J. & J. TAYLOR'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES.
THE Subscribers have on Sale an assortment of the above SAFES, which they have confidence in recommending as thoroughly reliable. They have been well tested at Quebec and Toronto with triumphant success, and are in use in many of the BANKS and PUBLIC OFFICES of the Province. They desire particularly to call attention to the following certificate:—
LINDSAY, August 28, 1861.
Messrs. J. & J. TAYLOR.—Gentlemen,—I beg to inform you that your Safe, which was in my possession when my store was burned at the late great fire here, July 5th, has just been opened; the keys having been lost, it had to be cut, open, and although exposed to the very hottest part of the fire, it having fallen into the cellar amongst upwards of twenty barrels of oil, turpentine and varnish, which kept burning around it for over four days; and from the fact of one of the wheels, the name plates and knob, also a store which stood alongside of it, having been melted and run into one solid mass, the Safe must have been red hot for a considerable time, yet the interior of the Safe is almost as good as new, and has proved to be a perfect Fire-Proof Safe; Safes of other makers which were in the fire having proved worthless. I can with confidence recommend yours as being superior to anything of the kind I have yet seen.
CHAS. BRITTAN, Lindsay, C.W.
Having seen the above Safe opened, we can with confidence recommend them to the public as being Fire-proof in every sense of the word.

CHANNING'S WORKS.
THE COMPLETE WORKS of WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING, D. D. Six vols bound in three.
The MEMOIR of DR. CHANNING, 3 vols.
The Works of Dr. Channing have been republished in repeated editions in England, Scotland and Ireland, and have been translated into the leading languages of Europe. In a notice of Dr. Channing, written several years ago, the "Methodist Quarterly Review" speaks thus:—
"Such a man as Dr Channing must have stood majestically in advance of his age, whenever and wherever he had lived. He lived according to the sense of the present generation, at least, in the best age of the world, and yet he was far in front of it; if it reaches his radiant position in two centuries, the signs of the times are certainly quite illusive."

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Striking Change Effected by Hoofland's German Bitters.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1858.
DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir,—I had suffered so long from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, in their most aggravated forms, that I almost despaired of finding a cure, when, in compliance with the advice of my physician, I had recourse to your German Bitters. I had taken them, with a marked improvement, for two months, when my husband, who is captain of the packet ship "Saranak," returned from his last voyage. His first exclamation on seeing me, was, "Why, Margaret, what have you been taking? You look five hundred per cent. better than when I left." And well he might say so. When he sailed on his last voyage, I was thin and care-worn, and my complexion of a saffron color; while now I have regained my flesh, and am in the enjoyment of perfect health. And all this I owe to your invaluable Bitters. I therefore think you are justly entitled to this certificate, which you are at liberty to publish. Yours truly,
MARGARET ROWLAND, 118 Queen Street, Southwark.
Be sure and ask for HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, and see that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT,
HAVING passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home, and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favour of Homœpathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practised upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering, crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP

HOW VERY ASTONISHING—That so many people annually die with consumption. Do you know that a slight cold is often the foundation of this insidious disease, and that a single bottle of Downs' Vegetable Balsamic Elixir will cure a dozen slight colds. Delay is death! Procrastination is more than a thief, it is a murderer. The worst cases may be cured by the timely use of the Elixir. Keep a bottle on hand for family use.

A FRIEND IN NEED—Is a friend indeed! That's a fact. It has been said that man's best friend is money; but we know of something better, "Henry's Vermont Liniment," because it cures the pain that gold will fail to do. A single bottle that costs but twenty-five cents may save you a Doctor's bill of twenty-five dollars. Every family should have a bottle at hand in case of accidents. It will quell a raging tooth-ache in ten minutes. There is nothing better for burns, bruises, lameness, cholic, griping, &c., &c.

THE ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY OF THE HAIR.
From the Boston Chronotype.
Why should it be more incredible that art can cultivate hair on the top of the living human head, than it should grow corn and grass on the top of the hill? People seem to think their hair will stay on their heads, do what they will, just so long as Providence wills it so to do, and no longer. But here they may be mistaken. They had better read a pamphlet entitled as above, a copy of which now lies on our table. It is by Mr. Wm. Bogle,—who may "catch" you quite "unawares" with some facts and principles much to your comfort and consolation, if you are inclined to be bald.
Bogle's Hyperion Fluid is for sale by all druggists.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—TO MOTHERS.—Children are frequently exposed to such accidents as cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, etc.—this Ointment will immediately relieve the pain and remove all the bad consequences of the casualty. Sold everywhere.
If the reader of this "notice" cannot get a box of Pills or Ointment from the Drug Store in his place, let him write to me, enclosing the amount, and I will mail a box free of expense. Many dealers will not keep my medicines on hand, because they cannot make as much profit as on other persons' make.

Facts.—To over thirteen hundred editors of leading papers in the United States sample packages of BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS have been presented, with the request, that each editor should state the effect the medicine may have had in his own family, or on his sick friends. From the innumerable satisfactory statements published in reply, we make the following brief extracts: R. D. Crosswell, Esq., of the "Daily Times," says:—"In the case of a lady, a near relative of the writer, the pills have effected the removal of dropsical swellings that had existed for more than three years." J. B. Goodwin, of the "Loraine Gazette," one of the ablest weeklies in the West, states that he was "promptly relieved from chronic torpidity of the bowels, accompanied with painful constipation, by the sample of pills received last October, and apprehends no return of the complaint." Joseph Edwards, Esq., of the "Tribune," writes:—"I was, so I thought, a hopeless dyspeptic, but two vials of Bristol's Sugar-Coated Pills seem to have entirely banished the complaint, to which I had been a martyr, more or less, for twelve years." Such evidence is conclusive. They are put up in glass vials and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from or aggravated by impure blood BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills.

IN THE YEAR 1845
Mr. Matthews first prepared the VENETIAN HAIR DYE, since that time it has been used by thousands, and in no instance has it failed to give perfect satisfaction.
The VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is only FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains double the quantity of Dye contained in those usually sold for $1.
The VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is warranted not to injure the hair or the scalp in the slightest degree.
The VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade, crock, nor wash out; one that is as permanent as the hair itself. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists. Prepared only by

BOGLE'S AMERICAN ELECTRIC HAIR DYE
Is as superior to all others as the Meridian Sun to a Candle. All imitate Bogle even to his style of advertisements, which for years have been headed
The Best Hair Dye in the World.
Now others without brains steal and copy this. Their Dyes are as miserable as their invention is contemptible. Avoid them all! Bogle's has been awarded Medals and Diplomas over them all, and to their confusion pronounced "The only Hair Dye fit to be used." No rainbow tints a la "Tittlebat Titmouse." No smut! no skin staining! no humburg, but reliable safe and sure.
The distinctive advantages of this over all other Hair Dyes, are—1st. It is entirely free from all ingredients which can injure the Hair. 2nd. It does not stain the skin. 3rd. It is easier of application, as the Hair can be dyed by it in any weather, whether cloudy, rain, or sunshine. 4th; It acts like magic and is instantaneous in its effect, as the Hair can be washed with Soap and Water almost immediately after application, when it assumes a beautiful silky lustre, and has the most natural and life like appearance. 5th. It is the most permanent and natural Hair Dye ever invented, and neither washing, nor the effects of the Sun or weather destroys its color.

GENERAL PRESS DESPATCHES,

Arrival of the S. S. "Saxonia."

