A Window on the World

2005 Calendar

A World to Love...

Each day, we live at the pace of current events and our lives are affected by what happens in the world. The entire planet has become so familiar to us that it is right here, nearby, before our eyes, in our hearts, in our prayer. We discover new regions, other peoples, other ways of living and thinking. But we also witness suffering and violence ravaging our world. Helplessly, we watch incomprehensible blunders that are utterly mindless of human life.

Are there any signs of better times to come for our world? Are there any seeds of peace and justice germinating and growing on this earth? We try to understand and to love this universe in which we are active participants. We try to figure out the meaning of events and situations befalling us. We step back and take a broader look, we wait confidently for better days, we try to detect early signs of a brighter future and to believe that there is always a way out... The hope we nourish day by day encourages us to act. It opens our minds to God Himself, to his outlook on our world, to his promises and to his love. He sees all things. He knows all the good that quietly surpasses the evil. In unknown and unacknowledged ways, he is at work in our world.

We find this hope in Christ. Through his message and through the gift of his life, Jesus helps us to grow in trust in God. He enables us to know and savour goodness, love and forgiveness. In him we find, - not the answer to all the suffering, - but the strength to fight it. In our practical day-to-day living, we invent fraternal gestures that make our world more human and open the way to a future of peace, harmony and mutual understanding.

The year 2005 begins for us as a year full of possibilities and ever-new gifts. Let us take advantage of this generous gift of time to reach out to our world as one goes to an appointed encounter that is full of promise... to hear, look, accept, discover, love... relying on the sense of goodness and justice of human beings and on the tenderness and generosity of our God. Let us be confident. Pessimism has never discovered the secrets of the stars, nor has it ever reached unexplored lands or opened new horizons to the human spirit. A universe of abundance unfolds before us. Happy New Year 2005!

Celine Gaurin, m.i.c.

Bless this New Year

Bless, O Lord, this New Year,
all those days ahead of us
that will pass like lightning.
Teach us to purify them from all vanity
and impatience,
that they may be filled
with your own fullness.
Bless, O Lord, this New Year!

Bless those who work
in the midst of war and violence
at building a more fraternal world.
Bless all the peoples of the Earth
that they may live in peace.

Bless, O Lord, oh yes,
bless all those I love,
all those I will meet this year.
Bless, O Lord, all my endeavours,
permeate my whole life with prayer.

Bless, O Lord, this New Year,
help us to live day after day
in joy and serenity,
tenderness and fidelity,
gratitude and cheerfulness
for every gift we receive from You.

From the magazine Prier (January-February 2002)

To cross the threshold of a new year also means to make a new start, to look with new eyes at the events and people we meet. To bless means to "say something good": to call wishfully for peace and unity in the days ahead of us and to invite God to come and pour His own fullness into each of our days.

Our Institute is present in 13 countries the world over.

It counts about 700 women of 17 nationalities.

Malawi. To accompany the youth in their quest and journey

Cuba. To initiate to the Christian faith, share the Word of God

Hong Kong. To work toward the integral formation of children and youth

Madagascar. Each day, to set aside time to encounter God

Committed to the mission, we are called to be missionaries living a spirituality bequeathed by Délia Tétréault, our foundress: in union with Mary, we offer our life in perpetual thanksgiving to thank God for His countless blessings. The field of apostolate is rather wide: education, health care, pastoral work, parish work, missionary promotion, ministry among cultural minorities... In whatever form our presence Taiwan. Love one another as God loves - with tenderness and gratuity.

Philippines. To collaborate towards the formation of leaders may be, we want to witness to the infinite goodness of God for every human being and to spread the universal fraternity everywhere.

At the heart of our missionary life is our personal experience of God's enormous love for us, for our world. This experience stirs up thanksgiving within each one of us and prompts us to share God's love with others. Wherever we are, we want to offer what we ourselves have received: the extraordinary richness of the Gospel, its message of life and happiness.

Sow happiness with abundance - this is still the bread that is most wanting on our poor earth.

Délia Tétréault

Each day
is a new beginning
in which
we do our best.
