City retirements stretched

Pension fund eligibility mayor's top concern

By RICHARD SPALDING

SHERBROOKE — A number of city employees who will reach the age of retirement by next Dec. 31 will be given six month extensions.

The decision came yesterday following an animated discussion among city council members.

Last week a similar resolution had been vetoed by the mayor, on the grounds that it was "discriminatory" said Mayor Nadeau.

The first proposal called for employment extensions for two city employees who still had children at home.

Yesterday's resolution grants six-month extensions to a total of seven employees.

Most of the seven men are not eligible for the city's pension fund, having been too old to join when the plan began in 1956.

"It is for these individuals that I am mainly concerned," said the mayor as he presented the six month extension idea.

One alderman's proposal, aimed at providing monthly assistance for city employees who normally would be ineligible for the pension plan, was ruled out.

Alderman Marc Bureau argued that retaining city employees after their period of retirement constituted an injustice for younger employees seeking advancement.

"Why don't we retire a man when he reaches the age of 65 and stick to regulations?" Mr. Bureau asked.

West Ward Alderman Antonio Pinard recalled previous discussions which he said would have jeopardized the situation of senior employees faced with the same problems.

"It is a matter of equity for everyone," the alderman said.

Each case was given careful consideration following case explanations from the different aldermen.

Recognizing service and years of employment, said Mayor Nadeau, was important in assessing an employee's right to an extension period.

"In some cases" he pointed out "a cessation of employment would mean death."

North Ward Alderman Everett Nicol expressed some concern. He said that if the city was worried about spending money when human interests were at stake, there were other departments in which it could start before picking on senior employees.

"As far as I am concerned," said Mr. Nicol, "you can keep all of them for another year."

During a brief break between sessions, Mr. Nicol walked the floor, obviously worried.

"We can't let a few dollars interfere with this kind of thing," he repeated.

Courts

Murder trial decision due today

SHERBROOKE — (BSL) — The case of Mrs. Therese Chady of Richmond, appearing on a charge of murder was adjourned yesterday after the first day. Mrs. Chady appearing before Assize Court Judge William Mitchell on a charge of murdering her six year old son.

The case was adjourned at 4 p.m. yesterday afternoon when defense attorney Yvan Pinard asked that the court refuse as evidence Mrs. Chady's pre-trial declaration on the grounds that she was under emotional strain and fatigue, and that although she had asked for medical treatment the day before making the statements received no form of assistance.

Judge Mitchell adjourned court pending his decision today.

Yvon Thivierge, 25, of Ascot North, had his sentence postponed yesterday after an eloquent dissertation before Judge Mitchell by Raynald Fréchette, Thivierge's attorney.

Sentencing has been set for Oct. 20.

Richard Blass of Montreal was sentenced to eight years when he was found guilty of a charge of armed robbery at the Caisse St. Esprit in Sherbrooke last year.

Blass, appearing before Judge Dugre Roland yesterday, elected speedy trial and was sentenced after a request for dismissal — on the grounds that the preliminary inquiry did not produce enough evidence for a trial — was refused.

A 19-year-old Sherbrooke youth, Serge Lambert, was sentenced to one month in jail, $100 fine, and one year's suspension of his driver's licence.

He was appearing on a charge of dangerous driving resulting in the death of 6-year-old Mario Guillemette, of St. Elie D'Orford.

Appearing before Judge Benoit Turmel in Sessions Court, Lambert had pleaded not guilty, and was represented by Raynald Fréchette.

Consumer needs sessions topic

MONTREAL — (DM) — A panel of experts will discuss the soap industry and the consumer, Wednesday, Oct. 22, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Salle Dore of the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel in Montreal.

"Consumers On The Soap Box" is this year's theme for discussions at the annual fall conference of the Consumers' Association of Canada.

Guest speakers will be: Mr. John Fisher, author of "The Plot To Make You Buy"; Mr. Armand Maltis, Minister of Financial Institutions, Companies and Cooperatives; and Mr. Paul Gerin-Lajoie, vice president of the Commission on Prices and Revenue. They will examine the questions of bio-degradability and pollution, advertising costs and other problems relevant to the industry.

A registration fee of $5.00, which includes lunch, is required to attend the conference. Simultaneous translation will be provided.

Critical policy readied

QUEBEC (CP) — The national assembly resumes work today with the Union Nationale government expected to make another attempt to legislate its way toward a language policy.

Other major legislation planned for the fourth session of the 28th legislature is a bill to permit the holding of referendums at the provincial level.

The political stakes are higher than usual, since the government is in the fourth year of its mandate and 1970 is expected to be an election year.

The session is Premier Jean-Jacques Bertrand's first as permanent leader of the Union Nationale and former premier Jean Lesage's last as leader of the Liberal party.

The step toward a language policy is expected in the form of a bill to reorganize the school system on Montreal island, now partitioned along Roman Catholic and Protestant religious lines.

Premier Bertrand has described this bill as the government's solution to problems of language rights that arose in the Montreal suburb of St. Leonard.

The government's first legislative attempt to solve the problem of French-language unilingualism in the Roman Catholic schools of St. Leonard failed amid divisions within the cabinet and Quebec society.

In a recent speech before the Canadian Club in Montreal, the premier said the beginning of wisdom in this area is the acceptance of French-English duality of Quebec society.

He said it is as far-fetched to imagine that unity can be imposed in Quebec by French unilingualism as it is to imagine that unity can be imposed in Canada by English unilingualism.

Separatists and some nationalists have attacked Mr. Bertrand's comments about Quebec's duality.

Referendum legislation was promised by Mr. Bertrand in his leadership campaign against Education Minister Jean-Guy Cardinal, whose candidacy had the support of caucus nationalists.

In interviews, Mr. Bertrand has said a referendum could be used by the Quebec government to reinforce its position in constitutional negotiations with the rest of Canada.

Mr. Bertrand has yet to outline government policy in detail on the question of referendums. He may do so when he introduces the referendum bill.

The first and second parts of the fourth session, Feb. 25, March 28 and April 15 - June 13, were dominated politically by campaigning for the party leadership.

The third part of the session coincides with a leadership campaign within the opposition Liberal party, begun with the resignation of Mr. Lesage Aug. 28.

So far only one Liberal, House Leader Pierre Laporte, has announced his candidacy for the Jan. 16-17 convention. Announcements are expected soon from two other caucus Liberals, Claude Wagner and Robert Bourassa.

Standing in the 108-seat assembly is: Union Nationale 53; Liberals 48; independent 3; vacant 4. The four vacancies will be filled by byelections Wednesday, a day after the session opens.

A February meeting of Conservatives in Drummondville, Que., indicated the necessity to understand Quebec needs and accept new ideas, while attracting youth to the party and ensuring democratic participation at all levels.

For too long, French-Canadians have felt they were merely "tolerated" by the rest of the party, Mr. Alie said.

