SEVERAL DIRECT CLASHES OF OPINION AT ARMS CONFERENCE

Right Of Chinese Delegates To Speak For Whole Of China
Reported Questioned By France, While Chinese In Turn
Challenged British Interpretation Of General Principles
Already Adopted

Washington, Nov. 23.—When the arms delegates quit work for the Thanksgiving Day recess, these considerations embraced the central points of interest in their discussions:

Whether the effort to apply generally accepted principles to specific cases in the Far East would bring definite accomplishments or only lead to futile debate.

Whether, in view of the position of France and the general situation in Europe, any serious attempt should be made to agree on a limitation of land armament.

Whether a way can be found to hasten consideration of details of the naval limitation plan, which is proceeding smoothly, but too slowly to satisfy some of the delegates.

Of these questions the first was brought sharply to the fore to-night by several direct clashes of opinion regarding elements of the Far Eastern negotiations. At today's executive session of the nine delegations, the right of the Chinese delegates to speak for the whole of China was reported to have been questioned by France, and later a British interpretation of the general principles already adopted was challenged by some of the Chinese.

Early in the day the land armament problem had been debated behind closed doors by the delegates of the big five powers, without further result than the appointment of a sub-committee to consider collateral subjects like the use of airplanes and poison gases.

Premier Briand of France, making his farewell speech to the conference, pressed his argument that his country dared not disarm unless she had guarantees from the other powers, and although the general discussion drew renewed expressions of sympathy from every other national group, no one proposed any formal joint declaration of policy.

On the side of the naval reduction program, developments were so completely out of the picture that some of the delegates showed impatience and pointed out the possible danger that the negotiations might become confused by two exhaustive discussions of details.

It is possible the naval experts will be asked to simplify their methods so as to expedite action.

To-morrow will be a day of rest so far as meetings of the Conference and its sub-divisions are concerned, although it may see some real progress through consultations among the various individuals and groups.

Official Communique
The following communique was issued after the meeting today of the sub-committee on limitation of armament:

"The sub-committee, composed of the heads of the delegations of the five powers represented on the committee on limitation of armament, held a meeting this afternoon, Wednesday, Nov. 23, at 5 p.m., for the purpose of considering the order of procedure in connection with new agencies of warfare and of rules for the conduct of war.

The sub-committee decided to create three boards of experts, each member of the sub-committee to nominate the members of these boards as follows:

"1.—With respect to air craft, their quantity, character and use.
"2.—With respect to poison gases.
"3.—With respect to appropriate rules for the conduct of war.

"These experts are to conduct their inquiries under the direct supervision of the sub-committee composed of the heads of the five delegations. As each subject is pre-

British Labor Leader Addressed Remarkable Letter While Returning To England

(Special to The Chronicle)
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 23.—Peter Wright, the famous British Labor Leader who recently concluded a tour of Canada, has written a remarkable letter to Premier Meighen. The letter, written from the Empress of Britain, while Mr. Wright was returning to England follows:

Empress of Britain, Oct. 4, 1921
"My Dear Prime Minister:
"I went to Montreal for the purpose of attending your meeting but failed to obtain admission in the Hall. I was greatly disappointed but I was delighted after perusing your speech and desire to congratulate you on your firm and definite stand at this particular period when the world is passing through a stage of transition. The old political shibboleths must be scrapped and only by hard thinking and honest dealing are we capable to survive the terrible financial aftermath of this world war. I am convinced in my own mind that the policy for which you stand is the only practical solution at the moment to tide Canada through this crisis. Otherwise Canada will become a mere adjunct for the purpose of dumping the surplus commodities of the U. S. A., which means poverty and starvation for the industrial classes and a bitter experience for which you in Canada will have to pay an awful price. At this moment in Canada it is absolutely imperative to combine the forces on common sense and honest and rally as a united force against the warring elements that will lead into chaos "politically" and land you on a lee shore amongst the wreckage of democratic fallacies that will not bear the test of time. If the democracy is to survive and the best of times it must be based on science as well as sentiment. Anyhow it is all in the lap of the Gods at the moment and I pray that your health will stand the terrible ordeal of this strenuous contest of a general election and I feel persuaded that your honesty and the sense of sportsmanship you have displayed so far will be recognized by the Canadian people and eventually place you in the position of a great leader to make Canada take her place amongst the great nations of the world and our Empire and become eventually the happiest place on your great continent.

This is my wish and the sincere desire of one who loves Canada. I wish you Godspeed in your noble efforts for a united Canada.
So good bye.
Yours sincerely,
Peter Wright.

London, Nov. 23.—The entire visit of the Prince of Wales to the Bombay presidency has been a great personal triumph says a message received at the India Office from the Governor of Bombay.

The departure of the Prince for Baroda was made the occasion of another great demonstration, masses of the people thronging the platform in an effort to get near the Prince's car, made it difficult to get the train moving.

The populace, the Governor reports, appears to be stimulated by the unfortunate riots of last week to prove their loyalty.

Played In Polo Game
London, Nov. 23.—The Prince of Wales on Monday, the fifth day of his visit in Bombay, participated in a polo match, according to a Bombay despatch to the London Times.

He was to have inspected twenty thousand Boy and Girl Scouts but the parents in the remote city parts were afraid to have their children pass through the recently disturbed areas and the inspection was abandoned reluctantly.

Fears that the day would bring further disorders proved unnecessary. Hindus and Parsees paraded the streets, waving white flags amid the cheers of the warring sects and up to the time darkness came, when the Times despatch was filed, there was no trouble.

The Prince spent a quiet Sunday, taking lunch informally at the Oriental Club and attending services in the Cathedral.

pared for the discussion of the full committee, it will be reported to it. "M. Briand took leave of his colleagues, expressing his regret at being obliged to depart. The other members of the sub-committee expressed their regret that he was obliged to leave them and their appreciation of the great part he had taken in the proceedings.

"The committee then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman."

Japan's New Delegate
Appointment by Japan of Matsuoka Hanharu, Vice Foreign Minister, as a delegate to the Armament Conference was communicated today to the late department.

Mr. Hanharu's appointment is immediately due to the continued illness of Baron Shidehara, the Ambassador which left the delegation with only two senior delegates, namely Admiral Kato and Prince Tokugawa. Before the Japanese officials left Japan for Washington it was understood that Vice-Minister Hanharu might be appointed as a fourth plenipotentiary.

Mr. Hanharu will come to Washington as chief adviser to the delegation. He has had a long experience in the United States as a Japanese diplomat having served here ten years as Secretary to the Ambassador.

MAJORITY REPORT
UPHOLDS CUT

General Reduction In Wages Of Railroad Employees Sustained By Board

(By Canadian Press)
Ottawa, Nov. 23.—The majority report of the Board of Arbitration in the wage dispute between the Canadian Brotherhood of railroad employees and the Grand Trunk Railway upholds the general decrease in wages of 12.8 percent, made effective by the railways in July last. The opinion is expressed, however, that the method adopted in distributing the reduction resulted in the lower paid employees suffering greater decreases than those receiving higher pay. The Board recommends that an effort should be made by further negotiations to adjust these inequalities.

The report is signed by John M. Godfrey, chairman, and by H. H. Vaughan of the G. T. R. representative. A minority report will be made by Peter Berceovich, K., M.L.A., the representative of the employees. The sessions of the Board were held in Montreal and Toronto during October and November.

It will be remembered that following the sessions of this Board in October that an agreement was reached between the G. T. R. and certain of its employees. It was afterwards alleged by the C.B.R.E. that these employees did not have authority to enter into an agreement with the company. Subsequently the negotiations were reopened before the Board. In the majority report it is stated that as far as the Board is aware, representatives of three other organizations, who signed the agreement have not repudiated their action. The report says that the employees signified their willingness to accept certain reductions that they condemned the aggregate reduction of 12.8 percent was excessive. The question before the arbitrators, the report states, was whether the reductions proposed were unjustifiable an inequitable. These reductions practically conformed to those ordered by the United States Railway Labor Board and made effective on railways in the United States.

After examining the evidence the representative of the Company and the chairman of the Board reached the decision that there had been a decrease in the cost of living since last July of twenty percent and that in view of this and the financial position of the railway that the proposed reduction, in the aggregate, was justifiable and equitable.

What Mosher Thinks
A. R. Mosher, President of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, stated this evening that he had considered the report of the G. T. R. Arbitration Board. He said it recognized that the wage reduction bore too heavily on the lower paid employees, but offered no basis upon which such a condition might be corrected.

"It has been stated repeatedly, and substantiated by undeniable proof, that none of the employees represented by the C. B. of R. E. are highly paid," Mr. Mosher explained. "In fact, they are among the lowest paid employees and consequently a reduction in pay to any of these employees imposes hardships that cannot be justified. There are old employees filling positions of trust, trying to provide for themselves and dependents on 31 cents an hour. An employer who takes advantage of economic conditions to force a man to a standard of living that must accompany such wages, is a real menace to the nation.

I am opposed to political interference in the conduct of the National Railways of which the G. T. R. forms a part but I think when official reports to reductions of this nature to make up losses for which the employees are in no way responsible, it is time for the Government to step in and determine what should constitute a reasonable minimum wage for employees of the people's railways," he declared.

How Prisoners Escaped.
Dublin, Nov. 23.—Further details were related to-day by persons claiming to have been eye-witnesses of the escape of 17 political prisoners from the Kilmainham Jail the night before last through an underground passage of their own digging.

These eye-witnesses related their amazement, while passing along the road near the jail, at seeing a portion of the roadway break and two men emerge from underground. The two men, according to the story related, had ordered the passers-by to halt, herded them into a nearby cottage and locked them in while the prisoners' comrades emerged and made their way across the countryside.

Immediately after the last man left the hole, according to the story the alarm was given, and the military police rushed out in lorries, scouring the country throughout the night without success.

Lord Birkenhead, speaking at a luncheon shortly after leaving the conference with the Sinn Fein delegates to-day said it would not be right to invite his hearers to a too sanguine view of the "difficult and critical negotiations going on respecting Ireland," but he could say the door which excluded hope was not yet definitely closed.

18 Dead In Belfast.
Belfast, Nov. 23.—When darkness fell to-night the death-roll as a result of the disorders of the past few days had reached a total of 18. The wounded numbered 75.

