Farmers' Picnic At Greig's Grove Another Successful Event

Once again, and probably for the eighty-eighth year, splendid weather and splen did attendance favored the holding of the Farmers' Pic nic at Greig's Grove, near Howick.

Although this year's drought conditions prevailed, there was a good attendance at the picnic and all enjoyed a fine day's outing. July 1st—Dominion Day as it is known, is the day of this annual picnic. It has been held for at least 88 years and probably longer, for no one has the complete records to refer to, but it has been held for 88 years. It has never been postponed on account of rain, or for any other reason, and it seems it is still as popular as ever, by the number of people who regularly attend. One may see the same faces year after year, tending to prove it is as traditional as otherwise.

This year, the baseball and softball teams of boys and girls occupied the large field just beyond the grove, while the picnickers, the Ormstown Band, the speakers' platform and the refreshment booth remained in the shade of the trees. Also, this is where the races for the children were run off after the speakers had finished their discourse. Before the actual opening a number of guests were entertained to picnic lunch at a long table provided for the purpose. Mr. Keith Greig, Master of Ceremonies, presided over the picnic lunch as well as the other parts of the program.

The Ormstown band was in fine fettle as usual and played a number of selections until the time came for the speakers, Mr. Greig opened this part of the program by extending a hearty welcome to everyone and remarking on the weather and the prevailing drought. He then called upon the various speakers to come forward. The first was Mr. George Kennedy, M.P.P. for Chateauguay County.

Mr. Kennedy remarked upon the enjoyable atmosphere that was always present at this picnic and how he has enjoyed attending this annual event over the past few years. We, of the Provincial Government, are very concerned about the welfare of the people. I feel that by attending this picnic and circulating among the people that I get a number of helpful facts which can be passed on to the Government. Agriculture is fast becoming an industry and must be treated as such. Farmers can overcome problems in the same way as industry and more and more this is being done.

Rev. Loree of Ormstown, was the next speaker and he took a rather different theme for his address. He gave his congratulations to the farmers on the picnic and said it was a very nice gathering. He spoke of Canada as one of the Nations of the World. Many nations today had their difficulties and were striving to find solutions to problems and trying to overcome them. He felt that Canada's difficulty today was that there are too many politicians discussing unnecessary things. He urged that the important thing to do was to save the nation and think of the world in general. Lower taxes are needed. We must be prepared to work with all. We can always mobilize in time of war, but we are not so anxious in time of peace.

Walker Riley who writes a column in this newspaper, each week, and hails from Macdonald College, was the next speaker. He took up a part of Mr. George Kennedy's address where he referred to Agriculture being an Industry. Mr. Riley said that industry could take a few lessons from agriculture. He cited some reasons why this view. Corn growing had been improved and poultry production has been advanced many hours as a result of research, special feeding and so forth. Agriculture is meeting the challenge he said in many ways, but there were not too many students coming forward to take the agricultural course and keep this research going in the years to come. There are far more openings for good students in agriculture. The ratio was about 4 jobs to each one student. In fact students are so short at Macdonald College that recruiting has been going on among the other universities to get enough to fill the requirements. He urged parents and others encourage their sons to take up the agricultural course and so fit themselves for employment in agriculture in the years to come.

Huntley Greig was the next speaker and gave a brief outline of the situation in the milk market of Montreal and as it affects producers. He told of the various prices for milk and the effect on the farmer. He said second class milk is priced at $3.15, third class at $3.05 and the fourth class is to be eliminated and it was understood this schedule would be in effect July 1st. If it did not go into effect, then it would go to arbitration. The officials of the milk producers were asking for a price of $5.75 for first class milk, but it is not known if they will get it.

Mr. Ian Watson, M.P. for Chateauguay — Huntingdon — Laprairie, said that on Confederation Day it was nice to think about Canada. Production is improving, we have the second highest standard of living in the world and generally speaking our condition is first class. Parliament is taking a breather for the summer months and recessed for the summer just last night, he said. Perhaps it might be well to review a few pieces of legislature that had received attention during the session. Agriculture Minister Hays has annouced that the milk price would be fixed at a national average of $3.50. The Government will make up the difference in price according to the farmers' production declaration and 2 payments will be made each year. Mr. Watson said he felt that $6.50 should be the proper price for fluid milk in this area. He believed this should be worked out with the Federal and Provincial Governments and the various Ministers. Poverty in Quebec is unbelievable, he said, and in some areas it is a social problem to be dealt with at all levels. Farmers cannot get enough return to keep their families and their farms going. Both Governments are working together to arrive at a solution to the economic problem. He stressed the Company of Young Canadians which is out to help Canada and help themselves. He urged young people to enquire about it and to see where they can fit in and be useful. If any young person would like to know more about this movement, Mr. Watson said, get in touch with him and he will be only too glad to give all the information and help he can to interested young people.

Mr. Watson then remarked on the Canadian Flag which was flying at the picnic and he said he wondered if there would be one up. In case it was not the case, he had brought one with him and at this time he presented this flag to Mr. Keith Greig, who has had the organization of this annual picnic to do over many past years. Mr. Greig thanked Mr. Watson for his kind gesture and explained that the organization had had enough money to purchase the new Canadian Flag and had bought the one seen. Now they would have two which could fly at future picnics.

With this, Mr. Greig made his closing remarks and he asked a question of the politicians present as follows:

"What would happen if the farmer got all these prices suggested by the politicians, to the cost of living".

There was a silence while the group meditated on this and then Mr. Watson came forward and said as follows:

"I feel the farmers should get a decent price for their produce and never mind about the cost of living".

It had previously been said that the prices suggested would cause trouble with the consumer due to the increase in prices of farm produce which would affect the cost of living. It was felt however, that other groups do not take people's feelings into consideration and they were party to the cost of living being increased and the farmer had to absorb this and yet his produce was selling at the same price as before. As Mr. Watson said, he felt the farmer was entitled to a decent price for his produce so that he could enjoy the same benefits as others.

The afternoon went on with the childrens' races and the other games and of course the refreshment booth did a good business as the warm weather made people quite thirsty.

Disastrous Fire Prevented At Beaver

On Monday afternoon, July 5, about 3:30 p.m. a fire which might easily have resulted in a disastrous loss occurred at the farm of Mr. Walter Sutherland of the Beaver.

While hay was being unloaded at the barn it was suddenly realized that fire was gaining rapid headway near bales of straw. Due to the quick work by Mr. Donald Sutherland and the response of help by immediate neighbours the fire was brought under control until more help came from the fire departments at Fort Covington and Huntingdon.

Due to the high wind which was blowing at the time it was considered a miracle that a much greater loss did not occur.

The Sutherland family is indeed grateful to all who helped in any way during these tense moments.

A short business meeting was held. The roll call was answered by naming a native tree. The Convener of Agriculture read an article on bulk milk tanks. The Home Economics convenor gave a few hints for household use. When buying a fry pan (electric) buy a more expensive one for much better satisfaction. Health and Welfare reported on I.C.U. — "Intensive Care Units" being tried out in some hospitals. Education told how Tomahawk was returned to Canada. It had been given by Tecumseh along with his ceinture fleshé to General Brock in exchange for a pair of pistols and a sash.

Interesting Slides On Indian Life Shown At U.C.W. Meeting

Powerscourt U.C.W. met in the church on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. A. Rosevear and Mrs. B. McGowan as cohotesses. A short meeting was conducted by Mrs. E. M. Wood and Mrs. Koski read the Scripture passage. A letter was read from Rev. Mr. Rutledge.

There was a good attendance of members and guests numbering 28. Mrs. Starr had a goodly number of slides showing various phases of the life in the Indian settlement at George Bay in Northern Quebec. Mr. C. Oney of Huntingdon operated his projector and Mrs. Starr gave interesting and informative commentary about the pictures and her work in the school which is under the control of the Anglican Church. The showing lasted almost an hour and all present enjoyed and profited by the pictures and information given. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Oney and Mrs. Starr. At the request of Mr. Oney, Mrs. E. M. Wood played and sang three hymns which he taped and played back. He also took a number of photographs of those present. Among the guests were the new student minister and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carpentier of Dundee. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Platt of Aurora, Ont., and Mrs. Sparrow and children of Charteris. Refreshments provided by the hostesses were thoroughly enjoyed. Proceeds of meeting $16.45.

85 Attend Reid Family Reunion At Howick

On Saturday, July 3rd., the Reid Family reunion was held at Green Gables, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kerr. The extremely dry weather broke its too long pattern and gave showers which made all guests seek shelter. The Howick Curling Club rooms were used and tables soon took on a festive appearance.

Some 85 relatives, young and old, from near and far took dinner together. Mrs. Wesley Marshall and little daughter of Edmonton came the greatest distance while fourteen made the trip from Ontario. All appeared to enjoy the plenteous food and crowded space.

After the weather cleared all returned to Green Gables, where a game of ball appealed to many of the young people. The young children played on swing bars and were thrilled with pony sides on Rodney Greer's pony. Older members had music and a sing-song and made new acquaintances. Light refreshments were then served. By sundown all had returned to their respective homes, except those from a distance.

Ontario will be host to the 1966 gathering and Quebec will again have the gathering in 1967. Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee will be in charge of organization, at that time replacing Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kerr who had the responsibility this year, assisted by many of the clan members.

This was the thirteenth annual gathering of the Reid family and although very few of the members carry the name, the interest appears to be growing from year to year.

Proprietors To Be Responsible To Notify When Change of Tenants Take Place

A regular meeting of the Town of Huntingdon Council was held Monday, July 5th., at the County Buliding with Mayor Leo Cappiello presiding and all members present.

During the question period, Mr. Nadeau, representing the Playgrounds Organization (OTJ) requested financial assistance from the Town. It was moved and seconded that a grant of $200. be made to this organization, same as last year.

The secretary then reported that he had received a cheque from the Government re sales taxes. The payroll for the month of June was approved and a number of bills were passed for payment.

Among the correspondence, a letter was received from Mr. Martin re collection of water rates. It was then moved and seconded that by-law No. 320 be adopted. This by-law will hold all proprietors of the Town of Huntingdon responsible for notifying the Town of Huntingdon in case of departure or arrival of tenants. They will have to do this in a 15 days delay. The by-law was made necessary since many tenants are leaving or coming without notice and the Town suffers considerable loss of revenue from uncollected water rates. Violation of this by-law will call for a fine up to $40.

A letter was also received from the Commission for settling the limits of the Federal Counties asking representatives of the Town to appear before the Commission Tuesday, August 31, in Montreal.

A letter from Lecompte & Frère Valleyfield was read concerning an error in their tender for new water mains in the Town, stating that their final tender is $27,476.36.

And a letter from Vilna Furniture asking for a permit to erect a sign, which was

Renovations at Protestant Cemetery

The Protestant Cemetery in Huntingdon is being tidied up these days and presents a much improved appearance. The directors decided recently to have the trees in the Cemetery trimmed and at this time about one-third of the work has been done.

Presentation at Rotary Club

There was very little business at the Rotary Club Meeting on Monday and the attendance was poor. Some visiting Rotarians from the New York State Clubs were present and also from Valleyfield. The main business was the presentation of the Past President's Badge to Rotarian Sanderson, in recognition of his recent term of office. Rotarian Thompson made the presentation. President Brown asked the members to think over ways and means of raising funds for the Rotary projects and be prepared to present some ideas at the next meeting.

Rain Gives Gardens Refresher

The rain on Friday, Saturday and Monday has helped the lawns and gardens in town and for the time being the drought seems to have been broken. However, for full recovery considerably more moisture will be needed and thus further rainfall is hoped for.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clarke of Milford - on - Sea, Hampshire England, arrived on the "Ryndam" last Tuesday and spent the past week visiting their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Arthur and family, before proceeding to Western Canada for a month's vacation.

In Memoriam

BEATTIE, George — Beloved father and grandfather, died July 9th, 1961.

We often sit and think of him
When we are alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered Oak
When other things decay
Our love for him will still be green,
And never fade away.

Always remembered by son Martin, Muriel and grandchildren.

ing it was only through the latter's many years of guidance and competent work that he was able to succeed him. He added that Mr. Leduc would always be welcome back at the Trout River Customs as he hoped he would be welcomed when he needed to go to Mr. Leduc's home for advice.

Tribute was also paid to Mrs. Leduc who was at Mr. Leduc's side through all those years, putting up with all the small inconveniences her husband's demanding position called for at times. A presentation was made to her by Mrs. Cosgrove.

Mr. Leduc thanked all present and those who had contributed in organizing this gathering in his honor. He said he was deeply touched to be shown such friendship and invited all to go and visit with him at Trout River.

A social hour followed the supper in order that all present could shake hands with the couple and chat with them.

A wind storm of great velocity passed near Ormstown on Saturday and the force was so great in one narrow streten that panes of window glass in one home were blown inwards. One family moved to the basement of their house, fearing the chimney or some other part of the house would surely topple. Duration of the storm was about ten minutes.

The week-end rain accomplished a lot of good. Grass is green again and corn and grain crops have a fighting chance now. More rain is sorely needed because recent high winds tend to keep topsoil dry but at least the long drought was interrupted.

Terry McCallum, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter (Huntingdon Dry Cleaners) McCallum left ALONE a week ago Monday by train from Calgary, arriving there safely Wednesday. Terry had been planning for some time to see the Calgary Stampede this year and he will be visiting five of his uncles and their families in the vicinity. Mrs. McCallum leaves July 22 for Calgary.

