AUTOPSY WILL BE PERFORMED IN WOMAN'S DEATH

World News In Brief

Louvain, Belgium, Nov. 12.—(P)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada today received the degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Louvain in a hall dating from 1317, and said in an address of thanks that he had never been prouder to be a Canadian.

"No man ever living has received so much honor in such a short time as I since I have been in Belgium," he said, winding up a three-day visit to Belgium. He will leave for Holland later today.

Jerusalem, Nov. 12.—(P)—Three Jewish girls and a youth were killed today in a gun battle with British troops surrounding a coastal plain house, suspected of being an underground Irgun Zvai Leumi hideout.

Two other young Jews were wounded in the encounter, between Raanana and Herzliya. Military sources at Tel Aviv said ten Jews were captured in a raid on the isolated house where the army was tipped the Irgun was conducting "armed exercises."

A British police sergeant was killed and three other British police officers were wounded by machine-gun fire while they sat in front of a cafe on the Kingsway, main street of Haifa.

Halifax, Nov. 12.—(C.P.)—The American Victory ship St. Albans Victory is in distress 300 miles southwest of Boston and the United States Coast Guard cutter Ingham is speeding to her rescue from Norfolk, Va. Search and Rescue Division of the R.C.A.F. reported today.

An SOS from the 7,607-ton ship, which is carrying a crew of 12, was received here last night but was jumbled and could not be read. A later message said the ship's steering gear had broken and asked for immediate assistance.

An army tug was reported standing by the stricken freighter awaiting the arrival of the cutter expected to reach the ship this morning.

Washington, Nov. 12.—(P)—The United States Government plans to ask farmers to plant nearly 6.5 per cent more land to livestock feed grains next year in an effort to replenish supplies cut short by this year's poor corn crop.

Larger grain harvests will be needed if a serious shortage of meats, dairy and poultry products is to be averted in 1949. These feeds will be scarcer in 1948 than this year because of the present corn shortage.

New York, Nov. 12.—(P)—The Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, last night accused Britain, the United States, China and France of displaying "complete disdain for the charter and principles of the United Nations."

In a speech before the Foreign Press Association in which he maintained that Russia's foreign policy is "one of peace," Vishinsky charged "prominent Anglo-American statesmen" with pursuing a program of "hatred and vicious animus" towards his country.

Probe Being Conducted In Death Of Montreal Woman In Belvidere Street House

On instructions from the attorney general's department, an autopsy will be held to determine the cause of death of a 44-year-old Montreal woman, Mrs. W. Courtemanche, who died yesterday afternoon at a Belvidere street house.

Crown Prosecutor Roland Dugre, K.C., said that it is understood that the deceased was a member of a family reunion which was being held at the house at 428 Belvidere street south, which is allegedly the home of Albert Gravenor.

The autopsy which will be conducted on the arrival of medical legal experts, Dr. Jean Marie Roussel and Dr. Rosario Fontaine, will determine what caused the death.

When Mrs. Courtemanche was found on the kitchen floor, she could not be revived and Dr. Emile Bruneau was summoned. Dr. Bruneau said that he considered it necessary that an autopsy should be performed.

Chief Edouard Moreau stated today that Mrs. Courtemanche and her husband, who reside on Hochelaga Street, in Montreal, had been visiting relatives in Vermont, and returning via Sherbrooke stopped at the Gravenor home.

Coroner Armand Nadeau said that the inquest would be held probably tomorrow morning following the result of the autopsy.

VICTIM OF PERVERT

Toronto police are still combing that city in their search for the sex-slayer of Arlene Anderson, 13-year-old cerebral palsy cripple found slain in a vacant lot. The child's mother has appealed to citizens to aid police in their hunt.

U.K. PROFITS TAX DOUBLED

London, Nov. 12.—(Reuters)—Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, introduced his anti-inflationary crisis budget in the House of Commons today announced that the profit tax on all profits would be doubled as from Jan. 1, this year.

There would be no change in income tax, which remains at the standard rate of 9 shillings ($1.80) for each taxable pound ($4).

Food subsidies now costing $32,000,000 annually will be maintained but Dalton warned that it would be impossible to justify any further increases.

Silence Blankets Jail Disturbance

Montreal, Nov. 12.—(P)—Official silence laid a blanket last night over just what occurred at Montreal jail Sunday evening when, according to sources close to the jail, prisoners, upset about food, created a disturbance.

Dr. Zenon Lesage, governor of the jail, emphasized yesterday that everything was "just normal with the exception of heavy shouting on Sunday evening because prisoners were kept indoors from Saturday noon until Sunday evening on account of the bad weather."

Marshall Explains Aid Program

Reds Seeking Details With A-Bomb Story

Atomic Bomb Explosion Propaganda Intended for Local Russian Consumption and "Cold War" of Nerves.

By ELTON C. FAY
Washington, Nov. 12.—(P)—Many of the strange dispatches and thunderous speeches about atom bombs coming out of Europe strike official Washington as primarily Russian-inspired fishing expeditions for military information.

Also involved, well-informed authorities said privately today, is propaganda, intended for local Russian consumption as well as for the "cold war" of nerves.

Termining the fishing technique an old stand-by in military intelligence, these authorities said it works like this:

A rumor is planted at a point where it will be picked up by some newspaper, magazine or radio station. The idea is to get the rumor into circulation and then see whether it is denied or confirmed.

In the published denial or confirmation by any official of another power, the rumor-planter hopes to glean some information.

In the case of the A-bomb, for instance, Russia would like to know:

1. How much the United States knows about Russian progress or lack of progress toward producing an atom bomb. (In the spy trade, this is "counter-intelligence.")

2. Any hint of United States progress in improving its own bombs.

3. Whether the United States or any other power has a workable method of detecting an atomic bomb test explosion that might be made in some hidden corner of the world.

In a military intelligence fishing expedition, the idea is to plant the rumor where it will be stumbled on by publications not necessarily friendly to the source. The instance of the dispatch printed yesterday by the Paris newspaper L'Intransigeant was cited as an example. The dispatch, telling of a purported test explosion of a 12½-pound atomic bomb near the Russian city of Irkutsk, came to L'Intransigeant from Prague where it was reported to have arrived through "confidential sources" from Moscow.

The same paper last July quoted unidentified sources as saying the United States had tested a new and powerful bomb which blew a crater 1,700 feet deep in New Mexico.

Because of the difference in the two situations, the Atomic Energy Commission denied the July story but coldly ignored yesterday's report.

Authorities here were inclined to view the recent Moscow speech of Foreign Minister Molotov as designed chiefly for propaganda purposes, but with the hope that it, too, might produce some of

Hughes And Gen. Meyers

Retired Gen. Bennett E. Meyers (centre) confers with Howard Hughes after Hughes testified before the Senate War Investigating subcommittee in Washington that Meyers tried to borrow $200,000 from him during wartime contract negotiations. Hughes emphasized that he did not think Meyers considered the proposition "wrong" or "improper."

War Contract Probe Proves Complex Task

Washington, Nov. 12.—(P)—Confronted with a maze of conflicting testimony given under oath, the United States Senate War Investigating Committee scrutinizing Howard Hughes' war contracts sought today to straighten out the tangle.

This was the jumbled picture of loan, job and movie-ban claims and counter-claims as the committee made ready to resume questioning of Maj.-Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

1. Meyers, a retired air force procurement officer, testified yesterday that he never solicited a job nor asked for a $200,000 loan from Hughes. The million-dollar plan-builer has sworn on the witness stand that Meyers did both when Meyers was negotiating a wartime contract with Hughes for photo-reconnaissance planes.

Meyers contended that on the contrary Hughes, through a lawyer, offered to lend him $250,000 during the war.

Termining such a proposal "a hell of a note," Meyer said he turned it down and was "very, very indignant about it."

He also called a "damnable lie" Hughes' testimony that

Fireworks In Freight Rate Probe Likely

By JOHN LEBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Ottawa, Nov. 12.—(P)—Fireworks may flare before final argument is ended in the national freight-rate inquiry.

A promise of battles of personalities emerged at yesterday's session before the Board of Transport Commissioners as opposing counsel entered in their final flare-up of this final stage of the long case. Saskatchewan Counsel M. A. MacPherson protested warily against rough handling of a Saskatchewan-Manitoba witness by C. F. H. Carson, Canadian Pacific Railway counsel, and he promised retaliation when provincial lawyers opened their argument. Alberta Counsel J. J. Fawley sided with him.

Mr. Carson had been critical of the witness—stated demeanor of Walter J. Macdonald, an accountant witness. He claimed Mr. Macdonald had acted more like a lawyer than a witness at times, and he declared some of his evidence "completely lacking in any merit."

Yesterday's session of the inquiry, which has been dealing with an application of the railways for 50-per-cent freight-rate increases,

Bill Cutting Down Powers Of Lords Nears Last Stage

London, Nov. 12.—(P)—The government's drive to clip the meagre powers of the House of Lords rolled steadily toward fulfillment today, despite Winston Churchill's cries of "dictatorship."

The government's whacking majority in the House of Commons trampled opposition to the measure on the eve of the budget presentation last night, 345 to 194, pushing the bill through its decisive second reading and toward final enactment.

The measure would cut from two years to one the period by which the ancient Upper Chamber may delay legislation passed by the House of Commons. Only by passing such a rejected measure three times over a two-year period can the Lower Chamber overcome the opposition of the Lords.

The curb bill itself could be delayed in that fashion by the House of Lords, but the government wields one powerful club to meet that threat. It could pack the Lords with a sufficient number of newly-appointed Labor peers to change the whole complexion of the Upper Chamber, now predominantly Conservative.

That threat was used successfully in 1911, when the present law governing the powers of the Lords was enacted. Labor leaders have indicated they are ready to use it again.

A government bill to nationalize the iron and steel industry is expected to be introduced in Parliament next year and many believe the Labor Party does not want to chance the possibility of a two-year delay in getting it passed.

Meanwhile, London morning papers speculated on the contents of the autumn budget to be revealed today by Hugh Dalton, the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The Daily Herald, Labor, said it likely would contain "a number of surprises."

Prime Minister Attlee, backing the Lords-curb measure last night, declared:

"We believe that the powers of the House of Lords are obsolete . . . We did not suggest reform of the House of Lords when we went to the elections. What we did say 'was that we should take powers to prevent obstruction, and that is exactly what we have done.'"

Churchill, still slightly hoarse from a cold which kept him in bed for four days before he appeared in the Commons to voice his opposition to the bill, said he thought that "we are approaching very near to dictatorship in Britain—a dictatorship without either its criminality or efficiency."

Anthony Eden, former Conservative Foreign Minister, called the measure "a murky and miserable little bill, bred by dissension out of despair." Attlee replied that the bill was a "simple, moderate proposal" designed to remove the threat of obstructionism before any arose.

On another front in the government's battle against economic disaster, the British press greeted

De Gaulle Urges France To Line Up With U.S. And U.K. Against Communism

Paris, Nov. 12.—(P)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle today urged France to take the lead in forming alliances with United States, Britain and other countries "who feel themselves similarly menaced" by Communism.

"France must take the initiative because she is the most menaced," the leader of the anti-Communist Rassemblement du Peuple Français told a press conference.

"France is the most menaced externally by this enormous power—the most formidable she has ever faced—and internally because, independent of her own force, this power has assistance within France," de Gaulle declared.

One of the aims of the R.P.F., which showed surprising strength in France's recent municipal elections, was to foster such a system of alliances as he proposed.

He declared that treaties should be concluded immediately with both the United States and Britain, but that these alliances must be for specific purposes, arrived at as equals.

France must not appear in the role of beggar. On the contrary she must "work in conjunction" with the United States on full equality. The United States could furnish economic aid, while France could furnish her "geographical position and moral influence in Europe."

De Gaulle asserted that France must begin at once to organize Western Europe for defence, and mentioned specifically the need of closer economic and political ties with Italy.

He repeated his previous assertion that France must not permit the establishment of a strong, centralized German government. Pounding the table, he declared:

"Until there is definite proof that no Reich is being set up, France must continue to hold her trump cards and refuse to sanction a unified Germany."

He predicted that the coming Four Power Foreign Ministers Conference in London would result either in establishment of a united Germany or a united Western Germany.

If a United Germany is formed, France must insist on strict Allied control, especially of the Ruhr. Western Germany, separated from its food supply in the east by a split in the Foreign Ministers Council, could not live without France.

Paid Tribute To Fallen Of Two Conflicts

Cities and Organizations as Well as Private Persons Joined in Tribute to Those Who Gave Their Lives.

The plaintive notes of The Last Post and the firing of cannon over snow-flecked Parliament Hill at Ottawa highlighted Remembrance Day ceremonies yesterday as Canadians across the Dominion kept a two-minute silence in memory of their war dead.

Mid snowflurries borne on a cold east wind more than 8,000 in Ottawa donned their hats in tribute to the fallen of two world wars, and watched the placing of wreaths on the cenotaph by Field Marshal Alexander, Acting Prime Minister St. Laurent and others. Mrs. C. H. Labarge of Ottawa acted as master of ceremonies at the motherhood of Canada and the Governor-General took the salute at the foot of the Peace Tower.

In other parts of Ontario rain and heavily clouded skies added to the solemnity of the occasion. Western Canada's ceremonies generally were held in clear, cold weather while skies were mainly cloudy in Quebec and the Maritimes.

Halifax held a street parade of reserve army units with army and navy bands to the cenotaph with almost two dozen organizations laying wreaths. Saint John had fine weather for its services. The first wreath was laid by Lieutenant-Governor D. L. MacLaren and plaque to the Second World War veterans was unveiled by Mrs. C. J. Morgan, who lost two sons overseas.

Montreal's main ceremony was at the cenotaph in Dominion Square where wreaths were placed and Roman Catholic and Protestant services held.

More than 4,000 Toronto citizens gathered in the rain in front of City Hall as 25 wreaths were laid on the cenotaph. The Salvation Army choir was assembled on the steps and 48th Highlanders provided the musical background.

Hamilton's crowd and the line of wreath bearers was one of the largest in memory and at Kitchen, Ont., airplanes dropped poppies on the hundreds who attended the cenotaph ceremonies there.

