World News In Brief

Detroit, Aug. 27.—(P)—Seven oil tankers were ordered back into service today as the National Maritime Union (C.I.O.) reached agreement with additional carriers in the two-week-old Great Lakes strike.

The settlement was made with Cleveland Tankers Incorporated, of Cleveland, Great Lakes Transport Corporation of Detroit and Lake Tankers Incorporated of New York.

Of the strikebound tanker firms, only two minor ones are now unassigned—Texas Oil Company which operates two tankers and Gulf Oil Company, with one.

Strike leaders said the latest agreement, calling for a 48-hour work week at sea and 44 hours in port, was patterned after those reached earlier with the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and Bethlehem Transportation Company of New York, and thus do not need ratification by the some 210 seamen affected.

Jerusalem, Aug. 27.—(CP)—British military authorities said today they expected to complete operations by noon in the tiny fishing village of Sedot Yam, where they began a roundup of Jewish residents yesterday in a hunt for saboteurs who attempted to sink a British transport at nearby Haifa last week.

The roundup has resulted in the detention of 83 men and two women for further questioning.

The troops also seized a number of passports suspected of being forgeries, several trunks of clothes and other articles they said might have been used in connection with sabotage attempts.

Frankfurt, Aug. 27.—(P)—Mrs. Kathleen Nash Durant testified today she was promised her freedom if she would help the army recover the royal jewels stolen from Kronberg Castle.

Mrs. Durant, former United States Women's Army captain charged with larceny and embezzlement in the $1,500,000 theft, managed an officers' club at the castle of the Countess of Hesse when the theft took place. Her husband, Col. Jack W. Durant, also faces trial in the case.

Mrs. Durant challenged purported confessions presented by the prosecution, saying they were "not voluntary."

Counsel for Mrs. Durant charged she was questioned without sleep and held in a psychiatric cell by army men investigating the theft.

Reinforcements Are In Hamilton To Maintain Law

400 Federal and Provincial Officers Arrive in City to Keep Law in Face of Strikers' Threats to Forcibly Prevent Supplies Reaching Steel Plant—Governments' Position Explained.

By TIM DICKSON, Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 27.—(P)—This industrial city today looked anxiously to what it expected would be the climax of a series of dramatic developments in the wages-hours strike called July 15 against Canada's basic steel plants.

An estimated 400 out-of-town law officers—Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Ontario Provincial Police—were here to help the 150 members of the Hamilton Municipal Police enforce law and order on picket lines maintained around the Steel Company of Canada plant by members of the United Steel Workers of America (C.I.O.).

The union went on strike for a minimum wage of $33.60 and a 40-hour week. Also affected were the plants of Algoma Steel Corporation at Sault Ste. Marie and Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation at Sydney. But while the Sault and Sydney plants closed down with the strike call, the Stelco plant here has been operating continuously with a force estimated between 2,500 and 2,700 men. And it is at Hamilton that the steel strike has become a national issue.

King Sailed For Dominion This Morning

Prime Minister Predicts Satisfactory Conclusion of Paris Peace Conference.

Southampton, Aug. 27.—(CP Cable)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King sailed today for Canada on the liner Queen Mary.

Mr. King declined comment on the peace conference, where he spent a month as leader of the Canadian delegation.

Also on board the liner was Labor Minister Isaacs, bound for Montreal to attend the International Labor Office conference as Britain's chief delegate.

Mr. King boarded the liner last night and promptly transferred his suite into a business office, where he worked steadily on correspondence.

The Queen Mary, scheduled to make one more ocean crossing with Canadian dependents, carried 1,871.

The position of the Ontario Government in arranging federal and provincial police assistance in response to the appeal of the Hamilton Police Commission was set forth in a statement at Toronto last night by Attorney-General Blackwell.

"As far as the criminal law of Canada is concerned the right of those on strike at the Steel Company of Canada is not an issue,"

NEW SETTLEMENT EFFORT SEEN
Ottawa, Aug. 27.—(C.P.)—Possibility of a new effort to effect a settlement in Canada's 41-day-old steel strike was seen today with the arrival in Ottawa of C. H. Millard, Canadian director of the United Steelworkers of America (C.I.O.).

Mr. Millard reached Ottawa early this morning and immediately went into conference with Pat Conroy, chairman of the Canadian Congress of Labor Wage Co-ordinating Committee. Mr. Conroy said he had no comment on reports from Toronto that he had invited Mr. Millard to come to Ottawa after relaying a message from the government.

"Mr. Millard and I are discussing the whole situation, including the sending of police to Hamilton," Mr. Conroy said. "There is a possibility we may be in touch with the government later in the day."

The statement said, "Under this law they may not only strike, but they are as well entitled to engage in peaceful picketing."

"The same law, however, guarantees to a manufacturing plant the right to continue in operation and freely to receive and ship material. It also guarantees to anyone wishing to do so, the right to work."

Blackwell's statement added: "For some time now in this province and throughout Canada certain leaders of a section of the labor union movement have conducted deliberate misleading propaganda designed to confuse the public mind about the obligation of public authorities to maintain the laws of Canada."

To the men on the picket line, arrivals of outside police meant just one thing—forcible opening of the line to permit men and materials to move freely in and out of the Stelco plant.

C. H. Millard, national director of the Steel Union, gave notice Sunday what the union thinks of that possibility. "The police if and when they come cannot be considered anything other than strike-breakers," he said.

"It is the policy of this union to resist movement of materials to and from the steel plant, and we shall carry out that policy with every resource at our command." He urged the men to "utmost efforts of resistance," and Eamon Park, union publicity director here, said that pickets would stop men and materials.

Norwegian Troops Share Occupation
London, Aug. 27.—(P)—Four thousand Norwegian troops who are to share in the occupation of the British zone in Germany will leave Norway in February, 1947, and will probably be stationed in the Harz Mountains, the Royal Norwegian Information Service reports.

All branches of the Norwegian Army will be represented in the brigade, which will be under Major-General Hansteen, Commander-in-Chief of Norwegian forces in Britain during the war.

Hon. J. S. Bourque Rescued All 5 Airmen Wife And Mother-In-Law As Died In Plane, Officers Say

Belgrade, Aug. 27.—(P)—Hope that at least one crew member of a shot-down American transport plane might still be found alive was abandoned today by United States Graves Registration Commission officers who said sufficient evidence had been found to indicate that all five crewmen had died in the crash.

The finding of four left feet and part of another left foot convinced them, the officers said, that the five men perished when their plane was shot down August 19 by two Yugoslav pursuit craft near Bled, in northwest Yugoslavia close to the Austrian frontier.

The commission had re-examined the scene of the wreckage and a common grave in the Holy Cross Church cemetery in the village of Koprivnik.

The remains of the five airmen were buried by Yugoslav militiamen after the attack.

Meanwhile, the remains of the fliers lay in leaden caskets draped with American flags and banked with flowers in a hangar at Ljubljana Airport in preparation for the journey to their ultimate resting place in the United States.

London, Aug. 27.—(P)—An exchange Telegraph dispatch from Ankara today said that Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia had ordered the release of a Turkish captain, wounded August 9 when an American transport plane on which he was a passenger was forced down by Yugoslav fighters.

The officer had been detained by the Yugoslav Government, although others aboard the plane were released last week following a United States ultimatum.

There had been unofficial press reports that the officer, Capt. Ihsan Unesen, would be held by Yugoslav authorities for trial as a spy.

His release, the dispatch said, was the result of representations by the Turkish Ambassador in Belgrade.

U N Rebuffed In Home Quest By N Y Centre
New York, Aug. 27.—(P)—Residents of Harrison, N.Y., an upstate town involved in the proposed site for a permanent United Nations home, have voted two to one against welcoming the peace organization, adding to a series of rebuffs which Clark M. Eichelberger, director of the American Association for the United Nations, said was "approaching a disgrace to the American people."

Votes were counted in Harrison last night in a postcard poll conducted by the Chamber of Commerce. The result was 2,050 against the U.N. and 1,050 in favor of welcoming it.

As the votes were being counted, Mr. Eichelberger spoke over a local radio station and charged the United States government had evaded "an important responsibility" by failing to aid the U.N. find a permanent home.

When the U.N. decided to locate in the United States the federal administration declined to enter.

4 Reported Dead In Boston Blaze
Boston, Aug. 27.—(P)—Four members of one family perished, 16 persons were rescued over ladders and 50 others fled to safety when fire roared through a five-story apartment house in the thickly populated Bowdoin Square area early today.

The dead were identified by police as Mr. and Mrs. Archie Marotta; their daughter, Phyllis, eight, and a son, Joseph, 10.

ANOTHER PRICE INCREASE FOR NEWSPRINT
The Canadian International Paper Company today notified its customers that its standard price for newsprint would be increased by twenty cents a ton effective August 27th.

Australia Accuses Russia Of Lies And Intimidation At Paris Peace Conference

By ROBERT EUNSON
Paris, Aug. 27.—(P)—Australian Delegate J. A. Beasley brought delegates at the Paris Peace Conference to their feet today with a blistering attack in which he accused Russia of "lies, intimidation" and "power politics."

But the burst of hard boiled oratory ended amicably and the Australian and his antagonists, Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, left the room smiling to one another.

