GAS TANK EXPLODED.

Mother Superior, Two Sisters and Janitor Burned at Richmond.

CHILDREN IN BUILDING ALL ESCAPED UNINJURED BY FIRE ESCAPE.

Richmond, Oct. 27.—(Special)—The mother superior, two of the sisters, and janitor of the convent here were quite seriously burned about the face and head as the result of the explosion of a gas tank in the basement of the convent building here last evening.

The people of the town were startled about seven o'clock by the loud report of an explosion. It was soon learned where the accident occurred, and the members of the fire brigade immediately proceeded to the scene.

There services were fortunately not required as there was no outbreak of fire.

The basement was damaged to a considerable extent.

There was great excitement in the convent, and the Sisters immediately had the children gathered together, and superintended their descent by the fire escape. None of them were injured.

Dr. Hayes was called in and attended to the injured ones. It was found that the Mother Superior was the most seriously burned.

It was learned at the convent that those injured were investigating the cause of a defect in the lighting of the building, with an open light, which came in contact with escaping gas.

It was fortunate that no more serious result followed.

NOMINATION DAY AT DRUMMONDVILLE.

Mr. J.F. Perreault Will Represent Liberals and Mr. Gilbert Nationalists.

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING CENTERED IN CAMPAIGN NOW WAGING.

Drummondville, October 27 .—(Special,—The nomination meeting for the selection of candidates to fill the vacancy in Drummond and Arthabaska was held here to-day.

Mr. J. E. Perreault was nominated by the Liberals, and Mr. Gilbert was nominated by the Nationalists. No straight Conservative is in the field.

Great interest is being manifested in the election campaign.

The Piberal candidate was supported by Mr. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, while Mr. Monk spoke on behalf of Mr. Gilbert.

St. Cyrille de Wendover, Que., Oct. 27.—A large gathering of the electors of St. Elizabeth de Clotilde and Notre Dame (three parishes of Arthabaska,) heard the question of the Canadian navy discussed in the contest for the Drummond-Arthabaskaville seat. Liberal cause was espoused by Mr. J. E. Perrault, the candidate for office, and Mr. Ernest Roy, M.L.A. for Dorchester; while Mr. Gilbert the Nationalist candidate, also spoke at length, assisted by Mr. Tancrede Marcil.

An interesting tilt occurred between Mr. Perrault, the Liberal candidate, and Mr. Gilbert, the Nationalist choice. The former had made a stirring speech on the navy, and Mr. Gilbert rose to remark: "I am only a farmer. I do not know the first word about the naval question, any more than about the other questions.'-

JUDGE LEET ON MORAL REFORM.

Question Was Brought Before Quebec Assn. of Congregationalists

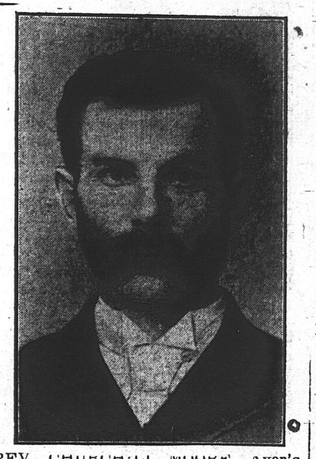

PAPERS DEALING WITH WORK IN CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL WERE DELIVERED.

Waterville, Oct. 27.—(Special)—The Quebec Association of Congregational Churches continued their meetings here yesterday.

The morning devotional service was conducted by the Rev. Churchill Moore, of Ayer's Cliff. The business of the morning was first disposed of. The Business Committee reported in regard to the communication on the legal status of mixed marriages that it be referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. A. S. Hurd, K. C., of Sherbrooke, and Mr. Steadman Lebourveau, B.C. L., of Montreal.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the choice of Rev. Churchill Moore, of Ayer's Cliff, as Moderator; Rev. J.G.Hindley, of Rock Island, Secretary-Treasurer; Rev. Hugh Pedley, Montreal, REV. CHURCHILL MOORE, Ayer's Cliff, who has been appointed President of the Quebec Association of Congregationalists.

Association Representative on the Home Missionary Committee, and the Rev. E. C. Woodley, Danville, on the Advisory Committee.

DISCUSSED SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

The Rev. F. J. Day conducted a conference on "The Sabbath School, its Problems and Possibilities." As an introduction Mr. Day referred to the Sunday School as a field of opportunity for the development of spiritual culture and service. The generally acknowledged fact is that Sunday School work lacks in efficiency and does not engage the sympathy and co-operation as many as ought to be active workers in it.

The conference was conducted in a very comprehensive and interesting way by Mr. Day, who in a rapid series of questions elicited the opinions and interrogations of the members of the Association. One of the points emphasized was the necessity of proper grading of the schools and a separation of the departments of the school, where feasible, for teaching, and the separation of the primary and senior schools for all purposes. Many fruitful suggestions were offered as to teacher training, classes and the cultivation of a loyal devotion to the school.

PAPERS ON PUBLIC WORSHIP.

At the afternoon session two papers of great interest were contributed on "Public Worship," one from the standpoint of the pew, written by Mr. S. F. Morey, of Sherbrooke, and effectively read by Rev. J. G. Hindley, and the other from the standpoint of the pulpit, by Rev. G. Ellery Read. Writing as one who has been deeply interested in the public services of the church, Mr. Morey presented many suggestions that received the hearty approval of the Association. There was a decid-

BOARD'S REVENUE IS NOW $2030.

Greater Sherbrooke Movement Advanced at Largely Attended Meeting.

MR. PALMER RESIGNS SECRETARYSHIP— COUNCIL OF BOARD ENLARGED TO TWENTY MEMBERS.

The largely attended meeting of the Board of Trade, held in the Art Hall last evening, was opened by the President, Mr. J. P. Royer, who asked that one ballot be cast for the ninety-one new members which had been proposed during the past week.

After this had been done Mr. Palmer made the announcement that the fifty subscriptions had been received for the $25 a year for five years. It was also stated that another fifty name list would be started to-day. The total yearly revenue of the Board was now $2030, and it was hoped the $3,000 mark would soon be reached.

RESIGNATION OF MR. C. O. PALMER.

The President read the resignation of Mr. C. O. Palmer, the energetic Secretary of the Board. Mr. Palmer gave the following reasons for resigning: 1st. The work had assumed such large proportions that he could not attend to it, along with his own business. 2nd. In his opinion the work was of sufficient importance to require the entire work of one man.

The retiring secretary asked that his name be added to the Council of Executive Committee in order that he might keep in touch with the movement and do all he could to help it along.

Mr. J. K. Edwards moved that the resignation be accepted with regret. He considered the reasons given by Mr. Palmer were satisfactory, and being positive that he would not reconsider he moved that it be accepted on condition that Mr. Palmer hold office until such time as a suitable successor was secured. The motion was seconded by Mr. J. W. McKee and carried.

Mr. Palmer, the retiring secretary, speaking in connection with his resignation, said that the impression had gone abroad that he was looking for the position of Industrial Commissioner. He emphatically denied this. He was not resigning because he had "cold feet" but simply because he felt that he was not able to carry on the work.

Mr. A. M. Sangster, after paying tribute to the good work Mr. Palmer had accomplished while in office, especially during the present movement and expressing regret at his resignation, moved that his name be added to the Council of the Board. In seconding the motion Mr. William Farwell spoke along similar lines.

AN EXTRA EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

Mr. Royer suggested that an executive committee, consisting of ten prominent citizens, members of the Board of Trade, be appointed to act in conjunction with the Council of the Board, until such time as the movement has been brought to a head and final organization accomplished. The following gentlemen were named for this committee by a nominating committee composed of A.M. Sangster, W. R. Webster and D. J. Steele, namely, Messrs. J. S. Mitchell, Wm. Farwell, L. J. Codere, Dr. Camirand, L. A. Bayley, J. H. Walsh, C. H. Fletcher, A. J. Genest, C. A. French, G. A. LeBaron.

In explaining the idea of such a committee Mr. Palmer said that the ten men who compose the Council had been working hard for some time and it was advisable to have another group to assist them in carrying the work along. Very often several members of the Council were out of town and it was impossible to get a representative quorum. The fact that twenty men were available would improve matters.

Chambre de Commerce and Greater Sherbrooke Campaign.

DOES NOT FAVOR MERGING TWO BOARDS BUT STRONG FOR UNITED ACTION IN MOVEMENT.

A largely attended meeting of the Chambre de Commerce was held at the Monument Nationale, last night, Mr. Hebert, the president, occupying the chair.

The question of paving Wellington Street was taken up and freely discussed. The special committee appointed to look into the matter has been in communication with other towns on this question. As they had received bo definite replies, no definite action was taken. The question of removing the poles on Wellington Street, from King to Aberdeen, was also taken up.

During the evening a large number of new members were proposed for membership.

The campaign for a Greater Sherbrooke, as inaugurated by the Sherbrooke Board of Trade, was up for discussion. The unanimous feeling of all those present was that the Chambre de Commerce should assist in the movement, financially and every way. The Chambre was unanimous in its decision to further this cause in every possible way.

Ways and means were considered, and in this connection the idea of merging the two Boards was discussed. The sentiment of the meeting was against this for reasons already set forth by the president, Mr. Hebert. United action on the Greater Sherbrooke project, however, was assured.

Several other minor matters were up for discussion.

ST. FRANCIS DISTRICT S. S. CONVENTION.

Held at St. Peter's Church Yesterday.

LETTER WAS READ FROM BISHOP OF QUEBEC, WHO WAS UNABLE TO ATTEND.

The Sunday School Conference of the District of St. Francis was held yesterday, opening with celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Peter's Church at 8 o'clock, a goodly number of S. S. workers and scholars being present. Morning prayer was said at ten, and at one o'clock luncheon was served to the visiting clergy, teachers and friends in the Church Hall. The tables were attractively decorated and laden with dainties, and the guests were waited upon by the teachers of St. Peter's Church Sunday School. At 2.30 the regular meeting opened with devotional exercises, the Right Rev. Dr. Farrar, Asst. Bishop of Quebec, presiding, and Rev. Rural Dean Robertson acting as secretary.

