

Rotary Carnival opens Tuesday

The annual carnival of the Rotary Club of Westmount opens Tuesday to the gay sounds of Dixieland music. Free entertainment from 7.00-7.25 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights in the form of Red Cross Safety Demonstration and Unity Boys' Club Judo Exhibition will be provided for the early birds.

Bright lights, fresh paint and colorful displays of prizes galore will welcome the thousands of patrons who gather to support this local service club in its one major appeal for funds. Club members and their friends will shed the responsibilities of business and don the cheerful character of the carnival worker.

The weeks of planning and preparation culminate in five hectic nights in which every Rotarian is expected to apply his time and talent to make the carnival a success. Underneath the surface frivolity there lies a serious vein, however, for the entire community service of the Club depends upon the money raised in this one annual appeal.

Public support is high

It is the support given by the public by their attendance at the carnival which is the most remarkable feature of this carnival. Year after year, residents of Westmount and the surrounding districts have come to the carnival to donate a few dollars and to have an enjoyable evening doing it. Writing a cheque would not be nearly as much fun, and the children love the thrill of the carnival atmosphere. This year Kiddie Rides will be an added feature directed at providing entertainment for the whole family.

The carnival is open daily from 7.30 p.m. to 11 p.m. June 16 to 20.

Over 30 booths

This year there will be over 30 booths and other attractions featuring games of chance and skill, bingo, and novelty booths. A 1964 automobile will be drawn for. Tickets are available from Rotarians or at the Carnival. Other prizes, purchased new by the club, include lamps, dolls, hampers, blankets and many more items. It is expected that over 12,500 prizes will be given away.

The carnival was started by Westmount Rotary in 1939 and has since become an annual institution in Westmount.

As the opening nears, over 500 men and women are spending evenings or what ever time they can take off for last minute preparations.

Members of the carnival executive committee this year are: E. E. Mills, club president, L. J. Stuart, W. F. Close, J. P. Burrows, R. R. Gosling, R. MacKay and J. W. Glen.

Fined $75 for part in fatal accident

An Ontario ambulance driver was fined $75 and costs in Westmount Court Wednesday for his part in an accident at Grosvenor and Sherbrooke which resulted in the death of one man and injury to five others.

Jean Legieux, 35, of 154 Richer street, Hawkesbury, was found guilty of driving "without due care and attention." The court will recommend that his licence be suspended for two months.

Legieux was en route from Hawkesbury to Notre Dame Hospital, March 31, when his ambulance collided with a north bound car at the intersection of Sherbrooke and Grosvenor. Malcolm Lemieux, 50, driver of the car was killed in the crash while his wife, the only passenger, escaped with minor injuries.

Also injured were the four passengers in the ambulance, Marie Portelance, Pierre Berthiaume, Mrs. L. Legauth, all of Hawkesbury, and Jean Marie Vacon of Dalkeith, Ontario.

BOMB SCARE

Reports of a "suspicious-looking" package against the wall of the RCMP Headquarters on St. Catherine street brought firemen quickly to the scene Wednesday afternoon. The building had previously been the scene of a bombing attack. All precautions were taken but the package turned out to be nothing more than a box of scrap metal.

Kings School, 78 year-old landmark, is demolished

The former Kings School, a 78-year old Western avenue landmark was slowly pushed almost to the ground this week to clear the site for a new apartment building. "It looks as though an army of belligerent youngsters suddenly turned on their teachers in massed battle," remarked one resident.

The New Rochelle Development Corporation purchased the land and school building in late Fall for $418,931.25. Construction plans have not yet been decided but a spokesman has revealed that the company may appeal to Westmount Council to re-zone the property for a twelve-storey apartment building. Six is the present limit.

Kings was built in 1896 at a cost of $25,000 but was then called Glen School. First principal was J. Harland. Increased density of population in the lower section of the city necessitated enlargements in 1896, 1921 and again in 1928 at a total cost of over $120,000.

Both Kings and Queens School were abandoned last Spring to be replaced with the renovated Westmount Park School on Academy Road.

The striking club house at Candiac Golf and Country Club. First phase already completed — second phase underway and scheduled for completion by mid-June.

PLAY 18 SCENIC HOLES OF GOLF IN 3½ HOURS — ANY DAY OF THE WEEK — AND THEN BE HOME (OR BACK AT WORK) INSIDE 30 MINUTES!

Read this unusual membership proposal now offered at picturesque Candiac Golf Club

Perhaps you are stymied by long waiting lists at the older clubs? Perhaps you are looking for a second club, close to home or handy to the office (or both). You may be one of those who, regardless of his income or love for the game, object strenuously to the exaggerated initiation fees and discouragingly high annual dues synonymous with many private clubs these days. If so, you will find that Candiac Golf Club offers precisely the sporting, convivial membership opportunities you've been looking for... at moderate cost, and membership will be restricted.

You'd never realize a course in Candiac would look like this!

The Candiac Club is a scant 25 minutes from Dominion Square (only 19 minutes upon completion of the new Route 3 highway project this summer).

Everyone knows Candiac has an Industrial Park because it has attracted many prestige clients. But few people know that over the ridge on the South side of Route 9, in beautiful, verdant rolling country — is the Golf Course — adjacent to the high cost housing areas.

Driving distances from Candiac Golf Club

	Miles	Minutes
Dominion Square	10	25*
St. Lambert	6	11
Westmount	16	26
Lasalle	13	19
Lachine	17	24
Pointe Claire	27	35
Dorval	21	28

* Deduct 6 minutes upon completion of new Route 3 improvements, scheduled for completion this year.

A Championship Test of Golf in Picture Book Setting

The par is 72. The course measures a scenic 6,930 yards — 4 par 5's, 4 par 3's, 10 par 4's. During the height of last season's play (with only 9 holes open) a group of course experts from the surrounding district visited our club. Their consensus about Candiac's greens — "among the five best in the province." This year, all 18 holes are in play. While our opulent landscape is a tonic for city-made tensions, don't expect to better your handicap the first time out. This course is a challenge. There are six natural lakes, dozens of testy sand traps and some aggravating rough waiting for the errant shot-maker. But, hit a good ball and our resilient fairway turf pops your ball firm; and high for a clean approach to an honest green that will hold a well-hit shot.

Buried Watering System System Already Installed

During those searing, hot August weeks when the only green you'll find at many other courses is from sheer envy; Candiac remains naturally green all over. The complete underground watering system was installed at the start. (Member's fees will not be burdened with additional assessments to provide a much needed watering system — it's already there.)

John Macpherson: Club Pro, Friend and Teacher

Here is one of those rare combinations in a golf professional — ability to improve your game at the practice tee plus affability to make you feel that he is at your service from the moment you meet. A class A-1 member of the Canadian Professional Golf Association, John Macpherson is already well known in Montreal golfing circles, having resided at the St. John's Golf and Country Club for 13 years. We're extremely proud — and you'll be pleased — to have a professional of John Macpherson's stature at Candiac.

$85,000 Club House Extension Underway

A truly pleasant club atmosphere is materializing. Full lounge provisions for the 19th hole. Good dining facilities, good food, good service. Spacious locker facilities, showers with plenty of hot water that stays uniformly hot throughout your shower. The new club house has been designed to provide for further extensions as the club's membership expands and more facilities are needed.

Ultimately: a completely private, member-owned golf and country club

Candiac Golf Club was built as a community improvement for the growing residential districts of Candiac. (For this reason, the course was developed to exacting standards rather than to the lesser, easy-to-build-and-maintain standards of most golfing ventures.) It is the intention of Candiac Development Corporation, the club's owners, to turn the entire property over to a private membership as soon as enough interested and compatible members are available to continue its operation in true country club fashion. In the meantime, it is the desire of the club's owners to acquaint as many upcoming business and professional people with the striking residential attributes of Candiac, which combine to make this such an exceptional membership offer.

No initiation fees, moderate annual membership dues

The following membership classifications have been established, and, upon approval by the membership committee, fees are payable by the first of May:

Full Senior Member	$150
5-Day Week Senior Member	$100
Wife of Full Senior Member	$ 50
Wife of Week-day-Only Member	$ 35

Visit the Candiac Club now — arrange to play 18 holes

We'd like you to visit and play a round of golf. Drop by the club house anytime you want — week-day or weekend — have a chat with our host, pro John Macpherson, and arrange your game. Or, if you'd like to call in advance, phone 659-5435.

10 local doctors aid 'disaster casualties'

Ten Westmount doctors are taking part in a special simulated emergency drill today at the Queen Mary Veterans Hospital. It is designed to test the emergency plan developed by hospital authorities for the reception of a large number of casualties resulting from a local or regional disaster.

Exercise director is Dr. W. Mason Cooper, 11 Grove Park. Other local doctors participating are: Dr. Harry Morton, Surgeon-in-Chief at the Queen Mary Veterans Hospital, Dr. Gerald Halpenny, Chief of Medicine at the hospital, Dr. J. G. Shannon, Chief of Orthopedic Surgery, Dr. Gordon Copping, Dr. F. Munro Bourne, Chairman of the Planning Committee, Dr. A. Aronoff, Dr. C. A. Pick, Dr. D. H. Stackey, Dr. R. E. Place.

The exercise is called "Sang-Froid" and is built around a hypothetical explosion which would have occurred at one of Montreal's large industrial plants, where more than 600 persons would have been severely injured.

To add realism to the exercise, expert casualty simulators will dress up the "casualties" and brief them to act in accordance with their injuries.

The casualties will be of the type caused by heat, blast and debris. Injuries shall simulate head, chest, and abdominal wounds, skeleton fractures and burns of various degrees.

Seventy-five will be stretcher cases.

Some 100 casualties will be sent to the Queen Mary Veterans Hospital between 12.30 p.m. and 3.30 p.m. June 12.

New library hours

The Atwater Library, 1200 Atwater avenue, in Westmount will close at 1 p.m. during the month of June. Special summer hours do not go into effect until July.

The entire staff will take part. It is sponsored by the Hospital Medical Superintendent, Dr. M. Thibault. The Army will transport casualties and supply same.