Before adjournment of the political and economic commission on the Italian treaty, at which the clash occurred, Australia agreed to drop her proposal for a standing sub-committee to "examine, collect and report" on the facts in Italy's frontier dispute with Yugoslavia, France and Austria and to make recommendations if it seemed fit.

But the commission adopted unanimously a similar proposal from the French to organize a standing committee to investigate any point of dispute concerning the Italian frontier. This committee will have three rotating members from the countries invited to the 21-power conference and four members from the four principal powers.

Mr. Beasley began his outburst by exclaiming at Mr. Vishinsky "all right now, you've had a lot to say, and I'm going to have my say too."

He came to the defence of Col. W. R. Hodgson of Australia, whose arguments before the Italian Treaty Economic Commission had been belittled by Andrei Vishinsky, assistant Foreign Minister of Russia.

"Russia's tactics of thrusting their speeches down the throats of those who oppose them... is getting unbearable," Mr. Beasley said in an attack that brought delegates in the red plush chamber of the Luxembourg Palace to their feet.

"Freedom from fear does not exist in the world today," Mr. Beasley told the representatives of 21 powers assembled to make a peace.

Mr. Beasley had not spoken for long before Mr. Vishinsky rose to protest. Lief Egeland of South Africa, presiding, intervened at one point, in an attempt to silence the Australian.

Col. Hodgson had moved to name a permanent sub-committee to investigate Italian frontier disputes and Mr. Vishinsky attacked the plan with vigor. He accused Australia of "delaying tactics" and asserted that the plan was "put forward to destroy the work of the foreign ministers."

In another phase of the peace conference, Czechoslovakia defended.

Races scheduled for this afternoon include the 230 trot and pace for a purse of $201, and the 215 trot and pace for a like amount.

Tomorrow's harness racing program will include the 227 trot and pace for $201, and the 220 trot and pace for a similar purse, while on Thursday the final day of the Bedford Fair, a 224 trot and pace will be staged, for a $201 purse, and the main event of the three-day card, a free-for-all, will be run off with some fast horses competing for the $246 in prize monies.

Paul Roy, secretary-treasurer of the Bedford Fair, states that exhibits in all departments are exceptionally good this year and a very full program has been drawn up for the 117th annual exhibition, which will end on Thursday night.

War Assets Firm Launches Major Controversy In House

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—(P)—The Commons, thrashing through the mountains estimates of the Department of Reconstruction, heard another statement last night that indicated that the war, in all its ramifications, is slowly fading into the background.

In the midst of a prolonged and lively grilling, Reconstruction Minister Howe disclosed that 90 per cent of the goods that government departments have to declare as war surplus have been declared surplus to the War Assets Corporation.

That corporation, he said, had done a $226,523,150 business up to the end of July. It would continue to do considerably better than a $20,000,000-a-month business until the end of the year and then it would begin to fall off. It was selling as fast as it could but it would still be selling a year from now.

As Parliament drew another day nearer prorogation, which many think will come late this week, the corporation developed anew into a major item of controversy.

Earlier, the Commons gave three readings to a bill to terminate the Emergency Transitional Powers Act March 31 or 60 days after the probably late-January start of the next session, whichever is the earlier, thus signalling a tactical victory for John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, who successfully put across an amendment to that effect.

It also gave final reading to a bill to amend the Militia Pension Act, covering the three permanent forces, to bring it into line with the Civil Service Superannuation Act.

At that time Air Minister Gibson announced the three services would shortly launch a joint recruiting campaign. Of the objective of 16,000 men for the permanent R.C.A.F., 9,122 had been accepted and it would probably take more than a year to reach the total.

At one time during the War Assets discussion, Gordon Innes (L-Halifax), chairman of the Commons' War Expenditures Committee, took exception to previous statements by Gordon Graydon (P—Peel) that its report "sifted" charges made by Dr. J. J. Brown in Maclean's Magazine. He said the report was considered by members to be "very fair" and he considered that the corporation had done an "exceptionally fine job."

Mr. Graydon said he would reiterate the charge because the committee had simply dealt with one item of the Brown charges and left the rest with the statement that "they should not go unchallenged."

During the afternoon consideration of Mr. Howe's estimates, questioning took the House from subject to subject. These were some of the answers in the various fields.

25-Year-Old Anti-Russian Plot Bared At Moscow Trial

By REMBERT JAMES
Moscow, Aug. 27.—(P)—Details of a 25-year-old plot by anti-Bolshevik Russian refugees in the Orient to wrest power in the U.S.S.R. with Japanese aid were unfolded today as the trial of a Cossack counter-revolutionary leader named Semenov and seven co-defendants went into its second day.

(Although this dispatch did not give any fuller identification of Semenov, the reference presumably was to Gen. Gregoire Semenov, who commanded anti-Bolshevik Russians in the Orient for many years.)

The defendants, who were captured in Manchuria by the Red Army during the war with Japan, included Christ Prince Ushkonsky. All pleaded guilty to indictments charging them with armed struggle against the Soviet Union, espionage, diversionary acts and terrorism.

The trial, expected to last four days, is proceeding in the courtroom of the Military Collegium, Supreme Court of the Soviet Union.

The pale, shabbily dressed defendants' ages range up to 70 years.

During his examination, Semenov testified that he once turned down a Japanese offer of 20,000,000 gold yen to lead a counter-revolution in Siberia, saying it was too little. He also said he once commanded 50,000 troops fighting against the Bolsheviks in Siberia.

During the early battles with the Bolsheviks, Semenov stated that he joined Admiral Alexander Vassilievich Koltchak's White Russian army in Siberia. Koltchak, one-time commander of the Black Sea fleet, was named supreme ruler of Russia by the Russian government in 1918. He was shot by the Bolsheviks at Irkutsk in 1920.

After the defeat of Koltchak's armies, Semenov testified, he fled to Manchuria, where, during the 1920's and later, he and other White Russians worked with the Japanese in plans for seizing Siberia and using it as a base for

U.K. Prepares For Meeting On Palestine

Will Convene Conference September 9 Despite Threatened Refusal of Arabs and Jews to Participate.

London, Aug. 27.—(P)—The British Government went forward today with plans to convene a conference on Palestine here Sept. 9, despite the apparent impossibility of getting Arabs and Jews together at the same table.

The date for the conference was announced last night by the Foreign Office, which said that invitations had been forwarded to the Jewish Agency, the governments of the Arab states and the Arab Higher Executive of Palestine.

The Agency executive declared last week in Paris that it would participate in a London conference only if the talks were not limited to discussion of a plan for partition of Palestine proposed recently by a committee of British and American experts.

The Arab Higher Executive on the other hand, has declared that it would not participate in the conference if Jews were permitted to sit in.

In view of this situation, belief was expressed here that British officials probably would be compelled to take the problem up at separate talks with Jewish and Arab delegates rather than attempting to find a solution at a three-cornered parley as had originally been hoped.

Kiddies Had Time Of Their Lives At Sherbrooke Fair

There was a special reason for youngsters in the city to be happy yesterday: Children's Day at the Fair. Unfortunately the weather was not as good as could be hoped for, but the frequent showers didn't prevent thousands of parents from taking their little tots to the Exhibition Grounds, where most of them had the time of their life, going round and round on all the rides, licking sugar-coated apples and sticking their noses deep into cones of spun sugar.

This is Civic Day at the Fair, and a special invitation has been issued by the officials to citizens of Sherbrooke. There will be two grand stand shows, one in the afternoon and another one at eight o'clock in the evening. In the afternoon harness races will be held as scheduled. There have been two main changes in the program. Canadian cattle will be judged today instead of Thursday, but sheep will be judged tomorrow instead of today.

Poultry, butter and cheese, honey and maple products, field crops, vegetables and fruits, flowers, housekeeping, young people's art, Shorthorns, Jerseys, Canadian Cattle, Provincial Judging Contest for Juniors.

10 a. m.—Heavy Horses, starting with Belgians.
2 p. m.—Harness racing.
2 p. m.—Performance at grand stand.
8 p. m.—Night performance at grand stand.
Main building open till six o'clock.

Free movies in building near main gate. Concerts by the Sherbrooke Regiment Band at various times and places.

eral Department of Agriculture, everything was ready for them when they came.

They are again housed on the fair grounds and, as in past years, the building opposite the main entrance has been set aside for that purpose. Army double-decker cots, bought last year by the Provincial Government, will be used by the youngsters.

A large tent, in the back of the arena, will house the calves that members of the Junior Calf clubs will bring to Sherbrooke and they will be judged on Wednesday.

Meal tickets were distributed to them at five o'clock yesterday afternoon and following their supper at six, instructions were given to the young breeders by experts.

The Thrill Of A Lifetime

What youngster hasn't saved his pennies for months in anticipation of a ride on the merry go round! Probably the most important day of the year for the kiddies is children's day at the Sherbrooke Fair and likely the most important event is a ride on the merry go round. Some, experiencing their first ride on the mechanical horses might seem a little frightened, but for those who have been there before, it is the thrill of a lifetime.

Field Marshal Warmly Welcomed Through Maritime—Travels by Boat, Plane and Car to Keep Engagements.