Five persons were killed during the day in the sniping and sporadic outbreaks of shooting which took place in various parts of the city. Order had been restored at 8:30 o'clock this evening. The curfew was due to take effect in some parts of the city at nine o'clock.

The incorporators, of whom there are five, include G. H. Butnell, organizing director of the United Grain Growers; Mabel Finch, assistant to the Secretary to the Canadian Council of Agriculture, and Mary B. McCallum, assistant Secretary of the Council.

IRISH SITUATION DESCRIBED
CRITICAL BUT NOT HOPELESS

Sinn Fein Told Government Willing To Apply Strong Moral Pressure To Ulster—If Proposals Rejected Ulster Will Not Be Coerced—Deathroll In Belfast Now Numbers Eighteen

London, Nov. 23.—After to-day's meeting between the Sinn Fein representatives and the Cabinet committee the Irish situation was described in Government circles as "critical but not hopeless."

Premier Lloyd George explained to the Sinn Fein that the Government was willing to apply strong moral pressure to Ulster and to offer Sir James Craig, attractive financial inducements to persuade him to agree to the only possible settlement—an all-Ireland Parliament.

But if these proposals were rejected either by the Sinn Fein or Ulster, he said, the Government would not introduce any act in Parliament which would include Ulster against her will. The Government explained that to force Ulster to accept would require the sending of troops in defiance of the pledges of all parties against physical coercion.

Mr. Lloyd George will discuss the question further with the Ulster Premier on Friday, after which Sir James will return to Belfast for the formal re-opening of the Northern Parliament.

Earl Middleton, as representative of the Southern Unionists is continuing to strive for a settlement on Dominion lines. He is pointing out to London business men not only the moral, but the material advantages to be gained by closer commercial relations with Ireland.

Disappointment is felt by the Government that notwithstanding the truce the Sinn Fein has not withdrawn the boycott on Ulster goods. The Sinn Fein maintain that the boycott was provoked by the discharge of Catholic workmen from Belfast shipyards, and considers an essential aid to the Republic cause.

Ulster still is pressing for the publication of all the correspondence which has been exchanged during the peace negotiations, but the Government has not yet agreed, although declaring it will be given to the public eventually.

R.I.C. Circular Withdrawn.
Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, has ordered the withdrawal of what has been described as a secret circular issued recently from the divisional commission of the Royal Irish Constabulary at Belfast, which, according to Dublin despatches said the Government was considering the desirability of forming the authorized loyal defence forces into regular military units to be called out in grave emergency.

The Ulster Premier declared to-day that he approved recruiting for special constabulary in event of the truce being terminated, but not for the formation of recruits into regular military units.

"The constabulary," he added, "was never transferred to the Government of Northern Ireland. Recruits may be taken as policemen, but not into a military force for organization."

Sir James announced that he will return to Belfast on Saturday.

The Irish Bulletin of Dublin, last Friday published the text of the alleged secret circular, which was dated Nov. 9, and addressed to "the Commissioners, all County Inspectors and all Commandants." Next day Sir Hamar Greenwood, and the Irish Office in London disclaimed knowledge of the issuance of the circular. The Irish officials said they were unable to repudiate it, however, declaring it probable it might have been directed from some Dublin Castle source without their knowledge.

LimitedMEIGHEN OFF FOR FINAL CAMPAIGN

In Eight Weeks Has Delivered Two Hundred Speeches To Half Million

(Special to The Chronicle)

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 23.—Premier Meighen, looking fresh despite the tremendous vigor of the campaign which he has been waging since a busy eight hours in his office here to-day before embarking upon a final campaign into the thick of the fight in Ontario. Asked regarding his tour in the West the Premier replied:—

"I found the people of Western Canada interested almost exclusively in two subjects grain marketing and the tariff. On the grain marketing question every kind of manoeuvre was being resorted to divert the attention of the farmers from the Government's definite and ordinarily most acceptable plan. Reports from all parts indicated that the farmers were fast making up their minds to vote for a plan that they understood and not for men who had no plan at all. On the tariff the propaganda of the last ten years has not been without effect. Thousands however, will vote for the Government out of desire to encourage frankness as against duplicity in public life. On the whole the people of the West showed the keenest possible interest and desire to apply the test of reason to public issues. I am not in the habit of making prophecies and leave that exercise to those who are restitute of argument but I am confident of a splendid showing from Western Canada on the 8th December.

Mr. Meighen's final two weeks in Ontario will exceed all his past performances in the present campaign. Thus far in the opinion of old observers here he has waged a fight which from the standpoint of sheer physical vigor has never been paralleled in a Canadian election. In eight weeks he has delivered upwards of two hundred speeches directly reaching about half a million electors.

This fact is creating much disappointment.

TARIFF AUTONOMY RESTORATION FOR CHINA PLAN UP*Was Presented By Chinese Delegate To Far Eastern Committee*THRESH OUT SUBJECT*Dr. Koo Addressed Conference At Length On Chinese Fiscal Affairs

Washington, Nov. 23.—A plan for the restoration of China of tariff autonomy was presented to the Far Eastern Committee of the Washington Conference late today by Wellington Koo, one of the Chinese delegates. A sub-committee was appointed to thresh out the subject. Dr. Koo addressed the Conference today at length on Chinese financial affairs and after a general discussion the question was referred to the tariff sub-committee comprising one member from each of the nine powers. An adjournment was then taken over Thanksgiving Day.

The official communiqué on the Chinese proposals, in part says: "Mr. Koo proposed to restore to China the right to fix and to distribute the import tariff rates, but as it appeared hardly possible to establish a new regime, all at once, he said that full autonomy should be restored to China after a certain period to be agreed upon. In the meanwhile, China would impose a maximum rate and would like to enjoy and have full freedom within that maximum such as the right of differentiation among the different classes of commodities. "As to the financial of the Chinese government was such as to require immediate relief it was proposed that on and after Jan. 1, 1922, the Chinese import tariff be raised to 12-12 percent as it was stipulated for in the treaty with the United States, Great Britain and Japan."

Among the reasons he alleged in support of the proposals of the Chinese delegation the following is the gist:

"1.—The existing customs regime in China constitutes an infringement of China's sovereign right to fix the tariff rates at her own discretion.

"2.—It deprives China of the power to make reciprocity arrangements with the foreign powers. While all foreign goods imported into China pay only five percent, Chinese goods exported to foreign countries have to pay duties of a maximum rate."

"3.—It constitutes a serious impediment upon the economic development of China.

"4.—As the system now stands, there is only one uniform rate and no differentiation of rates. The disadvantage is obvious, because it does not take into account the needs of the Chinese people. China is in need of machinery and metals for which China would like to impose a tariff rate even lower than the five percent.

For luxuries such as cigars and cigarettes they ought to pay a heavy tax perhaps in order to prevent their injurious effects on the morals and social habits of the people. As it stands, therefore, the Chinese tariff is not scientific at all.

"5.—The present tariff has occasioned a serious loss of revenue upon the Chinese exchequer. The item of customs duties is an important item in the budget of nearly all countries; for instance, Great Britain raised 12 percent of its revenue from customs duties, France 15 percent and the United States 35 percent before the world war but the customs revenue in the Chinese Budget as it now stands, becomes a comparatively insignificant feature.

"6.—The present regime makes it exceedingly difficult for the Chinese Government to ask for a revision as it was shown in past experiences in 1912 and in 1918.

"7.—Even if the effective 5 percent should be levied, the revenue resulting therefrom will still be hardly adequate to meet the requirements of the Chinese Government as the Government has many functions to perform in matters of modern education, sanitation and public utilities, etc."

FOOD PRICES IN MTL. EATING HOUSES LOWER*In Many Cases Figures Are Fifteen To Twenty Five Percent Lower

(By Canadian Press)
Montreal, Nov. 23.—That there is a distinct tendency towards lowering of food prices in the majority of the hotels and restaurants throughout the city is shown by a canvass made today of the various eating houses throughout the business section of the metropolis.

During the past two months general cuts in the price asked by the better class caterers have begun to make their appearance until today in many cases the figures on the bills of fare range from fifteen to twenty five percent below those asked for the same articles a few weeks ago.

A NEW COAT OF ARMS FOR CANADA*Royal Proclamation Accedes To Request Of The Governor General

(Canadian Press Cable)
London, Nov. 23.—The London Gazette contains a Royal proclamation acceding to the request of "The Governor General in Council of our Dominion of Canada" for a new coat of arms for the Dominion, described by the proclamation as heraldic terms as follows:

We hereby appoint and declare that the same or insignia armorial of the Dominion of Canada shall be tierced in fesse, the first and second divisions containing the quarterly coat following, namely, first gules a lion passant guardant in pale or, second or a lion rampant within a double tressure flory counter flory gules, third azure three fleurs-de-lis or; and the third division argent three maple leaves conjoined on one stem proper.

"And upon a royal helmet mantled argent doubled gules the crest, that is to say on a wreath of the colors argent and gules a lion passant guardant or imperially crowned proper and holding in the dexter paw a maple leaf gules.

"And for supporters on the dexter a lion rampant or holding a lance argent point or, flying therefrom to the dexter the union flag, and on the sinister a unicorn argent crined and unguled or, gorged with a coronet composed of cross-patee and fleur-de-lis, a chain affixed thereto reflexed of the last and holding ax-like lanceflying therefrom to the sinister a banner azure charged with fleurs-de-lis or.

"The whole inscribed with the Imperial crown proper and below the shield upon a wreath composed of roses, thistles shamrocks and lilies, a scroll azure inscribed with the motto: "A mari usque ad mare."

The above containing many pitfalls for the unwary, is a doubtless accurate heraldic description of the new Canadian coat of arms, recently determined upon by a Canadian committee in consultation with the College of Arms or Heraldic College.

RELIEF OFFICER COMPLAINS IN B.C.*Unemployed Men Passed Over C.N.R. From Winnipeg To Vancouver

(By Canadian Press)
Vancouver, B.C., Nov. 23.—That 19 single men, out of work and with their homes in the East had been passed over the Canadian National Railway from Winnipeg to Vancouver and that on their arrival here they had applied to the city relief department for relief, was the charge made today at a meeting of Aldermen and civic officials by George I. Ireland, city relief officer.

