PREDICTS THE ULTIMATE DOWNFALL OF BOLSHEVISM

(Associated Press Despatch) MEXICO CITY, May 28.—A great world conflict between Bolshevism and western civilization, resulting in the ultimate destruction of Bolshevism is foreseen editorially by Excelsior, discussing the Anglo-Russian break yesterday. The paper says that Mexico, which is not Bolshevist, will be arrayed with the world movement for the crushing of the Bolshevist peril, a movement that "already is assuming definite form under the leadership of England and France." For England especially, Excelsior says, it is a life and death fight because of the Bolshevist menace over her empire in the Orient. If the British Empire should be undermined by Bolshevism, the paper continues, then all Europe and even America would be imperilled.

Hon. W. R. Motherwell Sees Bright Future For Agriculture In Canada

Federal Minister of Agriculture on Visit Here—Says He is Giving Agriculture the Second Time Over—Visiting Quebec and Ontario.

IN INTERVIEW REFERRED TO LAKE ST. JOHN AREA

Believes Conditions to be Good, Especially Live Stock—Although Agriculture Has Had Uphill Grind Following the War, Mr. Motherwell Now Believes It is Well into an Era of Prosperity.

THIS morning Sherbrooke was favored by a short visit from the Hon. Mr. W. R. Motherwell, Federal Minister of Agriculture, who is making a second tour of the Dominion of Canada in the interest of his department. While in the city Mr. Motherwell was the guest of Mr. Charles B. Howard, M.P., and Mrs. Howard. During his short stay this morning, before proceeding on a tour of the Eastern Townships, Mr. Motherwell was interviewed by the Record and commented upon agricultural conditions generally throughout the country, and briefly regarding the Eastern Townships, which he is at present in the course of visiting.

"Giving agriculture the second time over," was the manner in which the Hon. Mr. Motherwell described his visit, remarking that during the period from 1922 until 1924 he had visited every section of Canada, beginning at the Pacific Coast, which he visited in 1922. Then in 1923 going to the Atlantic coast and the other provinces in 1924. This year he was beginning his second tour of the Dominion, his journey commencing in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

Lake St. John District. He has already spent eleven days in the province of Quebec, he said, several of which were spent in the Lake St. John District. To the people of the other provinces of Canada the Lake St. John District was not as well known as it was in Quebec, Mr. Motherwell remarked, and added that this district had been known chiefly for what he termed "its three P's," which were, power, pulp and paper, and it was a wrong impression of the district, because, while each of these in itself are very important, they are not the only resources of the district. The real resource of the Lake St. John District is its land, Mr. Motherwell remarked.

Mention was then made of the manner in which this district had been blessed by nature, the Minister of Agriculture remarking that it had been endowed with all possible natural resources, mentioning its lands, forests, mines, fisheries, fur-bearing animals and water power. These, he remarked, were all that is required for man. With all these resources, power and forest were not the only important factors of the country. There was also agriculture, which has an available opportunity in that district owing to the very suitable land for farming. Firming In The Eastern Townships In commenting upon the agricultural situation in the Eastern Townships, Mr. Motherwell remarked that the situation in the Eastern Townships, which he is at present in the course of visiting, was very optimistic regarding the future. He referred to the fact that agriculture had had an uphill grind following the war, and it was just now that it was beginning to show signs of advancement. "It is gradually recovering and, it seems to me, while we do not want to paint things too brightly, it looks as if we were into an era of prosperity," Mr. Motherwell said.

NO EXCUSE FOR PESSIMISM AS FAR AS WESTERN CROPS CONCERNED, SAYS EXPERT

(Canadian Press Despatch) WINNIPEG, May 28.—"The individual farmer and the individual district will suffer this year, without a doubt, but up to the present, at least, there is no excuse for pessimism," declares the agricultural editor of the Manitoba Free Press in the newspaper's first general crop report for the season of 1927.

CHARGE MADE IN MOSCOW DENIED BY BALDWIN

British Premier States Break in Relations Does Not Mean War Against Russia or Any Plot to Compass a World Combination Against Soviets.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, May 28.—Premier Baldwin, in a general review of his domestic and foreign policy before an audience of women yesterday, took his first public occasion to deny allegations made in Moscow that the British-Soviet rupture meant war against Russia or any plot to compass a world combination against the Soviets.

He further outlined the Government's policy in China, saying that China was unfortunately suffering from the interference of a powerful oligarchy which, in the name of freedom of the proletariat, was trying to enslave the bodies and souls of millions. "If China can free herself from this alien incubus," he said, "she will not find us difficult to deal with and the moment there arises one voice able to speak for China, the present troubles will be in sight."

Speaking strongly in favor of giving women the vote at the age of twenty-one, instead of at the present age of thirty, the Premier voiced objection to the classing of these women, thousands of whom were professional women, as "flappers."

There was doubtless much silliness among the young of both sexes, the Premier said, but it was vastly less offensive than the silliness of middle age or senility.

NO DOUBT RUSSIANS WILL RENEW WITH INCREASED FIERCENESS THEIR ATTACKS ON EMPIRE

(Copyright 1926 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. Copyright in Great Britain by London Chronicle. Exclusive World Rights Held by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in Whole or in Part Prohibited. All Rights Reserved.)

LONDON, May 28.—The decision taken by the British Government to break off diplomatic relations with Russia is probably the most momentous international event since the Great War. No one, at the present moment, can forecast its possible repercussions. When the announcement was made, the British House of Commons felt, as far as the overwhelming majority of its members was concerned, that if the Government were bent upon a rupture, the evidence at their disposal of infringements of the trade agreement afforded them every reasonable pretext for their action. Nevertheless, there is an undercurrent of anxiety, which is by no means confined to one party, as to the wisdom of taking so drastic a step which it is so difficult to retrieve. As long as the Russians were here, there was a certain measure of control over their sinister activities. Their subversive intrigues were restricted and hampered by diplomatic exigencies. Now they are completely liberated from any obligations of that kind, there is no doubt they will renew, with increased fierceness, their attacks upon the British Empire in every quarter of the globe.

LOYD GEORGE.

The widely extended Empire of Britain is very vulnerable to attack of this kind. It has dependencies and possessions and concessions in every continent, and countries that wish to give trouble to Britain have far-flung opportunities of doing so. The creation of trouble of that kind is (Continued on Page Nine)

Japan States Troops Are Ordered To China Merely For Protective Purposes

Said to be Prepared to Send a Naval Force to Tsingtao, in Shantung, But Warships Will Not Be Despatched Unless There is Need, Japan Being Determined to Adhere to Its Policy of Non-Intervention.

Shantung province. Reasons for their despatch were given in a government statement as follows: "First—Fear of a repetition of the Nanking and Hankow incidents, owing to the inability, previously shown by the Chinese authorities to afford protection to foreigners."

"Second—Because Tsinanfu, where there are 2,000 Japanese residents is situated inland, far from the coast and Japanese cannot be protected with naval forces as in the case of those in the Yangtze Valley."

"Third—Because arrangements for the despatch of troops for protective purposes require considerable time, while the war situation changes every minute."

It is emphasized in the statement that the troops are being sent purely as a precautionary measure and there is no intention to interfere with the strategic operations of the Northern or Southern troops, or hinder their movements.

DRAFTING STERN WARNING TO CHINESE LEADERS

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, May 28.—Despatches from Tokio today emphasized that the government was sending troops to China merely for protective purposes in the event of emergency.

The government is said to be prepared to send a naval force to Tsingtao, in Shantung, but the warships will not be despatched unless there is need, the government being determined to adhere to its policy of non-intervention.

The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the Japanese Foreign Office is drafting a stern warning to the Northern and Southern Chinese factions that Japan will defend the lives and property in China of her nationals and will not tolerate molestation of her subjects or interference in any military movements she deems necessary. It is stated by the same correspondent that the cabinet has ordered a mixed brigade to be in readiness at Port Arthur to sail for Tsingtao at a moment's notice.

American in the Tientsin consular district, embracing Peking, and Chihli, Shansi and Honan provinces, the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express, says, have been notified to be ready to concentrate at Tientsin at a moment's notice. They number 2,000, including women and children. Anxiety over the situation is reported by the correspondent to be growing, due to the fact that the Chinese Nationalists are employing strong forces of armed civilians in Chihli and Shantung, who may any day seize the larger northern cities. The British, he adds, are contemplating sending an infantry brigade to Tientsin; the Japanese are showing great anxiety and have ordered all Japanese women and children in Shantung to go to Tsintao. The United States authorities have not taken any definite action, he says, but are watching the situation carefully.