In about six months, Mr. Alie said, an electoral campaign manager will be appointed.

... And not a drop to drink

Hatley villagers and Mayor Gerald Johann, above, distributed valuable water from the town's 500 gallon tank fire engine yesterday, after their supply was cut off without warning by the system's owner, Mr. C. Kennedy. After receiving her share, Mrs. Leigh Bladon visibly displays her opinion of the water, which was generally useful but unfit for drinking. Mr. Kennedy had closed the system for "repairs caused by village idiots" less than an hour after posting a notice to that effect in the general store. The Mayor, Mr. Kennedy and a representative of the regional health board discussed the problem until late last night. Whether or not repairs are actually necessary, it looks like Hatley residents will be left high and dry at least until this afternoon.

Machinists use secret ballot to set aside strike action

SHERBROOKE — (DM) — Forty unionized employees of the Eastern Townships Machine Works have decided through a secret ballot to accept the latest company offer and set aside strike action which was to have started Friday night.

Mr. William Boychuck, representative of the International Association of Machinists' Union, told the Record that work resumed normally yesterday morning under a new contract which gave the workers a 42 cent per hour increase, retroactive to Oct. 1. It will be spread over a two year period and will include improved fringe benefits regarding expenses and vacations.

The employees, most of them electricians and machinists, had originally asked for a 30 cent increase over one year.

Like stone, crew lost

LONDON — (AP) — A Dutch freighter sank in the North Sea early today after a collision with a West German ship and all but one of its crew members were missing, the coast guard reported.

The lost vessel was identified as the Donau, 357 tons.

"She sank like a stone," the coast guard said.

The collision with the 8,606-ton West German freighter Kariba, out of Hamburg, took place in a thick fog "a couple of miles" off the coast where the West German and Dutch borders meet near the Terschelling Islands, the coast guard said.

One man of the Donau's crew of seven was picked up as a large-scale search got under way.

Trib wins
 MONTREAL (CP) — Jacques Darche of Sherbrooke La Tribune won first prize in Montreal's Man and His World professional photography competition, it was announced Monday.

Mr. Darche won $1,000 for the best newspaper photo-feature. It was a photographic depiction of a visit to the fair by a grandfather, father and little boy.

Antoine Desilets of the weekend French-language magazine Perspectives won second prize of $500 for the best single photo. He was first-prize winner last year.

Ron Handfield of CFCF-TV Montreal won third prize of $500 for the best television newsreel. It was called One Week to Go.

Jury members were Sir Max Aitken, president of Beaverbrook Newspapers, London, Roger Blais of the National Film Board and Gilles Henault, director of the Museum of Contemporary Art, Montreal.

 QUEBEC (CP) — The Quebec government has been asked to provide more inviting camping grounds to attract tourists.

The request came Monday at the second day of a three-day highway safety conference in suburban Ste. Foy under the auspices of the Quebec Automobile Club.

The delegates from about 85 Quebec municipalities said that in order to attract tourists it is necessary to have attractive camping grounds in and around the Quebec City area.

Many delegates said that most of the camping grounds are badly organized and do not satisfy the needs of campers whose numbers increase constantly.

The government should accelerate its organizing of camping grounds in parks and underdeveloped areas.

Delegates also complained about the low standards of the grounds set by the Quebec government for private enterprise.

 MONTREAL (CP) — Fernand Alie, president of the Quebec wing of the Progressive Conservative party, outlined Monday a 10-point plan aimed at improving the party's position in the province.

"In the past, French-Canadians and Quebecers in general were more often than not conspicuous by their absence... in the structures and machinery for drawing up the party's political philosophy," he said at a news conference.

A February meeting of Conservatives in Drummondville, Que., indicated the necessity to understand Quebec needs and accept new ideas, while attracting youth to the party and ensuring democratic participation at all levels.

For too long, French-Canadians have felt they were merely "tolerated" by the rest of the party, Mr. Alie said.

Visitor may tip clash

PARIS (Reuters) — France and Canada appear headed for a diplomatic clash over an official visit which French Deputy Foreign Minister Jean-Noel Lipkowski is paying to Quebec.

Lipkowski has refused an invitation from the federal government to visit Ottawa during his week-long visit which begins next Thursday, informed sources said.

A French foreign ministry spokesman confirmed that Lipkowski would only visit Quebec, but declined any knowledge of the federal government invitation.

The sources disclosed that Canadian diplomats here made three calls on the French foreign ministry before being advised unofficially Monday night that Lipkowski would not include Ottawa in his trip.

Canadian officials here viewed seriously the French administration's apparent intention to bypass Ottawa.

Lipkowski's visit is the first by a French minister since former president de Gaulle left the political scene last April.

In the news...

MONTREAL — Officials of the National Union party have denied reports that the government will call for a Quebec general election Dec. 10. The reports, published in Quebec's Le Soleil, also said the National Assembly would be dissolved Oct. 24.

BELFAST — Roman Catholics in the Ulster city of Londonderry began taking down their barricades yesterday and Catholics in Belfast said they would do the same. A spokesman said tough British army action against the Protestants prompted the move.

UNITED NATIONS — Italian Prime Minister Aldo Moro is leaving for Ottawa this week to discuss, among other things, how Canada is making out in her attempts to recognize Red China. Canadian bilateral relations will also be discussed, spokesman said.

CALL, Colombia — A $290,000 ransom has been demanded by kidnapers of the 15-year-old son of the Swiss consul in Cali and a member of the Swiss embassy in Bogota, it was disclosed last night. The abduction of Juan Straesle and 28-year-old Hermann Buff took place Sunday night.

CAIRO — Egyptian warplanes raided Israeli positions along the Suez canal yesterday, touching off air battles in which five planes were reported downed. The Israelis claimed three aircraft while the Egyptians claimed two.

WASHINGTON — Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott — speaking against a backdrop of continuing United States congressional clamor against the Vietnam war — yesterday predicted a breakthrough may come in about three months.

LONDON — Britain will launch its newest coin next week — the seven-sided 50 (new) pence, equivalent to 10 shillings or $1.30 Canadian. Somewhat smaller than the Canadian 50-cent piece, the coins will go into circulation Oct. 14.

HONG KONG — Reports here today say that Communist China has built a "nuclear bomb-proof" submarine base under a mountain and topped it off with an airfield for 100 jet fighters. The reports said the description of the base was pieced together from descriptions by workers who helped construct the base.

OTTAWA — Since Apollo 11, rocks have become a fashionable international gift — and Canada is with it. Tomorrow in Copenhagen, King Frederick will receive a piece of orange-white quartzite from the northernmost point of land in the world — Kaffeklubben Island — as a token of Canadian Danish friendship.

LAS VEGAS — Gangs of black youths rampaged through a west side shopping centre late yesterday hurling rocks and shattering windows in a second straight night of racial violence. Some shooting was reported and police said one person was injured.