In cold and sunny weather at Winnipeg 1,200 men from veterans associations and active and reserve army units paraded to the cenotaph where wreaths were placed by Lieutenant-Governor R. F. McWilliam of Manitoba and Mayor Garnet Coulter.

A huge crowd attended ceremonies at the armories and cenotaph in Regina, despite five-below-zero temperature and cold winds. Lieutenant-Governor R. J. M. Parker and Provincial Secretary Fines took the salute during a military parade.

At Edmonton several thousand attended cenotaph ceremonies, followed by a mass parade of veterans' organizations, active and reserve military forces, police and women's auxiliaries.

Planes Down In Probe Of Fire Causes

Action Taken After American Airlines' DC-6 Makes Emergency Landing After Fire Discovered.

Gallup, N.M., Nov. 12.—(P)—At last four airlines grounded their huge DC-6 planes today, pending an inquiry into the cause of a fire yesterday which forced an American Airlines ship to make an emergency landing.

The Douglas Aircraft Corporation, which builds the four-engine planes, also urged that all other users of them do likewise until cause of fires "have been established and eradicated."

Twenty-five passengers and crew personnel emerged unscathed yesterday after the American Airlines' DC-6 came in for a spectacular emergency landing at Gallup Airport with flames spouting from beneath its fuselage.

In quick succession American, United, Braniff and National airlines suspended flights of their DC-6's.

One source termed the fire "beyond doubt a near parallel" to the blazing crash of a United Airlines DC-6 which killed 52 persons in Utah last month.

The American Airlines ship was en route from San Francisco to New York with Capt. Evan W. Chatfield of Tulsa at the controls.

Meanwhile an informant here who declined to be quoted by name expressed the view that the flames in both instances apparently originated in the heated compartment below the pressurized cabin. He did not elaborate.

A statement from Chairman C. R. Smith of the American Airlines board in New York said Chatfield voiced a like opinion regarding his ship.

Accounts from passengers and crew of the ship forced down here

"It's A Relief It's Over"

SIAM CHANGES BOSSES

Lower photo shows former Siamese Premier Pridi Banomyong, among those who fled from Bangkok after the government was overthrown by army rebels supporting Songgram. Banomyong had ordered the puppet's arrest for treason after the war ended.

Bangkok, Nov. 12.—(P)—Prince Chakraphan Pemsiri will fly to Switzerland Friday to invite King Phumiphon Aduldej, 19, to return to Siam immediately and assume his throne.

Siam now is ruled by a new five-man state council acting as regents for the youthful monarch.

An announcement said Prince Chakraphan was making the trip at the behest of Field Marshal Phibul Songgram, Siam's new strong man, who overthrew the government of Premier Thanrong Nawasawat Sunday and replaced him with Luang Aphaiwong and the five-man council.

King Phumiphon had not planned to return to Siam until cremation ceremonies are held next March for his late brother, King Ananda Mahidol who was killed by a gunshot wound inflicted under mysterious circumstances in June, 1946.

London, Nov. 12.—(Reuters) Civil aircraft will be banned from flying over Central London from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Nov. 20, the day of the Royal wedding.

The Ministry of Civil Aviation in an urgent notice today defined the area as being as a three-mile circle with the centre at Trafalgar Square. The ministry did not give a reason for the ban.

PITCHING HORSESHOES

I suppose a fellow shouldn't try to write a gay little piece about some one dying. But a daffy story popped up on my desk this morning and I think I ought to share it with you.

The person who died was a Miss Helen Simpson, better known as Aunt Helen to the good folks in the village in which she lived. Aunt Helen was a perky old bachelor lady. Every Tuesday afternoon she poured tea for her spinster friends in the parlor of her tenancy house. In the summer when she made old-fashioned cherry ice cream, she always let the next-door kids lick off the dasher.

As bachelor ladies go, Aunt Helen was normal enough. When

SOUTH BOLTON

Mrs. Hamilton, of "Spring Valley Ranch" opened her spacious home to the Women's Institute, when Miss Evelyn Walker, of Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, gave a most interesting talk on "Home Nursing," demonstrating the use of a thermometer in the sick room; how to make beds; and serve lunch etc. for the patient's comfort. A good number of members and visitors listened with deep interest to her address and she was given a hearty vote of thanks at its close. Mrs. Hamilton and her assistants served a delicious tea.

Miss Evelyn Walker, of Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, and Mrs. Gordon Harvey, of Mansonville, were dinner guests of Mrs. Whitaker, at "Potton Springs."

Mr. and Mrs. George Burnham and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Barnes were visitors in St. Hyacinthe.

Friends here extend sympathy to the family of Mrs. Aikens, who passed on at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cowan, in Mansonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Magoon and two children were tea guests at Mr. Fenderson's, in Fulford.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Willey and daughter, and Mr. Harley Adams were visitors in Cowansville.

Mrs. B. E. Tracey was a guest in Mansonville.

Guests at "Highland Farm" have been Mrs. C. M. Clark, Mrs. C. Clark and daughter, Joan, Mrs. Dustin and Mr. Alex MacManus and Mr. P. Lefebvre, of Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Clark spent a few days here visiting Mrs. Cameron and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Cousins and children, of Waterville, were tea guests at "Highland Farm."

Mr. G. Cousins motored Mr. W. Needham to Mansonville one afternoon, when he and his family were calling there.

Congratulations are extended to Mrs. G. Fuller, who held the lucky ticket for the "Woolen Set" which was drawn by Gaydon Davis, at the W. I. meeting.

The doctor tapped her knee with the little rubber hammer, her leg jerked up. When the optician man flashed a light in her eyes, the pupils dilated nicely. There was only one thing wrong with Aunt Helen.

She hated soldiers.

Hated them all, from General Marshall to the one-day private up the street. She even had been known to refuse a glass of water to a Boy Scout.

And you couldn't blame the old gal. Back in 1918 when she still had roses in her cheeks and real teeth in her mouth, Aunt Helen was engaged to a sergeant in the 69th Division. On the way to the wedding the sergeant stopped off for a quick snort and changed his mind. Aunt Helen waited at the church for two hours and then declared war on the United States Army.

It was total war. She'd cross the street rather than risk brushing up against a soldier. Every Fall she rooted for Notre Dame to beat the jabbers out of West Point.

Then in 1941 the war reached Aunt Helen's neighborhood. She woke up one morning and found they were constructing a soldier camp within a mile of her house. Since a straight line between the camp entrance and the nearest bar ran past Aunt Helen's front porch, the old biddy never had a chance. She lowered the Venetian blinds and tacked them to the window sill, but she could still hear the soldiers hollering and singing. When she tried to drown them out with the radio, she got soldier programs. The lines in Aunt Helen's face began developing lines.

Her worried kinkfolk held a conference. "How about sending her to Cousin Clifford's farm for awhile?" one of them suggested. "She doesn't figure to meet any soldiers there."

When the notion was put to Aunt Helen, she said nothing doing. No bunch of boys playing soldier were going to run her out of town.

That night a lieutenant got a wrong telephone number, called her "Toots," and tried to date her up. Aunt Helen was packed and ready to leave for Cousin Clifford's place the next morning.

Two weeks later Cousin Clifford telephoned the bad news that the old gal had died. The night before, Aunt Helen had gone to a social in the basement of the local Methodist Church. Around cake-cutting time, a platoon of soldiers from a nearby camp had shown up. This was too much. Aunt Helen's heart had gone on strike and, well—that was that.

Helen's sister told Cousin Clifford to have the body embalmed and shipped home. Clifford told her the local undertaker was swamped with work, but he'd use his best influence to have him give Aunt Helen's body preference.

Two days later the casket arrived and was placed in the parlor of Aunt Helen's house. Her relatives and best friends were all present. Solemnly the minister drew back the lid of the casket. He did a double-take and looked again.

Instead of Aunt Helen, the casket contained the uniformed corpse of a two-star general.

A telephone call was put through to the undertaker in Cousin Clifford's town. The man was properly apologetic.

"When a fellow gets rushed," he said, "mistakes are bound to happen. You might as well go ahead and bury the general. Your Aunt Helen was lowered into Arlington Cemetery this morning with a twenty-one-gun salute. It would take an act of Congress to get her out."

DINNER PARTY GIVEN COUPLE AT WATERVILLE

Waterville, Nov. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ingham entertained several friends at a dinner party on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary.

The table was covered with a beautiful linen cloth, which was used at the wedding of Mrs. Ingham's mother and again at her own wedding. A prettily decorated wedding cake occupied the centre of the table and silver bowls filled with gleaming snowberries were on each side with ivory tapers in silver holders.

After the dinner a jolly song-serenade was enjoyed with Mrs. C. E. Burton at the piano.

Later cards were played. The prizes were won by Mrs. Gerald Daine, Mrs. Robert Reed, Mr. Bernard Bailey and Mr. Percy Bean.

The guests of honor were presented with a silver sandwich tray by Mr. G. T. Milmore, on behalf of those present, who also extended their best wishes to the bride and groom of twenty-five years.

Mr. Ingham fittingly replied and thanked their friends for his wife and himself.

The happy event was brought to a close by the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

THE LADIES' AID

Mrs. James Burnell and Mrs. Floyd Lowry entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church at a largely attended meeting held in the Church Parlors. Mrs. R. L. Gale, the president, was in the chair.

The devotional service was conducted by Miss Harriet Woodside, when she took as her theme "Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost," was sung with Miss Gladys Swanson at the piano. Money was voted to share the expenses of purchasing a pulpit lamp for the church with the local C.G.I.T.

All members were asked to support the canvas for the annual chicken pie supper fund, which is now in progress.

At the close of the meeting a delicious tea was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Edward Sarassin, Mrs. Douglas Campbell, Mrs. Colon Ball and Mrs. Wilbur Turner with Mrs. Stephen Pocock and Mrs. William Davis presiding at the attractive lace-covered table.

General Notes

It was with sincere regret that the people of this community learned of the passing of Rev. J. A. Godbout, parish priest of St. Anthony's Church, Lennoxville, which took place in St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Sherbrooke, on October 30. Rev. Father Godbout was pastor of the Roman Catholic Church here for several years and his death will be keenly felt, not only by his former parishioners but by all denominations, as he was a friend to all, especially the needy and underprivileged.

Rev. Joseph Archambault was in Lennoxville to attend the funeral services for Father J. A. Godbout.

Mrs. Cyrus Gould was a visitor in Cookshire and was accompanied home by Mr. Gould, who spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Rose Decota, of Coaticook, was a week-end guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Deacon, of Sherbrooke, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deacon.

Mr. Felix Topier, of Coaticook, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Gordon Newton, of Compton, were callers at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith and family.

Miss Joan Oughtred, Household Science teacher, and Miss Doris Swanson, primary teacher, of the Knowlton High School, were week-end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Swanson.

Mrs. T. Gelinas, of Sherbrooke; Mrs. Charles Dearborn, of Drummondville; and Mrs. Osbourne, of St. Hyacinthe, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ingham.

The Misses Marjorie Allen, Joan Dowd and Mary Esther Swanson, student nurses at the Sherbrooke Hospital, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Swanson.

Mrs. Kenneth Spafford, of the local High School teaching staff, is confined to her home with a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bell have returned to their home in Worcester, Mass., after spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. James Burnell.

BROMPTONVILLE WOMEN'S GROUP HOLDS MEETING

Bromptonville, Nov. 12.—Richmond County Women's Institute held its semi-annual meeting with Mrs. Ouellette, at her home in Bromptonville, with a good number of members from all the eight branches. Several visitors were also welcomed.

The meeting was opened and conducted by the president, Mrs. R. V. Beattie. Roll call recorded by the secretary, Mrs. R. Kerr, was answered by fifty-nine members. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The treasurer, Miss M. Frazer, gave her report. Mrs. Beattie gave a report of booths at Richmond Poultry Agriculture Fair.

After some discussion, a committee was named, with Mrs. J. Watson, the convener, to attend the next Board meeting, of the Richmond County Agriculture Society, to find out what the County W.I. can do at the next fall fair.

Reports are to be submitted at the February meeting of the executive officers of the County W.I.

Windsor Mills, was given extra money for prizes for last year, as two pupils merited the prizes in Grade VII. Prizes for 1947-48 will be for pupil making progress in Grade VII in Richmond, Drummond and Arthabaska Counties schools.

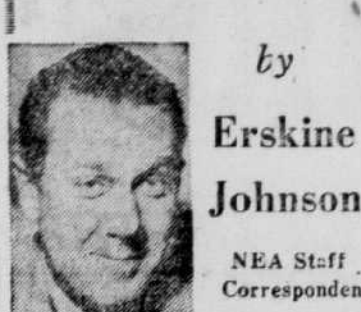

Mrs. Beattie sold greeting cards, and the proceeds are to be given to the Richmond County W.I.

An invitation was given to the ladies to attend the meeting of the Sherbrooke County W.I. to meet and hear about Mrs. Smallman's trip to Amsterdam, Holland.

Mrs. Nixon thanked Mrs. Ouellette for her hospitality in opening her home for this meeting. Delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. Beattie and Mrs. M. Healy, first vice-president, at the head of the table. The meeting then adjourned.

Members by groups, were then invited by Mrs. Jackson to her home near by, where she gave demonstrations on her loom. Several articles were on display of material woven and made by Mrs. Jackson, and a suit that she was wearing. Mrs. Jackson was thanked for her very interesting and helpful demonstration.

ANN AND MARIE HAVE FEUD FOR THOUGHT

Hollywood, Nov. 12.—Ann Miller and Marie McDonald are Hollywood's latest feudists. It started when Marie cut in on Ann's date with Harry Karl and then married him. Anne's new heart is Louis B. Mayer's nephew, Gerald Mayer.

Greg Bautzer will be standing by to take a plane if Joan Crawford gets lonesome in New York.

James Craig and Joan Leslie wound up their love scenes in "Northwest Stampede" ready to cut each other's throats. Too much attempt! scene-stealing.

Red Skelton's "The Fuller Brush Man" will carry this dedication: "To those valiant individuals with the flashing smiles and the flat feet—The Fuller Brush Men."

The Washington Red probe proves again that Hollywood is guilty of over-dramatization. Everything is a crisis. A waiter can't even say "No, we haven't got it," in Hollywood. He has to dramatize it. There must be some way to get rid of communism other than staging a circus.

