Mrs. Grant Reid Library Trustee By Acclamation

Mrs. R. Grant Reid, 350 Kensington Avenue, was reported by the Returning Officer as elected by acclamation to the office of Library Trustee for the three years, 1948, '49 and '50, at the meeting of the Municipal council, held in the City Hall, on Monday evening.

Mrs. Reid, wife of Dr. R. G. Reid, graduated at McGill University in 1927, and in the intervening years has taken a keen interest in municipal affairs. She also has been interested in the King's Home and School Association.

The newly elected library trustee will succeed Professor C. W. McKergow who retires from the position after three years of service.

As set up in Westmount, the library committee consists of seven members: three aldermen, the mayor (ex officio), and three trustees, one of whom is elected each year for a three year term. This means that one trustee retires and one is elected each year.

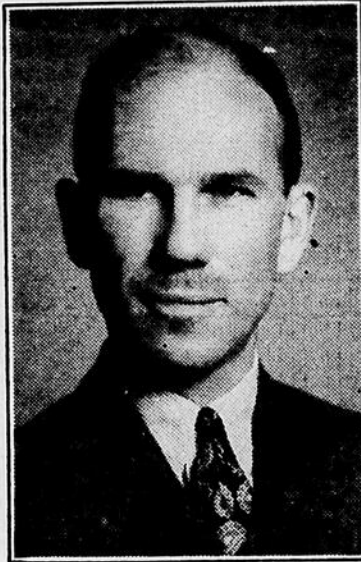

Provision for this set-up was made in the library by-law of 1897. Three trustees were elected in 1898, and at the end of the first year, one was chosen by lot to retire; the same thing happened the following year, and at the end of that year one trustee was being elected each year.

The library originally was founded by means of a sum of money ($13,000), which was obtained by the municipality as damages and compensation from the old Consumers' Gas Co., in the rights of one Mr. John Coates, for failure to carry out a certain contract to supply the town with gas (Oct. 4, 1897). Construction of the Westmount Library was begun shortly thereafter, using the funds obtained (the above-mentioned $13,000), by the expressed wish of the townspeople. The library was founded in the nature of a memorial of the Diamond Jubilee of the Reign of Queen Victoria, which occurred in that year.

Westmount Lodge Jubilee Coming

Members of Westmount Lodge, No. 76, A. F. & A. M. plan to celebrate a golden jubilee on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the founding of their lodge, which falls on February 9th.

Tomorrow evening, at 8.30 p.m., they are to hold a small social and dance at Victoria Hall.

Two Hutchisons On School Board

Announcement of the election of J. Gordon Hutchison and re-election of R. R. Hutchison as members of the Westmount Protestant School Commission was announced recently.

The two men are not related. J. Gordon Hutchison, elected to replace C. S. Lemesurier, whose second term of office expired in December, 1947, is a member of the firm of Riddell, Stead, Graham and Hutchison, chartered accountants. Educated at Lower Canada College and at McGill University he has long taken an active interest in educational work in Montreal and served during 1947 as president of the Roslyn Home and School Association.

R. R. Hutchison, vice-president and general manager of the Inter-City Baking Company, Limited, was re-elected for a second three-year term.

The board now consists of J. C. Nelles, A. G. Anderson, Mrs. F. H. Mackay, J. A. deLalanne, D. A. Baillie, R. R. Hutchison and J. Gordon Hutchison.

Officers will be appointed at the next meeting.

Food Parcels Sent To England By School Children

In November, each child in King's school was asked to bring a food package and 15 cents for postage to school for the purpose of making up a Christmas parcel to be sent to one of the poorer districts in England. Approximately 400 lbs. of packaged and processed foods, 1 large carton of soap and flakes and 20 lbs. of dried fruits were collected. A volunteer committee, under the direction of Mrs. J. T. McLearn, looking after the packing and shipping of the articles. The United Kingdom Friendship Scheme very kindly agreed to pay the shipping charges, so our own postage money was used for the purpose of purchasing a number of small toys which were also packed and shipped at the same time. The school to which the parcels were sent was the Benchill Infants School, in the slum area of Manchester, England, and word has been received that the parcels have arrived safely.

Young Liberals Addressed By Paul Coté, Verdun M. P.

Paul Emile Côté, Federal Member of Parliament for the constituency of Verdun, and recently appointed Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Labour, addressed a "smoker" held by the Westmount Young Liberals' Association last Monday evening at the Reform Club.

Stressing the fundamental unity within the party and among the Liberal members at Ottawa, Mr. Côté challenged any party to present to the Canadian people, the leadership which the Liberal Party now gives in the person of Prime Minister King and his associates.

"No party," he emphasized, could offer the Canadian people as experienced capable leaders as she was now receiving by her representatives at Ottawa."

Youth Important Factor

He also noted the growing number of Liberal members of parliament who are under thirty-five. "The strength of the Liberal party," he continued, "has been, in no small measure, due to the fact that the Liberal Party was able to attract under its banner, continually, during the last fifty years, the youth of the country."

"The party has been able to do this," the Parliamentary Assistant concluded, "because it has always allowed an important voice to its younger adherents in the formulation of policy."

Duranceau Also Present

Also present at the first gathering of the Westmount Young Liberals' Association for the New Year was the newly elected President of the National Young Liberal Federation, Mr. Charles Arthur Duranceau, who discussed the activities of Young Liberal Association throughout the nation.

Mr. Roland Lefrancois, First Vice-President of the Montreal Young Liberals' Association, announced the inauguration of a

On Sunday evening, a service of very special interest will be held in St. Andrew's. Handel's Dettingen "Te Deum" will be presented by the choir. ## Local Citizens Post Mail Early Westmount Postmaster John J. Lucey, on behalf of the staff at the Westmount Post Office, desires to thank all the citizens of the municipality for their cooperation in following public notice to post their Christmas mail early, in order to avoid a last minute rush in the mails.

Mr. Lucey stated that the Post Office this year handled over 20 per cent more incoming mail, and approximately 15 per cent more outgoing mail than in the holiday season last year. He added that the mailing before the deadlines freed the postal employees from much of the strain and worry which accompanies a last-minute, pre-Christmas mail rush. Thus they were enabled to serve the people of Westmount with greater efficiency.

Hugh Savage Talks About Leaders Of Tomorrow

"Leaders of Tomorrow" was the subject of a highly interesting address delivered to the members of the Rotary Club of Westmount this week by Hugh B. Savage, C.A., navy veteran, a director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and lecturer in accountancy at McGill University and Sir George Williams College.

