THE EUROPEAN NEWS.—Under our telegraphic heading will be found a full and very interesting summary of the news by the "Bremen," which left Southampton on the 14th instant, and reached New York on Sunday evening.

The news from the Seat of war would indicate that Austria's policy is to avoid a general action and fall back upon her famous quadruple line of fortifications, with the view of wearing-out the allied assailing force.

The new Ministry, it will be seen, has not been completed. The heaping honors upon the retiring Tories, is hardly in accordance with the almost proverbial prudence of our gracious Queen; and the unsuccessful attempt to place Lord Granville at the head of affairs is not very creditable to Her Majesty's irresponsible advisers—whoever they may be.

ARRIVAL OF THE "NOVA-SCOTIAN."—The 'Nova-Scotian" brings one day's later news than that received by the "Bremen," a summary of which will be found under our telegraphic heading.

THE GRAND TRUNK CITY TERMINUS.—It is never agreeable to attribute under-hand and discreditable motives, other than those borne on their face, to the acts of official men—be they, like Mr. Rose, servants of the public or, like Mr. Blackwell, managers of vast quasi-provincial works, such as the Grand Trunk Railway, over the management of which, in the public interest, it is the right and duty of the journalist to exercise a certain amount of supervision. It was, therefore, not without pain that, while enlightening our readers, a few days ago, as to what appeared to us the very extraordinary proceedings of the Grand Trunk Company, in connection with the establishment of a terminus to their road within this City, we expressed a doubt of their good faith in the matter, and a suspicion, grounded upon the palpably unjust and unreasonable character of Mr. Blackwell's proposition to the city authorities, that their object was not to fulfil but to evade their obligation to bring their road into the city. We explained the nature of Mr. Blackwell's proposal and mentioned that it was under the consideration of a special Committee of the City Council, to whom had been referred the whole subject of the City's claims to have a terminus to the road forthwith erected on some convenient site within its limits. We are not aware whether this Committee has arrived at any decision on the matter referred to them, nor, in the existing anarchy at the City Council Hall, can we tell when any decision or report of the Committee may be expected to be made. We are glad to find, in the meantime, that we have our Ministerial contemporary, the Gazette, entirely with us in our views as to the bad faith and insincerity of the Company's conduct in the matter. It, the Company, ought to know, and does know, says the Gazette—in the name of many intelligent citizens—that the city is not now in a position to make this present (the site of the St. Anne's Market) to the Company, and that it is by no means likely that the Government would allow another railway bridge to be thrown across the Canal at the head of Wellington Street, thereby needlessly multiplying the hindrances to navigation. But, adds the Gazette, such an offer they knew would serve as well as another to lead to delay, and that was what they wanted. Our contemporary goes on :—

They [the G. T. Company] felt it was not quite prudent or wise, perhaps, to say frankly to the people of Montreal, we do not intend to give you this accommodation ; we wish to hurry the Victoria Bridge through, and take all the traffic past you—none to your doors. Such a frank and manly explanation might involve unpleasant complications, and therefore it has been evaded by a series of protracted negociations and pretended offers.

It will be seen that, although the Gazette goes a little more into details than we did—into the Company's objects in refusing to fulfil its contract—there is no difference of opinion between us. To him, as to us, Mr. Blackwell's proposition bears internal evidence of the bad faith by which it was dictated. It is really refreshing to see the trenchant manner in which this long-suffering supporter of the Cartier-Macdonald Ministry wields his pen, and threatens his patrons—hear him :—

Now we and all Montreal desire to see and hear no more nonesense about this matter. Either the Government of Canada has some influence with the Company or it has none. Either the Hon. John Rose, member for the city, has some influence with the Government, or is a cypher there. If the Government have the influence which the holders of £3,000,000 of bonds ought certainly to have, and the Hon. Mr. Rose has the legitimate influence, which a member for the largest constituency in the Province ought to have, to procure the merest act of justice for his constituents, it is high time to have done with this shilly-shallying. If the company are unwilling to grant, the government unwilling to enforce such a measure of justice for Montreal, as Kingston and Three Rivers are both receiving, then the sooner Mr. Rose ceases to be a member of that government, or member for Montreal the better for him and his constituents. We did our best to aid his election for this city, as did several of the gentlemen present at the interview the other day. We all did so because we looked for his influence in the government, and in the Parliament as likely to be important to the best interests of the city. On that ground we urged his election—if he has no such influence, then we aided to deceive the electors who placed him in Parliament. It becomes our duty to set ourselves right with him and them. If the G. T. Railway people are determined to carry on war, either covert or open against Montreal, the sooner we secure the services of a man who will carry on the war heartily and efficiently on our side the better. This is a matter on which east-enders and west-enders can both afford to unite, and we hope to see Mr. Young and Mr. Holton, and their friends as vigorously urging on the Board of Trade, and the citizens to act unanimously in this matter as Mr. Workman and Mr. Delisle have shown themselves.

