BUSINESS ASSOCIATION TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

J. JACKSON CHAIRMAN OF YMCA DRIVE

Westmount-St. Henri Division Campaign Will Open on Wednesday — Objective in Montreal Area is $115,000 for Maintenance and $225,000 for War Services

J. Douglas Jackson, well-known Westmount resident, will serve as chairman of the local Y.M.C.A. financial campaign in the Westmount-St. Henri division which opens on Wednesday. W. H. Goodwin will serve as deputy chairman and secretarial duties will be handled by W. H. Spearman, E. I. Taylor, and H. A. Noble. Objectives of this year's campaign in the Montreal area is $115,000 for maintenance and $225,000 for war services.

While not underestimating the importance of the "Y"'s Canadian war services to Canadian armmen, soldiers and sailors the great importance of "home front" activity, among Canadian youth was stressed today by Mr. Jackson. "Now, more than at any time in the history of our country," Mr. Jackson said, "we have a tremendous responsibility to the youth who will be the leaders of tomorrow. Upon their shoulders will fall the responsibility of preserving and maintaining in Canada those principles and freedoms for which we now fight. Try as we will, we cannot keep from them the talk of Nazism, Communism and other revolutionary propaganda. All we can do is direct their thinking into right channels, to teach them democracy and what it means, to help them appreciate the principles of freedom, to keep them healthy in body, mind and spirit so that they may be ready to take up where we leave off."

Largely Self-Supporting
Mr. Jackson mentioned that the "Y" in Montreal was 80 per cent self-supporting but that a minimum of $115,000 was urgently needed in order to maintain essential services among all classes of society. "Upwards of 1,500,000 citizens availed themselves of Y.M.C.A. facilities last year," Mr. Jackson stated. "All sections of the community were represented and the maintenance budget is vitally essential for two reasons: First, to protect and train youth in Canada so that they may fulfill the responsibilities of citizenship; second, to supply the base for service to the boys in our fighting forces. With youth at home the need is great. Without the home organization to supply the personnel, administration and control, war service

Spirit Of Comradeship Overseas In War Shown

The spirit of comradeship in England during these crucial days of war is graphically described in the following article by Miss Leslie Bell of 22 Anwoth Road, who is presently in the "thick" of things in Eastbourne, England, which she has titled, "Making the most of a train journey in a black-out."

Being Canadian I have an advantage during the train journey in the black-out. I have no hesitation in talking to my fellow-travelers. They usually respond cordially. Once I asked a soldier beside me why one sees so little wheat growing in England. In reply he told me more than I had ever heard about the Ecclesiastical Commission's effect on farming: "A farmer's wife, sitting opposite me, was sitting on the other side of the aisle. Last week I had the most interesting talk of all for I shared the compartment with two railwaymen and a soldier. One of the railwaymen had been a prisoner in Germany during the last war and the other has a brother now engaged in mine sweeping. A fearsome vocation. He said their worst trouble was the difficulty

Auto Crashes Into Pole; None Hurt

When his car crashed into a trolley line support pole on St. Catherine street near Redfern avenue at 9.45 o'clock last night, the Rev. G. A. Taillefer, of Beauharnois narrowly escaped serious injury. The force of the impact cracked the pole in two and traffic was held up until it was removed from the street.

Rev. Taillefer was taken to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital and was permitted to leave following treatment. His car was badly wrecked.

Y.M.C.A. Thanks Residents For Records

Appreciation for the exceptionally wide response that followed an appeal by the local "Y" branch for unwanted gramophone records to be exchanged for an electric gramophone for the use of soldiers, was formally expressed yesterday by E. A. Taylor, boys' work secretary. Mr. Taylor, through an article in the Examiner, asked residents who had used disks, to donate them to the "Y". These were exchanged with the R.C.A. Victor Company for a brand new electric gramophone. The response to the appeal was so great that the machine was secured in little over a week.

Since then, the Victor Co. has agreed to trade the original machine for a more elaborate model in exchange for 200 more records and the "Y" would appreciate receiving this number from persons who have unwanted recordings. The branch will call for them.—W.I. 2150.

WOMEN SUFFER BADLY IN WAR SPEAKER SAYS

Archdeacon Gower-Rees Addresses Meeting of Shaar Hashomayim Women's Auxiliaries

"The consequences of war fall heavily on women," Archdeacon Gower-Rees told members of the Shaar Hashomayim Women's Auxiliaries yesterday afternoon at the 20th annual luncheon meeting held in Mount Royal Hotel, when he spoke on "Womanhood and War."

"Women suffer untold agonies during a war, for they use their imagination, which at times, due to extreme stress, is likely to run wild. They picture scenes of war, which are extremely distressing to their physical and mental health.

"To men at war, death comes without warning, he knows the worst and passes through such situations without a vivid imagination," the speaker said.

All catastrophes hit women much harder than men, for it is the mother of the family who has to make ends meet. She has no one to stand by her and is thus left in the obscurity of her home where there is no relief for her.

Men on the other hand, get among their friends and discuss such problems, which give them assurance and relief.

"No nation can escape the ter-

It was announced yesterday by his brother.

RESIDENTS ARE SEEN IN FILM OF YMCA WORK

"Y" Activity Overseas is Graphically Displayed in Movie to be Shown Throughout Canada

The work being done overseas by the Canadian Y.M.C.A. for Canada's armed forces, is graphically portrayed in a new war film, "Over There," produced by the Associated Screen News for distribution to "Y" branches and Red Triangle Clubs throughout Canada. The film was enthusiastically received by representative Montreal audiences at a private screening yesterday and again last night at a special Y.M.C.A. campaign dinner.

