THE Late Hours, the ill-ventilated rooms and irregularity in meals, produde derangement of the system; and this is manifested by a foul breath and decayed teeth. To remedy this, the use of Elliot's Dentifrice is strongly recommended: it purifies the breath, cleans the teeth, heals the gums, and leaves a pleasant and refreshing taste in the mouth. It is a compound of aromatic substitutes, and has been in use upwards of 25 years, and has been found superior to any of tee powders for the purposes intended.

Ask for ELLIOT'S, and take no other, whatever may be the assurance of interested tradesmen that the powder under another name is "equally good."

The Tribune for 1868.

PROSPECTUS.

THE year 1868 will long be remembered for its settlement of the boundary question between Aristocracy of Color and Impartial Human Liberty. The War of the Rebellion being closed, we have now to decide whether the fundamental idea which impelled and justified the Rebellion shall dominate over our whole country, moulding her institutions and shaping her destiny. If it be true that God has not created all men, but only all White men, in His own image, and made them equal in political and civil rights, then it is a world-wide calamity that Grant did not surrender to Lee at Appomattox; and "The Lost Cause," trodden into mire under the hoofs of Sheridan's rough-riding cavalry, not only should but will be regained in Constitutional Conventions and at the ballot boxes. If the Black race, because they are Black, should be excluded from the jury-box and repelled from the ballot box, then Stonewall Jackson ought to head the roll of American martyrs, emblazoned high above the names of Warren and Mercer and Pulaski; of Ellsworth, Lyon, Baker, Reynolds, Wadsworth, Kearney, Sedgwick, and McPherson.

It is difficult to argue with a blind, besotted prejudice, grounded in ignorance and fortified by self-conceit. Devoid of reason, it is hardly amenable to reason. But millions who would listen unmoved to appeals based on Justice and Humanity can be stirred by facts which affect their own interest and safety. The naked truth that every Southern State reconstructed on the White basis is to-day a Rebel State—shaped and ruled by men who execrated Lincoln's reluctant and tardy resistance to the Rebellion as a causeless and criminal aggression, and profoundly rejoiced over Bull Run as their victory—will prove invincible, if we can but bring it home to the apprehension of every loyal voter. There is no paramount question of good faith or gratitude to the Blacks. Their votes are as necessary to the preponderance of White loyalty as to their own protection and security. Reconstruct the South on the White basis, and every one of the fifteen States which held slaves in 1860 will be intensely, overwhelmingly Copperhead thenceforth and evermore. Allow to-day the plea that the Blacks are ignorant and degraded, and those whom you thereby clothe with power will take good care that the plea shall be a valid and well-grounded a century hence as it now is. Public Education and Civil Rights for the Freedmen can only be achieved and maintained through the ballot. "We "are for Negro Suffrage—the way they suffered in New "Orleans," was the inscription on a banner borne in a late Conservative or Democratic procession in Baltimore; and the spirit which dictated that avowal is still rampant in the South. But for what is stigmatised as Military Despotism, it would daily avenge by outrage and infliction what it deems negro treachery to the Southern cause.

THE TRIBUNE has declined to be lured or turned aside from the Main Question. It has persistently refused to swell the clamor for vengeance on the defeated Rebels, whether by execution or by confiscation; and one of its strong reasons for this course is a conviction that no drop of Rebel blood could be coolly, deliberately shed without essentially clouding the prospect of securing the Rights of Suffrage to the Blacks. Defying the madness of passion and the blindness of short-sighted misconception, it has demanded Reconstruction on the basis of Universal Amnesty with Impartial Suffrage, in perfect consciousness of the fact that it thereby alienated thousands who had been its zealous supporters and life-long patrons. The hour of its complete vindication cannot be far distant.

As for the man who is to be the chosen standard-bearer of the Republican host in the impending contest, while we avow our deliberate preference of Chief Justice Chase as the ablest and most eminent of our living statesmen, THE TRIBUNE will render a hearty, cheerful, determined support to General Grant, or Senator Wade, or Speaker Colfax should he be nominated and supported on a platform which affirms and upholds the equal political as well as civil rights of all citizens of the Republic. We do not contemplate as possible the support by Republicans of any candidate who does not stand on this platform. And we do not apprehend that the candidates who, in our approaching struggle, shall represent genuine Democracy in opposition to the meanest phase of Aristocracy can be beaten if proper means be systematically taken, as they must and will be, to enlighten and arouse the American people.

We will thank such friends as believe that THE TRIBUNE will prove an efficient and cheap way to influence the undecided, to aid us in extending its circulation. Though ours is eminently a political journal, but a small portion of its space is devoted to politics, while an outlay of more than $ 00,000 per annum is incurred in collecting and transmitting news from all parts of the world. We have regular correspondents at nearly all the capitals of Europe, with a director at London, who is authorized to dispatch special correspondents to all points where important events may at any time be transpiring or imminent. The progress of the war in Crete, which is the precursor of a still greater war, has been watched by one of those special correspondents, while another telegraphs from Constantinople each novel phase of the critical diplomatic situation. Every step of Garibaldi's recent heroic though unfortunate enterprise, from its inception to its close, was noted by our correspondents, who are also his most trusted advisers; while an esteemed member of our editorial staff has just accompanied the Embassador of Juarez to Mexico to scan the Mexican problem closely under auspices more favorable to the Republican chief than those which have colored the advices of our regular correspondents at Vera Cruz and the Capital. Another correspondent accompanied the first National expedition to Alaska, Walrussia, or whatever our splinter of the North Pole may be called, and is now reporting on the aspects and capabilities of that chilly region. Bayard Taylor is writing us in his own vein from Central Europe; while able correspondents report to us from Colorado, Idaho, Montana, &c., more copious than we can find room to publish. Our Reviews of Books and Literary Department are in charge of one of the ripest American scholars; while Agriculture, under a competent editor, claims a leading place in our Semi-Weekly and Weekly issues. In short, we have for years spent a large proportion of the income of our business in efforts to render THE TRIBUNE a better and better newspaper; and, if we have not succeeded, the fault is not explained by a lack of means or of efforts, whether on our part or on that of a generous and discerning public.

THE TRIBUNE is sent by mail daily (Sundays excepted) for $10, Semi-Weekly for $4, and Weekly for $2 per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. To clubs for the Semi-Weekly we send two copies one year for $7; five copies, or over, for each copy, $3. On receipt of $30 for ten copies we will send an extra copy for six months. On receipt of $45 for fifteen copies we will send an extra copy one year; for $100 we will send thirty-four copies and THE DAILY TRIBUNE. We send the Weekly to Clubs of five for $9; ten copies or over, addressed to names of subscribers, each, $1 70; twenty copies, addressed to names of subscribers, $34; ten copies, to one address, $16; twenty copies, to one address, $30. An extra copy will be sent for each club of ten.

A large and fine steel engraved portrait of the Editor is sent free of charge to any one who, in sending $10 for a Daily, $4 for a Semi-Weekly, or $2 for a Weekly, shall indicate a desire to receive it. One will likewise be sent to any person who forwards a club of ten or more Semi-Weeklies or twenty or more Weeklies, at our club rates, and asks for the portrait at the time of remitting. Address THE TRIBUNE, No. 154, Nassau street, New York.

SAMUEL LOVER, THE SONG WRITER.