LINDBERGH NOW AT BRUSSELS FOR A SHORT VISIT

King Albert and His Subjects Anxiously Await Arrival of Young Aviator Whose Courage, Talents and Modesty Have Been Lauded Throughout the World

King George, Anxious to Hear Aviator's Own Story, Has Invited Him to Buckingham Palace, and There Are Hints that a High Honor May be Conferred on Him.

(Associated Press Despatch) L E BOURGET Flying Field, France, May 28.—Feted and honored by France for the last week, Captain Charles Lindbergh hopped off today for Brussels, Belgium, where King Albert and his subjects waited to pay him tribute. Flying the "Spirit of St. Louis," the plane in which he made his epochal non-stop journey from New York to Paris, the young American dare-devil left Le Bourget field at 12.49 p.m. to the roar of a great crowd of well-wishers.

He was escorted by two squadrons of the Thirty-Fourth French air regiment, which is quartered at Le Bourget. The French planes were to accompany him as far as the frontier, where two Belgian squadrons were due to pick him up and accompany him to Evere field, outside Brussels.

Lindbergh's take-off was perfect. He taxied rapidly northward across the smooth field and then, after a run of 150 yards, turned sharply into the air, mounting at an angle of nearly forty-five degrees and heading south for Paris. The escorting planes quickly followed, but remained circling over the field ready to pick him up when, after a short flight over the city, he headed north.

So the captain of the air and king of hearts departs on his triumphant progress to the capitals of the old world. Unparalleled Honors Heaped Upon Daring Aviator.

Captain Lindbergh has consoled Parisians by promising to come back, telling them that France was the first place on which he landed and would be the last to see him when he departed.

While his courageous journey made him admired by all, his popularity among Frenchmen has been due in no small measure to his sympathetic reference to Captains Nungesser and Coli; his modest talk about their trans-Atlantic attempt from Paris to New York being more difficult than his flight, and his visit to Nungesser's mother.

Unparalleled honors were heaped upon him in this brief week. In the lapel of his coat he wears the ribbon of the Legion of Honor, conferred by President Doumergue. His mental, moral, courage, talents and modesty have been lauded throughout the world.

King Albert has decided to show his appreciation of the new air hero by pinning the cross of the Order of Leopold on the breast of Captain Lindbergh. In order to keep souvenir hunters away from the "Spirit of St. Louis" at Evere field, a strong contingent of troops will stand guard to prevent any one from approaching the plane. When it completes the flight from Paris to New York, Lindbergh, Premier Jaspard and James C. Dunn, the United States Charge d'Affaires both of whom promised to keep their Jackknives in their pockets.

A considerable part of the Brussels garrison, scores of gendarmes and a stout rail fence will be depended on to keep the crowd from rushing the field or the machine. Everybody, however, will have a chance for a close up view of the plane, for as soon as the pilot alights, it will be hoisted to a special platform past which the crowds will be invited to file.

Half a dozen Belgian airmen were designated to fly half way to Paris and escort Lindbergh to Brussels. Queen Elizabeth, after visiting Queen Ingeborg, returned to Brussels yesterday in order to greet the aviator.

Has Busy Time Before Him. Lindbergh's programme for the day included a visit to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, a reception for the presentation of the Grand Gold Medal of the Royal Aero Club and a banquet at the American Club. Tomorrow he will be received at city hall by the famous burgo-master Max, who will present a special medal, struck in his honor by the city. This visit will precede the aviator's flight to London.

In Brussels he will meet compatriots of his paternal ancestors, as he did in Paris. Princess Astrid of Sweden, who came to Brussels a few months ago as the bride of Crown Prince Leopold, is as proud of Captain Lindbergh as were the Swedes he met in Paris, claiming him as of common origin.

There is some disappointment among various clubs and societies that the aviator will be unable to accept their hospitality. He comes to Brussels as the guest of the American Club and Embassy, there being no intention to make his visit the occasion for a general series of attentions such as he received in Paris.

Will Next Fly To London. Further great things are in store for the flier when, after regal honors at Brussels, he flies across the English Channel to London. It is learned here that King George, anxious to hear the aviator's own story, has invited him to Buckingham Palace, and there are hints that a high honor may be conferred on him. In the company of the Prince of Wales he will go to the racing classic, the Derby, Wednesday, while banquets, receptions and teas fill the programme for his stay in England.

THE MYSTERY DEEPENS

When mystery the air doth fill It gives to daily life a thrill. -Peter Rabbit.

Peter Rabbit had gone over to call on Johnny Chuck. It was early in the morning. Jolly, round Mr. Sun was only a little way up on his daily climb up into the blue, blue sky. Peter had remained home all night because of the mystery of Old Man Coyote who had seemed to be in two places at once. But now he had ventured to run over to see Johnny Chuck, whose home was not far away. He wanted to know if Johnny had heard Old Man Coyote and been puzzled. Just as Peter had left the dear Old Briar-patch he had seen Old Man Coyote disappear in the edge of the Old Pasture, where his home is.

"Good morning, Johnny Chuck," said Peter, as Johnny came out to his doorstep. "I saw Old Man Coyote disappearing in the Old Pasture a few minutes ago, so I thought I would run over and say 'hello' to you."

"No, you didn't," replied Johnny Chuck bluntly. Peter looked both surprised and puzzled. "I didn't what?" inquired he. "You didn't see Old Man Coyote disappear in the Old Pasture a few minutes ago," repeated Johnny Chuck.

"What is the reason I didn't?" snapped Peter. "Because he didn't disappear there," replied Johnny Chuck. "He disappeared in the Green Forest."

"Nothing of the sort," retorted Peter. "I guess I know Old Man Coyote when I see him, and I guess no one has to keep track of him any better than I do. I saw him with my own eyes going into the Old Pasture just as I was leaving the dear Old Briar-patch to come over here."

"And I," said Johnny Chuck, "saw him disappear in the Green Forest when you were half way over here. In fact I was getting a bit worried for fear he might see you and that you wouldn't see him. I sat right here and watched him every minute. So don't try to tell me that he is up in the Old Pasture; I know better. He is over in the Green Forest, and if you will take the advice of an old friend you'll keep away from there. Yes, sir, you'll keep away from the Green Forest."

Peter was just on the point of telling Johnny Chuck that it was no such thing and that he was greatly mistaken when it came to

UNCLE JIM'S LETTER

Dear Corner Boys and Girls: Well, did every one have a good time on the 24th or May? It was a beautiful spring day and I am sure many people went fishing, and on outing parties? I was in the country and enjoyed the day very much, though I did not fish. The spring flowers are very pretty now, and the cherry trees are lovely with their dainty white blossoms. I do not think we should gather them, for the blossoms mean fruit for the birds. If they can't get cherries and wild berries they won't come to our gardens and orchards.

Then, I want to ask the corner children to always be careful when gathering the wild flowers not to do not protect our wild flowers. The seeds of them will soon be extinct. The seeds of the wild blossoms also provide the birds with food after the fruits and flies and summer insects are gone, so you see it is a case of protection all round.

It is nice to go out into the woods and fields to get flowers, but we would never be greedy; always leave some to go to seed, and also to brighten the places where they grow.

One of the corner cousins sent me some arbutus two years ago. I planted it in a secluded place and the first year it grew a little, but this spring it is dead. I suppose it was not in the right kind of soil. I shall try, some time, to get a bit of it to plant, for I am getting all kinds of wild flowers to grow at my country home, and they are just as pretty as the garden flowers.

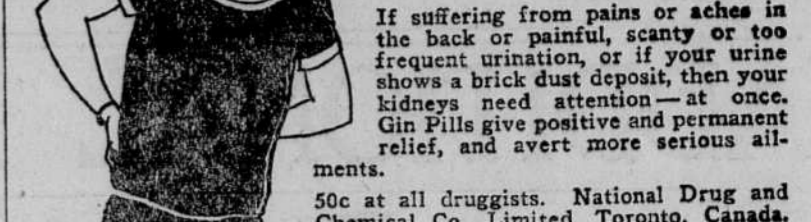

How are the gardens coming on? I have planted cucumbers, lettuce, onions, cress, etc., and have the ground ready for tomato plants. My ground is up, and the onions are growing fine. I am starting to raise iris, and have quite a few kinds now. Hoping to hear that some of the corner folk are making gardens, and with best wishes to all I will say good-night, and will write again next Saturday.