By JACK BRAYLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Fredericton, N.B., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery pulled off his boots and padded around his suite in his socks here last night, relaxing after a Maritime tour that saw him use speedboat, plane and car to keep dates in three capitals.

It was a cheery and happy welcome wherever he went despite the fact fog rolled in from the Atlantic and rain pelted down. At Halifax, where he arrived Saturday to begin his 17-day Canadian tour to Victoria and back, he slashed across the harbor at 50 miles an hour in a crash launch, saluted the R.C.A.F. and climbed into one of the big silver Dakotas of the "Monty Flight."

In less than two hours he was making a cheer-filled progress through the streets of the old Con-wives of Canadian servicemen and 503 children.

Mr. King, interviewed by the Canadian Press upon his arrival at Southampton, said there had been a misunderstanding over a statement he was quoted as making before leaving Paris Sunday.

The Prime Minister had been quoted (not by the Canadian Press) as saying he wondered whether Canada's war burden had been too great and whether it had not taxed too greatly generations yet unborn.

"What I said was that if I ever had wondered if Canada's war effort might have placed too heavy a burden on future generations, my visit to Europe had convinced me that all that was done was none too much, that there was nothing too much Canada and other countries could have done to save Europe from the perils of Nazi conquest and domination," Mr. King said.

Mr. King conveyed "good wishes" to the Canadian Press and said he was glad the news service was anxious to clarify his statement.

Before boarding his train at London, Mr. King predicted a satisfactory conclusion for the Paris peace conference "though it may take a little time."

Mr. King left Paris Sunday after leading the Canadian delegation through the opening sessions of the conference. Health Minister Claxton has taken his place at the peace table.

Meat Scarcity Is Predicted In U.S. Again

Cattle Being Marketed Before Ceiling Price Resumption Which Should Not Be Slaughtered, Official Says.

By WILLIAM FERRIS
Chicago, Aug. 27.—(AP)—"Eat it while you can!" was the advice of the meat industry today as packers worked at turning the largest cattle run in the United States since 1934 into steaks, rib roasts and other cuts of beef.

Packers predicted freely that by Thursday, when new Office of Price Administration price ceilings on livestock are scheduled to become effective, the currently jam-packed American livestock markets would resemble the great open spaces.

"Cattle are coming to market, which should never be slaughtered," Norman Draper of the American Meat Institute said. He added that this winter there would be "a real famine."

In their rush to get in under O.P.A. ceiling deadlines, producers were sending to market lightweight hogs and cattle which normally would remain on farms for months munching grain, livestock observers said.

But it was the exchange between Messrs. Beasley and Vishinsky which caused the excitement.

Mr. Beasley called for more organization and better understanding so that the treaties would be representative documents and not "pieces of patchwork."

Mr. Eichelberger said the federal government should have appointed a high-commissioner to take the lead in selecting a site instead of leaving it to the U.N., committed to deal direct with local communities.

The U. N. proposal to take over a site in Westchester where large numbers of people would have to be removed to other homesites has brought bitter blasts of criticism from the people concerned and a U. N. official speaking at a community meeting recently was booed loudly by his audience.

"Who would have thought that the time would come when an American audience would deny one of the basic freedoms, freedom of speech, to a representative of the United Nations," Mr. Eichelberger asked.

Meanwhile work is being rushed to completion on the $2,000,000 job of reconstruction of the Sperry plant at Lake Success on nearby Long Island, which will be the U. N. headquarters until a permanent home is ready, a period estimated at from three to five years.

The 11-power Security Council will formally launch the new headquarters Wednesday when it holds the first session there of any of the organization's various units.

Frozen Fish On Way To Hamburg

Montreal, Aug. 27.—Beaverdell, Canadian Pacific Steamships' cargo liner now loading in Montreal, will be the first vessel to carry the company's red-and-white checker-board house flag into a German port since before the war, when she docks at Hamburg on this eastward passage. She leaves Montreal Sunday morning.

The Beaverdell's cargo for Hamburg will be 2,376 tons of frozen fish, which she will load at St. John's Newfoundland, and which has been purchased by the British Ministry of Food for the British Zone in Germany.

Cargo being loaded here for London, Beaverdell's terminal port in the United Kingdom, amounts to some 7,130 tons, of which 125 tons are frozen Gaspe filets.

All-Time Record Established By Beef, Dairy Cattle Exhibits

Cattle exhibits this year at the 61st Sherbrooke Fair have set an all-time record, both in numbers shown and in quality of breeding, and this applies to beef and dairy cattle alike, George Johann, superintendent of this division told the Record today.

Outstanding is the marked improvement in breeding, Mr. Johann said, and he attributed this to the modern and progressive methods of cattle raising being adopted in this province, to the co-operation among breeders of all types of cattle who have, through their associations, carried on a wide educational campaign and also to the efforts of the officials of the Quebec Department of Agriculture who have "extended every possible co-operation to the breeder."

He noted that there were 461 head of cattle on display, exhibited by 43 breeders.

Discussing artificial insemination, Mr. Johann stated that it has not only proved eminently satisfactory but has revealed itself to be a great boon to the breeder. This method of improving the strain of cattle is within the reach of every breeder, he said, and transportation and other costs have been materially reduced for those who wish to breed cattle from the finest sires.

The superintendent regarded the present showing of cattle here as a preliminary to the Fall Fat Stock Show to be held in Sherbrooke October 16, 17 and 18 and he thought the possibilities were excellent that records should also be set at that time.

L. H. Hamilton, associate professor of Animal Husbandry at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, and secretary of the Quebec Beef Cattle Association, who is also a member of the Beef Cattle Committee at the Fair, told the Record that the animals being selected at the Sherbrooke exhibition in this second annual sale of breeding beef cattle—the selection was made from farm to farm last year—ensures "higher average breeding stock" and indicates a tendency on behalf of the breeder to do his best to improve the strain.

Professor Hamilton praised the Quebec breeders for their co-operation in exchanging ideas and information between all types of cattle raisers, pointing out that it was different in Ontario where each division of cattle had an association and therefore kept their co-operation within their own groups. He also paid tribute to the current Quebec regime for the excellent work being done in this field and the "heartly support" of members of the agricultural staff.

W. W. Nichol, chairman of the Fair committee in this division and president of the Quebec Beef Cattle Association, noted that the Eastern Townships was the centre of the beef cattle industry of the province. He also commented on the greatly improved stock shown this year and considered the exhibit in general the best he had seen in over a decade and a half.

He pointed to the excellent work being done by the Association in the matter of educating breeders in correct and progressive methods of cattle raising and expressed appreciation of the excellent work being done in this field by the Duplessis Government.

Two outstanding bulls who have made names for themselves in the province and who will experience keen competition when the judging commences are "Bandolier of Maple Leaf," an Aberdeen Angus bull belonging to Dr. G. R. McColl of Lachute, and "Bandolier of the scales at 1,900 pounds—and "Excelsior Lad 12th," a Hereford bull, property of C. D. French, Cookshire, a two-year-old weighing 1,850 pounds. In addition to the above-mentioned breeders another large exhibitor at this year's Fair in beef cattle is C. E. Sharman, who owns the Mountain View Stock Farm at Canterbury and who is showing Shorthorns.

This year's exhibition of dairy cattle is the finest yet seen at the Sherbrooke Fair both in quantity and in breeding, an official told the Record. In this division, also, a marked improvement in breed was noticed and the speaker commented favorably on the use of the

39 NEW LIONS CLUBS FORMED IN DOMINION

Of the 685 new Lions Clubs established throughout the world during the past year, 39 of them were formed in Canada, Mr. Justice Dalma Landry, official Sherbrooke delegate to the International Lions' Convention held recently in Philadelphia, told members yesterday at the regular luncheon meeting in the New Sherbrooke Hotel.

In concluding his report to the local club, which had been spread over several luncheon sessions, Justice Landry quoted liberally from the annual report of Melvin Jones, Secretary-General, who, he noted, had travelled over 100,000 miles by air during the past twelve months in pursuance of his duty.

Despite the war it was shown that the membership of the international organization now stood at 279,116, the largest in its history. Of this number some 11,263 had rejoined their clubs after service overseas.

Preparations for the salvage drive are well under way, it was stated, and at the same time an appeal to all members to personally publicize the forthcoming campaign as much as possible was issued.

Those at the head table included president J. E. Caron, who occupied the chair, Mr. Justice Landry, George H. Carr, Dr. Julien Landry, Michael T. Stenson and Joseph Besin.

Regular meetings instead of being held at noon will take place in the evening at 6:15 p.m. commencing September 9th, it was announced.

Spun Sugar And Taffy Apples

Spun sugar, taffy apples and children—wherever one finds this combination, it is a sure guess that Fair week has come around again. Yesterday was children's day at the Sherbrooke Fair when thousands of kiddies from all parts of the Townships made Canada's Great Eastern Exhibition their mecca. The Record photographer captured the expectant expression on the faces of these three youngsters as they waited for their share of sweet-tooth.

Paton Mill Arbitration Group Starts Sherbrooke Hearing

The Board of Arbitration named by Hon. Antonio Barrette, Provincial Minister of Labor, to determine certain proposed clauses of the Paton Manufacturing labor contract met at the Court House yesterday afternoon for a preliminary sitting.