Poor Mr. Rose—although he holds his present office by virtue of that infamous shuffle, which, according to the Gazette, was an outrage upon the moral sense of the country, the Gazette, having faith in his influence with the shufflers, has given him and them its support ever since. But, if he has no such influence—why, then, the Gazette is prepared with its palinode, and will own that it aided to deceive the electors who placed him in Parliament. Nous verrons—but if Mr. Rose will only "have done with shilly-shallying" and exert his influence to procure "the merest act of justice for his constituents," upon such bitter threatenings as the "Gazette" greets him with,—why, whatever it may be for himself, the sooner he ceases to be member for Montreal—makes way for Mr. Holton, as the "Gazette" delicately suggests,—the better will it undoubtedly be for his constituents. At all events, we can assure our Ministerial contemporary that he need to be under no apprehension as to the course Mr. Holton and his friends will pursue in this matter. As President of that body, the "Gazette" must be aware that Mr. Holton urged this matter of the city terminus upon the attention of the Board of Trade, and we have no doubt he will be most happy to co-operate with the Gazette's friends, Messrs. Workman and Delisle, in urging it upon that of the Government. In conclusion, we have a word or two to say as to what appears to us to be, very decidedly, the most easily-obtained and convenient site for the promised terminus. We should have been quite satisfied had the G. T. Company availed themselves of what Mr. Blackwell himself, we understand, admitted was a most liberal offer, on the part of the Montreal and Champlain Company ; but if the accommodation at the present terminus of the Lachine road, would be insufficient, we would suggest another site, which would, we think, be equally easy of access from Point St. Charles and even more convenient for the business of the road. Our plan would be to run a line of rails from the bridge end to a point on the harbour, about opposite the basin now being made for our Ocean steamers. The intervening ground, as will be seen by a glance at the map,—lying behind the emigrant sheds, Mr. Gould's mills, the Windmill, &c—is all, we understand, the property either of the Grand Trunk Company or of the Harbour Commissioners. The latter portion would, of course, have to be re-covered from the river, but the water is shallow and we are led to believe that the work could be done at no great expense. The advantages of the site are two-fold : First, as the land over which it runs is public property, there would be no expense in obtaining a right of way ; and secondly, the terminus could be placed on a wharf, with deep water alongside, where ships could lie and be loaded and unloaded ! True, the canal would have to be bridged, for the traffic between the terminus and the city, but it would be at a portion of the Canal where the traffic is, comparatively small ; and would, thus, offer a minimum of interruption to the business of the port.

THEATRE ROYAL.—The play, last night, was "Richelieu," Mr. Barry Sullivan assuming that character. The house was thronged by a numerous and fashionable audience. On making his appearance, Mr. Barry Sullivan was greeted with loud and long-continued applause. In this play, which the ability of Barry Sullivan has made pre-eminent by his genius, he appeared last night with magnificent effect. He held the audience spell-bound by the manner in which he rendered the passages, which sparkle through this play like diamonds of thought. The author and actor seemed to be blent into one, so truthfully did the latter interpret and personate the meaning of the former. Richelieu, one would think, again lived and breathed, for the impersonation of Barry Sullivan was of that deep, impassioned nature which belongs alike to the natural man battling with the world, and the natural actor battling on the stage a successful fight, alike against adverse criticism, and in the preservation of fame already nobly acquired. Mr. Sullivan's acting is what might be called visible thought; for that which he finds in his author he places, unadorned by false glitter, or distorted by fictitious acting, in all its freshness and truthness before his audience. His enunciation is perfect every word is emphasized, where stress should be laid; every syllable rings out, freely, audibly and forcibly. Uniting thus all the requirements of an actor and a reader, it is no wonder that Mr. Sullivan met, last night, with such an enthusiastic reception and recognition, and that he was called before the curtain in a tumult of applause. Mr. Sullivan was well supported by Mr. Fisher, Mr. Copland and Mr. Jack—men who have within them, the mettle of actors. He will appear to-night in the "Gamester." We would advise every one who admires the highest art in the best of acting to embrace the opportunity which will be afforded them this evening and this week.