Among those present were Rev. Canon Shreve; Rev. Rural Dean Stevens, Coaticook; Rev. Mr. Watson, East Angus; Rev. J. S. Brewer, Compton; Rev. E. B. Husband, Johnville; Rev. J. A. Seaman, North Hatley; Rev. J. McIntyre Bradshaw, Way's Mills; Rev. H. S. Laws, Sawyerville; Rev. C. R. Eardley-Wilmot and Rev. C. L. Mortimer, Sherbrooke; Rev. J. B. Belford, Windsor Mills; the superintendents and teachers of the Sunday Schools of St. Peter's, Sherbrooke, and the Church of the Advent, East Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Way's Mills and East Angus.

The following letter was read from the Lord Bishop of Quebec, addressed "To those gathered in Sunday School Conference":

"My Dear Brethren:

"Now that I am obliged to remain a little more at home, I rejoice to know that God has permitted the Right Rev. Dr. Farrar to stand in many ways in my place, and I know that our united work is going on without a break.

"Trusting that the blessing of Almighty God will rest ever more and more upon your Conference, believe me, ever yours sincerely and affectionately,

"A. H. QUEBEC."

The secretary was requested to send an appropriate reply to His Lordship in the name of the Conference.

Rev. Canon Shreve then formally welcomed Right Rev. Dr. Farrar to the Conference, and was thanked by the Bishop.

The report of the Sunday School Commission and of the Diocesan Sunday School Institute, appointed in May, 1907, was read by Rural Dean Robertson. It was, he said, largely through the efforts of the Rev. Canon Shreve that the Institute was started, and the first meeting was held in December, 1907, in St. Peter's Church Hall, Sherbrooke. Discussion followed on various aspects of Sunday School work, and it was unanimously resolved to request the S. S. Commission to produce a paper suited to Canadian Church Sunday Schools.

The Right Rev. Dr. Farrar then spoke, in part, as follows:

"What can a newcomer like myself be expected to say at a gathering of this sort? Obviously, not much.

"The wisest thing he can do, per-

Mr. Learned also purchased as a part of the same sale the house in the Glen Sutton village, known as the Old George Browning home. The only other bidder was Mr. Silas Courser, of Glen Sutton, but Mr. Learned's bids being the highest he secured both properties.

CELEBRATED 32ND ANNIVERSARY.

Richford, Vt., Oct. 27.—(Special)—The two local papers here, Gazette and Journal, celebrated the closing of their 32nd year of publication on October 15th in a quiet manner. Both of these papers opened up here about the middle of October, 1878, and both have been under the management of the same proprietors ever since. This is saying considerable in these days of many changes. The Journal is the property of Mr. Chas. L. Reed, while the Gazette is still run by Mr. M. J. Maloney, a pioneer in journalistic work. Both gentlemen had had charge of other offices before starting their own papers. That both of these sheets have done much for the uplift of Richford no one that understands the matter will wish to dispute.

NEW SIDEWALKS AT FRELIGHSBURG.

Frelighsburg, October 27. —(Special)— The cement sidewalks are completed to the Methodist and English churches and they are a great credit to Mr. M. A. Leavitt and a great comfort to all church goers. Mr. Leavitt never fails to contribute his share in all such things.

CELEBRATED 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF MARRIAGE.

Frelighsburg, October 27. —(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Martin celebrated the 25th Anniversary of their marriage on October 21st. Their friends to the number of 50 or more gathered at their home to wish them many happy returns. Mrs. Martin only returned from Stanbridge after the company had gathered. Much to her surprise the ladies had taken possession of her home and served up a fine lunch, etc. Mrs. E. Moore, of Ottawa, niece of Mr. Martin, gave two very fine recitations. There was also a guessing contest and music. Rev. H. Naylor gave a short address and the worthy couple were presented with a silver cake plate full of silver to the amount of about $60, which went to show the esteem and good wishes of their many friends.

FIRST MEETING OF READING CLUB.

Rock Island, Oct. 27.—(Special)—The Woman's Reading Club held their first regular meeting at the home of Mrs. B. F. Butterfield, where a very interesting programme was given. The opening selection was a musical selection, "Au Clair de la Lune" played by Miss Helen Baxter, with much expression. This was followed by the minutes of the two previous meetings by the secretary, Miss Harding. Mrs. J.A.Bissonett then read the "Current Events," which were well worthy of mention and these were followed by an exceedingly pretty vocal selection, "When We'er Together," by Mrs. Alfred Bishop, accompanied by Miss H. Baxter. Mrs. LeBaron of Sherbrooke was then called upon to give her paper of the afternoon, "A Trip Through Alberta." It was an excellent and most graphic description of that portion of our country.' The afternoon's programme was then brought to a close by a vocal selection "The Sweetest Flower That Blows," charmingly rendered by Miss Irma Moulton, and accompanied by Mrs.B. F. Butterfield.

TWO AERONAUTS ARE HEARD FROM.

Hawley and Post Landed 58 Miles North of Chicoutimi.

HAD A TRYING EXPERIENCE IN THE WILDS, MAKING BUT 12 MILES IN THREE DAYS.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—Thoroughly fatigued and showing plentiful marks of an arduous week of struggling through the dense wilderness of Northern Canada, Messrs. Hawley & Post, the intrepid aeronauts. who had sailed the America II. nearly two hundred miles farther than any other contestants in the big balloon race for the Gordon Bennett cup, arrived at Chicoutimi, Quebec, last night.

Both were so completely worn out that they showed very little interest in anything but a rest, and did not even betray excitement when they found that they had undoubtedly won the cup, for which they had endured so much. Their main difficulty was after they landed, at an uninhabited spot, about 58 miles north of Chicoutimi, when they grounded at an altitude of fifteen hundred feet on the face of a mountain, in the midst of a heavy snowstorm.

It was this storm which compelled them to descend, as, with a loss of gas after their long journey, they had used all their ballast except six and a half bags, and they were afraid of accident, or losing themselves in the wilderness.

It was well on in the afternoon of the 19th, the same day that the Germania, the Helvetia, and the Dusseldorf II. also landed in Quebec wilds, that the America II came down. The snowstorm which drove them to alight was so heavy that, with approaching darkness, they decided to spend the night in the balloon basket.

The next day at dawn they fixed the balloon up as well as they could, packed their blankets and records and all the provisions they could carry, and started south, guiding by compass.

They had a trying experience in the wilds, only making about miles in three days, forcing their way through the heavy undergrowth, while two snowstorms during the trip added to their discomfort. On the fourth day they came across the hut of a trapper, where they rested a day, and later were found by four French-Canadian trappers, who were amazed to discover two such persons in these trackless wilds. The position was soon explained, and with characteristic hospitality the trappers abandoned their work and escorted the visitors from the clouds of St. Ambroise, the last stage of the journey being made with comparative ease, as the trappers knew the trails and routes through the woods.

Once at St. Ambroise their troubles were all over, as there they reached the end of the Government telegraph line, and also struck a colonization road, over which they were driven the forty miles to Chicoutimi. There the two rested last night, and early this morning will take the Quebec and Lake St. John Railway to Quebec, and thence home.

ARE YOU IN THE GAME?

Today's mail brings some exceptionally good suggestions for back-of-the-envelope advertising. There is rather less poetry than usual. The following are a few of those received:

"Sherbrooke, Que. A Railway Center. See it on the Map. Has 5000 h.p. to sell. Write Board of Trade for particulars."

W. Sherbrooke.

"Live in Sherbrooke, Que., it pays."

or

"Sherbrooke, Que., where manufacturers grow rich."

E.M.A.

"Safe investments and good returns. Sherbrooke is bound to be the Klondyke of the East."

Lennoxville.

"M. M." suggests a "hub" design, the spokes representing the railways On the outer circle are the words, "Locate here and you will find health, wealth, power and progress." Over all are the words, "Sherbrooke, Queen City."

"Locate in Sherbrooke, Que., Queen City of the Province."

F.J.C., Sherbrooke.

A reader from South Roxton writes, "I have been interested in reading Mr. Clum's lecture, so I will write these few lines on Sherbrooke.

"Sherbrooke stands first in the Dominion for advancement, for manufacturing industry, progress, prosperity, health and wealth."

Here's another:

"Look ye here ye men of wealth,
"God helps those who help themself.
"For manufacturing sites and power good,
"Come to Sherbrooke and you will see,
"What we have to offer thee,
"Or write to Ald. McManamy."

K.E.G. writes:

"I beg to hand you herewith my little contribution to the Greater Sherbrooke Literature and glad to get it off my mind. I have been puzzling over a vexing business proposition and continually find my mind wandering far afield with something pertaining to Greater Sherbrooke, Here they are:

"Sherbrooke's star is in the East."

or

"Sherbrooke's the Hub. Be a spoke in the wheel of progress, not a fly on the rim."

or

"Sherbrooke knows no knockers. The latch string is out."

or

"Let Sherbrooke show you."

or

"While Sherbrooke's vain of men of brain,
"And honor that condones no lies,
"Sherbrooke ladies would make Hades
"Even rival Paradise."

or

"Sherbrooke and Success are synonomous."

or

"Sherbrooke breeds only one Germ, that of Success."

A young poetess of the High School contributes a verse today, the first letters of each line spelling S-H-E-R-B-R-O-O-K-E. It runs as follows;

Sherbrooke Iron Works are great,
Hubbard's is the place to go and Echenberg for furniture fine,
no mistake,
Record for news you are sure to find.
Bean's for carriages.
Rosenbloom for clothing fine,
Olivier's the dry goods store,
Olivier's the grocer too,
Kinkead tobacco fine does keep,
Edward's, last but nor least, for furniture sure.

EFFECTIVE PLAN FOR PARLIAMENTARY BORES.

(From the London Globe.)

A Japanese engineer named Yamaskawa has conceived a method of silencing Parliementary bores, and from his invention he is entitled to be considered a benefactor of the human race.

Attached to each seat in the House of Parliament he proposes to have a metal tube, the top being about the size of a franc piece or shilling. Each member of the House is to receive a leaden ball or bullet on entering. These balls can be easily passed into the tube, which carried under the floor, leads to a receptacle immediately under the place where a member stands when addressing the assembly.

This spot is like the traps on the stage of a theatre. The trap is so arranged that when a certain number of balls, not less than one-half the number of members of a full House, have reached their receptacle the trap is made to descend automatically, carrying with it the garrulous speaker or bore as the case may be.

No points of order have to be raised, the displeasure of the House is manifest in silence. Away goes the bore, and another speaker is called upon.

CONCERNING STRANGLES.

