On Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Manson McDowell, received word through the International Red Cross, that their son, W. Officer, Donald McDowell, was a prisoner of war in Germany.

The young flyer enlisted in the R.C.A.F. at Ottawa in July, 1940, and after receiving his training went overseas in April, 1941. He was a student of Shawville High School at the time he enlisted, and was a foremost athlete of the district, taking first place in the Tuxis boy's provincial sports meet at Montreal when 17 years of age. He is now 22.

Flt. Lieut. Harold Walker, D.S.O., D.F.C., Welcomed to Shawville

—o—

On Thursday evening of last week a reception was tendered Flight Lieutenant Harold Walker, D. S. O. D. F. C., at Wilson's Hall, where many of Shawville's citizens had gathered to welcome the distinguished flyer.

During the evening Dr. S. E. McDowell, on behalf of the townspeople addressed the young officer, who was presented with a gold wrist watch, and Mrs. Walker received a beautiful bouquet, which was presented by Miss Isobel Haskin, Reg. N.

Flt. Lieut. Walker thanked his friends for remembrances received while he was overseas and their hearty welcome back to Shawville.

The evening was spent in music and dancing, and at midnight the ladies served rerfeshmnts.

Bears and More Bears

—o—

During the past few weeks bears have become so numerous in this district, that the Equity has not been able to keep abreast with all the current stories surrounding killings and chases.

Quite a number of sheep have been killed in the Charteris and Yarm sections of Clarendon, and even within the village limits of Shawville bears have caused distruction to the bee hives of Rueben Smith situated at the East side of J. M. Argue's bush on the hill.

On Friday this was chased by a group of village hunters, and a young bear was shot by Bob Rutledge a few yards North of the railroad crossing on the Pickanock road.

On the same a bear hunt was organized at Yarm, when Orville Woolsey, Harry Belsher and Wilson Tracy, got after a big one which had been raiding the sheep flocks in that section. This fellow was finally rounded up and chased up a tree, Wilson Tracy brought him down with a few shots from his .32 Special rifle. Later the bear was brought to town and weighed. He tipped the scales at 410 pounds. Most of the bears shot in this district have been very thin and starved looking, but this one was rolling in fat.

This week, we learn that John Sparling, Charteris section, killed a bear with a stake. It seems this marauder had been prowling around his buildings. Mr. Sparling and his dog cornered it in the machinery shed. It stood up on its hind legs and started to show fight, when the dog slipped around and gave it a nip on the leg, and as the bear turned to watch the dog, Mr. Sparling cracked it on the head with a stake, and finished it off with successive blows.

Some weeks ago it was reported that Mrs. David Angus, of Charteris, had killed a very small bear with a hoe. The story goes that this little bear, terribly thin, was taking a drink where the Angus family have installed an hydraulic ram an acre or so from their home. Mrs. Angus going down to clear out the Spring, which supplies the home with fresh water, whacked it over the head with a hoe.

Shawville's mighty hunter, Allan Sparling, the well known barber, has shot six bears so far this Fall, and we are told that Sammie G. Sparling of Thorne, has bagged over twenty.

It appears that the Sparling clan are death on bears.

MARRIED

—o—

Henderson—Alexander

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander at Wyman, Que., on Wednesday last, when their daughter, Laura Joy, became the bride of Graham Lloyd Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs John Hugh Henderson, also of Wyman. Rev. R. S. Smith, of the United Church at Quyon, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was becomingly dressed in a floor-length gown of white crepe, cut on princess lines, long sleeves, and finger-tip veil caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red rose buds.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Minola Alexander, of Ottawa, whose floor-length dress was of pink crepe, with shoulder-length veil and her bouquet was of mixed flowers.

The little flower girl was Miss Iona Murray, niece of the bride, who wore a dress of blue taffeta cut full length. She carried a bouquet of Autumn flowers.

The best man was Mr. Earl Lucas, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Melvin Beattie, both of Wyman.

After the ceremony supper was served to about 60 guests at the bride's home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Henderson took a short trip to Eastern Ontario points. On their return a large reception in their honor was given to 200 guests in the Theatre at Shawville. They are to make their home at Wyman.

Correction— In our reference to the destruction caused by the tornado in last week's issue, it was stated that the outbuildings of Herman Emmerson were all blown down. This was a case of mistaken identity, it was the out-buildings of Thos. Emmerson, a brother, which were wrecked by the storm.

