BRITANNIA CAPTAIN IS TO PLAY NO MORE

PHIL McKENZIE, THE BRILLIANT HALF-BACK, TO RETIRE.

Bell Telephone Company First to Stop Its Employes From Playing Game—Other Business Houses May Follow—Attempt to Have McKenzie Finish Out This Season.

There is consternation in the Football ranks in this city.

It looks as if the far from approved example, as far as the football players in Canada are concerned, given by the big business men of Brockville is to be imitated in Montreal.

In fact it is stated there is a movement on foot among the big business houses, of forbidding their employes from playing football on the ground that not only is there much time lost in practices, but the injuries received in the game create much vexatious absence from work.

The Bell Telephone Company, of Canada, has taken the initial move in the matter and has issued an ukase forbidding Mr. Phil. McKenzie, the Captain of the Senior Britannias from playing during the remainder of the season.

The action if adhered to would be an immense loss to the team, as every one who takes an interest in football appreciates, and it will in a measure spoil the series. Therefore a great attempt will be made to try and soften the hearts of the gentlemen who direct the destinies of Canada's great telephone system, and it is hoped that they may yet succeed.

There is some hope that the petitioners may succeed, the cause in Brockville, the action was taken before the season began and did not involve such hardship.

TRAGEDY IN BROOKLYN.

Young Man Unintentionally Causes the Death of His Sister and Her Husband.

NEW YORK, October 16.—William Joyce and his wife, who had been married several months, were asphyxiated to death during the night at the house of Mrs. Joyce's parents in Brooklyn. Joseph Duff, 19 years old, brother of Mrs. Joyce, believes he was the unintentional cause of the tragedy. Mr. and Mrs. Joyce, who lived in Manhattan, had spent the evening at the home of the Duff's and were asked to remain over night. They were given the sleeping room usually occupied by Joseph Duff, who was away from home during the evening. When the young man went to his room and lit the gas Joyce spoke to him and explained the situation, whereupon Joseph turned out the gas and went to another apartment to sleep. He thinks that in his confusion at finding his room occupied he may have turned on the gas after the light had been extinguished. There is absolutely no ground for suspicion of suicide. The grief of young Duff is overwhelming.

RELEASE OF EARL RUSSELL.

He Will Leave Holloway Gaol on Thursday -- May Become An American Citizen.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, October 16.—A London cable says:

Earl Russell is to become an American. He will leave Holloway gaol to-morrow and as soon as he has arranged a few private business matters he and his second wife will leave for Nevada, where the Earl obtained a divorce from his first wife. It is said the Earl will drop his title and apply for American citizenship. He will probably settle on a ranch in Nevada and dispose of all his English holdings, which are not entailed. The Earl's first wife is now playing in provincial music halls, England, and has never expressed regret for her prosecution of her former husband.

Mr. Seton-Thompson's Arrest.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, October 16.—The New York Commercial Advertiser publishes the following self explanatory letter:

Sir,—Please do me the justice to correct the item you publish concerning my arrest in Colorado. I was arrested for being in company with John B. Goff, who was charged with setting a bear trap with venison. In court it was abundantly proved that: 1. I never owned a set of bear-traps in my life. 2. That I had not carried a gun or fired a shot or killed or trapped any animal on the whole trip. 3. That my only weapon was a camera. 4. That Mr. Goff also was wholly innocent of the charges made. 5. That the game warden, a notorious character named Bush, was seeking for a little cheap advertising. 6. The verdict was "We the jury find the defendants not guilty as charged and believe the prosecution malicious." 7. It was proved on behalf of Mr. Goff's dogs that they were trained so that they would not chase a deer. Interesting evidence of this is found in Scribner's Magazine for October. In that issue President Roosevelt, who hunted with Mr. Goff last winter, enlarges on the remarkable fact that these hounds are among deer the year round, and yet so well trained that they never think of following them. I may add, that my own observation on a hundred different occasions entirely confirms this. It is a curious fact that your Denver correspondent, while reporting the charge, omits all mention of the verdict. Yours faithfully,

ERNEST SETON THOMPSON.

BRITISH REGIMENTS FIGHT EACH OTHER

The Worcesters and Durhams Settle Their Feud by Charging One Another With Fixed Bayonets at Aldershot—Many Seriously Wounded.

LONDON, October 16.—The long standing feud between the Durham and Worcester regiments of infantry culminated last night in a serious affray at Aldershot, when the Worcesters, with fixed bayonets and ball cartridges, attacked the quarters of the Durhams. Severe fighting followed, during which many of the men were injured. A number of the Durhams are suffering from dangerous bayonet wounds.

RAIN FAVOURS BOTHA.

The Bad Weather Interferes With Gen. Lyttelton's Operations.

(Special to the Star.)

DUNDEE, Natal, October 16.—Rain has again intertered with Lyttelton's operations to intercept the retreat of Botha's force. An attempt by Col. Spens on the night of October 11, to surprise a number of Boers with stock and waggons hidden in a kloof in the north-west part of Ngome forest, was frustrated by the mist and rain. At day break, Boers were seen trekking south-west, but the roads are so heavy that Col. Spens was unable to overtake them.

Botha's main body is in the neighbourhood of Pongola forest. A certain number of Boers have undoubtedly escaped west and north, accompanied by a few Cape carts, but with no guns and no waggons. It was at first thought Botha was with some of these Boers, but it appears he has returned to the neighbourhood of Pongola. Probably a large amount of the Boers' stock, with some men and their families and waggons, is sheltered in the Shangapie hills.

Prisoners say the Boers' losses in the encounter between Botha and Kitchener on October 6th were heavy.

A LOYAL LEGISLATOR.

He and His Brother Fined and Sjamboked by Boers.

(Special to the Star.)

CAPE TOWN, October 16.—J. Botha, a member of the Legislative Assembly, has arrived here from Aliwal North. He and his brother were made prisoners at Klipfontein by Fouche and his commando, on June 20. They were both maltreated; and Mr. Botha's brother was sjamboked, after being compelled to walk a long distance. They were court-martialed at Marais Farm at Boesjeslaagte, on the charge of high treason and were found guilty. J. Botha was fined £150, and his brother, George, was fined £50. They were liberated upon security for payment of the fines given by Marais. Commandant Fouche promised to return and collect the fines. He revisited Klipfontein on October 5, and sent armed men to Mr. Marais to demand £200. The latter failed to pay, and he was taken before Commandant Fouche, who gave him five hours to settle the amount, failing which he would be shot. Marais obtained the money from a neighbouring farmer and received a receipt for it, signed: "Fouche, Commandant of the Rouxville Commando."

LT.-COL. HUDON IS ILL.

It Comes Out That He Declined to Accept the War Medal When in Toronto.

(Special to the Star.)

KINGSTON, October 16.—Lt.-Col. Hudon is sick at his residence. When he was in Toronto at the Royal review he refused to take the South African medal offered him. His reason was that officers his junior who has seen little or no service, were decorated with C. M. G. or raised a grade, while he fought at the front and was not remembered except by receiving a medal such as given to ordinary soldiers.

Lt.-Col. Hudon commanded "C" battery, which marched through Rhodesia and participated in the relief of Mafeking.

Orange River Land Laws.

(Special to the Star.)

BLOEMFONTEIN, October 16.—A commission has been appointed to enquire into the working of the laws of the Orange Free State in reference to the lease of Government farms in the Orange River Colony, upon conditions of personal occupation by burghers who are not land owners, and also into prospecting, developing and working the precious metals and minerals on Government lands, and also to enquire into the laws and conditions under which farms are held by the whites and natives in the Moraka (Morija) district in Basutoland.

Kitchener's Weekly Report.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, October 16.—Lord Kitchener, in his weekly report to the War Office yesterday, says that since the last statement 26 Boers have been killed, 8 have been wounded, 194 prisoners have been taken, there have been 42 surrenders, and 102 rifles and 2,200 horses have been captured.

Rebels' Punishment Commuted.

(Special to the Star.)

CAPE TOWN, October 16.—The sentence of death, passed upon two rebels belonging to the late Commandant Lotter's commando, has been commuted to penal servitude for life by Gen. Kitchener.

Scheepers' Ill Health.

Site for New Mint Building.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16.—Hon. J. I. Tarte, and Mr. Ewart, Chief Architect of Public Works, this morning staked out the ground for the new mint building. The site selected is on Nepean Point, well out on the point and where the building will crown this bold head land as the Parliament buildings on the next point crown that. The building will be 165 feet by 187, and it is intended to make it such a structure as shall add to the beauty of Ottawa and further tend to make the Capital "the Washington of the North."

Khaki Court Organised.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16.—The court composed of Col. Drury, Lieut.-Col. Coutlee and Lieut.-Col. Hodgins appointed by the G. O. C. to enquire into the circumstances connected with the alleged disobedience of certain men belonging to the regiments composing the Ottawa Brigade in parading in Khaki and as a separate body for the presentation of medals by the Duke of Cornwall and York met this morning and organized. Their sessions are private.

Mr. Booth's New Elevators.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16.—Yesterday the Buffalo contractors who built the Standard Elevator Company's new elevators at Buffalo, were in Ottawa negotiating with Mr. J. R. Booth for the erection of new elevators at Depot Harbour and Quebec. Mr. Booth's elevators will be of the newest pattern of Standard elevators.

Quebec Riflemen Banquetted.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, October 16.—Captains W. H. and J. R. Davidson were last night banquetted at the Garrison Club by a number of military and civilian friends in recognition of their share in winning for Canada the International Rifle Championship at Seagirt, N.J.

Hill Denies the Story.

NEW YORK, October 16.—James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern, who is in the city, was interviewed last night concerning his mission here in the east, took pains to deny the report of the combination of the Northwestern Railroads.

AT THE DROP OF THE FLAG.

Yesterday's race between Jewell and Deveras, shows that Brockville is still "on the map."

Cresceus is not to go on the Vaudeville stage after all, but is to have a trotting starring tour.

The Buffalo Baseball Club seems to have suffered in proportion as the Buffalo Exposition prospered.

Again jealousy finds vent in words, and once more Montreal's drawing power as a baseball city is attacked.

Sullivan the oarsman says that he and Towns had more fun in Canada than the Duke and Duchess of York. Perhaps he was right.

And here, after all lovers of Canadian horses have congratulated themselves upon the performance of "Sure Pop," comes George E. Pepper to shatter our illusions and to deny that Sure Pop jumped any higher than seven feet.

To-night, the Quebec Rugby Union will decide the case of Mr. Tobin, of Cornwall, a former player on the Ottawa College team, who has returned to his allegiance. The College Club maintains that it acted in good faith, when it took Tobin on again, since he has made up his mind to live in Ottawa. The fact that he is an excellent football player, and that there is no scope for him in Cornwall, is one of the arguments used in his favour.

Ottawa is pretty confident of its football team. The Citizen says:

"Unless some hard-shell misfortune overtakes Ottawa University football team it will be able to hold its own this year in the Quebec series. The back division has improved wonderfully during the past week and if well protected can attend to the ball in that department all right. If the team wins the match with Montreal next Saturday its chances for the Quebec union honours are the best."

BUFFALO CLUB ON THE MARKET

MANAGER BARROW, OF TORONTO, HAS MADE AN OFFER.

Franklin Decides to Quit — A New Management and Good Team Would Boom Baseball in Buffalo—Jealous of Montreal Again in the West.

BUFFALO, October 16. — The Eastern League passed through one of its periodically bad years, and will require two or three good cities to bring it back again into some prominence among the leading baseball organizations of the country. Now that it has broken away from the National League there is no reason why Jersey City, Newark, or even New York, for that matter, should not be included in next year's circuit. President Powers should be in a position to secure a hold in the metropolis just as well as Ban Johnson. It would be the making of the Eastern League, and franchises would not have to go begging, as is the case now. Montreal is too far out of the way, and is good only for Sunday games, and if the weather is bad and a club meets with rain, it returns from there a loser. Brockton, Syracuse, and Hartford are dead ones, so that it is very plain that something must be done to brace up matters.

Buffalo, which should be the strongest city in the league, went through a bitter time, and it is generally known that its owner dropped a wad. It was not the loss of the money that rankled, but the knowledge that his players did not do their best to win, that they took advantage of his absence, and of the weakness of the managers, that made him saddest. Ald. Franklin, after being connected with the business for many years, has finally got his fill, and it is generally known about town that the plant is on the market.

MANY OFFERS ARE RECEIVED.

Many offers have been received, but they are all below the price asked; so low, in fact, that it appears like robbery to have submitted them. Manager Barrow, of Toronto, has made an offer, a cautious one. Rochester persons have been in Buffalo during the last week with the idea of submitting a bid, their idea being that one-third of the stock be taken by Buffalonians and the remainder to be held by residents of Powerstown. Just what they accomplished is not known. Sam Wise said the other day that as soon as the Pan-American Exposition was over he had a man that wanted it, and it is reported that Harry Murray and one or two others had a bid to make. The Messrs. Eirick, live stock merchants, of East Buffalo, fans of the real hue, are desirous of seeing good baseball in Buffalo, but will not contribute toward the Eastern League article. Their ambition and money will go toward placing a team in the American League, and they have received assurances from President Somers, of the Boston team, of which Jimmy Collins is manager, that should the opportunity present itself that Buffalo will be considered. Not much stock is taken in the Somers' offer, however, for if Ban Johnson is looking for an opening in New York and St. Louis, it is safe to say that Buffalo must be away down in his thoughts, and this city will only be considered should the American League circuit be enlarged, another long-time possibility.

Buffalo can be made a money-winner, but not with a three-time tailender, and it is to be hoped that if Ald. Franklin desires to retire, and his whole family says that he is in earnest this time, the matter of sale can be arranged with lovers of the game in this city, and that it will not be necessary to float the thing outside.

In this connection it might be said that Capt. A. C. Anson, of Chicago, has been offered the franchise of Buffalo in the Eastern League, but he will not accept it. He said:

"If I could get into the National or American circuit with Buffalo I'd take it in a minute, for I think that city a better one than either Washington or Baltimore."

Capt. Anson thinks the American League should lose no time in getting into New York. "If Seth Low is elected Mayor and Tammany is licked, they should go in before next spring," was the sort of advice he offered.

PRESENTED BAYVIEW PRIZES.

A Most Enjoyable Ceremony at the Montreal Club.

There was a most pleasant little reunion at the Montreal Club, yesterday afternoon, when the prizes won in the Bayview-Beaurepaire Regatta, which has become one of the regular sailing events of the season, were presented. The presentation was made by Commodore R. R. Stevenson, there being seven cups in all, the big challenge trophy and the six smaller memorial cups.

The challenge trophy was won for the second time by Mr. A. E. Abbott. There were several impromptu speeches. The Committee which made such a success of the races was composed of: Commodore R. R. Stevenson, C. P. Sclater (officer of the day), F. J. Shaw, (secretary), Leslie Dowker, D. A. Poe. Among those present yesterday were Commodore Stevenson, C. P. Sclater, F. J. Shaw, J. J. Riley, jr., T. L. Paton, A. E. Abbott, W. H. Ewing, H. Desbarats, W. Riley.

LIPTON FETED IN CHICAGO.

Shamrock's Owner Receives a Memento.

CHICAGO, October 16.—At the Chicago A. C. last evening a banquet was given in honour of Sir Thomas Lipton. For an hour prior to the commencement of the banquet, Sir Thomas held a reception in the parlours of the club house. The reception was over at 7 o'clock, and the banquet commenced a few minutes after that hour. The decorations of the banquet hall were strictly nautical. A model of Shamrock II., complete, with all sails set, was placed in front of Sir Thomas. When the time for the making of addresses arrived the president, J. K. Armsby, in the name of the club, presented the loving cup to Sir Thomas, who replied in a brief speech of thanks. Sir Thomas will remain in the city for the rest of the week.

That Tobin Protest.

OTTAWA, October 16.—President Clancy and B. Slattery, of Ottawa College, will attend the meeting of the Quebec Union to-night in Montreal, when the Britannia protest against Alf. Tobin will be considered. The collegians do not expect that any more adverse action than ordering the game played over will be taken by the league. They hope, however, that the protest will be thrown out as they played Tobin in good faith.

The team had a good practice yesterday afternoon. Duval, who played half-back in 1898, was in uniform, and put up a fair article of ball. The team will likely be unchanged from Saturday last, against Montreal, this week. Alf. Smith, the former great quarter-back, joined the staff of coachers yesterday. Halligan, who is a substitute back, had one of his legs badly injured, and will not be able to play again for some time.

The Toronto Championship.

TORONTO, October 16.—'Varsity and the Argonauts have agreed to play two matches on 'Varsity field for the city championship; the first on Saturday, and the second on Thanksgiving Day. Points in the two contests will decide the supremacy. 'Varsity won the match played last year, while the Argonauts trimmed the Collegians the year before. The Argonauts think they can defeat 'Varsity easily, and their admirers place O.R.F.U. football a notch or two higher than the college article. On the other hand, the students claim superiority for intercollegiate Rugby, and say they will prove it in the games with Argonauts.

FOR NEW M.A.A.A. CLUBHOUSE.

Canvassing for Names in Favour of the Scheme.

There was a meeting Monday night, of the new M. A. A. A. Clubhouse Committee. The members of the Committee have started in on a campaign of personal canvass, and, as the result, forty-nine names were added to the list of subscribers to the new plan. This makes over three hundred subscribers now.

THE LAST M.A.A.A. HANDICAP.

They Will be Run Off on Saturday.

The last of the M. A. A. A. Handicaps have not yet come. The wind up will take place on Saturday next, preceding the Football game with Ottawa College. The events will consist of one third of a mile; half a mile, and a hundred and twenty yard hurdle races. They will start at 2.15 sharp.

BASKETBALL.

Basketball at the Point.

In olden days—for that is the term now used by the boys of the Point, who played at the game of basketball four or five years ago—the residents of that district witnessed some of the finest games that could be hoped for. The constant recollection of these games, full of excitement and pleasure, is accountable for the immense efforts which are being made for the re-advancement of the game by the members of the P.A.A.A. It has been furthermore decided to call a meeting for this evening at the club house, where many of the old boys are expected.

Ottawas Want Stanley Cup.

OTTAWA, October 16. — The Ottawa hockey men are beginning to talk of the prospects of a trip west for the Stanley Cup. It has practically been decided that the attempt to lift the cup will be made about the middle of the hockey season here. Many thought the team would go west before the regular schedule is opened.

I WEIGH 175 lbs.
Former Weight 135 "
Gain 40 lbs.

There are people who say that the benefit derived from the use of put-up medicines is imaginary. It is not the case with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. A woman may imagine she's weak, or may fancy she's sick, but her imagination can't add forty pounds to her weight. The positive proof of the curative power of "Favorite Prescription" is found in the restoration of health which is recorded in face and form, of strength which can be tested, and weight which can be registered in pounds and ounces.

The general health of women is so intimately connected with the local health of the womanly organs that when these are diseased the whole body suffers loss. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, stops weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am very glad to let other poor sufferers know what Dr. Pierce's medicines have done for me," writes Mrs. Edwin H. Gardner, of Beechwood, Norfolk Co., Mass. (Box 76.) "You know I wrote to you last summer. I read what your medicine had done for other people, so thought I would try it, and I found it was a blessing to me and my family. I began in June and took six bottles of your medicine and three vials of 'Pellets.' I took your medicine a year when I had a ten-pound girl. I had the easiest time I ever had with any of my three children. I have been very well since I took your medicine. I took three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' three of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and three vials of 'Pellets.' I had no appetite and could not eat much without it distressing me before I took your 'Favorite Prescription,' and I only weighed 135 pounds. Now I weigh 175."

VETERANS IN THE FIELD OF CANADIAN SPORTS

MR. W. C. HODGSON.

Here is one of the youthful Canadian veterans.

Many who followed the game of lacrosse some years ago will remember "Billy" Hodgson who used to play such a star game for the, then, Montreal championship team. He was one of the fastest and most brilliant players that ever played the game and had a reputation for shooting on the flags which was apt to make a timid player beware. But Mr. Hodgson was not only a lacrosse player. He was also a very fine footballer and played for the Montreal team. He was also an adept at the game of hockey, but it was as a lacrosse man that he showed to the best advantage.

BROCKVILLE PEOPLE ENJOYED A FINE RACE.

Three Favourites Came Out Well at Morris Park—There Was Some Excellent Trotting at the Lexington Track for the Ten Thousand Dollar Prize.

(Special to the Star.)

BROCKVILLE, Ont., October 16.—The first real god horse race held in Brockville in many years took place yesterday afternoon on the Brockville Driving Park before an enthusiastic crowd of lovers of the sport, numbering between 800 and 1000 people. They came from all parts of Eastern Ontario, particularly from this immediate vicinity. Among Montrealers noticed were Charles Charters, H. Lafleur, B. Arbour and W. Monteith. The occasion was a matched race between H. Paquet's Speedy Jewel, of Montreal, and Brockville's goer, Deveras, the property of Antoine Wendling, the well-known hotelkeeper, for $250 a side. The recent Montreal races showed the animals to be very evenly matched, and though Deveras was beaten at them, his owner held he had the best horse of the two, and challenged Mr. Paquet to another race, which was cheerfully accepted. The weather conditions were perfect with the exception of a stiff wind. This, with the heavy condition of the track rendered such by the recent rains, made the time necessarily slow. The best time was equal to a 2.10 clip over a good half-mile track in fair condition. The horses were apparently in splendid condition at the commencement of the struggle, but after two heats had been gone it was evident Jewel was in distress, because he acted badly, and, though urged by McPherson, never headed and came on even terms with Deveras. It is presumed he was suffering from a cold contracted on the trip from Montreal. At least, a veterinary pronounced this the cause of illness. Under ordinary circumstances, it would have been a great race, as Deveras was full of ginger, prepared to do his best if called upon. But he won the race and the enthusiastic owner is happy.

The officials were as follows: Starter, John Webster, Brockville; judges, Charles Charters, Montreal; J. E. Kerr, Perth, and David Forth, Forthton.

HOW THE RACE WAS RUN.

In the first heat it was a horse race all the way. Deveras was the aggressor, and, though making two breaks, took the pole from Jewel in the last three-quarters and came home ahead by a length in 2.21¼. The second heat was the most exciting of the day. Deveras held the race well in hand all the way up to the back stretch on the last half. Jewel, who had been pushing him hard, made a bad break and dropped far in the rear. Wallace made the mistake of not going ahead at the speed attained. Instead of that he lingered for the Montreal horse until the stretch was reached. There both horses came on even terms, and it was nip and tuck to the wire. Both drivers urged their animals to the utmost, but it was impossible for one to get the advantage over the other, and the judges gave out a dead heat. In the next two Jewell made a miserable poor showing, and Deveras had things his own way, taking the finish by several lengths.

Mr. Paquet has signified his intention of giving Jewel a rest till the ice races, when he will again put him in shape for racing. Very little money changed hands on the event, but the Brockville horse was a hot favourite all through the race. Following is the summary:

Trotting at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 16.—Peter Stirling won the $10,000 Louisville prize without a touch of the whip, and holding his gait like a piece of superb machinery. The winner of last Tuesday's $16,000 Futurity passed under the wire first in each heat with a length to spare. The Baron More colt was favourite at 50 to the field's 20 in the first, and $50 to the field's $9 in the second heat.