As ever, faithfully yours, UNCLE JIM.

HOW TO DECIDE

Budding Youth - I'm at a loss to know whether to be phenologist or a story writer. His Dad - Toss for it - heads or tails? WEAK, LISTLESS GIRLS

Need Such a Tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to Restore Health. When a girl in her teens becomes pale and sallow, especially if at the same time she shows inclination to tire easily, a listlessness and inattention to her work or studies, she needs Dr. Williams' Pink Pills - a tonic which directly and specifically corrects the condition from which she is suffering. A chemical analysis of the blood of such a girl would show it to be deficient in just the elements Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can supply. But an analysis of the blood is not needed - the physical signs are plain. Among these signs are a pallor of the cheeks and lips, dark circles under the eyes, easily tired and breathless after slight exertion. Poor appetite, headaches, and sometimes fainting spells follow; often the patient is nervous and is startled at the least noise. In all run-down conditions there is no other tonic will build you up so quickly and so surely as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The statement of Miss Dorothy Lumblyn, Bush Island, N.S., will bring hope to other weak girls. She says: "I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is in a run-down condition to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. About a year ago I was a weak girl suffering from impoverished blood and a run-down system, with many of the attendant symptoms. I had often read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to take them, and after using six boxes I feel as well and strong as ever. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my standby in the future if ever my blood needs building up again, and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to others."

You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Dear Uncle Jim: This is my third letter to your corner which I like very much. I guess I will wait till next year for a J.R.C. pin. I hope the corner cousins will have a good time through the summer holidays. My Mama was sick all winter so I had to stay at home and not go to school. I hope, Uncle Jim, that my letter is neat. I will close for this time. From Your loving niece, ISOBEL BUZZELL. Stanstead.

Dear Uncle Jim: This is my third letter to the corner. I try my best in writing. I go to school and am in grade three. My teacher is Miss Bennett and I like her very well. I ride in a van with fifteen other schoolmates. I always read your letters to the corner. For pets I have two dogs named Trix and Trixie, and a cat named Jack. I have three brothers younger than myself, and one sister. I am twelve years old. You use, CONGREY. Bishop's Crossing.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS HELP A PRIZE WINNER

Baby's Own Tablets are without an equal for little ones. From the newborn babe to the growing child they are an absolute safeguard to health. Once a mother has used them she will use nothing else. Thousands of mothers always keep them on hand.
Among the mothers who state that Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine for little ones that they know of is Mrs. Russell Hill, of Norwood, Ont. Her experience with the Tablets should be of great benefit to any mother who has not already given the Tablets a trial. Mrs. Hill says: "I have five fine healthy children, and from the youngest to the oldest they get no other medicine but Baby's Own Tablets. When our baby girl was eleven months old she won second prize at the Norwood Fair, and when she was a year older she won first prize in competition with twenty-eight other babies. It was the Tablets that gave her the health and development to carry off these prizes. I always delight in telling other mothers what the Tablets have done for my children."

"Fruit-a-tives" Corrected Bladder and Bowel Trouble

MR. THOS. GRAHAM
Mr. Thos. Graham, of Oshawa, Ont., has found the key to health. Writing about it he says: "Just a line to tell you what good 'Fruit-a-tives' has done me. I am 60 years old and tried all kinds of medicines for bladder and bowel trouble, which used to keep me from work a month at a time, until I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' Thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives' I have worked steadily for four years without a sick day. I have never felt better than I do now." "Fruit-a-tives" substitutes radiant health for sickness. 3500 Canadian Veterans Still in Hospital

THE RED CROSS as your agent brings them cheer

SUPPOSE you were condemned indefinitely to the dreary round of hospital life—after four years of fighting and suffering for Canada!

Your friends far away . . . your means restricted . . . your family, perhaps, having a hard struggle to get along . . . Wouldn't you long for kindly visitors . . . books, and smokes, to brighten the long days . . . the knowledge that someone was interested in the welfare of your family?

About 3500 of Canada's war veterans still face months in hospital. Some are permanently "shut in."

To these the Red Cross brings friendship and cheer. Radios and recreation rooms . . . Christmas treats and summer outings . . . weekly visits and frequent entertainments . . . such things serve to show to those who suffered for Canada that Canada cares.

In the three Red Cross Summer Homes, the convalescent and the "hospital-weary"—some never to be well again—are given a chance to exchange the murk of the city for the pure air, the fresh breezes, the sunny days and the cool nights of the open places.

In three Red Cross Workshops, disabled men who cannot compete in the open labor market are given sheltered employment . . . encouraged to regain their skill and capacity and become independent and self-sustaining.

When sickness comes, the Red Cross is again the help of the ex-soldier and his family, if medical and nursing aid is required . . . the Red Cross helps to get relief. The soldier settler on the frontiers of civilization also finds in the Red Cross a never-failing friend.

The Red Cross supplements the justice of official agencies with the friendliness of personal interest. By supporting the Red Cross, YOU can do YOUR bit for those who fought and suffered.

ASBESTOS CASE DISMISSED BY JUDGE WHITE

Hearing of Action for $575.50 Was Concluded Before Superior Court Here Yesterday.

The action taken by Georges Marcotte, of Asbestos, for damages against G. W. Clark, also of Asbestos, was dismissed by Mr. Justice C. D. White in the Superior Court yesterday.

Georges Marcotte, the plaintiff, instituted an action against G. W. Clark, the defendant, alleging that in the month of June, 1926, his minor son, Ludger Marcotte, while riding his bicycle on the right side of the road, was struck by the defendant's car, which was illegally driven by his minor son. That when the accident occurred a baseball game had just terminated and there was on the road a large crowd of spectators, but despite this the defendant's auto was driven along the street going at the time of the accident at the rate of about forty miles an hour, thus putting in danger the lives of the citizens, and in particular that of the plaintiff's son. That his son's bicycle was seriously and completely broken and he was seriously injured by the accident, especially his head and his left side; that defendant's car, besides being driven at an unreasonable rate of speed, was on the wrong side of the road and struck the plaintiff's son, who was on his right side of the road; that the accident was caused by the sole fault and negligence of the defendant in thus illegally driving his automobile, and defendant continued his route after the accident. As a result of the accident the plaintiff's son underwent treatment and was unable to work for eighteen days, losing as a result the sum of seventy-two dollars; that his doctor's bill amounted to one hundred and ten dollars, the bicycle and other damages amounting to thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents. The plaintiff also claimed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars additional damages, by reason of the diminution in the plaintiff's son's earning capacity and for exemplary damages; claiming in all from the defendant the sum of five hundred and seventy dollars and fifty cents.

For plea to this action the defendant stated that his son was nearly twenty-four years of age at the time of the accident in question; he denied all allegations of fault and further pleaded that on the occasion of the accident in question the plaintiff's son, who was at the time learning to ride a bicycle, came along the left hand side of a square and when reaching the street at the junction of the streets called Nicolette and St. George streets, instead of going along the side of one or other of the said streets, rode directly across the street and went to the side of St. George street; farthest away from the square. That the automobile was being driven at the rate of twenty miles an hour at the time of the accident and was proceeding along the right hand side of Nicolette street, and when opposite the commencement of St. George St., the defendant's car was struck by the bicycle ridden by plaintiff's son; the said bicycle striking the car at about the front wheel on the left hand side of the plaintiff's son; the said bicycle immediately before the accident, was being driven along the wrong side of the street called Square street and that the driver of the automobile could not tell which way the bicycle was going to turn, but that would appear that he was going to turn down Nicolette street. However instead he rode straight across Nicolette street; and that at the time of the accident the plaintiff's son seemed to be incapable of controlling the bicycle and in order to prevent a collision the automobile was driven so near the right side of the street that it went into the ditch, the driver of the automobile doing everything possible to prevent the accident, which was caused by the fault, negligence and imprudence of the plaintiff's son, who deliberately ran into the defendant's automobile.

The learned judge, after hearing the parties by their respective counsels on the merits of the action, and having heard the witnesses and examined the proceedings and deliberated, rendered judgment as follows: Considering that there are four grounds of negligence alleged against the defendant's son, first that the automobile was being illegally driven by defendant's minor son; second, that the automobile crossed the road to hit plaintiff's son; third, that the automobile was not driven on the right side of the road; and fourth, that defendant's son continued his route after the accident.