New York, April 18th.—The S S. Saxonia has arrived from Liverpool on the 2nd and Queenston somewhat later.

London, April 4.—The News reports that measures have been taken by the Tory Opposition for a well organized attack.

The Times says the prospects of the Government have improved since Easter; but there is a rock ahead, viz: The case of Mr. Stansfeld whose defence from the charge of connection with the late attempt on the life of Napoleon should be made as a private member of Parliament; not as a person connected with the Government.

Mazzini has addressed a letter to the Times, exonerating Mr. Stanfeld from any connection with the scheme of Greco.

Consols at 1 o'clock p.m., of the 4th 91⅛ to 91¼.

Prince Napoleon it is reported will go to Sweden.

Liverpool, 5th, evening.—Cotton dull and unchanged. Manchester market very dull, and prices irregular, though tending downward.

The Pays speaks of a serious conflict in Jutland, between an Austrian and Russian regiment. Vienna papers give a positive denial to the report that a revolt has been planned among Hungarian troops and that wholesale executions have taken place. The transfer of the Ionian Island to Greece takes place April 26th. The Pekin, one of the gunboats sent out to China for the Emperor, has arrived back at Plymouth. Breadstuffs dull and tending downward. Wheat quiet and partially easier; Red Winter 8s 3d to 8s 6d. Corn quiet at 28s 3d to 28s 6d for mixed. Provisions—Beef very dull and tending downward. Pork easier. Bacon quiet but firm. Lard inactive. Tallow dull and 6d lower. Consols 91⅛ to 91¼.

In the House of Commons Lord Palmerston said that all the Powers that signed the Treaty of 1852 have consented to send representatives to the Conference. No answer had been received from the German Diet. The Conference would endeavor to restore peace without an armistice. Mr. Stansfeld has resigned his position in the Government.

Sir A Agnew would ask the Government on the 8th in respecting the reports received from the Insular officers in the United States on the question of English subjects kidnapped, detained, or otherwise outraged, with the object of forcing them to serve as soldiers in the Federal army.

Fort Monroe, April 17.

The steamers New York, and Express have arrived. A Port Royal paper of the 14th reports the capture of the blockade runner Alliance, on the 12th, in Savannah River. She was from Nassau with a cargo of assorted stores valued at $85,000.

The Savannah Republican of the 4th inst. states that the Yankee prisoners at Andersonville, Georgia, are dying at the rate of 20 to 25 a day.

Nassau papers of the 5th inst. state that Mobile, Savannah, Charleston and Wilmington are less rigidly blockaded than ever. Fast steamers are also coming along with supplies, which promise large profits. Paymasters arrived at Port Royal on the 8th inst, with a million of dollars to pay all the troops in the department.

Jacksonville, Florida.—Dates to the 11th inst, give a list of three hundred and forty-nine of our wounded men in the hands of the rebels. A fire broke out on Folly Island on the 8th inst., destroying a large amount of quarter-masters stores, loss $2000. Eight bushwhackers were captured on Cobbs Island near the eastern shore, at 2 o'clock in the morning by Capt. Chambers of the 1st Loyal Virginia Regiment, they were brought to the Military Prison at this place.

Washington, 17.—The history of the rebel rams building in France is contained in diplomatic correspondence more fully than in recent newspaper publications. Since the President announced in his annual message that these rams were not allowed to come out, nothing has occurred to induce a belief that the French Government will permit them to go into rebel hands. The amount of subscription to the 10-40 loan reported for Saturday is $1,050 000. President Lincoln and Speaker Colfax will visit Baltimore to-morrow, to assist at the opening of the Maryland Sanitary Fair.

New York, April 16.—The 3 th Conn. colored regiment with full ranks, passed through to-day for Annapolis.

Washington, April 16.—Yesterday despatches were received here from Gen. Sherman, confirming the surrender of Fort Pillow and the brutal conduct of the rebels immediately afterwards, which bids fair to be amply retaliated in due time. Our loss was 53, while their loss was 100 killed and wounded, and 300 black troops were murdered in cold blood after the surrender. Fort Pillow is an isolated post of no value, and utterly untenable by the rebels, who have no doubt left ere this, having been disappointed with considerable loss in the capture of Columbus, whence they were promptly but severely repulsed. The loss of Fort Pillow was simply the result of a mistake of the local commander, who occupied it against direct orders. The rebels effected nothing at Paducah, losing a soldier killed or wounded for every horse they succeeded in stealing. Forrest's raiders will next appear in the vicinity of Memphis.

Washington April 16—Senate—Mr. Howard introduced a resolution, which was adopted, as follows: Resolved that the Committee on the Conduct of the War be instructed to enquire into the truth of the slaughter of the troops at Fort Pillow, and whether Fort Pillow could have been reinforced or evacuated; and that said committee be instructed to report at as early a day as possible. Earnest speeches were made in favor of strict measures of retaliation.

New York, April 16—Money is decidedly firmer, with an active demand at 7 per cent on call.

Washington, April 16th—Despatches from the Army of the Potomac state that yesterday a party of rebel cavalry made an attack on Bristow Station, but were driven back after a brisk skirmish. The mail train with General Grant had just passed, and it is supposed the intention was to capture him.

The body of Captain McKee, killed by guerillas, was forwarded to Washington to-day. The man who shot him was shot dead by one of our soldiers. Articles taken from the body of McKee were found in his possession.

Washington, April 16—Sutlers and citizens have all left, and will not be allowed to return,

Fort Monroe, April 15—An expedition under command of General Graham left on Wednesday last, and landed at different points. They concentrated at Smithfield, Va., and routed the enemy, capturing one commissioned officer and five men, also several horses and carriages and some commissary stores. A Rebel mail and one piece of artillery, formerly taken from the gunboat Smith Briggs were also captured. Fifty contrabands were also brought off.

Washington, April 16th.—In the House, Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution which was passed that the Joint Committee on the conduct of the war, or such members thereof as the Committee may designate, proceed to Fort Pillow and examine into the facts attending the recent attack and capture of the fort.

Washington, April 16th.—On the morning of the 20th of March the Proga captured the Sloop Swallow from the Combahee River, South Carolina, bound to Nassau with cotton and rosin.

The President is indisposed to-day.

New York, April 17.—A Naval Court Marshal is in session at Philadelphia for the trial of acting master Charles Danenhower, upon a charge of murder of James Gray, mate of the British Bark Saxon. The charges are preferred by the Secretary of the State at the instance of Lord Lyons. The Saxon was captured by the Vanderbilt, and Mr. Danenhower has once been exonerated by a Court of enquiry.

Richmond papers of the 11th contain accounts of Forrest's raid, but they add nothing new to our accounts.

The Examiner has a rumor that Burnside was landing at Newport News. The Examiner places the strength of Grant's army at 44,000 infantry, and says 20,000 reinforcements will be the extent of his present resources.

Cairo, April 17.—The main body of the Rebels left Fort Pillow on Friday morning, and their rear guard on the p. m. after, destroying everything else destructable. Late advices from Duvall's Bluff report the country infested with Guerillas, who are robbing the people and committing all manner of depredations. Mr. Dixon, State representative from Franklin County, has been murdered, and the representative from Arkansas County, kidnapped. On the 11th 400 Texas cavalry attempted to suprise the camp of Federals at Roseville on the Arkansas River, but were repulsed.