Opening with shots of the First Canadian Contingent being welcomed in England by Anthony Eden, the picture moves swiftly through various phases of "Y" service to Canadian soldiers: Hockey, softball, basketball, boxing, wrestling and physical training activities among Canadian soldiers under Y.M.C.A. auspices are shown at Aldershot and elsewhere in England.

Considerable footage is devoted to Captain T. W. Jones, minister of Calvary United Church, who is on leave as senior officer with the "Y" overseas. Other well-known Montreal "Y" workers portrayed in the film are Max Ford and Bruce McDiarmid. The musical score was arranged by Howard Fogg, Corey Thompson, prominent Westmount radio personality, acts as narrator.

WILL NAME NEW OFFICERS AT SESSION ON APRIL 18; CHAIRMEN TO REVIEW YEAR

Gathering of Business Men Scheduled to Take Place in Victoria Hall Commencing at 8.30 O'Clock — President and Committee Heads Will Present Reports — Arrangements for Citizens' Night to be Made

The annual meeting of the Business Association of Westmount, when the election of new officers is to be the principal item on a lengthy agenda, will be held in Victoria Hall one week from tonight, April 18, commencing at 8.30 o'clock.

While the nominating committee has drawn up a slate that places at least one candidate in each office, nominations will be received from the floor and in a high percentage of posts it is believed that elections will be necessary. For this reason, the association urges that as many merchants as possible be present to cast their ballot.

During the meeting the annual report of the president, W. Gordon Kenwood, and of the various committee chairmen, will be presented and the year's activities reviewed.

Plans for the session were drawn up at an executive meeting held on Monday night, and a number of matters of particular interest to local businessmen will come up for discussion, when the body meets as a whole next week.

Among the most important of the items on which the members will be asked to decide, is the formation of plans for the annual Citizens' Night, tentatively scheduled to take place in Victoria Hall next month and which the Association is intent on making the most successful of the many open gatherings which it has sponsored.

Views of the members regarding the open session will be given careful consideration by the executive when it draws up final plans for the May function. It is considered likely that the majority of the members will favor a meeting along the association's exceptionally successful "amateur night" that packed Victoria Hall to capacity last year.

From previous meetings held this month by the executive and general membership, it also seems probable that door prizes will again be offered and that a variety show and guest speaker will be included in the program.

The last show of this type presented by the association, brought out one of the largest crowds ever to seek admittance to Victoria Hall and many had to be turned away. Arrangements will be made to accommodate all who show up this year, however.

The executive in office during the past term, has expressed the wish that a strong board be elected to guide the association for the ensuing year and thereby asks every member whose time is available, be present at the meeting next Thursday. Only by a good turnout, it is pointed out, can the new governing board truly represent the choice of the greater number of the members of the association.

SGT. TREMBLAY STARTS COURSE AT ROCKCLIFFE

Detective Will be Trained In Police Work for 12 Months by R.C.M.P.

Sergeant-Detective René Tremblay of the Westmount Police Department, was sent by the force to Rockcliffe, Ont., on Monday to commence a twelve-month course in police work at the Canadian Police School, operated by Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Rev. Gilbert Oliver Will Be Preacher

Rev. Gilbert Oliver, rector of St. Matthias church, Westmount, will be the special preacher at St. Matthew's Anglican church in Hampstead on Sunday morning. Mr. Oliver is noted for his forceful style of preaching, coupled with his fine sense of human understanding and his messages are always timely.

Montreal Masonic Choir Heard At Victoria Hall

Last week, the Montreal Masonic Choir gave its Annual Concert in Victoria Hall to a large and unusually enthusiastic audience. The choir is an exceedingly well-trained ensemble, due to its capable conductor, Walter Clapperton, Hon. A.R.C.M. who has much reason to be proud of the musical ability of this splendid organization.

The program, a long but carefully chosen one, opened with three well-played organ solos by George M. Brewer, F.A.G.O., who also lent valuable support to the choir with organ accompaniment. Miss Doris Killam, L.M.S., the accompanist, was also heard in two pianoforte numbers, "Reflets Dans l'Eau," by Debussy and an "Delibes-Dohvanni Waltz" which highly pleased the audience and added Liszt's "Dance of the Gnomes" as an encore.

A WHISPERING CAMPAIGN

An interesting experiment in public relations has been started by the Young Men's Christian Association in Toronto—it is what would be called a whispering campaign if the cause were less worthy and is epitomized in the adjuration for you and me to "Speak a good word for the Y."

Not too many people do speak a good word for the Y. The Y merely is an institution which everyone takes for granted and few—perhaps not even many of its 100,000 members in Canada—take the trouble thoroughly to know and understand. An impartial survey of the Y.M.C.A. by the most impartial surveyor, The Printed Word, reveals that the Y is an institution which is doing a pretty good job—a first-class job—among boys and young men and men not so young in the sixty-odd cities in Canada where active branches are maintained.

The Y might not need a good word spoken for it but for the fact that in these times there is a decline in the significance of symbols. Gone are the days when the symbol of an Egyptian god appeared more often than his image. A signet ring now is merely a piece of jewellery. To the great majority, the Y.M.C.A. triangle is merely a sign or a decoration. A basketball net might serve as well.

Yet an older generation recalls that the triangle meant something, the top bar meant the spirit and others the mind and body and each is equal in importance in the work of the Young Men's Christian Association. One has heard it argued that the words should be replaced in the symbol of the Y, but at least it would be worth while reminding people of casual attitude that the Y circuit is three-phase as well as high tension.

One reason the Y often is subjected to unfair criticism is that it is doing its job so well. Because it does not neglect the spirit, the godless are inclined to sneer. Because its large buildings include gymnasias and swimming pools, those who think that to be Christianlike is to be long-faced contend that the word "Christian" does not belong in its name. The only phase of its work about which there is no criticism is that which has to do with mental development. It is a long time in this supposedly literate country since education and training have been decried.

