MAN INJURED WHEN HE RUNS INTO VEHICLE

John Nutter Slightly Hurt in Accident at Corner of Sherbrooke and Victoria

John Nutter, of 453 Mount Pleasant Avenue, sustained minor injuries when he ran around the back of a street car into the path of a truck driven by Alex. Wm. Pickett, 20183 Lakeshore Road, Baie D'Ur, at the corner of Sherbrooke street and Victoria avenue, at 8.20 a.m. on Sunday. The injured man was taken to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital by Sgt. C. Baker in a police radio car. Following treatment there by Dr. Church he was allowed to return home but advised to return in the morning for an x-ray.

According to information obtained by police the accident occurred as Nutter, who had alighted from a west-bound tram car on Sherbrooke, ran a short distance beside the tram and then cut around behind it into the path of the truck which was proceeding east on Sherbrooke and about to turn north on Victoria.

CARS DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Fenders on both machines were damaged when an automobile driven by Frederick Parker, 810 Upper Belmont Avenue, collided into the rear of a car operated by Douglas Clark, 4672 Victoria Avenue, opposite 3185 The Boulevard at 5.45 p.m. last Thursday. Clark told police who investigated the mishap that his car was struck in the rear by Parker's car as he was pulling to a stop behind a street car.

The left front mudguard on Parker's machine was damaged as were the rear fender and tail-light on the other car.

The organizing committee in charge of the event is composed of: C. E. C. Rush, chairman, Miss Eileen Johnston, Miss Beryl Stevens, Miss Morrison, Evan C. McCormick, J. H. Richardson and J. N. Parker. Permission for the various units to appear has been given by the following officers: Scouts, Cubs and Sea Scouts, H. F. King, Commissioner for Westmount; Girl Guides and Brownies, Mrs. J. E. L. Hellyer, district leader; Boys Brigade, J. H. Richardson, commander; and Y.M.C.A., H. A. Noble, physical instructor.

Slight Damage Caused To Cars

Slight damage was caused both vehicles when an automobile driven by Mrs. D. G. Chick, of 660 Victoria Avenue, and a car driven by Leo Demarais, 578 St. Ferdinand street, collided opposite 660 Victoria Avenue on Friday at 4:10 p.m.

The accident occurred as Mrs. Chick, who was going north on Victoria, attempted to turn left into a driveway leading to a garage adjoining her house. The car driven by Demarais, also going north, struck the rear of her machine.

The left rear fender and hub cap on Mrs. Chick's car were damaged while the right front fender, headlights, and bumper on the other car were dented. No one was injured.

SCHOOL GROUPS APPROVE PLAN OF NEW SET-UP

King's Home and School Association Endorses Move to Transfer Classes to Different Building

When questioned yesterday S. F. Kneeland, secretary of the Protestant School Board, stated that the board had not yet received the resolutions of the home-school associations and therefore no comment could be made on them by that body.

King's Westmount Home and School Association adopted a resolution at a meeting Monday night endorsing the proposal to transfer all pupils of seven, eighth and ninth grades to the Westmount High School building and the 10th and 11th grades to the Argyle School and thus put in operation the junior high school plan generally known as the 6-3-3 plan.

Presented by Dugald Nasmith and seconded by H. C. Todd, it read: "That the King's Westmount Home and School Association goes on record as heartily commending the report of the Roslyn Avenue Home and School Association Committee on the operation of the junior high school system in Westmount and that a letter be sent to the School Commissioners for the municipality of the City of Westmount urging that action be taken to implement the suggestions contained in the report of the Roslyn Avenue Home and School Association."

Mrs. William Dawson, president, occupied the chair and James Nalentine thanked Mrs. D. A. Bailie, and Herbert Gilbert, C.A., who were members of the committee that had prepared the report and who were present at the meeting.

The guest speaker, Mrs. T. B. Hughes, whose topic was, "Practical Applications of Parent Education," pointed out that parent education may help parents to meet the fundamental needs of their children. It was desired that they should develop physically, emotionally and intellectually. She stated that two very important things to a child are the feeling of security which comes from the knowledge that he is loved and wanted; and the need for self-expression.

Discipline is also important, she stated, and should be an educational force. By discipline, the speaker referred to those regulations imposed on children because they are too young to make laws for themselves. Freedom should go hand-in-hand with discipline but Mrs. Hughes pointed out that there is a great difference between freedom and licence. Freedom should teach a child responsibility for his actions, and self-reliance.

The speaker was thanked by Mrs. C. S. Smith.

Changes In Sport Noted By Rotary Club Speaker

Sports today are far removed from what they were 50 years ago. Wm. Northey, former manager of the Montreal Arena and later of the Forum, told the Westmount Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon meeting in Victoria Hall yesterday. "In those days a player had to supply all of his own equipment, pay club fees, and if fortunate enough to be picked to play on a team in and out-of-town match, pay his own expenses on the trip." Because of the expense few out-of-town games were played, then, he stated.

"Most of us found it necessary to do odd jobs outside school hours in order to partake in sport and parents were none too keen for their boys to play games; they were more interested in having their snow shovelled and the wood box kept full," the speaker said.

Mr. Northey made special reference to the changed status in society that a professional sportsman now receives. "Fifty years ago the professional in sport, unless he was a golf or cricket expert, was looked upon as an undesirable in the social life of the country. However, in the early part of the present century, university undergraduates began to use their athletic ability to help them get through college and today, even graduates are capitalizing on their athletic ability to help them become established in their chosen professions," he continued.

