DESERTED from the Ship OLIVE BRANCH, THOMAS REYNOLDS, Commander, between 14th and 16th current.—JAMES RODDUM, Ships Carpenter, aged 29 years, 5 feet 7 inches high, of a swarthy complexion...

LONDON, June 21.—The King came to town yesterday from Windsor. His Majesty arrived at the Queen's Palace about 12 o'clock.

His Majesty held a levee soon after 2 o'clock. The following had the honor of being presented to His Majesty:— Captain Sir James Yeo, Royal Navy, on receiving his Majesty's permission to accept the rank of a Knight of St. Benito, of Avis, and the honor of British knighthood.

Vice Admiral Sir Robert Calder, on his appointment to the command at Plymouth. Brigadier General Balfour, on his appointment to the Staff of Nova Scotia, and upon his departure thither.

His Majesty held a Privy Council, at which his Speech, delivered this day by the Lords Commissioners for proroguing Parliament, was read.

House of Lords, June 21.—About three o'clock the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Chancellor, the Earl of Westmorland, the Marquis Wellesley, and the Earl of Aylesford, took their seats at his Majesty's Commissioners.

The LORD CHANCELLOR, in his Majesty's name, delivered the following Speech:—

My Lords and Gentlemen, His Majesty has commanded us to acquaint you, that, as the public business is now concluded, he thinks it proper to put an end to the present Session of Parliament.

We are commanded by his Majesty to express the satisfaction he derives from the reduction of the island of Guadeloupe by his Majesty's arms, an event which, for the first time in the history of the wars of Great Britain, has wrested from France all her possessions in that quarter of the world; and which, together with the subsequent capture of the only colonies in the West Indies which remained in the possession of the Dutch, has deprived his Majesty's enemies of every port in those seas from which the interest of his Majesty, or the commerce of his subjects, can be molested.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons, His Majesty has commanded us to thank you for the liberal and ample supplies which you have granted for the service of the present year.

His Majesty deeply regrets the necessary extent of the demands which those services have created; but we are commanded to express to you the consolation which he has derived from observing that the resources of the country, manifesting themselves by every mark of prosperity, by a revenue increasing in almost all its branches, and by a commerce extending itself in new channels, and with an increased vigour in proportion as the enemy has in vain attempted to destroy it, have enabled you to provide for the expenses of the year, without imposing the burden of any new taxation in Great Britain; and that, while the taxes which have been necessarily resorted to for Ireland have been imposed upon articles which will not interfere with the growing prosperity of that country, you have found it consistent with a due regard to its finances to diminish some of those burdens, and relax some of those regulations of revenue, which had been felt the most inconvenient in that part of the United Kingdom.

His Majesty further commands us to return you his thanks for the provision which you have enabled him to make for the establishment of his Serene Highness the Duke of Brunswick.

My Lords and Gentlemen, His Majesty has directed us to acquaint you, that Portugal, rescued from the oppression of the enemy, by the powerful assistance of his Majesty's arms, has exerted herself with vigour and energy in making every preparation for repelling, with the continued aid of his Majesty's forces, any renewed attack on the part of the enemy, and that in Spain, notwithstanding the reverses which have been experienced, the spirit of resistance against France still continues unabated and unabated.

His Majesty commands us to assure you of his firm and unaltered conviction, that not only the honour of his Throne, but the best interests of his dominions, require his most strenuous and persevering assistance to the glorious efforts of those loyal Nations.

His Majesty has commanded us to recommend to you, upon your return to your respective Counties, to use your best exertions to promote that spirit of order and obedience to the laws, and that general concord amongst all classes of his Majesty's subjects, which can alone give full effect to his Majesty's paternal care for the welfare and happiness of his people.

His Majesty has the fullest reliance upon the affections of his subjects, whose loyalty and attachment have hitherto supported him through that long and eventful period, during which it has pleased Divine Providence to commit the interests of these Dominions to his charge. His Majesty feels that the preservation of domestic peace and tranquility, under the protection of the law, and in obedience to its authority, is amongst the most important duties which he owes to his people.

His Majesty commands us to assure you, that he will not be wanting in the discharge of that duty; and his Majesty will always rely with confidence on the continued support of his loyal subjects, to enable him to resist with success the designs of foreign enemies, and to transmit unimpaired to posterity the blessings of the British Constitution.

The LORD CHANCELLOR, in his Majesty's name, and by virtue of the said Commission, declared the Parliament to be prorogued to Tuesday, the 21st of August next, to be then then holden.

The Commons retired from the Bar, and the Lords Commissioners withdrew from the House.

LONDON, June 22.—Our readers have been already informed of the reduction of the island of St. Maura. The official despatches from Sir John Stuart, in Sicily, were not received till yesterday. The expedition was conducted with great gallantry by Brigadier-General Oswald. The batteries were opened against the place nine days before it surrendered.

