CABLE.

AN ABSURD YARN.

BERLIN, May 21.—The Freisinnige Zeitung says that during the Chancellorship crisis Prince Bismarck appealed to the Empress Frederick to intervene in his favor, and that she replied: "You know better than anyone that I must not use political influence with my son."

STANLEY'S FUTURE.

NEWS.

TRANSATLANTIC.

Speaking at Spalding on Monday, Mr. Gladstone said he would welcome a dissolution of Parliament and an appeal to the country.

THE LORDS AND SOCIALISM.

LONDON, May 20.—Lord Salisbury, in his remarks in the House of Lords to-day, in reply to the Earl of March's charge of the Government's tendency to Socialistic legislation, said if statesmen imposed upon the State burdens beyond its power to bear they would create an infinite source of expense and ultimately produce unlimited corruption. Socialism might be defined as the State doing something that might be done by private persons for the sake of gain.

STRIKERS KILLED.

PRAGUE, May 20.—The striking miners at Pilsen to-day made a raid on the pits and forced the men at work to quit work. Troops were sent for and had a collision with the rioters. The soldiers fired upon the strikers, killing five and wounding seven.

AMERICAN.

IN COLLISION WITH AN ICEBERG.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The new ocean steamer "Beacon Lights," which arrived here to-day from Newcastle-on-Tyne, collided with an iceberg 600 feet long and 50 feet high during a dense fog on the 14th instant on the Grand Banks. The vessel was moving very slowly, but the crash was tremendous.

THE RAILWAY WORLD.

A BUFFALO AND THOUSAND ISLANDS SCHEME. ALBANY, N. Y., May 20.—The Buffalo, Thousand Islands & Portland Railway Company filed a certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State to-day. The company is formed with a capital of $500,000 for constructing a 35-mile railway, commencing at a point on the line of the Niagara Falls Branch Railway at Suspension Bridge, running thence southerly and easterly through the counties of Niagara and Erie into Buffalo, with a one mile branch extending from a point on the main line in the village to Niagara river.

RESTORING LAKE AND RAIL RATES.

NEW YORK, May 20.—There was a conference here to-day between the Trunk Lines Executive Committee and a number of lake representatives with a view of effecting some arrangement towards the restoration of fifth and sixth class eastbound business from Chicago to the seaboard. It was agreed to restore the former lake and rail rates on fifth and sixth class of freight, thus making it 25 and 30 cents from Chicago to New York. The Central Traffic Association have been asked to follow suit in the matter.

EVADING CUSTOMS DUES.

AN OLD DOG TO BE PUT AN END TO. WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Collector of Customs at Plattsburgh, N. Y., has informed the Treasury Department that his deputy at Trout River, N. Y., reports that a Canadian house has recently been moved in such manner as to place it directly upon the boundary line between this country and Canada, thereby placing one half of the house within the United States and the other half in Canada. In reply to his request of information as to whether the whole house or one half only is dutiable, Assistant Secretary Tichenor refers to the revised statutes governing the case. If any building were so placed as to fall both within the United States and a foreign country, it must be construed to be wholly within the United States for customs purposes. The Secretary instructs the collector to assess duty upon the whole house with reference to its component materials. The Secretary adds: "In referring to your statement that you suppose there is but little doubt that the building will be used as a 'line store,' it may be well to say that you should take all lawful precautions in guarding the interests of the revenue at that point."

GARFIELD'S REMAINS.

CLEVELAND, May 20.—In Lake View cemetery this morning the remains of President Garfield were removed from the public vault to the crypt in the monument. This is to be their last resting place. The remains of the President's mother were also removed to the monument, which is to be dedicated on Memorial Day.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 20.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly to-day the Board of Home Missions presented its eighty-eighth annual report through the Rev. H. S. Little, D. D., of Texas. The income has by its steady general increase given a pleasing proof of confidence in the Board, although, owing to peculiar circumstances, this year closes with a balance of $20,391 on the wrong sheet. The total receipts were $831,170. The Board feels encouraged by the steady and healthful increase of contributions from Sunday schools and societies of young people. There is great need of more invested funds that can be used as collateral for loans in temporary emergencies. The report was discussed at length, and it was decided to take up a special contribution for the debt in both churches and Sunday schools.

BEHRING SEA.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The question of the Behring sea fisheries was considered at to-day's Cabinet meeting, and it was decided, it is understood, to adhere to the policy of last season, which is practically the same as the position taken by the last and previous administrations.

CANADIAN.

RESULT OF A STRIKE.

St. JOHN, N. B., May 20.—The employees in T. McAvity & Sons' brass foundry, who have been on strike four weeks, have accepted the firm's original offer of a nine-hour day beginning at 8 a. m., and will resume work.

CRIMES AND ACCIDENTS.