San Francisco, April 16.—A letter dated April 1st from La Puze on the Colorado River, says:—The Indians were killing people, stealing stock, and preventing minors from working in the Walker River. Wright has been urged to send down a hundred soldiers. The Indians along the Colorado are peaceable and will probably remain so if the disturbance further east is quieted soon.

New York, April 18.—The Herald's army despatch states that General Kilpatrick has left for Washington, and will proceed to the army of the Cumberland. Previous to his despatches he received a letter from General Lee inquiring whether the orders found upon Colonel Dahlgren as published in the Richmond papers were authentic. The reply was an idignant denial.—There is little doubt that the reason Dahlgren's body is not given up is because of its shameful mutilation and unchristian burial. The storm which has raged for the last twenty-four hours swelling the streams and deepening the mud has cleared, and the weather is again bright and beautiful. Mosby captured a train near Fairfax station, burned the empty wagons and made off with the horses.

The Herald's correspondent reports that a recent expedition was for the purpose of capturing the Rebel Torpedo boat which tried to destroy the Minnesota, supposed to be up the Nansemond. It was not found, but fifty contrabands and a large number of horses were brought in. The Rebel Colonel Wilson has been captured.

Washington, April 17th.—It is rumored that the deficiency caused by reinforcement of the army of the Potomac with troops from the defenses of Washington, will be supplied in case of a sudden movement by a temporary call upon State militia.

New York, April 18th.—The alliance was captured by the South Carolina. Her crew 30 in number were all asleep. Her passengers escaped in a boat. She had assorted cargo valued at $17,000. The vessel was about 700 tons and worth $125,000. Efforts to save the vessel would probably be successful. A large number of colored troops from Annapolis had arrived at Hilton Head. More were expected.

Newbern, April 14th.—According to the Raleigh Progress the people in western North Carolina have hung several Confederate officers and soldiers for attempting to enforce the conscription.

New York, April 18th.—The Russian frigate Perexvit arrived to-day from St. Thomas. The steamer Saxonia with later European news is below.

Cleveland, April 18th.—Gen. Sickles goes hence to Detroit to-night, thence to Chicago, Cairo, and down the Mississippi.

LITTLE PEDLINGTON.—We observe that the editor of the Telegraph is just now taking an extraordinary interest in our welfare, and comparing it with his own in a strain of self-congratulation, and with sentiments towards our own forlorn condition of very considerate pity. Well, most of the inhabitants of this good city are quite aware that the versatility of that gentleman is fully equal to his good fortune. Since he first made his appearance here, he has tried a great many enterprizes, and always, we believe, so far, with that full measure of success which is implied in very rapidly getting enough to leave off—his last accomplishment in this line being comprised in the rise and fall of that splendid journal the Commercial Advertiser. We have no doubt that his present prosperity is fully as great as that which, from time to time, he has announced in the last mentioned journal, whose name, however, has unfortunately disappeared from the surface of things, notwithstanding its vast and always increasing popularity. We shall not be surprised, now that he has two strings to his bow, if he shall in the future prove his capacity for killing two birds with one stone. The Herald, like all morning papers, being printed at night—to say nothing of other reasons—is necessarily an expensive one, and cannot be sold for the cost of the white paper to street boys and servant girls. Its contents, however, are sufficiently interesting to have given it so far the entree into all the leading business houses of the city, where it is the first thing that meets the eye of our principal citizens on their beginning the business of the day. Our prosperity may not, in the eyes of the editor of the Telegraph, be as great as his own; but, such as it is, it has satisfied our customers; has fully equalled our modest wishes; and has enabled us to view his magnificence without the slightest touch of envy; but rather with those benevolent feelings which prompted Uncle Toby to put the blue bottle out of window with the remark that there was plenty of room in the world for all the poor devils who buzz about in it. At the same time, we confess to a disposition to avail ourselves of this same width of the world to get a good way off from some classes of people, and must, therefore, be excused if we decline any sort of comparison, which might seem in our own eyes, or the eyes of other people, to acknowledge any points of contact or community with the gentleman in question. We understand that his circulation is two thousand and a few odd hundred, with some straggling subscribers from the last literary patient which he had in hand. We make this announcement gratuitously. This may be a glorious success; but if it were our own case, we should consider it a very lamentable failure, especially considered in the light of competition with the Witness, which is really filling an important place in the journalism of the city, and doing it well, and which the Telegraph was intended to supplant. In the meantime, if the editor of the Telegraph wishes very earnestly for some comparison with a morning journal, let him try it with that one of our neighbours, with whose proprietors he is in partnership. He doubtless knows exactly what they are doing, and perhaps judges of us by the results which are understood to be achieved by that part of the joint-stock concern. This will probably answer the purpose of both parties; but, for ourselves, we decline anything like business relations with the editor of the Telegraph, just as we declined the other day to print his paper, and thus gave rise to the irate disposition which has since possessed him. We shall, we expect, bear with our accustomed equanimity those continued prophecies of our approaching downfall, and intimations of his flourishing circumstances, which the columns of the Commercial Advertiser have made us familiar with. Perhaps it is because threatened men live long, or, perhaps, on account of the unwholesomeness of the atmosphere which surrounds the prophets of evil to others; but it has so happened that, though we never predicted the decease of any contemporary, and have been, during the last sixty years, the subject of a great many of these exercises in the art of foretelling the future, we have yet contrived to survive a great many journals, which, during their fitful existences, used once a month, or oftener, to announce our sickness unto death.

THE WATER WORKS.—Among the improvements contemplated in the city one of considerable importance is the construction of a new reservoir, at a higher level than the present one, for the service of the many handsome houses which are now being erected on the first plateau of the mountain. Whether this be done immediately, or whether it shall be postponed, is a question into which we need not enter. There is no doubt that villa residences, assessable in very large sums to the city revenues, will gradually cover and enclose the whole mountain side up to the base of the almost perpendicular escarpement, which forms the last ascent, and that in order to utilize this territory, and obtain this revenue, the city will be obliged to enable the proprietors of these residences to have baths and such like modern appliances within their walls. But what we wish to point out here is the importance of doing whatever is to be done on a scale sufficiently considerable to make the improvement a permanent one. It is no reproach to those who planned the present Water Works that they are upon a scale better adapted to a city of the present size than to one of the extent to which Montreal will spread in a very few years from this. The first design was a bold one for the then population, and though doubtless we all hoped to see the city increase, yet there were few who anticipated that this increase would be as rapid as it has proved to be. It may be that, again, the most sanguine previsions will prove to be within the reality; but, whether that be so or not, we see before us the certainty of a very large increase in the demand for water from the constantly augmenting population of the city. Already there is a small town, nearly as populous as places which enjoy that title in the rural districts, outside of the city limits, north-east of Sherbrooke and the St. Lawrence Main street. Another such town is growing up about the Tanneries. It may be said that these municipalities are nothing to us —that they must provide for themselves; but that is not precisely the truth. The old saying of proximus ardet has its application here. A large fire in St. John Baptiste, when that wooden suburb shall touch the city proper along an entire front of some acres broad, might, with a northerly wind, set a great many houses on fire even within the boundary. And so with other sources of evil from dangerously close communications. Mr. Kingsley has in his "Yeast" shown how the fever of the unfortunate tailor working in the London "sweating house" may be communicated to the noble wearer of a fashionable garment residing among all the conditions of health which the inhabitants of the West end enjoy. Those contagious diseases, which may be generated in the external suburbs to which the poorer classes of our population are flocking, will hardly stop with them. It therefore becomes a work of necessity to provide for the gradual and safe extension of the superior appliances of health and cleanliness, which are naturally provided by the larger and wealthier communities to those poorer subsidiary ones which are springing up on our borders. It will not be long before they are virtually incorporated with our own city, and yet, unless timely thought be given to the matter, they will be mere quagmires or dust heaps, according to the season, neglected and destitute of water. This should not be suffered; and we think that we are doing good to all parties concerned in calling timely attention to the subject. Our water and draining system may be extended at comparatively small cost to the new territory, whose inhabitants will for a long time be unable to afford the expenditure required to initiate these expensive apparatuses for themselves. Whatever we do should therefore be done with a view to their future wants. It may or may not be desirable hereafter to embrace these outlying territories within the local government of the City of Montreal; but it is certainly very important that steps should be taken to extend, as the exigencies may arise, our system of material improvement for the common advantage.