The French garrison, consisting of 714 men, are prisoners of war. We are sorry to announce that Major Clarke, of the 35th Regiment, with one subaltern and 22 rank and file, are stated to have been killed—and two Field Officers, seven Captains, two subalterns, and about 130 men wounded.

LIBERATION OF SIR FRANCIS BURDETT. Never have we witnessed such a disappointment as was generally experienced yesterday. The whole of the morning—indeed the whole of the day, till five in the evening, was occupied in preparations for an expected procession.

Not only this large capital, but all the towns and villages for many miles round, poured out their thousands and tens of thousands, who all thronged to the neighbourhood of the Tower, or to the streets through which Sir FRANCIS BURDETT was to have passed. The windows, parapets, and many of the roofs of houses in the line of the expected route were filled or covered with people—even chimney tops were in some places occupied, and the streets were thronged past all description.

All was impatient expectation as the hour approached. The hour came, but no procession! And at length it was announced that Sir Francis had crossed the Thames, and proceeded to his house at Wimbledon!! Language cannot describe the extent of the disappointment; nor could it be otherwise, considering the great preparations that had been made for the day.

The Committee, disappointed of the object which had caused the assemblage, were at a loss how to conduct themselves. They resolved, however, as the readiest way for dispersing the assembled multitude, that the procession should proceed to the house of the Baronet, and then file off and disperse in different directions.

It was nearly five o'clock before the procession moved from Tower-hill. The phæton with four horses provided for Sir Francis Burdett was empty. And our readers may conceive the effect of a procession where the principal hero was absent. The multitudes assembled in all the line of the march exceeded any thing we ever witnessed.

Ladies from every window were seen waving their handkerchiefs, and the spectators in the streets uncovering and huzzing as it passed. The tops of the houses were covered with spectators, and several temporary balconies exhibited groups of fine women, who appeared to divide with the procession the admiration of the day.

The sides of the streets were lined with coaches, chaises, waggons, drays, &c. &c. the owners of which levied a liberal poll contribution by accommodating as many persons as they could possibly crowd into, and upon, their respective vehicles—there was not a single spot from whence a more elevated view could be had than was not put into requisition.

The equestrian statue of Charles the First was literally covered with spectators—so early as five o'clock, St. James's Park was cleared and all the gates leading to it locked.

By nine o'clock the great body of the people dispersed from Piccadilly, and, to that period, we are confident, that although the greatest concourse of people that ever were seen collected, met upon this occasion, yet not a single act of violence or tendency to tumult took place amongst them.

The Strand and the principal streets through which the procession had passed, were illuminated at night—a crowd parading the streets, and calling out for lights; and windows were broken—where no lights were put up. The Sheriffs exerted themselves; and Mr. Sheriff Wood addressed the crowd, opposite The Morning Post Office. He stated that the Sheriffs had exerted themselves, and, hitherto, with success, to preserve the peace of the cities of London and Westminster without the aid of the military.

No man could be more friendly to their cause than he was; and he requested they would consider that nothing could be more injurious to that cause than riot and disorder. He begged of them to reflect what their enemies would say to-morrow, if they conducted themselves improperly. He had neither time nor inclination to make a long speech, but he hoped they would have the good sense immediately to disperse. A shout of applause followed. The Sheriff, rode on, and the crowd dispersed instantaneously.

This morning a deputation from the Committee waited on Sir Francis, at Wimbledon. It is expected they will receive from him an explanation of the motives which induced him to avoid joining in the procession.

The Ministers of State had each in their residences two Police Officers, accompanied with a guard of soldiers, where they remained under arms till five o'clock this morning.

The following is a list of the troops, independently of the Volunteers, collected yesterday in and about the Metropolis: One Battalion of Foot Guards, in Hyde Park.

One Ditto Ditto, Portman-street Barracks. One Ditto Ditto, Knightsbridge Barracks. Two Regiments of Life Guards, Hyde Park, and New Road Barracks.

15th Light Dragoons, Kensington, Hammersmith, &c. Oxford Blues, Turnham Green, Hounslow, &c. Stafford Militia, ditto.

A Brigade of Regulars and Militia, with three guns, at Hampstead, &c. 10th Light Dragoons, Whitechapel-road. 3d Dragoon Guards, at Greenwich, Kent-road, &c. 1st Regiment of Dragoons, Lambeth.

Surrey Yeomanry, Clapham Common. A Brigade of Militia, with 3 guns, at Stratford, Bow, &c. Tower Hamlets Militia, in Hackney-road. Renfrew and Ross-shire Militia, New Mint, Tower-hill. Various Regulars and Militia in the Tower.