The Atlantic cable brings news of the death of Mr. Samuel Lover, the celebrated Irish author and song writer. Mr. Lover was the son of a member of the Dublin Stock Exchange and was born in 1797. He first attracted attention as an artist. His tastes, however, soon led him into literature, and he contributed to a periodical of the time "Legends and Stories Illustrative of Irish Character." Removing soon afterwards to London, he continued his Irish sketches, which were subsequently published in two volumes, and followed them with a series of contributions to magazine literature, the best known of which is "Handy Andy," first published in Bentley's Miscellany in 1838. He published, also, a number of Irish songs, among them "Rory O'More "Molly Carew," "Molly Bawn," "the Four-leaved Shamrock," &c., and several operas founded upon his own works. Finding health failing under his literary labors, he composed a series of entertainments, called "Irish Evenings," in which he recited extracts from his own works, and interspersed songs and music of his own composition. These proved exceedingly popular, and after continuing them for some time, he came to the United States in 1847, where he received a cordial welcome. Returning, he produced a similar entertainment from his trans-Atlantic experiences, which was equally well received. His latest works are "Treasure Trove," published in 1844, and "Lyrics of Ireland," in 1858.

THE EX-EMPRESS OF MEXICO.

The Journal des Débats says that, rumours having gone abroad that the ex-Empress Charlotte intended to return to Mexico at the call of a powerful party, it made inquiry on the subject of her health, and ascertained from the most reliable source that, "though her condition is improved, her reason is still profoundly affected. It sometimes happens that she appears quite well. She then speaks, or reads, or plays as in the best period of her life, but with a melancholy recollection of the days she spent in Italy and in Mexico." The multiplied attentions of the King and Queen have contributed, with the beautiful scenery of the Palace of Laeken, to produce this happy result, which unfortunately is not permanent. It has been already stated that she gave 10,000 florins towards the monument to be erected in Trieste to the memory of Maximilian. A golden crown, manufactured to her order in Brussels, was laid on the coffin of the deceased Emperor on the occasion of the religious celebration of the anniversary of his death. She saw it before it left Brussels, and bathed it with her tears. Her grief was simple and natural, and showed no symptoms of excitement.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

French papers state that a Gallo-Roman cemetery has been discovered at Lalande, on the right bank of the Garonne, and about one hundred and fifty yards from that river. Twenty tombs have been found, all composed of bricks. In each tomb a body was lying, which fell to pieces on being exposed to the atmosphere. Further researches are being carried on in the same locality. Another interesting archæological discovery has been made in a railway cutting at Pont-de-Pierre, near Chalons-sur-Saone. At least three feet below the surface of the ground, a group of thirteen skeletons was found in a narrow space, all in a wonderful state of preservation. Between the jaws of one of the dead an obolus was discovered, which some friend of the deceased probably placed there to enable the departed to pay his fare to Charon. The discovery of coins in the immediate vicinity of these skeletons, bearing the effigy of the Emperor Gordian, points to the conclusion that seventeen centuries have elapsed since they were interred.

THE WEATHER AND THE CROPS.

The Montreal Witness says:—During the past month the weather has been very dry and hot. This has, in the main, been beneficial to the grain crops of the country, but the grass crop has suffered a little in consequence, and many pastures have suffered a great deal. The only real complaints we have heard of the drought come from the valley of the Ottawa, where pastures are said to be very short. The rain which fell a few days ago, though heavy, was of short duration, and did not do much real good. People have commenced to gather the hay crop, and, on the whole, it is represented as heavy, especially in the Eastern Townships. Reports from all parts of the country agree in pronouncing the grain crops as of great excellence, and we may now be assured of an abundant harvest unless unfavorable weather of an extraordinary character shall occur during the remainder of this month.

DEATH OF THE MORMON HIGH PRIEST.

Heber C. Kimball, who has been for many years the second in authority in the Mormon Church, died recently in Salt Lake City. He has been the most successful of the Mormon preachers, having at one time visited England and Wales in the character of an "evangelist," where he was very successful in converting the ignorant classes. After Brigham Young, he was the most influential man in all Mormondom, and was in fact scarcely second to that great bigamist. Brigham himself is growing old, and in the course of nature must before many years have passed, shake off this mortal coil. It is difficult to foretell what effect the death of these extraordinary leaders may have upon the destinies of the people they have so long held in delusion.

THE QUEEN AND ROYAL FAMILY AT A REVIEW.

The following pleasant paragraph relating to the Queen and Royal Family at the review is from the Daily News:—To see the Queen and Princess of Wales laughing together when anything moved their mirth, in hearty abandonment, instead of the regular simper which society prescribes; to see the young Highlander, Prince Leopold, and Princess Beatrice, pointing out men and things to their sister's tiny child; to see the Queen when a man was borne out of the ranks faint from the heat, stand up with motherly concern, turn her back upon the review, and not be content until informed it was not a serious accident; to see the Queen, Prince and Princesses in turn bringing a blush into Prince Arthur's face by probable reference to his new plumes, were little instances that came unsought before many on Saturday, indicating the substratum on which English loyalty is built."

NEW MINING COMPANY.

The London Canadian News states that a new company has been formed under the title of "The Canadian and North-West Land and Mining Company." It will purchase lands, minerals, &c, on this part of the continent, for trading or working purposes.

A CANADIAN ZOUAVE POISONED.

One of the Canadian Zouaves in Rome, Mr. De Cazes, very nearly lost his life by poisoning. While he was on sentry duty, a little boy peddling cigars offered one to the Zouave, who purchased it, and began soon after to smoke it. He had not had the weed long in his mouth, when he fell almost senseless, but, having been taken to the hospital and proper remedies being administered, he recovered, and is now well. It is believed that the cigar was impregnated with the aqua tofana, the celebrated poison used by the Borgias, the family of Pope Alexander.

INCENDIARY FIRE.

About nine a. m. on Saturday, the alarm was heard and a fire discovered raging on Côte à Coton, immediately in rear of the Jeffery Hale Hospital, and proved to be the carriage depot of Mr. Verret, carriage maker, where a large number of vehicles of all descriptions were stored. Among them were some very valuable sleighs and carriages, the property of our citizens, and about a dozen belonging to Mr. Verret. There is no insurance whatever on the vehicles, and we understand none on the building, which was owned by the trustees of the Jeffery Hale Hospital. From the fact that a man was seen by an artilleryman coming away from the building in rather a hurried manner, it is supposed to be the act of an incendiary. The loss will fall heavy on Mr. Verret, as he not only loses his vehicles, but also the rent resulting from storage. The fire brigade were early on the spot, but such was the nature of the materials that the whole was burnt down in a short time. The amount of stored property destroyed will probably amount to from ten to fifteen thousand dollars.

Law Intelligence.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

Saturday, July 11th, 1868.

The Court opened at ten o'clock.

The jury, in the case of the Queen against Francis Gilchen, took their seats a few minutes after the opening, and informed the Court that they had not agreed upon a verdict, and that it was impossible for them to agree. The presiding Judge, under these circumstances, ordered their discharge. The jury, no doubt, felt pleased to be released, as they had been confined since last Tuesday, which must have been trying to their health during the present hot season.

Mr. O'Farrell said he was prepared to proceed with the trial on the same indictment this term.

The case against the same prisoner, on an indictment for misdemeanor (unlawful wounding) and which had been continued from Friday, was proceeded with. The facts elicited by the evidence in this case did not vary in any particular from the first trial, excepting the examination of an additional witness on the part of the Crown, and a statement made by the witness, James Daly, for the defence, that he would not have given Gilchen any assistance when he met him at the toll-gate.

Both the prisoner's Counsel addressed the jury, as well as the Solicitor-General for the Crown.

Mr. Justice Caron summed up at length in both languages. He read to them the law as laid down by the most modern English authorities, applicable to the question they had to decide.

A verdict.

The jury, after a deliberation of about one hour, returned into Court and gave a verdict of "Not Guilty."