Lana Likes Land

At the last moment, Lana Turner cancelled her plane reservations and took a train to New York. Crash jitters. Thanks to Arthur Ungar of Variety and others for joining in my campaign against the life story of Al Capone.

Margaret Lindsay is having X-rays on her head. She was thrown from a horse at Victorville.

Louis Jordan, the singing sax player who just opened at Billy Berg's, is managed (professionally) by his wife. The same wife who sent him to a hospital a year ago in a domestic brawl.

Predictions: Betty Garrett will be the screen's next big sensation in "The Big City." Her husband was last year's sensation. His name is Larry Parks.

Fox will remake the old Ty Power-Don Ameche hit, "Love Is News." That's a title that's never outdated.

Hume Cronyn and M-G-M have called it a day. Mae West opened in "Diamond Lil" in Manchester, England, with critics agreeing that the production was "outmoded."

"A Connecticut Yankee" is Bing Crosby's 30th picture. Katharine Hepburn is Broadway-bound for a play in the spring.

Turns Down Offers

Author Lloyd Douglas is turning down all offers for the screen rights to his latest, "The Big Fisherman," fictionalized biography of Simon Peter. It's presumably because of the long delay in putting "The Robe" on the screen.

Hit songs of 10 and 20 years ago are having a revival in new films. Headed back via films are "Sweet Sue," "You Were Meant for Me," "Good News," "My Wild Irish Rose," "It Had to Be You," "Body and Soul" and "Dancing in the Dark."

One hundred new drive-in theaters will be built in the U.S. during the next 12 months. Most of the film, "The Life of Babe Ruth,"

MILAN COUPLE GIVEN PARTY BY FRIENDS

Milan, Nov. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. McLeod were taken completely by surprise on October 30, when relatives and friends gathered at their home to help them celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod rose to the occasion and welcome their unexpected guests, who extended congratulations and best wishes to them.

The evening was spent in singing and social intercourse with old time selections played on the violin by Mr. Gerald MacKay.

During the evening Masters Earle and Stanley Murray presented their grandparents with a gift. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod also received a telegram of congratulations from their son, Roderick, of Bralorne, B.C., and a message from Mr. McLeod's sister, Miss Marna McLeod, of Deland, Fla.

Towards the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. A. W. Murray, assisted by Mrs. K. A. MacDonald, Mrs. D. A. Nicholson, Doris McLeod, Mary McLeod and Carol MacDonald.

Just before the party broke up, all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Among those present were four members of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. McLeod's family, Miss Doris McLeod, of Montreal, Mr. Duncan McLeod, of Bury, Mr. Fraser McLeod and Mrs. Albert W. Murray, of Milan; their son-in-law and grandchildren, Mr. Albert W. Murray and Earle and Stanley Murray; Mr. Albert McLeod, Mrs. Lyford Elger and Mrs. Alex P. MacLeod, of Stouffville; Mrs. Flora Elliott, the Misses Katie and Louise MacKay and Messrs. Alex and Gerald MacKay of North Hill, Lingwick; Mr. Clarence MacAskill and Mr. and Mrs. George MacAskill, of Gould; Mrs. Inez Bailey, Mrs. Katie Matheson and Mr. W. R. A. MacDonald, of Milan, all cousins of the honored guests; and all the friends and neighbors in the community.

General Notes

Mrs. Inez Bailey was in Lake Megantic one day and called on Mrs. J. O. MacDonald.

Mr. J. Banbury, of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, preached in Bethany Church, on November 9. While here he was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. McLeod are will be filmed in New York. And that should make Mayor O'Dwyer happy.

Twosome: Gail Patrick's ex, Dean White, with Cara Williams at the Tallyho. Promised and hoped for: Linda Darnell draped in a Turkish towel for her opening scene in "The Walls of Jericho."

Kay Thompson received a great tribute the other day. Someone asked if she had a press agent. The answer was "She doesn't need a press agent. She's good."

For Bad Winter Coughs, Mix This Syrup at Home

This well known recipe is used by many thousands of housewives, because they have found that it gives them an effective, dependable medicine for distressing winter coughs. It's so easy to mix—anyone can do it.

From any drugist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for effect on throat irritations.

Then make a syrup by stirring two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. It's no trouble at all and takes but a moment. No cooking needed.

Pinex Saves You Money. Fast Relief. Easily Mixed.

Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey instead of sugar syrup.

Put the Pinex into a 16 ounce bottle and fill up with your syrup. This gives you 16 ounces of cough syrup, unusually quick-acting and dependable, and you get four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and is very pleasant children love it.

You'll be surprised by the way it takes hold of severe coughs, giving quick, satisfying relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear their passages. Money refunded if it doesn't please in every way.

Pinex Saves You Money. Fast Relief. Easily Mixed.

Net Returns From 16th Annual Rotary Fair Totalled $9,116

Net proceeds from the 16th annual Rotary Fair held at the Belvidere Street Armoury from Nov. 6 to Nov. 8 are estimated at $9,116.18, which is $118.18 lower than the $9,234.36 realized during the 1946 fair. Robert L. Curphey, honorary treasurer of the fair, announced last night during the Sherbrooke Rotary Club meeting held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel, and which was followed by a dance for the fair workers who were entertained by the Rotarians.

During the banquet, President George B. Murphy and Gerald Wiggitt, general chairman of the fair committee, expressed thanks to all who aided in making the fair a great success.

Mr. Curphey reported the money taken in by the booths. The list follows: Suffering, $2,520.39; Bingo, $2,388.96; Blankets No. 1, $1,754.17; Blankets No. 2, $1,774.21; Hams and Chickens, $995.83; Fruit, $1,451.50; Double Double, $842.13; Horse Race, $1,483.29; Candy, $529.00; Stockings, $510.39; Hoopla, $277.61; Electrical, $875.65; Groceries, $874.41; Check Room, $31.80; Restaurant, $165.50. Mr. Curphey especially pointed out that the special children's day held on last Saturday afternoon brought in $835.

Total booth receipts are $16,149.63. The returns from the merchandise booths are gross receipts while they are net for the others. The estimated merchandise cost is $7,046.18, the estimated net profit from raffles is $3,480, sundry merchandise sold after the fair returned $22.73 and estimated general expenses are $3,500.

President Murphy thanked those who worked for and patronized the fair. He pointed out that the profits "as in the past, will be used to alleviate suffering and aid the underprivileged, and do all possible in the community for the common good."

Persons contributing to the event, continued President Murphy, would "derive immeasurable benefit" from the Rotary Club principle of "service above self."

H. W. BENNETT WINS BOND AT PREMIER

Last night H. W. Bennett, 50 King street west, was the lucky winner of a $50 savings bond which is drawn weekly at the New Premier Theatre. The number was 16,530.

Emile Rozand acted as master of ceremonies, assisted by Miss Gergette Gagnon.

Previous winners are: Aureole Sirois, 177 Wellington south, Alexandre Beauchemin, 165 Drummond street and Jeanne Dodier, 104 Wellington north.

Superfine girls for the flowers sent him.

Seated at the head table with President Murphy, Mayor Bryant, Mr. Gilbey, Mr. Curphey and Mr. Wiggitt were D. J. Salls, past president of Rotary and chairman of the first fair committee formed, E. E. Goodenough, past president, E. Willard Cross, past president and Maj. H. R. Slater.

Several hundred persons attended the banquet and a dance was held later with Giz Gagnon and his orchestra providing the music. T. Keeley led the guests and members in community singing.

Jean Dupuis Pleads Guilty To Theft And Bigamy Accusations

Jean Dupuis, alias Hildevert Hudon, 32-year-old Sherbrooke man, whose arrest in St. Jean d'Hebertville a few weeks ago by Provincial Police culminated search of more than a year and a half, today faced Mr. Justice Lucien Cannon in Court of King's Bench and pleaded guilty to three theft charges, one of a car belonging to Dr. Beauregard, of St. Hyacinthe, the two others, medical supplies and equipment belonging to both Dr. Beauregard and Dr. Nadeau, of Richmond. He pleaded guilty a week ago on a charge of stealing Dr. Nadeau's automobile.

Dupuis faced another accusation, bigamy, to which he also pleaded guilty.

JEAN DUPUIS

Crown Prosecutor Roland Dugre, K.C., requested that the accused be sentenced at the end of the present term, and that pending his sentence he be removed to Bordeaux. Hubert Dussault, as well as his two women companions, Claire Jutras, 19, of Sherbrooke, and a sixteen-year-old East Angus girl, appeared before Judge Dorais on his recent trip to Australasia.

Dupuis requested a summary trial. The two girls in the case pleaded not guilty to a conspiracy charge. All three were remanded to this afternoon.

129 ARRESTS DURING MONTH OF OCTOBER

A slight increase in the number of cases in Recorder's Court was noted for the month of October this year as compared to the same period last year. One hundred and twenty-nine appeared last month compared to 95 for the month of October last year.

Forty-eight persons appeared on charges of drunkenness and seven appeared on charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct last month, while thirty-six were arrested for drunkenness in October, 1946, and seventeen were arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

During the month of October, 1946, $1,231.46 was paid in fines, while only $987.90 was paid last month.

Of the 129 appearing in court 127 were men and 2 were women. Eighty were residents of this city while 49 were strangers. Eighty-four were convicted for the first time, while forty-five have been previously convicted.

Six persons were picked up for vagrancy last month compared to two for the same period last year. Thirty-five persons appeared for violation of the municipal traffic by-laws and twenty-two were stopped for the violation of the Vehicle Act last month. During the month of October, 1946, eight appeared for violation of the municipal traffic by-laws while thirteen appeared in Recorder's Court for violation of the Vehicle Act. Seventeen miscellaneous cases were reported during the month of October, 1946, while none were reported last month.

S. LACHARITE APPOINTED BY CONSERVATORY

Sylvio Lacharite, whose appointment as secretary for the Sherbrooke section of the Provincial Conservatory of Music has been approved by the Hon. Omer Cote, provincial secretary, announced today that classes will be opened on Saturday, November 29.

The services of qualified professors from Montreal have been secured for the seven sections which will be represented. They are Roland Leduc for cello, Roger Charbonneau, bass, Real Gagnier, oboe, Roland Gagnier, bassoon, J. Le Comte, trumpet, J. Moretti or J. Lafontaine for clarinet and, in all probability, Louis Bailey, former professor at the Curtis Institute, and Paris Conservatory, for violin.

With the exception of Mr. Bailey, all the teachers mentioned are or were at one time teachers in their section in the Montreal Conservatory.

In addition to these competent professors, there will be local teachers, H. Bouché for violin and J. P. Belisle for trumpet.

Everyone intending to take up an instrument must also enroll in the theory and solfeggio classes. While there is no singing class, those who are studying voice culture elsewhere and who are interested, will be admitted to the solfeggio courses.

Only persons possessing some knowledge of music will be eligible and applicants will be required to perform three selections on the piano, if they are not familiar with the instrument they wish to learn.

No private instruction will be given and all classes will be held at the Central School, corner of Ball and Gillespie streets, on Saturday afternoons, twice a month. The hour will be published later.

Those who wish additional information, may communicate with Sylvio Lacharite, 94 Gillespie street.

Wilfrid Pelletier, D.M., one of the well known conductors of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is the director of the Conservatory, Claude Champagne is assistant director, Jean Vallier general secretary and Claire Bissonnette assistant secretary.

Local musicians are well pleased that a section of the Conservatory is being established in Sherbrooke. It is felt that students, who at a later date will fill the ranks of the Harmony Band and the Symphony orchestra, will in this manner, have the opportunity to receive their training from a qualified and reliable source.

It is understood that all classes are free, but students will be required to furnish their own instruments.

MISS G. HEBERT PRESIDENT OF CONVENT GROUP

Miss Geraldine Hebert was elected president of Mont Notre Dame Alumnae at the annual meeting held Sunday afternoon in the convent hall of the convent.

Other officers elected were Miss Mimi Shea, vice-president; Miss Mary Corcoran, secretary for the English section, re-elected; Miss Yolande Renaud, secretary for the French section, re-elected, and Mrs. L. E. Codere and Mrs. Eugenie Shea, honorary president, the latter being named to succeed the late Mrs. L. C. Bachand.

The day began with the celebration of Mass at 8:30 in the convent chapel, the Rev. Father Victor Dupuis, of St. Charles Seminary, officiating and delivering the sermon. The vestments worn by the celebrant were the gift of Mother Saint Josephine. The donation was made possible from the gifts she had received at her fiftieth anniversary, celebrated last May at the Mother House of the Congregation of Notre Dame at Montreal. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was held with Rev. Father Dupuis officiating. The opening solo was sung by Mrs. Kathleen Gingras. The convent choir sang the benediction hymns, accompanied by Mother Saint Raymond at the organ.

Miss Eugenie Codere, president, extended a warm welcome to the Alumnae and friends, and especially thanked Rev. Mother Saint Alexis, provincial Superior, for attending. Rev. Mother Saint Yolande welcomed the old pupils to their Alma Mater, and remarked that the occasion was one of outstanding interest in that it would feature the celebrations in Sherbrooke of the golden jubilee of Mother Saint Josephine. She referred to the presence of the Rev. Mother Saint Anne d'Auray and Mother Saint Anne d'Auray and Marguerite de Savoie, who some years ago had feted their golden jubilee.

Mother Saint Josephine was presented with a bouquet of red roses. The Rev. Mother expressed her thanks for the flowers and the tribute of affection which accompanied them, and voiced her delight in meeting the old pupils in whom her interest was as keen as ever.

The secretary's report revealed that three scholarships had been donated as in past years. The Sainte Anne d'Auray scholarship was awarded for the best composition on a selected subject, to a pupil in the second year high school, and was won by Miss Jean Ryan, of Montreal. The two $75 scholarships, awarded to pupils of the third and fourth year high school respectively, are to facilitate the pursuit of education to less fortunate children. The secretary reported that the sewing circle had made 84 garments with which 33 children had been clothed.

Miss Helen Slattery, past president, heading the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers. She proposed the name of Mrs. Eugenie Shea as being the unanimous choice for the honorary president to replace the late Mrs. L. C. Bachand. The president, Miss Codere, before retiring, addressed the coming graduates, and thanked the officers and members who had given her wholehearted support during her term of presidency.