Introduced by Alec Williamson, Mr. Savage commenced his address by telling the Rotarians that he was going to speak to them frankly, as a young man addressing a group of older men, well-established in business.

Prejudice Present

When a Canadian goes abroad and sees the high regard in which Canada is held, he comes home proud of his country and is angered by prejudice of many kinds to be found in Canada, he declared. And yet, he doesn't believe the younger men of Canada are as prejudiced as men of the older generation.

Why Canadians Go South

One of these Canadian prejudices appears in the way in which opportunity for advancement is denied younger men, he pointed out. Considerable concern is shown about the young men who leave Canada and go to the United States, and one of the reasons is that in both the United States and Great Britain there is a much more noticeable tendency to give the younger man all the responsibility he can carry. This in turn leads to more rapid advancement and higher salaries and to a better assurance that the brainy young executive will remain with the firm. In addition to the flow of young men southward across the border, there is a flow northward, he added, but these are for the most part established, hard headed business men, who see greater opportunity in Canada.

"Do the young men in your firms merit your closer attention?" he asked. Many of them are putting much time to improving themselves through study, he said. "The great number of young working men studying attests to their determination to better their lot by preparing themselves for the responsible positions you now fill, after you have retired. They regard themselves as the leaders of the future.

"These young men are generally too serious and ambitious to be socialistic or communistic. They have seen leadership in action during the past years, and they know its value. That is what the typical ambitious, young man now is pre-

Public Speaking Club Is Formed At Y. M. C. A.

The organizing meeting of the Public Speaking Club of the Westmount Y. M. C. A. took place on Tuesday, January 13th. The organizing committee consists of William Hardie, winner of the Milton Hurst Medal for Public Speaking 1947 and a prominent member of the Speech Associates Club, who will act as leader and adviser to the Club and temporary chairman; Charles Emery, Secretary; and Dave Hunt and Don Grahame, Members-at-large.

The aims of the Club is to improve members in oral expression; to develop ability to appear effectively before groups; to provide constructive criticism and audience reaction to all speeches; to provide instruction and experience in chairmanship, and to create better and shorter speeches. These aims can be achieved through a program consisting of practice in introductions, thank-you speeches, impromptu toasts, debates, etc.

Membership in the Club is open to all young men and women who are interested in gaining further experience in making themselves clearly understood. The first meeting of the Club will be held next Tuesday at 8.15 p.m.

Business Assoc'n Hopes Directory Proves Useful

Now that the holiday season is over, the Business Association of Westmount hopes that the householders of the city have examined their buying guides, which were distributed to all Westmount households before Christmas.

The Association hopes that these guides prove useful, to householders as well as merchants, and would appreciate opinions of the recipients as to their value.

It also wishes to extend a welcome to any new enterprises in the municipality. A general meeting will be held shortly. All newcomers are requested to get in touch with any member of the executive for further detail concerning this coming meeting, of interest to all business establishments in the community.

paring for. You can help yourself and your country by helping them," he concluded.

Rotarian Jack Colter thanked the speaker on behalf of the Rotarians, adding that, in the fine address he made, Mr. Savage exemplified the high calibre of the members of the Montreal Junior Board of Trade.

ORGANIZING FOR RED CROSS DRIVE

Maj. Gen R. M. Keefler (left) and Col. Maurice Forget, newly-appointed joint chairmen of the Montreal and district committee for the annual March appeal of the Red Cross, Montreal's quota this year will be $525,000.

Literary Club To Hear Mainer Next Thursday

Mr. R. H. Mainer, Marlowe Avenue, will address the members of the Montreal Literary Arts Club at a meeting which is taking place in Stevenson Hall, Drummond Street, Montreal, on Thursday evening, January 22nd. His subject will be "The Short Story."

For many years Mr. Mainer has distinguished himself in the literary field in Montreal and in Canadian and American magazines, and has contributed poems and articles to various journals and newspapers throughout Canada.

Mr. Mainer is well known, as a playwright, his One Act and Three Act plays having been successfully produced by the Montreal Repertory Theatre and other theatrical groups in Montreal and elsewhere, in addition to which he has won several prizes in short story competitions. At the present time he is conducting a class of instruction in "Writing the Short Story."

For three years, Mr. Mainer was president of the Montreal Branch of the Dickens Fellowship and for two years acted in the same capacity in the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Authors' Association.

Mrs. Norman Holland, president of the Montreal Literary Arts Club, will preside at the meeting.

GIVE THE PUBLIC THE FACTS

THE vortex point of a shell in its trajectory can be solved by a simple mathematical formula. It is four times the time of flight in seconds squared and the answer will be in feet above the horizontal plane. An interesting bit of trivia, no doubt, but what has it got to do with the spiralling price of shoes, washing machines and a new suit of clothes? Well, if the vortex point of the cost-of-living spiral could be solved by a little bit of arithmetical pencil work, industrialists might conceivably avoid the full effect of the unfavourable publicity campaign which is being marshalled against them.

The tenor of this mounting drive is based on rising prices and, the critics charge, the inordinate profits accruing annually to industry. The end is not only not in sight but, these propagandists allege, when it eventually does come it will appear as a depression that will make the debacle of 1930 look like a kindergarten affair. The final thrust is that the whole thing is industry's fault.

That is one side of the story. There is another side for a public reasonably willing to chew on something other than fare offered for consumption by opponents of the Canadian way of life.

Consider these figures alone as one rebuttal. In 1939, net corporation profits after taxes were $486,000,000; in 1946 they were $739,000,000, an increase of 45 per cent. But — and the figures of the National Income Unit of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics are there for Doubting Thomases! — salaries and wages bounced upward in the same number of years from $2,565,000,000 to $5,113,000,000, an increase of approximately 100 per cent.

Properly publicized facts in answer to the charges against industry are conspicuous by their absence. Each company must tell the public about its own problems and the answer must be given in concrete facts and figures. Absorption with business must be forgotten for at least as long as it takes to prove to the employee and the public that there are two sides to the story, and that undermining of the profit system leads but to an "ism," the target of which is destruction of our entire economic system and the death of free enterprise.

COMMUNISTS IN LABOUR UNIONS

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

"There is no doubt that communist influence is out of all proportion to the actual membership in unions," says Margot Thompson in an article appearing in the December number of the Canadian Forum. But even at that, Miss Thompson claims that the influence is less than the general public is led to believe, and she doubts if communist membership in the unions exceeds one per cent of the total.

"But the majority of the communists are active," continues Miss Thompson. "They are well disciplined. And they accept discipline because of a dynamic that springs from the conviction that they and thousands like them in other countries are working toward the same goal, with Soviet Russia, the spiritual Motherland leading the way. No criticism of the Motherland can be tolerated."