Two 1960 Westmount High graduates have won Woodrow Wilson Scholarships at Princeton University in the 1964 competition. They are Howard J. Golden, 4067 Vendome avenue, and Janice Marion Gross, 790 Lexington avenue, Westmount.

Both received high marks in the High School Leaving Examinations written four years ago at Westmount High: 886 for Mr. Golden and 851 for Miss Gross.

A total of 27 scholarships went to Canadians. These newly-elected Fellows were among 1,500 chosen out of the more than eleven thousand college seniors who had been nominated by their professors. The final awards were made after careful screening by fifteen regional selection committees.

"We have noted that candidates' secondary school training often plays a decisive part in their success in winning awards," said Foundation President Hugh Taylor.

Young Libs re-elect R. L. M. Lord

Richard L. M. Lord, Eng., was re-elected President of the Young Liberal Association of Westmount — St. George at the annual meeting at the "Club de la Réforme".

In addition to being President of the association last year, Mr. Lord was the President of the ethnic group commission of the Young Liberals of Quebec.

Mr. Lord, a Professional Engineer, is presently affiliated with the City of Montreal, Engineering Department.

Other members of the executive are Vice-Presidents: Guy Wilson, Christopher Keating, Patricia Kendall; Secretaries: Elizabeth Duquet, André Bougie; Treasurers: André Oimet, and Peter Davidson.

We Say

It all must be paid

It is almost impossible to pick up a newspaper these days, or listen to a newscast, without realizing that still another municipal official (of the suburbs) is taking a dim view of the future of the Montreal area — and several are openly charging that the metropolis is on the verge of bankruptcy.

When this hue and cry was first raised — in somewhat general terms — there were those who saw in the statements a first-line defence against annexation, and a counter-attack to the one started by Montreal's Mayor Jean Drapeau and his side-kick executive committee chairman Lucien Saulnier, with their battlecry of 'A united city'.

Now, however, the fray has become somewhat more bitter. St. Laurent's Mayor Marcel Laurin and Villeneuve's chief magistrate Crepeault have been naming names and quoting figures.

Mayor Laurin, as a matter of fact, took the cover from a particularly touchy mess of tripe, when he told an audience in his municipality a week or so ago that today — five years after — Montreal still hasn't been able to come up with any of the required cash for the Transportation Commission, which they took over so glibly at the time.

One thing we should all remember — if Montreal does go down the road to the financial cleaners again, as it did a quarter of a century ago, we will feel the effects strongly in Westmount.

H. as Mayor Laurin charges, the combined cost of the World's Fair, the Subway, the Place des Arts and other major projects hikes the taxes in the metropolis still further, then this too will have a reaction in West-

Do it now, but how?

Sir, One sizable advertising expense of the federal government is the campaign importuning the householders of Canada to "do it now." This is with the idea that they will have the house painted, the repairs and everything in apple-pie order ahead of dire necessity.

The people who should be importuned to do it now are the tradespeople. One citizen in this community who was impressed by the advertising has been trying without success to get a house painter since midwinter. He wanted an estimate of the cost and he wanted a promise that the work would begin as soon as the weather permitted.

Nearly every housewife has a record of staying at home of a morning or an afternoon waiting for the plumber, the carpenter or the painter to turn up. This experience is universal.

It proves that in at least one phase of government activity the cost of advertising could be diverted.

mount, and not a favorable one, you can be sure. There really isn't much wrong with pay-as-you-go, in the municipal field, or in any other.

There may well be times right now, when Montreal's borrowers wake up in a cold sweat of a night, and wish they had embarked on pay-as-you-go rather than load-it-on-the-generations-to-come.

It all has to be paid sooner or later — and later means a lot more, with interest rates what they are in this modern age.

Experience in the United States has shown that "priming the pump" as President Roosevelt is doing has not succeeded in arresting the decline in business there nor is affording employment to men and women, R.S. White, MP for St. Antoine-Westmount said this week.

Addressing a combined meeting of the St. Antoine-Westmount Men's Conservative Association, the veteran member of the Commons declared that one of the dangers in which the country stands is the excessive debt, the constant increase in that debt and the resultant rise in taxation.

Your MP reports from Ottawa

OTTAWA — Unity in diversity, as symbolized by three red maple leaves, is the message that will be displayed to the world by Canada within a very short time. In line with the promise we made before the last general election, the government has taken the necessary steps to provide Canada with its own distinctive flag.

The resolution brought into the House by the government reads as follows:

Exclusive to The Examiner

"That the Government be authorized to take such steps as may be necessary to establish officially as the flag of Canada a flag embodying the emblem proclaimed by His Majesty King George V on November 21, 1921 — three maple leaves conjoined on one stem — in the colors red and white then designated for Canada, the red leaves occupying a field of white between vertical sections of blue on the edges of the flag and also to provide that the Royal Union Flag, generally known as the Union Jack, may continue to be flown as a symbol of Canadian membership in the Commonwealth of Nations and of our allegiance to the Crown."

At the same time, the government also introduced a second resolution which reads as follows:

"That the Government be authorized to take such steps as may be necessary to provide that "O Canada" shall be the National Anthem of Canada and that "God Save the Queen" shall be recognized as the Royal Anthem in Canada."

The resolutions are as clear as crystal can be. The government wants to give Canada one national flag and one national anthem. It also wants to preserve Canada's right to use, in proper circumstances, the flag and the anthem which link us directly with the Queen of Canada and with the Commonwealth, a right we have enjoyed for generations.

I felt it was important to include in this column the exact wording of the two resolutions because some people — who are obviously upset by the government's determination to keep an election promise — are now trying to cloud the issue by talking about two national flags and two national anthems.

Many people have asked: "Why three maple leaves instead of just one?" The reason is simple: the three maple leaves, as an emblem, have been ours legally for at least 96 years. They appeared on the royal warrants granted by Queen Victoria in 1868 to Upper Canada (Ontario) and Lower Canada (Quebec). Then, of course, they also appeared on the coat of arms given to Canada in 1921.

The addition of two blue bars at the edges of the flag is quite ingenious because it also helps us to herald to the world the motto of our nation: "From Sea to Sea." As one of our colleagues puts it, "it's a pretty good motto for us to remember and to fly."

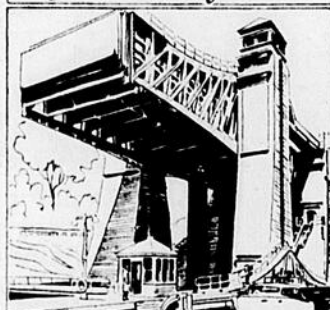

The question of a flag is something that has disturbed Canadians for many, many years. I think everybody wanted this matter settled and I think that we will all be happier when it is settled once and for all.

ROVING REPORTER

By Oliver Towne

Pot-holes marking the City of Montreal approaches to Westmount from almost any angle serve to highlight the smooth roads of this municipality — the only trouble is that far too few motorists know the exact borders of Westmount, and as a result the local corporation is the target of imprecations certainly undeserved.

How many of the motorists* travelling Western avenue and slowing down as they see Kings School being demolished were at one-time pupils of that ancient and honorable institution of learning? More than a few, we would say, judging by the interest that is being shown.

Westmount Rotarians are all keyed up for the annual Carnival and this year are offering an even-better all-round show, according to reports from various Carnival committee heads made Wednesday noon at the regular weekly Rotary luncheon at Victoria Hall.

Carl Goldenberg, spending most of his working week these months in Toronto where he is trying to untangle and retwine Toronto Metro, was the subject of an extensive column in The Telegram of The Queen City, suggesting that he dig round the inner working of the municipalities involved while the mayors were in Regina at the annual convention of the Canadian Association of Mayors and Municipalities. Wonder if he did?

If memory serves correctly, and we believe it does, the last time that the mayors of Canada met in Regina for their annual conclave a strike of hotel employees hit the town and the mayors were teed-up to make their own beds, help with the cooking, drive the elevators etc. All this they did, and like the good sports most of them were, said it was one of the most illuminating conventions they had ever attended.

Contrary to a report published this week in a daily newspaper, Westmount will not present a brief next week to the Blier Commission set up to study inter-municipal problems on the island. This City presented its brief on May 15, deadline for all municipalities. While the Municipal Association brief was discussed in open sittings, no details of the city's presentation were revealed.

Westmount Park H&S nominates D. Sherry

The Westmount Park Home and School Association has nominated D. K. Sherry for president in the 1964-65 season. Other executive committee members on the slate are W. P. Gall, honorary president; E. Morder, vice-president; Mrs. K. G. W. Smith, secretary; Mrs. S. Cukierman; treasurer.

Reporting to parents this week, current president K. G. W. Smith reviewed the association's activities during the year. First came a "meet the teachers night," followed in December by a panel discussion on "Your Child's Health and Education." Chairman was Dr. J. R. D. Bayne.

The third meeting in January was formed around two plays, which were ably enacted by the pupils of Grade Six. These were entitled "The Discontented Fir Tree" and "They Went to Canada."

The final activity was the "Costume Carnival" held at the ice rink in March, enjoyed by all participants — young and old.

Mr. Smith noted that the association completed its first year with no debts and a small balance to carry over.

"I cannot close this brief report to you without singling out the contributions of time and talent provided by such staunch supporters as Mrs. De Jong, as Chairman of the Library Committee, Mrs. Bayne with the Art Classes, and Mrs. Millman and Mr. Harbottle with the Pupil Insurance," he said. "A special vote of thanks must also be directed to Mrs. Spalding Black for her valuable support and guidance to the drama pupils."

Boulevard resident seeks to prepare students for voting

From an address delivered by Mrs. J. H. Dunne recently: "No doubt we are all becoming a little confused in our outlook today as Canadian Citizens, when we try to digest the speeches, editorials, press releases, commentaries, etc. expressing views on current issues by our journalists, politicians and various other prominent citizens. Some of the statements are quite bewildering and it appears as though everyone has something to say. However, most of us live our everyday lives, perform our chores, and hope the questions causing the most concern will somehow right themselves. As practical women, we ourselves know this is not possible. Now is the time, when we will just have to evaluate the most pressing problems and endeavour to find a road leading to the right solution."