BURNING OF THE STEAMER "MALAKOFF."—About one o'clock on Sunday morning a fire broke out on board the steamer Malakoff, lying in Tate's dry-dock. The Water Police at once gave the alarm, and under their Chief, Mr. McLaughlin, turned out to render all the assistance in their power. Their efforts, however, as well as those of the Fire Brigade, were of no avail, for the flames, in less than half an hour after breaking out, had enveloped the vessel from stem to stern, and though the basin in which she floated afforded plenty of water, the circumstance was of little consequence in arresting the progress of the fire. About a quarter to two o'clock a barge, in the immediate vicinity of the burning vessel, also took fire. It spread with such inconceivable rapidity, that no exertion could stay the ravages of the flames, and a little after two o'clock there was presented the melancholy yet grand spectacle of two vessels on fire, burning fiercely and fast, without a single chance of saving any portion whatever. The shower of sparks was terrific, and the heat, within a wide distance, almost unsupportable. The flames lit up the river beyond the Victoria Bridge, and could be seen reflected upon the wood barges above the current St. Mary. In the presence of a vast number of spectators the vessels continued to burn till about half-past three o'clock, when the charred and flaming spars, having, one by one cracked and dropped into the basin, and the steamer being consumed below the bulwarks, the water poured in and the fire was checked; not, however, till the vessel had been rendered a bare and blackened mass. About the same time the barge shared the same fate. Shortly afterwards the crowd dispersed. How the fire originated remains a mystery. The Water Police deserve credit as much for their alacrity as for the energy they displayed in using, with the Fire Brigade, every possible effort to preserve both the vessels. The steamer, which belonged to Mr. Benjamin Grant, is insured for $16,000.

ROBBERY BY A FEMALE SERVANT.—On Monday last, the 20th instant, Mr. Joseph Leeming, missed from his safe the sum of 120 dollars. Suspicion was at once awakened that the money had been abstracted by one of the servants. In consequence of this, Mr. Wenham, who is in the employment of Mr. Leeming, was induced, on Friday night last, to mark a sum of money he placed in the safe. The next morning, it was found that ten dollars were missing. On this discovery, Mr. Leeming, communicated to O'Leary the fact that his suspicion fell upon one of his female servants, a girl, 18 years of age, named Agnes M'Cormack. O'Leary went to the girl and charged her with the robbery. She at once admitted her guilt ; delivered up the money and also placed in the hands of the Detective 50 other dollars ; which she had stolen from a friend, who had been visiting at Mr Leeming's. It subsequently appeared that on the Saturday preceding the Monday on which the 120 dollars, were stolen, the money had been placed negligently in the safe—which was not locked. On the Sunday while the family were out, the girl, noticing the fact had abstracted the money. It was also discovered, that the girl meditated leaving her situation on the evening of the day on which she was arrested. She had stated, in Mr. Leeming's house, that she was married on the Queen's Birth-day, and, in fact, had on that day obtained permission to be absent. Furthermore, yesterday morning, there were found in a cupboard, in her room, two table cloths and a large parcel of currants—a fact which would seem to indicate the assumption of the duties of married life. O'Leary, however, is of the opinion that she is not married, having arrived at the opinion by an artifice which he put into operation. Yesterday morning, the girl was brought before Mr. Coursol. She appeared to feel acutely the disgrace of her position. When asked by the Magistrate whether she would plead before him or take her trial at the Court of Quarter Sessions, she burst into a loud scream, and after sobbing violently for several minutes, said she would plead guilty. She was then removed, to be brought up for sentence this morning. O'Leary, in this as well as in other late cases, displayed an amount of tact, so successfully brought into operation, that he deserves in a high degree, the confidence of the citizens, as well as the notice of their representatives.

STRANGE CASE OF THEFT.—Yesterday morning, before Mr. Coursol, a middle aged woman, poorly clad, named Eliza Daly, was brought up charged with stealing a pair of trowsers, valued at a dollar, the property of a man named Beard. It appeared from the evidence that the prisoner stole the trowsers, in order to make a pair each for her two children. She pleaded extreme poverty, and accused her husband—a dwarfed, sharp-faced, decrepid little object who was present—with driving her to misery by his drunken habits. He retorted in a peevish tone of voice, and with a peculiar grin on his shrivelled countenance, said that she ought to mind her own business. The Magistrate asked him what he did for a livelihood. He snarled back, that he was forced to beg. The Magistrate told him that he ought to feel ashamed of the condition, to which, through his intemperance, he had brought his wife. Notwithstanding this, however, the Court would take, in extenuation of the offence, the fact, that the woman had pleaded guilty, and that she had two helpless children. It was to be regretted that there was, in Montreal, no institution where such children could, under such circumstances as the present, find shelter. Mr. McGinn, the Jailer, had, out of his own resources to find a home for such children,—and, in this case, he would have to perform the same humane service. The prisoner, as it was her first [illegible] would be sent to jail for 24 hours only—Mr. McGinn, in the meantime, to take care of the children. The prisoner, who was weeping, was then removed.

