Reddy Hospital Receives $20,000 Federal Grant

The federal government has just approved grants under the national health plan to assist eight hospitals in Quebec to meet the costs of increasing their capacity by 882 beds, National Health Minister Paul Martin disclosed recently.

Institutions receiving the federal aid are the Herbert Reddy Memorial Hospital, Westmount; St. Joseph's Hospital, La Tuque; Providence Hospital, Chandler; Hotel Dieu d'Amos, Amos; Notre Dame de Ste. Croix Hospital, Mont Laurier; St. Theresa's Hospital, Shawinigan Falls; and two sanatoria at Lake Edward and Gaspé.

Five of the grants are for additions to or changes in existing hospitals, Mr. Martin said.

An extension to the Herbert Reddy Memorial Hospital will provide a net gain of 20 beds, bringing this institution's capacity to 150. About $20,000 in federal funds have been set aside for this project.

Largest single grant, $322,693, goes to the Gaspé Sanatorium, a new hospital now being built to provide nearly 300 beds for the care of tuberculosis patients from Gaspé and Bonaventure Counties and the Lower St. Lawrence area.

CANDIDACY ANNOUNCED

Edward Lamontagne has announced his intention of seeking nomination as a candidate in the forthcoming federal elections. He will run in the St. Antoine-Westmount riding.

Capture Minds of World and Win Cold War, Professor Tells Rotary

"The bloc that captures the minds of the world is surely going to be victorious in the 'cold war' for there is the same religious fanaticism today that there was in the Religious Wars," Professor B. S. Keirstead stated Wednesday when speaking at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club of Westmount held in Victoria Hall. Professor Keirstead was speaking on "Some Aspects of the Cold War."

He termed our defensive warfare at home as being "not very successful." The western powers have scored some propaganda successes, he continued, as is evidenced by the fact that the Russians have had to "jam" the air when American broadcasts are being beamed to their country but he said that as far as he knew the Communists did not consider this necessary concerning Canadian broadcasts.

The Professor described the infiltration tactics used by the Russians, that is, gaining control of key executive positions, and said that they are a well-disciplined organization intelligently led. He asserted that we have not met the situation very well, mostly because we have allowed ourselves to become scared.

"We should not be afraid, because the Communists are too few in number," he said. "They have no appeal in comparison with the traditions of our country. The democratic record is one of continual betterment."

"We should meet the Communists in terms of our strength," he continued, "Play the game our way, not theirs. The Romans tried to repress Christianity but found it didn't work. No attempt at repression is ever successful."

Professor Keirstead then recounted what he thought was a good formula for success. "Take them lightly," he said. "Ridicule the danger until there is no danger."

Describing the Russian propaganda line, he stated that their idea is to take a few facts, make them fit into their line and then use them. He mentioned the recent use of force by police in strike issues. He said that there might be some truth in the idea that we have become so scared of Communists that we are forsaking some of our own tradition — using a minimum of force at all times.

Westmounter Chosen

Sheila Boland To Lead Beautification Campaign

Westmount is one of seven surrounding municipalities which are co-operating in the drive against dirt.

The campaign, which opens next Monday, will start off with a meeting at the City Hall to be followed by a luncheon given by the City Improvement League at which Dr. R. P. Vivian, chairman of the Department of Health and Social Medicine at McGill, will be the speaker.

One of the highlights of the campaign will be the Beautification Parade on Saturday May 21. The parade promises to be one of the finest Montreal — a city of parades — has seen. Represented in the parade will be numerous floats entered by public and commercial interests; seven bands, including the famous Black Watch pipe band; and 20 open flower-bedecked cars containing 80 girls, symbolic of beautification.

Also included in the parade will be detachments from police, fire and other civic departments and the three branches of the armed services.

One of the main objects of the campaign is to instill a desire for a clean and beautiful city in the minds of young boys and girls. To this end the parade will include a detachment, 500 strong, from the police Juvenile Club under Captain Ovila Pelletier.

Youth Makes Vain Attempt To Halt Runaway Horse On St. Catherine St.

Mrs. Charles Bassett, of 4511 St. Catherine street west, suffered shock and cuts on her forehead and hands in an accident on Wednesday afternoon when the car in which she was a passenger, and driven by her husband, was struck by a runaway horse pulling a city garbage wagon.

A vain attempt was made by 15-year-old Dougie Kerr, of 67 Hollowell avenue, to halt the frightened animal and Westmount police report that he suffered a slightly bruised ankle for his trouble.

According to young Dougie, he was sitting on the stairs of his house after school when he saw the runaway and went out to meet it. Having succeeded in stopping it, he released the reins for a second so that he might get a better grip on them. The horse immediately started up again, running north on Hollowell towards St. Catherine street.

Dougie managed to board the cart but had only one rein in his hand, the other one dragging on the ground. His attempts to halt the cart's progress were heroic but unavailing.

Rounding the corner of St. Catherine, Dougie said the horse literally tried to climb all over Mr. Bassett's auto which was proceeding east, completely demolishing the roof. Dougie was thrown into the air and landed on the road, shaken up but unhurt except for his ankle.

Mrs. Bassett was taken to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital and detained for observation. The horse ended up with a cut back leg while the shafts and harness of the cart were broken.

By REG. GROOME

From time to time, your reporter receives letters through His Majesty's Royal Mail which often do no credit to their writers. A few months back, we published one of these letters and, this week, we publish another such letter from the same writer. Readers may be interested in our comments which follow the "letter".

"To Reg. Groome:—If it is still your custom to insert information re St. Augustine's Troop in your column, you might include the following: (1) The Juniors recently took on the Navy League in floor hockey and, against an overwhelmingly larger team, won 6-5. Steve Berry picked up 5 of our goals. (2) The Juniors, with myself on defence, took the Navy League Seniors (no less) 20-13 last Thursday night on the N.L.'s floor. Steve Berry again got 5, as did John Ala.

"(3) The Old Boys with the Troop Seniors take on Wesley Seniors again next Monday night in D. O'Connell Hall. (You are invited, broom, and, so help me, if you don't give us a decent write-up when we win, I'll hang your big fat neck from the highest pinnacle of the Sun Life Bldg.—PUBLICLY). This is the last game of this series. Three games have been played over the last year or so; Wesley took the last one 13-5, and we took the first two. There will certainly not be a repetition of the 13-5 score—our excuses for that one are many, varied and all valid. Let us have no more of this "Naturally Wesley won" stuff.

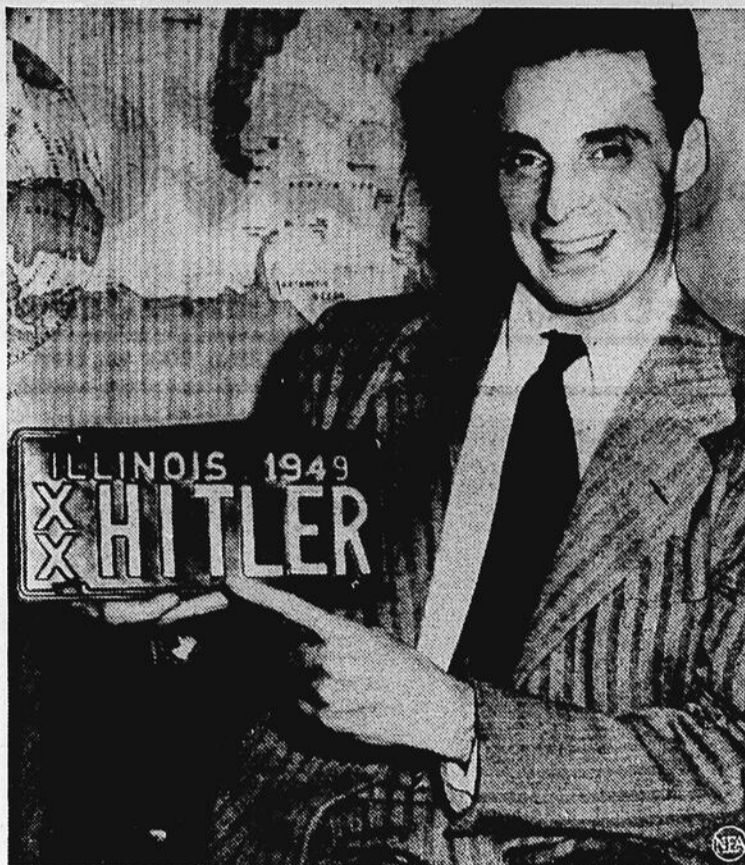

"Your column is supposedly unbiased. Whatever your opinion of me or anyone else in the Troop might be, it should not be reflected in your reference to the Troop in the column. It is hard explaining that sort of thing to the fellas. Though I rarely, if ever, read The Monitor, apparently others do and it has come to me more than once that the Troop is being misrepresented. The trouble is not in the lack of information (which is most certainly my fault), but in the mode in which the given information is presented. I'll give you information of the fellas in the Troop for next week."

Yours,
LARRY DOHERTY.

In answer to Mr. Doherty's remarks, we offer the following comments:—For seven and one-half years, it has been this reporter's custom to insert information about any and all west-end Scout and Cub units, with no favouritism. All news submitted to us was given as much prominence as space permitted. We are pleased indeed to see how well the St. Augustine's Juniors are doing, and wish the combined Old Boys and Troop Seniors team the best of luck in their forthcoming floor hockey game with Wesley Seniors next Monday. We are very gratified that Mr. Doherty has seen fit to invite us to attend this game, and promise him all the publicity he is entitled to, should his team win.

As to the "threatening" remarks Mr. Doherty has seen fit to indulge in, we can only say that St. Augustine's excuses for losing their last game may be many, varied, and all valid, but excuses never have and never will win a game in any sport.

Christopher Janus will cause some raised eyebrows with this license plate, with the letters H-I-T-L-E-R on it. Janus, a Chicago importer, owns Adolf Hitler's five-ton armored Mercedes-Benz limousine, and decided he should have a distinctive tag to go with it.

STOP THE PRESSES

In the back pocket of my dirty brown suit it is my custom to carry a rather scarred, rather unkempt, rather unpleasant looking notebook. Most of the time this little packet of poorly put together paper rests in undisturbed comfort. Occasionally, (or should it be rarely?), a thought seeps through the hard outer core into what the scientifically minded laughingly refer to as my brain. When that happens, my notebook comes out of its pocket, (provided I am wearing my dirty brown suit at the time), and the thought is duly recorded under the heading: NOTES FOR THE PILLAR.

This week I sat down at this battered wreck of a typewriter that reposes in the Examiner editorial department with absolutely no idea of what was going to happen in The Pillar of May 13, 1949. After mulling over the thought that the editorial department gets the typewriters which composing room novices (Tom Maltby, please note) use for taking apart and putting together exercises, and deciding that that theme was not worthy of being included in a Pillar, I hesitantly glanced at the color of my suit and then fetched out the little notebook.