The above was the opening of the address delivered by Mrs. J. H. Dunne, The Boulevard, Westmount chairman of the Committee of Civics, Montreal Branch Council of Women, to the Women's Institute. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Helena Reusing, Mrs. Victor George, Mrs. A. W. D. Swan, Miss Helen Guiton.

"Perhaps you have been wondering what all I have said up to now has to do with the title of my address "Preparation For Franchise Privileges For 18-Year Old Voters"? asked Mrs. Dunne. Let me explain:"

"Most High Schools have conducted some form of debate among pupils on this 18-year old voting privilege, and in almost every instance the point was evidenced that if an 18-year old has the intelligence to serve his Country, when needed — then he should likewise have the intelligence to vote. This is reasonable — certainly we older people cannot take any issue here. However, many public spirited individuals have voiced concern respecting preparation needed for this franchise. Some feel the School Boards should give thought to the preparation of our youth to accept this most important responsibility, with more intensive background of knowledge in public affairs, political science and the obligations as well as the privileges which go with a voting franchise.

"Here I would like to quote from a letter written recently to a Montreal daily newspaper:

"This new unpredictable factor of 18-to 20-year olds that will enter into our future elections, could play a decisive role in determining the destiny of our provinces and country, and we should see to it that our young people assume this role armed with the fullest knowledge of our past political history, and future aims and needs. What better place to learn this than as a required subject in the last year or two of High School? Although the curriculum may already be crowded, it should be considered of sufficient importance to create the time in the schedule to prepare our youth for the assumption of their role, as well as informed voters, fully aware of the trust that they will be privileged to exercise."

Mrs. Dunne, mother of two teenage daughters, has long felt that there is a definite need in our school programs to instill in pupils a respect, and awareness and apprecia-

2 WHS staff members to retire

Two well-known members of the Westmount High School staff will retire this spring.

Miss L. M. Wren, known to her friends and colleagues as "Polly," is retiring after 42 years of service with the Westmount School Board. For 25 years Miss Wren held various positions in the office of the school board under Superintendents Chalk, Kneeland, and Savage, and Secretary-Treasurer E. W. T. Raddon and F. B.

Whittet. For the past 17 years she has been senior secretary of Westmount High School under principals R. O. Bartlett and N. W. Wood.

"Polly" acquired a legion of friends, among students and teachers. Leaders of school organizations have come to know her especially well as hers was the responsibility for administering all school funds. Students and staff wish her a well deserved holiday.

Service to Westmount is not new to the Wren family, for her father, the late William Wren, served the City of Westmount for over forty years, retiring as Chief of the Fire and Police Departments in 1939. The opening of the new Decarie expressway

Mrs. Helen Savage retires from teaching after eleven years in Westmount Junior High School and Westmount High School. Specializing in History, Mrs. Savage also taught Geography and Latin.

Mrs. Savage has always had a close relationship with education, being the widow of the late George Savage, formerly vice-principal of Monklands High School, and sister-in-law of Charles H. Savage, former Superintendent of Westmount Schools. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Savage taught in Mount Royal and Maisonneuve elementary schools and in Baron Byng High School. Keenly interested in all aspects of education, Mrs. Savage served both as President of the High School Women Teachers Association and President of McGill Alumnae Society.

Fined $25. for unsafe home pool

Mrs. L. Varverikos, 28 Oakland avenue, Westmount, was convicted of maintaining a swimming pool in an unprotected condition and fined $25 in municipal court Wednesday.

Police reported that a fibreglass cover has now been installed over the back yard pool to keep neighbouring children out of danger.

A by-law which requires all pool owners to maintain a "child-proof" fence around their pools is still under study by City Hall officials but Mrs. Varverikos was convicted under a section of the criminal code which requires some form of protection around all excavations.

Police urge precautions against theft

With the annual exodus of vacationers soon to begin, Westmount Police have warned residents to take special precautions against the possibility of robbery.

Police officers recommended that anyone leaving his home for a day or more might observe the following:

- Let the police know when you are leaving and returning.
- Give a reference, someone they may contact in an emergency.
- Suspend all regular deliveries.
- Arrange for someone to cut your lawn, if you are to be away for any lengthy period.
- Do not publicize your departure.
- In general, try not to give the impression that the house is vacant. Blinds should not be drawn. A few lights, of course, may be left on if you are only going away for the evening.

This Week in Westmount

by VALENTINA RAHR

On Friday members of the Women's Liberal Association of St. Antoine-Westmount and Westmount-St. George held their annual meeting, at the Themis Club. Guest speaker was the Honorable C. M. Drury. The Honorable Richard Hyde was also invited to address the group, but sent a telegram to express his regret at not being able to attend.

"In the dialogue between Quebec and Ottawa today" stated Hon. C. M. Drury, "the outstanding factor is the debate for the division of jurisdiction between provincial government and federal government. All provinces have the privilege of sharing in the dialogue on rearrangement of jurisdiction between federal and provincial authority.

"In Quebec, where changes affecting the province are more rapid, more fundamental in social structure than any other province in Canada, — Quebec produces more ideas, and is most lively. Significant changes are taking place.

"Any change produces cries of pain from those making the effort. Some are quiet, some are helpful, some as loud as can be. Violent changes in the whole social fabric of Quebec are bringing cries of pain. This is natural and must occur. One of the few points of mention I share with Mr. Kierans is that the outeries of the small lunatic fringe in our province does not represent the philosophy of the vast population in Quebec. We welcome changes, and they are long overdue. We expect these changes to bring about useful contributions to the survivability of Canada itself."

Gerald Iles, Windsor avenue, member Animal Protection League, reports that there are about twenty cats and kittens, long and short hair variety, and one siamese, available for adoption to good homes. They are all colors, housebroken, beautiful and waiting to be taken away. Please telephone Mr. Iles at 484-8692 if you are interested in having a new pet . . .

Local MD's head Easter Island ward seeking Kokomongo fever cause

Two well-known local doctors are among 20 scientists going to Easter Island for a two months stay — during which a study will be made of diseases in the human and animal population there.

They are: Dr. Stanley Skoryna of McGill, a resident of Sherbrooke street, and Dr. R. A. Denton, 627 Belmont, haematologist at Montreal Children's Hospital.

The team will make a specific study of the Kokomongo fever, a disease of unknown etiology origin which occurs following the annual visit of the Chilean naval ships to Easter Island.

Easter Island, discovered in 1722 by a Dutch explorer by the name of Roggeveen, is in the Pacific 2,000 miles off the coast of Chili and about equidistant from Australia.

A triangularly-shaped atoll, it has an area of about 100 square miles and a population of 1,200 mainly of Polynesian extraction. It is composed of the extinct craters of 3 volcanoes and the Chilean navy maintains a sheep-ranch on the atoll that employs most of the male population and is the island's sole industry.

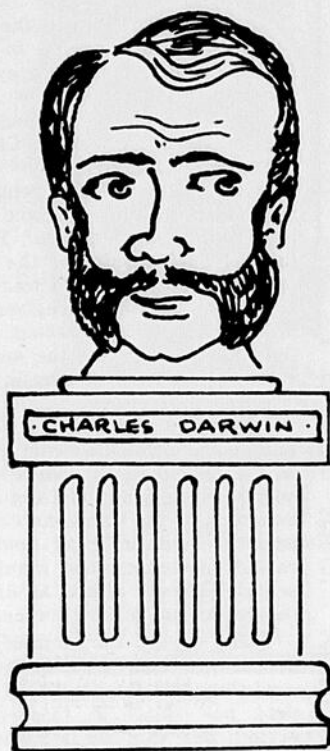

Dr. Skoryna conceived the idea of a medical mission to Easter Island in 1961 and his main interest at the time was to study the incidence of various forms of cancer on an isolated population. News that Pan-Pacific was planning an air base there expanded the idea, as it was realized that an epidemiological survey should be made prior to the extensive population changes expected through the closer contact with the rest of the world.

In addition to studying the Kokomongo fever, the scientists will make a record of indigenous bacterial and virus diseases, zoonotic diseases, parasitic diseases and blood groupings.

The expedition expects to set forth from Halifax in mid-November and take three weeks to reach the island. After a stay of two months, it is hoped to return to Canada for the final analysis of the sample collections.

"TOO MUCH TIME"

(Festivals and Competitions)
Having reviewed the Gala Concert of The Quebec Festivals in which the top winners were given a chance to perform with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra led by Dr. Wilfrid Pelletier, gives me the opportunity to express some vital statistics in print.

A week-and-a-half prior to the concert, a lady had said to me that she found that "festivals took too much time." She reasoned that her child stayed on the test pieces longer "than she thought necessary". This acquaintance also said that she disapproves of examinations because an older child (now adult) spent most of her season learning her exam pieces when she was taking music.

There are two sides to every story and in music not all cases are identical.

I can well understand why she thinks students spend "too much time". The reason being that to some parents ears, it may sound good after a short period but to an experienced teacher or the adjudicator, there are many more details to learning music than to just "play the notes".

There is phrasing — expression — the correct tempo — quality of tone — accents and the personality of the pupil that all combine to make the piece suitable for entry. Some parents are not aware that it is the Detail that help to make the number that much better so it will gain higher marks.

This all flashed through my mind as I sat in the Place des Arts and watched the happy winners (who worked hard for their honors) ascend the stage and receive their prizes (cash awards).

One notices that year after year it is the same students who enter, these are the good pupils who are willing to practise (and have the ability for music). Unfortunately, a goodly number enter once, perhaps twice, and if they do not get high marks will not attempt another try. The parents do not encourage them to continue. And if they win once and the following year have lower marks, the parent is the one whose ego has been hurt and thereby hangs the story!

The four big prize winners this year: Gaston Brisson ($1,000); Cecile Berard ($500); Eric Paci ($300); and Lorraine Prieur ($250) were all pianists. Not one string instrumentalist or vocalist or wind player performed—there were NO ADVANCED winners — only the quartet of pianists. This shows that students are NOT continuing to higher studies or stages.

12 Truck overturns, driver escapes

The Westmount Examiner, Friday, June 12, 1964

No one was injured Thursday morning when a panel truck overturned near the corner of St. Antoine street and Greene avenue.

The accident occurred when brakes failed in the vehicle driven by T. Bengoufa, 2059 Kimberly road as it neared the underpass on Greene.