Mr. Ireland declared that these men, who had arrived at Vancouver during the past few days, had obtained transportation from Winnipeg to Vancouver on the personal card of the city ticket agent of the C. N. R. at Winnipeg. This card had been honored by the various conductors, Mr. Ireland said, and he held the cancelled card. The city officials decided that a protest against the passing of unemployed men over the C. N. R. from Winnipeg should be made to the Minister of Railways at Ottawa.

"We have a Beatty in Canada too," he was told. "E. W. Beatty, the President of the Canadian Pacific. Is he a relative of yours?" "I have often heard of Mr. Beatty," was the reply. "And I look forward to the pleasure of making his acquaintance. But he is not related to me, not so far as I am aware."

"Well he at least wears his hat just as you do."

"Since when?" Lord Beatty inquired.

"Possibly since Jutland" it was suggested.

"You know," Lord Beatty continued. "There are some people who don't understand my wearing my hat that way. They think it is swank but it is not that at all. As a matter of fact I have a lump on my head which prevents me wearing it any other way. If I wear it straight I get a headache."

Lord Beatty will speak at the Canadian Club in Montreal and in Toronto and will also address a public meeting in Ottawa.

Complete arrangements for the trip have not yet been completed, but it is expected the people of all three cities will have opportunity of meeting the hero of Jutland at several public functions.

UP TO PHYSICIANS TO REGULATE PRESCRIPTIONS*Alberta Attorney General Lets Doctors Use Own Description As To Number

(By Canadian Press)
Calgary, Nov. 23.—Physicians and surgeons of Alberta have had it put squarely to them by J. F. Brownlee, Attorney General as to just how many liquor prescriptions each one shall write during a month.

By giving the doctors the choice of writing any where from a minimum of 25 to a maximum of 100 prescriptions a month, the responsibility for prescribing liquor other than for medicinal uses is put squarely on the shoulders of the individual doctor.

There was some talk that the Attorney General's Department was preparing to cut down the number of liquor prescriptions to 25 a month. Instead, the Department chooses the course of leaving it to the doctors themselves.

EARL BEATTY MAY COME TO QUEBEC*British Sea Lord Leaves Washington For Visit To Dominion Today

(Can. Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Nov. 23.—Admiral Lord Beatty when he departs for Canada to-morrow will leave Washington fully satisfied that the discussions concerning limitation of naval armaments have progressed so satisfactorily that there is every promise of an agreement being reached.

This he intimated in an interview with the Canadian Press this afternoon.

Admiral Beatty after his brief trip to the Dominion, which will include visits to Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, and possibly to Quebec, will return at once to London.

"Is it fair to assume that your leaving for Britain indicates that matters have progressed in limitation of armaments?" Lord Beatty was asked.

"Yes, I think that is a fair assumption," he replied. "If matters were not going well I should not go. I should have to stay here. Yes, we have made progress very gratifying progress. You may go so far as to say I leave here with perfect equanimity."

Admiral Beatty stated that he is looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to his visit to Canada. "You may tell the people of Canada that I am particularly gratified that I am to have an opportunity of visiting at least a small portion of that country before returning home," he said.

Interested in Quebec
Though his time was very brief, and his answers to all questions were given in the brisk manner characteristic of the British Sea Lord, Beatty was the soul of courtesy and expressed delight at the opportunity of meeting Canadians. "I have been in Canada," he continued, "but it was very many years ago and I am afraid I don't remember much about that wonderful country of yours. I have always been keenly interested in the Dominion and am glad to have the chance of making closer acquaintance with some of your big cities and with your people. We expect to visit Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa. I would very much like also to see Quebec and if I can arrange it I shall try to spend at least a few hours in that city. I am particularly interested in it because of its historical associations."

"I came into contact with many Canadians during the war," he continued. "Many of them served with the fleet and I must say they made an excellent record."

Incidentally Lord Beatty gave an explanation of his habit of wearing his cap cocked on one side of his head, a characteristic that appears to be a reflection of his genial nature and which has served to add not a little to his popularity with the people of this continent.

He had been speaking of his brother, two of whom made the supreme sacrifice in the war.

"We have a Beatty in Canada too," he was told. "E. W. Beatty, the President of the Canadian Pacific. Is he a relative of yours?" "I have often heard of Mr. Beatty," was the reply. "And I look forward to the pleasure of making his acquaintance. But he is not related to me, not so far as I am aware."

"Well he at least wears his hat just as you do."

"Since when?" Lord Beatty inquired.

"Possibly since Jutland" it was suggested.

"You know," Lord Beatty continued. "There are some people who don't understand my wearing my hat that way. They think it is swank but it is not that at all. As a matter of fact I have a lump on my head which prevents me wearing it any other way. If I wear it straight I get a headache."

Lord Beatty will speak at the Canadian Club in Montreal and in Toronto and will also address a public meeting in Ottawa.

Complete arrangements for the trip have not yet been completed, but it is expected the people of all three cities will have opportunity of meeting the hero of Jutland at several public functions.

MNGHEN ENTERS ON FINAL STAGE OF CAMPAIGN*Premier Held Meetings Yesterday At Arrnprior, Renfrew And Pembroke

(Can. Press Staff Correspondent)
Pembroke, Ont., Nov. 23.—Three meetings, two of them impromptu and the last one in the Armories here, before a gathering of 4,000 people, marked the opening of the final stage of Premier Meighen's strenuous election campaign.

The Premier left the Capital late this afternoon to address a meeting here.

At Arrnprior and Renfrew large crowds had gathered on the platform to hear Mr. Meighen. In the first-named town he spoke briefly from the platform of his car. At Renfrew he addressed his way through a good-natured crowd, which must have numbered some thousand individuals, mounted a baggage truck and delivered an address which was only brought to a close by the warning bell of the locomotive.

When the Premier's train arrived at Pembroke, he was met by a lengthy procession of men and boys bearing torches which escorted him to the Armories. Here he was welcomed by the Mayor and members of the City Council and was presented with the first letter to pass through the city delivery of Pembroke.

Premier Meighen's appeal followed of the lines which he has pursued thus far in his eastern campaign. He devoted some time to a discussion of the railway situation, declaring that a large proportion of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie-King's supporters were opposed to public ownership of railways and that others advocated returning the Government system to political management.

Premier Meighen opened by thanking the Mayor and Members of the City Council for their welcome. He caused some laughter by expressing the hope that the words he was about to utter "would not fall on stony ground" in the mind of Mayor Jones. The Mayor is President of the local Liberal Association.

The Prime Minister stated that through the past years the efforts of the Government had been to help the man behind. Taxes had been levied in such a way as to bear heaviest on the rich and upon those best able to meet them. "In so far as Government can, the Government has endeavored to ensure that the burden of state falls most heavily on the wealthy," the Premier said. In income, corporation and other direct taxation, the sum of eighty-three million dollars had been collected this year as compared with sixty-two millions collected in customs duties.

"Today this country is possessed of the largest single unit and the greatest railway system of any nation, or any private company in the world," the Premier asserted, in discussing the Canadian National Railways. Mr. King's prophecies in regard to the railways are very flamboyant but I have listened to him for nine years and never knew him to be right yet," the Premier continued. He asked what the Liberal Leader would do with the majority of his supporters, who were opposed to public ownership, if returned to power.

The Premier emphasized the importance of continuing the operation of the national system under independent management.

"Today the Canadian National system shows promise of some day reaching that goal which those who worked for its establishment held before their eyes," he said.

Operating revenues were now exceeding expenditures, excellent service was being given to the public, and the day would come when the great load of fixed charges would be removed.

"Many of Mr. King's supporters have threatened to throw the whole system back into politics," said Mr. Meighen.

"Do that and you have headed this Dominion towards bankruptcy," as long as he remained Premier the system would be free of political control, he asserted.

"We have done it by keeping the pledge to wipe patronage out of the Civil Service of Canada," the Premier declared, in giving reasons why the cost of government had increased only 21 per cent in the war days. Another reason why this increase was so small was that every possible expenditure on public works had been cut out.

"A Government does not make itself popular by cutting down public works," the Premier said. "In the Province of Quebec, where Sir Louis Gouin is weeping until he almost melts, over a 21 per cent increase, the increased cost of government was 54 per cent, while Sir Louis himself was Premier."

"The day of real, permanent hard times, of real unemployment in Canada, will come if the policies subscribed to by the Opposition leaders are implemented," Mr. Meighen insisted, in discussing the tariff.

"I have just come from Western Canada," Mr. King has some candidates there—mostly dummies. They are put up to make a showing. Mr.

STRANGLED WOMAN FOR SUM OF $65.*Man Killed Sister-In-Law Because Wife Wanted To Get Job

Chicago, Nov. 23.—A story of heartlessness, poverty and robbery was mixed with that of concern for his wife in the confession today of Thomas Catherwood, 26, that he had strangled his sister-in-law, Mrs. Betty Sharples, to death yesterday while she rocked the cradle of her 13 months old child and worked on tiny garments for another child, expected within a month.

For weeks Catherwood had been out of a job and his wife finally said she would obtain work to support the family. It was concern for his wife and dread of her going to work which Catherwood told the police, forced him to wind a rope about Mrs. Sharples' neck and steal the $65 in her bankbook.

"My poverty worried me," Catherwood told the police. "When my wife said she would get work I could not bear it. Yesterday I went to visit my sister-in-law. A neighbor came to borrow some money and I saw the bankbook. I thought there was at least $200 in it. I picked an argument with Betty and grabbed her by the throat and wound the rope around her neck."

Catherwood was arrested last night, with his brother, while the pair were laughing and joking in a barber shop. "Catherwood seemed to be without feeling in telling his story," Sergeant James Fleming, who made the arrest, said.

NOTHING FURTHER FROM HIS MIND*Than Letting Government Candidate Win Seat From The Liberals

(By Canadian Press)
Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 23.—That nothing was further from his mind than letting any Government candidate win a seat in this election which could be taken by the Liberals, was the statement of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Liberal Leader, to-night in answer to a despatch to the effect that the Liberal candidate in Marquette, Man., had entered the fight to split the vote and let General Hugh Dyer, Government candidate, win. According to the despatch it was said that instructions were issued by Mr. King that a Liberal was to be placed in the field against General Dyer and Hon. J. A. Crerar, to split the vote with that purpose.

"I urged that Liberals be placed in the field everywhere," Mr. King said. "In order that people who believed in Liberal principles might have an opportunity of voting for those principles, but certainly there was no idea of splitting the vote to let any of our opponents win."

