

MIDNIGHT REPORTS

THE CHRISTIANS IN UGA

GERMAN IMMIGRATION BOARD.
 Revolt in an Austrian Prison—The Ward Case—Snow Storms in the United States.

—

GREAT BRITAIN.
 LONDON, Dec. 7.—Captain William

Lugard left the country, very ill, after turning to the coast. Weeks must elapse before Major Smith, who succeeds O. Williams, can arrive in Uganda. In the meantime much anxiety is felt as to what result will be to European and native Christians. High officials of the British East Africa Company state that there is no cause for anxiety regarding affairs in Uganda, although Captain Williams has been in the country nearly a month. It is said that the country must remain there, and they will be content to wait until the British Government is ready to protect the Christians after the arrival of Major Smith.

The returns issued by the Board of Trade for last month show that the imports increased £4,960,000 and the exports de-

FRANCE.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—The Panama Canal committee to-day re-affirmed its resolution declaring the necessity of an autopsy of the body of Baron De Reinich. It is expected that the Government will to-morrow announce its intention to have an autopsy performed.

The members of the Panama Canal Navigating Committee, before adjourning to-day, expressed a desire to confer with the Government immediately after the general declarations, to learn the Govern-had. If any interpellation is proposed, it is likely to frustrate the conference. M. Brissoulet will move to suspend the sitting of the Chamber. M. Porquery De Boissat tends to ask the Government to announce

The St. Petersburg correspondent

GERMANY.

BERLIN, Dec. 7.—It is reported that the American Government is greatly displeased over the German Immigration Bill which comes up in the Reichstag to-morrow, because it excludes the agents of all

In the Ahlwardt case to-day, the C refused to allow evidence offered by Ahl counsel, and his counsel then withdrew the case. Despite the public protest opposition, Ahlwardt's request that time be adjourned until to-morrow to enable him to prepare his defense, which was

MADRID, Dec. 7.—Premier Canova asked the Chamber for a vote of confidence on the Government's action in the scandal. The Chamber rejected the by a vote of 129 to 121. The Slaves were in the majority. The Liberals refused from voting. Senor Canovas immediately proceeded to the Palace and tendered the Queen Regent the resignation of the cabinet.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, Dec. 7.—One hundred and thirty-five convicts in the prison at Koenigsgratz revolted today. They smashed the interior

HUNGARY.
BUDA-PESTH, Dec. 7.—The snow throughout Hungary continue, causing interruption to railway and other Trains for Grau, Kaschau and Tem

snow storm at Pradcan and a rail-came into collision with a snow plow badly wrecked. A number of the passenger and ten of the railway employees were injured.

UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—A statement prepared by Messrs. Courts and Cleve-respectively to the House and Senate committees on appropriations, show estimates for regular annual appropriations for the fiscal year 1893-94 $505,861,335, an increase over the estimate for the current fiscal year of 251, and over the appropriations, excluding deficiencies and miscellaneous, of $260.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 7.—Mr. Henry teresting statement that Prince was interested in Milwaukee Street properties to the extent of $200,000 to $30,000. It seems that Mr. Vill Prince Bismarck when he was in Ber the time the plan to consolidate waukee Street Railways was placed and Prince Bismarck became inter such an extent that he has invested OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 7—Snow has been falling here since one o'clock last night and car traffic has been entirely abandoned. The snow is accompanied by a high wind and there is a prospect of a blizzard. Many people are late and some have been abandoned in their cars.

WICHITA, Kas., Dec. 7—The rain fell all day yesterday turned to snow at midnight, and to-day a white blizzard is sweeping across the state.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The Chicago Bureau this evening reported a great wind storm passing over the To the east and extending to the Trans-mississippi, while, between here

Meeting Her on Her Own Landlady—"No, this room has n the last gentleman always left his d and said it was well heated from Room-hunter—"It won't do, then. friend who once occupied a room he the hall, and it was so hot he got Holloway's Ointment and Pills effectual cures of bad legs and wounds, medicines be used according to the which are wrapped round each pot and is no wound, bad leg, or ulcerous sore, obstinate, but will yield to their virtues. Numbers of persons who patients in the large hospitals, and care of eminent surgeons, without at least benefit, have been cured by Ointment and Pills, when other means signally failed. For glandular tumours, scurvy, and diseases of the blood, it is no medicine that can be used with effect. Though potent for good, it is for harm; and though the cure is rapid, it is also complete and permanent. Lm

December 2, 1892.

Little Girl at Window—Please, guire, mother sent me over to gran'mother's dying, an' she waid if yer won't let yer husband wid his coraet to give her a good—Life.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparil by the many wonderful cures it is doing. It is just the medicine for you.

A VERY LARGE STOCK of im-proof garments of the best quality stock at S. Carsley's, Montreal.
Children Cry for Pitcher's