The truck rolled backwards, smashed into a hydrant and overturned.

Former Alderman, Paul Ouimet leads Cancer Society to successful year

Former Westmount Alderman, Paul Ouimet, QC, Sunnyside avenue, this week announced the completion of another successful fund-raising campaign by the Canadian Cancer Society. General chairman for the drive, he said that "this marks the third consecutive year we have been able to reach our objective of $550,000 in the Province of Quebec."

Mr. Ouimet said the Society's auditors had not yet made their final report because some of the sections in the rural areas of the province did not open their campaigns until this week. And the appeal in the Gaspé peninsula would not open until July.

"But I have their assurance that our objective will be attained and I am delighted," the general chairman said.

Four factors in success

Mr. Ouimet attributed the success of the 1964 appeal to four factors. First, a growing awareness among the public at large of the invaluable work being carried on by the Canadian Cancer Society. Second, the splendid co-operation of the 10,000 volunteer canvassers in the province who helped in the campaign. Third, the splendid results of the Daffodil Day appeal which was held in 16 communities throughout the province and which netted more than $43,000 or twice the amount collected on Daffodil Day in 1963. The fourth factor, he said, was the growing public concern over the spreading of lung cancer and leukemia and the knowledge that only through a national organization such as the Canadian Cancer Society could sufficient funds be raised to finance the many research projects aimed at finding the cause and a cure for cancer.

"Each year the number of people who contribute to the annual Canadian Cancer Society appeal has shown a marked increase and this we attribute to the acceptance by the population generally of the achievements and programs of the Society," Mr. Ouimet said.

The general chairman said the $550,000 target set by the Society was the minimum at which it could operate its education, welfare and research work in the province. "But, he added, "with the gradual improvement in diagnostic services more and more cancer cases are being discovered and more and more patients are coming to us for help and guidance."

Mr. Ouimet appealed to everyone who had not already contributed to this year's appeal to send their donations to the nearest branch of the Canadian Cancer Society. "The more funds we have the more people we can serve and the more money we can place in the hands of cancer research scientists."

Westmounter revives ancient Greek dances

By VALENTINA RAHR

An attractive, vivacious lady from Greece, living at 432 Mount Stephen, has spearheaded a project to revive the historical and traditional dances of Greece in Montreal. Member of St. George's Greek Orthodox Cathedral on Cote St. Catherine, Mrs. Maria Papadiamantis has had the full encouragement and cooperation of Rev. Nicholas Salamis priest of the congregation, Mrs. Salamis who is in charge of the Sunday School, children and teenagers (including their parents) who are connected with the programme.

A former elementary school teacher in Greece, she spent eleven years in that profession before arriving in Montreal in 1951. Daughter of a teacher, who was stationed in various parts of Greece by the Department of Education, she had ample opportunity in her youth to learn the traditional dances and music of Greece. The work she carried out in Montreal with young Greek Canadians was evidenced at the recent festivities sponsored by the Montreal Citizenship Council at the Montreal Chalet, where Mrs. Papadiamantis' group appeared along with ten other ethnic groups who presented music, dances, and entertainment based on native traditions.

Respond with enthusiasm

Last January she began to teach several Greek girls and boys, all members of the Sunday School, the intricate steps and accompanying music of several Greek dances. They responded with enthusiasm to her plan, and every Sunday as soon as Mass was over, they had a light lunch and spent the afternoon practising. At the official presentation at the Montreal Chalet every girl wore a costume that was copied from an original one that belongs to Mrs. Papadiamantis. It belonged to her grandmother, is hand made, and over a hundred years old. Embroidered in gold on velvet, the jacket of deep red is an example of the superb workmanship of a bygone era. Tiny stitches by hand, are used on all inside and outside work on the pure silk blue gown with flowing sleeves.

Mothers of the girls taking part in the final program made up costumes using pastel shades of peau de soie for the ankle length gown, white nylon for the full sleeved blouses, velvet for the embroidered jackets, and velvet for the gold embroidered hats with long silk tassels.

The members of the group who appeared at the Montreal Chalet are: Connie Angelas, 432 Mount Stephen, Patsy Logothetis, WHS student, Mary Minigianis, Angela Jurris, Sandra Xenos, Angela Rethmiotakes, Pauline Pergantis, Tassie Lievakos, Spiros Bourganis and Gus Milonopoulos. Ages of dancers is 15 to 21 years.

Gus wore a beautiful original palace guard costume from Athens, Greece. On his head he wore a red velvet beret with tassel, black velvet jacket with gold embroidered and flowing sleeves, white blouse with wide flowing sleeves, the traditional ballet skirt, white tights, black garters with tassels, and pointed shoes with huge pompoms. This costumes skirt is called a "fustanella" in Greece. The Greek word for the shoes is "tsarouhi."

Energetic woman

Mrs. Salamis who is an energetic woman and interested in many things has invited Mrs. Papadiamantis to be Chairman of the Decorations Committee for the Charity Ball that will be sponsored by the Benevolent Society at the Windsor Hotel in February.

"The decor will be centred on three islands from Greece" explained Mrs. Papadiamantis. "Proceeds from the Ball will be used for needy, Greek families and charitable work. The Isle of Crete will be represented by a mural in one large room depicting the Palace of Minaus, and mythological and historical references. The Isle of Rhodes (which in Greek means roses) will be represented by live roses — providing we can carry out plans to have them brought over here by plane on time for the event. The third theme will be a marine one, with anchors, fish, nets, and other decorations. A full supper, cocktail, and Greek entertainment is being planned."

Music for the dancing group at the Chalet was based on the dances from different islands, rhythmic, graceful and gentle, as were the dances themselves, showing the strong influence left after the Turkish occupation of Greece for many generations.

Montreal is a city where a visitor may appreciate the phrase "Canadian citizen" for here he may see the basic bilingual nature of the city and many good examples of the role played by the two founding groups in creating a distinct state with a dual heritage on the North American Continent. The city's cosmopolitan nature may be evidenced also indicating the scope that has been provided for people from many lands to find freedom and opportunity in this section of the New World. Here the process of integration is best achieved in an unofficial manner where the newcomer is encouraged to meet and communicate with native born Canadians.

Registration open for Unity Summer program

All club members who plan to participate in the Unity Boys' Club 1964 Summer-time program are asked to register as soon as possible. The Summer Program will take place during July and August. There is no special registration fee for club members — the existing 1963-64 membership card will be accepted. New members may join at a nominal fee, providing they are from 6 to 16 years of age and living in the districts of St. Henry and Westmount.

A brochure outlining the program in detail will be available soon for distribution to club members. Boys' Work Supervisor Chuck Tyler and Girls' Work supervisor Victoria Schrammel will be in charge of the program. Carl Tremblay will supervise the physical activities.

The 1964 Unity Summer Program will officially get underway on June 25. Over 100 boys and girls and their leaders will spend the day at the Granby Zoo.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Summer plans will also include the Annual visit to Belmont Park. Regular weekly trips to St. Helen's Island — plans have not as yet been completed for a twice-weekly swim at the spacious City of Westmount Pool — confirmation of the request is expected momentarily.

Tours of Industrial Plants are also being planned as well as visits to places of interest in and around the Island of Montreal.

SUMMER CAMP

School vacation time is nearly here so that plans for a camping experience should be made now — the Montreal Boys'

Association, a Red Feather United Service, operates Camp Lewis and Camp Amy Molson. Information regarding camping is available at Unity or at the Head Office of the MBA. Space is now limited for both camps so prospective campers are urged to make application early.

ROTARY CARNIVAL

The Unity Boys' Club of Westmount through the more than 1,000 club members and their families will lend support to the Rotary Club of Westmount Carnival which takes place this year at the Westmount Rink on June 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20.

It was through the efforts of the Westmount Rotary Club that the Unity Boys' Club became a reality and will remain as a monument to the high ideals of Rotary.

The Carnival is an annual gala event and is "Fun for the whole family."

2 Roslyn teachers retire

Miss Margaret J. Robertson and Mrs. Vera E. Hallett, teachers at Roslyn School, will retire this Spring.

Miss Robertson taught for 20 years at Kings School but moved up the hill to Roslyn when Kings was abandoned in 1963. She is active in Home and School work. Principal Scott Kneeland paid tribute to her "quiet dignity and effective contribution to the school."

Mrs. Hallett, a native of Ontario, taught in that province for ten years. She spent five years at Herbert Symonds School in Montreal and the past five years at Roslyn. She is recognized as a most "artistic, creative teacher."

LEADER NEEDED

The tragedy of the Kennedy assassination may well become a tragedy for the whole world if his successor cannot make his influence as dominant as the late president's was. The Kennedy program may have been mistaken in many points, but on the whole it gave the best guarantee of peace available in a troubled world. — Huntington (Que.) Gleaner.

All quiet (relatively) at Fire Dept.

The Westmount Fire Department reported a "relatively quiet week" with the usual rash of minor calls.

One resident called the department thinking he had been bombed but it turned out only to be a case of "loose plaster."

Other calls included a false alarm on Kitchener avenue, two carburetors on fire, a sick child in an apartment on Sherbrooke street, and a small fire which broke out when someone tossed a cigarette butt on to the canvas roof of a truck.

Unity Director tells story of youth work

During the past fourteen years, the Boys' Club Movement in Canada has expanded with great rapidity. When Boys' Clubs of Canada, our National Organization, was incorporated in 1947, the membership of Boy Clubs in that institution comprised some thirty Boys' Clubs in seven different cities. During the past seventeen years, fifty new clubs were added to the original thirty. Thirty were modern new buildings, six located here on the Island of Montreal, so that now there are eighty clubs enrolled from forty-four different communities. Recent statistics compiled by Boys' Club of Canada, including non-affiliated organizations, show that over 60,000 young people are being serviced by Boys' Clubs in Canada.

In the United States, there are over five hundred Boys' Clubs affiliated with Boys' Clubs of America and they render service to over a half million boys. Boys' Clubs of America, the counterpart of Boys' Clubs of Canada, is currently building Boys' Clubs throughout the country at the rate of one every ten days.

A Boys' Club is a great institution. The purpose is to meet the needs of its boy and girl members — needs for activity, for companionship, for informal education, for adult guidance — the need to grow to manhood and womanhood.