The Pillar for May 13. That was the heading. Under it was one solitary little notation: Julius Caesar was an epileptic. Now there is news for you. (And to think that most people who are perusing this do so for absolutely nothing!) It's news you are not likely to find anywhere else. But then, one must have his scoops, and they must contain something a little more zestful than ice cream, if one is to continue in this news-gathering profession.

So Julius Caesar was an epileptic. So I am not. So does that mean if I want to conquer Gaul and write histories about dividing it into three parts, and cast dies, and cross Rubicons, and become a big boss, and to be stabbed by a dirty bunch of doublecrossers, including my old pal Brutus, I too should contract epilepsy? So if it does, I prefer to remain stupid and not have epilepsy. I am telling you that Julius may have had his fun, but the day that Brutus and his pals mistook him for a pin cushion was not one of those days. He should have stood in bed.

Now, at this point, I wish to lodge a complaint against the dead languages department of Westmount High, junior and senior. For five years I pored over the works of such Latin authors as Joe Virgil, Sam Horace, and Julius Caesar. But did I ever learn from Mr. Snyder or Mr. Lawley that Caesar was an epileptic? I did not. That bit of information I am forced to pick up in these, my declining, years. I want my fees back.

And so, to conclude this deathless bit of prose, I leave you with but a single thought: Julius Caesar was an epileptic.

If you're willing to admit you're all wrong when you are, you're all right.

Tonight is the night for that softball game. The time is 6.45 p.m. and the place is King George Park at the top of the hill. All members both men and ladies will be there to get into the swing of things. Some of the league players were out on Wednesday at the N.D.G. The fact still remains that they were beaten and, indeed, very soundly beaten. This column always has and always will remain unbiased as far as factual reporting of news goes. However, being a column, opinions are often expressed, which are necessarily those of the writer. In this case, though, no opinions were expressed.

Mr. Doherty, who acknowledges he never reads The Monitor, should not place any faith in heresy evidence . . . rather, he should get concrete facts for himself. If St. Augustine's Troop has ever been misrepresented in this column, let us see the clippings to prove it, and we will promptly rectify any errors in representation. We trust this matter is now closed permanently. R.K.G.

If you want to cool off before the dance, the swimming pool is open for mixed swimming at 9.30 p.m.

The nine tables of Bridge which were played on Monday night are a very good sign that this activity will be going on for a long while. Why don't you come and join us on Monday night at 8 p.m.? There will be room for more tables.

Bob McEwen produced a good selection of Folk Songs and Ballads at the last Music Appreciation Group evening. They led to active group participation by some of the members. Next Thursday, May 19, Lorne Hunter will present a concert on records at 8.15 p.m.

The next week should see more and more of our summer program coming into its own. With the changeable weather still a problem, every effort will be made to have an alternative program lined up. Remember—you can always be sure of a good swim in the pool.

No Antenna For Television In Residential Areas

The Westmount City Council, never the ones to be caught napping, are still looking to the future. At their last session, the Council gave reading to a new by-law whereby residential districts in the city will be protected from having television or radio transmitting antenna or relay stations in their midst. This includes districts A, B, C, D, and E (residential districts) but district F (a commercial building district) is not affected.

The new by-law will read "In districts A, B, C, D, and E, no mast tower, pylon or building or other structure or building shall be established, either separately or in addition to any other structure or building, for use or operation as a transmitting antenna or relaying station in connection with the broadcasting or television system of any commercial enterprise."

Permission was granted at the meeting to the Veterans' Taxi Owners' Association to operate a stand with 25 taxis on Victoria avenue between St. Catherine street and York, also for 24 cars on the property of the C.P.R. at Westmount Station.

Band Concerts were again authorized for the summer and the most likely date for the first concert is announced as June 27. Ten concerts will be given and the last will be on August 29.

Red Feather Rambling

Members of the Unity Boys' Club an affiliate of the Red Feather Montreal Boys' Association, are busy praising members of the club's midget basketball team which recently captured the M.B.A. Championship, winning a best-of-three series 2-lover the 79th Battery Cadet Corps Boys' Club. The Unity championship team is composed of John Reddon, Pat Baker, Douglas Mariasine, Pat Craig, Gilmore Beasant, John Smith, Ray Beaton, Ray Boxer and Bob Kercher. The recent crafts exhibition was a grand success, and now that the excitement is over, the boys and girls have settled down to the regular program of activities. Craft Classes will continue throughout the month of May, and Gymnasium activities will continue under the supervision of Dennis Ellerbeck. Ned Mahon, the club's swimming instructor, is continuing the Wednesday evening instruction periods at the Westmount "Y" pool.

Plans are being pushed at the Central Office of the M.B.A. for the opening of Camp Lewis near St. Adolphe de Howard in the Laurentian mountains. There's a holiday waiting for every boy at Camp Lewis, and those who are interested are invited to apply through the Unity Boys' Club or else at the Association's office. There is no distinction as to race, creed or color, and special provision will be made for any boy unable to pay the nominal camp fees.

Dr. Baruch Silverman, director of the Mental Hygiene Institute, a Red Feather Service, says

Canada is in the forefront of all nations of the world with regard to the per capita expenditure on disease control and health promotion, and notes that a proportional share is going to mental disease control and prevention. He adds that limited facilities at the Institute, and insufficient personnel, prevent adequate service, for the ever-increasing number who require assistance, with the result that the mental health of many is jeopardized by this lack.

The now familiar Red Feather which has graced the south-west corner of the Forum building for a number of years is about to disappear, with Welfare Federation and its Red Feather Services on the move to new quarters. Federation has occupied the Forum premises for almost a quarter-century, but because of a program of expansion at the Forum, the location is no longer available. Expansion of the seating capacity at the Forum by some 3,000 seats will cut into the available space in the present location, and temporary quarters have been obtained in the Rosenthal building at 265 Craig street west, near Bleury.

Members of the Budget and Building Committees of Federation now are studying ways and means of providing long-term accommodation which will insure against further emergency moves, particularly at a time when preparations for the annual Red Feather Campaign are underway.

Red Feather Services which will be located at the new premises are the Montreal Boys' Association, Society for the Protection of Women and Children, the John Howard Society, the Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Association, and the Montreal Council of Social Agencies with its Social Service Index. The Child Health Association will remain at the Forum Building for a few weeks, pending the location of suitable quarters.

Charles H. Young, Federation's executive director, praised the co-operation and assistance given by Forum officials since 1925 when Federation, then known as Financial Federation, moved into the quarters.

BURMA

With the birth of the new Burmese nation this year, the YMCA became a distinct national movement. The country's outstanding authority in physical education became the first Burmese general secretary, and a new spirit of oneness emerged in a revitalized membership. The YMCA now maintains 2 buildings in Rangoon: one a hostel for young men, the other a regular city Association in the downtown area.

Membership reached 700 in 1948 and at least 2,000 people were served each month. At the request of the government, a YMCA Army Center was opened late in the year in Mingaladon, with the Prime Minister Thakin Nu making the inaugural address.

Burma is essentially a "one city" country with Rangoon the hub of the nation. The YMCA is developing into the outstanding organization for boys and young men in this city. With young people in the driver's seat in these first days of the Burmese Republic, the YMCA is in a strategic position to make its Christian and democratizing ideals count.

The Y stands in especially high regard for its work in relieving communal tensions inherent in the large concentrations of various non-Burmese groups in Rangoon. The Y has also been a brake on juvenile delinquency.

Camping Dividends

By ROY D. LOCKE

This is the last in a series of six articles on camping written by Mr. Roy Locke, Executive Director of Y.M.C.A. Camp Kanawana and Y.M.C.A. Camp Perrot. Several requests have been made for copies of these articles. They may be obtained by writing Mr. Locke at Y.M.C.A., 1441 Drummond St.

This article will make a few suggestions on things to watch for after your son or daughter returns from camp. Sending your child to camp requires a considerable amount of money. Like any other investment steps should be taken to get the utmost value from it. When your youngster returns from camp take advantage of his enthusiasm to get better acquainted. Encourage him to tell of his adventures, friendships, and achievements. Many youngsters will not "open up" unless we phrase our questions carefully. If you have found that the experience was beneficial to him, try to build up a desire to return to camp.

You may observe some changes in your son or daughter. However, do not be too discouraged if your highest expectations are not reached. If a boy is only at camp for two or three weeks we cannot expect the same results as though he was there for a longer period. Improvements will be first observed in his skills, i.e. swimming, canoeing and so on. However try to see if he has improved his techniques of social adjustment. Has he learned to get along with his friends any better? He has been on his own perhaps for the first time. He has had to take care of his own clothes and belongings.

Here we should watch for improvement in habit formations. If he has learned to make his own bed and to tidy his own clothes, why not let him do this at home instead of "suffocating" him with too much kindness. He probably has learned to enjoy singing and good music to a greater degree than formerly. Music has a very important part in most camps. If he has started any hobbies at camp it would be very worthwhile to encourage him to continue this. If he is not sure where to get supplies try to help him in this regard. Your Camp Director would be helpful here. He will have met new friends at camp. Many parents help their son or daughter plan a reunion of his tent mates and counsellor a month or so after their return. Welcome these camp friends. They shared many experiences with him and may have been very influential in his or her young life.

Health Dividends

A good camping experience invariably means dividends in terms of health. There are two factors about which I would like to caution you. Firstly, although good camps make a conscientious effort to provide adequate food and rest, it must be remembered that the very nature of a camping experience is an active one. In some children there may be some loss of weight. This is not necessarily a very serious item, and you can correct it very quickly. Secondly, they may also require a great deal of sleep on their return home. We must remember that the night before the children come home is usually very exciting period for them, and they do not sleep very well. Many of the trains down from camp leave early in the morning, and again they lose some sleep. Then we must remember that there is a natural let-down following any stimulating experience.

The foregoing does not mean that they should come home run down. Well supervised camps would guard against this. I am only suggesting here that there may be a short term need for extra sleep.

Where Boys Learn

Finally let me again say that camp is one of the finest places for a lad to learn to "stand on his own two feet". Try to recognize his increased maturity. Let him realize that he has grown.

Your camp is eager to improve. The Director probably plans year-around to make his camp the best possible. As an outcome of your child's experience, if you had any constructive suggestions to make to the Camp Management, I know that this would be very helpful and well received.

20 Years Without An Accident

Safety Record Recognized By Bell

From March 6, 1929 to March 6, 1949, employees of the Bell Telephone Company's plant department in the west district, Montreal, carried out their tasks without incurring a single injury causing loss of time.

Monday evening, 300 employees in the district were guests at a banquet at Victoria Hall, Westmount, tendered by the company to honour the achievement of 20 years of safe working.

G. S. Ridout, general plant manager, said that such a safety record is not a matter of chance or luck, but is due to foresight, the observance of safe practices, and adequate training.