All the Guards, not elsewhere on duty, were under arms at the Horse Guards, Birdseye-walk, &c.; and on the Parade, Hyde-park, 1.150 on green, the different corps of Artillery, with a number of field-pieces, flying-artillery, ammunition-waggons, &c. with their horses and drivers, were ready at a minute's notice.

There were also, within a short distance from town, various reserves of Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry. The 12th Light Dragoons arrived in town from Rumford about twelve o'clock.

The Duke of CUMBERLAND has determined to dismiss all foreigners from his domestic employment. JUNE, 23.—We congratulate the public upon a full confirmation of the safety of the whole of the Spanish men of war lately in such danger of falling into the hands of the enemy, at Carthage.

Consisting of the San Carlos and San Fernando, of 130 guns each, both new ships; the Guerrero, of 74; the San Palebelo, 74; and the Soledad frigate. The two first are at Gibraltar, and the rest are now at Mahon.

We yesterday gave a list of the troops collected in and around the Metropolis in the course of the week. Last night orders were issued to the head-quarters of the various corps for them to return to their former stations.

The 2d Battalion of the 8th Foot are at Spithhead, last from Guernsey. They are going out in ships of war to join the 1st Battalion at Halifax.

SIR FRANCIS BURDETT.—The following is an account of this gentleman's motives for not joining in the procession, in a conversation between him and one of his Committee:—

"We were received by Sir Francis Burdett, in the presence of his brother. Sir Francis said, his conduct this day had been the result of the deepest reflection—it had occupied his mind more than half the time he had been in the Tower; that notwithstanding the public might feel disappointed, and would no doubt express that disappointment strongly, yet he was convinced that in less than six weeks there would not be a reflecting mind in the kingdom that would not approve of what he had done.

Our enemies, he said, had been base enough to charge him with the blood that had been shed; and had he, by gratifying his personal vanity, been the cause of a single accident, or the death of any person, he should have reflected upon it with pain for the remainder of his life. We stated the little probability of, and the precaution that had been taken to prevent, even the possibility of mischief. Sir Francis replied, there was no answering for the public feeling. We further stated that his determination ought to have been made known; to this Sir Francis remarked, that it was absolutely necessary there should be an expression of public sentiment; that was now complete, and his being in the procession could not have added thereto.

We said, we wished that some of our friends had been in the Tower, to have forced him into the carriage.—Sir Francis expressed his gratitude for that expression of kindness, as indeed he did to all his friends, but this would have had the appearance of finesse; that he looked only to the public cause, which he was convinced would be benefited by his conduct, and of this all his friends would no doubt be convinced."

QUEEN'S PALACE, June 20.—The King was this day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Captain Sir James Lucas Yeo, of the Royal Navy, Knight, Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of Saint Bento d'Aviz.

SIR RICHARD STRACAN is now nominated to the Chief Command in the East Indies, instead of Admiral KEES; and will sail, it is said, in the AFRICANE frigate, now at Plymouth.

The 8th (or King's Own) have sailed from Jersey for Halifax in Nova Scotia, in the transports which carried the 26th and 77th to Jersey.

DIED.—At Addresser-Lodge, near Stoke Goldington, Bucks, on Saturday the 9th inst. at an advanced age, Colonel PHILIP SKENE, formerly of Skeneborough, Lieutenant Governor of Crown Point and Ticonderoga, and Surveyor of His Majesty's woods and forests bordering on Lake Champlain, in the State of New-York.

Colonel Skene has left a son and two daughters to lament his death. June 28.—An article from Hamburg states, that the scheme of marrying Ferdinand Vilth to the daughter of Lucien Bonaparte has been abandoned, and that she and her father have returned to Italy.

The Foot Guards were yesterday morning inspected by their Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge and Duke of Gloucester, in St. James's Park. After which, 150 of the 2d Regiment, and 150 of the 3d Regiment, were ordered to hold themselves in readiness for foreign service. Portugal is mentioned as their destination.

All vessels ready for sea at Plymouth have been ordered to proceed to sea with all possible dispatch. Their destination is supposed to be the Tagus, in order that they may be ready to assist in removing our army, should the French advance into Portugal with an overwhelming force; but, although this supposition is certainly not irrational, it is nevertheless not improbable that they may be intended to watch the armament which is said to be preparing on the Coast of Brittany.

A strong squadron, under the command of Sir Edward Pellew, will sail, in a few days, on a secret expedition. We forbear to mention, for obvious reasons, the probable destination of this armament, or the port at which it is to assemble.

Four ships of the line and some frigates are to be sent out immediately to the Mediterranean, as a naval reinforcement is necessary to prevent an attack on Sicily and on the Ionian Islands; as an expedition is in great forwardness, said to amount to 40,000 men, of which Murat, King of Naples, is to have the command, and which have been collecting for some time past on the coast of Calabria.

