A Grace-Illumined Season

Each season of life embraces moments of heart-stopping beauty in the midst of the mundane. Recurring cycles of such seasons have marked 100 years of our Institute's history. Our centenary of the year 2002 highlights a continuing feast, calling forth from us a renewed commitment to make Délia Tétreault's missionary dream ever more a reality.

The centennial celebrations in the different countries where we are present today allow our Community highly privileged occasions to bring to light and to share the precious spiritual legacy bequeathed by our Foundress. All this entails a reflection which seeks its inspiration from her life and writings. We are happy to present in the pages of this Calendar issue yet more tiny gems of thoughts gleaned from her voluminous correspondence. Altogether, they are minute revelations that confirm what one of our Sisters has underlined in her essay: in Délia Tétreault's heart, there existed a world full of light and warmth that she wanted to communicate and which, even to this day, nourishes new life. Like Mary, she recognized the immense goodness and splendour of God mirrored in people and in the different facets of the universe that proclaim the presence of the Creator. All her days, she was wholly amazed by the gratuitousness of God's love.

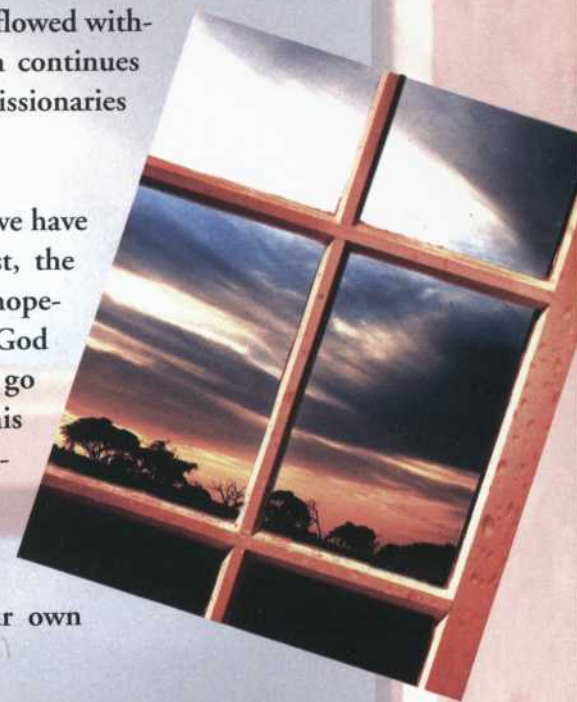

Following her example, we are enjoined to Sing for Life ... to take a closer look at our growth as a missionary Institute within the Church, to be enthusiastic at the gift of it, to always give thanks and praise! In joy and thanksgiving, we celebrate God's faithful love throughout a century committed to the service of the mission. Grateful are we, indeed, for the vibrant missionary spirit that flowed within Délia Tétreault and which continues to inspire and energize her missionaries today!

Generation after generation, we have shared our stories of the past, the tasks of the present and the hope-filled promises of the future. God constantly beckons us to go beyond where we are at this moment so that new and wonderful things can yet happen. May you, our readers, also be blessed with many grace-illumined seasons... and your own stories to retell.

We pray especially that joy and peace, God's gifts in Christ, may light your life and witness to your faith now and into the New Year 2003!

Ma. Anthea Raso, m.i.c.

Sing for Life...

The sun peering briefly
Through the drifting clouds
A light mist sprinkling the horizon
With morning dew.

A bouquet of humble flowers
Brightening the plainness of each day
The song of a bird
Soothing the day's agitation.

Spring showers, Summer laughter
Fall's thousand hues, Winter's frigid cold.

*What more, Délia?
Sing for life
Sing your Benedicite*

The smile of children of all ages
The tears, the doubts, the assent
The hopes, great and small Reaped from every heartbeat.

The present moment, a field of gratuitousness
The open house of fraternity
The calendar of faithfulness, at home and abroad
The silence of offering...

*What more, Délia?
Sing for life
Sing your Benedicite*

The mission of the beloved Son
The company of Mary, the one full of grace,
Yesterday, today and tomorrow
Eternity in thanksgiving.

*Sing for life, Délia
Thanks for inviting us to do so
We sing with you the Benedicite!*

*God sets
our hearts
ablaze
with His love, that we may give it to others.*