Many who could not be present at the banquet had worked in the west district, at some time during the 20 years in question, and they had helped to achieve the enviable record, Mr. Ridout said. There were 38, however, who had worked in the district for the entire 20 years and they were happily able to attend the celebration of the achievement in which they had all played a part.

"The safety job must be made a personal matter for each individual," Mr. Ridout said. "It requires that individuals recognize potential dangers in their work, adopt safe methods in order to avoid those dangers, and maintain a live interest in safety."

West End Workers

Other speakers who delivered brief messages to the gathering were J. H. Brace, vice-president, D. W. Ferrier, general manager, L. G. Buck, division plant superintendent, C. E. Ricketts, safety supervisor, G. P. Quinn, installation foreman, J. W. C. Robillard, tester and G. Tees, youngest employee in the district.

Charles Foster, district chairman of the Canadian Telephone Employees' Association, replied on behalf of the employees to the messages of congratulation. W. R. Pritchard, district plant superintendent, was chairman of the banquet.

The 38 employees attending the banquet who had worked during the entire 20 years in the west district were: W. Barry, H. W. Baxter, deS. Beaudry, E. T. Busby, D. J. Champion, W. J. Courtenay, L. Dalpe, A. C. Denman, D. V. Dennis, J. J. Dorion, L. L. W. Drouin, J. A. M. Faubert, G. E. Fenwick, C. Foster, J. A. Galbraith, L. W. Garceau, C. H. Grant, A. R. C. Griffiths, E. L. Hosking, F. Monitor Bowling League Holds Closing Banquet

Editorial, advertising, composing room men, and the executive of The Monitor Publishing Co. Ltd., all members of the company bowling league, rubbed shoulders at the closing banquet of the "wood league" at the LaSalle Golf and Country Club on Thursday evening. Following a fine meal, prizes were presented to the individual winners.

H. V. Stoddard, advertising manager, acted as Master of Ceremonies, and H. B. Houghton, general manager, as chairman of the splendid gathering of employees and guests.

Close to 100 people consisting of bowlers and their guests participated in the excellent programme arranged and enjoyed dancing to the accompaniment of an orchestra, following presentation of prizes and the banquet itself.

A highlight of the night was the presentation of golf clubs to H. E. McCormick, President of The Monitor Publishing Company, on behalf of those present. The presentation was made by General Manager H. B. Houghton. All the women attending were provided with a gift.

Prizes presented were as follows: Monitor Trophy for the Champions of the year to the Tempos, a team comprised of Reg. Groome (Capt.) J. Berlinguette, V. Berlinguette, J. Redshaw, B. Staines, B. Tingle, and A. McGregor. The H. B. H. Monitor Playoff Trophy went to the Ludlows, comprised of A. Belanger (Capt.) R. Webster, A. Hussey, M. James, P. McCaffery, and B. Snyder, Sr.

Bill Staines received prize and title of Champion for the year; Doreen Tottle won the High Single, A. Hussey, High Triple, Net; V. Berlinguette, High Average; and R. Webster, High Triple Gross.

CLARA BARTON OF THE RED CROSS
By Jeanette Nolan

This is the story of the Red Cross and of the women who founded it. Clara Barton, who was brought up in a home full of love, with lots of brothers and sisters, had one thing that hindered her all through life, her shyness. She had her first experience of nursing when her brother David was ill.

Then came the wars from 1854-1861, and Clara was allowed to help nurse the soldiers, but there were always a few people who were very reluctant to let her continue her work. Sometimes she had to struggle against great opposition. One day while in Germany, she thought of an international refuge, where people could go instead of hospitals. A Dr. Moyné presented himself at her door one day and showed her one of his pamphlets to read. She realized that both his idea and hers were similar, another Red Cross.

When John Garfield was president, Clara took her plans to him and was successful in gaining the approval of congress and in all parts of the U.S.A. and most of Europe, the Red Cross became an established fact, (since the year 1882).

And now this is the story of a courageous woman who fought for humanitarianism, and who produced from an idle dream the Red Cross.

FOR THE WORLD OF STEEL

The map shows Ungava Bay, Seven Islands, Lac Allard, Havre St-Pierre, Anticosti, and the St-Lawrence River. The illustration shows a large airplane on a runway with ground crew members.

HUNGRY FOR IRON, the world's steel industry looks to Ungava as the immense new source to supply its increasing needs. There, in the wilderness of rocks and stunted trees stretching north to Ungava Bay, lies one of the richest, purest deposits of iron ore the world has ever known.

The vast area is now being actively explored. Already over 300 million tons of ore have been outlined; camps have arisen; airfields and roads have been built, and the route is being surveyed for a 350-mile railway from the St. Lawrence at Seven Islands. In another section, inland from Havre St. Pierre, what promises to be the world's richest source of titanium has been discovered and is being developed. Our one-time wasteland proves to be a treasure-house.

This new northern expansion is but one of many examples of Canada's tremendous modern development. Never before, here or elsewhere, have there been such opportunities as those which await the energy and initiative of young Canadians in our own country today.

THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLES
by Edgar W. McInnis and J. H. S. Reid. Publishers: J. M. Dent & Sons (Canada) Ltd.

Today, when the principles of democracy are challenged both at home and abroad, the future of Western civilization may rest on the mutual understanding of the English-speaking peoples. Here is a modern history of these peoples, a narrative of the evolution of a far-flung group of nations springing from much the same stock and speaking much the same language, whose relations with each other and with the rest of the world are among the most critical forces in world politics of yesterday—and today.

The narrative begins at the close of the Seventeenth Century, when the foundations of Britain's political structure had been laid and the colonies planted overseas were already developing a strong sense of their own interests. In the two and a half centuries that followed we are shown the creation of a new imperial structure to replace the one that was shattered by the American Revolution, the growth of the self-governing Dominions that form the modern Commonwealth, the transformation of Britain into the leading industrial state and her decline after two World Wars and the rise of the United States to the position of a major world power. Particular attention is given to Canada as the oldest of the Dominions and as a nation which occupies a special position through its close relation with both Britain and the United States.

This history reveals how much the English-speaking peoples have differed without ever losing their common heritage of English culture and English institutions. Out of this study of their widely divergent developments comes a recognition of the bonds created by past traditions and present interests. The story of the English-speaking peoples here related is one of profound significance for the understanding of our times.

"Someone Was Interfering"

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

It is abundantly evident that Marshal Stalin and his twelve disciples — there are thirteen members of the Politburo — do not like the Atlantic Treaty. Why do they not like it, and why have they so vigorously tried to prevent it? This may seem a foolish question, for it is quite obvious that the Treaty is an alliance of the Western Nations against a potential enemy, and the only such enemy at the present time is Soviet Russia. In opposing the Treaty, the Soviet leaders virtually admit their aggressive intentions. The very bitterness of their attacks indicates that the treaty interferes with their plans; otherwise why should it worry them? If they have no designs for extending their power over the rest of Europe, when they have nothing to fear from a defensive alliance of nations who are sick of war and whose only desire is to recover from the last one and live in a peaceful world.

The Soviet Government disliked the atomic bomb for the same reason they now dislike the Atlantic Treaty. In his speech at Boston, Mr. Churchill gave the reason when he said: "It is certain that Europe would have been demoralized and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States." For what other purpose was the largest army in the world maintained and kept ready for action behind the Iron Curtain? The military forces of the British Commonwealth and of the United States had been demobilized.

Apart from the fear of the atomic bomb there was nothing to deter the Russian armies from sweeping over Europe, and the Western Powers would have been helpless to stop them. With the complete conquest of Europe, the Mediterranean would have been closed and Africa annexed to the Russian Empire, while the Atlantic Ocean would have isolated the American continent from trade and traffic with the Old World.

In the first volume of his war memoirs, Mr. Churchill said that certain crises during the war were felt that "Someone was interfering," and that when all seemed to be lost, the tide of overwhelming defeat was turned as if by a mysterious hand. When Hitler did a jig after forcing the French to sign an armistice, he was what the Scotch people call "a wee bit daft," which means that he was over-confident and fated soon to meet a sudden or violent death. There is an old Greek saying that "Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad." That is what happened to Hitler and his gang; and Stalin and his disciples should take a lesson from it and keep their heads. The atom bomb saved them from the mad act of overrunning Europe at the close of the war, and now, with the addition of the defensive alliance under the Atlantic Treaty, they may be restored to sanity.

The recent changes of Soviet officials is evidence that something unusual is going on behind the Iron Curtain, and it may be that Stalin is changing his mind. Having failed to intimidate Britain and the United States into military action by the blockade of Berlin, which in itself was an act of war, he assumed the role of a peace-maker and accused the promoters of the Atlantic Treaty of warmongering.

As a matter of historical fact, Stalin himself was the real instigator of the Atlantic Treaty. He provoked it not only by the Berlin Blockade, but by blockading the action of the United Nations with the Veto on every issue that made for world peace. Thus the United Nations' Councils were rendered futile and the very name a mockery. There was nothing left for the Western Nations to do but unite among themselves for their own defence and economic recovery. And now, as a result of their folly in overreaching themselves, the Soviet leaders are confronted with the Atlantic Treaty in addition to the atomic bomb. It would seem that Someone has again been interfering.

Nominating Comm. To Present Slate

Last Thursday night the nominating committee of the Westmount Stamp Club was elected in order to select a new slate of officers for the Club, since the club year ends on June 2nd.

In the Junior Section, G. M. Desautels, public relations representative for the Post Office gave a very interesting and enlightening illustrated talk on stamps and the mails. Mr. Desautels also supplied two very good films on how the postal system operates. On the 21st of May, the Juniors have been invited to go on a tour of the general Post Office to see the behind-the-scene operations of a modern mail system.

On the lighter side, Mr. D. Brown, Advertising Manager for Continental Can and father of one of the Juniors, supplied a series of colored cartoons which completed the evening for the Juniors.

MAKE CATCH ON EAST COAST FISHING BANKS

Out of the depths which coar the ocean fishing banks off Canada's east coast, comes a well-filled net which will dump hundreds of pounds of cod, halibut, haddock and ocean perch on to the decks of the commercial fishing vessel. Cleaned and iced below decks, the fish will be rushed to Halifax where modern processing plants at dockside take over. Within a few hours these fish will be turned into fillets, packed into cartons and quick-frozen ready for shipment. Modern fishing and processing methods make it possible for housewives anywhere across Canada to serve ocean-fresh fish at any season of the year.

Large Handicraft Program Being Planned in City

With summer just around the corner a new and interesting handicraft program is being planned for the Parks and Playgrounds. Craft classes will be held in Westmount Park, Prince Albert and Staynor. Clay modelling, wood carving, shellcraft, papier maché, weaving and leathercraft will be practiced along with a host of other crafts.

A central craft shop will operate at the Westmount Athletic grounds for the more interested craftsmen and will see a number of sailboats and model aeroplanes take shape for future competition.