Application was made for bail, but the decision was held over until this morning, to ascertain the course that will next be adopted by the Crown.—Chronicle.

The Beautiful.—Perception of beauty is one of the most decided characteristics by which man is distinguished from the brute. We discover no symptoms of admiration in animals of a lower grade than ourselves. The peacock excites no deference from the splendour of his plumage, nor the swan from her snow-white feathers; and the verdant fields, in their summer bloom, attract no more than as their flowery sweets allure the insect tribe, who in their turn are followed by their foes. To man alone belongs the prerogative of appreciating beauty, because admiration is graciously designed as the means of leading him on to moral excellence.

A New Way of Spending a Holiday.—An English paper says: "A gentleman last season took lodgings for the season on board the Ramsgate steamer Eagle, and accompanied the vessel on every trip, deriving much benefit from the sea air. The directors of the Company have determined to fit up a limited number of berths on board this vessel and the Albion, which will shortly commence running, for the convenience of persons who may feel inclined to engage them. They may be had by the week, month, or for the whole season."

Glass.—Pennsylvania makes two-thirds of all the glass manufactured in the United States. In Pittsburg there are sixty-eight glass-works, devoted in about equal proportion to bottle, window-glass, and flint-glass work. Their annual products comprise 70,000,000 bottles, 600,000 boxes of window glass, and 3,800 tons of glassware—worth, on the aggregate, nearly $7,000,000.

SAINT JEAN BAPTISTE'S DAY.

ITS ORIGIN.

(From the Montreal Witness.)

We find by a perusal of our French contemporaries, that this national festivity of our countrymen of French origin has been pretty generally celebrated this year, though strong signs of fading enthusiasm and of disunion are mentioned as prevailing in several localities.

The adoption of Saint Jean Baptiste as a patron of Canada, originated in 1834, and the late Mr. Ludger Duvernay, the founder of La Minerve, is generally considered as one of the principal promoters of the idea. It was mainly intended at first as a purely political movement, at a time when the agitation which culminated in the rebellions of 1837-8 was pervading all over the country. This is proved by the speeches, and songs, and display of tri-colored flags, which marked the first two or three celebrations. The choice of the peculiar saint was not, as has been stated, the result of a religious feeling or tendency. The clergy opposed it much at the time, and at first refused to join in the celebration, maintaining that St. Joseph was the saint adopted by the clergy as the special protector of Canada. The adoption of the new patron was merely a protest against the sneering appellation of Jean Baptiste, by which the French Canadian habitant was usually designated by his tory adversaries.

The first celebrations merely consisted in a public dinner, given for the first time in the orchard of Mr. John McDonnell, a gentleman then living in St. Antoine suburbs, and afterwards the banquet took place in the old Rasco's Hotel. No processions or church ceremonies then formed part of the festivity. The political troubles which followed, interrupted these national feasts, and the principal actors in them were dispersed and exiled for a number of years. It was only in 1841, and in Quebec, if we remember right, that the idea of forming a regular national benevolent society, calculated to mutually protect and enlighten its members, was renewed and promoted with much energy and vigor; but there also the clergy showed much reluctance and ill-will in taking part in the organization, and could only be prevailed upon to celebrate mass on the 24th of June for the promotion of temperance, and a tri-colored flag was refused admittance into the Cathedral. The popularity of the national idea, however, gradually prevailed; the society extended to all parts of the country, and became an almost national institution. In the latter years, party divisions have found their way into the Society; the elections were carried on upon party color and not upon personal worth alone; the clergy, always opposed to independent associations, promoted the organization of smaller special societies of separate trades under the invocation of other saints, under their direct control or inspiration; and thus the unity and generally national character of the St. Jean Baptiste Society was diminished, if not altogether destroyed. The exclusion of L'Institut Canadien from the ranks of the procession for having refused to eliminate from its reading room, at the request of the clergy, the Witness and other Protestant publications, deprived the Society of its most talented members, and reduced considerably the zeal of those who remained.

We see by the French papers that disunion or indifference have made their way in Montreal, Sorel, and other localities, where the enthusiasm of former years has almost entirely disappeared. At St. Hyacinthe much acrimony against the clergy has been created by the act of one of the professors of the college, who very unbecomingly ordered the pupils' band to play and depart while Mr. G. C. Dessaulles was delivering a speech of congratulation.

A SINGULAR STORY.

[From the Mason County (Mich.) Record.]

We have to record a very singular deliverance of a girl three years old, to her parents, after being carried off by a black bear, and a search of thirty-six hours through the forest by the excited parents. The facts, as near as we can gather them, are substantially as follows:

Mr. Henry Flynn lives 40 miles east of this place, at or near the logging camp of Mr. Ludington, and we believe has charge of one of the camps. He started one morning to take a horse to pasture, about two miles distant from the house, and as he was ready to start his little girl appeared and seemed very anxious to go with her father, who, in order to please the child, put her upon the horse's back and let her ride a short distance, perhaps 40 rods from the house, where he put her down and told her to run home. He noticed that the child was standing where he left her, and on looking back after going a little further saw her playing in the sand. He soon passed out of sight, and was gone about an hour, expecting of course that the child would return to the house after playing a few moments.

On returning home he made enquiry about the child of her mother, who said she had not seen the child, and supposed he had taken her along with him. On going to the spot where he left her, he saw huge bear-tracks in the sand, and at once came to the conclusion that she had been carried off by the bear.

The family immediately gave search through the forest, which was grown up almost to a jungle, rendering their search very slow. All day these anxious parents searched for some trace of their child, nor did they stop when darkness came on, but remained in the woods, calling the child by her name, and with aching hearts would listen with an almost breathless fear to catch some sound by which they could discover their lost darling. Morning came and their search was fruitless.

A couple of gentlemen, looking for land, came to the house, and, being informed of the circumstance, immediately set out to help to find the child. No doubt existed as to the fate of the little one by all, and if they could only find where the bear had despatched its victim they might then go home with the assurance that they were never to see their child again; but until some trace of her was found there was hope.

The gentlemen alluded to had wandered about and as they were passing a swampy spot, where the undergrowth was very thick, they either called the child, or else were talking loud, when one of them heard the child's voice. He then called the child by name, and told her to come out of the bushes. She replied that the bear would not let her. The men then crept through the brush, and when near the spot where the child and bear were, they heard a splash in the water, which the child said was the bear. On going to her they found her standing on a log, extending about half way across the river. The bear had undertaken to cross the river on the log, and, being closely pursued, left the child and swam away. She had received some scratches about her face, arms, and legs, and her clothes were almost torn from her, but the bear had not bitten her, only the marks of his teeth being found on her back, where, in taking hold of her clothes to carry her, he had taken the flesh also.

The little one says the bear would put her down occasionally to rest, and would put his nose up to her face, when she would slap him, and then the bear would hang his head by her side and purr and rub against her like a cat. The men asked her if she was cool in the night, and she told them the old bear lay down beside her and put his "arms" around her and kept her warm, though she did not like his long hair. She was taken home to her parents, who could hardly express their joy at her safety.

The bear has been seen lurking about in the vicinity, it is supposed for the purpose of yet carrying off the child. The supposition is that it is a female bear, and having lost her cubs, came across the child and adopted it. Steps are being taken to capture the bear.

Woman is asserting her rights in France as well as in other countries. The ladies have appeared on the French Bourse in great numbers, and buy and sell stock with a vigor and earnestness completely unknown to the less favored sex.

AUSTRIA AND ROME.