We aren't quite into 'Dog Days' and when we are, we'll probably hear about a man biting a dog. In the meantime, here's something else: Saturday about 5 p.m. James F. Smythe of Huntingdon Motors Reg'd was driving to his summer home at Castagner's Point. About one mile south of Cazaville where the Smith road meets the White's Sideroad/Cazaville road, Mr. Smythe saw someone on a bicycle approaching the highway. He kept going, expecting the cyclist to either stop or at least turn onto the main road. This the man on the bicycle did not do. As the car approached, it was obvious the cyclist was going to drive right across the intersection and into the ditch. To avoid the bicycle, Mr. Smythe drove off the road and right into a field, but not before the allegedly impaired driver of the bicycle crashed into the side of the Smythe car. The man on the bicycle was thrown off and he suffered a broken finger and possibly other injuries He was taken to the Huntingdon County Hospital by ambulance.

Sunday, August 8, will be a big day in Huntingdon: the Huntingdon Fair Board is busy right now making plans for the largest one-day horse show in the Province of Quebec, to be held at the Huntingdon Fair Grounds, rain or shine, there will be classes for Jumpers, Palominos, Pony in Saddle and Harness Classes, Potato Races, English and Western Saddle Classes, Roadster and so on. And a Bar-B-Q chicken dinner will be served on the grounds from noon until 6 p.m. Owner of antique, vintage and classic cars have been invited and there will be trophies offered for the best restored car, oldest car and car travelling the longest distance to the show. Judging of the horse show starts at one p.m. and there will be continuous showing until 9 p.m. More about this as time progresses, in the meantime, keep the date open.

Carlyle Dickson, secretary-manager of Ormstown Ex, was in The Gleaner Office Monday and brought a picture he has been trying to trace for years: it shows the steel framework of the Ormstown Arena when the building was being erected more than 50 years ago. The photo is faded and worse from wear and tear, but it is being retouched in The Gleaner photography room and Carlyle will have some reproductions today (Wednesday). No doubt one copy will be in the Ormstown Ex office in the Industrial Building when the '66 Fair rolls around.

And now the gasoline strike: cars were lined up at local service stations on Tuesday following information from Valleyfield where a meeting of retail gas salesmen was held Monday that all service stations would be closed at noon. Only one station was open for business in Valleyfield Tuesday (yesterday) afternoon.

A few names of the Valleyfield players in the K. of C. softball circuit will bring back memories of fast and furious hockey that was played back in the days of the Valleyfield Braves: Georges Bougie is team captain and the players include Kitoute Joannette, Marcel Bessette, Paul Leclerc and Tod Campeau. Twelve teams are in the league and these former hockey stars will be playing ball against the Huntingdon K. of C. team. (See advt. on Coming Events Page).

Congratulations to Mr. Ian Watson, M.P. Chateauguay-Huntingdon-Laprairie, now chairman of the New Commons Committee on Indian Affairs, Human Rights and Citizenship and Immigration. (See elsewhere).

Music lovers, don't miss "The Student Prince" at the Huntingdon Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, July 12, 13 and 14. Big screen, of course, and the singing voice of Mario Lanza. This is IT for entertainment.

Valleyfield Regatta: July 17 and 18, the most important regatta in North America. Best craft and top drivers . . . a must for boat enthusiasts.

And Safety Sam is planning his annual invitational mixed golf tournament to be held at Malone Golf Club. Probably July 25th.

An attempted robbery at 47 King St., Huntingdon, Sunday around 11:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taillefer were in bed and were awakened by a noise downstairs. Investigating they saw an intruder, but the would-be thief ran out of the house, locking the door as he left.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Gleaner is a letter to the editor from 'A Farmer' and we hope every reader will give it some thought. Not that we think for one minute many people from the Chateauguay Valley would run a herd of cattle a quarter mile up the road and into a garden, but they might know someone who doesn't know any better and perhaps pass a copy of the letter on to him for enlightenment.

People in Ormstown have long been recognized as the kind who stand ready to help their friends and neighbours when an opportunity presents itself. A perfect example again this year is the cooperation that exists between two long-time Gleaner representatives. When Mrs. Willa Hooker found she couldn't devote enough time to The Gleaner when she resumed teaching on a full-time basis, Mrs. Bernie Cullen took over for her. Now, whenever Bernie takes a holiday, things go on as smooth as clockwork for The Gleaner and Mrs. Hooker takes over. Such will be the case for the next few weeks while Bernie and daughter Nancylyn are on a holiday trip to the Canadian Rockies and West Coast. Incidentally, when mother and daughter return, Bernie and husband Lindsay have planned a trip to Prince Edward Island. Have fun Bernie, and welcome back Willa.

ORMSTOWN: A thief or thieves entered the Presbytery at Ormstown about two a.m. Friday and stole the money contained in the safe. Exact amount at time of writing is still not public information, but it is believed several hundred dollars were taken. The irony of the theft is that for the first time since his ordination, Reverend Father Larocque left the safe unlocked.

Still in that Town: The sudden passing of Mr. William McEwen while taking part in the I.O.O.F. ceremony Sunday was a shock to the entire community.

ATHELSTAN: Several cases of measles have been reported in the area with children recovering rapidly while adults are suffering more severe bouts.

MALONE: The Cleyn & Tinker Ltd. annual golf party over the week-end was enjoyed by a record number of players.

FINAL: Don't forget the concert in the Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena tonight (Wednesday) by the Caribou Indian Girls Pipe Band!

Proprietor To Be...

granted provided they assume responsibility.

It was moved and seconded that the ordinary bank note be renewed.

The Council also stated that the Town was prepared to provide the necessary water to the new catholic regional school which will be built in the fall, as requested by the Health Department in Ste-Martine.

Congratulations were extended to the town employees and Mr. Langevin for their good work with the waste paper baskets. They were obviously used to a great extent during the past week-end and the people are asked to continue to use them in order to keep the streets of Huntingdon clean and tidy. Much favorable comment was heard also with regards to a bed of roses in the town and it was stated that much of the credit goes to Mr. Jack Brown.

Regarding a petition of the residents of Somerville St. to change the name of this street the Council agreed to take steps to do so in the near future.

Complaints were received concerning the parking of trucks on residential streets of the town. A letter will be sent to the interested parties enjoining them to keep their trucks off those streets.

Some discussion took place on the subject of sidewalks and curbs and it was revealed that their cost is about the same.

Regarding the coming of the Caribou Indian Girl Pipe Band in Huntingdon, it was decided that the Council greet them as honored guests of the town and that they be invited to sign the golden book Wednesday night at 7 at the County Building.

It was reported that the fence which is to go on top of the retaining wall at the dam is now ready and that work to put it on was due to start any day.

An unofficial meeting with a number of proprietors of the north end of Town will be held July 14 with regard to the development of that part.

Mr. Trepanier requested that a speed limit sign be erected on the Ridge Rd. The secretary was asked to write to the Roads Department concerning this.

The Shawinigan Water & Power Co. was asked to put one more street light on Churchill St., one more on Chateauguay St., and to increase the power of one in front of Grant's Bakery.

The members of the Corncil also stated that they were not satisfied with the cooperation they have received from some people with regards to the water shortage. They felt that there is still a crucial shortage of water and that more attention should be given to the Council's instructions in the use of water for garden or other unneccessary purposes.

Un nouveau règlement obligera les propriétaires de Huntingdon à donner avis de départ ou d'arrivée de leurs locataires

Une assemblée régulière du conseil de la ville de Huntingdon avait lieu lundi le 5 juillet en l'édifice du comté, sous la présidence du Maire Léo Cappiello et en présence de tous les membres.

Durant la période ouverte, M. Nadeau, au nom de l'Oeuvre des Terrains de Jeu (OTJ), demanda l'assistance financière de la ville. Il fut proposé et secondé qu'un don de $200. soit fait à cette organisation, soit le même montant que l'année dernière.

Le secrétaire rapporta qu'il avait reçu un chèque du Gouvernement provenant de la taxe de vente. La liste de paye pour le mois de juin fut approuvée et on autorisa le paiement d'un certain nombre de comptes.

Parmi la correspondance, une lettre de M. Martin, aviseur légal de la ville, au sujet de la collection des comptes d'eau. Il fut alors proposé et secondé que le règlement 320 soit adopté. Ce règlement obligera tous les propriétaires de la ville de Huntingdon, sous peine d'amende allant jusqu'à $40., à donner avis de départ ou d'arrivée de leurs locataires, et ce dans un délai de 15 jours. Ces mesures sont nécessitées du fait que plusieurs locataires arrivent et partent sans autre avis, et qu'il en résulte des pertes considérables pour la ville, notamment en taxes d'eau non collectées.

Une lettre de la Commission Gouvernementale pour la délimitation des comtés fédéraux, à la suite d'une pétition de la ville, demandant que la ville délègue des représentants pour paraître devant la Commission mardi le 31 août à Montréal.

Une lettre de Lecompte & Frère de Valleyfield au sujet d'une erreur dans leur soumission pour de nouvelles conduites d'eau dans la ville, mentionnant que leur soumission finale et de $27,476.-36.

Enfin, une lettre de Meubles Vilna demandant un permis pour ériger une enseigne commerciale, lequel fut octroyé à la condition que la compagnie en assume la responsabilité.

Il fut proposé et secondé que le billet usuel à la banque soit renouvelé.

Le conseil mentionna aussi que la ville était prête à fournir l'eau nécessaire à la nouvelle école régionale catholique, dont la construction est prévue pour l'automne, à la demande du Département de la Santé de Ste-Martine.

On félicita les employés de la ville et M. Langevin pour leur excellent travail en regard de l'installation de paniers à déchets. On nota qu'ils avaient été de toute évidence passablement utilisés durant la dernière fin de semaine et les gens sont requis de continuer à les utiliser de façon à garder propres les rues de la ville. Un lit de roses dans la ville a fait l'objet de commentaires favorables et on tint à en donner le crédit à M. Jack Brown.

Au sujet d'une pétition que les gens de la rue Somerville avaient fait parvenir au conseil il y a quelque temps, pour changer le nom de leur rue, il fut décidé que des mesures seront bientôt prises pour leur donner satisfaction.

On fit savoir que plusieurs plaintes avaient été reçues concernant le stationnement de camions sur des rues résidentielles. On demanda au secrétaire d'aviser les intéressés.

Au sujet de la venue prochaine à Huntingdon du groupe Caribou Indian Girl Pipe Band, il fut décidé que ses membres soient reçus en tant qu'invités d'honneur par la ville et qu'ils soient invités à rencontrer le conseil et à signer le livre d'or mercredi soir le 7 juillet à 7 heures, en l'édifice du comté.

On rapporta que la clôture qui est sensée être érigée sur le mur de soutènement près du nouveau pont est maintenant prête et que les travaux d'érection débuteraient incessamment.

Une rencontre non officielle avec un groupe de propriétaires de la partie nord de la ville fut prévue pour le 14 juillet.

M. Trépanier demanda qu'on installe un panneau de limitation de vitesse sur le chemin Ridge à l'entrée de la ville. On demanda au secrétaire d'écrire au Département de la Voirie à ce sujet.

On demanda aussi à la Compagnie d'électricité Shawinigan d'installer une nouvelle lumière de rue sur la rue Churchill, une sur la rue Châteauguay, et de renforcer celle en face de la boulangerie Grant.

Les membres du conseil exprimèrent par ailleurs leur mécontentement devant la coopération reçue de certaines personnes au sujet du manque d'eau. Ils sont d'avis qu'il existe encore un manque d'eau crucial et qu'il est important qu'on accorde plus d'attention aux directives du conseil quant à l'utilisation des boyaux d'arrosage.

Chato '67 Exhibit Opens

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Friday, July 2nd., 1965, was a proud day for Chateauguay Centre, as CHATO '67's exhibit honouring Expo '67 was opened to a surprized, impressed and delighted public at the Shopping Plaza.

Expo '67 certainly paid Chateauguay Centre a high compliment by staging a colourful display which must by any standards be rated as outstanding. In cutting the ceremonial ribbon and declaring the exhibit open to the public, Expo's John Pratt, Producer of Entertainment, stated that Chateauguay Centre was the first community, outside of Montreal, to support Expo publicly. Mr. Pratt spoke warmly of the high value in international affairs of such ventures as Expo '67 and its many ramifications. "The more banquets we have with more nations participating, the less bombs will fall," opined Mr. Pratt. Assisting Mr. Pratt in the ribbon cutting ceremonies were Centre Mayor Richard Sutterlin, Chateauguay, N.Y. Mayor Francis Ryan and Chato '67 Committee Chairman Thomas McDade.

Interviewed by The Gleaner last week-end, Mr. McDade confessed that be was exhausted from his six months of effort leading to the dazzling and spectacular opening ceremonies. "But it was worth it," said Mr. McDade, "and I'm proud to have played a part in showing all the doubters that Chateauguay Centre has the human material to put on a show like this." Mr. McDade took me on a personal tour of the exhibit, from the window models of Expo's Habital '67, Air Canada's Pavilion, the lookout tower of Canadian Lumbermen's Association which will open later this month, overlooking the Expo site, to the splendour of the indoor exhibit.

Inside, each wall is decorated by the flags of all nations participating in Expo '67, yard-square photographs of all major planned pavilions, an incredible 40 feet long picture of the downtown Montreal area and the centrepiece of the exhibit, a relief scale model of downtown Montreal.

Close by the indoor exhibit is a 100-seat theatre, where colour films of Expo '67 will be shown during the scheduled two-week run of the exhibit. Mr. McDade told me that CBC and local television stations have provided film clips of the opening ceremonies, which will also be shown during the duration of the exhibit.

During the opening ceremonies, Mr. George Kennedy, M.P.P. paid tribute to the presence of Chateaugay Mayor Mr. Ryan, remarking on the irony of history that could bring together the Mayors of two Chateaug(u)ays, separated by 35 miles, but joined by a common river, on such a happy occasion, 169 years after the Battle of Chateauguay.

The exhibit will remain open at least until July 16th.