Looking into the future, an adult handicraft club will be organized in Victoria Hall early in September. This should prove very interesting to a large number of people, when it is considered that articles such as high quality hand bags, purses, gloves, slippers and belts are being made together with shellcraft, broaches, pins, earrings and weaving. Handicraft tools and materials will be available through the club for members only.

Horticultural Society Plans Competition

W. G. Borland, secretary of the West End Horticultural Society, announces that entries for the club's Spring Flower Garden Competition must be mailed to him at 418 New Birk's Building or 2374 Grand Blvd., not later than this Saturday, May 14th.

This Competition is open to amateur members of the Society for gardens of (a) Not more than 250 sq. ft. in area, and (b) Any size gardens of more than 250 sq. ft. in area. Gardens will be judged at an appropriate time (depending upon the season) and each garden will be visited at least twice by the judges.

Gardens will be judged on the following basis: 50 points for general neatness and appearance of garden; 30 points for number and variety of Spring flowers; 20 points for quality of blooms at judging time. Prizes in each section are: 1st, $2.50; 2nd, $1.50; 3rd, $1.00.

Navy League Drive Extended Because Of Lack of Funds

Speaking at Navy League quarters here today, Mr. R. C. Stevenson, O.B.E., chairman of the League's Annual Maintenance Campaign, announced that the drive would have to be extended inasmuch as the $40,000 objective had not been reached. The figure received to date, he stated, is $25,221. He attributed the failure to achieve the objective during the two-week period to the fact that many of the League's regular subscribers had not as yet sent in their subscriptions, and expressed the hope that those who had subscribed in previous years would send in their donations to the Montreal Division of The Navy League of Canada, 1429 Clossé Street, this week.

In pointing out the importance of achieving the $40,000 minimum objective, Mr. Stevenson referred to the recent formation of a junior corps for boys of pre-cadet age. The success of this unit was instantaneous, Mr. Stevenson said, with nearly 70 boys already enrolled. All expenses for this group will have to be borne by the Navy League; the kitting out alone will be quite an outlay, and in addition it is hoped to make arrangements for these youngsters to spend a little time at Camp Ewing, the Sea Cadet camp on the Lake of Two Mountains which is owned by the Montreal Division of the Navy League.

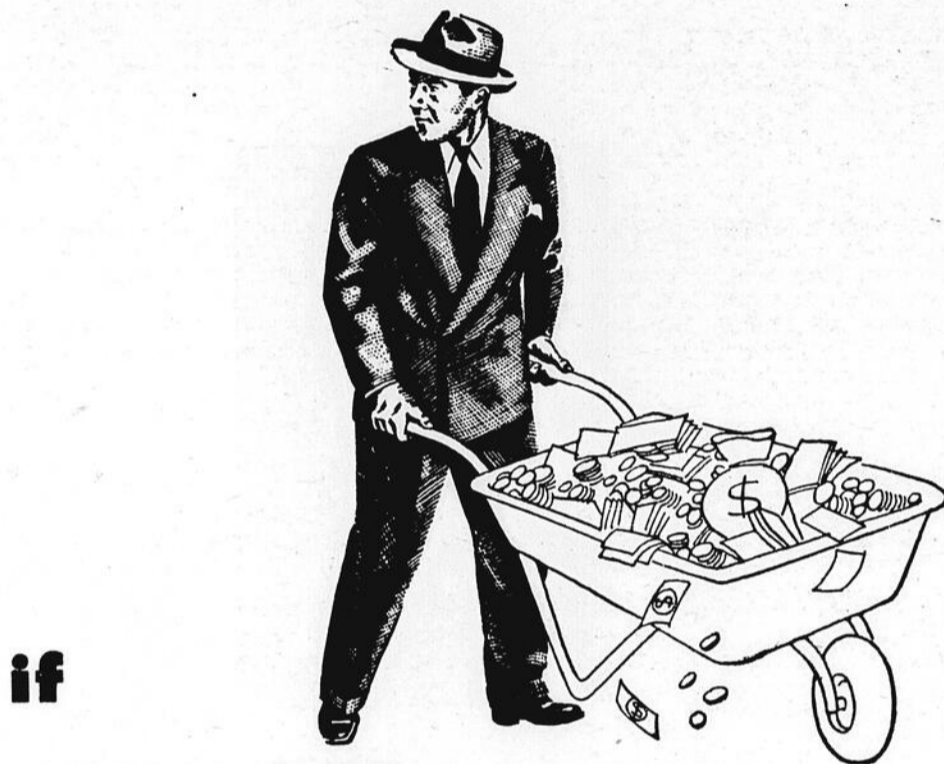

U. N. Association Last Meeting Held

National organizer of the United Nations Association in Canada, J. Alex. Edmison, told members of the Westmount Branch on Monday night that Canadians all over the country have taken an interest in the workings of the United Nations and they believe that the Atlantic Pact will play a big part in preventing a third world war.

The occasion of Mr. Edmison's visit was the final meeting of the year of the local branch of the organization.

Speaking of his recent tour of Europe, he said that Europeans had an "almost pathetic reliance" on the Marshall Plan and that the Plan seemed to be working best in Austria.

Vandals dumped out 26-one gallon jars of mustard at Pitt Stadium. It shouldn't happen to a dog.

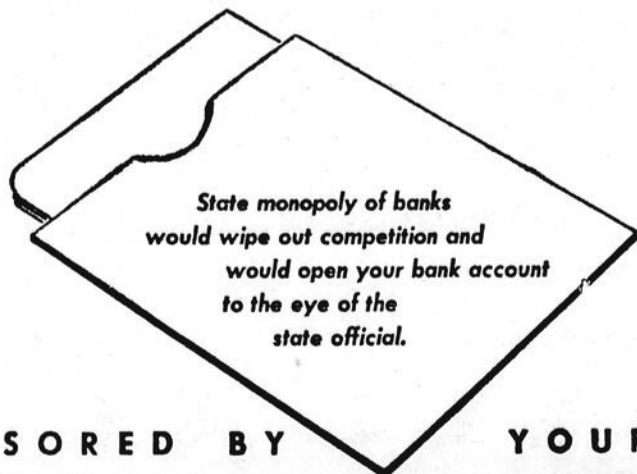

if every man were his own bank...

SUPPOSE you had to cart cash around to pay your bills. Pretty risky business. Hard on shoe leather, too.

You don't do it that way, of course. Like everybody else with a bank account — there are seven million of them — you simply get out your pen, write cheques and leave all the bookkeeping to your bank. That's the modern way . . . easy, simple, safe.

Handling and recording your chequing transactions is an important job. Your bank must do it right — or a competing bank will. You'll see to that!

Suppose there were no competition . . . Could you expect the same efficiency, courtesy, eagerness to earn your goodwill?

Charles Scarff, Early Druggist, Dies Aged 98

Funeral services for Charles E. Scarff, who died Sunday in his 98th year, were held on Monday afternoon in the chapel of Joseph E. Wray and Brother, Mountain Street. Mr. Scarff died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William R. Dean, 217 Ballantyne Avenue, Montreal West, where he had been residing.

Born in Colchester, England, Mr. Scarff lived 97 of his 98 years in Canada and was one of the few Canadians to exceed the life span of insurance mortality tables, thereby becoming the beneficiary of his own policy. He enjoyed the title of Montreal's oldest druggist and in his early business days he used the first telephone in the city, a line that ran from Beaver Hall Hill to Notre Dame Street. He was subscriber No. 3.

Upon arrival in this country, Mr. Scarff, one year old at the time, went to Woodstock, Ontario, where his father, who had come out previously, was engaged in the carriage-making trade. His father built the first coach to travel between Toronto and Woodstock.

Charles Scarff studied at Woodstock and later attended the Quebec and Ontario College of Pharmacy.

He was married to Miss Hattie Atwater in 1885 and became an energetic young druggist, with successful stores on St. Catherine and later on Sherbrooke Street.

In those days, Mr. Scarff was a well-known lacrosse player and champion bicycle racer.

He served as druggist to Lord and Lady Willingdon, and was the first in Montreal to keep patho-

New President Is Glen Mackay

Glen Mackay, Montreal Regional sales manager of the Canadian Street Car Advertising Company, was elected President of the Advertising & Sales Executives Club of Montreal at their annual meeting held Wednesday.

The Montreal club is the oldest advertising and sales executives club in Canada, and will celebrate its 40th anniversary next year.

Other officers elected for the 1949-50 season were as follows: Honorary President, H. E. Smith; Vice-Presidents, Lloyd Kenney, John MacDonald, L. D. Richardson. Directors elected for two years were G. C. Hammond, Brock Batten, John W. Teale, H. C. Hughes, Lewis Louthood, B. P. Campbell, Clary S. Booth, Arthur H. Carter, Mrs. Doreen Day.

Directors who remain on the Board for one year are M. O. Kirsch, W. P. Haynes, C. W. Cook, Rene Benoit, Wm. C. Beamer, Denys Cadman.

logical supplies on hand at all times. He operated his own businesses for 44 years and retired in 1931 at the age of 80.

Mr. Scarff was a governor of the Montreal College of Pharmacy and an active member of the old Tuque Bleu and the St. Georges Society. He was the oldest life member of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association and is believed to have been the oldest living druggist in Canada.

In April, 1948, he collected more than $5,000, proceeds from a life insurance policy he purchased from the Mutual Life Insurance Company, 58 years earlier. Only 3 persons in 1000 ever achieve this accomplishment.

A brother and a sister of the late pharmacist died at 99 years of age, while 5 of his family of 9 lived to be 80.

Mr. Scarff is survived by four daughters, Mrs. W. R. Dean, with whom he lived, Mrs. Harold Ellis, Rothesay, New Brunswick, Mrs. H. A. Jack and Mrs. Gilbert Pearce, both of Montreal, and by 12 grandchildren.

Funeral Services Held for C. Walker and Chapter of the Telephone Pioneers of Canada.

Survivors are his widow, the former Ellen Heagerty, his mother, Mrs. J. H. Walker; a son, Paul Clyde Walker; a daughter, Mrs. R. L. Benning; and a sister, Mrs. Luc Hamel, all of Montreal.

TRUST GOD, AND KEEP OUR POWDER DRY

The prospect of the imminent lifting of the Berlin blockade and the possibility of a reasonable settlement of the problem of the establishment of a government for Germany, are giving rise to conjecture as to subsequent developments in the field of relations between Russia and her satellite states on the one hand, and the Western powers on the other.

Most informed observers appear to believe that the resolution of the difficulties in Germany will open the way to the lifting of at least some of the trade barriers now existing between East and West, and hence, eventually to the betterment of mutual understanding and the brightening of chances for lasting peace.