Strangles is an infectious disease of the horse, mule and ass. It is seen usually in young animals that have been brought into stables for the first time, but may occur in those running at grass also. After recovery the animal is immune to the disease, and this immunity is usually lifelong.

The cause of strangles is infection from an animal suffering from the disease, or indirectly through contact with the discharges from those affected. All the morbid discharges are contagious. A predisposition to contract strangles might be caused by a common cold, which prepares the tissues for the reception of the micro-organisms.

Livery stables, where many horses of all ages are stabled, are ideal places for spreading the disease.

Very often the first symptom noticed is a swelling between the branches of the lower law, but as a rule, the animal is noticed to be dull and off feed for a day or two before active symptoms develop. Then a hard, dry cough is heard, followed by a running from the nostrils, which is at first watery, but soon develops into a thick slimy discharge, with purulent matter mixed with it. As the disease progresses the coat stares, the mucous membrane of the eye, if examined, will be found to be red, the temperature rises and the pulse is quickened. Usually the breathing is lightly accelerated, due to the blocking of the air passages with mucous. The swelling below the jaw becomes hot, tender and may break and discharge a thick yellowish pus. This hot, painful swelling is usually considered the most characteristic symptom of strangles. After the abscesses break or are lanced, and the nasal discharge becomes well established, the fever abates and the appetite returns. This is followed by a progressive decrease of the nasal discharge, and at the end if ten days or a fortnight the animal is well.

The foregoing is the usual course events in strangles, but the disease may assume a malignant form, or complications may arise which may prove fatal. The swelling below the jaw may become excessive, extending down the throat and up as high as the ears. Abscesses may form in any part of the body, including the lungs, brain, and abdominal cavity. In the latter case the animal shows symptoms of colic, while, if the lungs become affected and full of discharge, the breathing will become labored, the flanks heave and great distress will be shown. A common symptom is inflammation of the larnyx. When this occurs swallowing is impeded, and fluids are returned through the nostrils.

Another complication appears in an inflammation of the skin of the head, when small abscesses appear on the lips, cheeks, nostrils and other head parts, accompanied by a more or less severe swelling of the affected parts.

Pneumonia may also occur from food finding its way down the windpipe, owing to the difficulty in swallowing, due to the swollen condition of the throat.

The disease may become chronic, in which case the nasal symptoms do not completely disappear. The above are the principal complications.

HOW OLD PEOPLE

May Prolong Their Lives.

At an advanced age waste is more rapid than repair. The organs act more slowly and less effectually than in youth. The circulation is poor — the blood thin and watery—the appetite poor and digestion weak.

We want to say to every aged person in this vicinity that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) will prolong life. It creates an appetite, aids digestion and makes good blood. In this natural manner Vinol retards waste and replaces weakness with strength, giving new life to the worn system.

If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol invigorates old people we would not be able to supply the demand.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. W. H. Griffith, Druggist, Sherbrooke.

W. A. OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Church was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Church Hall. The attendance, owing to various causes, was smaller than usual, but those present were well repaid for braving the rain storm. The president, Mrs. Shreve, took the chair, and the meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Canon Shreve. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting read and confirmed, followed by letters of acknowledgment from Mrs. W. E. Paton and Miss Twose for written expressions of sympathy and condolence from the W.A. in their recent bereavements. The report of the treasurer showed the collection for the last month to amount to $8.90.

An appeal was read from Bishop Du Vernet, of Caledonia, for assistance for the Rev. J. B. McCullough, of Aigemsh Mission, B. C., whose dwelling house and chapel school were destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. After some discussion the sum of $25 was unanimously voted to be sent at once to the Bishou of Caledonia for the relief fund.

The Rector spoke regretfully of the absence of two members of the W.A. whose names he would not mention, but whose faithfulness to every duty was recognized, not only by himself but by every member of the Auxiliary. They had the deep sympathy of their fellow members, and he prayed that God would help and comfort them in their trouble.

The Right Rev. Dr. Farrar, Assistant Bishop of Quebec, was then introduced by the Rector and gave a truly spiritual and helpful address on mission work, which was heard with the deepest attention throughout. The meeting closed with the benediction, pronounced by the Bishop.

ORGANIST BADLY BURNED

Mr. H. E. Jenner, organist, of Carman, Man., writes: "Some little time ago I took hold of a piece of wood, in a box stove, that I wished to move, thinking it had not caught fire. Unfortunately it was very hot and burned my thumb severely—so badly, in fact, that a large white blister appeared, covering the greater portion of the thumb. I had some Zam-Buk and applied it, then bandaged up the thumb. The Zam-Buk took the fire out of the wound almost instantly and eased the pain. I had an engagement to play at an organ recital a few days later, and thanks to Zam-Buk I was able to keep the appointment. But for it, I know it would have been utterly impossible, the burn was so severe."

It is really surprising how quickly Zam-Buk takes the smart out of a burn, a cut or a wound. That is one reason why children are so fond of it. It eases the pain from "every-day accidents" as nothing else can. As a household balm it is without equal.

Miss E. E. Falloon, of Strassburg, Sask., says: "I have found Zam-Buk very useful as a household balm. Several of my friends have also used it and all speak very highly of it. A relation of mine had suffered for a long time from eczema, and nothing seemed able to do any good. Zam-Buk worked a complete cure. I shall always keep a supply on hand, and advise all housekeepers to do so."

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, and it may be had post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. You are warned against harmful substitutes and imitations.

PARIS MILLINERY MODIFIED TO SUIT LOCAL TASTES.

Every little while, we receive from the foremost designers of Paris and New York a few of their most exclusive models—the very latest of their creations. These models, unless somewhat modified, would, to the average woman of good taste, seem rather extreme.

For this modifying process, we employ experts who thoroughly understand the demands of our clientele.

We now place on sale some of these exquisite reproductions, fine examples of their handiwork that when compared with the originals, show an appreciable difference only in the prices, which are vastly lower, ranging from $10 to $25.

ROUSSELL WON

DEAN DROPPED OUT AT THE END OF THE FIFTH MILE.

The race at the Stadium last night had a rather unfortunate ending. Nixon Dean, who holds the championship of the Eastern Townships, dropped out of the race at the end of the fifth mile.

When he dropped out his feet were all blisters.

The runners kept together while Dean was running. Roussel finished the remaining seven miles and won the gold watch, covering the twelve miles in 69 minutes.

W. Gagnon ran with him for the last four miles. The race was watched by a fairly large crowd.

BASKE BALL.

KNOWLTON BASKET BALL TEAM PRACTISING ACTIVELY.

Knowlton, Oct. 27.—(Special)—The career of the K. B. B. has been an active one up to date. Organized a week ago, the club has been affiliated with the Eastern Townships B. B. League and plays its first stern match with Stanstead College here on Friday, the 28th inst.

The local club is green to a man and the required training has therefore been severe. All week with the utmost practice possible Knowlton must of a necessity play at a disadvantage against a team of several years' training and championship competition.

On November 4th the local club meet with the Bishop's College School, at Knowlton, the champions of 1909.

A great amount of work has been entailed through necessary alterations to the opera hall, through registration with the A. A. U. of C. and procuring outfits for players, and it is hoped that local interest will assist the club with its support and enthusiasm.

A committee meeting consisting of F. B. Foss, president; C. N. Crutchfield, Secy.-Treas., and Dr. C.E.Cross manager, met yesterday afternoon to name the players for Friday night's match.

SPORTING NOTES.

Mr. W. S. Maguire, chairman of the special committee named to draw up a constitution for the proposed Eastern Townships Athletic Association, will be glad to furnish any information on the subject to clubs or individuals who desire further enlightenment.

The baseball team of North Coaticook, which started in last season so successfully, finished considerably in debt, and as the time is approaching to think about another season, they want to wipe out the debt at an early date. They are giving a box social in Meade's Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 28, and they hope their friends will come and support them. In the past North Coaticook has been noted for outdoor sports, and it is hoped the younger element will take hold and with the financial support of the old-timers, again each out for the E. T. League trophy.

A CURIOUS LEGAL ISSUE.

(New York World.)

The case of the young tough who when shot at, held a boy before him as a human shield against his foe's bullets has both a curious legal and ethical interest. That he was morally responsible for the lad's death is obvious. But what is the degree of his guilt under the law?

It was by another hand that the actual homocide was committed. Berg was thus not a principal in the crime and to what extent he was an accessory is a problem for the courts. There is apparently no lack of precedent for securing his indictment for manslaughter. But should not his wanton sacrifice of a life to save his own in circumstances of peculiar heartlessness constitute murder in effect and deserve the same penalty? That is understood to be the line of prosecution the District-Attorney's office will adopt, and the search for precedents to support it will give the case a unique judicial prominence.

Whatever its outcome, the novel legal points involved will embalm Berg's name in the law-books along with Burke's and Boycott's. He will have been the means of bringing a new kind of crime to the attention of the courts and no doubt of occasioning new legislation to cover it if the existing Penal Code is found inadequate.

But apart from any penalty a court may impose even if he goes free he will have brought upon himself a moral punishment perhaps worse than that which is meted out for murder. As the perpetrator of a crowning act of cowardice he will have an evil fame which he can never escape.

COFFEE PERCOLATORS

Make the most delicious and healthful coffee. All that is necessary is cold water and the coffee, the Percolator does the rest. Coffee should be distilled, never boiled. Boiling dissipates the aromatic oil which is the life of coffee. In using a Percolator the coffee is placed above the water and as it becomes heated is forced through small tubes and sprayed automatically over the grounds, and absorbs all the flavor, leaving the bitter tannic acid behind. To obtain the same strength as with an ordinary pot, use one-third the coffee.

BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY NOTES.

On Monday last Professor Sawdon gave an informal violin recital in the College library. It was well attended and much appreciated by the students.

The Lord Bishop of Quebec and Mr. John Hamilton, D.C.L., were the guests of the Rev. Principal Parrock on Wednesday.

A mock trial was held in the College library on Wednesday night. The event proved very humorous. Professor Boothroyd acted as counsel for the prosecution, and Mr. C. G. Lawrence, B.A., as counsel for the defence.

The "veteran soccer team" was defeated on Wednesday by a soccer team from the Preparatory School by a score of 3—2.

The road race for the "Dunn Cup" was run Wednesday and was won by Mr. Harry Scott. Mr. Norman Ward came a close second.

KAISER WILLIAM AS FAMILY MAN.