U.S. CONGRESS' SESSION OVER*First And Special Term Ended Late Yesterday Afternoon In Washington

Washington, Nov. 23.—The first and special session of the sixty-seventh Congress of the United States ended late today after President Harding had vetted the Capitol and signed measures enacted in the closing hours. The House adjourned at 4:01 and at 4:37 o'clock the Senate quit work.

The special session was called soon after the inauguration of President Harding. It passed legislation embodying virtually all of the executive's legislative requests made in his opening address at a joint session April 12.

Establishment on a technical status of peace with the former Central Powers and enactment of a long train of reconstructional legislation were the principal achievements.

$10,000 DAMAGE WHEN*BARN AND CONTENTS LOST

Capleton, Que., Nov. 23.—The farm of Mr. James O'Connor, of Ascot, was the scene of a destructive fire yesterday when his large barn and contents, including a number of cattle, hay, etc., were destroyed. Only by hard work did a bucket brigade prevent the flames from spreading to his residence and nearby buildings. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

King has virtually abandoned the three Prairie Provinces to the party of Wood and Mr. Crerar. One of his candidates is running in my own constituency. I doubt if he will get a hundred votes. I have one opponent there, and one only the candidate of the Wood-Crerar party," the Premier said.

CRERAR REPLIES TO QUESTIONNAIRE*Farmer Leader Answers Questions Put By G.W.V.A. Dominion Command

(By Canadian Press)
Ottawa, Nov. 23.—Hon. T. A. Crerar, Leader of the National Progressives, has forwarded to C. G. MacNeil, Dominion Secretary of the Great War Veterans Association, his reply to the questions placed before the Leaders of the three Parties by the Dominion Command of the G. W. V. A. The questions asked the Leaders were: If they were in favor of Legislation enabling the permanent addition of the present bonus to the pension rates; if they favored Legislation providing for a monthly pension rate of one dollar per one percent of disability for disabled men; if they favored immediate steps towards the relief of unemployment, housing Legislation with special regard for small holdings, immigration legislation insuring the preservation of British traditions in the national life with rigorous application towards Asiatic immigration and the complete re-establishment of all ex-service men and women.

Mr. Crerar replied: "It seems to me that the first essential is that the different organizations representing the returned men get together on a common program. Speaking for myself alone, I favor the most liberal treatment in meeting their needs, consistent, of course, with the ability of the country to provide for it."

"I may frankly state, however, that I do not feel that I can give specific answers that Legislation would be introduced in respect to the particular questions you ask. Action in this respect would necessarily have to carry the support of the Progressive candidates elected to Parliament and this could only be ascertained after the new Parliament has assembled for business."

"I find myself in cordial sympathy with many of your suggestions and while I cannot promise specifically what the Progressive Party, if returned to power, would do in each of these questions, I can say that, as far as my personal attitude is concerned, I am in full sympathy with anything that will deal fairly and adequately with the problems of our returned men and would give my personal influence and support to that end."

FATAL SHOOTING.

Sydney, N.S., Nov. 23.—William Redmond is dying in Glace Bay Hospital with a bullet in his lung and a foreigner named Genosia held by the police as a result of a shooting at Stirling, near Glace Bay. According to information gathered by the Glace Bay police, Redmond and two companions got into a dispute with Genosia over some articles purchased in his store. Finally the three assaulted Genosia who reached for his gun and fired two shots. The first went wild but the second laid out Redmond whose condition is reported very critical.

LIVELY SCENES AT ST. STANISLAS*Aged Man In Hospital Following Row At Political Meeting

Valleyfield, Q., Nov. 23.—Lively scenes were enacted at the contradictory meeting today at St. Stanislas de Costa between Hon. R. Monty, Government candidate for Beauharnois, and his Liberal opponent, L. J. Papineau, and, as a result, one man in a Montreal Hospital with an arm and leg broken and numerous persons were more or less badly bruised.

The audience for a time after the opening of the debate confined its demonstrations to lusty cheers for the two candidates but, as charge and countercharge waxed more and more fervid, the temper of the gathering gradually rose, until finally a small group broke bounds and charged the platform, proceeding to handle without ceremony anything that came to their hands and in a flash were the center of a swirling throng, in which fists and any other available weapon were freely used. As a result of the fight, Adelard Raymond, 70 years old of St. Stanislas, has been placed in a hospital here with injuries so severe that grave concern is entertained regarding his condition. The aged gentleman is the father of Domat Raymond, proprietor of the Queens Hotel, Montreal. As a result of the outcome of today's meeting Mr. Papineau this evening forwarded the following telegram to Hon. R. Monty:

Hon. R. Monty, Valleyfield: Sir,

Rather than risk the life of the electors of this County and by reason of that which has transpired at the meeting today, where a citizen of seventy years has been taken to the hospital at Montreal, as a result of injuries received at the assembly at St. Stanislas, I shall discontinue the contradictory meetings.

"Yours faithfully,
"L. J. PAPINEAU."

Speaking on the Protection policy Mr. Drapeau stated that since 1878 this policy had brought to Quebec many industries that provided work of all kinds for the workman, while the Liberal policy of "free trade" would rapidly spell disaster for the country. Without protection Canada would be unable to compete with other countries and the majority of the industries will be forced to close down.

Mr. Drapeau ended his speech by asking his organization committee to arrange to have a meeting of the ladies. The women, he said, had the right to vote at this election and it is vital that they hear the important questions of the day discussed.

Mr. Levasseur also spoke a few words in support of the candidature of Mr. Drapeau.

QUEBEC, NOVEMBER 24, 1921.

An amusing situation, illustrative of the unprecedented confusion of policies set forward in the present elections, has developed at Brantford, Ont., an agricultural implement manufacturing centre, where Mr. W. G. Raymond, the Liberal candidate, is making public opinion by an attack upon the Meighen Government for reducing the tariff.

Within a few hours of the delivery of an address by Mr. A. W. Burt, Labor-Farmer candidate in the same riding, who attacked Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, Government candidate, as the "high priest of protection," Mr. Raymond appealed to the same constituency to vote against the Government because it had lowered the Fielding tariff. In his manifesto to the electors, published in The London Advertiser, Mr. Raymond declares:

"The premier claimed that the average duty under the Fielding tariff was 26 per cent, and that under the present Government the average tariff is 21 per cent. Why was the reduction made if, as he claims, the only hope of prosperity in Canada is in the high tariff?"

"The fact is, this average reduction from 26 per cent, to 21 per cent, claimed as such an advantage by Mr. Meighen, has been made at the expense of Canada's industries. For instance, the duty on agricultural implements, binders, etc., was reduced by the present Government from 17 1/2 to 12 1/2 per cent. Was this done in the interests of workingmen? Tractors were made free; cream separators and binder twine also kept on the free list. Millions of dollars were sent to the United States for the purchase of these articles, every dollar of which was paid for labor that might otherwise have been spent in Canada and every dollar that was sent to the United States for these articles helped to swell the balance of trade against us."

"A revenue tariff judiciously applied would have been the means of keeping trade in Canada and bringing work to our factories."

Can Mr. Raymond have seen the tariff plank on which Mr. Mackenzie King and his candidates are appealing to the electors which reads:

"That the best interests of Canada demand that substantial reduction of the burdens of customs taxation be made. . . . That to these ends wheat, wheat flour and all products of wheat, the principal articles of food, the principal articles of food, FARM IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY, FARM TRACTORS, mining, flour and saw-mill machinery be free of customs duty, as well as the raw material entering into same."

In view of that plank, which the Liberal party has solemnly pledged itself to implement by legislation if returned to power, and which has never been repudiated, it is incredible that a Liberal candidate should appeal for a vote against the Government on the ground that it has revised downward the tariff on agricultural implements, which the Liberal party proposes to abolish entirely!

A WORLD RESERVE BANK.

Sir Robert Borden's plan of perpetuating the Washington disarmament conference, by arranging for further conferences at stated intervals has been heartily approved by other delegates of the British Empire. A similar proposal is contained in the Chinese program, and there seems to be a general sentiment in favor of such a provision. In this way, the beginning of a permanent world court, for the regulation of international relationships may yet be established. For the question of armaments embraces many other considerations, which could not be left out of account in deliberations of this kind.

Since the issues are broadening out at Washington, there is a possibility that pressing economic questions will also be considered by the conference before it disperses. In this connection Mr. Frank Vanderlip proposes an international "world reserve bank" in the form of a financial institution, after the pattern of the United States federal reserve bank system, to serve the various countries of the world.

The suggested capital of one billion dollars would be subscribed by the various governments and private banks. At first one-half and later three-quarters of all profits over eight per cent. are to go to the participating governments, for which the banks located in the several countries are to be given extra-territorial rights and are to be protected against discriminating legislation. The Boston Post, in giving its approval of the scheme, remarks:

"By furnishing a pool in which to mass credit, it would accomplish the main thing for which Europe is now looking; and, by using dollar notes as proposed, many of the difficulties of international trade resulting from the depreciated European currencies would be eliminated. And finally, receiving its charter from the League of Nations and tying one country with another in strong financial bonds, such a bank might serve to aid in preventing wars."

WATER POWER IN THE EMPIRE.

A report prepared by the Conjoint Board of Scientific Societies affords striking evidence of British neglect of water-power declares the London Times. A committee has been collecting information from all parts of the world for some time past. At present the water-power immediately available for industrial purposes, estimated in horse-power, amounts to forty-seven millions in Continental Europe, thirty-two millions in the United States, and sixty millions in the British Empire. Europe has developed eighteen per cent, of her possible supply, the United States twenty per cent, and the British Empire only five per cent. Thus, actually and relatively, the British Empire has been the most sluggish in taking advantage of this natural resource. The greatest development in the Empire has been in Canada, and if this country be excluded from the figures, then the remainder of the Empire appears in a still worse position. Out of a possible forty-one millions it is using only 655,000—less than two per cent. To a certain extent the backwardness of the Empire in water-power is due to the abundant coal resources it has enjoyed. But we are coming to a period when conservation of coal is urgent on account of the approaching exhaustion of supplies and the increasing cost of working them. Neglect of alternative sources of power, formerly only wasteful, is now becoming disastrous. The committee recommends the formation of an Imperial Water-Power Board, on the membership of which should be a representative of each of the Dominions and Dependencies. These large schemes of organization, in the opinion of the Times, are not very attractive, and tend to produce documents rather than supplies of the commodity in which they are interested. Hope, rather, is expressed that a wide distribution of the reports of the committee will accomplish its excellent object, by stimulating local initiative.