The Blood Donor's Creed

I BELIEVE
In my fellow man, and
In his desire to live.
In his right to hope and
Believe that I will be,
A help in his hour of need.
That I will be at his side
Giving the Miracle Fluid from My veins, to speed
his recovery

And then—may I go my way
Knowing that even though
He was a stranger — I had
Helped him to live again
All this I believe—because I am a Blood Donor.

The Beautification of St. James Boulevard

By Fergus Horsburgh

I understand that the unsightly entrance to St. Francis Boulevard from Route 3 and 4 will shortly be discussed by the Town of Chateauguay Council. The bleak aspect of a bare brick wall and an untidy wasteland have long been deeply resented by local residents, and representations have been made to Town Hall with a view to improving the situation. I understand that Town Hall has accepted the principle that something must be done, and that the choice is simply between lining a portion of the southern flank of St. Francis with trees or a fence. A recent meeting of the Seigniory Park Home Owners Association voted overwhelmingly in favour of trees.

Statistics of Deaths Among Heavy Drinker Policy Holders

Milwaukee, Wis., — Excessive drinking not only causes early death, but the adverse effect on mortality may be even worse than previously suspected, according to a 22-year study of nearly 2,500 life insurance policy holders who were known to be heavy drinkers.

Karl M. Davies, vice-president in charge of the Underwriting Department of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, in New York, reported on the study at the Home Office Life Underwriters Association's 1965 Annual Meeting recently in Milwaukee. The H.O.L.U.A. is a professional organization of life insurance company executives throughout the United States and Canada who review the risks involved in applications for policies.

The study, conducted by the Equitable Society from 1940 to 1962, shows that death claims ran 2½ to 3 times higher among heavy drinkers than among other policyholders who were "standard" mortality risks.

Mr. Davies pointed out that the worst effect was among younger drinkers (under 40 years old), whose death claims ran almost 3½ times the normal mortality rate.

Among all the excessive drinkers, the heaviest extra mortality occurred within two years after their policy was issued, but death claims continued unusually high throughout the entire period of the study.

Even among drinkers who had taken a "cure" or received treatment for alcoholism, or whose last report intoxication occurred several years prior to issuance of their policy, deaths ran abnormally high. Mr. Davies said this may have been because either they slipped back into excess drinking, or that drinking had already done heavy damage of their systems.

Comparing various causes of death among excessive drinkers to mortality rates among standard applicants, Mr. Davies said, "The ratios are high for all causes, whether or not related to drinking. The heaviest extra mortality arises in three categories, motor vehicle accidents, diseases of the digestive system and other accidents or homicide."

Mortality due to traffic accidents among heavy drinkers ran five times the normal rate. Mortality due to diseases of the digestive system, other accidents and homicide ran between four and five times the normal rate.

More than half of the death claims due to diseases of the digestive system were attributed to cirrhosis of the liver, according to Dr. Davies.

He said, "Alcohol has a substantial influence on mortality, which cannot be ignored or treated lightly. Certainly, alcoholic habits are no less a problem today than they have been in the past. When we read that there are 5 million alcoholics in the United States today (as estimated by the Rutgers School of Alcoholic Studies), it may well be that our problem will be still more difficult in the future."

IT'S GETTING NOISIER

North America has suffered a steadily increasing assault on its citizens' eardrums. Sound levels have increased an estimated one decibel yearly for the last 30 years. Those 30 decibels represent about one-fourth the level of sound that can cause permanent damage to the ears. Moreover, an article in the Reader's Digest points out the rate of increase in climbing and the din is expected to rise even more sharply in the future.

One main reason for the racket is that along with population growth we are experiencing a proliferation of machines. The average suburbar home may reverberate to a

Pat Darcy Elected C.A.A.A. Vice-President

(By Ron Lee)

The Chateauguay Amateur Athletic Association recently elected one of Chateauguay's most prominent sports personalities to the office of First Vice-President when Pat Darcy agreed to accept the position.

Pat, who has lived in Chateauguay for the past five years, comes to the Association with a wealth of sports knowledge.

In his first year he was elected by the Gardens to represent their hockey and softball teams that played under the Chateauguay Minor Sports Association.

In a very short time, his efforts as a Representative showed him to be a natural born leader and so he was elected President of the C.M.S.A.

He has been a coach of hockey and softball teams and one year he was also the softball Umpire in Chief.

As President of the C.M.S.A. he was one of the main figures in the formation of the C.A.A.A. His efforts at making people realize the need for one sports body, and eventually helping all sports to amalgamate, was the beginning of Chateauguay's official sports group.

Not being one to sit around and 'Let George do it', Pat was elected President of the Chateauguay Home Owners Association last year.

The Darcy's have five children, four of them boys, and as Pat says "I knew leaders are required if any Association is to function properly, and being the father of five children, I feel it is my duty to help to make sports available. Everyone should have the opportunity to play any sport they desire. Playing in a sport teaches the children discipline, co-ordination, keeps then physically fit helps them to meet people and in general, helps them to become better all round persons".

With Pat Darcy on the Executive body of the C.A.A.A. we can surely look forward to bigger and better things from this Association in the years ahead. Support Sports by Supporting the C.A.A.A.

Valleyfield Regatta To Be Held July 17 and 18

For the 27th consecutive year, the Valleyfield Nautical Club will hold its International Regatta on St. Francis Bay, July 17 and 18 next.

Again this year, the best racers of all Canada and the United States will compete in one of the best events of this kind in the country.

A new class will be featured this year also; in fact, the new SK (Ski-Boat) should prove to be one of the main events of that week-end of July. Pressed by many requests from Americans, the Valleyfield Nautical Club has decided to present a competition for ski-boats; it will be the first time that such a race has been held in Canada. Millionaire Sportsman Aubert Brillant of Rimousky will enter his ski-boat "Golden Canadiana" and will certainly provide some fierce competition for the American aces.

As in the previous years, different races of in-boards and out-boards will also be presented during these two days.

The Valleyfield International Regatta are sanctioned both by the Canadian Boating Federation and the American Power Boat Association, and are sponsored by the Valleyfield Nautical Club Inc.

All records which could be surpassed or equalled at the International Regatta will be officially recognized by the two associations, the course being official. Twelve trophies will be awarded this year, along with prize money totaling $3,500. or more.

This is an event you have to see as it can be said that the Valleyfield International Regatta is the most important in North America. See for yourself by going to Valleyfield, the "Venice of Quebec", July 17 and 18.

You are personally invited by the Queen of Regattas, Miss Rachel Mercier.

Chateauguay Centre United Church

Approximately 150 happy people attended the Congregational Picnic, at Charlottenberg, Ontario. The committee of Betty Edwards and Sid Simpson along with Rev. Dunn deserve a great deal of credit for all the organizational planning and prizes. It was truly a wonderful day.

During the afternoon Mr. C. Prest, one of the Church Elders made a presentation on behalf of the congregation to Mr. Dunn, who has served the congregation so well for the last two years. Mr. Dunn and family leave Friday for Finch, Ontario — where he will serve a 3-point charge. The best wishes of the church and community at large go with him, and there is no doubt Finch is very fortunate indeed to get so fine and dedicated a man.

Official notification from Presbytery naming the successor to Mr. Douglas Dunn is expected shortly. In the meantime the congregation is asked to contact one of the following members of the Sessions. Mrs. Beryl Millett at 691-9276 or Mr. James Edwards at 691-0261. During the month of July services will be conducted by the following people:

July 11th.

Miss Lydia McCullough, Director of Christian Education for St. James United Church in Montreal.

July 18th

Mrs. Holly Davidson — Deaconess from Dominion — Douglas United Church in Westmount.

July 25th

Mr. Fred Ryner — Chairman of the Committee of Stewards for Chateauguay Centre United Church.

Water And Sewerage Ground Breaking Ceremonies In Chateauguay Heights

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Chateauguay Heights had waited seventeen long years for the occasion, and longtime residents had to pinch themselves to find out if they were dreaming or were really watching official ground-breaking ceremonies of the long-heralded modern water and sewerage sytem last Wednesday evening. Some eighty invited guests, including ex-Heights officers and aldermen, the Clergy, Mayors and nearby municipalities and representatives of School Boards and service clubs, assembled at the Heights Town Hall. Under the genial sergeant-major for the evening host Mayor Jean Laberge marched the parade through the Town to the ceremony site on Maple, between Dupont and Hamilton. There a mechanical shovel, operated by the contractor, Desourdy Construction Limited's Messrs. André Pare and G. Alaric, obligingly scooped out a ton or two of Heights soil, and the water and sewerage installation was officially underway. The fact that excavation had actually started some days previously did not detract an iota from the dramatic effect. Mayor Laberge and others closely associated with the project, looking every bit like hardened construction veterans in their hard hats, mounted the shovel and posed at the controls for the enlightenment and entertainment of guests. Alderman and Mrs. Ted Lunn with grim determination went to work with the gas-driven power-digger of pump sub-contractor Flygt Canada (1963) Limited, Flygt are supplying for the project the second and third fibre-glass reinforced plastic sewage lift stations in the world. The Heights may be late on the scene, but by November 5th., next, the scheduled date for completion, will have one of the most modern sewage transfer systems in existence.

The ceremonies completed, guests filtered back on foot to the Town Hall via Duport, Austin and Carlyle, except for a few of lesser moral fibre who chose mechanical transportation. Mayor Jean Laberge welcomed the Town's guests to the reception, and invited Town of Chateauguay Mayor Joseph Laberge and Father Belanger to speak. Some disagreement was expressed as to whether Mayor Joseph Laberge represented the sister or mother Town, as the Heights seceded from the Town of Chateauguay in 1948. The dispute ended amicably by Mayor "Joe" accepting the title "Town Father of the Mother Town".

It was indeed a memorable evening for the Heights, with congratulations due to all concerned, particularly for the devoted and untiring efforts over the past year of the present Council, Mayor Laberge and Aldermen F. Behrens, John Friedlander, Ted Lunn and Roland Thauvette.

Included among the guests present were Mrs. Jean Laberge, Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy, Mayor and Mrs. Joseph Laberge, Mayor and Mrs. Richard Sutterlin, Mayor and Mrs. Oscar St. Jean of Henryville, Que., Mrs. Jeannette L. Francoeur, Secretary of the Quebec Water Board, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jobber, Father Belanger, Rev. Howard Fraser, Alderman and Mrs. Ted Lunn, Alderman and Mrs. Jolin Friedlander, Alderman and Mrs. Roland Thauvette, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cosgrove, Mr. Norman Palmer, Canadian Legion, Mr and Mrs. Bill Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Clarke, Mr. Edouard Lefort, Provincial Sanitary Inspector and Mrs. Lefort, Mr. Bill Garden, ex-Heights Council Secretary and Mrs. Garden, Father Omer Germain, Mr. Bert Gillespie of Flygt Canada, Mr. D'Alma Boudrias, also an ex-Heights Councillor, Secretary and Mrs. Boudrias, Mrs. Barbara Fraser, C.F.O.X., Mr. Tom Shields, Vancouver, Mr. Ron Allan, ex-Alderman and Mrs. Harry Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fair, Dr. and Mrs. Jean-Marc Sauvé, ex-Alderman and Mrs. Tony Reid, ex-Alderman and Mrs. Don Lavigne, ex-Alderman and Mrs. O. H. Bradley, ex-Alderman and Mrs. Alex Kinna and Mrs. Trudeau, wife of ex-Alderman Mr. Trudeau. Mr. Gerald Laniel, M.P., sent his regrets, as he had a previous engagement to drive with Prime Minister Pearson and Mrs. Pearson.

Chateauguay News Notes

By Fergus Horsburgh

✓ The Chateauguay Amateur Athletic Association received a donation of 15 softball gloves and immediately turned them over to the Softball League.

✓ The Town of Chateauguay Police are receiving many calls concerning dogs and cats running around loose.

✓ Two children were injured last week at Chateauguay Beach; one little girl from Montreal cut her foot on broken glass, and was given emergency treatment. Another child, Alexima Galarneau of 527 Youville Blvd. cut her hand at the same spot, and had to have five stitches at the Doctor's office.

✓ A 2½ year-old girl with the wanderlust, went for a walk last week, without asking permission from Mummy first. Sandra Bulmer of Lang Street, Colonia was found one hour after her disappearance, strolling along St. Marc.

✓ A resident of Montreal had the misfortune to break her ankle whilst roller-skating last week at Pie XII school. She was taken to hospital in Lasalle for treatment.

✓ Young Jimmy Baird of McLeod Avenue had a nasty accident last week, cutting his left leg on his bicycle. He was taken to the Lachine General Hospital by his parents and had nine stitches; and must stay still with his leg up.

✓ There is quite a considerable amount of green slime all along the Chateauguay River. Spoils the 'Pastoral Scene' with the cows from the Nun's Island grazing at the edge.

✓ Steam shovel has started operations on a new block of duplexes on des Boissonnault Street in the Town. That is the street leading up or down (whichever way you happen to be facing) directly from the Town of Chateauguay Police and Fire Station.

✓ Provincial Roads Dept. are doing work on the new bridge; paving, sodding the approaches, etc., etc. Many youths seem to be employed there.

✓ Also concerning the new bridge: one of the light poles has been badly damaged since away back last year, when a motorist came into contact with same pole. After considerable discussion with Shawinnigan, Provincial Govt. and the Town, it has been decided that the Town will pay for the repairs. Apparently the lighting of the bridge is for the benefit of local residents, hence the reason for this matter to be attended to, at long last.

✓ Work on Youville Blvd. is going along very nicely. On Monday morning, July 5th, the writer counted 18 trucks facing North, and 5 facing South; all the trucks loaded to capacity with fill.