NOT LEAST INTERESTING SIDE OF THIS RULER'S CHARACTER.

(New York Christian Advocate)

Not the least interesting side of this versatile ruler's character is that of his family life. He is statesman, Emperor, musician, preacher — whatever the occasion seems to require he endeavors to do; but he is certainly a lover of his family and desirous for his sons to accomplish their part in the development of the nation. His six sons are stalwart youths, as active and mischievous as if they had not been born in a palace, royal princes.

Many are the anecdotes related of these lively boys, who were as full of tricks as any lads in humbler circumstances. Now they are almost grown up, and the Crown Prince, who married the Grand Duchess Cecile of Meclenburg a couple of years ago, and his younger brother have attained the dignity of a father.

One of the most amusing stories which are told is this: The Emperor was holding a council of state, and the ministers, all dignified statesmen, had left their tall hats in an ante-chamber while they retired with His Majesty to discuss important questions. Word was brought to the emperor in the midst of this discussion that the princes were in mischief and no one had sufficient authority to control them.

The Kaiser emerged into the anteroom just in time to see his lively sons, six of them, each standing in front of one of the tall hats belonging to the officials. These were laid in a row on the floor. The Crown Prince stood at the head of the line.

"Now," he said, "I will count three, and then all sit down." Before the Emperor could get his breath to protest the fatal three sounded and each prince sat down with a disastrous effect.

These boyish tricks are now a thing of the past, and the Kaiser is exceedingly fond of his six stalwart boys, who are taller than he. They are often seen on the streets of Berlin, and in the charming park of the New Palace, at Potsdam, both the Emperor and Empress join their children in active outdoor sports. It is not long ago that the Empress sprained her ankle severely while playing tennis with her big boys.

Kaiser Wilhelm's love for his only daughter, Princess Louise, who is now a graceful girl of seventeen, is intense, and even though he may be autocratic and severe with others, he is always yielding and gentle with her. Some months ago the young princess was walking in the royal park at Potsdam when a great tree fell close beside her. When the news of his daughter's narrow escape from sudden death was brought to the Emperor he was much moved and hurried to the Princess Louise, clasping her in his arms and murmuring words of affection.

PAPER FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

NEWS EDITOR OF CHRONICLE PUBLISHED DISPATCHES ABOUT CRIPPEN.

London, October 26.— During the hearing of the case against the London Daily Chronicle for contempt of Court, arising out of the publication of certain despatches bearing on the Crippen case, Counsel explaining how there had been complaints of two statements that had appeared in the Daily Chronicle: first, that Crippen had poisoned his wife and secondly that he had made a confession that he had killed her.

Counsel admitted that there had been contempt of Court if the Court had any jurisdiction, but submitted that at the time the statements complained of were made there were no proceedings pending in England against Crippen.

Mr. Shearman proceeded to read various cables from Montreal to the Chronicle. One of them said that the persistent rumor that Crippen had confessed was supported by the fact that Inspector Dew looked so good-natured.

Justice Pickford—"Can you imagine more pernicious gossip than that?"

Mr. Shearman explained that the newspaper did not act on this cable, but waited until a Canadian detective was given as the source of the information. Several cables passed between the Chronicle and its Montreal correspondent.

Mr. Perris, the assistant editor, was ordered to remain in custody until the money was paid. Payment was made during the afternoon and Mr. Perris released.

haps, is to hold his tongue, especially when he has come into a new country, determined to learn before he professes to teach, and believing that the Canadian system of Sunday School education is two or three degrees ahead of any which he has hitherto had a chance of studying.

"In England there are great varieties of teaching, but there is a growing desire to introduce order and system, and that this desire has increased in strength since the last Pan-Anglican Congress, despite that dread of over-systematization which is so characteristically English and which places us, I think, as a rule, behind the Nonconformist bodies in this matter."

Bishop Farrar spoke of the Sunday Schools in the West Indian colonies, which he had been able to observe more closely, viz., the Leeward Islands, Jamaica, Barbados, and on the South American coast, and said: "The systems in use are naturally still immature, and we are face to face with a race difficulty, which makes the work exceedingly difficult, but there is this to be said, that the Sunday Schools are, generally speaking, nurseries of the Church.

"In some of the English islands af the Leeward Islands group, a Sunday School session is really a remarkable sight. I suppose in this country the link between the Church and School is already fairly well established, but do you think that this link needs to be strengthened, and if so, what means do you suggest for strengthening it? Let us all try to realize to the fullest extent exactly what difference it might make to us in the Province of Quebec if every child in our schools really realized what it means to belong to that branch of the Church of God which we know as the Church of England in Canada; realized that that reformed Church was a true and living branch of the Holy Catholic Church, in which we say, every day of our lives, we believe—and what a difference it would make, also, if all these realizations were made to end in a fully developed instinct of service, the doing of some definite duty for and in the Church of Christ, by each and every member of that Church.

"May God bless this gathering and all its results, for the sake of Him who loved little children and bade them come to Him, and may He bless us all to-day and cause all in this parish to go forward in the good work, so that this parish may take in this matter a position worthy of so beautiful and happily growing a city."

In the name of the Conference the Bishop was thanked by Rev. Canon Shreve for his thoughtful and helpful address.

Rev. J. S. Brewer was called upon and responded by reading an able paper on "What is the Church, and how far are we responsible for its continuance in the world?" Mr. Brewer's paper was a model of advanced thought and close reasoning. A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Brewer at the conclusion of the paper.

Rev. Canon Shreve made a brief address on the formation of a "Font Roll" in the parish, which would round out the organizations recently formed: the St. Andrew's Brotherhood for men, the junior chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood for boys and the Daughters of the King, for girls and young women. He trusted that some one of the Sunday School workers, or member of the congregation would be moved to undertake the work.

The meeting them closed with the benediction, pronounced by the Bishop.

Tea was hospitably served and a social half-hour passed.

A good congregation assembled at the evening service.

the Railway Committee, in prefacing his report said that of late an improvement had taken place in the mode of procedure, as far as reports from the committees were concerned. Heretofore the committees had made no regular reports. He suggested that all chairmen should call their committees together and have a report ready.

Mr. Edwards referred to the petition recently circulated re the proposed location of the C. P. R. freight sheds. The petition was to the effect that the C. P. R. erect their sheds south of King Street instead of at the site of the old station. The leading business men signed and the petition was forwarded to the Superintendent. A letter was received from Mr. Murphy, saying that they would consider the matter carefully.

The second matter the Railway Committee had in hand was the dealing with complaints received with reference to trouble in getting bonded baggage across the line. The matter had been taken up with the Department of Customs at Ottawa and with the President of the Grand Trunk. Nothing, however, had been done. The trouble was caused by the present system of examining baggage at points on the frontier.

Mr. W.A. Hale told of having sent seven trunks from Portland, Me., the day before he left himself. When he reache d home he found the trunks were still in Coaticook and had to send his keys there to have the trunks examined. It was three days before they reached Sherbrooke. Two other gentlemen referred to similar difficulties experienced at Beebe.

The Secretary was asked to continue efforts to overcome this difficulty.

CITY IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE

Mr. L. A. Dufresne, Chairman of the above committee, apologized for not having a report ready. He had been away for a few days and had not heard of the meeting until his arrival. He recommended, however, that something be done to provide Sherbrooke with more breathing spots. He called upon Mr. Haight for a full explanation of the proposed park scheme

MR. HAIGHT'S PARK PROPOSAL.

Mr. Haight suggested that a Commission be formed to purchase all the available land for parks. A part of this land could be sold for building lots and factory sites. The rest would be kept for parks. He had discussed the question with a number of citizens and found the majority in favor of getting more parks. Only half favored the Commission.

As a desirable piece of land Mr. Haight mentioned the property between Portland Square and Liverpool street., between Ontario street and the city limits, consisting of about ninety acres. The land on the shore of the Magog River, between Liverpool street and the river, might also be used for a park. The speaker also referred to the gorge of the Magog River, which he termed a magnificent piece of natural scenery. Mr. Clum had said that this spot would be worth a million dollars in Pittsburg. This thriving American city was today suffering for the want of more parks. The manufacturers felt the need of them at Pittsburg and conditions were becoming so oppressive that the city was obliged to pay high prices for land in the heart of the city for parks.

Mr. Haight moved that the question of parks be taken up by the Council. The motion was seconded by Mr. J.E. Edwards and carried.

Col. E.B. Worthington, following up the question of parks, referred to a site of fifty or sixty acres on the Magog Road, bounded on the west by the Orford line. The time was opportune to purchase this as he understood the B. A. Land Company was ungaring off their property in this city. The fact that a natural pond was to be had there made it more valuable.

Mr. Wm. Farwell also supported the movement for more parks. He referred to the protest raised when the question of buying Victoria park was before the Council. He was accused of having agitated the purchase of this land for personal or business reasons. To-day he would ask for no greater monument than a slab saying that he was instrumental in giving the citizens of Sherbrooke Victoria Park.

Mr. J. Rosenbloom moved that Messrs. Worthington, Haight, Farwell and W. A. Hale be added to the committee. The motion was carried.

THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSIONER

This important question was introduced by Mr. E.W. Farwell. He referred at the outset to the regret all felt at the resignation of Mr. Palmer.

Mr Farwell said that Sherbrooke was the first Canadian city to invite a man who knows how to move in such things to come and take hold of the advertising of the city. If this movement is carried out we will be the first city to get out after business on up-to-date lines. He thought it would be wise to get a capable man from across the line, either Mr. Clum or a man he would suggest, and have him come here for a month or so and train up a local man for the position. What is needed at present is a man who can tell us how to proceed.

Mr. Farwell moved that the Council take up the question of securing a capable man to come here for a month or so and coach a local man who may be selected to carry on the work. He contended that it was very important that the movement should be started right. Mr. E. H. Fletcher seconded the motion.

Mr. A. M. Sangster was in favor of getting some local man who would be coached by some expert who, by attending conventions, etc., would be able to develop into an ideal Industrial Commissioner. In business circles it was generally found that if a local man could be found to do the work, it was better to engage him in preference to a skilled outsider.

Col. E. B. Worthington was, also, in favor of getting a local man and "training him up in the way he should go." If we get a high salaried man we will use up all the money and only have the experience.

INDUSTRIAL COMMITTEE.

Mr. A.M. Sangster reported on behalf of this committee. He named several industries that are contemplating locating here. He added that the Industrial Committee could give the Commissioner plenty do to at once.