Considerable irritation has been caused in Austria by the recent Papal allocution, but the chief effect has been apparently to embitter the minds of the people still more against the priestly rule. It is said that the municipal council of Vienna is about to protest in the most strenuous manner against the pretension of the Papal Government to interfere in the domestic legislation of an independent foreign power, and it is expected that a similar step will be taken throughout the country. The Austrian journals are unanimous in their condemnation of the position taken up by the Pope, and some even go so far as to recommend that the Papal Nuncio should have his passports sent to him. Baron Buest, however, has merely addressed a note to the Papal Government maintaining that the domestic affairs of the Austrian Empire are beyond the jurisdiction of the Court of Rome.

The Austrian clergy are organizing an active opposition to the new laws altering the Concordat. The Prince Archbishop of Olmutz, Landgraf von Furstenberg, has issued a circular to the clergy of his diocese, in which he instructs them as to the course they are to pursue in the matter of civil marriages, and of the admission of members, of other religions to the same privileges as those hitherto enjoyed by the Catholics.

Those who contract marriages without the assistance of the church are to be regarded as living in "concubinage." Again, if burial in a churchyard is claimed for a person not entitled to Christian burial—excepting that part of the churchyard which is set aside for such persons—the priest shall refer the claimant to the ecclesiastical law, lock up the churchyard, and take the key. If the gate of the churchyard is forcibly broken open, and the body buried, then the place shall be held to be desecrated, no priest shall enter it until it is again consecrated, and the clergy shall not accompany Catholic funeral processions on their way to the churchyard any further than the gate.

FASCINATION OF SNAKES.

When I was engaged as a surveyor, I had frequent opportunities of seeing snakes, and as I stood one day very sluggishly leaning over a fence, I saw a large rattle-snake in as pretty a coil as a painter could have desired. The only apparent living part of it was its head, which moved to and fro. My eyes fell upon it, and immediately I lost power to move. I felt surprised—dizzy—and indifferent. How long I was so, I do not know, but my pressure against the fence caused a piece of the timber to fall; the movement aroused me, and made my fascinating enemy glide off. And so I was saved, but the feeling of horror, sickness, and fainting that came over me, affects me even while I tell it. Another says—"I was passing through Maryland with three others, when one was observed to stop behind without any assignable cause; his companions called him, but he not moving, one returned and upbraided him with indifference of their companionship: but not moving, he came up close to him, and taking him by the arm, pulled him towards him, saying 'Why do you linger, man?' He now observed his eyes were fixed, and directing his to the object of vision, saw an immense rattle-snake half-bowing and half-crawling towards him. His companion heard him ejaculate 'He will bite me! he will bite me!' and replying with the jerk or pull he gave him, he said, 'Yes, he will bite you sure enough, if you don't come away.' The enchantment was now at an end, and turning to his friend, he fell prostrate into his arms, was very faint and sick, and was long ere he recovered."—Notes by a Traveller.

PRECIOUS PEARLS.

The Epoque, speaking of pearls and their value, says:—"There are certain ones which have become historical from their great beauty or size. One from Panama, having the form of a pear, and as large as a pigeon's egg, offered in 1579 to Philip II. of Spain, was valued at 100,000f. In 1805 a lady at Madrid possessed an American pearl valued at 31,000 ducats (5f. each). Pope Leo X. paid a Venetian jeweller 350,000f. for one. Another pearl was purchased at Cal[illegible] by the traveller Tavernier from the Shah of Persia, it is said, for 4,500,000f. A Prince of Muscat possessed a pearl, the great value of which consisted, not in its size, but in its being almost transparent, as the light could be seen through it; it only weighed 12 carats, but he refused 100,000f. for it. The pearl in the crown of Rodolpho II. was said to be as large as a pear. What kind of pear is not stated, nor the size of the oyster in which the gem was found. The present Shah of Persia possesses a magnificent casket of pearls each as large as a nut. In the Exhibition of 1855 Queen Victoria exhibited several pearls of great beauty, and the Emperor also sent a collection of 408, each weighing from 13 to 14 grammes, of a perfect shape and the finest water."

STRANGE OPTICAL DEFECTS.

Among the most successful men of business in Buffalo is a gentleman who was entirely unable to read, and did not even know his letters until after he was twenty-one years of age. On first being sent to school as a boy, his teacher found it impossible to make the lad distinguish between A and B, flogged him over and over again in the good old style, and finally dismissed him as incorrigibly stupid. The boy in reality had abilities far above mediocrity, but found he could not learn to read; and driven to desperation by his teacher, rebelled against him, but determining that if no scholar so far as "book learning" is concerned, he would not be left behind in other knowledge, behaved with due diligence and propriety in all that came within his power.

It was not until he had attained his majority that, putting on a pair of spectacles from accidental curiosity, he discovered how the words and letters which always before presented to his eyes the appearance of nothing more than blurred, indistinct masses of a grayish color, looked separate and clear, and knew how it was that he had been flogged in childhood, and had never learned to read. He availed himself of his new knowledge with characteristic promptitude.

Nicknames of American Cities.—From early times the Americans have had nicknames for their chief cities. New York is called Gotham; Boston, the Modern Athens—though it is now oftener called by a name Dr. Holmes gave it, "the Hub" (i.e., "of Creation"); Philadelphia is the Quaker City; Baltimore the Monumental City; Cincinnati, the Queen City. New Orleans, the Crescent City; Washington, the City of Magnificent Distances; New Haven, the Elm City. The fashion is kept up with the new cities that are built in the West. Chicago is now called the Garden City; Detroit, the City of the Straits; Cleveland, the Forest City; Pittsburgh, the Smoky City; Indianapolis, the Railroad City; St. Louis, the Mound City; Keokuk, the Gate City; Louisville, the Falls City; Nashville, the City of Rocks; Hannibal, the Bluff City; Quincy, the Model City; Alexandria, the Delta City.

Drunk.—Young man, did you ever stop to think how terrible that word sounds? Did you ever think what misery and woe you brought upon your friends when you degraded your manhood by getting drunk? It is a fearful thing to trample under foot the high claims that God and man have upon you. Drunk! How it rings in the ear of a loving wife! How it makes the heart of a fond mother bleed! How it crushes out the hopes of a father, and brings reproach and shame upon loving sisters. Drunk! He is spending the means of support for liquor, while his family may be wanting for bread, his children suffering for clothing. Drunk! His reputation is going, gone. His friends, one by one, are reluctantly leaving him to his miserable fate. He goes down to his grave "unhonoured and unsung." Drunk!

HOW TO KEEP HOUSES COOL, IN HOT WEATHER.

Mr. John Attfield, Professor of Practical Chemistry to the Pharmaceutical Society, contributes the following seasonable directions:—

In these hot days a cool apartment is a real luxury, a luxury to be had far oftener than most people suppose possible. The secret consists, not in letting in cool air, for naturally all do that whenever they have the chance, but in keeping out hot air. If the air outside a room or house be cooler than the air inside, let it in by all means; but if it be hotter, carefully keep it out. A staircase window left open during the night will often cool the passages of a house, and the rooms too, if their doors be not shut; but it must be closed at eight or nine o'clock in the morning; or, if on the sunny side, at four or five o'clock, and the blind drawn down. The mistake people generally make is to throw open their windows at all hours of the day, no matter whether the atmosphere outside be cool or scorching. "Let us have some air," they say, and in comes the treacherous breeze—for even hot air is pleasant while it is gently blowing, taking away perspiration, and thereby cooling the skin; but the apartment is made warmer, instead of cooler, and as soon as they move out of the draught they find their room to be more uncomfortable than before. Let in cool air, keep out hot; that is the only formula to insure the minimum of discomfort. Sitting rooms may generally be kept cool during the whole day if the doors be only opened for ingress and egress, and the windows be kept closed and shielded from direct sunshine by a blind. If the atmosphere of a room be impure from any cause, let it be renewed, hot air is less injurious than bad air. If a room be small in comparison with the number of persons engaged in it, free ventilation becomes indispensable. In a cooking apartment the temperature will probably be higher than outside, hence the free admission even of hot air will be desirable. If persons do not object to sit in a direct draught of air, windows and doors may be opened, a breeze being more refreshing, even though several degrees warmer, than still air; but under nearly all other circumstances rooms should be kept closed as much as possible till after sundown, or till the air outside is cooler than that inside. Let in cool air, keep out hot.