A HOAX.—On Saturday last, one or two of our contemporaries gave publicity to a story which, at the time, we rightly supposed to be incredible. It was to the effect that a man, named Griffin, lately from Ireland, had been, on the morning of the day previous, robbed of a large sum of money, in the neighbourhood of the Tanneries, and that a portion of the money in question consisted of £100 in one-pound Bank of Ballymena bills, and that he had been maltreated. Having been made aware that there is no Bank of Ballymena—an inconsiderable inland town in Ireland—and learning from the proper sources that no reliable account of the alleged robbery had been obtained, we resolved to withold such an improbable rumour till it were seen whether it had any foundation. Yesterday we made the necessary enquiry, and found that the story is altogether a fabrication. We are gratified in thus being able to state that the assertion, which made it appear that a desperate highway robbery had been committed so near to our good city, and in the midst of a respectable and industrious community, is totally and entirely unsubstantiated.

RECOVERY OF GOODS STOLEN AT A LATE ROBBERY.—At the last Court of Queen's Bench, an old offender, named Thompson, was sentenced to be imprisoned in the Penitentiary, 14 years, for stealing, from the sheds of the Grand Trunk, at Longueil, a number of bales, containing, bags, cotton, etc. On his arrest only part of the property was discovered. On Saturday last, Constable Valiquette, City Police was informed that Thompson's wife, who lives in the village of St. Jean Baptiste, about a mile from Montreal, was endeavouring to dispose of goods, which corresponded with those her husband had stolen. She was arrested. Constable Whelan, of the same force, was directed to search her house. In the cellar, which had been before examined, he found three bales of cotton. They were conveyed to the station house, prior to being rendered up to their owners. The woman remains in custody. The recovery of these goods, long supposed to be beyond recovery, shows, that our municipal police, are as active as ever, when occasion calls for the exercise of promptitude and discretion.

PUGILISM PUNISHED.—Yesterday morning, two young men, named respectively, Patrick Lambert and Daniel M'Grath, were brought before Mr. Coursol, by the Water Police, on a charge of fighting in Common street. The pugilists, it appeared, were, when arrested, in that peculiar condition, in which personal valor was stimulated by previous potations. They found but little opportunity for bruising, and the fight ended, no doubt, unexpectedly to both, in their being safely located in different apartments in the Water Police Station. The combatants, when brought before Mr. Coursol, were equally chapfallen, and apparently reconciled. They were offered the alternative of paying a fine of 5s. or accepting, for a week, the restricted hospitality of Mr. M'Ginn. The fine was paid, and both left the Court, seemingly as good friends as ever.

CONGRATULATORY ADDRESS TO THE QUEEN.

The following is the congratulatory address which the Free Church Assembly agreed to present to the Queen on the occasion of the Anniversary of her Majesty's birth day, with the Acknowledgment of its receipt :—

May it please your Majesty,—We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the ministers and elders of the Free Church of Scotland, in General Assembly convened, rejoice in the opportunity which the return of this auspicious day affords of approaching your Majesty's throne with renewed assurance of attachments to your Majesty's person, of loyalty to your Majesty's Government, and of regard for every member of your royal house.

Although no longer connected with the State as an ecclesiastical Establishment, we remain unchanged in our devotion to the great principles of the British Constitution, and give thanks to God for the civil and religious freedom which are thereby secured to all your Majesty's dutiful subjects.

We congratulate your Majesty on the termination of the war in India,—on the success of your Majesty's arms in suppressing rebellion throughout that wide region of your Majesty's dominions,—and the restoration of peace under circumstances which have so manifestly called for hearty thanksgiving to Almighty God.

It is our joy that we are warranted to hope that both India and China, through the changes which have recently occurred in our relations to those continents, have now been opened up, as they never were before, to the extensive introduction of the glorious gospel of the grace of God.

We watch with deep anxiety the progress of that war which the Almighty, in his sovereign providence, has permitted to break forth on the Continent of Europe, and, while acknowledging with grateful and adoring hearts, the Lord's mercy to this nation in so often, in former conflicts, keeping the battle from our gates, we rejoice to learn the determination of your Majesty,—in full accordance with the will and wishes of your people,—to maintain a strict neutrality between the contending Powers; and we doubt not that your Majesty, while thus abstaining from all armed intervention, will seize every opportunity of employing the whole influence and moral power of this country, for the purpose of restoring peace to Europe, and, at the same time, securing the blessings of freedom and liberty of conscience to those who, in Italy, have so long groaned under civil oppression and ecclesiastical tyranny.