Onward Silver, winner of the Transylvania, and Doll Dillon had their second bitter struggle of the meeting in the four thousand McDowell stakes.

Charles Marvin, the veteran of the trotting turf, captured the Walnut Hall Farm Cup, $3,000, with Captor. The record time for the fixture, 2.11½, was twice lowered, 2.10¾ being the time in the first heat, and 2.09¾ in the third. The track was fast. Summary:

The lady members of the Westmount Golf Club will hold an all-day handicap match (18 holes), on Friday, weather permitting, to compete for a silver cup. ## MISCELLANEOUS

WHAT SHARKEY THINKS.

How He Looks at Jeffries-Ruhlin Match.

In a private letter to a friend in Montreal Thomas Sharkey says the coming match between Jeffries and Ruhlin will be one of the greatest events in the history of the ring. He says that Jeffries will have to win in three or four rounds or he will not win at all, as the bout going the full limit will have a possible decision in Ruhlin's favour.

Police Had to Interfere.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., October 16.—The Carter-Walcott contest, before the National A. C., was a fiasco, terminating suddenly in the seventh round. Walcott fell to his knees after a slight mix-up, crying "foul," and claiming to have been struck below the belt.

Pandemonium reigned for a few minutes, and the police and spectators crowded into the ring. The club managers summoned the physician, Dr. Eidenmuller, immediately, and the negro was examined in his corner. The verdict was that no foul blow had been struck.

Walcott was able to walk from the ring unassisted and appeared to be shamming. The blow that really did the work was a right upper-cut to the stomach. Up to this point Walcott had much the better of the contest. Twice he had the Brooklyn man going, once in the fifth and again in the sixth round, but the latter's wonderful recuperative powers saved him from defeat.

The McGill Theatre Night.

Notwithstanding the misunderstanding which has arisen between the students of the various faculties of McGill University and the Alma Mater Society of the same institution relative to the annual university theatre night, the date originally selected, namely, October 25, will be adhered to. This much was decided upon yesterday. An effort will now be made to remove the misunderstanding that exists, in order that the event may prove as successful, if not more so, than any of its predecessors. For years the date of the annual theatre night and the work of organization therefor have been fixed and carried out by special committees elected for the purpose by the faculties. This year a new body has arisen to represent the university as a whole, the Alma Mater Society. A mass meeting of the students held at the beginning of last week passed resolutions, which induced the new society to believe that it was the general wish that they should take charge of the great event. At a meeting they therefore offered their services to the various faculties. But when the faculties came together the medicals objected, not because of any antagonism to the Alma Mater Society, but because they thought the shortness of the time would make it difficult for a new organization to act, and that the well-proved faculty machinery would answer every purpose, as of old times.

The Applied Science undergraduates refused to take any action in regard to the matter, and a deadlock at once took place between the faculties. This, however, will be straightened out, and already efforts in that direction are progressing nicely. The boys will, therefore, witness one of Willard's productions next week.

Applied Science Scholarships.

The following awards have been made in the Applied Science Faculty, McGill: British Association exhibition, fourth year, J. B. Cornish; British Association prize, F. E. Sterns; third year prize for mathematics, A. E. Forman; prizes on entering the second year, C. J. Chaplin, J. McPhee, G. H. Cole; McCarthy prizes for instrumental work in surveying, S. H. Boright, R. Musgrove, A. S. P. Lucas.

The Three Musketeers.

The three burglars, Farley, Douglas and Clarke, who were sentenced to three years each in St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary in 1898, and released in due course, are again behind the bars. They were sentenced a few days ago in St. Albans to three years each for burglary.

HORSE KICKED THE BOY.—Francois Corbeau, a nine-year-old lad, living with his parents at 565 Ontario street, while playing in the rear of the house yesterday afternoon, was kicked by a horse and sustained a fracture of the left thigh. He was taken to the Notre Dame Hospital.

TRANSFER OF LICENSES.—The following transfers of licenses have been granted by the Liquor License Commissioners: Napoleon Vallee to Jos. ## THE TERMINAL RAILWAY— WHAT IT IS ASKING.

Mr. Mullarkey Explains the Situation —Several Aldermen are Opposed to Granting An Entrance to the City.

At the next meeting of the City Council a motion will be made to reconsider the proposed by-law allowing the Terminal Railway Company to operate electric cars in the city.

The original by-law was defeated on its second reading. Explaining the reason of bringing up the subject again, Mr. Mullarkey, manager of the Terminal Company, said to-day: "When the original by-law was before Council the Terminal Company asked to run cars on a large number of streets in the city. There were certain protests against this, and now the company is going before Council to request it be given a single line into the city to connect with its lines at Maisonneuve. If this request is granted, passengers who wish to go to Bout de L'Ile can get there without changing cars. At present they have to take the city cars to Maisonneuve before the cars of the Terminal Company are reached. It has already been stated that the Terminal Company will make the fare to Bout de L'Ile and return 25 cents, if this single line is voted by Council."

One of the members of the City Council, who strongly favours the application of the Terminal Company for a single line into the city, said: "I understand it is the intention of the Terminal Company to ask Council for a line from Maisonneuve that will run north to the city limits, then taking a sudden turn southwards will reach Craig street via City Hall avenue. Very many citizens in the north end of the city are strongly in favour of such a line, as it would open up a section that has practically no car service. There is sure, however, to be a big fight in Council over this request."

Quite a number of members of Council on the other hand are opposed to any new electric company operating lines in the city. They claimed, when being spoken to to-day, that there was every likelihood the Montreal Street Railway Company would greatly extend its lines and reduce its fares, if the City Council would add to the number of years of its contract. The company might also possibly ask to be given the right to build car tracks on whatever streets in the city it might desire. For these reasons they thought no new company should be allowed to come into the city.

Such is the situation of affairs that will have to be considered by the City Council at its next meeting.

SHIP FEVER MONUMENT— WHO REMOVED IT?

An Enquiry to be Held by the Parks Committee—The Planting of Young Trees.

The Parks and Ferries Committee yesterday discussed complaints that had been sent in by Irish societies against the removing of the Irish immigrant monument from the spot near the Victoria Bridge, where it had been for so many years. There seemed some haziness as to who had removed the monument from this spot to St. Patrick's Park. After some discussion it was decided to see Mr. Wainwright, of the Grand Trunk, and see if the company had removed the monument. It is said the Grand Trunk Railway is willing to remove the monument to the Catholic cemetery, or any other site. A sub-committee was appointed to enquire as to the best place to put the monument.

Before adjourning, City Gardener Pinoteau reported the various city parks were ready for the winter season. In many of them young trees had been planted, and as the watchmen were not engaged for the winter he suggested that some other means should be taken to protect the trees from injury. It had been found in the past that many were broken in the spring, necessitating renewal at considerable cost. It was decided to bring the question to the attention of the police officials.

LAURENTIDE PULP COMPANY.

The Annual Meeting Shows Net Profits of $296,361 or 18 Per Cent. on the Capital.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Laurentide Pulp Company, Limited, was held yesterday. Mr. Charles R. Hosmer was added to the list of directors, the board otherwise remaining the same as before.

The statement showed the net profits for the year to be $296,361 over and above interest on bonds and all other charges. Altogether the profits amounted to more than eighteen per cent. on the company's stock. The directors, however, deemed it wise to pay only eight per cent. in dividends, adding the remainder to the working capital.

After writing off $129,688, for shrinkage in logs, covering a term of years back, for bad and doubtful accounts, and for other matters, the surplus, June 30, 1901, was $252,374, as against $197,701, June 30, 1900.

It was stated that the entire paper products of the company were sold up to the end of the year 1902, and at better prices than at any time in the past. The works were reported to be in perfect condition, and working well beyond their estimated capacity.

HAD NEVER BEEN VACCINATED.

Came From An Infected District and Developed Smallpox—His Boarding House Quarantined.

A young man, who arrived in the city two weeks ago, exhibited symptoms of smallpox yesterday. He was removed to the Civic Hospital. It is said the case is a very mild one. The patient came to the city from an infected place in this province. He was never vaccinated. It was at first thought the disease was typhoid, but its true nature was ascertained yesterday. The boarding house where the patient was staying has been quarantined.

A bazaar for the benefit of the Montreal Annex Presbyterian Church will be held in St. Gabriel Church on Friday next.

A meeting of Royal Victoria Lodge, Manchester Unity, I.O.O.F., will be held in Unity Hall, Wellington street, Point St. Charles, this evening.

A Hallelujah wedding will be celebrated at the Point St. Charles Salvation Army Hall, Bourgeois street, on Friday evening, October 18. Major Turner will conduct the ceremony.

A special meeting of the directors of the Point St. Charles Railway Association was held last evening. Private business in connection with the new building was alone disposed of.

The opening dance of the season, to be held on Friday, October 25th, under the auspices of the Lady Associate members of the Point St. Charles Athletic Association promises to be among the leading social events of the season.

A number of the residents of Longueuil have made arrangements for a concert to be given in the school house on Thursday evening, October 17. Prof. W. Shannon and several other artists have already promised to take part.

At the last meeting of the Westmount branch of the International Sunshine Society, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. A. Hutchison; vice-president, Miss Macfarlane; secretary, Miss Macdonald, 4630 St. Catherine street; treasurer, Miss Muirhead. It was decided to hold an entertainment in conjunction with the Montreal branch on Tuesday, October 29.

Rev. J. G. Payette, parish priest of St. Eusebe, has been officially appointed cure of Longueuil, to succeed Rev. F. Tasse, who has resigned owing to ill health. Father Payette was born in Montreal in 1860, and after attending Montreal College, was ordained priest in 1885. His first appointment was as vicar at St. Joseph de Chambly. A year later he became professor at Ste. Therese College. From 1889 to 1892 he was assistant at the parish of St. Lin. In the latter year he became acting cure. In 1896 Archbishop Fabre appointed him to the charge of the parish of St. Eusebe, where he has since acted. Father Payette will likely take over his new duties during the present week.

The citizens' committee, that for some time past has been doing such good work in Point St. Charles, will now likely take up the all-important question of procuring more subways for the district. That these have not been procured before this has been, it is believed, one of the greatest drawbacks to the district. At the present time there is no connection between the district and the city between Hibernia road and Richmond street, a distance of nearly a mile, and this right in the most important part of the locality. It is claimed by property holders that at least one subway should be made under the Grand Trunk Railway, to connect directly with the city by way of Seigneurs street. It is understood that a number of property holders are anxious to have the project carried out as soon as possible, and intend doing all they can to procure it.

A meeting of the Longueuil Town Council was held Monday night. A special committee was appointed to prepare an address to be presented on behalf of the town to Rev. F. Tasse on the occasion of his retiring from the charge of the parish. On the motion made by Councillor Gariepy it was decided to grant the Harmony Band recently formed in the town the use of the large hall over the market and a sum of $75 on condition that the band should give public concerts at least once a week during the months of June, July and August of the coming year. The letter received from the Montreal Bridge Company, dealing with the question of a proposed electric railway to the town. Discussion was deferred till the next meeting. A proposition was then made by Councillor Gariepy that a by-law be passed authorizing a loan of $24,000, of which $12,000 would be used in meeting the obligations of the Crevier bonus, which come due in March next, the remainder to be used in making different improvements about the town. No action was taken in the matter.

CATHEDRAL ST. WIDENING— THE EXPROPRIATION ROLL

Is Upheld by the Court in Judgment on a Suit to Set it Aside Brought by Mr. Sauvageau.

The city won an important expropriation case yesterday, when Mr. Justice Teller dismissed the case of Sauvageau vs. the City, and William Masterman and others, mis-en-cause.

The plaintiff owned property on Cathedral street, which was widened some years ago. He alleged that the cost of widening had been apportioned in a certain manner, but later the city had obtained from the Quebec Legislature the adoption of a statute, 57 Victoria, chap. 57, which apportioned the cost one-half to the proprietors and the other half to the city. The commissioners, Mr. William Masterman and others, were alleged to have fixed an illegal valuation on the properties, taxing them at various rates ranging from two to forty per cent. They were also said to have taxed the property for other purposes than the widening, such as for the damage caused to immoveables expropriated. The plaintiff was taxed $940, or 40 per cent. of the total value of his property. He contended that the act, 57 Victoria, chap. 57, applied only to future widenings of the street, and could have no retroactive effect, and that in any case the proprietors could not be taxed with the expenses incurred, which were absurdly large and imprudently made. He also maintained that the taxation should have been evenly made, and not imposed on the principle of charging more to those who had benefited most. There was nothing to show that those who had benefited least had paid least. Plaintiff, therefore, asked that the assessment roll for the expropriation be declared null and void.

The city pleaded that there had been only one roll made, which was the one now in force. The other roll, referred to by the plaintiff, was simply an outline or project, and had never been completed or approved. The plaintiff was justly indebted to the city for $940 under the only roll made, with every formality, and now in force. The court found that the proof showed the roll in force to have been made and put in execution according to the city charter, and to special laws in the connection, and that it was the only roll really ever in force.

The court held also that the commissioners were entitled to determine who was most benefited, and to tax them accordingly; and that the cost of the expropriation proceedings must be taken as part of the cost of widening the street. The court decided, finally, that none of plaintiff's pretensions were justified, and that he had suffered no particular prejudice, and dismissed his action with costs.

Concerts in Aid of General.

The opening rehearsal for the concerts in aid of the General Hospital, which are to be held in February next, took place Monday evenng at Karn Hall. Some three hundred voices were present, and this chorus, under the leadership of Mr. Ol Stewart Taylor, went with a swing. Three hundred copies of Elijah, which were presented by three members of the Hospital Committee of Management, were used and were much appreciated. It is proposed to give Elijah one evening, and upon the other a miscellaneous programme will be rendered.

The Sick Benefit Fund.

Mr. John F. Tobin, of Boston, Mass., president of the International Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, is in the city in the interests of the craft. The International Union has recently adopted a constitutional amendment providing for a sick benefit of $5 a week instead of $3, as formerly.

HOSPITAL DECLINED OFFER FOR PART OF ITS LAND.

Olivet Baptist Church Congregation Offered $1.25 Per Foot for Twenty Thousand Feet—Governors Declined it, Feeling That it Was Unwise to Sell Any of Its Property.

The offer of the congregation of Olivet Baptist Church, to purchase 20,000 feet of land belonging to and adjoining the Western General Hospital, whereon to erect a new church edifice, was declined by the governors of the latter institution, at their regular quarterly meeting yesterday afternoon.

It was felt that it would be unwise to part with any of the property, either at the present or at any future time, in view of the fact that the trend of the city's population was westward, and that the ground was the best site that was to be had for hospital purposes in the city.

The case of the Olivet Baptist Church was eloquently pleaded by Messrs. H. A. Hodgson and E. P. Heaton, but the majority of the governors were adverse to the sale, and no words of either of these gentlemen could change their opinions.

AN OFFER OF $25,000.

The offer of Olivet congregation was brought before the attention of the governors by Mr. H. A. Hodgson, who made a motion to the effect that it be accepted, and that the property be transferred from the hospital to the church as soon as possible. He pointed out that the church desired at least 20,000 feet, fronting on Western Square and extending along Atwater Avenue to a point about 60 feet northward of Dorchester street. For this ground the congregation was willing to pay the sum of $25,000, or $1.25 per foot. In his (the speaker's opinion, the congregations's offer could be accepted without impairing to any extent the usefulness or growth of the hospital. The offer of $25,000 meant the wiping out of the present floating debt of $8000, on the hospital, and would leave on hand a balance of $17,000 for any improvements that it might be considered advisable to make in the institution. The hospital could well afford to let the 20,000 feet go, as the lot on which it was built was large, and 60,000 feet would still remain whereon to erect any extension that might be necessary He was strongly in favour, therefore, of accepting the offer, for with the $17,000 cash in hand they could start a nucleus for contributions towards the extension. The 60,000 feet which the hospital would still possess after the 20,000 feet had been disposed of, would be sufficient to meet the needs of the hospital for thirty or forty years to come.

THE MOTION TO SELL.

At the close of his remarks, the secretary read Mr. Hodgson's motion, which was seconded by Mr. Heaton, and which was as follows:

"Whereas, during the last few years the revenue of the hospital has fallen considerably short of the expenditure, thereby calling into existence a somewhat large floating debt; and

"Whereas, an opportunity is now afforded whereby the equilibrium between revenue and expenditure will be approximately reached; and

"Whereas, the sale of a portion of the hospital land would leave a large block available for hospital use; therefore,

"Be it resolved, that the board of management be and are hereby authorized to dispose of a part or the whole of the land running, say, from Dorchester street to Western square, fronting along Atwater avenue, and 100 feet or thereabout easterly, at a minimum price of $1.25 per square foot."

Mr. Heaton, in seconding the motion, alluded to a recommendation made by the learning, alluding to the culture which could only be obtained by University training.

TRIP ON ST. LAWRENCE.

After an inspection of the cadets at the Royal Military College, the Royal pair and their suite partook of luncheon and afterwards sailed by the Richelieu & Ontario steamer Kingston for Brockville. The day was a beautiful one. A nice breeze ripples the tops of the waves and sent a picturesque night caps rolling across the St. Lawrence. There was a distinguished company on board. In addition to the Duke and Duchess, there were Prince Alexander of Teck, Lord Wenlock, the Duke of Roxburgh, Viscount Crighton, Sir Charles Cust Sir Donald Wallace, Rev. Canon Dalton the Countess of Minto, Lady Mary Lygon Hon. Mrs. Derek Keppel, Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Mrs Justice Britton, and Mr. C. F. Gildersleeve, of Montreal.

The beautiful new boat of the line was luxuriously fitted up for the trip and presented a fine appearance. Shortly after two o'clock the steamer left her dock and headed down the river amid hearty cheering from the thousands on the pier and in the vicinity. During the journey down the Duke and Duchess sat out on the deck watching the picturesque scenery as the vessel steamed down the river.

AT GANANOQUE.

At Gananoque, a most enthusiastic reception which would be a credit to the hospital. They had a chance of being relieved of debt, and of putting aside a little money towards the endowment fund, or building fund. It was a business proposition, and so long as they were not impairing the use of the hospital, they should accept the offer and sell the land.

OPPOSED TO THE SALE.

Dr. F. W. Campbell, who has been connected with the hospital ever since its establishment, reviewed its history and explained why its founders had placed it where it was. The original site selected, said Dr. Campbell, was the site, strange to say, on which the Olivet Baptist Church now stood, which had been given to the hospital promotors by Mr. Workman. It was felt, however, that it would be unwise to locate the institution at that point, and accordingly the site on which the hospital now stands was purchased. In the old days the institution had paid well, and he believed that that condition of things would be repeated in the future. He was opposed to the sale of any portion of the property. The site was a splendid one, the best in the city. There was plenty of air and sunshine to be found on every side, two essentials to the success of an institution such as the Western Hospital was. Moreover, it was situated close to what was bound to become one of the most important arteries of the city, Atwater avenue. Under these circumstances, he, and the medical men connected with the institution were adverse to parting with any portion of the property. The hospital was gradually becoming better known, its patients were increasing, it now had an ambulance service of its own, and was destined in time to become a most important and necessary institution in the rapidly growing West End. Why impair its usefulness, therefore, by disposing of any of its assets?

Mr. J. H. Sears also added a vigorous protest against the sale of the property. It might not be needed at present, but as things took the course that it was thought they would take every foot of land the hospital possessed would be needed in the near future.

The president, Alex. F. Smith, thought it would be an extravagant thing to sell a portion of the land and pay off the debt. He he did not think that was the intention. The present governors, who believed they had the energy to dispose of the debt within the coming year.

The report of the committee of management, read by the secretary, Dr. J. B. McConnell, showed that the receipts from May 15 to October 9 had been $7,037 and the expenditure $7,739. The debt remained about the same as at the annual meeting, $7,948. While the fees qualifying for the governors and fees from pay patients were satisfactory, only $9.5 had been received in subscriptions.

ST. LOUIS AFFAIRS— STREET CAR SERVICE.

The Council Passed the By-Law and Then a Public Meeting Was Held in Opposition to the Grothe Bonus.

The by law granting a franchise for thirty years to the Montreal Street Railway was passed unanimously by the St. Louis Council Monday night, and the town engineer Mr. Emile Vanier, was directed to issue all the necessary orders to enable the company to proceed with the work of laying their tracks through the streets.

After the adjournment of the Council, a meeting of the proprietors opposed to the grant of a bonus to the L. O. Grothe Cigar Manufactory was held in the Town Hall.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Isidore Crepeau, and the meeting called upon Mr. Dubois to act as secretary. Among the large audience several proprietors from Montreal Annex were noticed, including Messrs. Robert Miller, president of the Citizens' Association; F. G. Wooster and I. A. Parsons. Ald. Roy, Mr. Grothe and most of the councillors were also present.

The long discussion, which lasted until midnight, and which gave rise to several uproarious manifestations on the part of the audience against the members of the Council or others who attempted to address the meeting in support of the by-law, threw very little new light on the facts which have already been made public.

Organ of the Church of the Gesu.

The work of erecting the new pipe organ which Messrs. Casavant Bros., of Ste. Hyacinthe, have been building for the past nine months for the Church of the Gesu in this city, is well under way, and it is expected that the instrument will be voiced and rendered ready for use by the end of November. It is gigantic in its proportions, contains 52 speaking stops and a great number of couplers, has four keyboards and pedal clavier, and is replete with the latest electrical mechanism. It will be blown by electric power, and will be a decided as well as a much-needed acquisition to the church.

Sunday Service Discontinued.

The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company has discontinued the Sunday service between Montreal and Quebec. The boats will run daily, with the exception of Sunday, however, until the close of navigation.

The Company's steamers now leave Montreal for Toronto and Hamilton on Mondays and Fridays, and on Tuesdays and Saturdays the steamers leave Quebec for the Saguenay. This latter service will be continued until the close of navigation.

Say Rill is Innocent.

A letter has been received by the friends of Julius Rill, now in custody at Clark's Harbour, N.S., on a charge of murder, which states that the boy is innocent beyond any doubt and that even the relatives of the murdered man believe in his innocence. Rill formerly lived in Montreal, and went down to Nova Scotia about a short time ago to work for Rankin, the murdered man. Those who know him in Montreal say that they do not believe him capable of so foul a deed.

THE RAILWAY EMPLOYES.—The International Brotherhood of Railway Trackmen has strengthened its organization by absorbing the independent Canadian Union of the same craft. The officers say that the question of forming a Canadian federation of railway employes has not been discussed in their lodges, and that they prefer to belong to a big international organization than an isolated one.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.—A requisition, calling a special meeting of the school trustees of the old Corporation St. Louis (now St. Denis Ward), for Friday evening next, has been signed by a number of the taxpayers. Important discussions will take place respecting the new school building, which is to be erected at once at the corner of Zotique and Huntley streets, and other matters arising out of this.

Mr. Harris has a long and creditable record as a member of the Board of Directors of the association.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The lodges in Montreal have all resumed their meetings after vacation, and are arranging for an active campaign the coming winter. Damascus Lodge met on Friday evening last and inaugurated the "fall opening" with a new set of robes for their officers. The robes are very rich and handsome, and add materially to the ceremonies of the ritual. Ivanhoe Lodge meets on Wednesday night and expects to have two applications to consider.