"Do not discourage the boy who has the ambition to become a top notch player in any branch of sport so long as he wants to use his athletic ability to further his interest in either education or business. The danger of sport lies in the adulation of the fair sex for the young man who, in his prowess, obtains widespread publicity and basks in the sunshine of success without a thought for the future. Give the ambitious young athlete all the encouragement possible with lots of sound advice and guidance, and if he has a fair amount of brains, good balance, and both feet on the ground, he will go a long way in both business and sport," Mr. Northey declared.

Tracing the history of sport from when he first entered the field previous to the dawn of the 19th century, the speaker told the gathering that his promotional efforts dated back to 1898 when the late Ed. Shappard headed a group which organized the Montreal Arena Company and erected the first ice rink to be devoted exclusively to hockey.

His next venture came, when Sir Montagu Allan and a group of sportsmen appointed him secretary of the Montreal Jockey Club.

In the fall of 1905, he related, senior amateur hockey in the Province of Quebec and Eastern Ontario had reached a critical stage. There were no less than 14 clubs playing so-called senior hockey with only about half enough players for the teams. Following a meeting of the leagues operating at that time a second session was called and at this it was decided that the following squads would compose the new loop: M.A.A.A., Victoria, Shamrocks, Wanderers, Ottawa and Quebec. The new league was an immediate success and produced keen competition.

Two years later, the speaker recalled, a purely professional league was formed with teams from Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa and Toronto.

"It was at this time when amateur hockey was at a very low ebb that I asked Sir Montagu Allan to donate a trophy to be competed for by amateurs throughout the Dominion. "In 1914, Claude Robinson, of Winnipeg, the trophy's Trustee's western representative, suggested the formation of an Association to be composed of the various Provincial hockey bodies and in November of that year, we met in Ottawa to form the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association."

Mr. Northey told his audience the inside story of an episode that was to make a striking change in hockey. At a meeting of the professional league, he proposed to those present that the number of players on a team be reduced from seven to six. The proposal was received with enthusiasm by all but one of those present, Sam. Litchenheim, of the Wanderers. Finally, however, Litchenheim was won over when the resultant economy that would be effected by the move was made clear to him.

Mr. Northey was introduced by Cecil Medlar and thanked by Stan. Nelson. The president, J. DeLalaine occupied the chair.

LOITERER GETS 2-MONTH TERM

A man who gave his name as Joseph Gerrier, 53, no permanent address, was sentenced to a fine of $40 and costs of $4.20 with the option of two months in jail, when he appeared before Recorder Charles A. Hale in the Westmount Police Court on Monday on a charge of loitering.

The accused, only loiterer to appear before the local court this week, had failed to take warning from a previous conviction when he appeared before the same recorder about three months ago. He was arrested in the present case, by Sergeant Beaton and Constable Nelson on Lansdowne avenue last week.

GUEST SPEAKER
 Dr. Samuel Bension, of Haifa, Palestine, will be the guest speaker at the Temple Emanu-El College of Jewish Studies, on Monday evening at 9:15 o'clock. He will have as his topic, "Present Conditions in Eretz Yisrael."

WHITE AND ABBOTT OPEN COMMITTEE ROOMS; NO THIRD ENTRY EXPECTED

Veteran Member for Westmount to Make Initial Radio Speech on Tuesday — Liberal Standard-Bearer Addressed Constituents Last Monday — Slight Possibility Seen of Straight Independent Entering Field

The two official party candidates in the St. Antoine—Westmount division in the forthcoming Federal election, R. S. White, Conservative, and D. C. Abbott, K.C., Liberal, are today conferring with their organizers in final preparation for the election campaign which will launch following nomination day on Monday.

Mr. White, dean of the House of Commons and veteran Westmount Federal representative, opened his committee rooms this week the main one in Victoria Hall and others at 1813 St. Catherine street and 2430 St. Antoine street.

He stated last night that he would make a radio address to his constituents over station C.F.C.F. from 10 to 10:15 o'clock on Tuesday evening.

The Liberal Standard-Bearer, D.C. Abbott, K.C., noted Montreal lawyer, already presented his stand to the division's electorate in a radio address on Monday evening. He has opened committee rooms at 1620 St. Catherine street at the corner of Guy, 4779 Sherbrooke street near Grosvenor, and 1835 St. Antoine street.

With the closing of nominations at 2 p.m. Monday, but a few days away, there second little likelihood yesterday that a third candidate would enter the field. The C. C. F. Party made a statement that it had placed an official candidate in the division but at the present time illness is preventing him from running.

The possibility of strictly independent candidates entering the contest seems as remote as it did a week ago and usually well-informed quarters are of the opinion that White and Abbott will have the field to themselves.

At the close of nominations on Monday, it is predicted, constituents of the combined St. Antoine—Westmount riding will have to choose between either the official Conservative or the official Liberal candidate when they go to the polls on election day.

SQUARE CIRCLE CLUB WILL PRESENT REVUE

"The Blackout Revue," the sixth annual minstrel show of the Senior Square Circle Club of Calvary United Church, will be held tonight and tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock in the church hall.

Tonight's performance will be given over to the Toronto Scottish Regiment. Tomorrow night's show will be for the general public.

Since the beginning of December, when the Square Circle Club decided to hold their annual show, practices have been held twice a week till now the show has been rounded up into one of the best the club has ever produced. Songs of the deep south so important to the negro, have been woven into the show, alongside the new war songs of the Canadian soldier.