The Board of Arbitration is headed by Judge Joseph Marier of Drummondville, and has as members Albert Leblanc, K.C., the Company nominee, and Leo Levesque of Montreal, who was named by the union. At yesterday's sitting matters of procedure were ironed out and the union was ordered to furnish details of its proposed clause within 8 days, after which argument will be submitted to the tribunal.

Gerard Pizard of Quebec, is counsel for the local union, while Wesley Bradley is acting for Paton Manufacturing Company. It is expected that the hearings will be completed sometime next month.

FINE HORSES BEING SHOWN AT EXHIBITION

Always a feature attraction at any Fair, horses this year at the Sherbrooke Exhibition are no exception and the well-filled stables at the rear and sides of the Arena are thronged with eager sightseers both young and old of all sexes.

Despite the trend in Quebec towards modern farming which embraces the use of machinery there is no dearth of displays of the heavy draught horses, Clydesdales, Percherons and Belgians.

One of the drawing cards in the heavier breeds is "Duchess" a huge Belgian mare which has been named champion for three successive years at the Ayrer's Cliff show and succeeded in winning the red ribbon at the 1945 Sherbrooke Fair. However, many entries in this same class this year will provide keen competition. Duchess is owned by Hugh McClary, Hatley.

Artificial insemination, while termed successful with horses as well as cattle, is not being as widely used as in the case in the latter animal, the Record was told.

D. G. Ross is chairman of the committee in charge of the Heavy Horse Display.

There are many of the Standardbred, Hackneys, light carriage horses on display this year, although a number of exhibitors formed the Record that they will be shown with halter and not in harness. They will be judged tomorrow, it is stated.

Dr. F. H. Bradley is chairman of the committee in charge of this display.

Among the larger exhibitors in both classes of the above are Hugh McClary, Hatley, who is showing nine heavy Belgians and two light "Roadsters"; W. J. Whitecomb, Hatley, seven heavy and five light horses; M. B. Corey, Kingscroft, seven heavy Percherons, and Frank Woodward, North Hatley, three Percherons. The Mrs. C. A. Wadley Estate, Foster, is showing three Clydesdales and three trotters, and John D. Stalker, Kingsbury, has six Clydesdales.

Q.C.R. TRAIN IN ACCIDENT NEAR BEAUCE

St. Georges, Que., Aug. 27.—A Quebec Central Railway motor coach, filled with passengers bound for Quebec, wheeled into a ditch at a point on the highway eight miles outside this Beauce County town yesterday, it was learned here today.

No one was injured in the accident which occurred when the bus was passing a road plow engaged in leveling the highway. The coach which plies between Lac Frontiere and Quebec, was rickety at a short time later and continued its trip. The torrential downpour which flooded highways and roads throughout Beauce County, was responsible for derailment of a Quebec Central Railway train Sunday night, between Valley Junction and Tring Junction. The locomotive of the train which carried pilgrims from Beauce and Megantic counties, rolled down the embankment when the rails sunk in the undermined roadbed. It was not connected to any cars at the time.

No one was hurt but the passengers were forced to spend the night in the coaches and were only moved to their destinations when repairs to the rails were completed yesterday morning.

Throughout Sunday motor vehicles were marooned along various sections of the highway at Valley Junction, St. Frederic and other Beauce County points, when roads covered with water to a depth of 30 inches, made driving impossible.

artificial insemination method which, he said, was first developed in Russia some years ago and is now proving highly satisfactory here.

Large exhibitors in this class include Miss Ellen Speyer, Massawippi, who is exhibiting Jerseys; Mrs. Hallward, Hatley, Holsteins; O. A. Fowler, who has shown cattle at the Sherbrooke Fair for many years, exhibiting the "Canadienne" strain, and Raymond Sec. Marie of Compton and the estate of Mrs. C. A. Wadley, both showing Ayrshires.

FINE PROGRAM IS PRESENTED ON GRANDSTAND

If someone were to insist that two French poodles could steal a vaudeville show, believe him.

The prof is in the penultimate act in the big George Hamid show which opened for a week's run before the grandstand at the Sherbrooke Exhibition last night.

The ridiculously clipped dogs featured in the act of the two Gaudenshich brothers, who showed themselves last night as the very tops in the comedy field. Their turn was a riot from opening to finish, and the big crowd in the stands roared throughout. It was clean-cut comedy of the best.

This is a rare notice, for the show is terrific all the way through the eleven acts and five numbers by twenty members of the well-known Roxettes chorus line. Everyone in the line is attractive and the group took with a machine-like precision, costumes are glamorous and back drops parking.

A slack wire act by Pat and Willa Levolla opens the show at eight-fifteen. The pair is smart with the male half outstanding, particularly as he copes (successfully) with a biwheels on the wire.

A grandstand show is never complete without a high wire or ladder act. The California Queens fill this niche on the Exhibition program. There are three young ladies and one gentleman in the act which left more than a few of the spectators breathless. Performing atop a 120-foot ladder, the group showed nothing short of amazing skill and daring. One of the ladies did a handstand at the 120-foot level and at one point the three were suspended from one hand of the hanging-by-his-knees-man.

Ripley said "Believe it or not" regarding Don and Alpha Tranger each of whom play two and sometimes three musical instruments at the same time—in harmony. There is three-part harmony on three trumpets and a duet with a clarinet and sax. It's ingenious, and, believe it or not, good music.

There are three acrobatic dancers on the program: Ruth Calvey, Barbara Belmont, whose costume of feathers is unique, and Jean Dawn, whose contortions are unbelievable.

To round out the program are Volta and Marcelina, the magicians, and the Juggling Jewels,

ATTENDANCE IS DOWN MONDAY, UP FOR 2 DAYS

Unfavorable weather yesterday — scattered showers and cloudy skies — caused the attendance at the Sherbrooke Fair to drop behind last year's total paid attendance for Monday. The Fair Board office this morning reported paid admissions yesterday totalled 4,243 as compared with 6,356 in 1945. However, the Fair is still ahead of last year for two-day attendance, with 19,264 persons purchasing tickets at the wicket as against 14,891 during the same period at the Jubilee exhibition.

Total paid admissions to the grounds and grandstand yesterday were 5,833 as against 9,034 last year.

PRECIPITATION STILL NEEDED IN THIS AREA

Despite the 1.43 inch rainfall registered in the district during the past week, additional precipitation is generally required throughout the Townships to realize an improvement in crop conditions. According to the Bank of Montreal Crop Report the harvesting of an average crop of good quality hay has been completed. Pastureage is in fair to poor condition while grains have suffered from lack of rain and it is expected that yields will be below normal in many districts.

Corn is making satisfactory progress, the report states, with a good crop in prospect. Potatoes, however, have been adversely affected by drought but other roots promise good yields.

The E.T. apple crop, according to a survey, will be below average.

who are billed with no exaggeration as the best jugglers on the North American continent.

To top it all, there is a singing MC.

Have you read the Want Ads lately? Perhaps there is something advertised you would like to buy.

Marked Improvement Noted In Swine Exhibit At Local Fair

The high price of pork products and the knowledge that if "we wish to maintain the present market in the United Kingdom we must equal or better the product of our competitor," are both in some measure responsible for the marked improvement shown this year at the Sherbrooke Fair in the exhibit of swine, X. N. Rodrigue, who completed the judging of hogs yesterday, told the Record today.

He noted that the number of exhibits was larger than in previous years and commented on the greatly improved quality of the animals.

N. G. Bennett, chairman of the committee in charge of this division, also stated that quantity and quality of hogs displayed were considerably superior to those shown in former fairs and expressed the belief that it was the earnest desire of hog-raisers to see that the exported product was better than that of any other country, Denmark included.

Breeders in past year have been endeavoring to better the strain, he said, and have met with material success. This, he believed, was due to the excellent market in the British Isles and the fact that the present price had been guaranteed for some time to come. He gave generous praise to the Quebec Government for the efforts made by the agriculture Department staff to aid the farmer in this respect.

Complete results of yesterday's judging were not yet available but it was noted that top honors in Yorkshire hogs went to Antonio Sevigny of Princeville; O. A. Fowler of Kingsbury walked off with the main prizes by the Tamworth breed and the Estate of James Woodward, Lennoxville, received most of the red ribbons in the Berkshire class.

Mr. Sevigny in particular had an imposing array of first and second prizes in addition to "champion" ribbons at the conclusion of the judging, the Yorkshire strain being the most popular and numerous among the class divisions in this province. These swine are white in color while the Tamworths are red. Spectators noted with appreciation the cleanliness of the animals which had obviously undergone considerable scrubbing before being put on display.

Centres of attraction were two sows each with a litter of eight sucklings who captured the attention of all visitors by their insistence on incessant nourishment with or without permission of the mother animal.

G. A. Sylvester, superintendent of the Swine and Sheep exhibits, declared that the current show was the largest held here since well before the Second Great War and he also commented on the improved breeding which was remarkably evident in both types of animals being displayed.

