Famous Ornithologist To Be Guest Speaker At St. Francis - Massawippi Wildlife Revue

The St. Francis-Massawippi Bird Club's third annual Bird and Wildlife Revue will be held this year on May 4 in Lennoxville High School Auditorium with Dr. Olin Pettingill, Jr., the wildlife photographer and ornithologist, as guest.

He will present a program entitled Growing Feathers. His color films will deal chiefly with birds that breed in the St. Francis Massawippi Valley.

This program has been selected so that people attending can see some first class pictures of birds native to this area.

Growing Feathers is a popularized story of research in the growth of young birds and of the complexities of family relationships. Dr. Pettingill traces the development of such phases of bird behaviour as preening, bathing, playing and fighting and shows the responses of young birds to their friends and enemies. He comments on instinct, learning and intelligence.

Although Dr. Pettingill has a scientific approach to his subject this program affords an illustration that study can be full of fun. The all-color film is enlivened with humorous episodes and the photography is of the first order of excellence.

WESTERN MEADOWLARK

The Western Meadowlark will be one of Dr. Pettingill's few performers from afar but it is so similar to the Meadowlark of the east that local residents would accept it as a friend. Bluejays and bluebirds will appear on the screen as will the crested, daintily-patterned Cedar Waxwing, which often nests close to houses. One of the ablest of local songsters, the hermit thrush, a denizen of wooded areas, will perform, as will the Great Horned Owl, seldom seen but nonetheless known to nest within the limits of Lennoxville. Two representatives from out-of-town areas, the American Bittern (stake driver), and the curious, seldom-observed Virginia Rail, will add variety to the program. These and various other species will combine to give the audience a representative cross section of our bird life.

Born in Maine, Olin Sewall

Ornithologist and wildlife photographer Olin Sewall Pettingill and unidentified penguin look one another over.

Pettingill graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine. He received a Ph.D. in ornithology from Cornell University, continuing with bird study since. Many students have been inspired to become ornithologists and conservationists under his guidance at Carleton College and at the University of Michigan's summer Biological Station at Cheboygan, Michigan.

As early as 1931 Dr. Pettingill had begun to make his reputation in wildlife photography, serving with the Carnegie Museum Expedition to Hudson Bay, where he was the first to photograph various northern birds on their breeding grounds. In 1944 he was commissioned to photograph wildlife of the National Audubon Society sanctuaries in Texas. More recently many of his films have been used in making some of the Disney wildlife movies. Water Birds, shown in Sherbrooke a few years ago, including much of his work. In 1953 he was sent to the Falkland Islands by Disney to make a documentary film on penguins.

Dr. Pettingill is well known as an author, by professional ornithologists and humble birdwatchers alike. His Laboratory and Field Manual of Ornithology is probably the leading manual of its kind, used in over 100 colleges and universities. His treatise on the Birds of the Grand Manan Archipelago of New Brunswick is a fine work. The footloose birdwatcher who wants to make the most of bird-finding opportunities in the United States could not do better than follow the instructions in Dr. Pettingill's Guide to Bird Finding, one volume dealing with the east, a second with the States west of the Mississippi. He calls upon the records of bird students in every state, as well as upon his own extensive field experience, describing the favorite spots for bird study in each state.

During the last 20 years Dr. Pettingill has addressed approximately 1,000,000 people in United States and Canada. He has travelled 125,000 miles, exposing over 35 miles of film, some of the finest of which will be brought here May 4. While in the area he will show Penguin Parade to Sherbrooke High School students while a third film, Wilderness Mischief, dealing with eastern birds and mammals, as photographed in Michigan, will be shown to students of Stanstead College and Lennoxville High School.

JOHNS-MANVILLE "Close-Ups"

Trapping the Echo
TEEN-AGERS at a rock 'n' roll session and "long hairs" in raptures over Beethoven's Fifth have one thing in common — they demand better Hi-Fi sound. The original miracle of radio and television with bouncing echoes and squealing static is no longer accepted. Nothing but the most faithful reproduction of studio programs will do. Johns-Manville people have pioneered with the Radio and Television Industry for over forty years in search of purer sound to give more pleasure to listening audiences. Today, a majority of the country's radio and TV stations depend on J-M Sound Control to trap and diffuse annoying studio echoes and noises. Johns-Manville has special acoustical engineers who study and make authoritative recommendations for such acoustical problems. They have also aided in controlling sound in thousands of schools, churches, restaurants, theatres, business offices and industrial operations. The Radio and Television Industry is only one of the major fields which the J-M team of research scientists, production people and sales representatives serve continuously. Their contributions help these industries make our standard of living safer, more efficient, modern and enjoyable.

Public Works Loan Is Approved

$1,715,000 By-Law Hurdles So-Cred Bloc; Work Starts On May 8

By GERALD McDUFF
 The $1,715,000 loan by-law to cover the costs of the largest public works program in Sherbrooke's history received an approving nod from property owners at a public meeting in City Hall last night despite a Social Credit move to petition for a referendum.

Next step is the submission of the by-law within the next two weeks to the Provincial Hygiene Board for ratification of the sewage and water main plans and then to the Lt. Governor of the Province for his assent.

The works are expected to start about May 8.

Over 100 owners jammed the Council Chambers last night to hear the 26 article-by-law read by City Clerk Henri-Paul Emond.

SO-CRED PROTEST
 Discussion was opened by Ronald Gendron Social Credit representative, who protested that the ratepayers were paying three times for work done only once. He said the city still did not have certain services despite the taxes levied.

"It is hard to ask property owners to pay for things which will never be done," he said. "What will we do with a debt of $1,715,000?"

Gendron demanded that the question be brought to a referendum and appealed to the crowd for petitioners. But he was cut short by Ald. Paul Gervais, mayor, who said that the discussion had not closed and added "I understand that your opinion is tainted by political ideology but the discussion is still open to the floor."

IMMEDIATE WORK
 Pierre Beaudry, lawyer and owner of a property on Bouchette St. in the North Ward, asked the by-law be passed. He argued that it would only cost owners $38 to $40 a year to have works "not done in five months but immediately."

He added that calling a referendum would be a costly undertaking.

"I will work in all areas of the city to see that the law is passed. We have water service which is necessary; we have fire protection which is one of the best in Canada.

"Pass the law," he urged.

Speaking for owners in the East Ward, Francoise Thibault, a school teacher, said the general consensus of opinion in his district showed that the people were in favor.

Pleads Guilty To Eastman Robbery And Four Others

Adelard Riendeau, 28, of Montreal has been sentenced to 14 years in jail for several robberies, two of them committed in the Eastern Townships.

Appearing before Judge Patrick Delaney in Sweetsburg earlier this week, Riendeau was sentenced to two concurrent 10 year terms for the armed holdup of a bank in Eastman and a $3,000 holdup of a Caisse Populaire in Princeville last fall.