OUTPUT AND LABOR.

A few months back the Sheffield steel works were brought to a standstill simply because orders were unobtainable at prices compatible with present labor costs. The industrial situation was most serious. In an interesting address delivered to the Industrial League and Council for the Improvement of Relations between Employers' and Employed, a speaker declared that the emergency was as acute as that which led some of the trade unions during the war to suspend certain of the more pernicious of their restrictions on output, and he contended that a similar concession is equally imperative today.

To some extent no doubt, comments Engineering of London, Eng., some of the restrictions at present in vogue originated in the belief that by increasing output some other man would be deprived of a job. In a certain sense this is perfectly true. For example, a South American contract for work to cost half a million on which British firms had tendered, went to America, because although the American mechanic is paid at higher rates than the British, his output is more than proportionately greater, so that the total labor costs are actually lower. In this sense therefore the high output of the American workman deprived Englishmen of a job, and no doubt if English trades unions would agree to promote increased output by their members, German and continental workmen generally would lose jobs which, as matters stand, will eventually be captured by them.

It is remarkable what very curious ideas many workmen possess as to the relative receipts of capital and labor. A few months back a writer in the organ of the British Patternmaker's Society based an argument against payment by results on the hypothesis that in normal conditions, profits were three times the wages cost. On this head some interesting statistics were published in Germany two or three years ago. In these it was shown, taking exceptionally prosperous manufacturing companies paying dividends far above the average, that the divisible profits per employee were some $70 per annum. The average return in Great Britain before the war was, for the engineering trade, from $40 to $45 per employee per annum, and for this return the latter was provided not merely with material, tools, power, light and guidance, but a market was also found for his production, which in the ultimate outcome has to be exchanged for the products of men engaged in other pursuits, or for the services of doctors, journalists, postmen, cinema actors and the like. In short, as the speaker insisted, the consumer is in all cases the real employer, and if the workmen produce goods at prices which as consumers they reject, they are, in fact, refusing to employ themselves.

Some Things the Public Would Like to Know:

An afternoon contemporary asserts that "were it not for the Liberal inducements offered to many of the government candidates this Province would have few or no contests." Are there traitors in the enemy's camp?

Why "A Soldier of Vimy Ridge" who pens a five column "arraignment of Meighen and his coterie of mismanagers" has seen fit to do his sniping from the funk-hole of a nom de plume?

A Verse Or Two

(By Modern Poets)

WOMAN.

She loved him for his laziness, laughing ways:
His youthful scorn for all routine;
His brooding eyes that ever seemed to gaze
At things beyond her, things unseen;
Because he knew what flower had breathed to flower
When softly fell the tears of God;
Because he laughed at wealth and fame and power,
And, laughing still, could kiss the rod;
Because he spoke in tender, touching tone
Of "silent voices" in the trees;
Because he lived in poverty alone—
For these and futile things like these.
Because he loved her—as a loyal friend
To whom his dreams could be confessed—
She loved and married him, that she might mend
His ways and make him like the rest.

MR. KING'S ADVANCES.
(Edmonton Journal).

Mr. Mackenzie King's flirting with the Farmer party during his western tour has been far from adept. One moment he tries to make out how much the Farmers and Liberals have in common and how happy they ought to be together, and the next he upbraids Mr. Cregar and his friends for their obstinacy and thoughtlessness in offering opposition where Liberals are in the field. At Regina Mr. King said he 'did not wish to be understood as threatening the Progressives, but rather as warning them that, if they sought to work with the Liberal party, for the things they hold in common they must seek unity before the election rather than afterwards.' With the election only a little more than two weeks distant, the Cregarites show no signs of seeking the unity which Mr. King holds to be so desirable, so we may put down the match as definitely off.

CANADIAN PATCHES.
(Montreal Herald).

This will be good news to the average ex-serviceman who is very proud of his patch. The history of the Canadian patches is very interesting. Patches first came into being during the battle of the Somme, which was the first occasion on which the British troops attacked in force, and in order to distinguish units at a distance it was decided that the officers and men should all wear a distinguished mark on their sleeves. When the Canadians were ordered down to the Somme, the question arose as to what patches they should wear, and it was left to Major (now Brigadier-General) H. Ingleton Webber, at that time G.S.O.2 of the 1st Division, to devise the patches which were afterwards worn. He worked out an exceedingly clever scheme. In the first place, he took a square of varying colors for the Division—1st Division, Red; the 2nd, dark blue; the 3rd, French gray; the 4th, green. He then took three colors for the Brigades—1st Brigade, green; 2nd, red; 3rd, blue. He had then to form a plan for distinguishing the battalions, which he did as follows: The first battalion of each brigade wore a small circular piece of cloth above Division square; the 2nd battalion a semi-circle; the 3rd, a triangle; and the 4th a small square. In this way, anybody who knew the Canadian markings could tell a man's unit at a glance. Other markings were afterwards used for the railway and other Canadian troops, while the Artillery and other units wore the Divisional markings.

ROTARY CLUB'S WEEKLY LUNCH

Canadian Literature And Authors Subjects Of Speakers
At Chateau Yesterday

The Quebec Rotary Club held its usual weekly lunch meeting yesterday afternoon at the Chateau Frontenac, when the principal speakers were Hon. Frank Carrel and Mr. Joseph Sirois, N.P., who discussed Canadian literature and authors, their struggles and advised that Canadian books by Canadian authors should be more widely read by the Canadian public. Mr. J. A. Larue, President of the Club presided and there were a large attendance of members.

After lunch the President presented the speakers to the meeting referred to the fact that this was Authors' Week and the subject chosen by the speakers that Canadian authors would be interesting as well as apropos. Mr. Sirois speaking in French discussed French-Canadian literature and the struggles of Canadian artists especially poets, and speaking of what should be read said there were the works of the historians: Garnett, Ferland, Chais, Mr. and Mme Gosselin, Roy, Dionne, Proulx, David, Sulte and others.

Those who preferred poetry might choose from Cremazie, Frechette, Gill, Charbonneau, Morin, Chapman, Doucet, and among the latest, especially might the works of Nelligan be given honorable mention. Political economists found food for thought in the books of Bourassa, Lamarche, Montpetit, Perreault, Bouchard and Gerin-Lajoie. Able critics of literature were such men as Abbe Camille Roy, Abbe Anclair, and Charbonneau with his three clever volumes of "Influence Francaise au Canada." Persons with a turn for the romantic and lighter vein might profit in the reading of Gaspé, Mar-nette de Boucherville Gerin-Lajoie and the woman author Laure Conan, whose picturesque little cottage at Murray Bay was so well known to tourists in that part.

An author, who although really French was almost Canadian in his grasp of the mental aspirations of the people of this province (after two months residence here) had produced a book of such great value and merit that two distinguished Canadian scholars had made English translations of it, and sixty thousand copies had sold in old France. W. H. Blake and Sir Andrew MacPhail had both turned out excellent translations of this work, the former already widely known through his own book of French-Canadian woodcraft and lore, "Brown Waters."

The short story writers were especially worthy of notice, Rivard's "La Crie pour les Ames," Frere Victorien, Abbe Groulx and Chouinard, Marquis and Bouchard.

In conclusion, Mr. Sirois appealed to all with a suggestion that, during this present celebration of Authors' week, the English speaking people might buy a few of the works of the French-Canadian authors and the French likewise some of the books by distinguished English pens. Hon. Frank Carrel, addressing the meeting in English referred to the present living Authors' Week which they were celebrating and having for its object the marketing of Canadian books and thus creating a demand for the works of Canadian literature and said he had only to mention a list of some of the most widely read in Great Britain and the United States and in the course of his concluding remarks said:

are to-day enriching ourselves on the spoils.

For this and many other reasons we business men owe much to Canadian literature and in some small measure should be ready to aid our talented authors in making Canada a fruitful literary market. There are many accomplishments and achievements in our commercial life which we are proud of, and which I am sure through the additional pages of Canadian history, we want to pass on to future generations.

As we cherish the valorous and courageous deeds of our forefathers so let us not be ashamed of the part we have played in helping to blaze the long trail of civilization and progress which started over three hundred years ago, from the barren shores of the broad Atlantic, and is stretching itself over the wild and rocky continent, to the Western slopes, so softly kissed by the waters of the Pacific.

SNOW REMOVAL
ON THE TAPISRoads Committee Decides
Streets In Which The Service Will Be Given

It was decided by the Roads Committee last night that the service of snow removal will be given this winter, apart from the streets already included in the by-law on Grande Allee, St. Louis street, D'Auteuil street, Dalhousie, St. Joseph, St. Paul, St. Andrew and St. Peter, while several other streets may be added to this list later on.

In order to sound the views of the rate-payers in this connection the city prepared lists which they circulated for signature. In the above streets the majority of the people signed in favor of the municipalization of the service and in consequence the service will be given.

Tenders were also received from snow contractors for the work in the various streets and these prices will be studied to-day by the Mayor the Chairman of the Committee and the aldermen of each ward in which the service is to be given by the city to allot the work for the different contractors according to the lowest prices.

In Limousin Ward, where lists were circulated by the city, the people signed against the service. On Crown street, in the city, for instance, out of 63 people seen, only 3 signed in favor of the service. On Lachetrotte only ten signed in favor.

Permission will again be given to the C.P.R. to erect a toboggan slide and to make a skating rink on Dufferin Terrace.

A request was received from the Battledfields Park Commission to be relieved of paying for the City snow service on St. Louis and St. Foy roads.

Ald Leasage argued that if this were granted the people of Bellevue Ward would be obliged to pay for it and this would not be fair. The request was accordingly refused.

RED CROSS HAS CLOSED QUARTERSIn Immigration Building For
The Winter—Miss Gregory
Moved To St. John

The arrival of the C.P.R. Ltd. steamer Cordoba at Quebec on Monday night last, and the landing of 451 third class passengers from the vessel brought to a close the arrival of new settlers into Canada, via the St. Lawrence route for 1921. Though the immigration was not half as large in volume as in previous years the work carried on by the Government Immigration office at the port as also that of railway and steamship officials was thoroughly efficient and in all respects satisfactory. One of the most pleasing features connected with the arrival and inspection of immigrants at Quebec, was the child welfare work carried on during the season under the auspices of the Provincial Red Cross Society, an innovation which was highly appreciated by the newly arrived mothers and their children who were hospitably received and cared for, while waiting to be entrained and forwarded to their destinations.