On the whole, the Y.M.C.A. tries to do for the boy and young man what the Canadian parent—a nominal if not always active Christian—would do for the son in the home. Health is important, mental training is important and none but a rampant atheist would endeavor to exclude religion from the lives of the young. So the Y's balance of effort and programme is consistent with highest aims of Canadian parenthood.

And now, as in an earlier war, the Y is serving all men wearing the King's uniform at home and overseas. The story of the Y's work in an earlier war is a great story, commendable in all respects, which never has been properly told. Today and tomorrow the young men who form Canada's armed forces are being and will be served by the Y.M.C.A. which, out of its 96 years of experience, has learned how to do a job of providing for the spirits, minds and bodies of men in their off-duty hours. No Canadian who wishes to contribute to the wellbeing of the men in uniform need hesitate to help the Y in this work. No Canadian who desires to see the boys and young men grow into good citizens need hesitate to contribute to the normal work that the Young Men's Christian Association began in Canada as long ago as 1851, a scant seven years after a young clerk named Williams established the first Y in old London.

NEW ORDER

"There are some who believe that the new order can only come through surrender in some measure by the nations of their sovereign rights in order to clear the way for some more organic union. But if it is thus hoped to create a more truly international system out of independent states we must learn the lessons of the past," states Lord Halifax.

"No paper plan will endure that does not freely spring from the will of the peoples who alone can give it life. Nor will it avail for one people alone to see a vision that has no message for their neighbors."

IMPREGNABLE INDIA

In the midst of disquieting and downright alarming stories about unrest in India comes the speech delivered in Sarnia by H. Rivington Poussette, a former Canadian Trade Commissioner, who knows the country well. He describes India as impregnable to attack by Russia, the country which, of course, furnishes the greatest threat to Britain's eastern empire.

If a country is impregnable, it must be taken for granted that it not only possesses inviolable safeguards in the way of natural and man-made fortifications, but also men to man them who can be depended upon to stand firm in defense. Mr. Poussette, who has first-hand knowledge, gives the impression that he has no doubts as to the loyalty and dependability of the Indian people to defend their land against the enemies of Britain. Such a report should go far towards allaying fears which have been engendered by rumors of unrest so serious as to threaten British sovereignty in India.

Women Suffer

rible consequences of this war, for it reaches every one in the world. There is no place for passive neutrals, all governments should decide where they stand for the freedom of all democratic countries is at stake," the speaker declared.

In concluding, Archdeacon Gower-Rees said that we of the British Empire, are united to preserve those things that are valued most in life and people should not become dependent, for this time we shall not fail.

Introduced by Dr. H. Abramowitz, the speaker was thanked by Mrs. Edward Solomon.

In the "residential report of the Assoc. n. Mrs. Solomon reviewed the work done by the members during the past year. A substantial grant of money is made annually to the Sunday School of Shaar Hashomayim, and classes in English have been an innovation this last season, instruction being given, free of charge, three times a week.

A Jewish branch of the Red Cross has been active at the Synagogue, meeting twice a week, and has reported 1500 articles completed and sent in to headquarters. Mrs. Solomon pointed out that Shaar Hashomayim women had taken an interest in welfare and philanthropic projects of the city. All festivals had been celebrated in colorful manner by the Auxiliary, and 33 baskets of food had been dispensed to the needy during the Purim Festival. General meetings had been of a cultural, educational and artistic character.

Donations had been made to the Children's Memorial Hospital, Poppy Day Fund, Canadian Red Cross, Ort Society, Palestine Light House, Montreal Talmud Torahs, Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, and other causes.

Dr. Abramowitz opened the luncheon by reciting a prayer for peace.

GUARD YOUTH WHILE YOUTH GUARDS YOU

ON THE HOME FRONT
A Responsibility and a Challenge
we dare not neglect...

Amid all the fervor and responsibilities of these war days, we cannot... we MUST NOT... forget the problem of youth at home.

We might as well lay down our arms, and surrender now to the forces of evil, as to neglect the youth of Montreal on whose shoulders must ultimately fall the responsibility of preserving and maintaining in Canada those principles and freedoms for which we now fight.

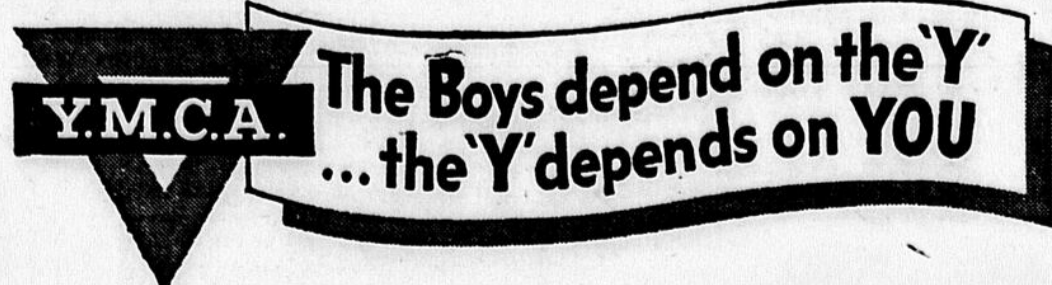

Here in Montreal today, another war generation is growing up—thousands of youth in schools, colleges, or serving on Canada's industrial front. To the normally perplexing problems of youth are now added the unsettling influences of a war-torn world. Naturally, they are bewildered and puzzled... all this talk of War—Democracy—Freedom—what does it mean to them?

