; when did she disappear?" "Three weeks ago." "Three weeks ago! Why didn't you come to us before?" "At first I couldn't believe it," came the answer. "I thought I was dreaming."

A completely different flavor and mood permeates the excellent film version of "Escape Me Never", starring Errol Flynn, Ida Lupino, Eleanor Parker and Gig Young, which starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre. It is the charm of the Austrian Tyrol, the appeal of classical ballet plus lyrical music which highlights the picture form of Margaret Kennedy's celebrated novel and play. "Escape Me Never" is cinema magic at its best.

There is charm and laughter and more than an occasional tug at the heartstrings in this colorful story of a gifted family of musicians.

Erich Wolfgang Korngold's specially written ballet music is set off by the finished dancing of the distinguished Ballet Russe stars, Milada Mladova and George Zoritch. The supporting cast is also uniformly excellent, including the performances of Reginald Denny, Isobel Elsom, Albert Basserman, Ludwig Stoessel, Helene Thimig and Frank Reicher.

"Escape Me Never" takes place in Italy, Austria and England at the turn of the century, and is beautifully reproduced.

This film marks the first time for Errol Flynn and Ida Lupino to appear together, and it is an especially bright combination. All the charm of the happy-go-lucky Venetians is captured by this duo. Flynn's romantic flair is well contrasted by the studied characterization turned in by Miss Lupino. The dramatic scenes toward the end of the film are handled delicately and project that light, care-free touch which is so important to the tale.

Eleanor Parker, and Gig Young complete the leading roster of players. The love affairs of the main quartet of personalities is charmingly sketched against the European scene. The Margaret Kennedy story abounds in many vignettes of lively humor, sprightly situations and rare enchantment. That is the appeal of "Escape Me Never".

Bob Hope's latest comedy "Where There's Life," is the added feature.

The film also stars Signe Hasso and William Bendix, with George Coulouris, Vera Marshe, George Zucco and Harry von Zell importantly featured in the supporting cast.

In "Where There's Life" Hope, who has been on the road to practically everywhere, now finds himself almost shanghaied onto the throne of the mythical kingdom of Barovia. He plays an American disk jockey who is thought to be the son of the mortally wounded king of the seething little monarchy.

Miss Hasso is cast as a powerful general of the Barovian Army who sets out to bring Hope home to the fatherland. While protecting her future king from the death threats of a terrorist group, she falls in love with him.

PUTTERS' SOCIAL CLUB

The Westmount Putters Social Club held their regular weekly meeting in Victoria Hall on Monday evening, and a two hour programme of color movies was shown.

Some beautiful fishing scenes were shown and also a remarkable production taken in the Canadian National Reservations. The last film was one on Vegetable Insects, and it showed some clever close-ups of insects engaged in their harmful work against crops. The film also explained the best methods of counteraction and destroying these pests.

After the show the ladies provided refreshments.

The club will hold a repeat Court Whist Drive next Monday evening at 8 p.m. and some interesting innovations are being planned for succeeding weeks.

Safe drivers depend on safe walkers.

AT THE WESTMOUNT SUNDAY!

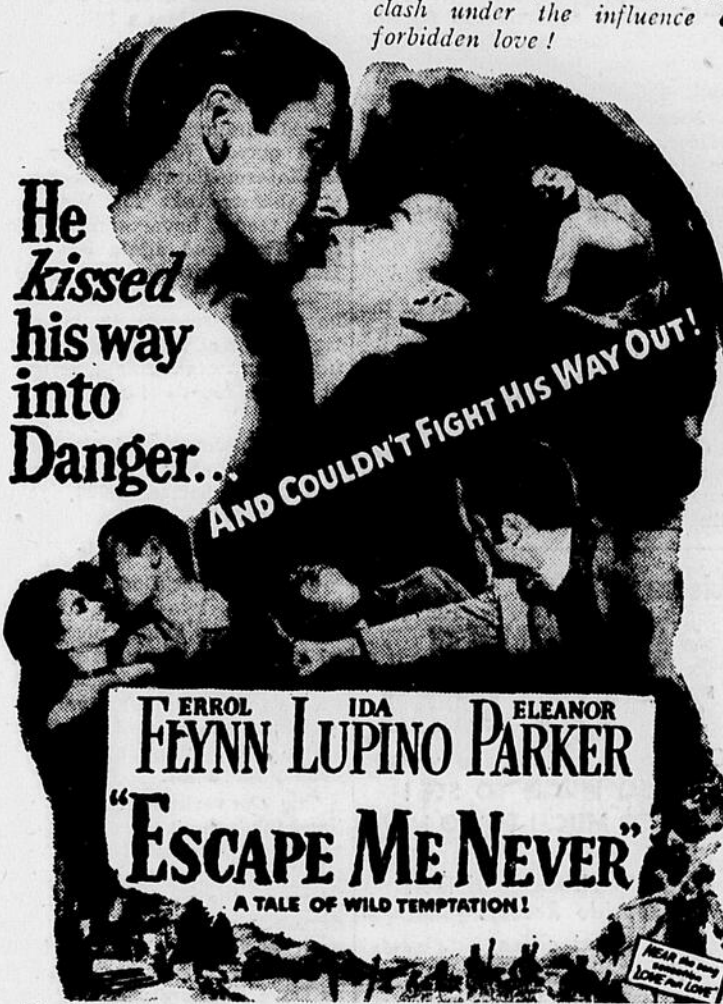

Bob Hope's in plenty of trouble in "Where There's Life," his new comedy picture which starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre. Here he is being loved by Signe Hasso while policeman William Bendix looks on sort of puzzled-like!