The quarters for the work conducted by the Red Cross in the Immigration building, were provided by the Government, and the expense involved was highly appreciated by the Provincial Red Cross Society. Miss Gregory of St. John, with Miss Dionne of Montreal were the Red Cross nurses who had charge with three helpers to assist them in carrying on the work, the extent of which can be gauged, when it is said that 100 passenger liners arrived and landed immigrants to Canada and the port of Quebec during the season, and the Red Cross cared for no less than 3,000 little children, besides attending to fatigued or unwell mothers during the season. There were a dozen beds in the Red Cross quarters for the accommodation of infants or small children who needed attention while waiting to be entrained. During the season no fewer than 300 children with ailments were carefully looked after by the nurses, and, in case future attention should be needed, the Misses Gregory and Dionne as the patients left for their destinations furnished cards of recommendation to the Red Cross Stations organized at the various cities, towns and villages where the new arrivals were "hooked for settlement, and where the little ones would receive further attention.

The Quebec Red Cross quarters, did not do things half way. The Provincial Society were unsparing in expense to provide as much as possible for the care and comfort of the mothers and their children, tea coffee cake, toast, marmalade and milk were always on hand in abundance and mothers were supplied with nourishment as well as their children. The Misses Gregory and Dionne, with their attentions, have earned the love and respect of the new arrivals, who had never in the least anticipated such a welcome, with homelike comforts as was accorded them by the Red Cross.

The quarters which were a combination of reception room, tea room and children's nursery with candles and milk galore for the little tots, were closed yesterday afternoon when the nurses and their helpers packed away the equipment and locked the doors until next Spring, when they will renew their activities for the navigation season of 1922. Miss Gregory leaves this afternoon for St. John, N.B. where she will supervise the same commendable work during the coming winter, while Miss Dionne returns to her home in Montreal. On saying good-bye at the Immigration building yesterday all the officials in the building who had had acquaintance of the work done by these young ladies during the past summer, wished them God-speed, and a return to Quebec next season.

WILL CHOO TONG
HANG ON DEC. 16?Plans Of Maskinonge As Well
As Evidence Of Trial, Going
To Ottawa

Will Choo Tong pay the supreme penalty for the murder of five of his countrymen on the S.S. Maskinonge on the morning of August 27 last as the vessel was moored in the St. Lawrence.

It will be remembered that the unfortunate Chinaman was tried and convicted of the murder, despite the fact that during the whole of his trial he protested his innocence, and claimed that one of the witnesses, Ah Sing, did the shooting.

At the conclusion of the trial, on October 16 last, after he had been found guilty, he was sentenced to be hanged on December 16.

Now the plans of the Maskinonge, as well as the whole of the evidence that was adduced during the trial, is being forwarded to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa, and it seems as if a strong effort is being made to secure a commutation of sentence for the doomed man.

WANTS TO TELL
EVERYONE OF ITEverybody Ought To Know
About Tanlac, Declares
Montreal Man—His Own
Case Remarkable

"I just want to tell what has happened to me since taking this Tanlac, for it's a medicine I believe everybody ought to know about," said Wilfrid Gagnon, of 1379 City Hall St., Montreal, well known bricklayer.

"Before I got Tanlac my appetite was so poor I could scarcely eat a thing, and even then I suffered so from indigestion that I had rather go without eating than endure the awful bloating and pain that I knew was sure to follow. My nerves were unstrung and I was too restless to get much sleep. I was losing weight, was so weak and worn out my work was mighty hard for me, and I was getting worse all the time."

"One night I read the statement of a man who had been relieved of troubles like mine by taking Tanlac and that decided me to try it. The very first bottle made me feel a lot better, and I kept on with the medicine until five bottles have made me feel like an altogether new person. I eat good and hearty of just anything I want and my stomach never gives me a bit of trouble. I sleep good at night, don't have any trouble in doing my work, and feel fine. Tanlac alone is responsible for my good health, and I can't say enough for it."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists and general merchants everywhere.

WOMEN TEACHERS
HEARD SPEAKERSMessrs. Delany And Power
Addressed Protestant Assn.

Yesterday Afternoon

The 2nd regular meeting of the Protestant Association of Women Teachers of Quebec, was held in the commissioners' High School yesterday afternoon at 3.30.

From a half hour business meeting the teachers turned to listen to two excellent and instructive addresses from representatives of both Government and Opposition parties, the former Mr. Thos. Delany, the latter Mr. C. Power representatives for Quebec South.

Mr. Power outlined freely the essential differences between Liberal and Conservative points of view in politics and followed with an outline of the present political situation as viewed by his party.

Mr. Delany explained briefly his recent appearance in the political arena, and assured his hearers that he would honestly endeavor to support the best interests of the country, if elected to power.

The speakers were introduced by Miss Mabel Fraser, B.A., President of the Association. She reminded the audience that in holding this meeting they were but keeping in line with the efforts of women all through Canada, who were genuinely interested in the political situation and determined to exercise the franchise in an enlightened and unpartial way as possible.

The audience, which included not only Association members, but also members of the Protestant Board of School Commissioners, their wives and friends, evinced the keenest interest in the remarks of both speakers and joined most heartily in seconding the vote of thanks proposed by Miss Heenson, seconded by Miss Macfarlane. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, after which tea was served in the Teachers' Rest Room.

Hard To Guess What Judge Landis Will Hand The "Babe"

From scanning the record of Judge Landis, both on the bench and as baseball's high commissioner, it is harder than ever to guess what will befall Babe Ruth for his barnstorming escapade. A deliver into the high up and low down on Judge Landis has brought out the following dope: As a United States judge he fined the Standard Oil of Indiana $28,240,000 in a rebate case, though the decision was afterward reversed.

He sentenced 94 I.W.W. leaders to prison for obstructing war preparations, and the decision was upheld.

He sentenced a Milwaukee congressman and six Social club leaders on the same charge, but the case was sent back for a new trial.

He sent a wealthy westerner to prison for eight years for selling cattle infected with tuberculosis, and when President Wilson pardoned the prisoner, Landis remarked that somebody had slipped a fast one over on the president.

He fined a travelling salesman one cent for sending bills through the mails in transparent envelopes.

He sentenced a government clerk to one hour in the county jail for robbing the mails because "it might mean death to some one else."

He sent home for the Christmas holidays a boy who had confessed to series preliminary contests.

To further bring the details of world series plans to a head, it is agreed that, to participate in the major post-season games, players in all leagues shall have been signed with their respective clubs prior to February 15 to make them eligible to represent any club in the big doings.

THE MEETING OF THE CITY HOCKEY LEAGUE WHICH WAS HELD AT THE VICTORIA HOTEL LAST EVENING WAS NOT AS STORMY AS WAS EXPECTED. SOME DISCUSSION AROSE OVER CHANGING THE RULE ALLOWING TEN MEN TO BE SIGNED BY EACH CLUB TO TWELVE, BUT ANDED WHEN VICE-PRESIDENT W. T. EGAN, WHO OCCUPIED THE CHAIR IN THE ABSENCE OF PRESIDENT JOE LEDDEN, CAST THE DECIDING VOTE, UPHOLDING THE TEN MEN RULE PASSED AT THE PREVIOUS MEETING.

All four teams, Sons of Ireland, Sarsfields, Loyola and Laval were represented at the meeting and handed in the deposits and guarantees for the season.

The Sons of Ireland delegate then brought up the question of increasing the number of players to be signed by each club to twelve instead of ten. The latter number was decided upon by the teams at the meeting held on the 14th instant by a vote of three to one, the Sons being the only club against the motion.

The Sarsfields were strictly against the rule being changed. A vote was taken to settle the matter and resulted in a tie, Sons of Ireland and Loyola being for the change and Sarsfields and Laval being against. It was then up to the Vice-President to settle the matter and he decided that as the rule was made at the previous meeting with only one dissenting team he could do nothing else but decide on the ten men rule remaining in force.

Before adjourning a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. H. Fontaine for kindly placing a room at the disposal of the meeting.

Montreal, Nov. 23—A joint slate of officers representing the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association and the recently formed University A. A. was agreed upon at a meeting of the executive of the M. A. This means that when next football season opens the combined strength of both aggregations will be pooled to put a representative Montreal football team into the "big four."

CANNOT GIVE FAMINE FIGURES

Numerical And Geographical Extent In Russia Unknown
—Food Available

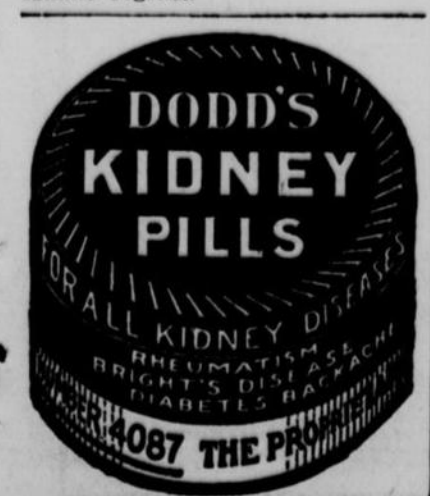

Samara, On the Volga, Oct. 27.—(By Staff Correspondent of Ass'd. Press)—The numerical and geographical extent of the great famine cannot be given. There is today and has been as much food available in Samara for those who have money, as in Baku, on the Caspian Sea, 2,000 miles distant. The Russian refugees from Bolshevism in Constantinople are suffering from hunger and lack of clothes almost as much as those Russians in Poltava and they in their turn as much as those in Orenburg.

The Associated Press correspondent completed a journey from Constantinople to Moscow by way of Tiflis, Baku, Astrakhan and Samara and everywhere found intense misery, the most sordid of which was seen in the dreary steppe region between Tiflis (Georgia) and Baku (port of Azerbaijan on the Caspian Sea).

There revolution after revolution, for five years has left a trail of destruction and ruined houses and wrecked railway stations which can not be matched in Russia. Added to the lack of food, is the constant battle with malaria, cholera, and typhus, and added to these is the cold against which there is little shelter or fuel.

No more pathetic sight was seen than that of the Baku central railway station where thousands of men, women and children, going nobody could say where, were camped on dirty sidings, for the most part dressed in rags and eating scraps of food like hunted animals.