Besides the "Blackout Revue," the club is presenting several outstanding artists, and skits built around many of the present day song hits.

Westmount 'Army' Drive Objective Set At $15,000

In an appeal to Westmount Citizens to carry the quota asked for in that municipality "over the top," Mrs. Harold Mills, district chairman of the Salvation Army War and Home Services' Dominion-wide campaign for $1,996,690, said today that the objective for Westmount is $15,000.

"This year," she said, "the Salvation Army in Canada will spend more than a million dollars in its immediate war and home service program. It is for this purpose it is seeking $1,996,690 from the people at large. Sixty per cent of the money will be spent on war services, the remaining 40 on home services—the latter will replace the regular annual national appeals."

Mrs. Mills described the welfare service of the Army as being fourfold: 1. The Red Shield huts and service overseas with the Canadian troops; 2. Auxiliary services in Canadian Assembly Camps in England or elsewhere; 3. Service Centres in camps and cities throughout the Dominion; and 4. The Home Service activities of the Salvation Army.

"The Red Shield War and Home service programme of the Salvation Army includes three divisions," she said, "physical, recreational and educational, and moral and spiritual. These include the following services, Army chaplains who will be attached to the Canadian troops and will hold regular services and will be available as religious counsellors; recreation centres, (Continued on Page 2)

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 1940

THESE GERMANS KNOW

With the British and French navies intercepting vessels and checking them for contraband and currency bound for Germany, many Nazi sympathizers have been trying to evade the search by posting letters air mail. But there again they have been checkmated, as the United States clipper planes stopped at Bermuda, a British possession, and funds being sent were picked up there. It is now announced that this stop will be eliminated on eastbound flights.

In many cases, German-born Americans have been sending money home for years, to help out their kin. They know that the need of these people is now greater than in peacetime. They have no assurance, of course, that the Nazi authorities would not grab the funds.

Herr Hitler can disparage Britain's naval and other power. But these Germans who are having their mails intercepted by the British will be hard to convince. They have first-hand knowledge of the far-flung might of Britain. They will find Nazi propaganda less satisfying than coin in their pockets.

LOVE AND WAR

Not the least of the effects of wartime conditions on the peoples of combatant European nations is the manner in which they handicap, or help, the ancient art of love-making.

An angry mother of Hampstead, England, complains to authorities about the manner in which a certain air raid warden interferes with the love trysts of her daughter. The girl and her sweetheart, for want of a better place, presumably, have been using an air raid shelter as a place to spoon. What does the noisy official do but come along and flash a light on them!

Now every young man and woman knows, or should know, that nothing is more inopportune, to say nothing of embarrassing, than to have a light turned on in the midst of a love scene. Such a rude interruption of a tryst can spoil a whole evening. Repeated interference, such as that spoken of by the Hampstead mother, becomes simply unbearable.

In fairness, however, it must be said that this mother has a different complaint from most British mothers. Theirs is that wartime conditions, especially the blackouts, are too conducive to love-making. While the one is angry about the lack of opportunity for her daughter to court her young man, the others are worried about an excess of opportunities for their girls.

OTTO ACTIVE

With everybody else trying to get into the European scene, it is only natural to learn that Archduke Otto is planning to visit the United States to enlist support. He is the son of the late Emperor Carl of Austria-Hungary. When his father was deposed in the dying stages of the last war, the Hapsburg family fled from Austria. Empress Zita has had her tribulations trying to finance, but she has always clung to the thought that her son, Otto would regain some crown some day.

Otto wants to be King of Austria. No doubt, he figures that he may come into some sort of favor, if the Nazi power is crushed in Europe. And, if he can raise cash and make friends in the United States, he will be doing about as much as possible at the moment for his cause.

As far as Otto is concerned, his only chance to get anywhere is by some trick of fate making him a suitable puppet to place on a throne in an effort to remake Europe.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

The Editor,
The Westmount Examiner,
Dear Sir:—

My attention has been drawn to a comment in your columns with regard to the nomination of a candidate to represent C.C.F. in St. Antoine-Westmount Division.

Permit me to remind you that a candidate was nominated by us for this constituency some months ago, and that a report of the convention appeared in your columns at that time. Let me add that no one was authorized to hint "unofficially" that we saw "little use in placing a candidate in this division."

There is a candidate in this division, who was regularly nominated by the C.C.F., but unfortunately he is at the moment very ill, recovering from a serious operation, and we shall not know for a week or two yet whether he will be well enough to make the campaign.

The proof that we nominated in the fact that the electoral list in good faith is a list of names all prepared and that we have 5,000 circulars ready for distribution.

You are at liberty to disclose these facts to your readers.
Yours very truly,
The President.

The Editor,
The Westmount Examiner,

Dear Sir:—
I notice an article in the issue of your paper dated 15th inst. headed "Cancel activities of Fron-teens, personal services, reading rooms, writing rooms, sanctuaries, service men's hostels, hospital visits and educational programs.

"The Army's present campaign is a worthy cause," Mrs. Mills said. "It has carried itself with distinction through every major, and minor, catastrophe within the past half a century and more, and, besides that, it has had the time to devote itself in no glowing fashion to the needs of the people in peace time."

In recounting some of the activities of the Salvation Army during the past great war, Mrs. Mills pointed out that it had a proud record. "The Army provides 77 hostels for use of soldiers and sailors; took over 4,000 beds in hotels close to landing points for soldiers going to and from the front; placed 107 buildings at the disposal of the government for war relief purposes; built 215 huts at camps for religious and social gatherings, and comforts for men serving; established 500 reading rooms for troops, and maintained 48 ambulances in which were conveyed 250,000 wounded soldiers from the battlefields."