BURNED TO DEATH.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 20.—Mrs. Jeremiah Wood, of Linden, was burned to death on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wood were having a sleep in the afternoon when they were awakened by the flames coming in at the window. Mrs. Wood, in attempting to go up stairs to save about $60 which was in a trunk, was caught by the flames and fell downstairs. The household furniture, barn, seven head of cattle, besides mowing machines and other agricultural implements, were destroyed. Mrs. Wood was a native of Calrath, Aberdeenshire, Scotland.

DRINK TRAGEDIES.

Daniel Robertson has been committed for trial at Westville for murdering William Robertson. The prisoner is thirty years of age. Both the murderer and his victim were to have been married within a week. Both were drunk. Albert Johnson, a Swedish sailor, while in the horrors, jumped out of a three-story window this afternoon, about fifty feet. He was taken to the hospital, where it was found that the base of his skull was fractured. The man will not recover.

A TERRIBLE FALL.

OTTAWA, May 20.—Hugh Mix, 19 years of age, had a terrible experience yesterday. He is a carpenter by trade and in the employ of Mr. John Stewart, contractor, who is putting up a dwelling for Mr. R. J. Devlin on Cliff street. For this purpose an old dwelling on the very brink of the cliff is being pulled down. Mix was standing on a plank taking down some boards when he lost his balance and went over the cliff. About fifty feet down the board, which went with him, struck against a protruding rock and broke the remainder of the fall. He fell altogether a distance of ninety feet. A fellow workman named Sutherland, who was summoned as soon as possible, Mix went to his assistance as soon as possible. Mix was unconscious when picked up, and Dr. Horsey was summoned. On examination it was found that not a single bone was broken. He recovered consciousness in five minutes.

MUST BE GRIT OR TORY.

(To the Editor of the Witness.) Sir,—With your correspondent James Johnston, J. P., I have many feelings in common, but I am not at all sure my conclusions will be the same as his. Like him, I am an admirer of the Witness, and have subscribed for it several years. I am a farmer—and a Protestant, but not a hater of the Catholic. Like him too I think it is time we had some honest men in authority at Ottawa. From the increasing number of scandals which come to the surface it is evident the whole country is becoming debauched by bribery and corruption, and the words of the Psalmist are verified, "The wicked walk on every hand when the vilest men are exalted." With him, I should like to see this nation of one language, and think it a pity that the French language should be in any case official, but am quite confident that his panacea of a crusade against the French language and religion will not produce the desired results, and instead of making a homogeneous nation will drive the races asunder. I should prefer that Separate Schools did not exist, but that children of all religions, as they do in this neighborhood, should learn side by side to respect each other. But Mr. Johnston does not appear to know that Separate Schools and the French language (official) exist not by any Dominion law, but by Imperial Act, and therefore neither of them can be interfered with by all the "honest" men we can send to Parliament. Let Mr. Johnston, be Grit or Tory, join hands with the present honest Government at Toronto in their admirable endeavors to teach English to the French-speaking inhabitants of Ontario. If he is a Conservative let me assure him that the Equal Rights cry which is being trailed across the track by the Tories will not affect the opinion of any thinking man among the Grits. For, as I have shown above, we are powerless to alter the law. It would be well for him to avow himself a Grit or Tory, show his true colors, and we should know better what he aims at, and follow or avoid him accordingly. JOHN S. JOE, J. P. Westworth County, May 21, 1890.

GERMANY AND FRANCE are doing a wise thing in slashing out a wide line of demarcation between them which everyone will be able to see and whose position, relative to any occurrence, no one will be able to question. Between Canada and the United States there is not the same sort of occasion for making a neutral belt of some perceptible breadth. We do not remember having had any international quarrels or questions arising out of uncertainty as to the location of events. Still, it would be an immeasurable benefit to both countries if our own boundary line was devastated, to the extent, at least, of removing every house that bestrides it and forbidding all erections across it forever except by international agreement. A house is a domicile and a domicile should be in one country or another. It is well known that one principal object for which people place themselves in the ambiguous position of being domiciled in two countries is smuggling. This being the case it is wonderful that two governments which hold smuggling to be a

The Daily Witness. WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 1890.

PRINCE BISMARCK must have fallen pretty low if he sought the intercession of the Empress Frederick during his troubles with the Emperor, and the Empress Frederick must have a high character for magnanimity. This story, which is told by a radical organ which always bitterly opposed Bismarck, may be, and probably is, unfounded. One thing is certain, however, and that is that Bismarck has not, since his fall, maintained a dignified reticence such as the world expects from a statesman of his calibre who has accomplished so much.