The Past Chancellors' Association is to meet this (Monday) evening in the Windsor Hotel to elect officers and plan the winter's campaign. It is intended to organize a sufficient number of lodges in the province this winter to form a grand lodge, which will entitle the Pythians in this province to representation in the Supreme Lodge, which meets in San Francisco in August, 1902.

FREE DRAWING CLASSES.—The evening drawing and industrial classes of the Council of Arts and Manufactures of the Province of Quebec opened Monday in the Monument National. The registration of pupils being no fewer than 500, an increase of 100 over the number registered on the same date last year. The officers of the council are of the opinion that the total number of pupils enrolled at the end of the year will be 1,000, as against 817 last year. All the classes are free, and are under the direction of experienced teachers. Mr. L. P. Berube will receive applications for admission to the classes at room No. 2, Monument National, from 9 o'clock a.m. till noon, and from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock p.m. The council states that as evidence of the importance attached by some leading studios to the courses, Messrs. Dunlop, Vanier and Meloche have directed private pupils to follow the classes of the Council of Arts. The enrolment for the solfeggio classes will close this week.

THE PLUMBERS.—At next Friday night's meeting of the Plumbers' Union the new sanitary by-law will be thoroughly discussed and all explanations in connection with the same given. The first of a series of examinations was held at the City Hall last night. The examiners were Sanitary Engineer Dore, Building Inspector Chausse and Mr. J. W. Hughes, an expert plumber. It was on the whole satisfactory. Twenty-two applicants presented themselves, and with a couple of exceptions all made a good showing. All plumbers in town are obliged to submit to the examination by virtue of the new by-law. The annual fee is $2, with $5 for the certificate. The officers of the union are very much pleased with the results of the first examination. They say that this will practically do away with Jacks-of-all-trades that have been a menace to the legitimate plumbers for years. No man will be allowed in the union until such time as he has passed his examination.

THE SHELTERING HOME AND THE WORK IT HAS DONE

Encouraging Reports Presented at the Annual Meeting—Women May be Sent There Instead of to Gaol.

Those interested in the work of the Sheltering Home, 92 St. Urbain street, held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. The chair was occupied by the Rev. Canon Renaud. The annual report of Miss M. A. Sheppard, the secretary, was very interesting. She said that the home had been sheltering all classes of humanity, and the reports that had been received of the well-doings of some of those who had been helped by the Home were of such a nature as to give the management great courage.

Miss Sheppard said the doors were opened to poor, tempted women, victims of drink. One had reformed, and now had money in the bank. Some women stay at the home, waiting an opportunity to go to their friends in other parts of the world. When possible situations are found for those desirous of working. Three little waifs, aged five years, three years and eighteen months, respectively, whose father was drunk and whose mother had deserted them, were taken in by the Home. The Royal Templars' room, to support which they donate $100 a year, has done its share of good work by sheltering eleven homeless women. During the year 136 women were admitted to the home and twenty-one children. Prisoners and intemperate class, 56; night shelter, 24; maternity, married, 4; sent to situations, 34; to friends, 6; to the United States, 2; to England, 2.

Mrs. T. H. Frost, the treasurer, read the annual report, which showed that the receipts during the year were $2,620.32, and the disbursements, $2,395.15, leaving a balance of $225.17.

Mrs. S. Findlay, president of the society, made a few remarks, in the course of which she emphasized the fact that the home was kept open day and night.

Rev. Mr. McManus next spoke of the work done by the home, and how he had been enabled to take several girls there for shelter. He especially praised the work of the matron, Mrs. Montgomery, and her assistant, Miss Mansfield.

Among others who had a few words of encouragement to give were Mr. Charles Alexander, Rev. Mr. French, Mr. George Hague, Miss Dougall, Mr. S. Carley, and Mr. S. Findlay.

Mrs. M. H. Gault called special attention to the fact that it was sometimes reported that women had been sent to gaol because there was no other place for them to be sent to. There was the Sheltering Home to which they could be sent and whose doors are always open.

Miss Wilkes, who is engaged in rescue work in Buffalo, N.Y., in connection with the Ingleside Home there, spoke encouragingly of the work.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Mrs. Findlay; secretary, Miss Shepherd; treasurer, Mrs. Frost.

GOOD COFFEE MAKER.

Experience With the Berry.

"I have gained twenty-five pounds since I left off coffee, and began drinking Postum Food Coffee in its place.

I had become very thin in flesh and suffered tortures with heartburn, was a nervous wreck, with headache practically all the time, until one dreadful day when the good doctor told me I must quit drinking coffee, as he had nothing left to try, to relieve me.

I could not drink tea, and had tried everything else, even Postum, but put it by at the first trial, because it was tasteless.

Forced to it again, I determined to see if it could not be made more palatable, and found at once that when I followed directions and boiled it long enough, that I not only liked it, but gave it to my husband for sevral days without his finding it out. I have the name of making splendid coffee, and we always used the best, but of late I have given Postum to guests many times in place of coffee, and have never been detected yet.

Our four children have not drank coffee for three years, and all have gained health and flesh since using Postum. One son, who was always sick, has been greatly benefited by its use, and, as above stated, I have gained twenty-five pounds since taking up Postum. I am healthier to-day than I have been for years, and give Postum all the credit. Please do not use my name in public."

This lady lives in Burlington, Iowa, and the name will be furnished by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., to those interested. 244 1

AN UNSCRUPULOUS WOMAN.

BY MRS. BAGOT HARTE.

Author of "Blanca" "The Wheel of Fate," "At the Edge of a Precipice" "Wrongly Condemned," a Deserter from the Guards," "At the Eleventh Hour," etc.

At that moment Lady Rylmer had no foe more deadly in the world than her husband's niece. And Marie's Southern blood made her strong to hate and strong to love.

The train was going fast now, very fast. Soon she would be once more within the walls of the home she hated. She leant back and looked through the windows with non-observant eyes at the torrents of rain, grey mist, and dreary stretch of English scenery. With Maurice at her side she had grown to tolerate the dreariness of an English rainy day. Now all was different, and she craved for her old home at Capri.

The train arrived punctually at Surbiton. Marie hastily alighted, and a few minutes later was walking quickly towards Rylmer Hall. It was a quarter of an hour's walk in reality, but she did it in less time to-day, arriving at three minutes past six opposite the entrance gates, which stood open as usual.

Pale, sad and weary, yet possessed with an overwhelming desire to enter unnoticed, she crept along amongst the undergrowth of trees that bordered the carriage drive. stillness reigned around, compiete stillness. It was reassuring. Once or twice she stopped and listened, fearing that the sound of the distant unlocking of doors might be heard. But the joyous chorus of happy birds was the only sound that met her ears.

"Oh, how thankful I shall be to lie down and fall asleep," she said to herself.

She was walking very softly, on tip-toe. These were anxious moments. She dared scarcely breathe, and every muffled footstep sounded loud to her ears.

"At last!" she cried, stopping opposite the French window, which she had left open on the previous night.

Swiftly her hands were raised to push it open.

It was locked—firmly locked on the inside!

At that moment sounds which herald the awakening energies of servants were to be heard from within. A landing window above was being opened, bolts were being noisily withdrawn.

Marie turned cold to her finger tips. If she were discovered outside, waiting for admission, what explanation of the matter could she offer? But whatever explanation she might give there was no chance of its being accepted unquestioningly. The worst construction would be put on her conduct, if it suited Lady Rylmer to do so.

Too tired to stand, Marie sank down on the ground near the window and leant against the woodwork. She was beginning to feel dazed with grief, hunger, and fatigue. An invisible voice seemed to tell her that Maurice was safe, and, with freedom from care on his account, thoughts of herself were stealing over her mind.

Suddenly she was startled by hearing the window behind her being opened. It was being done slowly and cautiously. She staggered to her feet and strove to look calm, defiant—anything save like a culprit.

"Hello!"

It was Derrick who uttered the exclamation, and it was he who now stood in the doorway of the open window. "Do you want to come in?" he added, with a short laugh.

"Yes," she answered, trying to speak in her usual tone, and moving forward.

"First tell me where you have been all night?" Saying this he placed his hand heavily on her shoulder.

"A matter of business necessitated my presence elsewhere," she answered, looking straight into his face.

For answer he uttered a short, incredulous whistle, and an ugly smile stole over his handsome face. However, he moved aside and allowed her to pass.

"I have sat up for you all night. I think you might say thank you," he observed. "I saw you go, and I guessed you'd gone after Maurice, and I knew you'd soon be back again. I know his character, and you evidently don't. However, there's nothing like learning by experience. You'll realize now that your best friend on earth is my mother and——"

But the end of the sentence was lost on Marie; already she had left the room and was wearily dragging herself upstairs.

The one person on earth, whom she knew was most capable of cruelly misconstruing her night's harrowing adventure, was already in possession of the leading facts of the case. She was too tired to be capable of feeling more than passing fear at the discovery. To whatever evil purpose he intended putting his knowledge, she was incapable of averting it. With rest and merciful sleep, strength to know how to act would come.

In ten minutes her head was resting thankfully on her pillow, and a few moments later she was fast asleep.

And as she slept it seemed to her that someone sat at her side guarding her, and that from time to time a gentle hand smoothed back her hair, and murmured soothing words. Even in her sleep she was grateful for those soothing words which came in answer to broken sobs that spoke of cruel anguish, so deep that merciful sleep could not stifle it.

Hours passed. It was eleven o'clock before Marie awoke. The first person on whom her eyes rested was Laura.

"Where is Maurice?" asked the latter, quickly.

"He leaves England to-day," was the reply. "I am so glad! I left him at Waterloo station. Laura, it is right that someone besides our two selves—Maurice and I—should know all that happened last night, and I will confide in you. You will keep it all perfectly secret?"

"Yes. Can you doubt it, Marie?"

Then, in a low whisper, Marie described all that had befallen her, and Laura listened with breathless attention, which became intensified as the few words with Derrick were repeated.

"O Marie, I wish that you had confided in me," she exclaimed. "Derrick and mother are always united. You and I must be united. If not," she sighed, shook her head, then jerked out, "something terrible will happen. Even united, we may not be strong enough to withstand them. But separate! There is no hope for us."

For answer Marie's arms stole round Laura's neck and lingered there. It was an action more eloquent than words and sealed their silent vow of unity.

"Poor Maurice!" murmured Laura. "If——" she stopped. There was a knock at the door!

"See who it is," whispered Marie.

But before Laura could act on the suggestion, the door was opened slightly, and a voice—Lady Rylmer's—asked: "Can I come in?"

"Yes, Aunt Rylmer," was the reply.

But there was a lack of warmth in Marie's voice.

"Laura! This is not right of you!" exclaimed her mother, indignantly. "Your cousin must be feeling ill after—but I daresay you know nothing of the unfortunate occurrence. However, leave the room now."

The last word was accompanied by an authoritative wave of the hand, which admitted of no opposition.

As the door closed behind Laura, her mother swept across the room and sat down by the bedside. She was always well dressed now. Tall, handsome, graceful, with a figure that many women of twenty might envy, she looked an attractive woman — one born to play a leading part.

"O, Marie, I am so grieved!" she began, in a tender voice.

"Grieved at what, aunt? I do not know to what you refer."

"At the false step you have taken. I have believed in you and trusted you implicitly since the day that you arrived in England. Nothing would have made me doubt your perfect trustworthiness except the evidence of an eye-witness, and——"

"Lady Rylmer, I have done nothing wrong," interrupted Marie, flushing up. "My conscience is clear, absolutely clear. Please understand that I am as worthy of being trusted now as when my father trusted me implicitly in those happy days when I was all to him. The recollection of his goodness, and dear mother's heroic goodness, too, will stand always between me and the possibility of wilfully doing a wrong deed."

"It is because I placed so much faith in you that my disappointment is so great," continued Lady Rylmer. "Your father must have had faith in you, and so must your mother. O, Marie, how could you act in a manner that would hurt our feelings so much?"

"Again I declare that I have done nothing wrong!"

"Did you not follow Maurice to London last night?" The question was sharply asked.

"I will not answer that question," came quickly in reply.

THE AGE OF RECIPROCITY.

It has just been pointed out, as among the fragments of freer trade literature now so interesting to our neighbours, that the idea of reciprocity is no new one, but that the principle, as one adopted by the United States, is as old as their Government. In fact, it was originally put forth by one of the Fathers of the Republic. During Washington's first administration, in 1793, Thomas Jefferson, as Secretary of State, made a report to the House of Representatives. This report was in answer to a resolution of the House of February 23, 1791, calling upon the Secretary of State to report to the House "the nature and extent of the privileges and restrictions of the commercial intercourse of the United States with foreign nations, and the measures which he should think proper to be adopted for the improvement of the commerce and the navigation of the same."

Jefferson appears to have gone very fully into the subject, and after showing in detail how the commerce and navigation of the United States with other countries stood, he proceeded: "Such being the restrictions on the commerce and navigation of the United States, the question is, in what way they may be best removed, modified, or counteracted. As to commerce, two methods occur: First, by friendly arrangements with the several nations with whom these restrictions exist; or, second, by the separate act of our own Legislature for countervailing their effects. There can be no doubt but that, of these two, friendly arrangement is the most eligible.

"Instead of embarrassing commerce under piles of regulating laws, duties, and prohibitions, could it be relieved from all its shackles in all parts of the world, could every country be employed in producing that which nature has best fitted it to produce and each be free to exchange with others mutual surpluses for mutual wants, the greatest mass possible would then be produced by those things which contribute to human life, and human happiness, the numbers of mankind would be increased and their condition bettered.

"Should even a single nation begin with the United States this system of free commerce, it would be advisable to begin it with that nation, since it is one by one only that it can be extended to all. Where the circumstances of either party render it expedient to levy a revenue by way of impost on commerce, its freedom might be modified in that particular by mutual and equivalent measures, preserving it entire in all others.

"But should any nation, contrary to our wishes, suppose it may better find its advantages by continuing its system of prohibitions, duties and regulations, it behooves us to protect our citizens, their commerce and navigation, by counter prohibitions, duties, and regulations also. Free commerce and navigation are not to be given in exchange for restrictions and vexations, nor are they likely to produce a relaxation of them.

"The following principles, being founded in reciprocity, appear perfectly just, and to offer no cause of complaint to any nation:

"When a nation imposes high duties on our productions, or prohibits them altogether, it may be proper for us to do the same by theirs, first burdening or excluding those productions which they bring here in competition with our own of the same kind; selecting next such manufactures as we take from them in greatest quantity, and which, at the same time, we could the soonest furnish to ourselves or obtain from other countries, imposing on them duties lighter at first, but heavier and heavier afterwards as other channels of supply open. Such duties, having the effect of indirect encouragement to domestic manufactures of the same kind, may induce the manufacturer to come himself into these States, where cheaper subsistence, equal laws, and the vent of his wares, free from duty, may insure him the highest profits from his skill and industry."

This should certainly afford those in the United States who are opposed to reciprocity, but do not wish to drift about alone, a plank to walk ashore on. Jefferson did not anticipate much reciprocity, and his report is like the busy bee, it carries its sting in its tail. The report is the first recommendation to seek reciprocity, but it is also the first advice to practice protection. Now that the vastness of the industries of the United States—fostered, encouraged and developed by protection—and the great combinations of capital, have placed the country in a position to compete with most of the older countries; now that there is little danger of the older countries being able to ever again become competitors of any account in the home market of the United States, our neighbours can well afford to resurrect the advice of Jefferson and show that it favoured reciprocity.

In Canada we are by geographical position, the contiguity of certain raw materials, the ease with which they can be assembled and facilities for shipping the manufactured product, in a better position than the United States was when they began to assert their industrial independence. We are in a better position to compete with our great industrial neighbour than any other country on earth is.

Shall we do so?

Shall we, too, profit by the wise words of Jefferson, given to his fellow citizens, over a hundred years ago? Do we not already begin to realize the truth of his closing lines? "Such duties, having the effect of indirect encouragement to domestic manufactures of the same kind, may induce the manufacturer to come himself into these States, where cheaper subsistence, equal laws, and the vent of his wares, free from duty, may ensure him the highest profits from his skill and industry."

We have seen manufactures grow up in Canada, become prosperous, give employment to our mechanics and profit to our capitalists. We are seeing capital from abroad coming into this country to aid in developing our resources, converting our raw material into manufactured products. Would these things have come about if we had been continuing the old time practice of simply being a hole in the ground where the neighbouring country came to get raw material when they wanted it? Would many of the outside capitalists have thought of making investments in Canadian industries if the raw material of Canada could be freely carried away to enrich the great industries of their own country, and Canadians were quite content to buy back that material in manufactured state?

Ald. Chausse wants the city to have an opportunity to expend twenty-five thousand dollars a year for a few years upon the renewal of the wooden sidewalks of the streets not blessed with permanent walks. Would the alderman actually deprive Montreal of its ancient ruins?

A physician in the State of Indiana has discovered that consumption may be cured by the smoke of burning leaves. This probably is the reason why so many people make a smoke with burning tobacco leaves. It has also been suggested that there are many books of the day which might fittingly be turned into consumption cure.

A Chicago paper sighs for a "football poet," and wonders when he will make his appearance. Yet has not Alfred Austin figured in that capacity, and was there not even a disposition to utilize one Rudyard Kipling as a football a short time ago? In the United States there are many that the Chicago paper might utilize.

A trans-Alaskan railway company is being promoted in the State of Washington. The object is to build, equip and operate a line of railway and ferry boats, to connect the populous centres of the United States, through Canada and Alaska, with the Trans-Siberian Railway of Russia. The capital is placed at $50,000,000. The probability of the line being built in the life time of the promoters is not great. The Canadian Pacific Railway will probably afford all the ferry accommodation needed ere long, and the people of the populous centres of the United States will be glad to know that there are already connections between their localities and the big Canadian road.

Mr. Seton-Thompson, that great student of the brute creation, who has given the world so much information and enjoyment, has not attained his knowledge of the habits of wild animals without some dangers and difficulties. He has just had an experience in Colorado. He wanted to get a bear, and he went into the woods and baited a trap he had constructed with a young doe, which had been killed by a landslide. The eye of the gamewarden was upon him, and he was promptly arrested for having had venison in his possession out of season. The naturalist and his guide were discharged when the case came before a magistrate, but they did not get the bear, the "venison" was wasted, and the world has probably lost, or been delayed the reading of, a charming story about the habits of that particular kind of bear.

MEETINGS PAST AND FUTURE.

(See also page three.)

THE METAL WORKERS.—The Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers held a meeting last night in St. Joseph's Hall. It was decided to hold a public meeting on the evening of October 24th for the purpose of discussing economic questions. Several well-known speakers will address the gathering.

THE PAINTERS.—The painters and decorators held a special meeting last night in their hall at 595 Craig street. Nineteen new members were initiated. This was a record-breaker. Messrs. G. L. Batcheller and M. Corbin delivered short addresses on the labour movement. The union is in a prosperous condition, and is one of the most enthusiastic in the city.

THE EXCELSIOR LODGE.—An enthusiastic meeting of Excelsior Lodge, I.O.O.F., was held last night in the Oddfellows' Hall, 251 St. James street. Vice-Grand Weaver was in the chair. Representatives from the various lodges were present, and it was decided to play the first game in the euchre league on November 6th between Mizpah Lodge and the Excelsior.

UNITY LODGE.—Unity Lodge, No. 196, I.O.G.T., St. Catherine and Mountain streets, held open house on Monday evening, additional interest being lent to the occasion by the presence of the visiting members and their friends from Metropolis Council. An enjoyable evening was spent with "music, song and story," after which the merry throng partook of coffee and cake. Chief Templar Bro. McQuaid acted as chairman, and the following took part in the programme that was furnished: Piano solo, Mrs. Lamontagne; recitation, Miss Best; song, Mr. Brown; piano solo, "Happiness," Mr. Gordon H. Benson; duo for mandolin and guitar, Messrs. A. Norwood and Geo. Lauder; recitation, Mr. H. Salmon; song, "Soldier's Farewell," Mr. Geo. Best; address, Mr. H. G. Benson; reading, Mr. H. Walker; piano solo, "Simple Aveu," Miss Adelaide Hunter. The entertainment closed with a short address by Mr. G. Secord.

If Your Pastor Says It

You are inclined to give weight to a statement. When a clergyman publicly lends his approval to an article, it argues a high degree of merit. Many clergymen have given us testimonials for our foods—Granose and Granola—showing their value as body-builders, health-imparters, and strength producers. Rev. W. G. Howson, of Clinton, writes: "We have found the Cereal preparations sold by you to be just as they are represented, as far as we can judge. We have recommended them to our friends, some of whom are using them regularly. Your Caramel Cereal is the best substitute for coffee we have ever used. It is a delicious beverage when properly prepared."

Sufferers from indigestion and constipation have a boon in these foods, for they are invaluable in correcting all stomach and bowel troubles. Do not accept any substitutes.

We sang the first verse of one of these songs to Don. Joe Stafford's dog. He set up a wail as long as the wind, disappeared, and hasn't been seen since.—Genesee News.

"C. M. G."

A Colonial Governor was once voyaging to his colony in the West Indies by way of New York. His trunks were marked with "C. M. G." after his name, and some of the passengers on the way down the Caribbean from New York showed some anxiety as to their meaning, especially as their bearer apparently considered himself a superior person. His Excellency had even checked the captain one day for calling him Mr. Blank, intimating that he should be addressed as "Governor." A curious passenger asked the captain once what C. M. G. stood for. "Oh," replied the genial Yankee skipper, "I guess they're for 'Call Me Governor.'"

THE IRONY OF FATE AND LOVE LETTERS.

I wrote her letters daily,
With love in every line;
I wrote of all the glory
I'd win when she was mine;
I wrote to praise her beauty,
My every thought, indeed,
I tried to put on paper
For her alone to read.

She gathered up my letters,
All—all of them she took
And sought and found a printer,
To put them in a book;
She published them, and called them
"Love Letters of a Fool."
And sold a million copies
Before the types were cool.

A PECULIAR THREAT.

Bank President Required to Rob His Own Institution.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 16.—C. R. Carpenter, president of the Commercial and Savings Bank of Racine, has received a mysterious letter, in which injury was threatened to his son or wife in case he refused to participate in the robbery of his own institution. He was told that if he was willing to act with the robbers, he should walk down Racine street at a specified time with a red carnation in his buttonhole. Failing to appear, the kidnapping of his son, Russell, was threatened, or, if foiled in this, injury to his wife. The matter was reported to the police, who have thus far been unable to find a clue to the miscreants. Mr. Carpenter, who is a delegate to the American Bankers' Convention, now in session here, has confirmed the story in every detail.

Returns to England for Trial.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, October 16. — John William Wallace, alias Brown, the English embezzler arrested in this city on September 17th as he landed from the Elder Dempster steamer Lake Megantic by High Constable Gale, will be sent back to England to stand his trial in a few days. Yesterday the extradition papers reached Quebec, and Wallace was immediately brought from the gaol to court. When the accusation and extradition papers were read to him he admitted his guilt and consented to go back to England to stand his trial. An officer and his wife will accompany him.

Faith-Curists Indicted for Murder.

