ARTS AND HANDICRAFTS ON EXHIBITION

Youthful Orators Speak To Rotary

Donald Brophy, of Loyola High School, was judged winner in the preliminaries of the Rotary-sponsored public speaking contest held Wednesday at the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club of Westmount in Victoria Hall. Robert Gill of West Hill High, Lloyd Johnson of Montreal West High and James Stephens of Lower Canada College were the other competitors. Each of the losers was awarded a consolation prize while young Mr. Brophy moves on to compete in the semi-finals at Montreal Westward Rotary Club on May 12.

First speaker was Robert Gill whose subject was the Royal

Westmount's War Record Available To Local Citizens

The City of Westmount is prepared to have copies of a book containing the names of all the citizens who fought for their country, made for any who wish to have them, providing enough people are interested to make it worth their while. It was decided at the meeting of the City Council on Monday night that the best way to find just how many wish these copies is to send out a circular letter to all residents. The book will be available at a slight cost to the purchaser. It will be a direct copy of the one to be placed on exhibition in the Public Library, replacing the plaques in Victoria Hall. The letters to all residents will be sent out in the near future.

The council also found that a number of Westmounters were registering complaints about people in the Elm, Sherbrooke and Mount Pleasant avenue area putting such things as milk, etc., on the window-sill to keep them cold. The complainants describe this practise as "unsightly" but City authorities consider it also a health matter, and the heads of the various departments have been instructed to take steps to see that it is discontinued.

Several purchases were also authorized at the meeting:—1) a new service truck for the Light and Power Department; 2) a new truck for the Parks Department; 3) a new coupe, also for the Parks Department; and 4) a new tractor-trailer gang lawn mower for the same department.

Canadian Mounted Police. His main point was the fact that two Mounties broke up an armed uprising of Indians within 15 minutes after encountering them. The Indians were under the command of Chief Sitting Bull who crossed into Canada accompanied by 5,000 of his cohorts shortly after his successful joust with the famed General Custer of the U.S. Lloyd Johnson, of Montreal West High School, speaking on "Unity in Canada," told the Rotarian audience that persuasion rather than compulsion must be used in our country. He also told of the need for freedom of the press and of speech. He described secret police and propaganda as being the two main weapons of a dictatorship, whether it be Communist or Fascist.

"Lack of opportunity in Canada for Canadian talent," was the subject chosen by James Stephen of Lower Canada College. "Canada is rapidly being left behind in the fields of arts and entertainment," he said. His recommendation to offset this lack of opportunity was that grants should be set aside for those who wish to major in arts, literature and entertainment.

The winner, Donald Brophy, designated hero-worship as the need to make people more Canada-conscious. He stated that we needed someone who was progressive and fair-minded to single out so that he may inspire us. "The most vital concern of Canadians is to discover more outstanding Canadians," he said.

Each contestant was allowed but five minutes in which to complete his talk. Judges were A. W. Campbell, Father John Kerr and Col. G. R. Stevens, O.B.E.

Golden Jubilee of St. Paul's Academy Memorable Event

The Golden Jubilee celebrations held in honour of the founding of St. Paul's Academy, Westmount, will add a memorable chapter in the history of the Convent. The celebration gathered together once more, teachers and pupils who had once frequented the Convent and many friendships were renewed and many pleasant hours were spent discussing the happy days at old St. Paul's.

The celebrations opened with a reception tendered by the Reverend Sisters of the Convent in Victoria Hall on Saturday afternoon. Prior to this, alumnae members had signed their names in the Golden Book especially prepared for the occasion. At the reception a beautiful tableau was presented by the English and French students of the Convent, depicting scenes in the life of the Venerable Marguerite Bourgeois, the foundress of the Congregation of Notre Dame. The history of the Convent was traced from its humble beginnings fifty years ago

3 Speakers Tell Of Need For More Recreation Plans

That a year-round recreational program is needed, that there are not enough recreation supervisors employed by the City of Westmount and that the buildings available for recreation are not suitable were the main conclusions reached Tuesday night by the speakers at the Spring Meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association, held in Victoria Hall.

Speakers at the meeting were R. S. White, of the Church of the Ascension group; Mrs. John O'N. Gallery, of the Parks and Playgrounds Association; and Leonard W. Taylor, past president of the recreation committee. Moderator and chairman were Christopher Ellis and Rene Perrault, Municipal Association president, respectively.

The speakers also urged that instead of having both the Parks and Playgrounds Department and recreation under the same head, a separate body be set up to tend only to planning recreation.

"Westmount recreational plans are far behind every other municipality on the island of Montreal," Mrs. Gallery stated. In describing the building now being used on Hollowell avenue, she said that the three supervisors were finding it all they could do to handle the youngsters. She held that the building is "dilapidated" and called it the "Hollowell Hut."

She recommended that women be hired to plan recreation for young girls, stating that leisure hours from the cradle to the grave should be taken up in pleasant, planned recreation.

Leonard Taylor told the meeting that according to Westmount figures, the city considered it five times as important to raise shrubs in the conservatory as it did to have a planned recreation program, because, he said, that's how much more money was spent on the greenhouses last year.

Mr. Taylor also stressed the point that in other cities in Canada and United States, at least 52 per cent of the money appropriated for recreation was spent on supervision. When asked, during the question period that fol-

Council Agenda Heavy At Meeting Monday Night

Just how traffic should be conducted at the corner of Claremont and Cote St Antoine road is still an enigma to members of the City Council. Latest experiment, erecting stop signs on three of the corners, has now been modified and traffic going south on Claremont avenue does not have to stop anymore. A new slow sign has been put up, while traffic going both ways on Cote St. Antoine still has to stop.

The amendment to the zoning by-law, providing for parking space off the street for commercial buildings, was given third reading at the last Council session.

A new building by-law amendment was also given third reading. The amendment reads, "Article 101 A—No apartment building having more than four storeys or exceeding fifty-five feet in height shall be erected in any part of the City, and no building having more than four storeys or exceeding fifty-five feet in height shall be converted to an apartment building".

The secretary-treasurer was authorized to attend the conference of Municipal Finance Officers in Montreal during May 15-17 at the Mount Royal Hotel. Alderman J. S. B. Pemberton, the City's commissioner of finance, will also attend.

Dr. M. B. Donaldson, medical officer of health, was authorized to attend the convention in Halifax from June 28 to June 30 of the Canadian Public Health Association.

Sing-Song Auditions Scheduled For May 11

The wealth of talent discovered amongst the youth in Westmount will again be given an opportunity this summer. Dancers, instrumentalists, singers, etc., are invited to audition in Victoria Hall every Wednesday night at 7 p.m. in the Oak Room, starting May 11.

Sing-songs are becoming increasingly more popular and this summer big shows are being planned.

Our old friend Mel Burge, of St. Saviour's, steps in once again this week to help out with the column . . . in fact, he's writing it . . . which is nothing new for him . . . and he does a wonderful job, too . . . we haven't a thing to worry about when Mel is taking care of this corner . . . at least, not until the paper comes out . . . but many thanks again, Mel . . . it's all yours.

Bert Mortlock, Executive Commissioner for Publications at Dominion Headquarters in Ottawa, was in town yesterday and was down visiting The Monitor . . . Bert will be Editor of the daily Jamboree newspaper (tabloid size) which will be published at the Jamboree.

West Enders Join Holy Name Rally, June 5

Large representations of the westend English-speaking Catholic parishes will join in the annual rally of the Holy Name Society of Montreal which has been arranged for Sunday afternoon, June 5, in the City of Outremont. This arrangement has been announced by H. J. Carter, of St. Augustine's, who is president of the Archdiocesan Union of Montreal, the governing body of the Metropolitan society.

The Holy Name Societies of St. Augustine, St. Ignatius of Loyola, and St. Malachy are active branches and each will be represented by large groups at the rally. Further strong representations will come from neighboring Westmount, Verdun and Lachine, and it is anticipated that the excellent rally organized last year on the grounds of Loyola College will be exceeded.

At Outremont, the assembly will be at Rockland Park, on Rockland Avenue, and at 3 p.m. the men will move off in procession by way of Bloomfield avenue to Outremont Park. There a religious ceremony will begin at 3.30 p.m. under direction of Rev. John D. Purcell, spiritual director of the Archdiocesan Union. Benediction will be imparted by Most Rev. Lawrence P. Whelan, auxiliary bishop of Montreal.

The United States is producing four times as many fishing boats as before World War II.

NEWSPAPER DRIVES

From time to time, the writer has seen a group of hard working Cubs or Scouts making the rounds on a Newspaper Drive . . . This is a "swell" way to make that extra twenty dollars or so for Camp funds . . . But what gets me is that the boys do not tie up the bundles before carting them off to their H.Q. or Pack Jungle . . . As a result, papers are strewn all over the place, and it gives the Boy Scout Association a bad name. If you must collect paper, fellows, how about doing an extra good turn and making sure that any stray paper that has fallen off your bundle is picked up and disposed of in the proper manner.