Harris Reunion Reception

—o—

A re-union reception was held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Stickler, Main Street, Shawville, on Wednesday, Sept. 19th, in honor of her uncle, Mr. J. A. Harris, of North Vancouver, B. C.; her aunt, Mrs. Donald Jenkins, (nee Effie Harris) of Grand Rapids Mich., and her sister, Mrs. Beryl Affiack, of North Vancouver.

Among the out-of-town guests were,Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maitland, of Pembroke; Mrs. H. Harris, of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carson, of Austin, and Mr. Seymour Harris, of Charteris.

Miss Marjorie Webb Honoured

—o—

Mrs. A. Russell, jr. was hostess at a shower given by her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Webb, in honor of their daughter, Miss Marjorie, who is one of this month's brides.

While a large number of friends and neighbours were gathered in the living- room, which was prettily decorated the bride-to-be was ushered in and asked to sit in a decorated chair where she was showered with confetti.

Miss Isobel Wilson read a suitable address and a large decorated basket of gifts was presented by the Misses Olive Woermki and Jean Dean.

After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" Miss Webb who was very much taken by surprise, thanked those present for the nice gifts.

Refreshments were served and a very pleasant event was brought to a close wishing the young couple the very best in the future.

A car of feed wheat will arrive at Bristol C.N.R. Station shortly. For prices and further particulars call Clarence Roy, Maryland.

Electric Goods to be Produced

—o—

Numerous electrical items, such as electric lamps, storage batteries, and electric lighting fixtures, are among the articles from which production, simplification and standardization restrictions have been lifted by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Other goods included are broilers, irons, toasters, tea kettles, heating pads, grills and grates.

Agricultural Engineering

—o—

The National Committee on Agricultural Engineering meeting recently in Ottawa at the request of the Dominion Department of Agriculture discussed during a three-day session, engineering problems facing the farmer in Canada. The Committee said that its recommendations to the National Advisory Committee on Agricultural Services included farm machinery supply and distribution, soil conservation, farm housing, and rural electrification.

Want Machinery Parts

—o—

In spite of easing up of quota restrictions in the manufacture of many types of farm machinery, the demand for many items has continued to exceed the supply. Shortages of certain materials and critical parts, as well as the labour problem, have had a limiting factor in the output of new machinery. As a result, many farmers have been forced to make existing equipment do.

Farewell to the Way Family

—o—

At the close of the Young People's service on Monday evening in the Holiness Movement Church, a number of the congregation and friends, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dale to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Way and family, who this week are moving to Ottawa.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the close of which Miss Elma Dale President of the Young People's Society, read an address expressing regret over the departure of the Way family and wishing them happiness in their new home. Then Misses Ruth Lindsay, Jean Smith, and Joan McFarlane carried in the presentation which consisted of a walnut living-room table and reading lamp.

Short expressions of good wishes were also given by the pastor, Rev. W. C. A. McFarlane, the Sunday School Supertendant, Mr. H. Smith, and a number of others.

Refreshments were served by the ladies present.

Mr. and Mrs. Way have been lifelong rsidents of Shawville and district. Best wishes go with them in their new home.

Farm Machinery in Winter Time

—o—

In the conservation of farm machinery, the overhauling of the equipment before being laid aside for the season and protection from the weather in late fall and winter are important factors. The life of soiled and unprotected farm machinery is often shortened more by rust and exposure than by hard work. Most farms have adequate room for storage of machinery but under the prevailing conditions on the farm it may be difficult to house heavy machinery. However, the extra care necessary in finding some efficient means of protection against the weather will add years of usefullness, particularly if the machines are thoroughly cleaned before being stowed away.

Late fall and winter is the most convenient time to adjust and repair agricultural machinery, and reconditioning can be done with the tools available on the farm. Repairs that cannot be done on the farm should be taken to the blacksmith or other repairman as early as possible so that the work of the repairman may be evenly distributed throughout the winter.

In overhauling machinery, all the bearings, axles, and similar parts subject to wear should be taken apart and examined carefully. Parts that are not likely to work well for another season should be replaced, if possible. Other parts should be thoroughly cleaned, care being taken to see that the lubricating parts are working well. Parts that work in the ground, such as cultivator shovels and discs should be checked and those that are cracked or badly worn should be replaced. Other parts may require sharpening to ensure best results for the following season.