The following are officers of the Army's advisory board, Province of Quebec: Sir Edward Beatty, G.B.E., K.C., L.L.D., chairman; Arthur B. Purvis, vice-chairman; Col. Allan A. Magee, D.S.O., E.D., hon. secretary; Brig. Peter Forbes, secretary; Lt. Col. Gilbert Best, divisional commander; and Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, John Bassett, G. H. Duggan, J. W. McConnell, Douglas Bremner, E. P. Flintoft, K.C., R. H. McMaster, Hon. J. A. Matheson, K.C., Alexander McA. Murphy, A. J. Nesbitt, John C. Newman, Hon. Gordon Scott, C.A., F. N. Southam, Morris W. Wilson, Arthur B. Woods, B.A., F.I.A., Campaign director is Lionel E. Brittle.

Mrs. Mills' team captains for Westmount are: Mrs. C. W. Clark, R. N. Macauley, Mrs. Charles Shearer, Mrs. D. Bremner, Mrs. P. E. Fraser and Mrs. D. Whittall.

WESTMOUNT BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service in Westmount Baptist Church, Rev. J. A. Johnston will speak of "God in Every-Day Things". "Ornan saw an Angel; now Ornan was threshing wheat". Men have found God in a Potter's Shop, in a Carpenter's Shop, on a Threshing Floor and in a Ploughed Field. Christ is revealed to us in the ordinary, commonplace things of everyday life.

In the evening Mr. Johnston will speak of "Pearls of Great Price" as revealed in a Love that will not let go, a Joy that comes through pain and a Cross that lifts up heads. At 9 p.m., the Choir of the First Baptist Church under the direction of Mr. Phillips Motley, Mus. Bac., will present a recital of sacred music. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Ontario At Peak Of Gold Output

Ontario gold mines achieved a record year in gold production for 1939 with an output valued at $109,508,979 from gold mines only, an increase of more than 10 per cent over 1938.

According to recent figures of the Ontario Department of Mines, an 11.56 per cent increase in tonnage milled during 1939, and a 6.85 per cent increase in ounces recovered were recorded. When gold production from the nickel-copper industry is added, it was explained that the total value of bullion produced for 1939 will probably reach $112,500,000.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Some have suggested a high tariff against imported oil, but Canadian consumers pay a high enough price as it is for their gasoline and fuel oil! It has also been suggested that the government subsidize Alberta's oil industry, but this too would not be acceptable to the consumer, as the subsidy would come out of his pocket in the form of taxes. The McGillivray Commission, a Royal Commission recently appointed to investigate matters in the Alberta oil industry, may help things a lot. Already the Commission had decided that Imperial Oil Company, which controls almost half a field and which owns the only pipeline system for transporting oil to the refineries in Calgary, has been charging too high a transportation rate to the other companies. The rate has accordingly been cut from 15 cents a barrel to nine and a half cents a barrel. In addition the pipeline system is to be placed under the supervision of the Provincial Public Utilities Commission. Further investigations of the McGillivray Commission may reveal points where other excessive costs may legitimately be reduced. If so the chances for Turner Valley products to compete with foreign imports in the East and on the west coast will in all probability be considerably enhanced. Moreover the war situation will in all reason make British consumers more determined to get the oil from the Valley even at higher prices, rather than depend on a foreign source of supply which might at any time be suddenly cut off. The Canadian people, too, will be more willing to make sacrifices in the form of taxes or subsidies if they feel that by so doing they will aid Britain in her hour of need.—From "In Turner Valley" by L. H. Garstin in "The Dalhousie Review."

At a meeting of the leading social scientists of the U.S.A. they looked on a society undergoing breath-taking changes and declared one thing must not change, that is, American democracy. Senator Murray (Dem. Montana) said in part "When the lamps of civilization are burning low in Europe and other parts of the world, we must make our democracy strong, efficient and effective." He deplored the fact that sickness and disability are taking a toll of about $10,000,000,000 a year from the people of the U.S.A.

"The industrialized farms of the Pacific and Atlantic coast states should be the scenes of the beginning of the union ship in American agriculture."—Dr. Lowry Nelson, University of Minnesota.

"The Kiwanis club was organized in Detroit, January, 1915. Its original motto was "We Trade." Later the motto was changed to "We Build." It and similar service clubs are building while carrying on their good work amongst under-privileged children and giving leadership in civic welfare."

The Editor of the Sydney Post Record's note: Shirley Temple today joins the staff of the Sydney Post-Record to write her own version of the future she faces in common with every other boy and girl in America—the business of growing up. It is Shirley's own work—her parents won't let a secretary so much as autograph a photograph in her behalf, as is the practice with other stars. Shirley now is at work on another picture to follow "The Bluebird."

"I don't think it matters very much whether I want to grow up or not. Because nobody can help growing up. It just happens. And it's not anything to get excited about one way or another. I want to grow up, because I didn't ever get any bigger there would be something wrong with me. The nice thing about growing up is that you don't feel it. Somebody once told me about growing pains, but I've never felt any. All that happens is that one morning you try to put on your shoes and

BRIGADE UNIT WILL ENTER YOUTH DISPLAY

Annual Event Taking Place Tomorrow Night in King's School Auditorium

The First Westmount Company of the Boys Brigade will enter the annual youth display taking place tomorrow evening in King's School auditorium under the sponsorship of the Westmount Hobby Show. The boys will give a fifteen minute display of a part of their work, led by their bugle and drum band. As their portion of the display does not come on until 9 p.m., the boys will assemble at 7.30 in their regular quarters, following which they will march over to King's School.