In assessing the value of a Boys' Club, what sounder approach can there be than to measure it in terms to which it is capable of meeting the basic needs of its individual members.

Many psychologists agree that all human needs fall within the scope of the following areas:

(a) Physiological Needs: Those needs which have to do with the physical requirements of living.

(b) Social — Cultural Needs: The need for companionship, recognition, acceptance and relationship with others.

(c) Exploratory and Creative needs: The need for experimentation, inventiveness, and self-expression.

(d) Emotional—Maturity needs: The achievement of a satisfying and acceptable way of life.

The task to fulfill these needs and to accomplish our purpose is continuous and presents many problems. However, during the process, it also presents occasions of particular satisfaction. It is the satisfaction to the thinking people of our community that such a step has been made in support of one of Canada's greatest character building institutions. It is the satisfaction in a great accomplishment to the people who have brought it about and it is an hourly satisfaction to the thousands of boys and girls who are enjoying its service.

QUICK RESULTS

You don't have to wait for results in a Boys' Club. The results are immediate. When you see hundreds of boys and girls going into the Club every day, you know that something good is happening to them and their community. When you go inside and see the constructive things they do, you will need no studies or surveys to convince you of the values and services provided.

Boys' Clubs do not exist solely for the benefit of the under privileged, although usually they are located in areas where there is a lack of recreational and cultural facilities for youth. All members are on equal footing, whether they come from tenements or from homes on the hill. They get the same opportunities and more important, learn to know and respect each other's religious and national backgrounds. All have the same privilege of the advice and assistance of far sighted trained workers to help solve their personal problems, or overcome the feeling of frustration which is so often the basic cause of delinquency.

Although policy and program of various Boys' Clubs may differ, the "open-door" policy, which is so characteristic of all Boys' Clubs both here in Canada and in the United States, has never changed and never will change, because the "open-door" policy is the trademark of a Boys' Club. Any boy or girl, regardless of race, creed or color is made welcome. That is the first step. From there on, it is the responsibility of the Club leader to guide the youngster and advise and assist him to become a good citizen.

CHARACTER

We are primarily concerned with building character. In this case it takes the form of creating an environment which reduces delinquency, builds our members up morally and physically, and gives them an opportunity to find a suitable niche in life, and above all, a full measure of constructive joy.

One of the difficult tasks of the recreation profession is to shift the basis of fiscal thinking, both our own and that of the general public, from dollars to human values. If we are in business in order to bring about favorable changes in the lives of people, then our sights should be set on the ends to be achieved — the values derived from our services — rather than on the means to those ends as represented by dollars in the budget. Please don't misinterpret my statement. The budget itself is a necessary tool of good administration, but nothing more than a tool.

Virtually everyone engages in some recreation with reasonable regularity. The only person who doesn't is a hermit who is continually doing only what he chooses to do. Most people can do only some of the things they want to do for their recreation, and therein lies both the obligation and the opportunity of the recreation leader. It is his job to make it possible for people to enjoy the activities they desire. If this premise is sound, the leader cannot measure his success in terms of members reached but by the effect of his services on individual human lives.

Therefore, leadership becomes the greatest single factor in good administration of any recreational service. More about this later, but what about recreation service itself.

RECREATION

The greatest commodity on the market today is recreational services. Where else can you get so much for so little? The cost of food, clothing, housing, transportation and entertainment is away out of proportion in comparison to the cost of one year's subscription to a Boys' Club. Using transportation as an example — You are all aware of the fact that 30 cents will buy only five children's bus tickets (five trips on a bus), and yet (25 cents) is the minimum membership fee at the Boys' Club — the maximum is $1.00. For that nominal sum boys and girls are provided with a planned recreational program for not only a day a week, or a month, but for a whole year, every day of the week, Monday through Saturday, and, in addition to the services mentioned, individual guidance.

MISSILES

When we speak of human missiles, I think we cannot overestimate the importance of the launching and the guidance in the early stages of the flight. Too often, if there is not an adequate guidance system, we have to substitute in later years a penal system. That is not an acceptable alternative.

Our record at the Unity Boys' Club, during the past fourteen years, is a proud one. We have organized in our club, units of democratic society. We have taught our youth the lessons of competition and teamwork. We have given them the opportunity for intellectual and moral, as well as physical growth. By promoting the social, vocational and moral development of our young members, we have prepared them for an active life in a free society. We are inculcating in them the spirit of fair play and the virtues of honesty and loyalty. Opportunities for their talents abound in our society. Responsibilities — heavy responsibilities — await them. With the help of our guidance, they will be ready to use their opportunities and to discharge their responsibilities. Who can calculate the value of such a contribution?

We may all take pride in what we have done. But never are we able to stand still. We must consolidate our gains and move for-

You Asked the WPL's Reference Department

● Have you any up-to-date information about the Panama Canal Zone?

See the West Indies and Caribbean Year Book, latest edition. This gives details concerning area, population, history, traffic on the Canal, tolls, government, etc.

● I would like biographical information about Westmounter Dr. Wilder Penfield.

In Current Biography for 1955, the life of this famous neurosurgeon and author is described, covering his medical career and his literary career. The material has been collected from Who's Who, Canadian Who's Who, Who's Who in British Science and the New York Times. Also Dr. Penfield's latest book "A second career" tells more of his personal life.

● What do you have about the Montreal World's Fair?

The Library is on the mailing list of the Canadian World Exhibition Corporation and this material is kept in a looseleaf folder at the Reference Desk. There is also a file of clippings from local newspapers.

● What is the origin of the name Quebec?

"The Origins and Meanings of Place Names in Canada" states that Quebec is Indian in its origin and all authorities agree that its meaning is narrows, contraction, obstruction — "where the river narrows." Here is the narrowest place in the whole course of the St. Lawrence. The term is common to the Algonquin, Cree and Micmac languages and signifies the same in each dialect.

● When and where did PTA start?

Began in 1897 under the leadership of Mrs. Alice McLellan Birney, the first Congress of Mothers convened in Washington, D.C. The emphasis upon the joint responsibility of parents and teachers increased in the following meetings and in 1908 the name was changed to the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations. The first emphasis was on the education of parents as the major channel by which the welfare of children was to be enhanced. The importance of co-operation with the school soon entered the picture and has continued to the present. (Encyclopedia of Educational Research).

● Do you have a history that would tell about Roman Baths and baths up to the present day.

See the book "Clean and Decent" by Lawrence Wright.

● Do you have a table of Roman numerals.

There is a reference book called "Mathematical Tables and Formulae" by F. J. Camm which contains specific gravities, horse power, Ohm's law, properties of elements, etc. as well as the Greek alphabet and Roman numerals.

● I have to make out my income tax return. Do you have a book that will help.

Yes, "Your income tax, Canada" by H. C. Rogers.

● Where is Chapel Hill?

University town, Orange Co., N. central North Carolina, 9 miles SW of Durham, the seat of the University of North Carolina (Columbia Lippincott Gazetteer of the World).

● Do you have a plan of the Tower of London?

Yes, in a booklet issued by the British Ministry of Works.

● What is the London Company?

Better known as the Virginia Company of London, 1606-1624. The Society of Adventurers to trade in Virginia was organized by letters patent of that year to "Sir Thomas Gates, Sir George

The Reference Department of the Westmount Public Library is seldom empty. Estimated attendance in 1963 was 30,179.

The department, under the supervision of Miss Margaret Good answers dozens of questions daily on subjects ranging, it is reported, from the making of beeswax candles to economic policy in Canada.

Writing in the Library's Annual report, Mrs. Norah Bryant, Head Librarian remarked that "it has often seemed that if Miss Good never left the Library, she still would have a very clear idea of what was occurring in the world around her from the questions she might answer."

Somers and others, for two several Colonies and Plantations to be made in Virginia and other parts and Territories of America (dated April 10, 1626). Further details about this company are to be found in Dictionary of American History, volume V.

● What is a pomander?

In the 16th century perfume was used a great deal. All apparel was scented. Musk was most highly prized, while ambergris and other substances mixed with various spices were next in choice. These various scents were rolled into little balls called "POMMES DE SENTEUR" encased in cases of gold and silver filigree often set with gems and worn as an ornament suspended from a girdle or pendant to a rosary. In England these were known as pomander originally worn as a preventative against infection, sometimes as the camphor bag was worn in the 19th century. (Accessories of Dress by K. M. Lester).

● Do you have something about Brancusi and his Bird in Space?

Constantin Brancusi (1876-1957) born in Targu Jiu, Rumania, died in Paris. Felt the influence of Rodin when he worked at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts, but felt a need to react against romanticism, a faithful representation of the model and the dispersal of emotion and to return to the fundamental laws of sculpture and their discipline, to architectural order, purity of form and restraint of expression.

Bird in Space for which he made, between 1925 and 1940, a series of variations that were increasingly more summary, concentrated, reduced to essentials as his ideas became clearer and his creative power quickened. In doing this, Brancusi found the themes and forms of ageless humanity, the eternal archetypes that constitute the indestructible repository of milleniums and have never ceased to inspire great sculpture. (Dictionary of Modern Sculpture).

● Who originated Empire Day?

The idea of having an Empire Day belongs to Clementina Fessenden. In the year 1896, this lady was attending a meeting of the Wentworth Historical Society at Hamilton, Ontario which had met to honor the memory of her late husband, Rev. E. J. Fessenden, Their young granddaughter, Kathleen Trenholm Fessenden, was with her grandmother, and in honor of her grandfather was made an honorary member of the Society.

The little girl was so pleased with the idea, that her grandmother thought that other children might be interested in hearing of the great deeds of those who had given their lives for the cause of Empire at home and abroad. Thus was the idea of Empire Day born. The next year on May 24th Empire Day was a fact. Every year since the movement has grown.

The exercises of Empire Day are now carried out on the last school day preceding the 24th May which was Queen Victoria's birthday. By legislation passed in 1952 Victoria Day is celebrated on the first Monday preceding May 24th. On Jan. 31, 1957, State Secretary Pinard announced that the Sovereign's birthday would coincide with Victoria Day.