We have received German papers to the 17th inst. Private letters from Germany state, that the Toulon fleet has put to sea. The German papers are silent upon the subject; but they say that a French squadron of two sail of the line and six frigates has appeared off Otranto. An expedition from Calabria is talked of. Murat is there—its destination is said to be not against Sicily, but against Greece. Our ships swarm in the Adriatic, and harass greatly the Venetian coasts.

Mr. Cobbet, it is said, will be brought up to the King's Bench, on Saturday, when the Court will hear what he has to urge in mitigation of punishment. He will then be committed to prison and ordered to be brought up on a future day to receive judgment. His defence is generally allowed to have displayed no talents, and to have lowered him in public estimation.

With a view, probably, to retrieve himself, we understand he is preparing to address the Court in person, as on his trial. LONDON, June 30.—A vessel is arrived at Falmouth from Tarragona, which has brought some favourable accounts of the state of affairs in Catalonia. Besides the army of O'Donnell, there are four other divisions of the Patriots, who continually harass the enemy, and almost daily send prisoners into Tarragona. Suchet, it was said, was on his march against a division strongly posted on the frontiers of the province.

Importations of Spanish wool into this kingdom has been lately so very great, that a reduction of price has taken place in that article of nearly 50 per cent.

CORN EXCHANGE.—MARK LANE, June 30. The supplies of Wheat to-day are considerable, with further foreign arrivals this week of 30,000 quarters, and sales are heavy at rather lower prices. Oats, Flour, Barley, Malt, Pesse and beans, fluctuate but little.

Wheat 84s. a 100s. a 110s. PRICE OF STOCKS THIS DAY AT TWELVE O'CLOCK. Consols for opening... 71 1/2 Onnium... 100 1/2

AGRICULTURAL REPORT FOR JUNE.—The growing Wheats have so much improved by the dry weather, that if the thin plants keep clear of mildew, we may calculate upon three-fourths of an average crop.

GREENOCK, July 4.—Paris Papers to the 25th ultimo, have arrived. They contain some news from the Peninsula, but not of importance. Several columns of the Monitor are occupied with details respecting the capture of Mequinesa, an inconsiderable place at the confluence of the Ebro.

The silence of these journals respecting Sebastiani's corps is rather suspicious. The rumours of its defeat was very prevalent in France some weeks ago, and yet nothing transpires to confirm or discredit them.

It will be seen in our Law Report that the Actions brought by Sir Francis Burdett against the Serjeant at Arms and Ld. Moira, will be tried at Bar, in Michelmass term next. The Case of the Action against the Speaker will be argued on Demurrer.

PARIS, June 20.—The news from the army of Spain is very unimportant. ARAGON.—The Commander in Chief of the 3d corps gives, under the date of June 3, the following details:—The capture of Lerida, that of Hostalrich, and the continual checks experienced by the insurgents of Catalonia, have so much discouraged them, that every thing announces the speedy reduction of that province.

The Duke of Dalmatia writes, under the date of the 20th May, that every thing is quiet in the interior of Andalusia; that the public spirit is good, and that the Alpujares are pacified.

ARMY IN PORTUGAL.—On the 31st May the Prince of Ealing had his head-quarters at Salamanca. The Duke of Elchingen is besieging Ciudad Rodrigo. The trenches will be opened on the 1st of June. The head-quarters of the British army are at Almeida, the right wing of that army is at Arbrantes, and the left at the Duero. The British and French armies being separated by a mountainous and rugged country, no event of importance has taken place.

June 21.—Last night their Imperial and Royal Majesties went to the Theatre Francais, to see the representation of Glana and the Fausses infidelities. They were greeted by the loudest acclamations of an exceedingly crowded and respectable audience, who were eager to behold their Sovereigns, and on their rising to leave the theatre their shouts were equally unanimous.

On the 19th inst. their Majesties the Emperor and Empress hunted in the forest of St. Germain. His Majesty the Emperor yesterday held a Council of his Ministers at St. Cloud.

On Saturday last their Majesties repaired to Maisons, the residence of the Duchess of Montebello. "We NAPOLEON, &c." Art. 1. On and after the 1st of July, of the present year, the exportation of wheat shall be prohibited throughout the whole range of our ports, from the island of Schowen southward to the harbour of L'Orient, comprehending both those places within the terms of this decree.

Art. 2. On and after the above date of the 1st of July, within the range of coast above stated, the exportation of oats is also hereby prohibited.

