MOVEMENTS OF THEIR EXCEL-

LENCIES.

Their Excellencies, the Governor-General and the Marchioness of LANSDOWNE, will leave town, for Ottawa, we hear, on Thursday, the 6th instant.

MATTERS OF INTEREST.

It was to be expected, of course, that the Hon. Postmaster-General would escape conviction on the charge of personal bribery. He is not the man to bribe person to vote for him. Indeed, the Postmaster-General is not a philanthropist in any sense of the term, and though indiscreet friends of his took an active part in inducing the free and independent electors of Colchester County to step up and vote for the excellent Mr. McLELAN, the Minister himself was never nearer than forty feet to any of the bribed Mr. Mc-LELAN will, of course, run again, and equally of course, he will be elected by a large majority. The country cannot afford to lose the services of the Postmaster-General. He is a great economist.

In Cumberland County, the charge of personal bribery preferred against the Finance Minister have been wisely withdrawn. The promoters of the enterprise prefer to save law expenses by not going to court with a ridiculous plea. Sir CHAR-TUPPER will probably resign his seat, and run for election again. His election could be easily secured by acclamation if it was worth while. Canada is proud of a minister who possesses dash, energy, ability and courage, and no strong effort, we may be sure, will be made by political adventurers to rob the country of the services of a man, who has done so much to make the Dominion prosperous as Sir CHARLES TUPPER has done. A new election would only prove that Sir CHARLES had lost none of his popularity. But that point is patent to everybody, and there is no need of a fresh appeal to the people to establish it.

For the credit of Cumberland county we would like to see the Finance Minister re--elected by acclamation. Nova Scotia should be doubly proud of her distinguished son.

Our esteemed contemporary, the St.

John, N. B. Globe says:

"Mr. Cimon is elected to fill his late father's place for Charlottetown, in the Dominion Parliament. He defeated the Government candidate by nearly five hundred votes."

The Globe misapprehends the situation.

Mr. Cimon was the Government candidate, and Mr. TREMBLAY ran as a sort of Independent Conservative. National-Liberal. The combination was too heavy to carry, and the Ministerialist party swept the county. The elder Cimon was always a Conservative, but he went out with the tide before the close of the last Parliament, and forsook his old chief, Sir JOHN, though his colors remained blue. It was not on a question of principle that Mr. Cimon abandoned the first Minister. The younger Cimon has returned to the fold, and will support the MACDONALD Government. Before contesting Charlottetown the other day, he secured the backing of the Government, and it was that influence which elected him.

Charlottetown has to be in opposition.

The name of JENNY LIND, the famous Swedish nightingale, calls up old memories. A quarter of a century ago, her name was conspicuous almost everywhere, as a novelty in musical and artistic circles.

She shined from the lyric stage in 1852 on her marriage to OTTO GOLDBERG, but as late as 1865 she sang at a charitable

THE FIRE at the Cardinal's Palace

Workmen were occupied on Saturday in removing the debris of the fire from the upper part of the Cardinal's Palace. Stoves were also erected and set going for the purpose of drying up the building; which has been completely saturated with water.

Some of the effects which were saved have been placed back in the building, but it will be a long time before any of the apartments will be habitable.

Mr. Legat telegraphed the fact of the fire to His Eminence at St. Thomas, on Friday night, and on Saturday the Cardinal returned to the residence, the Cardinal's Palace, and has taken place at St. Anne's yet, have been prepared for the accommodation of His Eminence and his household at the Saint Mary. Mr. Marois, the Secretary of His Eminence, holds the office of the Cardinal's secretary, and is the only one of the Palace which is partially repaired from the main building, being uninjured.