Use of spiritual power is sought for world's problems

A call to use "spiritual power" to help solve the world's "thorny problems of human relations and race inequalities" greeted Christian scientists at their Annual Meeting in Boston this week.

Several thousand members from many states and countries attended the meeting at The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

A message from The Christian Science Board of Directors reaffirmed the Church's conviction that the mightiest force on earth is "the still small voice of universal Christian idealism."

All human thinking is being stirred to its very depths, the message noted. But "the Mind of Christ surmounts divisions of creed and doctrine, and binds in one holy family all who love God and seek to do His will."

The election of Edward Froderman as the new president of the church for the coming year was announced.

His address to the gathering described "spiritual perception" as a necessity for meeting today's great human responsibilities.

"This unparalleled hour is presenting an opportunity for each of us," he said. It has become essential to "make use of our God-given spiritual power."

Mr. Froderman is a former vice-president of a Chicago bank, resigning in 1949 to enter the public practice of Christian Science healing. He moved to Boston in 1956 to serve as Manager of the church's Department of Branches and Practitioners. In 1961, he was appointed as a Trustee of The Christian Science Publishing Society, a position he still holds.

The new church president is a native of Bad-Salzufflen, Germany, emigrating to the United States as a teenager. Living with relatives in Chicago, Mr. Froderman soon became interested in Christian Science and enrolled in the Sunday School. He went on to become First Reader and board chairman at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Chicago.

Revived religious stirrings in Eastern Europe were reported to the meeting by the Clerk, Gordon V. Comer. Applications from this region for membership in The Mother Church have begun to arrive again, ending many years of no communication, he said.

The retiring president, Mrs. Helen Wood Bauman, noted the "unlimited possibilities" open to humanity through the "healing-power of goodness" — the power "inherent in justice, mercy, truthfulness, and love" to overcome sin and disease.

This is "natural rather than miraculous," said Mrs. Bauman, editor of the church's religious periodicals.

"Energies of goodness are God-derived. They are equal to this troubled age because they are understood as divine laws and not merely personal virtues."

She quoted the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy: "The marvellous healing-power of goodness is the outflowing life of Christianity, and it characterized and dated the Christian era".

SO THAT you may come to our funeral home to pay your respects whenever most convenient, our doors are open for visitations from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

by VALENTINA RAHR

Norma Meagher Escaravage, is exhibiting about thirty-five paintings in oil and pastels at the Coin des Arts, CNR Concourse, West Area for the balance of the month of June. Active in Quebec City as an artist for five years, she is an energetic person and this shows in her work. Natural colors of vegetation, street scenes and landscapes, and views of Quebec City make up the show. Upper and Lower town views of Old Quebec were recorded with Betty Baldwin, her first art instructor. Then followed lessons with F. Jacurto.

A good basis of drawing and a knowledge of how to use color, are the reasons for her popularity in Quebec before coming to Montreal. Here she attended Ecole des two centuries ago. For fur-water colour are well executed. "The Premaker" is by Paul Andre, and "The Intruder" is a painting in oil of this artist's pet pussycat, a multicoloured short hair, who has appeared in several of his works.

ther information please phone 334-5980.

Esther Wertheimer

An exhibition of oil paintings by founder and director of the St. Laurent Art Society Esther Wertheimer, is on view at Coin des Arts, CNR Concourse, West Area, until the end of June. About twenty works showing familiar street views of Montreal, Older Montreal, Peel street, scenes of St. Catherine street east, and west.

"Montreal at Night" shows dark skies reflected on wet pavements, and although the colors are dark there is much light on buildings and in the street signs and street lights. Cote Vertu and Roy East are a contrast, and painted in palette knife with pastel colors not unlike the Van Goghs of his later period. Miss Wertheimer studied at Ecole des Beaux Arts, Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, Alexander Bercovitch and Harold Beament, ARCA.

Her works are in private collections, and she has exhibited in Cowansville Art Beaux Arts, and Montreal Museum of Fine Arts. "Bonsecours" is the only street scene of Montreal. Many winter scenes, landscapes, wild seascapes, and portraits make up the show. "Le d'Orléans" is typical of that area, depicting the Norman style of residence so popular Centre, Mountain Playhouse, and other exhibitions, including the recent one held by the St. Laurent Art Society in May. By popular request, some classes for artists are being formed to be held during the afternoons and evenings. For information please telephone 387-7309 during the day, and RI. 4-0765 during evenings or weekends.

Isabel Roberts

An exhibition of paintings made up of flower studies, landscapes and abstracts by Isabel Roberts is on view at Coin des Arts, CNR Concourse, West Area for the month of June. Co-founder of the St. Laurent Art Society, Miss Roberts has studied at Ecole des Beaux Arts, Ontario School of Art, Cooper Union in New York, and has received awards for her pictures. Has exhibited in Montreal, Murray Bay, Royal Canadian Academy, and several other art shows. Influenced mainly by J. A. Beatty, RCA she has served as a member of a jury for exhibitions with Montreal critics and artists. One of her paintings, "Flowers" appeared recently on a local television show. Her more recent works are abstracts, more textured than her earlier paintings, showing intricate design and vivid coloring. She is a colorist and this shows clearly in her work.

Vytas Remeika

An exhibit of abstracts by artist Vytas Remeika is on view in the Lobby of the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel until June 17. "Boatyard" a painting done in thick layers of palette knife, is the most outstanding in the show, depicting windy skies, good solid boats, reflections in the water, with vivid coloring.

Westmount's growth from forest to city

By Millicent Hickmore

BROWSING through my bookcase recently I discovered a small book entitled "Westmount in Song and Story." This book was written by Charles Benedict in 1933 and refers to different parts of Westmount at that time. As I was born and grew up in Westmount, this book was interesting, especially the preface, which I think will be of interest to many of my Westmount readers.

THE PREFACE

"Forest — Farm — Orchard — Village — Town — City, these are the steps that in less than one hundred years have brought Westmount to its present pitch of perfection, and the end is not yet. For the first sixty years of this period, progress was slow, even in 1888, forty-five years ago, the street cars stopped at Atwater avenue, and the toll-gate at Greene avenue was a sort of Ultima Thule, beyond which lay farms and orchards, and a few scattered houses. Then time evolved the village of Cote St. Antoine, commemorated today in the Cote St. Antoine road, originally an Indian trail.

Later on when the village had grown to be a town, it changed its name to Westmount, and now as the City of Westmount, it stands as a model to Montreal and all surrounding districts, as an ideal realized by one happy community and as a standard of what a municipality can achieve by devotion on the part of its citizens to the common weal.

It has been said 'happy is the country that has no history' for history is made up of the crimes and blunders of previous generations. Westmount has pursued the even tenor of its way ever striving to improve itself during the last forty-five years, and attracting to itself in increasing numbers the best class of people, who find within its limits everything to make life pleasant. Magnificent schools for their children, parks and playgrounds, entertainment halls and a library which both inside and out is a model of what a library should be. With all these attractions, Westmount can challenge comparison with whatever is considered best in civic management on the North American Continent."

WESTMOUNT TODAY

Thirty-one years later Westmount has surpassed itself with its numerous parks and playgrounds, old buildings have been renovated, luxurious apartment buildings have risen on vacant land — which by-the-way is scarce throughout Westmount — and now the Wood-Elm Complex development is planned to accommodate the many hundreds of families desiring to reside in this residential district.

Carinthia to spend the summer travelling in the British Isles and on the Continent.

Mrs. J. H. Ross, president, and Mrs. H. Long, chairman of volunteers, of the Auxiliary of the Montreal Children's Hospital, presided at the tea table following the annual meeting of the Quebec Association of Directors of Volunteer Service in Hospitals, held in the Ross Residence, Closse street, yesterday. Mme. Sylva Lamothe was guest speaker.

Westmount

What is it that makes the stranger pause, and check his flying wheel?
Is it not plain that here he finds something that makes him feel
The men who wrought this miracle were touched by an ideal!

Brains! Honesty! will wonders work, but there is more beside
In Westmount than these valued gifts, and that is - - civic pride,
'Tis this, we claim, our city's name,
is spreading far and wide.

We've men who care, we've men who dare,
and will not simply rest,
With "just as good" or "That will do,"
but bring things to the test;
And ever strive to keep alive
the love of all that's best.

While Westmount can find citizens her interests to serve,
Whose single aim is Westmount's fame, whom nothing tempts to swerve - -
Will Westmount City, its fair renown, increase and long preserve!

CHARLES BENEDICT.

ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

CLOTHING BABY

By Robert McNair Mitchel, MD,
Dept. of Gynecology and Obstetrics,
Pennsylvania and Lanekau
Hospitals
Philadelphia, Penna.

For the first year of his life, your baby needs very little in the way of clothing. The fact is that all your baby needs is to be clean and warm.

Baby's clothes should allow for growth, be easy to put on and take off, be washable and durable.
As I point out in my book,
"Nine Months To Go" (Lippincott), babies don't like to be overdressed, it makes them fussy.
Babies also don't like to have clothing put over their heads.
Wrap-around garments will overcome this.

Here is a typical minimum
layette list:

If you plan to use a diaper service, you won't need a lot of diapers, but a dozen or so extra diapers will always come in handy.

Six shirts, long sleeves if it's cold, short sleeves if it's warm.
Six nightgowns or wrappers.
Three waterproof pants, part plastic or rubberized cotton. Two sweaters, one wool and one cotton. Six pads, 11 x 18 and rubber sheeting to be placed over the mattress. Four flannel blankets, 36 x 40. One baby bunting or coat for cool weather. One woolen blanket. One package of special diaper pins.

A word about diapers. There are all sorts and the diaper service will be glad to show you the several kinds that they offer. The diaper should be soft and absorbent. There are some which have a triple thickness of cloth in the middle and are made so that they go around the baby with a lot less material left over to fold and pin. Make sure you see all kinds before you decide on the one you will use. The disposable paper diapers are very useful if you go visiting with baby.

If at all possible, use a diaper service. In the long run, when you count the time it takes, the amount of detergent, disinfectant and trouble involved, using a service costs about the same and you are sure that the diapers are germ-free. It takes a lot of washing under the right conditions to get diapers really clean.
If you do them yourself, make sure they are clean and dry when you put them on the baby.