NORTH WATERLOO.—The nomination for this riding took place on Friday at Berlin, when Mr. Bowman was proposed in opposition to Mr. Foley. Berlin is looked upon as Mr. Foley's stronghold, but the show of hands is stated to have been very evenly divided, it being doubtful which of the candidates had the majority. Mr. Foley had the benefit of the doubt, however, and the decision was given in his favor. Speeches were delivered by the candidates, and by Messrs. McDougall, McGee and Galt. Mr. Bowman's friends appear to be very sanguine of electing him. Mr. McDougall is reported to have said in the course of his remarks, that "if the majority of the electors "of North Waterloo should declare their appro- "val of the conduct of Mr. Foley by returning "him to Parliament, he (Mr. McDougall) would "find it to be his duty to send in his resignation. "But he knew the electors of North Waterloo "too well to believe that they could endorse the "conduct of their late representative."

THE HAMILTON ELECTION.—We learn by telegraph from Hamilton, that at the nomination held there yesterday the show of hands was declared to be in favor of Mr. McElroy, Mr. Buchanan's opponent. Mr. McElroy's prospects are said to be very good, and his friends are sanguine of success.

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN PUBLISHER.—It is announced that William D. Ticknor, the eminent publisher of Boston, and well known as a partner in the firm of Ticknor and Fields, died suddenly at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, on Sunday, the 10th of April last.

MCGILL UNIVERSITY—MEDICAL FACULTY.—On Saturday, April 6th, the following gentlemen undergraduates of McGill University, passed their final examinations for the degrees of M D., C.M.: Messrs Griffith Evans, B.A., W. Wood Squire, A.B., James Patterson, Frank Bullen, D. R. Harrison, Herbert S. Tew. At the same time, the following gentlemen passed their primary examinations: Messrs. K. Reid, P. Bender, W. Bligh, E. B. Gibson, Mills Church, J. Cassidy.

EUROPEAN POLITICS.

Brussels Correspondence of the Montreal Herald.

BRUSSELS, April 1st, 1864.

While the various Christian sects spread over the face of the earth, celebrated with songs of joy the day of Easter, other Christians, Danes and Austro-Prussians, cut each others throats, each as best he could on the ramparts of Duppel. Marshal Wrangel, who has a mania for anniversaries, had wished to make the assault on the 22nd of March, the birth-day of the King of Prussia; but an order from Berlin directed him to postpone to some other day the bloodshedding which is inseparable from an assault. Bluffed on that side, the marshal judged that it was a fitting mode of celebrating the greatest day of the calendar to gain on that day a victory, and to immolate a hecatomb of Danes in its honour. On Easter day, therefore, the Austro-Prussian columns moved forward, but after a fight of five hours, in which bayonet, butt end, and cannon all did their work in marvellous style, the Austro-Prussians a little the worse for their efforts, were forced to regain their own lines. From that moment they gave no more signs of life. Two versions of the cause of their inaction are in circulation, complicated by the fact, that the Austro-Prussians after a bombardment with red hot shot evacuated Fredericia. The first of these versions comes from the special correspondent of the Siecle in Denmark, M. Ascar Comettant, a surgeon and literary man of talent well known in the United States and I think in Canada. According to Mr. Comettant, a terrible conspiracy was discovered at the headquarters of the Austrians. All the Hungarian officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates belonging to the Austrian army, had, according to this statement, agreed to pass over with arms and baggage to the Danes. The discovery led to an inquiry, and the inquiry to the condemnation to death of three hundred Hungarians, who have been shot at the moment at which I write—this is, if we are to believe M Comettant whose narrative, however, strikes me as somewhat exaggerated. Other news writers, and among them are all the English journalists, pretend that the inaction of the Austro-Prussians must be attributed to the conclusion of the negotiations for a conference. According to them, the conference will take place on the 12th April at London, and to avoid difficulty will have for its object only the re-establishment of peace in the North of Europe which is as much as to say that the treaty of London of 1852, will go the same way as the treaties of 1815, and as the old moons. It is the idea of the European Congress taken up again, revised and considerably diminished. This concession of the English Cabinet is explained by the difficulties which it would have encountered if it had obstinately adhered to the treaty of 1852 as a summum, beyond which there could be no arrangement. The Austro-Prussians have already announced that the Germanic Diet will refuse to take part in any negotiations on the Protocol of London, and the Cabinet of the Tuilleries on its side has made known to all the Powers interested that France will pronounce for taking the votes of the populations as the only method of arriving at a solution. The opinion on the probable issue of all this is not modified since my last letter. I persist in the conviction that the parties will never come to a mutual understanding. The powers whose representatives are to meet in conference in London if the conference shall really take place have pretensions too conflicting to permit of their ever coming to an accord Denmark, whose adhesion is still looked for, has no disposition to abandon the duchies, which the German Diet desires to regain, and Prussia wants to find in the retention of certain parts of Holstein an indemnity for the costs occasioned by the war. England looks with an evil eye at these claims, while France remains impassable in presence of this disunion among her neighbours. Sweden gives orders to her fleet to prepare for war, and the Royal Guard prepares to set out with the service battalion of each regiment. Do they not all look extremely peaceable people? Even in England they hardly delude themselves as to the issue of the Conference, and the nation, which never separates itself from the Government, is beginning to pronounce that a war would be tenfold better than the provisional peace in which we have been for three years existing. The welcome which the people of the United Kingdoms are preparing to offer Garibaldi appears to me to be very significant. Garibaldi represents the oppressed nationalities, but has never been considered as the bearer of the peaceful olive branch; and when fifty thousand Englishmen have inscribed their names as a pledge of their intention of going to meet the hero, and when the journals do not cease to sing hymns in honour of the great patriot, it is difficult to understand it all as an expression of opinion that peace at all price is the one thing desirable. At London as at Paris and at Turin, they wish the present state of affairs to end, and the war would have already broken out, had not some of the sovereigns feared that they might suffer shipwreck in the storm. Garibaldi will not stay long in England. The apparent object of his voyage is to consult Ferguson the eminent surgeon; but he must have some more serious purpose if it be true as stated, that after visiting Victor Hugo, he does not mean to return to Caprera.