HAMILTON, Ohio, October 16.—The Butler county grand jury, has reported indictments for manslaughter against Sylva Bishop and his wife, Leota, faith curists. Last July, their eight-year-old child, Esther, was terribly burned by a gasolene explosion, and the Bishops refused to call a doctor. They surrounded the child's recusne, offering prayers for her recovery. Coroner Sharkey, in his verdict, said that medical attention would have saved the girl's life. A second indictment for criminal neglect was returned against the father.

THE MASSENA CANAL.

Water Turned Into it and Plant of St. Lawrence Power Company Set in Motion.

(Special to the Star).

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., October 16.—Water has been turned into the Massena Canal and the wheels of the plant of the St. Lawrence Power Company set in motion. It is the greatest power plant in the world, surpassing that at Niagara in the amount of power produced, and, as an engineering achievement. Hon. Albon Mann, of New York, who spent his youth in this section and is familiar with engineering, first realized the possibility at Massena, and set about for their development and to him is due the credit for starting this great enterprise. The present company was capitalized at six million dollars and already five million dollars has been spent upon construction. The canal will ultimately deflect a stream of water 265 feet wide and 25 feet deep from the St. Lawrence, carrying it three miles down a considerable fall to the Grasse River, through which it again finds its way to the St. Lawrence. At Massena the wheels work horizontally while at Niagara they are at the bottom of a perpendicular shaft 150 feet in depth.

Several Church Appointments.

Broke Ballooning Records.

PARIS, October 16.—Comte de la Vaulx, in an interview published to-day, says that while he failed to cross the Mediterranean, he succeeded in breaking all ballooning records, as he remained in the air more than 41 hours, during which time he succeeded in keeping the balloon from two to four metres above the level of the sea, thus solving the problem of maintaining stability. He says he could have remained up for forty-eight hours but would have been driven ashore.

EVENTFUL DAY FOR ROYAL PARTY

ST. LAWRENCE TRIP WAS THOROUGHLY ENJOYED.

Brockville Greeted the Royal Visitors With a Splendid Display of Fireworks and Bonfires — The Train Then Proceeded to Cardinal Where Last Night Was Spent.

(From the staff correspondent of the Star with the Royal party.)

ON BOARD THE ROYAL TRAIN AT CARDINAL, Ont., October 15.—The royal train arrived at Cardinal this evening with the royal visitors tired by a day filled to overflowing with eventful experiences, but with their Royal Highnesses invigorated by the St. Lawrence breezes and charmed with the beauties of the Thousand Islands. On board the magnificent new steamship Kingston, of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company line, the Duke, wearing a black Derby hat and a dark suit, strolled informally about the vessel, apparently thoroughly enjoying the wonderful scenery through which the Kingston during the day passed.

It was one of the most pleasant days spent during the whole of the Royal tour in Canada. The party arrived in Kingston shortly before noon and there were many things for the royal party to do. The limestone city, which has so many historical memories of Sir John Macdonald, was ready for the royal visitors. It seemed as though the shadows of this sturdy old imperialists has about the place and rejoicing in the heartiness of the welcome to Royalty. There was history on every side. As the royal visitors stepped upon the rich crimson carpet cannon boomed in royal salute from Frederic, the site of the old French fort Frontenac founded in 1662. Mayor Kent stepped up and welcomed the Duke and Duchess and then away to the City Hall where addresses were presented.

At Queen's University in addition to the conferring of the degree of LL.D. upon the Duke and the laying of the corner stone of the new arts building of the University by His Royal Highness, there was a shapely young elm planted on the University grounds by royal hands. All this was done to the accompaniment of hearty cheers from the students, male and female, who occupied an immense stand in front of the royal dais.

THE UNIVERSITY'S ADDRESS.

The royal pair had to go into a cave like receptacle to receive the address of the University from Chancellor Sir Sanford Fleming, K. C. M. G., whose venerable appearance and dignified bearing added much to this great day in the history of Queen's. He was assisted by Rev. James Barclay of Montreal. There was a figure in an opposite window watching the ceremony, Rev. Dr. Grant who had just received a private visit from his future King and Queen and who had pinned upon his breast by the Duke the insignia of a noble order, watched with interest the inspiring scene. The address of the Chancellor alluded to the fact that the charter of the University had been granted by the late Queen Victoria and that upon the occasion of the visit of the Prince of Wales, now the King of England, some forty one years ago, that he had liberally endowed the University to the encouragement and to the advancement of learning. The Duke in his reply referred in striking language to the manner in which the Dominion of Canada had boldly pushed forward a comprehensive system of education which was remarkable taking into consideration the enormous area of country covered.

He strongly commended the foundation and maintenance of these colonial centres of learning, alluding to the culture which could only be obtained by University training.

TRIP ON ST. LAWRENCE.

After an inspection of the cadets at the Royal Military College, the Royal pair and their suite partook of luncheon and afterwards sailed by the Richelieu & Ontario steamer Kingston for Brockville. The day was a beautiful one. A nice breeze rippled the tops of the waves and sent a picturesque night caps rolling across the St. Lawrence. There was a distinguished company on board. In addition to the Duke and Duchess, there were Prince Alexander of Teck, Lord Wenlock, the Duke of Roxburgh, Viscount Crighton, Sir Charles Cust, Sir Donald Wallace, Rev. Canon Dalton, the Countess of Minto, Lady Mary Lygon, Hon. Mrs. Derek Keppel, Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Mrs. Justice Britton, and Mr. C. F. Gildersleeve, of Montreal.

The beautiful new boat of the line was luxuriously fitted up for the trip and presented a fine appearance. Shortly after two o'clock the steamer left her dock and headed down the river amid hearty cheering from the thousands on the pier and in the vicinity. During the journey down the Duke and Duchess sat out on the deck watching the picturesque scenery as the vessel steamed down the river.

AT GANANOQUE.

At Gananoque, a most enthusiastic reception was given the Duke and Duchess. At this place there were hundreds of children lined up who sang patriotic songs and cheered lustily as the steamer paused for a few minutes in her course down the river. As the Royal party went through the narrow channels of the river, the Royal visitors turned greatly interested in the magnificent residences along the shores of the islands. During the afternoon Mr. C. F. Gildersleeve, of Montreal, general manager of the Richelieu & Ontario Steamship Company, presented the Duchess, in the name of the Company, with a beautifully bound volume in leather of views of scenery along the route of the steamship line.

The Duke during the day took occasion to present Mr. Seymour Butler, the assistant superintendent of the Pinkerton New York Detective Agency, who has been accompanying the tour of the Duke and Duchess, with a handsome diamond scarf pin as a souvenir of the Royal visit to Canada.

FIREWORKS AT BROCKVILLE.

As the Kingston neared Brockville, an elaborate fireworks display took place, rockets blazed heavenward and bonfires blazed along both shores. An immense concourse of people had assembled in the vicinity of the landing place to catch, if possible, a glimpse of the Duke, and when the Royal pair appeared at the gangway a great cheer went up.

Their Royal Highnesses were, after being received by Mayor Buell and corporation of the town, immediately driven to the station, where the train left for Cardinal, shortly after seven o'clock. Here the Royal visitors rested for the night.

The Duke and Duchess to-morrow will visit the Victoria Bridge in passing through Montreal to St. John, N. B.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy will join the train at Vaudreuil, accompanying it as far as St. Henri, where he will bid farewell to Their Royal Highnesses.

Lord Strathcona will also board the train at this point for a similar purpose.

FREDERIC YORSTON.

BROCKVILLE'S WELCOME.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., October 16.—Never was Brockville so gaily decorated as yesterday, every citizen putting forth his best efforts to celebrate the brief visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. The Royal party arrived by the steamer Kingston at 6.15 p.m. Their Highnesses were accompanied by Lord and Lady Minto, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Mr. Fielding and others. There was a brilliant display of fireworks from the shore and the island as the steamer approached the town, and the scene was one which will not soon be forgotten. The steamer was met at the landing by a committee consisting of Mayor Buell, Judge McDonald, Senator Fulford, George P. Graham, M.L.A., John Cullett, M.P., Sheriff Dana, and H. A. Stewart, barrister.

A cheer went up as the Governor-General and the Premier emerged from the steamer. When the Duke and Duchess appeared the crowd shouted themselves hoarse, and the band played a few strains of the National Anthem. A beautiful bouquet was presented to their Highnesses by little Dorothy Buell, which was graciously acknowledged. A suitable military escort accompanied the Royal party on the drive from the wharf to the G. T. R. station. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed along the route of the procession and their Royal Highnesses bowed acknowledgments of the welcome accorded them.

The party boarded the Royal train amid the cheers of the crowd and a blaze of fireworks, and in a very few minutes the train left for Cardinal, where the Royal party remained over night.

ANOTHER GIFT FROM TORONTO

TORONTO, October 16—The children of the Duke and Duchess have still something coming to them from Toronto. It was intended to present the Royal children with carved blocks representative of the city's chief public buildings. The Mayor had the matter in hand, for there was some hitch, and the playthings were not ready for presentation when the Royal parents were here.

The Duke's secretary told the Mayor to send them along any time, and they would be acceptable. So, a month or two hence, the little Princes and Princesses will probably be amusing themselves in the Royal nursery knocking the tower off a wooden imitation of the two million and a half dollar City Hall of Toronto.

NEWFOUNDLAND AND FRENCH SHORE QUESTION

A Crisis is Said to be Imminent in the Island Colony—Mr. Chamberlain Blamed for Neglect—Prospects of Confederation With Canada.

LONDON, October 16. According to despatches published yesterday by the Daily Mail, a crisis is imminent in Newfoundland unless the British Government pays more attention to the demands of the colony than has hitherto been the case. A long special from St. John's, says: "Since Mr. Bond, (the Newfoundland Premier), left England last April, he has not received a single word from the Imperial Government regarding a settlement of the French shore question, nor has Mr. Chamberlain answered the despatch from the Newfoundland Government, sent five months ago, urging the Imperial authorities to persuade Sir Wilfrid Laurier (the Dominion Premier) to agree to a ratification of the Bond-Blaine Convention."

The despatch gives the details of the recent Bond-Laurier conference, and asserts that the Dominion Premier based his refusal to agree to ratification on the ground that the Joint High Commission had discussed the matter and that, all being well, the commission would discuss it again.

HALIFAX, N.S., October 16. — "Confederation with Canada is not a live question in Newfoundland at present," declared the Hon. W. H. Harwood, attorney-general of the Ancient Colony, at Sydney yesterday. Mr. Harwood arrived in Sydney Monday night on his way home from Buffalo and New York. He further declared that a number of the supporters of the Bond Government were Confederates, while others were Anti-Confederates, consequently there was little chance of an election with confederation as an issue. Apart from a little newspaper talk the question was rarely discussed. Mr. Harwood left for St. John's last night.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, October 16.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables:

The Daily Mail attaches importance to a letter from its Newfoundland correspondent, setting forth complaints which that colony and its Ministers have to make of the manner in which their affairs have been handled by the Colonial Office. In December the modus vivendi, which has now for more than a decade controlled relations on the French shore, will lapse; and unless the utmost tact is displayed by the Home Government in its treatment of this, the oldest colony of the Empire, the Daily Mail considers that the consequences may be very serious indeed.

IN FAVOUR OF RECIPROCITY.

Significant Action Taken by the Boston Associated Board of Trade.

(Special to the Star.)

BOSTON, Oct. 16. At the annual meeting of the Boston Associated Board of Trade in this city action was taken strongly favouring reciprocity. Jerome Jones, Gorham D. Gilman and F. H. Woodward, the committee to whom was referred the question of custom laws, presented the following resolution on reciprocity, which was unanimously carried:

"Whereas, there is reason for believing that unless the Government of the United States can make satisfactory trade treaties with a number of the great civilized nations of the world, the enormous export trade of this country will in the near future suffer a material decline because of special retaliatory restrictions placed upon our trade, and

"Whereas, treaties to obviate this probable loss have been negotiated by the present administration and the principal of thus defending our commercial interests has been warmly advocated by the late President McKinley, and has been strongly indorsed by his successor, President Roosevelt, there be it

"Resolved, that the Boston Associated Board of Trade earnestly requests the Senators and Representatives from Massachusetts in the United States Congress to give to the reciprocal trade policy of the administration the willing and active support that is needed to give full force and effect to the trade treaties that have been, or may be, negotiated."

The meeting was attended by 100 delegates from the various trade associations of the city.

AT BUFFALO AND GLASGOW.

Canadian Exhibitors Have Made a Fine Record at the Two Big Expositions.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16. Hon. Sidney Fisher, who has just returned from a visit to the Buffalo Exposition, says that although the display from this country is not so compact or so thoroughly representative as at Paris or Glasgow, Canada makes no mean showing at Buffalo. The live stock exhibit has been particularly successful. In dairy cattle the awards in four out of the first five classes will probably come to Canada. Those were Jersey, Ayrshires, Holsteins and French-Canadians. Canadian horses also took a prominent place, the fine exhibit of French-Canadian stock, the Minister of Agriculture says, attracted a great deal of attention, and deservedly, because of its excellence.

Mr. Fisher expresses himself as much pleased to find that there were numerous enquiries from visitors regarding lands in the North-West. The Canadian immigration agents at Buffalo, he says, were very busy answering these inquiries.

With regard to the Glasgow Exhibition, which closes on November 9, Mr. Fisher says that a tremendous business has been done, a result of our display there. People in Glasgow told him they had been astonished at the amount of business resulting from the Canadian exhibit, and he had received communications from several of the exhibitors expressing great gratification at the extension of their trade in new channels.

An American Artist Dies.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., October 16.—Edwin Landseer Harris, the well-known artist, died at his home in this city yesterday, aged forty-three years. Heart disease was the cause. In his earlier career, young Harris devoted his time to studies in pastel work and may be said to have been the originator of that special department of American art. His productions were widely distributed not only in this country, but abroad. He also gained a high proficiency in water and oil colours.

St. John's Cotton Mills.

(Special to the Star.)

DOCTORS MET WITH FAILURE.

Physicians and Surgeons Supply Company of Toronto to be Wound Up.

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, October 16. — After an existence of seven months, the Physicians' and Surgeons' Supply Company, Limited, of Toronto, has collapsed. Chief Justice Meredith has granted an order to have it wound up with reference to the master-in-ordinary to take the accounts. The company owed its organization to the dissatisfaction of certain physicians, who thought they didn't receive proper consideration at the hands of the drug trade, and thought it would be a fine thing to supply themselves with drugs and surgical appliances. Upon this basis the company was formed. It was organized in November last and began business in March, being in the hands of a directorate of doctors. The business which it was expected would be somewhat on the co-operative plan, has not been a success. The assets are worth about $6,800; stock in trade, $3,500; book debts, $1,800; unpaid calls due from shareholders, $1,500. The liabilities will reach $7,000. The chief creditors are: Ontario Bank, $2,900, of which $1,000 is secured; Wampole & Co., $800; J. Stevens & Son Co., $1,500, and Evans & Son, $700. The directors were nine Ontario physicians practising in different towns and cities of the province.

Crowned Heads Will Meet.

LONDON, October 16.—The Rome correspondent of the Times says that King Victor Emmanuel will not meet the Czar at St. Petersburg, but at some other city, where Emperor Francis Joseph will also be present.

It is believed that the chief object of the meeting is to examine the situation in the Balkans, with a view to the antagonism growing between Italy and Austria-Hungary, and the anxiety of Russia to avoid complications.

The date for the meeting has not yet been determined. The King will be accompanied by the Premier and Foreign Minister.

Congregational Federation.

MANCHESTER, Eng., October 16.—Dr. Joseph Parker, chairman of the Congregational Union of England and Wales, proposed yesterday the establishment of a federation of Congregationalism throughout the world, under the title of the United Congregational Church. The assembly voted that a committee should take steps immediately to bring the subject before the subordinate unions.

SCHLEY COURT OF ENQUIRY.

Schley's Flag Lieutenant Commends the Conduct of His Superior Officer at Santiago.

WASHINGTON, October 16.—Only one new witness was heard in detail by the Schley Court of Enquiry, yesterday. This was Lieut.-Commander Jas. H. Sears, who was Admiral Schley's flag lieutenant during the Spanish war. He gave detailed accounts of the entire Cuban campaign. He placed the distance from shore at the blockading at Cienfuegos at from 1 to 4 miles, and at Santiago at from 3 to 6 miles. He expressed the opinion that in the battle of July 3 it had been the Biscaya's intention to ram the Brooklyn.

Mr. Rayner sought to secure the introduction of a brief report of the battle of July 3, which Commodore Schley prepared for transmission to the Secretary of the Navy. It was stated that Commander Sears had taken this despatch ashore to be cabled to the Secretary, but that it never reached that official. The despatch was ruled out on the ground that it was not received, it was not an official communication. It was not read in the court room, but the following is a copy of it:

"The Secretary of the Navy, Washington:

"Spanish squadron came out of Santiago harbour this morning, July 3, at 9.30, and were all captured or destroyed in a running fight to the westward of about three and one half hours. Very few casualties in our fleet, Ellis, chief yeoman, killed, and one man wounded, on Brooklyn. Reports from other ships not in yet. Captain Cook was recalled during the day, and in response to a question by Captain Lemley made an additional statement concerning the retrograde movement of the flying squadron, May 26 to 28. He also said in answer to a question to the court, that Commodore Schley, during the battle of July 3, was "cool, brave and enthusiastic." I could not imagine any conduct in battle more admirable."

DIVORCE CANON DEFEATED.

The Episcopal Laity Will Not Follow Their Bishops in the Matter.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 16. — The troublesome question of marriage and divorce was set at rest for another three years yesterday by the action of the House of Deputies of the Triennial Convention, rejecting both of the proposed canons on the subject, which was passed by the House of Bishops.

The section forbidding the re-marriage of a divorced person by a priest of the Church, together with the whole of canon 36, was rejected. Canon 37, which provides for the disciplining of persons married, after being divorced, met with a similar fate. The House of Deputies passed an amendment to article 10 of the constitution permitting forms of worship.

Both Houses yesterday appointed members of a standing committee on capital and labour.

Rev. Cameron Mann, of Kansas City, was nominated to be missionary bishop of North Dakota, in the place of Rev. Dr. Pierce, who failed of election in the House of Deputies.

Self-expanding.

Your foot spreads when you stand upon it.

Therefore a new shoe which fits it neatly when lifted, must pinch when you bear upon it.

Your foot narrows again, at the ball, when lifted.

Therefore when wear has stretched the leather across the ball of the foot, so that it is comfortable to stand on—the shoe is then too loose when lifted.

This is why it wrinkles, and over runs on the sides.

Now the Resilia Soled Slater Shoe expands when your foot does, and contracts when lifted, making it easy as an old shoe, the first time you wear it.

ROYAL PARTY ON VICTORIA BRIDGE

INSPECTED THE STRUCTURE AND ACCEPTED A SOUVENIR.

An Address Presented and a Suitable Reply Made—Grand Trunk Officials Introduced—Her Grace Interested in the Bridge and Wanted to Know if Horses Crossed.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall bade farewell to Montreal at 1 o'clock this afternoon, when they made their journey through Lachine, St. Henri and Point St. Charles en route to Sherbrooke and the Maritime Provinces.

At the suggestion of Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, the president of the Grand Trunk Railway a suggestion which, when submitted to Their Royal Highnesses, was enthusiastically accepted by them as affording a link between the past and the present it was decided that the Royal train should stop in the centre of the new Victoria Bridge, and that there, as near as possible to the spot where the present King of England had driven the last rivet of the then world famous Victoria tubular bridge, the future King of England should be presented with a souvenir worthy of the occasion, which would mark his visit to the new Victoria Bridge.

BRIDGE GAILY BEDECKED.

Accordingly the management of the Grand Trunk Railway made appropriate preparations for the event. The whole centre span of the new bridge was handsomely decorated with varicoloured bunting, while flags and designs were placed at appropriate intervals in a manner which showed that Mr. Beullac had had the task of decorating the span. Four flat cars had been transmogrified into an impromptu platform, covered with carpet, and made as unlike flat cars as it is possible to imagine. Two gangways with golden rails were placed at each end, while in the centre was a regimental flagstaff with the Royal standard, ready to be hoisted when the Royal party arrived.

All traffic—both vehicular and railway—was stopped over the bridge from noon until after 1 o'clock. The approaches were closely guarded by police, and in the centre of the bridge were the pick of the Montreal police force, under command of Chief Legault, assisted by Inspectors Lancey and Lapointe.

THE VICE-REGAL TRAIN.

About a quarter to one the Vice-regal train, bearing the Governor-General, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the newspaper correspondents rushed through to the south, and the waiting crowd got a glimpse of Lord Minto, of the Premier, and of one or two newspaper men. That was all: the train did not stop. A few minutes later a train backed into the bridge, consisting of the Violet, the special car of the President of the Grand Trunk Railway. From it descended Messrs. G. B. Reeve, second vice-president and general manager; Joseph Hobson, chief engineer; Frank W. Morse, third vice-president; William Wainwright, comptroller; F. H. McGuigan, general superintendent; J. E. Dalrymple, assistant to the general manager; G. M. Loud, general freight manager; W. McNab, assistant engineer; W. D. Robb, superintendent of motive power; and J. McWood, car superintendent. They were received by Mr. H. R. Charlton, chief of the advertising department, who had carried out all the arrangements for the reception without a hitch.

THE ROYAL PARTY.

Sharp at 1 o'clock, the Royal train entered the bridge, and a few minutes later drew up at the improvised platform. A second or two, then Col. Sherwood, Chief of Dominion Police, jumped from the moving train, closely followed by two Dominion policemen, who placed themselves on each side of the train. There was some trouble in making the gangway connect with the platform of the train, and Prince Alexander of Teck took hold of the rail as if he were to the manner born. Then Her Royal Highness came out, looking none the worse for her long railway trip of nearly 7,000 miles. She was dressed in a plain black costume en train, with one of those simple bonnets which she so affects. The Duke of Cornwall soon followed; he was dressed in a dark tweed suit and light overcoat with bowler hat. Their Royal Highnesses were received by Mr. G. B. Reeve, who shook hands with His Royal Highness, and then formally introduced Messrs. Hobson, Morse, Wainwright and McGuigan to the future King. His Royal Highness shook hands cordially with them.

ADDRESS TO THE DUKE.

Mr. Reeve then made the following address:

Your Royal Highness now stands where your illustrious father, the King, stood, on the 5th day of August, 1860, when he drove the last rivet in the Victoria Bridge, which was considered at that time one of the wonders of the world.

The enormous increase in traffic of the country made it necessary in 1897 to reconstruct the bridge, substituting for the single track tubular bridge, the one you see to-day, with double track and double roadway, which is known as the Victoria Jubilee bridge, in honour of Our Most Gracious Majesty, the late Queen.

Early in the spring, when our president, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, paid his annual visit, he suggested that we should take advantage of the occasion of the visit of Your Royal Highness to present a souvenir, which I have a great deal of pleasure in doing, and trust that you will accept it, and before closing, unless Your Royal Highness commands to the contrary, I would desire on behalf of my colleagues and myself to bid you adieu, expressing their wishes and my own that Her Royal Highness and yourself may have a pleasant voyage across the Atlantic and a safe landing on the shores of dear old England.