As an explanation of this fanatical faith of communists, Miss Thompson quotes from a recent interview with Arthur Koestler, a former communist, who, when asked why "millions of people look to the Soviet Union as a paradise on earth," replied: "This enlightened age has slowly destroyed in the masses all faith, all belief in moral value. Since 1789, the emotional and metaphysical roots of the masses have withered away. Now these rootless men have found a new hope. Once these emotional roots have been solidified, it becomes as difficult to cut them with logical arguments as it is to dislodge a firm believer in the church. . . . He will find an answer which is nothing more than a rationalization of his irrational belief."

This last sentence is a good description of most of the arguments put forward by Soviet representatives of the United Nations councils and conferences. One glaring example is their use of the word "democracy," which is tortured into a meaning that is the very opposite to the age-long accepted application of that word. In fact the use or misuse of the word "democracy" by Soviet leaders has been largely responsible for the deception of the peoples of Eastern Europe into the belief that communism offers the only hope for democratic freedom.

It is unbelievable that such perversions of the truth can find acceptance with the great masses of enlightened people — at least outside of Russia. In that country the young people are schooled in mental perversions and trained in the belief that slavery to their Soviet dictators is the only true form of freedom.

The same sort of topsy-turvy logic seems to have solidified in the minds of the communists in Canada, although some of their leaders are shrewd enough to use democratic arguments for propaganda purposes. They, for instance, claim the rights and privileges of Canadian democracy to promote a system in which there would be no such rights and privileges. They pretend to stand for the rights of labor and the freedom of unions, knowing full well that if they succeeded in establishing communism in Canada those rights and freedom would be abolished and labor unions would be operated by government agents.

Miss Thompson says "there is plenty of evidence in trade union circles that what communist influence has existed is definitely on the wane." Canadian unionists, she says, are fully awake to the fact that communists are "party members first," and that "their job is to sell the party line to the unions wherever possible — to carry the ball."

St. Andrew's Alpha Omegas Discuss Careers

An interesting discussion on the subject "What do you do?" was the unusual program enjoyed by members and friends of the Alpha Omega Society of St. Andrew's United Church at a meeting of the Society held last Sunday. The program was under the direction of R. Hall and T. Earle.

In the course of the discussion, various members were asked "What do you do for a living?" and their answers provided much interest for the assembled members. Mr. Hall, when asked to explain his job, replied that he is in the tobacco business. This brought many questions about the tobacco business which he satisfactorily answered.

At the conclusion of the discussion, Ross Canavan, the Society's president, took the floor to announce that plans are being made for the group's annual sleigh ride, to be held during the latter part of this month.

An executive meeting is scheduled to be held at the church on Tuesday at 8 p.m., when plans will be laid for future meetings and programs.

POET'S PROTEST

Words were meant
To catch meanings in.

You say you cannot
Prison beauty in a word,
Ephemeral things are sacred
So you say. You are afraid
Of moulds; yet no one else
Can say it better.

Why not make moulds
Of lovely words
And pour the moment in?

A poem written for one eye to see

Is not a poet's drab return
Of grist to mill
But is a string of words
Like finest jewels
Sharing infinity's meaning.

There is no wealth can buy
My word's fine purity.
This is not poetry
It is a chant, flung skyward
Heavy with challenge.

Words were meant
To catch meanings in.

"AT THE WAR SERVICE BUREAU"

If I, who know nothing about it,
Were to write about Australia
I would think of the young lad
In brighter-than-navy blue
Whose eyes looked frankly,
Openly into mine across a counter

And who said, "It's bloody cold up here."

But underneath he was interested
And loved this newness and skiing

Or sheeing, as he called it,
And knowing Canada, and us.
Looking into his eyes, I saw
That I was the loser, not knowing

Australia as he did, not feeling
The warm winds across the grasses

The friendliness of the people.
He, I saw, was freer to meet my eyes

Than I his, being remote from the tight
Pressure of other cultures. We are not.

And yet when he said again
Quite angrily, "It's bloody cold,"
We laughed together in a mood
No German or Italian could enjoy.

For we were one, fleas in the ear
Of the Lion, under his shade,
Part of his hide and hair
One with a lot of humans
In other places, hot and cold
With people black, brown and white.

We leaned our elbows closer
On my counter, and in his curious lingo

He told me things I liked
About Australia, and I saw
He liked us well, and would return
One day to Canada, after the war.

"THE TOAST"

Laughter upon the surface
The bubbles in each glass
Float lightly up into the brain
Leaving the heart untouched.
He said, "ladies and gentlemen,
A toast! At my own board!
Seeing your faces turned Toward me now, I drink to friendship,

To sincerity, to love,
To faith in God." The laughter broke

Drowning him out, each heart
Beat frightened in its case
And cried, "No, no!" until
Relieved, they saw he smiled
Derisively, and did not drink.

"MIRAGE"

We stand in
A small place,
Each one
Looking in the mirror,
It seems strange
So large we look
Yet in our secret minds
We are so small.

Following are two poems from "Crisis".

"COURAGE"

I see all hate and weakness
All undisciplined desire
As foolishness, bereft
Of wisdom. I see the world
Riddled with greed, emptied
Of beauty, men are afraid
To love. Where there is truth
Also is angry knowledge
Avid for onwardness.

I see all things as good
Where there is giving
And graceful taking
And the door left wide
To learning. Where there is fear
Man for his brother man
Is also hate. I see all hate
As weakness. Where is the need
For fear where sureness is?
My heart is sorrowful
I see men walking
With their eyes bent down
Upon the city's filth
Hands in their pockets clenched
Upon corroding coin.
Above is God.

"THE SOLDIER'S GOAL"

The soldier said, "my goal is far Adventuring," he said, "is my desire

And foreign lands, and new delivering
Of mind to mind; unknown
delights
And fiercest gallantry done in the heat

Of war." The soldier said all this

And then he sighed and one could tell

That he was thinking of his home
And of his girl and of the quiet loves

Of peace; of golden fields of grain
And of the Spring when rivulets
Begin their music and the birds sing free.

All this was in the sigh the soldier gave

Wishing for freedom from this agony

This death of all his youthful dreams

Of an honest world of brotherhood.

A copy of each of the Chap-Books will be presented by Mrs. Hedges to the Boys and Girls Library of Notre Dame de Grace, Montreal.

Final Tribute Paid S. J. Milligan

Many friends and relatives gathered at an impressive funeral service held in Calvary United Church, Westmount, on Monday, to pay final tribute to S. J. Milligan, of 4538 Wilson Avenue, who died suddenly in his 70th year in the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital.