In addition Riendeau pleaded guilty to three smaller robberies from three Montreal pharmacies in January. He received an additional four years from a Montreal judge Wednesday.

RECORD
 Riendeau—who has a record of seven convictions since 1945—committed the Eastman holdup last week when he walked into the Canadian Bank of Commerce Branch and held up the teller for $1,400.

Escaping in a waiting car, he was traced to Mount Orford where a posse of 40 provincial police officers combed the mountain. Riendeau, whose brother Victor hanged himself in penitentiary earlier this year, surrendered to Provincial police detective Rene Coupal and two constables, Rene Simard and Guy Charbonneau, three hours after the hold-up. Arrested with him was his sister and her baby boy. The $1,400 stolen was recovered in the clothes the baby was wearing.

Home And School Assoc. Hears Fluoridation Facts

The guest speaker at the April meeting of the Lawrence Home and School Association, Dr. H. T. Southwood, presented a brief summary on the history of fluoridated water and outlined various aspects of this public health measure.

Emphasizing the scientific backing and endorsement by all national health, medical and dental councils and associations the speaker pointed out that the trace amount of fluorine in our daily food and drink supply is short of that required for sound teeth. An additional trace will reduce dental decay by sixty per cent without causing any physical harm as has been proven over and over again by all manner of medical tests as well as by the fact that some 4,000,000 people live in towns where nature has provided the right amount of fluorine in their drinking water.

Scientific surveys have proved that the addition of the required amount of fluoride salt to a community's water supply has no deleterious effect upon the human body and makes no change in the taste or odor of the water. "There are now 30,500,000 people in Canada and the United States drinking fluoridated water. No sane reason exists for not adopting this measure. By this simple means a generation of Canadians may reduce over half the amount of dental decay."

At the business meeting it was announced that three delegates, Mrs. Norman Pattulo, Mrs. Douglas Davis and Mrs. Lorne Buckman would attend the conference of the Quebec Federation of Home and Schools in Montreal on May 3 and 4.

Mr. Thomas Moore, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the slate of officers at the May meeting when election of officers for the coming year will take place.

The attendance shield was again presented to Mrs. Sawyer's class (Grade V) for the best percentage attendance of parents.

The meeting closed with a sale of food and refreshments.

Prefers "Pen" To Local Jail

A middle-aged Sherbrooke man was sent to the penitentiary for attempted robbery yesterday at his own request.

Alcide Leclerc of no given address pleaded guilty before Judge Edouard Boisvert to attempted robbery at Brouillette's Jewelry store on Wellington St. south on Wednesday night. Leclerc, who had a previous record, was recently deported from the United States.

He told the judge that he would prefer being sent to St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary where he could work rather than spend two years at the local jail. He said his only occupation during the last 25 years was cooking.

The latter two were called as witnesses for the prosecution and

SUICIDE INDICATED
 In Death Of Brome Lake Man

KNOWLTON — (Special) — Provincial Police started investigation into the death of Harry Shepard here yesterday. Sgt. Paul Prevost, of the Cowansville detachment, said this morning that Shepard apparently died by his own hand.

He described Shepard as the King of fishermen on Brome Lake, and said he was known as Lord Shepard of Brome Lake.

When the death was discovered Detective Larry Mourreau, sent on the scene to investigate, called homicide squad officials from Montreal, thinking a murder had been committed. Arriving with Lt. Paul Coulombe was Dr. Jean Paul Valcourt, assistant provincial medico-legal expert. However, after a short probe, murder was ruled out.

TWO SMALL BLAZES
 Easily Controlled

Two fires caused light damage to the Woodcraft Ltd., 2790 Roy St., and Breton Studio on Alexander St., it was reported by the Fire Department this morning.

At the Woodcraft Ltd., the blaze started this morning in the furnace room and spread to the basement ceiling but was brought under control by firefighters from Stations Nos. 1 and 5. The fire at the Breton Studio yesterday is believed to have started from an over-heated radiator that ignited a wall.

Labor On The Spot

Walter Reuther, who has just been re-elected president of the powerful United Automobile Workers, has struck a sensible note in the current controversy over corruption in unions.

Mr. Reuther warns that labor must clean its own house thoroughly. The union bosses who are linked with corruption and racketeers are a minority but their actions can discredit the entire labor movement.

The responsible element in the labor movement, and they are the majority, are particularly upset over Teamster Boss Dave Beck's refusal to answer specific questions on how he used Teamster funds for his own purposes. He invoked the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. constitution which enables a witness in an American court to decline to answer questions which might tend to incriminate him. The Fifth Amendment has been used liberally in the many "security" investigations which have taken place in the U.S. since the end of the war.

But Mr. Beck, by invoking the constitutional loophole, defied a declaration of the AFL-CIO executive that any union official who dodges questions in that way has no right to hold office in his union. Beck has therefore been suspended.

Already, American labor is feeling the effects of the Teamster probe. Union leaders fear that "right-to-work" legislation outlawing the union shop may spread. A general anti-labor feeling may hurt planned organizing drives. Labor will look now to leaders such as Reuther for the kind of leadership the union movement needs.

Creating False Martyrs

An Ottawa school has asked eight pupils to withdraw because they defied school authority by attending an Elvis Presley performance.

Drummondville City Council outlawed public performances of rock 'n roll music. The police chief has instructions to enforce the ban "in the name of public order." Presley has been banned in other centres.

The martyrdom of Presley and the type of entertainment he represents seems to be in full swing. Now Presley as a performer is bad enough, but Presley as a martyr is worse. The sour fruit, being forbidden, is therefore sweetened.

Of course, no one can claim that the teenagers who go to Presley and rock 'n roll concerts do anything to endanger themselves to either the authorities or the saner section of the community. But does anyone imagine that if there were no Presley teenage enthusiasm would find no outlet?

They shrieked and fainted for Valentino, Rudy Vallee and Sinatra and now they're doing it for Presley. Before long, it will be someone else.

The root of the juvenile problem in Quebec and elsewhere has nothing to do with any one performer. He "causes" nothing, he merely provides an opportunity for existing modes of thought among teenagers to be expressed.

Authorities would be wise to leave publicity-wise performers alone.

Wild Life Week

Spring is the time when people turn their thoughts to the outdoors. It is also the time when fish and game clubs start pondering how they are going to solve the many problems which result from the unfortunate tendency of some city folk to misuse our forests and streams.

National Wild Life Week, which is now underway, is the time when outdoors people call the attention of the public to the way they can help to protect wildlife. Canadians have been prodigal with their endowment of forests and streams and the game and fish that live in them. Some of our animals and birds are now extinct or nearly so. Many streams where fish were once plentiful are empty.

Conservation clubs are striving to get across their message that the forests and streams are the homes of game and fish, not places to throw rubbish and lighted cigarettes which may start forest fires.

Wild Life Week is in particular a commemoration of the late Jack Miner who did so much to focus public attention on the problem of conservation. Local fish and game clubs are carrying on his work. But they can only be successful if the public cooperates.