Heavy Rain Needed To Replace Power Supply At Normal Level

The week-end and early week rainfall is being received happily by power company officials in the district, but it is believed another three days of rainfall will be needed before the power situation gets back to normal, and it will not be known for another 24 hours, if the rain keeps up, what effect the present rainfall will have in the situation.

Most generating plants in the area are operating at about half of their normal output, and the Town of Magog has ordered a dimout measure to conserve what little power is available.

The Lennoxville Experimental Farm reported this morning that the rainfall on Saturday measured .59 with half an inch of snow. The fall since yesterday was recorded at almost an inch—.94 to be exact—this morning. Snow began to fall here at 11 o'clock.

In Magog last night, all store and display windows and outdoor luminous signs were shut off for an indefinite period and the only street lights lit were those on Main street, and only half of those were on.

Dr. M. E. Adams, mayor of Magog, said today that yesterday afternoon all the small industries in Magog were ordered to halt operations for the day at about three or half-past three in the afternoon.

He said the power restrictions would be in effect until the power situation improves.

The Town of Magog and the Dominion Textile Company plant to split even on the power, and one supply the other if one is short and the other has a surplus. The textile plant is working on short shifts. It is feared that the Southern Canada Power Company will have to reduce its allotment of power to the textile concern.

"We have never really had an adequate supply of power," said Mayor Adams, "and we both (the municipality and the textile company) have overgrown the supply available locally and we need an outside source."

"During the high water levels in the spring the supply of power provides us with what we need. The long dry spells show up our real weakness."

He said Magog had not been able to come to a satisfactory arrangement to have either the Southern Canada or the Shawinigan Water and Power Corporation supply the necessary additional power. Mayor Adams revealed that about six weeks ago the town and the Southern Canada Power Company had signed an agreement for more power but when a delegation went to Montreal to arrange the final details, the company officials said the representative who signed the agreement on their behalf was only a salesman and had not the proper authority, and that even if the agreement was valid, they did not have the necessary facilities to provide it.

A spokesman at the Southern Canada Power house just below Dufferin Avenue said it would be at least another 24 hours before the effects of a present rainfall were known. He said "this rainfall is making us very happy" and said it would be another three days of steady rain before the situation was back to normal.

The prolonged drought in the district has drastically reduced the levels of lakes and rivers. Lake Memphremagog is down three feet, and Little Lake Magog two feet.

The St. Francis River, which has a rating of 121 when normal, now is recorded at 109. The Magog River, with 112, is at 102.

The municipal power plants are manufacturing but 30 per cent of their normal output due to the serious water shortage, and what additional power obtainable comes from the Southern Canada by virtue of an agreement between the city and the company.

GRADUATE OF BISHOP'S IN NEW OFFICE

Word has been received that a graduate of the University of Bishop's College, Very Rev. Robert Harold Waterman, M.A., D.D., Rector of Christ's Church Cathedral, Hamilton, Ont., and Dean of Niagara since 1937, has been elected Coadjutor Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Nova Scotia and will take up his new duties in January, 1948.

He will be assistant to the Most Rev. G. F. Kingston, Archbishop of Nova Scotia and Primate of all Canada.

The new Coadjutor Bishop who is 53 years old, served in the 1914-18 war with the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles and resumed his theological studies at the University of Bishop's College upon the cessation of hostilities.

Since his ordination he has been assigned to parishes in various points in Ontario.

U.K. Response To Palestine Partition Plan Is Awaited

By ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Lake Success, Nov. 12.—The British Government's response to the proposed compromise plan for Palestine partition into Jewish and Arab states will probably be announced today at the United Nations, but most delegates are pessimistic that the United Kingdom will accept the scheme as it now stands.

Britain's Sir Alexander Cadogan told the 10-member sub-committee on Palestine late yesterday that he expected to know "very shortly" what were the reactions of his government.

The co-operation of Britain is essential to the new plan, which calls for the British troops and administrators to remain in Palestine until the U.K. mandate is terminated next May 1 and British forces withdrawn.

If Britain rejects the plan, the present Canadian-inspired formula which is acceptable to Russia and the United States would have to be ditched or redrafted.

McNeill, said in an interview that his government's policy statement probably would be ready for delivery today and that it would be "reasonable and consistent." Replying to a request for clarification, he repeated the word "consistent."

McNeill's comment, coming on the heels of Sir Alexander's speech of caution to the Palestine sub-committee yesterday, led to speculation that London was maintaining the position laid down Sept. 26, when Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech Jones told the Assembly's Palestine Committee:

"If the Assembly should recommend a policy which is not acceptable to the Jews and Arabs, the United Kingdom Government would not feel able to implement it."

The Jews support partition, but the Arabs oppose it vigorously and have threatened to use force should the U.N. attempt to enforce such a plan.

Sir Alexander made the first British declaration on Palestine in several weeks when he cautioned in a brief, carefully-worded statement yesterday against U.N. adopting any plan which would give Britain the major responsibility for implementing the proposed partition.

He indicated Britain might find difficulty in going beyond her previously-outlined Palestine policy which called for withdrawal of British troops from the Holy Land at any "early date" and refusal to accept the "major role" in carrying out any plan not acceptable to the Jews and the Arabs.

The new plan, proposed by the Russians and agreed to by the United States, is based on the assumption that Britain would agree to assume the responsibility for law and order in Palestine until next May 1, assisted by the proposed Palestine U.N. Commission.

Canada's L. B. Pearson said after Cadogan's statement that this "is a very timely warning from the British."

He indicated that there still was a good deal of negotiating to do on this new plan and that there were many points in the scheme which had to be clarified to Britain as well as in the four-power "working party" laboring over the plan.

Britain, however, agreed on Pearson's suggestion, to join the "working party," composed of Russia, the United States, Canada and Guatemala, in an effort to carry out this process of clarification.

Meanwhile the New York Times in a front-page news story reported that India has decided to withdraw from the race for membership on the U.N. Security Council and said that indications were the Ukraine would be elected without opposition.

Canada was elected along with Argentina on the first ballot for non-permanent members of the Security Council beginning next Jan. 1, but there has been a deadlock since late September in the India-Ukraine contest for the last seat, replacing Poland whose term expires at the year-end.

In the political committee yesterday, Justice Minister Lacey, head of the Canadian delegation, strongly opposed a Polish resolution that the U.N. apply economic sanctions against Spain to oust the Franco regime.

He maintained it was not constitutional according to the U.N. charter, unless the situation in Spain was declared a "threat to the peace," and added that "nothing in the way of effective sanctions could come from this resolution."

If the resolution were adopted it "would be like making faces across the Atlantic at Franco."

With such words as "slave state," "regimentation" and "totalitarianism" a new regulation which Labor Minister George Isaacs said would put all the idle persons—including peers, "spivs and drones"—to work. He indicated that those who failed to comply would be jailed.

Under the new regulation, which becomes effective December 12, all men "not gainfully employed" and between the ages of 18 and 50 must register at labor offices authorized to direct them into essential work. Women between 18 and 40 are likewise affected.

The Financial Times said the order was a "new milestone along the road to regimentation . . . calculated to breed new harshness in the administration of labor controls and lead us faster towards the new totalitarianism."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express declared that with the new regulation "Mr. Isaacs has taken one more decisive step in the direction of the slave state."

Moscow Tightens Grip On Romania

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Julius Maniu, grand old man of Romanian peasantry and several times Premier of his country, has gone the way of all those who oppose Communism within the Soviet zone of domination.

A military tribunal has pronounced him guilty of treason, the charges including the accusation that he plotted with the United States and Britain to overthrow the government. He was condemned to solitary confinement for life—a punishment regarded by most as more terrible than death. Eighteen others were convicted of crimes against the state (four in absentia) and received various degrees of punishment.

It is an ironic circumstance that it was Maniu who lifted the prohibition against Communist activity in Romania when he first became Premier in 1928 after his National Peasant Party had won 85 per cent of the country's vote. The same regard for individual liberty which impelled him to raise this ban also inspired him to battle against control of his country by Moscow, although he denied on the witness stand that he had done anything treasonable.

Just as Maniu had fought Hitlerian domination of Romania, so he opposed Soviet rule which was inaugurated in 1945 when Petru Groza was made Premier upon demand of Moscow. The ultimatum for Groza's appointment was delivered to youthful King Michael by Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, whose two-fistedness has been so well demonstrated in his attacks on the United States and Britain in the United Nations.

States and Britain in the United Nations. Maniu had been a grievous thorn in Moscow's side, and the crushing of this aged idol of the peasants would seem to give the Soviet Union a tight grip on the country. This is especially true since Russia maintains a large force of troops there.

The tactics employed by the Communists in Romania are typical of those used elsewhere in absorbing Europe into the Russian zone of domination. There is the same pattern of strong-arm methods against which the United States and Britain have protested in numerous instances—Romania being among them.

Of course it's easy to understand why Russia wants to have absolute control of Romania. It is a vital section of the Eastern European bloc which Moscow has been consolidating.

If you glance at your map you will see that not only does Romania lie up against the Soviet frontier, but that it is one of the key positions militarily in the Balkans. It is part of the Russian land route to the Dardanelles; it occupies a long stretch of the Black Sea coast; it controls the mouths of the Danube River, one of the world's greatest water highways, which provides a shipping thoroughfare clear up to Germany.

Moreover, Romania possesses petroleum and is one of the important grain-producing countries of the Balkans. Well, Russia seems to have secured her control all right. It's hard to figure out anything that will disturb it for the time being.

Armistice Day Ceremony Is Held At Lennoxville Cenotaph

The fact that the world has been at war for nine of the last 25 years is a slur on humanity, Rev. Norman McLeod said on Sunday at the annual Remembrance Day ceremony held in Lennoxville at the war memorial in the town square.

Mr. McLeod said that the peoples of the world must develop those Christian qualities which would enable them to live together in peace and common understanding and that no progress counted if this basic ideal of international peace could not be achieved.

Prayers were said by the Rev. Archdeacon Albert Jones and the Rev. Dr. A. H. McGreer, M.C., principal and vice-chancellor of the University of Bishop's College.

Present at the ceremony were Mayor Robert M. Boright, who laid a wreath at the foot of the war memorial, the town council and members of the Lennoxville school commission.

The parade was led by the Bishop's College School cadet corps, who were very smartly turned out, and was made up by members and veterans of the two wars as well as members of the Sherbrooke and Lennoxville branch of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Sharon were pleasantly surprised when about forty relatives and friends from Brown's Hill, Ayer's Cliff, North Hatley, McConnell, Fitch Bay and Waterloo gathered at their home in Newport, Vt., to celebrate the occasion of their Golden Anniversary.

The couple received a dozen American Beauty roses from Meader's Flower Shop, a substantial sum of money from their many friends, and other gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharon were married in Massawippi in 1897. They spent the first few years of their married life in McConnell where their only son, Lynford, was born. Later they moved to Brown's Hill, where their only daughter, Blanch, was born. They remained on Brown's Hill until 3 years ago when they moved to a smaller farm in Tomfohia and at present they are residing with their son, Lynford, in Newport, Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharon have five grandchildren, Mrs. Roland Stevens, Barton, Vermont, Lyall Sharon, Sherbrooke, Que., Richard, Sally and Patricia Stoddard, of Waterloo, Quebec, and one great-grandchild, Larry Lynn Stevens, of Barton, Vermont.

Mrs. J. E. Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sharon, assisted by Miss Ina Gardner, of Waterloo, made plans for the happy occasion and served a buffet lunch including an anniversary cake.

Miss G. Hebert

Miss Hebert, the new president, in taking the chair, thanked the Alumnae for the confidence placed in her by electing her to the office of president. She appealed to them for the assistance she would need in the coming year, during which the grand convention, which takes place every ten years, would be held. The president stated that the musical program, prepared by Mrs. L. E. Codere and Mrs. Pauline Lafond, and dedicated to Mother Saint Josephine, would take place.

This program opened with Minuet, (Bize), followed by Seville, (Albini), played on two pianos by Mrs. L. E. Codere and Mrs. Irene Levesque. Solitude Champagne, and Serenade Intime, (Brahme), vocal solos, were sung by Mrs. Marie-Ange Ampleman, of Montreal. The Golden Wedding Song, words and music by Mrs. Josephine Doherty Codere, with Miss Margaret Doherty as soloist, accompanied by the author, clinched the entertainment.

Tea was served in the gymnasium, brightly decorated with blue and yellow balloons, streamers and bows. The table, covered with a lace cloth festooned with smilax, was centered with the jubilee cake, which was wreathed with yellow baby mums. Yellow candles in silver candelabra completed the decorations. Mother Saint Josephine cut the cake, of which all present enjoyed a small portion. Sealer at the head table were: Rev. Mother Saint Yoland, Superior, Mother Saint Josephine, Mother Saint Marguerite de Savoie, Mother Saint Adolphe, Miss Eugenie Codere, Miss Geraldine Hebert, Mrs. L. E. Codere and Mrs. Eugenie Shea. The enjoyable reunion was brought to a close by the playing of Irish airs and French melodies, O Canada and God Save the King, with Mrs. Codere at the piano.

Rev. Mother Saint Josephine, in private life Miss Corinne Prevost, is a graduate of Villa Maria, Montreal. Mother Saint Josephine was professor of piano, of the choir and of singing, at Bourbons, Chicago, New York, Waterbury, Me., Staten Island and Montreal. She acted as Superior at the convents of Danville, Villa Maria, Montreal, New York City, Notre Dame de Grace, and assistant Superior at Ottawa. For the past 12 years, Mother Saint Josephine has been the assistant Superior at Mont Notre Dame in Sherbrooke.

At Quebec, officials of the Quebec Attorney-General's Department said they had no word of any disturbance. Quebec Provincial Police gave the same story.

An attractive investment in a Growing Industry

With products of chemistry playing an extensive and increasingly important part in modern industrial production, the chemical industry faces an era of wide expansion. In this rapidly growing industry, Standard Chemical Company, Limited is an integral and progressive unit. In addition to its own diversified manufacturing and distribution activities, the Company has substantial investments in other progressive companies in the chemical field. Income from its investment in Dominion Tar and Chemical Co., Ltd., alone is sufficient to cover the Company's preferred dividend requirements. Earnings from current operations are showing impressive gains; prospects for further increases are favourable.