The Life Boys, juvenile section of the Brigade, will also give a display of their recreational program, under the leadership of Rodgie B. Stewart, Warrant Officer in charge, assisted by Arthur C. Weaver.

Preparation is being made for the Spring Aquatic meet to take place within the next week or two. On this occasion boys will compete for the company challenge medal for aquatics, presented recently to the unit by an interested supporter who would rather remain anonymous. Captain Richardson has a very active program for the occasion and hopes every boy who can swim will enter.

Swimming tests for badges and certificates will be taken very shortly and from last year's results, there should be a record year of awards in The First Company.

Educational trips have been planned for the Easter holidays as well as the ensuing weeks, including cycle jaunts into the open country.

New Type Of Campaign UnderWay In Montreal

Committing themselves to practise the principles they will expect of their elected Members, thousands of electors, on the island of Montreal, and in other parts of Canada, have been signing an unusual document during the past ten days. Conceived and produced in the first place by workers in Moral Re-education, the document described as "A Message to our Candidates" has been enthusiastically taken up by business, fraternal, service and labour organizations.

The message, printed in French and English, is concerned with the spirit with which Canadians participate in the election campaign, rather than with political issues. The text reads:

A Message to our Candidates An election is a great heritage of democracy. This election especially, gives us all a chance to serve Canada. Our country must emerge from the campaign stronger and more united, better able to succeed in our task ahead.

It is the duty of every Canadian to put into the campaign a spirit free from prejudice and thought of personal gain. We must keep alive the spirit we all felt during the visit of our King and Queen.

We therefore Determine: 1. To use every opportunity to create the right spirit throughout the campaign, without destructive and irresponsible criticism.

SMART VEILS ON SPRING HATS
Nine out of ten of Hollywood's new spring hats have veils. Pert Jane Wyman's new topper (left), has a nose-length veil of navy blue fishnet. The hat is a cushion-brimmed sailor of natural straw braid, made tall with a gay red cockade of pinked-edge grosgrain ribbon. Lucille Fairbanks (right) makes hat news by wearing a Panama in February. A tailored bow finishes it at back, and the position crown is draped with coarse black fishnet.

MR. SMITH GREATEST OF CAPRA'S FILMS

"Mr. Smith Goes to Washington", Frank Capra's latest Columbia hit, co-starring Jean Arthur and James Stewart, on the Snowdon screen today until Saturday.

Hailed from coast to coast as Capra's most brilliant screen achievement, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" is justifying that acclaim by shattering all records of previous Capra successes, which include "It Happened One Night," "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" and "You Can't Take It With You," adjudged the best pictures of their respective years.

A gay, exciting, warmly emotional comedy drama, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" is enacted by a truly outstanding cast. In addition to Miss Arthur and Stewart who share the romantic leads, Edward Arnold, Thomas Mitchell, Claude Rains, Guy Kibbee, Ruth Donnelly, Eugene Palette, Beulah Bondi, Harry Carey and H. B. Warner play prominent roles.

STUDIO NIGHT WAS GREATLY ENJOYED

The Carrie Biggers School of Dancing Studio evening was held on Friday evening for parents and friends of the pupils with about eighty persons in attendance. Spring flowers, roses and carnations were used to decorate the rooms.

Pupils gave a very fine exhibition of their work including tap, toe, acrobatic, ballroom and highland dancing.

Miss Biggers announced that the Spring opening would take place on Wednesday, March 13, classes and private tuition will be given in all styles of dancing. Singing and elocution for children and adults will also be included. Refreshments were served by the older pupils.

The school's dance recital will take place in Victoria Hall, on Friday, May 31. Another studio evening will be held on April 5th.

GAY NEW COMEDY!

"The Amazing Mr. Williams" which co-stars Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell now playing at the York United Theatre, presents the former as a debonair detective so busy solving crimes that he can never find time to marry the girl!

Charles Laughton Scores In "Hunchback" Role

Probably the most difficult role essayed by a film player is that of Quasimodo, the frightful hero of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame", currently depicted by Charles Laughton in RKO Radio's moving, spectacular version of the Victor Hugo classic, opening

Saturday at the York United Theatre for a four day engagement. Laughton receives his greatest opportunity to reveal new facets of his artistry. Although his versatility has been established in such outstanding screen achievements as "The Private Life of Henry VIII," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," "Rugles of Red Cap" and "Mutiny on the Bounty", his current interpretation is hailed as his finest work.

As Quasimodo, the heroic bell-ringer of Notre Dame, Laughton breathes life and pathos into the extremely difficult part, evoking heart-tugging sympathy for the pitiable outcast. Despite the actor's shocking make-up, his superb artistry makes the immortal Quasimodo human and deeply appealing.

Nineteen-year-old Maureen O'Hara, a brilliant newcomer uncovered by Laughton, is seen as Esmeralda, the fiery gypsy girl whose persecution by the King's High Justice causes the hunchback to defend her at the sacrifice of his own life.

Laid in fifteenth century Paris, historic sections of which have been reproduced on a mammoth scale, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" features a cast of thousands, headed by such notable players as Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Thomas Mitchell, Edmund O'Brien, Alan Marshal and Walter Hampden.

