The Matriculation Examinations for entrance to all Faculties will begin on the 12th Sept., 1904. The McGill Normal School will open on the 1st of September.

Lectures in all Faculties will commence on the 21st September.

The statutes and regulations of the University have been framed on the most liberal principles, with the view of affording to all classes of persons the greatest possible facilities for the attainment of mental culture and professional training. In its religious character the University is Protestant, but not denominational; and, while all possible attention will be given to the character and conduct of the students, no interference with their individual views will be sanctioned.

The Undergraduate Courses of study extend over four Sessions of eight months each, and provide a thorough professional training in Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Mining Engineering and Assaying, Electrical Engineering, Practical Chemistry and Architecture. The courses of study lead to the degrees of B. Arch. B.Sc., M.Sc., and D.Sc. The Undergraduate Course in Arts can be taken along with the Undergraduate Course in Applied Science in six years.