Vice-president and general sales manager of the Dominion Textile Co. Ltd., he began what was to be his lifetime career in 1897 with a plant job in the Montmorency Cotton Mills Co., Montmorency Falls, which later became a unit of Dominion Textiles. Two years later, he went to Windsor, Ont., where he worked for Dominion Cotton Mills Co., which is now the Dominion Textile Co. He returned to Montmorency Falls in 1902.

In 1905 he came to Montreal, where he became manager of yarn sales for the newly-named company. He became manager of print sales in 1910, which position he held until 1940 when he was appointed acting sales manager, becoming general sales manager in 1943.

Educated in Montreal, he was a boating enthusiast, a member of the St. Lambert Boating Club and a former Commodore of the Canadian Canoe Association.

He was a member of the Engineers Club, the Royal Albert Lodge, A.F. & A.M., and the United Church of Canada.

Mr. Milligan is survived by his widow, Sarah Lawrence; two sons, James A. and John G. Milligan, a daughter, Mrs. Allan Edson, of Westmount, and two sisters, Mrs. E. F. Pratt and Mrs. W. Murray, both of Regina.

police protection, and the advisability of installing either stop signs or traffic-actuated lights at several of the city's busiest intersections. These matters were all discussed and referred to the Committee concerned for further report and action.

The return of the Westmount Athletic Grounds also came up for discussion, in the hope that they will soon be restored to their former conditions and be made available to the citizens of Westmount.

The Association expects to inaugurate a membership drive at an early date, and with this object in view, a strong membership committee has recently been formed under the chairmanship of Mr. Harold Corrigan.

The next meeting of the Association will be held in Victoria Hall on Monday, February 16th.

A Valiant Woman

EULOGY By HANNAH FOSTER

On the 7th of January death removed from the Canadian scene one of the Dominion's outstanding Catholic women in the person of Mrs. J. T. Glennon, of Grand Blvd., N.D.G., until recently National Executive Secretary of The Catholic Women's League of Canada. Mrs. Glennon is survived by three children, Kathleen, Betty and Wilfrid. Mr. Glennon died some years ago.

Few deaths could have left so many bereft, for thousands of women throughout Canada and, indeed, in many other countries, looked upon this extremely capable and co-operative little lady as a real friend. For eight years, and particularly during the trying years of the second world war, she performed the tremendous amount of extra duties required of her, in a thoroughly business-like manner, always with a devotion to League interests and a careful guidance of its destinies. At the same time, she was Editor-in-chief of Canadian League Magazine and most of her out-of-the-office hours were spent in writing, editing and searching for news items which might be of interest to the readers.

Mrs. Glennon was born in England where, as a young woman, she followed a specialized and highly successful teaching career, for which she was prepared by taking Oxford University exams. She taught in Liverpool and London, England, and in Glasgow, Scotland, before coming to Canada, as a bride, after the first world war. In this country, the young couple settled in the West, where all of their children were born, and in those early days Mrs. Glennon's remarkable energy and desire to help others found an outlet in work for mentally retarded children and in an active interest in a newly formed national women's organization, The Catholic Women's League. This latter led, at about the time of her husband's death eight years ago, to her appointment as Executive Secretary of the League and she then removed to Montreal, where the national headquarters of the League are located.

Before long 'Elizabeth Glennon' became known to hundreds of minor executives of the growing organization for her tact and co-operation. The highest officers and humblest members soon realized that they could depend on her for kind understanding and prompt attention in the working out of large or small problems. Yearly National Conventions, to which came women from all parts of the

"Dear Mrs. New: I am delighted with the ermine cloak which I have received from the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in Canada. They could not have chosen a wedding present which has given me greater pleasure or one which I shall use more often. Would you tell all who subscribed to give me this beautiful cloak that, quite apart from the magnificence of their present, I am deeply grateful for the loyalty and for the goodwill towards the Duke of Edinburgh and myself with which they send it.

I am glad to hear, also, that The Queen Elizabeth Hospital is to receive equipment, supplies and special foods as part of the present which the Daughters of the Empire are giving me so that many others will benefit from their generosity and my happiness.

BULLETINS FROM BIRDLAND

BY WINIFRED E. WILSON

Birds' Enemies

Sometimes we wonder that the number of birds in our locality does not increase, remembering how many young each pair brought up in previous seasons. But, if all eggs hatched and all families survived there would soon be a lack of food for such an enormous bird population, and eventually no place for man or any other animal. Nature has arranged matters for the best.

The elements are responsible for much bird mortality. Fierce spring gales frequently blow migrants off their regular flyways, sometimes away from food supplies, at other times over unfriendly waters where they are forced down into the waves. Hail storms at the nesting period often wipe out whole families; dry seasons bring devastation. Our non-migrants suffer most, and are apt to perish, when sleet storms freeze their feet and make both their perches and their food inaccessible because of coatings of ice.

Some animals prey on birds and eat their eggs. Chipmunks, weasels, and foxes are among the marauders, but, according to statistics, the domestic cat is by far the worst offender. Birds of prey, Crows and Blue Jays are to blame for the disappearance of small song birds.

Man, however, takes the heaviest toll, though it must be admitted that he generally does it only inadvertently. Countless birds are killed annually by flying against lighthouses on their trips north or south. Forest fires burn the trees and char the ground so that no bird life exists in the blackened area for years to come. The clearing of land deprives birds of their nesting sites; draining it means a loss of homes and food stores. The farmer's cattle tramp down the Meadowlark's grassy fields; the city builder removes the Cliff Swallow's sandbank and the Blackburnian Warbler's coniferous trees.

The number of birds man now kills intentionally is, in comparison, negligible. Primitive peoples used to destroy for the sake of the feathers, which they wanted for ornamentation, and it is yet considered legitimate for Indians, Esquimaux, and trappers in the far north to kill birds for food. Not so long ago, when fashion demanded feathers, birds were sacrificed, but since the Migratory Bird Convention Act the rules of the game must be adhered to in North America. The real sportsman is learning, though slowly, to take only what the law allows. Today there is more shooting done with the camera, and less with the gun.

Blue Marking Chalk For Sewing Patterns

We keep a stub of blue marking crayon (the kind that is easily erased from the printed page) with our sewing things, and like it better than tailor's chalk for marking pattern perforations. When using snaps, if the ball section of the fastener is sewn to the garment first rubbed with the crayon and pressed firmly to the opposite piece of fabric, the blue mark made in this way becomes an accurate guide for placing the socket half of the fastener.