From time to time, we have heard several adverse remarks to the effect that they would gladly put out papers for the Cubs and Scouts, if they would co-operate. Another sore point, is that often the papers are put out, and nobody calls for them. Now Cubs and Scouts . . . we leave it to you . . . If you want to help your Camp Fund, help the kind neighbor . . . He's going to all sorts of trouble for you . . . The least you can do is to meet him half way. As one Cubmaster once said: "Give me clothes hangers, they are cleaner, and less apt to be damaged by an unforeseen rain storm." On with the news.

TRINITY MEMORIAL PACK

years and a former chaplain of St. Paul's.

Following Mass, a Golden Jubilee Luncheon was held jointly by the English and French sections of the Alumnae Association in St. Leo's School Hall. This was presided over by Miss Dorothy Quigley, President of the English Section and by Mrs. Dostaler O'Leary, President of the French Section. Many distinguished guests were present and the Luncheon was attended by some 350 people. Rev. Oscar Gauthier, Parish Priest of St. Leo's, related some amusing anecdotes of the early days of St. Paul's. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Wilfred E. McDonagh offered a toast to St. Paul's. Toasts were also offered to the King, to the teachers of St. Paul's, to the graduates of the years 1898-1928 and 1928-1948. A tribute to the City of Westmount was offered by C. C. Lindsay, President of the School Commissioners of St. Leo's and this was responded to by His Worship, J. S. Cameron, Mayor of Westmount. A short musical programme was provided by William Stevens.

The celebrations were brought to a close Monday morning with a Requiem Mass for deceased former pupils celebrated in the Chapel of St. Paul's. This was followed by breakfast in the Convent refectory.

lowed the talks, how much it would cost to get adequate recreation supervision, he answered, "Three dollars per resident per year," which amounts to $81,000 per year in Westmount. At present, he continued, the sum spent is very much less than that.

R. S. White claimed that the character of youth was molded on the playing field just as much as in the home or school and said that it was the inescapable duty of every city to provide organized recreational activity.

Carswell, Army Public Relations Officer, says, "we are, by the grace of God, having remarkable success as a result of this report will show. Our great aim in carrying on such work is the permanent reformation of all who seek our aid in times of extreme need."

Salvation Army Drive Finding Good Response

General Chairman C. C. Thackray announced today's Red Shield contributions were $43,500 and that indications from the canvassers themselves show that the response from the general public is good.

Objective of the drive which opened May 3 and will continue until May 16, is $165,000. This slight increase over last year's objective is due to capital expenditure at the Catherine Booth Mothers' Hospital, states Mr. Thackray.

Each year many unfortunate persons in need of assistance find willing and practical endeavour given them in material as well as spiritual and moral help by the Army. Sickness, when accompanied by unemployment and other unfortunate circumstances, is an especially heavy burden and medical and dental aid is frequently secured for such luckless citizens.

Every case history is a story of someone's misfortune, often a very distressing one, but which in most instances has a happy ending.

Last year in Greater Montreal, grocery orders given out to those whose cases were classed as emergencies numbered 1,820 and 47 fuel orders were also distributed while 502 articles of clothing found their way into needy hands through the Army.

It has been proven that nothing is too big or small for the Army to handle. From giving carfare to those who need it so that they might get to work to settling family affairs are all included in the Army's itinerary.

Travellers also come in for their share of aid and last year 55 was the total number of those assisted on their journeys. Forty-nine others were helped to pay their room rent and 547 letters were written so that the helpless would gain assistance.

During the Yuletide season, 577 Christmas baskets were delivered and the number of persons during that time receiving other benefits totalled 2,676.

A HISTORIC DAY

Sunday, May 8, 1949, is the 128th day of the current year. It has certain historic connotations which are due for revival.

May 8, 1945, was the day officially proclaimed as V-E Day, a day to commemorate the deeds of those who had brought the Allied forces victory over Adolf Hitler and his goose-stepping, blood-thirsty followers. It was a day when Americans were praising the British and the Russians. The Russians were coming as near to praising the Yanks and British as they ever have. And the usually taciturn inhabitants of the tight little isle couldn't do enough to show their gratitude for the magnificent contributions of Russia and the former colony across the Atlantic. May 8, 1945, was a day when hopes for permanent peace in Europe were in the ascendant, when man's heart was filled with a measure of "Peace on earth, good will to men" tempered only by the realization that there still remained several million fanatical Japanese to be subdued at the other end of the globe.

On May 8, 1882, a boy was born in the fertile state of Missouri. That boy worked hard, went into the haberdashery business, from there into politics. His rise was steady, never spectacular. He was reliable, not flashy. Given a job, he stuck with it until it was done. When a great president died on April 12, 1945, that bespectacled, owl-faced little man from Missouri, a common man to serve the common people, was sworn into the presidency of the United States.

His name is Harry S. Truman. So, when Sunday, May 8, 1949, rolls around, give a few thoughts to what has happened on other May 8's. It might prove a very constructive few moments.

First gas turbine-electric locomotive to be built in the United States will be operated on a demonstration basis next summer. This locomotive is fired by oil, but engineers hope it will lead to a successful coal-burning gas turbine.

SIAM

In Bangkok, crossroads city and metropolis of Southeast Asia, a grievous loss was sustained by the Y last June when its great wartime leader, Luang Raksa Naves, was struck down by the assassin's hand. Despite this blow and critical problems of inflation and staff shortages, 1948 saw several lines of advance. Three secretaries, aided by 100 volunteer workers, developed expanding programs of recreation, education, inter-religious co-operation, and boys' work.

Postwar building rehabilitation continued with a new wing being added to the Collins Memorial Student Center. Both this and the main building were used to capacity by 1,100 members and thousands of others.

The YMCA served Siam this year in unique and strategic ways. It served as the contact point between the Christian and Buddhist communities; members of both co-operated on committees and club activities. It prepared students for study abroad and aided the government in placing them in foreign schools and universities.

It conducted the best courses in English in Siam. Pre-marital lectures and discussions were sponsored. Monthly forums were conducted on current events, in connection with which a daily newspaper was published. The Y launched a Y's Men's Club and a Student Christian Movement. And an orchestra was sponsored which played at a park concert attended by 2,000 people.

A dog show in Southern Rhodesia, South Africa, was broken up when a large grey rabbit sauntered by. In the midst of the judging, the dogs forgot their pedigrees and took out after the rabbit.

"Pinkie And The Fairies" Is Well Done By Weston Pupils

"Pinkie and the Fairies", the operetta presented by pupils and friends of Weston School, proved to be more robust entertainment than the name would suggest. This was largely because of the comedy scenes and songs provided by Charles Bedford-Jones as Uncle Gregory, Frances Bedford-Jones as Aunt Caroline, Mary Louise Sutherland as Aunt Imogen and George Furse as Mr. Irons. Their burlesque quarter "This Spring" in Act III sent the audience into gale after gale of laughter.

Eight year old Toril Orre and Jane Torrey played the title roles with great self possession and were assisted in playing pranks on the grown-ups by their three mischievous friends Donnie Marshall, Susan McGuire and Claire Hamilton.

The music of the play was composed by Frederick Norton, famous for his songs in the old time favorite "Chu Chin Chow." The songs were competently handled by the school choir under the direction of Harry Norris.

The dancers were under the supervision of Gertrude Geiger who composed a modern dance number as the introduction to Act II. Jean Low directed the play which was attended by a capacity audience in Moyses Hall last Saturday and will be repeated next Saturday under the auspices of the Montreal Nursery School Association.

Kinsmen Coaster
Classic Set For Saturday, June 18

Kinsmen Club officials announce Saturday, June 18th will be Soap-Box Derby Day, in Montreal.

Strictly a boys' event, the coaster classic is already causing a bustle of activity in Montreal homes, as boys between the ages of nine and fifteen are getting busy planning their racers and digging around for materials with which to build them.

To assure that no boy is barred through lack of ability to purchase materials, the committee in charge of the event is allowing boys to be sponsored. Drivers must make their own cars, but the expense of purchasing materials may be borne by a sponsor whose name and color the racer may carry in the race.

All drivers will receive prizes regardless of their finishing positions. Noel Macadam and Leo Martin are again in charge of the prize committee and already have two fine new bicycles for the winners of each division.

Nobody knows who the 1949 champ will be, except that he will be a determined youngster who has some good ideas on how to plan a racer with his head and build it with his hands; also enough metal to carry him through the race to victory.

Westm't Baptist Church Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of Westmount Baptist Church was held on Friday last—the 47th since the Church was organized in 1902.

Dr. J. A. Johnston, minister of the Church, was chairman of the meeting. Dr. Johnston has entered upon his 17th year in Westmount, having completed 16 years of a most fruitful ministry in January last.

The meeting was largely attended and was preceded by the annual supper provided by the Women's Association.

Reports of the Deacons and Trustee Boards, and of the various organizations, indicated a very healthy condition in all the departments of the Church work, also in the work at St. Henry's Baptist Church, for which a printed report was presented.

The Treasurer's report, presented by F. E. Dufty, showed total receipts of $27,679. Of this $17,531 was for general and local work, and $10,148 for Missions and benevolences.

Col. R. H. Dean, Chairman of the Trustee Board, presented the annual budget.