In regard to swine, he endorsed the statements of the judge, Mr. Rodrigue, and of Mr. Bennett and speaking of sheep noted that there were 138 being exhibited at the present fair. All of them, he said, are what it termed "general purpose breeds," being raised both for their wool and for their value as meat. The older sheep he said were sheared regularly while the lambs were disposed of each spring on the markets.

It was noteworthy that in this display also each animal had been freshly sheared and the shortened fleece well washed before the animal was brought to the Fair.

Among the different breeds on exhibition were Cheviots, South Downs, Leicester, Oxford, Hampshires and Shropshires.

Owners included in the larger exhibitors were Slack Brothers, of Waterloo; Hollis Burns, Allanbrook; Archer Lyster, South Durham, and John Rose, Waterville.

MR. KING'S CONSCIENCE IS CLEAR AT LAST

In an interview given in London yesterday Prime Minister Mackenzie King stated that in the past he had wondered if the war burden of Canada had not been too great for such a young country to bear, and that if unborn generations of Canadians had not been left with too great a load to carry - - - but, he continued, his visit to France and other European countries formerly occupied by Germany had cleared his conscience, for after learning of their sufferings at first hand he now realized that no effort put forth by Canada could have been too great.

Thus well over a year after the last Canadian troops had seen battle the Prime Minister has come to the very much belated realization that nothing but a full-out war effort was enough to gain final victory, and that Canada had the tremendous good fortune to be located some thousands of miles from the scene of hostilities, and was supported by allies who had thrown everything into the scale, including political expediency.

It is useless now to berate the Prime Minister for his failure to arrive at this conclusion six years ago. It is useless to point out that if he had followed the practice of Mr. Churchill and the late, great Mr. Roosevelt, who, handicapped as he was, visited troops in forward areas, Mr. King might have learnt of conditions as they really were - as did former Defense Minister J. L. Ralston, who resigned rather than continue to follow Mr. King's policy.

It is perhaps understandable that after the disastrous welcome he received from Canadian troops in Aldershot—long before they had even gone into action—that the Prime Minister was loth to meet them again. It can only be hoped that his change of heart, his recognition of the need of a full-out war effort, is somehow known to those Canadians who died on the bloody fields of Italy and Northwest Europe for want of adequate reinforcements. It is a relief that Mr. King's conscience is clear on the score that Canada did not do too much—one wonders if it is troubled in any other way.

OPPOSITION TO GOVERNMENT PROPAGANDA GROWS

Strong opposition to Liberal Government control of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and the Canadian Information Service has drawn together in the House of Commons personalities with such different political philosophies as Solon Low, Social Credit party leader, and John Diefenbaker, outstanding Progressive Conservative member.

Directing their attack in the House on the majority report submitted by the Liberal-dominated Committee on Radio, both Mr. Low and Mr. Diefenbaker stressed the dangers of a Government controlled radio system, running in opposition to privately owned stations, and having the power to make all the rules of the race, while itself a competitor.

Most glaring example of the Government's policy of tightening control on propaganda outlets, and of handsomely rewarding such agencies that followed and supported its policy, is the annual $42,000 gift of the C.B.C. to the Liberal Toronto Daily Star, in the form of free radio time. At the cost to the Canadian people of $135 a day for 313 days a year the Toronto Star had been allowed to broadcast free of charge over C.B.C. facilities. Even the Star, known to newspapermen as the daily with the most circulation and the least influence in Canada, must have been embarrassed at this revelation.

The unflinching support always given to the Liberal administration by this paper is rooted in a friendship between the publisher, Joseph E. Atkinson, and Prime Minister King that goes back more years than either of them like to remember. But the reward is well worthwhile, from both their points of view.

The only hope of private radio stations is that an awakened public opinion will be brought to bear on an administration always susceptible to which way the political wind is blowing. When the issue is clearly understood there can be no doubt that the people of Canada will refuse to have any government dominate freedom of the air, any more than they would permit curtailment of free speech or a free press.

QUEER REASONING

The argument advanced by the Dominion Government for the removal of the fine of twenty dollars a day against men who absent themselves from work while a Government controller is in charge of a plant—that it will encourage the 15,000 steel workers to return to their duties—is another example of the rather queer brand of reasoning that has marked the government attitude on the whole labor question to date. If the workers refused to carry out their duties while they were subject to a heavy fine, it is difficult to appreciate just why they should resume work when all dangers of a penalty, aside from loss of wages, are removed.

Labor Minister Mitchell talked in abstract terms of the moral duty of the steel workers to co-operate with controller and return to work while taking advantage of the machinery provided for the final settlements of the dispute and told of the "error in judgment" of the men in joining the strike. All these conditions prevailed before the walk-out started however and the union leaders were convinced that they could get away with their demands through a strike despite the Government ruling that the walkout was illegal. In other words they were convinced they could defy the federal rulings without suffering any serious consequences. Certainly the decision of the Dominion Government to remit potential fines which have already amounted to $840 is an indication that the labor chiefs were right in their earlier belief.

Government bungling has been the tragic feature of the steel strike to date with the result that conditions for a possible settlement are worse today than when negotiations broke down and the strike was called.

It is to be feared that no solution will be achieved without a knock-down and drag-out struggle in which capital, labor, the public at large and the whole economic system of the country will suffer gravely.

LITTLE NEWS ABOUT BIG PEOPLE

Washington, Aug. 26—Reparation Ambassador Edwin W. Pauley learned the hard way about how the Russians had taken machinery out of Manchuria as war booty.

The principal items the Russians seemed to be after were electric generating equipment and electric motors. The Mukden city water supply operated with electric-driven pumps, so it wasn't only the light system, but also the water works, that was hit by Red army seizures in this city of two million inhabitants.

On arrival in Mukden after a hard train trip, Pauley's first act was to go to his hotel and get under a shower. Just after he had gotten nicely lathered-up, the power failed and the water went off.

Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder has become—figuratively—a teetotaler.

At the end of his administration as director of the Office of War Mobilization, Snyder was under severe and constant public criticism for his policies—political and personal. One of the things his critics harped on the hardest was his reported fondness for highballs.

So now, to prove that he can take it, whenever Snyder is offered a glass at some function he says, with his big "Sunny Jim" grin, "No, thanks, I never touch anything but double bourbons and soda."

SMITH'S "CONSCRIPTION LABORERS" HELP THE BOSS

When Harold D. Smith left his job as director of the Bureau of the Budget to take a top position with the new International Bank, his former associates in the bureau threw him a party.

One of the gags was a mock Bureau of the Budget official form, made out like a questionnaire. Each of the officials had filled in the blank spaces with name, address, telephone number, and a classification of the chores he could do on a farm—paint, carpenter, cut corn, drive a tractor, mend fences, and so on.

It was a gentle dig at Smith's fondness for inviting guests to come and spend a week-end with him on his 300-acre farm about 80 miles south of Washington, and then working them all the time they were there.

Rear-Admiral Joe T. Boone—personal physician to three Presidents—has been finding a lot of ex-sailors on his coal-mine inspection trips about the country, investigating health, sanitation, and housing conditions for Coal Mines Administrator Admiral Ben Moreell.

At one big mine Dr. Boone found quite a large delegation of ex-gobs, and he suggested that they all be photographed together.

"Crowd in around me close," said dapper Dr. Boone, in his immaculate khakis, "Don't be afraid of getting me dirty."

Whereupon one big miner, kneeling beside the beribboned medical corps officer, looked up shyly and said, "Sir, I was in the Navy for four years, and this is the closest I ever was to an admiral in all that time."

UMW OFFICIALS SURPRISE SENATOR KILGORE

Senator Harley M. Kilgore got the surprise of his life when he went back to West Virginia for the recent primary election and found that some of the United Mine Workers' officials were against him. Kilgore has a good pro-labor record, and he couldn't help but be puzzled.

Investigation disclosed that some of the miners' officials had the idea that John L. Lewis was a Republican and wanted his local officials to support Republican candidates. Lewis himself couldn't be reached for confirmation, since he was still taking his vacation auto-tour of the country.

When cables from Buenos Aires carried the news that Argentine President Juan Peron had declared in an interview that his country would fight alongside the United States in event of another war, Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson was asked for comment.

"I don't know that there's anything particularly brilliant I can say about it," said Acheson, "but I sure am glad to hear it."

TRIBUTE TO WALES HOME

Dear Sir:—As one of the two hundred or more inhabitants of these Eastern Townships who were privileged to visit the Wales Home near Richmond on Wednesday the 7th Aug. I would like, through the medium of your valuable paper, to try to express not only my own thanks and appreciation, but also that of everyone present, to the Board of Governors of this home, and all others who in any way assisted, for the very enjoyable time they gave us.

Not only were we entertained by a fine musical program by some very talented singers and musicians, with a splendid address by Rev. Fred Williams, who appears always to say the very right words for any occasion, but these were followed by a delicious lunch of sandwiches and tea or coffee and cakes and even ice cream.

We were then shown through the various parts of the institution, and came to realize, as never before, perhaps, the splendid quality of the work which is being carried on so efficiently in this home, a work which, as Rev. Williams reminded us, is peculiarly suitable here.

Some of us had expected that an appeal might be made to those present for some degree of financial assistance for the carrying on of the work being done, but actually no reference was made as to future plans save a brief reference on the part of our chairman to some proposed alterations and improvements to be done as soon as supplies were available.