The Mexican question is not less obscured than the European question. In fact at the moment when the Archduke was upon the point of embarking, the rumour again spread, that complications of an excessively grave character had put off his embarkation till the Greek Calends. It is known that the Emperor Francis Joseph never showed himself very favorable to the projects of his brother, and he wished that in mounting the throne which had been bestowed upon him in Mexico, he should renounce for ever for himself and his descendants all contingent right to the inheritance of the House of Hapsburgh. One easily understands that the Archduke made some difficulty about signing the renunciation, and remained undecided between the Mexican and the Austrian bundles of hay. Besides there is a question respecting the alienation of part of the State of Sonora made by Jurez in favour of the Government of the United States. This transaction was very ill received by the provisional government of Mexico, which declared that the bargain would never be ratified by the Mexican or French Governments, if it took place subsequently to the evacuation of the country by Juarez. It looks very much as if the Government at Washington was preparing to put some sticks in the wheels of the new Emperor in order to turn him over. However, at the last advices it is once more alleged that all difficulties had been removed. I hope so with all my heart. The Archduke can not draw back, and must go to Mexico whether his brother likes it or not.

A singular accident has just taken place at the mouth of the Danube. A French merchantman setting out with a cargo of arms for the Woldo-Wallachians has been stopped by a Turkish man of war, which threatened to sink her; but a French gunboat just then turned up, and insisted upon the prize being released. M. Mathieu (de la Drome) has a speciality, as you may be aware, to forestall tempests and hurricanes. He is a living barometer, with indications always a full month in advance of all other authority, and what he is in meteorology that Prince Napoleon is in politics. Whenever the French Government is disposed to apply the curb to what the Deputies of the Right call the revolutionary passions then Prince Napoleon feels a sudden desire for travel, and it is, therefore, not without lively disquietude that the French liberals have seen the Prince preparing to leave for Holland. It is said that the cabinet of the Tuilleries is profoundly irritated with the results of the last elections at Paris, and that M de Persigny, the man of violent measures, has regained the ground lost by those who, like M. de Morny, believe it easier to give liberty than to have it taken by force. It is further said that the right of discussing the Address will be taken away from the Chamber of Deputies, and that the journals will be deprived of the faculty of criticizing the discourses pronounced in either branch of the Legislature. The authority granted by the Minister of Public Instruction for public lectures will also be withdrawn—in short, it is believed that France is to fall back again into the state in which she was the day after the coup d'etat. I only mention these news, however, to put you on your guard against them. It is possible that the Government, alarmed without cause, especially by the note of the 21st of March, may use with more than customary severity the discretionary power with which it has armed itself against liberty; but that is another thing from going back in its old footsteps. I am confident that the Cabinet of the Tuilleries will not commit such a weakness. It can suspend journals already; the discussion on the address is but once a year and can be made very short by the Speaker, who is the nominee of the Government; and for the lectures, the name of the lecturer must be submitted to the approbation of the Minister, who can without noise prevent the discussion of any subject, or the appearance of any lecturer. What need can it have, thus protected, to make known to the universe that the opposition has gained ground upon it to the extent of rendering it necessary to oppose an obstacle to its encroachment? It would be pure folly. The Government of France are no more than other men free from faults; but they have too much intelligence to inaugurate without cause those acts which proved the ruin of their predecessors.

UN FRANÇAIS.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

CROWN SIDE.—March Term.

Before the Hon. Mr. Justice Mondelet

Monday, April 18.

The prisoner Jean Baptiste Beauvais was placed the bar, and the jury who had been in the charge of the Sheriff during Sunday, came into Court.

The examination of the medical witnesses was then resumed.

Pierce, a fellow-workman of the prisoner, in the soap and candle factory of Mr. Smardon was sworn, and testified that on Saturday the 2nd of January the prisoner was at work, and his brother Elie brought his dinner about one o'clock. They spoke sometime together, but witness did not understand them as they spoke in French. When Elie left prisoner asked the witness if he knew of any place at which he, prisoner, could board, as something had happened at home that he did not wish to live after it. He could not go home to live after it.

Mr. Chapleau addressed the jury at considerable length on behalf of the prisoner. He then called several witnesses to show the good character of the prisoner and to refute the testimony of the last witness for the Crown.

A man named Harvey in the employment of Mr. Smardon was called and sworn—On Saturday the 2nd of January, saw old Beauvais at Mr. Smardon's, in the afternoon about one o'clock with some dinner for the prisoner. On Monday the 4th of January, he went to Beauvais' house about the prisoners dinner; Elie then brought it between one and two.

Cross-examination by Mr. Laflamme, Q. C.—I am not positive that it was on Saturday; to the best of my knowledge it was; I was in the office of Mr. Smardon. I know nothing of Pierce that would cause me to doubt him on oath. On Monday saw a policeman at Beauvais'; have seen the same man there before, he is a relative I think; did not see anything unusual in the house.

By the Court.—The prisoner has been a mild, well conducted man in our employ; knew nothing to the contrary when he was out of our employment.

Mr. Smardon, soap and candle manufacturer, sworn; have known the prisoner since the beginning of September when he came into my employ. I never had a harder worker or more regular man about my place; I have never seen him the worse of liquor. On Saturday, January 2nd, about seven o'clock, saw the prisoner at my factory; saw nothing strange about him; he went to the market for me as usual; have known him to be a mild young man and very obliging; I did know that he supported the family by his industry.

Pierre Beauvais, father of the prisoner, recalled by the defence; Saturday I brought the dinner to the prisoner, to Mr. Smardon's; I went alone; it was about one o'clock; on Monday Elie took the dinner to the prisoner; there was a policeman at the house; it was before the police had found the body of the infant; the prisoner and Elie supported the family by their labor; he was always quiet and tranquil in the house.

It being five o'clock, the Jury were again placed in charge of the Sheriff, and the Court adjourned until ten o'clock on Tuesday.

CITY ITEMS.

RETURN OF GOTTSCHALK AND MADAME STRAKOSCH.—We know that a large number of our readers, including the true lovers of the art, will learn with much satisfaction that these eminent musicians are about to give two more concerts in this city. On this occasion Gottschalk, who has won the title of "The Prince of Pianists," and Madame Amelia Patti Strakosch, Prima Donna Contralto, will be accompanied by Signor Carlo Patti, a young and highly talented violinist, brother of Adelina, and Carlotta Patti and Mr. Behrens, pianist and conductor, and the concerts will therefore be of an unusually attractive character They are to be given in the Theatre Royal on the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday, April 27th and 28th, when all who really delight in those classical refinements which demand the highest efforts of cultivated music, will doubtless make it their business to be present. It will be a favorable opportunity for becoming better acquainted with the powers of these talented performers, the selections generally being of a character to call forth their display and all who wish to avail themselves of it should make their arrangements accordingly.

THEATRE ROYAL.—On Thursday evening will be produced for the first time in this city a drama introducing Professor Pepper's Ghost. The scientific phenomenon in optics, whereby a human figure is to the sense of vision a substantial and tangible reality, but which is still nothing but 'thin air,' constitutes the attraction of the performance. From its novelty and marvelous character it belongs to that class of exhibitions which every one is curious to see. Any description of it would fail to produce the realization of the effect. It must be seen. Can you fancy that which is through the visual organ a real, living, moving, speaking, human being passed through, and with a pistol shot through, remain undisturbed, and utter a laugh derisive at the futility of the act? This, with the sudden appearance of it and it's as sudden evanishment, is the startling and perplexing effect upon the spectators.