The following officers were elected to serve during the next Church year. Church clerk, Dr. W. S. Weaver; Treasurer, F. E. Dufty; Recorder of offerings, W. H. Gill; Chairman of general committee, General A. E. Walford; Deacons Board, M. C. Chalmers, D. E. Jones, S. L. T. Morrell, and S. C. Simpson; Trustee Board, A. R. Gray and A. E. Smith.

The Board of Deacons recorded the appreciation of the Church for the flowers provided each Sunday by Mrs. Charles E. Frosst, who, unable to attend the worship services, through the flowers has a part in the services. A bouquet of flowers and a card expressing appreciation and greetings were sent from the meeting to Mrs. Frosst.

Co-operating With Your Child's Camp

(Fifth In A Series Of Six Articles)
By ROY D. LOCKE

Most of us naturally expect our children to be well and happy in camp. We enroll them in the camp of our choice, with the idea that they will be among friends under skilled leadership with plenty of exercise, good food, lots of sunshine. But just as they do at home, boys and girls can become ill at camp. It is expected that parent would be concerned over the health of the children when they are away from home. Some parents become very worried about this matter. Actually more than the normal parental concern over your son's well-being is not justified.

Food, rest, and sanitary arrangements in your camp are usually good. When you visit the camp you could satisfy yourself about these matters. The doctor and/or nurse will be at the camp or on call. Usually when your boy is at camp he is closer to the doctors care than he is at home. Most camps have adequate infirmaries to take care of the short term illnesses that do happen. However, make sure that you have clarified just what the camp's procedures are in the event of your son's illness.

Usually here would be a form supplied so that you could leave your forwarding address if you are travelling, moving away from your permanent address for even a short time. In case you are going on a motor trip or some such similar holiday plan where you cannot be reached immediately, register with the camp management the name and address of the person who should be notified in the event that you cannot be reached.

The bane of many camp doctors is the food parcels the parents send to their children. Some camps request that no parcels be sent. You could ascertain the answer to this question in any case. Send fruit rather than candy and chocolate bars. These articles frequently break down the established diet controls. Most camps operate a store or canteen from which campers are permitted to buy a limited amount of candies daily. If your camp will bank your lad's spending money for him it is very preferable for you to deposit his money in this way. This is especially desirable for younger boys.

Comics Problem

Comic books seem to be a problem, both at home and at camp. Although it is not my purpose to discuss the rights and wrongs of comic books at this time, I would suggest that you do limit the number of books you send. Too much time spent on reading these books prevents the campers from participating in many valuable experiences that are made available in an out-door situation.

Most camps have a library of good books for the quiet hour and the rainy day. Why not send along a book as a contribution to the camp and towards better reading.

Homesickness

Many boys at camp for the first time may develop a case of homesickness. This is a rather natural phenomenon, and is usually a very temporary symptom. It would be a great experience for many parents to see at first hand the genuine care and concern with which most camps handle this problem. Counsellors and campers work together to help individual boys through this period. If your lad can handle this problem, he will learn to stand on his own two feet.

Some children who become homesick tend to exaggerate the actual camp situation. He may complain about the food, his counsellor, program, and many other matters. He will probably place considerable emphasis on the food. Just be cautious about accepting these statements because they are off-times merely a manifestation of a temporary transition period. His attitude will change completely as soon as he becomes adjusted to his surroundings.

It would sometimes be helpful to delay visiting the camp until they have had an opportunity to overcome this homesickness. If the camp should advise you of their homesickness, wait for their advice before making a visit.

The letters that you write to camp are very important. Do not become over-sentimental in your letter writing. Encourage him to write to you about the various activities in the camp. Tell him how pelayed you are with his progress. If you have any doubts or concern in these matters be sure to ask the camp directors or one of his senior staff. They will be able to help you in almost every case.

Select mushrooms that are not bruised and plan to use them within one or two days.

Navy League Is Holding Ship Model Exhibition

There is a legend among old shellbacks that in some remote corner of the seven seas is a fine, snug harbour where, as John Masefield puts it, "the ships of all the world have got one anchor down and all sails furl'd". But wherever that peaceful retreat may be, it is reasonably certain that the vessels at anchor there are not more strange and varied as to period and design than those which will go on exhibition next Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings at 1429 Closse St. where the Montreal Division of The Navy League of Canada is holding a model ship and yacht exhibition.

Perhaps you are one of those clever people who understand those mysterious, curved fore-and-aft lines on hull plans, or perhaps you can't tell a topping-lift from a down-haul. It doesn't much matter. Sailor or landlubber you're bound to find something of interest in this remarkable collection of marine lore.

Here, under one roof are represented the craft in which man in widely separated places and ages has made his way to the sea, carried on his ocean commerce and fought his sea battles. There are half models of scientifically designed racing sloops in which modern man satisfies an atavistic urge to set forth to do battle with the elements and (over a measured course) his fellow man; a replica of a 26-oared Viking ship; a model of a Great Lakes freighter. There are strange native craft—a surf boat from Formosa with a woven palmleaf sail and saucer-like hull—an Eskimo kayak and comiak (women's boat) from Greenland—a Haida Indian dugout canoe from British Columbia—a canoe-raft built of reeds, from Lake Titicaca, Bolivia. There are tall clippers and lean destroyers; pot-bellied merchantmen and stout-hulled men-o'-war of another age.

Here is a pageant of shipping to gladden the hearts of sailormen and stir the imagination of all who are conscious of our heritage as a maritime nation.

Reports Heard at Quebec Federation H-S Meeting

The opening business session of the Provincial Conference of the Quebec Home and School Federation was featured by the presentation of reports by the President, the Treasurer, and various committees of the the Federation.

John McLeish, in the presidential report, emphasized the importance of the home background in the development of future citizens. "Great children have great parents — parents who maintain high ideals in the home".

John Hair presented the financial statement, which indicated that the Federation would have a favourable balance of some $875.00 to carry over into the next year. This was made possible by the fine support that the Association gave to the Sustaining Fund, for which Mr. Hair expressed the thanks of the Board of Directors.

Committee reports were presented by:—Ernest A. Jarand, Public Relations; Mrs. Hamilton Marshall, Parent Education; Miss Jessie Norris, Teacher Shortage; Dr. Donald C. Bews, Health; John McLeish, Special Child Needs; Mrs. H. T. Woodman, Program Planning; W. A. E. Pepler, School Finance; Frederick W. Price, Radio Education; and Mrs. C. E. Woolgar, Sex Delinquency Affecting Minors.

School Finance

Of special note were the recommendations brought in by School Finance Committee's interim report: that the new Quebec Legislation providing for tuition fees and textbooks charges is incompatible with free and compulsory education; that the 1 per cent sales tax provides an efficient source of revenue, but close study of its development is required; and that Federal aid to education is necessary. The report, after some discussion, was approved by the delegates on a standing vote.

Saturday morning's business opened with the report of A. G. Pryde's committee on supplementary examination centres for high school students living outside Montreal and Quebec. The delegates voted to support the recommendations that such centres be set up in Sherbrooke and in other locations where needed.

Mr. Pepler reported on the action that the Federation had taken in connection with the charges for use of school buildings by Associations in Montreal. The School Board is now willing to drop their charges for regular Home and School activities, and it is expected that the new policy will be in effect next year.

Elected President

The delegates ended the session by giving unanimous approval to the nominating committee's slate for the incoming Board of Directors, headed by Dr. Edward C. Powell, of Lachine, as President.

Mrs. E. A. McKee reports that 154 official delegates, representing 58 Associations, were registered by her committee at the Conference.

How Margarine Is Made; Where It Comes From

Who "invented" margarine? Where did it come from and what's in it?

This much-discussed table fat may be new in Canada but it has three-quarters of a century of research behind it.

The early work of the French chemist was important, for two reasons. First, it emphasized the fact that neither soldiers nor civilians can exist on a diet deficient in fats; second, it opened a whole new field for research.

The next step in the development of margarine was to substitute neutral lard for part of the beef fat in Mege-Mouries' early margarine in order to produce a smoother, more attractive finish and to make it less brittle in cold weather. Total elimination of beef fat was considered desirable and some attempt was made to replace it with vegetable oils with the result that Germans, nearly 20 years after Mege-Mouries' discovery produced what they called "plant butter".

Side by side with the development of margarine itself, research was then being carried on in the development of vegetable oils. When such oils were first used only those edible in their natural state (peanut, olive, sesame, sweet almond and hazelnut) were available. Some of these had an unpleasant taste and an equally unpleasant odor. It was not until 1900 that cottonseed oil was refined. About the same time a process known as hydrogenation, which can change a liquid oil to a solid fat, was discovered and experiments were carried out on a number of other vegetable oils such as coconut and palm and later soybean. Today in Canada, cottonseed, soybean, corn and peanut oils are used in margarine.

As in the case of most scientific endeavor, research was slow and painstaking and it was not until within the past quarter-century that margarine was perfected. The isolation of certain vitamins, the discovery of their importance in diet have all contributed to the perfecting of the present-day margarine. Today's product is fortified with 16,000 units of vitamin A for each pound. This amount is stable throughout the year and does not vary at different seasons.