Try as we will, we cannot keep from their the talk of Nazism, Communism and other revolutionary propaganda. All we CAN do is to direct their thinking into right channels... to teach them democracy and what it means... to help them appreciate the principles of freedom... to keep them healthy in body, mind and spirit so that they may be ready to take up where we leave off.

Some of these boys are now fighting a more demoralizing battle than war... the battle of disillusionment and discontent... a breeding ground for fear, hatred, revolution, which could well undermine—yes, eventually rob us entirely of those principles for which we now fight, and waste forever all the sacrifices our men on service may make. Normal discipline naturally relaxes in the tension and anxiety of war. What anchor can we give our youth at home... what training... what encouragement... what hope?

This is OUR responsibility now—even more than in time of peace—a responsibility we must not... we DARE not neglect.

This Year... more than ever... support

"Your daughter has perhaps told you what she means to me. I told her yesterday that she is the joy of my days, the dream of my nights."

"Well, she did say something about it; but not quite like that. She just said 'at she had clicked.'—Cronica.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT POLICE DANCE

Committee in Charge Says Function Taking Place April 24 Assured Success

So great has been the demand for tickets to the dance in Victoria Hall on April 24, being sponsored by the Amateur Athletic Association of the Westmount Police and Fire Departments in aid of the Red Cross, that its success is assured, it was announced by the committee in charge of arrangements yesterday.

In order to prevent overcrowding of the hall the number of tickets has been limited and all those who wish to attend are advised to secure the number of tickets as soon as possible. Tickets are available from all members of the departments. There are but a comparatively few left now, it was stated.

Although the dance committee has been reorganized due to the fact that two of its members have joined the C.A.S.F., there has been no change in the arrangements for the dance and the function will be held exactly as originally planned. Music is to be supplied by Blake Sewell and His Orchestra.

PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED BY EDWIN ESPY

While maintaining that neither Canada or the United States have solved their social problems, a truly Christian way, R. H. Edwin Espy, internationally known Christian youth leader, stated that our problems are at a minimum in comparison with those of the young people of Europe. "We have no conception of sacrifice such as they have," he said.

Addressing a supper meeting in the Y.M.C.A., consisting of Y.W. and Y.M. members, on "What of European Youth Today," Mr. Espy said that by and large German youth are behind Hitler owing to clever propaganda over a long period of time. Contrasting the differences in Germany and England, he said that in Germany there is no freedom to express one's thoughts, but the English people have the right to conscientious objection, and 14,000 young people have been exempt from military service already on these grounds.

In England, he continued, their ideas are based on Christian conviction, but there is no hope for the Christian cause in Germany.

"I am convinced that this is not a lost world," Mr. Espy stated, "because I hold fast to the saying of Christ, 'Be of good cheer, for I have overcome the world.' Victory will depend on ourselves—the soldiers will do the fighting, God will give the victory."

Mr. Espy during a two year period of study at Munich, Tubingen and Heidelberg, travelled over a thousand miles by bicycle on the youth hostel route through Germany, Denmark and Sweden. During the past four years, he has been Youth Secretary of the World Alliance of Churches and of the Provisional Committee of the World Council of Churches operating from headquarters in Geneva. While in Montreal, Mr. Espy spoke to the Ministerial Association, the staffs of the Y.W.C.A., Y.M.C.A., and the Student Christian Movement in the Y.W.C.A. Dorchester Street. He will return to the United States in a few days and will spend most of his time at Washington.

FEMININE FACTS AND FANCIES

by
MARGARET BARDEN

MRS. J. LESLIE HODGES

Keenly interested in women's rights in the Province of Quebec, Mrs. J. Leslie Hodges is a prominent and familiar figure in Notre Dame de Grace and Westmount, Canadian born, she has lived in the West End for 25 years and is a member of many of Montreal's leading women's organizations, particularly political groups.

As president of the Notre Dame de Grace Women's Conservative Association, Mrs. Hodges was heard in several radio addresses prior to the recent Federal election. She is the treasurer of the League for Women's Rights, chairman of the Conservation Committee of the Local Council of Women, honorary president of the Notre Dame de Grace Ladies Swimming Club and a charter member of the Notre Dame de Grace Women's Club.

Actively interested in Canadian women's war efforts, Mrs. Hodges was pressed into service on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Society at the outbreak of the war in September, when she was named chairman of the Western division during the Red Cross campaign for funds. She is a member of the Board of the Notre Dame de Grace district branch of the Red Cross Society.

During the last war, Mrs. Hodges saw service, when she served as V.A.D. for three years. Mrs. Hodges attended Montreal High School and Villa Maria Convent and graduated from Miss Palmer's Private School to McGill University. She later attended the Conservatory of Music, where she studied for several years, following which she taught with the Protestant School Board for two years. Mrs. Hodges believes that education is one of the most important factors in the world today.

In politics, Mrs. Hodges claims that women do not realize the importance of their position, for she says, "Women should enjoy the fact that they have the purchasing and consuming power." She is a firm believer in the old adage, "The Hand that Rocks the Cradle, Rules the World." Chosen to represent the English speaking women of the Province of Quebec on the Council of the National Conservative Party, Mrs. Hodges has also journeyed to Quebec with delegations of the League for Women's Rights, where she helped voice the challenge of the women of the Province.

In speaking of her activities in this connection, Mrs. Hodges said, "I believe it has been largely due to the Conservative women joining forces with the Liberal Women, and thus proving it to be a non-political issue, have we achieved a certain amount of success. Where there is unity, strength will be found." Formerly Ula Mercer Boizer, she was married to Leslie Hodges, well known silk manufacturer, in 1922. She is the mother of two children, Helen and Claire, who are pupils at Miss Edgar's and Miss Cramp's School.