Press Comment

ALL FROM A $12 GUITAR

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)
Seven or eight years ago a boy named Elvis Presley, who lived with his parents at a little place called Tupelo, Mississippi, badgered them to buy him a guitar. The Presleys did not have much money, but they did buy their son a $12 guitar. It kept him quiet in one way, but he made a lot of noise in another way.

Pa Presley and Ma Presley must be mighty thankful that they succumbed to son's importunings for a guitar. Pa is retired at 40, and their two-room shack is supplemented by a palatial $40,000 home with a swimming pool, a four-car garage, and has an organ that is bigger than the one in the church the family attended. Son has six cars, some of which were forced upon him, and he has 100 suits to choose from. Son's earnings are staggering. He can fill largest auditorium twice in an evening. He plays his guitar and sings into a gramophone recorder and not one of his discs has sold fewer than 2,000,000 copies. If he got only 50 cent royalty from each record that gives him $500,000, but he probably gets more than that. Altogether more than 20,000,000 Presley records have been sold.

His singing voice wouldn't win third place at a music festival if there were four entries in his class, and he merely strums his guitar.

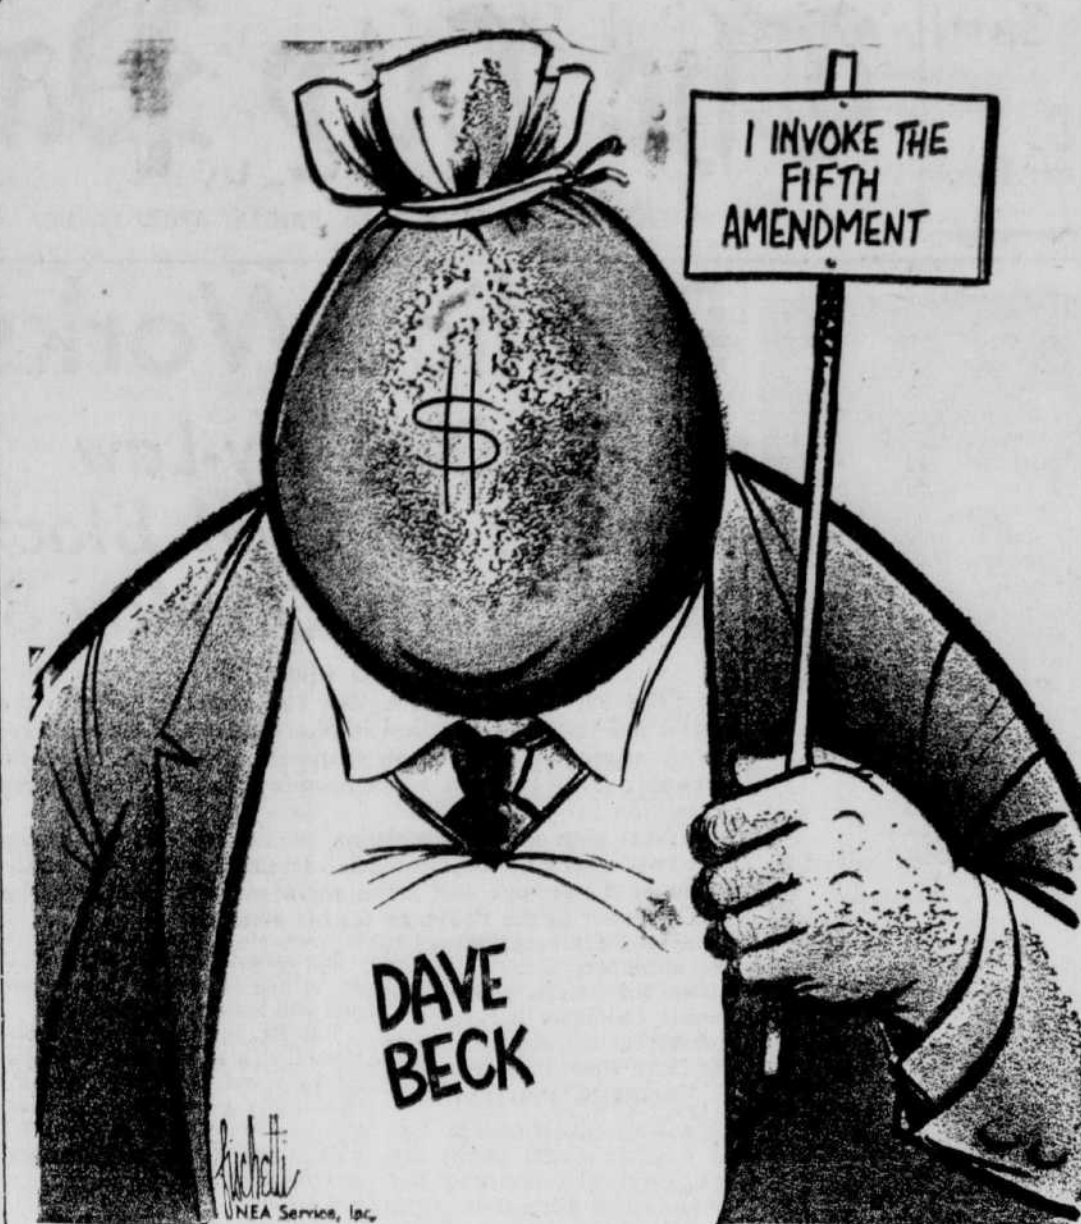

It fascinates us to find why so many people find him fascinating. And the probability is that the fanatics who grow hysterical over him today would not cross the street to hear him a year hence.

NICE POINT OF LAW

(Hamilton Spectator)
We enjoyed reading about that motorist whose automobile was struck from behind with sufficient force to put back into proper position some displaced vertebrae in his neck—and for which he had been taking chiropractic treatment.

To the unlegal mind the case raises a host of intriguing litigious speculations. Could the acquitted "bumper" be halled back to court for administering treatment without a proper licence. Could the chiropractor have a claim against him for improperly depriving him of a patient?

Or could the driver send the bumped one a bill for having effected a rough-and-ready, unprofessional cure?

Strange Red Economy

Soviet Citizens Lose Their Savings

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
Associated Press News Analyst
The announcement that the Soviet government, with a snap of its fingers, is cancelling more than three-fourths of its national debt shows what a strange thing the Soviet economy really is.

Try to imagine the furor if the United States government were casually to reveal that within a few days it would wipe out the value of most outstanding U.S. government bonds. Banks would close. Insurance companies would shut their doors. The entire economy would shake and the government would totter.

The Soviet press Wednesday carried the news, made public by Nikita Khrushchev in a speech, that the Kremlin for the next 20 or 25 years will pay no interest and repay none of the principal on 260,000,000,000 rubles worth of state bonds the Soviet citizenry bought involuntarily. That amount—officially $65,000,000,000—represents the largest portion by far of the private savings of Soviet citizens. It was taken out of their pay envelopes over the last two decades and longer, an average of about seven per cent of their wages every month.