BETTE DAVIS' AIM NOT UP TO HER ACTING

On the "The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex" set at Warner's Bette Davis was enacted a dramatic scene in the film, now playing at the Monkland United. Miss Davis, as Queen Elizabeth, supposedly is in a fine rage, a jealous passion because Olivia de Havilland, as Lary Pen-

Local Girl Has Important Role In "Georgiantics '40"

Instructing the five choruses included in "Georgiantics '40", the second annual musical revue of Sir George Williams College to be presented at the N. D. G. Community Hall on March 15, 16, is Eva Watt, young Westmount girl. Filling the spot Miss Watt had last year in the first edition of the production was a comparatively easy task. This season, however, she is leading five different choruses with Russia, Arabia, the southern part of the United States and South America as background and this has caused her various routines to be complicated no end.

The musical scores composed by Harold Potter and arranged by him, are especially designed for the variety of settings incorporated into the revue. Eleven new songs, and two repeats will be heard during the course of the program by the orchestra which is entirely made up of students of St. George Williams.

Hard at work in the College drama workshop are the members of the student stage crew, headed by stage manager Olaf Meyer. Mr. Meyer reports that production settings are almost completed, and that when the show bows at the Community Hall, the lighting effects will be elope Gray, and Nanette Fabares, as Mistress Margaret Radcliffe, have taunted her in song about her fading charms.

Bette happens to glance into a mirror. She studies herself for a moment, then smashes the thing into a thousand pieces with a smaller hand mirror. Then she flings herself around her chamber, hurling a goblet at another mirror and a vase at another.

"Take them down!" she screams as she throws the vase at the last mirror.

Unfortunately, however, the brilliant actress misses her last target and the scene has to be retaken. Again she tries and again she misses, this time the second mirror, and the third.

Michael Curtiz, the director, chuckles. "All boys", he observes, "should select as wives girls what can't throw any better than you, Bette."

such that the far-flung scenes will be reflected in all their natural splendor.

At Long Last
The door of the chief's office swung open and a tall man lounged in. "Well, old boy," he said patting the chief on the back, "how are you after all this time?"

The other turned round and stared at him.

"I'm a self-made man," continued the stranger. "You don't remember me, do you? But 23 years ago, when I was poor and ragged and out of work, you gave me a message to carry."

The chief found his tongue at last. "Well," he snapped, "where's the answer?"

The screen version is a faithful reproduction of the book, which was posthumously awarded the James Tait Black Memorial Prize, one of the most highly valued literary awards. The book was first published in March, 1936, and was a Book Society Choice and a best seller of the year, not only in this country but in America. It has been translated into several languages.

RED WINGS HAND GRADS THIRD DEFEAT WITH 4-2 WIN; GRAHAM, LOSER'S DEFENCEMAN, STARS

Graham, Allowed Off From Military Duties for Day, Stayed on Ice Throughout Game — Red Wings Had Superiority in Weight — Dognieux Brothers Scored Two Quick Goals Early in Game

The colourful Westmount Red Wings handed the Boys Brigade Grads their third defeat in a long winter's campaigning last week by taking a hard fought game at Westmount Park by the score of 4-2.

Highlight of the game was the return of Mac Graham, brilliant defenceman of the Grads who was freed of military duties for the night. With Bill Blair missing as a result of eye injuries in a steam-pipe explosion, Graham carried out the defence duties for sixty minutes with aid of Jim Patterson—erstwhile forward.

The Red Wings made good advantage of a superiority in weight, however, and at the fifteen minute mark the Grads overburdened defence cracked wide open and two goals were scored by the Dognieux brothers. Two minutes later, she let go a shot that bounced off Lambs pads into the net. This was bad luck as nine times in ten the puck would have cleared to the front.

The bad luck continued into the third period and a minute after the start Shea again picked up the puck at the blue line and drove a shot through a maze of players to make it 4-0.

The Grads took themselves in hand, however and though the Red Wings missed a few scoring chances the Grads goal was never in much danger in the last two periods.

Five minutes after Shea's second goal J. Patterson led a rush down the ice and laid a beautiful pass to Len Childs who bounced a shot off of Clark's pads that C. Childs picked up at the penalty shot line and drove in to break the goose-egg.

Grads scored a penalty. Undaunted, however, he pressed to the attack and Len Childs scored on a pass from Bowman. From then on Red Wings gave a great display of backchecking that he held the Grads at Bay.

Both teams passed up several scoring chances and had the breaks been properly capitalized on the score might have been either much greater or just as easily reversed.

It was the second defeat in a week for the Grads, the reason, however, being that as these are merely exhibition games the Grads are taking the opportunity to try out a group of juniors and reserve players at the expense of regular players, the idea being to form some estimate of the material available to replace some of the star players who may make the jump next season to the central team which will be formed if the war should be over.

This central team will play either junior or intermediate hockey according to circumstances, and will be supported by Grads teams operating in Verdun, the Northeast and the West-End. These teams will be modeled by along the lines of the successful experiment carried out by the Westmount B. B. Grads this year.

The Grads teams will be in turn be supported by the Boys Brigade teams in their districts—thus making a complete chain of players. It is expected a system such as this could create a prominent place for itself in the Montreal Hockey set-up. The central team would probably contain at least seven West end Grads at least four of which would come from the Westmount area which is cradling the movement.

The Westmount Grads themselves will play in an inter-municipal league embodying two Westmount and two N. D. G. teams, next season. Plans for this league are already underway.