PAVING AND DOUBLE TRACKING WELLINGTON ST.

At a meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade held before the general meeting the question of paving and double tracking Wellington street was discussed. As Mr. Pilcher was present at the general meeting the President called upon him to explain the Company's position in the matter. Mr. Pilcher said that it was the intention of the Company to run all cars from the proposed new lines through Wellington street. In order to do this it was necessary that it should be double tracked. Without the double track it would be impossible to do this. He stated that the placing of a double track along the street would not interfere with vehicular traffic and the company would maintain their lines in good order. Mr. Pilcher gave figures as to the width of the street, showing that from the outside rail of the track there would be twelve feet on each side at the narrowest point. He considered the double track to be an advantage to the city as well as to the company. If they were not allowed to place a double track they would have to have a siding, where the cars would have to stand. In his opinion this would be worse than to allow the double track where the cars would keep going.

Mr. Hale referred to Grand Allee, Quebec, and Federal street, Boston, both of which were double tracked and at points narrower than Wellington street, yet no inconvenience was experienced though the traffic was much greater than in Sherbrooke.

Mr. Haight recommended that a committee be appointed to look into the matter. A change in the water pipes may have to be made and this should be done before the paving.

Mr. Edwards asked Alderman Thompson why the Council had turned down the request. Ald. Thompson stated that a great deal of work had to be done to the pipes, water and gas, and that it would take about a year to do it right. It would be easier to do this work with one track than with two. The Council considered it would be impossible to keep two tracks in order without paving. Ald. Thompson stated that the majority of the people on Wellington street were not in favor of having it paved. At this point he criticised Mr. Pilcher for making the statement that there would be twelve feet on each side of the tracks. He contended that there would only be ten when the cars were passing. "We have to consider both sides of the question," said Ald. Thompson, "before we grant this. We have to study the question."

Mr. Wm. Farwell thought that if the pipes had to be moved there was no need of dealing further with the matter. Mr. E.W. Farwell thought that perhaps the Company would modify their demands if they were given any encouragement that in the future they would be given the privilege of double tracking the street.

Mr. L. A. Bayley thought it was an opportune time to have the work done, when the company was ready to pay for paving 14 feet. He thought that possibly they could place their track on one side, with a view of double tracking later.

INCREASED VALUE OF PROPERTY IN THE CITY.

Mr. W.A. Hale gave general instances where property had gone up in value since the street railway question had been settled. He mentioned one lot that had gone begging at $1000 for some time. As soon as the street railway by-law was passed he went to buy the property and found that the owner asked $3,500 for the property but was willing to sell it to him for $3000. Another lot had been up for sale at $500 for a long time but was taken off the market as soon as the by-law was passed. A third lot, assessed by the city at $400 was bought by him two weeks ago for $1000.

He spoke in the highest terms of the way in which the Company was carrying on the work. As an example of the class of work they were doing he told his own sad experience. He had been getting out ties for the Sherbrooke Street Railway Co. for years. This year he thought he would sell as usual to the new company, and asked Mr. Hibbard to come and look the ties over. Mr. Hibbard did so and said he would not take them as a gift.

ALL SHOULD JOIN IN THE MOVEMENT.

Mr. D. J. Steele urged that every member should do all he could to get sufficient names to fill the second list of fifty that was being circulated.

A GOOD SUGGRSTION.

Mr. W. B. McCaw referred to Mr. Clum's remark that many citizens did not know the rate of taxation, water rates and other important facts relative to the city. When travelling a person was lively to be asked such questions and should be able to answer. He suggested that a small pamphlet be issued giving answers to the questions which would likely be asked by a man who intended locating in a place He also suggested that the officers of the Board of Trade should be furnished with an up-to-date municipal journal from which many important ideas could be obtained.

Mr. Wm. Farwell moved that Mr. McCaw be appointed a committee of one to prepare this pamphlet. The motion was carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

WHEN A GIRL WANTS A BUSINESS PLACE.

PREPARATION IS JUST AS IMPORTANT FOR GIRL AS BOY.

The preparation for a business career is just as important for a girl who must depend upon her own resources for a living as for a boy. The greatest drawback to girls entering business offices today is lack of training. Unlike the boy the thoughts of a business career do not disturb their minds until they are actually forced to look for a position.

The best training for a girl for business is to improve the mind in a general way and then gradually specialize on one particular subject. Suppose she wishes to enter the office of a large mercantile establishment. She may keep her eye on a particular house, and a particular position. But she must perfect herself in writing, acquaint herself with modern business forms and methods (obtained easily through books today), study to write good English, look after her punctuation, spelling and capitalization, and if possible learn to use the typewriter. Shorthand is not essential unless one aspires to be a stenographer, but it is a good thing to acquire. It helps in the long run.

Stenography is the road which more girls travel on their way to a business career than any other, but if one could see some of the letters written from dictation by new stenographers he would conclude that good English is a lost art among novices. So many apparently think that mastering shorthand is the end of all things that they neglect all else. No girl can be a good stenographer until she can write and translate good English, and punctuate, paragraph and capitalize her sentences. A poor stenographer with a good command of English as it should be written and an intelligent knowledge of business forms and letters is worth more in an office today than a good stenographer iacking in these important essentials.

A good course in commercial law and business practise at some institution is not essential to success, but if a girl would prepare herself for a business career she would do well to purchase and study closely books covering these subjects. Half the hardships and drudgery of later work will then be lifted from her shoulders.

One cannot specialize too far in the preparatory work. It is impossible always to select the position wanted, but in a modified way this is possible. Have you a legal turn of mind, and wish to enter a law firm's office? Then make law forms and documents your specialty. Do you aspire to enter the office of a book-publishing concern? Then there are certain methods and work which you can study and master. A mercantile house may deal in anything from pig iron to pianos. You may have to learn the details of this business later, but reading and studying now will greatly help. What do you know about the production and manufacturing interests of the country, Have you studied the government's reports. ? Do you know anything about the business charts and organization methods so generally adopted by the best concerns? Are book-keeping and accounting systems unknown quantities to you? If so, look into them, and you will find a veritable gold mine of help.

Keep in mind so far as possible one particular line of industry. Your first position may not cover this, but you can live in the hopes that some day the opportune moment will arrive. Then if you are prepared for it you can fill the position satisfactorily. The writer knows a girl who early prepared herself for the publishing business, and night and day she studied its methods. In her first position she was stenographer in a lumber concern. She did her work well, but kept close watch on the publishing outlook. Then she went into a department store as a clerk. She performed her duties satisfactorily, but eagerly watched the book and periodical department. She was able to make improvement in this, and her intelligence in time induced the manager to give her sole charge. She developed that department and made it the best in the city. Then the call came from a big publisher who had heard of her success. She waited ten years for her pet position, and today it is hers.—The Stanford.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup Than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2, and Fully Guaranteed.

Sixteen oz. of cough syrup -- as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside 24 hours. Excellent, too, for whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix 2 cups of granulated sugar with 1 cup of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which usually is upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guiaicol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equalled.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

HAIR CUTTING WITH RAZOR.

FOLLOWED IN PARIS AND SAID TO BE BEST METHOD.

"I am compelled to go to Paris or Vienna when I want my hair properly cut. The use of the razor instead of scissors, which is an infinitely superior way of cutting hair, seems almost unknown in London."

So writes a correspondent who complains of the difficulty of obtaining a really satisfactory and artistic haircut at the hands of an English barber.

Inquiries in the West End yesterday revealed some interesting facts concerning the use of the razor in the place of scissors.

"Although the practice has been in vogue in Paris and Vienna for a great many years," said a tonsorial expert with a wide experience of haircutting and hairdressing, "it is very uncommon in London where hair is cut with a razor.

"The advantages of the process are unquestionable. With a razor you can 'thin' long, strong hair in a manner quite impossible with scissors. The beauty of the practice when properly carried out, is that you cannot possibly detect, after the thinning out process, where the long hair ends and the short begins.

"Usually only the sides of his head are treated with the razor. Holding a comb in the hair and the edge of a razor just below it, you delicately shave down the hair, gradually yet surely thinning it with perfect uniformity.

"For people who wear their hair long and thick, yet do not wish it to appear in the least untidy, the method cannot be surpassed.

"The Parisian wears his hair more loosely than the Englishman; he likes it to stand away from the crown of his head in a distinctive fashion. There various forms of coiffure are almost invariably due to skillful use of the razor."—London Mirror.

PEACE.

O, moonlight beam,
And starlight gleam,
Across the fields of blue,
A silence keep,
Profound and deep,
Naught charms my soul like you.

Soft cloudlets float
With ne'er a boat
Athwart yon sea sublime,
Oh! bring the balm
Of peaceful calm,
And fill this heart of mine.

Then vanish fear!
And ev'ry grief take flight!
Let joy supreme
Reign with each beam
Of pure celestial light.

A FORMOSAN WEDDING.

(London Daily Graphic.)

With full Formosan rites, including the public sacrifice of a pig, two inhabitants of the Formosa village at the White City were married on Saturday. The bridegroom was Sarongai Busabiree, a young man of 24, with the reputation of a mighty hunter among his fellow tribesmen, and the bride was Rugigascia, a maiden of 21.

At an early hour the village was garlanded with corn and leaves and the native occupants bedecked themselves with finery. In the afternoon the bride and bridegroom were temporarily separated from the other natives, who occupied the time in making a procession round the exhibition carrying instruments of war and singing weird songs. After this they assembled in an open hut in the centre of the village and two sturdy men appeared carrying a pig, which was screaming lustily. It was killed instantly with a spear thrust through the heart and the carcass was singed over a fire of rushes, skinned and cut into small pieces. The pieces were placed in pots and placed over charcoal fires. Before this had happened the bridegroom had to fetch the bride. She offered resistance and wept a great deal, but, seizing hold of her, the lover placed her upon his back and carried her to the open hut, where all the company squatted round a table raised but two or three inches above the ground. Then the food was fetched, the pieces of semi-cooked food being handed round with chopsticks. The feast was interspersed with weird chanting. The chief theme was supplied by the words:

"We are now one; we love each other."

The proceeding lasted well into the evening. The bride preserved a most stolid demeanor throughout, but the crowd of Europeans were highly delighted and cheered and clapped enthusiastically.

INTERTATIONAL Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION; NORTH AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES AT TORONTO.