There should be none who do not wholeheartedly wish for the fulfillment of these hopes, but many of us will wonder how deep the source of the apparent change of Russian viewpoint may be. Does it spring from a better understanding of the necessity for real freedom in human relations and government? Or is it a superficial change of attitude adopted as a pose to facilitate the moral and material disarmament of the opponents of Communism and thus render world domination an object more easily attained? It could be a change of heart for the better or a new tactical variety of psychological warfare.

We shall not know the answer to our questions for some years. The record of communistic materialism is not such that we should mistake, at this stage, any alleviation of symptoms for a permanent cure of the disease. Therefore, the Western democracies should not take any precipitate action to dissipate the strength behind the Atlantic Pact, not the moral strength, the economic strength, nor the military strength. It therefore appears that for the present, we, of the West, should trust only in God, keep our powder dry, and have plenty of it.

STRENGTHENING THE COMMONWEALTH

Newspapers all over India gave front page banner headlines to the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' joint declaration that India will continue to be a member of the Commonwealth after becoming a Republic. Most editorials enthusiastically supported the declaration.

The Times of India in an editorial captioned "Statesmanship" said: "The entry of the Indian Republic as a full and equal member into this comity of peoples is a landmark in the history of the Commonwealth. It marks the free association of East and West on the basis of practical comradeship unprecedented in the history of mankind."

"A glimmer of the one world for which men of goodwill strive is faintly discernible in the London Agreement," the paper added.

The National Standard wrote: "In the new partnership India has still a better opportunity of fulfilling her principal objects of safeguarding peace and raising the living standard of peoples everywhere."

The Bombay Chronicle said in the London Conference there had been a spirit of accommodation from all sides. The paper added that the potentialities for good and co-operative work of the Commonwealth were great.

Christian Science

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians "This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Philippians 4:8)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science & Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

"We are all sculptors, working at various forms, moulding and chiseling thought. What is the model before mortal mind? Is it im-

Dashing Hats Again Worn By British Women
 English women are revelling in pretty hats this year, since varieties in straws and other materials are available once more. There are leghorns and bakus, chipped and petal straws, burnt straws. There are also the newer straw fabrics, as well as a washable pique straw which makes the white summer hat a practical proposition instead of a rather expensive luxury.
 This year, too, hats are made from soft materials which have been strangers to milliners for many years. These are satins in the loveliest Regency pastels, rustling striped taffetas, the lightest summer felts, lending themselves to graceful folding of crowns and tucking of brims. There are velvets, grosgrains, and tie silks for wear with formal afternoon suits.
 Scarcely a flower in the English garden has been left out of the mixed bouquets used for hat trimming—hyacinths, roses in sprays, lilies of the valley, nasturtiums.

For And About Women

Busy Day Planned By WCTU At Annual Meeting Monday

The annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Montreal will be held in the Hall of First Baptist Church, corner Dorchester and Grey Streets, on Monday.

The Executive will meet at 10 a.m.

At the open afternoon session, starting at 2 p.m., the Secretaries of the local Unions will give reports of work done during the past year. The President, Mrs Wm. Usher will deliver her annual address.

The Nominating Committee's report will be given — and officers for the coming year will be installed by Rev. R. E. Spencer, M.A., of St. Luke's United Church. A Memorial Service for members who have passed away since last annual meeting will bring to a close the afternoon session.

Supper will be served at 6 o'clock by The Woman's Association of Olivet Baptist Church, Verdun.

At 7.45 Rev. Miles McCutcheon, pastor of First Baptist Church, Montreal, will conduct a short devotional service. Greetings will be brought by representative Church women and other friends. Boys and girls of St. Luke's United and Snowdon Baptist Sunday Schools will take part in a Junior elocutionary medal contest.

The Convention address will be given by Rev. J. W. Patterson, B.A., B.D., of St. Andrew's United Church, Lachine, his subject being "The Power of a Consecrated Minority".

Salt in Oven

Some cakes, such as poundcake, fruitcake, etc., require several hours of slow baking. If salt is spread over the bottom of the oven, completely covering a space a bit larger than the size of the pan, the cake pan need not be lined with paper; and the cake will come out with a delectable golden brown crust. The salt should go into the oven when the cake does.

It is easily brushed out when the cake is done.

Sunlight Affects Lipstick Colour

Smart junior miss obtains most flattery from her summer make-up by using brilliant coral shade of lip rouge which holds its color in the sun. Frequent touch-ups keep lipline cleanly outlined.

Do you know how strong summer sunlight affects the color of the lipstick you wear? Or the way you apply it? Or why more frequent touch-ups are needed in summer than in winter?

Because lipstick is usually the only make-up aid a sun-drenched young skin needs, a junior should know all the answers in order to obtain the most flattery from her cosmetic efforts.

Under the powerful rays of the summer sun, pastel lipsticks seem to become more pale. Deep bluish-toned lipsticks which are designed to hold their color under subdued lighting are apt to look harsh and garish when subjected to the searching light of the sun. Colors which stand up banner bright in the sun are the brilliant coral shades and the clear, true reds.

So much for lipstick shades. As for summertime application, you will be rewarded for taking a few extra minutes, if necessary, to define lips with a clean, sharp line of color. Nature's searching spotlight makes especially noticeable any uneven application or amateurish attempts to deviate from the natural lipline.

More frequent touch-ups are required because heat and perspiration encourage lipstick to melt to form spikes of color around the mouth. Before re-

Canned Corn Excellent Buy This Season

The Department of Agriculture lists canned corn as a May plenty. Last year's crop resulted in a very large pack and there is much of that pack left now with a new crop on its way. That's why canned corn is an excellent buy right now.

Scalloped Corn and Tomatoes ("8 servings")

One No. 2 can whole kernel corn, 1 No. 2 can tomatoes, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 teaspoons finely chopped onion, 2 tablespoons fine bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon butter or fortified margarine.

Drain corn. Mix together corn, tomatoes, sugar, salt, pepper and onion. Pour into 1 1/2-quart baking dish; sprinkle with bread crumbs; dot with butter or margarine. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) from 20 to 30 minutes.

That recipe was tested by C. K. Powell, home economist of the American Can Company. Also this one:

Corn Chowder (8 servings)

Two cups diced potatoes, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 cups milk, 1/4 pound salt pork, diced, 1/4 cup finely chopped onion, 1 No. 2 can whole kernel corn, 2 1/4 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Cook potatoes in boiling, salted water in covered 3-quart pan until almost done; do not drain. Add milk to potatoes and heat to the boiling point. Brown salt pork in a skillet. Remove pork; add onion to fat and saute from 3 to 5 minutes. Add salt pork, onion and fat, corn, and seasonings to potato-milk mixture. Heat slowly to the boiling point. Serve immediately.

R. E. Laurentian Auxiliary Presents Car to Nurses

The staff of Public Health Nurses at Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital, Montreal, are here pictured with the car presented for their use by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the hospital. Instead of travelling by bus, street car and on foot to make their visits in the homes of families with tuberculosis, the nursing staff will now be able, with this car, to increase their number of home visits and reach patients in out-of-the-way places, giving more frequent attention, supervision, treatment and guidance where it is urgently needed.

The car will also be used to transport portable X-Ray equipment to and from branch clinics in Rosemount, Richmond Square, Westmount and Verdun. Gas and oil to operate the car is being supplied through the courtesy of Tilden Drive Yourself Company, Montreal.

Slipcovered Bed-Headboards Current Vogue In Bedrooms

Headboard slip covers with zippered or buttoned closings are in current vogue. They are frequently used on the Hollywood bed, which consists of box spring and coil-spring-on-legs with headboard attached. This type of bed has proved increasingly popular to the homemaker because it costs less and saves space that would otherwise be taken up by side rails and foot boards.

Smart new décor sometimes bypasses floral patterns in favor of polka dots, stripes, plaids, and checks. Fabrics may be hardy sailcloth, shiny satin, rich taffeta, corduroy, chintz, velvet, leatherette, or plastic. But then again, they may be a combination of two textures, or two colors or two tones of a color.

Current bedroom fashion colors most certainly feature greens, from deep forest to the yellow-green of the first forsythia. The cool blue range, from its deepest to its palest tones, is fast claiming recognition. The Oriental influence is felt perceptibly in bright, true colors like coral, deep turquoise, mandarin red, bright bird yellow, celadon green, hemming the bedspread.

Neutral and blending is the family of honeyish, blond neutral peach tones ending in accents, at either end of the scale, of apricot and bittersweet. In another group, background colors go high-fashion in tones of blue, beige, or greige (today's answer to light gray), black for a dramatic touch, and all the colors so dark as to be almost black, forest and spruce green, elephant, gunmetal, slate, and smoke gray.

Another plan might use quilted gray chambray valances, head-flower or clover-patterned fabric boards, and bedspreads, with a for draperies and as double ruffles

Pigeons Seem To Like Trip High Above Clouds

It has just been proved that pigeons can stay alive while up in the air—way up. Three Belgian racing pigeons travelled from Brussels to Tripoli in an aluminum box hooked to the nose of a four engined airplane. Their trip was designed to test the possibilities of transporting racing pigeons to the starting point of a race in unpressurized aircraft. During the trip the plane flew at 21,000 feet and registered outside temperatures as low as four below zero. The pigeons liked the new-fangled way of flying fine.

brother of the groom, and William McCarthy.

Mrs. Murphy, mother of the groom, wore a light grey suit, with black accessories, and her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom, in Westmount. Later, the bride and groom left by plane for New York. Upon their return, they will reside in Westmount.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding, were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Power, the Misses Norma and Geraldine Power, Mr. and Mrs. Guay DeLaurier and Mr. and Mrs. P. Couture, all of Quebec City.

FOSTER-HUESTIS

The marriage of Marilyn Joan, younger daughter of Col. and Mrs. Douglas Huestis, of Hampstead, to Mr. William Stuart Foster, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis William Foster, of Vancouver, took place on Saturday morning, at eleven o'clock, in St. Matthias Church, Westmount, Maj. R. Forneret officiating. Southern dogwood, stocks and hyacinths, were used as decorations.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a dressmaker suit of navy blue gabardine. She wore an off-the-face hat of white flowers, and a corsage bouquet of white baby orchids and hyacinths.

Miss Barbara Henshaw, as maid-of-honor, was in a dressmaker suit of grey gabardine, and wore a hat of natural straw and a corsage bouquet of pale yellow carnations.

Dr. Douglas W. Huestis, the bride's brother, acted as best man for Mr. Foster and Mr. Grant Wheeler, of Ottawa, was usher.

Mrs. Huestis, the bride's mother, was in a gown of powder blue lace and wore a hat of matching straw, a cape of Russian squirrel and a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 37 Stratford road, Hampstead, where spring flowers and candles in candelabra were used to decorate.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Foster left by plane for Winnipeg and will later motor through the Western States.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mr. Peter Burke, of Ottawa.

WHAT'S A POACHED EGG?