The long postponement of bond redemptions is equivalent to their confiscation, if the Communist timetable for Russia works out. In 20 to 25 years the Soviet Union is supposed to be enjoying a state of "communism"—as distinct from the present "socialism"—and Communist citizens won't own such private property as bonds.

SHEEPISH SHEEP

(Christian Science Monitor)
The sheep on several ranges in Wyoming have a new reason to look sheepish. They are not allowed to go out without their jackets on. These sheep, some 400 or more, are trying out several types of woven plastic coverings to protect their wool from snagging on bushes and from accumulation of sand and grime.

Perhaps the reason why other sheep look sheepish is because wool growers have come to recognize that as much as 40 per cent of their crop may be waste because of the foreign matter which clings to the sheep's coat until the wool has undergone its first cleaning, perhaps several thousand miles from the range.

Anyway, experimenters are working to see if Junior, who is growing the material for an overcoat for a man in Saginaw of Weehawken, cannot be persuaded to keep that material in better shape by wearing an overcoat himself. Sheepmen already predict that resin-treated cotton or plastic-coated burlap will eventually become fashionable as what the well-dressed sheep is wearing.

Indeed, they imply that if "Mary had a little lamb, with fleece as white as snow," it was probably "because the lamb did not go out where other sheepsies go." And they perhaps suspect that the nursery rhyme Black Sheep who was asked if he had any wool was holding out when he said the third bag was for "the little boy who lives in the lane." That would just about account for the percentage that was lost because he didn't keep his jacket on. Maybe, even, that is why he was a black sheep.

PLAY IS BAD AS BIDDING

South's bidding was criminal and his play of the hand sheer butchery. The combination added up to tragedy.

West's double of four spades was silly from one standpoint only. North or South could run out to four no-trump and that contract might make easily. However, West knew his birds and was really delighted with North's redouble.

South won the opening lead with his queen of trumps. East discarded a low diamond. At this point South could escape with a one trick loss by leading a heart toward dummy and finessing, but he seemed determined to pay as large a penalty as possible.

South played the king, ace and another diamond. He trumped, West overruffed and led the seven of clubs. It went ten, jack, ace and now South came up with another bad play. He led a club back. East won the king of clubs and laid down the queen of diamonds.

West overruffed again and led a trump. South won in his own hand and finally led a heart and finessed. East won his third trick and played the last club. It did not matter what South did now. He still had to lose another heart trick and was down three for a loss of 1600 points.

If South had raised North's two no-trump bid to three as he should have, North would almost surely have made the bid. In any event no one would have doubled and no one would have been hurt.

TRUCE COMMISSION
South Viet Nam's hostility to the armistice agreement, which divided the state into Communist north and non-Communist south, showed itself last year in at least three demonstrations against truce commission teams. The demonstrations took the form of mud-throwing and shouting but no commission member was seriously injured.
Officers of the commission in Saigon also were damaged by a mob last year.

ASSASSINATED
In a dispatch from Paris, Reuters news agency said Cannon had been assassinated.
Reuters cited reports from Saigon that Cannon was found dead in his bed and that he had been struck several blows in the chest with a sharp weapon.
South Vietnamese President, Ngo Dinh Diem ordered an immediate investigation, Reuters said.
Mr. Cannon graduated from Laval University as a bachelor of arts in 1939 and shortly afterwards joined the RCAF as a pilot officer.
After joining the external affairs department in 1946, his first posting was with the Canadian high commissioner's office at St. John's — before Newfoundland entered Confederation.
Mr. Cannon is survived by his widow and two children.

Guest speaker at the closing meeting of this year of the St. Andrew's Men's Club this week was Rev. Ronald Reeve, Professor of Church History at Bishop's University.
He gave a very learned address on the background and development of the Christian religion, discussing its divisions and changes. It provided much food for thought for all who are concerned with the progress of the Christian religion in the community.
A sing song was led by Bill Watson, with L. Jenne at the piano. Supper was served by members of the Women's Auxiliary.
After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting, it was moved that the club adjourn until next October. However, the executive committee of the club will meet the first Monday of May to plan for the coming season.

Imperial Oil To Drill 4th Quebec Well

DRUMMONDVILLE — (Special) — The fourth wildcat well in Imperial Oil's search for oil and gas in Quebec will be drilled near Vercheres, on the south side of the St. Lawrence River, 20 miles below Montreal.
Lowlands Exploration Co., an Imperial subsidiary which recently set up operating headquarters in Drummondville, said today that drilling would get under way as soon as road conditions permit. The site is on the farm of Leandre Chagnon, two miles south of Vercheres. It is about eight miles south of L'Assomption where interesting occurrences of natural gas have been found.
Operations at two other Imperial wells on the south shore — near Ste. Angele and near Precieux Sang — have been suspended temporarily to enable the company to make a change in drilling methods. The cable-tool rigs which have drilled to depths of more than 3,000 feet at Ste. Angele and 2,400 feet at Precieux Sang have been moved out. A rotary rig, of the type used more commonly in western Canada, will be moved in around the first of May to complete the two wells.
The Imperial Oil subsidiary has carried out an extensive program in Quebec over the past three years. Its first wildcat well, drilled last year, was dry.

STAGE SET

$1,714,109,420 during the next six months — an interim money supply until an expected fall session.
Hon. Earl Rowe (PC — Dufferin-Simcoe) said no industry in Canada needs tariff protection more than agriculture. Mr. Harris replied that the tariff attitude of the 1930-35 Conservative government — which Mr. Rowe was a member without portfolio — has been repudiated ever since by the people of Canada and of the whole world.
Opposition members took advantage of their general debate to get in their last licks at the government. But attendance in the 265-seat House hovered around the 40 mark and at one point dropped to 22 — two more than the quorum required to transact business.

SELL MORE WHEAT
At the opening Trade Minister Howe announced that Poland has agreed to take 11,100,000 bushels of Canadian wheat in the crop year ending July 31, double its original commitment.
In the money supply debate, Opposition Leader Diefenbaker said Parliament has become a puppet in the cabinet's hands. It was a humiliation of Parliament for the government, in the session's waning days, to ask for such "fabulous" sums with no time for their examination.
CCF whip Stanley Knowles agreed. The government was playing "fast and loose" with Parliament. It had slipped increases in social welfare payments into the budget speech and provided for them by appropriation instead of properly passing legislation to change the various welfare laws.
George Nowlan (PC — Digby-Annapolis-Kings), urging help for the Nova Scotia coal industry, said the government should immediately start paying freight subsidies on movements of coal within the Maritimes. The government might also have to consider subsidizing coal mines to keep them going.
The Senate meanwhile gave final approval to government legislation enabling provincial farm marketing boards to levy indirect taxes. It also passed the government's national hospital insurance bill and legislation easing repayment terms of the United Kingdom's post-war loan of $1,185,000,000.