That your Majesty's life may be long spared; that spiritual and eternal blessings may richly endow you; and that, when you have finished your course on earth, you may receive that crown "which the Lord, the Righteous Judge," alone can give, is the earnest and united prayer of

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the ministers and elders, &c., of the Free church of Scotland, in General Assembly convened.

Signed in name and by the appointment of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, at Edinburgh, the 23d of May 1859 years, by

WM. CUNNINGHAM, D.D., Moderator.

Whitehall, 31st May 1859.

SIR,—I have had the honor to lay before the Queen the loyal and dutiful address of the ministers and elders of the Free Church, on the occasion of her Majesty's birthday ; and I have the satisfaction to inform you, that her Majesty was pleased to receive the address very graciously.—I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. SOUTHRON ESTCOURT.

The Reverend the Moderator of the Free Church, Edinburgh.

MR. COBDEN.—We find the following farewell letter to a Boston friend, in the Post of that city :—

Quebec, June 18.

My Dear Sir,—Before stepping on board the Indian, I must thank you for your two letters, which have reached me here I observe your expression of regret that I had not attended one public meeting before I left the United States. But, on reflection, I think you will agree that I exercised a wise discretion in resisting every temptation to bring me into the field of politics, for to talk in public in your country, would be, in my case, necessarily to talk politics.

I have long entertained a strong opinion that the less England and America canvass each other's domestic politics, and the more they discuss their own, the better it will be for the friendship of the two nations, and for the improvement and stability of their institutions.—Still I cannot but lament the want of a public opportunity, before leaving this Continent, of expressing my gratitude for the numberless courtesies and the touching acts of kindness which I have experienced in my travels in the United States. Everywhere I have found myself [illegible] the people made me fancy myself at home. I shall ever remember this visit with feelings of pleasure and gratitude; and again, thanking you for the friendly reception I met with at West Roxbury,

Believe me,
Your's very truly,
RICHARD COBDEN.

S. D. Bradford, Esq.

KOSSUTH'S PLAN OF OPERATIONS.—A correspondent of the Times professes to give an outline of the plan of operations agreed upon between Kossuth and the Allied commanders. He says :

Various are the surmises among English journalists as to the conditions existing between the Allies and the ex-Governor of Hungary. The facts are these : Before the outbreak of the war, Kossuth and Klapla, making up their old differences, agreed to act in concert for the benefit of their common country, and the latter on his return from Turkey, proceeded to Paris, where he held frequent interviews with Prince Napoleon, and thence to Turin, where he was received with open arms by Count Cavour, and also presented to the King. After sundry propositions and refusals on one side or the other, Kossuth at last offered to proceed to Genoa, and there issue a proclamation to the Hungarians calling on them to desert the Austrian army en masse, he to organize the deserters into a corps and become its chief. When the number should reach 15,000 or 20,000, he demanded that with a small division of French troops, under a French flag, he should be authorized to cross the Adriatic and the Austrian provinces into Hungary, and there promote insurrection.

THE WINDOWS OF THE SOUL.—An American poet, discoursing of the eyes of rival lady-loves, exclaims—

"The bright black eye, the melting blue,
I cannot choose betwixt the two !"

The choice has puzzled many a man before and since. Black eyes are the more brilliant ; blue eyes the more winning. Black eyes flash , blue eyes languish. Black eyes are passionate ; blue eyes are tender. Black eyes are most abundant in France, Italy and Spain ; blue eyes in England and Germany. Except some of the early Norman kings, and except also Charles II. [a great sinner and voluptuary], all the sovereigns of England had blue eyes. But the fact is not much to the credit of the azure, everything considered. The Saxon race, it is worth noting, are a blue-eyed race , so that a blue eye is no sign of weakness. It is said that all the Presidents of the United States, except Gen. Harrison, had blue eyes. Among the great men of the world the blue eyes appear to have been predominant. Socrates, Shakespeare, Locke, Bacon, Milton, Goethe, Franklin and Napoleon, all had blue eyes. So also, according to tradition, had the Saviour. Yet in the entire world of mankind black eyes are greatly in the majority. So the blue eyes must "look out" for themselves.—Boston Post.