It is a good idea to plan your baby's wardrobe so that one complete set of clothes is in the wash, one is ready in a drawer and one is on the baby.

Local student wins Smith scholarship

The Smith Club of Montreal had a luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club and the guest of honor was Miss Ellen Rosenberg, winner of the Canadian Smith Club Scholarship. A graduate of Westmount High School, Miss Rosenberg is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs.
William Rosenberg of Notre Dame de Grace. She will enter Smith College in the autumn. Mrs. A.
J. Frueh, president of the Smith
Club of Montreal welcomed Miss Rosenberg and her mother to the luncheon.

PEANUT HONEY BUNS

Peanut honey buns have syrupy glazed coating

Time needn't be a major factor, as many mistakenly believe, in preventing one from experiencing the pleasures and satisfaction of baking at home with yeast.

Many yeast recipes consume less than half an hour in physical work such as mixing, kneading and shaping. The rest of the time, as you go about your normal routine, the dough itself, and the oven, are doing the work for you.

Peanut Honey Buns are a case in point.

PEANUT HONEY BUNS (Yield) 2 dozen

- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup margarine or butter
- 1/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup lukewarm water
- 2 teaspoons granulated sugar
- 2 envelopes fast-rising active dry-yeast
- 1 egg, well-beaten
- 3 cups (about) pre-sifted all-purpose flour
- Melted margarine or butter
- 1/2 cup firmly-packed brown sugar (golden or dark brown)
- 2/3 cup liquid honey
- 3 tablespoons melted margarine or butter.
- 1 cup chopped cocktail peanuts
- 1/2 cup firmly-packed brown sugar (golden or dark brown)

Scald milk. Stir in the 1/4 cup margarine or butter, 1/4 cup granulated sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm.

Meantime, measure lukewarm water into large mixing bowl; stir in the 2 teaspoons sugar. Sprinkle yeast on top. Let stand 10 minutes; then stir well. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture and egg. Add 1 1/2 cups of the flour; beat until smooth. Work in sufficient additional flour to make a very soft dough, about 1 1/2 cups more.

Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas; knead until smooth and elastic. Place in lightly greased bowl. Brush top with melted margarine or butter. Cover. Let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Meantime, blend together the 1/2 cup brown sugar, honey and 3 tablespoons melted margarine or butter. Stir in half a cup of the peanuts. Divide mixture evenly among 24 greased muffin cups, approximately 2 3/4 inches in diameter by 1 1/2 inches deep.

Combine remaining half cup of peanuts with the 1/2 cup brown sugar. Set aside.

Punch down risen dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board or canvas; cut dough in half. Roll out one half into a 9 x 12-inch rectangle. Brush lightly with melted margarine or butter. Sprinkle with half of reserved peanut-brown sugar mixture. Roll up tightly from long side like jelly roll; firmly seal long edge. Cut into 1-inch pieces. Place, cut side up, in 12 of the prepared muffin cups.

Repeat with second half of dough and rest of peanut-brown sugar mixture. Cover. Let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled, about 45 minutes.

Bake in preheated moderately hot oven, 375 deg. F., about 15 to 18 minutes or until done. Turn out of pans onto cooling racks immediately.

Tea Time...

(Continued from page 24) photographed yearly. The photographs are submitted to the mother for her approval and purchase. . . . This fall the suede look will be sweeping the fashion industry and the trend will be reflected in millinery. . . . Cottons that stretch, cottons with a new silky look, cotton prints that look woven, new blends and sophisticated patterns are news in the preview of fabrics being made for spring and summer 1965. . . . ### SENSE GETS SHORE LEAVE

Seeding is pretty well over and soon a lot of people will be heading for the lakes and rivers to enjoy the fishing and boating. Unless there is a major change in the attitude of many who seek these pleasures, some of them will finish up in the obituary columns of their weekly papers. Every year we see things done, in an on the water, which make us think that some folks leave their brains ashore when they step into a boat.—Rosetown (Sask.) Eagle.

Unity Director tells of Youth Club work...

(Continued from page 17) ward to even better programs. We must be willing to devote more and more of our time and of our talents to prepare these youngsters for the future they will inherit. We must continue to give generously, not stopping to count the cost. This we must do. For who can put a price tag on the youth of today?

I indicated earlier that "leadership" was the greatest single factor in good administration. It is one of the prime requisites of good Boys' Club work. This, to my mind, is of great importance and of great concern. A career in Boys' Club work is in a sense a "calling" similar to that in other fields of social service work and in the ministry, and, during times of economic prosperity such as those which we have experienced during the past number of years, it is not too easy to attract the qualitative type of leader that we are looking for, and with the ultimate financial remuneration being none too glamorous, there is very little to compensate for the loss of a certain amount of personal freedom, coupled necessarily with an intensive training, both formal and practical.

Now despite this problem, which is universal, it is my pleasure to report that the Unity Boys' Club is very fortunate. We are not only favored with an excellent full time staff, but also some seventy volunteer workers render service to the Club. A total number of 1938 hours were donated by Unity's Volunteer staff, and these hours were spent in assisting the full time staff in providing guidance, instruction and good fellowship.

What values are derived from a yearly subscription in a Boys' Club? The simplest answer is to say that they are receiving recreational services. Now what does that mean? The definition states that recreation is:

1. Refreshment of mind or body after toil, school or weariness.
2. Any exercise or occupation that diverts.
3. Sport, pastime, play, amusement.

And now that we have established clearly in our minds what recreation is, let's take a look at the Unity Boys' Club of Westmount.

Boulevard resident . . .

tion of what it means to be a Canadian citizen.

Mrs. Dunne continued: "We investigated officially, locally, from the Protestant and Catholic School Boards and were informed that the knowledge imparted at present on this subject is quite superficial in nature. One Principal felt quite strongly about the lack of a national flag, and enthusiasm in singing "O Canada" — and stated the day the flag is decided upon — every child under his jurisdiction will be taught to salute same and will know the words and sing "O Canada". Let us hope that the games and contests will soon be over — and that our flag poles will finally fly the official standard up there. This subject just crept in along with the rest of my address today, but try as you may, the fact of our lack cannot be overlooked."

"The Citizenship Committee, of the Council of Women is presently laying the foundation for a programme re Citizenship Education, and have just written the proper officials in every Canadian Province requesting information and literature — if any — pertaining to what is taught at all school levels in their respective provinces. You will be hearing from us in due course as to our progress."

"As stated earlier" continued Mrs. Dunne, "we women — Mothers — will just have to take a closer look at everything, not through the eyes of theory and science, but rather through our own eyes. It is pathetic when you hear a woman referring to herself as "just a Housewife". We must realize that we have the key spots in our civilization and it is up to us to appreciate that we are the heart of our homes. And as we go — so go our husbands and children. If we generate love and understanding a chain reaction is started through the other members of the family unit. Therefore let us prepare our children to take their places as rightful citizens and thoughtful voters — by teaching them the essentials of good citizenship at our knee."

"We will have to teach them to realize they are Canadian — not French-Canadian, English-Canadian, Scotch-Canadian, Irish-Canadian, etc. etc. But Canadian. We must teach them respect for the LAW — and not the wrong approval a Mother gave her child the other day when she threatened to call in a police man if her child was disobedient. We are all familiar with this kind of experience. Is this not colouring the official wrongly — shouldn't a child regard a police man as his friend — someone to go to when lost, or hurt?"

Could not some form of program be set up through — government channels, — where, by amusements for school children be geared to Canadianism — that is, colouring books, songs, stories, and pictures showing parts of this vast country of ours, through the varied systems now available in communication — films, commentaries, stories, interviews? The scope is unlimited. If we want a strong country, taking her proper place in World Affairs — our Leaders must have the seeds of understanding and love of Canada implanted firmly in their minds so that same could be nurtured at the various school levels, and grow with them to the day they are ready to take their place in society. We have a great Country — let us do our best to develop in our children a love of Canada and fellow Canadians.

Assessments are reviewed

The annual survey of real estate assessments in the 23 municipalities under the jurisdiction of the Protestant School Board of Greater Montreal was considered by the Board at a recent meeting.

In the case of Westmount, it will be remembered that last year the assessment level was raised by 25% to achieve equalization with Montreal.

Both are avid sports car fans, but wife won't race husband

Sports car enthusiasts, racers and former racers come from all walks of life, from millionaires and students to housewives and garage mechanics. There is a wonderful comradeship among them, a something that could well be copied by drivers everywhere. This attitude sparks a friendship that seems to go hand in glove with a greater appreciation of cars and the skill and care in driving them. It never seems to matter what make the car is — the sharing of understanding is the same.

Unique among Westmount sports car racers and enthusiasts, and one of the two women racers in Eastern Canada is Mrs. Peter Keith, Kensington avenue, who takes part in a sport that is almost strictly "for males only." Wendy Keith started racing after attending a racing drivers' school last spring. She has always liked sports cars, but says:

"I probably would never have raced if it hadn't been for my husband Peter. I entered the driving school last spring to get a better understanding of what he is doing. I got sick and tired of coming to races and watching him race. I found drivers school not too bad at all, and began to race myself. I look at his racing differently now. I used to fall asleep listening to him talk for hours with his friends about how they went around corners. Now I'm all ears."

Here Peter Keith interjected "Now she tells all her friends about it, and they don't appreciate it."

About the dangerous side of racing Peter Keith thinks that if there was no danger people wouldn't race. But there is more to it than danger. "It's like skiing in winter, a sport like sailing or other — the danger of injury is always there."

"If I didn't race myself" says Peter Keith "I wouldn't want Wendy to race. But I realize the danger is mostly the driver. People can go skiing or sailing on a weekend, and break a leg—it's usually their own fault."

Mrs. Keith is small and dark, and friendly. "I think most people tend to see me in a different light when they find out I am a racing driver. They don't expect it of me somehow. They think I am kind of quiet. Some males don't approve of seeing a female driver on the track. Most of them are pretty nice about it. On the track I don't think I get any special privileges because I am a woman. A lot of people think I go out to race because of the publicity, but I do it because I am interested in what my husband is doing, and I want to do it."