ALTHOUGH BOTH of the engine room compartments of the "City of Paris" were filled with water, as a result of the wreck of one of her engines, the vessel was kept afloat for several days without assistance in the shape of extra pumps, and this proof of the efficiency of the modern system of bulkheading ships has been only recently strongly corroborated. The new steamship "Beacon Light" on the fourteenth instant collided with an iceberg off the banks of Newfoundland and so severe was the shock that not only was the vessel's bow crushed in but the collision bulkhead was pierced. In spite of this terrible disaster the "Beacon Light," under her own steam power, reached New York on the twentieth with two thousand five hundred tons of water in her hold. When these performances on the part of modern steamers are contrasted with those of the steamers of the "Oregon" type, which sank like stones when their collision bulkheads were pierced, the decided nature of the improvement that has been effected is manifest, and there is cause for hope that the time will arrive when nothing short of the ripping out of the whole bottom of a modern steamer will cause her destruction.

THE INCREASE in the American duty on barley from ten to thirty cents a bushel, which is provided for by the McKinley tariff bill, will be a serious matter for the Canadian farmers, as it is probable that the new duty is prohibitory, but it will work much greater injury to the American consumer, and the American interests concerned in the importation of this grain. The city of Oswego, the most important American port on Lake Ontario, in fact the only American port on that lake of any importance, and one of the principal lake ports of the United States, is dependent for its prosperity upon the Canadian barley and lumber trade, and the new duty will wipe out eight of the ten million dollars of capital invested in malthouses in that city. Nor will the loss be confined to the bad business of brewing. The value of the elevators and grain stores of the city will be similarly affected, a large fleet of canal boats will be deprived of cargoes, and a great number of men will be thrown out of employment. Though the Canadian farm lands which have been growing barley for the American market may be reduced in value for a time by the changes in trade the new scale of duties must cause, they will still retain their fertility, and until there are no hungry mouths in the world the products of fertile fields will not lack a market.

greater sin than the grossest immorality should have stood it so long. But the great object of bestriding the line with one's house is to be able to evade the liquor laws of both countries. This is, of course, in the eyes of governments a comparatively venial offence. The evil is, nevertheless, an enormous one, especially where the trick is played between the two prohibition countries or counties. Still, to all representations made comes only some helpless reference to a clashing of jurisdiction. Ever since Canada became a federation this question of jurisdiction has stood in the way of almost every reform that has been attempted. It is, however, a maxim of law that there is no evil without a remedy, and it is about time that the remedy was found for this evil.

BADLY BLED. Mr. Whelan has made what seems to be a clean breast of the whole story of his relations with the hangers-on of the Mercier Government pending the payment of the hundred thousand dollars awarded him by arbitration as against the Mercier Government in the matter of the Quebec Court House. The Government having submitted the case to arbitration might have been expected to pay the claim immediately on the decision being given or at least just as soon as the estimates could be got through the Legislature. Instead of this there seems to be have been uncertainty as to whether the claim would be paid at all or not. Mr. Whelan felt it necessary to interest "friends" of Mr. Mercier in the matter. These "friends" seem to have flocked around the contractor and his hundred thousand dollar award like flies around a syrup-pitcher. Mr. Whelan sought out Mr. Pacaud as an "influential friend," but Mr. Pacaud's turn had not come yet, and he was told that "other people," presumably "friends," had that business in hand. These other people put in an appearance in the persons of Messrs. Achille Carriere and Charles Langelier and N. E. Cote, and to these friends Mr. Whelan paid fifteen hundred dollars. They again come on the scene accompanied by Mr. Beausoleil, a legal partner of Premier Mercier, and an expert in matters of practical politics, and to this company, through Mr. Ford, was paid an order for two thousand dollars, which after passing Mr. Beausoleil's hands, was discounted by a third party. In spite of these payments Mr. Whelan's claim seemed to him no nearer payment than before, and he dismissed Carriere, Langelier & Co., and relied apparently upon Mr. Ford and Mr. Beausoleil. To Mr. Ford Mr. Whelan gave an order on the Government for thirty thousand dollars with which to pay their (Ford and Whelan's) debts, but Mr. Mercier refused to accept the order, and finally the irrepressible Mr. Beausoleil managed to get from Mr. Mercier a letter of credit for fifteen thousand dollars on account of this order, which had been in the meantime cancelled by Mr. Whelan; and of this fifteen thousand dollars Mr. Beausoleil, according to Mr. Whelan, received six thousand dollars with which to meet a note of a member of the law firm of Mercier, Beausoleil, Martineau & Co. Although Mr. Whelan had now paid out to the political jackals of the Mercier Government nine thousand five hundred dollars, he seemed about as far off as ever from getting his claim through. At this juncture he met Mr. Pacaud on the street and again solicited him to get the claim put through, but Mr. Pacaud did not then undertake it. Later, however, Mr. Pacaud met Mr. Lemieux, a business confidant of Mr. Whelan, and stated to him that he had been authorized to settle the details of the payment of the claim. Mr. Pacaud declared that it was necessary to settle with the Opposition, and that he had seen Mr. Tarte about the affair, Mr. Taillon, the leader of the Opposition, not being a proper sort of man to mention such matters to, and Mr. Tarte had undertaken to keep the Opposition quiet for ten thousand dollars. Mr. Whelan did not believe Mr. Pacaud's story, but he finally paid the ten thousand dollars in hard cash to Mr. Pacaud. Mr. Whelan says that later Mr. Pacaud came back with a new demand for five thousand dollars with which to pay cheques given by Mr. Mercier on banks in which there were no funds to meet them, and this demand also was complied with. Mr. Whelan according to his story had not even yet seen the last of the insatiable Mr. Pacaud, for the latter appeared with still another demand for $15,000. Mr. Whelan had lost patience and his "benevolence" had been exhausted, so he dismissed Mr. Pacaud with an intimation that there was nothing more to be got out of him. Mr. Pacaud may give the name of the person or persons he declares he paid the money to for the Opposition or not as it pleases him, but his statements will have no effect upon public opinion in view of this revelation of all the facts. Unless the whole story can be proved untrue, Mr. Pacaud simply appears as one of half a dozen other jackals of Mr. Mercier's who devoured Mr. Whelan. According to Mr. Whelan's story, Mr. Pacaud acted, or pretended to act, as Mr. Mercier's agent, and received as such five thousand dollars. It seems probable that the Government and its favorites bled Mr. Whelan until he refused point blank to be bled any further. The story that the Opposition was involved was probably made out of the whole cloth by Mr. Pacaud. Mr. Mercier and his Government should be turned out of power.