However I feel certain I am expressing the opinion of the great majority of those present when I state that we do appreciate the splendid work being done for our aged and infirm, the evening of whose lives are being made so radiantly happy, and we will one and all endeavor to do whatever we can if and when any financial aid is required. Meanwhile, may God's richest blessing be with each worker in the task being carried out.

Yours very sincerely
 Dr. ROBERT ELLIOTT,
 Marlinton.

CAN'T IGNORE MOB RULE THREAT

Financial Post

A major test of a working and successful democracy is its treatment of minorities. It is here occurs the sharpest difference between the ways of democracy and those of the dictator. Under Hitler, majority rule quickly degenerated into mob rule where minorities were brutally suppressed and exterminated. The rights of the individual completely disappeared.

Politically, Canada has been careful to respect the rights of minorities even in wartime when the free play of democracy is not always possible. The public has conceded a high place and vital function to the official opposition. We have recognized that all men do not think alike and that for harmony and progress, the views of the majority must be tempered by those who hold opposite opinions.

Any other course in the past would have led to a breakdown of government, to revolution, if not civil war. Any other course in meeting the present strike threat faces the same risk. Yet so far the rights of the minority and the innocent but vitally concerned bystander, have been almost completely ignored.

Those workers who did not want to strike—and in most cases the percentage has been high—have been forcibly prevented from accepting employment. Those workers in other lines, dependent on raw material from strike-closed plants, have been thrown, unconsulted, out of employment. Consumers desperately in need of goods and supplies, have had to go without. Domestic and export market opportunities, with years of steady employment for scores of thousands of Canadians, have been tossed out the window. And enormously serious as these economic losses have been, that is not all we lose or risk.

The very foundations of democracy, law and free speech have been brazenly flouted. The Government takes over the steel plants, and Hamilton is supposed to be actually operating, and the strikers refuse a government order to work. Not only that, they try to prevent others from working.

The Hamilton City Council, debating a perfectly legitimate resolution dealing with the strike, was picketed, interrupted, and several members manhandled by the strikers. Despite these ominous beginnings of mob rule the authorities take no effective steps to stop it.

COMMITTEE UPHOLDS PURITY OF GAZETTE

Montreal Gazette

Faithful service to the Liberal Government does not go unrewarded, it is evident from the final report of the special House of Commons Committee on Radio Broadcasting. In that remarkable document—whose only redeeming feature is the absence of unanimity—every criticism of the CBC is rejected, its actions confirmed in every case, while each request for immediate government implementation of the CBC, whatever its sins against the public, can do no wrong in government eyes so long as it continues to follow government directives. And the Liberal majority on the Committee votes as its interests direct.

The report fastens CBC parsimony over private radio stations even more firmly than before. Attempts to reduce the authority of the CBC by the creation of a non-partisan appeal board separate from the CBC Board of Governors failed once more. With an Olympic disregard for consistency, the report insists that "good relations exist between CBC and the privately owned stations," while it disapproves its own statement by the CBC of certain wage lengths long used by private broadcasters.

Certain of the changes urged by the Liberal Radio Committee will require amendments to the present CBC Act. When these amendments are brought down there will be opportunity for debate in the House of Commons. At that time the people and Parliament of Canada will be presented with an occasion to reassess the government's broadcasting policy. The occasion should be seized with enthusiasm if the government has brought broadcasting in this Dominion to its nadir by making of the CBC an unofficial organ of party government. That policy is one which should be publicly repudiated by every Canadian of every party that is seriously concerned with the future of radio or the probity of broadcasting.

Must Americans go through it again? Is it necessary? It is bad enough to have another post-war wave of crime and delinquency to deal with, but must there be another orgy of ghoulish crime reporting on top of it?

The causes of crime are hard to set at. The roots go deep and intertwine with these of all the other social ills. Everyone should know that the fight on this front is no mere battle, but one of humanity's greatest campaigns. But the exploitation, in print and otherwise, of crimes and criminals represents the conscious acts of usually intelligent and well-meaning men. They know what they do. They can stop.

Heralding and elaborating the revolting details of criminal behavior doesn't reform criminals. It doesn't deter the borderline delinquent from stepping over the brink

An early collapse is expected of Iran resistance to the British and Russian forces. The fighting to date has been largely of a nominal nature. The drive is intended to oust the Nazi technicians from the oilfields.

It is more likely to give him a push. For both of these types have one thing in common: they are the supreme egoists. Dramatizing them, no matter how derogatorily, doesn't convince them "crime doesn't pay." It gives them the very kind of pay their upside-down thinking craves.

Such exploitation doesn't serve the public. Not to report crimes at all would leave the public in a fool's paradise, unaware of one of its grimmest problems. But front page, graphic depictions of a youthful murder suspect as a Joe-college Dr. Jekyll and a diabolical Mr. Hyde contribute nothing to public information. Nor does the parading of this same youth, manacled and in broad daylight, down the streets from one scene to another of his reputedly confessed killings, there to smilingly re-enact his role before gawking thousands. Both do something toward public degradation. The press and the police are chiefly to blame; the press when it enters a frenzied race to "give the public what it wants," well knowing its own responsibility for stimulating that want; the police when they play up to the press, hoping to catch something in the way of popularity for what is otherwise a pretty thankless job. Editors and publishers know better. Police and prosecuting attorneys know better. It is time, now, to put on the brakes before America's sensitivities are further calloused, its sense of decency is further soiled, as both have been by such morbid verbiage as was spawned from the Leopold and Loeb case and the "Roman holiday" that was the Hauptmann trial.

BIDS 6 N.T. OVER OPPONENTS' 3 N.T.

To convince you that I did not just dream up today's hand, let me say that I actually saw Jon Sanford of New York make the bid and the contract. If you like psychic bids, you will get a kick out of what went on.

A great many players would have opened South's hand with a weak three heart bid, and certainly most players would have made a pre-emptive bid with West's holding after South's pass.

However, in this case both South and West passed and North, not bothering to pre-empt the diamonds, made a psychic spade bid. Sanford (East) doubled, and why South elected to stay out of the bidding I do not know. West then showed his long club suit and North came in with another psychic bid of three no trump. He was not vulnerable and of course he was going to run out if he got doubled.

Sanford now reasoned that if the two missing aces were in the opponents' hands, they were very likely divided, and as neither of them had bid an acesuit, he thought he would make South guess about the opening lead. That was why he jumped to six no trump.

South knew that East had the spade suit, even though North had bid spades. He did not know whether to lead diamonds or hearts, but finally decided to play safely and led the jack of hearts. Sanford won and spread the hand, so he could count 14 tricks.

While I do not recommend this type of bidding and am sure that Sanford does not, nevertheless, it put you on your toes and made a game interesting.

Exemplary Parents

Lectures Go Unheeded Unless Youngsters See Elders Living Clean

All of us want our children to grow up into being exemplary men and women and to that end we lecture them continually about their manners and their morals. Most youngsters might well be the stand-in for the little boy who thought his name was Johnny Don't, so often had he heard those words from his parents' lips.

Few fathers and mothers fail to impress the beauty of the higher virtues upon their children, but when it comes to practicing what they preach most of them fall lamentably down, and it must make many a bewildered youngster wonder whether he should do as Mama and Papa say, or as they do.

For often the two things do not jibe and, on the principle enunciated in the old Spiritual that "everybody who talks about heaven ain't going there," the kids conclude that their parents were only spoofing, and let their admonitions pass in one ear and out the other.

Impressed by Tangibles This explains why parental preaching fails to give children the uplift that the proponents expect of it. For youngsters are hard-boiled realists who are little affected by what they hear. What motivates them are the tangible things of life that they see about them every day—home conditions, their parents' relationship to each other, what sort of principles their fathers and mothers live by and whether they are fakes or genuine.

It is the parents' example that counts with the children, not what they say. And you can't fool them. Every little toule-headed, freckle-faced kid has his father's and mother's number down to the last figure, and is affected by this knowledge for good, or ill.

If Mom and Dad are people of unswerving integrity; if they have standards of right living that they never lower; if they are fair and just in all of their dealings, and if they have gentle manners, their children will almost invariably stick to the pattern their parents set for them from the time they were babes in the cradle.

But it is a waste of words for a mother to preach truth to her children when they hear her lying over the telephone about some engagement she is trying to get out of, or "darling Marying" some woman she hates and has just been vilifying, or telling her husband that she has paid $45 for a marked-down bargain she got for $10.

Now does it do any good for a mother to tell her children that they must cultivate good manners and be like little ladies and gentlemen when she acts like a boor and talks like a fish wife. Nor does it profier to impress on her children that they must live together in peace and harmony when she is in a perpetual fight with them and their father.

And when a man brags before his children about the money he has made on some crooked deal, or when he smirks over his accounts of what a devil he has been with the ladies, or makes a joke of how drunk he got at some party, need he be surprised if his boys follow his example and take the wrong road instead of the right one?

It is not the advice that parents give their children that counts. It is the example they set them.

The Doctor Says

JAUNDICE IS A SYMPTOM, NOT A DISEASE

By William A. O'Brien, M.D.

The yellowish-green discoloration of the skin and the mucous membrane in jaundice is caused by an excess of bile in the blood and tissues.