Scientific tests show that vitamin A is necessary for growth and may reduce the body's susceptibility to infection. It is popularly known for prevention of "night blindness", a deficiency of the eye which does not allow proper adjustment from light to dark. Studies show that the health of children eating margarine exclusively as a table fat compares favorably with the health of children eating other table fats.

Margarine is now composed of 80% refined and hydrogenated vegetable oil, with the balance principally of pasteurized cultured skim milk, salt, and a minimum reinforcement of 16,000 units of vitamin A concentrate per pound.

JUST LIKE HENS!

In the home of a friend, I noted a stand of potted plants, writes a reader, thriving in a sunless corner of the living room. When I inquired how it was accomplished, my friend turned on a floor light beside them, explaining that she gave them artificial light for at least 10 hours out of the 24—sometimes for a longer-than-normal period. She uses a 60-watt lamp with an aluminum reflector, covered by a decorative parchment shade.

Chicken farmers have long known that hens will lay more eggs when electric lights are used to make them think it's daytime for a longer than normal period. That plant growers could employ a similar ruse was a new idea to me.

A crack on the inside of a range can be mended by using a filler made of equal parts of common table salt and wood ashes, moistened with water to the proper consistency. The filler will dry hard and will be lasting.

Bible College Alumni Hold 5th Conference

The fifth annual conference of the Montreal branch of the Toronto Bible College Alumni opened on Tuesday night and will continue through to Saturday, May 15th with a city-wide evangelistic campaign.

Services will be held in twenty-eight churches throughout the city and suburbs, conducted by members of the College Faculty and the Student Body.

On Friday, May 6th, at 8 p.m., the College will be represented at People's Church, where a special Musical Service will be conducted. Other services will be held daily throughout the week following in Point St. Charles Baptist Church; Verdun Baptist Church; Livingstone Presbyterian Church; Snowdon Baptist Church; Maisonneuve Presbyterian Church; Madison Baptist Church and Onward Gospel Church. A great final rally is planned for Westmount Baptist Church at 9 o'clock, Sunday, May 15th.

Speakers at these services will include Dr. J. B. Rhodes, M.A., B.D., Principal of the College; Rev. Dixon A. Burns, B.A., B.Th., Director of Student Activities; Rev. A. A. Armstrong, Registrar and Rev. Denzell Raymer, Secretary.

The singing groups participating in the services will be; one Ladies' Double Trio; one Ladies' Single Trio; two Male Quartettes and Mrs. Marion Newby, coloured contralto.

Headquarters of the Conference during the period will be Welcome Hall Mission, 1017 St. Antoine St.

St. Andrews

Sunday will be Mother's Day, and at the morning worship there will be appropriate observance of this very special occasion. As we meet to worship God we shall at the same time give thanks for those who have done so much to make us what we are — our Mothers. In a very beautiful flower exercise flowers will be presented to the Mothers present in the service; and a suitable message will be given by Mrs. J. S. Nickerson, our guest-speaker.

The evening Service will be a Young People's Service, in the sense that it will be conducted throughout by our Young People — members of the Alpha Omega Society. There will be brief messages, Scripture Readings and Prayers — all by the Young People; also a duet by two members who are also members of the Choir.

On Friday of this week, May 6th the Alpha Omega is presenting a Variety Show in the Church Hall — produced, directed and "played" by our Young People. On Friday, May 13th, there will be the annual Banquet, which will conclude the activities of a very successful

In these days when Armies are again mobilizing, it would be well to remind ourselves of a statement made by the late Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George about this 'Army of the Helping Hand'. "THERE IS ONE ARMY THAT I WOULD NEVER DISARM, ONE FOR WHICH I WOULD VOTE MORE OFFICERS, MORE MEN, AND MORE EXPENDITURES, AND THAT ARMY IS THE SALVATION ARMY". Its work among the casualties of life in peace-time is well known to all.

The Army has been established in Montreal for more than sixty years. It has earned an enviable reputation and the value and quality of its work are unquestioned.

This year, as never before, this organization needs your generous support. We urge that you give a sympathetic reception to the canvasser who will call upon you in the near future.

Westmount Baptist

Mothers' Day Service will be observed in Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday. A special feature will be the gift of blossoms to children for their Mothers. The theme of the address will be "Three Types of Mothers".

An impressive Baptismal Service will be held in the Evening. Dr. Johnston will continue the Spring-Time Series of Sermons. The address will bear the title "Turn On Your Short Wave." There is a wonderful inter-communication system between the individual and God. It has Transmitting and Receiving Sets. We may speak and we may listen. Dr. Johnston will preach at both Services.

Westmount Christian Youth Fellowship meets following the Evening Service. The meeting will take the form of a Discussion Panel by Four Young People. This Discussion will be recorded on a "Magic Tape."

Christian Science

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians 15:22, "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: — "And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour." (Matthew 17: 14, 15, 18)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science & Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: —

"Casting out evil and fear enables truth to outweigh error. Stand porter at the door of thought. Admitting only such conclusions as you wish realized in bodily results, you will control yourself harmoniously. Rise in the strength of Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. God has made man capable of this, and nothing can viate the ability and power divinely bestowed on man." (Pages 392-393)

HAPPINESS IN THE HOME

Mental health specialists believe that the roots of much of the mental ill-health of present day adults are to be found in the training they received as children, particularly the treatment they received in the home. Healthy mental conditions in the home are the safest guarantee for a happy, healthy mental condition in later life, the experts say.

Seven million pairs of goggles were manufactured in the United States during a single year.

Dominion-Douglas

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at both services in Dominion-Douglas Church on Sunday. In the morning, Dr. Lloyd Smith will take as his pre-communion theme: "This Cup". In the evening a Mother's Day Service will be held, at which Rev. Charles Johnston will speak on the subject, "... and the Mother of Jesus was there".

The Church School will meet at 3 p.m. The Session will end on May 15th.

The Young People's Union after the evening service will hear Parker Wearing, B.A., of the Westmount High School staff, read some of his own humorous poetry.

Stanley Presbyterian

Sunday, which is Mother's Day, is being observed as Family Worship Sunday. In this connection there will be a special service in the morning, with appropriate address by the Minister. The Sunday School will be in attendance. The Lesson will be read by the Superintendent, Fred Greer.

In the evening the sermon topic will be "Ye shall be free". On Friday evening, May 13th, Dr. Albert E. Cliffe will give a lecture in the Church.

Jean De Savoye To Direct MRT Production Of Barrie's Play

Jean de Savoye is directing the Montreal Repertory Theatre's production of James M. Barrie's "What Every Woman Knows". Mrs. de Savoye started her career in Scotland, where she participated in many of the festivals there. Since coming to Montreal she has done considerable work as a monologist. As a director, her work with the Westmount Woman's Club will be remembered. Her productions gained high praise and top honours in the Cathespian Guild. She has also worked with the Canadian Art Theatre and Brae Manor. In recent seasons, Mrs. de Savoye directed "Uncle Harry", "Juno" and "The Peacock" for MRT, both of which were very popular.

"What Every Woman Knows" is perhaps one of Barrie's most popular works, at least, his most felicitous. It proved an excellent medium for Helen Hayes to shine

BOWER — MILLER

The marriage of Marilyn Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Miller, of Hampstead, to Mr. Ronald William Bower, son of the late William Westwood Bower and of Mrs. Bower, of Notre Dame de Grace, took place at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon in St. Matthew's Church, Hampstead, the Rev. G. E. Trueman officiating. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of snapdragons in pale pink shading into deep rose, and calla lilies, with white snapdragons adorning the altar. Tall lighted candelabra, with sprays of pastel snapdragons, and white heather tied with white ribbons, marked off the guest pews. Mr. Harrison Jones presided at the organ and Mr. Howard Lobar sang The Lord's Prayer before the ceremony and "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin, the moulded bodice having a high neckline with a small collar and long fitted sleeves, the full skirt falling into a train. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a Mary Queen of Scots headdress of the same lace as her gown, and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white snapdragons and gardenias. Miss Joyce Jennings, as maid of honor, and Miss Catherine Draper, Miss Beryl Munro and Mrs. Malcolm Young, as the other bridal attendants, were gowned in silk marquisette over slipper satin, with full skirts and short boleros with graduated horizontal tucks. Miss Jennings was in carnation pink and wore a bandeau of blue carnations in her hair, the other attendants being in cloud blue with bandeaux of pink carnations. All carried baskets of yellow snapdragons and carnations to match those in their hair.

Mr. Bernard D. Sandwell, of Toronto, acted as best man for the groom and the ushers were Mr. Donald McCause, Mr. John Shields, Mr. Malcolm Young and Mr. Gordon Guthrie.

Mrs. J. S. Miller, mother of the bride, wore a floor length gown of rust crepe, with matching hat and accessories, and a corsage of Rapture roses.

Mrs. W. W. Bower, mother of the bridegroom, was wearing a floor length gown of turquoise lace with black hat and accessories, and a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses.

A reception was held in the Prince of Wales Salon of the Windsor Hotel, the bride's table being centred with the wedding cake and arranged with sweet-heart roses.