Given at our Chamber of Commerce, at Paris, June 22, 1810. "PARIS, June 22.—"It is said that the Emperor Alexander is about to assume the chief command of his army in Turkey, and that Prince Bragration will be immediately under him. We give this information merely as a report. By the last accounts Prince Bragration had not arrived at the head-quarters."

"CONSTANTINOPLE, May 15.—"The Grand Vizier, has arrived at the head quarters, but he has not advanced with the army; he waits the additional supplies of troops from the provinces. It is reported that new disturbances have broken out in Servia, Disputes of an unpleasant nature, we are sorry to say, exist in our Divan."

"CROSTADT, June 10.—"Twenty-five ships have arrived here in safety, and all goes on well for the present. There is no appearance of any obstruction with trade."

FRANKFORT, June 12.—An opinion at present prevails in the North, which supposes the union of the Crown of Sweden to that of Denmark, as extremely favourable to the system which guides the politics of the Continental Powers, whilst it would concentrate the force of the Scandinavian people, making their means and their interests the same, by the union of the two monarchies; an union which the British, above all nations, have a thousand reasons for being afraid of.

MILAN, June 6.—Report says, that his Holiness Pope Pius VII. at the intercession of a certain great Court, is to be indemnified for the loss of his dominions. Baron Libeltzern has obtained leave from the Court of Austria, in concert with the Emperor of France, to pay a visit to his Holiness at Savona.

YESTERDAY'S BURLINGTON MAIL.

PHILADELPHIA, August 9.—We have seen a Badajoz (Portuguese) paper of the 19th June, brought up by a pilot, which states, that the garrison of Ciudad Rodrigo, had made a desperate sortie on the French besieging them. An action took place from 6 in the morning till 3 P. M. with artillery, &c. and from half past 3 till 6 in the evening, with the musket and bayonet. The French took possession of a wood, from which they were at last driven and routed. The French left 1000 on the field. We do not know what the loss of the victorious Spaniards has been, though it is no doubt considerable.

BOSTON, August 13.—Capt. Baker, arrived at Baltimore from Corunna, which he left 26th June, says—the report at Corunna when he sailed was, that the combined British, Spanish and Portuguese armies on the frontiers of Portugal were 150,000 strong, and the French 70,000; that Massena waited for a small reinforcement, with which when arrived, he would make an attack; that the English had made several attempts to bring on an engagement, but could not effect it, owing to the French retreating.

Since the arrival of the Tamahmah, from Liverpool, a considerable quantity of flour has been bought up for the English market, at ten dollars and three quarters, and some at eleven dollars. It is now said a letter was received by this vessel, stating that the crops in England were very unpromising.—N. Y. Gazette.

The pregnancy of Bonaparte's new Empress, says the London papers, is officially announced!

SALEM, August 10.—Ship Plato, Capt. Harris, arrived here from Tonningen, which place he left 26th June. By this arrival we learn, that in consequence of the remonstrances of the French Government, the King had ordered the ports of Tonningen and Husum to be shut against the Americans.

American property was respected in the Danish ports in Schleswig and Holstein, but it was quite problematic how long it would continue so.

The passengers in the Plato report that all American vessels at Stetin were sequestered.

MONTREAL, August 20.—On Wednesday last, (says the Lansburgh Gazette, of the 7th instant) Mr. McKay, who accompanied Sir Alexander MacKenzie on his tour to the Pacific Ocean some years since, arrived in this village from Montreal, with thirteen men, in the employ of the company. The next morning eleven of the party embarked with their baggage for New-York, in a bark canoe, which they brought with them from Montreal. From New-York they will proceed in a vessel to Columbia river, on the north-west coast, where they expect to meet the party who embarked at La Chine under Mr. Donald MacKenzie, some time in July next. The route of the latter party across the continent it is said will be near 10,000 miles.

J. H. CRAIG, GOV'R.

GEORGE THE THIRD by the Grace of GOD

of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith; to our much beloved and faithful Legislative Counsellors of our Province of Lower Canada, and to our faithful and well beloved the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of our said Province, to an Assembly at our City of Quebec on the Thirty-first day of August instant to have been commenced and held, called and elected, and to every of you Greeting; Whereas for divers urgent, and arduous affairs, of the state and defence of our said Province concerning our Assembly at the day and place aforesaid to be present, we did command, to treat, consent and conclude upon, those things which in our Assembly, should then and there be proposed and deliberated upon, and for certain causes and considerations, as to this specially moving, we have thought fit further to prorogue our said Assembly, so that you, nor any of you on the said Thirty-first day of August at our said City to appear, are to be held or constrained, for we do will therefore, that you and each of you be as to us in this matter entirely exonerated. Commanding and by the tenor of these presents firmly enjoining you and every of you, and all others in this behalf interested, that on the Twelfth day of October next, at our said City of Quebec personally you be and appear to treat, do, act and conclude upon those things, which in our said Assembly by the common council of our said Province in the favour of God may be ordained. In testimony whereof these Our Letters we have caused to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be thereunto affixed: Witness, Our Right Trusty and well beloved Sir JAMES HENRY CRAIG, K. B. Our Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over Our said Province of Lower Canada, &c. &c. at our Castle of St. Lewis, in our City of Quebec, in our said Province, the Twenty third day of August in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & ten, in the Fifth year of Our Regn.