After the fall work has been completed, many farmers make a point of drawing up a list of the parts which should be replaced or repaired. Under present conditions which are likely to continue more or less until the end of the global war, that is, until the defeat of Japan, it is a wise plan to order the parts that can be ordered well in advance of actual need, so that, in case of unavoidable delays, the parts may be on hand when wanted.

JESUS' PROGRAM FOR MEETING LIFE'S PROBLEMS

Matthew 4:1-11; 6:24-34; Luke 4:16-30.

PRINTED TEXT, Matthew 4:1-4; 6:31-34; Luke 4:16-21.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Matthew 4.4.

Devotional Reading: Hebrews 2:10-18.

Memory Verse: For thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad. Psalm 92:4.

Triumph Over Temptation

"Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil . . . but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." The principle involved in Christ's reply was that He would work no miracle to satisfy His own will. In self-denial He would follow God, submitting to His will, and trusting that His mighty power would help in the time of need in the way that His wisdom might see fit.

God's Outward Blessing

"Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? . . . and all these things shall be added unto you." Our Lord says that if men will really seek the kingdom of God and his righteousness all these material things, which the heathen nations seek exclusively and which are necessary for life, will be added. As a rule, God's outward blessing goes with the inward; and he who by patient industry has honestly sought his daily bread has found it.

Please God To-Day

"Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." Christ says "to-morrow and all its wants will be provided for you by your heavenly Father; therefore think of it without anxiety and try to do right and please God to-day.

Jesus In Nazareth

"And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up . . . to set at liberty them that are bruised." From the word here translated 'anointed' comes our English word 'Christ' which means literally 'the Anointed One', and thus the 'Sent One'.

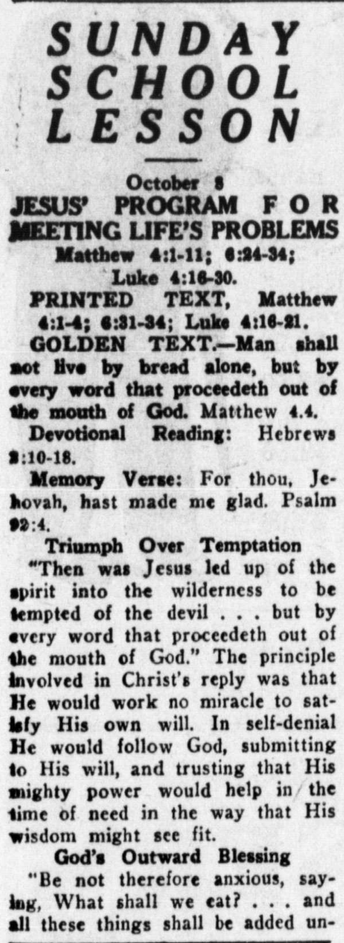

The Acceptable Year

'To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." This was the time when men—sinners broken, ruined, lawless, hopeless men—would be acceptable to God if they would believe in Christ and accept His way of grace. And the acceptable year of the Lord is not ended. Any man in the world to-day will be accepted of God if he will take Christ for his Saviour and allow God to cleanse him from sin.

The Scripture Fulfilled

"And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, To-day has this scripture been fulfilled in your ears."

Jesus quietly announced that the prediction of the prophet Isaiah was that day fulfilled in Him before their very eyes. The people doubted that this man, a carpenter's son, is the one of whom the prophet spoke. But Jesus reveals his profound knowledge of what they were going to do and how they would reject Him, and He would go on to those who would accept Him. And Jesus immediately took Himself out of their midst for His time had not yet come.

What Is Happening To Our Language?

Quite good writers no longer seem to distinguish between "precipitate" and "precipitous," between "elemental" and "elementary," between "distinterested" and "uninterested," between "historical" and "historic."—From a letter in the press protest might also be registered against the introduction of numerous vulgarities, as for instance, the substitute so often used for the admirable word "courage." Some of the magazines which should be among the leaders in protecting the language, are actually making free use of profanity.—Port Arthur News-Chronicle.

Sapphires and Diamonds

CHAPTER V

Peggy found one of William's grandsons down by the gate waiting to open it for her. His little calico shirt tails flapped in the breeze above the patched pants that had once belonged to an older brother. His white teeth in their black setting shone in the sunlight. She waved the light whip towards him as she drove through the gates.

Once on the highway Peggy drew a long breath and settled down to the business of thinking.

"That's what I get for borrowing things," she muttered, remembering how she had always been taught never to borrow from anyone.