ADELAIDE, Australia — Australian Red Cross research scientists have discovered a new blood type it was announced yesterday. Yet unnamed, the new type is a member of the Duffy system used to type blood for transfusion.

TODAY'S CHUCKLE — Congress is no better or worse than our country and that's something to worry about.

Your Horoscope

JEANE DIXON

FOR WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8, 1969

Your birthday today: The first half of your coming year is apt to bring great demands on your energy. New potentials are open for your expression—projects to organize, plans to work out. Material progress has an encouraging force after about six months of your new venture, so that things improve and your burden lightens. Today's natives are alert and interested in health, physical training.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Put your best endeavor into your work all day, but quit at quitting time. Pursue emotional or romantic interests this happy evening.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Concentrate fully on the more creative phases of your work. You will find yourself doing favors for children and loved ones today.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Pay attention to and do some work on maintaining the value and soundness of your property. Make sufficient provision for family needs.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): New contacts, mental pursuits, or business involving some travel is favored over stay-at-home matters. Marital situations improve; romantic considerations are active.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Today the results of your patience and constructive effort begin to show. A somewhat happier state of affairs develops as you tend to the routines of the day. Celebrate this evening.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You have more energy today and more luck in finding ways to put it to use. Creative efforts more readily achieve success.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Cooperative ventures offer a very productive day for you. Whatever your work, bring in more help if you need it and attend to the big projects. Keep in step with your partner, maintain a steady rhythm that covers time and distance with less fatigue.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): When you have attended the routines and correspondence, there is still plenty to do socially. Personal interests thrive. Make a full evening; the time is right.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Your idealism rises strong and clear; act on it, express yourself. Finances continue to show improvement. Emotional satisfaction increases along with the tendency of some people to demand more.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Personal enterprises are favored, so put all your effort into what directly benefits your work. People at a distance are easier to deal with now. Your associates are more cooperative, provided you do not try to ease them into a tighter schedule.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Gather your fellows, develop an advantageous venture, since shared efforts are strengthened today. Take a sensible break, then later pursue sentimental interests; express yourself candidly but quietly.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Your interests in certain people increases, beneficially for the most part. Act on an intuitive view of the qualities of those most interesting. Romance beckons, if you have the will and freedom.

The annual meeting of the Rutter's Corner Cemetery was held on Sept. 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeley. Those attending were Miss Norah Roberts, Sherbrooke, Mr. Winfield Hunter, Lennoxville, Mr. Carroll Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tilton, Rock Island, Mr. Douglas Mayhew, Stanstead, and Mr. Roy Heath, Fitch Bay. Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keeley have been the latter's parents and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen and Mr. Berto Bachelder, Beebe, also Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elliott and son, Gilbert, Griffin, and Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Tilton and son, Michael, Rock Island.

The other Europe

There's a Europe few people know. That everyone goes to see. And few ever find. It ends when summer begins. And begins when summer ends. It's Europe populated by Europeans instead of tourists. Europe gone to sleep or come alive. Depending on you and how you look at it. Where there's time to smile back at the Mona Lisa in Paris. Where fog makes a London pub even warmer in welcome. Where a Swiss fondue in Zurich can introduce you to people who know how to live. Where the mist from the Danube shrouds Vienna in a romantic haze. Where there's time to catch a certain mermaid's eye in Copenhagen.

Air Canada flies to these and several other uncrowded destinations in Europe: Brussels, Glasgow, Shannon, Frankfurt and Moscow. And everywhere else in Europe is but a short hop away from these gateways.

For more information about the Other Europe, get in touch with a travel agent. Or call Air Canada at 569-9679.

We make it not just easier to go to the Other Europe, but absolutely possible. See your travel agent about our Fly Now—Play Later plan. Extra Cities Plan and some of the most fascinating tours of Ireland, North Africa, the Middle East, France, Germany, or Switzerland and Austria for Alpine skiing. There's even a London Super Show Tour that provides you with just about everything—including tickets to top West End plays. Tour prices start as low as $76.

following a talk with a government official at a convention last week in Edmonton.

The alderman said that a one-man delegation would be required to settle the matter.

Total cost stands at $90,000. Mr. Deziel said, and added "The government could pay for 80 per cent of it."

Last month during a similar meeting in Quebec City, the city of Sherbrooke was able to get some form of assistance to complete the work on the Rock Forest road.

BUILDING HALTES

Council also ordered work stopped at two locations in the city where construction was going on without a permit.

One job, on King Street West, was ordered stopped until all the plans were reviewed by the city.

Mayor Nadeau assured council members the plans had not been received but that no official permission had been granted.

Apartment house construction on Precourt Street will also be discontinued until the zoning regulations are changed.

That change in ruling was to be acknowledged by council last night.

Quite puzzled, Ald. Everett Nicol asked whether both construction sites were in accord with parking and zoning regulations.

"They are," said the Mayor.

LEASE EXTENDED

Council has agreed in principle to extend the lease of Sherbrooke Arena restaurant operator J. A. Laforest for another year.

Mr. Laforest, who has been operating the restaurant for the past five years, met with council yesterday to request the extension.

OLD FOLKS HOME

Land for a proposed senior citizens' home in Sherbrooke will be provided by the city.

Yesterday, a six man delegation from La Residence de l'Estrie, a non-project corporation met with council members to discuss procedures.

Fostered by the provincial government, the corporation is to be responsible for bedding supplies for the home.

Speaking for the delegation, one member told council it had visited different locations within the city and had decided upon land on Chapeleau Street in the West Ward.

The three-storey-high building would require at least two acres of land, the spokesman said.

He added that the corporation would buy the land at the condition the city turn it over to them as a contribution to the project.

"All the money required for the home will be subscribed by public funds," he said.

In connection with the same building project, Mayor Nadeau told of a provisional committee that had been set up in May of 1968 with the purpose of building such a home.

Being self-financed, the mayor added, the committee is willing to buy the land and work until the completion of the project.

Furthermore, he continued, the committee would build the home in the East Ward.

A proposal by West Ward Alderman Hilaire Beliveau seconded by the other ward alderman Antonio Pinard assured the delegation their choice of land would be donated by the city.

"Here I come"

Brome County man lauds California

THOS. W. LEONARD
B.A., LL.L.
NOTARY
Continental Building, Suite 509
Tel. 569-2600

"California, here I come" — so the old song goes. And they are still coming. So an Eastern Township finds that he is 3700 miles from home and one of a new breed that has decided to venture west and find out!

By JOHN H. ANDREWS where the action is!

The "Golden State" which celebrated its 119th birthday Sept. 9 is perhaps the most important member of the strongest nation in the world. In area, less than one-third the size of Quebec, California contains roughly 20,000,000 people or about 10 per cent of the U.S. population.

Small though it may be by Canadian standards, various soothsayers had predicted that the state's geography would be reduced even further as a chunk of the coastline was to slide into the blue Pacific during April this year.