Converters Win Eastern Title

Meet Windsor April 16, 17

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Westmount's Canadian Converters Junior basketball crew will journey to Windsor, Ont., next week to take on a Windsor cage quintet in a two-game, total points series, for what will virtually amount to the Junior championship of Canada.

The Converters copped the Eastern Canada title last week-end by taking a two-game series from Dalhousie University, Maritime champs, by the one-sided count of 118-44. The local larrigans took the first contest 54-21, the second 64-23. The games were played last Thursday and Friday nights on the Converters' home floor, the Westmount Junior High School gym.

The Thursday battle was the more spirited of the two. The visitors, whose yellow sweat suits which they wore in pre-game workouts, were something new to these parts and caused considerable comments, never gave up trying. But the Westmounters, led by Captain Jack Dudley who sent 20 points swishing through the hoop, just couldn't be stopped.

The Converters had a little too much in all departments for the Dalhousie lads as they checked like leeches, ball handled beautifully and steadily built up a lead.

John Field and Gordie MacLeod were next in line for the winners in the point-getting department with 13 and 9 respectively. Red Shaw led the Maritimes with five points.

Second Game Walkaway

Entering the second game of the series with a 33-point lead, the Converters could have elected to play a strictly defensive game. But instead, much to the relief of the 300 spectators who jammed the gallery to see the tilt, they elected to maintain the pressure and had sent eight points swishing through the cords before the Black and Gold were able to register a reply.

But this second game did not begin to compare with the first. The Dalhousie boys seemed to realize that their case was hopeless and as the Converters continued to pile up the points their energy waned.

Blond Johnny Field led the point-getters in this contest, sinking 16 points to give him a 29-point total for the series.

Jim Henderson Stars

But the star of the fray was guard Jimmy Henderson. Jeems, who played for the Westmount Y's Intermediate entry last season and before that for Westmount High teams, never stopped working. Time and again he stopped Dalhousie attacks before they could get started. On the offensive he always seemed to be in the right place at the right time, playing an important role in setting up at least a fourth of his team's baskets.

The Henderson lad also demonstrated his ability as a free shot artist. He batted 1,000, getting four for four.

Dudley Capable

Captain Jack Dudley was the number two man for the Converters on Friday night. While he notched a mere six points, he was a continual driving force, both offensively and defensively. Jack is seldom sensational, but he's always there plugging and that counts for a lot.

The Converters held the upper hand throughout the one-sided tussle. They were up 27-8 at the half and kept right on going without a let-up in the second stanza. Henderson played the whole game until the final minute when he was banished for five personals, just as Dave Binmore was waiting for the referee's whistle to blow to come on to replace him.

The Dals' Red Shaw was also sidelined for fouling in the second half.

Both games were very cleanly played.

DOG DISEASE HITS NORTH COUNTRY

Trappers and hunters throughout Québec have been urged by government health authorities to be on the look-out for a form of spinal meningitis which of late has been attacking dogs in North Bay, just across the Ontario border. The disease, it is feared might spread to the "huskie" type of dog used in northern Quebec.

A recent check shows that 65 per cent of dogs in Northern Bay were stricken with the disease for which at the moment, there is no specific remedy. While issuing a special warning to trappers and hunters, veterinary officials attached to the Québec government have urged all pet-owners to be on their guard.

The animal got caught in the snow trench of the railway bed and when one train came along it galloped for 10 miles ahead of the engine which was slowed up by the driver in the hope the moose would take to the side. At the end of the 10 miles the moose collapsed, exhausted, and was shot.

To Stock Lakes

Alarmed at the drop in the number of requests for fishing permits during the 1947 tourist season, the Québec government is planning an extensive program

Ascension Will Represent Westm't in Snowdon Loop

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Westmount will be represented in the Snowdon Senior Fastball League, long regarded as Montreal's number one mushball circuit, this season. A team bearing the label of Ascension, supported by the local parish, and composed largely of horsehide retrievers who learned their ball on local diamonds, will uphold the honour of the suburb city.

The squad, unable to secure Westmount Park and Atwater Park as home fields, will be playing all of its 15 home games at N.D.G. Park on Girouard avenue on Sunday nights. As this diamond is within easy walking distance of Westmount, the Ascensionites hope to build up a large local following.