There was only one thing to do. Stop at Carver's jewelry store and see if the ring could be straightened. She had no idea how long it would take. But she would go there immediately. She had heard that since young Jim Carver had come home from college and gone into business with his father they had branched out considerably in the jewelry business. Perhaps that would include being able to straighten a platinum ring.

In spite of the many cars in Marshville, no one ever thought it strange to see Peggy Horton in the old pony cart. She had driven it ever since anyone could remember seeing her about, and no one connected a Horton with anything but horses. There were still a few horse rails about the old square in the center of which stood a fountain that had served as a drinking fount for the horses of former days. Now it was only a source of cooling beauty. Stores, bank, post office, and the old wooden two-story hotel surrounded the square on all four sides, the streets entering from the corners.

Peggy, stopping before the hitching post that was the closest to Carver's, jumped out and tied Pat, exchanging greetings with one or two people as she did so. Then walking rapidly, she entered the store.

She was glad to see that Jim Carver was not there. He would probably have asked a lot of questions. Old Mr. Carver, with his bald head bent closely over a book, was seated alone at the back of the store.

"Why, hello, Miss Peggy," he called, coming forward to greet her, after carefully marking his place with a slip of paper between the pages. "How's your grandmother? You ought to be mighty proud of her. There's nobody left around here like Miss Mary. I remember—"

But Peggy had no time to listen to reminiscences.

"She's quite well, thank you," she interrupted. "Mr. Carver, I wonder if you could straighten a ring for me? You see," she said reaching into her bag and handing him the ring, "it belongs to a friend of mine who is visiting me, and in some way it got bent." Peggy did not prevaricate easily and she wondered if her scarlet face were giving her away.

Mr. Carver took the ring, eyeing it gravely while Peggy anxiously waited.

"That certainly is a lovely ring," he said at last. "A girl with a ring like that ought to know better than to be careless with it. Well now, I reckon I can straighten it all right for her."

Peggy relaxed somewhat.

"Could you do it this afternoon? Right away?" she asked.

Mr. Carver looked at her over his glasses, one eyebrow raised quizzically.

"I declare all you young folks are just alike. Everything must be done right now. No waiting. You all never will remember that Rome wasn't built in a day. I reckon, though, that I can do it. I'm not doing anything else right now. Might as well do this. Can you come back after a while?"

Peggy came out of the store with her heart singing. The ring was not ruined. It would be as good as new and she could have it on when she met Nancy. In spite of her knowledge that she should not borrow, having borrowed it she might as well carry out Hrary's idea, she told herself. All seemed well now.

She paused a moment on the sidewalk to look about her, deciding what to do next. Across the square before the hotel she saw several boys gathered about an automobile. It was the car from California that she had seen that morning. She wondered where its owner was, and why he was still in Marshville. There was nothing in this sleepy little town to keep even a tourist, she reflected.

She went into a candy store up near the corner to get some of Nancy's favorite candy then stopped in a drug store to buy some magazines and a soda, to kill a little time before she should go back for the ring. At last she rose, and after paying her check started down the street. She was within a few feet of Carver's when she heard rapid footsteph behind her and a voice cried:

"Well, hello. Imagine seeing you here!"

Turning quickly she found herself face to face with the Man from California, as she immediately termed him. Peggy eyed him coldly. He was tall, she realized, and broad shouldered. He wore a well-tailored light linen suit which contrasted becomingly with his dark coloring. His almost black hair, which had been blowing in the breeze this morning, was now brushed neatly down. He had nice eyes, she found herself thinking, before she answered curtly:

"I am neither a hitch-hiker nor a pick-up."

"Oh, I say," he began in some confusion. "I didn't mean it like that. I was so surprised at seeing you again just had to speak. Sort of talking aloud, I guess."

"Yes, I understand," Peggy said pausing at the entrance of the jewelry store. "There is another man here who talks to himself. He is about ninety and usually sits along here in the sun. The constable keeps an eye on him to see that nothing happens to him. He probably won't mind watching you too."

Bombs Don't Hinder School Examinations

Boys and girls of Southern England have refused to allow flying bombs to interfere with their general and higher school certificate examinations, now being held.

Head teachers are full of praise for the calm way in which the children have gone about their work.

One group of girls began their geography paper at 9.30 a.m. and finished it at 2.45 p.m., having spent only 50 minutes on the paper, and the rest of the time in shelters.