Ontario Pulp Tax "Unfair"
TORONTO — (P) — D. W. Ambridge, president of Abitibi Power and Paper Co. Ltd., Thursday described increased taxes by the Ontario government on the pulp and paper industry as "obviously discriminatory and unfair."
The new provincial corporation income tax of 11 per cent meant that federal and Ontario income taxes together totalled 49 per cent, or two per cent higher than in any other province.
"However," Mr. Ambridge said, "not satisfied to tax the pulp and paper industry on the same basis as they tax all industry, the government of Ontario increased the logging tax on pulp and paper companies outrageously."

In Washington Thursday a staff member of the sub-committee released a statement by chairman James Eastland and Senator William E. Jenner saying the FBI has corroborated the sub-committee's information about Norman's alleged Communist ties in 1939 and 1940.
The Canadian government protested the "irresponsible allegations" against Norman, and advised the State Department two days ago that it reversed the right to halt further exchanges of security information with the U.S. government unless assured officials said this would be difficult to meet.
Morris, in answer to questions by reporters, said the sub-committee has received "no request from the State Department asking us to clear anything as a result of this."

COURT ROUNDUP

Sirois and Dupin, who both admitted they were somewhat hazy about events that day, testified that four different transactions were made with one of the guns on the same morning, but different transactions were described by each witness.
The judge suggested that Fortin get a lawyer, and straighten matters out during a two-week adjournment.

In Memoriam

WASHBURN — In fond and loving memory of our dear father, Mr. Willie Washburn, who passed away April 12, 1956, just one year ago today.
Dearest to us than words can tell, Was a father we lost and loved so well;
Wherever we go, whatever we do, Always, dear Dad, we think of you.
Sadly missed by his daughter,
MRS. LOUIS CHARLAND, Stanhope, Que.

WASHBURN — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, William Washburn of Baldwin's Mills, who passed away on April 12, 1956.
Dearest Father, how we miss you, Since from earth you passed away, And our hearts are aching sadly, As we think of you today.
Some may think we have forgotten, When at times they see us smile, But the smile know the heartache, But the smile bids all the while, Days of sadness still come o'er us, Tears in secret often flow, His cherished memories never leave us, Though he died one year ago, Though remembered by his, CHILDREN & GRANDCHILDREN.

Cards of Thanks

I would like to express my most sincere thanks to all my relatives, neighbours and friends who remembered me while a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital. I especially wish to thank Dr. Kimoff and the nurses on 2nd floor for their kindness and good care.
CYRUS GOULD, Waterville, Que.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports that carloadings on Canadian Railways amounted to 92,411 in the last 10 days of March 1957 or 6 per cent lower than they were in the like period a year ago. For the first quarter of 1957 loadings amounted to 909,136 or 5 per cent lower than they were in the same quarter a year earlier.

This block formerly held by Sir James Dunn was distributed amongst his family after his death in January 1956. An Ottawa source however understands that enough shares from the Dunn Estate are being sold to cover succession duties but not enough to effect control.

Queen Elizabeth's Styles Cause Sensation In Paris

PARIS—(AP)—Queen Elizabeth went sophisticated for her Paris visit. Her clothes were the sensation of this world fashion centre. And Norman Hartnell, the royal dressmaker, is all smiles about it.

For the first time, the Queen was wearing straight-skirted suits, simple slim sheaths for gala evenings, and even a black coat. All this is a complete "new look," displacing the previously inevitable princess flared costumes, billowing ball gowns, and pastel tints.

Hartnell is the man responsible. He told Wednesday how he did it.

"I submitted about 10 sketches for each occasion, among them just one slim version, which I hoped the Queen would fall for. She did."

He rubbed his hands and beamed.

"I guess everybody grows up. The Queen's new styles are certainly more sophisticated. But smart is a word some people don't like. The Queen has to dress to please, and not astound."

"Do I think the change is permanent? Well, no."

But on this enigmatic note he refused to expound.

SLIMMER FIGURE

It is an easy guess that the Queen's slimmer figure has encouraged her to wear revealing sheaths and narrow skirts.

The Queen arrived in a slim-skirted suit. And her white lace and silver sheath gown for the British Embassy reception Tuesday night caused gasps of: "Oh, how tiny she is!"

Wednesday morning she gave protocol another blow by going to the Meudon Sports Club reception and Scottish Church in a black coat, with reverse of white silk. It was believed the only time she has ever worn black in public, except when she was in mourning for her father.

Hartnell says that, contrary to the rumors, the Queen's skirts are not weighted at the hem to prevent them blowing up in the wind.

"It's only good luck if the larger ones don't," he said, "but obviously a slim skirt can't blow up."

HEAD PROVINCIAL I.O.D.E. — The new officers of the Provincial Chapter of Quebec, I.O.D.E., were elected yesterday at the closing session of the 33rd annual meeting, held in the Hotel Sherbrooke. Seated from left to right are: Mrs. A. E. Roodhouse, Montreal, president; Mrs. Donald Macrae, St. Lambert 1st vice-president; Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin, Montreal, 4th vice-president; Mrs. E. B. Mrs. E. B. Sims Elected Provincial Educational Secretary Of I.O.D.E.

At the final sessions of the Provincial annual meeting of I.O.D.E. held yesterday, Mrs. E. B. Sims was unanimously elected educational secretary for the ensuing year. Miss Frances Macdonald of Sherbrooke was elected 6th vice-president, and the Provincial Councilors from Sherbrooke will be Mrs. A. A. Munster and Mrs. R. L. Bishop, in addition to Mrs. Sims and Miss Macdonald.

Other officers of the Provincial Chapter are: Mrs. J. R. Beveridge, Montreal, president; Mrs. Donald Macrae, St. Lambert, 1st vice-president; Mrs. W. Brown, Montreal, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Paul Kuhring, Montreal, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin, Montreal, 4th vice-president; Mrs. H. Gibaut, Quebec, 5th vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Gibbs, Shawinigan Falls, 7th vice-president. Mrs. A. E. Roodhouse of Montreal, was elected treasurer and Mrs. E. M. Gibaut, Montreal, was elected secretary.

Other secretaries were: Miss M. Hope Glass, Quebec, "Echoes" secretary; Mrs. Fred Crowley, Montreal, organizing secretary; Mrs. J. R. C. Manson, Montreal, Services at Home and Abroad secretary. Mrs. R. M. Rowat, of Montreal, will be the Provincial standard bearer.

Reports were heard from the three Municipal Chapters, that of Montreal being read by Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin. The highlight of the Montreal report was the purchase of headquarters on Western Avenue for the use of the Montreal and Provincial Chapters. Funds for this were secured from private donations and from projects outside of the regular work of the Order.