It's back to the planning boards for these individuals! The climate and topography here are more diverse than elsewhere in the U.S.

California can boast of having the nation's highest peak (Mt. Whitney) and lowest point (Death Valley); the highest recorded temperature in North America; regions of extremely dry weather (SE areas, 2-5 inches annual rainfall); heavy snowfall (over 500 inches in Sierra Nevada) and rain (some areas receive more than 100 inches). At the same time, the most uniform climate in the U.S. is considered to be that of San Diego, where average temperature for January and August vary by only 10 degrees.

A Brome County man is impressed immediately with the agricultural practices. Although only about 320,000 persons of a labour force of some 8,000,000 are employed in this and related fields, agriculture has been California's basic industry since the 1870's. The annual cash farm income last year was about $4,000,000,000. There are 7,000,000 acres under irrigation. Virtually every known crop is grown, with this state leading the nation in the production of 44 of them — from almonds to strawberries and figs.

Therefore, it is an excellent place to study plant diseases — the main reason I am here.

A Quebecer is amazed by the dynamic educational system — a result of substantial financing and long-range planning. The University of California, for example, is the largest university in the world, with over 100,000 students on 9 campuses. Because of this complexity in form and function, it has been termed a "multiversity". The support for higher education has attracted distinguished scholars: there are at least 13 Nobel Laureates and 100 members of the National Academy of Sciences on the faculty.

I suspect that members of our Department of Education in Quebec would benefit remarkably from a few weeks here in consultation with their counterparts in a really progressive educational system!

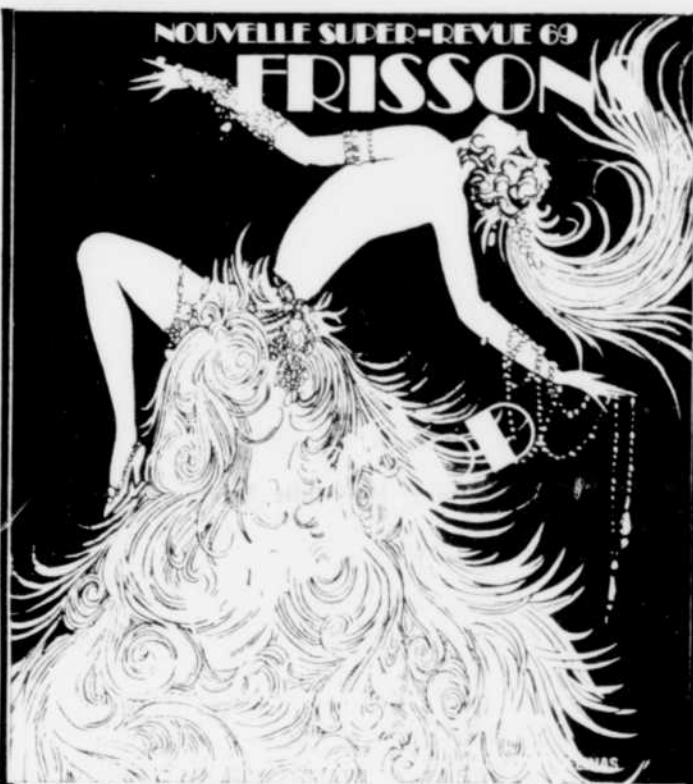

It is, therefore, little wonder that California enjoys a growth rate and per capita income significantly higher than the national average. Favourable climate, abundant natural resources, accessible markets, and a strong labour force have helped make this state a "land of milk and honey". How long Californians can savour this exalted position is, of course, another matter and makes interesting speculation. This discussion and other aspects of life here will be considered in future installments.

(Mr. Andrews, a resident of Knowlton, is pursuing graduate studies at the University of California.)

Instant Cash. With the best return ever. 1969 Canada Savings Bonds.

This year, Canada Savings Bonds are offering a record average yield of 8% — if held to maturity in 1978. This is the highest average yield in Canada Savings Bond history. Because Canada Savings Bonds are always worth their face value (plus monthly earned interest), they are an important part of every investment program as "instant cash".

As in recent years, holders of Canada Savings Bonds can "double their money" if the bonds are held to maturity, because of the compound interest feature. The Bonds are available in amounts from $50 to $25,000, purchased for cash or in monthly installments.

Mansenville

The United Church Sunday School held its first session since the summer holidays on Sept. 21 with an attendance of over 40 children. The teaching staff are as follows: Kindergarten, Mrs. Bessie Cote, Primary, Mrs. Maurice Jewett, Mrs. Gerald George and Mrs. Mary Hamelin, Juniors, Mrs. E. J. McDonald and Mrs. May Young; Intermediate, Mrs. Keyworth George. The superintendent is Mrs. Rupert Clark and the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Kevan Heath.

On Sept. 24 the local association of Girl Guides and Brownies met in the Staff Room of the Mansenville Elementary School for the first meeting of the autumn season. President, Mrs. Keyworth George opened the meeting with the Brownie Prayer. Minutes of the annual meeting were accepted. The association is anxious to see the Girl Guides once more operational and most necessary things to achieve it are leaders for Guides, as well as a Tawny Owl for the Brownies. A number of names were mentioned but no definite appointments were made. It was decided that Tuesday evening was a good time for Brownie meetings. Mrs. Fullerton is to be asked to audit the L.A. books. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Kevan Heath served coffee to the ladies present.

Those from Mansenville attending the U.C.W. Rally in Knowlton were Mrs. G. Cabana, Mrs. R. Fullerton, Mrs. H. C. Clark, Mrs. Betty Klopfer and Mrs. M. E. Bailey.

Weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hamelin were Miss Linda Hamelin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Grenier and family, all of Sherbrooke.

Miss Marian Atwell, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bradley and Mrs. Lillie Traver on the Brome County Historical Society annual Fall Cavalcade, on Saturday, Sept. 27. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pacey are occupying the house, formerly used by the Wall family, at Traverland Farm.

Mrs. Eva Cook, Mr. Harold Cook and Mr. Harry Comstock were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wadsworth in Sherbrooke. Another guest at the same home was Canon J. D. R. Franklin.

Mrs. Orin Cook, Mr. Harold Cook, Mrs. Rodney Davis and Mr. Douglas Davis recently motored to Willoughby Lake, Vt., and other points of interest. Mr. Gordon Foster, Barre, Vt., was a weekend visitor at the Cook home. In the evening the Cook family, accompanied Mr. Foster to Bolton Center, where they called on Mr. and Mrs. Percy Paige and family.

Inverness

Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Poirier, Joliette, and their two daughters, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Little.

Mr. Donald Davies, Melbourn, Mr. R. Cummings, Richmond, and Mr. Bruce Lang, Chateauguay, were recent guests at Reedsdale.

Mr. Harvey Breton, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Breton, Claude and Raymond, attended the Bobby Hull sale of cattle in Sawyerville.