Corners of collars, cuffs, and lapels should be sharply pointed to avoid that "homemade" look. Try using the little manicure sticks which come with small bottles of cuticle remover, or an orangewood stick for this purpose.

Prov. President W. V. G. Neish Conducts Joint Installation

With impressive ceremonial, Westmount Branch (Que. No. 39) of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., and its Ladies' Auxiliary held a joint installation of officers on Friday evening in Westmount Junior High School. A large number of members and guests were present, including Brigadier A. E. D. Tremaine and, during the latter part of the evening the Rt. Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones, Moderator of the United Church of Canada.

W. V. G. Neish, President of the Provincial Command, and Keith Woolley, Secretary of the Provincial Command, officiated at the installation of Branch officers and executives. J. E. Martin, Westmount Branch, retiring president, other officers of both organizations, and Mrs. John Heron, President of the Branch Auxiliary, were accompanied on the platform by Mrs. DeVoe, President of the Quebec Provincial Command Ladies' Auxiliary; Mrs. Keith Woolley and Mrs. W. V. G. Neish.

Before turning over the proceedings to the Installing Officer, W. V. G. Neish, Mr. Martin spoke appreciatively of the excellent work done by the Ladies' Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. Heron, stating that it was due to their loyal support that the Westmount Branch had kept out of the red this year — for the first time in its history. In recognition of her "untiring efforts" a bouquet of red roses was presented to Mrs. Heron by Mr. Neish, and after the installations she was honored with the award and presentation of the Legion Honorary Officer's Badge for meritorious service. In a brief speech of thanks Mrs. Heron pledged the same loyal support to the newly elected president of the Senior Branch, Mr. Morgan, and remarked that the welfare of the boys, especially those in hospital, had been her chief aim and would continue to be so. The retiring officers and executives had been a tower of strength, she noted, and she was confident that the work of those now being installed would equal or surpass what already had been done by the Auxiliary.

The Past President's Badge was presented to Mr. Martin by Mr. Neish, the former, in expressing his thanks saying that he would be "at the beck and call" of the Senior Branch and the Auxiliary whenever they needed him.

The following are the newly installed officers of Westmount (Que. No. 39):

Answering Your Questions ABOUT IMPORT CONTROL

MOST of the countries which are Canada's regular customers have not recovered sufficiently from the war to pay, in the normal way, for all the goods they need, despite extensive help from this and other countries. Nor are they able to send us enough of their goods to balance accounts—or to pay us in the kind of money which we, in Canada, can use to buy goods in other countries.

At the same time, Canada has been buying more goods than ever before from the United States and other countries demanding U.S. dollars. This is because these goods were not obtainable elsewhere and because of demand pent-up during the war.

Buying from the United States or U.S. dollar areas must, therefore, be temporarily reduced until our trading again becomes normal.

To meet this emergency, purchase of goods and services or expenditures for travel, which must be paid for with U.S. dollars, are now subject to control.

IF YOU NEED OTHER SOURCES OF IMPORTS consult the Foreign Trade Service, Department of Trade and Commerce (Import Division), Ottawa, regarding your supply problems arising from import quota restrictions. Through the Trade Commissioner Service, the Import Division is endeavouring to arrange increased supplies from the United Kingdom and other "non-scheduled" countries.

IF YOU ARE A HOUSEWIFE and wish information on available alternate foods which have comparable nutritional values to those now prohibited or subject to quota, informational material which has been prepared by the Nutrition Division of the Department of National Health and Welfare may be secured from your Provincial Health Department or local health unit.

The administration of these emergency import controls is the responsibility of various departments of the Government. The above information is given to aid Canadian citizens in complying with the new import control regulations with a minimum of inconvenience in their business and personal affairs.

WHS Pucksters Lose To WHHS

Title Hopes Fade After 4-2 Defeat

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Westmount High's Senior A puck-chasers had their championship hopes dealt a severe blow to the solar plexus at the House of Selke Tuesday afternoon when they went down fighting to a superior West Hill sextet.

The Westmunters were outplayed almost all the way through the game, but they battled all the way with the work of rearguards Johnny Waterston and Paul Reaper, and winger George McLanders, in particular, turning in fine games.

Richard Lord also displayed a lot of zip but marred his effort by precipitating a brief fistic flurry with Haskell Blauer, sturdy Red Raider rearguard.

The set-to came mid-way through the final period when the duo were battling for the puck just inside the Westmount blue line. They worked their sticks up on one another, exchanged hot words and then Blauer skated away. But Lord was out for blood and pursued the Blauer man, dragged him down to the ice and got in a few not very dangerous blows before referees and more peaceful minded players tore them apart. Lord was ejected from the game for fighting while Blauer was issued a high sticking penalty.

Good Game

As a hockey game, it was the best Protestant section affray seen this season, which isn't saying very much. West Hill ran up a 2-0 lead on goals by Bill Duke and George Destunis, Duke denting the twine at the 8.10 mark of the first period, Destunis getting his after three minutes and 22 seconds of play in the second two.

Westmount struck back before the middle canto ended, however, with a pair of luck-tinged tallies and the period ended to knot the count at two apiece.

McLanders got the first on a solo rush that saw him carry the puck from his own end, around the West Hill net and then shove the boot heel into the cords.

Ingram got the second and last Westmount marker just before the period ended when he picked up a pass from McMillan and, let the puck fly from behind the West Hill net. It caromed off rearguard Johnny Wagar's skate into the cords.

Duke Gets Winner

Bill Duke got the winner for the far west enders at 1.40 of the final period when he slammed Bain's rebound past Prusser to make the score 3-2. Just for insurance, Herky McLellan converted a neat pass from Destunis into a goal 31 seconds before the abbreviated third period came to an end.

Sandwiched in between the two last West Hill counters was the Lord-Blauer skirmish.

The Line-Ups

Westmount: Goal, Prusser; defence, Waterston, Reaper; centre, Lord; wings, McLanders, Tucker. Subs: Nicholson, Root, Ingram, Lupovitch, McMillan.

Canadians Converters' Juniors won their 12th and 13th straight victories by soundly trouncing North Branch 'Y' Junior to the tune of 84-40 and MacDonald College Intermediates 38-24.

The Converters ran roughshod over North Branch 'Y' in a schedule league game played on the Westmount Junior High School floor, connecting for 53 points in the 2nd half. The first half was nip and tuck, with the North End boys assuming a 7-2 lead early in the tilt. However, the Westmunters came back strong to edge the visitors 31-21 in the first half.