The Quebec Municipal report was prepared by Miss M. Hope Glass, the outstanding feature being a report on the National annual meeting which was held in Quebec City for the first time in 19 years. This afforded many members the opportunity of learning the strength and im-

Penten Menus

A whole, baked, stuffed fish is an eye catching dish. Plumped and proudly served on a platter, it can be quite as festive as roast turkey or a roast of meat and doesn't take as long to cook. Some good varieties of fish to bake are lake trout, whitefish, pike and haddock. The home economists of Canada's Department of Fisheries tell us that a whole fish is not difficult to prepare. For ease in handling they recommend that it be purchased in dressed form... that is, scaled, eviscerated, and with head, tail and fins removed. They further suggest that the dealer be asked to remove the backbone, as this will facilitate carving.

Any good poultry stuffing is tasty with cooked fish. For something a little bit different, however, you might like to try this popular Rice-Olive Stuffing.

Baked Fish With Rice-Olive Stuffing

3 to 4 pound fish, dressed, salt, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 1 cup diced celery, 1/4 cup butter, melted, 1 cup chopped, stuffed olives, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon sage, 1/4 teaspoon thyme, 1 1/3 cups cooked rice, 1/4 cup melted fat or cooking oil.

Wipe fish with a damp cloth; sprinkle on the inside with salt. Prepare dressing in following manner. Cook onion and celery in melted butter for about 10 minutes or until tender. Add cooked vegetable, together with chopped olives and seasonings, to cooked rice; combine thoroughly. Stuff fish loosely; close opening with small skewers and lace skewers with string. Measure thickness of fish at thickest part. Place in a greased baking pan and brush with cooking oil or melted fat. Bake in a hot oven (450° F.), allowing 10 minutes cooking time for each inch of stuffed thickness. You will know that the fish is cooked when its juices are milky colored and the flesh will easily separate into flakes, when tested with a fork. Remove fish to a heated platter and garnish to taste. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

A Woman Can Be Much Too Devoted To Her Children

Can a woman be too devoted a mother to be a devoted wife?

She can and she is if— She refuses to leave the children, even for a weekend, to go on a brief holiday with her husband.

She is so busy waiting on the children hand and foot and doing things for them she should have taught them to do for themselves that she greets her husband every evening with complaints of how tired she is.

She neglects her own wardrobe in order to buy the children more clothes than they need and, therefore, never has "a thing to wear" when her husband wants to take her some place.

She is so sure that she knows what is best for the children that she pays little or no attention to her husband's ideas on how they should be brought up.

She is a much more attentive listener when her children are telling her about their problems than when her husband is trying to talk to her about his.

OVERWORKS HUSBAND

When her husband wants the children to be responsible for certain chores and yard jobs, she pleads that they are only "young ones" — so her husband has to do, after a hard day's work, the jobs the children are old enough to be doing themselves.

She is so determined that her children will have "every advantage" that she doesn't seem to care how hard her husband has to work in order to provide them with all those so-called advantages.

She insists that the children go everywhere she and her husband go because she "worries so" if she is away from them.

Social And Personal

Miss K. Marshall, R. N., supervisor at the Allan Memorial Institute, of Montreal, was a visitor to the Sherbrooke Hospital, for a few days and the guest at Norton Residence, of Miss Clara R. Aitkenhead.

Mrs. D. G. Renwick and baby son, David, of Montreal, are spending a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norreys Hunting, Queen St., Lennoxville.

The Merry Christmas Club met at the home of Mrs. George Crawford, Magog St., on Wednesday evening. Five Hundred was played at two tables, when Mrs. Ralph Caunter won the first prize, Mrs. Harold Lord, second, Mrs. George Lindsay, consolation and Mrs. William Ross, the floating prize.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bruce MacAulay. An invitation was given by Mrs. Earl Ross to meet at her home, St. Denis St., for the next party.

Friends of Mrs. Golda Standish, of Rock Island, will be pleased to learn that she has left the Sherbrooke Hospital and is at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Soles, Quebec St.

Mrs. Wilfred Marshall, Victoria St., has left for Toronto, where she will visit her daughter, Miss Norma Marshall, for a few weeks. En route she was the guest of Mrs. Paul Koulym, in Montreal.

Mrs. Lorne Bogie, Montcalm St., entertained the Cheery Christmas Club on Wednesday evening. The prize winners at Five Hundred, played at two tables, were Mrs. E. F. Carr and Mrs. G. C. Philbrick.

During the course of the evening, Mrs. J. Dunn, who is leaving shortly for Ontario, was presented with a small gift from the members of the club, with expression of regret at her departure.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Wentworth.

Mrs. J. Rosen, of Montreal, is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gillick and family, Victoria St.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Gaudet have returned to their home on Portland Ave., following a four weeks' holiday at Miami Beach, Florida.

Mrs. Edward McKercher, of Lennoxville, announces the approaching marriage of her sister, Margaret Joyce Murphy, of Montreal, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clement T. Murphy, to Mr. Lorne Francis Foy, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Foy, of Westmount, Que. The wedding will take place in St. Kevin's Church, Montreal, on Saturday, May 18.

Following adjournment Miss Clara Aitkenhead, program convener, introduced the speaker of the evening, Miss Alice Milford, Florist, who addressed an attentive audience on the care and arrangement of cut flowers, the attractive floral pieces used for demonstration later serving as stock-in-trade for a Chinese auction. Brisk bidding soon disposed of the alluring wares offered by the auctioneer, Miss Leslie Fales.

In expressing appreciation to Miss Milford, Miss Aitkenhead remarked that she had always enjoyed her duties as program convener but that to have been able to call upon a member of the Club family, as in this instance, had proved an added pleasure.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Eva Renihan, assisted by Club members.

B & PW Club Given Talk On Flowers

Plans were approved for the supper to precede the annual meeting and election of officers to take place on Monday, May 13.

It was announced that the Quebec Provincial Organization of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs would meet at St. Andrew, Que., on Saturday October 5, the hope being expressed that there would be good representation from all Clubs in the Province.

Miss Delia Sterling, first vice-president, thanked Mrs. Parkin on behalf of the Guild.

The president, Mrs. H. Nichol, was in the chair.

It was decided to hold the annual Christmas sale on November 14.

An address entitled "Sowing Educational Seeds" by Dr. A. N. Langford, of Bishop's University, was greatly appreciated by the members of Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.D.E. at their April meeting. Dr. Langford spoke particularly of the current need in education not only for teachers but more especially for keen, interested educationists who could inspire in their pupils a real desire for higher education as a result of the teacher's own academic excellence and enthusiasm.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. A. O. Kruming and thanked by Mrs. A. St. Dizier.

The business meeting was presided over by the regent, Miss E. F. Molony.

Mrs. G. H. Doak, educational secretary, presented her proposed budget for the year, amounting to approximately $200 which was approved.