THE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION of WESTMOUNT

WESTMOUNT Business Firms are here to serve you. The Business Association of Westmount represents a sincere effort on the part of Westmount business people to be worthy of increased patronage from local residents, and to improve shopping and general business conditions in this city. That this Association is filling a long-felt want is evidenced by the encouraging response that has been given to the group's campaign urging residents to "Shop in Westmount First" which has been the Association's slogan since its formation over two years ago.

The war has caused a slight upset in business conditions throughout the country but has not affected in any way the local merchants' claim that you can get everything you need right here in Westmount. Quality merchandise of recognized excellence can be obtained in local stores at the same prices that business houses elsewhere ask, courtesy and service are not confined to outside shopping districts, and the inherent desire to please that is the business dealer's first requisite is probably stronger here than elsewhere.

By shopping in Westmount you will stimulate business here in this city, better business means better general prosperity. Remember that a dollar spent in Westmount is a dollar invested in Westmount. Money spent in outside districts profits neither the buyer nor the taxpayers of this community.

For these reasons, and many more, the members of The Business Association of Westmount listed below urge you to

NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

Swanee River Is Great Tribute To S. Foster

The beloved and famous melodies that are America's only real folk music, and the thrilling story of the man who wrote them, came to the Westmount United Theatre yesterday in a magnificent Technicolor motion picture, 20th Century-Fox's "Swanee River," the story of Stephen C. Foster, the great American troubadour.

One leaves the theatre with ears ringing with the melodies that seem to express the very heart of America — "The Old Folks at Home" (Swanee River), "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Do Camp Town Races," "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair," "Ring, Ring the Banjo," and "Oh! Susanna."

Excellent Cast Feature Of Film Now At Monkland

"Balalaika," which is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday, starring Nelson Eddy and the new and brilliant singing personality, Ilona Massey, is distinct among musicals. It is a musical drama.

Based on the London stage success by Eric Maschwitz, his new and elaborate picture, which introduces Miss Massey to the motion picture public in her first important assignment, is a story of Old Russia before, during and after the Revolution.

Predicted on the romance of a Colonel of Cossacks and the daughter of a revolutionist and potential arch enemy, the story has as its background the stirring events of 1917 to 1923 when the Czarists and Reds were fighting gration and death in a shabby Bowery rooming house, the life of Stephen Foster is made for the screen, with every element that moviegoers have demanded in their entertainment.

Don Ameche plays Foster just as he was — sweet and tender, headstrong, inspired and emotionally unstable. As Jane, Andrea Leeds is a proper inspiration for some of our greatest music. A. Jolson puts over the role of Christy, the blackface minstrel man.

Featured in the supporting cast are Felix Bressart, Chick Chandler, Russell Hicks, George Reed and the Hall Johnson Choir, whose renderings of the Foster songs are memorable in deed.

Sidney Lanfield directed with a sureness of touch and feeling for the story that makes it a genuine delight. Darryl F. Zanuck was in charge of production.

to the death, with the Whites eventually driven into exile. With such comedians as Charlie Ruggles and Frank Morgan in the cast there is naturally comedy interspersed the dramatic and romantic story but, essentially, "Balalaika" is an operetta with a sound basis of drama.

A Musical Feast Musically "Balalaika" is rich with the romantic and dramatic rhythms of the steppes, assembled and adapted by Herbert Stothart and interspersed with several new numbers in keeping with the colorful atmosphere of the story. Two numbers have been retained from the original stage show, "At the Balalaika" and "Paris Balalaika," by George Fossard, "Tanya" and "Ride, Cossack, Ride" are new ones by Stothart that the country already is humming. Others are Franz Lehár's "Magic of Your Love," "Volga Boat Song" and "Flow, White Wine," as sung by Nelson Eddy.

An outstanding musical incident is the operatic adaptation of Rimsky-Korsakoff's dance suite, "Scheherazade," for Miss Massey and a group of operatic stars, including Sigurd Nilssen, Irna Pettina and Douglas Beattie.

Supporting Eddy and Miss Massey in this spectacular musical besides Ruggles and Morgan, are Lionel Atwill, C. Aubrey Smith, Joyce Compton, Walter Woolf King and Dallas Prantz. Reinhold Schunzel directed.

SECOND GENERATION Wallace Reid, Jr., is getting his first important opportunity in Cecil B. De Mille's Technicolor opus, "Northwest Mounted Police," with Gary Cooper, Madeline Carroll, Paulette Goddard, Preston Foster and Robert Preston. It was De Mille who gave the elder Reid his first chance in "The Golden Chance" in 1915.

Der Fuhrer and Il Duce may think they have got down to bedrock, but Brenner Pass is still 4,500 feet up in the air.

"THE ROARING TWENTIES"

"REMEMBER THE NIGHT"

"THE LIGHT THAT FAILED"

Ronald Colman is artist and adventurer in Paramount's film of Rudyard Kipling's "The Light That Failed," and Ida Lupino is the model, whose career begins in the gutter and climaxes in an unforgettable vengeance. Walter Huston, Muriel Angelus and Dudley Digges are also in the cast of the film which is now playing at the York United Theatre until Friday. A large cast performs in the spectacular Sudan battle scenes.

Deanna Durbin and Helen Parrish appear as rivals in the new romantic drama, "First Love," which opens at the Snowdon United Theatre starting Sunday playing until Tuesday.

"Girl Must Live" At The Snowdon

Acted with sparkle, told with wit and embellished with catchy music, "A GIRL MUST LIVE" proves to be one of the most entertaining films ever made in England. Produced for Twentieth Century Productions and released by 20th Century-Fox, the film opened at the Snowdon United Theatre last Sunday, playing until Saturday.