Gordon MacLeod led the scoring for the locals, posting 26 points, closely followed by John Field and Jack Dudley with 17 and 12 respectively. Ray Tremblay was tops for the visitors with 18 points, followed by Zambon with 6. Wenty Young and Jim Henderson played air-tight games on guard for the locals.

The Westmunters journeyed out to MacDonald College last Saturday to encounter the St. Anne de Bellevue boys and, after a closely contested struggle all the way, came out on top 38-24. This low scoring affair was highlighted by the Converters' Gordon MacLeod, who again led the locals to victory by potting 22 points. Jim Henderson and Sterling McLeod followed with 6 and 5 points respectively. Scrivens with 7 and Watson with 6 were tops for the college boys, followed by Anderson and Hamilton with 5 each.

NHL Teams Amassing More Penalties This Season

The total penalty minutes amassed by the six N.H.L. clubs at the half-way mark of the 1947-48 season was 1,902 minutes — exactly 393 minutes more than was meted out for a corresponding period a year ago. Every one of the six teams showed an increase over last year.

As an illustration of the upsurge in the number of penalties this season, let it be pointed out that the total minutes for the six teams at the end of the 1945-46 season was 1,779. These 1,779 minutes were compiled in 150 games, whereas the 1,902 minutes were incurred this season in 92 games. Almost unbelievable, isn't it?

Toronto Maple Leafs are the most penalized club this season, the same as they were last year. This season they have a total of 402 penalty minutes while a year ago their team total was 352 minutes, an increase of 50 minutes.

Wings, Hawks Second

Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks are the second most penalized Clubs, each having a total of 325 minutes spent in the penalty coop. Last season Detroit were next to Toronto in number of penalties with a team total of 256 minutes. The Red Wings show an increase of 69 minutes; Chicago, on the other hand, were the least penalized club in the League for a corresponding period a year ago. The Hawks had a total of 188 minutes last season in comparison with their 325 minutes this year for an increase of 137 minutes — by far the biggest increase of any club.

Montreal Canadiens have spent three minutes less in the sin-bin with 323, whereas a year ago their total was 242 minutes, an addition of 81 minutes. New York Rangers' players have rested in the penalty box for a total of 283 minutes. A year ago the Rangers showed a figure of 238, which gives the Broadway Blueshirts an increase of 45 minutes.

Bruins Penalized

Boston Bruins, the least penalized team in the N.H.L. with a total of 245 minutes were the second least penalized club last season at the same stage of the championship race. The Bruins had 233 minutes in penalties last season compared to their 245 this year for an additional 12 minutes. Boston has the smallest increase in penalties this season.

The following shows how the 1,902 penalty minutes were chalked up each week. The 1,902 minutes include all games played up to and including those of January 4th.

October 19 — 123, October 26 — 188, November 2 — 178, November 9 — 170, November 16 — 110, November 23 — 140, November 30 — 113, December 7 — 153, December 14 — 190, December 21 — 144, December 28 — 186, January 4 — 207.

The following shows the teams' totals at the half-way mark this season and a year ago.

Boston	233
Rangers	238
Canadiens	242

Conn Smythe Says Canuck Lads Lack Fighting Spirit

Conny Smythe, President and Managing Director of Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens and the man responsible for building Toronto Maple Leafs into one of the most formidable teams in major league hockey, is concerned about the lack of fighting spirit among Canadian youth. He'd like to see more of them realize that success comes only as a result of courage and hard work, he says.

Long noted as a doughty battler in the sports realm, Smythe served in both World Wars as an active combatant, returning from the second struggle seriously wounded and with a major's rank. He is therefore qualified to say his piece on the matter of fighting spirit.

On Saturday, January 17, he will appear as guest speaker on the weekly broadcast of Sports College, carried coast-to-coast over a Canadian Broadcasting Corporation network and affiliated stations. He intends to tell young Canada some of the things he believes are necessary for success in the post-war world.

Urges "Can Do" Motto

"Young athletes could do a lot worse than take as their motto the Canadian Army's 'Can Do' motto of the first World War," Major Smythe comments. "You can't get big things done by worrying how tough a problem looks, or how heavy the odds are against it."

Digging into his hockey experience, the Maple Leaf boss uses the careers of men like Joe Primeau, "King" Clancy and "Red" Horner as examples of success based on courage and hard work. "When the Leaf organization is looking for a hockey player we look not only for men who can skate, stickhandle and shoot, but for men with the self-reliant 'Can Do' spirit," he declares.

Bell Singers
Will Revive
Choral Singing

A revival of a capella or unaccompanied choral singing has been one of the main endeavors of The Leslie Bell Singers, the famous Ontario women's choir, which makes its first appearance in Montreal at the Plateau Hall on Saturday evening, January 24.

The repertory of the Bell Singers includes several sacred and secular works of the 16th century, the Golden Age of Choral Song. The Bell Singers have specialized in Palestrina Masses and motets by Byrd, Vittoria and Orlandus Lassus. Their rendering of the famous Missa Papae Marcelli by Palestrina has evoked the highest praise.

Dr. Bell also believes that a fully rounded repertory for a choir should be drawn from the music of all periods. The difficulty, in this respect, he says, is that the majority of the vocal music composed during the past 300 years has been scored with instrumental accompaniment. This leaves only such specialized fields as Russian church music and Negro Spirituals. The way out, says Dr. Bell, is the arrangement of such music for a capella singing. Dr. Bell himself has made a specialty of such arrangements which won considerable fame in Canada and the United States. Many of his arrangements are exclusive to The Bell Singers. Others have been published and are said to be favorites with choirs throughout North America.

Such a picture is Roy Del Ruth's uproarious comedy-farce "It Happened On 5th Avenue" which is being held over, due to public demand, for a 4th hilarious week, starting Saturday at The Snowdon Theatre. This rollicking, heart-warming comedy simply sparkles with fun because it has a fresh theme, spiced with inspired performances by a grand cast. Here are a few intimate notes about some of the

Club 800's Saturday Show
Now At Monkland Theatre

The teen-agers around N.D.G. became quite enthused as they heard the news about Bob Harvie's Club 800 show being broadcast from the stage of the Monkland Theatre, every Saturday afternoon throughout the winter. It is now officially under way, as the famed all-request show hit the Theatre recently for its second big run.

The pictures are shown as scheduled for the afternoon. Then at three-thirty, the show is interrupted for about an hour and a half, to enable Bob and his CJAD confederates to toss the show on the air for the radio fans.

To some teen-agers who have not heard the show, and I'm sure there are very few, the following data is directed. Bob Harvie came here from a similar show up in Toronto, about two years ago and started a show for the newly formed station of CJAD in Montreal. So to work he went, and in about three weeks he had a well-recognized programme.