✓ The summer water problems are still with us. We see water wasted all around, particularly by parents permitting their children to play with the outside taps and hoses. Did you know that water meters cost approximately $350.00 to $400.00 each? The service stations have meters, but pay only a small amount each month to the Town for the use of same. Did you also know that the Town will supply water to the Heights when their water and sewers have been installed?

✓ Speaking of the Heights, the work is going along with DeSourdy Construction doing the job.

✓ The opening of tenders for by-laws 269 and 270 was held last week. For water and sewers on Maple, Brault and Theberge Ltee. have been awarded the contract. For the remainder of the by-laws, black top, etc., the contract went to Jean Bedard.

✓ Two back-stops for Town playgrounds are to be constructed and installed by Robert Chagnon Co. at a cost of $1,550.00 for the two.

✓ Chateauguay Center Police report a very quiet week as usual.

✓ Of interest to most residents of the area is the Camping Display to be held on July 11th, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the grounds of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, and partly on the Vetville property. This is under the auspices of the Boy Scouts of the aforementioned Church.

✓ Another item from Our Lady Church, is the bottle drive that is to be held in ALL areas of Chateauguay by the Cubs and Scouts of the Church. This will be on July 10th, from 9 in the morning to 12.30 noon. The lads are hoping to make a "big haul", and if you plan to be out, please leave your bottles where they can be picked up easily. Your neighbor, I'm sure, won't mind having them in her porch.

✓ There was no Council meeting last week in the Centre, but there will be one Tuesday evening, July 6th; so watch these columns for news in next week's Gleaner.

✓ Stan Atkinson's press agent tells me that Stan has pitched hitless ball for P.R.A. Last week in relief he faced eight men and not one of them could touch him. He walked them all. Next week's relief pitcher will be Stan's press agent himself.

✓ Town of Chateauguay Alderman Phil Bonneau was recently elected President of Bell Telphone (South Shore District) Social Club.

✓ I have been asked to correct a misapprehension that has arisen to the effect that Soccer and Softball schedules conflict with each other. This is not so. Frank McIlwaine's Softball group and George Brown's Soccer Group have gone to great pains to draw up a schedule that will allow the boys to participate in both leagues.

✓ The long awaited report from the Parks Committee was due for consideration by the Town of Chateauguay Council last Monday night. Further details will be published in next week's Gleaner.

A belated happy birthday to Marian Peacock, who celebrated her 11th birthday last week. Sorry I forgot Marian.

The Spenards of St. Jude St. have some house guests visiting. A hearty welcome to Mrs. B. Parks from California who arrived on Saturday, and also to Mrs. Imrie and daughter Heather from Ottawa.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Mr. S. Gervais of Ethier Street on the passing of his grandmother, Mrs Jean Baptiste Gervais of Montebello, who died last week. Mr. Gervais attended the funeral on Monday morning.

A group of the Ladies from the Women's Auxiliary to the Lachine General Hospital, Chateauguay Group, chartered a bus and went into Lachine a few weeks ago and were taken on a guided tour of the Hospital. It was a most interesting and enjoyable day for the ladies who attended.

Belated birthday greetings also to a little friend of mine who celebrated her birthday June 25th. Hope it was a real happy day Joanne Hannah.

And just a reminder to the mothers that the Clinic will be held this Thursday at the Municipal Hall on Croissant Richard St. from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. It would be a good time to get your school children vaccinated before they begin the school next September.

And that's about all the news I have for you this week folks.

Cooks' Corner

By Mary Fabio

For those of you who love rhubarb and would like to try serving it in another way other than pie or stewed you might like to try Rhubarb Cobbler a recipe sent in to me by an old friend.

Rhubarb Cobbler —
4 cups sliced rhubarb
1 1/4 cups sugar
1 tbsp. grated orange rind
1/3 cup shortening
2 cups all purpose flour
3 tsps. baking powder
1 cup milk
1/2 tsp. salt

Method — Preheat your oven to 400. Place sliced rhubarb in bottom of your greased pan. Add sugar, sprinkle with orange rind. Measure the flour, add baking powder and salt. Cut in the shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs, then add the milk. Spread soft dough over rhubarb and bake for 35 minutes.

And for those of you who are still busy barbecuing for a taste treat you might try barbecuing young veal hearts. They are delicious. First wash well then remove veins and fatty tissue and slice about a half inch thick then brush well with oil and barbecue sauce if desired, salt and pepper and a little garlic salt. Barbecue about 5 to 8 minutes then turn over and do the other side. Eat while hot with a tossed salad, makes an economical, yet tasty meal.

Handy hints for homemakers —

When you have added too much salt to your soup or gravy try adding a teaspoonful of sugar and teasponful of vinegar then cooking it a little longer. Or, drop a whole peeled raw potato into the soup and let it cook awhile—then, remove the potato before serving. In the case of a thick soup or gravy, grate in a raw potato and let it stay.

When making fruit pies before adding your fruit filling sprinkle a few soda cracker crumbs on the crust first and this should prevent the juice from running over while baking.

And for those of you gals who have fish to scale you can make the chore a bit easier by first placing the fish in a large pan, pour boiling water over it then remove from the hot water quickly, and drop into cold water. The scales should then be easily removed with a kitchen knife or by rubbing with a metal pot cleaner. And sometimes just the rubbing of vinegar all over the fish beforehand will make for easier scaling.

Recipe for a home —

Take half cup of friendship and a cup of thoughtfulness creamed together with a pinch of powdered indulgence. Then, in a bowl of loyalty, beat very lightly, one cup of faith, one of hope and one of charity. Be sure to add a spoonful each of gaiety that sings, and also the ability to laugh at little things, moisten with sudden tears of heartfelt sympathy; bake in a good natured pan and serve repeatedly. (I know this recipe has been in before but had a special request from one of our readers to put it in again).

The tail end of the bus strike forced me to drive down to Huntingdon last Tuesday a.m., June 29th. Deadline time for the news was so close, and the bus still didn't show up, so off we went Steeve and I. The countryside all around looked so yellow and brown, but we still saw quite a few loads of hay, and 'turned our money o'er' for good luck. On our way back from The Gleaner office, we dropped in on our teacher, Marquerite MacDougall and her family, on the outskirts of Ormstown. Our Steve had such a nice time for the short visit. That's really the place for boys — a big farm, with cats and kittens, dogs, horses with very wide backs, baby ducklings, chickens, a tree house, old wagons to play on, and miles of meadows to run in. A city child can be amused for the whole two month summer holiday on a farm.

Our house guests kept us fairly hopping last week, also. My mother, Mrs. Helen Deans, and mother-in-law Mrs. Sarah Bate will be here off and on all summer.

We were sorry to hear that Jimmy Baird had a leg injury last week. He has had to have nine stitches in his leg, and I guess will not be doing much running about for a week or two. He must keep his leg up, so the TV and comics are the order of the day for a while yet. Hope you'll soon be alright, Jimmy.

The Daily Vacation Bible School started on Monday, July 5th, with a lower than usual registration. This year, of course, it will run for just the one week.

Another visitor here on McLeod is Mrs. Moore, mother of Mrs. Jean Gross. Mrs. Moore has just come out of hospital after a serious illness, and she is looking very well. Hope you have an enjoyable visit here in Chateauguay, Mrs. Moore and keep up the good work, making progress towards better health each day.

Happy Birthday to you, Frank Robinson of McLeod Avenue! I hear you are celebrating on the 7th. July. Many, many more.

The Church news I usually report is scarce during summertime. Maplewood and St. George's are both on summer schedules. Services in July at Maplewood are at 9.30 a.m. At St. George's there is the usual 8 a.m. Holy Communion Service and at 9.15 next Sun-

Life In Las Vegas Not A Gamble

(By Russ Faughnan)

Life in the gambling Capital of the world was portrayed to The Gleaner as being similar in many ways to life right here in the Chateauguays. The bright lights, the heavy gambling, the booze and the gals are all there but there is another side to the Las Vegas Story.

We heard this side of the story from a current visitor to Chateauguay Centre. A woman who spends the better part of each year living in the fabled city of one armed bandits. (I wonder if they have one armed policeman?) Life for the permanent residents is filled with such standard problems as churches, schools, and public works. Founded as a Mormon town, Las Vegas now has houses of worship for all denominations including no less than 9 Roman Catholic Churches. Most are packed to capacity for every service and they all have the usual "collection" problems. It is odd to note that few of the changes in the Catholic liturgy have reached Nevada. Schools are just as much a problem there as here. The P.T.A. is strong in voice on the need for more classrooms, more schools, better teachers and "why doesn't Johnny get promoted?"

The public works problems stem from the fact that Las Vegas is growing at an extremely rapid rate. Already several miles into the desert from it's limits only a few short years ago. Land development and speculation are of general concern. They even have water problems with the choice being to dig a well through the sand or to pipe water in from the City of Boulder Dam, many miles away. All problems we in Chateauguay are quite familiar with.

Still it must be a strange city to live in. It must be difficult to accept the flashing neon signs in front of the many "Chapels" which scream, "marriages $5.00. The city's main street, Freemont Ave., is said to have more lights than Broadway. The open 24 hrs. a day policy, is everywhere. One expects this of the big hotels and casinos. But you might find it odd to do your shopping at 4:00 in the morning. Even the beauty parlours are crowded at that hour. Naturally gambling is everywhere. Here again it is carried slightly beyond what one might expect. There are slot-machines in drug stores, grocery stores, on the street and yes, even in the John.

But you can get your money's worth in the Town of Las Vegas, state of Nevada, U.S. of A. The shows at the big clubs are truely marvelous. Probably surpassing anything produced this side of Paris. For the outdoor types, there is Mount Charleston, a half hour's drive away, with it's winter sports through a good part of the year. Considering the winter temperature of 70 - 75 degrees in the city, this makes for some grand sportive variety.

Yes, Las Vegas is a strange town. But we could find many pleasing features about it. Beautiful territory, well enforced traffic rules and an ideal temperature. Just these three dissimilarities makes one look, with envy.

LETTER FROM
SEIGNIORY PARK
(by FERGUS HORSBURGH)

Route Boys:
ALLAN LUSSIER

CHRIS DULLEGE

Complaints are circulating on the excessive loudness of outdoor radio music in the Woodbine-Seigniory Drive area. Music is an added pleasure to sitting outdoors these warm summer days, but surely the music could and should be turned down to a volume which would not detract from other people's enjoyment of the outdoor life.

The 150 yard stretch of exit-road from the highway on to St. Francis has now been paved, thus effectively making this stretch of highway four-lane. This fulfills promises made by Mr. G. Kennedy, M.P.P., and Provincial Roads Department Authorities at the time the traffic signals were installed about one year ago. Although the major traffic jams forecast by pessimists never did develop after the traffic lights went into operation, this development will certainly help in speeding the flow of traffic at the intersection.

Three-year-old daughter: "What you doing, Mummy?". Mummy: "Making gingerbread. Now, are you any the wiser?"
3-year-old daughter: "NO!! I'm Caroline".

One night last week only one of Woodbine Park Playground's three swings was ready for use, with either the chain-links disconnected or the swing seat looped over the overhead bar. Also a huge tree-trunk blocked the path of one swing. May I appeal to parents of the older children who use the swings to issue instructions that playground equipment be left in operating condition at all times?

Geoff Holfstatter claims that he has perfected a technique whereby he sprays his garden at a cost of 30 cents, rendering his property free of mosquitoes for two or three days.

I was told last week by someone who had studied the problem that the $6000 mosquito-control programme contracted by the Town of Chateauguay never had a remote chance of succeeding, considering the area of the town and the swamps in and near the town. An effective job of control could have been done, but at a cost of $120,000. I much prefer Geoff Hofstatter's 30 cent solution to the problem.

Congratulations to Heidi Christiane, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horst Harczewski of Colonia, who was baptized two Sundays ago in Maplewood Presbyterian Church.

SOCCER

Highlights — Challenge Cup Draw Wednesday, July 7th., at the Salle Pariosaille.

Raffle prize drawing Tuesday, July 13th., 8.30 P.M., at the Rustik Motel.

The draw for the Soccer Challenge Cup will be made during the scheduled soccer meeting on Wednesday, July 7th., at 9 p.m., at the Salle Paroisaille Chateauguay. The first round ties in the Atome, Mosquito, and Pee-Wee divisions will be played on Saturday, August 14th., with the exception of the Legionnaires, who will play on Sunday, Aug. 15th. Dates for the Bantam and midget division will be announced later.

The soccer raffle winners will be drawn Tuesday, July, 13th., 8:30 p.m. at the Rustik Motel. Winners will be notified by mail.

All representatives, team managers and coaches are requested to attend both the prize drawing and the regular meeting.

Sunday, July 11th., is the closing date for the raffle, all tickets and money must be submitted by this date. Tickets and money will be accepted by Ches. Bayliss, 73, Theberge, up to Wednesday, July 7th., and thereafter by George Brown, 69 St. Maurice, and Bert Taylor, 110 St. Patrick Square. Anyone who has not yet bought a ticket and wishes to do so, please contact anyone associated with soccer.

Parents are conspicuos by their absence from soccer games, this is the almost unanimous complaint by team managers. Healthy, energetic, character building sports are essential for most youngsters but if parents show no interest then in many cases the boys rapidly lose interest. Many parents don't appreciate what it means to a boy to have his parent(s) cheering him on from the touch line. Soccer which is a comparatively new sport in Canada, is unknown to many people but the rules of the game are fairly easy to pick up, so parents! How about giving up an hour or so of your leisure time to watch and encourage your boy.

Many areas, especially in the Town of Chateauguay and the Heights are desperately short of coaches and in some cases, players. There must be hundreds of adult soccer lovers in Chateauguay, who require just a small prod to come forward and volunteer their services, so how about it you Fathers, sacrifice just a few hours of your spare time to assist minor sports.