Master Ricky Korman, who has been a patient in the hospital at Sweetsburg, due to a hand injury, has returned to his home here.

Mr. Maurice Wheeler and Mrs. Bessie Cote, who spent 10 days visiting relatives in Kingston and London, Ont., have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Korman, who have spent the past month in Germany, have returned home.

Mrs. Oscar Sargent has left for Orleans, Vt., where she expects to spend a week with her sister.

You can phone your husband in Ottawa and explain that by the time he gets home the car will be as good as new and it will cost only 80 cents.

That's the price for a 10-minute station-to-station call, all day Sunday and every weekday after 10 p.m.* For other long distance bargains, check your phone book.

Golden wedding anniversary

BEEBE — The Town Hall was the scene of a pleasant occasion, on Sept. 20, when Mr. and Mrs. Sam Aulis of Tomifobia, were feted on their golden wedding anniversary.

On entering the hall with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Martin, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Aulis, they were greeted by their youngest daughter, Mrs. William (Julia) Rean and youngest son, Norbert.

A rose corsage was pinned to Mrs. Aulis' beige, two piece dress by a grandson, Wallace Brevoort. Miss Barbara Aulis, a granddaughter, presented a white carnation boutonniere to Mr. Aulis.

Escorted to the front of the hall by Mr. and Mrs. Hector Martin, a reception line was formed. Approximately 100 relatives and friends extended best wishes to the honored guests.

The hall was decorated with gold and white streamers, gold bows, white bells and golden 50 numerals. The same decor being used on the white linen covered guest table. It was centered with a three-tiered cake, iced in white, appropriately trimmed with gold leaves, golden 50 numerals and yellow roses, topped by a large numeral 50, surrounded by small yellow roses.

Candelabras, with tall white candles and a single yellow gladioli spike in a bud vase, also flanked the cake. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Roland Sheldon.

Baskets and vases of seasonal flowers, from the garden of Mr. R. A. Hatch, a neighbor of the celebrants, added to the hall decor. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of the Buck Sayers orchestra.

Mr. Jack Keeley of Tomifobia, acted as Master of ceremonies, making a short speech in regards to the life of Mr. and Mrs. Aulis, touching on several humorous events. Two readings by Mrs. Ivy Hatch, caused much laughter.

Lunch was served buffet-style, with the celebrants seated at the head table along with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Aulis, son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Greenwood, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. S. Aulis, Robert Aulis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aulis, brothers and sister-in-law of the groom of the golden years, Rev. M. Hutchison and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeley.

Rev. M. Hutchison asked the blessing, followed by a toast to the happy couple, proposed by Mr. Keeley. He called on Gilbert Aulis, oldest son of the celebrants to present a decorated box, filled with currency, greeting cards from well-wishers, some who were unable to attend. He also presented the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Aulis both expressed their thanks and appreciation for the pleasant event held in their honor.

The buffet was served by Mrs. Harold Brevoort and Mrs. Delbert Aulis. Mr. Wallace Brevoort was in charge of the punch bowl, with Mrs. H. Brevoort and Mrs. Wilder Hatch, pouring tea and coffee. Mrs. Hector Martin and Mrs. William Rean, kept the buffet table well supplied with food. Mr. Harold Brevoort assisted.

The guest book was in the charge of Miss Julia Brevoort and Miss Barbara Aulis. Guests attended from Golden, B.C.; Crystal Beach, Ont.; Kingston, Ont.; Hinsdale, N.H.; Melbourne, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Pointe Claire; Kingsey Falls, Fitch Bay and the border areas. Among the many guests was Mr. A. A. Bachelier, who is 92 years old and enjoyed dancing during the evening.

The party was planned by the children of the celebrants with a few friends assisting.

Samuel (Sam) Aulis and Ethna Powers were married on February eleventh, 1920. They were the parents of twelve children, nine of whom survive. Six were able to attend.

The children are Gilbert from Melbourne; Mrs. Hector (Irene) Martin, Crystal Beach, Ont.; Delbert, Golden, B.C.; Philbert, Newport, Vt.; Mrs. Wilfred (Lillian) Buzzell, Stanstead; Herbert, Orleans, Vt.; Mrs. Harold (Florence) Brevoort, Ste. Anne de Bellevue; Mrs. William (Julia) Rean, Pointe Claire and Norbert, Kingston, Ont. They have 35 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Seven grandchildren were among the guests.

As the guests departed for their homes the couple were wished many more years of happiness and good health. All hoped they would be able to enjoy their 60th Anniversary.

Weddings in the Townships

JEANSON—CAMPBELL

The marriage took place on September 20 at 3 p.m. in St. Damien's Church of Judy Vera, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bertram Campbell to Mr. Michel Jeanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herve Jeanson. The Rev. Father Despars officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, featuring a train and trimmed with French lace. Her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a jewelled headpiece. The bride carried a white satin muff trimmed with red tea roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Mona Caldwell, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Sylvia Campbell and Jacqueline Boucher, wore similar frocks of turquoise linen with nylon overlay trim at the neckline and sleeves. They carried Colonial bouquets of turquoise and white carnations.

Little Miss Susie Segrin, as flower girl, wore a long gown of rose velvet with a white bow in her hair. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses.

The fathers of the bride and groom acted as witnesses while the ushers were Messrs. Laurent Monette, Gilles Labonte and Jean-Claude Couture.

Mrs. Campbell, mother of the bride, wore an ensemble of burgundy crepe, the knee-length coat featured an overlay of white checks. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Mrs. Jeanson, mother of the groom, was in a three piece ensemble of brown crepe with a multicolored blouse. Turquoise carnations formed her corsage.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception for some 140 guests was held at the Riverview, with an orchestra in attendance for dancing.

Leaving on their wedding trip to Atlantic City N.J. and Niagara Falls, Mrs. Jeanson wore a two piece outfit of turquoise. Her corsage was composed of red roses.

Mrs. George Wightman, aged 88, and Mrs. Jeanson, aged 92, grandmothers of the bride and bridegroom, attended the wedding.

Guests were present from Sorel, Montreal, Greenfield Park, California, Hartford, Conn., St. Johns, Granby, Stanbridge East and Bedford.

SHEDRICK—LOYER

BEDFORD — The marriage of Lorna Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Loyer, to Raymond Joseph Shedrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shedrick, all of Clarenceville, took place on September 20 at 2 p.m. in the Wesley United Church, Clarenceville.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Oliver Carmichael, the organist was Mrs. Clement Derick.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of satin and lace, fashioned with long sleeves, square neckline and fitted bodice. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion, trimmed with lace was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls. Her bouquet was of red roses.

Mrs. Donald Vosburgh, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a floor-length gown of chiffon over taffeta in turquoise with short lace sleeves. A small pill box crown held her shoulder length veil in place. Her corsage was red roses. Miss Norma Loyer, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a floor-length, off the shoulder gown of mauve satin, her shoulder length veil was held in place by a small pill box. She wore a corsage of red roses.