A PRIVATE SOLDIER RECEIVES A GOOD CONDUCT AND LONG SERVICE MEDAL BY THE HANDS OF GENERAL LINDSAY.—Yesterday morning the Brigade of Guards, the 30th Regiment and the 60 Rifles paraded on the Champ de Mars to witness one of the most interesting ceremonies to the soldier that comes within the range of his experience. A good conduct and long service medal conferred by the Queen was, through the hands of Major General Lindsay, yesterday added to the medals already worn by Private Benjamin Long of H. M. 30 Regiment of Foot. About ten o'clock the troops came out on the ground, and formed contiguous columns in the following order from right to left: Grenadier Guards, Fusilier Guards, 30th Regiment, 60th Rifles. The General arrived soon afterwards, when the Grenadiers and Rifles were wheeled in column to the left and right, and halted, facing inwards. A private soldier of the 30th then left the ranks, and advanced to the front of his regiment, and stood with his rifle at the order General Lindsay and staff then rode forward, when the General, in a clear voice and in a tone to be heard by every soldier on the ground, said they were called out to witness the decoration of Private Benjamin Long of the 30th Regiment for long service and good conduct. He had been 18 years and 97 days in the service; he had not been court-martialled in that time, and he had but two entries recorded against him. This the General said was most creditable to the soldier when the temptations that beset him in every climate, in garrison, and on the campaign, are taken into consideration. He had received four good conduct stripes, and had never lost one since he first received them. The General then enumerated the many colonies in which the soldier had served, and among others stated that he had been one year and 154 days in the Crimea where he took part in most of the engagements, and was present at the storming of the Redan. He congratulated the 30th Regiment, on having such a man in their ranks, a man who after 18 years and 97 days of service, with their innumerable vicissitudes of varying climates, disease, campaigns, and battles, preserved his character as a soldier thus untarnished. His regiment might accept credit to themselves—it should be the pride of the regiment to have him in their ranks. He would also say to the younger soldiers, and those who looked forward to a term of service such as his, to imitate the example thus set to them, and they would merit the distinguished honor which Her Majesty the Queen by his hands was about to confer upon Private Benjamin Long.

The General then dismounted and approaching the soldier, attached the ribbon, from which the glittering disk was suspended to the breast of the soldier, continuing in the same clear tone, "I now decorate him with the medal which he has so well earned." Having done so, the General shook the soldier cordially by the hand and directed him to take a position beside himself and the colours, whilst the troops marched past in slow and quick time. The soldier then rejoined his regiment, and the General and staff left the field The troops then returned to their respective quarters. The ceremony was one of an exceedingly interesting nature and cannot have failed to fill with honest and honorable pride the breast of the recipient of so marked an honor. The lesson is one which might be taken by many in every grade and calling in life—for there are, but few who with even the lax discipline imposed by custom can point to eighteen years of good conduct,—or, in other words, to so few violations of the self imposed regulations.

PRESENTATION OF A SWORD TO CAPT. NAIGELE OF THE POLICE.—The officers and non-commissioned officers and men of No. 2 Company Police Rifles yesterday presented a fine regulation sword to Captain Naigele of their company. The address was made in French, and expressed the sentiment and attachment the donors feel for their captain and sub-chief; having found in him during many years of service under him, a wise counsellor and an esteemed friend, by whom they have always felt their rights and reputation would be protected. Captain Naigele replied briefly, thanking them for the kind sentiments expressed towards him and for their generous gift. He congratulated the force upon the harmony that existed among its members, and again thanked them cordially for their good wishes towards himself and his family.

A DISORDERLY HOUSE.—The attention of the police was yesterday called to the fact of a row being in active operation in Mignonne Street and Sergeant de Beaufort proceeded to the house with another policeman. They found 4 women and 2 men in a state of open hostility, in fact fighting like fiends, and each bearing on the face marks of violence, and covered with blood. they were all arrested and locked up to await The action of the Recorder in the morning.

ENLISTING FOR THE FEDERAL SERVICE.—A man named William Wright, a brick maker from the United States, was arrested on a charge of enlisting men for the Federal army. It appears that he engaged two men named Ephraim Dinpras and Charles Beaudry, to make bricks in the States, and that they went to St. John's en route for some point in the States. They received information that awakened their suspicions, and they returned to Montreal and preferred a charge against Wright. Judge Coursol finding there was no evidence on which to ground such a charge discharged Wright from custody.

ASSAULT ON A POLICEMAN.—Sub-Constable McDuff, yesterday proceeded to the house of a man named Maxime Brisson, who was charged with stealing a spade On arriving at the house he was set upon by a woman who lives with this man, but who bears a bad reputation and was rather harshly used by the virago, who went to the extent of using an axe in her rage, and when disarmed of that weapon resorted to nature's weapons, applying her teeth vigorously to McDuff's cheek. He repelled her tender advances and took her into custody. Meanwhile Brisson left the house and was arrested by Serjeant De Beaufort and locked up to answer to the charge of stealing the spade.

LAST NIGHT OF MR. VANDENHOFF.—This evening Mr Vandenhoff makes his last appearance before a Montreal audience before his departure for England. The selections are of a varied character comprising the murder scene in "Macbeth," Thackeray's "Cane Bottom Chair" and "Peg of Limavaddy," and Lover's humorous Irish story of "Sam Reirdon the Navigator." Last night Nordheimer's Hall was filled to its utmost capacity by an appreciative audience whose frequent applause manifested the pleasurable nature of the entertainment. "The Christmas Carol" and "Mr. Pickwick at Bath" contain touches of nature of the Dickensian character purely, while as a humourous travesty "Mr Crummles Dramatic Company" can scarcely be excelled. There is but one more treat of this nature in store for our readers and we would urge them to avail themselves of it. To-night many agreeable memories of one of our great men will be awakened in the readings from Thackeray.

GOODS BY EXPRESS.—We direct attention to the advertisement which Mr. Irish inserts in another column. It will be observed that the Express Company have engaged in another enterprize, which will result in considerable advantage, we should judge, to merchants and others availing themselves of their services for the transit of goods We allude to the establishment of a line of cars to New York and intermediate places, by which goods may be sent from one station to the other with the greatest despatch without the risk of damage or loss by transferring them from one train to another, an inconvenience which has hitherto been experienced. The facilities thus offered by the Company for the safe and speedy despatch of goods will doubtless be appreciated by the mercantile community.

THE HORSE RAILWAY, ST. CATHERINE STREET.—The City Railway Company have already begun the operations of the season by laying down their track from Papineau Square up the Papineau Road to St Catherine Street, and thence along St. Catherine to that part of the street where Mr. Pinsonneault's property is situated. At this place the city has acquired a strip of Mr. Pinsonneault's property for the purpose of widening the road, and they intend to erect a police station on that spot. We believe that a jury on Saturday awarded ten thousand dollars as the cost of the property taken.

STREET CLEANING.—Our Road Committee this year deserves a degree of commendation to which that committee can hardly have laid claim with justice in former years We see long strings of carts actively employed in carting away the dirt which is scraped up at the sides of the road. We do not know if this has been done throughout the city; but in St. Antoine Street and at the foot of Mountain Street a great deal of this surplus dirt is being removed.

ARREST OF A THIEF FROM ACTON.—On Sunday morning about six o'clock Sergeant Bouchard arrested a young man named Joseph Archambault in Villeneuve's tavern in St. Paul street, charged with having a few days before stolen a travelling bag containing $110 from a man named Vaillancour. It appears that Vaillancour, who is a farmer, had recently sold a farm near Milton, E. T., and was proceeding to locate somewhere else, and had $110 of the money received for his farm in a bag. At Acton Station he left his bag in the Station House while he went out and on his return found it was gone. His suspicions rested on the prisoner and he made search and found that he had departed for Montreal. He traced him in this city to the tavern where he had him arrested. On being arrested there was no money found in his possession. He said he paid $43,50 for a suit not worth more than $10; the remaining he said he squandered. He is 19 years of age. He was committed for trial.