Considering that the evidence establishes that defendant's son is twenty-four years of age and has a driver's license. Considering that it is not established that defendant's son continued on his way after the accident, but that it is established that the car stopped almost directly after the accident.

Considering that plaintiff's witnesses, who swear that the car was being driven at an excessive rate of speed, did not see the car at the time of the accident but shortly before.

Considering that the defendant's witnesses, who actually saw the accident, swear that the car was not being driven at an excessive rate of speed, and that it was on the right of the road.

Considering that plaintiff has not established any of the grounds of negligence alleged.

Both dismiss plaintiff's action with costs.

Messrs. Perreault and Girouard represented the plaintiff, and Messrs. Wells, Lynch and Wilson represented the defendant.

WHO'S WHO IN THE STORY. SALLY LINGFIELD, dancer at the Faun, a night club. JOSH AKERS, a waster, with whom POPPY, Sally's roommate, another dancer at the Faun. PHILIP SANDERSON, rich young man of wealth and leisure, who loves Sally. One morning when drunk, he runs over her and injures her.

SOMETIMES, Sanderson's dog, MRS. KIFF, his landlady. John Akers, hearing of Sally's probably permanent injury, says he is through with her, and Sanderson assumes her care. He gets a cottage in the country for her and Mrs. Kiff. At first Sally hates it, and is heartless to Sanderson—even telling him she is glad when Sometimes is injured by an automobile. But gradually she becomes somewhat reconciled, and even looks more kindly on Sanderson's love for her.

The rector, Robert Nairn, brings his young son, Garry, to see Sally. Sanderson is immediately jealous. Word comes that Poppy is very ill, and Sanderson goes to her.

CHAPTER XXIV. Garry to the Rescue.

The rain cleared off the next day, and the sun shone again with watery splendor.

Presently the garden gate creaked, and a man's step came up the path, followed by a cautious knock at the door.

Mrs. Kiff was away out in the wash-house, and after waiting a moment Sally called out:

"Please come in, whoever you are."

"Oh, may I?" a cheery voice answered, and a moment later the big figure of Garry Nairn stood in the doorway of the sitting-room. Sally was conscious of quick pleasure.

Here was someone to talk to at last. She held out her hand with welcoming eagerness.

"Oh, how nice! I was just feeling lonely. Please come in." He carried his hat in his hand, showing that he was not at all embarrassed as he came forward and took her hand.

"The gunner asked me to call; he sent a book you wanted." He produced it from a bulging pocket of his rough coat.

"Oh, thank you," Sally took it with a great show of gratitude. It was a book she did not want to read in the least, but he had said she did in order to please the vicar.

Garry Nairn glanced towards the window; Sally thought he was impatient to be off, and she said quickly:

"It must be lovely out this morning. It's very fresh after the rain."

"I should have gone in the woods if Philip had been here."

"Isn't he here?"

"No, he went back to London last night. A friend is ill, and he had to go, and Mrs. Kiff can't push me out today, because she's got to do the washing."

"I see." He looked at her with a twinkle in his blue eyes. He would have been more than dense to have missed the very obvious point of her words.

"I'll take you out, if you like."

"You!" Sally gave a little squeal of delight.

"Oh, but the chair's so heavy!" she protested.

Garry Nairn laughed.

"Do I look such a weakling?"

"No, but—you'll have to carry me out to it."

"I dare say I'm quite as capable as Sanderson."

He was more capable—or was it that to be held in his strong young arms was more of a novelty? At any rate, Sally wished that the distance between her couch and the garden had been twice as long.

Mrs. Kiff was not sure that she approved.

"I don't know what Mr. Sanderson would say," she told Sally as she got her ready. "If anything was to happen—"

"Nothing will happen," Sally said happily. And nothing did happen except that they spent a very interesting morning. Garry Nairn, it appeared, knew the countryside far

NO HEAVY TRADING. We should learn to profit by our mistakes, but not try to get rich on a large turnover.

I meant the young one," Sally said. "Ho!" said Mrs. Kiff. For a moment there was an eloquent silence, during which Sally kept her eyes tightly shut, and finding there was nothing more to be got out of her Mrs. Kiff retired. Monday—"Happiness and Sorrow."

CONDITION OF EUSTIS MAN IS VERY SERIOUS

George Asbury, Twenty-Seven Years Old, Employee of Eustis Mining Company - at Present in Sherbrooke Hospital Suffering from Serious Injuries to Head Received on Monday Last When Struck by Heavy Cable - Condition Critical.

George Asbury, twenty-seven years old, an employee of the Eustis Mining Company, Eustis, was brought to the Sherbrooke Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from serious injuries sustained on Monday afternoon last when he was thrown off the trolley car, which was bringing a load of ore from the mine to the mill. He is in a critical condition.

According to accounts received, it appears that Mr. Asbury was riding on the rear of the trolley, which, in descending the steep incline to the mill, broke away from the balance car, the heavy cable striking the unfortunate man. The company doctor was at once called and it was not thought that his condition was serious, but as he grew worse, it was thought better to remove him to the Sherbrooke Hospital. Lord's ambulance was called and the injured man was removed to the hospital, where a thorough examination showed that he was suffering from serious injuries to the head.

Reports from the hospital this morning are to the effect that Mr. Asbury's condition is critical.

A SPRING DAY-DREAM
Oh, how I wish I was a sloth,
Because to work I'm always loth;
And if I were a sloth, you see,
I'd just be hanging from a tree.

Then if I wished to read the news,
I'd just gaze upward lazily
While breezes turned the leaves for me.

The Pride of Youth - CLEAN Teeth

Say what you will of the modern "younger generation"—they do appreciate the wholesome value of CLEAN teeth.

Look at them—on the street—in their entertainments—in their homes—and you must at once notice the gleaming flash of dazzling white teeth that are kept CLEAN—and in most cases, kept CLEAN by Colgate's—the dual-action dentifrice that most people, young or old, are using to-day.

Youth is wise to-day. Follow its lead—use Colgate's twice a day, every day—visit your dentist twice a year, and say good-bye to dental worries.

For youth is quick to appreciate the virtues of Colgate's dual-cleansing action. Youth knows that when Colgate's is brushed on the teeth, it expands into a delicious plentiful foam that first loosens all embedded particles and polishes tooth surfaces, then washes teeth, gums, tongue—leaving the mouth absolutely CLEAN.

CITY BRIEFETS

CHANGE SYSTEM OF HANDLING MAIL NOT ADDRESSED TO "GENERAL DELIVERY"

The Post Office Department has recently changed the system of handling mail matter not addressed to the general delivery. In the future, persons wishing to have mail held in the general delivery will have to address it "general delivery" or "poste restante".

All letters mailed for local delivery addressed simply Sherbrooke City, with or without street and number, if not deliverable will not be held in the general delivery, but will be returned immediately to the sender if known. If the sender's name is not given they will be sent to the "dead letter" office.

SLIGHT SNOWFALL HERE THIS MORNING

Unknown perhaps to many citizens, Sherbrooke was actually visited by a snowfall this morning, which although not sufficient to make itself felt to any extent, nevertheless was rather unusual for so late a date as May 28th.

Sherbrooke has now been furnished with a real variety of weather, varying from rain to cold winds, then to snow and back to rain. It would seem as though the weather man had remembered the city with all his brands. Sunshine has, however, been overlooked or forgotten, and it is hoped now that every other kind has been tried, he will direct a little sunshine to this district.

The weather throughout the week has been decidedly disagreeable. Rain has made itself apparent nearly every day, while general conditions have been such that attention has been directed to keeping a fire in the furnace and neglecting the garden or other outdoor work which is usually in full swing by this time.

MR. GEORGE FULLER ADDRESSED HI-Y CLUB

"Aviation" so much before the public today, was the theme on which Mr. George Fuller spoke to the Hi-Y Club last night. In opening his address he gave a resume of the early efforts in aviation, referring to the experiments of his and his brother, which though ending in failure, was a splendid ground-work for the later experiences that were to come. He then told of the Wright brothers and others who had been flying in the high position that it occupied just before the war, but the part that gripped all present was the recounting of the experiences at Hendon and other airfields in Britain as Mr. Fuller was being taught more and more about the eyes of the army.