Interscholastic Track Meet At McGill

The Dominion Interscholastic Track Championships are being conducted by McGill University on Saturday, June 1st, 1940, in conjunction with the 20th annual McGill Interscholastic Track Meet.

This will be the eighth time this event has been run on the McGill track where it was inaugurated in the spring of 1923. The last occasion on which it was held here was in 1936.

The McGill Interscholastic meet, which has long been acknowledged to be the finest schoolboy meet held in Eastern Canada, annually attracts some 400 competitors and, with the added attraction of the Dominion Championships, an even larger entry is expected.

During the next few months thousands of schoolboys will be training faithfully for the honour of representing their schools at this schoolboy classic.

Entry blanks will be forwarded to schools in the near future but in the meantime any further information may be received from Mr. F. M. Van Wagner, Track Coach, McGill Union.

Washington Club Roster Out First

The first harbinger of spring—the Washington Senators' 1940 baseball roster—came out some time ago but listed no new talent which promised better times for last year's sixth place outfit.

It was also announced that the Senators once more would be one of the first big league teams to start training. The first squad of rookies will arrive in Orlando, Fla., Feb. 15, and the second group, composed mostly of veterans, will get there March 1. Last year President Clark Griffith ordered training started Feb. 1.

Fifteen pitchers—two Cubans, a Lithuanian from Canada, a Venezuelan and 11 natives of the United States—will try to make the hurling staff.

Gerald Walker, secured in a trade, is the only sure starter in the outfield. If George Washington Case can learn to go back for a fly, he will hold down right field. Four rookies and the veteran Sammy West, will struggle for the other spot.

Thirteen infielders will be tried out, with the biggest gap still yawning at first base.

Four catchers will go to camp—headed by the veteran Rick Ferrell.

A new coach—Bennie Bengough who once caught for the Yankees—has billing in the roster.

The rookie pitcher with the best record is Sid Hudson, a 6-foot-four-inch right hander, who won 24 games and lost four with Sanford, Fla., last year.

LEAFS DEFEAT RED WINGS BY SCORE OF 2-1

Maple Leafs, in exceptionally good form, defeated Red Wings 2-1 in a fast-moving exhibition game at Westmount Park rinks over the weekend.

The losers opened the scoring with K. Shea sending home the puck during a scramble in front of the net. Maple Leafs, however, tied the score within a few minutes, Black getting in a goal on assists from Romney and Mann.

From then on the game saw-sawed back and forth, excellent work on the part of Clark, goaling for Maple Leafs, and Kennedy, in the net for Red Wings, prevented plenty of good shots from scoring.

The deciding goal was scored when Baune, picking up a loose puck in centre ice, passed it to Mann, who sent it in with a difficult shot.

The match was exceptionally clean, neither squad getting penalties.

School Credit Proposed For Study Of Bible

Junior and senior high school credits for Sunday school or Bible school attendance—this answer to the demand for Christian training for America's Bible-school youth, was proposed to the Board of Education by Willis A. Sutton, Superintendent of Schools.

Opposition flared almost immediately from certain groups because the proposal implies that Bible school or Sunday school teachers must come up to standards that public school teachers handling pupils of the same age have to meet. For it is argued that such a qualification would give a decided advantage to denominations having trained organizations in charge of their religious instruction, and would bar from credit the work of many satisfactory denominational teachers having no status under public school requirements.

Others interested in the question aver that the chief problem is in a possible breakdown of barriers now separating church and state. They see possible development of all sorts of detailed relationships, innocent in themselves, which could eventually bind church and state and bring about a perilous tangle of finances and administration.

Dr. Sutton believes that a move such as he proposes would be a militant force against criminality among the young. His plan would allow as much as two full credits out of the required 14, for Bible study under authorized instructors. The President of the Atlanta School Board, Ed. S. Cook, has announced that he will appoint a committee to study the question.

"A New World Order" Is Sermon Topic At Verdun

Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L., spoke on "A New World Order" at the morning service of the First Presbyterian Church, Verdun.

The Minister, Rev. Dr. A. M. Hill, conducted the devotional service and, in introducing the speaker, referred to his great and helpful interest in many good causes, and in particular, his advocacy, in many addresses and articles in Canada and the United States, of a social order founded upon justice to all—a Christian economic system based on the Sermon on the Mount in action.

Mr. Ross discussed and quoted striking passages from the opinions of outstanding military leaders, statesmen, journalists, business leaders and economists, all of them giving very convincing facts upon which they base their beliefs that the Allies will undoubtedly be victorious, whether the war is of long or short duration.

He praised the efforts being made to bring about peace, even though at the moment there appears to be little hope of success until the war is ended.

Our faulty economic system was blamed in part for the breeding of the world wars which we oppose for so many convincing reasons given, and it was suggested that the ceaseless economic conflict (leading eventually to war) which apparently is inevitable under a system geared to a basis of scarcity in the midst of a potential abundance, should be ended, not only because of sympathy for the millions in want—that incredible paradox of poverty and unemployment in the midst of plenty—but because it would be to the advantage of rich and poor alike, because it would pay everyone well.

Taxation
The crushing burden of taxation for unemployment was discussed and held to be a glaring evidence of the weakness of a system based principally on the profit and scarcity incentive, which go hand in hand. The unemployed could make use of the idle machines and equipment and produce enough for their own purposes (many are doing it in California with aid from the State, such aid being in small amount compared to relief taxation) but this would be undesirable competition with those who have for sale the things needed by the unemployed. We should not blame those who object if such production interferes with their business. Instead of blaming anyone we should do what we can to bring about the adoption by agreement, and because it will pay well, of an economic system under which all who are willing to do their share of the useful and necessary work of the world, would easily have plenty, with the help of our many labor saving—to often labor-eliminating—machines.