THE ROMAN CARDINALS BY ONE OF THEMSELVES.

M. Erdan, the Italian correspondent of Le Temps, and an intimate friend of the late Cardinal Andrea, is said to possess several papers in the handwriting of the late cardinal. He communicated some of these notes to an advocate who has just published a work on the cardinals. Of the cardinals in general he says, "they are almost all black and absolutist in opinion." "Cardinal Reisach—in respect for the Jesuits he is one of the blackest of all. Cardinal Barnabo—Has an eye to the Papacy, but will never succeed. Mattei—Hard, hypocritical, and mediocre. Patrizzi—In reality an arrant fool. Torsi—Archbishop of Pisa, essentially black, and a downright enemy of Italy. Pannebianco—Is extremely anxious for the Papacy; but Guidi, who is an abler man, has a better chance. There is reason to believe that the next Pope will be a monk—Guidi the Dominican, or Pannebianco the Cordelier. This Pannebianco is a Sicilian. He is a Sixtus Quintus. He keeps himself in the back ground, and in reserve. Of all the Sacred College he is the member whose secret intrigues require most watching. There are two men in the household who are indispensable to the Pope—Mgr. Cenni, his trainbearer, and Filippani, a laic. Antonelli has always the same confessor as the Pope. If the Pope changes he changes also. The present confessor (1866) is the Jesuit Father Mignardi; a good man, cold, a censor of the prelates, whose little scandals he ferrets out in conjunction with Mgr. Cenni. The Pope listens to the gravest charges of immorality, requires to be told the minutest details, but never takes severe measures. There are at least twenty prelates whose lives are a scandal. In general, the clergy are more pure than is believed. The prelates who give most scandal by their eccentric immoralities are three. The Pope is perfectly aware of this." There are thirty pages of notes in the same style.

BOILING DOWN THE SHEEP.

A visit to the boiling-down establishment at Colbinnabin station is not without interest. When the sheep have been killed, skinned and cleaned, and the vat emptied and made ready, a number of hands are employed in chopping them into three or four pieces, and then throwing them into it. The vat is 11 feet high, and tapers from the top to the bottom. The tapering does away with the necessity of employing any person to pack the sheep in the vat, as the pressure above always keeps the carcasses close together; and as they fall to the bottom when the steam is applied, room is left for the fat to swim on the top. Steam is conveyed from an engine of 40-horse power, which is in connection with the patent wool-scouring machine in the adjoining shed. The vat holds 300 wethers or 400 ewes, and 1,000 of those are stewed (for really that is the most expressive term to apply to the process) in 48 hours. When the fat has been all extracted, it is allowed to flow out of the taps, so placed in the side of the vat as to allow nothing but fat to flow into large 500-gallon coolers. The gravy runs from a tap in the bottom of the vat into a reservoir prepared for it, and is afterwards given as food to pigs, who luxuriate on what would be a great blessing for the poor in some of the large and populous cities in the old country. All the bones and shreds of meat are drawn out and carted away to the same herd of unclean animals. Such is the power of the steam employed that the bones are made so soft as to break in pieces in the hand, the marrow being completely melted out of them. A number of coopers are employed making casks, which are afterwards filled from the coolers, and then headed up and sent to the train for conveyance to Melbourne.—Melbourne Argus.

EFFECT OF EXPOSURE ON COAL.

Professor Rockwell has called attention to the deterioration which coal suffers from exposure to the weather, and to the importance of keeping it as dry as possible. Anthracite suffers the least, bituminous the most. According to the experiments of Grundmann, coal exposed to the weather in heaps lost during a period of nine months fifty per cent. of its value as fuel, and about as much as a gas-making material; it undergoes a process of slow combustion, taking up oxygen and giving off the volatile products of oxydation—air and moisture playing the principal part, and warmth promoting it; the valuable combustable ingredients are lost, and the injurious ones, as sulphur, oxygen, and ash, are relatively increased. Coke from weathered coal is of inferior quality, losing its coherence. These facts have been generally understood for a long while, but the practice in some railway yards gives no heed to loss of the heating value which coal undergoes from exposure to the weather. It is found with no covering to shield it from the rain, wind, and snow, and its exposure and loss thereby seems to attract no attention from the very "practical" men who have care of this department. Neither wood nor coal can bear long exposure to the elements without losing a large share of its real value as fuel.—American Railway Times.

—Mr. Batchelor, late page to Queen Victoria, expired at his residence at Windsor, a few weeks ago, in the eighty-third year of his age. Mr. Batchelor entered the royal household in the reign of George III., and was page of the backstairs to George IV., William IV., and her present Majesty. He retired from the service on a pension in 1861. Her Majesty, during Mr. Batchelor's illness, sent from Balmoral repeated inquiries after his health, and most considerately called to see him on the day of her return from Scotland. Since his death her Majesty has most kindly sent her condolence to the widow.

VERY LATEST ENGLISH MARKETS.

London, July 9.—English journals publish the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention in New York.

The Times says the platform lays down the principle of partial repudiation. It should be considered a forewarning of the defeat of the Democratic party next autumn, and its permanent exclusion from office, if not its complete destruction. Repudiation, the Times continues, may be a strong card for the Democrats in the West and South, since the Radicals have announced that they will adhere to the principle of national honesty, but by the adoption of this platform the Democratic party throws away all its chances of success in the East, and renders the election of Gen. Grant a certainty.

The Queen asks Parliament to vote a pension of 2000 pounds per annum to Gen. Napier for distinguished services in Abyssinia.

Vienna, July 9.—Prime Minister Von Buest has written a sharp note in reply to the recent allocution on the state of religion in Austria. He says the intermeddling of the Pope with the domestic legislation of Austria is a violation of the independence and dignity of the Empire.

Southampton, July 9.—The steamers Helvetia and Russia, from New York, have arrived.

London, July 10.—In the House of Lords, this evening, on the appeal of the Fenian Mullaney, a decision was rendered, confirming his sentence.

The municipal authorities of the City of Southampton recently extended an invitation to Admiral Farragut, of the American Navy, to a grand complimentary dinner. The Admiral has written a note respectfully declining the honor. The Irish Reform Bill was passed by the House of Lords last evening.

A dinner was last night given in honor of Mr. Hy. W. Longfellow, by the American Artist Albert Bierstadt. Mr. W. E. Gladstone, Admiral Farragut, and other distinguished guests were present.

Cheap Ice-Pitcher.—The following simple method of keeping ice water for a long time in a common pitcher is worth knowing: Place between two sheets of paper (newspaper will answer, thick brown is better,) a layer of cotton batting about half an inch in thickness, fasten the ends of paper and batting together, forming a circle, then sew or paste a crown over one end, making a box the shape of a stove-pipe hat minus the rim. Place this over an ordinary pitcher filled with ice water, making it deep enough to rest on the table, so as to exclude the air, and the reader will be astonished at the length of time his ice will keep and the water remain cold after the ice is melted.