With a modesty that was at once pleasing and very effective, Mr. Fuller covered many of his activities in the racy biographies he gave of some of the British aces in their wonderful struggles for supremacy in the air. He also gave a very clear impression of the value of the air force as the eyes of the army, the bombing section, also of the big place that the fighting plane had in the actual warfare. Reference was made to the splendid though unsuccessful flight of Nungesser and Coli, and to the splendid flight made by Capt. C. Lindbergh.

On the whole it was the most interesting of all the talks that the Hi-Y Club has yet heard, and the thanks of the president were echoed by all.

PARISH PRIEST OF PUTNAM, CONN., PASSED AWAY

The Catholic clergy of Eastern Canada and the United States are mourning the loss of one of their number in the person of the late Father C. Bedard, of Putnam, Conn., who passed away on Wednesday last at the age of fifty-nine years. The late Father Bedard was the first priest to be ordained by the late Bishop LaRocque. The remains were brought here and were interred in the crypt of the Cathedral.

WILL MAKE OFFICIAL REFERENCE TO GREAT FEAT OF CAPT. LINDBERGH

The services at Plymouth United Church on Sunday will be conducted by the minister, Dr. G. Ebery Read. At the morning service he will deliver the last of the series of sermons on "Man's Increasing Hope of Immortality", the particular theme being, "The Practice of Immortality". The choral service will include a solo by Miss Baldwin, "The Man of Sorrows", a composition by Barrytown Power.

At the evening service the subject of address will be "Youth's Daring Flight", with special reference to the great feat of Captain Lindbergh, which has been acclaimed as the greatest feat of the ages. The choir will sing the anthem, "Like as the hart", by Vincent Novello, and the special soloist will be Mrs. J. Keith Edwards, who will sing, "Thou Will Keep Him in Perfect Peace" (Oley Speaks).

The church school will meet at the hours announced in the church notice. All services are on summer time.

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE'S VISIT TO TOWNSHIPS

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Canadian Minister of Agriculture, who is a week-end visitor to the Townships, is a Western man and perhaps for the first time will have an opportunity to view Eastern Townships agriculture. He will behold a scene very different from that presented in the Prairie Provinces.

The Eastern Townships is one of Canada's best dairy farm districts. Conditions are not all that might be desired, but for a hundred years the harvest has never failed.

For a number of years, Canada has gone West for its Minister of Agriculture. The seat of Government in this regard, so to speak, shifted following the retirement of the late Hon. Sydney Fisher. Some times the East is inclined to feel that its agricultural interests are overlooked. This arises from the mere fact that the Minister is a Western man, who from his home porch sees only fields of waving grain.

The visit of Mr. Motherwell and his tour of the Townships will help to dispel views of this kind if they are held. He will be welcomed and if his tour is fairly extensive he cannot fail to be impressed with the agricultural wealth of this territory.

Mr. Motherwell, as Minister of Agriculture, represents all of Canada agriculturally. Canada's fields are vast and the interests of various sections somewhat divergent. The minister evidently appreciates the value of the personal touch and wants to see for himself. The energetic member for Sherbrooke, whose guest he will be, may be depended upon to make the most of the Minister's time in the Townships.

BREAK WITH THE SOVIETS

Great Britain and Canada have reached the conclusion that it is impossible to continue diplomatic relations with the Soviet Government. Information received has convinced the Governments of both countries that the official offices of the Soviets in Britain and Canada have been engaged in spreading revolutionary propaganda. Assuming this fact to be established, the public generally will commend the Government's action.

It is obviously impossible to regard as a friendly nation, and to extend official recognition to a Government that persistently takes advantage of the opportunity thus afforded to stir up trouble and preach revolution.

It is interesting to note that the list of Communist addresses in this country included none in the Province of Quebec. This is significant. While here and there in other parts of the country the germ of Bolshevism has taken root weakly, it has found in this province no soil for even a scant foothold.

World revolution is the aim of Soviet Russia. The sooner the national governments of all countries recognize this and act accordingly the better for the countries they represent.

THE PHILOSOPHER.

Aim at perfection in everything, though in most things it is unattainable. However, they who aim at it and persevere, will come much nearer to it than those whose laziness and Despondency make them give it up as unattainable.—Chesterfield.

POINTS FOR COLLEGE MEN

The managing editor of a college paper has requested me to give some points for college men. There follows herewith a brief synopsis of what I gave him. Giving advice is about the best thing I do. It doesn't cost anything and usually nobody takes it and so there is no harm done.

The first thing for a college boy to keep in mind is why he has come to college at all. It behooves him to keep his eye on the ball, as the saying is.

He is in college to improve his mind. Of course it is all right to engage in sports and a reasonable amount of recreation is a help to one's mental efficiency. So salt is good and a little of it flavors the meat. But when you have too much salt you can't eat the food. A little recreation is good but when there is too much the mess is spoiled.

Do not be a sissy or a shark but maintain your balance and keep your eye on the ball.

Out door recreations are the best kind. Outdoors is the best guarantee of sanity and preventive of morbidity.

A habit of frankness should be cultivated. Don't shift. Don't invent alibis or excuses. Don't be afraid to say, I don't know. Don't get a grudge against some professor and think he is trying to railroad you to failure.

Of course there are bad teachers and tyrannical professors, but the best way to meet them is to take their snubs gracefully and bob up serenely. A grudge gets you nowhere.

Avoid egotism. Look about you. Most of the people you don't like are disagreeable because of their egotism. Don't think more highly of yourself than you ought to think. A college education does you no good unless it is planted in the soil of humility.

Be a good sport, that means a good loser. Remember that the meanest trait in a person's mind is to feel bad when somebody excels him. Cast envy out of your bosom. It is the principle trouble maker among grown people as well as boys.

That is about all I can think of at present and doubtless it will fall harmlessly off the average college man's attention, but at least the advice is honest and well meant.—Cpt. 1927.

PRESS COMMENT

MR. ZERO OF CANADA.

Urban Ledoux—the "Mr. Zero" of the nickel-a-meat cellar in St. Mark's Place—is reported to have fed 200,000 hungry orphans last winter. On the wall of his restaurant, called "The Tub," is the explanation of his charity: "To bring a greater share of love and beauty into the lives of those too long deprived." Ledoux is an educated Canadian who has served his country as a diplomatist at various consular posts. He works during the summer and gives all he saves away in the winter. He talks to reporters, but gives the idea he is not especially interested in publicity. Even the name by which he is best known is the outgrowth of his modesty.

WHEN SNOWDEN SPOKE.

It seems strange that an attack so bitter and forceful as that poured out by Philip Snowden at the time Hon. Winston Churchill delivered his Budget speech should have drawn no fire from the Government benches. Snowden is a frail, twisted wreck of a man. He walks with the aid of two rubber-tipped canes. Doorkeepers and attendants in the House of Commons are quick to afford him all the bodily comforts they can. But the man with whom he deals with and with whom he debates do not pity Snowden. Some fear him, more envy him and respect the power of his intellect, the penetration of his analytical powers and the sting that can ride on a voice that at best is always rasping.

ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

To draw up a written pact of co-operation between the British and American Commonwealths would be a fatal step, for it would appear to outsiders as if the English-speaking peoples desired to impose their will on the rest of the world, while in reality they have no such intention. That is not to say that one should not exert every effort to promote an understanding between our peoples, for without it the world outlook would be a dark one. An increasing number of people in every part of the English-speaking world sincerely believe in the necessity of English-speaking co-operation, and, while disapproving of a formal alliance, maintain that a spiritual alliance already exists.

THE PROFESSION OF HOUSEWORK.

It is an interesting scheme that Scientific Housekeeping, Inc., has launched in New York, for the purpose of elevating housework to the dignity of a profession. One reads that this organization has been formed by a group of society matrons, every one of whom is listed in the Social Register; and it appears that a test kitchen and training school is to be maintained where all domestic workers will be required to qualify before they are declared eligible for service.

Some might say that Mrs. Richard Boardman, the president of this society, is looking at things through rose colored spectacles, in so far as she states that she is convinced that the plan she is sponsoring contains within itself the solution of the domestic problem. The assurance is given, in fact, that the mistress of the house will bid dull care begone, with regard to household burdens, at least, if this organization takes over the tasks to which reference is made. The future alone can tell if this forecast proves justified.

On one point there is probably no question that benefit will be reaped from the proposals made. The domestic worker, one is given to understand, will ordinarily work no more than nine hours a day, with a fixed scale of pay for overtime, and will live and take her meals out. In other words she will be situated "exactly like her sisters in offices, stores and elsewhere." This should certainly prove quite attractive to many.