Young cooks have been asking this question in Britain. For the first time since 1941, poached eggs are on the menu of a group of large chain teashops.

The reappearance of shell eggs after eight years' absence from British kitchens brought its problems. Many young women had no idea how to cook them.

"How could I know how to poach an egg when I've never seen one, even at home?" one young cook asked.

Instructional courses were given on how to poach, fry, boil and scramble shell eggs and how to make an omelet with them.

Fashion Arts Academy Arranges New Course

Pursuant to a policy of working together with both the wholesale and retail sections of the fashion industry, Mr. Solomon, managing director of the Fashion Arts Academy announced today the inauguration of a Merchandising and Sales Promotion Course. "Canada needs trained personnel", he said, "particularly in the retail field where conditions have changed so drastically in the last year. Today we have a buyers market, competition is keen and merchandisers must be trained in the technique of buying and selling. Customers have become more discriminating and customer and sales-person relationship must assume a more understanding and courteous pattern". He went on to say also that after planning a comprehensive course for young men and women who were desirous of making their future in the executive branch of merchandising and sales, he was fortunately able to procure the services of Mr. J. Paul Morin to supervise and direct the new course.

Mr. Morin has been identified with James A. Ogilvy's Ltd. as personnel training director for a number of years and has specialized in training men and women who were making their careers in the merchandising field.

The course as planned will deal with buying, sales promotion, departmental organization, retail advertising and display, appraisal and merchandising of fashion, importance of turnover, merchandise budgeting and planning and various other subjects. Lectures will be given and class participation of a practical nature will be encouraged.

This first course given by the Fashion Arts Academy will commence on May 31st.

Serve Family Baked Cabbage Bundles

Baked cabbage bundles provide good eating at budget prices.

Solid nutrition at budget prices, plus good eating—that's what most homemakers are looking for. There two recipes fill that bill:

Baked Cabbage Bundles

Six sizable cabbage leaves, 1/2 pound ground beef, 1/4 pound ground pork, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 cup diced onion, 1/2 cup uncooked rice, 1 can tomato soup (10 1/2 ounce size), 1/2 cup hot water.

Immerse cabbage leaves in boiling water. Cook for 2 minutes and drain. Mix together meat, salt, pepper, onion and rice. Spoon mixture onto cabbage leaves. Fold each leaf over filling, and fasten with toothpicks. Place cabbage bundles in a two-quart heat-resistant glass casserole. Combine tomato soup and hot water; pour over cabbage bundles in casserole. Bake 1 1/4 hours in moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Remove toothpicks before serving.

Cheese Omelet with Spanish Sauce

One and one-half tablespoons fat, 6 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup milk, dash of pepper, 1/2 cup grated Canadian cheese.

Heat the fat in a skillet; then tip the skillet to grease the sides and bottom. Beat the eggs, just enough to blend the yolks and whites. Add the salt, milk and pepper and heat thoroughly. Pour into the skillet and cook over low heat until a film of cooked egg has formed on the bottom of the pan. Lift the edge of this cooked egg and tilt the pan so that the uncooked portion runs under the raised cooked portion. Sprinkle cheese over omelet. Again cook until a film of cooked egg forms, then repeat the lifting and cooking process until the entire mixture is cooked and golden brown on the bottom—this process will take about 10 minutes. Then loosen the omelet with a spatula, fold from handle of skillet to opposite side of pan. Or roll jelly roll fashion and turn onto a warm platter. Serve Spanish sauce as a filling or over omelet.

Mrs. E. R. Allen, Mrs. James Domville.

Mrs. Walter E. Montgomery, Chairman of the Canadian Legion Blood Bank, addressed the meeting and discussed the operation of the Blood Bank. Introduced by Mrs. H. Wyatt Johnston, the speaker, who was awarded the Legion Badge of Merit for her work in this connection, explained that the need for a blood transfusion service for hospitalized veterans in Canada first arose during the war when the Canadian Red Cross was sending much-needed plasma overseas, and has grown with the ever-widening use of transfusion techniques. A system of emergency calls for donors was instituted, since which time it has been in continuous operation and has saved veterans and their dependants over $50,000 in transfusion expenses. The speaker cited several examples showing how the service, which has the names and blood types of 6,000 donors on file, had been able to provide the necessary assistance in grave emergencies, the most recent being the supplying of sixteen donors of the rare O-RH Negative type in a case in which a large amount was urgently needed. Mrs. Montgomery pointed out that the Bank, an adjunct of the Provincial Command, frequently ships blood to hospitals in those parts of the Province (and sometimes even farther) which are without blood bank facilities. She stressed that the blood bank service is available to all veterans and their dependants, whether or not they are Legion members, and noted that the organization is in full co-operation with the work of the Canadian Red Cross blood banks. The speaker was thanked by Mrs. J. J. Harold, who emphasized the value to the community of services of this nature.

In summing up the annual reports, the President, Mrs. E. R. Allen, noted that the Association's major activity had been the organization of the highly successful children's Christmas party.

Lt.-Col. E. R. Allen, Commanding Officer of the Regiment, thanked the Association for their support throughout the year. Lt.-Col. B. C. Hutchison, E.D., Hon. Lieut.-Col. of the Regiment also addressed the meeting briefly. The retiring President, Mrs. E. R. Allen was presented with a corage by Mrs. James Domville on behalf of the Association.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the Officers' Mess, where tea was poured by Mrs. Ward C. Pitfield and Mrs. E. R. Allen.

Junior Musicians Heard At Mont. High

Before a large and interested audience gathered in Montreal High School a demonstration was given on Tuesday evening of the great progress made in a year by junior bands, junior orchestras and a junior choir. Mr. Malcolm Brown was leader of the orchestra and also the girls' choir; and James Briegel, leader of the combined junior bands of Montreal High Schools.

Unite For Power Mme. H. Vautelet Advises Consumers

Women will have a rough time between rising production costs and falling salaries unless they organize themselves as consumers, Mrs. Henri Vautelet, C.B.E., newly-elected president of the Canadian Association of Consumers, Quebec Branch (English-speaking) told the annual meeting of the branch held Tuesday in the Y.W.C.A.

The housewife's voice, however, could be made as strong as that of labor, industry, and the farmer who long ago pooled their energies in a common interest if she would band together with other housewives in the Canadian Association of Consumers, Mrs. Vautelet said.

The Consumers' Association in English-speaking Quebec needed a minimum of 6,000 members to have the same power as that possessed by every other group including the retailers' association and manufacturer's organization, she said.

Mrs. Egerton Brown, the retiring president, noted success in the campaign for members. The treasurer's report was presented by Mrs. D. W. McLean who stated that gross receipts amounted to $296, while membership numbered 592. Mrs. C. T. Groome reported on publicity.

Officers named were: President, Mrs. Henri Vautelet, C.B.E.; vice-president, Mrs. Fraser MacIver; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. C. Brooks; recording secretary, Mrs. Paul Knowlton, and treasurer, Mrs. D. W. MacLean.

Give Oven Meal Spring Delicacy

Pineapple chicken, mushrooms, lima beans, squash—all baked at once.

All baked in the oven in a matched set of ovenware at the same time—chicken with pineapple and mushroom garnish, lima beans and seasoned squash. Not only sounds good, but cuts down kitchen time—and these days that means more time for spring outdoors. So try it.

Baked Pineapple Chicken

Three to four-pound frying chicken, ¼ cup fat, 2 tablespoons finely diced onions, ¼ cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ginger, 2 cups well-seasoned chicken broth, ½ cup crushed pineapple, 1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet.

Wash chicken thoroughly and dry carefully. Cut in serving size pieces. Melt fat in large frying pan over moderate heat. Add chicken and brown lightly on all sides. Remove browned chicken to 1½-quart casserole. Place onion in frying pan and cook 1 minute. Stir in flour, salt and ginger. Add chicken broth, pineapple and kitchen bouquet.

Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Pour sauce over chicken and bake, covered, until chicken is tender, about 45 minutes. Half an hour before the chicken is done place seasoned squash, lima beans and the contents of a 6-ounce can of broiled mushrooms in small casseroles. Cover and heat in oven with chicken. When ready to serve, just remove covers, transfer to a suitable tray and place on the table.

Looking for a main dish luncheon salad. The answer is easy and very delicious.

Frozen Bean and Corn Salad

One package cut green beans, 1 package cut corn, partially defrosted, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 pimiento, cut into strips, ¼ cup chopped green pepper, optional, ¼ cup chopped celery, 2 hard-cooked eggs sliced, salt, pepper, French dressing.

Cook beans according to instructions on package. Melt butter in heavy saucepan that has a tight-fitting lid; add frozen corn that has been defrosted just enough to break apart; cover and cook slowly over low heat for 2 minutes.

Remove cover, continue cooking, stirring constantly until excess moisture has evaporated, about 1 minute. Combine ingredients, season to taste. Add dressing, serve hot or cold.

can be molded today for tomorrow's party or dinner without loss of any good qualities.

Egg Noodle and Vegetable Loaf

- 2 cups cooked egg noodles
- 1 small onion, cut fine
- Salt and pepper
- 3 eggs, separated
- 1 cup cooked mixed vegetables
- ½ cup bread crumbs
- 1 cup milk

Combine noodles and vegetables (these may be canned, fresh or frozen carrots, peas, corn or beans). Add onion, bread crumbs and seasoning to taste. In top of double boiler heat milk and add beaten egg yolks. Cook until a creamy consistency. Combine with noodle mixture. Then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Place in well-oiled loaf pan and bake about 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven (350 degrees F.) Loaf should be firm. Serve with tomato or cheese sauce. Serves six.

REMOVABLE OVERSKIRTS

Many evening dresses have the slim skirt, veiled or partly hidden by a fuller overskirt.

Invariably the foundation of such frocks is a slender sheath of taffeta, satin or crepe, clearly visible beneath a tulle overskirt. Marcel Rochas shows many models of this type, while in the Jeanne Lafaurie collection there is a series of evening dresses, slim as the stems of flowers, all richly embroidered with pearl, beads and metal thread over which go full net skirts. Since these tulle skirts are separate items they can be removed at will and even worn as cloaks for summer evenings.

Versatile Macaroni Will Aid Housewife in Planning Meals

For the meal planner who likes to "cook ahead," macaroni offers many possibilities for a second meal. Having macaroni on hand ready-cooked makes it easy to prepare molded salad, loaf, casserole, or it may be reheated in the double boiler for serving with a fresh vegetable sauce.

It's just as easy to cook a pound of macaroni — or spaghetti, vermicelli, or noodles — as a half pound. Use what you immediately need and store the remainder, drained and covered in the refrigerator. Plan to use it the second day in an entirely new dress.

For simple, homey dishes that require little time there are macaroni and cheese, spaghetti with tomato sauce sprinkled with cheese. A dish as typically southern as baked beans are New England is Shrimp Creole over Spaghetti. Add to these suggestions such favorites as meat balls in tomato sauce, noodles and tuna fish, and chicken and noodles. The answer is that macaroni products go well with meat, fish and fowl dishes.