Pat Bedard's young sister from California was here last week, registering with Ecole de Beaux Arts in Montreal, where she will continue her art studies this coming Fall. (Must we already be thinking of the Fall?).

How peaceful 394 Woodbine is this week, with Jane, Caroline and little Fergus spending the week with Marianne Gibbs at Marianne's Mother's cottage on Lake Mississippi, Ontario. How quiet, how serene, how restful, how relaxing. HOW DULL!

The Trimaran

High speed modern sailing owes some of its origin to the ancient outtrigger canoes of the Polynesians and much of its speed to a combination of modern design and construction materials.

Winning friends among thousands too impatient for slower conventional craft and others who sought a combination of speed and stability is the modern trimaran. The three-hulled cruisers have overcome much early prejudice on the part of tradition-minded sailors. They have made ocean crossings of several thousand miles under sail and come through successfully.

One big factor in the popularity of the trimaran has been its great stability which gives a new experience to veteran sailors and a feeling of safety to novices. There's no roll or heel with the triple-hulled flyer but the boat gives a real thrill at high speeds. Absence of heel has been particularly comforting to many wives who have been less than happy with the tilt of conventional craft.

The lightweight of the trimaran has been a great factor in making her a fast and able sailer. Use of marine grade fir plywood construction throughout has, together with soundly-engineered designs, kept the weight of the trimarian below that of conventional craft without sacrificing strength. Plywood simplifies and speeds the construction of a water-tight hull.

Arthur Piver, Mill Valley, California designer who has pioneered the modern development of the trimaran, has worked out a system that eliminates the hours of hard work needed for lofting in the building of a traditional vessel. The trimaran requires little of the skill needed in conventional boat building practice.

Some 40 to 50 trimarans ranging in size from 20 to 40 feet are being built in the Lower Mainland Region of British Columbia. A trimaran fleet has been formed in Vancouver. Largest of the trimarans being built, a 40-footer by Evans Atkinson of West Vancouver, should be launched by August and rigged by early fall.

Designer Piver, who made a brief visit to Vancouver in May to show films of ocean-crossing trimarans, was overwhelmed with his reception in Vancouver. So many turned out to see the little-publicized films that a second showing had to be held. Most trimarans are home-built. Piver said he estimated the material cost of a 38-foot cruising boat at about $4,500 without sails. Owners of conventional sailing craft who attended the film showing came away impressed with the speed and seaworthiness of the trimaran.

One of the first trimarans to be built and sailed in Canada was built by Bill Holm, 1542 Wilmost Place, Victoria. He built a 30 foot Nimble class tri from Piver designs. She has a total beam of 18 feet with a six-beam in the main cabin. Marine grade fir plywood was used, three-eighths on the main hull and one quarter on the floats. She has shown good speed and Bill says she handles like a dinghy. He figures building costs at around $3,500 complete.

Written questions on trimarans or of general boating interest will be answered if addressed to Rex Neptune, P.O. Box 2123, Vancouver 3, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Greer Ormstown Feted on 25th Anniversary

A silver wedding anniversary party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Greer was held on June 19th., at Mr. Clifford Brown's barn, Fertile Creek.

White streamers, bells and a large 25th emblem hung over the head table which the Misses Anne and Wendy Brown had tastefully set and decorated with bouquets of red peonies. The table centrepiece was a large anniversary cake surrounded with twenty-five red peony buds.

On their arrival the honored guests were met at the door by Mrs. Armand Robert who pinned a corsage of white carnations on Mrs. Greer, and a bountonniere on Mr. Greer.

A grand march followed which ended in the assembled guests each greeting Jim and Gladys personally and wishing them all the best.

Dancing followed to the music of the Meltones until lunch time when Mr. Ewen McDougall called Jim and Gladys to the head table at which time they were presented with a gift of money.

Mr. McDougall, as Master of ceremonies, then called upon Rev. Mr. McLean, Gordon Green and Mr. Russel MacDougall who all conveyed their best wishes, along with a few jokes, which bought laughs and applause from all.

Jim and Gladys fittingly replied to the tributes paid them, and an enjoyable evening came to a close with everyone singing 'For They Are Jelly Good Fellows".

Science is doing its part to help quiet things down. To allow them to do the job that must be done, we as consumers will have to abandon our false ideals that noise and power are identical. Once we do, maybe we'll be able to hear ourselves think.

Dress Up the Garbage Can

Your garbage container can have eye appeal. All you need is the proper application of color, says the Paint Industry Council. First, scrub the can. Then coat the metal inside and out with a primer especially designed for galvanized steel. Apply two coats of exterior enamel. To make cans less noticeable, paint them to match the exterior of your home. Or create a delightful contrast by using bright enamel, highlighted with designs or your street number. Besides being more attractive, your garbage can will have a longer life due to the protective coating.

many as 20 different motors ranging from automobile to air conditioner.

Scientists attempting to stem the rising tide of noise are meeting a surprising obstacle — reluctance of consumers to give up the image of power created by sound.

For example, lawn mowers are among our most raucous ear-splitters. They can be made far less noisy at little cost. But when one manufacturer tried it some years ago, his sales dropped. The reason: customers felt that the less noisy motors had less power.

The converse reason explains why any kid converting an old car to a "hot rod" makes it a first step to remove the muffler.

Similar feelings on the part of consumers have prevented automobile manufacturers and makers of refrigerators from making their products quieter. Many of us find a good secure feeling in the sound of an authoritative clunk.

There is no question that noise annoys. Studies indicate

Women's Institutes Silver Jubilee In Britain

Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogoch is a small village in Wales more commonly known simply as Ilanfair P.G. The translation is — St. Mary's Church in a hollow by the white hazel close to the rapid whirlpool by the red cave of Tysilio.

It has two claims to fame: firstly, it is said to have the longest place name in the world . . .

And secondly, it was in this village, just 50 years ago, that Britain's first Women's Institute was started.

The idea of Women's Institutes came from Canada — from Stoney Creek, Ontario. It was there that a farmer's wife, a Mrs. Hoodless, spoke up for her fellow-country-women and urged talks and demonstrations to widen their horizons — and generally improve conditions of rural life. Now from that gentle birth at Stoney Creek sixty-eight years ago, the idea has spread, until today there are Women's Insitutes in the West Indies, in Australia, India, Malaysia, Scandinavia, South Africa, the United States and Britain.

Not only has the idea spread to the far corners of the world but the scope of activity has also widened. While the original aim of the founder 'to improve the lot of country women' still holds good, the Institute now form drama groups, set up community facilities, art and cookery. They arrange exchange visits, and lecture tours and receive sociology students from developing countries who may come to study the W.I. set-up.

In Canada, Women's Institutes now cover country areas from coast to coast. Groups have reached up into the Mackenzie River area and one is soon to be formed in the North West Territories.

Today's president of that first Women's Institute at Stoney Creek, Mrs. Chester W. Nash, will be going to Britain during May to take part in the Golden Jubilee Week of the National Federation of Women's Institutes.

The Lord Mayor of London, Sir James Miller, will give a reception at the Guildhall to nine thousand delegates representing every institute in the British Isles. Delegates will also be the Queen's guests at a Buckingham Palace garden party. An exhibition in London will attempt to show the range of activities undertaken by W.I. members . . . and there are 500,600 of them.

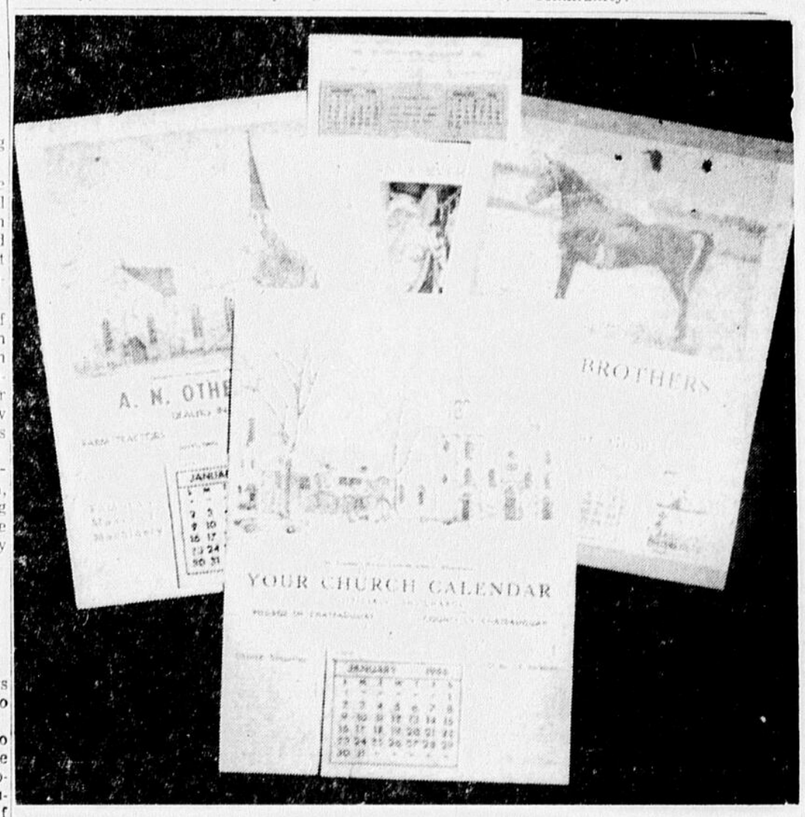

In Berkshire, at the Federation's residential centre, over 3,000 countrywomen attend courses each year in domestic topics, the arts, international affairs and science. Teachers are trained at the centre, which has the benefit of visiting lecturers from nearby universities, like Oxford and Reading.

The W.I. also see to the needs of the inner man with perhaps the most practical of heir contributions to rural life, a co-operative market movement which sells surplus produce from gardens and kitchens. The W.I. keeps an eagle eye on quality, packaging and display and operate the cooperative market at an annual turnover of more than a million dollars. The money goes back to the sellers with a small commission deducted by the W.I. for running expenses.

Then there's the monthly magazine published by the National Federation. "Home and Country" gives a comprehensive coverage of news to women interested in, and living, a country life and has a circulation of 154,000 copies.

Over the past 50 years the National Federation has continually added to its activities until today it can provide for women of all ages. For young members there is the chance to shine at an art or craft. It teachers cookery skills and home management to newlyweds. Opportunities for taking up public service are of particular interest to the older woman with more time on her hands.

But above all the W.I. provides companionship and pursuits beyond the home for very women living in a small community.

Editorial Notes...

The Dorion Report Is Out

THERE has not been such a smear on a Federal Government for a very long time, than has been placed upon it by the results of the Dorion Enquiry. This was ordered by The Prime Minister, when accusations of bribes being offered, were made in Parliament some months ago.

The accusations involved many in high positions in the Canadian Government and some Ministers. The Dorion Enquiry has exonerated one of the ministers, who had already changed his ministerial position to another portfolio. In the case of the Justice Minister, he was exonerated of any wrong doing, but his judgment was questioned and he has resigned the Justice Portfolio. Judge Dorion found no doubt with regard to the bribe being offered and no doubt other repercussions will follow as the Enquiry facts are further studied. Some of those involved have already been removed, while more resignations will no doubt follow. The R.C.M.P. which has hitherto stood with a high reputation in all matters handled by it, is now being severely crititcized as to its handling of the probe. Criticism centres mostly among those in the higher brackets of the force.

There is no doubt that a great deal has been brought to light by this enquiry and it behooves the Government that much overhauling be done in order to restore confidence in these high places. The R.C.M.P. enjoys a worldwide reputation for efficiency and judicious handling of all its investigations. That reputation has now been badly damaged. It would seem that only complete investigation and re-arrangement of personnel at the top, will restore the confidence it has previously enjoyed.

Mr. Pearson too, will need to take a long look at those who are working with him and some cabinet changes seem imminent if public confidence in his ability and Government is to be restored even partially. This Enquiry results will have done much more damage to the present regime than can be seen on the surface. There is evidence of laxity in so many places, that it would almost appear to amount to disinterest. This could be quite serious when matters concerning the country's well-being and welfare are at stake. Surely acts of deceit and collusion aiming to defeat justice, are serious enough to demand immediate attention. Even after the case had been brought to attention and the main person was being held in jail, laxity still persisted and he was allowed to escape. Having been alerted, extraordinary precautions should have been taken to see that this person was secure. With the probe going on and almost sure evidence that something was wrong, should have demanded there be no relaxation in security measures with regard to this important prisoner.

This is as bad a shake-up as Canada has had in many years and will require much more explanation than has already been given it.

There is no doubt that the way Mr. Pearson handles this situation, now that the facts are becoming known, will be watched keenly by everyone. If he can prove himself capable of once again building a strong cabinet of favorable ministers, he could regain some of his fallen confidence. It means he will perhaps have to be ruthless in his actions and choosing and show great determination to give the people the sort of Government they expect. If he does these things, he may win back confidence in himself and his Party. Otherwise, it could be a serious blow to prestige.

We have patiently awaited this report, hoping that it would not be as bad as it looked. Our hopes have been dashed to the ground and it is all coming out into the open as a sordid mess. Smaller and less important officials we can partially excuse, but when high officials are involved, it becomes more serious. Our pride in our country's accomplishments, in at least one of its historical institutions, has received a blow that will hurt for a long, long time. The R.C.M.P. that has stood as a symbol of Canada in all parts of the world for many years, has had its reputaion besmirched by poor handling by higher officials. This will need some deep looking into by the Government and perhaps will need some changes being made.

Maybe Drought Has Ended?

IT was a most welcome relief to find that Friday night had brought fairly heavy showers of rain to this part of the country and that they continued for part of Saturday too. Probably there were some disappointments as the rain may have marred some events in one way or another, but generally speaking everyone was happy that some rain at least had come to soak the parched ground and crops of various kinds.