Mr. Donald Vosburgh, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Loyer. The ushers were Douglas Loyer, brother of the bride and Gordon Shedrick, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Loyer, mother of the bride, wore a frock of white laminated wool trimmed with silver sequins and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Shedrick, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige lace over taffeta gown and a corsage of pink roses. The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Beerworth, was in navy blue with a corsage of pink roses.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in Clarenceville, at the Canadusa Hotel. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a floral background of a bride and groom. There was a second cake, beautifully decorated with best wishes to the newly married couple. The music for the reception was played by their friends and Leonard Wilson, a cousin of the bridegroom.

For a trip to Cornwall, Ont., Mrs. Shedrick wore a dress of red lace over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Shedrick have taken up residence in Clarenceville.

Guests were present from Montreal, Toronto, Burlington, Vt., East Fairfield, Vt., Howick and Bedford.

MR. AND MRS. BERNARD REGIS LAROCHELLE following their wedding at St. Bibiane Church, Richmond, on August 16. The bride is the former Margaret Elizabeth

Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cross, Ulverton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexandre Larochelle of Windsor. (Photo: Wm. H. Lunan)

Larochelle--Cross double ring ceremony

RICHMOND — The marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Cross, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cross, Ulverton, to Mr. Bernard Regis Larochelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexandre Larochelle of Windsor took place at St. Bibiane Church, on August 16, at 2:30 p.m.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Cloutier.

The bride, accompanied by the ailar by her father, wore a floor-length white dress of peau de soie with a high neckline and long sleeves ending in points trimmed with applied flowers of white lace. Her train was attached at the neckline with bows ending in two scallops with a bow at center and matching applied lace flowers. She wore a full-length veil of tulle illusion edged in lace and held in place with a crown. She carried a cascade of red gladioli. Her only jewelry was a set of cultured drop pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

The maid of honor, Miss Roberta Cross, sister of the bride, wore an empire-styled floor length gown of yellow peau de soie with a lace train attached at the shoulder with matching bows of ribbon. She wore a headdress of nylon net held in place with matching flowers and carried a bouquet of mauve rose form piceote begonias.

Miss Sandra Brown, a friend of the bride, and Miss Nicole Letendre, cousin of the groom, were bridesmaids. They were dressed in mint green gowns and head dresses identical to the maid of honor and carried similar pink bouquets. The attendants wore a single cultured drop pearl on a gold chain, a gift from the bride.

Mr. Leo Larochelle, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Arnold Cross, brother of the bride, and Mr. Denis Beaudoin, friend of the groom.

The organist played traditional music. The church was tastefully decorated with baskets of cut flowers.

The bride's mother chose a pale blue silk linen dress with a three quarter length lace coat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Larochelle, mother of the groom, chose a two-piece dress of mauve with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A banquet was held in the Legion Hall where a hundred and fifteen guests were present.

The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake in cathedral design flanked on either side with baskets of cut flowers.

Following the banquet a reception was held in the evening, when approximately 250 friends and neighbours spent the evening dancing and socializing to the music of "The Green Hornets" from East Angus.

The bride and groom left on a motor trip through the New England States and points in Ontario. For travelling the bride chose a fall dress of green and brown tweed with gold accessories and a tangerine corsage.

Guests were from Clarkson, Ont.; St. Rose; Ville LaSalle; N.D.G.; Montreal, Sherbrooke, Brompton, Cookshire, Greenlay, Windsor, Danville, South Durham, Richmond, Melbourne, and Ulverton.

The couple will reside in Windsor.

Mets trim Braves 7-4; Baltimore humbles Twins 11-2

1969 World Series preview: Mets to face Orioles

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Baltimore Orioles will meet the National League's New York Mets in baseball's 1969 World Series. The Orioles swept the best-of-five divisional playoffs for the American League pennant in three games with an 11-2 romp over Minnesota Twins on Monday.

Paul Blair and Don Buford cracked nine hits between them for the rampaging Orioles, who will open the series at home Saturday against the Mets, winner of their National League playoff in three straight against Atlanta Braves. Monday's clincher was a complete game for the first two games of the series—both pitcher's duels which stretched into extra innings.

BLAIR LEADS ATTACK

The Orioles rattled 18 hits around Metropolitan Stadium, eight of them for extra bases. Blair, who had five hits, drove in five runs, two of them on a 407-foot home run in the eighth inning and Ellie Hendricks drove in three with a pair of doubles. Seven Minnesota pitchers took the pounding while Baltimore's

Jim Palmer rode the heavy hitting to an easy victory. He scattered 10 hits, two of them running singles by Rich Reese.

The game started out as if the Twins might reverse Buford and Blair's winning trend. Buford and Blair opened with infield singles but Bob Miller, the Twins' starter, escaped without surrendering a run.

After Reese drove in a Minnesota run in the bottom of the first, the Orioles struck back in the second.

Brooks Robinson doubled for his seventh hit of the series and moved to third when right fielder Tony Oliva slipped and dropped Dave Johnson's easy fly for an error. Hendricks followed with a two-run double and came home on Buford's two-out single.

Two innings later, the Orioles upped their lead to 5-1.

BELANGER TRIPLES

Mark Belanger opened with a triple and Buford walked with one out. Then both runners scored on Blair's double.

After Reese drove in Minnesota's second run in the fifth, the Orioles scored again in the sixth with Buford doubling, moving to third on Blair's hit and scoring on Frank Robinson's single.

In the eighth, it was Buford and Blair again. This time Buford singled for his fourth hit of the game and Blair followed with a towering home run into the lower deck in left centre.

An inning later, Dave Johnson singled and Hendricks poked his second double to right field, scoring Johnson. When Oliva threw badly, Hendricks also came in. Then Belanger singled and Blair capped his big day, dropping a run-scoring single in front of Oliva in right field.

It seemed the Orioles might never be retired in the ninth but Blair overran second base on his double and got caught in a rundown and was thrown out for the third out of the inning.

The pennant is the second for the Orioles since major league baseball returned to Baltimore in 1954. They won the American League flag in 1966 and then swept the World Series in four straight games from Los Angeles Dodgers.

Jerry Koosman during the second locker-room champagne shower in 10 days.

Even after another front line pitcher, Gary Gentry, failed to last three innings, the Mets came up with the answer in Nolan Ryan.

Ryan came in to pitch out of a second and third, none out situation in the third inning and went on to stop the Braves on only three hits, striking out seven.

"I never had any doubts during the game," said the 22-year-old right-hander. "I knew I had to throw the fast ball. The last time I pitched so well in a title game was in high school."

Aaron said that "everything the Mets did was right—every time they'd hit a ball down the line or in the hole."

"I hope they go on and beat Baltimore and I think they are going to beat them," Aaron said.