Monuments of Ancient Art.—The excavations which are being carried on with great activity just now at Pompeii have brought to light two very valuable specimens of ancient art, viz., two fresco portraits situated under a portico at the Via Stabiana. It is believed they represented the master and mistress of the house. The man wears a magistrate's toga; the woman is in the attitude of a person reflecting about what she is to write, for she has a style in her right hand, and is about to carry it to her lips, while in her left she holds writing-tablets. Both these portraits are well executed.

Ships.—The Bath (Maine) Times says there will be at least ten ships on the stocks in that city within two months, and that there will be a greater demand for labor than there has been for the past two years.

THE "FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE" OF THE NURSERY.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the Reverend C. Z. WEIZER to the German Reformed Messenger newspaper, at Chambersburg, Penn.:—

"A BENEFACTRESS.—Just open the door for her, and Mrs. WINSLOW will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "SUSY" to say, "A BLESSING ON MRS. WINSLOW," for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. We confirm every word set forth in the PROSPECTUS. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your "Cordial," "Paregoric," "Drops," "Laudanum," and every other "Narcotic," by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the Infant Race." 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Be sure and call for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

QUEBEC AND GOSFORD RAILWAY.

THE Committee appointed to consider the practicability of and advantages to be derived from the construction of a Railway into the Township of Gosford, County of Portneuf, having carefully examined the subject and being convinced of the great benefits that would be derived both by the city of Quebec and the surrounding country, now lay their statement before the public, in the confident hope that after a careful examination of its merits, so desirable an enterprise will meet with the support it deserves from all classes of the community.

Its principal object is to bring into our Markets, at a cheap rate, the almost unlimited quantity of fuel wood to be found in that section of country, which, otherwise, must be uselessly destroyed. Wood could be laid down at the Depot for from $2.50 to $3 per cord, according to quality.

It is proposed to construct the road with wooden rails, (maple,) and to use tram engines of about 12 tons for the motive power. The length to be made, including sidings, &c., is about 25 miles; starting from the foot of Savageau's hill, with its final terminus at the Rivière aux Pins, near the dividing line between the Township of Gosford and the seigniory of Fossambault. It is also the only practicable route by which a Railway could be carried on to La Tuque, on the St. Maurice, and to Lake St. John, thereby opening to colonization some of the finest lands in the Province of Quebec.

Application will be made for a charter incorporating a Company to carry out the foregoing objects with a capital of $100,000. No call to be made until a meeting of the Shareholders has been held and Directors appointed, which will be done when sufficient stock has been subscribed to warrant operations being commenced.

The following estimates, showing probable cost of construction, income and expenditure, have been carefully prepared after consulting good authorities, and from the experience of similar undertakings. A wooden Railway such as here proposed, has just been completed for the Clifton Iron Mining Company, by Mr. J. B. Holbert, of St. Lawrence County, State of New York; it is 24 miles long, and working satisfactorily.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA
THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY
FOR

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS DISEASES.

From Emery Edes, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as anybody's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sawin, Houston St., N. Y.

DR. AYER: I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars' worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as anybody. Being in a public place, my case is known to everybody in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunckhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis, and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER—My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness,

are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, M. D., & Co, Lowell, Mass., and sold by

PLEURISY.

Another of the respectable citizens of Quebec, Canada, has voluntarily addressed the following to W. E. Brunet, Esq., Druggist, &c., Pont St. Roch Street Quebec:

It affords me great pleasure to inform you that I have been completely cured of a very severe Pleurisy, which I had neglected, and by the use of only three bottles of the Bristol's Sarsaparilla, which I bought at your establishment in Vatier Street.

I am, dear sir, very truly yours,
J. B. ALEXIS DORVAL,
Inspector of Timber

HOME EVIDENCE.

Mr. R. DUGAL, Chemist and Druggist, Crown Street, Quebec:

Sir,—I send you the following certificate attesting the efficacy of BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA:

RESULT OF A SLOW FEVER.—I certify that on the 19th March, 1860, my son, nine years old, was obliged to keep his bed from the above sickness. I employed the best doctors, who took him under their charge for two years, without affording relief. Last spring I commenced to give BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, and from the moment he began taking the remedy a rapid improvement took place, and at present he can walk with facility. I therefore advise all persons suffering with similar maladies to try BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA.

DR. BUCHAN'S SUGAR-COATED SARSAPARILLA PILLS.

It is a well-known fact that Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier of the blood in the world. Keep your Blood pure!—your Bowels regular!!—and defy the doctor!!! These Pills strike at the root of each disease, and are for the cure of every ailment incident to Man, Woman, and Child—such as Eruptions on the Skin, Indigestion, Bilious, Liver and Stomach complaints, general Weakness, Gout, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains in the Limbs, Headaches, Sore Throats, and every complaint caused by irregularities of the bowles, obstructed perspiration, and deteriorated and unhealthy blood. These Pills work their way to the very roots of each disease, cleansing in their passage, especially where mercury has been taken, and removing every unhealthy accumulation till the blood is purified, the whole system renovated, and all the functions acting according to nature; the duties of life become a pleasure, where before they had been sad and weary burdens. Do not hesitate! do not delay! a clean stomach must make a clean body. A clean body will contain pure blood; when the stomach, body and blood are pure, from regulating and cleansing the bowels, health is certain. Begin at the beginning, waste no time; strike at the root of your ailment. Again, I say, look to your stomach. One trial of these Pills will force conviction.

Sold in bottles, at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s.

The properties of this invaluable re-invigorating Essence act directly on the nervous and muscular system, enriching, increasing, and purifying each particular vital fluid; its action is never failing, and in perfect accordance with the laws of nature. THE PRIZES INCLUDE

The right to select a valuable Work of Art from one of the Public Exhibitions;
Statuettes in Porcelain,
Medallion Inkstands in Bronze,
Silver medals of Sir R. Westmacott, R.A., and other Works, all produced exclusively for the Society.

An Artist's proof of the plate may be had for Five Guineas, with Five Chances in the distribution; or a Letter Proof on India, with two Chances, for Two Guineas.

The Art-Union of London was established to promote the knowledge and love of the Arts, and their general advancement in the British Empire, by a wide diffusion of the works of native artists; and to elevate Art and encourage its professors, by creating an increased demand for their works, and an improved taste on the part of the public. It is under the direction of a Council of the Members, whose services are honorary, and four of whom retire from office every year.

Every Member for each Guinea subscribed, is entitled to—

I. One chance in the distribution of prizes at the annual meeting on the last Tuesday in April.

II. An impression of one or more plates produced exclusively for the Society; admission for himself and friends to the General Meeting and to the exhibition of prizes; and the annual report with list of Members, and almanack.

Numbers are not put on the subscription-receipts, because, as there must always be necessarily many receipts left in the various Agents' hands undisposed of, it would be very difficult to ensure the the proper numbers, and no others, were put into the drawing. The names are numbered in regular order a few days before the General Meeting, and any member may learn his number by stating the letters on the corner of his receipt.

EXTRA CHANCES.—Any Member having paid his subscription for the current year, and wishing to have one or more extra chances in the next distribution of prizes—but without another print—may have one such extra chance for every half-guinea subscribed for that purpose, for which a separate printed Receipt will be given.

WORKS OF ART IF LIEU OF PRINTS.—A bust, statuette, or other work, may be had instead of the print, by additional payment. Payments in different years may be combined with a view to obtain one of these works; provided always, that at the time of the first and every subsequent payment it be expressly stated at the office that such payment is made for that purpose.

PAYMENT IN ADVANCE.—A subscription for ten years in advance, entitles to a porcelain bust, or a tazza in iron, or one of the medals executed for the Society in Silver; in addition to the annual advantages attached to the Subscription.