In another school the girls doing their algebra paper had to go four times from a ground-floor classroom to the shelters and finally they had to finish the paper writing on their knees in the shelter.

Edward VII 'Rides' Again In Paris

The bronze equestrian statue of King Edward VII is back in its place in the courtyard of the Societe Generale, one of France's great banks. More than two years ago bank officials whisked it away to a hiding place when Germans ordered it melted down to make bullets.

German authorities actually had the statue pulled down, but before they could cart it away bank officials hauled it under cover of darkness to St. Denis.

BADGE OF THE SEVENTH VICTORY LOAN

—o—

All Canadians, buyers of bonds in the Seventh Victory Loan which begins October 23, may pin to their lapel a minature of the invasion shoulder patch worn by British, Canadian and American officers and soldiers in Europe under command of General Dwight Eisenhower of the Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force. This was announced last week by the provincial headquarters, National War Finance Committee.

The emblem, which consists chiefly of a flaming sword on a black background, will have a figure 7 as an underlay beneath the sword. This signifies the Seventh Victory Loan.

The shoulder badge of the SHAEF has features new to heraldry, but may be described in conventional armorial terms as a sable--or black—shield, with a "pale" or top band of light blue, surmounting a red, orange, yellow, green and blue, and charged with an upraised flambant—this is, flaming-sword. The rainbow signifies calm after storm.

The meaning is clear. The black background or "chief" of the shield represents the cultural and physical blackout into which war has plunged the civilization of many countries. The crusader's sword, resembling the two-edged, gold-hilted Excalibur of the legend of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, is pointed upward; signifying battle, and the flames are at once the gunfire of modern battle and the blazing ardor of the cause of the United Nations.

The light blue "pale" at the top represents a calm sky, and is symbolic of the peace and tranquility that is the ultimtate aim of our struggle. Beneath it is a five-color rainbow, representing the colors in the flags of all the Allied Powers.

More briefly and with deep emotional poignancy the symbol was thus described in a letter by a Canadian soldier now wearing it in Europe:

Shield of faith,
Fire and sword—
These our arms,
O Lord!
Freedom's breath
Where vandals trod—
This our aim,
O God!

Soil Preparation for Next Year's Root Seed Crop

Experienced seed growers recognize the absolute necessity of planting mangel and swede seed roots as early in the Spring as possible. No amount of fertilization or care after planting will mean as much to the seed crop as will the cool moist conditions the roots will have if they are planted as soon as the land is fit in the Spring, states, R. M. MacVicar, Division of Forage Plants, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. In order to have the soil in good condition for early Spring planting, fall preparation is almost a necessity.

Sod ground, preferably alfalfa or clover should be well manured and ploughed in the Fall. The ground ground should then be thoroughly worked so that the manure will be well incorporated, and the sod well broken up. In other words, the soil should be almost ready for planting by freeze-up time. If there is a possibility that application of fertilizer in the Spring will delay planting appreciably, then it should be applied before the final working of the ground in the Fall.

Attention should be paid to drainage before freeze-up. Furrows should be opened in such a manner that excess water will run off readily and rapidly in the Spring.

Into One Pocket — Sure! but OUT of the other

Each of us is both consumer and producer.

As a producer each of us would like to get MORE money for our goods or services.

As a consumer each of us wants the costs of living kept down.

But we can't have it both ways.

As long as goods are scarce and money plentiful, prices have to be controlled or they'd jump sky high.

If prices are to be kept down, then costs of production including salaries, wages and raw materials must also be controlled.

One Person Can Start It!

When any one of us:—

- offers to pay more than legal prices;
- asks higher returns for his services;
- asks higher prices for his goods.

He helps start a chain that forces every one else to do the same and nobody is better off.

THIS IS ONE OF A SERIES ISSUED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA TO EMPHASIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF PREVENTING FURTHER RISE IN THE COST OF LIVING NOW, AND DEFLATION LATER.

IS PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM

How many ways can you save ....to LEND TO CANADA?

In the homes, all over Canada, loyal, patriotic women are discovering new ways to economize . . . new ways to save money to lend to their country. A little saved here and a little saved there provides money to lend to Canada to help pay for the war. Small sums from millions of Canadians mount to billions when totalled up.