We recommend as principals:

A party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch A. MacDonald and family, who are leaving town to reside in Brownville, Junction, Me., was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, one evening when the members of Knox United Church gathered to wish them well in their new home. The evening was spent socially and several of the guests participated in contests, which were enjoyed by all and prizes were won by Mrs. J. A. Stewart and Mrs. Lepper and Mrs. Thompson won the consolation prize. Rev. Mr. Politt on behalf of the congregation spoke words of appreciation of the family and of how much they would be missed in the church and by the community and presented Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald with a beautiful tri-light lamp, and each of the boys, Murray and Murdoch, with envelopes containing money. Mr. MacDonald in a few well chosen words, expressed their appreciation and thanks for the gifts and good wishes. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies bringing the social evening to a close.

Mr. Hugh Miller, of Brownville, Junction, Me., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart.

Mr. Harold MacDonald and Miss Violet Adams of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ruder.

CUT DOWN ON TAKING LAXATIVES THIS WAY

See How Regular You Can Be Every Morning

Try taking Carter's Pills this way: Start with 3 and set a definite time every morning. When you get regular every morning cut down to 2. After a few days, try 1.
Then try taking Carter's every other day. You may even find you can keep regular without any laxative.
You see, Carter's are so tiny you can cut down the dose—from 3 to 1—to fit the needs of your individual system. Without disappointment.

Carter's help clean out your intestinal tract not halfway, but thoroughly. They are doubly effective because made with two vegetable herbs compounded properly for thorough, easy action.
Thousands can cut down on laxative dosing this Carter way. Ask for Carter's Pills by name to get the genuine at any drugstore—35¢. Start the Carter graduated dose method tonight, and jump out of bed tomorrow feeling good.

HANDS, FACE, LIPS need ICE-MINT

Skin that has been roughened, chapped or flaked by exposure responds quickly to soothing ICE-MINT. Get comforting relief today yourself—and use it on children's tender skin, too. Ice-Mint protects the skin, and acts quickly—use it before or after exposure for satisfactory results. Try this winter skin and today—small size—50¢. 4 oz. economy jar—$1.00.

The Doctor Says

CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING INCREASES

By William A. O'Brien, M.D.
Carelessness in operating heating appliances, and running cars in garages with the doors closed, is again resulting in carbon monoxide poisoning.

Dr. O'Brien

Carbon monoxide does not occur naturally in the air; it is only found in fumes, smoke, illuminating gas and motor exhausts.

Have You Enrolled As A Student Nurse?

Take Advantage of the Future Opportunities the Nursing Profession Offers

Make Application At Once

For The New Class At The Sherbrooke Hospital School Of Nursing To Commence Early In February

Don't Delay! The Need Is Urgent!

Your Course in Nursing at the Sherbrooke Hospital

The better schools of nursing admit new classes at a stated time, either twice or once a year. The program of a good school of nursing is carefully planned to cover three years of theory and practice. It is divided into preliminary, junior, intermediate and senior terms.

The preliminary period, which should not be less than four months, is devoted largely to classroom instruction with observation and correlation of instruction on the wards under careful supervision. At the conclusion of this period you will be assigned to the wards and given patients to nurse. The program of nursing experience is planned as carefully as the classroom instruction, providing for definite length of time in the various wards and departments of the hospital. You will carry lectures in conjunction with your nursing work throughout the course.

Subjects which are studied include several sciences underlying nursing such as anatomy and physiology, chemistry, bacteriology, dietetics, materia medica, hospital housekeeping, health education, home and community problems. The course includes a study of nursing in all its various phases. A complete list of required subjects may be obtained at time of application. You will expect to receive good teaching on the wards as well as in the classroom, for it is really on the wards in contact with patients that you learn to become a good nurse.

You Are Asked to Make Application in Person or By Letter to the Superintendent of Nurses
On or Before Saturday, November 29

Qualifications: Age between 18 and 30 years, Health must be good. Education: Good senior High School standing as recognized by the Quebec Department of Education. A pleasing personality is necessary. Two classes are conducted annually, February and September. No tuition fees required.

There Is a Bright Future

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE

Richmond, Nov. 12.—In connection with "Education Week," Friday afternoon was "Visitors' Day" at school. At half-past two, Mr. Forman gave a very instructive and enlightening address on his homeland, the island of Jamaica, B.W.I. The large and appreciative audience consisted of the pupils from Grades V-XII, parents and friends of the school. St. Francis is grateful to the I.O.D.E., which made possible this feature of Education Week.

On Friday afternoon, the older girls of the Home Economics department, under the supervision of Miss Ross, served tea to a large number of visiting parents and friends.

Several debates have been taking place in Grades VIII, IX and X during the past week in preparation for the debates to be held this month in the Inter-School Debating League, with Drummondville last year's champions, Asbestos, Windsor Mills and Richmond.

This year's Student Council is made up of the following class representatives: Robert Boaz; Jack Sanderson and Lois Lovett; Walter Stevens and Margaret Pope; John Birch and Elaine Barrington; Robert Spence and Shirley Hebert; Brian Gee. Grade XII elects one representative, the four following grades two each, and Grade VII has a single representative.

St. Francis was represented at the Provincial Conference of Student Councils held at the Knowlton Composite High School by Jack Sanderson and Margaret Pope, president and vice-president of the school council.

The following cadets have qualified for their first class shooting badges since April 1, the beginning of the present cadet year: C. Gunter, D. Gunter, R. Stinson, A. MacKeage, J. Lyster, C. Brock, W. Andrews, F. Doyle, L. Bergeron, R. Griffith, W. Robb, A. Banfill, P. Hinch, Robert Birch and Murray Parker won chickens at the "shoot" on Saturday, at Mr. Guy Barrie's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Irish, of Simcoe, Ont., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Armstrong.

Mrs. Margaret Coughlin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coughlin, of Spooner Pond; Mrs. M. O'Donnell and son, Mr. M. O'Donnell, visited Mr. William Coughlin, who is a patient in the Veterans' Hospital in St. Hyacinthe.

Your Electric Servant

"Isn't it wonderful?"

"Any wife who takes pride in her housekeeping would rave over a sparkling new automatic electric range. Cooking is such a pleasure—cooler, cleaner and more dependable than the old-fashioned cook stove."

"It takes just a few moments and very little 'elbow grease' to keep an electric range in brand new condition. There's no soot or smoky flame to blacken range or pans."

"Yes sir, electric cooking is economical... It costs less than 1/2¢ per meal, per person. And think of the saving in time and labour!"

FORM PUBLIC SPEAKING GROUP AT RICHMOND

Created with the purpose of developing better ability at public speaking a special Public Speaking Group has been formed by the Richmond Junior Chamber of Commerce. The group studying the course at present numbers some 15 members.

Meeting every Wednesday night, the Public Speaking Group is following the course in public speaking as prepared by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Each member is given an opportunity to speak, and valuable points in mannerisms, voice, etc., are given close attention, as well as the right and wrong way to address an audience, preparations of talks, etc.

A commendable project in itself, it is hoped that greater interest in public speaking can be developed among organizations and all who come in contact with the public as the ability to "know how" is a distinct credit and a necessity to everyone in public life, when asked to speak to an audience.

The Richmond Public Speaking Course under the direction of the Junior Chamber of Commerce is directed by Dr. Jean Smith, Roger Gagne and Roger Cameron.

SCOUTS HOLD MEETING IN CHURCH HALL

Richmond, Nov. 12.—The fall season of the St. Francis Valley District Boy Scout Association got under way on Friday night with a supper meeting in the United Church Hall, in Richmond.

The chicken-pie supper was served by the ladies of the Ruby Group and was enjoyed by all. Mrs. C. R. Boast responded to the vote of thanks, which was proposed by Mr. A. J. Phillip, of Windsor Mills.

The business meeting was opened by the president, Mr. H. Stone, who called on Mr. R. Rout, secretary, to read the minutes. After their formal adoption, probable campsites for next year's Scout and Cub camps were discussed. It was decided to turn the matter over to the executive committee, pending talks with Mr. H. Cranford, district commissioner.

Mr. Cranford, in his letter, expressed his regrets at being unable to attend the meeting, and on his suggestion, two assistant district commissioners were nominated, subject to his approval. They were Mr. H. Conley, of Windsor Mills, and Mr. O. Bogstar, of Drummondville.

All the officers, at an approved motion from their colleagues, graciously consented to fulfill their same duties for the coming year.

A financial report was read by the treasurer, Mr. E. Nixon, followed by reports by the representatives of the group committees from Drummondville, Richmond, Danville, Asbestos and Windsor Mills. An excellent report of money-raising by an apple day came from Drummondville.

Before Mr. Stone closed the meeting a Group Charter was approved for the Danville group committee.

The St. Francis Valley District Boy Scouts Association now has an excellent working committee and will welcome the interest of parents and friends in the district.

The Mission Band

At the regular monthly meeting of the Mission Band of the United Church, Miss Violet Lowry was elected president to replace Miss Janet Whitehead, who has moved to Fredericton, N.B.

The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn, of the "Onward Christian Soldiers." This was followed by the members repeating the "Purpose."

Mrs. T. N. L'He, superintendent, explained fully the introduction to the new study book, "My Story About the Bible."

Several members read brief scripture passages.

During the business period the minutes were read by Miss Barbara Blanchette. The treasurer, Miss Nancy N'orse, reported that $26 had been sent to the Presbyterial treasurer. Twenty-two members responded to the roll call.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction, after which games were played and refreshments were served.

CHRISTMAS CAKES

Orders will now be accepted for pastry and cakes for the Holiday season.

Reservations may also be made for luncheons, dinners and bridge boxes.

WOMEN'S GROUP HOLDS MEETING AT RICHMOND

Richmond, Nov. 11.—Mrs. G. A. Chamberlain, president of the Women's Association, presided at the regular monthly meeting.

The minutes were read by Mrs. J. S. McNaughton and Mrs. C. R. Boast gave the treasurer's report.

Two hundred dollars were voted to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the church and one hundred dollars to the Women's Missionary Society. The superintendent of the Sunday School, Mrs. J. S. MacNaughton, was authorized to purchase a Christmas treat for the pupils of the Sunday School.

Mr. A. A. Macartney and Mrs. K. G. Nourse, of the Richmond calling committee reported that they had made fourteen calls and Mrs. A. E. Fee and Mrs. George Ewing made several calls in Melbourne.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas sale to be held on Wednesday, December 3. Mrs. H. Jones and Mrs. C. C. Healy were named to convene the food table. On the supper committee will be Mrs. W. Bea, Mrs. H. C. Tozer, Mrs. George Ewing; candy table, Miss Myrtle Dyson and Miss Nellie Burrell; checking table, Mrs. B. G. Husk.

The president requested each group leader to appoint four members for the tea tables, two for the food table, five for the decorating committee and three for the kitchen committee. Mrs. F. W. Dyson and Miss E. L. Bidgood will pour tea. They will be assisted by Miss Mabel Boast and Miss Florence Davis.

The Group reports were given by Mrs. Spence, Mrs. T. N. Mitchell and Mrs. C. R. Boast.

Mrs. Chamberlain appointed the following members to the nominating committee, Mrs. E. W. Birch, Mrs. A. Norris and Mrs. George Ewing. The election of officers will take place at the December meeting.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. C. Coate, Mrs. E. Stinson and Mrs. C. Moore.

A Shower

Miss Phyllis Skillen was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by the Misses Alice and Margaret Boa at their home on Laurier Avenue.

The bride-to-be was escorted to an attractively decorated chair to which was attached several long streamers, which held the different gifts. There was much amusement during the search for the parcels.

Miss Skillen very graciously thanked her friends for the many beautiful and useful gifts.

The lace covered table, which was decorated with pink tapers in silver holders was presided over by Mrs. Jessie Skillen.

Mrs. William Boa assisted her daughters with the serving during the refreshment hour.

DANVILLE

A masquerade ball, sponsored by the Canadian Legion Branch, No. 41, of Danville, was held on Halloween. A good crowd was on hand, wearing some very attractive costumes. The ladies' first prize went to Miss Marion MacLeod, and the second to Miss Dorothy Paige. Gentlemen's first prize was awarded to Douglas MacLeod, and the second to Donald Gallup.

The very capable judges were Mrs. Albert Olney, Mrs. Maurice Lussier and Mr. and Mrs. X. Allaire. The highlight of the evening was the drawing of the Hoover vacuum cleaner. The lucky ticket was held by Mr. Ben Dumont, of Asbestos.

Mrs. Harmon Lodge has received the news of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. George Lodge, of Earleville, N.Y. Both Mr. Lodge and his wife, nee Ida Moyles, were former residents of this community and will be remembered by many. Friends extend sympathy to Mrs. Lodge in her bereavement.

The Women's Missionary Society of Trinity United Church met at the home of the president, Mrs. J. H. Boutelle. There was a record attendance. Mrs. R. H. Stevenson was the program leader and questioner. The meeting opened with the singing of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," and the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Mrs. W. Z. Matthews. At the close of the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Boutelle, Mrs. Mably and Mrs. George Frost. There were many visitors and members present.

Mrs. Alfred Crack, of the Wales Home, Richmond, spent a few days in town with friends.

Mr. Peter Riddle, of Montreal, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Douglas Riddle. Dr. Alton Burbank, of Montreal, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Lodge.

Mrs. Sterling Rick was a guest of her daughter, Miss Lois Rick, in Sherbrooke.

DANVILLE

A masquerade ball, sponsored by the Canadian Legion Branch, No. 41, of Danville, was held on Halloween. A good crowd was on hand, wearing some very attractive costumes. The ladies' first prize went to Miss Marion MacLeod, and the second to Miss Dorothy Paige. Gentlemen's first prize was awarded to Douglas MacLeod, and the second to Donald Gallup.

The very capable judges were Mrs. Albert Olney, Mrs. Maurice Lussier and Mr. and Mrs. X. Allaire. The highlight of the evening was the drawing of the Hoover vacuum cleaner. The lucky ticket was held by Mr. Ben Dumont, of Asbestos.