THE FIRE DETECTIVE. It appears that the red tape of the fire commissioners' office is so strong that the secretary-detective cannot leave the office to investigate fires between the hours of 9.30 a. m. and 12.45, although it is in the morning after a fire that the investigating may be most profitably done. The opinion is expressed that the office instead of being a sort of nuisance, the fire detective should be used only for the most of stationary during the best part of each day.

THE RYAN BIGAMY CASE. Several days ago it was stated exclusively in the Witness that the case against John Ryan for bigamy had been dropped owing to the principal witnesses for the prosecution being outside the jurisdiction of the court and were unwilling to appear against him. A contemporary now publishes the statement that the case has been dismissed as it was proved that "Ryan's first wife was dead." As a matter of fact the prosecution have received a letter from her parish priest stating that she is alive.

OPPOSITION TO THE HON. MR. FRASER (From an Occasional Correspondent.) BROCKVILLE, May 20.—Dr. Kinney, Inspector of Public Schools, is in the field in opposition to the Hon. C. F. Fraser. The doctor is a well known Liberal and takes the field as an independent supporter of Mr. Howat, but opposed to the separate school legislation. He comes out at the urgent request of a large number of Reformers. The Conservatives will not run a man. Dr. Kinney's chances of election are considered very good.

MEETINGS AND ENTERTAINMENTS. MORNING SUNDAY SCHOOL. The Undenominational Morning Temperance Sunday-school in Calvary Church, has now a good list of scholars. Each Sunday morning the school meets in the basement of Calvary Church, where, after a short Bible lesson, a good temperance address is given and hymns are sung. Last Sunday there were six new scholars, and a total attendance of 48.

After a jolly hour and a half of song, recitation and reading, the merry company dispersed.

Davidson (vice-president), Mr. Charles Garth, Dr. F. W. Campbell, Dr. Rolio Campbell, Mr. G. Chesney, Mr. D. A. P. Watt, Mr. J. Kerry, Mr. J. E. Fitzpatrick, Mr. W. O. S. Parker, Dr. Froude, Dr. Ross, Dr. A. Laphorn Smith, Dr. J. B. McConnell, Dr. George Ross read the annual report. At the beginning of the year 113 patients remained from the last; 2,286 were admitted during the year; 2,080 were discharged, 192 died and 145 remained, of those who died 48 did so within three days after being admitted; 2,879 were treated to a conclusion; of these 1,001 were Canadians, 614 English, 316 Irish, 141 Scotch and 83 from the United States. There were 1,415 male and 1,465 female patients, 124 private and 1,777 ordinary patients; 1,335 were Protestants, 1,888 Roman Catholics, and 26 belonged to other religions; 122 were emigrants, 341 total strangers, 85 sailors and 1,731 citizens; 21 were not treated, 105 were unimproved, 499 improved and 1,455 cured.

Mr. G. Roberts was elected a life Governor, and the following were elected governors:—Messrs H. A. Budden, R. McLean, Jas. Elliott, W. E. Chese, H. J. Mudge and J. Murray Smith.

JOTTINGS. The Methodist Sabbath School Association held a public meeting last night in the Dominion Square Methodist Church, with a good attendance. Dr. Kelley gave a paper on the influence of teachers. Mr. W. G. Palmer one on school literature, and Mr. W. P. Ware one on the best means of conciliating or disposing of "the bad boy."