Vegetable Sauce for Spaghetti

Cook 1 medium finely cut onion, ½ cup finely cut green pepper, 1 cup diced celery, and 1 cup mushrooms in 3 tablespoons hot oil until lightly browned. Add 2 cups canned tomatoes and salt and pepper to taste. Cook slowly to desired consistency.

Molded Macaroni Salad

This dish is a meal in itself. For extra protein serve with deviled eggs.

- 8 ounces elbow macaroni
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice

- ½ cup cold water
- ½ cup diced celery
- 4 cups tomato juice
- 2 tablespoons plain gelatine
- 1 cup flaked tuna fish, salmon, chicken or ham
- ½ cup canned peas or diced green pepper

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Rinse with cold water and allow to cool. Heat tomato juice to boiling point. Add the gelatine which has been soaked in ½ cup cold water. Cool mixture. Then add other ingredients and place in any desired greased mold. Place in cool place until set. Unmold and serve garnished with lettuce and deviled eggs. Serves eight.

A molded salad is one of the best tricks of advance cookery. Gelatine has the ability not only to seal in flavor but to retain the original crispness and texture of the ingredients it enfolds. A salad

"Scott Of The Antarctic" Gets Canadian Premiere At Avenue

The latest production of J. Arthur Rank which is now being shown at the Avenue Theatre, "Scott of the Antarctic" tells the story of his second and last expedition to discover the South Pole.

Before a gathering of a 1,000 persons, composed almost entirely of military personnel and sponsored by the Royal Montreal Regiment, M.G., this picture received its Canadian premiere.

The story opens with some very smart photography showing scenes of the Antarctic which were photographed previous to the filming of the rest of the picture which took place in Norway and by a strange coincidence at the exact locality where Scott tried out some of his mechanical equipment.

The picture starts out slowly giving you the background of Scott's return from his first trip; requesting help from the Naval authorities in London; the gathering of members for his expedition and his task in raising funds. From here on the picture gains momentum as Scott, played by John Mills, settles down to the long trip from England to Australia and hence to the Antarctic; scenes of his vessel fighting its way through ice floes and actual pictures of the ice barrier makes it a really remarkable picture.

Upon reaching his base, where they have to set up camp for six long months, Scott finds out that the rival Norwegian explorer, Amundsen, has changed his mind about going on the North Pole expedition and instead is only 400 miles away from Scott's base. Hoping to prove that his mechanical tractors will stand up to the cold weather as well as the ponies, Scott and his party start out on their long trek. Bad weather forces the tractors out of commission and later the ponies find the going too tough in the deep snow with heavy loads on the sleds.

Bit by bit the party dwindles down after camps are set up for the return trip with ample supplies. The last part of the trip is done by manpower over the glacier and along the plateau to the South Pole. Upon reaching the Pole, Scott and his party of four find that Amundsen has already planted a Norwegian flag; but in a letter left by the Norwegian adventurer, Scott is asked to deliver this letter to the King of Norway.

It is on the return trip that Scott and his party meet their death. The make-up here is remarkable, showing you frost-bitten hands and faces, caused by weather conditions, to perfection. Such is the case with Taff Evans, the biggest member of the party, who through a finger injury, never properly cared for becomes poisoned, affects his whole system and gradually he is so weak that he dies en route.

M.R.T. Presents Play By Barrie

The Montreal Repertory Theatre's production of Barrie's "What Every Woman Knows", opens at Moyses Hall on Empire Day, May 24. The production is being directed by Jean de Savoye with original costumes by Virginia Watt and settings by Hans Berends, whose work for Negro Theatre Guild's production of Emperor Jones won for the group the Martha Allan Trophy, given at the finals of the Dominion Drama Festival for the production whose setting achieved the greatest artistic success.

The role of Maggie Wylie will be played by Mary Douglas. Mrs. Douglas, who is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, London, England, came to Montreal after playing many successful roles with the Ottawa Drama League. She was first seen at MRT in Hotel Universe. Since then she has appeared in "The Old Ladies", "Viceroy Sarah", "All My Sons", and with the Open Air Playhouse in "Midsummer Night's Dream" and "As You Like It."

Peter Golick, who has also played many roles locally, notably that of Montague in "Romeo and Juliet", will take the part of John Shand.

The story of "What Every Woman Knows" is well known. It tells how the quiet, but effective work of the persevering "Maggie" who possesses a "practical mind", wins the affection of John Shand, even against the charms of the glamorous Lady Sybil. The play abounds with humor and delicate situations, and ends on a very happy note.

The play will be shown at Moyses Hall for five nights.

Trinity Young People's Clubs Plan Gala Dance

The Hi-Tri and SYPA of Trinity Memorial Church are holding their spring semi-formal dance in the church hall on Friday at 9 p.m.

Several interesting features have been planned by the program committee, including a re-production of Bandleader Sammy Kaye's famous "So You Want To Lead A Band?" Door prizes will be given, and refreshments will be served.

The dance, at which dress is optional, will be to the music of an orchestra and will start between 9 and 10 p.m. Proceeds of the evening's entertainment will go to further the work of the young people's clubs.

Shortage of Refrigerators Is Now a Thing of the Past

"Try It First" — Buy It Later" "That is the best way to be convinced," says H. M. Milne, president of Modern Household Appliances Limited. "You should not take chances with inferior makes of electric refrigerators. The only way to convince yourself that you have bought the best electric refrigerator is to try it first."

"Investigate before you invest your hard-earned money. Don't take chances on just an electric refrigerator. Think of the future. Where are you going to get service on an unknown brand? Ask yourself the question, will the dealer who supplied it be in business five years hence? The five year guarantee won't mean much if the manufacturer is out of business, will it? For eighteen years Modern Household Appliances Limited have been serving the Montreal public with approved electric refrigerators. Our products have made friends out of more than 6000 customers. That proves that we are dependable and will be in business for many years to come. We distribute by appointment only the best makes of electric refrigerators. We have been renting electric refrigerators since 1936. We know who manufacture the best products, and that is what you find displayed at 382 Victoria Avenue," says H. M. Milne. "Only the best products in Canada are on display."

When in doubt Mr. Milne suggests that you try their "Rental Purchase Plan." All you have to do is choose the model you think will suit your needs, rent it for a year, determine for yourself if it has everything you desire, then if it has, "BUY IT". We will allow a credit for part of the rental moneys paid in. If it does not meet with your approval you can return it and try out another box and another if you like until you get the one to suit your requirements. You don't take chances when you deal with Modern Household Appliances Limited. Our rental charges cost you less than ice. Only 20c a day for a six cubic foot refrigerator.

To the builder and contractor we suggest that if they buy in quantity for their own use they should inquire about our quantity price.

Every day is delivery day around Modern Household Appliances Limited and if you are interested in securing an electric refrigerator, why not call WA 5648 or drop in at 382 Victoria Avenue. — ADVT.

Speirs-Miller Spring Recital A Smash Hit

Victoria Hall was filled to capacity on Friday evening when the Speirs-Miller Dance Studios presented their annual recital. As usual the program opened with the baby classes in "Fairy Tales". The soloists here were Suzanne Moseley, Barbara Ann Pringle, Joanne Miller, Sheila Edwards, Sandra Van Der Haeghe and Claire Baillargeon.

In the more advanced work, the ballets "Warsaw Concerto" and "Ballet of Spring" were brilliantly presented to special musical arrangements. The pleasing work of Shirley Birrell, Louise Milne and Carol Guerin was given excellent support by the ensemble.

Leading the way in the varied solo numbers were Peter Miller and Theresa Daly, the teachers. The junior class comprised of Marion Edmonds, Barbara Ann Pringle, Irene Cummings, Hillier Denman, Constance Shibley and Barbara Palaisy stole the show with a comedy number "The Bowery" and a straight number called "Love Nest".

Others who were prominent were Carol Lupovich, Olive Marguerite McEwan, Sheila Edwards, Norma Stadola, Alaister Stansall, Shirley Birrell, Louise Mauron, Claudia McLean, Ellen Adams, Toby Glick, Madeleine Crawford, Mitzi Riddell, Nancy Shapiro, Mary Burke, Wallace Martin, Ilene Riddell and Emily Ann Robertson. Special mention must be made of Pat Johnstone and Betty Hendry for brilliant tap work. Another star in this style of dancing was a newcomer, Ken Palmer.

The evening's entertainment closed with Mr. Miller's Time Step Routine in which everyone took part. This, to our mind, was the best show which the Speirs-Miller Studios has ever presented, but if we may, we would suggest to them that their entertainment has outgrown the facilities and staging of Victoria Hall. — E.V.

Children's Theatre Highlight Is "King Midas"

Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, always anxious to give their young patrons a diversified programme throughout the season, have had under rehearsal, something that they feel will be thoroughly enjoyed by the young people. This will be the last Children's Theatre show this season, but for good measure, they are giving a special triple bill.

"The Wonder Child" is an excellent one act comedy, all about a very spoiled would be Hollywood young star. Second on the bill will be a special revue with the Children's Theatre starlets, — some of them very tiny tots of the age of four and five, who have some surprise numbers which will doubtless prove a novelty to Children's Theatre patrons.

Singing, dancing and specialty numbers are included in this revue which features: Sandra Miller, Brenda Mendelssohn, Judy McKinnon, Harriet Star, Sanda Vanderhaeghe, Gerda Clausen, Glee Willows and Paula Bailey, also a special number including Edgar Pniewsky, Ronnie Bing, Robin Pratt, Michael Cytrenbaum, Kenneth Tunstall, Donald Mendelman, Eric Herman, Alan Bachler, Keith Ballantyne, Carl Diamond and Stephen Packer, headed by Howard Katz, Joan Kellnor, Brenda Paperman and Susan Crawford, also appear in special numbers. Carol Hamill acts as mistress of ceremonies.

For the closing of this programme, there will be a performance of "King Midas", — the story of the greedy king who wanted the Golden Touch.

Special costumes are being designed for the production, with unusual lighting and scenic effects.

IN CHILDREN'S THEATRE SHOW ON SATURDAY

David Luck (as the stranger) and Sheila Dobrin as Althea, are begging King Midas (played by Dick Easton) to give up his greed for gold, in Children's Theatre play directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, which closes the season.

The cast for this play includes Dick Easton, who has already become a great favorite with Children's Theatre audiences, and Phyllis Gibson, who will be remembered specially for her performance in Hansel & Gretel and has many radio shows to her credit. Bruce Pomeranz, George Kasatchenko, Elizabeth Kraminer, Barbara Hamil, Martin Hornstein,

Sheila Dobrin, David Luck and Gloria Wolfe also appear in King Midas. Zoe Belle Starr will be seen as "The Child Wonder."