Year-Long Journey To The Mountains Of The Moon Begins From Derby Line As Gatti-Hallicrafters Start Trek

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—To the Mountains of the Moon, from Derby Line, total elapsed traveling time—one year! Fantastic as that may sound, it is nevertheless quite true, and a world-famous expedition, which had its planning base in Glenbrook House, Derby Line home of Commander and Mrs. Ellen Gatti, noted explorers and authors, will embark from New York on November 28th, bound for a year-long trek "To the Mountains of the Moon" in innermost Africa.

Commander and Mrs. Gatti left Derby Line Sunday, bound for New York City where the assembly point for their expedition is preparing for the journey. Like a Jules Verne tale, this Expedition to the Mountains of the Moon is at long last about to become a reality, and in news, pictures and by radio, word of the progress and discoveries of the expedition will be flashed back to North America as the caravan of modern, motorized vehicles proceeds on its venturesome trek into the vast jungles of Africa.

After 24 months of careful, intensive planning the Gatti-Hallicrafters Expedition to "The Mountains of the Moon" in Africa is now ready to take off. When the S.S. Archer of the American South African Line leaves its New York City pier, November 28, the personnel of the expedition will be aboard, headed by Commander Attilio Gatti and Mrs. Gatti, also some 1,000 cases of equipment and supplies will be stored away in the ship's hold, while the scientific expedition will need in its eight months' safari into the African wilds.

Also on board the ship will be the following motor vehicles, especially built for the expedition: Three 23-foot long Shult trailer coaches to house the radio shack-on-wheels and the rolling lab, with insect-electrocuting screens and with transmitting and receiving short wave radio sets, in addition to all other newly designed and built Hallicrafters electronics equipment.

Four medium International trucks of the most rugged design one which will carry on its roof the disassembled parts of the Floating Island for use on African streams and lakes and in its interior a brand new, much improved version of the Diving Eye.

Another of these trucks will have a roof-platform from which still and motion pictures can be taken and the other two will contain all kitchen equipment, food stores, a water purifying and distilling plant, a refrigeration system, etc.

Two large International trucks, will be used for the transportation of general cargo in Africa, reserves of miscellaneous supplies, fuel, etc.

Two large trailers contain, each, a complete, fully automatic 1,000 watt, 110 volt power generating unit.

Three Higgins camp trailers will house the white personnel. Although the expedition does not actually leave the U.S. until Nov. 28, Comdr. and Mrs. Gatti left Derby Line, Sunday, to complete final details in Chicago, Washington and New York.

A large percentage of the supplies and equipment has been finally gathered together, right here in Derby Line, and for weeks Bert Meigs of Rock Island has been engaged in boxing the material. This has been no small task. Mr. Meigs has been almost buried in the basement workshop at Glenbrook House among tall piles of especially designed cases, into which the many miscellaneous items, unsuitable in Africa, must be packed.

Border Villagers Help
Derby Line, Newport and Rock Island folk and business firms have aided in the plans and in supplying the vast amount of supplies and equipment needed. Among these are C. R. Darby of the Caswell and O'Rourke store, Roland Roy of Brown's Drug Store, Derby Line, as well as John

Academy

As a feature of Education Week an open day was held at Stanstead College on Tuesday. Parents and friends visited the school and attended classes in all grades of the Model School, the Academy, Bugbee and the Conservatory. Tea was served by the students in the Domestic Science room after school.

The Student Council held a meeting this week with Mr. Frank Stanton as Faculty Adviser. Ian MacMillan was appointed to attend the conference at Knowlton where delegates representing most of the Quebec Protestant Schools gathered.

Cadet Promotions
After a period of extensive training the N.C.O.'s and officers of the Cadet Corps were announced. Promotions and appointments were as follows:

To be Cadet Lieuts: Johnson, B., Amaron, R., Murray, J.

To be Cadet Sgts: McGillon, G., Hall, D., May, L.

To be Cadet Cpls: Baldwin, R., Colt, R., Bishop, D., Newhall, P., MacLeod, K., Currie, K., Gross, D., Zakab, L., Whalley, T.

To be Cadet Lt/Cpls: Lambert M., Storer, J., Ladouceur, L.

To be Cadet C.S.M.: Cdt. Hunter, R.

To be Cadet C.Q.M.S.: Cdt. Cameron, J.

To be Cadet Band Sgt.: MacMillan, I.

To be Band Cpls: Curry, R., Grant, D., Letovsky, A., Kavanagh, D.

On Sunday the Cadet Corps attended the annual Remembrance Day service at the Haskell Opera House. After the service the Cadets paid homage to those old students who made the supreme sacrifice in the great wars, as Douglas Grant placed a wreath on the memorial graves in front of the College.

E.T.C.M.

The school's new 35 piece band has now been arranged with 14 more names on a waiting list. It is expected that the band will be organized and ready to play in six weeks. Classes for wind instruments are under the direction of Prof. R. Havard. The students are very enthusiastic about the idea of a school band, and many of them are planning to take music lessons.

The Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Dr. Irvin Cooper played at the Remembrance Day service held in the Haskell Opera House.

AUDIENCE IS THRILLED BY PERFORMANCE

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Clark Noyes scored a personal success as the rich and eccentric uncle, Jeffrey Q. Talbot, in the St. Johnsbury Players presentation of the play, "Brighten the Corner," at the Haskell Opera House last Friday evening. The supporting cast was so capable that Uncle Jeffrey was unable to run away with the play, but the performance of Clark Noyes was actually equal to that of many professional actors, and with a group of less capable players would have certainly taken all the honors.

Virginia Bean as Dell Marshall; Betty Pierce as Opal Harris, the maid; Adrienne Daigneault as the much-devoted Neil Carson; W. Roy Young as Townsend Marshall; and Frances Morrison as the real Jeri Carson; all did their parts so capably as to make the play seem equal to that of New York or Boston actors. The minor parts of the Delivery Boy, Richard McDonald; a neighbor, Reginald Sevigny; Officer Robertson, Douglas Murphy; were equally well taken care of. The success of the play was a great tribute to the work of the director, Alfreda King.

When Uncle Jeffrey arrives and mistakes Dell for Jeri the fun begins. Fearing to disillusion by pointing out the error, Neil Carson persuades Dell to go through with the deception, and from there on the fun comes fast and furious. The situations were funny, the lines equally so, and this fine group got the most out of every opportunity. Lines, action and situations were developed to the best possible advantage, with everyone doing their utmost to keep the audience laughing. The setting, props, etc., were carefully designed and well managed by a very able staff.

Unfortunately, due to other local events, there was a comparatively small audience present, and those who did not come missed a thoroughly enjoyable play, replete with laughs.

Following the play, the members of the cast and staff were entertained by the Rotary Club of the Boundary at the Derby Line Village Hall, where a fine lunch was served under the direction of Philip Dustin and Gordon Hartson. Following the lunch, a social time was enjoyed by all, and the St. Johnsbury Players left for home, expressing the hope that they would soon have another chance to come to the Boundary.

FOSTER-COSBY POST AMERICAN LEGION PARADES

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Phil A. Dustin, Adjutant of the Foster-Cosby Post, No. 73, American Legion, of Derby Line, announced today that the Post has exceeded its National Membership Quota for the year 1947-1948.

Foster-Cosby Post is one of the five in over 100 Legion Posts in Vermont to accomplish this commendable effort.

The Post's quota was 58 and by attaining the high mark of 72 the Legionnaires can be well-proud of their Post and their Membership Committee. It is an achievement of no little interest to Derby Line inasmuch as Newport Post, which last year set the State record, is far behind this year. Post Commander Charles Flanders and the members of Foster-Cosby Post 73 can well be proud of their work.

To celebrate the accomplishment the Post will stage a monster street parade tomorrow (Thursday) evening, through the streets of Derby Line and Rock Island. "It's a Jolly Parade," according to Commander Flanders, "and should create a lot of fun." The time: 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Watch for it!

Concluding the parade an event eagerly anticipated by many sportsmen in particular will take place when the drawing for the new Winchester 32 special rifle, will be held under Legion auspices.

On Sunday last, following the Boundary's joint Remembrance Day service at the Haskell Opera House, and the decoration of the graves, at which the members of Foster-Cosby Post joined with the Canadian Legion, Frontier Branch, Commander Flanders and the American Legion members joined together to "paint the town—flag pole." Another of Derby Line Post's active projects, the painting of the Village Flag Pole still further indicates the manner in which the American Legion of Derby Line is coming to the fore as a community service organization.

Fred Wagner and Maurice Young, mechanics for the U.S. Immigration Patrol, were returning home Thursday at the time of the electrocution of Walter Wright, of Derby, and rushed the victim to the hospital at Newport. In spite of the efforts to give the victim artificial respiration and the aid of Dr. Frank Fiermonte Mr. Wright died. Walter Wright was 47 years of age, a resident of Derby, and superintendent of the Derby District Lines of the Newport Electric Division. He is survived by his widow and three children.

CONCERT TO BE GIVEN AT OPERA HOUSE NOV. 21

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Music lovers of the Boundary District welcome the news that once again they will have the opportunity to hear that splendid group of young musicians known as the Sacred Heart High School Glee Club and Orchestra, who will present their second concert of the year at Haskell Opera House, Friday evening, Nov. 21, under auspices of St. Edward's Parish, Derby Line.

Directed by Sister Edmond of Jesus, the Sacred Heart singers and very accomplished musicians were heard here last summer in one of the finest and most appreciated concerts ever given at the Boundary's splendid Opera House. Rev. Father Armand Fortin and members of his parish, the newly-created St. Edward's Parish of Derby Line, are bringing these young singers and musicians back again by popular demand. The concert is being staged for the benefit of the Parish, and the wholehearted support of the citizens of the Boundary is anticipated. The new church is fast nearing completion on Elm street, and it is hoped to have the formal dedication very soon. Such endeavours as this concert will raise the necessary finances to further the work of the Parish, which is meeting a long-felt need in Derby Line.

A committee composed of Miss Edna M. Moore, James Murphy and Roland Roy, with the assistance of other members of the community, are handling the arrangements for the concert. Tickets are now on sale and it is hoped that another capacity attendance will be on hand for the November 21st entertainment. Those who heard the young singers and musicians will have no hesitation in again purchasing tickets, while others who were not fortunate enough to have been present at the last concert are determined not to miss it this time. Seats are limited in the Opera House and those who are planning to attend should purchase their tickets early.

A variety of numbers is being planned by the well-known Glee Club for this Derby Line concert, and the Orchestra is rehearsing many new arrangements which this popular group will offer to Boundary music lovers at next week's evening of fine music. Altogether, the Sacred Heart Glee Club and Orchestra will combine to give an evening of unforgettable song and music, a promise of a delightful evening of musical entertainment.

MISS R. MORIN WILL ADDRESS SCHOOL GROUP

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Miss Rene Morin, Secretary of the Quebec Association for Adult Education, will speak on "Obstacles in the Road to National Unity," at the public assembly session of the International Community School at Stanstead College tonight.

In a letter to the committee, Miss Morin stated that this would be the first time she has given this talk but that it was a subject that deeply interested her, and one that she had devoted a great deal of thought and study to in an effort to reach some definite conclusions about it. Miss Morin has spent a number of years in adult educational work, and her position has given her an unusual opportunity to meet people of various races, creeds and dispositions. Her talk will be based on her own findings, based on her studies and experiences, and should prove to be one of the most important events of the school. Following the talk there will be an open forum for a discussion of the various ideas brought out by Miss Morin. It is hoped that members of the school will bring guests with them and make the audience must larger than usual.

Commander and Mrs. Gatti left Derby Line Sunday, bound for New York City where the assembly point for their expedition is preparing for the journey. Like a Jules Verne tale, this Expedition to the Mountains of the Moon is at long last about to become a reality, and in news, pictures and by radio, word of the progress and discoveries of the expedition will be flashed back to North America as the caravan of modern, motorized vehicles proceeds on its venturesome trek into the vast jungles of Africa.

After 24 months of careful, intensive planning the Gatti-Hallcrafters Expedition to "The Mountains of the Moon" in Africa is about ready to take off. When the S.S. Archer of the American South African Line leaves its New York City pier, November 28, the personnel of the expedition will be aboard, headed by Commander Attilio Gatti and Mrs. Gatti, also some 1,000 cases of equipment and supplies will be stored away in the ship's hold, which the scientific expedition will need in its eight months' safari into the African wilds.

Also on board the ship will be the following motor vehicles, especially built for the expedition: Three 23-foot long Shult trailer coaches to house the radio shack-on-wheels and the rolling lab, with insect-electrocuting screens and with transmitting and receiving short wave radio sets, in addition to all other newly designed and built Hallcrafters electronic equipment.

Four medium International trucks of the most rugged design one which will carry on its roof the disassembled parts of the Floating Island for use on African streams and lakes and in its interior a brand new, much improved version of the Diving Eye.

Another of these trucks will have a roof-platform from which still and motion pictures can be taken and the other two will contain all kitchen equipment, food stores, a water purifying and distilling plant, a refrigeration system, etc.

Two large International trucks, will be used for the transportation of general cargo in Africa, reserves of miscellaneous supplies, fuel, etc.

Two large trailers contain, each, a complete, fully automatic 1,000 watt, 110 volt power generating unit.

Three Higgins camp trailers will house the white personnel. Although the expedition does not actually leave the U.S. until Nov. 28, Comdr. and Mrs. Gatti left Derby Line, Sunday, to complete final details in Chicago, Washington and New York.

A large percentage of the supplies and equipment has been finally gathered together, right here in Derby Line, and for weeks Bert Meigs of Rock Island has been engaged in boxing the material. This has been no small task. Mr. Meigs has been almost buried in the basement workshop at Glenbrook House among tall piles of especially designed cases, into which the many miscellaneous items, unobtainable in Africa, must be packed.

Border Villagers Help Derby Line, Newport and Rock Island folk and business firms have aided in the plans and in supplying the vast amount of supplies and equipment needed.

Among these are C. R. Darby of the Caswell and O'Rourke store, Roland Roy of Brown's Drug Store, Derby Line, as well as John

AUDIENCE IS THRILLED BY PERFORMANCE

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Clark Noyes scored a personal success as the rich and eccentric uncle, Jeffrey Q. Talbot, in the St. Johnsbury Players presentation of the play, "Brighten the Corner," at the Haskell Opera House last Friday evening. The supporting cast was so capable that Uncle Jeffrey was unable to run away with the play, but the performance of Clark Noyes was actually equal to that of many professional actors, and with a group of less capable players would have certainly taken all the honors.