HOW IT STARTED

Father McMahon, recently appointed to Ascension Parish after serving up at St. Malachy's in the Snowdon district, is the man largely credited with organizing the team and getting a franchise for it in the select Snowdon loop. Last year he acted as a sort of spiritual adviser to St. Malachy's Snowdon League entry, which went on to win the league championship. This season he'd like to bring the same amount of luck to Ascension.

MANY DODGERS ON TEAM

While the team is still somewhat nebulous, it is known that a number of players who performed for the strong Westmount Dodgers' crew last summer will be on its roster.

Emmett Millen, who played for the Dodgers as well as Hampton Food in the Snowdon circuit last summer, will likely get the call for the behind the plate chore.

Logue Macdonald, who bore the brunt of the Dodgers' pitching last season as well as seeing some service with St. Augustine's seniors, will be one of the moundsmen.

Noel Romney, who saw service with Dodgers, Steinberg's and Hampton last season, will be holding down the initial sack position.

Key Kennedy, who played second for both Dodgers and St. Augustine's in 1947, will be at the same spot for Ascension this summer.

Shortstop is still a question mark. Dodger Jack McKissock has decided to stay with Hampton, for whom he turned in some sparkling performances last season, and that leaves a big void to be filled.

TOOTS AT THIRD

Toots Provost, who played for Hampton last summer, will be at third.

The outfield is still somewhat of an unknown quantity, but the possibilities on the list include Ed O'Brien, the long and lanky Dodger, Sonny Provost, and Tommy Brennan. These three, however, are by no means certain starters.

OPENER MAY 9

The Snowdon League will get its 1948 schedule underway at Macdonald Park with a single game on the afternoon of Sunday, May 9. Last year's playoff finalists, Thrift and St. Malachy's, will tee off.

The Snowdon schedule calls for doubleheaders at Macdonald Park Sunday afternoons, single games at N.D.G. Park Sunday nights,

Gov't Designs Account-Tax Book To Help Farmers

Urban taxpayers who grumble each spring about the difficulties they encounter in filling out the "complicated" income tax forms should see what the Canadian farmer has to put up with! (No cracks about the farmer and the margarine ban, please! — that controversial subject has no place in this discussion!)

In other words, farm income tax forms are really complicated. This is because a farmer's income can be derived from so many diversified farm activities, such as the sale of field and garden crops, milk, eggs, livestock, etc. Therefore the job of keeping proper accounts of expenditure and income in each of the different phases of farm operation is a task of no mean proportion for an untrained book-keeper.

In a sincere effort to help the farmer out of his dilemma, experts in the taxation division of the Department of National Revenue have designed a Farmer's Account and Income Tax Guide which farmers may obtain from the government free for the asking.

This book provides the farmer with a simple bookkeeping system.

By spending a few minutes on it each week, the farmer is enabled to keep accurate records which will show him exactly where he stands — what progress his farm is making, where he is making or losing money.

Equally important to the farmer, the farm account book records are numbered to correspond with the T-1 tax form, which enables him to save himself trouble by transferring figures directly from the account book to the tax form. The book also shows deductions the farmer can make for expenses and depreciation of farm equipment, etc., and contains many other helpful features.

The farmer has nothing to lose and everything to gain by giving the Farm Account Book and Income Tax Guide a fair trial.

ARE YOU GETTING THE TAX DEDUCTIONS YOU ARE ENTITLED TO?

The Farm Account Book and Income Tax Guide shows you how!

How much can you deduct for depreciation on your tractor? Your automobile? A shed? What expenses can you deduct? There are 75 articles in common farm use plus a wide variety of deductible expenses for which depreciation can be charged—all listed in the new Farm Account Book. These legal deductions from your income are a big question at Income Tax Time and the answers to them and to dozens of other questions are in this new Farm Account Book.

A Record of Your Transactions and a Guide to Your Income Tax Return

WHAT IT DOES—Keeps a clean record, helps you budget—and shows you whether you have made or lost money on your operations. Shows you, too, what your best lines are and where you may be farming at a loss. Saves you hours of time from book keeping. First ten pages are for your receipts—from sales of crops, seeds, livestock, poultry, dairy products and all other produce. Then come twelve pages of all farm expenses—you are reminded of items you might otherwise forget. Establish a basic herd, apply for the three-year-average plan, calculate your depreciation item by item. These are money-savers for every farmer. They're all in the new Farm Account Book.

DEDUCTIONS—Every farmer is entitled to deductions and he is expected by the department to take full advantage of his rights. The Farm Account Book tells you about many items in easy question-and-answer form. For instance—"What can I claim as expenses for repairs?" The answer is "any expense to keep a machine or a building in working order can be claimed." Altogether there are answers to over 60 questions. No one is required to pay more than his fair share of tax. Comments from Letters on the New Farm Account Book and Income Tax Guide: "A long awaited step for the benefit and progress of our Canadian farmers" . . .