This is the first time in many years that the Children's Theatre have given a triple bill, and it should prove a very interesting and delightful season's closing at Victoria Hall on Saturday afternoon.

Belmont Park Officially Opens Saturday, May 14

Official opening of Belmont Park, on Saturday, promises new thrills for spectators, who will see the daring Lawrence Trio open the season as the first of the free outdoor attractions booked into the Park this season. Performing twice daily, at 5 p.m. and 11 p.m., this appearance will be the first in their tour of Eastern America.

An attractive girl and two male partners make up the act, working so high in the air that their size is dwarfed. The rigging, a slender pole, reaches 100 feet skyward.

In addition to the Lawrence Trio, a variety in bands will prevail Stan Wood and his popular band take over the opening spotlight on Saturday, and the great Johnny Holmes aggregation succeed them on the following night. Then, for two weeks, the bands will alternate, with Stan Wood playing five times during that period and Johnny Holmes taking the stand for nine days.

For Monday evenings, commencing May 16, a new innovation will be offered by Belmont Park when the ballroom is turned over to the famous Arthur Murray Studios, who will stage a dance party, in which lessons will be given by skilled Arthur Murray instructors and dance games will be played.

The new Flying Disc, of which there are only three in the world, provided to be a really sensational riding device at the Preview last week-end.

C. A. T. Children's Workshop Plays Bring Season End

"Teen-Agers On Stage" will be the title of the final production of the Children's Workshop of the Canadian Art Theatre for the current season. To be presented at Victoria Hall on the evening of June 3rd, the programme will consist of three one-acters, chosen for their popularity with young people, and their attractiveness as vehicles for young performers.

A. A. Milne's "The Princess and the Woodcutter", an imaginary tale familiar to most senior high school students will be presented complete with the liting music and songs that have made it such a favourite throughout the world. Anton Tchekov's "A Marriage Proposal" will receive teenage treatment, and Dan Tothoroh's "The Stolen Prince" will be staged in the Chinese manner.

Mary Sheppard, Bruce Raymond and Richard Barclay are directors, respectively, of the three plays, and the whole production will get under way at eight o'clock sharp in order to allow people to attend without being kept up too late.

Scott Of The . . .

Warrender, and Birdie Bowers portrayed by Reginald Beckwith, in the tent with the wind howling and snow beating upon the canvas and Scott writes his last words in his diary—which is now resting in the British Museum. Scott at this time has a frozen foot and although the party of three have only eleven miles to go to one of their advanced camps, weather and their condition forces them to remain where they meet their ill-fated death.

Although the picture does not explain how long they remained there before a party from the expedition is sent out to find them, authentic records say that it was eight days before they were found and thus the story of Scott's second expedition to the Antarctic was brought home to England.

Wolves Capture Intermediate Cage Title With 20-17 Win Over Larks

The final game for the championship of the Westmount Intermediate Basketball League was played in the Jr. High School last week before the largest gallery of the season.

Dave Binmore's Wolves squeezed out a win over Frank Boright's Alouettes by a very close margin, the score being 20-17 in the Wolves' favour.

Both teams were playing a very close checking game and spending more of their time trying to stop their opponents from scoring than trying to score themselves.

Face Columbus Twice In Sabbath Doubleheader

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Ascension's second place Snowdon Senior Fastball League entry will have a chance to add another pair of wins to their total this Sunday when they tangle with Jay Killoran's powerful Columbus team twice.

The clubs are slated to clash for the first time in this young season at Macdonald Park, corner of Earncliffe and Isabella, at 1.45 and again at N.D.G. Park at 6.45 in the evening.

To date Columbus have won one, lost two while Ascension has won two, lost one.

Ascension Split Double

The Ascensionites split a double bill with Steinberg's last Sunday, winning the afternoon piece 6-3 behind the neat 10-hit pitching chore of Gerard "The Team" Lecavalier, dropping the nightcap 9-4.

Young Frank Shelley, suffering from a blistered finger, started the night game for the Westmounters but was blasted from the hill in the sixth. Lecav took over from there and kept things in order until the eighth, when the grocers erupted for another pair of runs.

Saindon Iron

Paul Saindon the Junior pucker from Three Rivers, turned in an ironman chore for Steinberg's Sunday. The well-built right-hander hurled all 17 innings of the two games, nine in the p.m. battle, eight in the abbreviated twilight tilt called early because of darkness.

Six walks, coupled with the five hits he allowed, proved Saindon's undoing in the afternoon game but the locals were unable to do very much with his offerings at N.D.G. Park.

6-6 AT HALF

At the end of the first half, the score was tied 6-6. The second frame saw the Wolves go two points up time and again, only to have the Larks tie up the score. With three minutes left in the ball game and the score tied 17-17, Dave Binmore scored a free throw to put the Wolves 1 up, then Bruce Thompson sniped what proved to be the deciding basket. Dave Binmore was banished for fouls in the last two minutes of play and the Wolves froze the ball to keep their 3 point lead. The Wolves played a great team game with everyone fighting hard at all times. There was no outstanding star on the team. Dave Binmore paced the Wolves, garnering 3 field goals and 1 free throw for a total of 7 points, Eddie Moore and Wendy Young came up with 4 each, Bruce Thompson finished with 3 points while Marve Greenbaum sank 2 free throws for 2 points.

Dudley Star

Jack Dudley was the outstanding man on the floor. He played a terrific two-way game. Dudley was the Larks big gun, hitting the hoop for 5 field goals and 1 free throw to finish with 11 points. Ray Binmore was held in check, and only managed to gather in 3 points. Bob Grant came up with 2, and John Piers sank a free throw for a single point.

Westmounter Finishes 4th In Marathon

In a recent 11-mile marathon race held at revere, Massachusetts, the only Canadian competitor in the field of more than 150 runners was Conway Jack, 4285 Dorchester - Street West, Westmount. Jack, racing against such famed marathoners as Johnny Kelley of Acton, Massachusetts, past winner of the Boston Marathon, Thom Crane, Lewis White, who was 3rd in the 1949 Boston Marathon, Warren Dupre, the New England 15-mile run champ, and Theodore Horne, a member of the 1948 American Olympic team, finished a very creditable fourth, although feet blisters forced him to fall back after he had held the lead until the half-way mark in the race.

The blisters came as a result of the fact that Conway had done most of his training on the dirt roads atop Mount Royal, whereas the race was run on tar and asphalt highways in Massachusetts. However, his performance was hailed as a fine one in the Boston and other American papers, and since his return to Montreal, the Westmount runner has received thirteen invitations

St. Leo's Boxers Win Nine Bouts in 9th Annual Show

By GEORGE COCHRANE

St. Leo's Academy's ninth annual boxing show, held at the school on Friday night, provided more than 500 ring fans with 16 action-packed bouts in which 32 young and willing mitt-slingers gave all they had in a crowd pleasing display of amateur ring skill and sportsmanship at its best.

St. Leo's boxers, coached by Andy McGillis, chalked up wins in nine of the three-round encounters with special honours going to Leonard Mulligan and Leslie Humbert, Mulligan was voted the best St. Leo's Junior boxer on the card and was presented The Mothers Club Trophy. Humbert won the senior honour and was presented with the Hector Cann trophy by the Hon. Douglas C. Abbott, Minister of Finance and Member of Parliament for Westmount-St. Antoine.

One T.K.O.

Only one knockout was scored in the 16-bout card and that was in the technical variety. The victim was St. Leo's Vaughan McVey, a strapping 16-year-old who was developing into one of the academy's better athletes under the skilled tutelage of pipe-smoking Andy McGillis.

McVey met up with an experienced ringster in Johnnie Dunn of the Terminal Park Y.M.C.A. The St. Leo's boxer tore from his corner at the opening gong and peppered Dunn with a series of hard lefts and rights that forced the visiting pugilist to cover up, clinch desperately. But that early flurry of blows sapped McVey's energy and towards the end of the first round Dunn began to find the range and drove home some vicious blows that made the Westmounter wince.

In the second round unleashed a savage attack that rocked McVey. Both his face and chest assumed a ruddy hue under the heavy pummeling. An angry red welt appeared on his left cheek. Then the left eye started to puff. It was at this stage that the referee wisely called a halt. McVey, a gamester to the core, wanted to continue, weakly tried to push the ref out of the way so that he could go on with the battle. But he was guided to his corner, almost completely exhausted.

Courageous Note

Ringwise spectators at Friday night's show noticed that St. Leo's 147-pound Kevin McAssey, in his bout with Dave Kitty of the Iverly Settlement, rarely used his right. His left flicking out, earning him a wide margin in points, but the right he kept cocked and used only when in trouble.

There was a reason for it. The courageous Westmounter was battling with a broken right hand. Even so, using one hand almost exclusively, he won a clearcut decision over Kitty.

Chase Loses

Johnny Chase, a 147-pound package of boxing mayhem, lost a highly unpopular decision to Lionel Taylor of the Terminal Park Y.M.C.A. Chase, a lad with tremendous punching power and a catlike grace, was the aggressor all the way but the exper-perienced Taylor tied him up in clinches and piled up points on lightning fast jabs. It was one of the best bouts on the card.

Feature Bout

The feature bout of the night brought together Bert Lattimer, of St. Leo's, and the Grenadier Guards' Bob Malouf. Fighting at 165 pounds, these two staged a punch-packed three rounds which kept the capacity throng on the edge of their seats.

Lattimer took the offensive at the opening bell, had Malouf in serious trouble but the experienced Guards battle managed to weather the storm. The last half of the round was even.

Malouf had a definite, if rather slight, edge in the middle session which featured a lively exchange of blows delivered at point blank range.

Malouf went on the warpath in the third round, hammered Lattimer relentlessly and was so keen on landing blows that the referee warned him about hitting on the breaks. Malouf kept up the stream of hot leather, made Lattimer groggy and clearly earned his decision.

Want More Canucks

Upon his return to his home town, he disclosed that the American officials of the frequent marathon races would like to have more Canadian competitors down there for these grinds to lend an international flavor to the affairs. Before coming home, Conway was entertained and shown around Boston by the aide of the Governor of Massachusetts, a reward for his exceptional performance. He plans to continue in training and hopes to be able to enter many more marathons south of the border, especially around Boston, the marathon capital of the world.

You Have Cooperated Well Quebec Employers —

And it looks now as if most of the undergraduates from Quebec universities needing summer employment will be able to find it by the end of the school year.

The situation with regard to permanent jobs for graduates is also promising.

However, MORE summer opportunities STILL are needed for undergraduates and permanent openings for graduates, especially for "Arts graduates" whose training has not fitted them for any particular industry, but who will react quickly to an employer's advantage after brief training on the job.

Through the "clearance system" of the National Employment Service, the Executive and Professional Liaison Officer at your local office can locate a graduate or undergraduate from almost any course you can name, either from within the province or neighbouring provinces.