THE BRIDGE OF LIFE.—Andison, in his 'Vision of Miraza,' introduces the following allegory :

'The Bridge, thou seest, said he, is Human Life ; consider it attentively. Upon a more leisurely survey of it I found that it consisted of three score and ten entire arches, with several broken arches, which, added to those which were entire, made up the nnmber about an hundred. As I was counting the arches the genius told me that this bridge consisted first of a thousand arches, but that a great flood swept away the rest, and left the bridge in the runious condition I now behold it. But tell me further, said he, what thou discoverest on it I see multitudes of people passing over it, said I, and a black cloud hanging on eache nd of it. As I looked more attentively I saw several of the passengers dropping through the bridge into the great tide that flowed underneath it, and upon further examination, perceived that there were innumerable trap-doors that lay concealed in the bridge, which the passengers no sooner trod upon, but they fell through them into the tide,, and emediotly dissapeared. Those hidden pit-falls were set very thick at the entrance of the bridge, so that throngs of people no sooner break through the cloud, but many of them fell into them. They grew thinner towardst he middle, but multiplied and laid closer together towards the end of the arches that were entire. There were, indeed some persons, but their nnmber was very small that continued a hobbling march of the broken arches, but fell through one after another, being quiet tired and spent with so long a walk.'

Whrt can be a more perfect picture of human life than the above, and yet it was written and published in the spectator so far back as 1711. No doubt the profound author was at that time contemplating the first graduated life table ever published. The earlest English Life Table properly so called, was invented, the illustrious astronomer, who first ventured to predict the return of a comet, which appeared accordingly in 1759. It was shortly before the period when Addison wrote his 'Vision of Mirza,' that this table was published. Dr. Halley was the first to show how the price to be paid for an assurance of a life might be justly and scientifically regulated, and pointed out the real odds between assuring the life of a man aged 20 and that of another aged 50 ; his table proving it to be 100 to 1 that the former and little more than 30 to 1 would not die in a year. Arrival of the NOVA-SCOTIAN.

Farther Point, June 27.

The "Nova-Scotian," passed this p.m.

A Turin dispatch says, after the retreat of the Austrians from Bologna, Cardinal Legate departed, and the municipality declared Victor Emanuel Dictator.

The King of Sardinia issued an order of the day, extolling Garibaldi's deeds, and awarding him a gold medal of military order.

The Official "Wienner Zeitung" says the Emperor of Austria will forthwith assume immediate command-in-chief, and has ordered new positions for the army, which will be taken up in the best manner.

The Austrians were evacuating Modena and were in full retreat towards the River Oglio.

Large re-inforcements were about to leave France.

Lady Palmerston was making good progress with the new Cabinet. The authentic list was expected to be published the day the steamer sailed.

Rumour gave Lord Elgin the Colonial Secretaryship, Mr. Cobden the Board of Trade, Mr. Gladstone, Secretary for India.

An order had been issued for mobilizing the Prussian army.

On the 12th, Napoleon moved his head-quarters to Gorgozoll.

The Daily News says Lord Palmerston is making satisfactory progress in the formation of his Government, and having filled up the most important appointments, is proceeding to allot those of subordinate rank.

Lord John Russell will undertake the department of Foreign Affairs, and it is believed that Mr. Gladstone will join the Government.

Some of the evening papers, last night, published lists of the new Administration, but it is proper the public should be informed that no authorised statement of the composition of the new Government can possibly appear before Friday.

The "Herald," in publishing the Berlin telegram, that six Prussian Corps d'Armee are mobilized, says of course this means war. The advent of Palmerston to power has evidently induced Prussia to take this decisive step, and to join Austria in the struggle against France. The English people will now perceive the truth of what we have before asserted, that Lord Derby's Government alone preserved Europe from a general war.

The "Post" says that the formation of the new Cabinet is proceeding rapidly and in the most satisfactory manner, and that it hopes to-morrow to complete the publication of the ministerial arrangements.

The "Advertiser" believes that after Lord John Russell had accepted the office of Foreign Secretary, any office in the Cabinet which he might prefer was offered to Sir James Graham. The Right Hon. Baronet, however, declined to accept any office on account of the infirm state of his health ; but assured Lord Palmerston that he would cordially support the new Ministry.

The papers of this morning abstain from publishing the rumours commonly current during a ministerial interregnum.

The "Advertiser" says that Lord Palmerston stated last night, to some private friends, that his arrangements are so far completed that he hopes to be able to go down to Windsor Castle this evening to submit the list to Her Majesty, or, if not to-night, to-morrow morning, before Her Majesty leaves for Ascot.

The "Morning Post" publishes the following despatch, dated Paris, last night :—

On the 12th, the Emperor removed his head-quarters to Gorgonzola. In the afternoon, His Majesty personally superintended the throwing of two bridges of boats across the Addah. The operation, which presented serious obstacles, was, however, perfectly effected. As soon as the bridges were completed, the army began its movements, which was to be concluded yesterday. After some heavy rains, the weather has again become fine, and the troops are in high spirits.