(COPYRIGHT-- WRITTEN FOR THE RECORDS BY A.A. FORD.)

It is just a quarter of a century since the International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of North America held its annual gathering in Canada, the last time being in 1876 when, as will be the case with the forth-coming gathering, Toronto was the meeting place.

It will be a very different Toronto

D. W. Ross, Montreal,

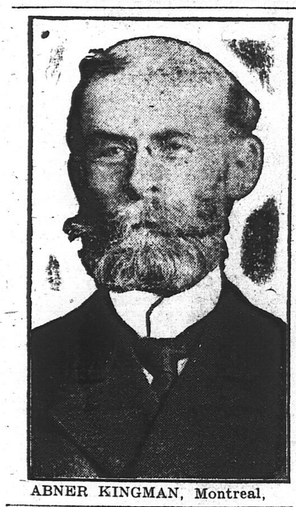

which will meet the delegates this time from what is was in the days of the first international gathering. The city has grown immense in wealth and industrial importance in the intervening years and it is safe to say that the work of caring for the moral welfare of the community has kept pace with its other development. In this connection the Young Men's RICHARD C.MORSE, New York, Gen-Secretary International Y.M.C.A.

Christian Association has been an immense factor seconding the work of the churches in looking after primarily the young men of the community and directing their footsteps in the direction of Christian citizenship.

Many of the most prominent citizens of Toronto, men famed the country over for their success in professional, financial and commercial life, have made the Y.M.C.A. one of their chiefest interests as a means of promoting the welfare of their fellow men and these leaders are sure to see that the great convention is a success in every way, Mr. E.R. Wood, who is presently at the head of the local orgaization, is a noted financier who takes a great interest in church work as he does into the management of his business affairs..

ABNER KINGMAN, Montreal,

LUCIEN C. WARNER, New York, Chairman International Y.M.C.A.

Others equally well known have put their shoulder to the wheel and will help to make the convention a memorable one in the annals of the Dominion.

Ever since the last Toronto meeting in 1876 the annual international conventions have met in the leading cities of the United States. The success of the organization in that country has been marked and the membership and working forces include many noted men and several of them are scheduled to take part in the approaching gathering. Not only that but several prominent men from abroad are expected. Mr. Harold Williams, of London, Eng., son of the late Sir George Williams, the father of the Young Men's Christian Association, it is hoped, will be able to come and hopes are entertained that some of the foremost men in European countries may be able to cross the Atlantic and give a helping hand to their brethren in Eotth America.

H. J. HAMILTON, B.A., President Y.M.C.A., Fort William, Ont.

The work in Canada is naturally on a smaller scale than it is in the United States owing to the great difference in population but its importance is growing all the time as the country fills up with the influx of settlers who come from abroad to make homes for themselves, either in the land or in the industrial centres of the Dominion.

There are now eighty-two associations in operation throughout the Dominion and of this number fifty-five own their own association buildings. These are valued at $3,729,000. There are 167 officers, secretaries, etc., and the general membership is now in excess of 30,000. ...

The international organization was formed in Buffalo in 1854 and this convention will be the 37th. The jubilee of the organization was observed six years ago. The oldest Canadian Association is the Montreal

one. It was organized in 1851 so that next year it will be able to celebrate its diamond jubilee which will fit in nicely with the opening of the handsome new association building which is now in course of construction to take the place of the present quarters on Dominion Square.

The convention will open on Friday morning, October 28th and continue until the last day of the month.

Problems of far-reaching importance are to be discussed by the leaders and delegates. Prominent among the topics is "Safeguarding the boys of the Continent." This is one of the great features of the Association. Primarily it was organized to attract young men and to influence them for good. The young man without church affiliations is welcomed and his feet directed in the right way. Every effort is made to provide attractive amusements for young men so that they may be guarded against the many harmful attractions which beset the pathway of the youth more particularly in the large centres. Their physical welfare is made a matter of direct concern, well equipped gymnasiums being provided for that purpose- Should a young man desire to improve his temporal welfare by additional studies in his leisure hours the association work provides for that with its system of night classes in different branches of studies most likely to be desired by young men who have entered upon a business career. In addition to all this is the religious side of the work the purpose of which is to win the young men for Christ and make them living embodiments of the faith that is in them.

M. A. POWERS, President Y.M.C.A., Hamilton, Ont.

Another important question to receive attention is this: "In view of the growth of church brotherhoods and kindred organizations; our civic and industrial opportunities; the modern association building; the development of work outside the building; what is the Association objective and what changes, if any, are required in our religious work methods?"

This question will doubtless arouse great interest and create considerable discussion. The history of the association movement shows that it has ever been taking up some line of work which developments have indicated to be in the best interests of the young men of the community.

Starting in a small way the work at first provided for the most part reading rooms where its members could look over newspapers, magazines and books of a healthy character. At different times other features, intended to provide amusement for the members, were introduced. It was found that these brought in young men who might have spent their evenings in more harmful pastimes, not that the amusements in themselves were injurious but in many cases the affiliations were. The Y.M.C.A. commenced to provide these amusements, but surrounded by a healthful Christian atmosphere. To make a long story short the Association went in for athletics on a large scale and now has its clubs devoted to various kinds of sports and many organizations have athletic fields for the use of its members or have arrangements for the use of some existing grounds for stated times.

One of the latest and most successful branches of the Association work has been the educational side. This has been provided at a very small additional cost to the members and has proved a great success and very useful in attracting young men to the Association buildings.

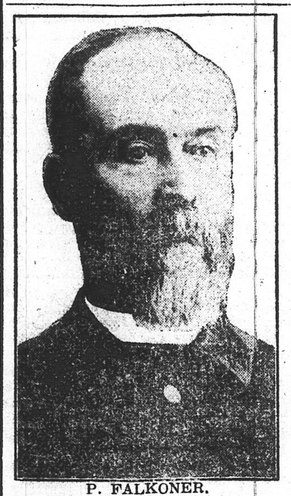

What will the nest great move be?

DR. H. WOODBURY, President Y. M.C.A., Halifax, N.S.

Possibly this discussion may be the means of launching some new branch of work in the interests of young men. No doubt there are other fields of endeavor waiting to be taken up.

Reports are to be presented, first, on the commission created by the Washington convention to ascertain what is the practice of the associations with reference of the evangelical test of membership and, second, the report of the commission created by the Washington convention to consider the question of the desirability of rephrasing the definition of the word "evangelical" as contained in the Portland test.

In addition to the discussion of "The forthcoming 'Men and Religion' campaign" addresses are to be delivered upon the following themes:

"A decade of progress in work young men and boys at home and abroad."

"The conservation of rural manhood."

"The unifying power of Christ and His service."

"The timeliness of the Association to meet the needs of Canada."

"The Associations message to young men.':

"Character the basis of efficiency in the industrial world."

"The latent powers of the men of North America."

"Our world-wide obligation."

"What can the association do to recruit lay and clerical leaders for the Church."

"Some great unfinished tasks before the North American Association movement on both the home ane foreign field.

It is only sixty-six years since the movement had its birth in London, Eng., and seven years later, it was transplanted to this continent and Montreal had the honor of organizing the first Association on the North American continent. As already stated that was in 1851. The organization in London was the result of the ernest zeal of a few young men in a large dry goods establishment, under the leadership of George Williams. Little did he think at that time that he was sowing the seeds of such an organization as has developed or for the laying of the foundations of a religious movement which was destined to spread over the whole world and result in such spiritual and temporal benefit to millions of young men. George Williams before he died saw great things grow out of small beginnings. He was himself honored by his King who bestowed knighthood upon him. The late Sir George's son is following worthily in his father's footsteps and is nobly working to further the cause which his father held so dear.

E. R. WOOD. One of the Most Enthusiastic Supporters of the Y.M. C.A. and President of the Toronto Association.

From the time the organization obtained a foothold in Montreal it was not long before it began to spread throughout Canada and the United States. At the present time there is not an important centre in the country, from Halifax to Victoria, that is without a branch of the organization. At the outset the movement was solely a spiritual one, the members gathering for prayer meetings and bible classes. Their zeal led them to conduct all kinds of mission work among the poor and neglected classes of the various communities.

The next step was the creation of permanent headquarters in each place where organization had been affected and this led to the opening of reading rooms and libraries. For many years this covered all the agencies that were used, but as the cities grew the Association found its real work and then began its present career of usefulness as an organization caring for the spare hours of young men and seeking to influence them to self-improvement.

The work of the Association is best stated by the definition that terms it "an organization of young men for mutual helpfulness, providing for the young men of the community an attractive place of social enjoyment, free from questionable influences and equipped with helpful agencies for their intellectual, social, physical and spiritual welfare."

An important feature of the work is the Junior Department, doing a similar work for boys to that done for young men. The young chaps are thus brought under the best influences from the start. Needless to say a large per centage grow up to be senior members in due time.

The College Y.M.C.A.'s and the Railway Men's Y.M.C.A.'s are important outgrowths of the parent organization. In practically all the college centres throughout North America there are College Associations. This branch of the work has its distinctive organization, but is run along much the same lines. Through its efforts many fine young men, well educated and splendidly equipped in other ways for the field, have been led to take up as their life's work the spiritual improvement of their fellow men. Many of them have gone to the foreign mission fields while many others have found fruitful fields for their efforts at home.

The large railway corporations have given every encouragement to and have in fact subsidized the organization of Y.M.C.A.'s for the railway men at the different centres where men employed by the railways are to be found in large numbers. They have found it a paying investment. This is due to the fact that while trainmen are away from hame, at the other end of their run, they find legitimate means of passing their spare time at the railway association rooms, instead, perhaps, of passing the hours away in a neighboring saloon and becoming unfitted to perform their duties. In this way alone much property is saved to the company and precious lives safeguarded whereas they might be jeoparadized by employees who had not all their wits about them.

In the work of the various associations great importance is laid upon capable supervision. Travelling secretaries are employed to give their whole time to the extention of the work to unorganized towns and the supervision of the societies already in existence.

While the Canadian Associations have always maintained close relations with those of the Mother Country, they have been in closer relations with those in the United States and with them form one international brotherhood. Nor have the members in Canada been content to remain within their own borders but they have become interested in the young men in foreign mission lands and secretaries are being supported for the work in student centres in India, China and other mission stations.