The amount that you may lend to your country may seem a small sum to you, but pennies make dimes and dimes make dollars, and Canada needs every single dollar that every Canadian can save and lend. Canada's need for borrowing is greater now than ever before. Every Canadian must lend, and lend more than before. Money you save and invest in Victory Bonds will benefit you in a personal way, too. You will have cash, when the war is over, to buy things you want for your home . . . things you are doing without now. . . cash to pay on a new home . . . to pay on a new car.

Cotton Insulation

Low-grade short staple cotton not required for military or other fabrics has found a use as cotton insulation. It was used for insulating maintenance buildings along the Alcan highway and it is now being used for trailer or "knock down" houses for defense communities, refrigerator cars, refrigerators and for some marine construction.

This cotton insulation is flameproofed with an effective chemical solution which also repels rats, mice and household insects as well as preventing mildew. Specifications require it to be at least three-quarters of an inch thick, but it may weigh less than one ounce to the board foot. If there is a supporting backing, it must be flexible and repel moisture. After installation, the cotton does not sag.

There are seven firms in the United States that are manufacturing cotton insulation, and retail merchants now sell it by the batt or roll and about 1,000 square feet will insulate an average attic.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

1. Should a stenographer rise when vistiors to the office approach her desk?

2. Should bridesmaids' dresses all be the same color?

3. When a couple leaves the street car, should the woman or man go first?

4. Is it proper to drink consomme from a cup or to use a spoon?

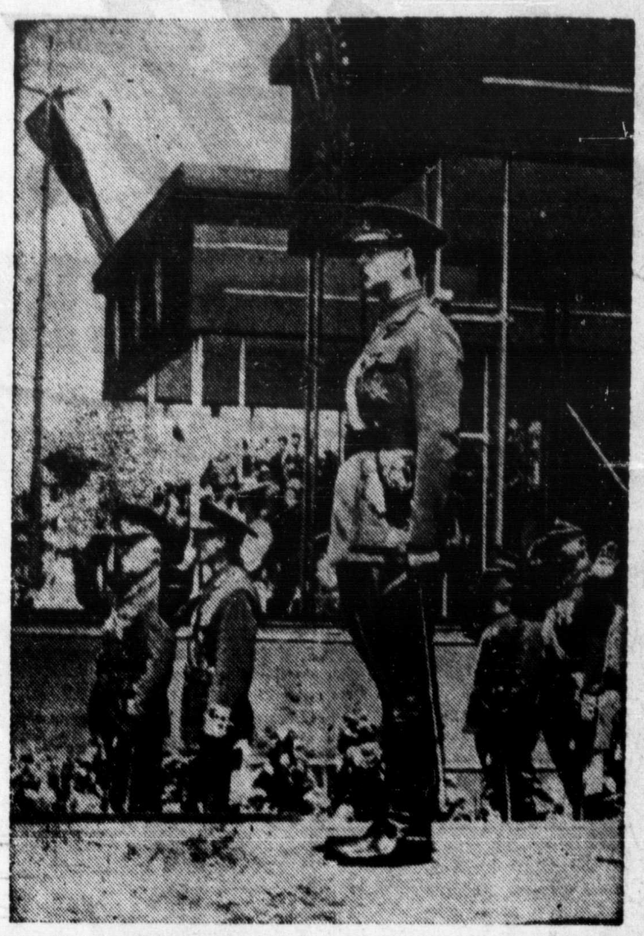

5. Upon which finger does a man wear a wedding ring, when the double ring ceremony is used?

6. Is it proper to smoke in the room of a convalescent?

Answers

1. Not necessarily. She would do so for a stranger or an important vistior, but not to greet one who comes to the office constantly. 2. Sometimes the bridesmaids wear the same color, but in graduated tones. 3. The man should precede the woman, in order to assist her down the car steps. 4. It is proper to use a spoon for the first few mouthfuls of consomme. One may continue to use a spoon or may lift the cup and sip its contents. 5. A man wears a wedding ring, as a woman does, on the finger next to the little finger of the left hand. 6. No, unless the convalescent himself is smoking.

IN HIS RIGHTFUL PLACE

King Mihai of Romania reviews troops in Bucharest after amazing coup d'etat which won youthful king acclaim of his people and the world. After bringing about destruction of 38 German divisions he placed country on Allied side. With aid of faithful subjects King Mihai arrested Marshal Ian Antonescu on August 23 and brought about end of Nazi reign in Romania.