At the close of the address, the General Manager handed to the Duke a handsome leather case containing a souvenir history of the two Victoria bridges, printed on satin, which His Royal Highness was pleased to accept.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS' REPLY.

In reply the Duke of Cornwall and York expressed his thanks to the management of the Grand Trunk Railway for the care they had taken of the Royal train since it had been upon their system, and stated that it was a great pleasure to identify himself with such a wonderful enterprise as the Victoria Bridge with which his dear father's name was so intimately connected. He wished every prosperity to the Grand Trunk system and would have great pleasure in telling his father, the King, of his visit to such an interesting link between the present and the past as the Victoria Bridge.

The Duchess who was presented with a magnificent basket of roses, showed great interest in the proceedings. She asked how long the bridge was, and enquired whether horses were allowed to traverse it, owing to the risk of accident; but was speedily assured by the presence of a habitant's hay cart which had, somehow or other, got past the guards and was drawn up alongside the fence, separating the railway track from the roadway. The French-Canadian horse was apparently not the least bit alarmed and the Duchess got an object lesson as to the safety of the Victoria Bridge.

Their Royal Highnesses consented to allow their photographs to be taken by Mr. Swan, the official photographer of the Grand Trunk system, and after shaking hands with all the railway officials present re-entered their car. Their Royal Highnesses invited Mr. Reeve to enter with them and when the General Manager came out he bore with him a very handsome monogrammed jewel box, and two autograph photographs of Their Royal Highnesses.

The train then continued on its journey amid hearty cheers, and the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York bade farewell to Montreal.

ROYALTY AGAIN IN MONTREAL

DUKE AND DUCHESS ON THEIR WAY EAST.

Hearty Receptions on Their Route—At Cornwall They are Presented With Set of Lacrosse Sticks for the Royal Children—Welcome at Cardinal.

ON BOARD ROYAL TRAIN, MONTREAL, October 16.—An immense number of people gathered in the early morning to-day at Cardinal, Ont., to see the royal party begin its last day's travelling in the province of Ontario. The morning was cloudy, and occasionally a drizzling rain fell. As early as six o'clock there were many who had congregated about the carriages in an effort to catch a last glimpse of the royal pair. The start was made from Cardinal at 9.45, and hearty cheers were given for the Duke and Duchess as the train rolled out.

The royal carriages rolled into Cornwall at 10.40, and here Their Royal Highnesses received a very warm welcome. A large number of children were at the station, who cheered lustily and waved small flags as the train arrived. Here a stop of about two minutes was made, and an address was presented to Their Royal Highnesses by Mayor P. Campbell.

An interesting feature of the reception at Cornwall was the presentation to Their Royal Highnesses by the citizens of a complete set of lacrosse sticks for the children of Their Royal Highnesses. The sticks were encased in a beautifully gold mounted case, bearing a suitable inscription. A set of flag poles and ball accompanied the sticks.

All along the route between Cornwall and Montreal large numbers of cheering people were encountered, and there was a splendid demonstration as the royal train rolled through the suburbs of Montreal.

ST. LOUIS BONUS BY-LAW.

The voting in the municipality of St. Louis, in reference to the granting of a bonus to the L. O. Grothe Company, Limited, began yesterday at 10 o'clock, and was continued until 5 p.m. There were 367 votes cast yesterday and when the poll closed there was a majority of 61 recorded against the granting of the bonus. At two o'clock to-day there is still a majority in the neighbourhood of 60 against it. Those who favoured the bonus worked with a determination and a great many were forced to take the oath during the day. On the other hand the opposition left no stone unturned in order to defeat the by-law. The opposition was jubilant last night, when the announcement was made that they had won the first round. To-day there were about 150 members of the Cigarmakers' Union around the hall, and they seemed to be greatly pleased with the result of the first day's voting.

A Demented Chinamen.

A Chinaman was brought before Mr. Recorder McMahon, of Westmount to-day, charged with loitering on the streets and ringing door bells. John did not speak any English, and the Recorder was not well versed in Chinese language, therefore, the interview did not last long. The officers were of the opinion that John was slightly deranged in his mind, and he was remanded for eight days for medical investigation.

Zotique St. Pierre Acquitted.

To-day he was discharged, as there was no evidence against him, and he was given an honourable acquittal.

LT.-COL. MATTICE GETS DAMAGES

THE COURT AWARDS HIM $350 IN HIS SUIT

Against the Montreal Street Railway Company for Injury Caused by Being Tripped by a Fender on the Rear End of a Car—The Company Held to be at Fault.

Mr. Justice Langelier to-day condemned the Montreal Street Railway Company to pay $350, interest and costs, to Lt.-Col. Gregor Mattice, as damages suffered from an accident on December 10th last.

About half past six on that evening, Lt.-Col. Mattice boarded a car at the corner of Craig and Bleury streets to reach his home on Park avenue, near Milton street. Getting off the car at Milton street, he started to cross the track, in rear of the car from which he had alighted. A fender was attached to the rear of the car, and the plaintiff tripped over this, dislocating his left shoulder on the icy track. As a consequence, he will be unable to use his left arm in the future.

The company pleaded that the accident was due to the negligence of the plaintiff, and that in any case he could claim no more than $250, the amount which he had claimed by a notice to the company.

The court held that the fact of having a fender at the rear of the car where there was no need for it, rendered the company responsible. The car shaded the light on the corner of Milton street, so that a man coming from the glare of the light would not be likely to notice the fender. The notice was not absolutely necessary; therefore, the company could not rely on that ground, and was condemned to pay the full amount of $350.

JAS. WHITE, OF MONTREAL, SAVED CHATHAM BOY.

Jumped Into River and Saved Drowning Boy—Council Recommends Him for Royal Humane Medal.

A despatch from Chatham, Ont., to the Star announces that the authorities of that city have discovered the identity of the traveller who, at the risk of his own life, jumped into the river at Tecumseh Park, on August 11th last, and saved the life of the son of Mr. M. Mannion, of that town. The hero is a Montreal man, James White.

A Star reporter called at the residence of Mr. James White, 688 St. Denis street to-day. Mr. White himself is absent in the Ottawa district, where he is just now travelling for a dairy supply company. Mrs. White, however, informed the reporter that he had received a few days ago a letter from one of the councillors of Chatham asking whether he would accept a medal for his brave act.

Mr. White was inclined to make light of the affair, saying that he thought nothing of it. "I can swim like a fish," he remarked, "and was not going to let the boy drown."

Mrs. White says that her husband never told her anything of the occurrence until she asked him what had crumpled his clothes so, when he replied:

"Oh, I jumped in to save a poor little beggar, and did not have time to take off my coat."

He afterwards explained that it was on a Sunday afternoon, and he was sitting in the park almost asleep, when he heard a youthful voice call for help. Jumping up, he saw the lad struggling in the water and just jumped in and pulled him out.

This is not Mr. White's first attempt at life saving. Some years ago, when he lived at Lachine a drowning took place there, a young man going to the bottom of the lake. Mr. White and Mr. Bickerdike, jr., happened to be near by when the young fellow sank. Both of them jumped in to try and save him, they went in time and time again, in a very dangerous spot and at great danger to themselves, and finally succeeded in bringing up the body, but death had occurred.

Mr. White is thirty years of age. His wife, who is naturally quite proud of him, believes that he should take measure to obtain the medal which he has earned, and it is probable that he will do so to please her, although he does not consider he has done anything out of the ordinary.

CITY LICENSE GOOD FOR HORSES AND VEHICLES

A case which caused considerable comment at the time it was on in the Recorder's Court at Ste. Cunegonde has been removed from the courts by the withdrawal of the case from the Court of Appeals by the authorities of the town. On July 24 last, the Recorder of St. Henri, after a long trial, condemned the Montreal Biscuit Company to pay a fine of $15 and costs for one of their drivers who delivered goods from a waggon within the limits of the town. The company had a license from the city of Montreal, but the adjoining town held that this was not sufficient, and that a further license from Ste. Cunegonde must be obtained before the driver could deliver within the limits of the town. The Recorder maintained the view of the town and consequently fined the company.

Messrs. McCormick and Moffatt, attorneys for the Montreal Biscuit Company, entered an appeal in the Court of King's Bench, on July 26. The case would have come up for argument at the next term of that court, but Messrs. McCormick and Moffatt have received notice that the town of Ste. Cunegonde has desisted from judgment, thereby abandoning their claim under the Recorder's judgment, and admitting the correctness of the pretensions of the company.

CANADIAN PACIFIC IS SUING THE CITY.

Before Mr. Justice Langelier to-day was begun the hearing of a highly important case affecting the city. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has taken an action against the city for $38,000 for moneys advanced for the construction of the bridge on Notre Dame street from Berri street to Lacroix street.

The city has inscribed en faux against the plan accompanying the notarial deed produced by the company, and claims that the plan is not the same as that produced before the Council and approved by that body. The claim of the city is ... is not responsible for any portion of the bridge past the west side of Lacroix street. As a matter of fact the bridge extends nearly the whole width of Lacroix street, and that portion of the structure was by far the most costly.

The city has taken a counter-action to obtain the annulment of that portion of the deed between the city and the company which binds the former to contribute towards the cost of the Lacroix street portion of the bridge.

THE LIABILITIES OF THE FIRM.

Lefebvre and Ryan have deposited their bilan in the Superior Court. The assets of the firm consist in the vinegar factory, with its apparatus, and several lots, the property of Mrs. M. T. Lefebvre, one of the partners. These properties are situate on Notre Dame street, on Mance street, and on Park avenue, in the town of St. Louis. Two of them are presently under seizure by the Sheriff of Montreal. They are also heavily affected by mortgages as appears by the assignment made by Mrs. M. T. Lefebvre in her private capacity, in which the liabilities, mostly of a hypothecary nature, amount to $31,170.

The liabilities of the firm amount to about $6,500. The principal creditors are Gooderham and Worts Co., $1,000; the Canadian Bank of Commerce, $2,310, and the John Ogilvie Estate, $700. The principal creditors of Mrs. M. T. Lefebvre are the Masson Estate, $8,500; Hyde and Macintosh, $9,000; Richard Bolton, $4,800, and the Sun Life Assurance Company, $3,000. The private assets of Madame Lefebvre are the same lots of land mentioned in the bilan of the firm.

SEMI-FINALS FOR GOLF CHAMPIONS

TWO LADY COMPETITORS FOR CANADIAN HONOURS LEFT.

Miss Young, of Montreal, and Miss Thomson, of St. John, N.B., Will Fight it Out for the First Canadian Ladies' Championship—A Most Exciting Contest To-day.

The two ladies who will fight out the final round for the golf championship to-morrow at Dixie, will be Miss Young, of Montreal, and Miss Thomson, of St. John, N.B.

The semi-finals were played this morning, Miss Young having a somewhat easy victory over Miss Greene and finishing with 5 up and 3 to play.

The same cannot be said of Miss Thomson's victory over Miss Marler. It required two extra holes to decide who would compete in the final and Miss Thomson won out, a match which at one time Miss Marler had well in hand.

It was a great day for golf. The sky was overcast, making the light just about right. There were a few drops of rain, but not enough to cause anyone to desist following the players around.

The competitors were a little late in getting out this morning, owing to some misunderstanding about the special, which it was said was not to be run in order that the track might be kept clear for the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York special train.

NO TIME WAS LOST, HOWEVER.

No time was lost, however, once the competitors were on the links.

Miss Thomson and Miss Marler drove off first and were followed by Miss Young and Miss Greene and the consolation pairs.

Miss Marler was first to play and drove off beautifully, but Miss Thomson, whose strong point is her driving got the ball further away. Miss Thomson won the first three holes and it commenced to look as if she would win out without playing the course. Miss Marler increased her efforts at this stage of the game and soon showed that she was not going to be so easily disposed of, and her driving and putting was much admired by the small gallery which followed them around. She played on in good form, until coming back over the railway track to the eleventh hole she was one up. She had been two up at the ninth hole, but Miss Thomson won the tenth and cut the lead to one. The play from now on was of a most even character up to the seventeenth hole, with Miss Marler still one up. Here both balls lay on the edge of the hole. It was Miss Marler's put but the wind dropped Miss Thomson's ball into the hole and they were all even once more. The last hole was halved and of course it was now necessary to play an extra hole to get a decision.

A TIE AT THE LAST HOLE.

All interest was now centred in the play of these two ladies. Miss Marler drove well out onto the green, but Miss Thomson drove her ball over into the boundary haztard. It was a bad lie, and she took the caddy in to pull the bushes back, while Miss Linton also went to the rescue. Miss Thomson drove out beautifully, but the holding back of the bushes was a serious breach of the rules, and sufficient to disqualify Miss Thomson had Miss Marler entered protest. They played on down to the hole and halved again.

WON THE SECOND HOLE.

Miss Thomson drove to the second hole in two, but Miss Marler here went all to pieces. She drove her first ball into the road and called for another. This she also placed in the same direction, but within bounds, though a very hard place to get out of. It took two more strokes to place her ball on the green, but it was now Miss Thomson's game and it also assured her her place in the final.

In the other contest between Miss Young and Miss Greene the competition was pretty even for a time, although Miss Greene won the second and third holes after they had halved the first. Miss Young played the second hole very poorly, but after that she regained her form and at the seventh hole was one up. Both were driving the ball very hard and making very few poor strokes. Miss Young, however, seemed more accurate in her placing. The eighth hole was halved and then Miss Young cut loose and won the ninth and eleventh, halving the tenth. The twelfth was won by Miss Greene. The next three went to Miss Young, which made her score 5 up and three to play, which gave her the game. The following is a summary of to-day's play:

CHAMPIONSHIP.

Miss Young, Montreal, defeated Miss Greene, Montreal, 5 up and 3 to play.

Miss Thomson, St. John, defeated Miss Marler, Montreal, 1 up at the twentieth hole.

FIRST CONSOLATION.

Miss Dick, Toronto, defeated Miss Butler, Quebec, 5 up and 4 to play.

Miss Gormully, Ottawa, defeated Miss Hope Sewell, Quebec, 1 up.

SECOND CONSOLATION.

Miss Lambe, Montreal, defeated Miss Bond, Montreal, 4 up and 3 to play.

Mrs. Meredith, Quebec, defeated Miss M. Sewell, Quebec, 2 up and 1 to play.

There were quite a number of competitors for a special handicap prize offered by Mrs. Macdougall. At two o'clock several scores had been turned in. Miss Meredith and Miss Elsie Scott were leading the list.

A SHOP-LIFTER PLEADED GUILTY.

Mary Peloquin Has a Choice Collection of Clothing Which Was Evidently Lifted.

Mary Peloquin, wife of Edward Fortier, broke down completely when she stood before Judge Lafontaine to-day charged with shop-lifting. She pleaded guilty, and made no defence whatever.

Yesterday afternoon she was caught in the act of carrying an eighteen dollar coat from the S. Carsley store. She was at once arrested, and she gave her address as No. 9 St. Charles Borromee street. Her apartments were afterwards searched, and she was found to have an extraordinary good outfit of clothes of all descriptions. Among the things were a coat, wraps and a few other things that belonged to the Carsley Co.

The detectives learned that she visited Morgan's store a few weeks ago, and as there were articles found in her room which came from Morgan's she will be formally charged with stealing them. She has already admitted to the officers that she stole the things. She was remanded for eight days for sentence.

ONE YEAR IN GAOL.

Judge Lafontaine is Lenient With Joseph Giroux, Who Had Nothing to Say in His Defence.

When Joseph Giroux was asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him he replied in the negative. Giroux is the youth who while accountant in the Hochelaga C.P.R. stock yards succeeded in stealing various sums of money to the extent of several hundred dollars. He cleared out one day, and went to England, and on his return to Montreal on Sunday last he was arrested. He was brought before Judge Lafontaine to-day, and was a very much broken-down young man. His Honour said that his previous record had been a good one, and but for this he would have been sent to the penitentiary for three years. As it was His Honour thought that a shorter sentence would fit the case, so he sent Giroux to the common gaol for one year.

SUIT FOR $195,000 ENTERED IN COURT

MACKENZIE AND MANN SUED FOR THIS AMOUNT.

The Plaintiffs are Messrs. Ryan & MacDonnell, Who Had a Sub-Contract From Them on the Inverness & Richmond Railway—Failed to Complete it in Time.

A railway case involving a large sum of money has just been taken out by Messrs. Macmaster, Maclennan and ...son, acting for Messrs. Ryan and MacDonnell, railway contractors, against Mackenzie, Mann and Co., and Mr. Donald D. Mann, personally.

The claim is for the sum of $195,154.97, and the claim is for several items.

In July, 1899, the Messrs. Ryan and MacDonnell took over a contract which Messrs. Mackenzie, Mann & Co., had received from the Government of Nova Scotia, for the building of the Inverness and Richmond railway in Cape Breton. If the work were not finished by December, 1900, the defendants were to take over the plant and continue the work.

This they did, but the plaintiffs' claim that if they did not finish the work in time it was due to delays caused by the defendants and by the orders of the manager acting for Mackenzie, Mann & Co., who usurped the place of the engineer even when an engineer was on the works and prevented the plaintiffs and their sub-contractors from carrying on the work.

Ten miles of the road leading to where the contract began, which was to have been graded was not finished in time, and the plaintiffs claim this retarded them. The defendants were to furnish right of way and lay out the road, and this plaintiffs claim was not done in time.

In any case the plaintiffs claim that the taking over of the horses, materials, plant and other belongings of theirs by the defendants on December 11, 1900, was illegal, because the manager in charge for defendants had given notice on December 6 that if the work did not go on for six consecutive days he would take possession of the plant. The six days had therefore not elapsed on the 11th when he took over the work.

The plaintiffs moreover complain that they were unable to obtain estimates for the month of November and the twelve days in December from the aforesaid manager and that they were thus deprived from receiving the ninety per cent. of the value of their work and material and that the said manager incited their labourers to take action against plaintiffs, who were thus put to great expense.

They also object to the classification of the work and materials made by the manager in which hard pan was put down as earth, and solid rock as loose rock. Under this head alone they claim $30,791, which, with $52,000 for their horses and implements, $11,893 for extra work and various other items for work and expenditures made for and on behalf of Mackenzie, Mann & Co., raises the amount of the plaintiff's claim to $195,154.97.

HON. MR. BLAIR SPEAKS AT ST. JOHN.

(Special to the Star.)

ST. JOHN, N. B., October 16.—C. A. Duff Miller, agent-general of New Brunswick in Great Britain, was tendered a complimentary dinner at the Union Club last night. Hon. A. G. Blair, who was present by invitation, in proposing "Our Commercial Interests," said, among other things "Here in St. John a better day is dawning. We can confidently look for an increase in our exporting and importing business, because the business in the country behind this national gateway is increasing. St. John occupies the most commanding position to receive a large share of the business—at least during the winter season."

Referring to the fact that to-day the two great railway lines entering St. John were working in harmony to bring business to St. John, he was glad to know that the great Canadian Pacific Railway had settled its policy to do its utmost in the direction of making St. John its export port during the close of navigation of the St. Lawrence River. So far as the Intercolonial Railway is concerned, he would not hesitate to say that all that he could do to further the interests of this port would be done, because it was, in his opinion, the proper Canadian idea to build up the national ports on the Atlantic seaboard. The city had put its shoulder to the wheel in a manner which the future would demonstrate was for the best interests of St. John. He trusted St. John's hopes and aspirations in this regard would be fully realized, and as an individual, as St. John's member of Parliament, and as a Minister of the Crown, he would spare no interest in this direction."

The gathering was a very representative one. Premier Tweedie and Attorney-General Pugsley represented the Provincial Government. Mayor Daniel presided. Lieutenant-Governor McClelan was also present.

THE CESAREWITCH TO-DAY.

LONDON, October 16.—Balsarroch won the Cesarewitch stakes at Newmarket to-day.

The race is a handicap of 25 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, for three year olds and upwards, over a course of two miles, two furlongs and 35 yards. Black Sand was second, and Rambling Katie third. Twenty-three horses ran.

A CLASH AT HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, N. S., October 16.—There is a clash between the Imperial and Civic authorities over the reception to the Duke of Cornwall and York. Col. Biscol, acting Commander-in-Chief, gave two citizens permission to erect a stand on the Commons for Saturday's review. The city authorities ordered it removed and the commander says he will call troops to protect it. Thousands of citizens are on the Commons expecting a fight between the police and the soldiers and the whole population is incensed at the Imperial authorities. A truce has been called till three o'clock.

WEAKNESS IN WALL STREET.

Another Selling Movement in Copper Depressed the Market.

(From the Special Correspondent of the Star in Wall Street.)

NEW YORK, October 16.—The principal feature of the early stock speculation was the heavy selling of Amalgamated Copper, which suffered a loss of about 3 points. In other parts of the list there was a firm opening. Pennsylvania, in anticipation of an extra dividend, and a few other stocks, made fractional gains, but the break in Amalgamated exercised a depressing influence and the entire list gave way. With the exception of Smelting, Anaconda, Metropolitan and Chicago Terminal preferred, which ran off from 1 to 2, declines were very moderate, and there was no pressure to sell prominent railways. At the lower range of prices the general market became dull.

Advices received at Madrid from Rio Muni, a Spanish possession on the west coast of Africa, say that some cannibals who recently captured seven Spanish marines have eaten the prisoners.

TEN NEW SEATS ON THE EXCHANGE

PROPOSITION STOCK BROKERS WILL VOTE UPON.

The Last Seat Sold Realized $12,000, and at This Price a Big Addition Would be Made to the Board's Funds—A New Building Also Projected.

In a few days the members of the Stock Exchange will vote on a proposition to create ten new seats, thus raising the limit from forty, as at present, to fifty seats.

It is not so very long ago that a similar proposition made by Mr. Rodolphe Forget was voted down, the majority of the members at that time not looking upon the move with approbation.

Since then, however, many of the members who were opposed at that time have changed their views and are now understood to be willing to support the amendment to the by-laws. There is still some opposition, and only a vote will tell whether the new seats will be created or not.

The value of seats is now nominally $12,000, the last transaction having taken place at those figures, although a few days ago a well known broker announced his willingness to purchase six seats for $90,000 or at the rate of $15,000 each, but that is generally regarded in the nature of a sporting offer with large odds in favour of its not being taken up.

Presuming that the ten new seats are created, and a market made for them at say $12,000 each, the question arises what would be done with the $120,000 which would come into the possession of the Stock Exchange Association. In that connection there is some interesting gossip which may have little or much foundation, but at present everything is in an embryonic condition on account of the uncertainty attending the fate of the proposed amendment to the by-laws.

One suggestion is made that the fund thus obtained might be used as the nucleus for the erection of a Stock Exchange building that would be a more elaborate home for its members than the present quarters while at the same time being an ornament to the business part of the city.

The gossip in that connection even goes as far as to suggest that the vacant lot on St. James street, opposite the Star Office, would make an excellent site and in that relation it is pointed out that there is little doubt about such a building being a financial success as offices in it would be very desirable, more especially for brokers and others doing business of a financial character.

The Stock Exchange has made great strides in wealth and importance during the past few years, and there has been a growing sentiment in favour of the Association at some time owning a home of its own which would befit the enhanced importance of the organization as well as be a credit to the city. It is pointed out that the existing forty seats alone attain a value of about $500,000, and some of the members think that a body having reached that financial standing might very well put on a little more style than the present quarters afford although they are in many ways convenient and suitable.