The secretary of "Services at Home and Abroad", Mrs. Darcy Bennett, reported shipment of 16 personal property and nursery bags to headquarters, also used clothing to the value of $12 given out locally. A family in need was reported and the chapter voted to provide a hot lunch for four children of school age attending the Lennoxville High School until the end of the school year.

Correspondence read by the secretary included the headquarters' bulletin, containing notice of the provincial annual meetings taking place in Sherbrooke, a letter from the Sherbrooke Rotary Club enclosing a contribution to the chapter's welfare fund, and a note from an out of town member of the chapter, Miss Edith E. Stevenson, of Montreal, enclosing a cheque and regretting her inability to attend the meetings.

Mrs. A. R. Jewitt was named delegate to the Order's National meeting in Vancouver, and Miss E. F. Molony to represent the chapter at the Provincial meetings in Sherbrooke.

The entertainment convener, Mrs. Austin Scott, reminded members to have rummage ready for collection on Saturday morning, April 13th, for the sale in the Scott Hall that afternoon at 2 p.m. Mrs. Scott also spoke of the annual Birthday tea, being held at her home on Friday, April 26. Tickets for this tea were handed to the members.

Canada May Have Seat On UN All-Women Group

OTTAWA — Canada next year may have its first seat on the United Nations' commission on the status of women.

An external affairs department spokesman said today Canada's success as a candidate for the 18-member, all-women commission would probably be known at the end of this month when the Economic and Social Council votes on commission membership.

The commission, which finished its annual three-weeks meeting earlier this month, was established under the council in 1946. Canada has not yet had an official delegate.

Kathleen Bowby of Ottawa, national secretary of the United Nations Association has been mentioned among women's groups here as a possible commission delegate.

Miss Bowby spent three months in New York earlier this year as a special adviser to Canada's delegation to the UN General Assembly.

Williams, Mantle, Musial And Mays Warm Up Season's Opener By Hitting Homers; Kansas City Edges Dodgers

"Home runs — Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Willie Mays, Stan Musial." Major league baseball fans will be seeing these entries in big league box scores once the season gets under way next week — not all in the same summary, of course, but very likely each will connect on the same day.

It happened Thursday. Take these four and throw in Duke Snider of Brooklyn, Ed Mathews and Joe Adcock of Milwaukee, Frank Robinson and Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati and Yogi Berra of the Yanks and you've got the game's leading home run hitters.

Williams has walloped 418 homers in 15 seasons with Boston. He's fifth on the all-time list topped by Babe Ruth's 714. Jimmy Fox's 534, Mel Ott's 511 and Lou Gehrig's 494.

Mantle has 173 to show for six seasons with the Yankees. Mays has 152 in five years. Musial, who has won six National League batting championships, has slammed 352 homers in 15 campaigns with the Cardinals.

Only Musial's circuit blow did his team any good in Thursday's exhibition games. He stroked it off Billy Pierce as the Redbirds blanked Chicago White Sox 5-0 behind the nifty pitching of Lindy McDaniel and Willard Schmidt.

The home run by Williams was only one of two hits collected by the Red Sox off the combined efforts of rookie pitchers Jack Sanford and Angelo Lipetri of Philadelphia Phils who won 7-1. Mantle and Hank Bauer connected for the Yankees, but the

There Will Be At Least 25 New Faces In Opening Day Baseball Lineups; Braves And Pirates Remain Pat

NEW YORK —(AP)— There has been a hefty turnover in major league baseball with the result that about 25 new players obtained via trade, purchase or farm club recall since the close of last season will be in the opening day line-ups next week.

Philadelphia Phillies, for example, will have four changes: first baseman Ed Bouchee, shortstop Chico Fernandez and outfielders Rip Repulski and Bob Bowman. Bouchee and Bowman are rookies, up from Miami of the International League. Repulski was acquired from St. Louis and Fernandez from Brooklyn Dodgers.

New York Giants will introduce shortstop Phenom Andre Rodgers. They'll also reintroduce Whitey Lockman and Gail Harris. Lockman came back from the Cards while Harris, who failed in two previous trials, was recalled from Minneapolis. The Giants also may show off rookie third baseman Ossie Virgil although he is troubled by a groin injury and may not be ready by opening day.

Chicago Cubs will have third baseman Ray Jablonski, picked up from Cincinnati, and Bob Speake, up from the Pacific Coast League. Chicago also will have a new catcher in either ex-Yankee Charley Silvera or rookie Cal Neeman, up from Richmond of the International League.

Cincinnati will have Don Ho at third base. The Cardinals have a new left fielder and No. 4 batter in Del Ennis, former Philadelphia star.

Joe Lewis May Be Able To Clean Up His Tax Bill With U. S. Government; Former Champ To Start On New Job

NEW YORK —(AP)— Former heavyweight champion Joe Lewis may be able to settle his income tax problems very soon. U.S. commissioner Russell Harrington of the internal revenue service said Thursday in a television appearance.

Harrington was asked on the show today if Lewis will be allowed to make a settlement for the back taxes he owes.

"We're working on that now and we hope to get that settled very soon," Harrington replied.

Louis's debt for back income taxes was placed at approximately $1,238,000 last February when he placed his problems in the hands of K. E. Porter, Phoenix, Ariz., tax consultant. At that time Porter said the debt was increasing at the rate of $278 to $300 daily because of interest.

After an earlier conference with revenue officials, Louis's attorney, Aaron Payne, said the ex-champion's income was $20,000 a year paid by the International Boxing Club for public relations work and $100 a week from a Chicago milk firm in which he has an interest.

Meanwhile Louis starts Monday in a new enterprise that will bring him $1,000 an appearance from a chain of mid-western super-markets.

He will demonstrate self-defense to children and give each boy a copy of his new booklet on boxing.

"It depends how the first store works out," Joe said in Chicago. "I hope this juvenile program will grow into a national thing."

Louis fans who organized to raise funds to pay off Joe's back taxes have abandoned the project. The "Dough for Joe" drive realized only $4,000, according to Max Cooper, Chicago publicist who handled it.

Sponsors had hoped to raise $100,000 to offer in compromise to the government.

Upsets Registered In Canadian Army Boxing Championships At Kingston; Eastern Command Leads

KINGSTON, Ont. — A defending champion found the road too tough and a myth was shattered Thursday night during bouts staged here in the Canadian Army boxing championships.

At the end of two days of action with eight novice champions declared, Eastern Command held a slim one-point edge over Western, 7-6 for the team title.

Army heavyweight champion Ken Cowie, of Cobourg, Ont., making his first start in the tournament, was greeted with a surprise by Jim King of Glace Bay, N. S.

King, who outpointed Jean-Paul Raymond of Quebec to advance into the final, dropped Cowie for an eight count early in the first round and then, with both fighters engaged in close-in slugging, connected with a short right that dropped Cowie face down at the 2:40 mark.

Clarence "Moon" Mollins, of Truro, N. S., whose whirlwind, two-fisted style enabled him to overpower seven opponents in recording seven knockouts, found himself matched against a cagier boxer in Albert Jeans of Halifax.