EXPROPRIATION.—An important case of expropriation was decided before a special jury on Saturday. The property expropriated was that of Mr. Alfred Pinsonneault, situated at the corner of St Phillippe and St. Catherine Streets, and consists of a lot of 98½ feet on St. Catherine Street, and 118½ feet on St. Phillippe Street, forming an area of 9946 7-10 feet French measure The jury awarded the sum of $10,000 for the property. The depth required for the widening of St. Felix Street is but 38 feet, but on this part are several buildings among which is a school connected with one of the nunneries The space remaining after widening the streets will be sufficient to form four building lots of about 24 feet front on St. Catherine Street by 80 feet in depth. The Corporation has now secured all the ground required for the purpose of widening St. Catherine Street, with the exception of that part lying between St. Charles Barromee and St. Lawrence Streets.

CITY MORTALITY.—There were 83 interments last week. Roman Catholics 71; men 9, women 8, male children 26, female children 28. Protestants 11; men 1, women 3, male children 4, female children 3. Children under one year, of age 29. Nativity: Canada 59, Ireland 19, England 3, United States 1. Localities: St. Ann's Ward 11, Centre Ward 2, St. Louis Ward 8, St. James Ward 4, St Mary's Ward 12, St.Lawrence Ward 5, St. Antoine Ward 12, West Ward 1, Sœurs Grises 13, Hotel Dieu 2, General Hospital 1, Maternite Catholique 1, Suburban Localities 9. Diseases: Scarlatina 19, childbirth 1, consumption 4, small pox 5, erisipelas 1, infantile debility 29, gangrene 1, croupe 3, hydrocephalus 1, brain fever 1, strain 1, dentition 2, rheumatism 1, result of a fall 1, general debility 4, result of intemperance 1, old age 1, disease of the heart 1, pneumonia 3, typhoid fever 1, convulsions 1.

POLICE COURT.—There was no business in open court on Monday.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were 48 prisoners before the Recorder on Monday. James Cunningham, a carter, was fined $2 for fighting in Commissioners Street. A number of women were hauled up for loitering about the streets on Saturday evening. They were fined $5, and the most of them had to go jail in default of paying the amount. Louis Lemieux was fined $2 for furious and careless driving on Sunday. Ellen Duffy was fined $20 for keeping her tavern open on Sunday. Joseph St. Germain, a carpenter, beat his wife and behaved in a disorderly manner, and was in consequence fined $5 Ester Jones was disorderly in the House of Refuge, and was fined $2 or 15 days Ludger Langlois was fined $9 for keeping his tavern open on Sunday. The remaining cases were for drunkenness.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

NAPANEE ITEMS.—Says the Standard: "One of the results of the rush to Napanee, on its being raised to the dignity of a County Town, is the difficulty of obtaining vacant buildings, either as places of business or as dwellings Scarcely a vacant building is to be found, and old frames that have stood empty and rotting for years have been fitted up and rented. Rents have gone up, as a natural consequence, and are now quite as high as in large towns.

"We are much gratified at being authorized to state that the Commercial Bank of Canada have determined to open an agency in Napanee, and that the necessary preliminary steps are now being taken to that effect.

BREAKING OF THE BOOMS AT THE MOUTH OF THE ST. FRANCIS RIVER.—The Three Rivers Inquirer says:—The booms at the mouth of the Nicolet broke last Monday, and a quantity of saw-logs, belonging to one of Mr. Hall's contractors, got loose. The other lumbermen on the Nicolet are engaged in stretching new booms.

A RIVAL.—London is now the principal recruiting station for the American army in Canada, Detroit being the market, and the agents are passing Her Majesty's 63rd Regiment over the line as rapidly as convenient The desertion enterprise has been effectually interrupted at Kingston, and the 47th Regiment are ordered to London early in May.

NAVIGATION.—There is nothing to impede navigation in the St. Lawrence below Quebec. On Thursday the schooner Clyde cleared from the Custom House there for Seven Islands, and sailed the same day.

RATHER PROMPT.—The Welland Telegraph is responsible for the following:—"Her Majesty's Mail between Port Colborne and Port Hudson is carried on horseback by a youth, and the roads being in a fearful state, the mail carrier, with the view of making his time, picks his way along the tow path. On approaching this place, he found the tow path, near the canal bridge, blocked up with a team, and he cut across the yard in the rear of the store of Messrs. Morwood & Rose, crossing the sidewalk between those premises and Mr. Feeny's. The Reeve, observing the mail carrier crossing the sidewalk, instantly and without resorting to the prescribed forms of the law, without issuing a summons, in a tone of voice worthy only of the Autocrat of all the Russias, exclaimed I fine you two dollars or you go to jail! and the poor youthful mail carrier was handed over to the tender mercies of a constable. The Justice (?) and his constable, finding that their illegal proceedings were meeting with determined opposition, consulted together, and finally informed the boy that he was at liberty—and nothing further has been heard of this attempt to raise a shilling, from a poor, hard-working, and miserably paid boy, in the discharge of a most important branch of the public service.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM ACCIDENT.—On Friday the passengers by the Grand Trunk had a narrow escape. The train which left London at 6:45, a. m., proceeded all right as far as Stratford. It was composed of an engine, a baggage car and a single passenger car which was well filled by gentlemen en route to Berlin. About two miles east of Stratford and when the train had warmed up to a speed of thirty miles an hour the passengers were astonished to hear the whistle, "brakes on." Some little commotion naturally ensued, but the majority of the passengers were unconscious for a while of the danger they had escaped, for just fifty yards before the train, when it came to a stand still, stood a heavy freight train bound west. The freight, like the passenger train, was running at a high rate of speed, but most fortunately the engine drivers of both trains saw the smoke of the approaching train in the distance, and by prompt and energetic action, were able to prevent what would otherwise most likely have been a frightful collision attended by a melancholy loss of life. The conductor of the passenger train, it is needless to say should have been warned at Stratford of the approach of the freight train The neglect in not warning him was nothing short of criminal. If the occurrence had taken place at night, the chances of escape would have been greatly diminished. Had the collision taken place, there was only an engine and a baggage car between the passengers and destruction.—London Prototype.

SECRETARY OF WAR VS. CITY OF LONDON.—The issue of this case is to be tried at Kingston on the 19th instant. The facts are these: The Imperial Government, when the troops were quartered in London, C. W., rented, through the commissary-general, certain additional buildings for their accommodation. The premises occupied are those known as the Engineer's Barracks on Market Street, the Victoria Barracks on King Street, and the other buildings used as officers' quarters This property has been assessed, and taxes claimed therefor. This the government protest against, although taxes in the meantime, to the amount of eight hundred dollars, have been paid on the property. The military authorities contend that buildings used by troops for military purposes are exempt from taxation; and the suit is now brought to recover the amount paid. The corporation argue that the property belongs to private parties, and being only rented by the Government, is as liable to be taxed as any other property within the city.

(From the Canada Gazette.)

Provincial Secretary's Office (East),
Quebec, 16th April, 1864.