To the north along the Volga in Russia, the misery is often of the respectable, cleanly kind. At Saratov thousands of families are living in railway cars. Others have been housed in villas and palaces. Begging is rather the exception than the rule everywhere in the famine regions.

The German colonist villages and towns along the Volga are so cleanly and orderly, surrounded by such florid luxuriance of field and forest, that it is hard to believe their people are suffering from hunger. As everywhere in Russia, the churches are open, and services are held. At Volok when the correspondent attended vespers, he was followed out of the church by one of the priests who begged that food come from America before his people starved.

In the worst areas there is far more hunger, swelling than was seen in Vienna in the winter of 1918. This is the last stage of starvation and when it comes neither food nor medicine will help.

The majority of such cases are to be seen in the cities about the railway station, in the trains or about the landing stages and on the steamers of the Volga, where hundreds of thousands of peasant wanderers are seeking to reach friends in districts where they imagine food conditions are better. The government is trying to discourage such wanderings but they are continuing.

The distances made by peasant families are incredible. At Saratov, about the river front, may be met families from Orenburg going towards the Ukraine, where the crops did not fail, and then families from Astrakhan going up river to some one of the German villages such as Volok or Barnov.

While there is perfect order in all Russia, on every hand the individual struggle for life, for daily food, is bitter and hard. No one thinks of anyone else. Robbery is limited, as robbers are shot when caught, but trickery in small trading is the rule. A warm place to sleep, something to eat, and clothing are the beginning and end of daily life. Children are brushed aside, ignored or treated like little animals.

A person invited to a meal will eat twice what good manners would permit. He is laying in a stock of food, building up his body, he figures, for the winter cold. Those with money are hoarding food. In some places peasants refuse to sell bread at any price. They are afraid of the winter famine.

WON'T LET "PEACE" INTO CONFERENCE.

Washington, Nov. 23.—(By Canadian Press)—Dress in white from head to foot, with a dove decorating her hat, a woman appeared among the crowd which congregates daily before the building where the delegates to the Conference on the Limitation of Armament meet. In one hand she carries the U.S. flag, and in the other a placard with "Peace" in large letters. At one of the full sessions she made repeated efforts to gain admission, but as she had no card she could not get past even the outer guard.

"I represent Peace," she wailed, "and they won't let me in."

STRIKING AN AVERAGE.
"Why do you occupy two seats?" asked the straphanger.
"To even things up," answered the grumpy man. "Half the time I don't get any seat at all."—Toledo Blade.

RAPID WORK AT THE CONFERENCE

Expert Shorthand Men Take Down Speeches And Transcribe Them Afterwards

Washington, Nov. 23.—(By Canadian Press)—Members of the various delegations at the Conference on the Limitation of Armaments and Far Eastern Problems, as well as the press correspondents who are gathered here from all quarters of the world have been struck with the speed with which the official communiques of the various sessions are issued and the accuracy of the reports of the proceedings of the open meetings of the conference.

The open sessions as a rule adjourn at about one o'clock. By 2:30 a complete report of the proceedings, including a verbatim transcript of all the speeches, is in the hands of every delegate and newspaperman accredited to the conference. This report is printed on a manifold machine, and is in English. There are copies in French for those who desire them.

The system employed is very similar to that by which the Hansard reports of the proceedings of the Canadian House of Commons are prepared. Expert stenographers, sitting at a special table in the conference room, take notes for stated intervals, transcribing their notes immediately upon being relieved by other shorthand men. The French speeches are taken by French shorthand men and are afterwards translated.

Credit for the excellent way in which the French portions of the reports have been handled is due to a special staff of Canadian shorthand and translation experts who were brought from Montreal and Ottawa to handle this part of the work. They are Marcel Gahard, J. H. Mackay, Marcel Bernard and Miss F. Mackay. Several of them have worked on the Hansard staff at Ottawa, where they gained their experience in rapid transcription and translation work. The Canadians handle all of the French part of the sessions. A staff of seven U.S. stenographic experts look after the English end of the work.

One of the most interesting features of the routine of the conference proceedings is the remarkable work of Professor Camerlynck, for many years language specialist at the University of Paris, who is here in the capacity of chief interpreter. Professor Camerlynck is a rapid-fire translator and something of an orator as well. He takes notes of all the English speeches in French shorthand. Immediately the speaker concludes he delivers the speech to the conference in French for the benefit of the delegates who understand only that language. The French speeches he also jots down and as soon as the speaker finishes he is ready with an excellent literal translation for the benefit of those who understand only English. In re-delivering the speeches in the reverse language he misses no single point of emphasis and even supplies graceful and eloquent gestures to fit the words. In fact, it has been remarked that Professor Camerlynck's eloquence frequently exceeds that of the original speaker.

Professor Camerlynck's whole life has been devoted to the study of languages. He has been associated with the University of Paris for years. During the war he was at the front as interpreter between the British and French army officials. After the armistice he was interpreter for several commissions and later acted in the same capacity for the Allied Supreme Council and gained a wide experience in international discussions at Paris, London, Spa and Geneva.

N.S. APPLES GOT THE FIRST PRIZE

At The Recent Imperial Fruit
Show Held In London, England

Halifax, Nov. 23.—Nova Scotia box apples took first prize at the recent Imperial fruit show in London, England, an achievement indicative of the recent rapid progress of apple culture in this Province. Ten years ago Nova Scotia apples had a rather poor reputation, and on the British markets were bringing from four to ten shillings less per barrel than Ontario or British Columbia apples. About that time the Dominion Government, the Nova Scotia Government, and the Canadian Pacific Railway, which controls the railroad running through the Annapolis Valley, inaugurated a campaign to stimulate interest in improving the methods of maintaining and caring for orchards, and developing a better quality of fruit. Five years later Nova Scotia had become an important factor in the barrel apple market, but there were still horticulturists who doubted that this province would ever be able to compete successfully in the box apple trade. Careful cultivation and free use of sprays and insecticides have, however, made a notable improvement in the productivity and quality of Nova Scotia apples. For three years now the Province has had large apple crops of an excellent quality, and the orchardists have come to believe that with proper care, apple orchards can be educated out of the old habit of having full crop one year and a poor crop the next.

This season Nova Scotia has sold an unusual quantity of apples in the American market, and the fruit growers expect to dispose of the balance at good prices in the British market. The crop is estimated at 1,500,000 barrels, and it is expected to yield the producers a profit of $3.00 per barrel, clear of culls.

RE-NAMING OF VON TIRPITZ

C.P.S. Ltd. Call Ex-German
Liner Empress Of Australia
Now

The C. P. S. Ltd. announces the re-naming of the ex-German liner Tirpitz, which was recently purchased from the Reparations Commission and was named the Empress of China, has changed the name to the Empress of Australia. The new Empress, it is stated, will be placed in commission some time next summer in the Canadian Pacific's service between Vancouver, Victoria and ports in the Orient.

The Empress of Australia is practically a new ship, having been in the builders' hands at the outbreak of war. She is now at Hamburg, being converted by her builders into an oil-burner, after which she will be similar in equipment and standard to the Empress of Britain. A twin-screw steamship of 19,300 gross tons, 558 feet in length, 75 in breadth and 41 in depth, the new Empress of Australia will prove a notable addition to the company's Pacific fleet, which already includes the 16,850 ton liners Empress of Russia and Empress of Asia. She is expected to maintain a speed of 22 knots, and will be able to accommodate 410 first-class, 130 second-class, 330 third-class and 1,000 Asiatic steamer passengers.

B.C. GRANITE OFF FOR AUSTRALIA

A large consignment of British Columbia granite was shipped to Australia by the C.G.M.M. steamer Australia Transporter, which left Vancouver at noon on Sunday, November 20th. The shipment was from the Granite Island Quarries, Jervis Inlet, and was made by the Granite Island Quarries, Ltd. The consignment is considered to be the entering wedge to an extensive market that is being opened to British Columbia granite in the Antipodes. It followed the shipment of specimens of the stone some months ago, and will be used in New Zealand and Australia for monumental and ornate building purposes. It was favored for its superior coloring, freedom from rust stain and other qualities. The quarries expect to make more distant shipments before long.

In addition to the granite, the Transporter carried 3,000,000 feet of lumber and shipments of general. The C.G.M.M. steamer Canadian Freighter, which ran her trials at Vancouver yesterday, will be commissioned in three weeks' time. The installation of the refrigerator system has yet to be carried out. Kidston & Co., of Montreal, are doing this work. The Freighter is the last of the C.G.M.M. ships to be turned out on this coast.

MOTOR BOAT HAS COME INTO PROMINENCE

The motor boat Curcelle D'Orleans, in charge of Captain Heffell, has come into prominence at Matane for its weekly service between that harbor and Seven Islands, and calling at intermediate ports. This motor boat commenced its running in April last to the 20th of November, during which period it made 28 trips, and carrying besides over 1,000 passengers on all these trips many hundreds of tons of freight. The people on the North Shore appreciated the service and would like it also to carry mail.

SHAVING PAPER CAUSED TROUBLE

Trip Over Mountain Trails Of Balkans Bring Thrills To Travellers

Rome, Nov. 23 — A package of shaving paper in his baggage nearly caused John F. Carter, Williams-town, Mass., formerly in the American diplomatic service, who has just returned from a pleasure trip through Albania and Montenegro to be arrested as a spy when crossing the Montenegrin frontier. Jugo-Slav officials, because of the present hostilities with Albania, and internal troubles in Montenegro, were very suspicious of the traveler and pounced upon the roll, the like of which they had never seen before, as incriminating evidence, but as the closest scrutiny failed to reveal the expected secret message, they finally allowed Carter to pass but only after having subjected all his belongings to an equally rigid search.

Jugo-Slavia which has many troops, including 15,000 of the former Wrangel army, massed in northern Albania, can occupy the country at any time it wishes, but will have great difficulty in holding it, Carter says. Albania has only 4,000 soldiers and no artillery, but all the men are armed and the mountaineers can carry on a guerrilla war for a long time.

Fighting is going on now and only the lake separates the Serbs from Scutari, the most important Albanian city. Jugo-Slavia apparently is using the Wrangel refugees as shock troops.

Claim Albanian Territory.