Virginia Bean as Dell Marshall; Betty Pierce as Opal Harris, the maid; Adrien Daigneault as the much-be-deviled Neil Carson; W. Roy Young as Townsend Marshall; and Frances Morrison as the real Jeri Carson; all did their parts so capably as to make the play seem equal to that of New York or Boston actors. The minor parts of the Delivery Boy, Richard McDonald; a neighbor, Reginald Sevigny; Officer Robertson, Douglas Murphy; were equally well taken care of. The success of the play was a great tribute to the work of the director, Alfreda King.

When Uncle Jeffrey arrives and mistakes Dell for Jeri the fun begins. Fearing to disillusion by pointing out the error, Neil Carson persuades Dell to go through with the deception, and from there on the fun comes fast and furious. The situations were funny, the lines equally so, and this fine group got the most out of every opportunity. Lines, action and situations were developed to the best possible advantage, with everyone doing their utmost to keep the audience laughing. The setting, props, etc., were carefully designed and well managed by a very able staff.

Unfortunately, due to other local events, there was a comparatively small audience present, and those who did not come missed a thoroughly enjoyable play, replete with laughs.

Following the play, the members of the cast and staff were entertained by the Rotary Club of the Boundary at the Derby Line Village Hall, where a fine lunch was served under the direction of Philip Dustin and Gordon Hartson. Following the lunch, a social time was enjoyed by all, and the St. Johnsbury Players left for home, expressing the hope that they would soon have another chance to come to the Boundary.

FOSTER-COSBY POST AMERICAN LEGION PARADES

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Phil A. Dustin, Adjutant of the Foster-Cosby Post, No. 73, American Legion, of Derby Line, announced today that the Post has exceeded its National Membership Quota for the year 1947-1948.

Foster-Cosby Post is one of the five in over 100 Legion Posts in Vermont to accomplish this commendable effort.

The Post's quota was 58 and by attaining the high mark of 72 the Legionnaires can be well-proud of their Post and their Membership Committee. It is an achievement of no little interest to Derby Line inasmuch as Newport Post, which last year set the State record, is far behind this year. Post Commander Charles Flanders and the members of Foster-Cosby Post 73 can well be proud of their work.

To celebrate the accomplishment the Post will stage a monster street parade tomorrow (Thursday) evening, through the streets of Derby Line and Rock Island. "It's a Jolly Parade," according to Commander Flanders, "and should create a lot of fun." The time: 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Watch for it!

Concluding the parade an event eagerly anticipated by many sportsmen in particular will take place when the drawing for the new Winchester 32 special rifle, will be held under Legion auspices.

On Sunday is the following the Boundary's joint Remembrance Day service at the Haskell Opera House, and the decoration of the graves, at which the members of Foster-Cosby Post joined with the Canadian Legion, Frontier Branch. Commander Flanders and the American Legion members joined together to "paint the town—flag pole." Another of Derby Line Post's active projects, the painting of the Village Flag Pole still further indicates the manner in which the American Legion of Derby Line is coming to the fore as a community service organization.

Fred Wagner and Maurice Young, mechanics for the U.S. Immigration Patrol, were returning home Thursday at the time of the electrocution of Walter Wright, of Derby, and rushed the victim to the hospital at Newport. In spite of the efforts to give the victim artificial respiration and the aid of Dr. Frank Fiermonte Mr. Wright died. Walter Wright was 47 years of age, a resident of Derby, and superintendent of the Derby District Lines of the Newport Electric Division. He is survived by his widow and three children.

CONCERT TO BE GIVEN AT OPERA HOUSE NOV. 21

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Music lovers of the Boundary District welcome the news that once again they will have the opportunity to hear that splendid group of young musicians known as the Sacred Heart High School Glee Club and Orchestra, who will present their second concert of the year at Haskell Opera House, Friday evening, Nov. 21, under auspices of St. Edward's Parish, Derby Line.

Directed by Sister Edmond of Jesus, the Sacred Heart singers and very accomplished musicians were heard here last summer in one of the finest and most appreciated concerts ever given at the Boundary's splendid Opera House. Rev. Father Armand Fortin and members of his parish, the newly-created St. Edward's Parish of Derby Line, are bringing these young singers and musicians back again by popular demand. The concert is being staged for the benefit of the Parish, and the wholehearted support of the citizens of the Boundary is anticipated. The new church is fast nearing completion on Elm street, and it is hoped to have the formal dedication very soon. Such endeavours as this concert will raise the necessary finances to further the work of the Parish, which is meeting a long-let need in Derby Line.

A committee composed of Miss Edna M. Moore, James Murphy and Roland Roy, with the assistance of other members of the community, are handling the arrangements for the concert. Tickets are now on sale and it is hoped that another capacity attendance will be on hand for the November 21st entertainment. Those who heard the young singers and musicians will have no hesitation in again purchasing tickets, while others who were not fortunate enough to have been present at the last concert are determined not to miss it this time. Seats are limited in the Opera House and those who are planning to attend should purchase their tickets early.

A variety of numbers is being planned by the well-known Glee Club for this Derby Line concert, and the Orchestra is rehearsing many new arrangements which this popular group will offer to Boundary music lovers at next week's evening of fine music. Altogether, the Sacred Heart Glee Club and Orchestra will combine to give an evening of unforgettable song and music, a promise of a delightful evening of musical entertainment.

MISS R. MORIN WILL ADDRESS SCHOOL GROUP

Derby Line, Nov. 12.—Miss Rene Morin, Secretary of the Quebec Association for Adult Education, will speak on "Obstacles in the Road to National Unity," at the public assembly session of the International Community School at Stanstead College tonight.

In a letter to the committee, Miss Morin stated that this would be the first time she has given this talk but that it was a subject that deeply interested her, and one that she had devoted a great deal of thought and study to in an effort to reach some definite conclusions about it. Miss Morin has spent a number of years in adult educational work, and her position has given her an unusual opportunity to meet people of various races, creeds and dispositions. Her talk will be based on her own findings, based on her studies and experiences, and should prove to be one of the most important events of the school. Following the talk there will be an open forum for a discussion of the various ideas brought out by Miss Morin. It is hoped that members of the school will bring guests with them and make the audience much larger than usual.

SHERBROOKE WHITEWASHES ST. HYACINTHE 4-0 IN CLOSE TILT

Locals Blank Second Place Gauls As Crowdies And Leclerc Turn In Outstanding Performances In Nets

Paul Leclerc, Sherbrooke's underdog star, turned in a first class performance in the arena to register his second shut-out of the season.

The locals consolidated their hold on first position on Ernest Comte's circuit and at the same time extended their winning stride to seven games. Only five penalties were handed out in what was expected to be a real tough tussle. Sherbrooke received three and the visitors two, the game was well handled by the men in blue.

H. Carnegie

The play started slow with the Saints laying back waiting for a break and the locals were forced to carry the majority of the play. Sherbrooke commenced immediately to pepper Lew Crowdis, the Gauls' blonde jumping jack, but the little blonde goalie turned aside all the locals blasted at him and gave the fans a very good exhibition of net minding.

Noel Tremblay received the first penalty of the evening when he got the nod from referee Ken Mullins. The Gauls threw on four forwards but they failed to get a single shot at Leclerc, the local held the puck the majority of the two minutes and the Gauls could not get their sticks on it.

Sherbrooke had some good scoring opportunities when Tony Demers broke in alone on Crowdis but he smothered the disc. This was followed by Armand Bourdon and then by Andy Perron but the locals failed to make the red light flash.

Leclerc Gets Hurt
Immediately following the start of the middle stanza Paul Leclerc, the local's net minder, was obliged to retire to the dressing room for repairs when he got cut under the nose by a skate. There was a scramble in front of his net and when he went down to smother the rubber he was accidentally cut by the back end of a skate and as he was obliged to have a stitch to close the gap.

Sherbrooke carried the better part of the play, but Lew Crowdis was a big stumbling block to the locals on their goal thrusts. Bernie Lauzon and Don Maher, both ex-Sherbrooke players, broke in on Leclerc but he turned them aside.

Carnegie Scores
Winemaker, Gauls' spine defencesman, was given the nod for the cooler for holding Stan Gaudreault's stick and Coach Dugre got his power play to work and Herbie Carnegie, assisted by Demers and Cote, pushed the puck under Crowdis for the local's first tally.

Coach Dugre's squad was having sufficient shots on goals but Crowdis was very good in the manner in which he turned them out.

The final stanza opened with the locals again on the attack and they banged away at Crowdis, finally after a few minutes Adj Cote beat the blonde boy from St. Hyacinthe being set up by Gilles Dube and Bill Heindl. Sherbrooke still carried the play with the visitors playing for a low score. Gouppille flipped a long pass up to Tony Demers, who broke in with only Crowdis to beat but again he failed to dent the twine.

Demers

The locals got the puck inside the visitors' blueline and from a scramble, around the nets, Rolie Denault banged the rubber by Crowdis, on a screened shot, to extend Sherbrooke's lead. Demers came back and again drove his bullet shot from close in but Crowdis picked it out of the air.

BOURDON TALLIES
Armand Bourdon, one of the local's hard working forwards, made no mistake when he got in close and after a triple pass with Tremblay and Gaudreault he drove the rubber by Crowdis for the fourth and final tally of the evening.

Adj Cote

Sherbrooke's goalies: Crowdis, Heindl, defence: Robidas, Gouppille, defence: Bonin, Carnegie, centre: Maher, Perron, wings: Gravel, Dube, wings: Lauzon.

Sherbrooke subs: Cote, Demers, McDougall, Tremblay, Denault, Gaudreault, Bourdon, Dion.

St. Hyacinthe subs: Prefontaine, Heindl, R. Cabana, Lilley, Sullivan, Savary, Winemaker.

Referees: Mullins and Storty.

First Period
Scoring: None.
Penalty: Tremblay.

Second Period
1—Sherbrooke Carnegie (Cote, Demers) 15:02
Penalties: Gaudreault, Winemaker.

Third Period
2—Sherbrooke Cote (Heindl, Dube) 4:00
3—Sherbrooke Denault (Cote) 8:10
4—Sherbrooke Bourdon (Gaudreault, Tremblay) 14:25
Penalties: Robidas, Tremblay.

Sports Roundup
New York, Nov. 12.—(P)—Four members of the all-star team of the United States Hockey League last season are wearing American Hockey League uniforms this season.

Latest product of the mid-west circuit to enter the American loop is goaltender Harvey Jessiman of Winnipeg acquired by Philadelphia Rockets . . . The three other sharpshooters are Don Morrison, the Saskatchewan product playing with Indianapolis; Ken Davis, of Bowmanville, Ont., New Haven center; and George (Wingy) Johnson of St. Charles, Man., Cleveland right wing . . . All are listed among the leading scorers of the A.H.L.

Sports Before Your Eyes
Walt Russell, referee in the A.H.L., is an opera devotee . . . He is beside a radio whenever possible during an opera broadcast and has a fine library of opera records at home . . . Jersey Jones reports his "one-man campaign for recognition of the little guys in boxing" is nearing success. The Garden is dickering for Jackie Patterson vs. Rinty Monaghan and Manuel Ortiz vs. Peter Kane . . . Jimmy (Red) Dunn, United States Hockey League referee, is a fireman in the off season, and whenever he moves into a hotel, he immediately inspects extinguishers, exits, etc.

Easy Lesson
Dunc Farrell, who operated baseball schools for the Pittsburgh Pirates last year, now is part owner of a Los Angeles steak house . . . These schools probably taught him that there are a lot more heavy eaters than baseball players.

Post-War Conversion
Harvey Harman, Rutgers coach, tells this one on halfback Harvey Grimsley, who "has to be in the mood" to play stellar football . . . "One of my assistant coaches had him in high school before the war and recommended him as a fine guard . . . When I looked over the linemen, there was no Grimsley, but I found him working with the backs . . . I said, 'Hey, you're supposed to be a guard.' And he answered, 'I was a guard, I'm a halfback now.' And he is; the people in the stands boo me if I don't use him."

WINDSOR MILLS MADE FARM TEAM

"The Windsor Mills Paper Makers of the Eastern Townships Intermediate Hockey League will be the farm team for the Sherbrooke Seniors," stated Forest Keene, business manager of the local club, immediately following last night's game with the Saints of St. Hyacinthe.

The first player to be farmed out to the Paper Makers will be Marcel Dufour, burly defenceman with the locals. Duke Doucet, manager of the Windsor Mills club, when contacted stated, "Yes, it is true we have a working agreement with the seniors and will be their farm club for the coming season. We are out to build a good team in Windsor and I believe that this agreement is for the betterment of hockey in the district."

WILL AND WHY WOULD LEAHY RETIRE NOW?

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 12.—(P)—Is Notre Dame becoming a football Frankenstein, too powerful for its own good?

It is no secret that the University has run into schedule difficulties and that some schools of the gridiron class required for a representative season are being scared off.

The severing of relations with Army—whether the 34-year-old rivalry had become dangerously over-emphasized or for off-the-record reasons, involving personalities—shocked many Notre Dame alumni.

And now, just a few days after the Irish walloped the Cadets 27-7 in the series' finale, come reports that Coach Frank Leahy offered his resignation.

The school's president, Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, quickly denied that Leahy had proposed to quit, either orally or in writing. Then Leahy issued a statement through the Notre Dame publicity section that he would "consider it a great honor and privilege to remain at Notre Dame for as long a period of time as University officials believe I can be an asset to this institution."

Leahy was unavailable for direct comment on whether he had offered to resign or not.

The report was started yesterday by Joe Williams of the New York World Telegram and H. G. Salsinger of the Detroit News who wrote that Leahy offered to resign because of repercussions of the Army-Irish break-off.

Williams said that Army's farewell was "only one withdrawal in a long series (from football schedules) and, as these withdrawals mounted, the football set up at Notre Dame began to lose stability and no little prestige."

Privately, the Army's attitude may be similar to that held by several Big Nine (Midwestern) schools—that Notre Dame simply is too powerful a customer to handle along with seven or eight other teams on a season's schedule.

Michigan, Ohio State, Illinois and Minnesota decided to shun the Irish and there may develop a complete unanimity in the Big Nine to cold-shoulder Notre Dame.