His Excellency the Governor General has been pleased to appoint Jos. Hamel, Esq., of Quebec, to be a Commissioner for the improvement and management of the Harbor of Quebec, in the place of J. Sharples, Esq., whose commission as such is revoked.

HEAD QUARTERS, Quebec, April 15, 1864.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.—His Excellency the Governor General and Commander in Chief having under his consideration the proceedings of a Court of Enquiry held at Montreal on Major T A Evans, 1st or Prince of Wales Regiment Volunteer Militia Rifles, has been pleased to concur entirely in the following opinion of the Court, viz: "They are of opinion that Major Evans was not justified in receiving from the officers of the Regiment an amount in excess of the sum he actually paid to Messrs. Distin & Co., the Court believing that no officer should derive pecuniary advantage from any transaction to which he becomes a party in consequence of his connection with his Regiment."

His Excellency is therefore pleased hereby to dispense with the services of Major Evans in the Volunteer Force of this Province.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

Montreal, April 18, 1864.

The weather continues cold and cloudy, there was a slight fall of snow last night.

We notice the arrival in port from winter quarters, of the steamers "Chambly," which plies between this and Chambly, the "Terrebonne," which is from here to Berthier and Sorel, and the "Trois Rivieres." The "Europa" is expected up to-night, but she will most probably not leave for Quebec before Thursday, as there is a considerable amount of ice in the channel. By next week, we will have the river boats engaged on their regular trips.

We give receipts of produce per Railroad:—Ashes, brls 42; Flour, do 500; Highwines, csks 21.

On the Corn Exchange there was a fair demand for Flour, and several sales of Canada Superfine No. 1 were made at $4,15, and a round lot do from Western Wheat sold at $4.20. Superfine No. 2 brought $3,90; nothing doing in higher grades A lot choice bag flour sold at $2,30. No transactions in Grain. In Provisions we note a further advance in Mess Pork and sales have been made at $17 to 17,50. Butter has declined, but the market is unsettled and it is hard to give quotations.

PORK PACKING IN THE WEST.—The Cincinnati Price Current of April 13 notes an error in the returns from Waynesburg, Ohio of 30,000, which was posted up and thus ran through all the tables lately published. This makes a further deficiency to that amount; so that the total short as compared with 1862-63 is now 823,477 instead of 793,477 as previously published.

LATEST WESTERN ADVICES.—The following are the latest Western advices received by telegraph:—

MILWAUKIE, April 16.—Wheat in store opened at $1,25, closing dull at $1.21; receipts 30,000 bushels. Flour nominal at $5,50.

CHICAGO, April 16.—Wheat $1 22.

SUGARS—Favorable advices received from London and New York have caused much animation in our market, and Clayed have advanced to 9¼ and 9½ rls. on the basis of N. 12. The crop is backward, and its result will be short of that of last year, unless we have propitious weather during this and next month.

MUSCOVADOES have been in active request at advancing prices. Fair to good refining brings 9¼ to 9 rls. Molasses Sugar 7½ to 8¼ rls. There is very little for sale, receipts from the country finding buyers without delay.

MOLASSES—In consequence of favorable advices received from the United States, prices have improved, and are now $7 to 7¼ for Clayed, and $8 to 8¼ for Muscovado, and but small quantities can be secured at these rates.

Extract from Gruner, Schroder & Co.'s Circular, dated Mayaguez, P. R., 24th March:—

Sugar—The demand during the past fortnight has been very animated, principally to provide for and despatch vessels in port before the Holy week. All parcels offered have found immediately purchasers at advancing rates, and as the unengaged stock is very much reduced, and with reports from the North and South of the island that $5¾, and even $6 had been paid for a superior article, pretensions of planters are very firm, and we think that present rates of from $4¾ to $5½ for refining to choice grocery, will be well supported for some time to come. The weather has been favorable with but little interruption; however the canes have suffered much from want of rain in the beginning of the season, and the previous estimates as to short crops are pretty nearly borne out by the reports from all the districts of the island.

Molasses—Very scarce and in great demand at $26 to 27,00 per 100 gallons excl. Cask $6.

FINANCIAL—No change since Saturday in Sterling Exchange, Bank drafts on New York are 41c to 42c dis. American Bank bills—Buyers 41 to 42½ per cent dis; Sellers 41 to 41½ per cent dis. Silver.—Buyers 3½ to 4 per cent discount; Sellers 3 to 3½ per cent discount. By advices from New York, Gold was at noon 171, and at 2 p m. 170½. Sterling Exchange 188. Silver 164.

We give to-day's transactions on the Gold Exchange;

$20000	Gold buyers	30 days	172
10000	do	do	172¼
20000	do	do	173½
20000	Sellers	do	169
2000	Silver here		3½ p.c. dis.
3000	do	do	3¼ do
1000	do	do	3¼ do
2000	do	do	3¼ do

Buyers of Silver 3½ to 4 p.c. dis. Sellers 3¼ to 3½ p.c dis.

The authorized discount on American Invoice is declared to be 41 per cent., at the Custom House here, for week ending 22nd inst.

The New York Express of Friday evening says:—Mr. Chase is still in town, and has been in consultation with some of the leading officers of the State and National Banks. The street is filled with rumors in regard to his intentions, but the general opinion is that he will do nothing of any consequence at present. The daily subscriptions to the ten-forties are sufficient to pay the current expenses of the Government; while the receipts from Greenbacks on Custom certificates are very large. Mr Chase will not probably come upon the market for any sudden loan, as the pressure of the bull interest against this course is very strong. The payment of the May Coupons was commenced today, and about $14,000,000 will be paid out. This will create a large number of gold sellers, and the Secretary will probably depend upon this to bring down the premium

RUSH FOR GOLD CERTIFICATES:—The crowds of men and boys in waiting to buy gold certificates increase in number as well as in persistency, and the excitement around the Sub-Treasury is not less than that among the gold speculators in Wall street.

At six o'clock this morning the number of persons who took positions in the line was three hundred. The present arrangements admit of the furnishing of certificates to only about one hundred and fifty in a day. At noon the file of applicants extended from the Hall far towards Wall street; while the persons actually inside numbered about one hundred and twenty—more than could possibly be served with certificates.

"Turns" sell at high rates. Persons prepared to buy dispose of their chances at prices varying from fifty dollars to a hundred or more, and yesterday during the excitement a broker took a "turn" in the crowd at the price, it is stated, of three hundred and fifty dollars.

To-day one of the individuals who made his way into the Sub-Treasury carried with him three packages of "greenbacks," each nearly a foot in height.

The operations are curious and interesting. Men and boys begin to assemble early in the evening. At twelve o'clock last night there were seventy-five. They were not, permitted to form any line The police have instructions to keep the street clear.

Parties of men are all night waiting on the streets contiguous to the Treasury

At six o'clock in the morning the police permit the column to form. The impatient seekers after certificates make lively use of their limbs, and they come pell-mell into contact with each other, all struggling wildly for the succession.

After the places are secured, various schemes are practiced to secure advantages, as only half the persons in line can reach the desk in one day.

Wheat—The weather has been changeable, characteristic of the season, but on the whole favorable for agricultural purposes. At this day's market only a limited demand existed, at prices nominally the same as given in our last circular, but some anxiety was perceptible to effect sales ex ship. Canadian White 8s 10d to 9s 4d; Canada Club 8s to 8s 3d. Flour—The same dull tone prevails and although lower rates would be accepted, buyers do not show any disposition to operate We repeat our last quotations, but the business is quite unimportant.