The Daily News City Article, of Tuesday evening, says:—The funds received a fresh impulse this morning, owing to the progress made towards the construction of a new ministry, coupled with an increased hope that the war in Italy will not be of long duration. In the other markets decided buoyancy was again shown. On change this afternoon there was a fair demand for bills on the Continent.

The Times City Article, says :—The statement regarding the progress of the formation of a new ministry, has had a good effect this a.m., and consols opened with real buoyancy, and closing prices were ⅛ per cent, above yesterday.

The Canada arrived at Liverpool on the 11th. The Bourassa at Southampton on the 13th. The Vanderbilt at Liverpool on the 14th.

The Austrians had evacuated Placenza, Pavia, Lodi, Bologna and Ancona.

ENGLAND.

The London Times, of 13th June, says :—We have reason to believe that her Majesty, as a mark of special favor, will confer upon Lord Derby the Order of the Garter vacant and will summon an extraordinary chapter of the Order for that purpose.

Her Majesty will also confer the Grand Cross of the Bath upon Lord Malmesbury, and Sir John Packington.

In the House of Commons, on the 11th, Lord Hartington brought np the report upon the address, as amended, and agreed to on the motion of Lord John Russell.

Her Majesty's speech was ordered to be taken into consideration on Friday next.

The House then adjourned till Friday the 17th.

The Times leading Article, of the 13th June, has the following :—

The vote on Saturday morning left no choice to the ministry of Lord Derby, however tenacious of office, except at the earliest possible moment to place their resignation in the hands of Her Majesty.

At an early hour on Saturday morning the Cabinet assembled, and agreed to place their resignations in the hands of the Queen. This was done, and the fact of the ministerial resignation was formally announced by Lord Derby at the Banquet of the Merchant Tailors Company, at which several ministers were present.

On the afternoon of Saturday, Lord Granville received a summons from the Queen, to wait on her Majesty at Buckingham Palace. We have reason to believe that her Majesty, after listening to all the objections which Lord Granville had to offer, commanded him to form an Administration which should at once be strong in ability and Parliamentary influence, and should at the same time comprehend within itself a full and fair representation of all the sections into which the Liberal party had been notoriously divided. Furnished with this commission, Lord Granville waited on Lord Palmerston, and communicated to him the views of the Queen. In the handsomest manner, and without the slightest hesitation, Lord Palmerston consented to act under Lord Granville as Prime Minister. In their first interview with Lord John Russell, he was disposed to insist upon conditions which would render any union or co-operation with Lord Palmerston impossible, whether the Government was presided over by Lord Granville or any other person.

The Queen, upon being satisfied by Lord Granville that he would only be an obstacle instead of a means of facilitating the union between Lord Palmerston and Lord John Russell, sent for Lord Palmerston, who had audience of her Majesty which lasted for one hour and a half.

On Lord Palmerston's return from the Palace he immediately set out for Richmond to confer with Lord John Russell. He consented to serve under Lord Palmerston, but not under any other person, and he appears to stand on the letter of his agreement.

SUBMARINE TELEGRAPH TO DENMARK.

The London Times says that the Submarine Telegraph Company are to submerge a cable from Weyerbourne on the Norfolk coast to Tonning, on the shores of Denmark. The Cable will be 108 miles in length, and of three wires. The line is expected to be completed in a month.

The Times Paris correspondent says there are rumours in military circles that the Emperor's return to Paris may be looked for soon, and that, perhaps, Marshal Pelissier will get command of the army in Italy.

The Turin correspondent says that the Sardinian Government declares that it does not consider sea coal contraband of war.

The Paris correspondent of the London Post says the news from Vienna is warlike.

RUSSIA.

St. Petersburgh, June 11.

The Invalide Russe of to-day announces that the Russian Government has concluded a Commercial Convention with the Messrs. Rothschild, through the medium of the commercial house of Kaplin & Co., of St. Petersburgh. The details are not known.

The following is from the Times' city article of 13th June :—

The various statements in circulation that Prussia will soon abandon her position of neutrality, caused a relapse in the Funds, although they rest on no definite or avowed authority, and are, perhaps, merely encouraged at Berlin to meet the excitement in the other German States. Doubts as to whether a steady and powerful Government at home can even yet be hoped for, looking at the elements of which the Liberal party is composed, in the face of a compact opposition of 310 members, had considerable influence in checking the disposition to buoyancy ; and it is also seen that any new Ministry will be placed at a great disadvantage by having to meet financial engagements, which should have been encountered by Mr. Disraeli in March or April, and which the dissolution enabled him to avoid.