The actual space in which the brokers do their trading being approximately worth half a million dollars to them makes it one of the most expensive places in the world to walk. When it comes to a matter of inches it is doubtful whether the New York or London exchanges come so dear as is the space in the Montreal Exchange.

When the present building in which the board room is located was in the market a few months ago on account of the Western Loan and Trust Company being in liquidation, a movement was on foot to make a bid for the building, but through lack of support it fell through, and the building passed into other hands. Some years ago the Stock Exchange quarters were thoroughly renovated, and since then several alterations have been made from time to time to make the members more comfortable.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

BAZAAR.—The ladies of St. Gabriel's Presbyterian Church will hold a bazaar in the lecture room of the church to-morrow, and Friday afternoon, in aid of the Montreal Annex Church.

ANN STREET OLD BOYS.—A meeting of the "old boys" of Miss Barlow's class, of Ann street school, will be held on Monday evening next, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to arrange for the approaching annual reunion.

CEMETERY BY-LAWS.—The Acts and By-laws as amended to date have been issued to the shareholders by the officers of the Mount Royal Cemetery Company. Copies may be obtained on application to the secretary, Mr. George Durnford.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—The annual harvest thanksgiving services in connection with the Church of St. James the Apostle, will be held on Sunday next, the 20th inst. The Right Rev. J. Philip Dumoulin, Lord Bishop of Niagara, whose eloquence always attract Montrealers, will be the preacher, both morning and evening. During his stay in Montreal Bishop Dumoulin will be the guest of Mr. George Durnford at Green Hythe, Westmount.

VICTORIAN NURSE.—The home of the Victorian Order of Nurses, in this city, was the scene of a pretty ceremony on Monday, when Miss Hill, a graduate of the Hamilton Hospital, who has taken the training in district nursing under the Victorian Order, was presented with a medal by Mrs. Geo. A. Drummond, in the absence of Lady Minto, by whom the medals are generally conferred. Nurse Hill will go out to Vancouver, to carry on the work of district nursing there.

MORE LIGHT WANTED.—What might have been a bad accident occurred last night about 7 o'clock. Alexander Lavery, a carter, of Cadieux street, was driving a cab along Mance street, and, when opposite No. 252 of that street, the horse walked into a ditch in the roadway. The animal plunged into the hole, but luckily for Lavery, the harness broke, and thus the driver and waggon remained on the pavement and escaped injury. Captain Martin and his men, of No. 6 Fire Station, succeeded in pulling the horse out. The animal was cut and otherwise injured. The firemen say that the street was very poorly lighted at that place, and that the only obstruction from driving into the ditch was a board fence around the excavation.

Dean Johnson Cannot Go.

Dr. A. Johnson, of McGill, finds it impossible to attend the bicentenary of Yale University, as a representative of his alma mater, Trinity College, Dublin, and Rev. Principal Hackett will take his place. The celebration will begin next Sunday, and continue till Wednesday. Dr. Hackett will start Monday morning.

Sir John Bourinot, K.C.M.G., is also to attend the celebration as a representative of his own alma mater, Trinity College. He is also invited to speak at the banquet given at Delmonico's, New York, in connection with the celebration of King Arthur's famous reign, a 1,000 years ago. Lady Bourinot is also an invited guest.

WEST INDIAN FRUIT TRADE.

What is Being Done to Extend it to Great Britain.

Mr. J. Hirst, a prominent merchant of Jamaica, B. W. I., is in the city for a few days. Speaking of business matters in Jamaica, Mr. Hirst said that the island had not yet recovered from the depression in the sugar business, which has hung over it for some years. The owners of the various plantations in the West Indies were trying to make fruit take the place of sugar. The principal export at present was bananas. The trade originated with the Boston Fruit Company, which now virtually supplies the United States and Canada with bananas. Besides this there is, said Mr. Hirst, every prospect that a large trade in bananas will be opened with England. Already the Elder-Dempster line is running two boats loaded with fruit for that country every week. As the company has furnished its vessels with cold storage departments, and the fruit is landed in prime condition there is certainly no reason why such a trade should not grow very rapidly.

DE LA VAULX' BALLOON TRIP.

He Considers His Experiment Was Useful, if Not Successful.

(Special to the Star.)

PARIS, October 16.—The cruiser Du Chayla, which watched the cruise of the Compte de la Vaulx across the Mediterranean, returned to Toulon at 9 o'clock this morning, with the balloon and passengers aboard. It was found at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, that it would be impossible to cross the Mediterranean, and the Count was taken aboard. There was no accident. Off Port Vendres, the wind changed, and forced Count de la Vaulx landward toward the Pyrenees. Although he failed in his main purpose, Count de la Vaulx contends that his experiment was most conclusive, and most useful. His balloon traversed the sea like a ship for 41 hours, and was always near the surface. This upset the theories that the sea is dangerous to aerostats, and proved, on the contrary, that, with a well-arranged balloon, there is no better field of operation. Count de la Vaulx will repeat his experiment.

ROSEBERY AND SUCCESS.

He Urges Forethought and Condemns British Complacency.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, October 16.—Lord Rosebery last night temporarily abandoned his solitary furrow, in order to deliver an eloquent and interesting address to the Birmingham Institute on the need of forethought. The key-note of his speech was that very sound commonplace, that careful training is necessary for success. He spoke of England's fatal gift of complacency, and expressed the wish that Englishmen were inoculated with a larger supply of nervous energy.

Wilful Murder on Coast.

VICTORIA, B. C., October 16.—The coroner's jury last evening brought in a verdict of wilful murder in the case of Sapper Gill, of the Royal Engineers, who shot and instantly killed Gunner Clinnick, of the Royal Garrison Artillery, on Sunday night. At the inquest it came out that the shot was intended for Gunner Mahoney, who was sitting opposite Clinnick at the card table in the canteen, where the shooting occurred. Gill borrowed a carbine from one of the men in the barracks, and went to the canteen to shoot Mahoney, but for what reason nobody knows. Mahoney himself saying that he can conceive of no reason for it.

Fast Travelling in Germany.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, October 16.—The Berlin correspondent of the Post states that the military railway between Berlin and Zossen, a distance of 50 kilometres (31 miles) has been the scene for more than a month past of experiments in fast travelling, conducted by Siemens and Haste. A few days since, the first trial took place, with one electric motor carriage, built with the object of travelling at 200 kilometres (161 2-3 miles) an hour. A speed of 100 kilometres (62 miles) was attained with perfect safety. In the trial that is now taking place the speed is being gradually increased.

British Submarine Boat Tested.

(Special to the Star.)

BARROW, October 16.—The first British submarine boat tested its air supply yesterday. The vessel was lying dry, but was hermetically sealed. A crew of six men were supplied from compressed air cylinders for three hours. The test was a complete success. The men suffered no inconvenience. A deep sea trial will be made shortly.

Morgan and the White Star Line.

(Special to the Star.)

(Special to the Star.)

BERLIN, October 16.—It is officially stated that Emperor William has conferred upon Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, the Commander-in-Chief of the allied forces in China, the Order of "Pour le merite," with oak leaves.

REPRISALS BY THE BOERS EXPECTED

MILITARY MEN SCAN REPORTS WITH ANXIETY.

Kitchener Making Strenuous Efforts to close the War by the End of This Year—A Bank President on the Effect of the War on South African Trade.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, October 16.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables:

The news from South Africa is scanned daily by military men with intense interest, in expectation that Boer reprisals for the execution of Cape rebels may be recorded. Some of the most experienced soldiers assert that they would describe Botha's unsuccessful raid as the last flash of Boer hostilities, if so many of their previous predictions had not been falsified. They are convinced that Lord Kitchener is making strenuous efforts to bring hostilities to a close before the end of the year, and that the ministers are most anxious to secure this result, and to that end have allowed him to adopt strong measures in dealing with Cape rebels.

About ten thousand Boers and rebels remain in arms. Botha is apparently hard pressed; and Gen. French is only confronted with fragments of commandos and small squads of roving guerillas. DeWett and Steyn have disappeared from the border of Natal, after their unsuccessful attempt to co-operate with Botha in the invasion.

Pronouncements of bank directors about the South African war are always interesting. Sir Spencer Walpole, presiding at the meeting of the Standard Bank of South Africa at Cannon St. Hotel, yesterday, pointed out that war tended to create a trade of its own. There was evidence of this new trade in the fact that British experts to South Africa in the first six months of 1901 were considerably higher than those in the first six months of 1899, a period of peace. During the past two and half years the banks had imported eleven million pounds of coin into South Africa and their reserves now showed only an increase of three millions. It was obvious, therefore, that eight millions required to be accounted for. Sir Spencer Walpole said the explanation was that there was probably a large amount of cash hoarded in various parts of the country awaiting the re-establishment of peace.

CANADIANS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

A Returned Trooper Says That Members of the Constabulary Force are Discontented.

OTTAWA, October 16.—Troopers H. Puncett, Moosejaw, and C. Davis, Sydney, Man., both members of the South African Constabulary, are in the city on their way to their homes. Both are strapping young men, but had to be invalided as the result of severe colds caught, which left serious results behind. Trooper Puncett said he had been invalided because he suffered from bronchitis badly, and he had been in the hospital a good portion of the time he was away. Nine-tenths of the S. A. C. are discontented, said the trooper, and they would come home at once if they could get their discharges.

Estimate of North-West Crop.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16.—C. C. Castle, warehouse commissioner under the Manitoba Grain Act, is in town conferring with the Department of Trade and Commerce. Mr. Castle says that the North-West will have 40,000,000 bushels of wheat for export, but that owing to unfavourable weather since harvest considerable of it will grade lower than was at first expected.

Have Not Received Gratuity.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16.—Mr. Borden, accountant of the Militia Department, yesterday mailed to the chief paymaster at Cape Town a list of Canadian soldiers, numbering about 275, who have not yet received the Imperial war gratuity.

Mr. Kruger's Health.

BERLIN, October 16.—The Muenichenier Zeitung yesterday prints a despatch from Hilversum, which says that Mr. Kruger, in spite of all denials, is seriously ill.

THE HEALTH OF HIS MAJESTY.

Pessimistic Reports Revived, But They are Unreliable.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, October 16.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables:

There has been a marked revival of the unfavourable reports of the King's health, but it is irresponsible gossip based on hearsay evidence. Court functionaries and hospital surgeons cannot learn from any authoritative source that the King is materially worse than he was before he left London for Germany. There has been a great increase of pessimistic talk in the London clubs, but the facts of his condition have not altered, and the ailments reported from Balmoral are not serious.

Preparations for the coronation are in progress, and the King is taking a direct and hearty interest in every detail. Those who have been in consultation with him report that his voice is strong, and that he shows no symptoms of any incurable malady. His mind is clear, his orders are explicit, and, beyond a perceptible increase of irritability and of fussiness, his manner is the same as it was during the early months of the reign. Current reports respecting his declining health are without doubt premature and unauthorized. The King will speedily come to London and silence the alarming rumours, and will convert the return of the Duke of Cornwall from Canada into an imperial function.

LONDON, October 16. — The Chronicle says that a very large insurance on the King's life has been effected at Lloyds by a syndicate of tradesmen and others who will lose heavily if the coronation does not occur next year. The premium paid is high, being ten guineas per cent. The insurance only covers a year from date.

Machines vs. the Celestials.

(Special to the Star.)

VANCOUVER, B.C., October 16. — The canning machines and the heathen Chinese have had a short, sharp struggle for supremacy in the canneries of British Columbia, and the machines have won. At the tail end of the pack all the Chinamen walked out of the canneries wherein machines were set up, and now canners find it almost impossible to contract for Chinese help for next season. In the northern rivers of British Columbia there is still a deadlock. The Chinese bosses say they cannot supply the Chinese for next season, as they are leaving in droves for Puget Sound, smuggling themselves over the line. This machine that has caused all the trouble cuts the fish at right lengths, packs the cans and tops them, doing the work of 40 Chinamen. The Chinese, however, are still employed in soldering the tins and cooking the fish, etc., where they can be had, but they refuse to go where a machine is. Thus the thousands of Celestials who have been making a living every year in the canneries will be forced out of the country, in fact are getting over to the United States in large numbers already. This is proved from the fact that the Chinese bosses who have always made money out of supplying Chinese can no longer guarantee the Chinese labour a year ahead.

Stormont Liberals.

CORNWALL, October 16.—The Liberals of Stormont, in convention at Newington yesterday, selected a candidate for the approaching general election to the Legislative Assembly. The candidate selected was W. J. McCart, a young merchant of Avonmore. Two others were proposed, Dr. Munroe, of Newington, and J. A. Chisholm, of Cornwall, but after several ballots, McCart got a majority vote.

BRITISH TOBACCO TRUST.

Retailers Asked to Assist Manufacturers in Fighting American Competition.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, October 16.—The amalgamation of the leading British tobacco manufacturers has been completed, in accordance with the recent announcement, under the title of the Imperial Tobacco Company. Circulars that have been issued to retailers refer to the absorption of Ogdens, Limited, of Liverpool, by the American Tobacco Company, and say that this was done with the obvious intention of controlling the British tobacco trade. They add: "We cannot suppose that this will be ultimately beneficial to British traders, even although they might, at the outset, be tempted by pecuniary inducements to transfer their allegiance from their own countrymen to those whose homes and interests are in another land." The circulars assure customers that if they remain loyal to British commerce, the company will stand by them, and consider the interest of the retail trade. The company embraces thirteen of the largest firms in Great Britain.

HEART DISEASE.

Some Facts Regarding the Rapid Increase of Heart Trouble.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimiliation of food.

This can be done hy the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full size package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

STRIKES IN SPAIN.

Situation in Madrid and Seville Growing Desperate.

(Special to the Star.)

MADRID, October 16.—There is a general strike of all the workmen, except those in the Gas and Electric works. The bakers are out and there is a shortage of bread. The strikers have resorted to violence in order to close the workshops, and have burned the Octroi offices. The civil authorities are helpless, and have handed the city over to the military officers. The situation is growing desperate.

An extraordinary meeting of the cabinet was held yesterday, under the presidency of the Queen Regent, to consider the outbreaks in Seville and elsewhere. Fresh disturbances are reported at Seville. A mob that was storming the convent of St. Savior was dispersed by the troops, but not until the door of the convent had been burned.

It was decided to-day at a meeting of the stockholders of the Seventh National Bank, New York, to resume business about November 11, and to continue the name of the corporation as the Seventh National Bank.

A few hours after commencing its use I got great relief. Four bottles cured. It is worth its weight in gold."—Frank S. Emerick, Alvinston, Ont. 38

BOILS CURED

When oxygen is lacking in the blood it is generally impure. Oxygen is an element of Nature: it is used by Nature to purify impurities—it is Nature's medicine. That's why Powley's Liquified Ozone is such a valuable preparation to cure blood disorders or system weakness of any kind. Read this evidence.

THE OZONE COMPANY, Ltd., TORONTO, ONT.

Gentlemen: I consider it my duty to inform you that having suffered for 14 years from impure blood and very painful boils, I have been completely cured by using one bottle of your preparation, "Powley's Liquified Ozone." I am thankful to you and gladly give you my testimonial, and should I have any further illness of any description, "Ozone" will be my remedy. I cheerfully recommend its use to all those suffers with whom I come in contact.

(Signed) P. TREMPE, 341 Panet St., Montreal, P. Q.

The way to treat all blood disorders is by taking Powley's Liquified Ozone in internal doses and outward applications. If you suffer from pimples, sores and boils, bathe the parts in hot water to which you have added two tablespoonfuls of Ozone. Directly after bathe in cold water to which has been added the same quantity of Ozone, i. e., two table spoonfuls. It won't take long—It's a simple treatment and you'll be cured.

Our Municipal Institutions.

Ald. Ames lectured, last evening, at the Y. M. C. A., on "the history and development of our local municipal institutions." The lecture was the second in the course on "Municipal Institutions and Their Betterment," and was largely attended. The speaker read copious extracts from various municipal works, showing the manner in which the city's municipal system had been founded and how it had grown. He read a short historical sketch of the founding of Montreal, and described the old regime and its method of conducting the city's affairs. He then dwelt more particularly on certain important phases in the city's history, and showed how its present development had been brought about. He described the efforts that were made to secure a city charter, and then went on to speak of the many changes and additions which had been made thereto, including the changes effected by the last revision. He outlined the manner in which the city had grown, how its wards had been added, what constituted their proper boundaries, and the manner of electing the Mayor and aldermen. He also read a number of statistics showing the population of the city by decades, its area, and its assessed valuation. In this way he gave his hearers a splendid idea of the rapidity of Montreal's growth, in population, in wealth, in area, and in commerce. The next lecture will be given on Tuesday next, and, although intended primarily for Y. M. C. A. members, may be attended by outsiders.

Manitoba Wheat.

(Special to the Star.)

WINNIPEG, October 16.—Wheat, Fort William freight rate, 69c: Brandon freight rate, 56c.

WHEAT WAS WEAK ON CHICAGO MARKET

IT SOLD OFF 1-4C DURING THE FORENOON.

At Liverpool Prices Were Steady and in France They Were Strong — U. S. Consular Reports Predict 349,000,000 Less Grain This Year Than Last.

The Liverpool wheat market was steady to-day, Dec. closing unchanged at 5s 8d; March closing 1-8d up at 5s 9 1-4d. Antwerp was unchanged at 15 3-8 for No. 2 red winter. Paris was 20 up, Oct. closing at 20.95. Jan and April closing at 22.00. London reported Walla Walla, Dec. and Jan, 27s 9d, Nov. and Dec., 27s 7 1-2d; on passage, quiet but not active.

Weather was rainy in England and fair in France.

The Bartlett, Frazier Co.'s private cable quoted Dec. options at Chicago this forenoon as follows: Wheat, 1-4c down at 70 1-8c; corn, 1-4c down at 56 1-4c; oats, steady at 35 1-8c.

The United States Government consular report on Russian crops from Russian Minister of Finance reaches 33 million less wheat, 219 million less rye, 97 million less oats, aggregating 349 million less grain than last year.

The preliminary official estimate of the French wheat crop of 1901 has recently been issued, as also has that of the crops of rye and maslin, the crop last named being composed of wheat and rye grown together:

| Crops. | 1901. Bushels. | 1900. Bushels. |
|---|---|---|
| Wheat | 304,210,065 | 326,082,604 |
| Maslin | 8,890,140 | 9,115,118 |
| Rye | 62,365,577 | 59,276,715 |

All three crops are below the average for the ten years from 1891 to 1900, inclusive. In the case of wheat the deficit is 21,872,549 bushels, in comparison with last year, and 9,284,518 bushels in comparison with the ten year average.

The estimate for maslin, as given above, makes the crop only 224,979 bush. less than that of 1900, but 2,159,575 bushels less than the ten year average. The rye crop, as now estimated, exceeds that of last year by 3,088,862 bushels, but falls short of the ten year average by 2,520,266 bushels.

NICARAGUA TREATY.

Senator Morgan Interviews President Roosevelt on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, October 16.—Senator Morgan, of Alabama, talked with President Roosevelt to-day about the prospects of the Nicaragua Canal bill at the coming session of Congress. The President told Senator Morgan that he would submit to the Senate a new treaty on the subject which more nearly met his views than the first Hay-Pauncefote treaty. He did not go into particulars. Speaking of the President's policy in regard to Southern appointments Senator Morgan said:

"It is the policy of reconciliation, the policy of appointing the best men to office."

Riparian Right Action.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, October 16.—In the Supreme Court his morning argument was heard in the case of Alexander Fraser vs. Hon. E. J. Price. This case involves the right of ownership of certain wharves and riparian rights at Grand River, Matane, but the appeal is on a question of precedure. The late Mr. Price died after the suit was first instituted, but the suit was continued in his name, the executors not being substituted within the required time. On application, the Court of Review granted Mr. Fraser leave to amend his suit by making the executors parties. On appeal, the Court of King's Bench reversed this decision, and the present appeal is from the decision of the Court of King's Bench.

MONTREAL STREET AND DOMINION COTTON HIT HARD.

Dominion Coal Also Went Down 1 1-2 With Lesser Losses in Several Leading Speculative Securities — Copper Stocks Again Sold in Wall Street This Morning.

The special correspondent of the Star in Wall street and on the Chicago Board of Trade report in this column that stocks were irregular, while wheat was weaker. In the local market a selling movement broke prices in several cases. Sales on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday were 716,521 shares.

The bears, who were in evidence a week or so ago, suddenly changed their tactics this morning and sold Montreal Street and Dominion Cotton heavily, with the result that the whole market was affected to a certain extent by the declines. There was a general impression that the bear raids were over, so that the market for the most part was taken considerably by surprise this morning.

The break in Street Railway amounted to 5¼ points, and in Dominion Cotton to five points. Less important declines were a half in Canadian Pacific, 1¼ in Richelieu, 1 in Twin City, 1 in Toronto Rails, and 1½ in Dominion Coal. There was very little trading in Pacific, and the New York market was stronger at 109¾ compared with 109½ here. The London price was a half easier at 113½.

Montreal Street closed at 279 yesterday, and the bears commenced to sell at 278 this morning and steadily depressed the price to 273¾. Dominion Cotton closed yesterday at 70, and was sold at the opening to-day at 69 and on down to 65. The reaction in Dominion Coal which set in yesterday was also a feature of the market, the price breaking from 48 to 46¾.

Fractional declines were quite uniform in the opening dealings in Wall street. Pennsylvania and Southern Pacific were about the only prominent stocks that were exceptions. There were some improvements in weak stocks after the opening. Business was on rather a small scale.

In New York at noon money on call was steady at 3½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4½ to 5 per cent. Sterling exchange fairly steady at 4.85¾ to 4.86 for demand and at 4.83¾ for 60 days. Posted rates, 4.84½ to 4.85 and 4.87. Commercial bills, 4.83 to 4.83½. Bar silver, 57½. Mexican dollars, 45¼. Government bonds steady.

Messrs. L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable to-day quoted: Grand Trunk, first, 99; second, 86⅛; third, 35 3-8; Canadian Pacific, 113½; Anaconda, £ 7 5-16.

Speyer & Co., and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of New York, have purchased $20,000,000 Pennsylvania Co. 3½ per cent. fifteen-year trust bonds, guaranteed by the Pennsylvania Railway Company. The bonds are to be secured by a special deposit of dividend paying railway stocks, presumably of those companies of which the Pennsylvania has made large purchases within the last year, and which have been carried by large bank loans.

The annual meeting of the Laurentide Pulp Company took place yesterday. The company showed net profits for the year ending June 30th of $296,361 over and above interest on bonds and all other charges. This is equivalent to 18 per cent. on the capital stock, upon which a dividend of 8 per cent. was paid during the year. This notwithstanding two fires during that period which seriously interfered with the operations of the company's plant. A revaluation of the property was made under a new management, when the sum of $129,688 was written off for shrinkage in logs, etc. After deducting the amount the company started on July 1st with a surplus of $252,374, as against $157,701 the previous year. The entire paper products of the company are sold up to the end of the year 1902 at better prices than at any time in the past.