It looks as if the drought is broken as the weather has been cooler since the rain and the pastures, lawns and crops are showing a difference from a week ago. It is too late to do much about the hay crop, but at least, if the moisture continues, crops now growing should have a better chance of maturing to a more satisfactory point. It will take more rainfall to keep conditions as they should be, but at least the position looks better at this time than it did a week ago.

This country has never had such a set-back as it looked like it might get, the way the weather has been shaping since spring and during some of the previous summers. We can only hope that now we have had a nice rain, that this will be followed up by several more at fairly frequent intervals to keep the moisture content in full supply. This will help the growing crops, help the water supply situation and keep the pastures growing and luscious.

We feel the farmers would heave a big sigh of relief if this happens and people with gardens will reap a better harvest also.

Larger Planes? – Larger Losses?

SOME of our readers may have noticed the announcement of a two-deck airliner being planned in Great Britain for flights between London and New York. It is reported that this airliner would carry 265 passengers and have two decks. It would be a giant new Super VC 10.It would be 204 feet which would be only 33 feet longer than the existing 180 seat version and would use the same engines, wings and tail structure. Eighty percent of the passengers would be carried on the top deck and the remainder below. A spokesman said the larger Super VC 10 would reduce passenger seat per mile cost of the present long range jet by 20 percent. The weight would be up to 370,000 pounds as compared to the present Super VC 10 which is 335,000 pounds. The latter is an enlarged version of the standard VC 10.

While travel by air has become relatively safe in these days and more and more precautions are being taken to improve safety conditions, there are still a number of accidents with large loss of life. It is not usual that many escape an air crash when it happens, as being unlike other forms of transportation. Even a ship at sea has a few lives saved and many times all are rescued before the ship sinks. There have been many disasters at sea, but these are few and far between in this age. Many of those disasters can be numbered among the desire for larger and faster forms of ships and a haste to get them into operation.

We would feel that many trials should be made with this type of new giant airliner before it is ever flown on a through journey and then it should be ballasted for weight rather than carry a live cargo. When the first flight to a destination is tried, the passengers should be volunteers and aware that adjustments may be necessary in the course of flight, or on take-off. Very careful notes of all trials should be kept, in order that the operation and action of the plane in flight can be studied. Several pilots should become efficient in the handling of the plane and make the flights in order that they too can familiarize themselves with the plane.

It must be remembered that the number of passengers has been increased from 180 to 265 and if such a plane crashes the death ratio is increased accordingly. It will mean that in the event the plane has a full load, there will be that many more lives lost. With a larger plane it's manouvreability will no doubt be harder to handle. Cheaper transportation could be a factor, but safety might also be something to consider when persons are using this method.

However, we shall be watching for this new giant plane and will be interested in its performance if it ever gets into the regular pattern of flights.

BRITISH GHOSTS AGHAST

From Britain came an unprecedented rumbling in the atmosphere.

It was made up of two things: great men turning in their graves and a vast groan of disgust and despair from several million ghosts.

If you listen carefully, you can even distinguish some of the individual voices in this continuing thunder of protest from the nether world.

Surely that rasping growl belongs to Sir Winston Churchill. Poor old chap. Barely laid to rest when something like this comes along to destroy his hard-earned peace.

Doesn't that angry bellow belong to Sir Francis Drake? Could that bull's roar of rage be anyone but Henry the Eighth?

Surely that booming of blank verse is John Milton? And wouldn't that howl of anguish be Rudyard Kipling?

There's a duet: the angry snarl of the Duke of Wellington and the outraged holler of one-eyed Horatio Nelson.

And there's a trio. It sounds much like the pontifical tones of Archbishops Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer, martyrs three.

Gruff Gladstone and dapper Disraeli, roaring protest, are in tune as they never were alive.

I'd bet money that female squeal, rising above the others, belongs to Good Queen Bess, hurtling down the halls of five centuries, as she rages, "Namesake Child! Elizabeth! How could you?"

Methinks that magnificent bell-toned baritone with the shudder in it could belong to none other than The Bard, sobbing in sorrow and frustration, "Is this a Beatle which I see before me?"

There. It's out. I knew the suspense was killing you. Yes, the great ones of Britain's glorious heritage have good reason for their celestial storm of indignation. The Beatles were awarded the M.B.E. (Member of the Order of the British Empire).

Yes, to this depth of depravity have sunk the ancestors of those giants who took on the Spanish Armada, the Pope, the French, the Germans, who clobbered natives all over the world and established peace and good trading conditions, who defied single-handed the great tyrants Napoleon and Hitler. (Well, almost single-handed).

Don't quail like that, old chap. Don't rip off your Victoria Cross or your D.S.O. and throw it in the garbage. Chin up. Have a stiff drink. You British have always been able to muddle through. You may even muddle through this one.

But it will write finis to the once-mighty British Empire. And perhaps it's best this way, after all. The Empire was shrinking like a two-dollar all-wool sweater. If you couldn't end with a bang, be satisfied with a snicker.

"COUNTRY NOTEBOOK"

BY WALKER RILEY

"Country Notebook" by Mr. Walker Riley, Agricultural Extension Specialist with Macdonald College is a weekly feature which we trust will be of interest to all in the Chateauguay Valley.

Four ground-hogs in 24 hours isn't a bad score for a ten-year-old collie. That was Danny's project for the first day back at the old farm for the summer. And if he had understood commands, such as "Number Eight hole, Danny" as well as "Groundhog", his score could have been double. But really I don't think we should count the one that fell out of the elm tree into his open mouth.

My back field in one unholy mess of twitch grass. It was ploughed last fall and disced. This spring, it was to have been sprayed with Dalapon and in August seeded to timothy for seed. But I couldn't find anyone with the right sprayer.

So on St. John Baptiste Day I went at it with the discs. I should have known better. All I accomplished was to pulverize the top of that field into a light powdery dust and to hide the twitch grass under it until the next rain washes it off.

Now what do I do? I know only two things for sure, the discs are not going back onto that field — it's a light sandy loam — and the timothy won't be seeded until that field is clean. I am in the market for a sprayer of my own.

The drought situation in Quebec and Eastern Ontario is alarming. To me, the overall feed supply looks considerably worse than last year. Some parts of the province haven't fared too badly — there's a near-normal crop around St. Hyacinthe, the Eastern Townships and the Lachute area. But parts of the Chateauguay Valley, the Lake St. John area, and Pontiac County are in a bad way.

Hay is selling in the field for as high as $1.00 a bale. This is what Keith Greig told me on the day of the Ormstown Farmers' Picnic. He, himself, was offered $20 an acre for a field that was not too heavy. Truckers from across the border are combing the back concessions already. I was surprised that day to see truck loads of cannery pea vines going south on Route No 4 to cross the border. This material costs the New York farmer $4.00 a ton delivered, a real bargain it seems to me.

There are reports that some men are pasturing all their hay fields with the full intention of selling out at the end of the season. That's a grim situation.

One emergency measure is to cut the oat crop for forage, or use it for pasture. It will be cheaper to replace the grain this winter than the hay; the grain crop is reported good out west.

Another is to plan at once to stretch the pasture season as far as possible into the fall. Top-dress the good hayfields with a high-nitrogen fertilizer. Plough up the poor ones. On the home farm, I had splendid results one year with a crop of rape; the young cattle pastured on it long after the snow fell. And against all the rules in the book, it didn't taint the milk; I limited the milk cows to a half hour on it right after milking.

A mixture of fall rye and oats is another good possibility and it's still not too late for corn. It will never mature now, of course, so variety is not important.

The use of water by plants is one place Nature seems to have got things backwards. The drier the weather, the more moisture it takes to make one pound plant material. In the dry west, it takes something like 700 tons water to make one ton alfalfa hay.

In the east, where moisture is usually more plentiful, it takes little more than 400 tons. It doesn't make sense, but that's the way it is.

Some crops, though, are more efficient in their water use than others. The millets, sorghums and corn are at the top of the list. Small grains require almost twice as much water, while legumes use almost three times as much.

For example, in one careful trial it took 361 tons water to grow one ton (dry weight) of corn, while oats took 604 tons and red clover used 759 tons.

Weeds are real water-thieves. The same water that was required to grow a ton of lambs-quarter would have grown almost two tons corn.

Fertility, too, has a real influence on water utilization. Crops that have been fertilized use less water in relation to yield. In one trial half a manured field used 323 tons water for a ton of corn (dry matter) while the other half without manure needed 463 tons.

Have you noticed how the dandelions stand out exasperatingly healthy against the background of burned pastures? They reach down into the moist soil well below the shallow-rooted grasses. Alfalfa and trefoil get their roots down there too.

25 YEARS AGO

Picnic At Athelstan

Favoured with one dry day in a week of rainy days the annual congregational picnic at Athelstan Presbyterian Church held last Friday in the beautiful maple grove of Mr. Thos. Ross was an unqualified success.

Record Low Figures Set

In past years there were from 100 to 800 cars which crossed the American frontier at Trout River Lines to journey to Malone and other points on July 1st. This year due to the newly created law forcing tourists to have in their possession passports, only six cars were admitted.

Holstein Field Day

More than 1000 people attended the Provincial Field Day of the Quebec branch of the Holstein-Friesan Association of Canada which was held Thursday morning at the Montreal Coltons Farm at Valleyfield and during the afternoon in the Valleyfield Arena.

New Speed Law

As yet there have been no serious accidents reported on the Montreal-Malone highway since the institution of the new Provincial speed law of 50 miles per hour on hard surfaced roads. A measure of this effect was one of the last to be adopted by the first session of the 21st Legislature.

It is reported that there were many Canadians in Malone, N.Y. on Saturday as well as other American points along the International border, apparently getting in their last purchasing before the new border regulations come into effect on July 1st.

Letter to the Editor

Huntingdon, Quebec
July 1st, 1965.

Dear Editor:

Do farmers have a right to drive cattle on or across the highway? Some people driving cars do not seem to think we have any right to even slow them down for a few minutes. Today we started to drive the cows across for water when a car had to stop. A woman got out of the car, drove them onto the lawn. They went through our garden and almost got into the grain field. It took at least ten minutes for three of us to get them back where they belonged. If she had waited perhaps two, or three minutes, the cows would have gone through the gate as usual.

Sometimes we have to drive them on the highway for a short distance. Many are very nice about it but some talk in a very insulting manner. The Provincial Police told us last year that we had a right to drive cows on the road as long as we were with them. When they are on the road there is always one, or two with them.

On holidays, or Sunday, we hesitate to do more than drive them across unless it is really necessary. Occasionally one will blow the horn and run them on the highway. This is dangerous, but they seem to think it is fun. I wonder how they would like to run a quarter of a mile with some one blowing a horn behind them. Apparently they think a cow should know what a horn means.

People should understand that farmers have a right to drive cattle on the road and that they should give them the right of way. It is only for a very short time.

Thank you for this chance to express our thoughts on this subject.

Sincerely,
"Farmer"

ROUND BYRE and RING

By Frank Napier

Boots and Saddle Club

While we cannot personally testify to that effect, we have been reliably informed that the Horse Show sponsored by the Boots and Saddle Four-H Club at Malone, N.Y., on July 3rd., was a decided interesting success.

As indicated by its name, this was solely a junior horseman and horsewoman event and that enabled Allan Tallon of Huntingdon to give two of his pupils a chance to show what they had learned in a horsemanship way. That is two unrelated Camerons, viz: Miss Jean Cameron of Dundee and Peter Cameron of Huntingdon. The latter, incidentally, with only a few weeks, spare time, training. However, Peter Cameron won first prize and the Trophy in the Pony Parade class, in which up to 40% of the points are awarded for manners and conformation.

Miss Cameron won two first (and trophies) a second and a third prizes in the several classes in which she rode the Tallon pony. Her first prizes were won in the English Equitation and the Pony Equitation classes, the qualifications in the latter instance being a Pony 54" and under, ridden by a boy or girl 14 years and under.

Altogether, some 40 boys and girls competed in the 23 classes with some 31 prizes and trophies being offered by Professional and Businessmen and firms in the Malone Area.

Fodder Radish

"Fodder Radish Is Catching On In Scotland", is the headline of a report in a recent issue of Farming News. "The new crop — "Rapide" fodder radish — is being widely accepted in Scotland because its unprecedented speed of growth enables it to be sown later than rape or green turnips, and at the same time produce a bulk of green crop which will still out-yield either. Also it is ready earlier for grazing by cattle or sheep.

"This new crop — introduced by Twyford Seeds Ltd. — is a member of the crucifier family (cabbage, kale, rape, etc.) and is sometimes known as Chinese Radish. It was bred by Ringo in France, where it has yielded 25 (long) tons per acre, 10 weeks after sowing, and the final choice of genetic material was made by Twyford.

"Fodder radish is in effect a triple purpose crop. It is an ideal catch crop for green feed and is eaten avidly by sheep and cattle. As a source of green manure it has proved superior to conventional catch crops.

"Fodder radish is drilled immediately after the first harvesting — ideally it should be drilled by the middle of August. Earlier sowings are not recommended because the crop can run to seed, although it is another point in its favour that even in the more advanced stages of seeding it is more palatable than any other alternate forage plant at this stage. The aim must be to sow at a time which will enable the crop to be consumed at its most palatable and nutritious stage.

"For forage purposes a seeding rate of 6-8 lb. per acre is recommended when drilled, rising to 9-12 lbs. per acre when broadcast. The crop is extremely responsive to nitrogen up to 60 units and over per acre can be profitably applied. Except where there are known deficiencies of phosphate and/or potash it should not be necessary to apply either".