There were no bullion operations at the Bank on Saturday.

The Daily News says :—The influx of gold from Russia will continue on a considerable scale. It is probable that the receipts from that quarter will reach £300,000 within a few days. More remittances will come forward by each succeeding steamer. In consequence of these shipments, the Exchange at St. Petersburgh on London is gradually returning to a point less unfavorable to Russia ; the last quotation was 33⅞.

Despatches just to hand from St. Petersburgh announce large arrivals of shipping, and a material fall in the rates of freights.

The rise established in Consols this week amount to nearly 1 per cent., making 3½ per cent. within three weeks.

The Times' city article of the 14th says :—A belief that the new Ministry is in course of formation, by Lord Palmerston, will inspire respect abroad, and, without pretending to establish confidential relations with Napoleon, will conduct its intercourse with France in a consistent and dignified manner, has given increased strength to the Funds to-day. The French proclamation, issued at Milan, to the people of Lombardy, likewise had a favorable effect, although it is seen that such documents are merely intended to serve the purpose of the moment. The closing quotation for Consols was 93½, both for money and account. French Threes are quoted at 63·05, showing an improvement of nearly ½ per cent. The second instalment of 25 per cent. on the India Loan, of £5,000,000 falls due to-morrow. Little doubt is entertained that the convention entered into between Russia and the Rothschilds will result in the Rothschilds being the contractors for any future loan the Russian Government may require to raise in London.

The London Times says that Lord John Russell had accepted the Foreign Office under Lord Palmerston.

The Duchess of Brabant gave birth to a Prince on the 12th.

Vienna, June 12.

Placenza, Ancona and Bologna have been evacuated. The Austrians destroyed the fortifications of Placenza before they left it.

Milan, June 12.

A part of the French army had passed the Adda without striking a blow.

Paris, June 13.

The Patrie says that the Austrians have completely evacuated the States of the Church, including even Ferara.

The same paper states that the people of Parma have asked that the French troops may be sent into their country.

The Daily News of the 14th says :—Lord Elgin has been offered the Secretaryship of the Colonies ; Mr. Cobden the Board of Trade ; Milner Gibson will enter the Cabinet, and Sidney Herbert will probably be Minister of War ; Sir G. C. Lewis President of the India Board, and Mr. Gladstone Chancellor of the Exchequer. Sir H. Bethell is also spoken of for the latter office. Sir James Graham, the Duke of Newcastle, and the Duke of Argyle have declined to join the new Administration.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET.

The market for Raw, since our last, has retained the activity and buoyancy previously noticed, and the advance has made further progress. The improvement is ⅛ @ ⅜ of a cent, making the whole advance from the lowest point ⅛ @ ⅜ of a cent per lb., closing with a continued good demand, and considerable firmness on the part of holders, who are strengthened by the rather dimishing stock, the sales of the month so far having exceeded the receipts, and the continued ease in the money market. The rebound in the Refined also has been as sudden and important as in Raw, and since our last the market has been quite excited, the stocks being exhausted, while the demand continues unabated, and as some manufacturers refuse to sell ahead, and all offer sparingly, prices have again advanced for other than Stuart's to 9½ cents for Ground. Crushed and Granulated, more is now asked, 8¾@9¼ for Soft White, and 7¾@8¼ for Soft Yellow. The sales are 60 hhds St. Croix at 7 cents; 3867 Cuba, 5½@7, with a little at 7½; 748 Porto Rico, 6@7; 723 New Orleans, 5¼@7; 365 Texas, part 5¼@5⅝; 1898 bxs Brown and Yellow Havana, 5¼@8¾; and 81 hhds Melado, 4, 4 mos. HOLLOWAYS PILLS—HOSPITAL PRACTICE.—It is supposed, by the uninitiated, that hospitable patients have the advantage of skilful treatment and careful attendance. The truth is, they are too often merely the subjects upon which raw student try their "prentice hands." The best hospitals for the sick are their own homes, and the only medicines they need are Holloway's disease subdueing remedies. Let the weakened, broken-down, attenuated, and hopeless sufferers from liver complaint, dyspepsia, asthma, hemorrhoids, or any of the internal maladies which baffle the profession, supply themselves with Holloway's Pills, and they can speedily work out their own cure and smile, as they remember the doleful predictions of the doctors.

CHOLERA !

PERRY DAVIS—SIR :—The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word of praise for it. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, Severe Chills Weariness, Common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentry, Toothache, &c., there is nothing better than the Pain Killer. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two tea-spoonfuls taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine glassful of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God it saved from the cholera during the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentry attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most half a day ! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth it would stop the toothache.—Gratitnde, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.