TEN GUINEA PRIZE.—Any Member who has subscribed Ten Guineas in successive years, ending with the current year, without gaining a prize of any kind in that period, shall be entitled to one of the porcelain busts as a special prize. An accidental omission of payment for one or more years may be made up at any time by adding to the current year's Subscription.

Members have the option of taking, instead of the print of the year, any of the following, viz.:—

THE SURRENDER OF CALAIS;
OR
OR A LABOUR OF LOVE,

With any one of the following EXTRA WORKS, viz.:
Woodcuts from Milton's L'Allegro;*
" " Byron's Childe Harold;*
Illustrations in outline from Pilgrim's Progress;
Illustrations in outline from Events in English History;
Illustrations in outline or The Seven Ages of Man;
A ruled bas-relief of The Entry into Jerusalem;
Or a ruled bas-relief of Christ led to Crucifixion;

Or two of the following prints, or one with one EXTRA WORK, viz.: The Villa of Lucullus; The Burial of Harold; The Clemency of Cœur-de-Lion; The Piper; or, Come Along; &c., &c., &c.

* Or one volume of woodcuts and one set illustrations in outline.

Subscriptions to the LONDON ART-UNION will be received, by the undersigned, Honorary Secretaries for Quebec. As the list will be closed on the 1st of March, all parties who wish to subscribe will please send in their subscriptions before that date.

BRISTOL'S

(Vegetable)
SUGAR-COATED
PILLS.

PURELY VEGETABLE.

THE need of a safe and perfectly reliable purgative medicine has long been felt by the public; and it is a source of great satisfaction to us that we can, with confidence, recommend our BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS as combining all the essentials of a safe, thorough, and agreeable Family Cathartic. They are prepared from the very finest quality of medicinal roots, herbs, and plants; the active principles or parts that contain the medicinal value being chemically separated from the inert and useless fibrous portions that contain no virtue whatever. Among those medicinal agents we may name PODOPHYLLIN, which has been proved to possess a most wonderful power over the LIVER, and all the bilious secretions. This, in combination with LEPTANDRIN, and other highly valuable vegetable extracts and drugs, constitutes a purgative Pill that is greatly superior to any medicine of the kind heretofore offered to the public. Bristol's Vegetable Sugar-Coated Pills will be found a safe and speedy remedy in all such cases as Piles, Headache, Jaundice, Bad Breath, Foul Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Habitual Costiveness, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Heartburn or Flatulency, Dropsy of Limbs or Body, Female Irregularities, and all other diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys.

In diseases which have their origin in the blood, Bristol's Sarsaparilla, that best of blood purifiers, should be used with the Pills; the two medicines being prepared expressly to act in harmony together. When this is done faithfully, we have no hesitation in saying that great relief, and in most cases a cure, can be guaranteed when the patient is not already beyond human help.

For general directions and table of doses, see the wrapper around each phial.

For sale in the Establishments of Messrs. W. E. Brunet, druggist, J. E. Burke, druggist; Ed. Giroux, druggist; J. B. Martel, druggist; and John Musson & Co., druggists. Also, by all respectable Druggists.

The New French Remedy.

By Royal Letters Patent, under the special sanction of Her Majesty's Government and the Chiefs of the Faculté de France.

THERAPION:—or CURE OF CURES.

This successful and highly popular medicament, as employed in the continental hospitals by Restan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. Devoid of all taste, odour and appearance of medicine, it can be left or carried anywhere, and taken from time to time without exciting suspicion. Each package contains full instructions for every case.

THERAPION, No. 1, in three days only—removes gonorrhœa, gleet, and all discharges; effectually superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief, where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION, No. 2, for syphilis, disease of the bones, sore throat, threatened destruction of the nose and palate; impurity of blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth; and ruin of health. Under this medicine every vestige of disease rapidly dissappears; and the skin assumes the pleasing softness of infancy.

THERAPION, No. 3, for relaxation, spermatorrhœa, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated. To those who are prevented entering the marriage state by the consequences of early error, it will render essential aid by subduing all disqualifications, and restoring the lost tone to the system. Therapion may be procured at 11s., and 33s. per package, through all medicine vendors, or in £5 packages for foreign shipment, direct from London only, by which £1 12s. are saved: and £10 packages for the more inveterate cases, by which a still greater saving is effected. In ordering the above, the purchaser should state which of the three numbers he requires.

Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners have graciously permitted the government stamp bearing the word "Therapion" in white letters, to be attached to each package; thus insuring the public against fraudulent imitations, and securing to the proprietor the sole right of supply throughout her dominions; and any infringement of which they will prosecute with the utmost severity.

AGENTS FOR ENGLAND,—Thomas & Co., 7, Upper St. Martin's-lane; Barclay & Co., Farringdon-street; Edwards & Co. and Newbery & Sons, St. Paul's church-yard; and obtainable through all medicine vendors in the known world, or in case of difficulty, by enclosing a draft or order for £5 or £10, according to the nature of the case, payable in London to Messrs. Thomas & Co., as above, a large package will be sent by return mail, carefully secured from observation or accident.

THE CAUSE AND CURE OF PREMATURE DECLINE,

Sold by all the Agents for Dr. De Roos' Medicine, or sent post free, secure from observation, direct from the Author, for 2s. 6d.

THE MEDICAL ADVISER, on the modern treatment of mental and physical incapacity, syphilis, stricture, &c.; with unfailing rules and prescriptions for the speedy cure, by very simple means, of all the more common diseases and supposed incurable maladies of the sexual system. By Dr. W. DE ROOS, M.D., &c., of the Ecole de Médecine, Paris.

REVIEWS AND NOTICES.

"The MEDICAL ADVISER, by WALTER DE ROOS, M.D., for the class of diseases upon which it treats, is undoubtedly the best and most soundly practical book which has come under our notice. The author is a man of most enlarged experience."—North of England Telegraph, June 29th, 1861.

"To those who contemplate marriage, its perusal is especially recommended."—Bap. Mag. "The knowledge it imparts must come some time, and happy they who do not possess it too late"—Politician. "Cure is certain in every curable case, and few indeed are they which are not so."—Med. Review. "It is calculated to effect a complete revolution in the treatment of these complaints."—Med. Gaz. "Simple and inexpensive, every sufferer may cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible cost."—Scalpel.

From long practical observation of the treatment pursued in the most famous institutions of this country and the continent, for those diseases referred to in the above work, the Proprietor has had somewhat unusual facilities for acquiring that uniform success which has hitherto characterized his practice, in which the distressing consequences resulting from the injurious employment of mercury, capivi, sarsaparilla, and similar dangerous medicines, are entirely obviated. Lasting benefit in these cases can only be reasonably expected at the hands of those who devote their chief attention to such diseases; and to such only can confidence be safely extended. Dr. De R. refers with pride to the numbers he has been instrumental in restoring to health and happiness; whilst to all who need such aid he offers every assurance of speedy restoration.

FOREIGN RESIDENTS can be successfully treated by correspondence, on sending the detail of their case; with a Bank note or Bill on a London house for £5 or £10, in order that a package of medicines to meet the exigencies of the case, may be sent out by next mail, thus avoiding the protracted suffering and unnecessary loss of valuable time, which must otherwise occur.

DR. DE ROOS' GUTTÆ VITÆ or LIFE DROPS; protected by Royal Letters Patent of England; Seals of the Faculté de France; Royal College of Prussia, &c.; have in numberless instances proved their superiority over every other advertised remedy for Spermatorrhœa; langour; lassitude; depression of spirits; irritability; anger; excitement, needless fear; distaste and incapacity for society, study or business; indigestion, pains in the side, palpitation of the heart; giddiness, noise in the head; impotency, impediments to marriage, &c. This medicine strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles and nerves, thus speedily removes nervous complaints, renovates the impaired powers of life, and invigorates the most shattered constitution. For skin eruptions, sore throat, pains in the bones, and all those diseases in which mercury, sarsaparilla, &c. are too often employed in vain, to the serious detriment of health, its surprising efficacy has only to be tested to be appreciated.