In conclusion, the article says: "Whatever the season there is always enough harvest land cleared in August to allow fodder radish to be sown or broadcast. Fodder radish is without doubt the fastest growing crop yet bred, and it is estimated that a good crop of fodder radish can yield up to three to four times the dry matter of Kale, and can show twice the growth of rape thirty days after sowing".

In conclusion we might personally add: It's a pity some of that seed couldn't be tried out in this area this year, and suggest that some thought be given to experiments in that respect by another year. While we are not aware whether Kale (of the same family) has ever been grown to any extent in Canada, when Mike Bell managed the Bowater Farm of Corner Brook, Newfoundland one of his most useful fodder crops was Kale.

25th Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deery who recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. To mark the occasion a surprise family party was arranged by Mrs. Bruce Armour (Helena), Mrs. Max Boast, (Jenny) and Mrs. Charles Barr (Audrey) the two sisters and sister-in-law of Mrs. Deery. It took place at the Armour's home and 29 guests were present, all close family relations, Jenny Boast and Tom Deery from Drummondville, the bridesmaid and best man at the wedding, were present, of course. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barr, Nessie's parents, were there too. After a delicious buffet supper, Charles Barr presented the happy couple with a silver tea service and other gifts. Bruce Armour proposed the toast and Frank made a suitable reply. During the enjoyable evening which followed, the write-up of the wedding was read. Now here is a write-up of another happy occasion which Mr. and Mrs. Deery will probably add to their collection of souvenirs.

Around the Town

Miss Sophie Bychowski left this week-end by jet from Dorval for a ten-week vacation in Europe. She will make a short stay in Zurich, Switzerland, then go on to Germany for a few weeks. Flying to England she will spend three weeks touring England and Scotland then back to Germany to wind up what sounds like a most enjoyable vacation.

Congratulations to Miss Claudette Smith who graduated with distinction from the Excelsion Business College. Miss Smith has been engaged as a secretary by a firm of brokers in Montreal.

Miss Cynthia McKough, a student of Marianopolis College, has been engaged by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Hemmingford Branch, for summer replacement duties.

New Arrivals

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lucas, Jr. who are the proud parents of twin sons.

To Mr. and Mrs. David Clark who have another son, born at the Barrie Memorial Hospital on June 21st. His four-year old sister Karen looks upon him as a birthday present, her birthday is on June 21st too. He weighed 8 lbs. 7 ozs.

A week ago on Sunday, Hemmingford residents were surprised to see a plane circling the village — soundlessly. It was a large glider and it came down on the racetrack, north of the village. It was piloted by a Mr. Jonah from Hawkesbury, Ontario. It attracted quite a lot of attention, especially among the younger fry who watched most interestedly while men dismantled it and packed it on a large truck for transporting back to Ontario. Mr. Eddie Berthiaume drove Mr. Jonah back to his home.

Sorry to learn that Mr. Elmer Greer was taken to the Barrie Memorial Hospital on Saturday having suffered a heart attack earlier. At the moment he is as well as can be expected. We sincerely hope there will soon be a good improvement. This extremely humid weather does not help.

25 Years as School Commissionr

On June 7 this year, the date for the election of two commissioners for the Hemmingford Protestant School Board, the two commissioners whose term of office had expired, were re-elected by acclamation. They are Mr. Alister Somreville and Mr. Charles Barr. Mr. Barr is now serving his 4th term and Mr. Somerville is entering his 26th year on the Board. He was first elected on July 9th, 1934 and served until July 25th 1945. An attack of polio caused his withdrawal from public service for a few years but on February 28, 1951 he again took his seat as commissioner on the Protestant Board and has held office continuously since that date. He has been Chairman of the Board for the past nine years. Another Commissioner, Mr. Allen Radley, also has a long record of service. He will complete his 6th term next year, completing 18 years of service.

Hemmingford Village Council

The monthly meeting of the Hemmingford Village Council was held in the Town Hall on June 1st. Mayor Walter Smith presided, also present were Councillors Walter Keddy, Bruce Wallace and André Germain, absent were Councillors R. Tobin, R. Poissant and R. McNaughton.

A letter from the Department of Health reported the supply of water to the village is satisfactory.

A letter from Mr. Ian Watson, M.P. was read concerning the proposed readjustment of the electoral boundaries. It was resolved that this municipality give notice to the Electoral Boundaries Commission of their desire to protest the proposed new boundaries.

The mill rate was set at $1 per $100, the Dog Tax at $1 per male and $2 per female. The Water Tax to be $42 p.a. for the village and $48 to the Township municipality.

It was resolved that Regional Construction be requested to dig a new ditch from the Odell watercourse to the site of the new culvert which is being installed under the railroad.

Councillor Keddy reported that the councillors sitting on the Fire Dept. Committee had met and that a circular letter will be sent, in both languages, to all householders and residents domiciled in the village and township, asking for more co-operation and requesting greater care in the setting of grass fires. The cost of this letter is to be shared between the two municipalities.

The secretary was instructed to pay the bills presented: H. Giroux $52.60, G. Marlin $30, Keddy and Somerville (Insurance on Fire Truck) $290, Legal Liability Ins. $100, Fortin Frere $139.66, Regional Construction $7.65, Shawinigan $99.91 and $4.03, P. Simpson $8.00, Bell Telephone $26.73, Gleaner $5, Priest $101.98, K. Johnson $45.

As a start toward beautifying the area around the cenotaph and the rear of the Town Hall, it was decided to ask W. Keddy and Son to build a concrete curb from the sidewalk to a distance of approximately 120 and 125 feet at the side of the Cenotaph, that topsoil be purchased and that Vic Rugenius be engaged to spread this and make a lawn.

W. Keddy and Son be requested to install louvres in the sediment basin.

The valuators for this term are to be Leo Fortin, W. Curry and Lynwood Cookman, substitutes E. Keddy and Romain Ouimet.

Hemmingford Township Council Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Hemmingford Township Council was held in the Town Hall on Monday, June 7th. Mayor Florian Dauphinais presided. Present were Councillors D. Dame, A. Hadley, W. J. Brown and M. Bouchard.

Acting-Secretary Mrs. Roger Bouchard took the place of the secretary, Mr Roger Bouchard, who was absent owing to illness.

In a letter received from the legal advisor of Mr. J. Pawchuk, Council was asked for an exact copy of the decision given by the Rural Inspector in the division of the line fence between Mr. Pawchuk and Mr. M. Grosser. Council was of the opinion that as the decision on the division of the fence was given verbally at the site to both interested parties then no written statement is necessary. Mr. Grosser stated that his share of the fence has been built, is in good condition and ready for inspection. It was decided to ask the Rural Inspector to inspect and if that part of the fence is satisfactory to inform Mr. Pawchuk that his share must be commenced within two days and completed in two weeks.

Mr Harold Whyte requested Council to complete the fence along the Whyte Byroad, a distance of approximately 5 acres. The Rural Inspector was asked to inspect this fence, also, in reply to a letter from Mr. C. E. Berry, to inspect the fence between his property and that of Mr. Jerry Dauphinais.

The secretary was instructed to write the Electoral Boundaries Commission to the effect that a representative of Council will attend a sitting of the commission to protest the proposed electoral division of the counties.

The question of the cutting of the roadside brush and grass verges was discussed. It was decided to call for tenders for the cutting of the grass verges along the roadsides in the municipalities.

As there was no representative of this Council at the recent meeting of the Chateauguay Valley Regional Committee for Expo '67, Mrs. J. H. L'Espérance, publicist for the committee, gave Council a resumé of the discussions which took place at that meeting. The secretary was requested to forward to the committee a cheque for $25. being the amount asked by the committee, for publicity purposes from each municipality. It was also agreed that in the event of the mayor being unable to attend the next meeting, then he would appoint a councillor to attend in his place.

The secretary was authorized to pay the following bills: Secretary's salary and postage $180.40, Municipal Forms $12.-78, C. V. Regional Committee $25.

35th Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday evening, June 19, Mr. and Mrs. George Marlin were pleasantly surprised when they arrived home after picking up four of their grandchildren to find their family, neighbours and friends waiting to help them celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary. During the course of the evening cards were played and dancing was enjoyed. The house was beautifully decorated and a four-tier wedding cake centered the dining table.

Mrs. Allan Campbell made the presentation to which Mr. and Mrs. Marlin replied in a few well chosen words. For they are Jolly Good Fellows followed with everyone wishing George and Ethel many more years of happiness together.

Rockburn

Sunday School Picnic

The annual Sunday School picnic of the Rockburn Presbyterian Church was held on Monday, June 28th at the Malone Recreational Park where the teachers and children spent a pleasant day. After lunch they enjoyed swimming and various games, returning home in the late afternoon somewhat tired, but happy over the day's outing.

Mr. Clark Sloan and son John of Hestler, Ont., spent Friday night with his mother, Mrs. J. Sloan. John remained in Rockburn to spend the summer vacation with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. Williams.

Mr. Leslie Kennie, Mrs. Trainer, and Miss Cain called on friends in Hemmingford last Tuesday afternoon. They also had a visit with Mr. George Simpson who is not as well as his many friends would wish.

Everyone was most thankful for the rain of Friday night and Saturday, even though it was a trifle upsetting to the ladies holding the Food Sale on the lawn of Mrs. Trainer. However, despite the showers and confusion, people came from Huntingdon, Ormstown, Franklin, and many travelling "Highway 52", stopped for a supply of home cooking, thus making the sale a decided success, as over $85.00 was realized. The ladies are grateful to all who donated and helped in any way to make this event so successful.

Hi-C Activities

After a recess for the month of June, activities have begun again for the young people in the area under the leadership of the new student minister, Mr. Charles Carpentier. On Sunday evening, they met in the Church hall, where they made tentative plans for summer meetings. A dance in Fraser's hall, a hay ride, a barbecue were among the many suggested recreational activities.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday evening, July 14th, to which all teenagers in the community are cordially invited.

Ste. Agnes Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

(By Mrs. V. Elder)

STE. AGNES — On Saturday evening, July 3rd., the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Quenneville hosted a delightful party in the Town Hall, at Ste. Agnes, to honour their parents, who were celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Upon arrival at the hall the couple were met by their family, Mr. and Mrs. George Lefebvre, (Irene); Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Benoit, (Valma); Mr. and Mrs. Leo Quenneville; Mr. and Mrs. David Quenneville and Mrs. Eveline Mainville.

A corsage was presented to her mother by Mrs. George Lefebvre and a boutonnière to her father by Mrs. Eveline Mainville. The guests of honour then led the grand march and received congratulations from all present.

Mr. Leo Quenneville, elder son of the couple, acted very ably in his capacity as Master of Ceremonies. After speaking words of welcome to the very large assembly of relatives and friends from near and far, he called on his daughters, Miss Judy Quenneville, who read, in English and French, a congratulatory message which she afterwards presented to her grandparents.

A huge basket of beautiful cut flowers was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Quenneville by their granddaughter, Diane Quenneville, and great granddaughter, Joanne Lefebvre. A well-filled envelope conveying the good wishes of the assembled guests was presented by their grandson, André Benoit, and another grandson Robert Lefebvre presented the Guest Book to his grandparents as a lasting memento of this memorable occasion.

The decorations were carried out in gold and white, and the head table was attractively centred with the traditional wedding cake, tall white tapers and vases of summer flowers. Seated there with the guest of honour were the Rev. A. E. Hagar, Dundee's grand old man, Mayor G. H. Sutton and Mrs. Sutton, and life long friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartley, and brothers and sisters of the couple with their husbands or wives.

Rev. Mr. Hagar spoke words of wisdom and offered his personal congratulations as well as those of the gathering to Bill and Lottie for having experienced fifty years of wedded bliss.

Mayor Sutton also brought greetings from the Community and expressed the wish that we might all be back to celebrate the couples diamond anniversary.

Leo then called his dad to the platform to say a few words. Bill thanked everyone for coming and said that of all the experiences in his life that this was one of the highlights, and words failed to express what he felt in his heart. He spoke glowingly of his family, and the efforts which they had put forth to sponsor such an event. Bill's remarks were quite witty and gave his listeners several hearty chuckles.

Lottie, who looked very charming also spoke a few words of thanks to everyone.

Leo then invited all to enjoy a buffet-style lunch.

Dancing to the Wilsonaires was enjoyed during the evening.

And so, another milestone has been reached in the lives of a local couple, and we are very confident that Bill and Lottie enjoyed the evening to the full, and that it will be one of the most memorable in their Book of Memories.

EGLISE ST-JOSEPH — HUNTINGDON

Liturgie: STE-ANNE — Neuvaine — 17 à 26 juillet
Mère de la Bienheureuse Vierge Marie
Patronne de la Province de Québec.
Anne, grand'mère du Fils de Dieu, providentiellement insérée dans la tradition et dans la préparation messianique; Anne, première annonce immédiate de l'Incarnation; Anne, fournisseuse au Verbe incarné; Jésus et Marie, postérité d'Anne et de Joachim. Quels liens d'auguste et d'ineffable parenté. Quel lien pour le salut d'un monde converti. Quelle hiérarchie de médiation et d'intercession.

Le fondement de ma dévotion à la bonne sainte Anne, je le trouve dans ces liens qui la rattache à la corédemptrice et au Rédempteur du monde. Elle est la mère de Marie, médiatrice de toute grâce; elle est l'aïeule de Jésus, source de toute grâce. La puissance, non moins que l'honneur d'un fils, rejaillit sur ses parents. Ceux-ci paticipent à son influence comme à sa gloire

Liturgy: Teenagers in Control Every teen-agers must learn that success is not determined by the amount of money made or work done during this period of time. Nor will the number of parties attended or your popularity among your friends add one ounce of weight to the success of your summer. Then, what does count? A total dedication of yourself. To whom? To God: since many teen-agers are surrounded by ample leisure during these two months, it is most fitting that God be given more than what the Church regularly requires. To neighbour: occupied with many activities, and perhaps even energetic to a point of confusion, teen agers often forget their neighbours, especially those who no longer have sufficient strength to live a normal life. Summer time is an opportune time to direct your young strength toward your neighbours. To yourself: your own responsibilities lie heavily on your shoulders. Summer time is not a time to ignore your own development but a chance to improve yourself spiritually mentally, morally, and physically.