Later the bridal couple left by plane for New York, the bride travelling in an ensemble of blue-grey English worsted, with navy blue accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Among the out-of-town guests, were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gould, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.; Mr. Archibald McLellan and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knott, of Brockville, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Sandwell, of Toronto; Mrs. R. H. Haviland and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collinge, of Ottawa; Mrs. G. Brown, of Port Colborne, Ont.; Dr. and Mrs. Erie Draper, of Bedford, Que. and Dr. and Mrs. Merton Stevens, of East Orange, N.J.

Professor and Mrs. Ernest Wood, formerly of Adjar, India, and now of Hollywood, California, will arrive in Montreal at the end of this week and will be guests at The Laurentien Hotel for several days. Professor Wood, formerly of the Department of Philosophy, of the University of Madras, will give two public lectures on Monday and Tuesday evenings, at half-past eight o'clock, in Willingdon Hall, Central Y.M.C.A., Drummond Street, under the auspices of the Montreal Lodge of The Theosophical Society, of which Mrs. H. WEDDINGS

CROWDER — HABERL

Multicolor snapdragons arranged with palms decorated the Sacristy of the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord, Westmount, on Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, for the wedding of Ruth Eileen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert William Haberl, of Hampstead, to Lieut. Norman Kenneth Crowder, of London, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Crowder, of Renfrew, Ont. Father Frank J. Devine, S.J., of Loyola College, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was in an original model of white embroidered organza, with fitted bodice having a Peter Pan collar and a full skirt falling into a slight train. Her veil of tulle illusion, worn by her maternal grandmother at her wedding, was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Haberl, as maid of honor for her sister, was in a frock of pale blue embroidered organza, with a fitted bodice having a heart-shaped neckline and puffed sleeves, and a very full skirt. She wore a blue straw picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet of sweetpeas.

Mr. Jacques Saint-Amour acted as best man for the groom, and the ushers were Messrs. William and John Haberl, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Haberl, mother of the bride, was in a gown of brown silk, and wore a hat of natural Milan straw and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Crowder, mother of the groom, was in a gown of grey printed silk, with grey hat and accessories, and her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Hampstead Town Hall, where spring flowers, arranged with palms, were used to decorate.

Later, Lieut. and Mrs. Crowder left for their wedding trip, the bride travelling in a suit of brown Bedford cord, under a camelhair topcoat, and wearing a hat of natural straw, with matching accessories.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding, were Mrs. J. A. Crowder, mother of the groom, and Miss Isabel Plaunt, of Renfrew, Ont.; Mrs. Frank X. Behen, of Pittsburg, Pa., grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parent, of Quebec; and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilson, of Toronto, Ont.

The bridal couple will reside in London, Ont.

St. Mary's Auxiliaries Name Committees At Annual Meeting

The Union of Auxiliaries of St. Mary's Hospital is holding a dinner, followed by the annual meeting, Wednesday evening, May 11, in Cardy Hall at the Mount Royal Hotel, at seven o'clock.

Those on the committee are:— Chairman of dinners, Mrs. Edgar T. Reynolds.

Hotel Arrangements Chairman: Mrs. Frank O'Connor; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Vernon Wisby.

Publicity Chairman: Mrs. J. C. Hennessy; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Leo Reynolds.

Tickets Chairman: Mrs. W. Lonsdale Holland, Mrs. Harry King; Vice-Chairmen, Mrs. J. E. Derenne and Mrs. Gordon Weeks.

Others assisting on the committee are: Mrs. Donald McLeod, Mrs. F. O'Connor, Mrs. J. L. O'Brien, Mrs. W. L. LaFave, and Mrs. R. G. Hishion.

William Holden, now starring in Paramount's "Streets of Laredo," is learning to play the guitar. He is fond of early American songs and amuses himself by recording them.

Modest covering for brief play suit is this wraparound skirt made of two matching scarves.

Scarf Skirt Is Modest Covering For Brief Duds

Newest wrinkle in wraparound fashions is the skirt which you can make out of a scarf when brief duds need to go under cover.

Wrap a scarf over your play suit when a modest covering is needed for a trip to the beach clubhouse, or when you need to greet unexpected guests.

All you need to put over this scarf trick are two large matching scarves in colors which preferably harmonize with your sun suit. To turn these into a skirt, tie one scarf around your waist, knotting it at the side. Over this, drape the other scarf and knot it at the opposite side. With your play shorts sheathed by your skirt, the top of your suit now becomes the bodice of your "dress."

More to be said for scarf skirts is that the squares can be folded and packed as easily as handkerchiefs to give the week-end traveler smart wardrobe changes in a minimum amount of luggage space.

Maritimers Have Active Year Nfld. Ladies in Membership

A year of progress both in increased membership and finances was noted by Mrs. J. E. MacVicar, retiring President of The Maritime Women's Club of Montreal, Incorporated, in her report to the annual meeting held Friday evening in St. Matthias Church Hall. The year was also marked in that membership was extended to Newfoundland ladies now resident in Montreal. She also reported a sustained interest in all club projects, and stressed the spirit of friendly co-operation shown by members. The meetings were all well attended and the raising of money for club projects was carried forward enthusiastically. Membership increased in the Canadian Association of Consumers, and resolutions of the Local Council of Women were supported. Red Cross work was participated in by many of the members.

Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, convener of the Ways and Means Committee, reported funds had been raised by holding two teas, two bridges, a sale of handwork in the N.D.G. "Y" and Marathon bridge groups.

Visits to Ste. Anne's Military Hospital were made regularly every two weeks throughout the year. Mrs. A. J. Moore, and her committee consisting of Mrs. R. P. Freeman, Mrs. R. J. Russell, Mrs. Muriel Peardon and Mrs. L. J. Salter, were granted the sum of $500 for distribution of cigarettes, candy, magazines and comforts to the patients. At the Christmas meeting members presented gifts to be included in the 56 boxes packed for these veterans. To date 640 individual calls have been made bring cheer to them.

It was announced by Mrs. A. J. Boyd that boxes at a total cost of $235 were sent on several occasions to ten needy families in Britain.

Scholarships totalling $200 were awarded to three Maritime Universities and to the McGill School for graduate nurses, which this year was won by Miss Margaret M. Doyle of Rustico, P.E.I., who personally thanked the membership for their continued interest in education.

The Treasurer's Report showed gross receipts of over $3,100. During the year donations were made to The Canadian Red Cross, The Y.M.C.A. Building Fund Campaign, the Montreal General Hospital, the Children's Memorial Hospital, The Montreal Girls' Association and the Canadian Girl Guides.

A life membership was presented to Miss G. V. Beers, a charter member, and honorary memberships to Miss Bertha Rogers, now residing in the Maritimes, and to Miss Kathleen Phair, who is retiring from active membership due to ill health.

Presentations were made to Mrs. H. T. Mitchell, retiring convener of the Ways and Means Committee, and to Miss E. Atkinson, retiring as press secretary, for their long and faithful service on the Board of Directors.

Miss D. L. Gass was elected President of the club for the ensuing year.

(The following officers were elected for the coming year).

HINTS ON Fashions

Pretty at home, nice for an informal outdoor event, splendid for a country weekend — that's the happy function of this delightful dirndl fashioned of navy blue cotton. A blouse of white dimity with puffed sleeves fills in the deep décolletage of the basque bodice which is boned and laced up the front in true peasant style.

Prof. and Business Women Elect Miss Irene Casey President

The Professional and Business Women's Organization of the parish of the Ascension of Our Lord, Westmount, held its annual meeting and election of officers on April 27 in the Queen's Hotel. Later, supper was served and a presentation made to the Director, Reverend Donald J. Feron, who addressed the group, complimenting it, on its many charitable activities and wishing the organization continued success. Father Feron spoke of the splendid co-operation of the individual members and the many friendships formed through the group's activities.

The treasurer's report showed a very successful year with many disbursements. The chairman of the educational committee told of subscriptions of religious pamphlets sent to the missionaries, and of pamphlets and magazines sent to the missions and to the Catholic Sailors' Club.

Miss Edna Coyle, chairman of the social service committee, told of the Christmas gifts of socks sent to the missions out West; of 400 pieces of used clothing sent to the Sisters at St. Patrick's Orphanage and of some of the members regularly visiting some of the children and of taking them out. 112 Christmas parcels were sent to the children. $50.00 was donated to dress one boy and girl for their first Holy Communion. 500 pieces of used clothing was collected and sent overseas, through Loyola College, 5 baby layettes were made and given to worthy cases, also used baby clothing was collected and sent to the Catholic Welfare. 110 gifts were donated at a Christmas shower for the aged poor. Care parcels are sent overseas regularly. More used clothing was given to the Little Sisters of the Poor for deserving cases. It was only through the tireless efforts of Miss Coyle and her committee that so much has been accomplished by the social service.

Miss Margaret Murray was chairman of nominations, and the officers elected for the year are: President, Miss Irene Casey; Vice-President, Miss Eileen Cullen; Recording Secretary, Miss Irene McDonald; Treasurer, Miss Josephine Brady, and Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Eileen St. Martin.