Stepping smartly from the first scene, the story shows us pretty Leslie James (Margaret Lockwood) making her escape from a Swiss finishing school because she believes herself a financial burden on her family. Arrived in London, where she hopes to make a stage career for herself, she goes to a theatrical boarding-house. She meets two hard-boiled gold-diggers, played by Renee Houston and Lilli Palmer, who work as chorus girls only because the chorus is often a swift means of cornering a man.

Leslie is shocked by their conduct, but she gets a job dancing in the same cabaret and through them she meets the young Earl of Pangborough, just home from Malaya. The girls judge him easy prey and fierce competition begins.

The rehearsal for the new cabaret show is held at the Earl's country mansion, and the threads of the story are skillfully drawn together to bring a happy and just climax.

Fast-paced, "A GIRL MUST LIVE" has the advantage of some of the most clever and sophisticated dialogue ever heard in British films. It has, too, the advantage of one of today's most brilliant young directors, the man responsible for "BANK HOLIDAY"—Carol Reed. He proves himself as brilliant in handling comedy as drama.

M.R.T. PRESENTS FINE DRAMA AT VICTORIA HALL

In presenting as its next major production "The Gentle People" at Victoria Hall on April 16-20, by Irwin Shaw, the MRT is fulfilling its policy of including in its programmes examples of the most significant and interesting of the various types of modern drama.

"The Gentle People" is from the pen of the young American playwright who startled Broadway two or three years ago with "Bury the Dead." In his later play he has not lost any of the underlying strength which made the first an important piece of dramatic literature but he has definitely left behind him the sub-thumping brassiness which dulled many ears to his story.

"The Gentle People" is called by its author a "Brooklyn Fable" and tells in a gently ingratiating manner the story of two old men, prototypes of the title, who attempt to live in a world mainly inhabited by birds of prey. All they ask of life is to be allowed to take its ups and downs in their own way. When pushed too far however they turn and destroy their oppressor with amicable ruthlessness. "The Gentle People" was presented on Broadway last year by the Group Theatre and enjoyed a successful run of several months.

MANY STOCK STANDS Gladys George, who plays the principle feminine character role in Paramount's "The Way of All Flesh," has played with stock companies in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Denver, New York, Salt Lake City, Minneapolis, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Boston and Detroit.

"His Girl Friday" Gay Romance, At The York

Once in a while a motion picture projects the elusive essence of light-hearted gaiety against a suspenseful background of melodramatic action in such deft fashion that it is immediately hailed as a smash hit.

Such a picture is Columbia's Howard Hawks' production, "His Girl Friday," which opens at the York United Theatre on Saturday, playing until Tuesday.

Notable in a long list of highlights is said to be the superlative stellar cast, the pungent, sparkling dialogue, the careful development of characters and the inspired direction of Hawks.

The picture has been hailed for its gay comedy — the argument over a certified check; the scene in which Bellamy's mother, bewildered by the unpredictable antics of Miss Russell takes matters into her own hands; the expose of a dim-witted sheriff; and the intrigue employed by Grant in postponing the impending marriage between Bellamy and Miss Russell.

"His Girl Friday" establishes Miss Russell as the ex-wife of Grant and about-to-be bride of Bellamy, gains momentum with Grant's efforts to forestall his former wife's matrimonial plans, and reaches a crescendo with the exciting events which transpire at a metropolitan city jail.

SPRING DISPLAY AT Y. M. C. A. TOMORROW, SATURDAY

NEED OF "Y" IN COMMUNITY IS STRESSED "Y" KEEPS SPIRITS HIGH, AT HOME AND ABROAD

Montreal District Campaign For $340,200 Will Open On Wednesday

The dependence of the community on the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. on the community was stressed today by F. H. Walls, general manager of the financial campaign for the "Y" which gets under way next Wednesday in the Montreal area. Local objectives are $115,000 for maintenance budgets, and $225,000 for war services.

"In peace the 'Y' has proved a tower of strength to the community, co-operating effectively with the Church, the School and other social institutions in the training of youth for better citizenship," Mr. Walls said in an interview with The Examiner today. "Now, this experience is being applied to the problems of boys with our armed forces both at home and overseas. It is the 'Y's' task to help these boys maintain their morale, to fill their leisure moments with worthwhile occupations, to aid them with friendly counsel and understanding. This task which training and experience make the Y.M.C.A. so well qualified to perform today."

"At the outbreak of war the 'Y' swung into action and its offer of assistance was gratefully received by the Canadian Government. But before the Government could acknowledge its grateful acceptance 44 'Y' buildings were thrown open to troops in training for baths, swimming, physical training and general instruction. More than 25 Red Triangle Huts or centres were opened in barracks, camps and cities where troops were concentrated. Entertainment was arranged, free literature, games and stationery provided, canteens set up, informal educational work organized and hundreds of voluntary workers enlisted to carry forward this service to the boys in uniform.

"To England with the first Canadian contingent went six 'Y' secretaries to study requirements in England and France and lay the foundation for the work overseas.

"Before setting the financial objective of its war services campaign the 'Y' carefully studied present and future requirements

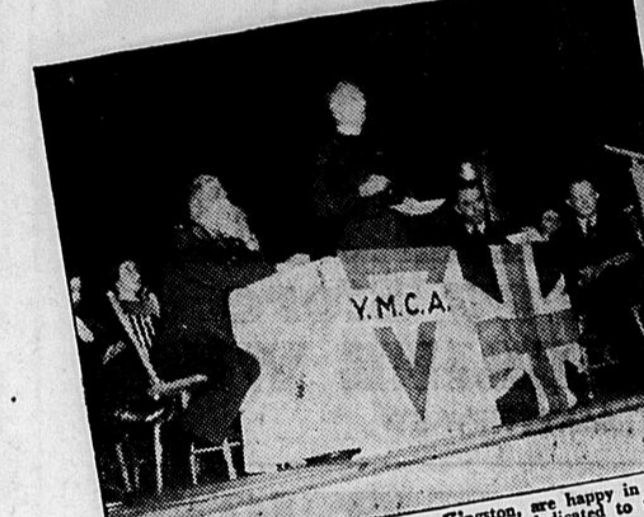

Sunday afternoon tea at a Toronto branch of the Y.M.C.A. is a happy occasion, when girls volunteer to serve refreshments.