LONDON, October 16, 4 p.m.—Consols for money, 93¼; do for account, 93 5-16; Anaconda, 7¼; Atchison, 80⅛; do pfd., 99⅛; B. and O., 104¾; Canadian Pacific, 113½; Chesapeake and Ohio, 46½; Chicago Great Western, 23; Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, 169; Denver and Rio Grande, 46; do pfd., 95; Erie, 42 3-8; do 1st pfd., 71½; do 2nd pfd., 56¼; Ill. # ADVICE TO THE DAIRYMEN OF CANADA.

The Montreal Butter and Cheese Association Gives Six Reasons Why Factories Should Not Make Cheese After This Month.

The Montreal Butter and Cheese Association held a general meeting on the 10th instant, when it was resolved to issue a circular to the dairymen of Canada, strongly advising them to turn their attention to butter more generally, and to discontinue the manufacture of cheese entirely after 1st November, for the following reasons:

1st. That fodder cheese hurts the consumption, thus diminishing the demand for grass goods, and lowering its price.

2nd. That the outlet for cheese is limited, and everything depends on the quality to induce a large consumption.

3rd. That the consumption of cheese is not increasing, but diminishing, while the consumption of finest creamery butter is rapidly growing.

4th. That the price of butter is higher, on an average, all the year round, than cheese, for the finest qualities.

5th. That the manufacture of butter is more profitable than cheese, not only in the comparative price, but in that the farm stock and land are better sustained.

6th. That in order to maintain high prices there must be a continuous supply of finest butter, and as the flow of milk is lessening now, it is most urgent that the quantity should be kept up as much as possible, and to divert the milk from cheese to this article is the only way to keep up the supply.

It is recommended that all factories should be fitted up so as to make either cheese or butter. Cheese should be held three weeks at a temperature of 60 degrees to ensure proper curing. Serious complaints continue to come of cheese being shipped much too green. Packages both of cheese and butter are still made of much too thin wood. Butter should be shipped fresh weekly to command the best price.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONS.

The Advisability of Workers Returning to China Discussed in Committee at Toronto.

TORONTO, October 16.—The Foreign Mission Committee of the Presbyterian Church met yesterday in Knox Church and discussed important matters in connection with mission work. The chair was taken by Rev. Dr. Moore, of Ottawa, and among those present were: Dr. McLaren, of Ottawa; Principal MacVicar, of Montreal; Dr. Johnson, of London; Prof. Baird, of Winnipeg; Dr. Smith, of Brantford; Dr. Glassford, of Guelph, and Mr. Curry of Perth.

Considerable time was taken up with the discussion of the situation in Honan and the recent Boxer trouble. A cablegram was received from Dr. McClure, of Honan, China, stating that the buildings, furniture and books were fairly well preserved at Chang Te. Dr. McClure states that the horizon is not yet clear, and there is a probability of further trouble before matters are finally settled.

Dr. McClure, it was stated, had been to Pekin, meeting the indemnity commissioners and presenting claims for losses. Although the subject has not yet been finally disposed of, encouragement has been received that the Government intends dealing fairly with the missions.

Rev. Jonathan Goforth, a returned missionary from the Chinese field, was called to give information to the committee as to the state of affairs. There is some doubt as to the advisability of sending out missionaries, and some thought that no good could be done yet.

ROCKHILL ARRIVES FROM CHINA

United States Representative in Chinese Negotiations is Now in Canada.

VICTORIA, B.C., October 16.—Mr. W. Rockhill, the commissioner who represented the United States in the negotiations between the allies and China, arrived by the Empress of Japan on his way to Washington with a copy of the protocol between China and the powers, which was recently signed by the representatives of the various nations interested. He will proceed direct to Washington by the C.P.R. Affairs in China have resumed their normal state, the commissioner said in an interview, and he did not anticipate any further outbreak; but there was no telling what would happen in China.

Lord de Blaquiere Talks.

LONDON, October 16—Lord de Blaquiere, who resided for many years in Canada, states that he has been approached, though unofficially, and asked to allow his name to be considered as successor to the Earl of Minto as Governor-General of the Dominion, but he will consider the proposal. Lord de Blaquiere says that when quite young the influential citizens of Canada, from Sir Wilfrid Laurier down, approached him in regard to the governorship, and at that time he declared he had no ambition to enter the diplomatic service.

Nothing is known at the High Commissioner's office about the reported friction between Lord Minto and the Canadian Government, or of Lord Minto's intention to resign.

Railway Economics in Britain.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, October 16.—Prospects of British railways are at last beginning to brighten, owing to the adoption of various methods of economy in order to compensate for the reduced gross earnings. On some of the leading lines heavier engines and larger and more solid trucks are being introduced for the purpose of increasing trainloads and diminishing train mileage. By this means it is expected that the net revenues will show an improvement, more especially as there has been an extensive reduction in the cost of coal.

BRUTAL DAYLIGHT BURGLARY.

Two Rochester Ladies Beaten Into Insensibility and Relieved of $3000 Worth of Belongings.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., October 16.—One of the boldest and withal most deliberate burglaries recorded in the history of the city was carried out with consummate skill and brutality at No. 136 Second street yesterday. Two elderly women, Mrs. L. M. French and Mrs. A. A. Gardiner, both about 60 years old, were the victims, and were relieved of personal property amounting all told to over $3,000.

At about 5.30 p.m. three young men, ranging in ages from 22 to 25, beardless and dressed neatly, appeared at Mrs. French's house, and presented a paper which was alleged credentials that they were authorized agents of a local gas company, and said that they wished to examine the gas meters.

After completing their supposed duties the men went away but later returned, "To turn on the gas," which they said they had forgotten to do. After ten minutes in the cellar the men came upstairs, without warning, fell upon the two helpless women, beating them into insensibility. Two of the brutes then stood guard over the prostrate victims, while the third ransacked the house, securing diamonds, watches, sealskin sacques, etc., valued at more than $3,000. Locking the bruised and bleeding women in the cellar the burglars cut the telephone wires running into the house, and after occupying nearly two hours in their work leisurely departed.

DOMINION COAL STOCK.

A Story in Boston About T. W. Lawson Being Short.

(Special to the Star.)

BOSTON, October 16.—A leading feature in the Boston stock market Monday was the activity in Dominion Coal, the common shares advancing from 46 to 45⅝. The rise was well maintained up to the close, when the price was 49¼. The preferred shares did not follow the common, and advanced only one half-point. Strength in the Dominion common is said to be due to a large short interest. Some prominent brokers are of the opinion that Thomas W. Lawson, who has always been antagonistic to the Whitney interests, is away short of the stock. Mr. Lawson yesterday made public that he lost about $7,000,000 by reason of the sensational break in the price of Amalgamated Copper shares. As a result of this acknowledgment, it is thought that some of the operaters in the market have advanced the price of Dominion, with the hope that Mr. Lawson will be made to cover.

Hull's New Court House.

On the second floor, in the Superior Court room, Judge Archibald, of Montreal, presided. Brooke, the senior member of the Bar present at the time, replied in fitting terms.

GEN. MOLINEUX TALKS OF HIS SON

HE IS CONVINCED THAT HE IS INNOCENT

And Declares That He Will Spend the Rest of His Days in An Effort to Clear the Name of His Family — Will Not Discuss the Trial of His Son.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, October 16. — General Molineux says: "I know my son is innocent and also who the guilty one is. I hope soon to be able to point him out publicly. I will devote my life to proving the innocence of Roland. In fact I can neither get sick nor die until this has been established beyond all doubt. Roland and I will clear the name of Molineux from the stain upon it. The name is an honourable one and we will spend the rest of our lives to prove he is innocent. You cannot doubt I am a brave man, and do you think I am afraid to die? No, nor is my boy. He has been both brave and patient in all this trouble. At prison he has been most patient and has been treated with all the consideration that the rules would permit."

"Will you discuss the trial, General?" was asked.

"No, I have nothing to say about that," answered the General.

ALBANY, October 16.—In the case of Roland B. Molyneux, to whom the Court of Appeals yesterday granted a new trial for the murder of Katherine J. Adams, the court granted the new trial on a prevailing opinion, written by Judge Werner, of Rochester, his principal ground being that the lower court erred in admitting evidence as to another alleged crime, the death of Barnett, and thus merged two issues.

Justices Parker, Haight and Gray did not believe that the Barnett evidence should be kept entirely out of the case.

Judges Werner, Bartlett, Vann and O'Brien concurred in the prevailing opinion and for the expunging of the Barnett testimony.

The court gave out a condensed statement of the reasons for granting the new trial. They say:

"Every member of the Court of Appeals agrees for the reversal of the judgment of conviction of Molyneux on the ground that trial court erred in receiving in evidence the declarations of Barnett made to Doctors Phillips and Douglass, that he had received Kutnow powders through the mail.

"All agree that since the amendment of section 2 of chapter 36, of the laws of 1880, by chapter 688 of the laws of 1888, genuine writings may be received in evidence as standards of comparisons with a disputed writing, although such writing may not be the issue on trial, but simply a fact relevant and material to that issue. That the genuineness of such writings must be established to the satisfaction of the court by common law evidence, and when that is done, handwriting experts may compare the disputed writings with the genuine writings, and give their opinion thereon, but they cannot select and establish the standards of comparison, and then compare them with the disputed writings."

All writings proved to the satisfaction of the court by a preponderance of evidence in civil cases, and beyond a reasonable doubt in criminal cases. (1) by witnesses who saw the paper written or to whom it had been acknowledged; (2) by witnesses familiar with the handwriting of the person charged to be the writer and who are able to testify from their familiarity to a belief respecting its genuineness; (3) where the writing is shown to have been recognized and acquiesced in by the person supposed to have written it, or adopted and acted upon by him in his business transactions or other concerns, may under the statute be compared with the disputed writing by witnesses. But the court should refuse to receive in evidence solely for the purpose of comparison any writings otherwise prejudicial to a defendant.—Judge Werner writing the principal opinion.

The only subject about which members of the court differ in their opinions relates to the testimony introduced tending to show that Molyneux caused the death of Barnett, by the same method as that used in taking the life of Mrs. Adams.

Four of the members of the court—O'Brien, Bartlett, Vann and Werner, J.J., agree that the evidence should not have been received, and the reason for it is stated in the opinion written by O'Brien and Werner, J.J., the other three judges, Parker, C.J., and Gray and Haight, J.J., hold that that evidence is admissible in that the evidence in the Barnett case pointing toward Molyneux tends to identify him as the person who killed Mrs. Adams while attempting to take the life of Cornish, by means of that rare poison known as cyanide of mercury, the Chief Judge and Judge Gray writing opinions to that effect.

ANOTHER MORGAN TRUST.

Ship-Building and Other Enterprises May Soon be Consolidated.

NEW YORK, October 16.—The Journal and Advertiser says that an industrial combination to consolidate the armour plate manufacturers of this country, to commence the building of merchant and warships for the world's trade, and take over the large and growing trade of the United States Steel Corporation, is about to be organized by J. P. Morgan and his allies. The article then says that while no official details are obtainable, that the project will not only consolidate many details of the steel and fuel business of the country now separated, but also serve to bring into closer relationship these interests and the great railroad interests controlled by the Vanderbilts and the Pennsylvania Railroad.

These interests are also to be closely allied with, if not made a unit, with large interests of like character abroad, and that the new company is to be called the Anglo-American Steel Company.

BAPTISTS IN CONVENTION.

Officers Elected at the First Sitting at Brantford, Ont.

BRANTFORD, Ont., October 16.—The annual convention of the Baptists of Ontario and Quebec has opened here. Ontario and Quebec opened here last night. Owing to the suspension of trains because of the Royal visit, Rev. P. R. Bates, president, did not arrive until too late to read his annual address. After a praise and prayer service, D. W. Karn, of Woodstock, vice-president, took the chair. Various committees were appointed, and then the election of officers for the ensuing year took place, resulting as follows:

President, Rev. A. McNee, Windsor; first vice-president, Rev. Mr. McKay, Stratford; second vice-president, Hon. John Dryden; secretary-treasurer, Rev. F. Dayfoot, Port Hope. There is a good attendance of delegates from Ontario and Quebec. The convention will continue in session until Friday next.

The secretary, Rev. J. C. Brown, then read the thirty-fifth annual report of the Foreign Mission Board. In the last thirty-three years the membership on the Baptist missions has increased from 125,000 to 4,500,000. He also made reference to the mission work in India, which now shows ten mission stations for a population of 1,500,000 Telugas, occupied by twenty-eight missionaries, assisted by nine ordained and seventy unordained preachers. There are thirty-six native churches, with a membership of 4,176.

The treasurer's report shows receipts for the year of $30,742.24; disbursements, $36,194.93; deficit, $5,481.99. The falling off is attributed to various causes — building of churches and parsonages, or removing debts and mortgages; also to the extensive canvass for McMaster University, Brandon College and Feller Institute, for which institutions nearly one million has been taken in the past two years.

The session adjourned with a review of the work in India and its present needs by Rev. J. R. Stillwell.

Child Accidentally Poisoned.

Irene Showers, the four-year-old daughter of Anthony Showers, of 20 Lagauchetiere street, found a bottle containing some liquid in her father's yard yesterday afternoon about one o'clock and tasted the stuff. She became very ill, and Dr. Frank Buckett, of 149 Craig street, was called in. He discovered that the child had been poisoned, and administered an emetic, which had the desired effect. In a few minutes the little one had entirely recovered. The stuff in the bottle was a composition used for polishing brass work.

MR. E. S. WILLARD AND HIS NEW PLAY

WILL HAVE LITTLE TIME FOR SCENIC REHEARSAL

As Mr. Willard Will Only Arrive Here on Friday or Saturday—Mr. Louis N. Parker's Play "The Cardinal" to be Given Its Initial Production Here.

Mr. E. S. Willard, who begins his American tour in Montreal on Monday evening, next, at the Academy, is going to have a close squeeze in order to arrive in time to do the necessary work in connection with the first production of "The Cardinal."

Mr. Willard, together with several members of his company, are passengers on the Elder-Dempster steamship Lake Champlain. This vessel sailed from Liverpool for Montreal on October 8th, and is expected to arrive in port on Saturday next. As yet the steamship has not been reported, so that anything more than an approximate date for her arrival cannot be given. Last week the Lake Ontario, of the same line, did not arrive in port until Sunday afternoon, having been detained on her way over by bad weather.

Favoured by good weather, the Lake Champlain may arrive on Friday, and then again heavy seas and adverse winds may possibly detain her until Sunday. This is the first production of "The Cardinal" upon any stage, and the members of the company, including Mr. Willard himself, have none of them ever seen the scenery set up. As the scenery is said to be most elaborate, and the play brand new, it will require some rehearsing other than that already received, and now comes the nice question of how it will be done.

Of course, Mr. Willard would be able to gain some time by leaving the steamship at Quebec and proceeding to Montreal by train, and possibly he might be able to save even more time by stepping on shore at Rimouski and proceeding to Montreal by the Intercolonial. This, however, would depend entirely upon what time the steamer arrived at Rimouski.

Mr. Charles A. Moore, Mr. Willard's representative, arrived in the city on Monday night. He brought with him three cars of scenery and the working staff of the company. Each play in the repertoire has one car load devoted to it.

As yet no detailed description of the new play "The Cardinal" has been received in this country. The play, which is by Mr. Louis N. Parker, is in four acts, and there are nineteen characters. The leading character is Giovanna da Medici, son of Lorenzo the Magnificent, who eventually, although the incident does not figure in the play, becomes Pope Leo X. Among the other characters are Claricia Orsini, the Cardinal's mother, and Filiberta, daughter of Chigi. The action of the play is in the year 1510, three years before Giovanna becomes Pope. It is said that the plot of the play is not historic, though the setting is historic almost throughout.

The sale of seats for the Willard engagement opens at nine o'clock on Thursday morning.

Macbeth at the Academy.

The work of Louis James and Mme. Modjeska in their presentation of "Macbeth" at the Academy last evening was such as to leave a deep impression upon the minds of the audience. In physique, Mr. James is the ideal [illegible]. That fine figure and strong [illegible] themselves admirably to the [illegible] Shakespeare, brings strongly before [illegible] stuff soldier. ### Macbeth at the Academy.

The work of Louis James and Mme. Modjeska in their presentation of "Macbeth" at the Academy last evening was such as to leave a deep impression upon the minds of the audience. In physique, Mr. James is the ideal [illegible]. That fine figure and strong [illegible] themselves admirably to the [illegible] Shakespeare, brings strongly before [illegible] stuff soldier. He is well the man [illegible] deeds, and one can imagine [illegible] his way to the heart of [illegible] King. This is the physical side [illegible] who feared naught but ghosts [illegible] will imagine such a man [illegible] treachery. On the one side is honour [illegible] ...ce of gratitude to the King, who has done so much for him. On the other is the wife, whose ambitions are boundless. He has harboured murderous thoughts, but has cast them out as being unworthy of him. With her at his side he is led on, until finally once over the Rubicon, nothing can block his dreadful path. So the King's death is followed by that of Banquo—the man who so shrewdly suspects—and then one crime follows quickly upon another until at last, Macbeth meets his end.

Mme. Modjeska's Lady Macbeth is most subtle. Lady Macbeth is as weak and frail physically as Macbeth is strong and physically brave. Her power lies in the mind—his in the body. She shrinks from crime, but it is only momentary. When Macbeth is prepared to listen to his better self, he urges him on to the bloody work. She steels herself for the effort—it is a victory of mind over matter.

As crime after crime is perpetrated by Macbeth, the result is more apparent upon her. The woman is gradually going down and down under the awful load. The mind still bears up, but the frail body is gradually wasting and soon must break under the strain. With an exertion of her powerful will she is still able to smooth the path of her murderous husband—she blocks the breech when the waters are about to flow in and engulf them. When alone the haunting memories of the past unfold themselves to her. Incident by incident she lives over every detail of Duncan's murder. As the sleep walker, Mme. Modjeska was perhaps at her best, and it is likely that the set eyes and the lines of the drawn face will live for days in the memory of those who witnessed the performance.

The cast was upon the whole competent, though here and there a painfully weak character comes into prominence. The work of Mr. N. Hackett as Macduff was excellent, as was also that of Mr. Wadsworth Harris as Banquo. Mr. Harris has a stage presence which is admirably suited to the King's general, while the difficult speeches which are put into the mouth of Macduff were well rendered. The scenery is adequate.

Henry VIII. will be repeated this evening.

The Academy.

Mr. E. S. Willard, the famous English actor, is billed to appear in three plays at the Academy next week. On Monday he is to produce, for the first time on any stage, a play called "The Cardinal," by Louis N. Parker. It is to be given on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. On Thursday and Saturday evenings "The Middleman" will be produced, and for Friday night and the Saturday matinee "David Garrick" has been selected.

Proctor's.

A new programme, from comedy to views of travel, will be given at Proctor's the coming week. The cheap matinee price has resulted in immense crowds of ladies and children visiting the theatre every day.

The Francais.

The attraction at the Theatre Francais for next week will be "At Cripple Creek," a new drama written by Hal Reid. The play is said to be the strongest yet written by Mr. Reid. A carload of scenery is carried and the company is said to be very strong.

The Royal.

Lincoln Carter's "Fast Mail" is the Royal's offering for next week. There is a fast mail train, a freight train, a steamboat and many other stage effects necessary for the proper production of the play. The company is said to be a very good one.

Ald. Clearihue's Charges.

In the matter of the City Council holding an investigation into the statement Ald. Clearihue made about money having been promised if a certain company got the electric light contract, it should be said that after Council voted down the amendment, to allow the Fire Committee to conduct the enquiry it was unanimously decided to allow the chairman of committees to conduct it. This was not generally understood.

Medical Society's Officers.

Dr. L. A. Demers was chosen president, Dr. Leblanc vice-president, Dr. Decarie secretary, and Dr. Jeannotte treasurer of the French-Canadian Medical Society, at a meeting held last evening at Laval University.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. H. G. Mills, of the staff of the firm of R. G. Dun & Co., was yesterday afternoon presented with a set of silverware by his fellow-employes, on the occasion of his approaching marriage. The presentation was made by the manager, Mr. Thos. H. Fleet.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE FORBIDDEN

A WELCOME RELIEF TO THE CIVIC EMPLOYES.

A Resolution Passed by the Finance Committee Placing Under the Ban a Custom Which Had Become Very Common at the City Hall of Late Years.

According to a new civic enactment employes at the City Hall are about to be relieved from a custom that has long been disliked; it is that of having subscription lists, passed round almost weekly, for the purpose of making presents, etc., to civic officials, or minor employes.

The matter has just been discussed by the Finance Committee, and the result has been the passing of the following motion:

"The question of subscription lists, circulated in the different departments, being brought up it was resolved to notify all the chief of departments that the introduction of circulars and subscription lists, in the civic departments, is strictly forbidden."

Before the above was passed it was shown that many of the employes were really suffering by the custom of taking up subscriptions. There had been times when there had been two a week.

Clerks, getting small salaries, found the custom to be a positive hardship. The lists, of course, were always carefully looked over by those passing them round, and if a clerk's name was missing, the impression soon got round that he was mean, etc. It was felt, in consequence of this, that the custom should be put an end to.

To-day the clerks received copies of the resolution in question and they were heartily glad to receive it. They pasted it up in front of their desks to act as a scare to the next subscription fiend.

Speaking of the subscription custom one of the clerks said to-day: "It had got to be so that we had to subscribe for all kinds of things. For presents to those who got married, to those who happened to get hard up, to those who happened to have a new baby come to the house, to those who happened to be very popular, besides subscribing in the case of illness and death.

"Why, even to-day, while I am holding this resolution from the Finance Committee in my hand, an employe has startec the rounds with a subscription list. Just wait till he knows of this resolution, and that will make him drop it pretty quick. It is a fact that the subscription fad had become, at the City Hall, a positive hardship, and the clerks are delighted it has been abolished."

Cause of Hussars' Illness.

The health authorities of Quebec are inclined to ridicule the story that the typhoid fever from which Lt.-Col. MacLean, Lt. Lilley, and other officers and men of the Duke of York's Canadian Hussars, are suffering, was contracted at the Engineer's Camp, St. Joseph de Levis. Dr. Colin Sewell, Surgeon Lt.-Col. of the R. C. A., says that typhoid fever always develops within fifteen days of the infection, and as there is now a month since the Hussars were in Levis, they cannot have contracted the disease there. An analysis of the water used at the camp, made a few weeks ago, shows that the water is very pure. It was used during the military camp at Levis, and no evil effects followed.

Regarding the charge that the infection might be due to the milk supply, Dr. Catellier, Medical Health Officer of the city, states that there is no ground for such a supposition. He has visited every milkman's establishment in the vicinity of Quebec, within the last few weeks, and there is positively no danger from that source. There was a case, early in the summer, of a milkman who had typhoid in his family, and still continued to deliver milk to families, and some cases were traced to this source. The delivery by this milkman was promptly stopped, and the danger ceased. This, however, had nothing to do with the illness of the cavalrymen, and besides the disease would develop within fifteen days in any case. Dr. Catellier adds that the dry weather during the summer has been of a nature to bring about many cases of typhoid, and the disease is found in more cases than usual not only in Quebec, but in Ontario as well.

Mr. Carnegie's Library Offer.