The International Committee which was incorporated in 1883, has its general offices in New York. The Chairman is Lucien A. Warner, New

Why the Oven is such an Excellent Baker

WOULD you like to know the reasons for the wonderful baking powers of the Pandora oven?

One reason why the Pandora oven excels as a baker is because the Fire-Box is amply large enough to provide all the heat the oven requires. Another is because the Sheet Steel Walls of the oven are uniform in thickness. This, together with the Special Flue Construction which carries the heat around the oven twice, assures absolutely uniform distribution of heat in the oven. Still another is because the main bottom of range is protected with a heavy coating of Fire Clay which prevents cold drafts, passing underneath the range, from cooling the oven.

Look at a batch of bread baked in the Pandora oven. The crust on each and every loaf is exactly alike. The Pandora oven is the sure-working, uniform oven that you've long desired. And it's in a range that's guaranteed to satisfy you in every particular.

Go and see the Pandora at our agent's in your locality.

PRESENTATION TO MR. THEWLIS

About forty of the overseers and office staff of the Paton Manufacturing Company met at the Royal Hotel last evening. The occasion was that of making a presentation to Mr. Victor P. Thewlis, Superintendent, who is about to sever his connection with the Company. Mr. Walter Scrimgeour presided, and in his opening remarks referred to the good feeling that had existed between the overseers and their friend who was about to leave them. Mr. Richard Martin, Superintendent of the Worsted Mill, was then called upon to make the presentation of a handsome gold watch, and also to read the address which accompanied it. The address was as follows: "We, the overseers and office staff of the above company with the knowledge that you are about to leave us and Sherbrooke, felt that we could not let you go without expressing to you in some small way the appreciation and esteem in which you are held amongst us. During the time you have been associafed with us you have always shown yourself to be a man amongst men, endeavoring to work to the best interests of your employers and employees. As the hour of your departure draws nigh, we have assembled here, this evening, to spend a social hour together, and bid you farwell, also to ask you to accept this timepiece as a momento, and as time rolls on it will bring to your memory the many friends you left in Sherbrooke. Trusting that the coming years will deal prosperously with you and yours, and wishing you every success, we remain yours sincerely. The Overseers and Office Staff.".

Mr. V. P. Thewlis responded and warmly thanked those who had gathered together for the purpose of making the presentation. He referred to the friends he had made in Sherbrooke and wished all present unlimited success, concluding by hoping that the best of prosperity would attend the Paton Manfg. Co. The social programme was contributed in a most admitable manner. Mr. H. Taylor was the accompanist. The first item was a duet by Messrs. Stewart and Mathews; Violin Solo by Mr. A. Tyas; Song by Mr. F. W. Butterworth; Remarks by Mr. John Dempster, Mr. F. Caron, Mr. Walter Scrimgeour and Mr. Newbold; Song by Mr. Stewart; The adventures at Smooth Pond by Mr. W. Scrimgeour, Mr. Newbold and Mr. O. Fournier. The others who contributed were Messrs. Odell, Michie, Dawson, Armitage, Stewart, Matthews, Brand, Newbold, Houle, and A. Tyas.

A very pleasant evening that will be long remembered among the overseers was brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne. A special vote of thanks was passed to the Messrs. Southwood for the manner in which they had catered to the company.

BRICKLAYERS STRIKE.

63RD ANNIVERSARY OF MARRIAGE

MR. AND MRS. M. J. BACHELDER, HATLEY, RECEIVE CONGRATULATIONS FROM THEIR MANY FRIENDS

Hatley, October 27. —(Special)— Yesterday, October 26th., was the sixty-third anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Bachelder, of "Fairview Farm," Hatley. On Wednesday, October 26th., 1847, Milton J. Bachelder and Hannah L. Rogers were married by Priest Hall, Congregationalist, at Stanstead. These venerable people are among the pioneers of this part of Hatley and are living on the Bachelder homestead, which descended to them from his fatherm Jethro Bachelder, who helped to hew out a home in the virgin forest during the beginning of the nineteenth century.

Although to some extent affected with rheumatism these people are blessed with good health and are retaining their cheerful and happy dispositions and bid fair to celebrate several more anniversaries.

CHINESE PORK IN AMERICA.

Pork from the Orient is now finding a place on Pacific coast markets in America. The scarcity of the domestic supply and attendant high prices have made possible such importation. Frozen porkers from China are an innovation in American pork markets, but are said to possess profit possibilities for the importer under present conditions. One can easily understand how pork production in the Celestial empire can be conducted at a minimum of expense. Cheap production accounts for the possible competition with the American producer. It is not likely, however, that this new source of pork supply will have any noticeable effect on domestic conditions, relative to either market supply or prices.—The Farmers' Review.

Letters to the Editor

MUSIC HATH CHARMS BUT —

Editor of Record,

Sir:—I fancy, in spite of Mr. Sawdon's letter, that Sherbrooke people realize their "honors of citizenship" fairly well, and if they do not fully appreciate the advantages of a Symphony Orchestra as a means of "intellectual growth and tremendous advertisement" we may safely conclude that their business sense is sound. The musical scheme is well enough in its proper sphere, but can hardly be expected to arouse violent enthusiasm as a business proposition.

Yours truly,
CANUCK.

SERVICE ON MEGANTIC LINE.

Editor Record,

Sir,— Hundreds of the travelling public and all the inhabitants between Johnville and Megantic heartily endorse the sentiments of "Merchant" of Scotstown, in regard to the miserable winter service given by the C.P.R.

It is certainly a matter to be dealt with by the Railway Commission at Ottawa. Immediate steps ought to be taken by every village and township council and a united petition presented to both the Manager of the C. P. R. and also to the Railway Commission.

It is most unfair to treat the public residing in these districts in such a manner. It is ridiculous for a mail train in the present age of advancement, to occupy one hour and fifty minutes in running from Sherbrooke to Bury, a distance of only thirty miles.

The public generally will be grateful if the "Record" will kindly take this matter up.

NEW BRIDGE OVER MOFFATT BROOK.

OLD BRIDGE WAS SWEPT AWAY LAST SPRING DURING HIGH WATER.

Scotstown, Oct. 27.—(Special)—A new bridge is being constructed in Gould across the Moffat Brook. It will be remembered that the bridge over this brook was swept away last spring, and it was in connection with this incident that the young Morrison boy was drowned.

Mr. Donald McRae, of the Lingwick road, has the contract for putting in the abutments which are to be of concrete. Travel for the time being has been discontinued. The postmaster received a telephone Tuesday afternoon from the Gould mail carrier that he would not be over with the mail on account of the work being done on the bridge.

Deaths Reported.

WALTER LAW, WATERVILLE.

Waterville, Oct. 27.—(Special)—Mr. Walter Law died Wednesday morning of pneumonia. He had been ill but a few days. The sympathy of the whole community goes to his widow and three daughters in their sad bereavement.

GILBERT MURRAY, OF RICHFORD.

Richford, Vt., Oct. 27.—(Special)—Gilbert Murray, who moved here from Magog, Que., some time since and purchased the Judge Smith place, died here on Sunday, October 16th, from heart trouble. The body was taken to his former home, Magog, on the 17th, for burial. Mr. Murray during his short residence here put up the famous block on Province street that caused considerable conjecture as to its purpose. He was a kindly seeming man and left many friends in Richford. He leaves a wife and a grown up family. He was about 65 years of age.

MRS. GEO. W. BROCK, GLEN SUTTON.

Sutton, Oct. 27.—(Special)— Mrs. George W. Brock died in the General Hospital, Montreal, on Wednesday, following an operation on the day previous. She had been in the hospital for one week. Mr. Brock goes to Montreal on Thursday, where the funeral will be held on Friday. Mrs. Brock was born in England some sixty years ago,, but the most of her time was passed in Canada. Her first husband was the late Allan Edson, who was called Canada's greatest landscape painter. He died upwards of 20 years ago at his summer home in Glen Sutton. Seven years ago she married Mr. Brock, of the Glen House, Glen Sutton, and during a part of that time they had catered to a high class of city boarders. Her health failing her the past summer, this line of business was practically given up. Mrs. Brock is survived by four sons of her first husband. They are Percy Edson, of Baltimore, Md.; Edward and William Edson, of Montreal, and Norman Edson, of Glen Sutton; also by her aged mother in England. Her children had been educated partly in Montreal, finishing up in England and France. She had crossed the ocean no less than 34 times and was on the wrecked Anglo-Saxon, but got off on the only lifeboat that was saved, all the rest, 160, going down with the ship. Mrs. Brock will be buried in the Mount Royal Cemetery, Montreal, in her family lot beside her first husband.

In Sudden Emergencies

like illness, it is often necessary quickly to raise the temperature of a room. For instance, in those hours between midnight and dawn, when the day temperature has been allowed to drop, if you are called upon to get up, the room is chilly and cold. It takes a long time to start up a furnace or fire and raise the temperature by ordinary means.

You can instantly heat a room to any desired temperature with a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be cleaned in an instant. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has a filler-cap which does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel. It is strong, durable and well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

CLEANLINESS ESSENTIAL.

Houses and coops should be cleaned at least twice a month. Many poultry raisers will say that this is too frequent, and makes too much work. It is true that this does make work, but work is essential to success. It is much easier to clean the house where it is done frequently than to wait till it is positively filthy. Then you dread it so much that it is put off till the last possible moment.

Cleanliness should extend to the drinking founts. They should be cleaned a couple of times a week and scalded with hot water. This keeps the vessels in good condition, and when kept filled with pure fresh water they afford sanitary drinking conditions.

The feed troughs should have careful attention also. If you feed soft mashes, it is a good thing to take them out now and then when the sun is shining and give them a good brushing, then a scalding, and allow them to stand in the sun to dry. This insures cleanliness in the feeding troughs and prevents the accumulation of foodstuffs in the cracks and crevices which breed disease. These troughs should have a place other than on the floor of the house. If a screw eye be placed at one end, they may be hung on a nail at one side of the pen after the feed has been eaten.

The droppings should be removed from the boards every day. This may seem like being over-particular, but the writer does that as a part of his daily work with poultry and finds that it pays. It not only preserves the fertilizing qualities of the manure, but it prevents the strong smell of ammonia from pervading the place. With proper utensils the work may be made easy, and by doing it each day it will not be a hard task.

The clean litter that you place on the floor of the house will be appreciated by the fowls and they will work and scratch at it for days, where they would hardly work at all in the old stuff that was on the floor. They do not like to scratch in the litter that is dirty and full of droppings. Make it agreeable for hens and they will repay you with plenty of eggs.