Choose Your Government Well Mrs. Drew Advises Association

Speaking not as the wife of George Drew, leader of the Progressive Conservative Party in Canada, but as a housewife, mother — and as a Canadian — Mrs. Drew, at a luncheon meeting of the Progressive Conservative Women's Association of Greater Montreal, held yesterday in the Windsor Hotel, urged her audience to use the same discernment in choosing a government, as would be used in the daily routine of shopping and marketing. For, she pointed out, "by our taxes we are purchasing services from our government. Therefore, we ask for the best for the money we pay out."

Referring to the impending election, Mrs. Drew remarked that, since governments emerge from political parties, it is of the utmost importance that the people know the purpose and aim of each party, since we must choose one of them to guide our destiny.

"Of course, I'm prejudiced," Mrs. Drew continued, "but I think that the Progressive Conservatives would be my choice. We stand for the right of the individual to live his own life without regimentation! We definitely believe in improved social services — we stand for a lower cost of living — for better housing — for sound labour laws — All under the Free System. It is not my job to go into the discussion on all the individual merits of these policies which were adopted at the Convention. Today, as always, I will only speak of the principles for which we stand — and which we all believe in. The technical part I leave to those whose job it is to clarify the issue for you — in other words, your Candidate in your different ridings, and, of course, to my husband."

"The cost of living," Mrs. Drew went on, "is a matter of grave concern to all citizens. Here is our policy: we will attack this problem by reducing the cost of government, by the reduction of income and other taxes and by encouraging and freeing production. Maximum production is the surest way of reducing the cost of goods to the consumer."

Another grave problem which must be dealt with so that fair use and justice may prevail, the speaker pointed out, is labour. "We stand for fair and adequate wages," she continued, "standard hours of work, having regard to the nature of the industry concerned — holidays with pay — certification of labour organizations after a majority vote — machinery for conciliation of disputes — equal pay for men and women doing equal work."

In conclusion, Mrs. Drew warned that the days of lethargy and indifference are long past — that today, more than ever before, the people of Canada must know thoroughly the policies of all parties, in order to defend the country from "the enemies within our gates as well as without," she said. "To the men we choose to govern us in the future — falls the task of solidifying its foundations; otherwise, we may have nothing to offer the future generations, but its crumbling ruins. This is the challenge which we, The People of Canada, must meet so that our children may enjoy the bounties God gave this land."

Indoor Garden

Now that bowl arrangements of flowers or foliage are so popular these days and meet an all round need, some folks, perhaps, have not thought of using the common small blossomed begonia that anyone can grow. The waxy leaves have an elegance of their own, and the brilliant blossoms are very cheery. Five or seven pieces placed in a low bowl in a frog, together with an appropriate figurine to add an additional artistic touch, make arrangement a thing of beauty and interest.

A begonia bouquet or flower grouping repays serious consideration, for it lasts for weeks and weeks, even growing and rooting in the frog. Growing indoors, the leaves become less green and more red and pink and take on a translucent quality that is truly enchanting. After the pieces have done all they can in the bowl, they may be planted outside.

Silver is called a "noble" metal because it is "incorruptible," resisting acids, chemicals, and corrosion.

Mary Beetles Dance Recitals Aid Kinsmen

There will be three separate presentations of the Mary Beetles Dance Recitals this season, each performance with a complete change of programme. The Circus, in Danceform, will be presented on Wednesday, May 18th, at 8.15 p.m. The Life of Tanya, a Ballerina, on Thursday, May 19th at 8.15 p.m., and Peter Rabbit in Danceland on Saturday, May 28th, at 2.30 p.m. Each performance will be held at the new Community Hall, Town of Mount Royal, and the entire proceeds will, as usual, be given to the Kinsmen

Club of Montreal, Boys' Club and Youth Work.

The Circus will feature Ballet, Character, Tap and Comedy, and the audience is asked to be in their seats punctually as the programme opens with a Circus Parade of the entire cast through the Auditorium.

The Life of Tanya, a Ballerina, is a Ballet in nine acts, showing the various stages of a dancer's life from her Kindergarten days to the eve of her Hollywood debut, and will feature seven dancers in the role of Tanya. There will be very little tap in this performance.

Peter Rabbit in Danceland tells the story of Peter's adventures when he runs away from home, has many narrow escapes but is finally found in a woodland glade, where he is punished and taken home.

The two evening performances feature pupils from the age of six up to the older and more advanced dancers and the matinee will have over one hundred little dancers under the age of five taking part in the first half of the programme followed by more advanced pupils in the second half.

Jeanne Rodier, assisted by Nancy Saunders, Barbara Ashen and Ann Holland, will direct the dancing. Mary Beetles has designed the costumes; the decor is by Desmond McDermott. The orchestra will be under the direction of Leon Kofman with Winnifred Murary and Elisabeth Saunders at the piano.

REACTION TO MOVIES

HOLLYWOOD, May 4 — There was a time when the prospect of a free pass to a movie house threw me into something comparable to ecstasy. It's not so much the money saved, for I've known wealthy folk who'd spend hours on the phone fenagling an Annie Oakley to the neighborhood picture palace. Somehow, there's an elusive charm attached to the little slip of paper with the legend "Admit bearer and one — good any day except Saturday and Sunday".

But for me, at least, them days is gone forever. For the past 11 years my wallet has contained nicely engraved cards entitling me to see every movie made in Hollywood — plus some foreign imports—in the sanctity of a studio projection chamber months before the films reach the public.

The professional necessity of watching three to five films a week—occasionally even more—eventually breeds in the viewer a certain discernment and taste. While this is strictly personal, and differs from critic to critic, it at least qualifies the individual to present a broad appraisal of things cinematic.

Accordingly, the lines to follow will in brief outline my reactions to a group of movies you'll soon be seeing across Canada.

"City Across the River" is an offbeat treatment of the lights and shadows cast by New York's tenement district. It tells of the Amboy Dukes, a gang of high school kids, treating each as an individual case study. Spiked with humor and tragedy, the film etches the shabby path which leads the lads to robbery, murder, self destruction. One boy sums up the situation succinctly: "they'll step all over you."

Universal-International has cast the photoplay with a group of new faces, two of whom bear watching. Joshua Shelly is at once tragic and comic, a sensitive performer. Anthony Curtis is no great shakes as a thesp, but his Latin looks hint of a brighter Hollywood future.

"City Across the River" is interesting cinema.

Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers return to the screen as a terpsichorean team in Metro's "The Barkley's of Broadway". It's a pleasure to report neither has lost an iota of the grace and agility evident in their earlier efforts years ago. The basic story of "The Barkleys" is skimpy and unimportant, but Astaire's routines make the film worthwhile. There's one number in kilts you'll especially enjoy.

Honesty compels me to qualify this enthusiastic wordage by confessing the musical score leaves much to be desired. There's not one hummable tune in the production, excepting a revival of "They Can't Take That Away From Me" by the Gershwins. But Miss Rogers has never before been so beautifully photographed, and that Astaire spark keeps things rolling happily. This is good fare for the family.

"Big Jack", an M-G-M opus with the late Wallace Beery, is one of the worst hunks of film produced this or any other semester. It's regrettable so able a performer as Miss Main should be so wasted. Richard Conte is cast as a frontier doctor, circa 1903, who steals bodies from cemeteries for experimental purposes. Outlaw leader Beery saves him from the noose. This should give you some idea. Beery is killed in the tenth reel. It should have been in the first.

"Impact" is another production by Toronto's Harry Popkin, but it's not in the same class with

Preview Opening Of Belmont Park

Ellis McLintock and his celebrated band, with comedy star Mildred Morey as guest artist, will be the featured attraction for two nights only at the Preview Opening of Belmont park, which takes place on Saturday and Sunday. Ellis McLintock, whose band has been featured on the Wrigley radio show this season along with Miss Morey, is no stranger to Montreal or to dance enthusiasts at Belmont Park. Rated one of top dance bands in Canada, he spent the whole season last year at Belmont Park and made many friends for his music there.

This will be Mildred Morey's first appearance here since the days of the famed Army Show when she was one of its star attractions. Since that time she has emerged as the best radio come-

In addition to the band and its comedy star, which performs only in the evenings, Belmont Park's Managing Director Rex Billings promises other new attractions, chief of which will be the new Kiddies' Park, with a miniature Thriller and other rides designed especially for moppets. The Thriller, a duplicate on a smaller scale of the Park's own roller coaster, can also carry adults, for those who find the big ride too exciting.

A huge new Wonderland amusement arcade has also been erected, the first of its type on the continent. Its cost forms a substantial part of the $200,000 that is being spent this Spring to prepare for the new season. This building, along with others, is being rushed to completion for the Preview his hilarious "My Dear Secretary", Brian Donlevy, Ella Raines, Charles Coburn and Helen Walker top the cast, and all are disappointing except Miss Walker. Movie columnist Sheila Graham plays herself and provides the lightest moments of the film.

It's another triangle, with Donlevy cast as a millionaire whose wife carries on a clandestine romance. The latter plots Donlevy's death, but due to mistaken identity she kills her lover. It's all rather complicated and actually not worth unravelling. Chalk this one up as something that misfired.