As to the profession of housework, however, it must not be forgotten that countless women are in that "profession" perforce, because they cannot afford help. Is it too much to hope that possibly this new organization will spell some slight new freedom for them also? How many housewives can say that nine hours constitute their day? And how many get paid for overtime? Is it not about time that the sentiment in the couplet, "Man works from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done," should cease to be accepted as the inevitable state of affairs?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

U.S. CITIZEN DISCUSSES FARM QUESTION RE-TEMPERANCE VIEW POINT

To the Editor, Sherbrooke Record, Sir:—Many of your writers in your issues have been trying to locate some of the causes of the farmers' ills. Mr. Bruce Payne came in one of his letters, it is because the farmers spend too much time and money in guzzling beer, while his horse is hitched at the blacksmith's shop.

In issue of May 3rd, Mr. "Happy Half Wit" tells us that the "Wise Men of Quebec" think booze is a good thing and they have made it as convenient as possible for everyone to get it. From their view point the booze question is a debatable one. The Supreme Court of the U.S. has ruled that all drinks containing alcohol have no food value whatever, and have no power to quench thirst, and therefore can have no commercial value as a drink. If the Supreme Judges are right in their decision, then all alcoholic drinks are pocket money. I have seen in the Canadian press a statement that my native province last year did a business of twenty million dollars in the long neck bottle, a sort of a jack pot business. I should say. At the end of the year the liquor men look sixteen million dollars and no share in playing the game, the farmers, mechanics, lawyers, merchants, doctors, church deacons and ministers, took the tail end which was four million dollars, for their part of the game. This coming year Ontario expects to make a much better showing.

Your correspondent from Saskatchewan tells us that when he farmed in Eastern Townships they worked fourteen hours a day. He claims he does not have to shake pennies out of his pockets to make a noise, I feel safe in saying that our forefathers who blazed the trail into Eastern Townships put in more than fourteen hours a day during the summer season. Those old pioneers were a hardy lot. They lived in houses where the cracks between the logs admitted no drifting snow. They labored hard to get a living and thousands of them had nothing but the axe and hoe to start with, but they certainly prospered as their splendid farms will testify to the fact. But, the present generation seems to be soft and might be called hot house plants, and a great many tender ones at that. They are restless, shifting from pillar to post, looking for short days, fat pay envelopes, and luxuries that were intended for the rich. Lacking their farms by the thousands, when they hear the whistle blow in our manufacturing plants. The government at Washington reported last week that more than a million people deserted their farms in the last two years and if this decrease keeps up for fifty years there will not be one farmer in the United States.

From my view point the alcoholic drink is the chief cause of all the trouble. I will cite two great wine drinking countries of the world, Spain and France and both agricultural countries and their farm lands today are at a very low ebb. They have little or no good machinery and the crops are largely raised by the women, while the strong rugged men spend their time sipping wine in the public gardens.

Take the Canadian farmer today, who is largely dependent on his income from his milk. On an average he receives today less than three cents per quart for his milk. It is reported from Ontario that the liquor dealers expect to sell their products for $5 to $7 per quart. Premier Ferguson says the price may seem a little high, but of the farmer wishes to kick he isn't obliged to drink quite so much. I am not thoroughly posted myself to know just the number of days one quart will keep a man drunk and fit to do farm work.

Assuming that the farmer gets three cents per quart for milk, it will take 233 quarts of milk to buy one quart of whiskey. That looks to me like a pretty shrewd deal on the farmers' part to trade 233 quarts of milk containing all natural foods for the system for one quart of whiskey containing nothing but poison. In your issue of May 17th, a farmer's wife writes a few verses. I quote in part from them:

"The farmer's wife he wholly ignores, As she goes to the barn to help with the chores, And rises in the early morn To milk the cow with the crumpled horn, And goes to the field in the heat of the day, To rake the meadows of new-mown hay, She must go to town in a sonnet blue In a calico dress and cow hide shoe And do just as her grandmother used to do."

I think the farmer's wife is right and extremely fortunate to get the sun bonnet blue and cowhide shoe if her husband is trading 233 quarts of milk for one quart of whiskey.

This generation of hot house farmers have gained a lap on the older generation by buying their whiskey with the government seal drawn over the cork. That is certainly a progressive scheme. That seal guarantees to the farmer that he is getting pure whiskey, and will better he must take it home and drink it. But the government seal on the whiskey bottle certainly beats all the smoke screens that were ever blown from the funnels of hell. The long neck whiskey bottle is today a hot bed for a hundred years the devil's pride, the farmers black and hellish curse. The long necked whiskey bottle furnishes the farmer's wife with sun bonnet blue, and cow hide shoe; it fills the farmers' sties with paint brush, his little crib with morons; it makes out of his boys, who were promising, bear eyed burnt out volcanoes; it takes his bright and charming daughters and makes of them shamed faced immoral wretches; it sends them down into the sewers and their souls into hell.

It is the devil's ale, the devil's pride, the farmer's shame and his black and hellish curse.

Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valued space,

I am yours, C. F. SMITH, 70 Moore Ave., Worcester, Mass.

RE FARMING QUESTION.

To the Editor, Sherbrooke Record, Sir:—I have read with interest the letter on farming and thought someone would get around to lay the blame where it belonged. I have been used to having all our troubles laid to the government even for the weather. Now if our government had drafted every man from eighteen to sixty years of age at the start of our war and picked out what was needed for over seas and put the balance on farms or in shops as needed most and kept the wages down, we would have been in clover now. Labor is at the bottom of all kinds of business and the laborer must get enough to live on and if one dollar will buy him more comfort than three will now, that is what he needs. But you can never help the laborer out by raising wages or the farmer by raising prices. Our boys who went overseas got robbed and our boys that stayed here got spoilt with too easy money and ruined the country.

Yours truly,

OLD TIME FARMER.

DISTINCTIVE IN APPEARANCE, ECONOMICAL IN CONSTRUCTION
 By Maurice D. Klein, Architect.

The size of the average family, particularly well lighted by case-ment windows on the lower and upper stair landings.

Your attention is particularly called to the large living room, 11 ft. 9 in. x 15 ft., where all doorways and other openings are centered—the door from the hall; double French doors to the porch; triple casement windows overlooking the garden, and the brick fireplace. The dining room is 11 ft. 9 in. x 11 ft. 6 in. and its windows overlook the rear and side gardens. There is a service door to the kitchen, where every provision has been made for convenience. In the side entry there is space for a refrigerator and a built-in milk cupboard accessible from the outside.

On the second floor are three bedrooms which will compare very favorably with the corresponding rooms of any other small six-roomed house. Their sizes are 11 ft. 2 in. x 13 ft. 6 in., 10 ft. 4 in. x 12 ft. 1 in., and 9 ft. 9 in. x 12 ft. 1 in. All have windows on two sides and roomy clothes closets.

The architect's recommendations concerning the materials to be used are equally as interesting as any other matters pertaining to this home.

For the foundations and up to the floor line he suggests stone, or brick faced with variegated stone from the ground to the floor line. From this point upward a grey white stucco should be applied to either brick or hollow tile. The roof would be very pleasingly done with good quality wood shingles stained a reddish brown, the metal gutters and downspouts painted black. It is really most important that the front door, batted shutters and casement windows be made up from detail drawings. The other doors may be of stock design. The sash and French doors should be painted ivory white and the frames, shutters, front door and exposed rafters stained brown.

The overall dimensions of this house are 28 ft. 3 in. wide by a depth of 28 ft. 6 in. The former dimension includes the porch, which only extends back 16 ft. 6 in.

Including hot water heating, the approximate cost is $6,300.

Readers desiring further information regarding the plans and specifications of this house should communicate with the architect direct. Address Mr. Maurice D. Klein, 71 King St. W., Toronto, Ont., Copyright 1927, MacLean Building Reports, Limited.

recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson.

LAWNS, LIKE A GARDEN, NEED ATTENTION

Unless Owner of Lawn Is Prepared to Give It as Much Attention as He Devotes to Flower and Vegetable Gardens, He Might Better Devote All His Time to His Garden.

Many patches of vegetation are unduly flattered by being referred to as lawns. They are, in fact, weed and that largely wild grasses of weedy character. A lawn to be worthy of the name is a garden for grass and the varieties of grass grown in this garden are of the finest and most carefully selected kinds.