As an illustration of the changing point of view of some wealthy and influential persons in the U. S. A., Mr. Ross quoted from the tenth anniversary number of "FORTUNE" the one-dollar-a-copy monthly issued at New York and often referred to as the "Millionaire's Monthly".

"FORTUNE" placed before its readers some reasons why the U. S. A. has the paradox of poverty in the midst of plenty and 10,000,000 unemployed while their industrial machines are producing more than at any other time in the history of their country. It seeks to point the way out of this strange situation.

LARGE SUMS CONTRIBUTED AS RESULT OF CARNIVALS STAGED BY SERVICE CLUBS

During the past few years the Montreal Children's Hospital and the Children's Memorial Hospital have received over $55,000 from the proceeds of Ice Carnivals sponsored by the Rotary Club of Westmount and the Winter Club of Montreal.

This statement was made today by J. A. DeLalanne, president of the Rotary Club of Westmount, in discussing plans for this year's joint Carnival now being arranged by the two clubs for April 5 and 6 at the Forum.

"I feel it is only just that the public, who give us their support should be informed of the extent of the contributions we are able to make through this annual effort. For our part we endeavour to provide each year an Ice Carnival which will stand on its own feet as entertainment.

What few people realize, however, is that from the ticket sale and from the sale of advertising in the program we have been able to make a very substantial net profit which was paid over in cash to these two hospitals for the purchase of necessary equipment and to help defray the cost of the immense amount of free services which must be rendered to suffering children.

"I would like to emphasize particularly that practically all of the work in the production of these Ice Carnivals is done by the members of our clubs themselves. No paid solicitors are employed to sell advertising in our programmes. A large proportion of the ticket sales likewise is made by the members.

At the present time the entire membership of the Rotary Club of Westmount and the Winter Club is working energetically for the success of this year's Carnival to be presented at the Forum on April 5 and 6. It is expected that as a result of the Carnival the usual contribution of between $8 and $12,000 will be made available to help along the magnificent work being done by the Montreal Children's Hospital and the Children's Memorial Hospital."

VICTORY FOR LOCAL SQUAD IMPORTANT

The Westmount Y.M.C.A. intermediate basketball squad, defeated only once during the entire season in regular league fixtures, will play against Sir George Williams College tonight in a match that will decide whether it will vie for the Eastern Canadian championship with Stanstead College at Central "Y" on Saturday.

The local squad, until downed by Sir George Williams earlier this week, has won easy defeat over every squad it has played against since the start of the cage season.

Coached by Hugu Noble, physical director of the district branch, the team is confident of any easy victory tonight. In previous encounters with the same team the local boys beat them 65-40 and 75-33. They were defeated in games played against squads in their class until they met the college boys this week when the opposition came out on the winning end of a 34-27 score.

Thus far this season Westmount has defeated Southwestern by 24-8; Southwestern by 56-32; St. Matthews by 37-30; St. Matthews by 51-28; C.P.R. 28-25; C.P.R. 44-24; Shaps 27-20; Chaps 41-19; McGill 50-30; McDonald 68-15; Sir G. Williams 65-40; Univ. of Montreal 26-22; Sir G. Williams 75-33. In total averages the team is ahead by 54-30.

THE ONLY ISSUE — CANADIAN UNITY TO WIN THE WAR!

There is no other issue. Prime Minister Mackenzie King sounded it with clarion clarity in his opening address to the nation and has repeated it whenever he has spoken. Yet there are forces at work in our country, including public men who place self-interest before Canada, who do not hesitate to attempt to destroy that spirit, in the hope of achieving power. In October, 1939, when the first challenge to a united Canada rang out in Quebec, our people responded with one mighty voice, backing Canada's whole-hearted, voluntary war effort to the hilt. Who were the leaders in that determined drive to preserve true Canadianism? Not those who now create the slogan of "national" Government, that is sure. They were singularly quiet. Today, they number in their ranks men who, as recently as last October, were opposed to participation.

But here is the record, the voluntary effort of our country:

- Canada is united as never before — Every province is heart and soul behind the Empire's war effort this time, thanks to the Administration's truly national policies.
- The First Division, completely equipped, has been sent overseas to a Mother country prepared to receive it.
- The Second Division is recruited, equipped and ready to go over. Plans are carefully prepared for the organization of a Third Division.
- The Great Empire Air Training Scheme—sponsored and mainly financed by Canada, has been launched on a planned and ordered basis.
- Naval Defence for both East and West coasts including Air Force, Mine Sweepers and Convoying, has functioned efficiently since the outbreak of War. Of it, a Senior British Naval Authority has said: "No finer work is being done anywhere by the Royal Navy itself."
- Price Control of all commodities, including such vital necessities as wool and sugar, has been established, with prices pegged low for the poor man. The profiteer is out, and will be kept out—in marked contrast to the free-for-all of the last war.
- Shipping Control and Foreign Exchange Control are firmly established on sound lines and are functioning smoothly and effectively.
- Under Mackenzie King, Canada has been stepped into high gear to win the war. Only a united nation under a trusted leader could have made this possible.

On March 26th show your faith; vote for the candidate supporting Mackenzie King and help make sure there can be no break in Canada's steadfast stand in these critical times.