J. H. C. Ls. MONTIZAMBERT, Aetg. C. C. in Ch.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, QUEBEC, 20th AUGUST, 1810.

His Excellency the GOVERNOR IN CHIEF has been pleased to appoint ALEXANDER FRASER Waiter and Searcher for the Port of Quebec.

QUEBEC. THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1810.

We have been favored with London and Greenock papers to the 4th July, from which we have given extracts sufficiently ample to shew the general aspect of European affairs, as far as was publicly known in England, at that time.

The latest date from Portugal is the 27th June, and was received through the States last week. No account of any recent action between the British and French armies had then reached Lisbon. A letter has however been received in town from Halifax, dated the 1st Aug. which mentions that reports had been received there of two actions having taken place, which ended favorably to the British arms. Whether the report given in this letter is founded on similar reports which reached Newfoundland in a vessel which left Portugal in May, or on accounts brought by some more recent arrival, we cannot determine, as no name of vessel or date of sailing, is given in the letter. The British forces in Portugal act on the defensive, and though the enemy shows a decided intention of again invading that country, he apparently meets with great difficulties in bringing up reinforcements and procuring supplies; it appears also, that he had determined to lay siege to Ciudad Rodrigo, before which, according to the French accounts, the trenches could not be opened before the beginning of June.

The latest accounts from Spain were also received last week through the United States. Up to the 20th June, the French had made no impression on Cadiz, and the Spaniards continued in arms in various parts of the country.

DINNER IN HONOR OF MR. JACKSON.

On Friday last, the Merchants of Quebec gave a public dinner, at the Union Hotel, to the Right Honourable Francis James Jackson, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary near the United States of America; and were also honored by the presence of His Excellency the Governor in Chief and suite; with His Majesty's Judges, the Legislative and Executive Councils, present at Quebec, Monseigneur the Catholic Bishop, (the Lord Bishop of Quebec being in Upper Canada, the Merchants were deprived of the honor of his company) all the Staff Officers in Garrison, the commanding and other field officers of regiments, in garrison; and all the different heads of Departments, with several of the Protestant and Catholic Clergy, and a number of strangers, on visits at Quebec. The short time betwixt Mr. Jackson's arrival and the time fixed for his departure rendered it nearly impossible for the Merchants to accomplish, in the smallest degree, their united wishes of receiving their dignified guests in a suitable way; yet by the indefatigable exertions of the Committee appointed at their general meeting, and a readiness, on the part of their friends to render them every assistance, they succeeded beyond all expectation. The death of the Landlord of the Hotel, on the second day after they commenced their preparations, deprived them of nearly all assistance from the people of the house. Mr. Hetherington, house painter and paper-hanger, much to his credit, colored and prepared the great ball room in a very handsome manner, in three days; but time would not admit of doing the same to the other apartments or the stair case and hall. The table was laid in the great ball room, by Mr. King, assisted by the principal servants of the gentlemen of the town. At the head of the room, immediately behind the president, were placed the Arms of His Majesty, elegantly emblazoned, with the Colors of Colonel Hall's battalion of militia, suspended on either side. The Orchestra was filled with the fine band of the King's Regiment, by permission of Col. Young. At three quarters past five His Excellency the Governor in Chief's carriage arrived at the door of the Hotel, with His Excellency and Mr. Jackson. They were received and conducted into the house, by the principal Merchants. At six o'clock dinner was announced, and His Excellency the Governor in Chief took his seat on the right of the President, the Honourable James Irvine, Esq. Mr. Jackson sat on his left. The rest of the company were placed at the principal table, according to their rank; and the whole amounting to 120, were commodiously seated. The Vice-Presidents and managing Committee were John Caldwell, W. Burns, D. Monro, J. Mure, J. Stuart, George Hamilton, B. P. Wagner, J. D. Hamilton and J. H. Joffille, Esquires; each of whom had his assigned seat and duty to attend to. The dinner was composed of the best of every thing that could possibly be procured, and did credit to the caterers as well as to Mr. Pretabore, the cook. It was served up with much taste and great regularity. After the removal of the first course the room was lighted, which gave to the whole a much grander appearance. The second course and the dessert, principally provided by Messrs. Palmer & Co. (particularly the pastry, jellies and ices) were of the very best, as were the different kinds of wines and other liquors, from the vaults of the principal Wine Merchants. On entering the dinner room the band struck up "God Save the King"; and continued to play different select pieces of music during the dinner. After the cloth was removed, the following toasts were given and drank by every one present with great glee:—

1. "The King."—with 3 times 3. Music, "God Save the King."