U. S. Soldiers Can Buy Jeeps After War

The United States House of representatives recognizing the fighting forces' love for the jeep, wrote into the surplus war property disposal bill an amendment that would permit service men and women, and veterans, to buy this iron-clad midget after the war at "wholesale" prices.

WHAT SCIENCE IS DOING

Mineral Oil

Increased use of mineral oil during the war may have serious nutritional consequences, warns the United States Department of Agriculture. Mineral oil is said to rob the body of at least two of the fat-soluble vitamins and of calcium and phosphorus.

Mineral oil, which has been plentiful and relatively cheap, and does not become rancid, has been used in increasing amounts in salad dressings and in salted nuts, potato chips and doughnuts. Its prolonged use may lead to deficiency ills because it prevents the body from making full use of some of the most important essentials in food.

Recent studies at the Arizona Station showed that mineral oil not only cheated the user of Vitamin A, but also of Vitamin D, the "sunshine vitamin," and calcium and phosphorus. Rats taking mineral oil needed three times as much cod liver oil to supply Vitamin D as those not getting the oil. Puppies fed mineral oil could not use the calcium and phosphorus in their food to build normal bones.

Blackouts Lifted

The blackout has been lifted completely along the whole coastal belt of South Africa. The duties of the civilian coastal defence corps have been suspended.

Malta, once the most-bombed spot, on earth, ended its blackout last week on the annivrsary of the great siege by the Turks in 1565.

New Mexico has lived under five rules—Indian, Spanish, Mexican, Confederacy, and United States.

Canadians.. Wake Up!

Recent surveys show that not one Canadian in ten knows what State Socialism really is. These surveys also show that the more misinformed the people are, the more they are in favor of what they think State Socialism is. Every Canadian should get posted on this subject at once, because you will be called upon to vote for or against it in the coming general election. Your verdict on this issue will decide the destiny of Canada. That's no small matter.

The Society for Individual Freedom has been organized for the purpose of acquainting the people of Canada with the true significance and ultimate consequences of State Socialism.

State Socialism would take from you every last vestige of your liberty.

State Socialism Spells 'Dictatorship'

The Society has absolutely no connectien with any political party, nor is it sponsored by any one group or class. It represents private citizens from every walk of life.

. JERRY-BUILT DECEPTION

CANADA'S VETERANS

Their Post-War Opportunities

This is the first of a series of advertisements to inform the people of Canada of plans to re-establish men and women of the armed forces. To get the full details save and read every advertisement.

For complete information write for the booklet "Back to Civil Life."

The Future After Discharge —

A MESSAGE TO RELATIVES OF THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

When your boys and your girls come home, when they lay aside the uniform, when they go out into the world as normal peace-loving Canadians, what lies ahead? Can they pick up their lives as civilians, where they laid them down, months or long years ago? Are there plans to help them do the things they wanted to do before the war? Will they have security? Can they continue education, or receive needed training? Will they be assisted in home owning, or to establish their own business, and will they be enabled to pick up their family life once again?

These are questions which concern all those Canadians who have loved ones in the services. They are questions which this series of advertisements is designed to answer.

OPPORTUNITY IS THE OBJECTIVE

Canada has been making plans for your boy's and your girl's return to civilian life since early in 1940. These plans are in effect and operating now. The aim is that every person who has served shall have opportunity. Thousands, already back in civilian life, have benefitted by training, by maintenance grants, by advice of departmental officials, and by the social security provisions. There is ample help for those men and women who want to help themselves.

ASSISTANCE ON DISCHARGE

When your boys and girls are discharged from the services, they will be given:

1. A clothing allowance of $100.00 (if discharged after August 1, 1944).
2. Their pay to date of discharge.
3. One month's additional pay, if they have 183 days' continuous service, as a rehabilitation grant.
4. A railway warrant home or to the place of enlistment.

Dependents will receive:

1. Their normal dependents' allowance to date of discharge, with assigned pay.
2. An additional month's dependents' allowance, with assigned pay, if there has been 183 days' continuous service.

Your boy or girl will be allowed to retain certain items of uniform. They will be given a complete medical and dental examination and will be eligible for free needed treatment for a year after discharge. Those discharged not physically fit, in need of continuing treatment and unable to work, will have their pay and allowances of rank continued for at least a year if necessary and, if the disability is pensionable, for as long as curative treatment is beneficial. All are interviewed by Veterans' Welfare Officers and told of the re-establishment programme.