The Butcher's Association held its regular meeting last night, and among other things discussed a letter which had appeared in La Patrie, censuring the butchers for their action in the matter of the by-law concerning private stalls. It was finally resolved that the President, Mr. F. Bayard, should answer the attack.

A spelling match was a feature of the meeting of the Shortland Society held in Lindsay Hall. About forty members were present. Mr. W. A. Gandle read a paper on "The Shortland Teacher," and Mr. R. Goltman gave one on "Phrasing in Shortland." A short sketch of each member's career as a shorthand writer followed.

The Calcedonian Society's Committee yesterday endorsed the formation of a choral union in connection with the Society. Mr. S. S. Baln has undertaken to conduct the choir, and will be glad to hear from any singers interested in the cultivation of Scottish music.

A well-attended concert was held last night at St. Bartholomew's R.E. Church, the Rev. G. Tolly presiding. Those taking part were:—Misses Peebles, Usherwood, Frost, Sophie Myers, Charles Grier, Jones, Cornell and Little Girl, Messrs. Shaw, McKee, S. Dunn, Harry Ashman, A. J. Nichols, Edwards, G. Dunn, Usherwood, Frost, Stewart, Jackson, Sidney Smith, Booth, S. Dunn, Sheak, Ashman, and "The Serenaders."

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the St. James Methodist Church held a "Red, White and Blue Social" last night. There was a red table where one might purchase candies which had been made for the benefit of the heathen, a white table where similarly qualified refreshments were to be had, and a blue table, and a red, white and blue table, the object was to obtain funds for missionary work, and the mode was a very attractive one. Patton's orchestra helped to make the evening enjoyable.

Montreal Branch of the Irish National League yesterday listened to Mr. Cloran's account of the executive meeting at Londonderry, where the management of the League was unanimously endorsed and charges made against them repudiated. An appeal to have funds ready for the next general election in Britain was received from headquarters.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS. CHARGES OF FALSE ARREST. The police hold that the false arrests for which the city has been mulct in damages have in almost every instance been made on warrants issued by superior authority. To prevent this for the future Chief Hughes has given orders that the police shall only execute warrants granted upon depositions made by them, and that the warrants granted to private parties must be served by the High Constable or the Police Courts and the bailiffs for the Recorder's Court.

DESERVES TAR AND FEATHERS. Judge Dugan, after examining several of the Paquet street school girls, decided that there was "no case" against the school which has been in the habit of coaxing them into his store for improper purposes, and declined to grant a warrant for their arrest. The offences did not amount to "criminal mischief."

Charles Kenville was arrested in January for ill-treating and not providing for his wife. He promised amendment, but, breaking his promise, was sent to gaol for six months.

Loufers are reported to stand on the corner of St. Catherine and St. Lawrence Main streets in the evening to the annoyance of ladies, whom they insult, and to the disgust of all decent people, besides obstructing the sidewalk. The by-eyes Chief, now that his attention has been called to it, will no doubt instruct "the finest" accordingly.

FURIOUS PATIENTS.

THE EVIL OF CONFINING THEM IN AN UPPER STORY

CONDEMNED BY DR. DUQUETTE, WHO ESTIMATES THE NUMBER OF DEATHS AT SEVENTY.

The Longue Pointe Asylum inquest again went on yesterday afternoon in the Court House. The first witness examined was Laura Larouche, lay Sister, a young woman of about twenty and very prepossessing. She testified that when the fire started she was in the west wing. Had been in the employ of the asylum only for a few months. She was the first to give the alarm to the nuns. There were fifteen patients in the ward on the third floor, two of them being in the chapel at the time. First saw the fire in a cupboard, the door of which was locked. After giving the alarm she ran back to save the patients and had very much trouble in doing so. Was positive that all in her ward were saved, could not say how the fire started. There was only old clothing in the cupboard. Matches were given only to a few of the patients, and then by the guards. To a juror—The cupboard she saw the smoke coming from was apart from the bedrooms, and was entered from the bathroom.

To another juror—The doors were generally locked; were locked at the time of the fire. The key of the cupboard was in charge of the nuns and lay Sisters. There was a ventilator in the cupboard.

At this juncture the witness became indignant and any more questions, claiming that she had answered them all before, and they were only a repetition. This rather amused some of the jurors. She was informed by the venerable Coroner that she must answer all questions put to her.

To a juror—Witness had the key in her possession at the time of the fire. Did not remember giving it to any of the inmates that morning. Sometimes, however, it was given to one of the patients to get linen out. She would not say whether it would have been better for one of the nurses to go to the cupboard, than trust a patient; sometimes patients were allowed to go to the chapel without a guardian. It was possible that one of the idiots could have taken a lighted candle and thrown it into the cupboard; but she did not think this had occurred. She opened the cupboard but only saw smoke.