Sponsors threw in their bids for spots on the show, and the hour obtained became known as 'Club 800'. The programme is an all-request show, the requests of teen-agers around town re Bob Harvie's orders as he spins the platters, you as teen-agers, ask for. To add variety to the show, Bob has cooked up different ideas to add to the spirit of the show. At the halfway mark in the show, the "Guess Who" part of the show comes into being. Here Bob plays a record and it is up to the audience to identify the band or vocalist. For the right answer the winner is presented with passes to a Johnny Holmes dance at Victoria Hall.

Another interesting part in the show is conducted by Bob again. He asks some members of the audience to name one side of any record that he or she knows, and then Bob tries to identify the other side. Bob's average is pretty good on this job, and he usually sends the contestant away without the winners' prize, a free recording from Willis.

So there in a bird's eye view, is the idea behind Club 800, to play and do the things that you as teen-agers enjoy; Bob deserves special credit for the fine job he has done in getting the show jacked up to its present popularity. He has run the show ever since its beginning, a long time ago, and has done a fine job. The show is put on elsewhere than in the Studio on Mountain Street. At the present time it goes out to the Monkland theatre for the Saturday edition on "The Padded Cell" and during the summer the show is presented from the bandstand at beautiful Belmont Park.

Captain Proven, President of the Society, will preside at the event and representatives of the City and National Societies will be the special guests. Col. V. E. Traversy, Officer Commanding the Black Watch of Canada, will also be present and has granted permission to members of the Regiment to attend wearing uniform.

Owing to existing conditions this function will not be strictly formal. R. Milne, 2320 Hampton Avenue, EL 2745, is in charge of arrangements and can supply full information to all requiring same.

Geo. Ganetakos To Open Van Horne Theatre, Sat.

George Ganetakos, president of the United Amusement Corporation Limited who own and operate approximately forty theatres in the province of Quebec, when interviewed today, stated that the company's latest addition to its fast growing chain of moving picture theatres, the Van Horne, will be opened this coming Saturday. Mr. Ganetakos pointed out that two of the many outstanding features of the new Van Horne Theatre will be the Kroehler push back chairs and a specially engineered air conditioning system which will keep the air at the proper temperature and correct humidity during all seasons.

The Van Horne will be the second theatre in Canada to have a complete installation of Kroehler push back chairs, the other theatre being the Avenue. These deluxe seats permit a person to pass without the occupant having to stand up. The seat holder just places his feet under the seat, leans forward and the chair pushes back. When the person has passed the occupant of the seat moves his feet forward, relaxes and the seat slides back to its normal position.

One of the chief points in the air conditioning system at the Van Horne is an excess supply of cooling and heating coils in the air mixing chamber. This permits an extra large quantity of fresh air being permitted to enter and be distributed equally throughout the theatre at the proper temperature and correct humidity and not necessitating using the same air over and over again as some of the old fashioned systems are forced to do on account of their low cooling and heating capacity.

The front of the theatre is modern and attractive being built of stone with a smart insert of black vitrolite.

The doors are of cast aluminum and the box office is of marble and stainless steel. A gayly decorated lobby leads directly into a spacious foyer with indirect lighting and features an ultra modern candy bar and cloak room. The theatre auditorium is designed primarily for correct acoustics. This has been achieved by avoiding parallel smooth surfaces. The aisles are wide allowing easy access to all seats.

The decoration is simple but pleasing and the whole atmosphere is one that invites complete relaxation. Luke, Little and Mace were the architects and Louis Donolo Inc., the builder.

make "Her Sister's Secret" an outstanding motion picture.

Van Horne, De Luxe Theatre, Open Sat. With First Film

The opening film attraction at the new Van Horne, one of Canada's finest and most modern theatres situated at the corner of Van Horne Avenue and Cote des Neiges Road which opens on Saturday, will be "Her Sister's Secret" featuring Nancy Coleman, Margaret Lindsay, Philip Reed and Felix Bressart.

This will be the Montreal premiere of this exciting film which depicts the heart-warming story of a young Southern belle who, enraptured by the mood created by New Orleans' carefree Mardi Gras, submits to the ardor of a dashing young serviceman on leave from a nearby training camp. Their love affair is abruptly terminated when the soldier is sent overseas. When Toni, the girl, discovers she is to become a mother, she arranges to sacrifice her baby to her sister and brother-in-law, rather than confess that circumstances had prevented her own marriage.

Later, Toni is faced with a difficult decision. Should she beg for the return of her baby and ruin her sister's happiness, or should she let well enough alone and suppress her own maternal hunger? It is on this fulcrum that the picture's plot balances.

Nancy Coleman, as the emotionally torn Toni, brings an understanding to her role. Remembered for stand-out performances in "King's Row" and "Devotion", Nancy reaches a new peak of dramatic excellence as the beauty who loved, not wisely but too well. Philip Reed portrays the role of Toni's sincere but hapless lover, Dick. As the lad who must face relinquishing his own child to strangers Reed acquits himself notably.

Special Staging Of "Huck Finn"

In response to the more than expected enthusiasm with which the Theatre for Young Folk's production of "Huckleberry Finn" was greeted last week at Victoria Hall, it has been arranged to present a special presentation of this children's play, Saturday at 10.30 a.m., at the Monkland Theatre.

"Huckleberry Finn" provided the regular children's audiences with an amazingly different type of entertainment — the type that requires for complete silence on the part of the audience, and silence reigned during the two acts of this famous story.

The terrific applause at the end showed that "Huck Finn" is just as popular — if not more so — than his last year's counterpart — Tom Sawyer.

Centering around two phoney uncles who attempt to steal the inheritance of two young ladies, the Theatre for Young Folk play is full of surprises throughout. Villains, heroes, suspense and action, to say nothing of charming costumes, setting and music, make this the most enchanting play that the Theatre for Young Folk has ever been pleased to present.

Saturday at Monkland Theatre will mark the first time this season that the C. A. T. children's shows have left Victoria Hall. The play will return to Victoria Hall on January 24, remaining there until further notice.

AT THE SEVILLE STARTING SATURDAY!

Dan Dailey and Betty Grable are the pair of vaudeville hoofers whose professional and domestic trials and tribulations are unfolded in the new Technicolor musical, "MOTHER WORE TIGHTS," starting Saturday at the Seville Theatre.

HILARIOUS COMEDY AT WESTMOUNT

Jack Carson, Janis Paige, Robert Hutton and Martha Vickers make up the happy-go-lucky foursome appearing in the riotous comedy "Love and Learn," which starts Sunday for one week at the Westmount!