Despite the heavy demands made by soldiers in training in Canada and overseas, the 'Y' does not neglect its peace time job as witness these happy faces.

'Y' physical directors know just how much sun the boys should have when they are out at camp.

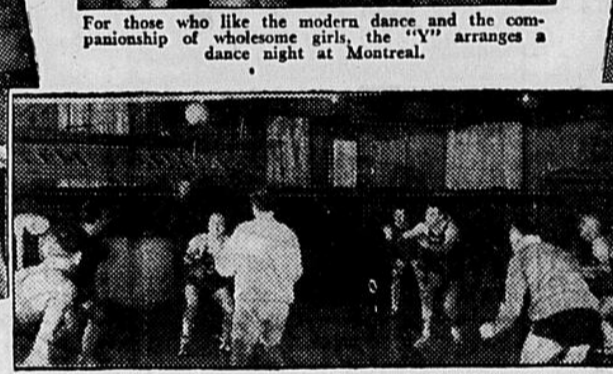

It's nice to be able to leave barracks behind and step into the Y.M.C.A. Centre in Montreal, where are all the comforts of home and a girl opponent at Chinese Checkers.

For those who like the modern dance and the companionship of wholesome girls, the 'Y' arranges a dance night at Montreal.

"Never reach!" their mothers taught them when they were young. But they're in the army now and the Y.M.C.A. workers are treating.

Those too old for the army can still absorb Y.M.C.A. fellowship in the gymnasium, as part of the regular program still kept up in spite of war demands.

'Y' physical directors know just how much sun the boys should have when they are out at camp.

Youthful piper and dancer entertain fellow soldiers at 'Y' Centre in Montreal.

Being in the army, this soldier shouldn't laugh at an order, even though it be, "One girl to one soldier." But after all, the fun tempers Y.M.C.A. discipline.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR ANNUAL EXHIBITION; 100 GYMNASTS WILL PARTICIPATE

Event Gives Outsiders Opportunity to Look in on Work Of "Y" Physical Department — 18 Numbers Will Be Offered — Senior Leaders' Corps, Under Physical Director H. Noble, Has Prepared Program

Mobilization details for the forthcoming blitzkrieg on Friday and Saturday, at Westmount Y.M.C.A., have now been completed, Physical Director Hugh A. Noble announces. Zero hour has been set for 8.00 p.m. Saturday night, when the flying squadrons of the Physical Department will move in to the attack. The performance will be repeated at the same hour on Saturday.

According to Mr. Noble, the Annual Spring Exhibition gives the Physical Department an opportunity to display its wares to the public. More than a hundred people will participate in the show, which will bring all of these year's activities to a focus. The exhibition makes it possible for outsiders to look in on the work of the Physical Department and to see for themselves the great variety of healthful activities offered by the "Y".

A preview for the Armed Forces was given last night.

Some 18 numbers are being offered, ranging from a Callisthenic Drill by the boys of the Mackaye Institute to an exhibition of Indian Club swinging with lighted clubs by Bill Reay of the Senior Leaders' Corps.

Under Mr. Noble's direction, the Senior Leaders' Corps have spent a great deal of time preparing exhibition routines for the show. Mac Shippey, Len Schryer and Eddie DeWitt are putting on a riotous clown act, the same one with which they brought down the house at Southwestern "Y" last week.

Bill Reay, Frank Kenwood, John Foster, Klas Helstrom, Ross Soaman and Gordie Mackie are giving the Woodsman's Axe Drill, an axe combat set to music. Demonstrations of apparatus work, pyramid building, tiger-leaping and Indian Club swinging will be given by the whole Corps, whose complete roster includes Ross Johnson, Seth Taylor, Bob McCulloch, Art Wright, Eric Jones and Dick Huntington.

The Senior Leaders' Corps at Westmount Y.M.C.A., has been locally famous for some years. The Provincial Senior and Junior Gymnastic Championships and the Provincial Team Gymnastic Championship are all held by the Corps. From the ranks of this group, most of the Provincial Gymnastic Champions have been drawn for the last decade. At the Last Provincial Gymnastic Championships, the leaders' Corps captured fourteen out of a possible thirty-three medals and the Werry Cup.

in Canada and overseas. This survey was conducted by Major J. W. Beaton of Montreal and on his findings estimates were made of the costs of equipment, supplies and services up to December 31, 1940. These estimates, for 16 months, including money spent to date, totalled $1,038,000, of which the Montreal objective is $225,000." Mr. Walls stated.

Discussing the organization necessary for war services effort Mr. Walls stated that the central control of all Canadian Y.M.C.A. war services and supplies had been established with the permanent Y.M.C.A. organization in Canada. A committee of 80 leading business men from every province in Canada has been organized to supervise this war effort, aid in its efficient organization and be responsible for the administration of funds. In England a strong committee under the chairmanship of Sir Edward Peacock, a Canadian and Governor of the Bank of England, has been organized to supervise work of the Canadian Y.M.C.A., both in England and France. The British Y.M.C.A. has offered its wholehearted support to the Canadian "Y" wherever it may be needed. In all activities the Canadians Y.M.C.A. will operate in closest co-operation with the Department of Auxiliary Services, the Chaplain Service, and other organizations to avoid duplication of effort and assure maximum possible service to the troops.