The usual cause is an obstruction to the flow of bile through the liver and gall ducts, or an excessive destruction of red blood cells. When bile fails to pass into the intestine, the excreta take on a pale color.

The type of jaundice suffered varies with the age of the patient. New-born infants have the variety caused by excessive blood destruction or anomalies (imperfect development), while in older persons jaundice usually is caused by obstruction in the bile ducts or liver.

Eye-Color Changes First
The whites of the eyes (conjunctiva) are first to show a change in color. They take on a yellow hue.

In advanced jaundice, the entire body varies in color from a pale yellow to a deep olive green to a greenish black. All the tissues of the body, including the blood and lymph, are discovered.

Jaundice is a symptom and not a disease, and the cause must be determined before effective treatment can be begun. (The outcome also depends upon the cause.)

Mild to moderately severe jaundice can last a lifetime without apparently interfering with the patient's ability to work. Patients with severe jaundice, however, usually complain of itching, and this condition may be so severe that sleep is impossible.

In some families all the members are jaundiced due to fragility of the red cells, which are shaped like spheres instead of like bi-concave discs. The spleen is enlarged; as the blood passes through it, excessive numbers of red blood cells are destroyed and extra bile is produced (bile comes from destroyed red cells).

If the spleen is removed, the balance between blood formation and blood destruction is restored. The jaundice then disappears.

May Be Contagious
A contagious form of jaundice is seen in inflammation of the liver.

Epidemics of this jaundice vary in severity and are especially common during wartime. A common name for it is acute catarrhal jaundice. At one time this was thought to be due to inflammation and mucus clogging the bile passages, but we now know that it is a virus infection of the liver.

Mechanical jaundice is caused by a block in the ducts, by a stone, or in the liver, by scar tissue (cirrhosis). New growths in the liver and bile ducts may also cause a mechanical block in an elderly person.

Question: Is it advisable to boil one's drinking water to prevent poliomyelitis? Our city's water is chlorinated, and it is said to be safe.

Answer: It has not been proved that poliomyelitis is transmitted by water. City water which has been properly treated does not spread disease. Physicians recommend boiling only that city water which is given to a young infant.

Make it easy for yourself! Eat right in the kitchen . . . in front of a cool "herb garden" window. Use a cool "herb garden" window. Use a "dining table" that drops down out of the way between meals . . . And then — most important of all — put down a sparkling bright Gold Seal Congoleum rug! Its smooth surface is easy to clean with the swish of a damp cloth. And durable! Why, its wear-layer of heat-toughened paint and baked enamel is actually equal in thickness to 8 coats of best floor paint applied by hand. But — when you buy your Congoleum rug — look for the familiar Gold Seal. Without it — remember! — it isn't Congoleum. You'll be surprised how much quality you can buy for so little money.

Quite frankly, we get cold shivers when we think of trying to supply all our customers with Lasalle Coke next winter. The soft coal strike in the United States was a severe blow to us because Lasalle Coke is made from selected bituminous coking coal. On top of that, there was the lake shipping tie-up in Canada to interfere with capacity production for your requirements this season. As a result, there is a serious shortage of coal and coke and the government now limits the quantity which can be delivered to householders. Your Lasalle dealer is doing his utmost to satisfy all his customers and, as you can imagine, under to-day's trying conditions, it is no easy job. You can help your dealer by ordering as far in advance as possible so that he can arrange his deliveries to give the fairest distribution of the available supply.

LESSARD WINS FIRST PLAY-OFF GAME FROM LETENDRE 1-0

Good Twirling And Hitting Feature Lessard's Victory

Lessard Service Station squeezed out a 1-0 victory over Letendre Restaurant in the first game of the finals in the Industrial "A" Softball League playoffs played last night at Dufresne Park.

A crowd of six hundred softball fans saw one of the best tilts of the season when Lessard eked out their 1-0 win. It was not until the eighth inning with two men out, that Gilles Dube, Lessard, centerfielder stepped up to the plate and smashed one of Collin's offerings over the centre fielder's head for a home run and the victory.

It was a pitcher's duel the whole way. Both hurlers allowed only two hits until the sixth. Pelletier, for Lessard, with two men away picked one out and connected for a three bagger. Collin then walked Phil Dion and Art Dube on purpose, loading the bases. At this point it looked like a Lessard victory but Collin, Letendre's twirler, forced L. Dube to hit into a fielder's choice, retiring Art Dube at second, and pulled his team out of the hole. It was good ball judgment on the part of the Letendre aggregation.

Letendre started the eighth inning with a rally. Pepin got on by an error, committed by Harry Kouri. He was thrown out at second when Coriveau hit a fielder's choice. Lefebvre went out on a long fly ball to right field, then Morin hit a fielder's choice to Ruel at second who retired Coriveau unassisted and killed the rally.

Then came the last half of the eighth inning when Gilles Dube connected for his home run to sew up the victory for his team.

Both Kouri and Collin sent down five batters via the strike-out route. Kouri issued only two free passes compared to Collin's four.

Both errors were committed at first base. Coriveau, Letendre's first sacker, dropped the ball when Kouri was beating out a bunt in the third. Lessard's only error was charged to Kouri. He held a bunt by Pepin but made a bad neg to first when he tried to retire him.

Playoffs will be resumed next Monday night at Dufresne Park. The game was well handled with Bob Fontaine at the plate, Aime Morin and Willie Drapeau on bases. Letendre . . . 000 000 0 0 2 1. Lessard . . . 000 000 01 1 4 1. Collin and Blais; Kouri and L. Dube.

HOCKEY-BINGO SPONSORED BY LOCAL CLUB

The "hockey-bingo" being held at the Sherbrooke Arena on Wednesday night, September 4, in aid of the local entry in the Provincial Senior "B" Hockey League promises to be an unqualified success judging from the advance sale of tickets with the organizers being convinced that all seats will be sold out by that night.

Reason for the bingo is to try and raise funds to finance the team for the coming season. The committee hopes that all the hockey fans will co-operate to their utmost to make this a success.

Prizes amounting to $500 in cash will be distributed among the winners. A vaudeville show will precede and follow the bingo.

Big Harness Racing Program Starts Today At Exhibition

Rain five minutes before racing cancelled activities at the Sherbrooke Exhibition Grounds track yesterday afternoon and postponed until today the opening of the week-long harness racing program arranged by directors with a total purse of $3,500. Originally the plan called for two classes with three heats each for every week day of the E.T.A.A. Exhibition in full swing here. This afternoon the 2.15 bar trot scheduled for yesterday will be run off with a 2.25 pace class and a 2.15 trot and pace. Purse for the first two classes are $240 and for the last, $300.

All the best horses and drivers in the circuit are in Sherbrooke this week for good and big races. Tomorrow will be a big day at the track with the feature race a free-for-all with a purse of $400. Also scheduled for tomorrow is a 2.24 trot and pace with a purse of $240 and the 2.28 trot and pace purse $240 that would have been run off on Monday.

There will be seven starters in today's 2.15 bar trot.

Lee Bee, owned by M. Pigeon, of Sherbrooke, will be driven by Mr. Pigeon. The horse has taken a number of heats on Sherbrooke and E.T. tracks during the past months.

Angela Hanover, who has seen action at Saratoga, will be driven by E. Larente. The horse is owned by Lucien Dugre, of Sherbrooke. Senator Lee, the property of Eddy Blouin, of Sherbrooke, will be driven by George Rediker, who will make his first appearance on the Sherbrooke track scene this season.

Spencer Lee, owned by A. Fontaine, of Richmond, will be driven by his owner.

Royal Baras will be driven by Eugene Trudeau, the owner, from Richmond.

Sir Guy, too, will be driven by owner S. H. Barrie, of Richmond. Lollie Stout, owned by J. B. Dube, of Montreal, will be driven by G. Dube.

Starters, owners and drivers in the 2.15 trot and pace are: Captain Harvester, L. Gray, St. Narcisse, M. Poulin; Tom Bryson, Eddy Blouin, G. Rediker; Dolly Benedict, S. Fabi, Sherbrooke, Eugene Aubin; Harry Male, H. Beauvieux, Richmond, L. Praught; Senator Bob, J. H. Dorais, St. Guillaume, George Giguere; Brookdale V. T. Veilleux, St. Evariste, M. Bourque.

Entries in the 2.25 pace are: Black Pepper, G. Hammond, Ninga, Man, G. Hammond; Calumet of Sherbrooke, G. Adamson; Richmond Yaga, G. Adamson, Richmond, G. Adamson; Joe Burns, Dr. R. Veilleux, Sherbrooke, L. Praught; Easter, Henri Durand, Quebec, G. Giguere; Pearl Harbor, A. Durouch, Richmond, P. Paquin; Lucky Jane, Irwin Bros., Granby, W. Harrington.

DICKSON PACES CARDS IN WIN OVER DODGERS

Murray Dickson, once an obscure bullpen worker but now one of the top pitchers in the league, is the most important single reason why St. Louis Cardinals have wrested the National League lead from Brooklyn Dodgers.