The lawn usually occupies more square feet in the yard or grounds than the vegetable and flower gardens combined yet it rarely receives one-tenth the attention lavished upon the other two gardens. Mowing in a majority of cases is the chief attention. England is famed for its fine lawns. They are no exclusive possession. Any Canadian can have as fine if he wants to and will give it the same attention the English grass grower gives his sward. The centuries of development boasted by these famous lawns are fictitious embellishments. No lawn needs a century for its development. Two years will do it if the job is done right.

The great majority of lawns have to go along with the weekly mowing, an occasional dressing of lime which very often isn't needed and does no good, and an annual seeding which is very often done at the wrong time and when, perhaps, it is not needed at all, a good fertilizer being much more essential. Grass can't be made to grow luxuriantly by heavy seeding if it hasn't the food to sustain it.

Unless the owner of a lawn is prepared to give it as much attention as he devotes to his flower and vegetable gardens he might much better devote the entire area to gardens, for he has no right to expect a very successful or beautiful lawn. The best he will get will be a covering of verdure with as many weeds in it as grass and there will be no chance for velvety, springy carpet of green.

The finest element in producing a fine lawn is through preparation of the soil, as thorough as if it were to be devoted to growing prize roses, peonies or asters, giving it good grading, fine pulverizing and liberal fertilizing.

PIRATES CHALK UP THEIR NINTH STRAIGHT WIN

Pittsburgh Treating World Champions as Disrespectfully as They Did Giants a Few Days Ago.

(Associated Press Despatch)
 NEW YORK, May, 28.—Treating the world champion St. Louis Cardinals as disrespectfully as they did the New York Giants a few days ago, the Pittsburgh Pirates today had rolled up a winning streak of nine games and a good sized lead in the National League.

The 1925 winners of the world crown threatened to make a clean sweep of their series with the Cards, as they did with the Giants, by knocking off the champions by 8 to 7 in a ten inning set-to yesterday.

The winning hit, a single was made by Joe Bush, the last of the three Pirate hurriers, who won his own game by scoring Harris in the tenth.

Meanwhile the Giants were taking a one-two on the chin from Brooklyn in the shape of a double defeat, 5 to 3 and 5 to 1. In both games Wilbert Robinson had the kind of pitching he has been sighing for. Dazzy Vance pitched the first and Jess Petty the second. Hornsby made his eighth homer.

The Chicago Cubs, who share the first division with the Pirates, Giants and Cards, clung to the heels of the Buccoers with 3 to 2 victory over Cincinnati in the eleventh. Charley Root, of the Cubs, hung up his eighth victory of the season. He came into the picture as a relief twirler after Cincinnati had tied the count and had a man on third with one out in the eighth inning, retired the side and prevented further scoring. He then won his own game by driving in the winning marker with a double in the eleventh.

Like the Robins, the Boston Braves took two from a team considerably higher above them in the League. The Phillies received the double licking on their home grounds 8 to 1 and 13 to 5.

In the American League the Chicago White Sox won their fifth successive victory by beating the Tigers, 8 to 1, and thereby creeping up on the Yanks. Only fifty-four points now separate them from the league leaders, and the gap has grown smaller day by day.

first defeat of the season when the Yanks dropped the first game by 8 to 2. Lisenbee, of the Senators, had the better of the duel, holding the Yanks to four hits. Hoyt's three hit game in the second half of the bill gave the Yanks a 5 to 0 win and the Senators their first shut out of the year. Gehrig brought his home run total to eleven, equaling "Babe" Ruth.

Cleveland went a step ahead in the standings at the expense of the St. Louis Browns by scoring a 7 to 3 victory on faulty pitching and infield errors.

MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS
 Major league leaders (including games of May 27) are as follows:
 National League.—Batting, Farrell, Giants, 35; hits, Farrell, Giants, 50; doubles, Grantham, Pirates, 13; triples, Frisch, Crads and P. Wener, Pirates, 6; homers, Williams, Philadelphia, 11; stolen bases, Cuyler, Pirates, 16; pitching, Meadows, Pirates won 6 lost 0.

ROTARY BOYS DEFEATED ORIOLES
 On Thursday evening last the Rotary Baseball team met and defeated the Orioles, at the Ball Park, by a count of thirteen to four. Although the Orioles were defeated they put up a good fight and with practice will give any team of their standing a run for their money. Burns, Rotary catcher, was by far the outstanding man on the field.

The line-up was:

GOLF AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

TORTION WILL ALLOW TWISTING OF CLUB-HEAD.

A GOOD SHAFT SHOULD SNAP BACK STRAIGHT

Can a good hickory shaft be used as long as a steel shaft, or does it lose its whippiness and elasticity after a while?

By WILLIE OGG
 New England Professional and Massachusetts Open Champion.

A good hickory shaft will not last as long as steel because after a period of use it loses its springiness. In other words, if a good hickory shaft is bent like a bow it ought to snap back when released to its original position. A poor shaft will not do this; owing to lack of spring, it will remain bent to a certain extent.

Another advantage steel has over the hickory is the absence of tortion. If the head of a steel shafted club is held firmly, the shaft cannot be twisted easily and it has to be the best of hickory to stand this torsional strain for more than two years. The good players pay strict attention to this feature of their shafts, as it is hard to get good direction with a shaft that twists whenever it comes in contact with ball or turf.

The industry's most outstanding engineering experts—the greatest automobile research laboratories in the world—skilled craftsmen—vigilant inspectors—rigid standards of manufacture—these are the reasons underlying McLaughlin-Buick quality. And, back of all these is the final proof—the unending trials and tests on the great General Motors Proving Ground.

Constant seeking to improve on McLaughlin-Buick quality has resulted in some of the most important automobile advances of the century . . . the McLaughlin-Buick Engine, vibrationless beyond belief, with its triple seal against excess wear . . . the Sealed Chassis . . . the Vacuum-cleaned Crankcase, which solves once for all the problem of oil-dilution . . . the McLaughlin-Buick Mechanical Four-Wheel Brakes, unsurpassed for dependability . . . the princely beauty and luxurious comfort of McLaughlin-Buick Fisher Bodies.

Because of its unvarying standard of quality, extending to every minute detail . . . because of the relentless testing through which McLaughlin-Buick must come, with flying colors . . . because every principle and practice is proved beyond question before it is ever offered to the public . . . because of these the McLaughlin-Buick owner may safely take for granted all the important factors on which motoring satisfaction depends.

MORE POWER

This Graph tells the whole Story in "Two Lines"

No automobile, regardless of its cost—if equipped with the poppet-valve type of engine—can escape the penalty of loss in power, loss in efficiency, from the first day its engine starts to run . . .

With Willys-Knight, the direct contrary is true—it gains in power. It gains in engine efficiency. It gains in smooth and silent running. It improves with use. The only motor-mechanism known that, to a limit never yet reached, gets better with every mile! In flexibility—acceleration—climbing power—economy—and low depreciation—this type of car is without a rival.

Even a casual inspection of the Willys-Knight Sixes is enough to excite your enthusiasm. New and finer body design is at once apparent. Lower, more graceful lines. True symmetry, perfect proportion. Roomier and more comfortable interiors. Superior finish.

And now—Ownership of a Willys-Knight is made easier than ever before with New Low Prices that bring these superb automobiles well within the reach of moderate incomes.

"70" Willys-Knight Six prices from $1,625 to $1,945; Willys-Knight Great Six, from $2,365 to $2,830; 7 passenger Sedan, $3,800; Limousine, $3,925; f.o.b. Factory, Toronto. Taxes Extra.

 AND Williams
 does all of them
 BETTER

- (1) Williams lather softens the beard quickly and holds the moisture to the end of the shave;
- (2) it lubricates the skin for easy, scrapeless shaving;
- (3) it leaves the face relaxed, refreshed, cleansed, in perfect comfort.

No shaving cream can do more—not one does all three as well as WILLIAMS.

PLAN TO HELP BOY AND GIRL IMMIGRANTS

Canadian Council of Child Welfare Have Proposal to Assist Them—Plan to Be First Tried in Eastern Townships.

The Canadian Council on Child Welfare has developed a plan for assisting in the absorption into Canadian life of British boys and girls coming to Canada through various emigrating associations. It is interesting to note that they propose to try this plan out in the Eastern Townships. In this connection they are enlisting the sympathetic co-operation of churches, national organizations and individuals.