WAR SERVICE GRATUITY

On discharge, those enlisted to serve outside Canada, or those who served in the Aleutian Islands, are eligible for a war service gratuity. It provides $7.50 for each thirty days' service in Canada and the Western Hemisphere and $15.00 for each thirty days' service overseas or in the Aleutian Islands. For those with overseas service or with service in the Aleutian Islands, there is an additional seven days' pay and allowances for each six months of such service. Payments will be made at the end of each month in the months following discharge. Complete details of the war service gratuity will be given in a later advertisement.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT CREDIT

In addition to the war service gratuity, there is a re-establishment credit of $7.50 for each thirty days' service in the Western Hemisphere and $15.00 for each thirty days' service overseas. This is for things such as the purchase or repair of a home, the buying of furniture, a business, or government life insurance, and for certain other purposes which will assist your boy or your girl in becoming re-established. This credit, which is reduced by grants given for training or education, or under the Veterans' Land Act, is primarily for those who do not wish assistance under these three plans.

RETURN TO FORMER JOBS

If your boy or girl held a civilian position before enlisting, and was not engaged to replace somebody already in the forces, and if the position still exists, and your boy or girl is capable of filling it, it is the employer's duty, under the law of Canada, to reinstate him or her in that position with seniority. Application for reinstatement must be made to the former employer within three months of discharge from the forces or from hospital.

Veterans' Welfare Officers are stationed in key centres throughout Canada. They are the friends of Ex-Service men and women. It is their duty to advise and assist all Ex-Service personnel with their re-establishment problems. If there is anything about the Rehabilitation programme which you do not understand, consult your nearest Veterans' Welfare Officer.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

The surest way to permanent employment—the thing your boy or girl will want—is a skill to get and to hold a job. Canada's plans give opportunity to acquire needed skill either at university or in preparation for a business or industrial career. Fees are paid by the state, along with living allowances, while training or continuing education.

WHILE ILL OR UNEMPLOYED

There is protection against illness or unemployment by maintenance allowances which can be drawn against in the first eighteen months after discharge. There is also protection under the Unemployment Insurance Act for those who enter insured employment and remain in it fifteen weeks.

HOME OWNING AND FARMING

There is provision to assist city and other workers to have homes of their own, either on small acreages of land outside the high taxation area, or in town, under the National Housing Act. Full-time farmers can be given financial assistance in full-time farming, while commercial fishermen may secure financial help in getting their own homes, on small acreages of land, and in buying needed fishing equipment.

FREE TREATMENT

In the year following discharge, service men and women are eligible for free treatment, hospitalization and allowances for any condition, even if not the result of service. Pensioners are entitled to this for life for their pensioned disability.

THE POLICY ON PENSIONS

Canada's Pension Act is administered by an independent commission, all former members of the services. Any permanent disability suffered overseas, not a result of misconduct, is pensionable. Where service is in Canada only, the disability must be a result of scrvice.

Published under the authority of Hon. Ian A. Mackenzie, Minister of

PENSIONS AND NATIONAL HEALTH

Contented Cows Give More Milk

—o—

Contented cows give more milk. Cows are like factory workers. If conditions are bad and the workers are discontented, production will drop. Here are three suggestions for cow comfort, designed to make cows give more milk: (1) In the late fall and winter, protect the cows from wind, cold rains, and snow. Do not force the cows to remain longer out of doors in cold weather than is necessary. Provide a dry, well-drained yard. If the yard is muddy they cannot even lie down without discomfort. (2) A cow whose feet hurt cannot work efficiently. Examine each cow's feet, and treat any existing wounds, and trim the hoofs when necessary so that she can walk in comfort. (3) Cows that have to spend their time scratching and rubbing cannot concentrate on milk production. Check the animals for parasites and treat if necessary.

Cotton Bags May be Utilized

—o—

The use of cotton bags for making various household articles may be resumed by manufactures who have been accustomed to utilizing the bags, it is announced by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The restriction was originally imposed in March, 1942, at which time cutting of used cotton bags was strictly prohibited, but later the order was relaxed to permit housewives and others to use this material, provided the completed article was not for sale.

IN MEMORIAM

—o—

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Robert F. Dale, who passed away October 3rd, 1938.

There's someone who misses you sadly
And thinks the time long since you went,
There's some one who mourns you daily
But tries to be brave and content.
There's someone who weeps in silence
And breaths a sigh of regret
For you are ours to remember
When others are apt to forget.