Harris said Nolan Ryan's relief work won the game for New York.

"He came in and struck out one of the best hitters (Rico Carty)," Harris said. "That's the first time I've seen Ryan pitch this year and I wish the hell I hadn't seen him today."

Sport briefs

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Bookmakers established Baltimore Orioles as 8-to-5 favorites Monday to whip the Cinderella New York Mets in baseball's World Series beginning Saturday.

Baltimore was listed as a tentative 7-to-5 favorite to win the opening game.

Odds on the opening game in Baltimore will be firm when managers name their starting pitchers.

NEW YORK (CP) — Donato Paduano of Montreal, fighting with an injured right hand and on the defensive most of the night, won a unanimous 10-round decision over veteran Pablo Lopez of New York City in a bruising encounter at Madison Square Garden Monday night.

Paduano was cut over the right eye and his left eye was almost closed by the tough New Yorker who backed down only twice in the fight in spite of taking a beating from Paduano, who used his left on his pressing opponent for most of the fight.

The victory was the 15th straight for the handsome Italian-Canadian, who has not lost a professional fight.

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP) — Graham Hill, the British speed star who twice won the world driving championship, was reported in fair condition Monday with injuries suffered in a crash during Sunday's Y.S. Grand Prix.

A spokesman at Arnot-Ogden Hospital here said Hill's right leg, fractured in three places, was in traction. Hill also is being treated for a dislocated left knee.

Hill, 40, was injured when his Lotus-Ford Formula 1 car blew a tire at 150 m.p.h., ran off the track at Watkins Glen and overturned several times.

Series winners will receive $15,000

NEW YORK (AP) — New York Mets, too young to worry, were a cocky bunch before, but now there's no living with them.

"We're the greatest team in the world right now," said Cleo Jones after the Mets captured their first pennant Monday with a 7-4 victory over Atlanta Braves for a three-game sweep of their best-of-five series.

"Nobody can stop us... Atlanta, Baltimore, nobody. We're gonna win it all."

"When we start hitting like that (27 runs and 37 hits during the three games) there's no way anyone is going to beat us," said

NEW YORK (AP) — The members of the winning team in the World Series will get a minimum of $15,000 each while the losers will collect a minimum of $10,000 each. The members of the two teams eliminated in playoff series will get a minimum of $5,000 each.

In addition, the teams that finished second and third in each of the four divisions—two in the American League and two in the National—will get a share of the World Series receipts just as the first-division finishers received in the past when both leagues operated without divisions.

Under the agreement announced by the two leagues last April, a minimum guarantee of $484,000 was set for the winning team in the World Series and $320,000 for the losers.

After the 1968 World Series, each of the winning Detroit Tigers received $10,936 for defeating St. Louis Cardinals, who got $7,079.

Eddie Shack to entertain L.A. Kings

Eddie Shack, the unpredictable "clown prince" of the National Hockey League, has landed with Los Angeles Kings, his fourth NHL club in 14 pro seasons.

The landing was literal as Shack arrived at the Kings' Barrie, Ont. training camp in a helicopter. Shack's popular ice antics will fill seats in Jack Kent Cooke's Los Angeles Forum and the 32-year-old left winger should feel at home in the shadows of Hollywood.

But the Kings did not obtain Shack from Boston Bruins for entertainment value alone. The roving winger has the ability to ignite an extra effort when he leaps over the boards and he contributed 34 goals and 30 assists in two seasons at Boston.

While Shack's presence should help the Kings improve on last season's fourth-place finish in the Western Division, new coach Hal Laycoe is concerned over defensive problems, caused by injuries and contract troubles.

LOST THREE PLAYERS

Wayne Rutledge, who shared netminding duties with rookie sensation Gerry Desjardins last season, last month had an operation for removal of a calcium deposit in his groin. Laycoe does not expect Rutledge to be fit for action until Nov. 1.

Brent Hughes, a regular defenceman last season, missed most of the training camp with a bruised eyeball, suffered in an early practice. Bill White, considered the key Kings' defenceman, has abandoned the team, seeking a better deal in his four-year contract.

"The problem now," Laycoe said in a training camp interview, "is to find the right combination on defence."

Returnees Bob Wall and Dale Rolfe have had Jacques Lemieux, Dave Amadio and rookie Dale (Red) Hoganson for blue line partners in exhibition games. Bruce Landon has shared goaltending work with Desjardins.

Amadio played 65 games at Los Angeles last season and Lemieux comes from the Kings' American Hockey League farm club in Springfield, Mass.

Landon and Hoganson, together with centre Robert (Butch) Goring and defenceman Greg Boddy, all signed professional contracts after being selected by the Kings in the 1969 amateur draft.

Landon, from Peterborough of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A series, is regarded as a big prospect by Laycoe, who says he plays "like an experienced pro."

Hoganson, from the Estevan, Sask., Bruins, is given a strong chance to stick with the Kings.

Goring, who had a strong training camp, and Boddy, the Edmonton Oil Kings grad Laycoe calls an "outstanding skater," both will start the year at Springfield.

Ski-Doo is your number one choice in snowmobiles

Come see the 1970 reasons why

Number one in sales
Ski-Doo has introduced more people to the sport of snowmobiling than any other make. That's because Ski-Doo invented snowmobiling. And ever since its first appearance on a snowfield, Ski-Doo has been the undisputed snowmobile leader.

Number one in selection
For 1970, Ski-Doo offers five exciting series — each with a totally different personality. We're sure you'll find one to match your own. If it's luxury you're after, there's Ski-Doo Nordic. If it's sporty action you're itching for, there's Ski-Doo Olympique. If you want a Ski-Doo that's a big, comfortable and fun to drive, there's Ski-Doo 12/3. It's so low priced, a lot of people are buying two and three.

Number one in sizzle
Every one of our snowmobiles is powered by the world famous Rotax engine — designed exclusively for Ski-Doo. No other engine delivers more efficient power for climbing, towing, just plain turning around. And no engine acts better, at all speeds — all temperatures. And this year, our Rotax engines are even more dependable. They're bigger in size, with more cc's, but deliver the same horsepower as before for the most trouble-free performance in snowmobile history.

Number one in service
Your Ski-Doo dealer is a good guy to know. Not just because he sells the number one snowmobile. But because he can offer better service after the sale. He's a pro with know-how, ready to give you qualified repair service — whenever you need it. He's the man who offers a free 15-hour service check to new Ski-Doo owners. And a parts and service warranty that gives you real peace of mind. He's also the one person in town who can tell you where to find all the best snowmobiling trails. If you want the number one choice in snowmobiles, in high-fashion winter sportswear and accessories, see your Ski-Doo dealer. He'll show you all the 1970 reasons why you go one better when you go Ski-Doo.

Hunting of antlerless deer to be controlled

The Directors of the Derby Fish and Game Club was held the evening of Monday, Sept. 15, in the village hall. All 16 of the directors attended and president Paul Bedard presided.