Mlle Christiane Marcil, nièce du jubilaire, qui lut l'adresse en français pendant le banquet marquant le 25ème anniversaire du curé de la paroisse St-Patrice de Hinchinbrooke, M. l'abbé Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil.

Un grand banquet marquait dimanche le 25ème anniversaire de prêtrise de M. l'abbé Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil

Un grand banquet, tenu dimanche le 27 juin au Chateau Huntingdon, a marqué le 25e anniversaire de prêtrise de M. l'abbé Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil, curé de la paroisse St-Patrice de Hinchinbrooke. Près de 300 paroissiens et amis assistaient au banquet qui était organisé par le Comité des Fêtes Paroissiales de St-Patrice de Hinchinbrooke, dont M. Donald N. Racine était le Président. On remarquait entr'autres la présence de Mgr Percival Caza, Administrateur Apostolique du diocèse. Suit le texte de l'adresse de Mlle Marcil.

Monsieur l'abbé Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil, curé de Saint-Patrice de Hinchinbrooke,
Monsieur le curé,

Il s'en est fallu de fort peu que nous n'avons pas, aujourd'hui, cette fête du 25e anniversaire de votre ordination sacerdotale. Nous en aurions été profondément chagrinés. De ces 25 ans, nous avons eu le bénéfice de 23. Quand on sait que le prêtre est un autre Christ, nous ne nous serions pas consolés de ne pas, avec vous et vos confrères, remercier Dieu des bienfaits qu'Il vous a octroyés.

Autre Christ, vous l'avez été pour nous, par la tête, par le coeur et par la parole.

La tête. Par vos études classiques, pendant huit années, vous avez appris à connaître l'homme et pendant quatre années, vous avez fréquenté la théologie ou la science de Dieu et les matières qui intéressent la connaissance de l'Eglise qui mène à Dieu. Le jugement s'est affiné et la connaissance de l'homme en marche vers son salut s'est affermie. Il sait distinguer entre les raisons de l'intelligence et celles du coeur. Son jugement habitué à la droiture le rend apte à un ministère fructueux pour les âmes.

Le coeur. Autre Christ, il a comme Lui un coeur qui sait compatir, et guérir, s'il n'a pas comme Jésus le pouvoir de faire des miracles. Homme de coeur, il sait trouver les paroles ou les conseils qui guérissent ou consolent et remettent dans le droit chemin du salut. Quelles que soient les difficultés ou les impasses, le coeur du curé saura toujours ou au moins parfois, trouver la solution à nos problèmes et à nos situations.

La parole. Le curé prêche la parole de vie surnaturelle et parfois il a le devoir d'être sévère. Son coeur en souffre en certaines circonstances, mais lui aussi a des devoirs à remplir et une âme à sauver.

Tel est le portrait que nous faisons de vous, et nous sommes heureux de vous le dire en ce joyeux anniversaire.

Nous vous prions de recevoir nos recpectueux hommages en ce beau jour de fête de joie fraternelle. Nous formons le voeu que Dieu vous garde encore de longues années sur la terre pour qu'un jour vous goûtiez non pas une fête d'argent, mais une fête d'or. Nous sommes très heureux de nous joindre aujourd'hui à votre Te Deum d'actions de grâces et souhaitons que les jeunes de votre paroisse seront nombreux, si vous nous quittez pour ailleurs, d'aller alors vous serrer la main et vous rappeler notre joyeuse fête d'aujourd'hui.

Les paroissiens de Saint-Patrice de Hinchinbrooke, 27 juin 1965.

Environ 75 personnes étaient présentes et plusieurs cadeaux furent présentés à la future mariée. Les tables avaient été décorées en forme de A par M. Léo Corneau, chef cuisinier au Chateau, et Mme Corneau. Claudette Laurin lut l'adresse et des fleurs furent présentées par Joanne Corneau. La pianiste était Mme Legault de Ste-Barbe. Le shower avait été organisé par Gisèle Laurin, Lucille Dumouchel et Rachel Legault. Le mariage de Mlle Andrée Tessier à M. Richard Carrière aura lieu le 31 juillet.

Les ski-boats en vedette aux Régates Internationales de Valleyfield les 17 et 18 juillet prochains

Pour la 27ème année consécutive, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield présentera ses Régates Internationales les 17 et 18 juillet prochains sur la baie St-François.

Pour une autre année, les meilleurs coureurs du Canada et des Etats-Unis participeront à cet événement, un des plus haut cotés dans le domaine nautique au Canada.

Cette année, une nouvelle classe a été ouverte pour les besoins de la cause. En fait, la classe SK (Ski-Boat) sera à l'honneur à Salaberry de Valleyfield lors de cette fin de semaine de juillet. Placé en face des demandes pressantes des Américains, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield a acquiescé à leurs demandes; ce sera une des premières fois qu'une telle course se tiendra au Canada. Le sportsman millionnaire de Rimouski, Aubert Brillant, sera de la partie avec son "Golden Canadiana", un Ski-Boat et on peut être assuré qu'il donnera du fil à retordre aux américains.

Comme par les années passées, différentes classes de motogodilles et de canots-automobiles seront au programme de ces deux journées.

Les Régates Internationales de Valleyfield sont sanctionnées par la Canadian Boating Federation et la American Power Boat Association et se font sous les auspices du Club Nautique de Valleyfield Inc.

Tous les records qui peuvent être battus ou égalés aux Régates Internationales sont officiellement reconnus par ces deux associations étant donné que le parcours est officiel. Douze trophées seront présentés cette année avec des bourses totalisant $3,500. et plus.

C'est un spectacle qu'il ne faut pas manquer et on peut dire que Les Régates Internationales de Valleyfield sont les plus importantes en Amérique du Nord. Vous pouvez vous assurer que la chose est vraie en venant à Salaberry de Valleyfield, la "Venise du Québec" les 17 et 18 juillet prochains.

C'est une invitation personnelle de la Reine des Régates, Mlle Rachel Mercier.

Juillet et août - Vacances

Le sens des vacances

Ce sujet des vacances intéresse tout le monde. La joie de vivre, de connaître le grand air, les excursions de par les montagnes et les vallées, cela appartient en grande partie à notre catholicisme. Notre Seigneur nous a apporté la joie de vivre. Ce contact que vous prendrez avec la nature devra être formateur. Ces vacances devront être pour Dieu. Le repos que vous allez prendre est divin, il est voulu de Dieu, Notre-Seigneur nous en a donné un exemple bien vivant. Un jour, il a rencontré la Samaritaine. Il s'était assis sur la margelle du puits parce qu'Il était fatigué. Il se reposait mais Il attendait une âme...Après la Résurrection, les apôtres, qui sont à la pêche s'aperçoivent que, sur le bord du rivage, il y a un homme. Pierre se dirige vers la grève et que voit-il?... Le Maître qui venait de préparer un repas.

Dieu s'est reposé après nous avoir créés. Et l'Eglise chantera sur nos derniers moments: "Que le repos éternel soit ton dernier partage". "Tout le problème religieux reste greffé sur ce qui doit refaire nos forces spirituelles, physiques et morales. Plusieurs profiteront des vacances pour prendre contact avec le grand livre de la nature. Il faudrait vous habituer à voir le beau dans tous ces spectacles ravissants. Tous ceux qui auront connu ces joies pourront dire avec le psalmiste: "Les cieux racontent vos louanges, Seigneur. "N'oubliez pas que le mérite de votre action ne vient continuellement du sacrifice des choses créées. Mais parce que vous avez cette vie de foi et d'espérance dans votre âme, le mérite vient du bon usage que vous faites de toutes ces choses que Dieu a mises à votre disposition. Intégrez-vous dons votre milieu comme du levain dans la pâte. Dans les moindres détails et les moindres contacts, que vous aurez avec les personnes que vous rencontrerez, puissiez-vous garder cet esprit profondément apostolique. Si vous ne faites rien, durant les vacances pour les autres, vous pourrez dire que vous n'aurez absolument rien fait pour vous-mêmes. Je présume que vos vacances seront pour Dieu. Et alors, de votre coeur monteront des chants d'action de grâce. Il faut se reposer, non pas pour le repos, mais pour mieux travailler.

Je souhaite que vos vacances puissent faire monter de votre coeur une action de grâce constante, mais aussi un état de grâce qui ne se démentira jamais.

Des terrains de jeux pour les jeunes

La période des vacances vient de débuter. Le Comité des Loisirs y pense depuis plus d'un mois, et après maintes réflexions, il a décidé d'entreprendre, encore cette année, six semaines de terrain de jeux, ça veut dire quoi?

C'est-à-dire un après-midi par jour (environ 1 h. à 4 h.) cinq jours par semaine.

Qu'y aura-t-il? de la variété: au lac pour le bain deux après-midi par semaine, des jeux d'équipes, des olympiades, du folklore, du cinéma, des excursions. En un mot toutes sortes de bonnes choses où les jeunes pourront mettre leurs aptitudes sportives à l'épreuve.

Qui conduira cela? Une équipe jeune et dynamique, prête à compter sur la collaboration et la tenacité des jeunes participants et des moins jeunes, c'est-à-dire les parents, les adultes, la commission scolaire, le conseil de ville et de paroisse, ainsi que le clergé et les associations de tous genres et les clubs sociaux.

A quel endroit auront lieu ces Terrains de Jeux, dans les cours des écoles Notre-Dame et St-Joseph. Comme par le passé on compte sur l'aide de la Commission Scolaire pour aider à maintenir nos jeunes dans un corps et un esprit sain.

Quoi faire devant de telles possibilités? Collaborer, suggérer aux jeunes de se complaire aux Terrains de Jeux. Enfin, que les jeunes y apportent suggestions, intérêt, participation active, tout le monde sera content, et les jeunes passeront des vacances enrichissantes.

Bonne chance!

M. G.

Hemmingford

Mariage Picard—Poissant

Le mariage de Jocelyne, fille de M. et Mme Israel Poissant de Hemmingford et de M. Gérard Picard, fils de M. et Mme Rosario Picard de St-Stanislas de Kostka, a eu lieu en l'église St-Romain de Hemmingford samedi le 15 mai. Le Chanoine L. Corriveau a célébré la messe nuptiale et Mme Walter Smith, Mme Gérald Ouimet et Mme Marcel Fortin exécutèrent le chant de circonstance, accompagnées à l'orgue par Mme J.H. L'Espérance.

La mariée portait une robe d'organza blanc sur soie cordée, le corsage ajusté avec décolleté sabrina portant manches longues, des appliqués de dentelle décorant la jupe. Le voile descendant sur les épaules était tenu par une couronne de dentelle sertie de perles cultivées. Elle portait une mince chaine ornée d'une perle cultivée, avec boucles d'oreilles assorties et un bouquet en cascade d'oeillets rouges.

La petite bouquetière, Solange Poissant, soeur de la mariée, portait une robe ballerine de chiffon mauve et tenait un bouquet colonial de roses crème et de muguet.

Mme Poissan, la mère de la mariée, portait une robe de dentelle bleue, des accessoires noirs et un corsage d'oeillets blancs. Mme Picard, la mère du marié, portait une robe de dentelle beige, des accessoires blancs et un corsage d'oeillets blancs.

Les placiers étaient M. Claude Poissant, frère de la mariée, et M. Roland Picard, frère du marié.

La réception, où étaient conviés 150 invités, eut lieu au Frontier Inn. Après un après-midi agréable, l'heureux couple partit en voyage pour la Gaspésie. M. et Mme Picard demeureront à St-Stanislas de Kostka.

Partir en vacances, c'est bien revenir, c'est mieux

Quel plaisir de se promener! Quelles joies de voyager! Et, quel bonheur de quitter la ville durant les vacances d'été! Mais, quel dommage lorsque tout cela est assombri par un accident!

Nous espérons que chacun de vous conservera les trois premiers "Quel" mais, que le dernier n'existera pas. Il y a de bonnes chances qu'il en soit ainsi si vous vous préparez comme il le faut, si la température vous est clémente, si vous êtes disposés à bien vous amuser, et si vous suivez le conseil du président de la Ligue de Sécurité du Québec, M. Antonio Rainville.

Ayez une voiture en bonne condition soyez en pleine forme et éveillés au volant en ne devançant pas votre horaire augmentant ainsi la part de chance; conduisez prudemment, comme un chauffeur professionnel, en laissant par exemple une bonne distance entre vous et le véhicule qui vous précède; en dépassant seulement avec une extrême prudence; en surveillant les situations inusitées; en obéissant aux règlements; en prévoyant à l'avance les mouvements des autres conducteurs.

Si vous nous envoyez des nouvelles lorsque vous êtes au loin, nous espérons ne pas avoir à imprimer une histoire triste à votre sujet, au sujet de votre famille et de vos amis. Bien sincèrement, on vous souhaite de partir en vacances et de revenir sains et saufs.

Pour reconditionner le fer forgé

Il est facile de remettre à neuf le fer forgé si vous suivez ces quelques conseils. D'abord, nettoyez-le soigneusement. Sablez ensuite tous les dépôts de rouille. Appliquez ensuite sur les endroits où le métal est à nu une couche d'un bon enduit pour métal tel que le chromate de zinc. Laissez sécher les endroits où vous avez appliqué l'enduit de base et appliquez alors un émail de qualité.