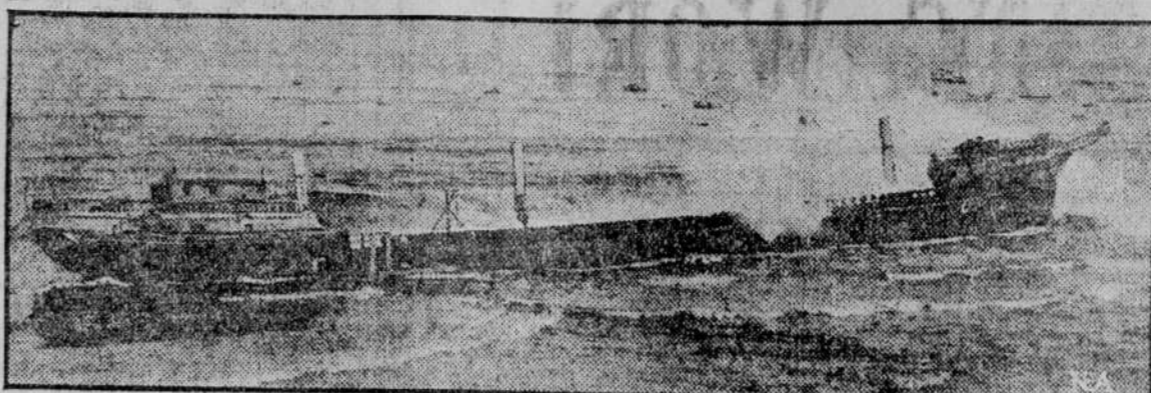

Mr. Charles E. Whitton, executive secretary, in a letter summarizing the plan says: "The proposal is that we shall be supplied with the names of juvenile immigrants, destined through the Child Immigrating Agencies for the Eastern Townships, upon their arrival in Canada. Information will be given us as to the names, ages, sex and address to which the young immigrant is going. These names will then be sent forward to each clergyman of the child's faith in the parish to which the child is going and will also be sent to organizations which may be expected to take an interest in the boy or girl, and supply them with a Big Brother or Big Sister. The service which we propose supplying is not anything in the nature of supervision or inspection, but purely of friendly interest. The young immigrant is particularly in need of guidance and advice as to his or her future when the indenture or arrangement under which he or she has been placed with the Canadian employer expires. It is at this time that their first independent start alone in life is generally made. Also the friendly contact which the Canadian citizen can provide is most needed at the time when the Immigration Society ordinarily relaxes its supervision. We hope, therefore, that this connection which we are seeking to establish with interested citizens, will render to these young people a much needed service at this time and that they will maintain their friendly contact until the young new-comer has become established thoroughly in Canadian life."

COOKSHIRE

Programme Given at High School
An interesting event took place in the gymnasium of the Academy Monday afternoon, May 28. Mr. E.

AN OLD SEA DOG FIGHTS TO THE VERY LAST

Slowly succumbing to the elements that lash her seasoned sides, the old sea dog Fullerton, one of the last of the brave ocean windjammers, is shown as she fights destruction aground at Redondo Beach, Cal. Breaking away from her fishing anchorage during a storm, the old boat took one last wild fling across a "flowing sea." Several aboard were rescued after a hard battle to get a line aboard the pitching barkentine.

W. Johnston, the principal, presided and opened the exercises with a few well chosen remarks. A programme of songs and recitations followed. "O Canada," the salute to the flag and the Junior Red Cross song were given in English. The other numbers were in French and included the folk songs "Entre Paris et St. Denis," "A la Claire Fontaine" and "J'ai Cueil la Belle Rose." The recitations particularly suitable to the day were "Le Canada," "L'Industrie des Pates de Bois et du Papier," "Le Drapeau," "La Patrie," "Cyrus Macrae," the chairman of the school, and the Rev. Mr. James spoke, upon the importance of the study of oral French, especially in the schools of this province. They both expressed appreciation of the work done and pleasure in the exercises of the afternoon.

A silver collection was taken for the Junior Red Cross, and the programme was closed by singing God Save the King.

Rev. C. A. Buckland, Mrs. J. Wilkinson and Mr. James Frasier were visitors to Sherbrooke this week.

Progress is being made in connection with the diamond jubilee celebration for July.

The committee in charge of the public fountain which is to be placed in Memorial Square expect to have it installed and dedicated by the first of July.

The Cookshire Band gave a splendid concert Thursday night in Memorial Park under the leadership of Mr. Jos. Blanchard. The band has increased its number, and it was a great pleasure to the citizens of Cookshire to see so many young boys in training.

Great credit is once again due to Mr. Jas. Frasier and council for the floral decoration and the splendid up keep of the park.

Sunday morning next will be observed as Canadian Missionary Sunday in St. Peter's Church. The service in the morning will be in keeping with the object in view.

The farmers and gardeners in this vicinity are getting discouraged with the incessant rains, which are retarding planting and sowing. Mrs. W. J. Bradbury is spending a few days in Cookshire. Her husband, Rev. W. J. Bradbury, has returned to Montreal.

All are glad to see Mayor Kenny out again and looking so well.

Messrs. Barlow Coates and Fred Hurd, disciples of Isaac Walton, report excellent trout fishing in the nearby lakes.

Ascension Day was observed in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches on Thursday last. Large congregations were present.

VERY GOOD WORK BY CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL PUPILS

Art Department Has Had Successful Year—Fine Results by Teachers and Pupils—Sewing Shown.

A fine exhibit was on view in the Assembly Hall of the Cambridge School yesterday afternoon. The art work of the different grades was shown and indicated the variety and extent of the programme carried on in this department. Under the supervision of Miss Griggs, and with the help of their class teachers, the pupils have done very well this year, and the display is one the school may be proud of. The sewing of grades

VIIa, VIIb and VIIc, which was shown at the High School exhibit, was again on view, and attracted much attention. The sewing classes are under the direction of Miss Windsor.

The Kindergarten had an attractive display. These included small woven hammocks, a wooden aeroplane, jointed paper toys, paper baskets and clay ash trays painted with water paints and varnished. Writing was shown from all the grades. An interesting fact was that the best books had not been selected for exhibition. All the pupils were represented and the writing demonstrated that each one had done neat work.

The display of grade one was large and creditable. It contained crayon pictures of fruit and flowers, cut-out work, paper weaving, figures of mice in plasticine and jointed toys. Books showing pictures of health giving products with comments opposite them have been made by the grade, and picture scrap books which will be sent to the Red Cross for distribution among children were also shown. Some neatly written illustrated compositions too were exhibited. Compositions were also exhibited by grade III. These water color work was chiefly on different kinds of lanterns, and they have done considerable cut out work. Their leaf booklets and Easter booklets were very pretty.

An interesting feature of the grade III display was a miniature desert which they made in connection with their study of geology. It contained oases and camels and was of realistic appearance. Their water color and crayon pictures of birds and animals, and painted pictures of fruit and targets, were well done.

Grade VI has done very realistic work for their age, as is shown by their animal, landscape and teapot pictures in water color and crayon. The skating boots and pitchers painted by grade V are especially good. They have also done flowers in vases and much other work.

An Interesting Map. A large and unique map of South America, with the products of the country fastened to it on the sections to which they belong, has been made by grade VI B. This was the only map of the kind exhibited and received much creditable comment. The grade had a large and varied exhibit. The pupils have illustrated riddles and printed them. Their maps have been well colored and they have painted some good pictures of skating boots and levers. There are neatly kept agriculture, books and bottles of plant foods included in their display.

Grade VI A, pupils have made some very pretty valentines. Their Thanksgiving posters and pictures of horses deserve mention, and they have some illustrated compositions on exhibition.

Illustrated French compositions are shown by grade VII A, and are remarkably neat. Hallowe'en posters, original decorations for cups and saucers and drawings of hats and dresses colored in harmonious shades are shown. An attractive part of their display included the pictures of characters in "Ivanhoe" drawn from imagination.

Grade VII B has an interesting feature in modeled relief maps of corn starch and salt. They also have painted maps and water color pictures.

The boys of grade VII C, illustrated the characters of "Treasure Island" most successfully. Posters, fruit, flowers and maps are also included in the exhibit, and they have painted landscapes.

Red Cross Tea Given.

A Red Cross tea was given in the kindergarten, and was provided and served by the Junior Red Cross of grades VII B, VI A, and VI B. Miss Cobleigh, Miss Bryce, and Miss Harvey, teachers of these grades, received, and were assisted by Misses Frederica Bradley and Doris Bennetta.