While the immediate aim of the Serbs is to hold the Drin River as a frontier line, Carter believes they hope to take all of Albania. Their claim to the Drin boundary is based simply on the fact that during the war the French general, Esperey, allowed them to occupy that section of Albanian territory. The hope of Albania lies in the League of Nations, but nothing has yet been seen of the commission the League sent to investigate the situation.

While Italy is opposed to Jugo-Slav ambitions on the Adriatic, the Albanians are afraid of help from that quarter, suspecting that the Italians are not disinterested themselves.

Meanwhile Albania's provisional cabinet form of government is maintaining fairly good internal order.

One thing the Albanians and Jugo-Slavs share in common, and which distinguishes them from nearly all other European peoples, is admiration for President Wilson, who has lost none of his original popularity, Carter says. The people also are very grateful for the work being done by the American Red Cross.

If the Slavs will leave Albanian alone he thinks the country has a future, as it is naturally rich and the people are intelligent, though uneducated. He encountered many Albanians who had gone to America as emigrants, had picked up the worst side of American life and who now formed a possibly dangerous element in some of the country, running down the native institutions, seeking concessions and hoping to accomplish far-reaching reform overnight.

Carter, who left Montenegro a few days before a Soviet Republic is reported to have been proclaimed there, declared the Montenegrins are greatly dissatisfied with Slav rule, blaming the government for many things for which the natural poverty of the country itself is responsible. There is a strong movement in favor of the old independent regime and also much communism.

lem, but the government, which has stationed many troops in the region has the situation well in hand. "In a day's trip crossing the Adriatic, one leaves centuries behind," said Miss Edna St. Vincent.

REDUCTION OF NEWSPRINT HAD LITTLE EFFECT ON THE PULP AND PAPER SHARES

Most Of These Issues But Slightly Traded In On Montreal Exchange—Day Was Comparatively Quiet One—Detroit United Made Gain Of Four Full Points By Close

(Canadian Press.)
Montreal, Nov. 23.—The feature of an otherwise comparatively quiet day on the local stock exchange was the reporting of two one-half-cent shares of Detroit at 27 and the other of Brompton at 25, unconfirmed gossip accounting for the transactions with the customary suggestion that they were due to the shifting of some large account.

The reduction in the price of newsprint announced yesterday had little effect on the pulp and paper shares, most of them being but slightly traded in.

Brompton, as noted, was the leader of the group with transactions of 1,500 shares on which it sold off at 24 to 24 1/2.

Spanish River, preferred, made the most conspicuous loss of the day.

Davidson Chemical, acted tired and sold off near a point of nearly 8 points from Saturday's high. Some good selling was reported in this stock in the run up of Friday and Saturday.

Both Pullman and Haskell were sold following the announcement of the proposed merger terms indicating profit-taking and perhaps some dissatisfaction on both sides.

The Steels, outside of U. S. Steel, are unlikely to develop any extensive advance, their movement depending largely on the general trend.

International Nickel preferred and common were both weak. There has been selling of both issues since the publication of the annual report.

Although the outlook for the railroads is "more encouraging now than it has been since the Federal control period," according to one executive across the line, statistics just published by the Bureau of Railway Economics indicate that only a vigorous trade revival can bring many of the carriers out of the deficit column. This report shows that 36 of the 201 Class I railroads of the country that have reported for September had operating deficits for the month. Of these, 18 were in the Eastern district, 10 in the Southern and eight in the Western. In August, it was shown, there were 54 roads reporting operating deficits. The Interstate Commerce Commission's figures on September earnings showed net operating income for all of the Class I roads combined—except the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton, which has not yet reported—as amounting to $87,174,000, or an annual rate of 4.6 percent on the property valuation.

LIBERTY BONDS EXTENSIVELY BOUGHT AT YEAR'S HIGHEST QUOTATIONS ON N.Y. MARKET

Share List Showed No Material Alteration From Recent Professional And Uncertain Conditions—Dealings In Rails Unusually Contracted

New York, Nov. 23.—Extensive buying of Liberty Bonds at the year's highest quotations featured the day on the stock exchange, the share list showing no material alteration from recent professional and uncertain conditions. The demand for liberty issues, which had extended to other bonds, notably several of the foreign war flotations seemed to emanate from substantial sources and again was accompanied by indications of easier money. Demand loans opened at 5 per cent. but the light inquiry at that figure soon forced the rate down to 4 1/2, with the usual ease from that quotation in private offerings.

Much money was available for one to two month accommodations and concessions were made on high grade commercial paper.

Concurrent short selling and consisting in stocks of the same descriptions made for confusion throughout the session.

The only issues to register more than nominal changes, mostly upward, were specialties of the utility, chemical and minor industrial types.

Dealings in rails were unusually contracted and many popular industrial, such as steels, equipments and motors, held within fractional bounds, while oils reflected profit taking over the impending holiday.

Sales amounted to 675,000 shares. Remittances to neutral countries particularly Holland and Sweden, at gains of 15 to 20 points, featured the foreign exchanges.

Sterling was firm, but rates to the other Allied countries showed further heaviness.

In addition to the five Liberty issues which scored maximum prices, French municipals displayed marked strength. Many domestic rails, especially convertible issues, were at their top prices for a year or more. Total sales, par value, aggregated $20,760,000.

Dustin Farnum Opens in "The Primal Law" at Empire Today

"The Primal Law," dealing with the wonderful friendships of a child and the bitter struggle of men for the possession of valuable oil lands in the West, and presenting Dustin Farnum in the stellar role, will be the attraction at the Empire Theatre today. This star long has been popular in a wide variety of characters, winning fame as a matinee idol as well as in the role of rugged adventurers.

In "The Primal Law" Dustin Farnum appears as half owner of Willow Ranch, a property sought for some mysterious purpose by a band of unprincipled conspirators. He becomes involved in fierce fighting and an interesting romance. Throughout he is the big pal of little Bobbie Carson, the motherless son of his partner, whom he is pledged to guard against the strange menace of circumstances.

The element of mystery is effectively developed, it is stated, and suspense admirably sustained. The arrival of the lovely eastern girl presents the possibility of a love theme, which develops in dramatic fashion, interwoven with stirring events growing out of the activities of the plotters.

The role of Brian Wayne is one which gives Dustin Farnum excellent opportunities for the display of his versatility and dramatic ability. The star is ably supported by Mary Thurman as leading woman, Harry Dunkinson, Philo McCullough, Frankie Lee, Mme. Marstini and others.

"Bob Hampton of Placer," a Big Special, at Classic Today

One of the finest motion pictures of the year and one of the most artistic and fascinating contributions ever made to the screen is "Bob Hampton of Placer" produced and directed by Marshall Neilan which opens at the Empire tonight.

The production is adapted from the Randall Parrish story of the same name. It not only tells a delightful story of love and adventure but also immortalizes on the screen one of the most picturesque chapters of American history.

The undying fame which General Custer won in his last stand against the Sioux tribes under Sitting Bull is given a new lustre in this screen version, which reproduces the Battle of the Little Big Horn.

And through it all runs an absorbing plot, interpreted by an exceptional cast. James Kirkwood plays the title role, and Marjorie Daw has the feminine lead. Pat O'Malley has the part of a gallant and love-lorn officer of Custer's staff. And the smiling and be-freckled countenance of Master Wesley Barry shines throughout this exceptional First National attraction. The production was photographed among the scenic grandeur of Glacier National Park and on the actual scenes of General Custer's gallant fight against the Indians.

Nazimova in "Billions" Begins Three Days Run at Victoria

NAZIMOVA WILL BE THE FEATURED PLAYER AT THE VICTORIA THEATRE TODAY IN "BILLIONS" A REMARKABLY FINE PRODUCTION.

"Billions" narrates an extremely interesting love story. The Princess Triloff, worshipped by Owen Carey, an indigent poet, suddenly becomes wealthy when her husband, from whom she has been estranged, is assassinated in Russia. At the same time a legacy to the poet makes him a multi-millionaire.

Spending their newly acquired wealth, their paths lead to a fashionable winter resort in southern California, where they are introduced and promptly decide they were made for each other. But plotters are at work to mulct the millionaire of some of his wealth by blackmail, and the Princess risks her reputation in a daringly sensational scene, to save the poet from scandal.

Mr. Bryant the adapter, is Nazimova's leading man and others in the splendid supporting cast are William J. Irving, Victor Potel, John Stepping, Marian Skinner, Bonnie Hill, Emmett King and Eugene H. Klum. On the same bill Buster Keaton in "The Goat."

The Season.

For a week past the ground in this city has been partially covered with snow, particularly in high situations, the low ground remaining perfectly bare. At the foot of the mountains the snow is between a foot and a half and two feet deep. There is yet no appearance of a speedy interruption of navigation by the formation of ice on the river.

Port of Quebec.

The total number of vessels that arrived at this port during this season was 420. Number of settlers 8,050.

Several of the steam-boats have made their last trip to this port for the season, and communication by water with Montreal will be entirely closed by the middle of next month.

CONFERENCE CONCLUDES

WORK IN AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, Nov. 23.—The Inter-State Labor Conference has terminated its proceedings by adopting a proposal of Premier Theodore, of Queensland, in favor of making the commonwealth the supreme governing authority of Australia, with unlimited powers, states to have only such functions as the commonwealth confers, and the commonwealth to have the right to create new states.

The scheme, which is a drastic form of unification, provides for the abolition of the Senate, the vesting of the final jurisdiction in all causes in the High Court, and disallowing the acceptance of Imperial honors in any circumstances by any Australian citizen.

WOMEN'S PRISON CLOSED

Carlisle, Eng., Nov. 23.—In consequence of a decrease in the number of women convicts, the women's prison here is closed. Recent years have seen a gradual closing down of the prison for women in this country and there are now only 25 left of 100 which were in existence some years ago.

Women prisoners have decreased from 3,100 in 1914 to 1,200 in October, 1920.

The Shoe Trade.

The price of leather is still going up and the market continues firm. In consequence the boot and shoe manufacturers have raised the price of shoes from 5 to 15 cents per pair. The export of leather from Quebec, which has greatly diminished of late, because the buyers in England did not give satisfaction to the exporters, is increasing as there is a great demand for leather in England just now. Boot and Shoe manufacturers have numbers of orders ahead of them from jobbers.

Hymen Busy.

There were over two dozen marriages in town yesterday, seventeen of them being in St. Sauveur. The near approach of Advent is causing would-be benedicts to hurry up.