2. "The Queen." Ditto.

3. "The Prince of Wales and Royal Family." Ditto.

4. "His Excellency the Governor in Chief, and may long remain under his Paternal Government."—3 times Music, "The Duke of York's March."

His Excellency rose and thanked the company, in glowing terms, and proposed a Volunteer Toast of "Prosperity to the Province of Lower Canada"—which was drunk with enthusiasm, and 3 times 3.

5. Mr. Jackson, His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, whose urbanity, dignity and firmness, united with superior abilities, have enabled him to maintain the honor of our King and Country in peculiarly important situations and under trying circumstances, as affecting his personal feelings.—3 times 3—Music, "Gang nœ mair to you town."

Mr. Jackson rose and addressed the company, and concluded by proposing as a Volunteer Toast, "The hand that governs with firmness, and the heart that obeys with cheerfulness."—Which was drunk with 3 times 3.

6. "The Lieutenant-Governor and Province of Upper-Canada"—Music, "The March of the King's Regiment."

7. "The Army."—Music, "British Grenadiers."

Mr. Jackson addressed the company, making allusion to the eminent services of His Excellency the Governor in Chief, as well as in the bosom of his country as in every quarter of the globe; and proposed 3 times 3 in honor of the Army, to which he paid many well-merited compliments. This was most enthusiastically acceded to, and followed by nine hearty cheers.

8. "The Navy."—3 times 3.—Music, "Hearts of Oak."

9. "The Constitution."—May we ever prove grateful for the many blessings we enjoy under it.—Music, "O, the roast beef of Old England."

10. "The United armies in Spain and Portugal, may they emulate the virtues of their heroic leaders, and meet with the success they so well deserve."—3 times 3.—Music, "Britons strike home."

11. "Copenhagen policy, the legitimate and hitherto successful means of controlling Bonaparte."—Music, "Down fall of Paris."

Mr. Jackson rose and said he had but one remark to make on the allusion here made, that Bonaparte had regretted his not adopting that policy.

12. "Accommodation betwixt our mother Country and the United States of America, on principles mutually honorable."—Music, "Hail lovely peace."

13. "Ships, Colonies and Commerce."—Music, "Rule Britannia."

This was the last of the toasts proposed by the managing Committee.—The President then directed a bumper to be filled, and proposed "The health of Mrs. Jackson, and a safe and pleasant passage to England" which was drunk with 3 times 3.

Mr. Jackson again rose and thanked the company in the name of his Lady, concluding with the following toast—"Prosperity to the City of Quebec."

When the King was given, and also at the 4th and 5th toasts, the unanimous and heartfelt plaudits continued for many minutes, and likewise on receiving the thanks of His Excellency the Governor in Chief; and at each time the company was addressed by Mr. Jackson.—At half past nine the two illustrious visitors withdrew, the music playing "God save the King" accompanied by a long continued clapping of hands, mingled, however, with expressions of regret at their early departure.—They went from the Hotel to the Theatre, where they were received in like manner.—A great part of the company remained a considerable time after; when many loyal and patriotic toasts were proposed and drunk; amongst which the following from Monseigneur the Catholic Bishop: "The British Nation; may it long enjoy the blessings of Heaven for the kind and liberal hospitality, relief and support it afforded to the Catholic Clergy, after the Revolutions of France and Spain" 3 times 3.

The health of the worthy President was then proposed as a bumper toast, and drunk with the like honors.—The President thanked the company with much natural diffidence, expressing his high sense of the honor that had been done him; and his regret at not being better able to fulfil the duties of the chair.—He wished to say more but was silenced by the universal plaudits of the company.

"The Militia of the Province" was then proposed and drunk upon which Mr. More addressed the chair and reminded Mr. President that he had the honor of distinguishing himself that day, under the colors of the Regiment of Militia, to which most of the company present belonged, that he trusted the whole corps would on all occasions distinguish themselves under and in defence of them, and that being honored with the presence of their Colonel, he hoped he might be permitted to propose his health, together with the Militia of Quebec; which being unanimously and cordially approved of, the health of Colonel Hale and the Quebec Militia was given and drunk with great applause.—Col. Hale addressed the President and thanked him and the company for the honor conferred on him; adding that he was confident that the Militia would ever do their duty.—Monseigneur, accompanied by the Grand Vicaire, the Superior of the Seminary, the Curé de Quebec, and the Bishop's Secretary retired at ten o'clock.