"Mother Wore Tights" Film Of Hilarity At Westmount

It's been a long time in the coming, and now that it's here it has proved itself oh-so-much worth the waiting for!

With "Mother Wore Tights," Twentieth Century-Fox has broken through the icy tinsel and scaly stereotype of the "show world" as Hollywood has been prone to present it, and has gone straight to its heart to bring us the first true, intimate story of the people who made show business like no business on earth. The result is a picture so grand, so great, so filled with rich human warmth as to set it apart as a rare and wonderful film entirely in a class by itself.

The picture, now playing at the Westmount Theatre, has been filmed in Technicolor stars Betty Grable, introduces a sensational new screen personality in Dan Dailey, and has a score of terrific new song hits.

But "Mother Wore Tights" is not a musical in the common use of that term. If you need a label, it might be best called simply a story with music. If you wanted to analyze it, you might say it's a warm and human family drama, and a great love story, and a scintillating cavalcade of song and dance. It is all that—and much more!

It is the true story of the happy, hilarious life of a pair of lovable hoofers, Frank and Myrtle Burt, a real-life vaudeville team whose adventures were chronicled in the best-selling biography, "Mother Wore Tights," written by their daughter Mirlam Young. It is Frank's and Myrtle's story; the story of how they worked to achieve success as a dance team on the vaudeville circuit concurrent with fulfilling their duty in raising two rambunctious daughters; and it is the story of the girls and their problem (no less their parents') people in a world of other people who didn't know a pratt fall from a scrim. No family outside a show business ever had quite such a life. And it's all here—in all its fun, excitement, private dramas, romance, music and laughter.

Betty Grable, of course, plays the title rôle, and in mighty rare (and lovely) form is she. This is the type of portrayal that Betty has long waited for, and the depth and true understanding she brings to the rôle of Myrtle Burt is no less a joy to behold than her matchless singing and dancing talents.

Dan Dailey, as Frank Burt, proves as wonderful a surprise as we could hope this, or any other season, would bring. The guy is simply terrific! Rarely has any actor ever given a characterization so downright real and human. And for his dancing,—it's sensational! Dailey has everything it takes for top stardom; he has hit the mark with this one performance.

Little Connie Marshall and winsome Mona Freeman are the two Burt kids (the story brings Mona up to the romance stage), and they add no little to the sheer delight of the picture.

Mack Gordon's lyrics and Josef Myrow's melodies combine to provide the perfect musical supplement to the enthralling story. Listen especially for You Do, as well as Kokomo, Indiana; (Rolling Down Bowling Green) In A Little Two-Seat Tandem; There's Nothing Like A Song; This Is My Favorite City; and Fare-Thee-Well Dear Alma Mater. The dances staged by Seymour Felix and Kenny Williams, and the bewitching costumes designed by Orry-Kelly provide generous doses of eye-filling excitement.

There is, indeed, no business like show business. And, "Mother Wore Tights" tells its grandest story. You'll love every minute of it!

The Added Attraction Is Zane Grey's thrill-swept story of Western outlawry, "Twin Sombrosos," brought to the screen with all the vivid excitement, colorful characters and blazing two-gun action of the master adventure novelist's great yarn. Glorious in the splendor of outdoor Cinecolor, the screen adaption, is retitled "Gunfighters."

"Gunfighters," a Columbia picture, stars Randolph Scott and Barbara Britton in a lavishly-scaled tale of relentless pursuit, cold-blooded ambush and hot-headed romance.

It is the story of a famed gunfighter who is determined to lay aside his guns forever after he is forced to shoot his best friend when the latter tries to beat him to the draw. His reputation as "scourge of the Southwest" can't be lived down, and he is drawn into a ruthless cattle ranchers' war when another friend is murdered.

Heading the strong support-cast is a dramatically beautiful Hollywood newcomer, Dorothy Hart, in the rôle of a ranch owner's daughter who turns against her own father to aid the ex-gunfighter in his struggle. Featured players are Bruce Cabot, Charley Grapewin, Steven Geray, Forrest Tucker, Charles Keraper and Grant Withers.

Hollywood — Ho, hum, Bing Crosby wins another popularity poll. Results of a ballot taken among students, businessmen, farmers, teachers, professionals, showmen and others in the Philippine Islands placed the Groaner at the top of the list of Hollywood actors, the Philippine Cinema Society recently announced. Ingrid Bergman was voted the most popular actress

Eventide Home Opening Officially Held Today

Long anticipated official opening of the Salvation Army Eventide Home, 7486 Upper Lachine Road, will take place this afternoon (Thursday) at 3 p.m. His Worship, Mayor R. H. Ross, of Montreal West, will preside at the ceremony. Major and Mrs. Arthur Brewer, with Eventide Home supervision experience in Western Canada, have been in charge of the Home since its inauguration in the Fall of 1945. On their arrival at that time they received, on behalf of the Home and its aged occupants which number 100, a complete furnishing of the living room, donated by the Montreal Westward Rotary Club. Scripture reading, following the opening hymn, will be by Major L. Carswell, Public Relations Department, who succeeds Brigadier Peter Forbes in that office. Prayer will be offered by Rev. G. C. Wadsworth, of Montreal West Presbyterian Church, and Lt. Col. M. Junker, Divisional Commander, will introduce the Chairman, Mayor R. H. Ross. Following the Chairman's remarks the speaker for the occasion will be Brigadier E. T. Waterston and his address will be followed by a pianoforte selection by Major I. Henderson. Greetings will be expressed by A. D. Wood, Sun Life President and Chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board; by Col. Allen Magee, Vice-Chairman of the Board and by His Worship, Mayor Edward Wilson, of Verdun. After a solo by Mayor F. Moulton, an address will be given by Col. W. Dray, O.B.E., Chief Secretary, the Salvation Army Canadian Territory. Major S. Joyce will pronounce Benediction following the closing hymn and the event will be concluded with the National Anthem.

Christian Science

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday. The Golden Text is from Amos 5: 14 "Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the Lord, The God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: — "The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup; thou maintainest my lot. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

"For right reasoning there should be but one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. In reality there is no other existence, since Life cannot be united to its unlikeliness mortality. Being is holiness, harmony, immortality. It is already proved that a knowledge of this, even in a small degree, will uplift the physical and moral standard of mortals, will increase longevity, will purify and elevate character." (Pages 492).

A Wisconsin man broke the jaw of a peeping Tom. The victim will recover but we doubt if he'll ever look the same.

Even when you're past your prime you can always prime yourself for the future.