The question is to be settled whether or not Mr. Carnegie, when he offered $150,000 to the city to put up a public library, intended the whole amount to be spent upon a building, or whether a portion of it was to be spent in purchasing books.

The Mayor to-day sent a letter to Mr. Carnegie asking him to throw light upon the matter, and also asking him other questions in regard to his offer. When the answer is received the City Council will decide if it would be wise or not to take the money. There are those who think the city should not take outside gifts for such a purpose; but, on the other hand, there are those who claim the city can afford to pocket a little pride, and take the gift, as a matter of general education is involved.

McGill Literary Society.

The McGill Literary Society will meet Friday night, when Mr. P. B. McCallum, Arts '04, will read an essay, and the debate will be: "Resolved, that the growth of great cities is conducive to social improvement." Speakers for the affirmative will be H. Halliday Murphy, Arts '02; A. French, Arts '04; while the negative will be upheld by Mac. B. Davidson, Arts '03, and G. H. Cole, Sc. '04. Dr. L. R. Gregor will be the critic.

THE BOYS' DEPARTMENT.—The annual opening entertainment of the junior department of the Young Men's Christian Association, which will be held on Thursday evening, October 17th, promises to be a very successful affair. The programme commences in the gymnasium at 7.30 o'clock, where an exhibition of the class work will be given, after which an excellent programme will be rendered in the Association Hall.

PULLMAN CAR TIPS ARE MUCH SMALLER

THE TRAVELLING PUBLIC BECOMING MORE ENLIGHTENED

Says a Porter, and Tips Ain't What They Used to Be—The Reason is That People are Becoming More Used to Pullmans — Some Don't Even be Brushed.

There's a wail of distress and woe amongst the Pullman car porters.

"Yes, sir, the travelling public's becoming more enlightened and tips ain't what they used to be."

Thus spoke a dusky porter to-day as he counted out clean linen for a western sleeper and hummed ragtime music at Bonaventure.

The Pullman Company has also evidently realized the fact that the perquisites are not as generous as in former years, and on many of the routes the pay of the porters has been increased. Formerly porters received as low as fifteen dollars a month and this wage in a buffet car was at one time considered a snap, as tips were wont to bring a man's income up to all the way from $100 to $200 a month.

But the good old days of yore have now passed into history and even a buffet car proves of no more financial attraction to a gentleman of colour than does an ordinary every day sleeper. Consequently the fifteen dollar a month wage has been abolished, and few porters receive less than $25 a month.

In the Canadian Pacific sleeping and parlour car service, the porters are never paid less than $30 a month and some get as high as $45. But the prequisites, it is said, are not as valuable it is claimed as they are on the Pullman service proper.

To return to our dusky friend, his explanation that the public was becoming more enlightened was further emphasized by the explanation that the public was also becoming more foxy.

"Why lots o' them won't low yar to brush 'em off no'. You shine their boots, but when you try to help 'em on with their overcoats they tight shy and break for de smoker. If ye can't nab a man when your brushing 'im down you've lost yer quarter for its dollars to doughnuts he knows enough to make a sneak by the rear door and leave you in de lurch."

"How do you account for it?"

"As I tell you the public's more enlightened, more accustomed to travelling. Dere was a time when you'd meet heaps of folks who were kind of skeered to come into a Pullman. They'd step about on tip toe as if dey were at church meeting. Now-a-days dey own de car, dey want it all to themselves and de earth wid it, and don't want to pay nothing for it. Oh, yes, dey's getting enlightened."

A special porter, who was attached to the private car of a railway magnate from Pittsburg here, joined in the conversation and would not admit that things were as bad as his brother tried to make out. He claimed "dere wasn't a mother's son of them running out of Pittsburg who wasn't making over $100 a month."

The Chicago, New York and Boston runs are considered the most lucrative out of Montreal, but even these are not what they used to be. Purely Canada runs are despised, and especially local Eastern runs. One man volunteered the statement that for some trivial offence he had been disciplined by being taken off his Western route and put onto a Quebec run, when his income fell from $125 to $35 in one month.

But Canada used to be a "good thing" in the winter carnival days, when a run from New York or Boston to Montreal was often worth all the way from fifteen to twenty-five and sometimes forty dollars. When the James Gordon Bennet party came on he endeavoured, without success, to get asked to the ball of the Princess Louise at Ottawa, it is rumoured he was so disgusted with everything Canadian that when he returned to "God's country," he lavished his wealth on the crew of his private car to such an extent that the coloured porter, Dan'l Manning, was able to open a restaurant at Ningara Falls with his "wad" and has since retired to lead a life of affluence and luxury. Such is a legend of fabulous tips related in Pullman porters' circles. There are many others.

Ste. Cunegonde Lighting Contract.

At a special meeting of the general committee of the Council of Ste. Cunegonde, last night, a written opinion of the town attorney was submitted on the legality of the existing contract for lighting the streets and it was decided to make the following recommendation to the council: That the town attorney be instructed to notify the Lachine Rapids Hydraulic and Land Company that the council consider the franchise granted by virtue of the by-law. No 60 to have been granted illegally, the by-law being ultra vires; and that the town intends to contest the validity of all contracts made under its provisions. A resolution was also passed instructing the town attorney to take proceedings to have the by-law declared null and void, as well as all contracts made under its authority.

THE CORNER STONE OF HASKELL LIBRARY

LAID WITH MASONIC CEREMONIES BY GRAND MASTER.

Of the Grand Lodge of Quebec — The Building is An International One, Being Built One Half in Derby Line, Vermont, and One Half in Rock Island, Quebec.

On Tuesday, Most Worshipful Bro. Edson Fitch, of Quebec, Grand Master of Masons of this province, assisted by Most Worship Bro. E. T. D. Chambers, Past Grand Master; the Deputy Grand Master, Right Worshipful Brother J. B. Tresidder; the Venerable Grand Secretary, Most Worshipful Bro. J. H. Isaacson, and other officers of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, laid with Masonic ceremonies the corner stone of the Haskell Public Library, which is being built on the line dividing the state of Vermont and the province of Quebec, one-half of the building being in Rock Island, Que., and the other in Derby Line, Vt. The ceremony, which is an impressive one, was witnessed by several thousand people, who had gathered from different parts of the province, and many from across the border.

The Grand Lodge was composed as follows: Grand Master Most Wor. Bro. Edson Fitch, of Quebec; Past Grand Master, M. W. Bro. E. T. D. Chambers, of Quebec; Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor. Bro. J. B. Tresidder; Senior Grand Warden, Rt. W. Bro. John Wiget; Junior Grand Warden, Rt. W. Bro. J. A. Tate (acting); Grand Treasurer, V. W. Bro. A. N. Thompson (acting); Grand Secretary, M. W. Bro. J. H. Isaacson; Grand Chaplain, Rt. W. Bro. Rev. T. Blaylock; Grand Registrar, W. Bro. E. B. Guston (acting), of Stanstead; Senior Grand Deacon, Rt. W. Bro. E. S. Stevens (acting); Junior Grand Deacon, W. Bro. R. Rattery (acting); Grand Stewards, W. Bro. W. Campbell, of Montreal; W. Bro. Dr. A. Spencer, of Sherbrooke; W. Bro. W. Pike, and W. Bro. A. H. Anderson; Grand Pursuivant, V. W. Bro. F. C. Caswell; Grand Tyler, Rt. W. Bro. W. Shepherd. Right Wor. Bro. H. E. Channell, District Deputy Grand Master of St. Francis District, at the special request of the Grand Master, acted as Grand Master of Ceremonies.

The Grand Lodge was called to order and opened in ample form in the lodge room of Golden Rule Lodge, No. 5, G. R. Q., in Stanstead, and then formed in procession headed by the Coaticooke Band, and marched to the building, Golden Rule Chapter and a large number of Masons from different parts of the province acting as escort.

A platform had been erected and everything was in readiness for the ceremony. The generous donor of the library, Mrs. M. M. Haskell, and a number of ladies were provided with chairs.

The Grand Lodge arrived at 2.30 p.m. and were met by Rev. Geo. E. Read, who in an eloquent address and on behalf of the donor requested the Grand Master to lay the corner stone with their ancient and interesting ceremony. Colonel H. S. Haskell, acting for the architect, presented the plans for inspection, which after the stone was well and truly laid were returned to him with the assurance that they were found correct.

Addresses were delivered by Bro. Josiah Grout, Ex-Governor of Vermont, who acted as orator of the day, Most Wor. Bro. Edson Fitch, Most Wor. Bro. E. T. D. Chambers, Right Wor. Bro. J. B. Tresidder, and V. Wor. Bro. A. N. Thompson, and afterwards the procession was reformed and returned to Golden Rule Lodge rooms, where the Grand Lodge officers and visiting brethren were entertained to a banquet.

An interesting feature of the day was the presentation by Rev. Bro. Read, to the Grand Master, of a beautiful silver and ebony trowel, suitably engraved as a souvenir of the occasion.

A message of regret at his absence, and fraternal greetings to the Masons in Stanstead was received and read during the proceedings from Rt. W. Bro. J. Beamish Saul, P. D. D. G. M., of Montreal.

TOOK WATCH CASES FROM STORE WINDOW

After Cutting a Hole in the Plate Glass of the American Watch Case Company's Premises.

Some time during last night a daring robbery was committed on Notre Dame street, and as yet there is no trace of the men. The American Watch Case Company's store, at the corner of Notre Dame and St. Gabriel streets, was visited, and, evidently with a good diamond, a circle, about a foot in diameter, was cut. Then a stone, weighing about two pounds, was used to force the circle of glass in, the stone falling with it and breaking an old antique clock.

A wire screening, five feet from the ground, forced the men to do their work above it, and so when they did get the hole it was difficult to reach the valuables. They succeeded in getting thirty-five gold-plated watch cases, worth about $3 each. Their arms were not long enough to reach further into the window or they would have secured much more booty.

The robebry was an exceedingly daring one, as there is a traffic of citizens at that corner all night long, and the lighting is very good. The detectives are making investigations.

The Duke's Walking Stick.

The question of the presentation of the Remington walking stick to His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York came up at the monthly meeting of the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society last evening. Mr. Tiffin laid before the meeting the medal of the Soudan expedition and also the Khedival bronze star, showing that Mr. Remington was quarter-master. The acknowledgment from His Royal Highness' secretary respecting the presentation of the walking stick and the work upon the Canadian contingent was read, and the society endorsed Mr. Tiffin's action.

MR. TARTE'S OBJECT TO OUST ENGINEER

HE IS AFTER THE SCALP OF MR. JOHN KENNEDY.

Mayor Prefontaine Says He Will Oppose Any Proposal to Abolish the Harbour Board as Will Other Government Supporters—The Competency of the Experts Appointed.

The bitter war which is at present being waged between the Minister of Public Works, the Mayor of Montreal, and incidentally the Harbour Board, has reached a new phase.

The Minister has on the one hand turned his broadsides from Mayor Raymond Prefontaine to the Harbour Board, upon which he has centred all his guns; while on the other Montreal's doughty Mayor has entered the lists as champion of the Harbour Commissioners.

In the columns of La Patrie last evening was published an article which surely means the fall of the Harbour Commission as it now stands—provided the Hon. Mr. Tarte is given a free hand to do as he pleases. The article, which is apparently from the pen of Mr. Tarte, goes on to denounce the business methods of the Board in the strongest terms. According to him the Harbour Commissioners have been worse than useless. In Mr. Tarte's opinion they should be ousted. He calls them insolent and audacious and refers to himself and his own work as the personification of progress and enlightenment.

LA PATRIE'S ARTICLE.

The following is the article:

"There is in the Harbour Commission a presumptious element that thinks it knows everything touching the port, and which desires to force every one to their way of thinking.

"This is the same element which, for twenty years, by ignorance, by apathy, or some other reason, has contented itself by doing nothing, and to leave our port in its present deplorable condition.

"This, in fact, is the element that wishes to reduce the members of the board to five, and that all be chosen from the exporters and the Board of Trade.

"In other words, they believe that the Government, which furnishes the funds to the commission, should not be represented, neither should it be consulted regarding the work to be done.

"Is not this insolent and audacious? It is the Laurier Government, it is the Minister of Public Works, Mr. Tarte, who for years has worked for the development of the port of Montreal. It is the Government that advances the funds. Yet some people want to do away with men who think, who work, and who find the money.

"What have the shipping men done during the past twenty years? Let them show the fruit of their work. It would certainly be better to abolish them than to let them rule as masters.

"We prefer the progressive and enlightened action of the Minister of Public Works, and of the Federal Government to men who look after the interests of the companies they represent, rather than interest themselves for the benefit of all.

"If Montreal is to remain the national port of Canada, it would be ridiculous to leave it to the exclusive direction of men who for twenty years have sacrificed the future of the city of our maritime trade to their private interests.

"If Montreal is to remain the natural port of Canada, we believe it would be wise to follow the advice of the Chambre de Commerce, viz., suppress the commission, and to leave to the Government the task of making our port what it should be, and of spending the money that is to be spent in hastening the improvements which the traffic demands.

"The Board of Trade and the large commercial corporations could always by request or memorial, demand what they thought useful to commerce, make suggestions and recommendations that the Government would apreciate.

"The question raised by the Chambre de Commerce is one of extreme importance, and we ask all those interested in public affairs to study it carefully."

MR. TARTE AFTER MR. KENNEDY.

When the Mayor had cast his eyes over the above, he was prepared to enlighten the reading public with a few choice thoughts as regards Mr. Tarte and his scheme of doing away with the Harbour Commission. In fact, His Honour was about prepared to write a sonnet to commemorate the occasion. In the first place, it was not far to see that the Minister of Public Works was prepared to sacrifice Mr. John Kennedy, the Harbour Boards capable and competent chief engineer, on the altar of political prestige. Mr. Tarte's dislike for Mr. Kennedy is no new thing. As far back as four years ago he had written one of the Government appointees on the Harbour Board intimating that Mr. Kennedy had better be put out of the way. He had offended Mr. Tarte by not agreeing with the Minister's ideas of how the harbour improvements should proceed. Yes, Mr. Kennedy was sufficiently audacious to have a few ideas of his own as to how the harbour should be laid out.

Why, he even went so far as to disagree with Mr. Tarte entirely as to the number of piers which could properly be placed within the city limits, and incidentally it might be remarked that all other reputable engineers were and still are of Mr. Kennedy's opinion.

But all this gave mortal offense to the Minister of Public Works, and as a consequence the head of the harbour engineer was called for.

As the members of the Harbour Board, or at least a goodly portion of them, had a very high opinion of Mr. Kennedy, there was no move in the direction of having him replaced by one of Mr. Tarte's henchmen, so now it comes about that the Minister of Public Works is again after his victim, and intends that he shall sooner or later be forced out of the position.

MAYOR WOULD OPPOSE IT.

"Would the proposition to remove the Harbour Board, and replace Mr. Kennedy by Mr. Louis Coste as chief engineer, meet the approval of Parliament?"

The Mayor replied that, as a Ministerial measure it would have to go through, but at the same time he was of the opinion that many Government members would vote against any such move. He could certainly do so himself. He did not know whether the Minister of Public Works would have the courage to push such a measure.

Mr. Tarte's whole object in wanting the dissolution of the Harbour Board was most apparent. The Minister of Public Works simply wished the political leaverage which it would give him.

The Mayor went on to state that while Mr. Tarte accused the Harbour Board of inaction, it was the Minister's own fault that the work had been delayed. Referring to the turning down of the Jamieson elevator contract by Mr. Tarte, the Mayor stated that the experts into whose hands the matter had been placed by the Minister had absolutely no experience in elevator construction. Mr. Jencks, who had reported upon the mechanical portion of the structure, was the only one who had any experience in the matter, and he did not concur in the report of the other three.

"HE PROBABLY SEES WHAT IS COMING."

Reason Given for the Resignation of a Harbour Board Official.

At the meeting of the Harbour Board today the resignation of Mechanical Superintendent Desey was read and accepted.

It transpires that Mr. Desey, who has been looked up as a valuable man in the position which he occupied, resigned, giving the Board practically no warning, in order to take a position with the Department of Public Works, it being understood that he will have charge of the new suction dredge which is being constructed for that Department.

It was a question as to whether the Board would take any official action other than to accept the resignation. It was finally decided that no particular words of recommendation were due from the Board owing to the manner in which Mr. Desey had quit its service.

When it was asked why Mr. Desey had resigned Mr. Bickerdike remarked: "He probably sees what is coming."

SHEDS ON WHARVES— PLANS TO BE PREPARED.

Harbour Board Wishes to be in a Position to Begin the Work Next Spring.

At the meeting of the Harbour Board today the Mayor asked Mr. Kennedy to prepare a report relative to the permanent sheds, derricks, etc., which it would be necessary to build at no distant day.

Mr. Kennedy went on to explain that the question of sheds and other terminal facilities was a very large question. The methods employed in different portions of the world differed radically, and the question was one which should not be settled without going into the subject carefully. It meant a large outlay of funds, and the best possible should be obtained.

It was finally decided that Mr. Kennedy should make a report, giving the Board such suggestions as he thinks proper. The Board would then be in a position to discuss the matter intelligently. It is proposed to begin work on these improvements next spring, so that the Board had the winter in which to settle upon a plan.

CAP ROUGE ICE BRIDGE TO BE KEPT FROM FORMING

Government Asked to Put the Steamer Lord Stanley at Work to This End Next Winter.

Mr. Robert Bickerdike, M.P., brought up the question of breaking the ice bridge which forms every winter at Cap Rouge at the meeting of the Harbour Commissioners to-day. Last year the Commissioners had communicated with the Government relative to putting a vessel in the service, but the Government representatives had written that they had been informed of the project too late. The matter was, therefore, left over until another year.

The secretary was directed to write the Government asking that the Lord Stanley, or some similar steamer, be employed by the Government in breaking the ice jam at Cap Rouge, and also in keeping it open as much farther up as practicable. This successfully done would mean at least two weeks' additional navigation in the spring of the year.

IMPROVEMENTS IN HARBOUR.

Representative Public Men to be Invited to View Them.

At the meeting of the Harbour Board today Mr. Robert Bickerdike suggested that at some convenient date in the near future the members of Parliament of the district, the members of the press and others, who would perhaps be interested in the work, should be taken for a trip through the harbour. To this suggestion the other members of the board heartily agreed. They were of the opinion that the average man had a very slim idea of what the improvements in the harbour really amounted to.

Contract for Scoria Blocks.

Mr. James Cochrane obtained the contract for 41,000 tons of Scoria blocks from the Harbour Board to-day. Mr. Cochrane was the only tenderer, his bid being $33,046, and upon the recommendation of the Harbour Improvement Committee he was awarded the contract.

Took it to Drink it.

Edgar Lovell's plea of not guilty to a charge of stealing a bottle of whiskey is a novel one. He said that he took the bottle without the intention of stealing it, and when Judge Lafontaine asked him to-day what he meant by that, he replied that he did not take it to steal it, but only to drink it. The prisoner did some odd jobs about Superant's hotel, 514 St. James street, and he claimed that he had a right to take a drink when he felt like it. He was remanded for enquete.

FIELD DAY EVENTS ON M'GILL CAMPUS

THREE RECORDS WERE BROKEN THIS MORNING.

New Marks Were Made in the 16-lb. Hammer, 56-lb. Weight and Discus Events — Excellent Performances Were the Order—Fine Throwing by Pavey and Ogilvie.

This is sports day at McGill, and the big college campus was a busy scene this morning. First there was a football practice, and after the Rugby men had torn up the turf the officials of the athletic meet got together and started in on the first half of the programme. It was anything but pleasant weather, but, in spite of the dull sky and the threatening rain, there was a large turnout of the students, and there were not many scratches in the various events. Three college records were broken; the winners in the 16-lb. hammer, throwing the 56-lb. weight, and throwing the discus raised the previous marks. The mark in the 56-lb. weight event was doomed from the very start, Pavey opening with a throw of 23 feet 9 inches. Ogilvie was right in line and sent up 24 feet ¼ inches for his initial performance. This was gradually raised until Pavey won out with 24 feet 5¼ inches. After the competition Pavey raised his figures by one inch in an exhibition throw.

In throwing the discus, Ogilvie was the whole thing, and raised the mark several times. In competition he sent the discus 104 feet 5½ inches. Then he followed this with a couple of fine exhibition throws, sending the discus 105 feet 1 1-5 inches and 105 feet 5½ inches.

The preliminary trials of the 100 yards were uneventful, the qualifying pair having easy victories in all three heats.

There is no inter-faculty trophy this year, but there is a class trophy. In this all the men of one year, irrespective of faculties, compete for the honour of their year. The Sops. are ahead as a result of this morning's games, having 22 points to their credit, while the freshmen have 18 points. The seniors make a poor third with 5 points, and the juniors have so far failed to get a single point. Below is a summary of this morning's events:

WOMEN BURGLARS BROKE STORE WINDOW.

One of Them Said She Was Too Respectable to Steal, the Other Ditto, and "Anyway She Was Too Drunk to Remember."

Mary O'Loughlin and Agnes Donnelly said that they were not guilty when arraigned before Judge Lafontaine to-day on a charge of breaking a plate glass window in front of Robertson's fur store on St. James street, and stealing from the window furs to the value of about $45. There may have been more than this taken, but Mr. Robertson is not sure.

The robbery took place about 1.30 o'clock this morning. A policeman heard the breaking of glass, and on hastening to the scene found the two girls walking away. Each had a fur boa around her neck, and near them on the ground was a pair of fur mitts. They were arrested and taken to the Central Station.

To-day when she appeared in court Mary O'Loughlin said that she was too respectable to steal, and when asked how she came to have the fur boa on her neck she replied that a man had broken the glass, stolen the furs and then threw them away. She saw no harm in picking them up and wearing them.

Agnes Donnelly was asked if she too was so respectable that she could not steal. "Indeed I am," she replied, "and anyway I was so drunk that I don't remember anything about the matter."

They both objected to any delay in their trial, but they cannot be accommodated for at least three days. Then they will be tried in enquete and in all probability sent to the King's Bench.

ST. GEORGE'S LODGE, NO. 440.

A Festive Reunion at Which Brothers in South Africa are Remembered.

That good old English Lodge, St. George's, 440, A. F. and A. M., had a largely attended meeting at their rooms on St Catherine street last night. The usual loyal toasts were honoured, including that of His Royal Highness the Grand Master of England. The W. M., W. Bro. W. McGilton, extended a hearty welcome to the visitors, and the following responded: W. Bro. Rutherford, W. M. of St. Lawrence, E.R.; W. Bro. Sergt.-Major Fellows, W. G. of Antiquity; W. Bro. Hurst, R. W. Bro. Harry Dunne, W. Bro. Dr. Lauterman and Bro. Mount. A pleasing departure from the usual order of toasts was the health of our brothers in South Africa, which was introduced in a very neat speech, by W. Bro. Kennedy. He said that there were members of St. George's there now upholding the old flag, and he was proud to say that his own son was one of them. Amongst the W. Bros. who responded for the toast of the lodge, besides the W. Master, were W. Bro. Wm. Maynard, W. Bro. Chas. Chappell, W. Bro. J. Martin, W. Bro. J. Brown and W. Bro. D. K. Kennedy. There was, as usual, a number of excellent songs.