It is an agreeable reflection to the Merchants, who gave this elegant entertainment, that both His Majesty's illustrious Representatives appeared to be well pleased with their exertions to make them so; and that the whole of their visitors seemed equally satisfied with the attention paid to them.

Mr. Jackson, his Lady and Son, an uncommonly fine boy of four years old, left Woodfield, the Country seat of Matthew Bell, Esq. on Saturday, for Montreal, in one of His Excellency the Governor's Carriages, intending to sleep at the Honble. Mr. De Lanaudiere's, at Ste. Anne's.—We understand that they will remain one day at Montreal, and then proceed to New York, where it is supposed that the Venus frigate is arrived to convey them to G. Britain.

Mr. Jackson's ready attention to every representation from this country coupled with the recollection of the harsh treatment he had met with on his way hither, rendered him highly worthy of every mark of attention from the mercantile body; and they are highly gratified by the opportunity afforded them, regretting, at the same time, the impossibility that existed of paying that marked attention to Mrs. Jackson which they sincerely wished to have done; and in which they were joined by every Lady in the society, as well as by the Gentlemen not immediately interested in Commerce.—Mercury.

Thursday being the Duke of York's birth day, His Excellency the Governor in Chief gave, in the manner of the two preceding years a Fête champêtre, to a very numerous company, at Powell place. The festivities of the day were greatly enhanced by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson. At dinner, after the usual loyal toasts, His Excellency the Governor was pleased to give "Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, a pleasant passage to their native country, and a happy meeting of their friends."

Mr. Jackson rose and expressed his gratitude to His Excellency for his good wishes, as well as for the distinguished hospitality shown him both by His Excellency and the province. Rule Britannia having been played after one of the toasts, the British minister, with Sir James's permission, proposed that the time be followed by three cheers, with which every voice most heartily acceded. On Sir James's leaving the table, Mr. Jackson gave His Excellency, in a bumper, with three times three, when the air resounded with the most animated cheers. The company retired late in the evening, highly gratified and exhilarated with the pleasures of the day.—Ibid.

tenced to pay a fine of 5s. sterling, for having been found drunk in the street on Sunday night.

23d August, 1810.

John Jones, of Quebec, Notary Public, was sentenced to pay a fine of 5s. sterling, for having been found drunk in the Upper Town Market Place of this city, this morning at 6 o'clock.

Now I do hereby give notice that the aforesaid lands and tenements will be sold and adjudged to the highest bidder, at the Church door of the Parish of SOREL, in the district aforesaid, on MONDAY the TWENTY-FOURTH day of DECEMBER next, at TEN of the clock in the forenoon, at which time and place the conditions of sale will be made known.

Edw. Wm. GRAY, Sheriff.

All and every person or persons having claims on the above described lands and tenements, by mortgage or other right or incumbrance, are hereby advertised to give notice thereof to the said Sheriff at his office in the city of Montreal, according to law; and further that no opposition à l'annulation de l'ajudication of the whole or any part of the said lands and tenements, or à la charge or servitude on the same, will be received during the fifteen days previous to the sale thereof. Sheriff's Office, 16th August, 1810.

BY VIRTUE OF A WRIT OF EXECUTION to wit, BY virtue of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, holding civil pleas, in and for the district of Montreal aforesaid, at the suit of Louis Joseph Fleury Dechambault, Esquire, and Gilles Boucher de Labrousse Montarville, his wife, by him duly authorized, and Thomas Pierre Joseph Taschereau, Esquire, and Françoise Boucher de Labrousse Montarville, his wife, by him duly authorized, against the lands and tenements of Joseph Bourgois, dit Canique, to me directed, I have seized and taken in execution as belonging to the said JOSEPH BOURGOIS, dit CANIQUE, a town lot situate in the parish of Saint Denis, in the said district, in the second range, containing three arpents, less the two arpents and thirty arpents in depth, bounded to the north east by Louis Brodeur, to the south west by Louis Messier, in the front by Michel Messier, and in the rear by Marc Cordeau. Now I do hereby give notice that the said land will be sold and adjudged to the highest bidder, at the Church door of the parish of SAINT DENIS aforesaid, on MONDAY the TWENTY-FOURTH day of DECEMBER next, at TEN of the clock in the forenoon, at which time and place the conditions of sale will be made known.

Edw. Wm. GRAY, Sheriff.

All and every person or persons having claims on the above described land, by mortgage or other right or incumbrance, are hereby advertised to give notice thereof to the said Sheriff, at his Office, in the City of Montreal, according to law; and further that no opposition à l'annulation de l'ajudication of the whole or any part of the said land, or à la charge or servitude on the same, will be received during the fifteen days previous to the sale thereof.—Sheriff's Office, 16th August, 1810