Commenting on the regular maintenance budgets required by local Y.M.C.A. branches Mr. Walls said that the Montreal objective of $115,000 was urgently needed. "This amount represents only 20 per cent of Y.M.C.A. maintenance expenditures," he said, "and it is money that is vitally essential for two main reasons: First, to protect and train youth in Canada so that they may fulfill the responsibilities of citizenship; second, to supply the base for service to the boys in our fighting forces."

VICTORS, VANQUISHED RESUME SWIMMING CLASSES AT Y.M.C.A.; TESTS FOR AWARDS GIVEN

Regular Sessions, Including Wednesday and Friday Night Swim Clubs, Swung Back Into Action Following Easter Holidays — Number of Novices Registered

The victors and the vanquished of Westmount 'Y's inter-group swimming meets came back stronger than ever this week for a continuation of their classes which began last winter. Regular swimming classes, including the Wednesday and Friday night swimming clubs swung back into action with the termination of the Easter holiday period.

Of the established swimmers, continuing their association with the Friday night club, were noticed Donald Guess, Darrell Bedford and others. A number of novices, and swimmers looking for a chance to pick up pointers on the crawl, and back-strokes, registered with this group last Friday.

For those desiring an opportunity to try for any of the many swimming awards open to boys in the Westmount branch, provision will be made by the instructor for tests. Outside of the life-saving awards for the established Y.M.C.A. tests in this work, there are the star and card-rating certificates covering a dozen or more different steps in the mastery of swimming.

The Friday night swimming club will hold its regular session at 8.30 in the Westmount 'Y's pool next Friday, April 19. Although there will be swimming for those who wish to go in the pool this Friday, the Annual Gymnastic Exhibition being held at the same time makes it necessary to cancel actual classes for one week.

Even the champions could probably pick up a few worthwhile tips at these meetings, and their own experience is a factor which would go a long way toward helping the 'Y' develop the champions of their divisions in future campaigns.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

The National Resources Committee, dealing with "The Structure of American Economy," filed recently with President Roosevelt 400 pages of statistical material which, the writers claim, clearly show that 83 men divided into eight distinct groups, dominate the U.S.A. by their control of finance and industry through inter-corporate investments and interlocking directorates.

The 85 men, the president was told, are able to dictate what the nation shall eat and wear, and where the people shall get the money to pay the bills.

The House of Morgan came first and their financial and industrial interests include a large number of railroads which have an estimated value of more than $30,000,000,000.

It is claimed that the economic system is askew because of the reckless manner in which these financial and industrial overlords have abused their power. Some of the evils which have resulted are as follows:

Unemployment of men and machines cost the U.S.A. an average of $20,000,000,000 a year. That is about one-half of the national debt. During the last 10 years the loss from idle men and machines has been $200,000,000,000, sufficient (the report stated) to provide a new $6000 home for every family in the U.S.A.

Factories will not regain customers until more consuming power is provided. The consuming power now comes from families with annual incomes of $2600 a year or less. Nine out of ten of the consuming units are in this class. In fact, the report stated, consumers with $4000 and less income buy 85 per cent of all consumer goods produced. They buy all their incomes permit, because there are practically no "savings" reported by this group.

Consumers with incomes of $10,000 and more are held to be of relatively little importance in the solution of the problem. They buy only 6 per cent of consumer goods. Regardless of any improvement in business, they would buy little more or provide few more jobs because they are now buying all they desire and need. Any additional income for this group would be diverted to "savings" and would not increase purchasing power.

TIBBETT NOTED AS A FRIEND TO HIS PUBLIC

Whether you meet Lawrence Tibbett, who appears on Tuesday, May 14, at the Municipal Auditorium, Verdun, at his home singing old tunes with his sons draped around the piano, or hear him in the concert hall, you have an immediate relaxed feeling as though he were an old and intimate friend. For Tibbett, in the best American tradition, is absolutely without "side."

In a word, stardom was never gone to his head. A good example of this — as well as of his perennial good nature — is the concert last November when he sang at Constitution Hall in Washington, D.C. He'd already given so many encores he'd missed his train. But, always happy to oblige, he'd gone right on. Until finally he began to sing the "Lord Chancellor's Nightmare" from "Iolanthe."

The words tripped him up. He grinned and started again. The words tripped him again. This time Tibbett smiled at the audience and said: "My tongue has certainly got ahead of me. Well, they say if a horse throws you, the only thing to do is to climb on again."

The audience laughed agree-

Before a large gathering comprising 400 Dance Teachers, members of the Dance Educators of America, Mr. Miller presented an Exhibition Waltz-Tango and Military Quick Step of his own composition.

This work was enthusiastically received, and at the conclusion the President thanked Mr. Miller and invited him to appear as Guest Demonstrator in the near future.

Alberto Galo who has taught many of the Worlds famous Dance Teams, including Veloz and Yolanda was an interested spectator, and personally congratulated Peter Miller at the conclusion of the performance.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE FINAL PRESENTATION

The Children's Theatre directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, close their eight season on April 27, Saturday afternoon, at Victoria Hall. For the first time, they will present a series of four one-act plays.

This will give an opportunity to the various classes of the Children's Theatre to carry their own show individually, and will give a variety of entertainment, such as they have never been able to present before.

Four plays, each one entirely different, but which will hold the interest of everyone, namely: "The Witch's Cave," "The Children's Gateway," "The Fish Princess," and a play which has been especially written for the Children's Theatre by Miriam Stein, entitled, "Actress Wanted," which is being performed by the senior group.

The meeting was closed with a musical entertainment and tea.