Columbia's "The Walking Hills" is a right good western, sir, with Randolph Scott turning in another of the chores he does so well. Canada's John Ireland is the heel, and there's a great fight sequence wherein Ireland battles

Scott on the desert sands using shovels in place of fists. Don't pay too much attention to the story—just sit back and enjoy the action, punctuated time to time by songs from John White. John has many friends in Montreal.

Also worthwhile is "Undercover Man", starring Canada's Glenn Ford. This is good drama, good theatre, good entertainment, reminiscent of such foreign films as "Open City". It's a gangster yarn with Treasury Agent Glenn Ford, armed only with his pencil and notebook, taking on the big political bosses.

There's considerable slaughter, but this fictionalized report on the Treasury's case against Al Capone is exciting stuff. Newcomer Joan Lazar almost steals the picture as daughter of a murdered bookkeeper. "Undercover Man" is top drawer entertainment.

Children's Theatre Closes Season With "King Midas"

Saturday afternoon, May 14th, will see the closing of the season for the Children's Theatre, Montreal's talented juveniles, and the directors. Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters have endeavored to give its patrons something quite different, which should prove a most interesting diversion.

The programme will be divided into three sections. First on the bill will be a one act comedy which should prove great fun, entitled "The Child Wonder", Zoe Belle Starr will be seen as the spoiled would-be Hollywood star.

The next on the programme will be a special revue by the tiny tots and juniors, the Children's Theatre Starlets, and they have specialty numbers, singing, dancing and novelties which will doubtless surprise and delight the hearts of everyone.

The closing feature of the bill will be the play "King Midas". A great deal of painstaking care has been put into this production. Special scenery and lighting and beautifully designed costumes are being made, and an excellent cast includes Dick Easton and Phyllis Gibson, as the King and the Princess, both well known favorites with Children's Theatre audiences, also Bruce Pomeranz who plays his first big role, George Kasatchenko, Elizabeth Kraminer, Barbara Hamill, Martin Hornstein, Sheila Dobrin, David Luck and Gloria Wolfe.

Judging by the many requests for tickets for this last show of

St. Leo's Boxing Show Tonight

15 Bouts Arranged For Ninth Annual Slugfest

A pretentious list of 15 bouts has been lined up for St. Leo's 9th Annual Boxing Show, that will get underway tonight at 8.30 p.m. sharp in the Academy Hall. No soft spots have been picked for the Westmounters, with such well known boxing clubs as Grenadier Guards and Terminal Park Y.M.C.A. supplying most of the sock artists for the programme.

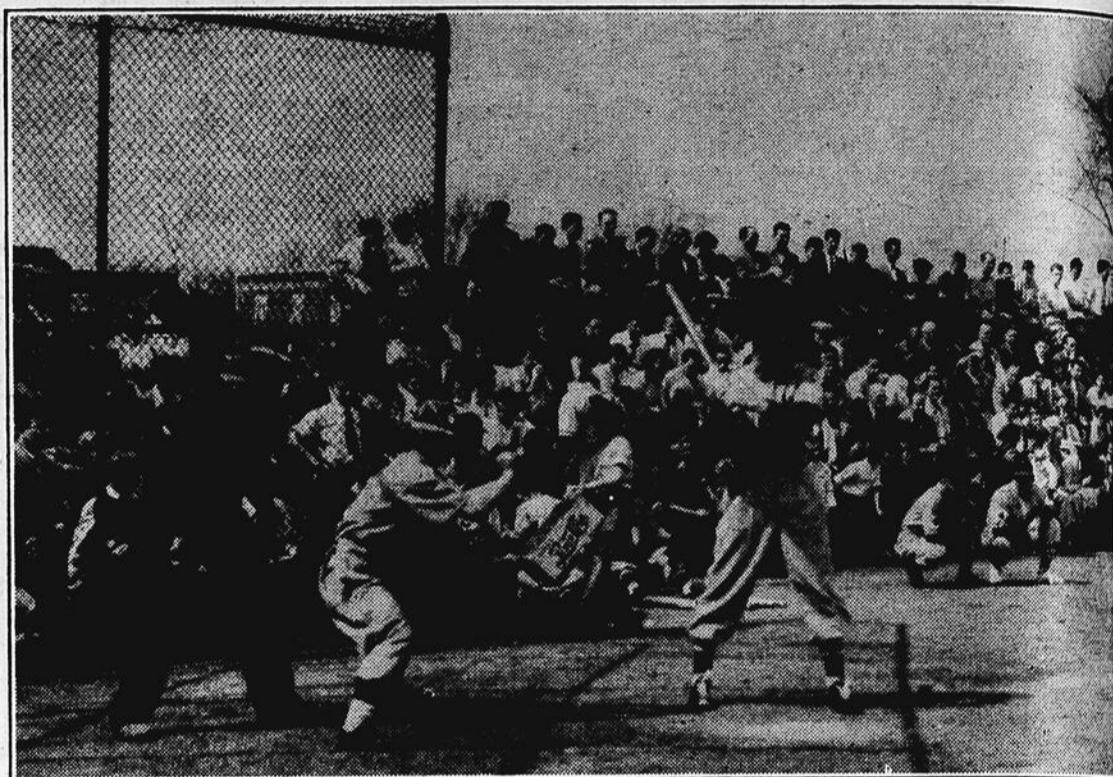

Tommie Sullivan, capable coach of the Guards, has his boys in great shape and are fresh out of the Golden Glove Tournament where they captured the Jack Dempsey Trophy for having the most winners in the novice class, making them the number one boxing club in Montreal. Al McGinnis also made a great showing in the recent Glove eliminations with his entries. The card will open in the 96 lbs. class, where hustling Hughie McDonald will tangle up with the southpaw slants of Peanuts Greenberg of the Guards. Gerry Pecknold at 136 lbs. will face Walter Wilson at the same weight and also of Guards. St. Leo's Tony Sciarrello will take on Regie Billingsly, one of Tommie Sullivan's hard hitting youngsters, in the 126 lbs. class. Shifty Jimmy Cotter will engage Mike Broderick at a 118 lbs. This is Jimmy's initial bout and in Broderick he meets up with a classy boy who had considerable success in the 1948 Golden Gloves. Johnnie Chase, one of the Academy's few experienced fighters, will receive plenty of opposition from Lionel Taylor, a three-time winner in the recent Golden Gloves at a 147 lbs. and fighting out of Terminal Park Y.M.C.A. Kevin McAsey, at a 147 lbs. should make a hit with his whirlwind style of boxing, when he meets up with Dave Kitty of Iverly Settlement. In the 137 lbs. class Nevil Martin is in great shape to face Ronny Campbell of Terminal Park Y.M.C.A. St. Leo's fistic pride John Foy, will figure in one of the best attractions on the card when he meets up with Dennis Jockes of the Guards. Johnnie, a Golden Glove Champion last year, will be facing a boy who went to the finals this year and this bout will undoubtedly be one of the best of the evening. Rugged Bob Hall is hopeful of crashing the show and if successful will box Jimmy Ethier of Terminal Park Y.M.C.A. Bob has been on the sidelines with a minor injury.

McVEY DEBUT

Vaughan McVey, a much improved boxer, will represent the

Trophies, Crests To Be Awarded

Winners of the Municipal Hockey Championships will be presented with crests and trophies on the 9th of May in the Banquet Hall of the Victoria Hall — time, 7.30 p.m.

Intermediates-Alouettes; Juveniles - Panthers; Midgets - Tornados; Bantam-St. Leo's; Pee Wee 'A'-Queen's Bulldogs; Pee Wee 'B'-St. Leo Greys; Pee Wee 'C'-Queen's Flyers.

The winners of the Municipal Intermediate Basketball league will also be presented with prizes the same evening.

Movies and refreshments will round out the evening.

Academy at 155 lbs., when he makes his ring debut with Johnnie Dunn of Terminal Park. Harry Wolfe, who has been showing great form in training, is slated to engage Mike Didical of the Guards. Harry at present is out with a muscle tear in the elbow and is doubtful whether he will be able to answer the bell, but in the event he doesn't it will be a bad break for both Harry and the show. Wolfe is St. Leo's top athlete of the year and will be honored during the programme with a coveted trophy and all we can add to this is it couldn't happen to a more deserving young athlete. Well built Bert Latimer has never looked better and is in top shape to take on Nick Karmanos at 165 lbs. This bout should provide plenty of fireworks and provide a thrilling climax to the 1949 fistic show. Other Academy boys to appear on the programme will be: Leslie Humbert at 137 lbs, Tommie Rogers, 126 lbs.; Leonard Mulligan, 126 lbs.; and Donnie McDonald, at 137 lbs. Donald Rolfe will return to his old school colors for a one night stand and will face an opponent yet to be named. Donald made a swell showing in the recent Golden Gloves, where he went as far as the semi-finals in the 118 lbs. novice class.

McGILLIS NOT WORRIED

Coach Andy McGillis is not unduly worried about the tough opposition facing his charges and is confident the wearers of the familiar Red, White and Green colors will be far from outclassed. His chief concern is that some of his top boys, out with injuries, will not be able to take their regular place on the card.