Overlooked in early season when Manager Eddy Dyer still had Max Lanier and rookie Fred Martin to take their regular turns, Dickson turned back the troublesome Dodgers, including last night's 2-1 victory that restored the Red Birds to first place by a full game, in piling up an impressive 12-4 won-lost record.

Dickson's success last night put heavy pressure on the Brooklyn club which has to win today's series finale to move on to Chicago trailing by two games. Each team has 83 games to play and the Dodgers will be playing 20 of them at Ebbets Field as compared to only 15 home dates for the Cardinals.

Chicago's Cubs, a distant third but still an outside factor in the race, shut out New York 1-0 to remain nine games off the pace. Hank Wyse earned the nod over rookie Monte Kennedy, allowing no Giant runners to reach second base.

Pittsburgh put a crimp in Boston's third-place ambitions with a 3-2 victory that left the Braves five lengths back of the Cubs. Elbie Fletcher's double with the bases loaded in the ninth provided the winning margin for Ken Heintzelman over Johnny Niggeling.

Dick Mauney of the Phillies blanked Cincinnati, 5-0, on four hits as his mates climbed on starter Johnny Haski and Bob Malloy for 11 blows.

In the American League, Boston calmly continued to eliminate clubs mathematically from the pennant race, knocking out Cleveland with a 5-1 loss. Any combination of 15 Boston victories or New York defeats now would assure the Sox of no worse than a tie.

New York boosted its second-place margin over Detroit to four games by walloping the Tigers, 10-6, on a seven-run eighth-inning. Clarence Marshall, who threw only one ball, received credit for the triumph over reliever Stubby Overmire.

Early Wynn notched his fifth victory in seven starts for Washington, trimming St. Louis Browns 5-2, with six hits.

Toronto's Dick Fowler turned in another fine pitching job for Phil-

Sherbrooke Canucks Fail To Land Berth On League All-Star Team

Auburn Falcons and Kingston Ponies dominated the 1946 all-star team of the Border League, compiled by the National Association Press Bureau from votes of the circuit writers and managers.

Each of these two clubs placed four men, Ogdensburg getting two and Granby and Watertown one each. Sherbrooke failed to land a representative.

First baseman Ralph Atkins of Auburn was the heavy favorite and the only member to get the unanimous vote of all participants. However McLean of Auburn, Vukmire and Dill of Ogdensburg, and Jarrell of Kingston, were highly popular and won their respective berths with little competition.

The bitterest struggle was over the managerial berth where Barney Hearn of Auburn nosed out Ben Ledy of Kingston by a narrow margin of one second-choice ballot.

Chuck Alltop of Kingston, the all-star catcher, also had a stiff argument with Roy Drews of Ogdensburg before landing his job. Karpuk of Kingston and Pavlick of Ogdensburg ran a close race for the utility slot with the former edging out the decision.

The lineup of the 1946 Border league all-star team is as follows:

Atkins 1b, Auburn; Murray, 2b, Granby; McLean, 3b, Auburn; Vukmire, ss, Ogdensburg; Dill, lf, Ogdensburg; Hexamer, cf, Kingston; Minnis, rf, Auburn; Alltop, c, Kingston; Scott, rhp, Watertown; Jarrell, lhp, Kingston; Karpuk, utility, Kingston; Hearn, manager, Auburn.

Honorable mention (one or more votes): Smythe, English, Drews, Lee, Panovich and Pavlick, Ogdensburg; Lockwood, Cabana, Small, Bedard, Cleves, Chalifoux and Crane of Granby; Kane, Guberman, Gabriel, Lay, Lady and McQuade, of Kingston; McCarthy, Doyle, Phelps, Gerken, Madura, Zuraw, Thackston, Sbatini and Scott, of Watertown; Lurel, Washburn, Dussault and Zande of Sherbrooke; Smith, Brown, Zanke, Vetter, Wagenaerst and Battalino, of Auburn.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Charles Draper, 48, scout for the American League's Washington Senators and Cleveland Indians, died yesterday in hospital. He had been ill since Aug. 19 when he returned from a trip to Canada.

DUAL PAYOFF FOR CRIPPLED BALL PLAYER

Sherman, Tex., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Monty Stratton's return to professional baseball despite the loss of a leg has inspired a screen story and the gangling former Chicago White Sox pitcher will cash in two ways on the game he loves.

Stratton, who came back after seven years to become a winning hurler with the Sherman twins of the Class C East Texas League, will pitch two more games this season, then it will be "Hollywood here I come."

Monty has signed a contract with Douglas Morrow, Hollywood writer, to make his life's story into a movie on which production is due to start in January. The film will be on the theme of courage—the ability of a man to rehabilitate himself.

Stratton lost his leg in a hunting accident in the winter of 1938. Stratton got back into baseball last year when he turned in a star performance in a Texas semi-pro tournament. So manager Guy Sturdy of Sherman signed him when the East Texas League was revived this season.

To date Monty has won 16 games and lost 7. Despite playing on an artificial leg he has done well with his fielding and has collected several hits although he has to have a runner after reaching first base.

Calgary's Football Imports Expected To Pay Off In Fall

By KEN METHERALL
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Calgary, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A new Calgary Stampeder club is being groomed for a national crown.

Last spring it was Stampeder of the ice that swept aside all opposition to bring the Allan Cup and the Senior Amateur Hockey title to the foothills city. Now a gridiron club with the same famous Stampeder name is preparing to hit the trail for the Grey Cup, Canada's foremost rugby-football prize.

And this year Calgary football supporters are hoping to see the successful culmination of a grid experiment which began in the early 1930's when Carl Cronin, former Notre Dame stylist, arrived in the city to manage the colorful Calgary team.

Under Cronin's direction a number of imports from the American gridiron began instructing high school teams. As home-grown talent was developed they joined the senior squad—and the collegiate coaching staffs.

Since that time these players have labored to instill their football skill and knowledge into Calgary youngsters and today the Calgary youngsters trot out a right fancy brand of football in their junior and high school leagues. The fans feel that this may be the year when the experiment will really pay off.

CARTIER TITLE CAPTURED BY PAUL MAILHOT

Paul Mailhot won the singles championship of the Jacques Cartier Tennis Club when he defeated Paul Cote 6-4, 2-6, 7-5, 5-7, 6-4. Last night Isabelle Hibbard defeated Therese Martin 6-0, 6-0 to enter the finals against Raymond Dubuc. The mixed doubles have now reached the semi-finals. Paul Delorme and Jean Gagnon now meet Isabelle Hibbard and Paul Mailhot. The winner plays Helen Tessier and Gordon Harmer for the championship.

RACE TIGHTENS FOR PLAYOFF BERTHS IN I.L.

Robbed of any semblance of a pennant race by Montreal's early clinching of the flag, International League club owners and fans have reason to thank president Frank Shaughnessy for devising the four-club playoff system back in 1933.

With only one game separating fifth-place Buffalo from second-place Newark, the struggle for the three vacant playoff berths promises to keep the turnstiles humming during the final 12 days of the season.

Syracuse applied the tightener to the situation last night by whipping Newark, 8-2, moving to within half a game of the runner-up spot but still lacking one percentage point of moving into third position.

Baltimore turned back Jersey City, 4-3, to cling to third place although the Orioles collected but five hits. Al Hooks yielded only five hits including Les Layton's homer.

Montreal, having clinched first place yesterday, did the customary thing and lost its next start, bowing to Rochester, 5-2. Glenn Gardner registered his 12th victory with the help of Clyde Vollmer's first inning triple with three on, Art Rebel's 11th homer and two doubles by Nippy Jones off Glen Moulders.

Buffalo and Toronto were not scheduled.

KNOW QUEBEC BETTER...

Quebec Fishermen Reap the Harvest of the Atlantic. Courtesy Service de Cine-Photographie, Province of Quebec.

Do you know Quebec? Do you know, for example, that commercial fishing provides an annual income, reaching as high as four million dollars, for some 15,000 Quebec people? Back of this industry is a capital of $3,500,000 invested in some ninety canning and processing plants, over 6,000 boats, nets, traps and wharves. Principal grounds are off the Gaspé Coast and the north shore of the lower St. Lawrence; most important catches, cod, mackerel, herring, salmon, smelt and lobster.

Realizing its importance economically, the Provincial Government has done much to encourage fishing through financial aid for the establishment of co-operative societies. Similarly it has helped develop Quebec's other basic resources.

Here we have further evidence of how carefully the people of Quebec guard their birthright... of how, through their industry and ingenuity, they are planning today to enjoy the opportunities of tomorrow as Canada fulfills her Destiny.

QUEBEC BUILDS FOR THE FUTURE
In 1608 Champlain brought the first colonists to Quebec. Today, Quebec's population is 3,000,000, her retail trade $800,000,000.000 per year. She leads all Provinces in the production of hydro-electric power, textiles, lumber, newsprint, footwear, processed tobacco, asbestos and aluminum. Natural resources, agriculture and transportation are being developed wisely. And now, Quebec, her people deep-rooted in the love of their homeland, prepares to share with her sister Provinces, Canada's bright and glorious future!

BE PROUD OF YOUR QUEBEC—IT IS PART OF YOUR CANADA

This message is one of a series being published so that you may know and appreciate the greatness of Quebec and its important role in Canada's wonderful destiny.