UNITED STATES TO TRAIN LIBERIA.

(From October Popular Mechanics)

The United States is about to undertake tutelage of the little Republic of Liberia, on the west coast of Africa. It was founded in 1820 by the American Colonization Society as a home for slaves from this country, who had secured their freedom. It became a republic in 1847. It now contains about 60,000 Liberians along the coast, and 2,000,000 wild negroes in the interior. With the consent of Liberia and the approval of the leading European powers, the United Stated is arranging through American, Franch and German bankers to float a loan of $2,000,000 necessary to put Liberian finances in shape; the sum to be repaid chiefly from customs on exports, of which rubber is the largest. The United States will assist Liberia to get on a firm basis, by taking charge of its financial, military and agricultural departments, and foreign relations. English papers welcome the advent of the United States as a new power in Africa, and the Daily Mail says "this is a change which will affect future history as perhaps no other event in the last twenty years, with the single exception of the fall of Port Arthur." In Liberia no white man is allowed to acquire citizens' rights or own property. It has no standing army.

PELICANS AT CLOSE RANGE.

The first time I ever saw a motley crowd of half-grown pelicans I thought nature had surely done her best to make something ugly and ridiculous. It was a warm day and the birds stood around with their mouths open, panting like a lot of hot dogs after a chase, their pouches shaken at every breath. When I went near, the youngsters went tottering off on their big webbed feet with wings dragging on this side and that, as if they were poorly handled crutches. The youngsters huddled together by hundreds in a small place. Those on the outside pushed and climbed to get near the centre, till it looked worse than any football scrimmage I ever saw.

In this wild area of low islands and water it was necessary, since we wanted to study the pelicans at close range, to adopt some method of hiding. We took a large waggon umbrella covered with a piece of green canvas, that hung down the sides. This we planted among the tules at the edge of a large colony and covered the top well with weeds. The whole thing soon passed as part of the environment, while from the inside the camera man could point his camera out through a narrow slit in the canvas, take pictures and make observations at will.

One might wonder how such a huge-billed bird as a pelican could feed its helpless chick just out of the egg. It was done with apparent ease. The old bird regurgigated a fishy soup into the front end of his pouch and the baby pelican pitched right in and helped himself out of this family dish As the young bird grew older and larger, at each meal he kept reaching further into the big pouch of his parent until finally, when he was half grown, it was a most remarkable sight. The mother opened her mouth and the whole head and neck of her nestling disappeared down her capacious maw while he hunted for his dinner in the internal regions.

PUBLIC VACCINATOR'S PROBLEM IN CASE OF A CHILD, "HALF ITALIAN."

According to the British Medical Journal a public vaccinator has been confronted with a curious problem. The father of a child who had attained the age of four months, and whose name appeared on the public vaccinator's list, wrote to that official a letter in which he explained that he was not, unlike many Englishmen, a conscientious objector to vaccination. But his wife, so he explained, was an Italian, and desired to bring up the child in the manner followed in her native country, where the child would be vaccinated at the school age and not in early infancy.

"My wife wishes me to say to you" concluded the communication, "that the child is half Italian, and if the English Government enforces vaccination is must undertake to confine the effects of vaccination to the English portion of the infant. She claims the protection of the Italian Consul for the Italian half of the boy."

The question, which is actually pending, has brought no definite suggestions from the vaccinators, and it is held that compared to the problem presented Solomon had a comparatively easy task when he handed down his historic decision.

ed indication of approval that a combination of the extemporaneous and liturgical form of service might be helpful in stimulating a deeper interest in the services. Dealing with the separation of the working classes from the church, he drew attention to the detrimental effects of an ostentatious display of dress on the part of the well-to-do. The poor man and his family are driven from the church often because of a lack of means to contribute to the church and maintain a certain degree of independence as his more fortunate neighbors can. The preaching of the day must emphasize two great truths —the Fatherhood of God, as the supreme fact of Christian revelation, and the Brotherhood of Man, as the supreme fact of human relations.

Mr. Read in his paper dealt with some of the questions raised by Mr. Morey. He insisted on the sacrificial aspect of the collection, that it should be the expression of the surrender of the givers to the absolute supremacy of God. In dealing with the musical portion of the service he drew attention to the increasing practice of employing professional singers as leaders of the praise. This, he contended, is almost inevitable under the changed conditions we have to face. To the practice there can be no reasonable objection, provided that those engaged for this service be called to their office with due regard for their Christian character. Mr. Read also dealt with liturgical and extemporaneous forms of prayer and referred to the book of forms shortly to be issued by the National Council of the American Churches.

Both papers were followed closely and called forth a spirited and interesting discussion.

THE MIDWEEK SERVICE.

Under the general topic of "Spiritual Culture" there were two papers, one by the Rev. E. C. Woodley, on "The Mid-Week Service," and another by Rev. Galen H. Craik, on "Revivals." Mr. Woodley's paper dealt with one of the most perplexing and discouraging features of our modern church life, which has confessedly baffled some of the most able and successful ministers. He said that this service is needed for the reinvigoration of Christian life, and as a corrective to the excessive zeal which consumes us for the things of the world. The distinctive features of this service should be communion, meditation and vision. Upon the leader would depend in large measure the realization of these objects. Upon them he must insist, because they are most likely to be lost sight of during the week, when the inspiration of the Sunday services is in danger of being dissipated.

SPOKE ON REVIVALS.

The address by Mr. Craik on revivals was an intensely earnest presentation of the subject. The speaker gave it as his belief that this part of the church's work should be done by the minister in association with another in sympathy with the movement and qualified for it. He thought that professional evangelism was sometimes a pronounced failure. Every church should be an evangelizing church, and every minister should be able to do the work of an evangelist. In order to carry out this we must believe that the only radical way of saving a man is through the Gospel, and that all men are salvable.

JUDGE LEET ON MORAL REFORM

The evening service, which was attended by a large congregation, was conducted by the Rev. J. G. Hindley, after which the acting moderator, the Rev. F. J. Day, introduced Judge Leet, of Montreal, who spoke on Temperance and Moral Reform. The speaker stated his conviction that the world is getting better and that the prominence given to moral reform is one of the many indications of this progress. The interest in the Crippen murder is not wholly morbid. It is evidence of the horror and detestation in which such a crime is held. In order to further progress we must first get rid of our egotism. We must begin to look out for the interests of the other man. Selfishness is one of the greatest barriers to reform. People were willing to let social evils remain untouched so long as they were untouched by them.

The pulpit must educate the community to a deeper sense of responsibility for public morals, and the community must prosecute the vicious for breaking the laws, which is the only influence to which they seem amenable. United action by the churches is one of the crying needs of the day.

WORK OF CHURCH IN THE COMMUNITY.

The Rev. Hugh Pedley, of Montreal, spoke on "The Work of the Church in the Community." The address dealt with the rationale of the church's existence, and was both eloquent and powerful. In the first place, he said, the church existed to give the people a true idea of the value of life. A wrong idea is the open road to ruin. The function of the church is not to be the organ of authority, but the organ of influence for good, permeating every department of the life of the community. Probably the smaller towns and cities can be more directly touched by the church than the promiscuous and cosmopolitan centres. The salvation of the city depends in large measure upon the whomesome influences emanating from the pure open country. To accomplish this the church must strike the note of reality. The members must believe in God and Christ and have taken their stand for right and truth. The world demands positive religion. There must also be the note of dignity and self-respert in the minister and the church. There must be that conception of the whurch which helps to transfigure a man's whole life.

Then there must be the note of service. That is the church nearest like Christ where there is most service of the kind He rendered to men. He came near to the people and this must be the attitude of the church towards the people to-day.

MUSIC WAS INSPIRING.

The music at this service was very inspiring, the congregational singing being particularly good. A quartette composed of Messrs. Albert Blier, Brodie, D. Johnson and Mitlow, and a duet by Miss Johnson and Mr. Brodie, as well as an anthem by the choir, supplemented the congregational singing. Mr. Sampson, of Sherbrooke, presided very acceptably at the organ.

PASSED RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolutions of thanks were passed recognizing the kindness and courtesy of the entertaining church, the choir, the paper prepared by Mr. S. F. Morey and the address given by Dr. Thompson.

The meeting closed with the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds," and the benediction, pronounced by the Rev. F. J. Day. All agreed that these sessions of the Association have been among the best in its history and will long be remembered by all who were privileged to be present.

MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION ENTERTAcNED.

After the afternoon session the ladies of the church served a very elaborate and delicious supper which gave the Association the opportunity for social intercourse and was a pleasant break in the steady succession of meetings, public and committee, which gave the members little time for relaxation. The pastor of the church, Mr. Pierce, cordially welcomed the Association in a happy speech, to which the Scribe, Mr. Hindley, responded in very felicitous terms.

COFFEE WAS IT

People Slowly Learn the Facts

"All my life I have been such a slave to coffee that the very aroma of it was enough to set my nerves quivering. I kept gradually losing my health but I used to say 'nonsense, it don't hurt me.'

"Slowly I was forced to admit the truth and the final result was that my whole nervous force was shattered.

"My heart became weak and uncertain in its action and that frightened me. Finally my physician told me about a year ago, that I must stop drinking coffee or I could never expect to be well again.

"I was in despair, for the very thought of the medicines I had tried so many times, nauseated me. I thought of Postum but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee.

"Finally, I concluded that I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions, and what a delicious, nourishing, rich drink it was! Do you know, I found it very easy to shift from coffee to Postum and not mind the change at all?

"Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew sound and steady, I slept well and felt strong and well balanced all the time.

"Now I am completely cured, with the old nervousness and sickness all gone. In every way I am well once more."

It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have.

SUES FOR PRICE OF EXTRAS ON HOUSE.

ACTION AROSE IN CONNECTION WITH ERECTION OF NEW RESIDENCE IN COOKSHIRE.

The case of W. J. Morrow, Bury, against J. H. Burton, Cookshire, was heard in the Superior Court yesterday before Mr. Justice Globensky. The action is for $1,200. The plaintiff, who had the contract to build a house for the defendant, claims that the extras outside of the contract figure amounted to the sum sued for. The defendant contended that he should not be held responsible for this amount.

The plaintiff was on the stand practically all day yesterday, and the hearing of evidence is being continued to-day.