Ticket sale has been brisk around the school but there remains a good number that will go on sale at the door on the evening of the show.

Ascension Meet Grocers In Two Games This Sunday

Kevin Kennedy's Ascension senior fastball nine will be trying to stretch their win skein to three straight this Sunday when they tangle with Steinberg's in a pair of Snowdon Senior Fastball League tilts. The locals face the grocers at 2.00 at Macdonald Park and again at N.D.G. Park in the evening.

Both Ascension and Steinberg's won their opening day battles last Sunday. Kennedy's Krew earned a clear-cut 5-1 verdict over Hampton while Steinberg's, displaying plenty of power at the plate and smart fielding, blasted St. Augustine's 12-1.

The third Snowdon loop battle on Sunday will be played immediately after the Ascension-Steinberg's afternoon struggle at Macdonald Park and will bring together Hampton and Columbus.

Other games billed for the coming week are as follows: Monday, 6.30, Trenholme Park: Robitaille vs. Hampton; Wednesday, 6.30, Macdonald Park: Robitaille vs. Steinberg's.

"THE TEAM" IMPRESSES

Gerard "The Team" Lecavalier, Ascension's cool and imperturbable right-hander, resumed his masterful tossing last Sunday evening, at N.D.G. Park, when he held Hampton to four hits while whiffing 11 and walking only two.

While Lecav was handcuffing the Hamptonites, his mates were busy combing Andy O'Connor for nine sold hits. O'Connor helped the locals' cause along by issuing five walks.

Ascension broke the scoring ice in the third inning when Frank Shelley, playing his first Snowdon league game, smashed a double to left and scored on Toots Provost single to centre. Toots, by the by, was the batting star of the fray, slamming out three hits in four trips to the plate.

THREE-RUN RALLY

Ascension put the game in the proverbial satchel in the fifth when they staged a spirited uprising to send three runners scurrying home safely. Provost started things off with a single. Pelouquin walked. Brennan and Barrette singled to send home the runs. Harvie was out when the ball hit his bat twice and large William Durnan put an end to the rally when he was the keyman in a double play, grabbing Peirson's liner and rifling the spheroid to first to catch Barrette off the bag.

The winners wound up their scoring in the eighth when Paul Barrette went all around the hassocks after John Burnett dropped his high fly to right and Doug Waugh let the throw-in to the plate get by him.

ONE FOR HAMPTON

Hampton notched their sole tally in the eighth when Cole walked and scored on O'Connor's double to right.

SENIOR'S BACK

In a sports week marked by another suspension to controversial Durocher of the New York Giants, one of the most significant news came from Red Blaik's Athletics Office at West Point, N.Y. The dispatch, which was quickly picked up by the various news agencies, noted the fact that Glenn Davis, American football's greatest break-away back since the days of Red Grange, the Illinois iceman, is coming back to the Point, as a backfield coach. If the California coach can give the kids under his tutelage any of his own swivel-hipped magic, Army's football fortunes, on the wane since Davis and running mate, Doc Blanchard, left two years ago, should improve considerably in 1949.

Davis rose from an unknown apple-cheeked kid to one of the greatest of all football heroes in four glorious years at the Point, years in which his Army team won 35 games, lost only 2, and tied 1. He became the toast of the nation, the brightest star of what many consider to have been the greatest collegiate football team ever assembled, and even although he's been absent from the grid for two years, Davis has managed to keep his name before the public almost continuously.

First, he and his running mate Blanchard stirred up quite a bit of controversy by applying to the Army's higher command for leave to play a season of pro football and pick up some well-deserved money. The request was refused at Washington, so Davis and Blanchard remained in the army and went their separate ways, Glenn to Korea with the occupation forces, Doc to the south-west United States as an army pilot.

Next, Davis got back into the spotlight as temporary sweetheart of movie star Elizabeth Taylor, but this affair, like most others of his kind was short-lived. Now comes the announcement of Davis's appointment to the coaching corps at West Point.

And if anyone is interested, and we're sure that the Los Angeles Rams and the Los Angeles Dons, who hold draft rights to the California flash in the National Football League and the All-American Conference, are, Glenn's compulsory army term will be up in time for him to resume full time gridiron activities next year. This probably means that Glen Davis will once again be running wild in 1950, and you can safely bet your bottom dollar that Davis will be putting in a good deal of time at West Point this fall getting back into the kind of shape needed to star in the tough pro leagues.

Boxing is finally in the throes of reconversion now that most of the pre-war luminaries have retired and the new crop of boxers that have come up have assumed positions of prominence in the fistic melange.

Joe Louis is still officially retired, but is still heavyweight champion. The winner of the Ezzard Charles-Joe Walcott bout in Chicago next month takes that title, but how long he can hold it against such challengers as durable Gus Lesnevich is a question worthy of considerable consideration.

Freddy Mills, the Londoner who holds the light-heavy title is the most perfect example of the old axiom that "uneasy sits the head that wears a crown." Freddy has been bending over backwards avoiding a title fight with Lesnevich through a convenient series of minor injuries, and has shown more proficiency in dodging this fight than in dodging hooks and uppercuts in the squared ring.

Marcel Cerdan rules as king of middleweights and another name has stricken from the list of his challengers this week when tough Tony Zale, the Gary, Indiana slugger finally retired. Laugh of the week occurred in this division when some senile specimen suggested matching Jake LaMotta, the All-American flop, with Cerdan for the title.

Welterweight titlist Ray Robinson is still trying to decide whether he's a welterweight or middleweight, and, head and shoulders above any fighters in his own division, he seems to be a logical contender for Cerdan's crown.

Lightweight champ Ike Williams seems to be the only champ securely on his throne, for the only fighter who seems to be able to beat him is Kid Gavilan, the chief contender for Robinson's welterweight crown.

Willie Pep and Sandy Saddler are evenly matched in the featherweight division and are the only two of the paperweights worthy of mention. They've fought twice, each has one battle, and Pep, after gaining the championship in a 15-rounder a couple of months ago, has been studiously avoiding any mention of a return fight.

FISH AND WILD LIFE

A LOT OF DUCKS TO DUCK

About 17,000,000 wild ducks and geese were bagged in the United States during the 1948-49 migratory waterfowl shooting season, according to estimates released by Albert M. Day, director of the Fish and Wildlife Service. He estimated that another 3,000,000 were killed but not retrieved. Comparable estimates for Alaska were 50,000 bagged and 5,000 not retrieved.

"A gain of 27 per cent in the number of duck hunters who were field during the season plus an increase in the number of days of hunting brought, as the inevitable result, a rise in waterfowl kill of nearly 48 per cent of 1947," Mr. Day said.

Outdoor Tips

Don't sit or lie down on bare ground, unless you wish to risk sickness. If you are caught in the rain, better sit on your hat and go bareheaded.

Be careful of drinking water in a strange country, and don't drink more water than you positively need when you are on the trail.

Undefeated Wolves Oust Whiz From Intermediate Basketball Playoffs

Two semi-final games took place in the Westmount Intermediate Basketball League last week.

Dave Binmore's undefeated Wolves came up with another win over Jack McKissock's Whiz. The Wolves romped to a 45-35 victory. This was the second game of a two-game total-point series. The Wolves won the first game 46-34, and were carrying a 12 point lead into the second game. These two wins advanced the Wolves to the finals by a 91-71 score.

The Wolves took an early lead and were never headed. At the end of the first frame, they were leading 20-14. Early in the second half, the Whiz began to find the basket and pulled up to within two points of the Wolves. Wendy Young then broke loose with three successive field goals and from then on it was clear sailing for the Wolves.

Young, Binmore Star

The clean passing Wolves were paced by Wendy Young and Dave Binmore. They both scored three baskets in the first half and then Young outshot Binmore by one point in the second stanza. This gave Young 14 points and Binmore 13 for the night's work. Marvin Greenbaum playing great basketball for the winners dented the mesh for 10 points, while Cliff Gill picked up four, Bruce Thompson and Eddie Moore scored a basket for two points each. Jack Light was used as a utility forward and fed the ball to the other Wolves Marksman.

Diminutive George Presho was the big gun on the Whiz scoring a number of long shots, and finishing with 13 points.

Doug Reed, a replacement for George Cochrane, was second high man with 8 points. Jack McKissock came up with 7, Dave Bernard 5 and Roy McKissock 4.

Larks Edge Stars

The other semi-final tilt brought the Alouettes and the Avenue Stars together in a close checking contest. The Larks came out on top 24-19, giving them the right to meet the Wolves for the championship.

The Avenue Stars were leading 8-6 at the half-way mark. A peculiar thing about this score was that Willie Manolson scored all 8 of the Stars points while Jack Dudley scored all six for the Frank Boright 'five'. In the second frame the Larks held Manolson scoreless, putting one to three men on him at all times, the result being that the Larks outshot the Stars 18-11. The Larks played a passing game, setting up Jack Dudley, their ace Marksman, who dropped in 21 of his team's 24 points. Dudley was hitting the mesh from all angles, and scored