They both do all their racing in the Montreal-Toronto area, and have attended drivers school at St. Eugene racetrack at the end of May, and went as spectators to the Mosport international sports car races last weekend. The Keiths do not rally. They rallied once, and Mrs. Keith says: "If we tried it again we would be divorced. Disputes between driver and navigator of a rally car over route instructions, map-reading, etc. are common."

They attend the same races but do not enter the same events. "In this way" says Mrs. Keith "we can both bluff, I like to see him in practise, but I don't know that I'd like to race against him."

They both are of the firm conviction that racing accidents happen because of driver error rather than mechanical failure. With most people involved in accidents an error of judgment is at fault, rather than mechanical failure. More young drivers get in trouble than others.

"At Mosport says Mr. Keith "there isn't the margin of error. If you go off the road you can get in trouble, compared to the wide open airport racing circuits such as St. Eugene and others. This doesn't bother the experienced driver. Experience teaches you to cope with whatever comes up." Mr. Keith entered his Lotus Elan and Mrs. Keith her Mini-Cooper in the Players 200 races at Mosport last weekend.

According to Mr. Keith, in Quebec the sport of motor racing is growing fast. It is still easy for the average enthusiast to race and have a good time though to win the big races one needs expensive cars. By and large it is still a participant's sport here, open to anyone with a car and some training, rather than being made a spectator sport only by the promoters.

Racing "an addiction" says Dick Hamilton

A former sports car racer who now only takes part in events as a hobby is Westmounter Roy Hamilton, better known as "Dick Hamilton". When he came to Montreal after spending time at school in England, he was a confirmed sports car enthusiast. He has started a sports car repair and maintenance shop on Victoria avenue as a result of his hobby, where special equipment rare in service shops may be obtained.

Hamilton is one of the earliest sports car enthusiasts in Montreal. He has raced cars, mostly of his own construction for eight or nine years, and stopped three years ago when an accident at Mosport persuaded him that the grind of racing and neglect of his business wasn't worth it. His interest is now purely professional, as service, construction, and preparation centre for other sports cars. In 1960 he drove with the Late Peter Ryan of Mont Tremblant, in Harewood, Ontario. He has raced against Ludwig Heimrath, a recent Canadian champion, Ross de St. Croix, a well known Montreal driver, and many local and out of town drivers. He has been a member of many sports car clubs, and says that many of the men he raced against are no longer racing. He considers rallying dangerous.

It's surprising what you find yourself doing when you find yourself behind schedule. A rallyist tries to maintain a given route, and making up time is difficult. It is easy to drive very hard then."

In his opinion racing is like an addiction. "Most guys wouldn't admit it" he says. Racing is a vicious circle. You tend to get more and more involved, and become egotistical, and impossible, and demanding. The nicest guys turn nuts sometimes when they become too involved. Racing is a thrill, it means a lot to race your own car. Racing is expensive, the cars are complex and temperamental, when highly tuned to race. It is hard enough to get started, let alone last until the race is over."

"When you are a part of racing, it's hard to break out of it. Many race because they enjoy it, it's exciting, and it's fun. There is a good atmosphere of competition about it. Not just a cheap thrill. Wealthy people who have been around are also wrapped up in racing."

"Racing accidents are about 10% mechanical and the rest driver failure in the experience of (Continued on page 39)

Barbarians shutout Westmount

In spite of a marked improvement over previous games the Westmount rucker squad was unable to hold back the Barbarians Saturday in a 16-0 game.

Bob Wilson took a series of forward drives to dive over to score in the Barbs opening drive against Westmount. Bert Reid converted. Pete Collier dashed in to pick up his own kick and go in for another try with Reid again converting to round out the second half.

While Westmount did get close enough to threaten in the second half, they were unable to score. The Barbs found the range again through Ray Cornbill while Jim Miller closed out the scoring in the final minutes.

Phi House wins WHS track meet

Over 750 students in grades seven, eight, and nine at Westmount High School took a day off from their studies Friday to participate in the school's annual Tabloid Track and Field event. The students competed, not directly against each other but against the clock or the tape-measure, receiving a specified number of points for the various times or distances.

Results by Houses were:

Grade 7: 1st — PHI; 2nd — DELTA; 3rd — THETA; 4th — SIGMA.

Erney, Fernandes win St. Leo's tennis play

St. Leo's Academy tennis tournaments, came to a successful conclusion this week with the pre-tournament favorites living up to expectation.

In senior competition it was 13 year-old Phil Erney who went all the way in fine form. Phil moved up to senior two years ago after winning the junior title and this is his first victory as a senior but it will take a lot to dislodge this promising young tennis prospect. Richard McNally provided him with some tough competition in the finals, before he emerged victorious in two straight sets 6-2 and 7-5.

McNally has all the physical requirements to be a stand out and with some good summer competition could return a serious threat for the Autumn tournament.

Dalton Barnoff made a strong bid for junior tennis honors but it was a case of too many Fernandes. Dalton eliminated Dessio Fernandes in the semi-finals, squeaking through 6-5 and 6-5 only to run into older brother Neild Fernandes in the finals. Neild polished off Albert Gadbais in the semi-finals and proceeded to demolish Dalton Barnoff in the finals to capture the schools junior tennis crown.

The fleet footed Neil Fernandes is one of the Academy's bright spots as a fine all around young athlete.

Local cricket squad wins first game

The Westmount cricket squad posted their first win of the season Saturday, defeating 135 for 4, Mount Royal, 133.

Bowling for Westmount, Sam Marshall captured 4 for 34, Eric Branker 4 for 38 and J. Taylor, 2 for 36.

In Westmount's reply of 135 for 4 the runs were made by R. Crony with 39 not out, Gerry Taylor, 32, Ken Branker 28, and Frank Whiting, 20. It was Westmount's first win after three successive drawn games.

Record attendance forcast at 'Y' Summer Fun Club

Only two weeks to go — for the boys and girls to register for the first period of the Westmount YMCA Summer Fun Club for 8-13 year olds. Registration to-date, indicates a record attendance for the month of July. It is therefore important for people to register their youngsters as soon as possible so that they may not be disappointed.

According to Ron Watt, Director of the program; the 'Y' is ready "for any increase in attendance and our staff (twenty-eight) have been preparing themselves since the middle of February. In addition to just over eight hours of "human relations training sessions", many of the counselors and counselors-in-training have participated in three craft sessions conducted by the Red Feather Parks and Playgrounds Association, and have approximately thirty hours of swim-

'Y' Summer schedule set Monday

The Westmount YMCA's summer schedule goes into effect on Monday, June 15 for adults and youths. The summer schedule is a swim program only and will be run from June 15 to September 12.

Special "family swim periods" will take place on Tuesday and Friday evenings from 7:00-8:00 p.m. There will be no formal instruction given in the youth classes, since they are primarily supervised recreational swim periods. Copies of the schedules are available at the Westmount YMCA.

The YMCA will be closed at 9:00 p.m. instead of 10:00 p.m. for the summer months and will be closed for the July 1 holiday.

Racing an . . .

Hamilton. Drivers sometimes feel their reflexes and experience will see them through, and that they won't make the errors that other drivers make. If accidents were say 60% mechanical, there would be fewer accidents."

A champion class racer who agrees with Hamilton is Peter Lerch, who has been racing almost five years in Nassau, United States and Canada.

"Racing is a good time" comments Lerch, a tense, intelligent, quick thinking young man who races as a hobby, and works hard at publishing a sports car magazine. "I've had my share of wins and losses. I enjoy it very much, it ties in with my business."

Lerch is associated with racer Norm Namerow in Canada Track and Traffic publishing. He also raced at Mosport in Dave Greenblatt's Lotus 19-Chev. on June 6.

"I like the people who are associated with sports car racing — people with all kinds of interests, easy to get to know. An accident can be anything. Mechanical failure, an oil slick on the track, or going faster than you should. You try to avoid it, but the accident happens sometimes anyway. I think St. Jovite should be a good place for a race-track for spectators. I would like to see a track in the Quebec region. There are lots of good drivers in this area, and they need a good track."

ming instruction and supervision classes.

The next phase of training will include about twenty-four hours of skill training in games and sports, crafts, swimming instruction and teaching, trip and tour supervision techniques, sing-songs, first-aid, etc.

Miss Lucille Richards, will be the Assistant Director, with major responsibilities in the crafts department. Lucille is a student at Sir George Williams University during the winter months and will be taking some summer courses. She is also a member of the Montreal YMCA Fellowship Plan.

The Summer Fun Club staff includes the following:

COUNSELORS: Reid Ransom, David Welton, Gary Armstrong, Russell Kelley, Leonard Macdonald, John McRae, Chris Blair (also Swimming Director), Doreen Doyle, Ellen McManus, Susan McLaren, Ruth Swan, Jette Stoffregen, Suzanne Desmarais, and Martha Fraser.

COUNSELORS-IN-TRAINING: Mikael Stoeffregen, Michael Board, Roy Whiston, Robert Garven, Kathryn Norris, Clare McManus, Michi Hayami, Karen Maxwell, Patricia Beaven, Martha Novinger.

ASSISTANT IN THE POOL: Marcella Kelley.

Greater concentration is being placed this summer on the swimming instruction program and also in the Creative Arts and Crafts program. Much of the program will be conducted in "small groups" each with a counselor and a counselor-in-training; or with a qualified skill leader.

New program for older campers

A new program is being developed for the older campers who will become involved in a Junior Counselor-In-Training program. This group will probably operate their own program completely with the guidance of an older counselor. It will be a sort of "group-living experience" because the group will plan and operate their own activities — will make their own decisions — and with experience just how it is to work as a cooperative group.

Members of this group at the moment are as follows: Andrew Bako, Pamela Beaven, Philip Chapman, Arpad Kiraly, Philip Miller, David McFadden, Ronald McLaren, John McManus, Valerie Wilkins.

The Summer Fun Club operates from July 6 to August 14 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday 9.00-4.30 p.m. and half days Thursday and Friday. For information call WE. 7-3916 and ask for Ron Watt.

The combined rate of employer-employees contributions for the U.S. social security program, comparable to the proposed Canada Pension Plan, will be 9.25 per cent on the first $4,800 of earnings by 1968, or a tax of $444 per year; maximum benefit will be $127 per month at age 65.