Dressing Room Comments

BOSTON (AP) — "It's a big one but the biggest one still has to come," Montreal coach Toe Blake said Thursday night after his Canadiens defeated Boston Bruins 4-2 for the third straight time in their best-of-seven series for hockey's coveted Stanley Cup.

"Don't forget, a team still has to win four games to win the series," Blake said in the dressing room following his team's triumph.

"I won't predict anything," he added. "They, the Bruins, still have a good team and don't forget it but if we don't make it in four straight it won't be because we didn't try."

Big Jean Beliveau, who admitted he was slowed slightly by a charleyhorse, called the victory "a big one."

Goalie Jacques Plante, who turned in a brilliant performance by stopping 25 Boston shots, felt his save on Bruins' Vic Stasiuk in the opening minutes of the third period was one of the key points in the Montreal victory.

"I was very lucky on the shot," Plante said. "If Stasiuk had scored, it might have been a different game as it would have made the score 3-2 and the Bruins were flying."

"I moved out just as he shot," the goalie said. "I kicked with my left leg and the puck just nicked the side of my pad."

"They outplayed us all the way," Boston coach Milt Schmidt said in the gloomy dressing quarters. "It was our worst game in the playoffs. There were no breaks involved. We were terrible. Everybody played a bad game."

Schmidt said "we still have plenty of fight left" and promised that the Bruins will go all out in an attempt to become the second team in National Hockey League history to lose three straight games and then win the next four for the Stanley Cup.

"It's been done before and who knows..." he said wistfully. "We'll just keep on going. Tonight is water over the dam."

"The Boomer" Leads Way With Two Goals; Blake's New Line Shines; Big One Still To Come, Says Blake

BOSTON —(CP)— If Boston Bruins come up with another "stinker" they can forget about the Stanley Cup this year and let it remain with the defending champion Montreal Canadiens.

Stinker was the word coach Milt Schmidt used after his Bruins had absorbed a 4-2 setback Thursday night at the hands of the Canadiens — the third loss in a row — and there is a good chance this best-of-seven cup final will wind up here Sunday night.

It was Canadiens' win all the way, launched with a three-goal outburst in the first period. The offensive-minded Montrealers had too much fire power, particularly with muscular Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion blasting in two goals in the big opening period.

Floyd Curry and rookie Phil Goyette, working on a brand new line evolved by coach Toe Blake, supplied the other Montreal goals — Curry in the first period and Goyette in the third.

Goalie Jacques Plante foiled Boston's comeback bid in the final period after Don McKenney had broken the ice for the Bruins in the second.

As the third period began, Plante made saves on Doug Mohns at 25 seconds, Cal Gardner at 35 seconds and Vic Stasiuk at 1:20.

Fleming Mackell got Boston's second goal in the last minute of play but by then it was too late.

Plante, who wound up with 25 stops, called the save on Stasiuk a key point in the game.

Plante, known as "the wanderer" for his tendencies to leave the net to chase loose pucks when he has a chance to beat an enemy skater, had shut out the Bruins 1-0 Tuesday and has allowed only three goals in as many games.

"They outplayed us all the way," Schmidt said in disgust after the game. "It was our worst game in the playoffs. There were no breaks involved. We were terrible. Everybody had a bad game."

However, neither he nor the team was ready to concede defeat yet.

The Canadiens were confident but not cocky about their chances to retain the cup in four straight. "It's a big one but the biggest one still has to come," said coach Toe Blake after the latest triumph. "The clinching victory always is the hardest."

"I won't predict anything. They still have a good team and don't forget it, but if we don't make it four straight it won't be because we didn't try."

Toronto in 1943 was the only team in NHL history to drop the first three games in the final and rally to win the cup.

Whitby Dunlops Is Proving Surprise Team In Eastern Canada Allan Cup Playoffs; Knock Over Dutchmen

TORONTO —(AP)— There's something about this Whitby Dunlops hockey team that has strangers hoping they'll go all the way to the Allan Cup title. It they do it's possible — save a spot for them among the sports human-interest stories of the year.

Apart from goalkeeper Long John Henderson, the team is made up of a bunch of guys called Joe. They've caught the imagination of sports fans around Ontario and the way they're going they conceivably could pop into national prominence.

The Dunlops, playing their first season in a league that had Allan Cup aspirations, have a certain flamboyancy unlike others in the hunt for the cup. They just keep knocking over clubs that, on paper, they have no right to do.

For instance, in the best-of-seven series with the highly-famed Kitchener, Dunlops led 3-1 in games at one point. The Dutchmen squared the series and the seventh game was played at Kitchener. That was supposed to be in the bag for the Dutchmen but Whitby won it 3-2 to advance into the all-Ontario playoff with North Bay Trappers.

Milt "Toronto Star" Dunnell comes up with some interesting data on the club.

Two years ago, when the club was in senior B company, the cashbox was empty. There was no money to pay salaries but the players took a vote and decided to carry on. They won the senior B title and each player received $200.

This year, the team's weekly salary is a mere $1,100, probably the most modest in senior A and junior A hockey in Canada. The Whitby arena seats only 900 but average attendance is 1,200.

When Dunlops needed a goalkeeper, Boston Bruins asked $3,000 for Henderson's contract. "Long John doubtless would be blocking pucks for the Bruins today, if he had been willing to sit still for a while," says Dunnell. "He was considered too green for the National Hockey League, so the Bruins bought Terry Sawchuk... Whitby got him because the town's booster club undertook to pay $1,000. The hockey club paid $500."

"They still owe another G-note which is to be paid off next season. Boston agreed to cut the price to $2,500 and spread the payments over two years."

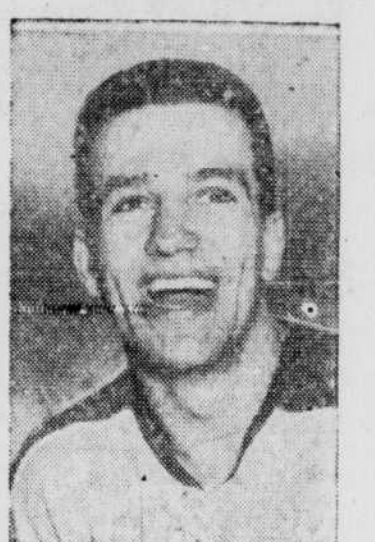

Long John had been mainstay on the club but the unknowns up front are doing their share to make this the upstart team in the Allan Cup picture.

Chics Wallop Aces To Knot Series 1-1

CHICOUTIMI. —(AP)— Chicoutimi Saguenens squared their best-of-seven Quebec Hockey League final with Quebec at one game apiece Thursday night by whipping the Aces 6-3.

Chicoutimi built up a 4-1 lead in the first period and held off a late challenge by the Aces for the victory. Del Topoll and Fern Perreault each had two goals for the winners.