To Mr. David—She closed the door at once and did not attempt to extinguish the fire, as she thought it would be wiser to give the alarm at once. Did not know if any of the patients had been at the cupboard the day of the fire. One of the patients was always waiting to burn herself, but witness was not aware of her being in the cupboard that day. She was sure she did not give this woman the key.

Sister Judith Perron, a delicate looking woman, was the next witness examined. She was a little perplexed at being told to swear by kissing the Bible, but consented to do so after the

to her. This caused another ripple of amusement. The witness said she was in charge of St. Elizabeth ward on the fourth flat. That ward contained sixty persons. When the fire started she ran down to the third flat, where she saw the fire in the bathroom. Forty in her ward were saved; but she could not say how many were lost, as some of them had escaped. Dr. Duquette, President of the Government's Medical Board at the Asylum, deposed that he was at his own home when the fire broke out. His house was at the Asylum. He at once telephoned to Chief Benoit to hurry down the brigade, and then ran over to the fire. The smoke was too thick for him to get to the third flat. The gallery on the third flat was broken through in order to reach the patients on the fourth floor. The building by this time was all on fire, and he ran home again to send a second alarm for the Clapp & Jones steam engine. If the ladders had been long enough witness thought more of the furious patients on the fourth flat could have been saved. It was his opinion that 70 in all had been killed. In answer to a juror witness said he thought it was a mistake to construct such buildings so high. Infuriated patients and some of the invalids were the only ones who had perished. To his knowledge there had been no negligence on the part of the Sisters as to the fire breaking out. He did not think it a wise custom to keep the furious on the top flat. In answer to Mr. David witness said that in the asylums he had visited in Europe and the States it was the custom to put furious patients on the lower flats. In some asylums iron doors were provided to prevent fire from entering. The crumbling walls of the asylum have now been almost all knocked down, and a search is shortly to be made for any remains that may have escaped entire cremation.

OLD "CINDERS."

The old fire brigade horse mentioned in the Witness recently, is getting very sleek and fat doing nothing. He got quite thin during the winter, tramping around with the patrol o' nights. He is now having a rest. The firemen call him "Cinders," from his color, and the Chief says he thinks he knows a purchaser who will prove almost as kind as the person who wrote so feelingly about the poor animal in the Witness.

A SERIES OF PROMOTIONS.

Ald. Dufresne advocates a general move upward all along the line in the appointment of a city treasurer. He wants no outsider, and says that Mr. Robb should get Mr. Black's place, Mr. Dufresne be given Mr. Robb's, Mr. McDunnough have Mr. Dufresne's (auditor), Mr. Casavant (cashier) that of Mr. McDunnough (accountant), and so on, the only addition to the staff necessary in such case being a junior clerk.

OCEAN TRAVEL.

The tremendous boom in ocean-crossing caused last year by the Paris Exhibition has not been followed by the reaction which was feared. The "Parisian," which sailed this morning, had 105 saloon passengers on board; while the "Vancouver," the grand chief of the Dominion Lines, has over a hundred booked already, though she does not sail till the 28th, and Messrs. Torrance report good lists on their other boats as well. The "Lake Superior," which sailed yesterday, had 48 saloon passengers, and over 70 are booked by the "Lake Ontario," sailing from here on the 10th of June.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY, Ancient and Modern.

CAUTION!

A so-called "Webster's Unabridged Dictionary" is being offered to the public at a very low price, mostly by dry goods dealers, grocers, clothiers, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers. The body of the book, from A to Z, is a cheap reprint, page for page, of the edition of 1847, which was in its day a valuable book, but in the progress of language for over FORTY YEARS, has been completely superseded. It is now reproduced, broken type, errors and all, by photo-lithograph process, and is printed on cheap paper and flimsily bound. It is advertised to be the substantial equivalent of "an eight to twelve dollar book," while in fact it is a literal copy of a book which in its day was sold for about $5.00, and that book was much superior in paper, print, and binding to this imitation, and was then the best Dictionary of the time instead of an antiquated one. A brief comparison, page by page, between the reprint and the latest and enlarged edition, will show the great superiority of the latter. No honorable dealer will allow the buyer of this reprint to suppose that he is getting the Webster which to-day is accepted as the Standard and the THE BEST,—every copy of which bears the imprint of

McKILLOP AND MORRISON.

THE BLIND HIGHLAND BARD VISITS HIS CAGED FELLOW-COUNTRYMAN AT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, AND GIVES HIM GOOD ADVICE—REDEEMER TREATMENT.

Mr. McKillop, the blind bard of Meaganic, was at St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary on a visit to Donald Morrison yesterday. He said with him, he says, a "pass" from Mr. Green-shields to see the prisoner. After reaching the penitentiary he was compelled to wait for two hours before he saw Mr. Oimmet, who was very things ironically said he thought he had a good deal to do to come all the way from Montreal to see Morrison.