As these complaints if neglected become "chronic" or incurable, sufferers will do well before they waste valuable time in seeking aid from instruments, and other absurdities professing to supersede medicines; to make fair trial of a remedy, which, concocted on unerring scientific principles, cannot fail; and may be carried about the person, or left upon the toilet table, without exciting a suspicion of its nature. Price 11s., and four times the quantity at 33s. per bottle. The £5 packages, containing twelve 11s. quantities, by which a saving of £1 12s. is effected, will be sent from 25 Bedford Place, only, on receipt of the amount per draft on a Londoo house or otherwise.

PAINS IN THE BACK, GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DISEASE of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c. DR. DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS are a most safe and speedy remedy for the above dangerous complaints, Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally, which too frequently harass the sufferer over the best years of life, and end only in an agonizing death. They agree with the most delicate stomach, and in three days effect a cure when capivi, cubebs, &c., have utterly failed. 2s. 9d., 4s. 6., 11s. and 33s. per box. The superiority of these celebrated medicines over everything of the kind is universally acknowledged, and the extraordinary demand for them without precedent.

Many there are, who from natural diffidence or fear of discovery, would silently bear their afflictions rather than apply for aid to those from whom they may reasonably expect relief. With the above remedies the sufferer may, without the knowledge of a second person, cure himself speedily, privately, and at the least possible expense.

Sold wholesale by Barclay & Son, 95, Farringdon-street, London; Agent for Quebec, John Musson & Co., of whom also may be had "THE MEDICAL ADVISER," or should difficulty arise in procuring any of the above, enclose the amount by draft or otherwise, to 25, Bedford Place, Bloomsbury Square, London, W.C., and they will be sent securely packed per return.

CAUTION.—Sufferers should guard against the recommendation of useless imitations by dishonest vendors, who thereby obtain a larger profit. The genuine have the words "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," printed in white letters on the Government Stamp, by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, to imitate which is felony.

THE MOST WONDERFUL PILLS IN THE WORLD,

ARE DR. DE ROOS' PILULÆ VITÆ OR LIFE PILLS. All sufferers from general nervousness, debility, low spirits, sleeplessness, harrassing dreams, unnecessary fears, mental irritability, failure of the mental and bodily powers, weakness of the nerves, noises in the head, giddiness, indigestion, rheumatism, pains in the back, and other symptoms of chronic disease, will hail with joy the discovery of Dr. De Roos' Life Pills, that speedily and almost magically remove pain and disease of whatsoever nature, restore cheerfulness of spirit and vigour to the mind, and strengthen all the organs on which health and life depend. They do not contain a particle of mercury, but are purely vegetable. They act mildly on the bowels, without pain or griping, impart strength to the stomach, promote a healthy action of the liver, thus preventing, or when present curing the jaundice and dropsy, clearing the skin, removing sallowness and pimples, purifying the blood, and marvellously invigorating the whole system. Females of all ages will find them invaluable, and should never be without them. For elderly people or when an occasional aperient is required, nothing can be better adapted. Owing to the great and increasing demand for these pills, and in order to protect the public from fraudulent imitations, Her Majesty's Commissioners have graciously permitted the proprietor to have his name, "WALTER DE ROOS, LONDON," impressed upon the government stamp affixed to each box. Sold by all medicine vendors in the world, price: 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d, 11s. and 33s. per box.

"As a Family Pill they are invaluable."—Dundee Times. "Persons of full habit should never be without them."—Surrey Telegraph. "For Females they are almost a necessity."—Ladies' Journal. "To Mothers—for children of all ages they are the simplest and best medicine that can be given."—Vide Dr. Smith's Report.

REMARKABLE TESTIMONY!

Messrs. PICAULT & SON, Chemists and Druggists, No. 42 Notre-Dame Street, Montreal, have received the following testimony:

MONTREAL, C. E., July 31, 1868.

Messrs. Doctors Picault & Son,

Sirs,—This is to certify that for five years I was troubled with general debility, unable to perform any household duties, and suffering violently from palpitation of the heart. I was constantly under the influence of a chilly fever, and experiencing awful pain in my whole body. I tried every thing—sought medical advice—but all to no avail. Twelve months ago I was induced to try BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, and before I had taken two bottles, experienced a decided improvement; but my means not allowing me to continue its use, I was becoming worse again, when you kindly gave me a few bottles. It was the needed remedy, and its effect on my system was wonderful. I am now another woman; I feel well, eat well, and sleep well, and do all my work without the least fatigue. I cannot too strongly recommend this invaluable medicine to the suffering, and I have not the least doubt they will derive from it the same benefit as I have.

IT IS ASTONISHING!

Still another grateful letter sent to Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON, Druggists, next the Court-house, Montreal:—

Dear Sirs,—For years I have suffered severely from liver complaint, constant pain in the side, no appetite, intense drowsiness, and a sense of suffocation, compelling me at times to remain in bed for three or four days. For two years I was constantly taking medicine, under the advice of two of our best city physicians, without getting any relief. By their orders I spent the whole of last summer in the country, but without benefit. Last March I was advised by a friend, who knew its virtues, to try Bristol's Sarsaparilla, but I had lost confidence in every thing, and was fearful of getting worse. At last I did try it; its effect was most beneficial: my appetite returned; the heavy drowsiness left me; and my digestion became vigorous and healthy. I used in all twelve bottles, and am now as strong and well as any man could desire.

You are at liberty to make my case known to the public.

Yours, very truly,
J. H. KENNEDY,
Grocer and Dealer in Wines and Spirits,
No. 160 St. Mary Street, Montreal.

BE IT KNOWN

What is said by one who has tried
BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA.

Messrs. DEVINS & BOLTON,
Druggists, Montreal:

GENTLEMEN,—It is with the most grateful feelings that I give you the particulars of the cure effected upon me by the use of the Bristol's Sarsaparilla bought from you. A severe and painful rheumatism had troubled me for years, rendering my right arm almost useless, and, extending across my chest and down my back, made me unable to walk, and comparatively helpless, besides much pain in the side, from what my family doctor called liver disease. Mr. KENNEDY, my neighbor, on whom the Bristol's Sarsaparilla produced almost a miraculous cure, advised me to try a bottle or two. I did so, taking, at the same time, as directed by you, a couple of Bristol's Sugar-Coated Pills occasionally.

I am now entirely recovered, free from pain of every kind, and feel as if I had taken a new lease of life. I can with confidence recommend the Sarsaparilla and the Pills to any one suffering with the same troubles.

Dry Goods Store, St. Mary's St., Montreal.

READ THIS!

Still another of our well-known and highly respectable neighbors has come forward, under a sense of duty, and made the following statement:—

ST. CONSTANT, DIST. OF LAPRAIRIE,
May 25th, 1868.

Messrs. Devins & Bolton, Druggists, next the Court-house, Montreal:

Dear Sirs,—When I began using BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, I had been for nine months suffering with rheumatism, and had completely lost the use of my legs, being unable to walk during four months out of the nine. The first bottle of BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA gave me great relief, and before I had finished seven bottles I was entirely free from pain, and able to walk as well as I ever could. You will confer a favor on many by making these facts public, which I shall be glad to confirm.

Very respectfully, yours,
THOMAS QUELLIAN.