The correspondence included information about the antlerless deer season. Following a hearing on Sept. 4 in Newport there was a general feeling this should be so it has become a reality. There has also been other hearings all with the majority wanting this. This will be by party-permit system and the method used will control the number of antlerless deer during the regular season beginning the second Saturday in November for 16 consecutive days.

This club will be releasing 100 pheasants in the Newport Derby areas just prior to pheasant season. The points where they will be released will not be made public, it's up to the hunters to find the birds.

There is installation of nine positions at the archery range at the Derby Club shooting range and the area cleared of brush 25 to 50 yards distance with installation of additional distance planned for the future. To help to defray the costs of this project the women folk are having a food sale on Oct. 4.

A new sign for identification purposes has been erected at the Club Junior pool between Derby Line and Derby it was reported.

On Sept. 24, a Hunter Safety Program will start at St Edward's Parish hall from 7 to 8 p.m. This is open to all sexes, the age of ten minimum to and including adults. All one has to do is report at the hall.

The Derby Club membership continues to increase and now stands at 258, which is most encouraging to the directors.

The report of range activities noted work being done of the ski run trail which the Club hopes to have ready when skiing season rolls around, a new electric trap is installed in the trap house, erection of a pattern board for sighting in shot guns. Ben Heath, range officer, announced having shoots on Sunday afternoon, starting at 1:00 p.m. at the Derby Club range as long as the weather remains good. There will be trap and running deer targets.

Mr. Bedard appointed a three-man committee to shop for a spotting scope for use at the range which it hopes to have by October 26 — sighting in day at the range. This will assist in facilitating activities.

Commissioner E. Kehoe has made the announcement that there will be no more ice fishing at Lake Seymour, the lake will be closed in the winter season for the coming two years and the Department will conduct a study of the lake to see how the ice fishing of the past two years has affected the lake. The public opinion of the people in the area influenced this decision to close.

Bill Gosselin, chairman of the $100 project announced the ticket sales are doing very well. The prize will be awarded on October 5.

Home Extension Club

DERBY LINE — (Special) — her by Oct. 2 Mrs. Barrup announced that the County Council meeting will be held at NCUHS in Newport on Oct. 2 with registrations at 6:30 p.m. The club is asked to be in charge of registrations with Mrs. Gwen Dow, Mrs. Shirley Davis and Mrs. Barrup to look after it.

Canada's skiers rated high

By BRUCE LEVETT
Canadian Press
Sports Editor

TORONTO (CP) — Canada will send more than 40 skiers, coaches and managers to Europe this season to keep alive a tradition of victory that began with Lucile Wheeler and progressed through Anne Heggveit to Nancy Greene.

There will be 10 men and five girls, plus four trainers, on the alpine squad. The cross country team will have four men and four women, and there will be four jumpers.

The alpine skiers, with the exception of the trainees, will stay overseas for the world championships Feb. 7-15 at Val Gardena, Italy.

The nordic squad will go to the championships in Vysoke Tatry, Czechoslovakia, Feb. 14-22.

Pat Ramage, finance chairman of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association and in charge of raising more than $850,000 this year, said the Canadian alpine team is considered "in the top five or six teams in the world."

The girls are rated probably next to the United States, women's team.

VICTORY TRADITION

"The U.S. women's team is considered the strongest in the world right now. They have more skiers rated high in the international lists than any other country — but how many gold medals have they won? One, since 1958."

Pat, a club skier who never made it to international competition is the first Canadian ever to be named an international referee.

She says Canada's victory tradition began when Lucile Wheeler of St. Jovite, Que., went to Europe in 1952 for the Oslo Olympic Games. By 1956 she was among the best in the world and won a bronze medal in the downhill at the Olympics in Cortina, Italy. In 1958, at Badgastein, Austria, she won gold slalom at the world championships.

In 1954 Anne Heggveit joined the team and — running against Miss Wheeler — developed to the point where, in the 1960 Olympic Games in Squaw Valley, Calif., she won the gold in the slalom.

That was the year Nancy Greene joined the team, in hot pursuit of Miss Heggveit. She won the gold in the giant slalom at the Olympic Games in 1968. She also won the first two World Cups, in 1967-68.

WE'RE WORLD POWER

"Actually, Canada is considered a world power in

Sports Fillers

Smilin' Cub

CHICAGO — (NEA) — The Chicago Cubs may have lost the National League pennant, but at least one player hasn't lost his sense of humor.

Al Spangler had this to say after a recent game about Leo Durocher's feud with newsmen: "It was a real funny scene. Twelve reporters came in here (the dressing room) single file, walked to the middle of the room and then stood in a circle, interviewing one another."

Expert Analyst

NEW YORK — (NEA) — When Dave Kocourek analyzes this year's AFL title game for NBC-TV, he should know what he's talking about.

He has played in seven of the AFL's nine championship games, five with the San Diego Chargers and two with the Oakland Raiders. His take from the title games (two winners, five losers) was $211,166.68.

Pat says racing. "Of the 27 gold medals awarded to women in alpine competition at world championships and Olympic Games in the last 10 years, Canada won six."

Pat says it takes six to eight years to develop a skier to world calibre, but that two young members of the girls' squad "have been a surprise and may make it earlier."

Pat feels that if there is a successor to Nancy Greene on the team, it is probably Betsy Clifford of Old Chelsea, Que., or Judy Crawford of Toronto.

Betsy, at 14, was the youngest alpine competitor in the history of the Olympic Games at Grenoble, France, last year.

"She has had a fifth in giant slalom, slalom and downhill, which is pretty consistent for a 14-year-old kid," Pat says.

"Judy is 17 now and she had a fifth in a World Cup downhill race before she was injured last year."

She also feels the men's team is ready for big things.

The boys were breaking into the top 10 in the world last year. If one makes it, others will follow because there's great depth on this team. They'll all be close to one another and their times have been within 3-10ths of a second of winning times."

IT TAKES MONEY

The money Pat will collect includes a requested $256,000 federal grant, $200,000 from the public in support of the national ski team, plus 158,000 from local area associations and $160,000 from sponsors and the general fund. Under the fund, each senior member is assessed 50 cents a year, 20 cents of which goes to the national association. Other money is raised through sales of posters or pins.

"Add to that $75,000 we need for scholarships. We want to build up a foundation so we can invest the money and use the interest for scholarships to deserving skiers."

This money "will be spent up to the 30th of next April for everything — cross-country, jumping, alpine, Canadian junior and senior championships, administration, our national office coaching schools, junior development and recreational skiing."

Pat Ramage was born in Vancouver but brought up in Montreal where she learned to ski. She tore knee cartilages as a teen-ager and moved into the administrative end of the sport, clocking racers, keeping books, etc.

She never made it to international competition but because of her work, other young skiers have.