THE TRESTLE GAVE WAY.

SERIOUS RAILWAY ACCIDENT OVER THE BORDER—DEATH OF MR. JAMES TWOHEY, AN OLD GRAND IRISH MAN.

A shocking accident occurred this morning on the Upper Coos Railway, near North Stratford, a slight distance east of Island Pond, by which Mr. James Twohey, superintendent of the line, and brother of Mr. E. H. Twohey (the Inspector of U. S. Customs at Bonaventure Station), and up to within the past year Grand Trunk station agent at North Stratford and a section foreman, were instantly killed, and four workmen dangerously wounded.

The engine had to pass over a trestle bridge. The foundations of the latter, undermined by the heavy rains, gave way; there was a crash and the engine and tender, with its human freight, fell through. The engine appears to have escaped; but when the alarm was given and help arrived, Mr. Twohey and the foreman were found dead under the tender. The bodies were greatly crushed. The four men were badly injured, but were able to be removed. It was hours before the two dead bodies could be extricated.

THE ANCIENT CAPITAL.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

QUEBEC, May 20.

A BAD CASE.

The Daily Telegraph this evening publishes a couple of very interesting letters in connection with the terrible fall of rock from Cape Diamond last fall. One of these is from Sir A. P. Caron, addressed to Mrs. Martha Black, widow of the late Henry Black, founder, who, together with several of his children, was killed by the slide, regretting that it is not in his (the Minister's) power to offer any assistance, as the Minister of Justice considers that the Dominion Government are not in any way responsible for the damage done.

MOORE ROCK FALLING.

Another heavy fall of rock, no doubt precipitated by the incessant rains here this spring, took place at an early hour this morning from the cliff into Champlain street, near Hall's booms. Fortunately, beyond blocking the roadway, no damage was done, there being no houses at the points where the slide occurred and nobody happened to be passing at the time.

A MURDEROUS ARTIST'S END.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Ludwig Marquardt, an artist, last night shot and seriously wounded his wife, who is employed in Postmaster General Wanamaker's store. Marquardt was arrested and died soon afterward in great agony from the effects of poison, which he took before shooting his wife. The couple had quarrelled and separated.

YOUNG ROOTS TURNS UP.

The young man Roots turned up at Mr. Swift's yesterday and got his clothes. He had been working hard on the wharf for a week or two to get enough money to take him home to England, whither he sailed this morning.

STANLEY'S COURTSHIP.

REFUSED THREE YEARS AGO BECAUSE HE DYED HIS HAIR.

BARONESS BURDETT COUTTS INDUCED HIM TO TRY AGAIN.

LONDON, May 19.—There has been a great deal of romancing about Mr. H. M. Stanley's engagement to Miss Dorothy Tennant. The news was sprung as a great surprise on Saturday morning. Newspaper men had to scramble about in a lively manner to ascertain the facts about the engagement. The few people who claimed to possess the secret clothed the affair with all the romance possible. To day I learned the exact facts. Mr. Stanley met Miss Tennant with a party on the Duke of Westminster's yacht a few weeks before he started for Africa to rescue Emin. He was introduced to her by the Baroness Burdett Coutts. Mr. Stanley was much impressed with Miss Tennant, and sought occasions to continue the friendship. A few days before he started for Africa he proposed marriage. Much to his surprise he was rejected. To the Baroness and one or two other intimate friends Mr. Stanley did not hesitate to denounce Miss Tennant's conduct in encouraging him to the point of proposal and then jilting him. To one or two friends who ventured to talk with her on the subject, Miss Tennant said she could not stand a man who dyed his hair. It is a well-known fact that while in America, and while here, before he started for Africa the last time, Mr. Stanley always dyed his hair. Photographs taken of him here just before starting show his hair to be jet black. During his last African visit he discarded dyes altogether and is now content to let his hair remain as white as snow. The stories about Stanley's fall from the anxious fancies through the Emin Relief Committee in London's nonsense, Stanley went away a rejected suitor. When, homeward-bound, he arrived at Brindisi, Miss Tennant was not there to meet him, as surely she would have been if she had been betrothed to him. Nor did she meet him in Paris or Brussels. From Brussels Stanley wired to two intimate friends in London to meet him at Ostend and lunch on his boat with him while crossing to Dover. These friends were Mrs. French Sheridan, of New York, and Harry Welcome, who is getting up the American dinner to Stanley in London. Miss Tennant was not there. Among the party to meet Stanley at Dover was the Baroness Burdett Coutts. During the journey up she contrived to let Stanley know that if he still loved Dorothy Tennant, and would ask her again to marry him, this time he would not be refused. The result was that Stanley drove at once from the Victoria Station to the home of the Baroness, where Miss Tennant was waiting to meet him. Whether Stanley asked her again there and then to be his wife I cannot learn. But he did so very soon afterwards. This is the true story of the engagement, which is still the subject of the greatest gossip. No date has been fixed for the wedding, but it will probably be early in July.