Several conference coaches, however, have gone on record with the comment: "You certainly can't beat 'em unless you play 'em."

Wild Bill Ezinicki's Affair Takes On Appearance Of Three-Ring Circus

No three-ring circus ever provided a livelier brand of entertainment than National Hockey League fans found served up today over the coverings of Wild Bill Ezinicki of Toronto Maple Leafs.

Ezinicki set the frantic frolics in motion last Saturday when New York Rangers played Leafs in Toronto. Since then, Coach Frank Boucher of Rangers, N.H.L. President Clarence Campbell, and Managing Director Conny Smythe of Leafs have juggled their ear into the situation.

Smythe disclosed yesterday he had written Campbell asking that action be taken against Boucher on grounds the New York coach had acted in a manner prejudicial to the welfare of the league in protesting over Ezinicki's play in last Saturday's game. Smythe charged that Boucher was liable to a $1,000 fine under the league's by-laws.

Boucher revealed earlier in the week he had sent a wire to Campbell suggesting that steps be taken to curb "unnecessary roughness" by Ezinicki. Boucher took this step after Edgar Laprade, Rangers' centre, suffered a mild concussion in the game Saturday night in a collision with Ezinicki.

Said Smythe: "I am not going to have my players pilloried by one or two coaches. Ezinicki has played now in every city in the league this season except Boston and in ten games has averaged less than two minutes in penalties."

With Leafs due to take on Chicago Black Hawks in Toronto tonight and Rangers scheduled to play host to Boston Bruins, the petual Trophy for the second straight year.

The Canadian team was eliminated in the first round of the competition in which four horses from each of the four countries participated. The Eire and United States teams tied for second place.

A crowd of some 12,000 watched Poppy come off second best in the $2,000 Open Jumping Stake but win the Open Jumping Championship by a single point by virtue of wins in earlier contests.

Poppy nosed out Sun Beau, a nine-year-old gelding, from Ravenna, O., although Sun Beau won the $2,000 event in the third extra jump-off, one of the closest finishes in the history of the show. Cardy's Prince Tex finished sixth in that event.

Phil Marchildon Predicts Good Year For Connie Mack And His Athletics

Penetanguishene, Ont., Nov. 12.—(P)—Phil Marchildon, who tomorrow will be the guest of the largest party ever staged in this Simcoe County town, sees a good season ahead for Philadelphia Athletics in the American League.

Baseball race next year, and thinks that "regardless of climate" he would pay pro teams to scout Canadian sandlots more thoroughly.

At his home here for the hunting season after touring with Bob Feller's All-stars, the former R.C. A.F. tail-gunner thinks that if Connie Mack obtains the replacement he's after the A's will present even a better show than last year when they finished fifth, after holding on in the first division most of the season.

Canada's outstanding contribution to baseball, Phil thinks the short season in Canada is the major drawback for ambitious youngsters. But if pro clubs would send competent coaches into the baseball centres each year, a number of "good players" could be unearthed. Phil turned professional he found the lack of grounding in baseball fundamentals his major handicap.

Marchildon, who pitched the Athletics to 19 wins last summer, thinks that the cause of the team's late-season slump was lack of capable reserves—"the fellows were too tired to give their best."

He gave most of the credit for the Mackmen's rise from eighth to fifth place to rookie first baseman Ferris Fain and Eddie Joost, rejuvenated shortstop.

"I didn't actually get straightened out until I hit the big time," said Marchildon, who spent some time with Toronto Maple Leafs on the way up. "It makes a great difference to get the right start—the follow through, position on the rubber and the other little details which make or break a pitcher."

HERSHEY BEARS NOW LEADING THEIR LEAGUE

Last Nov. 3, Hershey Bears were embedded in the cellar of the American Hockey League's eastern section. Today, nine days later, the same team find themselves perched on top of the loop, one point in front of Providence Reds and New Haven Ramblers.

Bears have a 19-year-old centre, star from Toronto to thank for their 3-2 win over Philadelphia Rockets last night. Paul Ronty, shifty pivot man turned in an sensational performance, ramming home all three Hershey goals.

In the other A.H.L. fixture stated last night, Indianapolis Capitals' downed the hapless Washington Redskins by an identical count—3-2.

Ronty was the whole show in coming up with a hat trick. His first effort came on a 50-foot drive that beat Rocket goalie, Harvey Jessiman clearly in the second period. His second tally also came in the middle session, this one on a long shot. Ronty's final tally came in the final canto, Philadelphia goal-getters were Steve Woehy, former Detroit Red Wing, and Al Shewchuk.

Indianapolis slipped two pucks into the Washington net in the first period to take a 2-0 lead which they never lost. Fernand Gauthier, Lloyd Doran and Cliff Simpson bulged the twine for Capitals while win Mousseau and Red Roney tallied for Lions.

SNIPERS FROM QUEBEC COPPED CHAMPIONSHIP

Lennoxville Men Share in Victory for Empire-Wide B.S.A. Cup.

Montreal, Nov. 12.—A 20-man team representing the Province of Quebec has won the Empire-wide B.S.A. Cup competition sponsored by the National Small Bore Rifle Association of England, it was announced here today.

Firing a score of 3,960 out of a possible 4,000 points for an individual average of 99 per cent, Quebec sharpshooters outpointed their nearest rivals, Middlesex country, by 10 points. Middlesex, however, continues to hold the 1938 all-time record of 3,969. Manitoba placed eleventh in the shoot with 3,909 points.

Fired this year for the first time since 1939, the 26-year-old event saw 39 teams representing English counties, Canadian provinces, and Australian states.

Quebec team and scores: G. Perleau, 200; H. W. Wilson, 200; T. L. Jamieson, 200; A. A. Gordon, 200; G. W. F. Barwick, 200; P. J. Niemi, 199; J. E. Hughes, 199; E. Gagne, 198; W. J. Lafferty, 198; E. A. Rice, 198; J. Stein, 197; Miss M. Lefebvre, 197; E. Page, 197; J. Penman, 197; J. N. McConnell, 195; R. A. Marr, 195; J. T. Daltrey, 193, all of Montreal; R. W. Wingo, 200; G. Mulvagh, 199, both of Lennoxville; and W. Brown, 198, of Brownsburg.

At the same time it was announced that 30-man teams representing Montreal and Winnipeg had placed second and third respectively in the famed Empire Cities Match. Won by London, England, with a score of 2964 x 3000, Montreal's score was 2946 and Winnipeg's 2925.

VERDUN BLANKS CORNWALL 4-0 IN ROUGH TILT

Cornwall, Ont., Nov. 12.—(P)—Paced by Fred Gardner, who nicked two goals and earned one assist, Verdun Eagles defeated Cornwall Cougars 4-0 for their third victory in less than a week over the hapless factory townmen who have yet to win a game in the Provincial Hockey League.

4—Verdun, Ley (Gardner, Costigan) 3:21
Penalties—Lebrun, Gardner, Dennison, Paquette, Savard.

FINANCIAL DECREASE IN NEW YORK RACING
New York, Nov. 12.—(P)—For the second year in a row, New York Racing, which ended yesterday at Jamaica, failed to match financial figures of the previous season.

For the 188-day term just completed—189 days were scheduled but Jamaica lost one day in the fall due to the gloom and exacting riders' strike—$352,635,064, an average of $1,875,718, was wagered by 4,534,139 fans, or $24,383 a day. Last season, which covered 192 days, betting hit $407,105,748, averaging $2,120,342.

The decrease in total betting from 1946 was 13 1/2 per cent and the total attendance was slightly over six per cent off this year. No state record for business through tote or turnstile was broken all year.

The drop in business at most racing sectors in the country began following the lush days of 1945. The lack of loose money such as was around then has been the main factor, and New York racing has just completed its second turf season with a 15-per-cent (plus breakage) tax on betting, another drawback to heavy wagering.

New York—Paddy Demarco, 138½, Brooklyn, outpointed Johnny Dell, 135, Brooklyn (8).
Salem, Mass.—Steve Kronis, 134, Boston, and Pat Shannon, 134, Everett, drew (8).
New York—Frankie Palermo, 141, New York, outpointed Jimmy Pierce, 140, Vancouver (8).
Tampa, Fla.—Lee Sala, 160, Tampa, knocked out Eddie Finazzo, 164, Baltimore (1).

Athletics Preparing For Playoff Tilt With Eastward Here Saturday; Winners Meet Undeleted Rockland

A fighting team spirit and hunger for victory have enabled the local Athletics to make the playoffs in the Q.R.F.U. Intermediate League. This Saturday they meet Eastward in a sudden-death tilt, the winner to meet Rockland for the crown.

The Athletics reached the playoffs by hard work and all deserved victories, which cannot be said for the Eastward crew. Eastward won over the A's in their first encounter in Montreal 7-5 in a protested tilt. You all remember what happened which is forgotten now.

Eastward won by protest over McGill, as the Redmen used 8 ineligible players, and then last Sunday they won 4-0 over the Comets.

Last year Eastward copped the Q.R.F.U. title, but they had Stan Rose, the triple threat boy, who is missing from their ranks this year. Eastward plays irate football. Lawless their kicker, who spoiled the A's chances of victory when the two teams last met, will kick the ball 15 yards and then for some unknown reason he will hoist the leather 65 yards. That placement kick that broke up the ball game in Montreal, with six seconds remaining, was a good 60 yard boot.

Sherbrooke will be at full strength for this week's crucial battle and Coach Kenny Jackson will probably stay up all night thinking up new strategy. Kenny has done a fine job with the squad this year and if, and it is quite possible, they will beat Eastward, then their next stop will be Rockland in Montreal.

Rockland has a strong aggregation, no matter which way you look at it. They went through the season undefeated and wound up the schedule swamping Quebec 44-0.

Lorne Campbell, the veteran griddler, will see action this week-end in the quarterback slot after missing the last two games. Billy Petter, who turned in a sterling performance last week, will see action and the backfield will be rounded out with such rugged and capable ball handlers as Charlie Clarke, Perk Johnston, Bertie Rice, Harry Blue, Bill Cote, Larry Gallagher and of course the starry kicker, Philip Hovey. Hovey's educated toe paid dividends in the McGill-A's clash.

The local's line will see Lorne Murphy and Eddie Nelson sharing the centre roles, Al Reginald and Jimmy Scott, rugged middles, "Feet" Ross, hustling and bruising inside, Gaston Bergeron the rugged inside, playing his first year on the gridiron, Warren "Pee Wee" Berwick and Harold Drew, two fleet-footed ends, Buddy "Spider" Jackson and Kenny Leith another pair of starry ends and many others. Doug Wootton, who played head-up football in the last tilt and Ray Nelson, brother of Eddie, will also be out to stop the E's.

The game which is scheduled for 2:15, will in all probabilities be the last game of the season to be played here, so fans, let's go to the ball game and cheer the mixings of champs down the final tough stretch.

Woman Fights Off Mad Bull, Saves Injured Husband

WINS DOW AWARD

Mrs. HENRY CHESLOCK OF TAVISTOCK, ONT., battles animal in courageous rescue

Henry Cheslock was about to lead the animal to the foot cellar to its pen in the barn. He had just taken the bull by its nose ring when, for no apparent reason, it became enraged. A toss of its head knocked Cheslock to the ground. Before he had a chance to get up, the bull had buried the helpless man repeatedly. It then tossed him over its head, and rolled him against the cellar wall.

WIFE GOES TO RESCUE
Fortunately for Cheslock his wife heard his shouts for help. Without thought for her own safety, she ran screaming into the cellar to draw the bull's attention from her husband. As the bull turned on her, she seized a pitchfork.

FIGHTS BULL WITH PITCHFORK
While holding the dangerous animal at bay with the pitchfork, she began to drag her injured husband out of the cellar across the barnyard. The bull attacked all the way, but gallant Mrs. Cheslock managed to hold it off until she finally brought her husband to safety.

We are proud to pay tribute to the exceptional courage of Mrs. Henry Cheslock of Tavistock, Ontario, through the presentation of The Dow Award.

THE DOW AWARD is a citation for outstanding heroism and includes, as a tangible expression of appreciation, a $100 Canada Savings Bond. Winners are selected by the Dow Award Committee, a group of editors of leading Canadian daily newspapers.

Courageous Mrs. Cheslock pulled her husband to safety while keeping the bull at bay with a pitchfork.

OPENING HELD BY SCHOOL AT AYER'S CLIFF

Ayer's Cliff, Nov. 12. — The Ayer's Cliff High School held its annual opening in Confederation Hall, which was as usual filled to capacity by parents and interested friends.

This year the seating capacity was all given over to the guests, and the children and young people were all in the United Church Hall, except those taking part in the program. This made a great deal of work for Miss Howe and her staff. Miss Elsie Kezar, Mrs. Arnold Wheeler, Miss Gwen Pittman and Mrs. Earle Templeton, but proved to be a great advantage.

Dr. C. L. Brown, chairman of the School Board, acted as chairman and welcomed the parents and friends and in his remarks spoke of the great difficulty that teachers and pupils were working under by being divided in three buildings, and said that he and all others fully realized the need of a new school building and hoped that it might not be too long before Ayer's Cliff would again be able to boast of their excellent school facilities. He thanked the ladies of the Women's Institute for the excellent work they do in connection with the school each year and also for the prizes they and all others donated.

Each number of the program was thoroughly enjoyed and each one performed his or her part in a very creditable manner.

The outstanding features were the drill, "Falling Leaves," by the Senior Girls, which was beautifully done, and the play, "Money Makes a Difference," by the Senior pupils, in which Paul Rousseau stole the show.

The program follows: "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," Primary pupils; play, "His First Shave," Grades VII, VIII and IX; chorus, "The Robin," "At Work Beside His Father's Bench," Grades III and IV; play, "A Quiet Evening With the Radio," Grades V and VI; drill, "Falling Leaves," senior girls; "Health Train," Grades III and IV; song, "The Whistling Farmer," Grades V and VI; song, "On the Levee," boys of Grades III and IV; chairman's remarks; music, Murray Baldwin; collection; play, "Money Makes a Difference," senior pupils; song, Paul Rousseau; distribution of prizes; "Song of Liberty," chorus by pupils of Grade V to XI; "God Save the King."