From Sir John Millais's celebrated picture, "Yes or No?" of which Miss Dorothy Tennant was the original.

Photographs of Millais's celebrated picture of "Yes or No?" the original of which was Miss Tennant, are in great demand, as are that of the house in which Stanley was born at Dunhigh, in Wales, under the name of Rowland. It is not known positively what Stanley intends to do, whether to settle in England after his marriage or not. Just now Stanley is full of the idea of transporting negroes from the Southern States to Central Africa. The precise site fixed upon is the Upper Congo forest country, 30,000 square miles in extent, and which Stanley estimates would provide for each negro of the South something like a quarter of a square mile of land for his inheritance. The climate is healthy, abounding in navigable rivers, with hills and valleys to diversify the scenery. It struck Stanley in passing through that it resembled Arkansas, Mississippi or Louisiana, without their swamps. Anything might be grown on it, he says, from oranges, sugar cane and cotton of sub-tropical lands to the wheat of California and rice of South Carolina.

THE EQUAL RIGHTERS.

The Equal Righters held an enthusiastic mass meeting last night in the west end. There was no sign of weakening. Ex-Mayor Howland presided.

The Rev. Principal Caven publicly denies the Empire's statement that he has been privately writing more strongly against the Mowat Government than he has done in his published letters.

The Rev. Dr. D. McLeod, who was one of the commissioners appointed to visit schools in French and German districts, has a letter in the papers this morning criticizing and condemning the Equal Rights manifesto for its inaccurate statements and unfair spirit towards this question.

The Equal Rights candidate has retired for Mockett to make way for a straight Conservative candidate against Mr. Harcourt.

A HUNDRED THOUSAND LOAN

ENTHUSIASTICALLY DECIDED ON BY THE TOWN OF ST. HENRI.

A large meeting of St. Henri proprietors was held in the Town Hall last night to consider the advisability of a new loan to finish the sewers, etc. Mayor Dagenais explained that the first loan was inadequate, on account of unforeseen difficulties in carrying out the work and the difference between the actual cost and the contract price, the former being $133,530, and the latter $88,532. By making the loan rather more than less, they could make urgent improvements without increasing taxes; but this was for them to decide.

Dr. Laocote was in favor of a $75,000 loan if necessary. Several other persons, including Curé Decary, spoke in the same sense, after which several in the audience rose up and proposed that the new loan be put at $100,000. The proposal was enthusiastically adopted, and a by-law to be drafted accordingly is expected to be carried by a citizens' meeting without the need of a poll.

GARFIELD'S FINAL SEPULTURE.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 21.—Before the casket containing the remains of President Garfield were removed to the memorial structure yesterday morning it was opened in order to quiet for ever rumors about the body not being in a good state of preservation and could be easily recognized. The hair has somewhat fallen off from the forehead, but the beard has grown fully trimmed and somewhat close. Now it could be classed in life a long beard. The eyes and mouth were closed, and the features somewhat shrunken but perfectly white. They look as though a light frost had fallen upon them. It is the mould of age. The left hand was crossed upon the breast, and it too was white with mould. The body was clothed in an ordinary black suit which has shrunk to the form covered has grown less, but was not screwed down. Harry A. Garfield and James K. Garfield, the two sons of the late president, did not wish to view their father's remains. The party that waited for Mr. Amos Townsend, chairman of the Garfield memorial commission. When he arrived he expressed a wish to have the casket sealed for ever, taking the word of the superintendent of the cemetery in preference to personal observation. The cover was replaced and refastened for ever. "Grandma" Garfield's remains were then taken from the public vault and placed upon the bier in the left wing of the crypt near those of her illustrious son.

The bequest of $22,000 to Queen's University by the late Mrs. Nicholls, of Peterboro, was not unexpected. She previously gave $3,000.

MUD VS. SENTIMENT!

"Here's to the Queen—God bless her."

May has been consecrated by the poets to youth, and happiness, and love. These three sometimes thrive under most unpromising conditions. Who has not, now and then, witnessed them prosper under the blighting influence of rancid butter, hot colored water, and hash?

The weather during the past fortnight has not been favorable to sentiment, but if it amend for the Queen's birthday all will be forgiven it.

Thousands look forward to the 24th with feelings of delight. The few who have nothing to do cannot share in this feeling. Those who have to work every day in the year, barring the statutory holiday, know how deep it is.

The first desideratum is that Saturday be fresh and sweet; and to ensure this result, so essential to the enjoyment of the holiday, don't fail to send everything in the shape of personal liner AT ONCE to the
